Taxpayers: Here's Another $750,000 Bill; Realignment of Third River Through Town

Third River Project Costing $750,000 Due To Lack of Foresight

(See Editorial on Page Five)

Belleville commissioners' lack of foresight in anticipating the Third River flooding problem arising from the residential development of the Rutan and Fairway areas could now cost taxpayers a minimum of $750,000 to correct the resulting conditions. Costs of solving the flood problem would have been substantially reduced had the commissioners instituted appropriate safeguards before the housing development were raised.

"Hindsight certainly is an easier road than foresight and in our opinion had Fairway Avenue been concluded some 50 feet, plus or minus, of its present terminus, we would recommend that this area be reserved for floodplain in purposes," state the hired engineers who are recommending various plans to relieve Third River flood problems.

Additional criticism of Belleville commissioners is implied in the 23-page report written by the Summit engineering firm of Aurnhammer, Jeske and Aurnhammer.

"We would add that if this flood problem were considered as a whole prior to the construction of the walled section by Nutley," the engineers report, "a more advantageous hydraulic condition to both municipalities could have been effected. The result would have been a substantial saving."

Problem spots today are the Fairway Avenue section and Carolyn Road in Rutan Estates. With respect to Fairway, the engineers say that this is "the trouble spot" and "any solution without relieving the surface water condition periodically caused by unnecessary expense by the municipality."

Carolyn Road Homes

The engineering report expresses fears over the future problem of erosion concerning newly erected homes along Carolyn Road. "In the vicinity of Carolyn Avenue, homes have been constructed within 20 feet of the (river) channel and channel encroachment has taken place which brings the river close to the Belleville trunk sewer."

"Although no major erosion has taken place to date, there is concern that the river may not remain in the artificial channel recently constructed in this area," the report states.

THE COMMISSIONERS
Belleville commissioners during the past year have frequently been on the defensive with respect to Third River area problems. One controversial question involves a plan to erect four apartment buildings near Fairway Avenue and reports keep reaching Town Hall that despite a "know nothing" attitude of the commissioners, the

Sullivan, Pico Asked to Talk On 'Commission'

The Belleville Valley Association, still seeking guest speakers on the commission form of government, is inviting Commissioners Harry J. Sullivan and Nuccio R. Pico to address a future meeting. The valley group already has asked Mayor Isadore Padula and Commissioner Robert F. Grubini to speak on the merits of the commission form but both turned down the invitation.

Walter P. Weiss, spokesman for the Belleville Valley Association, told The Times that the group "is interested in hearing all sides of the proposals to change our municipal form of government, particularly which any change should be proposed at all."

Commissioners Sullivan and Pico have been invited to address the April 17 meeting of the Valley Association. The session is set for 8 p.m. in the recreation hall of the Second Baptist Church, 108 Stephens Street.

Commissioner George Kiernan has already addressed the group on the strong mayor council type of government and Salvatore R. Calabro, president of the Citizens' Tax Council, has presented the merits of the city manager plan. The Tax Council is the group which circulated the petitions which have forced the May 2 election in Belleville on a change to the Council-Manager government.

Kiernan has joined with Calabro and other town groups in supporting the change from Belleville's commission government.

CCC Elects J. Bass Veep; Jim LaMotta Announces 'Change for Dollar' Drive

James LaMotta, chairman of the Citizens Change Committee working for the adoption of the council-manager form of government in Belleville, this week elected John Bass vice chairman. Bass, president of the Rutan Estates Homeowners Association, resides at 93 Rutan Road.

LaMotta also announced developments in the CCC campaign including a "Change for Dollar" drive to obtain funds to help support the government change movement.

"Send a dollar for the change," LaMotta said. Checks made out to the Citizens Change Committee should be forwarded to the CCC's new headquarters at 143 Washington Avenue.

The new headquarters is expected to be open sometime today and will be manned until the government change election on May 2.

LaMotta emphasized that "the change has nothing to do with personalities. The issue on May 2 is not a question of what men should be in office but rather the bigger question of what government tools are at the disposal of the men in office."

The CCC chairman said he is certain that "were the present public officials members of a council under the manager form of government, they could do a better job at a much lower cost to the taxpayers."

"My associates and I believe all citizens enrolled in the fight for a better Belleville will want to take advantage of the May 2 referendum to give our community a modern form of government to meet the modern breaking tax burden," LaMotta concluded.

The Chamber's "Cherry Blossom Celebration" committee sent a program through the mails here is now reserved according to F. Douglas Wadsworth, chairman of the event being sponsored by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce.

Wadsworth reports that only two booths are yet to be reserved before the "Cavalcade of Progress" opens May 18-20 at the Belleville Elks Club in Washington Avenue.

Last week Sheehan Products Company of Stephens Street and the Omni Design Consultants of Little Street each reserved booths making a total of 27 booths reserved for the show.

Commission Will Consider Parking Lot Next Tuesday

The proposed municipal parking lot off Washington Avenue near Academy Street will again be considered by Belleville Commissioners next Tuesday at 8 p.m. An ordinance introduced by Commissioner Robert Grubini, tabled at the last meeting, will place before the governing officials for the third time next week.

Grubini's ordinance asks that $15,000 be appropriated to purchase the acre and a half tract. Several citizens objected to the purchase of the property at the commissioners' March 27 meeting.

The parking lot is being proposed for an area bounded by Washington and Hornblower Avenues and Rutgers and Academy Streets. The tract is atop a hill above Washington Avenue and adjacent to the synagogue of Congregation Ahavath Achim.

Mayor Isadore Padula, asked Grubini to table the parking lot ordinance so that he could come up with a "complete package price" on the cost of not only the land purchase, but the title searches and conversion of the property to a parking lot.

Padula said he personally does not believe the tract can be obtained for the $15,000 appropriated by Grubini's ordinance. Best estimates are that the total cost of the project would come close to $100,000.

GARDEN APARTMENTS
Attorney Leslie W. Finch, representing Paul Schwartz who owns much of the property, told the last commission meeting that plans have already been submitted for a garden apartment project for the same site.

Finch said the plans will be reviewed by the Zoning Board of Adjustment at a meeting April 18. The area is presently zoned "B Residential" which not only forbids garden apartments, but municipal parking lots as well.

Padula, however, said "there is nothing to stop the commissioners from changing the zoning in that area."

Four Eagle Scouts In Career Day Program
Four Belleville Eagle Scouts yesterday spent a day behind the scenes at industrial plants, professional offices and scientific laboratories. The activities were all part of the Robert Treat Boy Scout Council Career Day program.

Participants included Bennett Schwartz of 33 Van Wyper Place, William E. Baker of 209 New Street, David Dias of 77 Center Street and Clifton J. Brown of 28 Reservoir Place.

The four local Eagle Scouts joined 27 others from Newark and Irvington at yesterday's activities. After the on-the-job observations, the scouts will write papers telling of their experience and reactions.

Schwartz and Baker spent the day at Merrill Lynch, Pierce Fenner and Smith Inc., Dias was at Riker, Danzig, Marsh & Scherer and Brown visited Frank Gader and Sons.

Bass Quits Mayor's Group; Asks Padula to Help 'Change'

John Bass of Rutan Road has resigned from Mayor Padula's advisory committee so that he can "devote all my time and energies toward the success of the movement" to change Belleville's form of government. Bass, who was elected vice chairman of the Citizens Change Committee (CCC) this week, wrote Padula giving the mayor "one parting bit of advice." His letter then continued to "advise" the mayor to join the movement to urge voters to adopt the council-manager government type here on May 2.

Bass ended his remarks to Mayor Padula by saying "my parting advice is sincere, though I would be naive indeed, if I expected you to follow it." Mayor Padula is supporting retention of Belleville's commission form of municipal government.

In the letter to Padula, Bass states he has studied existing conditions in Belleville and "my study has disclosed that the rank and file of our residents have lost confidence in the town leadership as exemplified by the present commission."

Continuing, he told the mayor that the commissioners "are woefully lacking in the sense of pride in their community." He said the citizens "by and large feel the fault lies with the form of government" now practiced in Belleville.

The text of the letter to Mayor Padula follows:

"Dear Mayor Padula: "While I well realize that you, as well as others of the Town Commission, urgently need the advice, counsel and constructive thinking of citizens and taxpayers of the Town of Belleville, I am constrained to resign from your Advisory Committee."

"This week I have been appointed co-chairman of the Citizens Committee for Change of Government of Belleville, popularly known as the CCC, and I intend to devote all of my time and energies toward the success of this movement."

"As my parting bit of advice, I sincerely advise you to do the same. "I will briefly inform you of my reasons."

LISTS REASONS
"I have carefully studied existing conditions in Belleville. My study has disclosed that the rank and file of our residents have lost confidence in the town leadership as exemplified by the present Commission, that they are woefully lacking in the sense of pride in their community that every citizen should have, and that they feel that the Town lacks any vestige of the vision and constructive planning that would enhance its future."

"By and large, they feel that the fault lies with the form of government."

"In studying commission form of government, authorities agree that each commissioner becomes the King of his own department."

Miss Judy Fabiano Wins Last Week's Map Contest

Only one winner was named in last week's map page contest; she is Miss Judy Fabiano, an employee of the Fidelity Union Trust Company, Belleville and a resident of Bloomfield. Miss Fabiano wins $5 in the contest.

A brand new contest totaling prizes amounting to $15 starts today. Today's game is sponsored by the Garden Meat Market, 166 Garden Avenue. The first person to correctly identify the mystery person pictured today wins $5 while the mystery person can receive prizes totaling $10.

Rules for today's game follow: It is important in playing this fascinating game of identification to note these simple rules:

1) the winner must tell us who the person is whose photo is circled and where picture was taken; 2) entries in the contest must be made in person or by mail—not by phone; 3) the prize will be awarded to the one who submits the first correct identification; 4) all decisions by The Times are final; 5) there is a prize also for the person whose photo is circled; 6) only one entry per family is permitted; 7) contest deadline is 5 p.m. Monday; 8) Failure to comply with contest rules in all respects is cause for disqualification.

If no one identifies the circled photo and the place where it was taken, the prize will be awarded to the person who identifies the photo and the place where it was taken.

Sam Loria of Loria Motors is one of Belleville's most progressive merchandisers. He presently has a spectacular new showroom which displays his two foreign cars, the NSU Prinz and the Japanese Datsun.

State Highway Department workers this week closed up those ditches cut across Washington Avenue. Cement was used instead of the asphalt usually found in such patch work.

John Gilberti of 685 Joralemon Street and his business partner, John Guidice have taken over Johnie's on Washington Avenue. They renamed the shop, J and J Barber Shop which is located at 378 Washington Avenue. The building is now equipped with air conditioning and television. The barbers specialize in teenage and children's haircuts.

Arthur Pico Asks Separate Referendum Questions Here On School All-Purpose Rooms

Wants Proposed HS Item As Another Part of Ballot

Belleville school board members are studying a proposal by Arthur M. Pico to split the ballot on the school building program referendum tentatively scheduled for Oct. 17. Pico has asked that the question on constructing all-purpose rooms at Schools 1 and 4 be separate from the proposal to build a new high school in the stadium area.

Pico introduced the measure at the board's March 27 meeting but the item was tabled for further study and is expected to be considered again when the board meets April 24.

"I honestly feel if these questions are presented as a package deal, it would be a great injustice to the parents of Belleville," Pico told his colleagues. He added that if the voters are denied the chance of voting separately on the all-purpose rooms and the new high school, "I believe the high school referendum would be subject to only one thing and that's complete failure."

Pico's resolution was discussed privately by the board this week. Seconded by Dr. Frank Diringer, the resolution reads "Resolved, That the necessary steps be taken by the Board of Education for the purpose of placing on a public referendum the question of the construction of all-purpose rooms at Schools 1 and 4 and be it further

Arthur Pico Will Continue His Objections to Board's Paying Conclave Expenses

Newly elected school board member Arthur Pico is continuing his campaign to end the practice of paying teachers' expenses incurred by attending school conferences and meetings. He cast the lone negative vote on two resolutions at the last meeting—one to pay expenses of principals attending an all-day workshop in Irvington on May 9 and the other to reimburse the athletic director's expenses at a two-day leadership conference in outdoor education at Marshall's Creek, Penna.

"I have no objections to these people attending the conferences," Pico said, "but I do object and I will continue to object to their expenses being paid by the board of education."

Board President Dominick A. Lally noted the New Jersey State Board of Education has requested local boards to reimburse such expenses. "I think it's rather unfair to ask the teachers to pay these expenses," Lally said.

Ernest Arvidson, another board member, called it "imperative" that teachers and principals attend the conferences. "Our principals and teachers must be given the means to keep up with the various advances in education," he added. Arvidson said most industries frequently send their personnel to such programs "and even relocate entire families for the sole purpose of giving their workers more knowledge."

Both resolutions introduced at the March 27 meeting were approved by 6-1 votes.

Sheeran Talks About Primary Election Races

James J. Sheeran, West Orange Mayor and candidate for Sheriff in the April 18 Primary election, charged today that a few members of his party seem to have set up a dual standard on the question of holding public office.

So far as the governorship is concerned, he said, they seem to contend that it's "the American way" to have a primary contest.

"Some of them support Senator Jones, some favor James P. Mitchell and some are for Senator Dumont."

"But among the members of the so-called party screening committee the dictate is that there should be unity among the Republicans so far as the selection of a candidate for Sheriff is concerned."

"I wonder," said Sheeran, "how these screening committee members reconcile their positions. Some of them support Senator Jones, some support Mr. Mitchell and there may be some who support Senator Dumont. Why doesn't their desire for unity go to the top of the Republican ticket?"

Sheeran said it is his contention that the purpose of the primary is to let party members select the candidate they consider the most qualified and the one who will be the most representative of the party in the November election.

"Isn't it incumbent upon all of us," he asked, "to do our own thinking? Must we blindly follow whatever a caucus or screening committee tells us to do?"

"Shouldn't we consider qualifications and experience?" Sheeran said it is especially important for Republicans to use their own judgment when a caucus advises "a game of musical chairs" that would jeopardize a

Witnesses Set Goal Of Million Ministers

The Nutley congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses discussed plans this week on how the group will achieve the goal of obtaining a 20 per cent increase in new ministers during April. This is the goal set by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society for congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses world-wide, according to Roger Van Ness, presiding minister of the local group, which meets at 475 Franklin Avenue, Nutley.

Based on the number of ministers who reported house-to-house Bible activity to the Watchtower Society's world headquarters in Brooklyn for 1960, the organization could go over the million mark in ministers during April. Van Ness pointed out, should all of the 21,000 congregations attain the 20 per cent increase.

To help achieve this task Nathan H. Knorr, president of the Society, has outlined a special program of activity for the organization of an earth-wide scale. On each Sunday in April an important Bible topic will be discussed for an hour by a qualified minister of Jehovah's Witnesses at selected locations throughout the world.

During the weekend of April 21, the local congregation will transfer its meeting activity to the National Guard Armory in Newark, where a three-day Bible convention of New Jersey Circuit No. 2 will be held.

John Landy Completes Study of Submarines has completed the basic enlisted submarine class at the Navy's New London Submarine Base, Groton, Conn. He is an electronics technician seaman with the Navy.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan D. Landy of 384 Stephens Street, he completed the course March 8.

Most of the graduates have reported aboard the operating submarines and have nine months within which to qualify fully as submariners and be awarded "dolphins," the symbol of a submarine service.

Washington Merchants Again Have Contracts For Shoppers' Busses

Washington Avenue Merchants' Association is making an attempt to reorganize and is again considering the establishment of a shoppers' bus for Belleville. Frank Megaro, head of the group, called a meeting of merchants this month when Public Service representatives presented contracts to the group which is hoping to raise $200 a week to charter a shoppers' bus.

The bus would have a loop-shaped route and would complete the circuit every 40 minutes between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays. The route would be from Mill Street up Washington Avenue to Greyluck Parkway, to Passaic Avenue, to Joralemon Street to Rutan Estates and then back down Joralemon Street to Washington Avenue and finally to Mill street.

James Demarest of Public Service told The Belleville Times that "we expected the contracts to be returned right away" but "Cherry Blossom Queen Festival so far Megaro still has the un-

FOR A REPRESENTATIVE GOP

JAMES J. SHEERAN

Former F.B.I. Agent, Lawyer, Mayor of W. Orange

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

I believe in the American processes of a truly open primary. I believe in the rank and file members of the Republican party and I do. It is for this reason that I am a candidate for Sheriff of Essex County.

The Republican party does not suffer from a deficiency of proven talent and ability. There is no justification for the "Political inbreeding" that has characterized the candidate selections made by our party's so-called screening committee.

Republicans throughout the County may validly question whether it is new faces or new ideas which our so-called leaders fear. Would not objective, representative thinking provide an unwanted challenge to their monopolistic political philosophy; would it not jeopardize the autocratic control which they exercise over the destinies of the Republican party in Essex County?

They have chosen to give their blessing and support for Sheriff to a man whose background is devoid of legal or law enforcement training and experience. Furthermore, his nomination will cost the Republicans a seat on the Board of Freeholders, placing the acquisition of a majority on that Board further from the reach of the Party. Opposition to their inbreeding tactics is frowned upon as a threat to unity. Too much has already been sacrificed to this so-called unity—a unity which exists only in their select and irreproachable circle.

No political leader has any more power than the members of his party permit him to have. The voters, the County Committee, elected municipal officials and local Republican organizations have been ignored and by-passed. Our election system was devised to permit the voter to exercise a free choice of their own candidate—this right of primary choice is threatened with extinction in the Republican party, if we permit our choice to be dictated by a few.

As a practicing attorney I am well versed in Federal, State and Municipal law; as a former FBI agent I am experienced in law enforcement and the problems which its officers face; as Mayor of West Orange for the past three years, I am familiar with the problems the local municipalities face in their law enforcement responsibilities.

I pledge to utilize this combination of training and experience for the greater good and safety of the citizens of our County.

Easter in Clara Maass Memorial

EASTER SURPRISE: Little Karen Taylor, 21 months old, isn't quite sure what to make of these visitors at her crib in the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. The clowns and bunnies are part of the Ambassadors Unit of Salaam Temple, Newark whose string band entertained hospital children for Easter on Saturday. Karen is the daughter of Howard and Charlotte Taylor of 20 Reservoir Place, Belleville. The policeman is John O'Connell, the clown is Otto Schnebey and the bunnies (l-r) are Jane Segal and Gail Slavin. Young Karen, sent to the hospital with a complicated virus, left Monday evening and is now happily back at home.

HER FIRST EASTER: Only three months old, Vincenza Cordi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent M. Cordi, may be the envy of many Belleville children — she's already met the Easter bunny face-to-face. Vincenza was entertained by the bunny (Max Gerschler) and other members of the Ambassadors Unit of Salaam Temple, Newark, Saturday at the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. The group's string band played favorite tunes. Others above (l-r) are Fred Krauss of Fidelity Union Trust Company, the nurse Willa Moses and Dr. Palmer Burde of Belleville. The Cordis reside at 61 Lake Street, Belleville.

Nine Belleville Students On NCE Dean's List

Nine Belleville undergraduates at Newark College of Engineering have been cited for academic honors for the term ending in January.

They are Nunzio E. Cernero, 96 Emmet Street; Paul Coniglio, 103 Mount Prospect Avenue; William R. Daddis, 41 Forest Street; Harold M. Ford, 482 Jorammon Street; Harry M. Healey, 11 Belleville Court; Robert A. Katz, 53 Branch Brook Drive; Albert M. Klein, 22 Rutgers Street; John J. Mulqueen, 130 Mill Street; and Bruce M. Paul, 53 Rossmore Place.

The nine students all maintain ed a "B" average with no grade lower than "C" while taking at least 75 per cent of credit hours in a regular course of study.

S. J. House, dean of students, said the record of the Belleville students is especially applicable to their class standings and job placement at time of commencement.

John Passmore Aboard Carrier USS Saratoga

John Passmore of Belleville, a signalman seaman apprentice with the U. S. Navy, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier, USS Saratoga. The carrier is operating with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

He is the son of Mrs. Edith C. Massaro of 14 Naples Avenue, Belleville. The Saratoga, flagship for Commander, Carrier Division Six, has visited Spain, Italy, France and Greece.

Civil Air Patrol Will Have Display April 15

The Essex Composite Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol will exhibit displays of its activities Saturday, April 15 in the Demarest School, Broughton Avenue, Bloomfield. The displays will be shown between 2 and 9 p.m.

The show is being held in conjunction with the "Scout - O-Rama" sponsored by the Tamarack Council, Essex District of the Boy Scouts of America.

Newark Jaycees Will Have Door-to-Door Canvass For Members Saturday

The Newark Junior Chamber of Commerce announced today that it will conduct a door-to-door survey throughout Belleville Saturday in an effort to find potential Junior Chamber members for a new Belleville chapter.

Led by Gus Walsack, chairman of the project, a four-man team will canvass hundreds of homes in order to reach the 50 young men desired as the core for a new and separate chapter. Many of the team participating are Belleville - lies who work in Newark and now belong to that chapter.

Since the Newark "Jaycee" chapter has now grown to nearly 200 members, while neighboring Belleville is still one of the few large communities without a separate chapter, the survey project has been based on actual need.

To qualify as a Jaycee a man must be between 21 and 35-years of age; and willing to expand his own capabilities through active participation in community projects. The amount of time and effort expended on Junior Chamber work depends entirely upon the individual's feelings toward his own community.

The benefits of participation are broad and long lasting, providing a voice in community affairs, offering practical leadership training, as well as the chance to improve the community.

Social and recreational activities with men of the same age are also included.

Although this Newark Chapter project carries the blessings of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce as well as those of municipal leaders—the Jaycees are not connected with the former group. The chamber of commerce promotes the city; the Jaycees seek to improve their membership's latent talent for leadership by actively tackling community projects.

A "get-together" meeting will be held by the project team on Wednesday evening April 12 at 8 p.m. at The Acre Lounge, Mill Street, Belleville, at which time potential members will have the opportunity to meet each other and question the Newark Jaycees about the Junior Chamber program. Belleville men not contacted on Saturday are welcome to attend.

How is Commission Going to Spend $6M On May 2 Election?

The Citizens' Tax Council wants to know how the commissioners are going to spend a $6,000 appropriation in the budget for the special May 2 election on a change of government.

Thomas McGill of 12 Forest Street, spokesman for the Tax Council at commission meetings, was told that the money would be used to hire challengers and other miscellaneous expenses.

Mayor Isador Padula said two Republicans and two Democrats would be hired as challengers for each of Belleville's 24 voting districts. "They will be appointed by the county board of elections," Padula said.

McGill is interested in being given to challengers selected by the town on the basis of returned support for the retention of the commission type government.

McGill told last week's meeting, "I'll now go to the county and find out exactly what's going on." McGill was one of the circulators of the petitions which forced the May 2 election. Proposed is a change to the council-manager form.

He told the commissioners the Tax Council has 300 more valid signatures which weren't on the petitions submitted. He added that there were 1,000 people who didn't want to sign the petitions but who said they would vote for a government change if the issue were placed on the ballot.

IN AMERICA'S BIGGEST, TOUGHEST 1961 ECONOMY CONTEST...

Which man drove Rambler?

In the most realistic test of all-around gasoline economy ever staged—the NASCAR sanctioned 1961 Pure Oil Economy Trials at Daytona—Rambler won three trophies, held by driver Les Viland in the photo above.

No other make won more than one award... most won none.

Unlike other runs that put a premium on feather-footed driving, the Pure Oil Economy Trials closely parallel your own everyday driving experience.

Every U.S.-built production car is eligible. None are arbitrarily barred, as in some runs. In 1961, 145 cars representing all 5 U.S. makers competed.

Rambler American Custom with overdrive beat them all to win the cherished Overall Winner Trophy and captured the Class 6 trophy in competition with Falcon, Corvair, Lark and Tempest 4. In fact, it took the first 6 places and 8 of the first 10.

And Ambassador V-8 by Rambler won its Class, swept the first 8 places and 9 of the first 10 spots.

With speeds up to 65, and averaging more than 40 M.P.H., the winning Rambler American made 14 complete stops, shifted through the gears 15 times while circling the 3.7 mile course, and still averaged 26.86 miles per gallon!

This is the second straight year Rambler won the Pure Oil Economy Trials.

Want more proof of Rambler value? Then see your Rambler dealer. You'll find top gas economy is just part of your savings. Rambler costs less to buy, is voted most trouble-free by owners, has top resale value.

Rambler dealers sell twice as many compact cars per dealer as most other dealer groups. So, you get a better deal... on the best of the compacts, Rambler—world standard of compact car excellence.

Park Officials Say Blossoms Will Be Out This Weekend

This weekend should mark the opening of Belleville's cherry blossom display in Branch Brook Park. H. J. Van Cott of the Essex County Park Commission told The Belleville Times he expects the blossoms to be out the weekend of April 8. How did he arrive at that date? "Just an educated guess," was his reply. VanCott said that about a half-million visitors will walk the paths of the park for the colorful display, the largest cherry blossom display in the United States. He said the Park Commission's telephones ring constantly with queries, "when will the blossoms be out?"

He promises at least as good a display as last year's, "if not better." In an interview with The Times, VanCott reported that 2,200 Japanese Cherry Trees in Branch Brook Park withstood the record snows and cold weather of the past winter.

"The blossoms here usually come out a week to 10 days after those in Washington D. C.," VanCott said. Washington's trees bloomed this past weekend and the Essex County Park Commission believes the colors in Branch Brook Park will be on display starting this weekend "despite the cold weather of the past several days."

CHAMBER CONTESTS

Belleville's Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring several contests with the Park Commission and the Town Recreation Department in conjunction with the cherry blossom display. The contests range from making posters and taking pictures to writing essays on the famed blossoms, which the Chamber believes could be better capitalized upon to promote Belleville.

It is generally held that the Branch Brook Park display is more spectacular than the blossoms in Washington D. C. VanCott said the blossoms will, "in all likelihood" last through April 23.

The 2,200 Japanese Cherry Trees in Branch Brook Park are of the single and double blossom varieties in many shades from dark pink to white. One of the best times for viewing the display is at night when the blossoms are lit up until 10:30.

"Try to avoid Sundays," VanCott urges. "That's when the tremendous crowds turn out."

HISTORY OF BLOSSOMS

Belleville's cherry blossoms date back to 1927 when Mrs. F. E. Fuld of Orange donated funds to the Essex County Park Commission for the purchase of cherry trees. The first creditable display of cherry blossoms occurred in 1927 and since then, the display has been increasing annually in both grandeur and interest by the visiting public.

Since the gift by Mrs. Fuld in 1927, several thousand trees have been successfully grafted in the greenhouses under the Park Commission's jurisdiction. These trees have been planted in parks throughout the system to make cherry blossom time a real event throughout the county.

In all, there are 20 different varieties of single and double blossoming trees.

ing the entire Passaic River valley for flood control purposes. Barbone told last week's commission meeting, for example, that he was informed by the Army Corps that it was not aware a flood problem existed on the Third River.

Barbone told the commissioners that the Army Corps of Engineers suggest that Belleville forward details of Third River flooding. "They said there is a possibility the Third River flood problems could be included in the Army project," Barbone said.

Barbone told the commissioners that the Army Corps of Engineers suggest that Belleville forward details of Third River flooding. "They said there is a possibility the Third River flood problems could be included in the Army project," Barbone said.

Commissioner Grubbs disagreed. "This is a local problem," he said.

THE SOLUTIONS

The engineers hired for $10,000 by the Belleville commissioners recommend two different solutions. "Plan One" provides for construction of retaining walls from the Belleville-Nutley line to a point southwest of Carolyn Road with paved trapezoidal channel with an earth bottom. Cost of this phase of the project is estimated at $610,800 for improvements and another $152,100 for land acquisition; the total cost is $762,900.

"Plan Two" includes the same retaining walls as suggested in "Plan One" but differs in the treatment of the channel. The second plan provides for a modified retaining wall channel and trapezoidal earth section with an earth bottom. The second plan's cost is about $641,000 for the improvements and another $166,000 for land acquisition or a total cost of $807,000.

Since the flood problems along the Third River arise from inadequate planning by town officials in permitting the development of the Fairway and Rutan areas, it's now possible the improvement costs could be considered a local improvement. In such event, the $762,900 (or $807,000 if "Plan Two" is adopted) could be assessed against the property owners directly benefiting from the improvement.

and utilizes his power to build an independent political machine to perpetuate himself in office.

"One of the biggest objections to commission form of government is the horse-trading that goes on between the commissioners for their benefit and to the detriment of the public."

"It is an accepted belief that commissioners operate on the 'YOU WASH MY HAND AND I WILL WASH YOURS' principle, such as:

"If you will vote raises for my employees, I will vote raises for yours."

"If you will keep quiet about my budget, I will keep quiet about yours."

"If you let me spend what I want to, and I will let you spend what you want to."

"If you be good to me, and I'll be good to you."

"Don't raise a rumpus about who I hire, and I won't raise a rumpus about who you hire."

"If you will let me build my political machine, I will let you build yours."

"There is no overall planning in commission form of government. Each commissioner plans for his own department and is not particularly interested in the planning of the other departments. Each commissioner inevitably tries to enlarge his own power, prestige and patronage without due regard for the overall needs of the town."

Last week the commissioners swapped some land with the adjacent Glendale Cemetery in Bloomfield in conjunction with a realignment of the river. Many have pointed out that the realignment will also make available a more desirable area for the development of apartment projects.

Critie James Golden says the commissioners lacked foresight in obtaining federal financial assistance for the flood control survey now in way. A $750,000 Commission Blunder?

From Mayor Isadore Padula we have heard much talk about official concern over the plight of harried home owners residing along and "in" the floodlands of the Third River. Official promises, expressions of sympathy, and $10,000 of taxpayer money have given the community an eye-opening engineering report covering Third River flood conditions submitted to the Commission by Aurnhammer, Jeske, and Aurnhammer, Consulting Engineers of Summit, N. J.

If ever there existed one reason for Belleville citizens to discard the inefficient Commission form of government this is it! $750,000 worth!

The report begins with "Recent development of marginal lands along the Third River has caused the Commissioners of the Town of Belleville to become concerned about the present and future flooding on the river and the protection of home sites adjacent to the stream. The Commissioners are more specifically concerned with the problem on Fairway Avenue, where the Third River has inundated the road and some cellars every other year and the condition at Carolyn Avenue, where homes have been constructed adjacent to the erodible banks of the stream."

"These flood waters (Third River) cover a large portion of Fairway Avenue, affecting some twenty-three homes. The waters also flood the golf course and the low-lying areas at the rear of the homes on Fairway Avenue. Fortunately, most of the houses are constructed with first floors some three feet above the street. However, water has entered through the basement windows of many of the homes."

"In the vicinity of Carolyn Avenue, homes have been constructed within twenty feet of the channel and channel realignment has taken place which brings the river close to the Belleville trunk sewer. Although no major erosion has taken place to date, there is concern that the river may not remain in the artificial channel recently constructed in this area."

"As a point of interest we would add that if this problem (Third River flooding) were considered as a whole prior to the construction of the walled section by Nutley, a more advantageous hydraulic condition to both municipalities could have been effected. The result would have been a substantial saving to both communities in walling the river. . . . At this point the Third River could have been realigned to reduce the present 600 feet of channel to some 350-400 feet of channel and a major bow in the river eliminated."

"Hindsight certainly is an easier road than foresight and in our opinion had Fairway Avenue been concluded some 500 feet, plus or minus, of its present terminus we would recommend that this area be reserved for flood plain purposes. This train of thought has been eliminated by the fact of the existence of the homes."

The engineering report suggests two alternate plans to eliminate the flood condition. Plan One costs in excess of $750,000. Plan Two costs in excess of $800,000. And who is to pay the bill? If the project is deemed a local improvement the major burden to pay almost a million dollars will fall upon the home owners of Carolyn Avenue, Fairway Avenue, and any other area homes benefiting from the improvement.

In the unlikely event that the project cost is considered a general improvement then all homeowners will share alike the near-million dollar burden.

The situation is both tragic and sad. With part-time Commissioners jealous of their individual powers over their departments, officials do not feel free to inquire into the activities of another commissioner's department.

In their report the engineers state that the Third River flood condition "has apparently always existed." Such being the case why did our town officials permit the location of a housing development in a flooding area without making proper provision for the flood condition?

During his first term in office Mayor Isadore Padula opposed the creation of a Planning Board. Were a Planning Board in existence at the time Rutan Estates and its general area was developed, drainage problems would have been resolved by the Planning Board and not be ignored as in the instant case by public officials charged with a public trust.

And how about the failure of our public officials to contact Nutley authorities when that community recently built retaining walls to correct its own flooding problem in the Third River?

A full time city-manager would not have permitted these acts of gross negligence. His would have been a full time job overseeing the development of the community as a whole and not simply be engaged in the part-time job of running one of five departments, half the time with both eyes on politics.

We firmly believe a city manager, performing under a Council-Manager form of government, putting in full time on the job, would not have permitted the Third River flood problem to develop as it has — a $750,000 Commission blunder.

Last month it was $1,000 raises. Last week it was a bird-brain plan to establish a $100,000 municipal parking lot atop "Cardiac Hill." This week it is a $750,000 flood control plan. Next week it's a new police headquarters at $100,000. Next year it's a new school at Three Million. One has to be "off his rocker" to figure out where the money is all coming from. Maybe Revenue and Finance Director Isadore Padula will let us common folk in on his secret.

An Investigation Is In Order

Longtime Belleville residents have witnessed strange things happen under the dome of Town Hall, but nothing has been stranger than a recent occurrence concerning a vacancy at the Town Hall switchboard.

It appears that Mayor Isadore J. Padula, Director of Revenue and Finance, ordered a Civil Service examination be held for the position of telephone operator. The examination was held on Dec. 4, 1959. An eligibility list consisting of two persons was promulgated on Feb. 4, 1960. The Mayor was not content with making an appointment from that eligibility list, despite the fact that Rule No. 39 of the Civil Service Law and Rules Handbook reads as follows:

"Unless otherwise determined and announced at the time of examination or promulgation of an employment list, employment lists shall be considered as in force for two years from the date of such promulgation."

As we read this rule, the eligibility list should have been in force until Feb. 4, 1962. For reasons not quite clear, a new examination was ordered and a second eligibility list was established, and after the promulgation of the second list, someone ordered the merging of the two lists. As we understand the Civil Service Handbook Rule No. 39, the individuals whose names appeared on the Feb. 4, 1960 list should have been offered the vacancy before a second examination was ordered.

We have looked into this matter and our preliminary findings are most startling. We find that an employee of Mayor Padula's Revenue and Finance Department made an indirect approach to one of the two individuals whose names appeared on the 1960 eligibility list and asked her to withdraw her name from the list. This shenanigan is not only irregular but to us it appears highly illegal.

We have asked the New Jersey Department of Civil Service to investigate this incident and more on this subject will be reported in future issues of The Times-News. Involved in this job may well be our strongly-held suspicion that jobs at Town Hall are held open for those in favor with the powerful political machines. Time will tell whether or not our suspicion is supported by fact.

There is another section of the Civil Service laws and rules which may have been breached by Mayor Isadore Padula. Rule No. 47, Page 39 of the Civil Service Laws and Rules Handbook, reads as follows:

"No authorization for a temporary appointment shall be given when the name of any person eligible and willing to accept appointment remains on any employment list."

The eligibility list was promulgated Feb. 4, 1960. The names on the list were those of two Belleville citizens qualified, willing and able to accept appointment to the vacancy. Despite this knowledge, Mayor Padula continued a temporary appointee in the job. We believe this procedure was contrary to the rules of the Civil Service Commission.

Belleville taxpayers have a right to all the facts in this weird case. To deny this job opportunity to Belleville citizens who took the time and trouble to sit for a Civil Service examination advertised at taxpayers' expense is unfair and requires a thorough investigation not only by the Civil Service Commission but also by the Attorney General.

Undoubtedly Mayor Padula will try to hang his hat on Rule No. 42 of the Civil Service Handbook, which reads: "Forthwith upon receipt of the appointing authority's request for the certification of eligibles, certification shall be made to the appointing authority . . . of the names, addresses as last shown on the records of this (Civil Service) department and general averages of the three persons highest on the appropriate employment list for the class and willing to accept appointment under the terms and conditions offered shall be certified."

Since there were only two applicants who passed the exam for the job of telephone operator and subsequently were certified to Padula as eligible, neither one of whom was his favorite for appointment, the Mayor apparently requested a second examination in the hope that his favorite would qualify on the second go-around.

It wasn't so long ago that Mayor Padula called for an Assistant Treasurer's examination. By a strange coincidence the qualifications outlined in the job specifications were in line with the experience and background of the Mayor's son, Isadore Padula, Jr., who then was temporarily holding down the job. An exam was held. There was only one name certified to Mayor Padula. You guessed it. The Mayor did not call for a second exam but immediately appointed his son to the vacancy. This is the same job which the Mayor now has scheduled for a top salary of $10,056.

We wonder if Padula has one set of values for his family and political cronies and another for other citizens somewhat removed from the Mayor's personal and political family? The young lady who was on the eligible list for the position of telephone operator and passed over by the Mayor is one of 14 children. She is trying to get a job with security so as to help her widowed mother raise the remainder of her 14 children of school age.

Edwin O. Eisen Awarded U. S. Graduate Fellowship

Edwin O. Eisen of 118 Plenge Drive, has been awarded a three-year graduate fellowship under the National Defense Education Act. The fellowship, issued through the U. S. Office of Education, will carry stipends totaling $6,600.

Eisen, 21 years old, will be graduated this June by Newark College of Engineering. He will continue full-time studies there in chemical engineering under a three-year program leading to the Doctor of Engineering Science degree. The college will waive his tuition costs.

According to the Office of Education, National Defense fellowships have been awarded annually in all fields since 1958 when the Act was passed by Congress. They are given as a means of assisting top graduate students preparing to teach in the nation's colleges and universities. Eisen is one of five NCE June graduates who are listed among this year's 1,500 recipients.

A graduate of Weequahic High School, Newark, Eisen entered NCE in September 1957. He qualified for the college's special "J Section" on the basis of his mathematical aptitude, high grade average and general ability.

Students in the section pursue more advanced phases of study in chemistry, physics and mathematics during their freshman and sophomore years.

Suzanne M. Quimby Troth To R. W. McClintick Told

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Quimby of 48 Hillside Crescent, Nutley, formerly of Belleville, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Suzanne Marie Quimby, to Richard W. McClintick, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. McClintick of 50 Montclair Avenue, Nutley. The betrothal was made known Saturday evening, April 1, at a buffet supper for family and friends at the Quimby home.

Miss Quimby, a Senior at Nutley at Nutley High School, is a grandniece of Mrs. Ernest A. Reed of East Orange, and the late Mr. Reed who died for 24 years, from 1922 to 1946, as Essex County Supervisor.

A graduate of Nutley High School, Mr. McClintick is presently serving in the U. S. Navy, stationed at Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. Before entering service he was employed by Hoffmann-La Roche, Nutley.

Miss Quimby and her fiancé are active in Rainbow Girls and De Molay affairs. The bride-elect is presently Associate Worthy Advisor of Nutley Assembly, Rainbow for Girls, and will assume her duties as Worthy Advisor in May.

Mr. McClintick is Past Master of Nutley Chapter Order of De Molay. His grandfather, Mr. John R. Chadwick of Kearny, was the first De Molay in Kearny.

The wedding will take place early in 1962.

E. O. Theatre Group To Give Play For P.T.A.

The Little Theatre of East Orange, in collaboration with the Mental Health Association of Essex County, will present a play, "And You Never Know," Thursday evening, April 6, at 8 o'clock at School No. One.

The play, written by Nora Stirling, depicts a series of minor crises arising from a 12-year-old's jealousy of her sister, and shows how mother, father, and a daughter gain a clearer understanding of their feelings about one another by talking them over for the first time.

Tom Hollis will be played by Dr. Jules Makow; Eleanor, his wife, by Mrs. Gertrude Nadel, and Margaret, their daughter, by Kathy Sealey. David Drucker, director of community services, Mental Health Association, will lead the discussion.

Mrs. Dominic A. Lally, chairman of the school P.T.A. study discussion group, made arrangements for the presentation.

C.D.A. Sponsors Luncheon Party

Court Santa Maria No. 61, Catholic Daughters of America will sponsor a "Luncheon is Served" party on Monday, April 17, at 12:30 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Bridge Street. Tickets may be obtained from members of the committee or at the next monthly meeting.

Mrs. James Schleifer, Grand Regent, is honorary chairman; Mrs. Anthony M. Meehan, chairman; Mrs. Albert Nucci, co-chairman; Mrs. George Urcio, in charge of a special gift table. Assisting on the committee are Mrs. John Connelly, Mrs. Thomas E. Dillion, Mrs. Thomas Mack, Mrs. William McCoy, Mrs. Robert Palumbo, Mrs. William Sloan, Mrs. O. A. Savare and Mrs. Joseph Reilly.

Parents Assn. For Handicapped Hears Dr. Young

Dr. J. Warren Young of 259 Vreeland Avenue, Nutley will speak at a meeting of the Parents Association for Handicapped Children, Inc. tonight, Thursday, at the Nutley Elks Lodge, 242 Elks Lodge, at 12 o'clock. Dr. Young is a former member of the board of directors of the Visiting Nurse Association, and state Elks Crippled Children Committee, and has long been active on laydown fund raising committees, as county committeeman and various capacities in Republican circles.

His organizations include membership in the Essex and Hudson Counties Dental Societies and the ADA and American Association of Medicine. Dr. Young is a former member of Board of Education of the Essex County Vocational Schools. While on the board he was a delegate to the Essex County Federal Board of Education and the Federal Board of Education of New Jersey.

Last week Governor Robert B. Meyner presented Mrs. Esposito with the official charter for the association.

Final plans will be made for the first annual card party to be held April 28, at the Belleville Elks Lodge, 251 Washington Avenue, for the benefit of the handicapped. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Start Named Music Director Of Guild Show

Dick Start, Montclair State College Sophomore, has been chosen as musical director of "Fanny, the Frivolous Flapper," two-act musical comedy to be presented by the Theatre Guild of St. Mary's Church, Nutley.

The Guild's second annual Spring production will be given Friday and Saturday evening, April 28 and 29, as well as the afternoon of the 29th, in the school gymnasium. A 15-piece orchestra, including several Montclair State students, will play for the show.

"Fanny" will be a return engagement for Start who directed the musical portion of last year's Guild show, "Look Away, Look Away." A resident of Midland Park, he is presently studying for a B. A. degree in musical education, majoring in piano.

Despite his youth, the 19-year-old director has an extensive musical background. Studying music since he was six, he has taken accordion lessons for 10 years, and for some time taught accordion at Rizzo's Accordion Center, Paterson, as well as piano at the Metronome Studios, Ridgewood.

Start first became interested in theatricals when he served as stage manager for a variety show at Midland Park High School, where he is an alumnus. A versatile musician, he plays, besides the piano and accordion, the organ, clarinet and saxophone, and has his own dance band, a five-piece combo known as The Rhythmairs.

Former Belleville Man Marries In Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Hazel Joyce Spence, daughter of Virgil H. Spence, of 1163 Morley Avenue, Atlanta, Ga., was married to Howard Gray Ryer, Jr., son of Howard G. Ryer of Belleville, formerly of Belleville, Saturday afternoon, March 25, in Antioch Baptist Church, Atlanta, Ga.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson, pastor, performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the church.

Mr. Spence gave his daughter in marriage. She was groomed in Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt which terminated in a chapel train. A lace headpiece held her waist length veil and she carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. L. A. Stevens of Raleigh, Miss., was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. George Shealy of Brookside and Miss Rowena Wens of Nashville, Tenn. The bride's bridesmaids, Cindy Stevens of Raleigh, Miss., and Susan Spence of Raleigh, Ga., were flower girls.

The attendants were gowned in melon silk cocktail dresses with matching headpieces. They carried bouquets of Spring flowers.

Edward Fieder of Rutherford served as best man, and the bride's three brothers, Eugene, James and Julian Spence, ushered.

The bride is a graduate of Tennessee Bible School, Princeton, and will be employed by the Evangelistic Committee of Newark. A graduate of Belleville High School, the bride is groomed in the U. S. Navy, stationed at Pensacola, Fla., and the Philippine Islands, and is presently employed by New Jersey Bell Telephone Company, Irvington.

After a honeymoon in Florida, the couple will reside at 206 Montgomery Street, Bloomfield.

Conference Meet Next Wednesday Opens Track Slate

By ROGER WARTELL

Belleville High will open its track season next Wednesday when it joins other schools in the Big 10 Conference for the annual relay championship events at East Orange High School. Wednesday's competition should provide the Bellboys coaches with a preview of the season ahead.

Track practice has been held indoors for the past few weeks because of the cold weather, but it's hoped the Bellboys will be able to work more frequently on the outdoor track at Municipal Stadium during the next few days.

Belleville's track season prospects aren't the best by any means. Hard work and perseverance could, however, develop

Richard Abbott On College Crew Now in Florida

RICHARD ABBOTT
Marietta Boatman

A sophomore at Marietta College, Marietta, Ohio, is spending his Easter vacation in Florida behind the oars of a rowing shell.

Abbott is a member of the Marietta College crew which opened its schedule March 28 at Tampa University. The boatmen met three other Florida colleges within a five-day period this week.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Abbott of 11 Celia Terrace. Abbott rowed with the Belleville High School before he arrived at Marietta.

St. Peter's Meeting Paterson Loop Quintet

Belleville's championship CYO basketball quintet at St. Peter's played St. John's of Paterson last night in the first annual Easter invitation basketball tournament sponsored by St. Lucy's Church, Newark.

Other teams invited to the tournament participation are St. Francis Xavier, St. Lucy's, St. Michael's, Sacred Heart Cathedral, Holy Cross of Harrison and St. Thomas of Bloomfield.

the great potential that the squad possesses but which many believe will not be found in time to give the school a really great season on the cinder.

Although there are only five boys on the team, the Blue and Gold has a chance of breaking the 500 mark if the potential in the sophomore and junior classes is brought out. Spirit and hard work will be the key to this year's track season and its outcome.

SPRINT MEN

The sprints were last year's most glaring weakness and will be a big factor in the Bellboys' future. Some of the boys who have shown promise so far this year in the short distances are Bob McGown, John Visco, Stan Tomaszewski, and Gus Brown.

All of them are either sophomores or juniors and have a good chance to develop into top runners.

The hurdles, one of Belleville's top events last year, will prove a problem this season. A lot of boys have been trying them, and up till now the best bets have been Chris Lapara, Gus Brown, Bob McGown and Jim Eisenhardt.

The 440 yard run will also present a problem to the Bellboys. Two boys who we think will fill the gap are Ernie Stefanelli and Craig Lekowiak. In the 880 yard run, Belleville will have two returning veterans in Bob Cornish and Jim Debesis. Both of these boys ran well last season and should do so again this year.

The Blue and Gold will probably have the same situation in the mile this year as in last. Sophomore Jim Harvey has been improving steadily and should provide the squad with a first or second place in most of the meets. But unfortunately there hasn't been any other runners so far to back him up. There are a few boys who are working hard at it and we hope they will fill in the spot.

HIGH JUMP

The high jump, as it stands now, is one of Belleville's weaker events. Bob Byers, Jim Harvey and John Visco are all working hard on this event but it will be a while before results can be obtained. In the broad jump, the Bellboys have Gus Brown, Bob McGown and Stan Tomaszewski.

The weight events have almost suffered this year from ineptibility and the moving of a very promising junior. Returning from last season is Louis Mazza who will try and fill in some of the slack in the shotput and discus. Mazza won his letter last year and has improved enough to hold his own against most of the other schools.

Some of the other boys who will be attempting to take up the slack are Vincent Sorrentino, Roger Wartell and Ralph Eckert. In the pole vault Belleville will have two lettermen who will probably take most of the meets in which they compete.

Jim Eisenhardt and Mike Henderson are returning this year and should provide the team with a strong one two combination in this event.

Little League Will Conduct Tryouts This Saturday

Belleville's Little League tryouts have been rescheduled for this Saturday after being postponed due to last week's rainy weather. The tryouts will be conducted at School 7 playground starting at 9:30 a.m. and again at 1:30 p.m.

School 7 is at the corner of Joramelon Street and Passaic Avenue.

The morning drill is from the National League section which includes boys who live on the north side of Joramelon Street. The 1:30 p.m. session is for American League players who must live on the south side of Joramelon Street.

All boys between the ages of 9 and 12 years are eligible to play Little League baseball.

Ron SanFillipo Active In College Gym Show

Ron San Fillipo of Belleville participated in a physical education demonstration at Panzer School, Montclair Slates College on March 24 and 25. San Fillipo took part in the gymnastics portion of the annual spring show.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. San Fillipo of 229-6 Greylock Parkway, Belleville.

American Legion Nine Open to 18-Year-Olds, First Drills April 23

Belleville's championship American Legion nine will conduct tryouts on Sunday, April 23, it was announced today. The squad which copied the 1960 Essex County American League Junior Baseball Championship, will open its roster to include 18-year-olds for the first time this year.

John Kay, team manager, told The Times, "we're going to have even a stronger team this year."

However Kay anticipates tougher competition, primarily due to the league's new ruling making 18-year-olds players eligible.

The season opens at home Saturday, June 3 with a 2 p.m. contest in Belleville Municipal Stadium. The complete schedule will be released shortly, Kay told The Times.

TRYOUTS

Mert Marx, coach of the team, reports tryouts are only a few weeks off and he's hoping for a quick turnout at the April 23 drills.

The Legion is currently running a booster program to obtain funds needed to finance the team's activity throughout the summer. Kay said special ceremonies for the opening day program are being arranged.

CYO Grammar School Baseball Leagues Accepting Entries

Entries are now being accepted for the Essex County CYO grammar school baseball leagues. Games will be played twice a week, on Monday and Thursday afternoons at 4.

All entries must be filed by April 12 in the county CYO office, 425 Bloomfield Avenue, Montclair. League play will open the week of April 24.

Teams may include boys who attend public schools, providing they attend Confraternity classes in the parish they represent. A player must be under 15 years of age as of Sept. 1 of the current school year to be eligible. Each team is allowed a roster of 20 players.

More than 100 Participate In Intra-Mural Wrestling

By HOWARD SELIGMAN

Belleville High School held its first intramural wrestling championships March 30 in the school gymnasium. The program, headed by Stanley Scher, met with great approval from the students.

At the beginning over 100 boys participated. The list gradually diminished in size as more boys were defeated.

Practice sessions were held on Thursdays before classes to teach the boys the skills of wrestling. All boys wishing to attend were allowed to come and view the practice and pick up a few hints here and there.

All of the non-championship matches were two minutes long and were held under collegiate rules. The championship matches were three minutes.

Competing for the heavyweight title were Ralph Casale, weighing 195 and Walter Orth, weighing 215. The score after an extremely well fought match was 3-2 in favor of Casale.

In the middleweight division, Joe Del Guercio met William Groomie in an exciting encounter. Del Guercio weighed 170 and Groomie 172. Del Guercio was the victor, winning by a score of 5-1.

In the welterweight class it was Jack Betchick against Mike Hendrickson. Betchick weighed in at 155 and Hendrickson at 149. This match featured the only pin of the morning. After an interesting opening, Betchick pinned Hendrickson.

John Visco and Paul Hertz met for the lightweight crown. Vis-co's weight was about 120 and Hertz was about the same. This match was exciting to end with the score remaining close. The final score was Hertz six and Visco three.

Good sportsmanship was displayed throughout the wrestling program.

Sad Sacks Sadly Sunk in Cellar

The Straight Pins, with a record 40 wins and 29 losses, are still five and a half games ahead of the second place Nutty Squirrels in the Recreation Woman's Wednesday Night Bowling League.

No one has topped Ann Bertolino's high game 224, high series 56 and high average 138. Ann rolls with the Straight Pins. This League bowls every Wednesday night at nine at Branch Brook Lanes.

BHS Squad Set to Play 16 Games

By DOM GIOVACHINO

Belleville High opens the 1961 baseball season this weekend with home games tomorrow and Saturday with Lyndhurst and Montclair respectively. These two games open a 16-game schedule running until May 30, with a final holiday game at Nutley.

Nine of these games are scheduled in the Big Ten Conference, which year after year has proved to be one of the roughest leagues in the State. Pre-season speculation seems to rate Nutley at the top of the heap, with Montclair, Orange and Irvington, the defending champs, close behind. Of course, all the teams will be tough competition and Belleville should be right in the thick of it.

The Bellboys biggest weakness has been in recent years, pitching. Coach Ed Berlinski has 6-1, 170 pound righty Eric Hatch, back again, but needs at least one more reliable starter. Walt Smith and Larry Taligiani seem to be the most likely. Berlinski, will be looking carefully at all his charges, though, to try and fill this gap as soon as possible.

George Sheridan, a shortstop last year, switched to catching over the summer, and will probably provide most of the batting punch. He hit close to 300 last year and will probably better this season.

Sal Lo Coco, at first again this year, is hoped show as well as the plate. Bob Pucciarello, second baseman, Jerry Caruso, a transfer from Newark Academy, who hit .400 there last year, and Joe Petrillo, at third.

The Bellboys should be able to improve over last year's season with six letter winners returning: Eric Hatch, Frank Annichiarico, Bob Pucciarello, George Sheridan, Al Belas and Sal LoCoco. Aided by the other returnees as Jim Golden, Joe Petrillo and Dennis O'Hare, Coach Berlinski should have a well balanced squad.

Tomorrow's game will be at 3:30 p.m., and Saturday's at 2 o'clock. It should be a fine weekend of activity.

Nutty Squirrels Champs In Girls Hoop League

The windup in the Recreation girls basketball league Thursday saw the Nutty Squirrels emerge as the champions. Playing on the team were Angela Cuzzo, Janie Cuozzo, Virginia DiGirolamo, Joanne Bonforte, Barbara Meola, Paullette Meola and Julie Motzer.

The girls went through a whole season without losing a single game. The second place Zownees fought hard all season, but wound up with two games in the loss column.

Members of this team were Jackie Foster, Edie Gintella, Kathleen Mulcahy, Jeannine Wilson, Anita Gigerelli, and Carol Kovacs.

Top Local Scorer

St. Peter's Intermediate CY quintet fell to St. Michael's of Palisades Park, 68-42 Mar. 26 opening in the Archdiocesan Intermediate championship finals at Bayonne High School. St. Peter's had won the Essex County crown while St. Michael's was the holder of the Bergen-Union title.

The Palisades team jumped to a 35-15 halftime margin before the locals settled down to their usual game. Jim Phillips with 27 and Ralph Maresca with 22 points proved too much for the Belleville squad to swallow.

Jack Van Dyne and Richie Boyce were high scorers for St. Peter's with 11 and 14 tallies respectively.

After Bob Kiefer tied the score 6-6, St. Michael's ran off seven straight points before Richie Boyce dropped a foul for the Belleville squad. St. Michael's had a 15-9 margin at the close of the opening quarter.

The winning team spurred for six straight points to open the second period for a 21-9 lead and were never threatened again.

Pantry Squad Downs Dolphins, Wins League

The Recreation Intermediate Basketball League has been won by the Pizza Pantry team. The Pantry defeated the Dolphins 59-37 in a real hair raiser final play-off.

Going into the playoffs the two teams were very evenly matched. Although the Dolphins were in first place at the end of the scheduled League, they were split 2-2 with the Pantry.

At the first quarter of the playoff the two teams were tied at 12-12, at the half it was 24-20 with the Pantry in front. This difference remained unchanged at the three-quarter mark with the Dolphins still trailing 38-42. In a last ditch effort the Dolphins pulled up 2 points but still trailed 37-59 as the game closed.

It was Boyce who led the scoring for the vanquished Dolphins with a brilliant 27 points, Rodriguez accounted for 14, Wendling for 7, Primiano for 4, and Gaffney and Dunn 3 each.

Scoring for the new Champions were Laird with 16, Jack Van Dyn with 14, Invelt with 12, Carillo 10, Keifer 5, and Cozzarelli 2.

'1961 March for Peace' Rallies, Then Parades in Belleville

Ask Outlawing Of H-Bomb Use; Call CD Useless

An awesome picture of civilization was presented at a "March for Peace" meeting held in Belleville Wednesday, Apr. 29, when Dr. Edwin Lotz of Nutley called the arms race, "a dangerous game of death."

Dr. Lotz told the meeting that an all-out nuclear attack would leave just about 100 per cent of the population killed. Wednesday's session was sponsored by the Belleville-Nutley Committee for a SANE Nuclear Policy.

"We now have enough bombs to destroy the world eight times. What silly competition this cold war is. Why must we build another bomb? So we can destroy the world 80 times over? Or 800, or 8,000?"

He addressed a gathering of about 50 persons in the home of Mrs. Jerome Frank at 43 Rossmore Place, Belleville. Mrs. Frank is chairman of the Belleville-Nutley committee.

Dr. Lotz said he does not believe either the United States nor the Soviet Union would intentionally start a nuclear war. "But there is always the possibility of a miscalculation, a mistake," he dramatically told the meeting.

"We must reach agreement at the conference table to ban the bomb unless we want the distinction of being the last civilization on earth," he said. Dr. Lotz called his lecture, "Problems of Survival in the Nuclear World."

He reminded those attending that the nuclear weapons exploded before the voluntary ban in 1958 "have caused enough radioactivity to cause 100,000 mutations at birth in the future—and this radioactivity will not reach its peak until 1965."

Continuing, Dr. Lotz said he is amazed at the large number of people who "honestly believe they can survive a nuclear attack." He stated, "there is no such thing as a shelter from an H-Bomb."

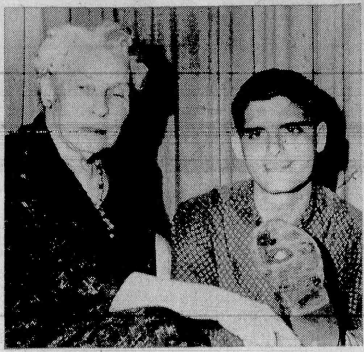

MARCHERS

Wednesday night's meeting was held in conjunction with the "1961 March for Peace," a march from McGuire Air Force Base in Wrightstown to the United Nations Plaza in New York. According to The New York Times, 3,500 persons were at the U.N. Plaza Saturday, despite rainy weather, to "shout 'ban the bomb!'" phrases.

Composed mostly of college and high school students, the 112 mile march from McGuire to New York passed through Belleville and Nutley on Thursday.

The Committee for a SANE Nuclear Policy does not give the impression of its supporting any specific plan for a nuclear treaty inspection methods or the other mechanics necessary for the outlawing of the bombs.

The "March for Peace" here was one of several marches held Easter week throughout the United States. It corresponded to the Aldermaston March in Great Britain which ended in London this past Monday.

MEETING OF THE AGES: Mrs. Nelle Anderson, 77, of Nutley takes a look at the worn shoes of 19-year-old Charles Hook who walked the entire route from McGuire Air Force Base to Belleville. He continued the "March for Peace" to the United Nations Plaza on Saturday. Mrs. Anderson joined the procession for its walk through Nutley and then rejoined the "march" at its rally in the U.N. Plaza. Mrs. Anderson lives at 40 Brookfield Avenue.

Dr. Katz Named Child Guidance Clinic Director

DR. BEATRICE KATZ—Dr. Beatrice Katz has joined the staff of the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic as medical director. The clinic, located at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, provides psychiatric treatment for parents and children residing in Belleville, Nutley, Bloomfield and Glen Ridge.

Dr. Katz received her B. S. degree from New York University.

Often referred to as a left-winged group, the committee sometimes leaves an anti-American impression by stating that the United States must be willing to sacrifice some of its national sovereignty for the betterment of the human commonwealth.

sity; her M.D. from Women's Medical College in Pennsylvania and interned at Good Samaritan Hospital, Lehigh, Pa. Her psychiatric residency was done at New York, where she also completed three-year specialty training on Children's Psychiatric Service. She is licensed to practice medicine in New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Dr. Katz's background in training and experience includes graduation from the William Alanson White Psychoanalytic Institute with certification as a psychoanalyst; psychiatric service to children at the New York Infirmary, The Girl's Club, and Barret House in New York; and further didactic and supervised training for the practice of child psychiatry.

In addition to the position of medical director at the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic where she devotes two days weekly, Dr. Katz is also engaged in the private practice of psychotherapy and psychoanalysis and serves as Associate Psychiatrist with the children's section of the psychiatric clinic of the Metropolitan Hospital in New York.

BHS Graduates of 1936 Will Mark 25th Year

Belleville High's class of 1936 will celebrate its 25th anniversary April 29 in the For Hill Restaurant in Newark.

Mrs. Carl Thieme of 138 Alexander Avenue, Nutley and Gary Vanderbilt of 74 Preston Street, Belleville are the chairmen.

BELLEVILLE ATTORNEY: Counselor Leslie Walter Finch of the law firm of Keenan and Finch, Belleville carries the placard of the Nutley-Belleville Committee for a SANE Nuclear Policy in the "March for Peace" through Belleville last Wednesday. Finch is one of the sponsors of the local committee. Other sponsors are Miss Carolyn Pohl of Belleville and Mrs. Nelle Anderson of Nutley and the Rev. R. Webb Leonard of the Vincent Methodist Church, Nutley.

UP SPEAK

Town Clerk Asked Qualified Operator To Get Off List

Dear Sir:

I was very upset to read in your issue of March 30th that I was not appointed to the position of Town Hall telephone operator because a veteran had qualified before me. The following are the facts.

I took the examination on December 4, 1959. I was listed as No. 2 on an eligibility list which was published on February 4, 1960. Shortly after I received notice of my qualifications, I advised Mayor Theodore Padula I was available for the job.

Some time later I heard that a second examination was to be held for the same job. I called the Newark Civil Service office about this and was advised that since my name appeared on the first list, it was unnecessary for me to take the second examination. I was also advised that regardless of what happened in the second examination since my name was on the first list, I would be considered for the vacancy before consideration was extended to anyone whose name appeared on the second list.

A few weeks ago, the Town Clerk, Eugene Barnett, asked me to withdraw my name from the eligibility list since Mayor Padula was interested in keeping in the job a temporary employee. I talked to the Newark Civil Service people and I was advised not to withdraw my name from the list. Imagine my surprise when Mayor Padula last

Leonard D. Ronco Will Address Wesley Men On 'Juvenile Delinquency'

"Juvenile Delinquency" will be the topic of a talk by Leonard D. Ronco of the Belleville Juvenile Conference Committee on April 18 before the Wesley Men's Club. The session, set for 8 p.m., will be in the Wesley Methodist Church recreation hall; the public is invited.

Ronco, a local attorney 10 years, is the present assistant counsel to the Essex County Welfare Board. A former assistant man, he has served as superintendent of the county board of elections, and secretary to the state board of architects.

He has served as referee of the Belleville Juvenile Conference Committee for the past six years. He was named to this post by the Hon. Harry W. Lindeman, judge of the Essex County Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court.

Ronco attended Belleville Elementary School One and was graduated by Belleville High School in 1943. He served in the U. S. Navy and studied law at the John Marshall Law School in Jersey City.

Someone has called Savings Bonds "money with your name on it." But a Savings Bond is better than money; it pays you good interest and if it's lost, stolen or destroyed, the Treasury replaces it free.

month appointed a person from the second list for the vacancy which has existed for more than one year.

I am writing this letter to set the records straight so that your readers may not form a wrong conclusion as a result of reading your comments following my letter to the editor which was published in last week's issue of your paper.

SANE SIGN: Mrs. Jerome Frank of Belleville (left), who is chairman of the Belleville-Nutley Committee for a SANE Nuclear Policy, is seen with Dr. Edwin Lotz of Nutley and Mrs. Robert Eldridge, both of Nutley after Wednesday's gathering of the peace marchers in Mrs. Frank's home at 43 Rossmore Place, Belleville. Dr. Lotz spoke on "Problems of Survival in the Nuclear World." Mrs. Eldridge, who lives at 194 Hillside Avenue, is executive secretary of the state SANE committee.

College Students Visit School Board Meeting

Five Belleville students at Newark State College visited the last school board meeting as an assignment for a course called "Development of Educational Thought."

The five are Phyllis Restaino, Gerry Serio, Annette Greco, Joanne DeNoia and Katherine Perry.

They are all freshmen a n d members of the 1960 graduating class at Belleville High School. Miss Restaino is majoring in "early childhood." The others are studying the "general education" curriculum at NSC.

Roger Guglicelli Studies Cooking

Army Pvt. Roger A. Guglicelli, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Guglicelli of 75 Lake Street, completed the eight-week cooking course at The Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Va., March 17.

Guglicelli received training in cooking, cake and pastry baking, meat cutting and operating a field kitchen.

He completed basic training at Fort Dix. A 1956 graduate of Belleville High School, Guglicelli was employed by Prince Matchabelli, Inc., before entering the Army last October.

Oldest Marcher in Parade

OLDEST MARCHER: Nutley's Mrs. Nelle Anderson of 40 Brookfield Avenue is welcomed to the March for Peace by Dr. Gerald Burlin, chairman of the New Jersey State Committee for a SANE Nuclear Policy. Mrs. Anderson, 77-years-old, joined the procession enroute to the United Nations Plaza for its parade through Nutley. Notice the new pair of sneakers she has for the occasion. Mrs. Anderson marched for woman's suffrage during the opening years of the century.

Girl Scouts Saved Two Years For Georgia Trip

After two years of planning and preparation six members of the Senior Girl Scout Troop 981 accompanied by committee members and leaders left Monday morning, April 3, for Savannah, Ga.

They were Scouts Mary Kraft, Grace Rapp, Mary Lou Bedardis, Danielle McCarthy, Barbara Regula and Betty Lou Russ, and Mrs. John Gorley and Anthony H. Verhaagen, committee members. Mrs. Verhaagen, leader, and Mrs. Daniel Tobia, assistant leader.

Scouts raised the necessary funds for the trip by individual baby sitting, selling newspapers, holding a card party and cake sale with the help of the Mothers' Club.

The group traveled by car, arriving at Rocky Mount, North Carolina, Monday evening, and on Tuesday evening reaching Savannah, Georgia, a distance of over 836 miles.

Yesterday, Wednesday, the group toured the Juliette Gordon Law Birthplace, and baked Sweet Wafer in the Troop House kitchen, the ingredients as well as the recipes awaiting them.

Juliette Gordon Low was the founder of Girl-Scouting in the United States. The Birthplace was dedicated on October 19, 1959 after two years of restoration following its purchase by the Girl Scouts. Many other points of interest will be visited while in Savannah and on the return trip home.

Lawn Spread Gyps Watch Out

Lawn spread gyps are at it again, according to Vasso Sampou of Vasso Sampou and Sons, Belleville. He warns Belleville residents to beware of con artists selling "rich - looking fertilizer."

A campaign, who has been in the fertilizer business locally several years, says that every spring it seems as if someone shows up to the doorbell, asks if you'd like him to spread some fertilizer on your lawn at maybe four cents a pound.

"It sounds like a bargain and if you say yes, you may find it takes a couple of tons of the stuff to cover your yard," Sampou says.

"The bill can come close to $100 and the delivery slip usually mentions lawn spread. This keeps the deal more or less within the law and the peddler then rushes to the bank to cash your check before you can stop payment."

Bears Top Team For Season Ended In Sr. League

The front-running Bears team took the 1960-1961 Championship in the Recreation Senior Baseball League recently by clinching out a 59-48 drubbing to the hard fighting Bruins.

The Bruins won the right to meet the first place Bears by defeating the Chets Cleaners 38-36 in the semi-finals of the playoffs. In spite of fine 21 point scoring by Cafone, 11 points by Graziano and 10 points by Terri, the Bruins just couldn't come up with enough to control the Bears.

The Bears played a good team game with every man accounting for some of the score. Joynt led the scoring for the new Champs with 18 points and he was aided by Cullen who poured in 15 points. The rest of the team scored as follows: Prieto 8, Loree 6, Weinstein 5, and Nissocqua 5.

This victory for the Bears broke the hold of several years which the Chets Cleaners had on the Championship.

WNTA-TV Dismisses Ed Cooperstein as Head Of Programming at Outlet

Edwin Cooperstein, program director at WNTA-TV in Newark 10 years and a resident of Belleville, said he was dismissed from the post last Thursday night by a meeting with Gen. David D. Meyner last Tuesday. Cooperstein and Meyner met to discuss the future of the state's only television station which is being sold by National Telefilm Associates.

Cooperstein, who lives at 213 Brook Drive, said his dismissal from the $12,000 job was on charges of "insubordination" stemming from his meeting with Meyner.

His dismissal came when Cooperstein did not sign a document forbidding him "to discuss WNTA with any party" which might be interested in purchasing the station.

The Belleville director told NTA officials that he met with Meyner as a friend and in an advisory capacity. Cooperstein directs Meyner's weekly television hour seen over the station.

will remain a New Jersey outlet. Groups outside of New Jersey are interested in purchasing the station, Channel 13. Meyner has asked Atty. Gen. David D. Meyner to go before the FCC to block any move to take the station out of the state.

One of the groups bidding for the station would make it an educational channel. The FCC is reported to be concerned that while many cities with only two or three channels have educational outlets, New York and Los Angeles, the only two cities having seven channels, lack educational television facilities.

WNTA-TV has earned national recognition because of its alert and adult programming. It has pioneered in several television firsts and has won wide approval through such programs as "The Play of the Week" and "Open End" with David Susskind.

The station has also broadcast programs seen over independent stations in other cities for the New York audience.

Cooperstein is being represented by Mel Wallenstein of the Newark law firm of Lowenstein and Spizer.

We read and hear a lot about U. S. Savings Bonds as "the present with a future," the gift that keeps on growing." Never forget that you can give your self a fine present each payday, where you work or where you bank, buying these bonds.

Slides Available To Civic Groups

Postmaster L. A. Reilly of the Newark Postal District has announced that the new Post Office Department color film slides entitled "Classes of Mail" are available for viewing by firm mailers, business organizations and civic groups. The Post Office will provide the projector and screen for the viewing of the slides.

Roger Wartell, president of the Junior Class, was official host for the evening. Acting as master of ceremonies he introduced singing Vic Lombardo and Pat Petrella. Music for dancing was provided by Johnny Dee and the Sounds.

The sumptuous meal consisted of fruit cocktail, consommé, braised beef with string beans

McElroy is Chairman Of Cubs 'Webelos Day'

John R. McElroy of Bell Street has been named chairman of the Belleville Cub Scouts' "Webelos Day" scheduled for Saturday, April 22. Announcement of McElroy's appointment was made today by Ernest Arvidson of 178 Floyd Street, chairman of the Belleville District of the Robert Treat Boy Scout Council.

McElroy, who is assistant cubmaster of Pack 350 sponsored by the Fewsmith Presbyterian Church, defines "Webelos Day" as "a one day event centering around three areas of interest: competitive events, scoutcraft demonstrations and outdoor projects."

All cub scouts and fathers are invited to participate in the April 22 event which will be held in Belleville Park. More than 30 cub scouts from the Belleville Pack are expected to attend.

MORE BONNETS: Modeling entries in the St. Peter's Civic Club contest, these grammar school pupils (l-r) are Steven Parrillo Jr., Theresa Ingino and Eileen Walsh. Steve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Parrillo Sr. of 190 Ampere Parkway, is showing an Easter basket — a baby duck surrounded by colorful creations. Steve said he's "not sure if the duck is real, but it looks real". Theresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ingino of 11 North Seventh Street, has the words "I'm Cracked" written on her bonnet which represents a cracked egg shell. Eileen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Walsh of 46 Franklin Street, calls her bonnet simply "an Easter basket turned upside down." The trio's work won prizes in the Civic Club's contest at St. Anthony's School.

School 10 Sees Easter Program

Kindergarten Presents Play

The second grade Easter program at School 10 was presented March 28. The flag salute led by Thomas Jones was followed by a recitation from the Bible by Donna Cervasio.

Bonnie Allen introduced poems by Karen Gaschke, Dennis Pindar, Paul Calabrese, Margaret Ann Di Chiara, Donna Cervasio, Joyce Brechtbill, Carol Freid and Pamela Sebbard.

Carol Freid announced Pamela Sebbard's piano selection, "Swaying Birches" and the Girls Choir in a medley of Easter songs.

Margaret Ann Di Chiara presented the cast of the play, "The Rabbits Who Changed Their Minds." Players were Jeffrey Coeyman, Dennis Shevitan, Ralph Liloia, Charles Zeigler, Sam Molinari, Karen Schaffer, Denise Roselle, Susan Azzara, Donna Viviani, Stephen Xenios, James Breidenbach, Randall Note, Edward Mazza, Joseph Pedunas, Thomas Jones, William Foselli, Gary Giubilo, Nicholas Amorello, Paul Amorello, Stephen Tague, Rosemary Arminio and Paul Calabrese.

Karen Gaschke announced the final songs of the program and "A Chorus Thought for Easter" by Carol Freid.

The kindergarten at School Two presented its spring program at 2 p.m. March 28th.

Rudy Petrole was the announcer and conducted the opening exercises. Leo Valentinsson and Vincent Pennabere recited poems. There was a choral recitation by Joseph Hermida, Debbie Indiero, Karen Coponi, Maria Ross, Leonard Goodman and Anthony Mancuso. The kindergarten quartette sang two spring songs.

A short play entitled "Spring Neighbors" was presented and the cast included Michele Salerno, Ramona Riss, Ann Brave, Michelle Tarbell, Vincent Potito, Billy Angelo, Gerald Russomano, Gregory Galletto, Jimmy Brown and Tommy Polentone.
