School Architect Alfonso Alvarez Explains Above Diagram

(The following explanation of the above map was prepared for the Belleville Board of Education by architect Alfonso Alvarez of Montclair.)

Thorough investigation by your Architect's office in close cooperation with the Board of Education Planning Committee and educational consultant, Dr. F. McCormick of three basic secondary school plan types, i.e., campus, semi-compact and compact plans (with the goal of obtaining the most practical and economical yet flexible solution geared to fit the requirements indicated by Belleville's educational curriculum and restrictions imposed by the site) resulted in the choosing of the semi-compact plan which is shown in the accompanying illustration.

Evan Thomas In Poor Condition After Coronary

Superintendent of Schools Evan Thomas suffered a coronary heart attack in his home at 153 New Street Tuesday at about 9:20 p.m. Thomas was taken to the Clara Mass Memorial Hospital by ambulance and was reported in "poor" condition last night.

Albin Oberg, hospital director, said yesterday that Thomas was in an oxygen tent and was conscious. He suffered a similar attack about five years ago. Except for his wife, Mr. Thomas is not being permitted visitors.

Joseph Cappel, 589 Jorammon street, owner of Branch Brook Manor corner Mill street and Washington avenue is adding to his present facilities. He has under construction a new wing to be used for catering, which is to be known as "The Bridal Staircase". Mr. Cappel says bookings may be arranged now.

School Board President Dominic A. Lally is resting comfortably after a recent operation for a tumor on his thumb at Columbus Hospital, Newark. Lally is up and about and he attended last night's meeting of the Belleville Board of Education.

Board Members Meet to Approve Project's Cost

The general plan and map of the area for the proposed new Belleville High School was released last night after school board members considered cost figures for the project. Total cost of the high school project and the building of two multi-purpose rooms at Schools 1 and 4 is estimated at $2,900,080. While school board members were to act on the actual figure last night, after this edition's deadline, Schools Superintendent Evan Thomas said the $2,900,080 "is just about on the nose."

Thomas notes the figure is within the estimated scope presented in the Rutgers Report. Although not all board members were polled by the Times, those contacted assured adoption last night of the $2,900,080 figure for the school referendum question set tentatively for October 17.

The actual plans for the high school are now being reviewed by the New Jersey State Department of Education. Because of the high cost of preparing a rendering, or picture, of the proposed school, architect Alfonso Alvarez of Montclair won't have such a sketch available until after the plans have been approved by the state.

Likewise, the school board plans to wait until state approval is made before officially setting the referendum date, but it's probably that the election will be conducted October 17.

The actual construction cost of the high school, according to preliminary estimates by Alvarez, would be $1,900,080. Construction costs of the two multi-purpose rooms at the elementary schools would be $300,000 and about another $25,000 to $30,000 would be needed for fees, furnishing and other equipment.

The state is expected to reply to the Belleville Board of Education within two to four weeks, "or certainly before the end of August," Thomas reports.

Alvarez's plans include a 40-room high school plant on the 14-acre site at Division and Passaic Avenues. The school would accommodate between 750 and 1,000 students.

Sanctuary Dedication This Sunday

The ground-breaking ceremony for the new sanctuary of the Montgomery Presbyterian Church, Mill Street, will be held following the 10 o'clock worship service this Sunday.

The Rev. Arthur W. Stevens, recently installed pastor, will lead the procession of officers and members from the Christian Education Building where services presently are being held, to the lawn beside the Church Sanctuary where the brief ceremony will be held.

Last year all services of worship were halted in the sanctuary when it was deemed hazardous, due to structural weaknesses of the walls and roof.

Several months ago the congregation voted to authorize construction of the new building which will begin a few days after the ground-breaking and it's hoped the structure will be completed by the end of September.

David Demarest, president of the board of trustees, is chairman of the building committee.

Belleville Had 52 Cancer Deaths During 1960

In the continuing battle against cancer, the number of fatalities in Belleville decreased last year. In 1960, 52 local persons died of cancer, compared to 63 deaths in 1959. The figures were compiled by the New Jersey State Department of Health and distributed by the New Jersey Division, American Cancer Society. On a statewide basis, cancer deaths rose from 10,633 in 1959 to 10,655 last year.

Owen G. Hunt, president, New Jersey Division, American Cancer Society, pointed out that no matter whether statistics indicate a decrease or increase in fatalities due to cancer, the change in any case is so slight as to demonstrate conclusively that there can be no slackening of our efforts until this battle is won.

"Every community in our state, and in the nation, is in reality a battleground where the weapons are education, service and research. Cancer Crusaders

McCoy Says No Hardship; Gruhin Mad

Commissioner Robert Gruhin, proponent of apartments for the Krugman-DePetro tract behind Fairway Avenue, labeled the area a dump Tuesday night. Gruhin blasted the Fairway Civic Association for refusing an invitation to discuss the apartment plans with Krugman and DePetro and he discounted the possibility that one-story homes would be erected instead of apartments. He told members of the Fairway Civic Association that apartments would certainly be an asset to the area, "instead of the dump up there now."

Another startling development Tuesday night occurred when Town Treasurer Francis McCoy from the floor interrupted Gruhin's praises of apartments with a report that the Krugman-DePetro firm "knew exactly what they were running into when they bought the property because apartments were turned down for that site in 1956."

McCoy later told this newspaper he interjected the comment to counteract Gruhin's attempt to show that a hardship exists on the part of Krugman and DePetro; a hardship would provide a basis for granting a variance for the apartment construction.

Gruhin was obviously disturbed over McCoy's remark and he mumbled something about "I'll see you tomorrow."

McCoy was referring to the November 8, 1956 meeting of the Belleville Board of Commissioners when three commissioners, Mayor Isadore Padula, Elmer S. Hyde and Kenneth Smith, all said they would vote against Carl Zimmerman's proposal to build two-story apartment buildings on the property which all were purchased by Krugman-DePetro.

According to McCoy, Zimmerman never took his application to the Zoning Board because the proposal had already been doomed by the action of the Commissioners, which has to approve all decisions of the Zoning Board.

McCoy notes that the Clifton firm of Krugman-DePetro bought the seven-and-a-half acre tract in December 1957, over a year later, after the zoning board had shown that when Krugman and DePetro purchased the property, they were aware that apartments for the site had already been denied once before by the Town of Belleville.

Although the proceedings of the November 1958 meeting appear in detail in the official minutes, Gruhin said he was "unaware" of any such action.

ONE-FAMILY HOMES

Charles A. Borbone of 253 Fairway Avenue, president of the Fairway Civic Association, told Gruhin that Belleville Building Inspector Thomas Greco had told him single-family homes could be erected on the Krugman-DePetro tract. Gruhin said single family homes "are out of the question" because of poor sub-teranean conditions.

Krugman and DePetro in April 1958 applied for a subdivision of the property for approximately 48 one-family homes. Although

Mr. Wilto Winks, a physical education instructor with the Belleville school system 25 years, has died suddenly. Services were held last week in Brooklyn.

Work on the swimming pool at the Friendly House of the Silver Lake Baptist Church, 106 Franklin Street, hasn't been completed. A new boiler has been installed and progress is being made slowly. Most of the work is being done by volunteers and the pool is expected to be ready now in about two weeks.

The Fidelity Union is reported to have purchased the building next door and an announcement is expected soon that the Trust Company will provide "drive-in bank" facilities at the new location.

No word from Belleville's ward commissioners who supposedly still are studying protests over the establishment of new ward boundaries here in connection with the switch-over to Council Manager government next year. One report is that County Boss Dennis Carey's two appointments on the board are teamed with Belleville Town Clerk Eugene Hamer, Mayor Padula's appointee, in outvoting the "neutral" ward commissioners 3 - 2. Carey and Padula, although Democrats, are in different political camps than Belleville Democrat Chairman Ralph Vanzo who's campaigning for any logical ward division.

needed to provide a minimum state - required area for playground, parking and service facilities.

In general, the school plant on two levels, is composed of three primary sections: From left to right (Passaic Ave. to Division Ave.) the lively arts area and gymnasium (toward stadium) separated by the classroom wing containing cafeteria, library and administration areas. An approaches the main entrance and lobby area (upper level) while walking east from corner of Passaic, Liberty and Division Avenues. Left of the lobby, the lively arts section, containing arts, crafts, art appreciation, industrial arts (graphic arts, mechanical drawing, wood, auto and metal shops) also serves directly the auditorium and music-drama areas. In front once again and to the right, directly off the lobby, is the administration area. Toward Greylock Parkway and off the auditorium proper extends the upper level educational wing containing classrooms and laboratories for the science, mathematics and business education departments.

The lower level (from left to right near Greylock Parkway) contains the mechanical equipment area, receiving and stock, kitchen and cafeteria, and home economics areas separated from Greylock Parkway by the service area and student parking lot, accessible from both Greylock Parkway and Passaic Avenue. Directly in front of these sections and located under the upper level classroom wing is a double classroom wing consisting of classrooms of the social science, English and foreign language departments which encircle the library and it's auxiliary facilities in the center of the school plant. On the extreme right is the gymnasium conveniently and directly accessible to the existing stadium area as well as the proposed athletic facilities.

The school plant has been designed to provide the best possible educational facilities according to state requirements as well as those of the Board of Education's Program with complete flexibility not only for the educational curriculum, but for future expansion as well. It is the intention of the Architect to design the building with an esthetically pleasing and attractive appearance at a minimum of cost.

cordion (free bass system accordian) of his own design, which was made in Italy, by Charles Nunzio of Nutley. The custom - made accordian, the only one of its type in existence, has a full six-octave range of only single notes on the bass. It has no fixed chords as the standard accordian does. The treble also has a full six octave range. This bassell - accordian has the full range of the piano, and he is thus able to play directly from original piano music for the first time.

The contest was very close again this year. After all the contestants had finished playing, the three judges, (a composer, a pianist, a concert guitarist) announced there was a tie for first place, and a deciding play-off was necessary to choose the winner.

Donald, a student of the Juilliard School of Music in New York, and Judith Linder, an accordion major in the University of Houston under Bill Palmer, then had to play the test piece and their own choice piece again. Donald won by two-thirds of a point over Judith. After the contest Donald was formally introduced and presented with the trophy at the Accordion Teacher's Guild Open House Party held in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Morrison for members of the whole accordion industry. He played the Spanish Rhapsody there.

Donald and Nunzio then attended the National Association of Music Merchants Convention in the Palmer House Hotel in Chicago. Donald played and demonstrated his Bassett Accordion in the A.T.G. Display room on July 19. He was offered a scholarship to attend the International Music Camp Festival in Michigan during the last week of this month.

WILL GO TO MILAN

Hulme will now be the U.S. representative in the 1961 World Olympics Accordion - ship Championship Contest to be held September 15-17 in Milan, Italy. He was the U.S. representative in the 1960 World Olympics Accordion contest held October 21-23, 1960 in Vienna, Austria where he was one of 25 National Open Champions in the international competition.

He placed the U.S. in second position. Being one of the top three winners, he was then presented in a televised concert from the great hall of the Vienna Concert House.

On November 4, 1961, Donald will be the guest artist for the fourth End Accordion Festival Concert to be held in the Emerson Jr. High School, Enid, Oklahoma. He will also be the adjudicator the open solo division of the Oklahoma State Champion - ship Contest at that time.

Donald Hulme is now a part - time teacher of the accordion at the Nunzio Music Center in Nutley.

Publicity for the National and world contest is being handled by the Philip Lesly Public Relations Council and Service with branch offices in New York, Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

FIRST IN A SERIES

Tokyo: A City of Contrasts And Terrifying Taxi Cabs

Belleville School Teacher Visits on Tour of World

Katherine Conklin, eighth grade teacher at School 8, is now on a trip around the world and she will be writing an interesting series based on her observations and impressions. The Belleville school teacher today opens the series with a colorful commentary on life in Japan. Of particular interest to women is her description of Japanese fashions. Men will enjoy her comments on business, and Mrs. Conklin, as a school teacher, has some interesting comments to make on Japan's school children and teenagers.

By KATHERINE CONKLIN JAPAN

The first sign that Japan will be different and delightful can be seen at the airport in Honolulu where you wait for the Japanese Airline plane. Ladies in kimono and gentlemen with "furoshiki" (a large scarf tied immigrant fashion carrying anything from a tooth brush to one's entire wardrobe) deep to one another as they plan to leave or say sayonara to those leaving.

They smile and giggle in thin, high-pitched voices and seem to enjoy everything around them. The children are delightful, with square Dutch bobs, black button eyes and spoolish white or pastel outfits—boys and girls alike. The plane trip is the next delight with charming hostesses who wear snappy uniforms to be seen and end the flight, but change to kimono while serving you a delicious dinner — then a late evening snack.

Tokyo is an amazing city of contrasts. Older men, young business men and stenographers look as modern as many on Madison Avenue, New York. They carry beautiful brief cases and speak flawless English. On the very same city street, however, one may see elderly people in kimono, from years of work in the rice fields, young mothers with babies on their backs and women sweeping the sidewalks with home made brooms!

The American using Tokyo taxi is immediately struck by two pecially in the down-town area, where all sizes of trucks add to the confusion.

But outside Tokyo, the train service is excellent. Trains run on time and stations are clearly marked in English. First and second class travel is most comfortable, but third class much more informative and informal. People eat, sleep, drink, visit with acquaintances and stare at everything.

In sign language, I asked to hold a tiny baby—who promptly screamed! But in sign language I found out: 1) he was a boy; 2) two months old; 3) the young man in the next seat was NOT his father! The mother and two aunts giggled at me and then I thought he would lose his just-finished supper.

HIGHEST LITERACY RATE
Then the children of Japan need special mention. Japan has the highest literacy rate in the world and English is taught in every junior and senior high school. Spring is the time for school trips, and bus loads of children are seen everywhere. At the Pearl Island, where cultured people are "raised," the director told us he had reservations for 10,000 children in one day. It is the same at every well-known shrine or temple and the tourist spots in large cities.

ITT Develops New Intercom
A new type of loudspeaking intercom has been developed for the British Navy's first nuclear-powered submarine, H. M. S. Dreadnought, by Standard Telephones and Cables Limited, British affiliate of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

In the Dreadnought installation there are 64 loudspeaking stations, each consisting of microphone and preamplifier, loudspeaker, and loudspeaker amplifier. The amplifiers are transistor plug-in units, built to withstand full Admiralty shock and vibration tests. Stations can be connected in groups of from 2 to 60 stations by switches, or connected to the ship's automatic exchange. Priority facilities are included.

But their behavior is exemplary. They stand, sit or even squat in a railroad station and wait patiently for the teacher to come and start them off! The teacher is usually a man and often he carries a small flag

Buses and trolleys swarm the city streets, and the congestion is bad at all times of the day, especially in the morning.

Town Playgrounds Feature Contests, Announce Winners

Commissioner George F. Kieran announced that many varied activities were conducted on the town's playgrounds this week. The Recreation House Playground conducted a "peanut hunt" with points awarded according to the colors of the crop paper wrappings. This was followed by a picnic lunch, games, and group singing. The contest winners were Judy Sheldon, first place; Susan Rotchild, second; and Michele Ferrara, third. A number of the younger children made up scrapbooks from old magazine and newspaper pictures.

School 4 Playground held a bar-b-q party featuring hot dogs, popcorn, cookies, potato chips, soda and watermelon. Entertainment was furnished by Vincent Constantino on the accordion and Philip Bruno on the guitar. Carol Messina, a playground director and music teacher, also played the accordion.

Contest winners were Nick Franz and Anita Bannato. A few days later, the special activity was a pet show. First prize was awarded to Anita Bannato for her entry of two beagles which were dressed in baby clothes and delivered to the playground in a carriage. Barbara Scavone's cocker spaniel took second. He wore a straw hat and bow tie.

At Number One Playground, Ritchie Sweeney, Bill Butler, Dave Ricinski and Tommy Hunkle proved themselves outstanding on the horseshoe court. Al-Jen, Greg and Eric Schmidt are going to be missed on the playground while they take an extended vacation which will carry them through a good part of the remaining playground season.

CD Head Warns Of Hurricanes; Lists Precautions

The hurricane season is only several weeks away, but the U.S. Weather Bureau believes in getting a running start on its plans for tracking and reporting one of nature's most powerful weather phenomena. Ludwig Pessa, Belleville CD director, reports.

At one time hurricanes were considered largely a Florida problem, but in recent years the monster blows have been felt as far North as New England and Canada's Eastern provinces.

The U. S. Navy has already assembled its "Hurricane Hunter" squadron of radar-equipped, long-range search planes, whose journeys into the eye of the storms have provided weather forecasters with much valuable data on their progress in recent years.

Pessa warns the townspeople to be prepared for hurricane situations. Life and property can be saved by these precautionary measures:

- 1—Secure loose shingles and shutters on homes, repair shaky chimneys.
- 2—Trim or remove dead or dying trees. Anchor removable objects such as dog-houses, picnic tables and benches.
- 3—Maintain a supply of boards to protect picture and show windows.
- 4—Secure a flashlight in good condition and a battery powered radio; keep a supply of food which requires no cooking.

Residents are cautioned not to go outdoors when the winds suddenly stop. This may be the eye of the hurricane and the wind will return suddenly from the opposite direction.

Under a new state civil defense system, Belleville and other New Jersey communities are flashed an "alert" from Trenton to police and CD headquarters when dangerous storms are imminent.

Vienna Choir

Boys To Sing

In Unity Concert

A costume opera will be featured on the program of the Vienna Choir Boys when they appear on the Unity Concert Course Sunday afternoon, January 14 at the new Montclair High School auditorium. The concert will also include sacred music and folk songs. The choir of more than 20 boys, aged seven to twelve years, will return to Montclair after an absence of 12 years.

It had its origin on July 7, 1948 when Maximilian I directed that a choir be organized to sing daily masses in the Court Chapel.

After his death, succeeding Hapsburgs continued to subsidize the choir and it achieved fame throughout Europe. With the fall of the Hapsburgs in 1918, support for the choir from private funds was supplemented by income derived from concert tours which began in 1926, at which time the programs took a more secular turn.

The choir was introduced to this country in 1928. After making six consecutive tours, they brought a halt to their activities when the Nazis imprisoned the Rev. Joseph Schnitz, rector of the group.

Other artists who will appear during the season are: Joan Sutherland, soprano, October 20; Yehudi Menuhin, violinist, October 27; the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, November 10; Roberto Iglesias Spanish Ballet, December 4; Claudio Arrau, pianist, January 28; The New String Quartet, March 23; and Leonard Pennario, pianist, April 27.

Miss Barbara Russell, director, Unity Institute, 67 Church Street, Montclair, is in charge of reservations.

There are 22 divisions and 222 different classes for articles made by the exhibitors: since January 1 last and include needlework, knitting, crocheting and rug weaving. There is a special section for arts and crafts and for fine arts, oil paintings, water colors or pastels, open to semiprofessional and amateur artists and art students. A special division has been set up for children, 10 to 17 years of age.

Jellies, canned and preserved fruits, pickles and relishes are again open to competition along with the usual classes for bread, cakes, cookies and pies. For amateur photographers there is a division with cash prizes for black and white prints in land and seascape, still life and animals.

Entry blanks may be obtained from the New Jersey State Fair, Box 669, Trenton.

Are Our Doctors Available?
A perennial office seeker and self-styled town critic at a town commission meeting recently rose to his feet to deliver his forthrightly speech. As is his custom during the past few months — he capped the Commissioners and spared Mayor Isadore Padula.

This fact raises a serious question. Was our town critic misrepresenting the facts? If not — did our police department exhaust the list of local doctors in its attempt to locate one who was available for an emergency? And what about the duties of our own $6,000 a year town physician? Is he responsible for Wednesday service?

Hallelujah! Belleville Gets Economy

Well, it finally has happened. One segment of our public officials is seriously interested and concerned with our tax rate. The Board of Education adopted the recommendation of School Superintendent Evan Thomas to eliminate the job of one principal by combining the administration of School 1 and 9.

Mrs. Violet Spray, Principal at School #9 for the past four years will also assume similar responsibilities in neighboring School #1.

Combining municipal jobs in Belleville is a strange departure for our public officials. That it was done by a professional administrator of the high standing which Evan Thomas enjoys is proof positive that an administrator unencumbered with political considerations can do a good job for our taxpayers.

We commend School Superintendent Evan Thomas for this economy move and the Board of Education is also entitled to a bow for accepting the recommendation. The end result may well mean a savings to our taxpayers of approximately $10,000.00. From where we sit this is a healthy saving and augurs well for the future.

Town Planning By Default

Last week the Belleville Board of Adjustment recommended the granting of a variance to August Plenge, Jr. to permit the use of the rear portion of his vacant land fronting on Franklin Avenue just north of the A & P store for parking purposes. The area is zoned residential A while the front portion of the same lot is zoned for business. A building to be occupied by a chain-department store is planned for the Franklin Avenue frontage.

Under the leadership of Board Chairman J. Sam Coronato, the Board of Adjustment held two meetings on this application and finally voted affirmatively but with specific restrictions.

At the first meeting of the Board held last Tuesday night several taxpayers in the affected area made some telling arguments urging certain restrictions which the Adjustment Board accepted as very sound. We believe the Board used good judgment in arriving at its decision.
Under existing laws this particular appeal must be transmitted to the town commission for final action.
We don't know what our town Planning Board has decided for this area but while it plots, plans, and meditates an intelligent Adjustment Board moves on with the business of planning a program for Belleville. While the Planning Board defaults the Adjustment Board acts.
In the above instance we believe the Adjustment Board acted wisely and in the best interest of Belleville

Fairway Avenue Park

Since the town commission meeting of January 12th the Belleville Town Commission has indicated it wants a park developed for the Fairway Avenue-Rutan Estates area. It was at that meeting that the Commission unanimously adopted a resolution authorizing Parks and Public Property Director George Kiernan to negotiate for the purchase of the land from the private land developers.

The seven acre area involved is bounded on the west by the Third River and on the north by Joramemon Street. The children of the area do not now have a park.

At the last Commission meeting Commissioner George Kiernan successfully introduced a resolution — opposed by Commissioner Robert Gruhin — authorizing the acquisition of this vacant land either by purchase or condemnation, for park and playground use.

Mayor Isadore Padula voted in favor of the resolution — with a reservation — he wants to know what the park will cost Belleville. This attitude from Padula is most welcome. He apparently has learned a lesson from the government — change vote of last May.

Padula's concern over cost is proper. However his concern over cost would have been more persuasive had the Mayor expressed the same fiscal concern when he granted pay raises to his employees of $51,000 — including a $1,063 raise for his son, Isadore Padula, Jr. who holds down the title of Assistant Town Treasurer.

The Mayor's interest in cost should begin with the operation of his Revenue and Finance Department. He employs two too many water meter readers. They cost the town approximately $10,000 a year. The town clerk, Eugene Barnett, on the job only one year at $7,018, received a $1,106 raise. At the same time Padula established for Mr. Barnett a new maximum salary of $10,560.

There is more to the Mayor's history of lack of concern for our taxpayers. But more important — what will Padula say when our children ask him why he would think of denying them a park because of cost at a time when he is permitting his department to operate with unnecessary jobs and excessive salaries?

We are happy the Commission approved Kiernan's resolution. We believe our kids and our elders are entitled to a park. We further believe — come next May — a new council will bring back common sense to Belleville's fiscal affairs. We believe economies can be effected in city hall which will more than offset the cost of a new park — a new school — a new police headquarters — and provide offstreet parking for our harassed housewife.

Our present problem is not the cost of a municipal park for Belleville — it is the cost of operating a Padula-dominated city hall — which is beyond the means of Belleville's middle-income families.

Tree Comes Down

NOT PRIVATE PROPERTY: Belleville Shade Tree Commission frequently is called to remove damaged or infected trees such as this one at 15 Smallwood Avenue which was cut down last Friday. Some residents of the area called the Belleville Times with the report that the Oak tree was on private property but, as this photograph shows, the tree was located between the sidewalk and the road. The tree was infected: Mr. and Mrs. Adam J. Mallory of 15 Smallwood Avenue hope to have the old tree replaced by two young Maples.

Writes Open Letter To Garson, Calabro

Dear Sir: This is an open letter to Lee Garson and Salvatore Calabro. Never before in history has the need for better and more improved education in all of its aspects been so vital. Decisions which may have to be made in the not too distant future concerning our way of life may be made by some person whose roots we are planting today. While dedicated citizens are joining our educators and teachers in progressive thinking along the lines of a new high school for Belleville, your views and instructions of the issues involved will only lead our town to record one more failure.

I therefore urge the editor of the Belleville Times to reprint Father Keller's column in the July 3 Star Ledger for your benefit. Please note the Bible quote which inspired the article. "What nobler employment or more valuable to the state, than that of a man who instructs the rising generation?" said Cleo. "In our own day Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey wrote the following tribute to the teacher: 'When we speak of the inspiration of the schools,' she said, 'we think at once of the teacher whose per-

What About Playground In Valley? Reader Asks

Dear Sir: Will you kindly print this letter; or the important parts in your paper? I am writing just for the welfare of the little children in and around the Valley. I understand a piece of property at the corner of Stevens and Graylock Avenue was left by a Mr. Plansoen, to be used as a playground for the children. A Mr. Hyde was in office, or at least was, a couple of years ago, and he did keep the place in fine condition; the weeds were cut, and swings and slides were put up every summer. Now I understand a Mr. Kiernan has charge.

I saw in the paper that the Board of Health wants the people in town to keep the weeds cut on their property. In fact, the Hoffman Trucking Co. across the street from the corner in question was notified about the weeds, and had them taken care of, with considerable expense. The town, however, has done nothing about the playground. Mr. Plansoen's name was on a plaque on the fence at the grounds; this has been removed. Nothing has been done to make this place available for the children to use. I would like very much to know why.

Perhaps this letter in your paper will help to provide a place for the children to play, other than in the streets; so will appreciate it a lot if it can be printed.

Every year around this time the manufacturers of TV sets show their "new" models. It has become the custom in the industry to bring out so-called "new" models even if the new sets have only minor changes, which many times consist of nothing else but a different chromium trim strip and different knobs, while the insides are the same as the previous year.

National All-Star Nine Still In Area Little League Finals

Team Downs Harrison Friday; Nutley Tuesday

By DIANE DUNN

Belleville's National Little League All-Stars are still in the running in the nation's LL world series run-offs. Rich Pucarello pitched a no-hit 3-0 victory over Harrison at Harrison and Tuesday night, the Belleville nine scored a big 61 win over Nutley at Enright Field in Harrison.

The run-offs continued last night after deadline time when the Belleville Little League squad faced the Livingston All-Stars at Livingston.

HARRISON GAME

Pucarello allowed no hits and walked only three batters in gaining the spectacular victory for Belleville against Harrison Friday. Harrison meanwhile used up two moundmen, Tony DeTore who gave up two runs on three hits and a walk, and Don Scott, who came in the fifth frame and permitted another run to score on a hit.

All of Belleville's three tallies came in the big fifth inning at Harrison. Bunting homers went to Mickey Mayteka, Jim Dunn and Ralph Greco, all who belted doubles. Mayteka, Dunn and Steve Cerca all were two for three Friday evening.

NUTLEY GAME

Jim Dunn did the pitching Tuesday night for Belleville, he let one run score on six hits and five walks. Nutley pitcher Bryan Murphy gave up seven hits and six free passes.

Belleville took an early 2-0 lead Tuesday in the third inning. Nutley scored its only run in the fourth and then Belleville scored four more times in the final frame. Although both teams hit well, Belleville managed to get the extra base hits and rack up the stolen bases in the errorless game to gain the victory.

Three doubles were hit, all by Belleville men including Rich

Grante holds the remarkable distinction of having joined the "Old-Timers' Club at Kidde with a perfect attendance record during those 20 years. This seems to come naturally to him, as he had a perfect record for ten years with a previous employer and a perfect record as he progressed through the Belleville school system. Also observing the presentation of his award is J. E. Filippone of the Production Control Department.

Gypsies Once Met At Store Location In Town 'Hollow'

Store Expansion At Pariso's Set

A well-known Belleville furniture manufacturing firm now sells and services its products on a site that in a more romantic era served as the scene of many weddings during the local gypsies' annual conclave here.

The storied "Gypsy Hollow" now houses the somewhat more prosaic enterprise of a furniture salesroom for Pariso Brothers, Inc. The property which had been leased to the firm for some years was sold recently by its former owner Frank Megaro, well-known Belleville entrepreneur and President of the Washington Avenue Merchants Association.

Megaro built the present structure, consisting of a store and two five-room apartments at 20 Washington Avenue. The land was once owned by Sam Mueller of the macaroni dynasty. But in the now forgotten long-ago the area's free-wheeling gypsies used it as their headquarters when they made their annual pilgrimage here.

ROMANY RITES

Then the lilting Magyar music of Romany's ancient rites would be wafted over the "Hollow" as men and women of the tribe pledged their troth in marriage ceremonies handed down with little change from the Middle Ages.

Belleville CD-DC Seeks Petitions For Tunnel Plan

Striving to obtain a civil defense tunnel through West Orange's First Mountain for use on a county-wide basis, the Citizens for Survival Committee in that town has expanded its drive for backing of the tunnel by seeking petitions in Belleville and Nutley as well as other Essex County communities in support of its stand.

The Citizens for Survival, through Chairman S. Whitney Landon, has reported that the petition drive is well on its way toward the 15,000 signatures expected to be acquired by Aug. 1. Besides West Orange, Nutley and Belleville, petitions are being circulated also in East Orange, Bloomfield and Glen Ridge in an effort to assure county recognition of the importance of the project.

The 3,300-foot-long proposed tunnel would replace a deep, open cut through First Mountain as the East-West Freeway winds its way to Livingston. The West Orange group suggests that, with additional space hollowed out on either side, this could be used as a civil defense shelter for all of Essex County. The tunnel would not only be a haven for 33,000 persons, but also would serve as a communications center for the county and as a depository for valuable records and documents, according to the group.

Support for the proposed tunnel has come from Congressman Peter W. Rodino and Hugh J. Addonizio, State Senator Donal C. Fox, US Senators Clifford Case and Harrison Williams and Assembly Speaker LeRoy J. D'Aloia. Several federal governmental agencies also have expressed interest in the project. The tunnel would cost an approximate $7,500,000 to construct.

These developments have occurred on the tunnel proposal during the past two weeks. Congressman Addonizio has told the House Independent Offices Appropriations Committee that he believes construction of the East-West Freeway tunnel in West Orange to serve also as a civil defense shelter would be in line with President Kennedy's policy of strengthening our civil defense against nuclear attack. He also has indicated he will ask Congress to appropriate funds for a feasibility study of the project. Representative Rodino has joined Addonizio in supporting the tunnel in the House of Representatives.

Sensors Case and Williams will be asked to offer amendments to legislation now pending in the Senate to provide funds for the Independent Government agencies.

D'Aloia, indicating his support in a letter to West Orange Mayor James J. Sheeran, said he would discuss the tunnel in the State Civil Defense Director "at the first opportunity." D'Aloia applauded the "farsighted thinking" of the citizens group and said he saw the potential of the project for the county. He also mentioned governmental agencies all over the country.

Many souvenirs of their stay in the Hollow have been discovered by previous owners of the tract. Michael Pariso, treasurer of Pariso Brothers, Inc., announced this week that his firm plans an expansion building program on the site. Plans are now being prepared, although no final decision on the form has been taken yet, he said.

Pariso Brothers, Inc. was incorporated in 1950 for the manufacture and sale of dinettes and other furniture. Jack Pariso is president of the firm, while another brother, Frank, is secretary.

American All-Stars Drop Tough Game to Harrison

Reported by Ann Kuratnick

Belleville American League All-Stars dropped a tense 1-0 game Saturday to Harrison at Ensign Field, Harrison. The errorless ball game produced six hits for Belleville, three for Harrison and a single third inning run for the victors.

Saturday was one of those days when the tables just seemed to turn over for the local cause. In addition to Belleville's superior batting, Dan Gabriel, who started for Belleville, fanned six batters. Both Gabriel and Harrison pitcher Bob McCarthy went the full six innings. McCarthy struck out six men. The near-perfect game saw not one extra base hit.

Belleville came out on top in base running too Saturday. There were three stolen bases - all by Belleville boys: Bob Sullivan, shortstop; Rich Rizzulo, center fielder; and Jim Puleo, third sacker.

Gabriel by far was the better pitcher Saturday. As mentioned earlier, he gave up three hits and fanned a dozen men; Gabriel also held the Harrison team without a walk while Belleville players walked twice off McCarthy. Coaching the Belleville team was Fratella and DeKlore.

Six Clergymen Work for Large SANE Program

Six clergymen from the Belleville area have joined in sending a letter to the colleagues asking them to help commemorate Hiroshima Day, August 6.

The 16th anniversary of the dropping of the first atomic bomb will be marked in this area by a tree planting ceremony at the United Nations Garden in Kingsland Park, Nutley at 4 p.m. Sunday, August 6. Sponsored by the Belleville-Nutley Area Council for a Sane Nuclear Policy, the planting ceremony will stand as a visible symbol of the participants' determination that no other human beings shall ever again suffer as did the people of Hiroshima.

The six clergymen, issuing the call are: Rev. Arthur W. Stevens, Montgomery Presbyterian Church, Belleville; Rabbi Victor Cohen, Temple Ahavath Achim, Belleville; Rev. R. Webb Leonard, St. Vincent Methodist Church, Nutley; Rev. Charles W. Bonner, Knox Presbyterian Church, Kearny; Rev. Arthur F. Thurner, First Baptist Church, Arlington; and Rev. Charles Kerkhove, Grace Lutheran Church, North Arlington.

The letter, sent to over 100 clergymen in this area and in part: "On Sunday, August 6th, at 4:00 p.m. in Kingsland Park, Nutley, a small group of people are going to hold a quiet ceremony to remember with sorrow that sixteen years ago our country, under the duress of war, dropped an atomic bomb on Hiroshima. In this simple way they will dedicate themselves anew to the task of keeping audible the patriotic words of sanity and peace in our troubled world. We join our hearts and our signatures to your assistance in making this ceremony more meaningful. Will you personally ask three members of your congregation to represent your church at this ceremony which we know will prove a meaningful experience for them."

Attached to the letter were two poems. One by Ralph Chaplin said: "Mourn not the dead, but rather mourn the apathetic throng—the cowed and meek who see the world's great anguish and its wrongs and dare not speak." The other poem by an anonymous author read "I am only one, but I am one; I cannot do everything, but I can do something. What I ought to do, and what I ought to do, by God's grace I will do."

Olympic Park Planning Many August Features

August will bring many features to Olympic Park, including the state's oldest baby parade on Saturday, August 19. Children from one to six have competed in the Irvington Maplewood park's baby beauty contest every August for more than a quarter century.

The new week's free circus starting Monday will spotlight The Rhodins, European acrobats who employ a revolving ladder; rigging; the Gaudsmith Brothers and their trained French poodles; and Charles and Cherie Gregory, who coax music from devices such as vacuum cleaners and rubber gloves.

Billy Outten's 10-foot fire dive to a shallow tank is the feature of the current show.

Bathing beauty contests are held at 2 p.m. Thursdays at the park pool, where the finals will be judged August 24. Teen-age talent competitions are conducted at the pool on Wednesday afternoons.

The Olympic Park management reports an increase in adult attendance this season, an experience shared by the amusement park industry throughout the country.

Police Capture Holdup Men Here

Two Essex County youths have admitted holding up Norman Berson, son of the owner of the Reed Drug Store July 17; $175 in checks were taken at gunpoint.

The two youths said they needed the money to pay traffic tickets, police report. Arrested last Tuesday, less than 24 hours after the holdup, were Stanley E. Pokusa, 20, of Bloomfield, and Arthur Patrosky, 19, of Orange.

A trail of torn checks stolen in the robbery led to Pokusa's neighborhood—and ultimately to his arrest, police say.

Detectives Nicholas J. Mariano and Kenneth Place say the youths admitted robbing the drug store at 183 Washington Avenue as he left with the store's deposit.

Hours later, Pokusa paid $20 for a speeding ticket in Atlantic Highlands and Patrosky paid $28 for two violations in Middletown Township, Mariano said.

FORMER EMPLOYEE

Pokusa, a former employee of the drug store, told police that

Patrosky had entered Berson's car brandishing a .22-caliber revolver and ordered him to drive to a point where Pokusa was waiting in a getaway car, Mariano added.

He said that $75, the gun and a suit of clothes Patrosky had purchased with part of the loot were recovered.

Mariano said a check of drug store records revealed Pokusa had worked there and his address was not far from where the bits of torn checks were found. Pokusa admitted the crime and implicated Patrosky who was arrested later at his home.

Electricity Consumption Down

Output of electricity by Public Service Electric and Gas Company for the week ended July 13, 1961, was 249,348,200 kilowatt-hours compared with 253,172,500 kilowatt-hours in the corresponding week a year ago, a decrease of 3,804,300 or 1.5 percent it was reported this week.

Mike Petrillo Will Begin Club Tour With Saxophone

MIKE PETRILLO

Local Teen Also Professional Arranger

Nineteen-year-old Mike Petrillo is one of the newer Belleville names to put his mark in the music world. Mike, who lives at 183 Jorammon Street, is now recording and arranging under the management of Bob Crewe, another of Belleville's musicians.

Tomorrow night, Mike and his band, the "Chosen Few," open for a two-week engagement at the Speedway Lounge in Newark. After his Newark appearance, Petrillo will work various other night clubs and is scheduled to do some recording.

Mike Petrillo works closely with Frankie Valley and Bob Gaudio, also of Belleville. Valley formerly was with the "Four Lovers" while both Gaudio and Petrillo sang with the "Royal Teens."

Petrillo, in addition to his sax playing and singing, has done arranging work with Valley and Gaudio. Arrangements have been done for such personalities as Barry Belafonte, Joni James, the Helms, Connie Francis and the Delicates.

Bob Crewe has recently done popular recording work and has

Douglass Girls On Dean's List

Three Belleville women are among the 214 students named to the Douglass College annual dean's list for scholastic excellence. The three are Ruth Happe, Lois Hucko and Patricia Macione.

Dead Ruth M. Adams reports that a student must maintain high averages to be named to the list. Miss Happe, who just completed her freshman year, resides at 196 Beech Street. Miss Hucko, a sophomore, lives at 44 Branch Brook Drive while Miss Macione, a junior, resides at 51 Continental Avenue.

written some popular tunes including "Silhouettes" which was his first. Crewe's latest release features Mike Petrillo on the sax, Bob Gaudio on the piano-organ and Frankie Valley in the chorus.

Auto Mechanic Burned Severely

Bert Terrell, 41, of 278 Lincoln Street, East Orange was severely burned at Mead Ford agency last Thursday before a fellow worker was able to smother flames in his clothing. He was admitted and reported in fair condition by the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Terrell, a mechanic, was burned while working on an auto. He suffered burns of the face, chest and arms.

William Harris, 34, of 553 Orange Street, Newark, told police he saw Terrell lying aflame on the ground outside the building. Harris smothered the flames with his shirt and then covered Terrell with a blanket.

Belleville Patrolman John Hanly and John Vreeland state that Terrell was apparently trying to prime the carburetor of a car when the gasoline mixture blew up setting him on fire.

this subdivision was approved, the Clifton developers have restricted their plans to apartments for the property.

Gruhin then blasted Borbone and the Fairway Civic Association for refusing to meet with Belleville," Gruhin said. Borbone's group this month declined an invitation to meet with Krugman-DePetro. Borbone said he was disappointed with the Fairway group; he said the association at least "owes them the courtesy of sitting down and talking with them about their plans. I think it's disgraceful; I think you should be ashamed as citizens of we not meet with Krugman-DePetro." The Fairway group's attorney is Nicholas Brescia of Belleville. Gruhin said he went to the trouble to arrange the meeting between the Clifton developers and the Fairway Civic Association.

William Riedel of 58 Plenge Drive noted Tuesday that Essex

County Park Commission will not consider any tract less than 10 acres for development as a county park. Mayor Padula had expressed willingness to develop the Krugman-DePetro property as a park, especially if the county took over the area.

Riedel proposed that in addition to the seven-and-a-half acre

Krugman-DePetro tract and the adjacent three acres of town-owned property, that the local property north of Jorammon Street along the Thore River to the Nutley line be added as an inducement to the Essex County Park Commission for development as a county recreational area.
