

Planning Board Envisions New Belleville In 20 Years If Master Plan Is Adopted

Washington Avenue, Valley and Silver Lake Districts Would Benefit

A new apartment district, a revitalized shopping center, a huge industrial park, slum clearance and improved roads will become realities in Belleville within the next 20 years, if a master plan which the Belleville Planning Board has under consideration is adopted early in January.

Completed reports from Joseph De Chiara, planning consultant from the Urban Planning Associates of New York, who has been working with the local board for several months, will be presented at the next board meeting on Thursday, Nov. 16. After a final review of the completed plan, a public hearing will be held some time in January before the master plan is adopted.

The plan, a non-bidding guide for the future development of the town, has been revealed to the town commission and the Chamber of Commerce.

Three areas will be affected under the redevelopment program: The Washington Avenue commercial district, the Valley district east of Washington Avenue, and the Silver Lake-Soho area. Three-quarters of the cost of redevelopment of these areas could come from the federal government under the Urban Renewal program.

INDUSTRIAL PARK

The largest area of proposed reconstruction is in the Valley district where the master plan envisions a huge industrial park along the Passaic River. The Silver Lake - Soho area is shown mainly as an apartment district, to become a community in itself, with an industrial park along the Second River, a new park and recreational area, a business section and a medical center built around Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Washington Avenue would be developed into clusters of stores for an open shopping center effect, with space provided for off-street parking of 3,000 cars.

COSTUME CONTESTS ARE FUN, especially for a three-year-old clown, Susan Silvestri, who won a prize in the competition at School Four. But for sheer enjoyment, Pamela Morello, seven months, prefers munching on a carrot.

Despite threatening weather, a gathering of goblins, clowns and monsters entertained this year's Recreation Halloween Costume Contest.

At School Four the contest was directed by Mrs. Phyllis Serritella and the judging was done by Mrs. Josephine Broski. One favorite of the judges was Susan Silvestri who was dressed as a clown in a white suit with pink and blue polka-dots. Susan was a clear winner. Another prize winner, for her sheer ugliness, was Gerald Taylor. Donna McAndrew and Anne Pascheria both came as flappers of the "roaring 20's" and because their costumes were both so good the judges gave each a prize.

The contest at the Municipal Stadium had to be held inside the building because of the bad weather. Percy Scruggs as "Miss Ugly Nations" in a costume made up of flags of the different countries, was picked by the judges as the most original. Debra Hemmer as "Miss Ameri-

Democratic Win Expected Here; 17,671 Can Vote

Political leaders in Belleville aren't making many predictions about how much their party will win by, but informed observers have acknowledged that the town will give a plurality to the Democratic ticket, headed by Richard J. Hughes, candidate for governor.

Persons working for the Republican ticket and its gubernatorial candidate, James P. Mitchell, have concentrated their activities on the independent vote, hoping thereby to sway normally Democratic Belleville in their direction.

Belleville has 17,671 registered voters this year, a decrease from the 1960 election for which 18,501

Hugh D. Kittle's Retirement Gets Delayed O.K.

The resignation of Hugh D. Kittle, high school principal, has been accepted unanimously by the Board of Education. At a special meeting Monday night, the Board acted on the resignation, which it had tabled at its regular meetings on Oct. 23, to allow time for discussion with Kittle.

Before voting for the resolution, Ernest S. Arvidson said that Kittle had had no intention of resigning when he accepted his contract. Dr. Frank M. Durkee, superintendent of schools, said that Kittle had not signed a contract for 22 years, since he was under tenure and therefore had a continuing contract.

Kittle, 61, has said he was resigning because he was eligible to retire. He has been principal since 1935. His resignation becomes effective the first of next year.

The board acted on two other resolutions it previously had tabled by a 4 to 3 vote. It created the job of general supervisor for curriculum and in-service education programs in grades seven to 12. The position had once been

Fall weekends find many Belleville Girl Scouts camping together at any one of the three New Jersey camps of the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County.

Twelve members of Intermediate Troop 967 arrived on a recent Friday night at the Belleville Cabin, situated under tall pine trees, in the Girl Scout Oval at South Mountain Reservation in South Orange with their leader, Mrs. A. J. Spooner, 61 Preston Street.

The 11-year-old members of the troop are seasoned campers who have spent nine separate weekends camping together since they all started scouting as Brownies three years ago, according to their leader.

After "settling in" Friday night at South Mountain Cabin Camp, they cooked supper, sat around a fire, sang Girl Scout songs and then slept on cots on a screened porch.

BUDDY BURNERS

Breakfast—French toast—was cooked outside on "buddy burners," and then individual patrols cleaned the sleeping area, living area, kitchen and grounds.

After cleaning up, a nature hike and a whittling lesson from the camp ranger helped the girls fulfill some of the requirements toward earning the Troop Badge. They have already earned the Adventurer, Cook and Hospitality Badges.

An afternoon of games and practicing outdoor skills, cooking supper, and an evening of records and singing around the fireplace filled Saturday. On Sunday morning, the Girl Scouts attended churches in near-by South Orange. Then they returned to "break camp."

The Troop's most popular activity is over-night camping. One of their fondest memories, says their leader is their "overnight under the stars" from last June, when they camped and cooked and slept out-of-doors.

USING SKILLS

"Camping as a scout troop is more than just living together in the out-of-doors for a time," explains Mrs. Spooner. "It is using the skills a Girl Scout has learned in troop; it is applying the Promise and Laws to living together; it is learning how to be helpful and to assume leadership, and most of all it is fun."

The girls of this outdoor Girl Scout troop attend the Greylock

School Five, where they are in the sixth grade.

Assisting Mrs. Spooner, who is also the mother of Brownie Girl Scout, Toni Spooner, and a four-year-old future Boy Scout, was co-leader, Mrs. Victor W. Lovallo and the mother of a troop member, Mrs. Pat Vecchiarelli.

TAXES, TUESDAY, AND YOU

Tuesday is Election Day. Polls are open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. The able-bodied, red-blooded American, who appreciates the value of a vote, will march to the polling place and cast a ballot.

The most important office to be voted upon Tuesday is the Governorship. There are two candidates in contention for the job. The Democrats have former Superior Court Judge Richard Hughes. Republicans have placed their hopes upon the broad shoulders of President Eisenhower's former Secretary of Labor, James P. Mitchell.

Hughes received the Democrat nomination in a relatively uncontested Primary Election. Mitchell, sponsored by U. S. Senator Clifford P. Case, won the nomination in a three - cornered race, taking the measure of State Senators Walter Jones of Bergen, and Wayne Dumont of Warren. The Republican political bosses were solidly lined up against Mitchell. Despite this formidable opposition Mitchell won handsomely.

The gubernatorial campaign has been lacking in quality. Compared with past elections for this high office, the current campaign is anemic and lack-luster. Democrats have held the Governor's office for the past eight years.

The most important issue of the campaign, and the one least discussed, is the question of new taxes under a new Governor. Here is where the candidates part company. Mitchell is pledged to oppose sales and income taxes. Hughes is pledged to sponsor one or both of these taxes if more money is needed to finance his programs.

Hughes is against the re-creation of the New Jersey Law Enforcement Council. Mitchell is pledged to re-establish the Law Council.

On almost every other issue both Hughes and Mitchell share the same views.

Despite the campaign oratory—apparently standard equipment in political campaigns—both Mitchell and Hughes are good men. Upright citizens, if elected we could expect an honest, well-run administration under either man.

However, since we can't vote for the both of them a choice must be made.

The largest area of disagreement between Mitchell and Hughes exists on the question of new taxes. On this score we prefer Mitchell's stand against sales and income taxes. Additionally we believe New Jersey needs a Law Enforcement Council. On the basis of administrative experience Mitchell is superior.

Thus we conclude Mitchell has the edge over Hughes and we recommend his election.

AND FOR ESSEX COUNTY—

The choice is simple. A vote for the Essex Democrats is a vote for "I RUN ESSEX" CAREY. Carey needs political power to remain boss. He derives this power by placing political hacks into unnecessary county jobs paid for by the real estate taxes ponied up by all of us.

One sure way to keep down our real estate taxes is to rid ourselves of New Jersey's most expensive county government—run by the one and only Dennis Carey, boss of Essex County.

We have good authority that Boss Carey must go. The respected Senator Donal Fox says Carey is not good for Essex. Popular Congressman Peter Rodino says Boss Carey is not good for Essex. 11th District Congressman Hugh Addonizio says Boss Carey must go.

Since they are Democrats and know Boss Carey best we are willing to take their word for it.

Hence we recommend voting Republican for nine Assemblymen, Four Freeholders and for the office of Sheriff, William "Scotty" MacDonald, Republican.

AN APPEAL FOR VOTES

How many votes will be cast in Belleville on General Election Day, Tuesday, November 7?

There are 17,671 men and women eligible to cast ballots. How many will take the very little time and effort (hardly any) to go to the polls Tuesday and do their duty as American citizens?

In all probability, the number will be considerable—but not enough, not what it should be.

If Belleville does as well this year as it did four years ago—the last time we voted for a Governor—some 65 per cent of the voters will cast ballots. Some may rate this an impressive number. We do not. There is only one satisfying number, and that is ALL the voters who are physically able to reach the polls next Tuesday and those who, knowing they would not be in town, were foresighted enough to obtain absentee ballots.

There are no municipal elections this year. We do not elect a President or a U. S. Senator or a Congressman this year. Stripped of the distractions such elections have on people, we have the ideal situation of being able to concentrate on state and county offices.

And these positions are of tremendous importance to us. The Governor and members of the Assembly we elect will have a great deal to do with the administration of our state government. The members of the Board of Freeholders we choose will have much to do with the way our county is operated. The state and county are close to us. In fact, in some instances county and state agencies are as vital, or even more so, than municipal bodies.

Every qualified citizen should have a say in who shall conduct our governmental business. When this is not done, our government no longer is fully representative. Elsewhere in these columns we recommend those for whom we believe you should cast your votes.

In this item our purpose is simply to exhort you to do your duty as a citizen by participating in one of the cherished rewards of a democracy—your right to vote in secret for those you should like to entrust with your tax money.

"Youth - Unity - Truth"

George Bernard Shaw, a great writer but also something of a cynic, once remarked: "What a pity that youth is wasted on the young"—or words to that effect. He was thinking, of course, about how nice it would be to have it both ways; that is to have the health, vigor and high spirits of youth and also the experience, knowledge and wisdom of the middle-aged or the aged.

But then, as you can see, there would really be no youth.

Today's youth occasionally hear their elders talking about the good old days. You should know, however, that those who were young in the Twenties used to hear the elderly of that time rhapsodizing about the "Gay Nineties." And so it has been—this fond looking backward as advancing age gives an aura of romance to the past.

It would be well for the youth of today to keep in mind the refrain of a song, "These will be the good old days 20 years from now." Yes, it might be protested, but think of the danger we're in, the threat of annihilation that hangs over the world. Will today's youth be here 20 years from now? Perhaps it is safe to say that what happens in the world tomorrow will depend on what youth will do today. Youth is a time of growth and preparation: enrichment of the heart, soul and mind to cope with the tasks and responsibilities that the years ahead will surely bring.

In his Inaugural address, President John F. Kennedy, himself not far removed from youth, said:

"I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation. The energy, the faith, the devotion we bring to this endeavor (the struggle against tyranny, poverty, disease and war itself) will light our country and all who serve it—and the glow from that fire can truly light the world."

That is a call for Americans—especially young Americans—to think of themselves as citizens of the world, and to strive for a unity of all that is good and true in the world.

These are some of the issues about which the National Council of Catholic Youth is thinking during its National Catholic Youth Week, which opens on Oct. 29 with the theme "Youth - Unity - Truth."

Calls Referendum Defeat "Shock To Progressive Minded Individuals"

To the Editor:

The results of Tuesday's voting were no doubt a shock to progressive minded individuals. I think that the final tabulations should not go unanswered—for it is both a disgrace and a blow to education, Belleville and the children. The analysis and statements heard is a further indication as to the depths some people will go in order to bring the results to their liking.

An autopsy of the issue should be made before rigor mortis sets in. It is said that many older (not elder, for elder means citizens of long standing who seek for the progress of the town) citizens voted against the referendum. The reason given is that they do not have children in the school system. This attitude reminds me of a tale told in the Hebrew Talmud (an analytical text of the Bible) of a man who was on his way, who had planted an acorn. When asked why he planted an acorn for he will never live to see it grow, he said, "It is true that I will never see it grow, but my great-grandchildren will derive benefit from its beauty." Others voted against the referendum because their children attend other than our public schools. To me, this is not a question of finance, but a question of ethics. Is it ethical to say that since the high school is of no benefit to me I will vote against it? I question the moral voting of these people. It seems to me that perhaps the moral, ethical understanding of religion has become void in everyday living. Perhaps we may even question the democratic right to vote on this issue. Democracy calls for an intelligent unselfish vote and a strength for a people. Democracy does not only include the secret ballot but the intelligent vote.

I also heard the statement that the adult citizens were educated in rundown schools. Is it not also true that there were and are little red schoolhouses? Is it not also true that in New York (perhaps in Belleville, too) there are schools of low standard? All this is true, as well as the fact that educational theory has also changed. Methodology has changed as well as psychological principals. Teacher education has taken on new aspects as well as pupil education. Those who think and live in the past can never anticipate a future.

These people cannot aid us in this new scientific age. They are back in the days of one-room schoolhouses, unmarried teachers and rigid discipline.

It is high time that progressive, idealistic people of Belleville raise a very strong voice for progress. No idealistic battle in history was won without a struggle. We hear today that even democracy is struggling. No one here will allow the destruction of our democratic attitude and no one will destroy progress.

Let us, who understand the need for better education, better facilities, raise our voices in unison, without being discouraged and fight for better education through a new high school.

Warns Against Using Election As Merely A Political Football

Dear Sir:

The referendum election for a new high school is over. I have been a good prophet again in my last article, the hard-pressed Belleville taxpayers have answered with a big no vote. Even the more than generous help of The Belleville - Times could not change the result. I hope The Times takes it in good spirit, being on the wrong side of the fence is in itself no disgrace. In every election one has to be the loser, but to be a good loser is unfortunately not always the case. Here in Belleville some of the die-hard bunk artists have ideas of their own about elections. Their arrogance and insolence has no set limits for special privileges, they claim now that the election is meaningless, and should be voted all over again.

Any fairminded, decent citizen can only be alarmed and aroused about such an infamous attitude. God pity us when elections will have no more value and can be used as a political football for dirty politics, exercised at will by irresponsible minority groups with a superiority complex to rule and overrule the majority.

This must not, and will not happen in Belleville, the aroused, formerly complacent taxpayers will not allow themselves to be pushed around anymore by self styled nitwits. It seems to be a hard job to get that into the brains of some of the mental midgits, who have the town loaded up with unnecessary taxes, and see no reason why their Roman holiday should end. But end it will, the housecleaning has already started, the manager form of government has been voted in, and all votes are necessary next year for a proper establishment, or the whole thing will make no sense.

10,000 ABSENT

It is a disgrace that there were still 10,000 voters absent at last election. This must stop, every non-voter is an indirect voter for dirty politics, which he condemns, but is too lazy to do anything about. Belleville citizens must get vote-minded at every election, or stop complaining and take the consequences. It is silly to say "My only vote does not mean much", the plural rests on the unit, and without it there is just nothing. We have a fine for not paying taxes, and there is good reason why it should not apply in voting.

Anybody with an open mind can easily see that most of our problems in politics are caused by the habitual nonvoter. Every Belleville voter must now as a matter of principle look with grave concern on this proposed insult of his election rights, or should not complain if things get worse.

There cannot be a second voting for the high school, it would be ridiculous that there has been decided, it can only be a vote of protest against the proposed insult, and only a no vote is now in order. To look at it another way would make all voting a farce, not worth spending time and bothering with.

I predict however that Belleville voters will give the right answer, and in the coming future make Belleville a better town to live in, the sooner the better.

Asks Who Can Lead U.S. Without Education

To the Editor:

This is an open letter to the good citizens of Belleville who vetoed the building of a new high school:

Dear Voters:

Thank you for making my future clear and secure. When I heard that you vetoed a new high school, again, I was so pleased that I slammed my shoes on the table for almost two solid hours!

I understand that now your students will not be accredited for college. This is wonderful! Without adequate education here your children will not be prepared to lead your country when you are gone. Under these circumstances, it will be much easier to "bury" you than I had previously expected.

Thank you again!
NICKITA K.

I wonder if this aspect of the matter has occurred to our negative voters?

Very Truly Yours,
Belleville High School Junior

Beck's Column

A couple of weeks ago there was an ad in the New York Times, offering an RCA Color TV set for $399.50. This figure and the words Color TV were so prominent, that it created the impression that you could buy such a set at that price. Somewhere in the fine print there was the catch, the words "with acceptable trade in." So we decided to go shopping and find out about the "acceptable trade in." In the first store listed, a branch of a chain, they did not have the set to show. We were willing to buy it anyway. Much as we tried, we just could not buy that set. They pretended not to know about it and after a number of phone calls to the central office of the chain, we were told that they did not know what the "acceptable trade in" had to be. After spending over an hour in the store without getting anywhere, we went to another store listed in the ad. The same thing happened again and we still were unable to buy the set. They gave us the address of the distributor to find out what the trade in set had to be. It turned out that they wanted a "2" console, in perfect working order, without a scratch. Such a set could not have been older than about a year, because there were no "2" picture tubes before, and the price at that time was about $300. Nobody would normally trade in such a set after such a short time. The clerks told us, that they knew this and that the ad was a "come on," and once the customer was in the store they tried to sell him something else. Federal Trade Commission is determined to clean up such deception, that they did to the same people who cook up such things, holler about Government interference in business affairs.

We service what we sell.

LIBRARIES FOR BLIND

"Strengthen America Roundup" Planned For Boy Scouts Drive

In response to increased interest by boys of this area in scouting, a "Strengthen America Roundup" membership drive will be launched Nov. 1. This was announced by Pearce Shepherd, vice president of Prudential Insurance and president of the Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Under the "Strengthen America" theme, the 229 Cub Scout Packs, Boy Scout Troops and Explorer Units of Newark, Irvington, and Belleville expect to welcome 300 new members as a result of the "roundup." In many scout units, the scouts will invite friends along for hiking, camping or other trips to meet members of the unit and to experience some scouting adventure.

There will be open houses planned for the many boys interested in scouting and for their parents.

Boys eight to ten years of age are invited to join Cub Scouting. The 234 Cub Scouts in the 82 Cub packs served by the Robert Treat Council are constantly on the go, seeing and doing things in the area, and enjoying the crafts and skills they learn for their achievement awards. Cub Scouting is a home-centered program, as work on projects with their parents, many of whom serve as Den Mothers or Den Dads.

Many boys are expected to join the Boy Scouts, the famous outdoor program for boys eleven through thirteen. The two camps of the Robert Treat Council provide adventure for the 3,193 Boy Scout troops. Self-reliance, resourcefulness and mastery of useful skills are among the goals of the year-round Boy Scout camping and activities.

Exploring - the newest scouting program - is an adventurous program for young men of high school age. Getting an "inside look" at possible careers, social activities, high adventure trips, and community service are among the projects the 301 Explorers of the Council planned and carried out for themselves. Highlights ahead of Explorers will include field sports day canoe trip, industrial visits, career day and social events.

Shepherd said the council, alert to the increased interest by boys in scouting, is prepared this year to assist any group in setting up a new scout unit where no convenient ones exist.

"In living the Scout Oath and Law, a boy not only strengthens himself, but also his community and nation," Shepherd said. "With our 1961 Roundup, we hope to fully meet the demands of boys for membership, and have more boys than ever before living 'on their honor' and doing 'their duty to God and Country.'"

Mt. Carmel Guild Opens Parents Discussion Group

A parent discussion group for parents of visually handicapped children will be held at the Mt. Carmel Guild, 99 Central Avenue, Newark, Friday evenings, beginning Nov. 3, at 8:30 p.m. The group will meet for eight weeks, led by the Rev. Richard M. McGuinness, director of The Mt. Carmel Guild, Center for The Blind.

Father McGuinness, announced today that an eight-week carpentry course for blind persons will be offered at 99 Central Avenue, Wednesday evenings at 8 p.m. The course will be under the direction of Stanley Sobon, and will demonstrate the use of all commonly used tools, including power tools.

BLIND NEED MORE TRAINED PERSONNEL

Helen Keller, who serves actively as counselor to the American Foundation for the Blind, states: "It is tragic that only half the conditions which cause loss of sight are understood and, as a result, there has not been discovered a sufficient remedy for thousands of injured eyes. The need of research and more trained personnel remains imperative."

HUGHES stands for Democratic ACHIEVEMENT

President John F. KENNEDY and Richard J. HUGHES
A partnership for New Jersey's future

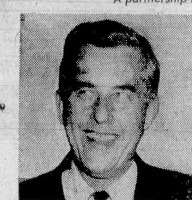

Richard J. Hughes and his Essex County running mates ask only to be considered on the record of Democratic achievement. They know that the record of their party is the record of a responsible party, attuned to the needs of New Jersey and Essex County. The people of Essex County know this, too.

That is why they resoundingly supported President John F. Kennedy.

That is why Essex contributed so substantially to the elections of Governor Robert B. Meyner and U.S. Senator Harrison A. Williams.

That is why, in election after election, Essex County has returned such outstanding Congressmen as Peter W. Rodino, Jr., and Hugh J. Addonizio.

That is why Essex County has projected onto the state scene such outstanding leaders as Senator Donal C. Fox and Mayor Leo P. Carlin.

Governor MEYNER
"We need Richard J. Hughes as Governor because he has a deep insight into the needs of New Jersey, an independent mind and a sense of responsibility to all of the people."

U. S. Senator WILLIAMS
"Dick Hughes was devoted to New Jersey long before seeking public office. He will continue the outstanding achievements of the Meyner Administration. I sincerely hope that the people will elect him for the good of our State."

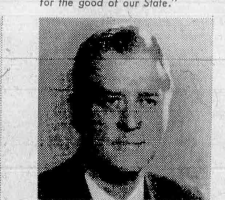

Representative RODINO
"I have been deeply impressed by Richard J. Hughes' grasp of affairs in Washington as they affect the people of New Jersey. I urge the people of our State to elect him as our next Governor."

Representative ADDONIZIO
"President Kennedy's forward-looking programs will be effectively implemented in New Jersey with Richard J. Hughes as Governor. He has my wholehearted endorsement."

Mayor CARLIN
"We must elect Richard J. Hughes as Governor because the needs of our cities and their people have a high place on his priority list. His program is a program for the well-planned, development of the entire State."

Senator FOX
"Richard J. Hughes has gained great distinction as a judge and community leader with deep faith in a bright future for New Jersey and realistic plans to assure that future. I strongly support his candidacy."

Alert Pass Defense And A Strong Line Overwhelm Bellboys

By ROGER WARTELL

Displaying a strong line combined with an alert pass defense Garfield overwhelmed the Bellboys last Saturday 32-0. The game, which was played before 2,000 fans at Memorial Stadium, was the Bellmakers' fifth straight win. The passing attack of the Garfield eleven accounted for three of the touchdowns with end Jimmy Wall receiving all of them.

Garfield received the kickoff in the first half and was unable to move the ball. Forced to punt, Louis Shortino booted the ball down to Belleville's 33 yard line. Following a running play and a penalty, Joe Latore took the hike and threw a jump pass intended for Bob Byers. Sailing above Byers' outstretched hands, the pigskin landed in the hands of Garfield's Robert Frank who ran it back to the 25 yard line. From there the Bellmakers moved the ball up to the 10 yard line, where Ken Heubner connected for the touchdown with Jim Wall.

On the next series of plays,

Belleville again ran into a pass interception. After the kickoff, the Bellboys attempted to go on the ground without any success. On third down Latore again tried to connect with Byers. This time the ball bounced off Byers' chest and into the waiting arms of Jim Wall of Garfield. Starting from the Bellboys 33 yard line, the Garfield eleven marched for the score in seven plays. The tally came on a one yard plunge by Julian Boryczewski.

THIRD SCORE

Garfield's third score came on a drive in the second quarter. Richard Hrisenke carried the ball over from two yards out after a 80 yard drive. The Bellboys came close to scoring in this period, having to give the ball up 12 yards from the goal line.

The Bellboys took the kickoff in the third period and after an exchange of punts found themselves with the pigskin around midfield. For the third time the Bellboys had a pass intercepted. Nile Vicari grabbed the ball on the 45 and raced down to the ten yard line. Following a 15 yard penalty, Heubner lofted a pass into the hands of Jim Wall in the end zone.

The Bellmakers final score came on a pass play covering 20 yards from Heubner to Wall. Belleville 0 0 0 0-0 Garfield 13 6 7 6-32 Garf.—Wall 10-pass from Heubner (Shortino kick) Garf.—Boryczewski 1-run (kick failed) Garf.—Hrisenke 1-run (Kick - failed) Garf.—Wall 25-pass from Heubner (Shortino kick) Garf.—Wall 20-pass from Heubner (kick failed)

UP SPEAK

Lists Results Of Vote Against Referendum; Scores 4 Commissioners

To the Editor:
The small minority of Belleville citizens who voted down the School Building bond issue have created more mischief than they realize. It is to be hoped that when the referendum comes up again (and it must be soon) they will have learned their mistake and vote in favor of the bond issue. By their neglect, again they have done the following damage:

1. They have condemned our high school children of today and the future, to an inferior education, due to inadequate facilities and obsolete apparatus.
2. They have lessened our high school graduates' opportunity to enter colleges of their choice. It is not true that accreditation is not important for entering college — it is of critical importance. Tying with this matter is playing with our children's economic, social and cultural future. This is worth more than the 30 cents per week per family that was at stake.

DEPRIVING TOWN
3. They have branded Belleville as a dying town among all the communities of New Jersey. Industry and residents will not move into, or remain in a town whose educational facilities are inferior.

4. They have pointed a finger at Belleville as a town that refuses to join in the national effort to improve education, as implored by the present Democratic and the past Republican administrations.
5. They have increased the cost of building the new school facilities when they finally come to us (as surely they must, for decay is a cancer that increases daily). This increased cost is approximately 3 per cent per year due to normal inflation in prices, and in this case will be about $90,000.00 per year. Had they voted for the building program five years ago, Belleville would have saved about $450,000.00. Now their mistake is costing Belleville $90,000.00 for each year that we delay this program.

6. They give aid and comfort to the growing school of thought that would withdraw property tax exemption from all private school property, on the theory that such tax exemption results in double taxation for all citizens who do not use such property, and can result also in the ultimate destruction of the public school system.

DECADENT CULTURE
7. They give substance to the Communist propaganda that America's is a decadent culture, that Russia's education process is out — stripping ours, and will make our country a second-rate or third-rate nation. They say we place the dollar above education, and in Belleville there seems to be substance for their charges.

Most disheartening was the failure of four of the five town Commissioners to take a public stand on the issue. Such timidity is unforgivable and should result in their forfeiture of backing for any position of town leadership.

Now is the time for all good citizens to commence anew the struggle for a proper educational building system. There may be other ways to reduce town expenses — our children's education is not the place to cut corners.

Yours truly,
LOUIS SUSSMAN
86 Van Rensselaer

Tell Voters Not "To Cry The Blues" At What's To Come

Dear Citizens:
You did it, Belleville, and I hope you're really proud. You decided with your index finger on the "no" switch that Belleville didn't need a new high school.

Well, when you find that your children's marks don't mean a thing to a college because Belleville High has lost its place on the List of Accredited Schools, don't cry the blues. And when BHS goes on double sessions and juvenile delinquency rises — because parents who never kept their kids home in the evening now don't keep them home in the daytime either, don't complain about it. Your index finger knows all the answers and it says we don't need a new high school.

And when the intelligent people move out to towns that offer better education and the trash moves in, don't holler about your low class neighbors. And when the taxes rise again, and they will what with the extra cost of double sessions and possible withdrawal of state aid, I wonder if you will ask yourself, "What are we getting for this increase?" Personally, we think you'll be getting exactly what you deserve.

Very truly yours,
MRS. ROBERT RUDDEN

Contrasts Civic Pride Committee And Voters

Two New Brownie Troops Start At School Five

Two new Brownie Scout Troops have been started at School Five. One of the troops meets at the school Tuesdays from 3:30 to 4:45 p.m. under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Toriello, 85 Carner Avenue, who 2000 will be assisted by Mrs. Florence Reed, 61 Carner Avenue.

The other troop meets Thursdays from 3:30 to 4:45 p.m. under the leadership of Mrs. Sally and the assistant leader, Mrs. Norma Vitiello, 56 Thoma Ave.

"Parents are badly needed to assume leadership," says Mrs. Manuel Costa, of 390 Cortlandt Street, who is neighborhood chairman. "Each one of these troops has a registration of 16 girls. The demand, however, for new troops is such that a waiting list of more than 50 children had to be let out until new troops can be organized."

You Can Stop Bossism You Can Stop Our Increasing Tax Burden. Vote Tuesday

Jim Mitchell, Republican candidate for Governor, indeed spoke the truth when he said, "Bossism can only flourish when citizens abdicate their right to vote." Tuesday's election is important to the well-being of every citizen in Essex County and all New Jersey.

A Boss-free candidate, Jim Mitchell's exceptional capacity and fine character will usher in a new era in the governmental affairs of New Jersey. And Essex County can send a Republican delegation to the Assembly to give Mr. Mitchell the support he will need in Trenton. We can elect a man of experience and integrity to the office of Sheriff; and we can rid the Board of Freeholders of the Boss controlled Spending Democrat majority. All this we will do IF there is a landslide turnout to vote Tuesday.

We need greater industrial progress in New Jersey. Jim Mitchell's program will attract new businesses, will create more jobs. His pledge against state sales and income taxes, with a revision of our hodge-podge laws, bodes well for the prosperity of our state and its citizens.

The Essex County Republican candidates for the Assembly will be needed in Trenton: Because they are men and women of integrity; because they can be relied upon to faithfully honor their promises as they have in the past, the election of the nine Republican Assembly candidates is of immense importance to Jim Mitchell, to Essex County, to the State of New Jersey.

The important Sheriff's office must not fall captive to the Essex County Democrat political Boss. The consequences would be dire. William S. Macdonald, Republican candidate for Sheriff, is widely respected for his honesty, for his conscientious and meticulous devotion to duty, for his sound judgment and administrative ability. He will grace this office as he has every office he has held.

And let's put an end to the spending antics of the Boss controlled Democrat majority on the Board of Freeholders. Essex County government has fallen to a low estate. Once, until 3 years ago when the Democrats gained a majority on the Board of Freeholders, Essex was one of the best governed counties in America — a model to which the rest of the nation pointed. But not today. In those 3 years, they have increased the county budget by almost nine million dollars and have raised the tax rate from $6.65 to $7.86 per $1.00 of assessed valuation. The parceling out of high-salaried jobs to political cronies is Boss politics at its worst.

For the good of Essex County and all its people, the Republican Freeholder candidates should be elected. We need them. Let's return to good government, to clean government in Essex County.

American Cancer Society for the second year has been given the Kiwanis Club for its annual "Cloth For Cancer Drive." With the awarding of the Certificate of Merit, this drive, conducted on a town-wide basis, brought over 30,000 pounds of used white materials to make into the cancer dressings. Schools, churches, businesses and industrial plants, Boy and Girl Scout troops, as well as all members aided the drive. Fell has released also other major projects accomplished by the club during the 1961 season. Several thousand dollars have been spent or donated to the local groups for boys' and girls' work of greater importance, said Fell, has been the hundreds of man hours the members have devoted to service as counselors, instructors, and administrators to the young people of the Town of Belleville.

stuffed burr because she had brought in her first two subscriptions that day, John Dahlquist won the drawing for a cocker spaniel puppy. He was eligible because he had brought in three subscriptions that day.

The magazine drive, called the Look School Plan, is sponsored by the Educational Service of Crowl Publications. The campaign profits belong to the school. As a result of last year's profits, the school purchased a movie screen, outfitted the cheerleaders with new uniforms, sponsored all assembly programs, purchased flowers for the band, cheerleaders and twirlers for the Thanksgiving Day football game and hired buses to take students to athletic events, among other things, according to W. Ralph Correll.

This year the drive adopted a theme of bees buzzing for honey. Honey for the high school was money. The leading magazine salesmen, George Snow and Claire Tortorello were the king and queen bees. The top 12 honey getters were Susan Walker, Terry Finocchiaro, Pat McNamara, Ruth Geppner, Judy Underwood, Beth Thaler, Beth Alber, Virginia Ponzo, Janet Borino, Betty Laudermit, Sandra Jones and Elinor Mostello.

Homeroom 114 was the "high high homeroom." Ted Gabry, homeroom teacher was crowned for the honor and given a teddy bear for a prize. Miss Linea Andree was presented with a corsage of celery leaves, onions, potatoes and red peppers and a stuffed skunk, Stinky, for being the teacher whose "low, low homeroom" gathered the smallest amount of money.

Quotas were set for each homeroom based on $7.00 subscriptions per pupil. The homerooms that reached quota and, or, 100 per cent participation were honored. Mrs. Ann Marie Ferrara won the drawing for 100 gallons of gasoline. She was qualified because her homeroom reached 100 per cent quota. Nino Gelsomino's homeroom made it possible for him to win the drawing for a black and white stuffed poodle by reaching quota.

no regard for the forgotten man, the taxpayer. One slope to wonder if the people of Essex County are cognizant of the fact that the County Freeholder receives a yearly salary of $10,000 for a part-time job, yet, if you were to check the salaries of the poor County employee you will find that some of them receive about a third of the salary paid to these "do nothing, no show job" Freeholders. With $41,000,000 of taxpayers' money at stake I will propose, when elected, to have the County Freeholder serve on a full time basis with no increase in salary. Or, if the system must continue under the present inefficient and costly setup, the position of County Freeholder and County Registrar should be abolished and put under the control of the county Supervisor, a policy which is being adopted in many states. I believe my program will give some relief to the County of Essex."

Referendum

of the building program is $2,962,000. In the last election, the school building would have cost $2,750,000; the additions, $252,000 of the same total cost as now proposed. The board said it reached a decision for a new vote after a re-examination of the present high school, in light of suggestions that an addition might be more practical than a new building. Dr. Harold Holcombe, head of the Division of Architectural Services of the State Department of Education, said after he toured the high school last Thursday that the state would not recommend an addition to, and renovation of, the school. Once a renovation plan was attempted the State would require that the ventilation, heating and electrical systems of the building be raised to code standards. Dr. Holcombe said they now were inadequate. Among those with Dr. Holcombe on the tour were Hugh D. Kittle, principal; Dr. Durkee; Alfonso Alvarez, architect for the proposed school; Karel Phillips, architect; Al Visco, engineer; Dr. Felix McCormick, educational consultant to the board.

Lally said the board decided after a four-hour session Friday that "there would be great difficulty in adding to the old high school building the 20 classrooms, laboratories, shops, library and auxiliary facilities needed."

He estimated that such a program would cost in excess of 35 to 50 per cent of the cost of the new high school. "To spend this much money on an old building is not considered wise because of the continued high cost of maintenance involved," he said.

A spokesman for the Citizens Tax Council, which campaigned against the referendum, criticized ed the board for its decision. "You should have asked us to attend a conference to discuss the expansion of the present school, proposals," said Thomas McGill. The Tax Council had offered its help in forming a new school program. The group was in favor of expansion of the present school. "Even an expanded and renovated old high school could not give anything more than second help in forming a new school program," said Lally.

BLIND CALL FOR DYNAMIC PARTNERSHIP Stating that more research is imperative, the American Foundation for the Blind, in the magazine "NEW OUTLOOK FOR THE BLIND", calls for a more dynamic partnership between government, private agencies, universities and the considerable facilities of industry to make a breakthrough which could yield the basic information necessary to combat the problems of blindness.

CONTENTMENT
True contentment depends not upon what we have. A tub was large enough for Diogenes, but a world was too little for Alexander.—Colton.

Berlin Philharmonic At Mosque Nov. 18
The Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Karl Boehm, will be the second in the current concert series being presented locally under auspices of Garden State Concerts at the Mosque Theatre, Newark, Saturday evening, Nov. 18 at 8:40 p.m.
The Berlin Philharmonic has had many claims to fame since it was founded by Haha von Bie-low in 1882. Its remarkable esprit de corps is in no small part due to the fact that it has had only four musical directors in its 79-year history. In addition to von Buelow, they were the celebrated Arthur Nikisch, Wilhelm Furtwaengler, whose tenure lasted more than 30 years, and since its first successful tour of America in 1953, Herbert von Karajan.

The Newark Saenger Chor, leading male a-capella chorus in the metropolitan area, will cooperate in the presentation of the orchestra.
