

TOWN BUDGET HEARING IS NEXT TUESDAY

N. J. Highway Department Set To Re-Pave Washington Ave.

Will Finish Work
In Early July;
Bids in March 28

Bids for the resurfacing of Washington Avenue throughout Belleville were advertised Tuesday in Trenton, the New Jersey State Highway Department reports. The Belleville Times-News has been working on the town project is scheduled to begin late this spring. Completion date of the project is set for the first week in July 1961.

The project includes resurfacing a two-mile section of Washington Avenue which is State Highway Route Number Seven. The contract advertised for Tuesday calls for placing a new surface of bituminous concrete three inches thick on the highway between Second River in Newark and the Erie Railroad crossing just north of Centre Street in Nutley.

Commissioner Robert Gruhin, director of public works, told The Times-News that he's thankful to Senator Donald C. Fox for his "persistent efforts" in Trenton to get the project underway. "This resurfacing project has been under negotiations since former Commissioner Ken Smith's administration in 1957," Gruhin said.

A Highway Department spokesman told The Times-News that riding qualities of Washington Avenue will be "greatly improved" after its worn asphalt and granite block has been covered with a new continuous blacktop surface.

At present, two strips of asphalt paving, each 21 feet wide, extend along each side of the roadway, with an 18-foot wide strip of granite block between them. Highway Department plans also call for repairing broken sections if the curbing along the outer edges of the 60-foot wide roadway.

A minimum of two lanes will be kept open for traffic at all times while the highway is being resurfaced and widening. Signs and lights, barricades and traffic cones will be posted where needed to alert and guide motorists.

Another future Route 7 project calls for reconstructing a half-mile section of the highway from the Passaic River eastward to Route 37.

A total of 55 working days has been allowed for completing the Newark-Nutley project, which will be 100 per cent financed by State funds. All bids will be reviewed by State Highway engineers before the contract is awarded.

Belleville Times Readies Special Fashion Edition

Two weeks from today will mark the appearance of the first annual "Spring Fashion Edition" of The Belleville Times-News. The special edition will be published Thursday, March 23.

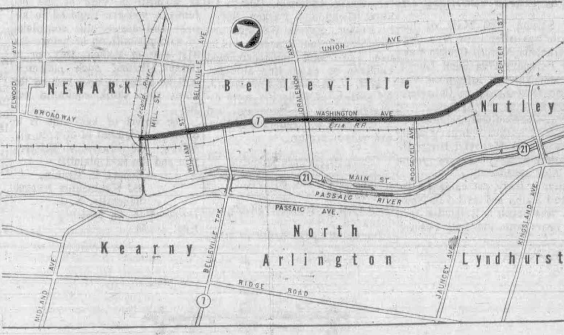

The special edition will feature exciting new fashions for every member of the family, for the home and for the garden. Complete details are available to merchants and business men at the business office of The Times, 246 Washington Avenue. Copy deadline for advertising is March 19.

Additional details appear in a display announcement inside today's Belleville Times.

Kiernan to Ask Purchase Of Building for Police Dept.

Three Belleville Town Hall departments have joined forces in a drive to purchase the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company's unoccupied building at 270 Washington Avenue for new police headquarters.

Commissioner George F. Kiernan, director of parks and public property, reports he will introduce a resolution next Tuesday asking that $300 be set aside as a "finder or down payment" on the telephone building, Kiernan says the building is for sale at a "$48,000 price" and adds that the town has evaluated the structure at $129,000. The public property commissioner was quoted as calling the $48,000 figure, "a good buy."

Kiernan says the suggestion to purchase the telephone building for the police department was first offered by Edward Lister, recreation department coordinator. Kiernan notes that Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan, public safety director, and Charles Tedesco, administrative clerk, studied the telephone building structure and are reported to have concurred in the move to buy the building as a new location for the Belleville Police Department.

AFFECTS HEALTH DEPT.

If the police department should move out of the Town Hall basement, this vacated space would probably be occupied by Commissioner Nuncio Pico's department of public affairs. Pico recently unveiled plans for a $50,000 health center and presumably, if the Town Hall basement were to be emptied, Pico could move his health department in there and eliminate the necessity of building a new center. The Belleville Health Department is now located on the third floor of Town Hall and the long steps of stairs leading to such services as the "baby-keep-well" station often have come under criticism. Recently, a mother carrying her baby fell down a flight of stairs and the incident has amplified the necessity of moving the health department to a more convenient location.

The Town Hall basement opened only a parking lot on the east side and directly onto the Rutgers Street sidewalk on the building's east side. Commissioner Pico has not made himself available to newsmen during the past week and, in fact, has issued not one word release or statements "on any subject" until after next Tuesday's hearing on the town budget.

Jr. High School Would 'Vacate' 34 Rooms Here

A total of 34 rooms would be vacated in Belleville elementary schools if and when seventh and eighth grade classes are moved to a junior high school. A Junior High School has been proposed for the present high school building if a new one is built. But Dr. Frank Durkee, assistant superintendent of schools, notes "that by no means will these 34 rooms be left unoccupied."

Speaking before the Citizens' School Building Advisory Committee, Dr. Durkee reported in detail exactly how the 34 rooms would be utilized by the elementary school program if the seventh and eighth grades ever do move out.

Basically, the "extra rooms" would be used for curriculum improvements, Dr. Durkee reported. He said the 34 rooms are

Dr. Durkee Says New HS Would Help Grade Schools

The Citizens' School Building Advisory Committee has decided to move "full steam ahead" in a drive to urge approval of the high school referendum in May.

After discussing the alternative proposals suggested by opponents to the new high school plan, the citizens' group unanimously agreed that the referendum for a new high school offers the only logical method of correcting the shortcomings of the town's educational system.

Dr. Frank Durkee, assistant superintendent of schools, answered a long list of questions for

Form Group To Support Commission

Will Oppose Move To Change Government

A group is presently organizing a "Citizens' Committee for the Retention of the Commission Form of Government." The new group, which is expected to have the backing of four of Belleville's five commissioners, will open offices at 234 Washington Avenue no later than Monday.

Ralph Risoli, an employee of Commissioner Nuncio Pico's department of public affairs, is playing a key role in the organization of the new group. Risoli is preparing press releases which will be issued next week.

The Times-News learned that Commissioners Pico, Robert Gruhin, Harry Sullivan and Mayor Isadore Padula are reported to be working on a joint statement which would endorse the commission form of government.

Belleville voters will decide a government change proposal at referendum in May. Proposed is a change from the commission to the council-manager form. Four commissioners have, to some degree, said they will work for the retention of the commission form in Belleville. Commissioner Sullivan, however, hasn't really committed himself either in front of or behind the scenes; but Sullivan so far has been grouped with the proponents of the commission form of government.

Kiernan is expected to announce his support for the council manager form although it's known Kiernan personally would like to see a strong mayor-council plan installed here.

Gruhin is definitely in favor of the commission form and makes no secret of it. Padula and Pico have avoided direct questions recently on the government change issue. Pico, in fact, is avoiding all questions on the subject until after next Tuesday's public hearing on the municipal budget.

Would Hike Local Tax Rate To Record $8.64; Seeking $165,500 in Salary Increases

Public hearing on Belleville's proposed municipal budget will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday night. The hearing would hike the local tax rate will be conducted next Tuesday at 8 p.m. before the Board of Commissioners in Town Hall. Salary increases are represented: $165,149.70 of the increases or about 26 tax points.

Departmental breakdown shows the biggest monetary increases for salaries in Harry J. Sullivan's public safety division where an additional $38,963.10 has been included in this year's proposed budget.

Other salary increases total $20,440 in Commissioner Nuncio

Pico's public affairs department; $19,810 in Commissioner Robert Gruhin's parks and public safety department; $16,825.60 in Commissioner Robert Gruhin's public works department, and $10,511 in Mayor Isadore Padula's revenue and finance department.

In addition to the $165,149.70 total for salary increases in Town Hall, Belleville taxpayers are being asked to pay for another $296,659 appropriation pegged simply as "other expenses."

Of the 43 tax points increased over last year, 15 are for municipal purposes, 10 points to cover the school budget and 18 points for Essex County government. If approved by the public hearing Tuesday night, Belleville's new tax rate would be increased from $8.21 to $8.64, according to Mayor Padula.

LIBRARY BOARD

Nearly half of the salary increases in Kiernan's department are charged to the Belleville Public Library where an additional $8,650 has been budgeted. A new position of assistant director at the library has been created for $4,800 a year and the new librarian, Ben E. Glimm is receiving $8,300 as compared to the $4,300 received by the former director. Kiernan, however, does not control the library budget; he must, by law, include in his department's budget any added appropriations demanded by the library's board of directors. The library directors included a total of $8,650 in this year's budget for salary increases.

Public Safety Dept.

The breakdown for salary hikes in Sullivan's public safety department is as follows: police chief, $841; two deputy chiefs, $965; police captain, $948; four police lieutenants, $811 each; five police sergeants, $875 each; 41 patrolmen, $600 each; four patrolmen, $800 each; one patrolman, $734.75; three patrolmen, $730.90 each; two patrolmen, $640.20 each; one patrolman, $555.80 and one special police officer, $500.

FIRE DIVISION

Scheduled to receive pay increases in the fire department and the amount of the raises are, fire chief, $824; three deputy fire chiefs, $565 each; eight fire captains, $516 each; one fire captain, $758; 36 firemen, $600 each; one fireman, $788.65; two firemen, $707.80 each; 12 firemen, $750 each; three firemen, $592.50; and one fireman, $500.

Other increases in the public safety department include $893 for the administrative and municipal clerk, $12 firemen senior traffic maintenance man and the department's biggest raise, $1,092 for one traffic maintenance man.

Signal division raises amount to $1,000 for the police and fire signal-system superintendent and $300 for a signal lineman. Finally, the magistrate is slated for a $600 increase.

Health, Public Affairs

A breakdown of the $20,440 for public affairs salary increments follows: $300 raises are proposed for the senior bookkeeping machine operator, the social case worker, the health officer and the secretary to Commissioner Pico. Four new positions are included in the budget, $5,000 each for two sanitarians, $5,200 for the clinic dentist and $1,040 for a dental assistant.

An additional $3,000 is listed for raises but "has not been applied" according to Town Treasurer McCoy. Pico reportedly has withheld saying who will receive the benefits of this $3,000 item.

The two positions for the dental clinic are new this year because only recently did the Belleville Public Affairs Department assume responsibility for the clinic from the Belleville Foundation.

The two new positions for sanitarians are believed to be in-

Chamber Planning to Mark Cherry Blossom Season; Considering Many Ideas

Belleville Chamber of Commerce has initiated plans for a number of celebrations to publicize "the largest cherry blossom display in the country" which attracts thousands of visitors to Belleville Park each year. William McDowell, chairman of the chamber's celebration, reports the chamber will cooperate with the Essex County Park Commission, Belleville schools and the town library in scheduling a number of events and contests associated with the colorful display.

Photographic, art, poster and essay contests have been planned in association with the cherry blossom celebration. Special sales will be conducted and the chamber is hoping to persuade the Belleville Post Office into using a cancelling stamp on mail to read, "Belleville-The Cherry Blossom Town."

Contest winners will be announced at the chamber's "Cavalade of Progress," a business exposition scheduled at the Belleville Elks Club May 18-20. An outline of the contests is given below and McDowell adds that complete contest information can be obtained from the chamber office, the Belleville Recreation House and local schools. Belleville Chamber of Commerce offices are at 246 Washington Avenue which can be contacted by telephone, PLymouth 9-4866.

Several prizes will be awarded at the "Cavalade of Progress" for photographs of the cherry blossom display. Open to all Belleville amateur photographers regardless of age, the contest will be divided into two classes, one for color pictures and the other for black and white prints. Entries should be submitted at the Recreation House between May 1 and 4.

Three prizes will be awarded in each division of the photographic contest. The awards will consist of plaques with gold-plated bands on which will be engraved the name of the event and the winners' names. The prizes will be presented at the exposition in the Elks Club.

ART CONTEST

The art contest, is open to "any Belleville amateur artist working in any medium, including oils, water colors, pen, ink, pencil and so forth." He said entries will be displayed at the Belleville Public Library May 1-4 and final decisions and awards will be made at the "Cavalade of Progress" in the Elks Club. The presentations will be made

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications which cost only about $1.00 and take about 20 minutes. Instead Ford has replaced conventional grease fittings with a sealed-in lubrication system.

Closes its own self—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes because Ford's Full-flow oil filter gives you filtration through 100,000... trapping more dirt than any other type of filter made.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves automatically.

Guards its own motor—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and shielded to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially protected to resist rust and corrosion, even by penetrating body paints beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own metal—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish and it continues to gleam like new. It saves messy waxing.

The Belleville artist is scheduled to appear in a New York Town Hall program sponsored by the Swiss Government next month. She is a member of Scala Cantorum, New York City's professional chorus. Last summer she appeared as soloist in the Casals Festival in Puerto Rico with the University of Maryland Choir.

The Manhattan Orchestra last Wednesday was led by its permanent conductor, Jonel Rehera, noted Rumanian-born opera and symphony artist. Ellen Ballon, distinguished Canadian pianist, made her first New York appearance in several years at last night's concert.

Miss Circillo's performance of "Three Sonnets from Shakespeare" for soprano and orchestra marked the world premiere of the work. Miss Uehla is a member of the composition faculty at Manhattan School. She composed concerti, orchestral and chamber works and two of her string quartets were performed throughout Europe last summer by Dvorak and Smetana Quartets.

McDowell adds that local business men are being urged to advertise and sell such items as they might designate "cherry blossom specials" during the outdoor display.

ties, for example, would utilize the shop and physical education facilities now provided by the high school building.

Dr. Durkee said the vacating of rooms now used by seventh and eighth grades in the various elementary rooms would permit these facilities to be used for improvements in curriculum.

(A separate story in today's Belleville Times reports in detail how the vacated space in elementary schools would be used. Editor.)

DECREASING ENROLLMENT
Dr. Durkee admitted that while the high school enrollment will, in about three years, begin to decline, it will again reach a point where the high school enrollment will go up.

Some opponents to a new high school building believe the predicted decreasing enrollments in the high school so significant that it is upon this fact that they oppose the expansion program.

Salvatore Calabro, president of the Tax Council, has stated for example, "would a businessman expand his factories simply because he was going to be busy for a couple of years? Of course not, he'd add more shifts to get the work out." Calabro was suggesting that a split - session schedule at the high school would be a more realistic solution to the overcrowding problem than would be the construction of a new building.

TRANSPORTATION

The assistant superintendent was asked about the cost of transportation of junior high students to the present high school building at Holmes Street and Washington Avenue. Dr. Durkee answered by noting the state requires bus transportation for secondary school students only beyond the two and a half mile limit. He said if the present high school were converted to a junior high operation, bus transportation would be mandatory only to the Silver Lake section.

The state will pay 75 per cent of transportation costs beyond the two and a half mile limit, Dr. Durkee observed. "However the board of education could decide to provide school buses for any part of town, but unless it was beyond the two and a half mile radius, the town would have to pay all the transportation expenses without state aid."

Citizens at the meeting agreed that none of the junior high students would have to walk any distances greater than those now being walked by many elementary school pupils.

Many instructors now teaching seventh and eighth grades would move into a junior high school, Dr. Durkee reported. He said any hiring of new teachers would be due only to the expanded curriculum which would be offered to junior high school students. He said the woodworking shops, foreign languages, physical education and guidance programs might require some new teachers.

Dr. Durkee observed that "the actual number of teachers we would have to hire is not great." He said "most of the teachers we would need in the junior high we already have."

Dr. Durkee admitted he was "going out on a limb," but he believes Belleville will benefit from Federal Aid if the high school project is approved. He reported that $48,000 in State Aid could already be counted on and that if a proposed Congressional Bill is approved, as expected, Belleville could get another $79,000 toward the project." Dr. Durkee noted that Belleville's debt service would be $30,000 less next year than it is this year." All this would give the town a head start of $138,000 on the project," he said.

Mickey Gravine

a graduate of Ferris High School, Jersey City, and has studied at Juilliard and Manhattan School of Music.

The local trombonist, who is beginning with the American development of jazz, began his musical career at the age of seven when, under the tutelage of a professor from the University of Vienna, he played his first concert with the 65-piece Pennsylvania Symphony Orchestra.

The popular musician admits he might have never handled a trombone if one weren't given to him by his parents. Mickey attributes much of his success and most of his inspiration to his mother who coached him during his younger years. As all mothers, Mrs. Gravine keeps a close watch on her son's career and she can usually be counted on for more than just an occasional good promotion.

Mickey has also worked for ABC studios. He's recorded albums with Vic Dancone, Carmen McRay, Lena Horne, Peggy Lee and Billy Eckstein, which only begins the long list of singers which could follow.

The musical atmosphere of the Gravine family is not only limited to Mickey, but is shared by his 19-year-old sister, Anita. She's now studying in New York and has appeared at most of the metropolitan New Jersey night spots.
Just as soon as Anita has gained the experience to satisfy her critical family, she will accept one of the many offers she's already been given to go on tour — and then there will be two Gravines from Belleville whose names will be publicized on record album covers.

Seven ages of Childhood

There are seven important ages in the growth of every child. Distinct ages, when big things happen to make the child a little more adult.

Portraits taken at these times can tell the story of a child's growing up, for every detail is there to bring to mind the precocious acts, profound words, loving smiles that sometimes go for gotten in a busy mother's day.

For her future pleasure and for her child's handsome heritage, every mother should keep the seven ages with beautiful, lifelike portraits. Only portrait photography—produced by professional artists—can capture completely the color, the life, the spirit of a child.

Plan now—and budget for—the seven important portraits in your child's life. You'll always be glad you did.

The Public's Right To Know

Last week we printed the municipal budget for the Town of Belleville. It was printed as submitted by Mayor Isadore Padula, Director of Revenue and Finance.

The figures in the budget thus far made public leave much to be desired. A casual reading of the budget will disclose the existence of an item listed as "Other Expenses." The total of "Other Expenses" for all departments is $236,559.00. Our taxpayers have a right to know what these other expenses are. They should have been made public prior to the budget hearing scheduled for Tuesday evening at Town Hall. Only in this way would interested taxpayers have the opportunity to examine the details and prepare themselves intelligently to ask questions at the public hearing on the budget.

Buried in "Other Expenses" for example is the cost to the taxpayers of the annual pilgrimage to the League of Municipalities convention held in Atlantic City. Belleville taxpayers last year picked up a tab of $2,000 plus for this excursion in the field of education undertaken by our overworked staff at town hall. To be fair we must point out to our readers that not all town hall employees were counted in the slush fund, Nutley Commissioners only spent approximately $600 for the same convention. One wonders why Belleville's costs are so much higher. It could be our boys received a little more learning than our neighbors to the north — or it could also be that Nutley Commissioners do not believe taxpayers should be saddled with the expense of bringing their political lieutenants to brave the ocean breezes of the Atlantic City Boardwalk — especially on a Summer's week-end.

Some department heads have not made public information concerning raises provided for individual department employees. The public has a right to this information — and our public officials should not wait for the budget hearing night to make public this information.

Under our present system of operation every road block is thrown in the way of the public's right to know. The system does not make it easy for taxpayers to learn what is taking place under the town hall dome — and how their hard-earned tax money is being spent.

The system was not invented by our present Mayor, Revenue and Finance Director Padula, he inherited it — but — he has done everything in his power to perpetuate an evil one system of government.

Washington Avenue Garbage Is No Laughing Matter

Last week Washington Avenue merchants and residents were treated to an unusual example of Town Hall inefficiency. For many years garbage was regularly collected on Monday and Thursday evenings.

Several weeks ago Washington Avenue tenants received a written notice from Town Hall noting that under the terms of the new garbage contract a change in collection days was negotiated whereby the garbage contractor was to arrange collection of garbage on Tuesday and Friday evenings between the hours of 8:00 p.m. and 12:00 midnight.

For whose convenience the change was negotiated is not quite clear. To our knowledge the merchants and other Washington Avenue tenants were satisfied to continue the Monday-Thursday collections. One can only conclude the change was made for the accommodation of the contractor with complete disregard for the desires and wishes of the taxpaying public.

The Friday night garbage collection routine was an asinine idea as local stores and businesses are open on that evening. The fact that shoppers laden with bundles would be compelled to hurdle over cans filled with garbage appeared to be of no concern to the Town Hall politicians who seem to be more interested in retaining the outmoded commission form of government than they are in attending to the needs of our citizens. Imagine what a beautiful site our garbage-lined Washington Avenue would appear to out-towners visiting our main stem on Friday nights to shop for bargains. Chanel No. 5 at no extra cost you say.

The Town Hall and the garbage collector's planning however got sort of mixed up. On the first scheduled week when garbage was to be picked up on Friday night, to the astonishment and dismay of Washington Avenue tenants the garbage trucks paraded up the avenue on Thursday night — with no explanation to our affected people.

Alright you say — give the boys a break — after all they are entitled to a mistake. O.K. — let's not be too hasty to criticize. Well, let's take a look at the record and see what happened next.

The next day a stranger was spotted walking down Washington Avenue distributing notices to merchants and residents advising one and all that future collections of garbage for Washington Avenue shall henceforth be made as in the past — Monday and Thursday nights. We were shocked when, upon checking with the responsible authorities at Town Hall, no one in authority had any knowledge of the collection-change notice.

Efforts to reach the Commissioner in charge, Nuncio Pico proved fruitless. He was unavailable to the press — and would remain so until next Tuesday night. Nice going, eh?

Maybe the politicians at Town Hall might think this experience a laughing matter. We happen not to think so. Time and again we have stated in this column that Belleville taxpayers are not getting their money's worth for the taxes they pay. Town Hall is trying very hard to prove our point.

For Belleville — A Brighter Side

Last week we published an announcement that the Belleville Chamber of Commerce is planning a three day industrial-business exposition and fair lasting through May 18-20. It is to be held in the local Elks Club Auditorium on Washington Avenue, across from the Peoples Bank Building. Chamber officials label the undertaking a "Cavalcade of Progress."

And so it will be. The first event of its kind, it should attract the support and patronage of every citizen. The merchants and industrial leaders already have demonstrated their keen interest and support. In the past two weeks over 50 per cent of the display booths have been contracted for.

Chamber President Arthur Jackson explains the exhibition is intended to acquaint our citizens with products manufactured and/or sold in our community.

Committee Chairman Douglas Wadsworth reports, "I have never seen such exciting reaction from our merchants to the planned exhibition. Chamber members and non-members alike applaud the efforts of the Chamber for, in the words of one non-merchant, 'trying to do something good for Belleville.' I am confident the show will be a huge success."

We agree with Mr. Wadsworth and compliment President Jackson, Chairman Wadsworth, Executive Director Harry French and their colleagues for providing Belleville with an activity which is of benefit to all. To the Chamber we say, "Continue in your efforts to make a good town better."

Allan Crisp's Lecture Scott Frederick Jackson

Dear Sir:

As one who has spent most of his adult years working and fighting for a better Belleville, it seems to me that we are sinking deeper and deeper into a morass of apathy and indifference.

Sometimes the end result is lack of support for a desperately needed United Fund. Sometimes lack of support for Clara Mass Hospital, which we are so fortunate to have within our borders. In our recent school board election, it was lack of support for Violet Rochau, a dedicated woman who had devoted years of service to the schools and the community. It is definitely lack of support for an enriched educational program which could give us a new high school and a junior high school at a cost to the average taxpayer of about $18,000 per year, or the price of a machine pack of cigarettes per week.

Through your columns, I would like to offer a talk which I have prepared on "Colonial Days in Second River, now Belleville," to church groups, civic clubs, service clubs, PTAs and other Belleville organizations.

Perhaps by learning of Revolutionary days, when we were forced, of necessity, to work together, we can find some strength to overcome the defeatists and obstructionists who gleefully axe every proposal for a better Belleville.

The New School Board

Dear Sir:

There is so much dissension going on between members of the School Board since the defeat of Mrs. Rochau, that I feel I must come to the defense of the good Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero who was doing his duty as a Public servant, as he saw fit, in regards to the selection of Mr. Alvarez, the Architect who was out of the running at the start, since he was not among the first 10 men, yet he was given the green light to go ahead with the plans for the new High School.

His selection has been of a questionable nature, since it has been brought out, that the son of Mr. Boyd works for Mr. Alvarez. I feel Mr. Arvidson attack on Dr. Ruggiero because of the stand he has taken, is hitting below the belt, his cruel, and inhuman, since the Doctor had been re-elected they would have said it was a vote of confidence, her setback has been brought about by her lost of strength, in her own strong hold, School Districts 3 and 5, where Mr. Pico, has gained tremendous support, because of his outstanding qualifications, I hope this new School Board can get together, and work in harmony in the best interest of the School System, and the Town. I can't see how a new School costing millions of dollars, which will create a severe hardship on all the People, ever hopes to win public approval, its chances are very bad, the defeat of a good School Budget speaks for itself.

Questions the Answers From Welfare Board

Dear Sir:

How do Belleville officials do for their people? Nothing as far as I'm concerned. I will now state my story why I feel that way. My husband has been ill for the past 15 years and not able to work. He is totally disabled.

We are living on Social Security Disability, my daughter works also, and helps all she can. By paying doctor bills, medicines and other things such as a dentist and so on.

My husband now has taken sick, even more than he has been, which requires him to go into the hospital. All I asked for is a little help towards the hospital bill and they refused. They have told me that four grown-ups, in a family, should be able to live on $108.23 a month for food, $18.00 for heat, $12.00 for gas and electricity and $4.00 a week for little things such as soaps.

Of course there is a saying, a full pocket could never believe the empty pocket.

Now I would like to know if there is any Belleville housewife that could live on these rates?

I would like to have this published immediately, and placed on the front page at a kind favor.

Firemen Should Get Pay Raises Too

Dear Sir:

In last week's issue of The Belleville News, a Mr. Gugliellicci makes a statement that he is in favor of giving the Police Department a raise and not the Fire Department.

I agree with him wholeheartedly when he says the Police Department deserves a raise. These public servants are worthy of the raise because whether they are doing traffic duty or just on a routine check, one never knows just what will happen. I could imagine if calling the police officer had when he had a gun stuck up against his stomach by a man who was later subdued and brought to trial, two years ago when one of our Police officers, caught a man who was armed and who just had held up a Building Loan Association.

If I remember right about four or five issues back of The Times News this same Mr. Gugliellicci had a article in The Times News favoring a raise both for the Police and Fire Departments. I want to ask him what he has against the Fire Department. The late Deputy Chief — Gilchrist died in the line of duty at a lumber yard fire. I told his wife when I met her weeks after the funeral, that she would be the most forgotten widow in Belleville.

In 1953 when I risked my life in the line of duty, thank God I'm here with my family, disabled true, but spared so I could see my family grow up into good American citizens. I want to tell Mr. Gugliellicci I had a very good chance of being the chief of the Belleville Fire Department speaks for itself. I was wasn't disabled. I don't think for one minute that I am looking for any cheap publicity, because I don't need it, my record on the Belleville Fire Department speaks for itself. When I was put on pension in 1956 because the town couldn't keep me on full pay forever, I felt bad but my good wife and my faith in the Blessed Lord that He makes things happen for the best, and as my Parish Priest put it, "Mike maybe it's God's will, accept it maybe if you were back on duty the next job you went out on you wouldn't come back, so this is God's way of sparing you." In closing I would like to say as far as the other town departments God Bless them all, let them speak for themselves. I just had to speak for the Fire Department because I was once a fireman.

Special Classes For Handicapped Discussion Topic

Forty parents discussed their particular problems with H. R. Whitney, Bloomfield psychologist, at a meeting of the Parents Association for Handicapped Children Thursday evening, March 2, at the Nutley Elks Clubhouse.

Special attention was given to the establishing of special education classes for handicapped children and how these facilities can be developed.

M. B. Kushima of North Caldwell, psychology instructor, said he felt that members had made considerable progress in understanding and implementing curricular and co-curricular activities for handicapped children and stated the need for getting others interested in the organization as "champions of compassion."

The association will sponsor a benefit card party April 28 at the Belleville Elks Lodge, 251 Washington Avenue, Belleville, with Edward Schimonsky of Belleville, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Leonard Russkoff of Clifton, Mrs. George Villano of Belleville and Mrs. Walter Szygawka of Garfield.

St. Mary's Theatre Guild
Slates Roaring 20's Show

A musical comedy, "Fanny, the Frivolous Flapper," has been chosen as the second annual major production to be presented by members of St. Mary's Theatre Guild on Friday and Saturday, April 28 and 29 in the school gymnasium.

The two-act Roaring 20's musical, will be produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Book, Lyrics and Music was written by Charles George.

Final tryouts for speaking, singing and dancing roles will be held this week, after which the production will go into full rehearsal under the direction of Dan Drew, assisted by Edward Burke. Lytle De Jon has been named production manager, Dick Start, musical director and Ray Gannon, choreographer.

The Theatre Guild was organized at St. Mary's, last year with the Rev. Gerard W. Walsh as moderator and Mrs. Albert L. Gaydos, president. The group whose membership includes both teen-agers and adults, presented as its first effort last Spring, a two-act drama and minstrel show which drew capacity audiences and received rare notices.

Members participate in all phases of the Guild workshop activities throughout the year, including speech and diction, directing, set design, lighting, make-up, costumes, singing and choreography.

Daniel McCarthy of Belleville was installed as executive vice president of the New Jersey Industrial Chamber of Commerce at the annual meeting of the organization held at Lyle's Restaurant, Kearny on January 25. McCarthy is treasurer of the Miller Steel Company in Hillsdale.

Jack Dragnet, plant manager of the B and M Machine Company, Belleville, was installed as vice president of the New Jersey Industrial Chamber of Commerce. The group's new president is Clifford C. Jackson.

Installing Officer for the state organization was Charles Covino, vice president of the General Magnaplate Corporation, Belleville.

Others installed include Frank Valliere, vice president of Frank Frank Natalie, recording secretary.

Guest speaker at the installation dinner was Edward J. Paten, New Jersey Secretary of State.

The heavy amount of material submitted for publication in today's Belleville Times presents us from including every item in today's issue.

DeWitt Savings Indicate Gains For Past Year

Despite a general leveling off in the business picture during 1960, De Witt Savings and Loan Association of Belleville reports important gains for the year. The strong trend toward increased savings shows no signs of abatement and continues to be the major factor in the growth enjoyed by De Witt, according to Robert Williams, manager of the local thrift and home financing institution.

"The savings of more than 8,000 individuals—a total that exceeds $13,300,000—has enabled us to keep pace with the demand made upon us for our low-cost home mortgage loans," Williams said. "And there is every indication that this favorable ratio will continue in the foreseeable future." During 1960, the Association made available 1467 mortgage totaling $2,269,827 for home-seeking families to buy and build dwellings.

Principally as a result of this activity De Witt Savings was able to distribute upwards of $446,500 in dividends to its savers during 1960, a year which saw De Witt increase its dividend scale with one-half per cent per annum "extra" added to its regular three-and-one-half per cent rate for the second six months.

Commenting on the Association's position at the close of 1960, Williams reported that assets of the Belleville institution now stand at $14,604,660, a substantial increase over the previous year. An already strong reserve position has been further strengthened by Williams said, to a figure which he described as being well in excess of that required by federal and state regulatory authorities under whose supervision De Witt Savings operates.

In addition to savings accounts which are insured to $10,000 by an instrumentality of the United States Government, De Witt features such financial services as Money Orders, Traveler's Checks, gift checks, passbook loans, home mortgage and improvement loans, and collection of gas and electric bills. Dividends at De Witt start every month, and savings received by the second Monday of every month earn from the first. Current rate three-and-one-half per cent regular, plus one-half per cent per annum extra anticipated for the dividend period January 1 to June 30, 1961.

Larry Pesa Gets Administrative Post at Hospital

Larry Pesa, Belleville's director of civil defense, was promoted to chief pharmacist at St. Mary's Hospital in Passaic to administrative assistant. He assumed his new duties March 1.

In his new capacity, Pesa will direct the personnel and purchasing activities of the hospital. He succeeds Edwin P. Pease who resigned to become administrator at Rolling Hill Hospital and Diagnostic Center near Philadelphia, Penna.

A resident of 226 Floyd Street, Belleville, Pesa has been chief pharmacist at St. Mary's since 1940. He is a graduate of Rutgers University College of Pharmacy and interned at Marlboro Medical Center in Newark. He has attended seven American Hospital Association approved institutions including the Universities of Connecticut, Michigan, Texas and Toronto.

HEAD PHARMACIST

He served as president of the New Jersey Society of Hospital Pharmacists in 1950 and 1951 and the Northern New Jersey Branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association in 1955. Since 1950, Pesa has been chairman of the American Society of Hospital Pharmacists' Committee on Disaster Preparedness. He is also director of civil defense and disaster control for the town of Belleville.

Pesa is a lieutenant commander in the United States Public Health Service Reserve and a member of the pharmacy section of the Association of Military Surgeons.

Married to the former Miss Alma C. Oakes of Ridgewood, who is a graduate of St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing, the couple has a 16-year-old son, Larry.

George A. Rohner Named Manager Of Kiddie District

George A. Rohner has been named New England District Manager for the Walter Kidde and Company, Belleville, it has been announced. Rohner's territory will include Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Upper New York State.

An aviation engineer, Rohner is a graduate of Stevens Institute of Technology. He joined Kidde in 1954 and most recently served the firm as manager of its pneumatic section for aerospace products.

In his new position, Rohner will be responsible for sales and engineering of Kidde aerospace equipment, including high pressure steel and fiberglass vessels, pneumatic valves, inflator on gear, missile reaction control systems and cryogenic fuel power systems for space vehicles.

Walter Kidde Firm Helps Launch 'Scout'

W. Kiddie Names A. H. Hobelmann Defense Director

ALFRED H. HOBELMANN
director of Defense

Walter Kidde and Company Inc. of Belleville has appointed Alfred H. Hobelmann as its director of defense activities. Hobelmann will assume liaison responsibilities between Kidde and the planning personnel in military and space agencies as well as in the aircraft and missile industries.

As director of defense activities for the Belleville firm, he will develop information relative to the forward planning of these various industries and agencies. He also will maintain contacts with major military aircraft and missile operating headquarters and maintenance depots to gather information on Kidde produce performance and acceptance. He is a graduate of Stevens Institute of Technology and has served as an assistant vice-president at Walter Kidde and Company since 1943.

WINTER HAIR-DO'S

During the winter, an occasional "extra" shampoo is beneficial to hair which has been flattened and dried-out by the constant pressure of hats and scarves. A good set-preserving trick is not to put on a hat immediately after a shampoo and set. It is liable to distort the shape and style of your new coiffure before the hair gets a chance to "breathe" for an hour or two.

Belleville Workers Build Rockets' Steering Motor

The first solid fuel rocket which successfully went into orbit late last month was largely a product of the Walter Kidde and Company, Belleville. The local firm "designed, built and installed" the rocket's steering motors and its complete fuel system.

Called a Scout rocket, the missile blasted off from the launching pad at Wallops Island, Va., February 15. All four stages fired as planned and the burned-out fourth stage went into orbit. The little satellite, the rocket was supposed to have lurched into orbit was lost in the blackness of space, but was finally found last Friday.

A Walter Kidde spokesman told The Belleville Times that the local firm was responsible for the hydrogen peroxide steering motors in the Scout rocket's second and third stages. The steering motors are used to guide the vehicle into its planned flight path.

"These motors, and the complete fuel system associated with them, were designed, built and installed in the vehicle sections by Walter Kidde and Company," the spokesman said. The Belleville firm did the work under a subcontract from the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Company and under the program sponsored by the National Aeronautics Space Administration.

Unaccountably, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration was unable at first to find the rocket's payload a 12-foot polka-dot sphere that was supposed to go into orbit. Indications were that it had become a lost satellite until the sphere was finally located in orbit where it was supposed to be.

Howard Savings Mortgage Loans Show Big Jump

Essex County mortgages held by The Howard Savings Institution, Newark, on December 31, 1960, amounted to $37,058,922.02, an increase from $31,946,045.10 a year earlier of $5,112,876.92. The number of mortgage loans in Essex County owned by the bank at the end of last year was 4,976.

The Howard is the largest lender of mortgage money on New Jersey homes and every dollar invested in mortgage loans is invested within New Jersey. These loans, numbering 26,695, granted on properties in all 21 counties of the State total $291,262,868.34, at the end of 1960.

The Howard's policy of investing only in New Jersey real estate is the best measure of the bank's contribution to the State's economic growth. The Howard also differs from many institutions of lending agencies in that it still grants VA mortgages to veterans. Of the grand total of $291,262,868.34 in mortgage loans outstanding at the year's end 35.01 per cent or $101,971,130.21 was invested in VA mortgage loans.

The Howard has kept lending to veterans even though it could make more conventional or FHA mortgages at a higher rate, considering it to be a public service. Conventional loans were 32.84 per cent of the total or $135,903,299.63 and FHA mortgage loans amounted to $35,388,438.50 or 12.15 per cent.

The Howard Savings Institution is the 19th largest mutual savings bank in the country with total assets on December 31, 1960 of $449,823,173.19 and deposits amounting to $400,856,102.95. The bank had 289,936 savings accounts.

The Howard's mortgage bank correspondent for Essex County is Edward I. Forman of Newark.

Fidelity Union Increases Its Legal Lending Limit

C. Malcolm Davis, president of Fidelity Union Trust Company, today announced that the bank had increased its legal lending limit to $4,000,000—the largest in the state. This was accomplished by the transfer from Undivided Profits of $500,000 to the Capital Account and $2,500,000 to the Surplus Account, bringing the total of these two accounts to $40,000,000.

A bank's legal lending limit—the amount it is permitted to lend to any one borrower—is set by law at 10 per cent of the sum of its Capital Account and Surplus Account.

Davis also announced that the bank today is distributing to its 2,500 shareholders the stock dividend declared on January 17.

HS Band Concert Attracts Crowd Despite Weather

By HOWARD SIELIGMAN

Belleville High School presented its sixth annual Band Concert March 1 and the program proved to be a huge success. Despite poor weather conditions, the size of the audience was impressive.

Lead by the high school's energetic new band director, Ter-

CARMINE ESPOSITO JR. Wins Scholarship

Carmine Esposito Jr., president of the Belleville High School Student Council, has won a scholarship for the school year beginning September 1961, the Scholarship Committee of Fairleigh Dickinson University announced this month.

Pre-School Program Completes First Term With Special Program

The Recreational House was a scene of songs, dances, recitations and poems when the Pre-School Play Program recently held a special program to mark the completion of its first term of play.

The exercises opened when the group marched in and took their seats to the tune of the Toy Band, after which they had their flag exercise and their morning prayer. "Sing a Song of Sixpence" and "Jack & Jill" were then sung by the whole group. Next came the recitations: Cheryl Stefaneli recited "Welcome," Wayne Kellenbence "The Sea," Ronit Davidson "My Mother's Hands," David Perlow "Evening," Allyn Ciccone "A Friendly Policeman," Toni Maglione "Staring," Richard Boxer "Train Town." Next came a Motion Recitation "Our Snowman" performed by the entire group. Then James Pontrella recited "The Policeman," Howard Evans "The First Snowfall," Julie Flocie "The Rainbow," Patricia Kimmel "Singing Time," Frank Hildenbrand "Rain."

The songs "Little Boy Blue" and "Mary Had a Little Lamb" were then rendered by the whole group, after which Lori Blumenfeld recited "Star Makers," Brian Pazel "The Little Bird," John Russomanno "My Snow Man," Christine Garmo "A Winter Song," James Kovac "Wind and Rain." Then there was another motion recitation "Sled Riding" by the entire group. Richard Rothchild played "You're A Grand Old Flag" on the bazoeka. Nicholas DeFilippis recited "High Wind," James Lanno "The Sad Snow Man," Charles Rilli "The Train," Gary Schwarz "A Wise Old Owl," Matthew Cooperstein "Rain or Shine," and the Schiffrank "Spring is Coming."

Next all the girls in the group sang "Oh Look It There Ain't She Pretty" after which they performed a cute little dance routine. The children were then presented with "certificates of participation" by Mrs. Edna Verhagen, Director of the Pre-School Play Program; who then went down Memory Lane with the children, talking to them of different events. Greenawalt, the group played a variety of music, ranging from Latin American songs to thrilling American marches. In addition to the band, the BHS Twirling Squad gave two performances. Ellen Kahot led the girls' first arrangement which was a dance done to the music of "Hernando's Hideaway." Later in the show, the twirlers paraded down the aisles, putting on an exhibition of twirling skills.

Rounding out the enjoyable evening was a comedy skit, based on Allen Funt's "Candid Camera." The high school's version was entitled, "Allen Funt and His Banded Camera." This part of the program proved to be extremely funny and showed great originality. Playing the role of Allen Funt was Peter Wolk. The entire skit was sponsored by the great new product, "Instant Sticky Stuff."

One of the evening's highlights was a piano solo by Ben Hisssem who played an original piece he composed; the audience received his playing with great delight. Another highlight was the playing of "Holiday for Trombones" by Joe Zoppa, Ken Foley and Peter Wolk.

Essay Contest At St. Mary's To Be Held By CWV

Commander George Southwick of the local Catholic War Veterans Post has announced that Sister Regina Gertrude, principal of St. Mary's School, will supervise the annual essay contest for Eighth Grade in the local parochial school, under the continuing sponsorship of the CWV. Winners in boys and girls divisions of the higher grade will be awarded wrist watches by the Nutley CWV. Winning essays titled "Do Current Television Programs Affect Me as an American Youth?" will be forwarded to state headquarters of the CWV and entered in competition with essays from parochial schools throughout New Jersey. State winners will be entered in the national contest, with the eventual champions in both divisions being honored at the national convention of the CWV, which will be held in Atlantic City this year during August.

Eighth Graders Busy at School 7

The imaginary world of pictures and the real world of foreign lands are topical interests of the eighth grade at school seven.

After looking at pictures in magazines, pupils were asked to pretend they were one of the people pictured and then write a story about a resulting situation. Reports are that the stories written by the pupils were interesting. Many of the stories were read aloud in class while others were posted on the bulletin board.

In observing "Brotherhood Week," the eighth graders selected pen pals from all parts of the world. The pupils hope to hear about foreign customs, habits and activities by writing to other children.

happenings during their 15 weeks of play and fun. The Pre-School Play Program is another successful Recreation Department activity. The program runs for 15 weeks for each group and any child who will be entering kindergarten in September is eligible for registration. It consists of handicrafts, stories, games, songs, art, outside play, short rest period and occasional parties on holidays. The mothers of the children also take an active part in the program, in as much as they serve duty days about one day a week.

This program is designed to introduce the children to group play and produce a pleasant social adjustment for their first years at school.

Local Accordionists Capture Top Honors At N. J. State Contest

Two young Belleville accordionists were winners in the second annual New Jersey State Accordion Contest held last month in Nutley High School. They are John Dahlquist 13, and John Budenas, 15.

Three other local players are members of the band which won honors; these youngsters are Barbara Budenas 11, Frank Cocino 16, and Thomas Greco, 14. All are students at the Nunzio Music Center in Nutley. Charles Nunzio was chairman of the contest. He reports that more than 1,000 entries were filed for the 24 categories which included places for soloists, duets, bands and combos.

NOODLES, SPINACH

Good combination: a noodle ring filled with creamed spinach. Garnish spinach with sliced hard-cooked eggs and you'll have a fine luncheon dish.

BHS Posters Win Top Prizes

POSTER CONTEST WINNERS: Two Belleville High School students, Wayne Current of 329 Stephens Street and Ann Barnes of 480 Belleville Avenue, took top honors in the New Jersey Automobile Club's poster contest. Miss Barnes won first prize and Current took second. Above, C. Stewart Mead, Safety and education director of the AAA, presents Miss Barnes with a $50 bond. Current won a $25 bond. Looking on at the left is P. Webster Diehl, high school art instructor. The two posters have been entered in the AAA's national safety poster contest.

BHS Health Classes See Film on Cancer

The film "Cancer, a Research Story" was shown February 15 to 700 health students at Belleville High School under the auspices of the Essex County Chapter of the American Cancer Society.

The film dealt with the phases and problems of cancer research and was arranged for showing by George Nucera, of 425-71st Street, the high school's director of visual aids.

Goes to John Baker Ad Altare Dei Medal

John Baker of 209 New Street, member of Boy Scout Troop 302 sponsored by St. Peter's Church, received an Ad Altare Dei Medal February 12 at the Newark Archdiocese Sacred Heart Cathedral where a holy hour in observance of Boy Scout Sunday was conducted.

Finalist in Spelling Bee

Cecilia Fitzpatrick, a student at St. Peter's School, Belleville placed among the top 10 in the Essex County eliminations for the Archdiocese Spelling Bee sponsored by the CYO.

Do you have an anniversary coming soon? Be sure to let The Times know about it. Call Plymouth 9-3300.

Marcia Peck In NJ Concert

Marcia Peck, BHS sophomore, participated in the 13th Annual Operatic Festival of New Jersey high schools February 11. Miss Peck, a cellist, was among approximately 750 students from 85 state high schools who presented a concertized version of "Il Trovatore" by Giuseppe Verdi at the Northern Valley Regional High School, Demarest.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Peck of 21 Clearman Place, Belleville. The program combined the talents of a 600-voice chorus, a 100-piece orchestra, 18 soloists and a dance ensemble of 30.

The event was sponsored by the New Jersey Music Educators Association.

Telco Building

building at 270 Washington Avenue would come close to the $100,000 mark. Commissioner Kiernan reports that in addition to the $46,000 purchase price, "we would put in another $46,000 for improvements." Kiernan also says estimates for moving and installing special radio, telephone, alarms and teletype equipment would "be another $12,000."

Included in the proposed move is the municipal court. Belleville now conducts its court sessions in the commission chambers in Town Hall. The remodeling of the telephone building, Kiernan reports, will be studied by architect. He hasn't specified who the architect will be but did state that "the consultations will begin shortly."

Commissioner Sullivan is reported to be especially pleased with the central location of the telephone building offers at 270 Washington Avenue. The site is on the east side of Washington Avenue between Holmes Street and Van Houten Place, or a few doors away from the new telephone company business office. Kiernan notes that parking facilities are available at the telephone building. He cites the fact that parking connection at Town Hall would be relieved if the police department were moved from the building.

Vacate 34 Rooms

ones "which we aren't today using the way they should be used." Here's a run down of how Dr. Durkee would use the 34 vacated rooms. "First of all we are now using 12 sub-standard rooms," Dr. Durkee explained. "School Number Five alone has four of these sub-standard rooms, all in the basement." He proposed using the sub-standard rooms for activities other than instructional purposes.

"Schools Number Two, Five and Ten have no libraries," Dr. Durkee said. Three rooms there would be used for new library facilities.

Dr. Durkee stated that eight rooms are needed "right now" for full time use in speech, music and remedial teaching areas. "We're using all kinds of space for these activities now," he said.

Three rooms are needed throughout the elementary system for office space and another eight rooms would be used for audio - visual and art education purposes.

"This is how we would use all the 34 rooms," Dr. Durkee served, "and I have said nothing about solving some of our other space problems such as providing lunch service or shop and home economic programs in the elementary system."

Dr. Durkee's comments on the vacated rooms were prompted by a question raised by Ernest Arvidson, member of the Belleville Board of Education.

Form Group

its new Washington Avenue offices open from about 10 a.m. until 10 p.m.

The new group, whose officers or chairmen have yet to be announced, will be broken into four sub-committees, a taxpayers group, a youth group, a political group organized by wards and districts, and finally, a citizens' group. No further elaboration on the organization's structure or control was obtained.

Rioli said he will also issue a personal statement to the newspapers next Thursday. He's expected to come out strongly for the commission form of government, criticize the proponents of a change to the council-manager form in Belleville and state that if voters are unhappy with the way things are going in Town Hall, "the time to make a change is in 1962 and not in 1961."

All five Belleville commissioners are up for re-election in 1962.

Town Budget

cluded in the yet to be presented recommendations of a citizens' committee surveying the health department. The new sanitation positions, it's rumored, will be asked before the town can comply with a new state health code which goes into effect April 1.

Parks-Public Property

Included in Kiernan's parks and public property department are $8,650 increases for the library director; $4,800 for the new position of assistant library director; $200 raises for each of the following: junior librarian, senior librarian assistant, the three junior assistants, and another $150 increment for a fourth junior librarian assistant.

The position of assistant library director has not been filled.

Recreation department raises include $410 for the superintendent, senior clerk, building inspector and water foreman. Hourly increases of 15 cents would go to four equipment operators, three automotive mechanics, nine laborers and 17 laborers. A check by The Belleville Times found that hourly employees work 44 hours in a normal work week. Using the 44-hour week, the 15-cent an hour increase would amount to $345 increases over the period of one year.

Revenue-Finance Dept.

Mayor Padula's department shows salary increases totaling $10,511 over last year's budget. However these increments are partially offset by the elimination of two posts, $6,100 for the assistant town attorney and another clerical post for $8,000.

The assistant town attorney's post was vacated when Thomas D'Avella was promoted to town attorney when Larry Keenan retired last fall.

Public Works Department

Commissioner Gruhn is giving $500 raises to most of his employees and 15 cents an hour increase to 33 other workers. Scheduled to receive $500 raises are two head clerks, the municipal engineer, two principal clerks, one senior civil engineer, collector, $35 for the head account clerk and $43 for assistant tax collector.

Water Meter Readers

Three water meter readers would receive $615 raises each while a fourth meter reader would get a $32 raise. Others include $40 for addressograph machine operator, $1,160 for the municipal treasurer and $1,053 for the assistant municipal treasurer.

Several bookkeeping machine operators would get raises in amounts of $40, $24, $59 and $8 each while two other designated principal bookkeeping machine operators would receive $226 additional each. Two senior clerk

Salary increases in Mayor Padula's budget include $30 for principal clerk stenographer; $1,106 for the town clerk; $61 for principal account clerk; $349 for assistant assessor; $97 for principal clerk tax searcher; $63 for the senior assessor clerk. Also, $1,161 for the municipal tax assessor; $1,106 for the tax typists would get pay hikes, one an additional $166 and the second, $72. Finally the telephone operator is scheduled for a $16 increase.

Mayor Padula's department raises were recommended by civil service which recently surveyed the revenue and finance office. However, controversy has developed over a $1,053 raise proposed for the Mayor's son, Isadore J. Padula Jr. who is assistant municipal treasurer.
