

Parking Area Atop 'Cardiac Hill' Estimated To Cost $100,000

PROPOSED MUNICIPAL PARKING LOT: This is a sketch showing the exact location of the property which Commissioner Robert Gruhn proposes to purchase for a municipal parking lot. Estimates are that the total project would cost close to $100,000. Action on the ordinance appropriating funds for the purchase were postponed Tuesday night; the proposal will be reconsidered at the commissioners' next meeting on April 11. Complete details are given in the article at the top of this page.

Commissioners Postpone Action to Purchase Property For Municipal Parking Lot

Town Commissioners Tuesday night postponed action on a controversial measure to purchase property for a municipal parking lot off Washington Avenue. The ordinance, asking $15,000 for the purchase of the acre and a half tract, will be reconsidered at the April 11 meeting of the town government.

Several citizens objected to the ordinance including the owner of much of the land which would be acquired. Attorney Leslie W. Finch, representing Paul Schwartz, the owner, said plans have already been submitted for a garden apartment project on the site.

The plans reportedly will be reviewed at a meeting of the zoning board April 18. The area is presently zoned "B Residential" which not only forbids garden apartments, but municipal parking lots as well.

Mayor Isadore Padula, however, told Tuesday's meeting "there is nothing to stop the commissioners from changing the zoning in that area."

Padula made the statement in response to a question raised by John Bass, president of the Rutan Estates Homeowners' Association.

Padula asked for the tabling of the ordinance to give its sponsor, Commissioner Robert Gruhn, enough time to come up with a "complete package price" on the cost of not only the land purchase, but the title searches and conversion of the property to a parking lot.

Padula said he personally does not believe the tract can be purchased for $15,000, the amount appropriated by the ordinance. Best estimates were that the total cost of the project would be about $100,000.

Charles Barbone, president of the Fairway Civic Association, was told by Padula that the Planning Board was aware of Belleville's parking problems. Padula had said at the previous commission meeting that "it doesn't really matter what the Planning Board decides anyway. The Planning Board only recommends things to us... we have to approve anything they come up with."

When questioned further by Barbone, Padula said he was speaking "as a member of the Planning Board" in stating that

James LaMotta Heads Committee Seeking Manager

A citizens' committee has been formed to coordinate all town groups working for a change in Belleville's type of government. James LaMotta has been elected chairman of the new group named the Citizens Change Committee, or the CCC committee.

LaMotta, who resides at 426 Washington Avenue, said yesterday that the CCC committee was organized to serve two purposes: first to coordinate the work of separate groups in Belleville working for the change, and second, to promote the council-manager form of government.

The CCC chairman has been active in several community organizations. His name has appeared in newspapers recently because of his chairmanship of the citizens' sub-committee on architect's selection for the proposed new Belleville High School.

LaMotta said that co-chairmen of the CCC will be announced sometime next week. It is known, however, that the CCC will bring together such groups

George Kiernan Offers Support To Manager Plan

Commissioner George F. Kiernan today formally announced his support to the movement for a change in Belleville's form of government. Kiernan said he believes a new form of government is necessary for Belleville and adds he will assist in the campaign to adopt a council-manager form of government at referendum May 2.

Kiernan said he does not believe the council manager plan will offer "the perfect answer to all the problems that beset our municipality" but adds that it is "certainly far superior to the commission form."

The Belleville commissioner said he is aware that some cities, including Trenton and Cedar Grove, have had difficulties with the council-manager type government, "but certainly the proposed change to council-manager administration in Belleville is a step in the right direction."

Kiernan's statement reads as follows:

"I have so far refrained from joining the debate on the respective merits of the Council-Manager form of government when measured against Commission administration. Inasmuch as my continued silence might be misconstrued and has already led to my being frequently misquoted in the press, I feel it incumbent of me to make my stand perfectly clear."

"First, I believe that a new form of government is necessary for Belleville. The apologists for Commission government have frequently declared 'it is not the form of government that counts but the men who make the government.' Such reason-

Belleville Business Men Can Expect Higher Taxes in 1962

Belleville businessmen can expect substantial increases in local taxes on personal property used in their businesses as a result of legislation passed in 1960 but effective January 1, 1962. The increases will be reflected on the 1962 tax bills and will be paid to the Town Treasurer's office.

Provisions of the Laws of 1960 make every businessman a tax assessor.

Chapter 51, Laws of 1960, is a legislative act approved June 15, 1960 and for the first time in the history of property taxation in New Jersey every businessman is required, under penalties of perjury, to submit to the local tax assessor values of machinery, equipment and inventory.

The bill originally established May 1 as the filing date for all businesses. For this year the Acting State Tax Commissioner extended the filing deadline to June 15. The purpose of the bill was to establish uniformity in local assessments in order to provide equity in the distribution of state aid to education. The result of the legislation is to increase the tax burden of local businesses.

The bill is divided in four parts. Real Property subject to tax; Tangible Personal Property Used in Business; Tangible Personal Property Not Used in Business Other Than Tangible Household Personal Property and Personal Effects; Tangible Household Personal Property and Personal Effects.

All businessmen must file form PPT-1, "Return of Tangible Personal Property Used in Business." It must be filed in duplicate with the local assessor on or before June 15. Beginning next year the filing deadline is May 1. Tangible personal property that is subject to tax is classified as follows:

1. Machinery, implements and equipment except such as is classified as real property.

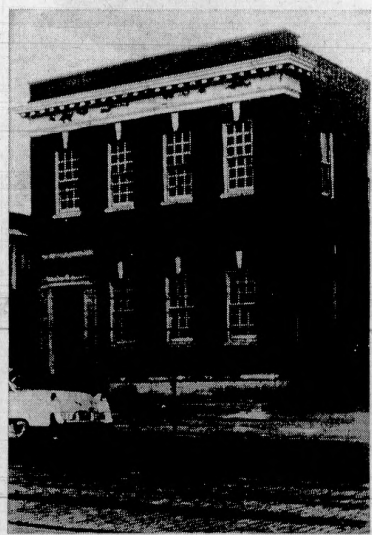

2. Inventories, except inventories of raw materials, supplies and small tools.

3. Farm machinery farm livestock, crops, other than exempted growing crops, and produce.

The term "used in business" is defined as any activity, transaction or privilege engaged in, conducted or exercised for gain.

Car Went Wrong Way, Right Through Garage; Came Out Other Side

A Belleville driver, who thought his car was set for reverse, made a mistake. The result: he plowed right through his garage door, right through the back of the garage wall.

This happened to John Hilgard at 115 Tappan Avenue.

One more thing. The mishap resulted in damages to a neighbor's car. After leaving the garage through the rear wall, the auto shot across some 70 feet of lawn and plowed into a neighboring garage. There it damaged another car.

The 60-year-old Tappan Avenue resident was not injured.

Padula Names John Bass To 'Advisory Committee'

Mayor Isadore Padula Tuesday night announced he is forming a "mayor's advisory committee" and he named John Bass, president of the Rutan Estates Homeowners' Association as a member.

Padula made the announcement during a conversation with Bass while the Rutan President was addressing Tuesday's commission meeting.

Bass was commenting on the long discussed plan for a recreation area near Fairway Avenue and when Padula said he was in favor of the project, Bass replied, "you make beautiful speeches, Mr. Mayor, but we're down here because we want some action."

Padula then asked Bass if he would be willing to serve on a "mayor's advisory committee" which supposedly would recommend items to Padula. When Bass said he would serve on such a committee, Padula immediately announced he was forming one and named Bass a member.

After the meeting, Padula told The Belleville Times that he hopes to have "about 10 people" on the committee. He didn't disclose any additional names however.

After Padula announced the creation of his advisory committee, Frank Megaro of 55 Cleveland Street offered to volunteer. "Would you put me on your committee?" Megaro asked. Padula answered, "I don't know whether I'll appoint you or not."

Padula made it clear, "I'll do all the appointing of the members." He made this statement after Bass suggested he gather some names representing different sections of town including the Fairway and Rutan civic associations.

To date, John Bass appears to be the only "advisor" to the mayor. Padula said he would have more to say on the subject "next week."

Only Four Booths Are Still Vacant For 'Cavalcade'

Only four booths remain available for the Belleville Chamber of Commerce's "Cavalcade of Progress" business exposition scheduled for May. F. Douglas Wadsworth, general chairman of the Cavalcade, reports new exhibitors who reserved space this week were the Fidelity Union Trust Company and the Hanlon and Goodman Company.

Wadsworth said 25 of the 29 booths have now been reserved. He added that 19 business firms are planning exhibits.

William J. Orchard of Wallace and Tiernan Company is chairman of the industrial booth division of the general committee. The industrial group will meet this week and expects to complete all booth reservations before next Tuesday's monthly meeting of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

Vice chairman of the industrial division for the Cavalcade is James Devaney of Walter Kidde Company.

Tax Council Releases 'Secret Letter' Sent To Board of Education

Architect's Institute Raps Belleville Officials

The American Institute of Architects has criticized the Belleville Board of Education for the manner in which it selected an architect for the proposed new senior high school. The Belleville board has named Alfonso Alvarez, of Montclair for the project; he is not a member of the American Institute of Architects. (AIA)

A letter from AIA President, John Scacchetti written January 29 to Mrs. Violet Rochau, then president of the Belleville Board of Education, was not made public. Some board members say they knew nothing about the existence of the letter until it was made public Monday night.

Lee Garson, representative of the Citizens Tax Council, released a copy of the letter which his group secured from the AIA. "We've had a copy of this letter for some time," Garson said, "but we wanted to give the board the courtesy of releasing the letter to the public. But apparently the board wants to keep the letter a secret so we're giving copies to the press."

Board members Michael Alpertine and Dr. Frank DiRuggiero both said they knew nothing about the letter, and were "disturbed" because they hadn't been given a copy of the letter. However Nicholas Juliano and Ernest Arvidson said the letter's existence had been discussed at a caucus of the board. President Dominick Lally appeared to be uncertain whether the letter was discussed or not.

A Private Letter

Board Secretary, Mrs. Mary Shader, said she was told the letter was private because it was addressed to Mrs. Rochau. However the copy of the letter given The Belleville Times shows that the correspondence was addressed to Mrs. Rochau as president of the Belleville Board of Education. The letter was mailed to bank. Ask for an E Bond. Price: The Board of Education office at $18.75 for each $25 worth.

Text of Letter Blasting Board's Hiring of Alvarez

(Below is the text of a letter sent January 29 to Mrs. Violet Rochau, then president of the Belleville Board of Education. The letter, kept secret until this week, was sent by the American Institute of Architects and criticizes the Belleville school board's selection of Alfonso Alvarez, of Montclair as architect for the proposed new high school.

(The letter's theme is that the American Institute of Architects, a group of which Mr. Alvarez is not a member, has maintained certain standards "for which the architect can most properly perform his work to the satisfaction of all interested parties."

(The letter suggests that Alvarez was given the Belleville job because of lower fees and states that the "reduction in fee could conceivably result in curtailment of some divisions of the work."

(The strong language in the letter states that member architects would have refused the interview with the Belleville school board "had the architects been aware that the project was to be considered on the basis of a reduced fee instead of professional competence."

(The text of the letter follows—Editor.)

"Mrs. Violet Rochau, President, Belleville Board of Education, 183 Union Avenue, Belleville, New Jersey

Dear Mrs. Rochau: "From a press clipping of the Newark News dated Tuesday, January 17, 1961, it is noted that the Board of Education of Belleville has selected an Architect for its proposed 1,000 student, high school and, if the article reports correctly, on the basis of concessions by the appointee in the matter of services to be rendered.

that its membership renders to the public the maximum professional service has established as a result of many years of study, a basis of minimum recommended fees for which the architect can most properly perform his work to the satisfaction of all interested parties.

"The members of this organization being aware of the cost of pursuing building projects properly, adhere to these standards knowing that to effectively provide satisfactory results through every phase of the operation a concession in the fee by reduction or by the offer of additional services not normally contemplated can result in a loss to the architect, a condition hardly conducive to continued efficiency or happy relations.

"As there can be no question on intent or the result desired, documents on public structures, especially, must be complete and thorough in all phases of the operation.

"The cost of preparation being of necessity very similar in all offices geared to the magnitude of the contemplated operation, a reduction in fee could conceivably result in curtailment of some divisions of the work.

"The professional standard established by the Institute and by which all its membership is morally bound and subject to disciplinary action for violation, thereof is contained in the mandatory standards set up in A.I.A. document No. J-330, a copy of which is enclosed for your information. A copy of the Circular of Information on Architectural Services and Fees is also included.

"It is proper to assume that the numerous architects who are members of this organization who were invited would have refused the interview had they been aware that the project was to be considered on the basis of a reduced fee instead of professional competence.

"The action of your Board is regretted not because of your apparent reconsidered selection of an architect for your project, but for the reasons advanced which having received wide publicity can serve no other purpose than to indicate that architectural services can be purchased for less than the standards established and proven to be necessary to obtain the best results.

"No one can dispute that services, as with other articles or commodities, can be purchased in any price range with different standards of acceptability but the students and the public should not be subjected to results which possibly could be less than that to which they, as citizens and taxpayers, are entitled.

"The services of this organization are offered to you and your Board if you believe that additional information is needed on this or any other contemplated project.

Chamber Distributes Nearly 10,000 Copies of Blossom Contest Rules

Nearly 10,000 copies of contest rules for the contests associated with the Cherry Blossom Celebration have been distributed to town chairman, the Belleville Chamber of Commerce reported last night.

Photographic, poster, art and essay contests are being sponsored for school children by the Chamber in association with the Essex County Park Commission, Belleville Public and Panchal Schools and the Town Recreation Department.

Copies of the rules are available through the schools, the Chamber notes. They also can be obtained at the Belleville Chamber of Commerce office, 246 Washington Avenue.

In addition to the contests, the Chamber is concluding plans to sponsor "Cherry Blossom Specials," a series of sales in local mercantile establishments.

The selection of a cherry blossom queen is not part of the chamber's program, a spokesman said.

FOR THE GOOD OF THE G.O.P.

By JAMES J. SHEERAN

Mayor, Former FBI Agent, Lawyer, Veteran, Family

The Republican Party will lose a seat on the Board of Freeholders if my opponent is nominated as a candidate for Sheriff. I charge that this is an unlawful legal fact. The law says that "no person shall hold any other civil office during the time he holds the office of Sheriff." Vacancies on the Board of Freeholders, the law reads, shall be filled by a majority of the remaining members of the board — in this case the existing Democratic majority.

Why shouldn't the Republican Party hold what it has? Why should our party give the Democrats a Freeholder's seat?

Is our party so devoid of talent that it must lose this Freeholder seat which does not expire until January 1, 1963 in order to have a candidate for Sheriff?

It seems to me that an unscreened so-called six-member screening committee is trying to play the same game of musical chairs that it so unsuccessfully played last year.

At that time it told Anthony Giuliano, who had done a capable job as County Clerk, that he should run for Register. Then it told Mrs. Abbie Magee, who had done an efficient job as Register, that she would be the candidate for County Clerk. This switching of hats was played so that someone wouldn't be angry. And it was played to the detriment of the party with a result well known to all of us. The Republican Party lost both the County Clerk's and the Register's offices.

One reason I am a candidate for Sheriff is that I deplore such action. I believe it is equally distasteful to most of the members of our party, especially so now when it means the loss of a vote on the Board of Freeholders. Another reason is that I think enough harm has already been done the party in the name of "compromise" and "unity."

As to my qualifications, I am a lawyer who has had experience in criminal as well as civil practice. I am a graduate of probably one of the most intensive training courses in the world — the course that the Federal Bureau of Investigation provides for its special agents. I have had five years experience with the FBI, part of it in the Newark office, which familiarizes me with Essex County problems and the influences that would, if they could, corrupt the community.

I have had administrative experience as Mayor of West Orange. I am a veteran with overseas service and I am the father of six children who want, more than anything else, to see those children grow up in a healthy, crime-free environment. My name will appear on the voting machines on Line G-16. It is the only name on that line, the last line, and it is near the right end of the row.

is singled out with a circle.

Readers are invited to identify this person and the spot where the picture was taken. The first one to do so by mail or in person at the office of The Times will receive an award of $5. Please note: Identification of the person and place must be made by coming to the office of The Times, 246 Washington Avenue, or by mail. Phone calls will not be accepted.

The person who is circled is requested to call at our office in person and receive a $5 check drawn to the order of one of the cooperating merchants listed on the map page.

It is important in playing this fascinating game of identification to note these simple rules: 1) the winner must tell us who the person is whose photo is circled and where picture was taken; 2) entries in the contest must be made in person or by mail — by phone; 3) the prize will be awarded to the one who submits the first correct identification; 4) all decisions by The Times are final; 5) there is a prize also for the person whose photo is circled; 6) only one entry per family is permitted; 7) contest deadline is 5 p.m. Monday; 8) Failure to comply with contest rules in all respects is cause for disqualification.

If no one identifies the circled photo and the place where picture was taken, the prize money will be added to the following week's award.

Each week The Times staff photographer will take a similar picture somewhere in Belleville. Each week the picture will appear on the map page and test your ingenuity — and your power of observation. It can be lots of fun. Get started now. Work fast. Be the first to come to our office with the right answer! Remember, being first means being the winner.

Propose Fluoridation of City Water

Fluoridation of Belleville's water may soon be a topic of prominence, Commissioner Nuncio R. Pico agreed yesterday, Newark,

Samuel M. Bagno of 18 Columbus Avenue has been elected a fellow of the Institute of Radio Engineers for "creative contributions in the field of instrumentation, medical electronics and electronic aids to law enforcement." He is chief engineer of the Kidde Company, Inc., Clifton. Ultrasonic and Detection Alarms Division of Walter Kidde and Company, Inc., Clifton.

Harry N. Weeks of Belleville has been named to the American Legion's National Committee Endowment Fund Corporation. The appointment was announced in California last week by William R. Burke, recently elected National Commander.

Mrs. A. H. Verhagen of Belleville attended the triennial convention of the National Council of Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. recently in St. Louis, Missouri. A delegate to the convention, Mrs. Verhagen represented the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County.

Anthony J. Rollieri of Belleville, supervisor of the lacquer enamel department of Maas and Waldstein Inc., Newark, recently was honored by the company for 50 years of service. Rollieri started working with the company as an office boy. He was presented with a 50-year pin and a diamond ring.

Harry N. Weeks of Belleville has been named a member of the National American Legion Endowment Fund Corporation. Weeks' appointment was announced by William R. Burke of California, the Legion's National Commander.

which supplies water to Belleville has been urged to reconsider its position on fluoridation taken five years ago by that city's council. The urging is coming from Dr. Pascal J. Baiocchi, Newark health officer.

Commissioner Pico, in an interview with this newspaper, reported if Newark should decide to fluoridate its water, "we just would not have any choice in Belleville whether we wanted it or not."

Belleville buys all its water from the Newark-owned reservoir at Wanauque. "We're just a consumer and if a question develops over fluoridation of water, Belleville probably wouldn't have any choice about it," Pico said.

Dr. Baiocchi brought up the subject of fluoridation last Thursday during a hearing on the Newark Division of Health's 1961 budget request. Five years ago, the Newark City Council rejected a plan to fluoridate the water supply and instead ordered the city health agency to purchase 100,000 fluoride tablets which were to have been distributed to parents upon a doctor's prescription.

However, Dr. Baiocchi says the plan of five years ago has been a failure. He reports that only 4,000 of the 100,000 fluoride tablets obtained by the city have actually been distributed.

Continuing, Dr. Baiocchi told the hearing that every responsible professional organization which has conducted research has found fluoridation of water beneficial in preventing tooth decay.

NO CORRESPONDENCE HERE

Commissioner Pico told The Times that if the Newark City Council should approve the fluoridation program, "we would get fluoridated water automatically." Pico remarked that since he has been in office (1958), "I have never received any inquiries about water fluoridation." He concluded with the observation that "apparently there isn't too much interest in the subject in Belleville."

Casualty, Theft

Losses Deductible

CASUALTY AND THEFT Losses. Theft and casualty losses may be deducted on federal income tax returns under certain conditions. Joseph F. J. Mayer, Director of the Internal Revenue Service for the Newark District said today.

Deductible casualty losses, he said, include losses of personal property resulting from fire, storm, flood, automobile accident, hurricane or similar event. Deductible theft losses, he said, include losses of money or other personal property due to theft in the year of discovery, but not those resulting from losing or mislaying articles.

Mr. Mayer continued: "A deductible casualty loss can result from complete or partial destruction of property but, generally speaking, it must result from an identifiable event of a sudden, unexpected or unusual nature. Under a recent Internal Revenue ruling, however, loss due to termite damage according to over a relatively short period of time may be deducted.

"Damage to your own car resulting from a collision or accident can be deducted only if not due to your willful negligence or willful act. You cannot deduct from an identifiable event of another car with which you collided.

"On personal, non-business property, the amount of loss to be deducted is the difference between the value of the property just before the casualty and the value just after. The deductible loss can be no more than the cost of the property and must be reduced by any insurance or other compensation received or recoverable.

"You may not deduct the cost of repairing, replacing or cleaning up after the casualty. However, if the repairs do no more than restore the property to its condition immediately before the casualty, and do not add to its value, utility or useful life, such repair costs may be used as a measure of the decrease in value.

"You should attach a statement to your return giving the details on any deduction taken for a casualty or theft loss.

"Some of the loss items for which you cannot claim a deduction are personal injury to yourself or another person, accidental loss of cash or other personal property; damage due to rust or gradual erosion; animals or plants damaged or destroyed by disease and property lost in storage or in transit."

Mayor Padula's Campaign Of Desperation

Last week Mayor Isadore Padula issued a publicity statement attempting to discredit Council-Manager form of government. His Honor cites the Franklin Township, Somerset County, tax rate and compares it to Belleville. Listen to this self-confessed genius talk. Mayor Padula, "Now, let us see how many municipalities in New Jersey, where the form is valid (sic) operate under Council-Manager, Plan D, of the Optional Charter Law of 1950."

"HMMM, there is Franklin Township and Long Branch. ONLY TWO. Now let's look at the status of these two and find out what's what. Long Branch, a city, will not know what it is in for until July 1st, 1961."

"Let's look at Franklin Township. It has been operating under Council Manager Plan D, since July 1, 1959. In 1960, this community with a population of 19,755 had a tax rate of $9.91."

The Mayor of Belleville either is ignorant of all the facts or is deliberately withholding information relating to Franklin Township which actually would discredit Belleville's Commission form of government. Let's take a look at the information Padula withheld from the public or had no knowledge of:

Franklin Township's 1960 tax rate of $9.91 results from the application of a 21.5 per cent ratio to true value. Belleville's 1960 ratio to true value was 37.2 per cent, resulting in a 1960 tax rate of $8.21. Applying Belleville's 37.2 per cent ratio to true value for Franklin Township's 1960 taxes would have produced a tax rate of $5.95! Quite a bit less than the $9.91 Padula would have us swallow as a valid comparative rate. Applying Franklin Township's 21.5 per cent ratio to true value to the 1960 Belleville tax bills would make us realize that Belleville's 1960 tax rate under Commission government was $11.49!

Mayor Padula also neglects to tell our taxpayers that Franklin Township is a municipality with 46.40 sq. miles while Belleville has only 3.3 sq. miles. Franklin Township taxpayers are paying off $1,677,000 in bonds for new schools. Belleville has no new schools.

The most important statistic concerning Council-Manager Franklin Township is still to be told. The per capita cost to operate Franklin Township's municipal government is $28.56. In Commission-run Belleville the cost is $54.70 per person!

But Mayor Padula's misleading statements have no ending. Let's examine another. Belleville's math expert talks about Clark Township's 1960 tax rate. Now Belleville citizens on May 2nd will vote only upon a change to Council-Manager government — NOT MAYOR-COUNCIL. It is quite obvious that Padula introduces a third form of government in a brazen attempt to confuse Belleville voters. However — let's examine what he says about Clark. "Last year the tax rate in Clark Township was $10.21. . . . The 1961 Tax rate is now $12.40." The ratio of assessments to true value in Clark Township is 16.5 per cent compared to Belleville's 37.2 per cent. On this basis TODAY'S TAX RATE IN BELLEVILLE UNDER COMMISSION GOVERNMENT IS $19.60! This is the valid comparison and not Padula's inference. Applying Belleville's 37.2 per cent ratio to Clark, the 1961 Clark tax rate would be $6.94 and not the $12.40 of which Padula speaks.

In the foregoing paragraph we said Padula's misleading statements have no ending. Let's examine another. Speaking of Council-Manager advocates, Padula says, "Once they had the gall to say that MILLIONS of people in the United States live under Council-Manager government."

Richard S. Childs, Chairman of the National Municipal League, a non-profit organization dedicated to the improvement of municipal government last week said, "More than 34 million people live under the council-manager plan."

It is regrettable that Mayor Padula's desperate effort to hold on to the commission-controlled gravy train at town hall compels him to inject scare words, innuendo, half-truths, and misrepresentations into the government-change question to be voted on Tuesday May 2nd.

It is clear that Mayor Padula plans to take the low road in his opposition to the May 2nd referendum. In launching his campaign at that level Padula makes clear he has no solid ground upon which to base his opposition to change. Finding none he resorts to name-calling and mudslinging. A campaign of desperation indeed!

$10,000 Down The Drain

Last week, commenting on a taxpayer's query concerning Belleville Planning Board's knowledge of the proposed "municipal" parking lot atop Rutgers Street behind the enlarged synagogue, Mayor Padula said, "It really doesn't make any difference what the Planning Board thinks because after all we (the town commission) have the final say."

Is it stupid to ask why did the commission give the Planning Board $10,000 of hard-earned taxpayer money to produce a master plan if "it doesn't really make any difference what the Planning Board thinks."

The next question may appear just as silly — why have a Planning Board at all?

As an attorney the Mayor should realize that all plans concerning municipal parking lots, etc. must be first considered by the Planning Board — Padula notwithstanding. This is the law! Moreover — how does our ambitious Mayor propose to finance the estimated $75,000 — $85,000 worth of improvements required? Contributions from the synagogue? Or assess the public at large? Will the parking lot be considered a local improvement with neighborhood taxpayers charged with the improvement?

As we see it this bird-brain idea to build a parking lot atop a hill — far removed from the business section which is starving for parking space — is ill conceived and if ever completed can only serve one purpose — private interests — paid for by taxpayers and most certainly not in the public interest.

Quotations From Great Minds Of Today And Yesterday Aneant Council-Manager Form Of Government

Mayor Isadore Padula: "I know Commission form of government comes closest to the kind of government our forefathers spoke of as conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that American government on all levels must be open to the people's will to be truly Democratic."

Woodrow Wilson: "I regard the manager plan of municipal government as a marked advance over any other plan hitherto tried in this country, from the standpoint of both democracy and efficiency."

Herbert Hoover: "Council-Manager plan of government seems to me one of the ways out of our difficulties in producing sound municipal government."

Senator Estes Kefauver: "This form of government (Council-Manager) makes it much easier to prevent the type of immoral political-criminal influence which we found prevalent in so many cities."

Charles Edison: "The council-manager plan combines efficiency with democratic control by putting a professional in charge of city services and making him responsible at all times to a council that has no duty except to see that the government is conducted in the best interests of the whole city."

UP SPEAK

About Mayor's Words

Dear Sir:

The Mayor says, "We are in good shape!"

I would like to add a few chosen words to remind our beloved Mayor that the citizens of Belleville are indeed in good shape. So much so, that the average citizen does not know where the next tax dollar is coming from.

May I suggest to the Mayor and his spendthrift Commissioners that instead of going to City Hall to discuss ways and means to bleed the taxpayers, they should go to some of the homes and talk personally to the homeowners. I am sure that the reception they would encounter would be an impression that they would never forget.

Our citizens will inform the Mayor and his Commissioners that eventually the homeowners will have to desert Belleville before they are sent to an early grave from real estate taxes. The wave of mortgage foreclosures is imminent.

So Mr. Mayor, you think we are in good shape. Why not look up, see us, come in and speak to us, and you will get an idea of how the homeowners really feel?

Therefore, I say to all the taxpayers of Belleville. We have a movement called the Citizens Tax Council. Let us all unite together and dismiss these so-called public servants, and put in the Council Manager who is willing to work for the people. Then the taxpayers will really have a voice in their local government, where justice is an expression and carried out to its conclusion. The voice of the people shall prevail.

Vote, vote for a change, May 2, 1961.

Unsuccessful Applicant For Switchboard Job At Town Hall Asks . . .

Dear Sir:

In 1959 a Civil Service exam was held for position of Telephone Operator in Belleville Town Hall. Two qualified, I finished 2nd, the list to be good for two years.

In 1960 another exam was held for the same position. Two more qualified, one being a veteran. Both times the woman holding the job temporarily failed.

Earlier this year I was asked to sign off the list (I was told another girl was going to sign off, also,) thereby leaving only two. By Civil Service laws, no appointment need be made if there are only two on a list.

In March, a girl on the second list was appointed to the position. The reason for her getting the job was, she was a veteran.

As was explained to me, later, the two lists were combined placing the veteran 3rd. According to Civil Service one of the top three can be chosen, but had the first list been used when it could have been, there would be no question about veteran's preference.

As of now I am still puzzled as to why the first list was not used when it could have been, or what would have happened if I were good enough to sign off the list and allowed still another exam to be held.

cause she is a veteran as Miss Murphy suggests, but because of scores on a Civil Service test. While Miss Murphy's mark on the examination was only 70.00, the appointed operator, Irene L. Brennenman, scored 85.805. Miss Brennenman also is a veteran; she served with the U.S. Navy. A third person who took the test, Marie C. McGraw scored better on the test than Miss Murphy. Miss Murphy's second question asks what would have happened if she signed off the list. If she had, another examination probably would have been conducted before a permanent telephone operator was named at Town Hall.)

Name Kondreck Official Fotog For 'Seven Ages'

Belleville parents may keep their children forever, according to Johnnie Kondreck, owner of Kondreck Photographers, 57 Washington Avenue.

Kondreck made the declaration while announcing that his studio has been recognized by Professional Photographers of America, Inc., as an official "7 Ages" photographer dedicated to the preservation of childhood through fine portrait photography.

Portrait members of PP of A throughout America have agreed on seven specific childhood ages which should be captured with professional portraits to build a permanent record of a child's growing years.

Official "7 Ages" photographers will attempt to educate the nation's parents of growing children to the proper ages and their significance. Every mass communication medium will be utilized to carry the "7 Ages" message and answer the question most frequently asked by parents: When should a child be photographed?

The ages recommended by Kondreck and other "7 Ages" photographers are six months, one, two, four, seven, 12 and 16 years. Importance of the particular ages is explained in detail in a full color booklet titled "The Seven Ages of Childhood."

The free booklet is available on request from Kondreck Photographers, Kondreck said.

Howard Policy Contributes To State's Growth

Essex County mortgages held by the Howard Savings Institution, Newark, on Dec. 31, 1960, amounted to $37,058,922.02, an increase from $31,946,045.10 a year earlier of $5,112,876.92. The number of mortgage loans in Essex County owned by the bank at the end of last year was 4,976.

The Howard is the largest lender of mortgage money on New Jersey homes, and every dollar invested in mortgage loans is invested within New Jersey. These loans, numbering 26, 695 and granted on properties in all 21 counties in the state, totaled $291,362,868.34 at the end of 1960.

The Howard's policy of investing only in New Jersey real estate is the best measure of the bank's contribution to the state's economic growth. The Howard also differs from many institutional lending agencies in that it still grants VA mortgages to veterans. Of the grand total of $291,362,868.34 in mortgage loans outstanding at the year's end, 35.01 per cent, or $101,971,130.21, was invested in VA mortgage loans.

The Howard has kept lending to veterans even though it could make more conventional or F-HA mortgages at a higher rate, considering it to be a public service.

Conventional loans were 52.84 per cent of the total, or $153,903,299.63, and F-HA mortgage loans amounted to $35,388,438.50, or 12.15 per cent.

The Howard Savings Institution is the 19th largest mutual saving bank in the country, with total assets on Dec. 31, 1960, of $449,823,173.19 and deposits amounting to $400,856,102.95. The bank had 289,936 savings accounts.

The Howard's mortgage loan correspondent for Essex County is Edward I. Forman of Newark.

A new firm grip clamping band bracket (left) with an automatic un-lock feature for its two and a half pound pressurized dry chemical portable extinguisher (right) has been introduced by the Walter Kidde Company in Belleville. The new bracket has a built-in projection which locks the valve against accidental discharge. A second guard against accidental discharge is a metal lip which passes under the actuating lever when the extinguisher is in its bracket. When the extinguisher is removed from the bracket it is automatically unlocked and ready for action without the necessity of pulling a locking pin. Finally, the n.w. bracket's toggle release device permits the extinguisher to be freed of the bracket with the pull of a finger. This means getting it into operation faster in a fire emergency.

AAA Motors In Big Drive For New Comet

Heads New Firm

Mercury - Comet dealer, Joseph Pfeffer of AAA Motors, Belleville, today announced that he is "pulling out all stops" on trade-in allowances and special Mercury and Comet deals as part of "The Big Drive" by the N. Y. Lincoln-Mercury Dealers Association to gain first place in automobile sales in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

"The Big Drive," sponsored by the Lincoln-Mercury Division, is one of the biggest advertising-promotional campaigns ever staged in this area and will run through February and March.

Ads are scheduled in this newspaper and in over one hundred others in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. In addition, 1000 radio announcements each week will tell prospective buyers of the special values being offered on Mercury and Comet during the two month period.

The big poster type newspaper advertisements emphasize the big savings during "The Big Drive" and invite readers to "take the wheel... we'll make the deal." "Ask the man who wears the button for his special big drive deal."

"Big Drive" buttons will be worn by all Mercury - Comet salesmen to point out the special selling effort they'll be making and the high trade-in allowances and money-saving deals available during "The Big Drive."

As president of the new firm, he will expand the company in the fields of high precision machining, and welding, particularly of the newer and more exotic metals used in missiles and rockets. A broadening of the product line is also planned.

Mollek, who joined Walter Kidde in 1955 and formerly has been manager of manufacturing for Reaction Motors in Denville, served as a captain in the Air Force during World War II. He was in charge of a large aircraft engine plant.

Use Urged Of Punched Card

That little "greeting card" you may have received from U. S. Internal Revenue Service — the one with the tiny holes punched in it — safeguard it. Use it as your federal income tax return. You will save the government — and hence yourself — money, in that you will be speeding up any refund that might be due.

Joseph F. J. Mayer, Director of Internal Revenue for the Newark District, issued this appeal to those taxpayers who have received in the mail a "pre-punched" card Form 1040-A for this year's return.

When the taxpayer files his return using the pre-punched card, Internal Revenue can process the return mechanically. If the taxpayer fails to use the pre-punched card, and makes his return on another blank which is not pre-punched, IRS must spend additional time and money on the job of hand-punching the name and address again, thus delaying your refund check. It's costly and time-consuming work, and it has to be done each year for several million taxpayers who have lost, destroyed or mutilated the pre-punched cards sent them.

The Multiple Sclerosis Service Organization of New Jersey, an independent group, is devoted to the interests of MS victims in the state. The MSSO started originally with one donated wheel chair. Now, more than 200 such chairs and much other equipment, are out on loan to multiple sclerosis victims. In addition to this Service Organization is campaigning for funds to build a nursing home for victims of the disease who are too ill to be cared for at home. This campaign is being carried on throughout the state. The organization plans to break ground for the nursing home this year.

Dr. Dodd S. Carr, a resident of Belleville until recently, has joined Bart Laboratories and Design, Inc., as vice-president of research, according to S. G. Bart, president of the Newark firm.

Part Two: Charter Study Group Advises City Manager Government For Belleville

Council Manager Form Defines Responsibilities

B. COUNCIL-MANAGER FORM Ideally, a municipal government should be composed of two branches. The legislative branch should be completely responsible to the people; therefore, they should be a policy-making body with supervisory powers over the administrative branch. The administrative branch should be composed of responsible and in their particular duties, with a competent administrative head, qualified by reason of thorough training and experience in all phases of municipal management.

The Charter Study Commission recommends to the people of Belleville the Council-Manager Plan of the Optional Municipal Charter Law of 1950 as the form of municipal government which comes closest to attaining this ideal. The specific plan recommended to meet the particular Manager Plan D, characterized by a 7-man council, 4 elected from wards and 3 from the town-at-large; ward members and at-large members elected for four-year terms alternately every two years; and a municipal manager appointed by the Council.

Manager's Powers As Chief Executive

THE MANAGER is the chief executive officer of the municipality. He is responsible for the enforcement of all laws and ordinances; negotiates contracts, subject to the approval of the Council; appoints and discharges department heads and subordinates, within the limitations of Civil Service, makes recommendations to the Council concerning this ideal. The specific plan recommended to meet the particular needs of Belleville is Council-Manager Plan D, characterized by a 7-man council, elected from wards and 3 from the town-at-large; ward members and at-large members elected for four-year terms alternately every two years; and a municipal manager appointed by the Council.

Election by Wards Would Improve Representation

ELECTION BY WARDS AND AT-LARGE. The Charter Study Commission is convinced that there are areas of Belleville where the inhabitants have not received equal consideration in the matter of services and facilities provided by the municipality. This neglect is due principally to geographic separation and topographic conditions, but has been aggravated due to lack of responsible representation in the town government. If any form of government is to succeed in Belleville it must receive the support of all citizens and must be representative of all citizens. Such representation should not be left to chance or to promises made by candidates before election but each area should have a spokesman in the legislative body. Election by wards has the additional advantages of: permitting candidates of limited financial means to conduct door-to-door or neighborhood campaigns in the areas where their reputation is most likely to be well-known; permitting candidates to campaign against persons of similar racial and religious origins, thereby removing these objectionable features from politics; and, providing a brake upon the complete domination of the council by a single group or political organization through insuring a minority representation at all times.

Non-Partisan Elections Are Another Feature

NON PARTISAN ELECTIONS. The Charter Study Commission was in unanimous agreement that municipal offices should be filled by non-partisan candidates. Further, the variations of council-manager government available to a municipality the size of Belleville do not permit partisan elections.

Checks and Balances

Eighty-four per cent of cities with council-manager government have elected the council by non-partisan elections. CHECKS AND BALANCES. At any level, federal, state or local must have two essential characteristics in order to operate successfully. The first is separation of legislative and administrative powers; totally absent in commission government, separation is at a maximum in council-manager government. The second characteristic is a system of checks and balances; each branch of government must have a strong enough check on the other so that a continuous balance of power is maintained. Since the branches are not separated, there are no checks or balances in commission government. Let us look at council-manager government as recommended by the Charter Study Commission.

There are two main checks on the manager. First, the type of manager needed by Belleville is a competent, well-trained, experienced person making a career of municipal management; such a man can only expect to advance by operating this community efficiently and economically and then pointing to his record. The second check is designed to control the manager if a councilman who attempts to usurp the policy-making function of the government; the council may fire him at any time.

The manager has two checks on the council. First, any councilman who attempts to interfere in the administration of the town departments by giving orders to the employees will be removed from the council upon conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Manager Type Growing Rapidly Throughout Nation

C. OTHER BENEFITS FROM ADOPTION OF THE RECOMMENDED PLAN

The benefits accruing from the adoption of COUNCIL-MANAGER PLAN D fall into two categories, those due to adoption of the particular form of government involved and those due to adoption of any form of government under the OPTIONAL MUNICIPAL CHARTER LAW of 1950.

Benefits of Council-Manager government include:

BETTER GOVERNMENT. This is proven by the continual change to council-manager government by municipal governments. A total of 7,285 cities and 15 counties as of January 1, 1954 are recognized by the International City Managers' Association; an increase of 272 in the preceding 4 years. A total of only 50 cities have abandoned council-manager government by vote of the people, primarily as a result of continued effort on the part of disgruntled politicians who could no longer follow their free and easy ways. The introduction of true business management to municipal government is appreciated by the voters: 14 municipalities which held referendums in 1953 on the continuation of the council-manager plan voted to retain it and a total of 9 municipalities have reelected it after previously abandoning this form.

Charles Edison, former Governor of New Jersey, said, "A good council-manager charter is to a city what a good constitution is to a state. It makes good government easy and natural, boss-ridden government difficult and unnatural. The council-manager plan gives government the democratic control by putting a professional in charge of city services and making him responsible."

Keep Commission Form And Taxes Keep Jumping

LOWER COST. Competent and informed observers of the government of Belleville have stated that, in their opinion, Belleville cannot escape a tax rate in the vicinity of $7.50 in the next few years under the commission form of government. The Charter Study Commission has been advised that any change to a form of municipal government, which includes a competent administrator, thoroughly familiar with municipal financial matters, is the only solution. Experience in other cities has shown that a good manager is able to save his own salary several times over and still provide better service and a more efficient administration. Reduction of the present commissioners' salaries to that recommended by the Charter Study Commission for councilmen plus that money saved through elimination of the salaries of Deputy Commissioners would pay the salaries of the elected officials under the council-manager form. Efficient and coordinated administration would reduce expenses further.

Benefits due to the structure of the Optional Municipal Charter Plan of 1950 include:

NEW GOVERNMENT WOULD BRING ADDED FLEXIBILITY

GREATER HOME RULE. Older State Statutes setting up forms of municipal government severely limit the powers of the municipality. If a power is not specifically granted, it cannot be assumed. It frequently happens that a municipality with an unusual problem must appeal to the State Legislature for special improvement. The town of Belleville does not issue such a report to the citizens although it is within the province of the Board of Commissioners to do so. The Recommended Charter, Article 9, requires the manager to make an annual report of the operation of the city to the council and public.

CODIFICATION OF LAWS. Every citizen of a community should be able to easily determine what laws are on the books governing them. Although many modern communities have codified their laws into a single volume, Belleville has not. Under the Recommended Charter, this will be an annual responsibility of the town clerk and such a compilation would always be current.

RECALL. The citizens of Belleville have always had the power to remove a commissioner from office. However, under the terms of the Walsh Act, it was extremely difficult; the number of times that the procedure of Recall was invoked under Commission Government in New Jersey is negligible. The Recommended Charter, describes the process for removing an elected official and electing his successor at the same time.

Group Suggests Citizens Review Recommendations

A. RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE PEOPLE OF BELLEVILLE.

You, the people of Belleville, should give our report your study and consideration. If, after so doing, you agree with our recommendations, we sincerely hope you will take an active part in the campaign to give Belleville what she so rightly deserves. An ECONOMIC AND EFFICIENT GOVERNMENT.

Some Taxes Are Deductible In Filing Income

Deductions for state and local taxes on federal income tax returns are permitted under certain circumstances. Joseph F. J. Mayer, director of the Internal Revenue Service for the Newark District, declared today:

He explained: "You can deduct personal property taxes, state income taxes and real estate taxes which are imposed on you. You also can deduct state or local sales taxes and state gasoline taxes if the tax is imposed upon you, the consumer. Auto license fees and state capitation or poll taxes also are deductible."

"Cigarette taxes are deductible for the consumer in only a few of the states."

Mr. Mayer said the New Jersey cigarette tax is deductible. He added:

"If you had state income taxes withheld from your salary, or if you made estimated state income tax payments under a pay-as-you-go plan, you can deduct

Mitchell Visits "Ike"

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower shakes hands with his former Cabinet officer, James P. Mitchell, and wishes him well in the gubernatorial Primary Election in New Jersey on April 18. Mitchell was asked by the President to visit him in California for a few days to discuss matters of "mutual interest." After the visit, the President said that he could not participate in the New Jersey Primary and added that Mitchell is a man "whom I admire and respect highly."

Federal Grand Jury Indicts J. Guardabacchio

Joseph Guardabacchio of Belleville was indicted February 13 by the Federal Grand Jury on 18 charges of forging, cashing and transporting $15,800 worth of stolen savings bonds. Guardabacchio, 31, resides at 57 Magnolia Street.

Several hours before the indictment was returned to Judge Thomas F. Meaney, U. S. Secret Agents arrested Guardabacchio on charges of forging and cashing stolen bonds in Tennessee. Guardabacchio was at liberty in $10,000 bail on one of the charges in the indictment.

This charge was that he transported $15,075 worth of stolen bonds from Knoxville, Tenn., to Newark last November 10. He was arrested at Newark Airport when he got off the plane.

A dozen counts charge Guardabacchio with forging and cashing five $100 and one $25 stolen bonds in banks in Passaic County during November 1959.

Guardabacchio's wife, Mrs. Lorraine Guardabacchio, was sentenced in November by Federal Judge Richard Hartshorne to three years in prison on charges concerning forging and cashing stolen bonds.

Twelve others were sentenced at the same time. All were described as members of a ring which forged and cashed about New Jersey.
