State Certifies Risoli To Be Town Registrar

Ralph Risoli has been appointed Registrar of Vital Statistics on the recommendation of Commissioner Nuncio R. Pico, director of Public Affairs. The appointment, which received certification by the state this week, is for three years. It became effective Nov. 1.

Risoli has been deputy registrar for the past four years. The work of the registrar has increased greatly since that time, mainly because of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital and its large number of maternity cases each month. In 1957, Risoli said, births registered in Belleville were no more than 30. Now, because each baby born in Clara Maass is registered in Belleville, 80 to 100 are registered each month, he said. Registration fees in the past totaled less than $1,000; revenue from births now totals $5,600.

The posts of registrar and deputy registrar do not carry salaries. Risoli is employed as secretary to Commissioner Pico at an annual salary of $4,700.

Miss Ada Donnelly, the former registrar, was appointed deputy registrar by Risoli.

Parent-Teacher Conferences At Belleville H.S.

Belleville High School will hold its annual Parent-Teacher program in the form of conferences this afternoon, Thursday. Conferences were held also on Tuesday afternoon.

These conferences are being held to bring about a better understanding of the student, and to improve relationships between parents and teachers.

School will be dismissed at one p.m. today, and parents who desire to converse with their child's subject teachers may call at the school any time between 1:15 and 4 p.m. In some cases teachers will request a conference on a pre-arranged basis. Similarly, parents are invited to telephone the Guidance Office (Plymouth 9-4701) to arrange for a time of visit.

Belleville High School will also be opened for parent-teacher conferences Monday evening, Nov. 18, from 7 to 9 p.m. This will be an open-house meeting.

Gruhin And Padula Must Answer

Commissioner Robert Gruhin, at the Town Commission meeting held Monday morning, refused to answer questions put to him by James Golden concerning the tax exempt status of property located at 317-319 Washington Avenue. Golden attempted to learn if Gruhin bought the property a year ago.

Gruhin contended the subject under discussion was his personal business and Golden was at liberty to visit Gruhin in his law office at which time Gruhin would be pleased to answer questions.

Golden wasn't satisfied with Gruhin's answer. Neither are we.

Commissioner Gruhin may have nothing to hide. We accept this premise. But—after all—assessments—or lack of assessments is the public's business—and taxpayers have a right to know if Gruhin owns taxable property which is not taxed by Padula's Revenue and Finance Department.

Gruhin should be anxious to place his answers on the public record. He should voluntarily step forward with the answers and so remove any doubt that he is receiving special treatment from Padula's Department.

The subject under discussion was Washington Avenue real estate valued by the Town-employed J. Cleminshaw Appraisal Company at $64,600 and carried by Mayor Isadore Padula's Revenue and Finance Department as tax exempt property.

The property in question was formerly used as a place of worship, thus acquiring tax exempt status. It is now commercial property, converted to office use.

Information in Golden's possession indicates the property was purchased by Commissioner Robert Gruhin about November 1960. If and when Gruhin acquired ownership of the property, it lost its tax exempt status.

The questions which Golden asked and Gruhin refused to answer follow:

"Did you (Gruhin) purchase the property at 317-319 Washington Avenue in the winter of 1960?"

"Did you (Gruhin) fail to record the deed which would reflect your ownership of the property thus making it taxable?"

"Isn't it true that failure to record a deed showing a transfer of tax exempt property in effect deprived the town of tax revenues from the real estate in question?"

"Did you (Gruhin) pay $20,000 or more for the property at 317-319 Washington Avenue in December 1960?"

"On December 14, 1960 did you not apply for a building permit to renovate the building known as 317-319 Washington Avenue and submit the application to the former Building Inspector Thomas Greco, an employee of the Public Works Department which you head?"

"Isn't it a fact that former Building Inspector Thomas Greco refused to issue a building permit to you because the official records in Mayor Isadore Padula's Revenue and Finance Department fail to reflect your ownership of the property?"

"Isn't it a fact that the application for building permit relied upon by former Building Inspector Thomas Greco as the basis for the issuance of Building Permit No. 16870 bears the name of Robert C. Gruhin and appears to be your signature?"

"Did you sign the December 14, 1960 application for the building permit? If so in what capacity does your signature appear thereon—as owner or agent?"

"Is it not a fact that prior to the date which you allegedly made application for a building permit that you, Gruhin, were the legal owner of this tax exempt property?"

The foregoing questions raised by Golden involve serious implications.

Golden's question addressed to Padula's Revenue and Finance Department to explain its failure to include the property at 317-319 Washington Avenue in the list of tax ratables as required by law on October 1, 1961 is also proper—and requires an answer from Padula.

If Commissioner Gruhin persists in his refusal to publicly answer questions relating to the public's business perhaps he may prefer giving answers in private to a Grand Jury which in our judgment should be convened to make an independent study of the tax assessment methods generally employed by our Revenue and Finance Department.

This is not the first incident involving taxpayer complaints pertaining to the assessment practices of Padula's Revenue and Finance Department. In fairness to the taxpayers—and especially himself—Padula may want to invite the Essex County Grand Jury to investigate his department's assessment practices.

To a politician about to seek re-election nothing is more negotiable than a clean bill of health from an objective, impartial, Grand Jury.

Mayor Proclaims 'Equal Opportunity Day In Belleville'

Mayor Isadore J. Padula has proclaimed Nov. 19, as "Equal Opportunity Day in Belleville."

This date was selected by the National Urban League because it is the anniversary of President Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, delivered in 1863. Lincoln pleaded that all citizens be afforded "an unfettered start and fair chance in the race of life."

"Therefore," the mayor said, "it is most fitting to set aside a day to remind ourselves that the greatness of our country rests upon the principle of equal opportunity for all."

Recreation Basketball Registration Begins

Registrations for teams wishing to play in the Recreation Basketball Leagues, 1961-1962 season, has begun, announced Commissioner George F. Kiernan.

The Intermediate League for players aged 16 through 19 will play on Wednesday evenings. Senior Basketball will be played on Thursday nights.

500 Attend Hulme Concert

Friends and neighbors of Don Hulme who turned out last Friday evening to honor him were both charmed and entertained by his musical artistry. For more than 20 minutes before the showing of the two regular feature films, Belleville's Champion Accordionist held the audience with his rendition of the First Movement of Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto—the one that won him first place in the World Accordion Olympics at Milan, Italy, last summer—as well as several other lighter and popular selections.

While the turn-out of 500 people was not as great as the planning committee had anticipated, Hulme was well received at both matinee and evening performances. As one member of the audience was heard to remark, "That young man's performance alone was worth double the price of admission. It was outstanding."

In turn, Hulme, said he was thrilled by the honor, including a parade down Washington Avenue and the complimentary remarks and presentation of a testimonial by Mayor Isadore J. Padula.

Early Copy A Must

Because Thanksgiving Day, as is customary, falls on our publication day—Thursday—the issue of The Times for Nov. 23 will be sent to press EARLIER than usual next week.

It is imperative that news and advertising material for this issue be received by us no later than early Monday morning, Nov. 20—with copy received today, Thursday, and Friday being assured of a greater chance of being used.

Church copy must be in The Times office this morning.

Commissioner Robert C. Gruhin, director of Public Works was accused at Monday's Town Commission meeting of dodging taxes on property he allegedly owns.

At the same time, Mayor Isadore J. Padula was asked why real estate taxes were not being charged by his department of Revenue and Finance for former synagogue property at 317-319 Washington Avenue, which congregation sources say Gruhin purchased toward the end of 1960. Padula said he would investigate.

James R. Golden of 62 Tappan Avenue charged that Gruhin owned the property for one year and demanded to know why it had not been included on the list of tax ratables, which is made on the first of October each year.

The commissioner refused to confirm or deny ownership, saying Golden had no right to interfere with his private affairs. He called Golden's accusations an "attempt to insult and smear" him.

Gruhin would only say, "any taxes due the Town of Belleville will be paid." He said that under law the town had a limit of two years to file an omitted tax assessment. This would mean that once a property was assessed, a town could collect taxes for that current year and the preceding year for the property that had been left off the tax rolls.

Kiwanians Hear About Boystown

Cleanliness, firmness and love are the guiding words at Boystown in Kearny, the Rev. Robert Eagan told members of the Kiwanis Club at a meeting last Thursday.

Homeless boys are given clothes to wear, given food to eat and are given an education. Grammar school aged boys are taught by lay teachers. High school students attend various schools away from the home.

After hearing the report on operation of the home, Joseph G. Fell, president of Kiwanis, urged members to contribute to the Boystown fund drive, which starts soon.

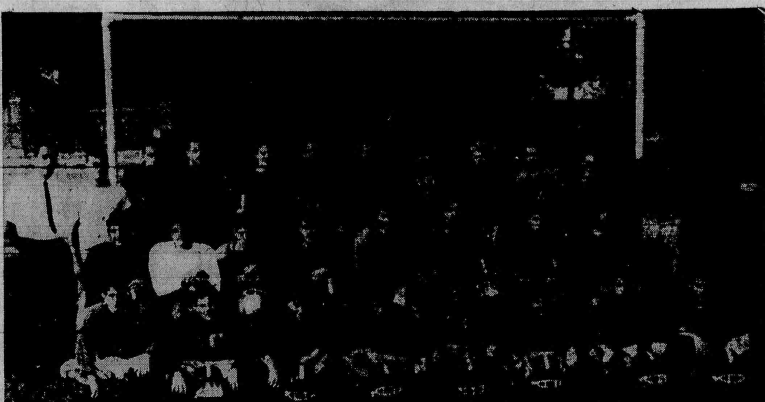

Brennan Wins Double Prize

Paul A. Brennan, principal of School Three walked into The Times-News office, bought a paper and immediately identified Joe Sciculanato as Abbot's Drug Store as the map page personality.

Brennan said he used to smoke and he bought all his cigars at Abbot's. Referring to Sciculanato's picture, he recalled, "He's quite a cigar smoker, himself."

The Citizens Tax Council, which campaigned against a new high school, has questioned the value of accreditation by the Middle States Association. In a letter to Salvatore R. Calabro,

"The serious overcrowding resulting from increased enrollment, the limited facilities, and the large classes seemed to the Commission to make this action necessary," explained R. D. Matthews, chairman of the association's Commission on Secondary Schools, in a letter to Hugh D. Kittle, high school principal.

The letter, dated Nov. 15, was received yesterday. The association met earlier this week and considered reports and records on the school, including the findings of its special committee that made an inspection tour on Oct. 30.

A warning had been given by the commission on Jan. 3, 1961 that unless facilities were improved the school could not keep its accreditation. Approval was given until the end of this year. This approval was conditional. The commission had taken into consideration the approaching referendum on a new school. This referendum, however, was defeated Oct. 17.

The same referendum will be put before Belleville again on Dec. 21. Dr. Frank M. Durkee, superintendent of schools, said he hoped the association's action would be "an incentive" for a new high school when voters make their decision on next month's ballot.

"Belleville High School is the first in Essex County to lose its accreditation," he said. If the referendum is passed Dr. Durkee said he would petition the association to stay its removal of accreditation, since improvements would be made.

Clara Maass Hospital Awarded Accreditation Three More Years

The board of trustees and the hospital in question is well-equipped, well-administered and well-staffed.

The board of trustees and the administration of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital in Belleville has announced that the hospital has been granted full accreditation for another three-year period by the Joint Commission on Accreditation.

This seal of approval granted by the Joint Commission, which is sponsored jointly by the American Hospital Association, American College of Surgeons and American College of Physicians, is the inherent assurance that the

and the extent to which these by the hospital and its medical staff laws are adhered to.

In this phase, the medical records also come in for careful scrutiny to determine whether they are maintained and prepared in slipshod or painstaking fashion. Various other hospital records also are carefully checked.

The second phase consists of an inspection of the physical plant and its various departments, from housekeeping and operational points of view.

This portion of the report is followed by a more general statement of the hospital operations and the investigator's recommendation for or against accreditation.

Catholic Youth Open Drive For Handicapped

Catholic youth in the Newark Archdiocese will take on a challenge next week. As the principal participants in "Catholic Youth Help for Handicapped Children Week," Nov. 12-18, more than 60,000 CYO members in Essex, Bergen, Hudson and Union counties will expose their fund-raising prowess to a public test.

"Unfortunately we are between the baseball and basketball seasons and the selection of activities is limited," the Rev. Marcellino Pesentiello of Holy Family Church, Nutley, and director of the observance, remarked. "But we are very proud of the youngsters' enthusiasm and their determination to assure the drive's success," he said.

To boost the youth's efforts, adult parish organizations have been asked to participate and local proprietors are being urged to display collection canisters and posters. All proceeds will go to the Mount Carmel Guild, the church-sponsored organization which has the responsibility of providing spiritual, educational and recreational opportunities for the archdiocese's handicapped, including the socially maladjusted, the blind, deaf, mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed, multiple-handicapped and those with speech defects. Services are extended to all, regardless of race, color or creed.

Above all, the seal of accreditation is a symbol of confidence in the hospital and the people who administer it. It is assurance that the welfare of every patient is in competent, dedicated hands.

Essex Girl Scout Camp Construction Underway

Mrs. A. H. Verhagen of 112 Hornblower Avenue, district chairman of the Greater Essex County Girl Scout Council, reported this week that construction has already begun of the Council's new Camp Madeleine Mulford on a 43-acre site in Pike County, Pennsylvania.

Scheduled to take its first camp next summer, the new facility will ultimately enroll 210 girls between the ages of 8 and 17. It will replace the Council's original Camp Madeleine Mulford in Branchville, N. J., which is closing after 35 years of operation on property leased from the state.

Residents began planning for a new camp five years ago when the State informed the Girl Scout Council that it planned to withdraw its lease in order to make the land available for a public recreation area, recalled Mrs. Verhagen.

HOLD ADDITIONAL 60
Earlier plans called for a camp with a capacity of 150 Scouts from the Essex Mountain area—11 towns including Livingston, the Caldwell, Roseland, Essex Falls, Verona, Cedar Grove, Glen Ridge and Montclair. Since then, the Essex Mountain Girl Scout Council merged with nine other Scout units to form the Greater Essex County Council. The camp building plans were accordingly expanded to accommodate an additional 60 Scouts per two-week encampment.

Located in the foothills of the Pocono Mountains, new Camp Madeleine Mulford is only a few miles beyond the Delaware River at Dingmans Ferry. It takes in 60-acre Lastimore Lake which will be developed for boating and swimming. Two winterized troop houses will make the camp usable immediately. Construction plans also call for a sports field, infirmary facilities, an octagonal dining hall and a crafts building, staff house, shower house, tent platforms and sanitary facilities. Architect is Sidney Schenker of Paterson.

Relocation of Camp Madeleine Mulford is the largest of the Greater Essex Council's $400,000 camp renewal project. When the nine Scout councils joined with the Essex Mountain Council two years ago, the newly created countywide council became responsible for the operation of four other camps comprising several hundred acres in New York and New Jersey.

ONE-THIRD TO CAMP
Pointing out the need for expanded camping facilities, Mrs. Verhagen noted that only one-third of the Council's 18,000 Girl Scouts go to summer camp, use the sites for other camping activities. Troop camping areas are sometimes scheduled six months in advance, she added.
The Scout Council is depending on the outcome of its capital fund drive to pay for a major share of the camp renewal project, she planned. Mrs. Verhagen noted improvements at other camps include repairs to buildings, new roofs, tents, sanitary facilities and water supply and sewage systems.

Recruitment of leadership for the countywide drive has already begun, Mrs. Verhagen reported. The Scout volunteers expect to approach business and industry for support. "Living tributes"—gifts given in honor of a person, family or organization—will also be sought.
"Our first 'Living Tribute' dates back to 1926 when the Mulford family of Montclair provided the original funds for the first Camp Madeleine Mulford in honor of the mother who had been executive in Girl Scouts almost since the founding of the movement in 1912," concluded Mrs. Verhagen.

Four Attend Social Science Seminar

Four Belleville High Seniors attended a Social Science Seminar for high school honor students held on the Rutherford campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University on Nov. 3. Judy Pirone, John Colarusso, Susan Long and Grace Hucko, were among 232 students from 20 high schools in attendance.
Dr. Kenneth M. MacKenzie, chairman of the Social Science department on the Rutherford campus, presided at this symposium. Speakers of the afternoon were Dr. Theodor Gastier, Dr. Emil Lengyel and Dr. Harold Feldman.
Dr. Gastier, who spoke on "The Encounter of East and West," emphasized the fact that America does not understand the rest of the world. He illustrated this with highlights of his impressions in Japan, Hong Kong, Bali, Thailand, Australia and Nepal, and concluded with the recommendation that education in America should be revised to help bring about a better understanding of other points of view. He stressed the importance of studying languages as a first step toward this.

Dr. Lengyel, who, as co-leader of the Fairleigh Dickinson Southeast Asia Seminar last summer, had visited many of the places mentioned by Dr. Gastier, confirmed Dr. Gastier's recommen-

UP SPEAK

Quotes Webster On "Spoonersm"

Dear Sir:
The letter to the editor in the Times-News of Oct. 19, 1961 headlined "Relates 'Spoonersm'" falsely accuses Mr. Calabro of the Citizens Tax Council without mentioning his name of making a grammatical mistake, misinterpreting the whole meaning of the entire context of his brief speech, implies the word spoonersm, and implies a conclusion from these errors that if apartments are put in the Fairway area that the Town of Belleville will benefit from the tax dollars derived from these apartments.

First of all the quotation although correct as to its word content is not punctuated properly nor interpreted properly. The quotation should read with proper editorial commentary as follows: "The park could be self liquidating if the families who wish to use it paid so much a year. And it wouldn't cost them (Belleville taxpayers) a nickel."

By taking two sentences and combining them into a paradox, not a spoonersm, was created by Mrs. Shaffer not Mr. Calabro. If the rest of Mr. Calabro's speech was quoted this would be evident. A spoonersm is the accidental transposition of sounds, usually the initial sounds, of two or more words. A typical example is that the words "crushing blow" may be said in haste "blushing crowd." There isn't any insult meant by the example as it is taken directly from Webster's Collegiate Dictionary.

If these four Krugman and DePetro apartment houses are erected it was claimed by Mr. Krugman at the same Town Meeting from which the misquotation was taken that the town would receive approximately $100,000 annually in tax revenue. What will it cost the taxpayer is the question? First of all, the Third River must be moved and a new bridge built on Joramelon Street. The Commissioners have already spent $2,000 for a report about the Third River. The preliminary report indicates that the total project will cost between $700,000 and $900,000 without the bridge. Who will pay this one million dollars, and if bonds are floated at many mount to 1 1/4 or 2 million dollars?

SCHOOL CHILDREN
Second, Mr. Krugman declares that only 27 school age children will live in the 320 apartments because rents will start at $175 per month and that tenants will have to have a minimum income of $10,000 per year. Only 20 children? What if they all go to high school? Mrs. Shaffer is a supporter of the proposed new high school obviously believes the old school is overcrowded. If instead the number of children is 40 to 100, as a conservative range, is School Seven again overcrowded? This many new students if they are of grammar school age? If the United States Government's average figure of about 1.06 children per apartment is used a new school would be needed. Where would it be located and who pays the two million dollars including bonds that it would cost?

Mr. Krugman admits these apartments would add 400 cars in that area. The portion of Joramelon Street is a narrow, two-lane, town-maintained road where the one and only one entrance and exit is proposed. This does not include the delivery trucks and other vehicles that would enter and leave every day. The traffic situation is bad on this road now. Wouldn't these cars make it worse? Would the road have to be widened? A conservative estimate of the cost to widen this road is $100,000 or better. Belleville does not have extension ladder fire fighting apparatus that could reach the fifth floors of these buildings. A new fire house would be definitely needed. At what cost and who will pay for it? There is only one answer, the taxpayers.

James Devaney, General Attorney for the Waiter Kilde Co., will be general chairman of the Cavalcade Committee, The Roller Rink will provide space for 45 booths compared with 29 at the past show; Devaney said "letters are going out to this year's exhibitors giving them an opportunity to select their booths now and until January 1, 1962 when the solicitation of new exhibitors will begin." Composes Plea Against The C.T.C.

Editor: I just ran off the following little ditty, and thought you might find some room for it in your valued paper.

THE SAGA OF THE C.T.C.

Come rest you merry gentlemen And list to my tale of glee, Wise your heads and follow me. And its history, constituency and leadership, hereinafter referred to as the C.T.C.

Was conceived with noble purpose, The taxpayer's wealth to save. Fought every vital issue With courage fierce and brave.

Till they learned one night There was one left to fight, But one adversary near. They vowed: Let's fight Belleville High.

Calm your fears, dear neighbors, Voters, students, do not wail. Wise your heads, their labors Will not prevail.

So they beat their breasts, and they all made tracks— Six leaders and followers. "Our minds are made up—don't confuse us with facts." "We are Belleville's Supermen."

We're smarter than the Board of Ed. They must come to us for advice. Progress makes us all see red. Advancement isn't new.

Our children are running away from our schools, So, why do we need another? Bad education was sufficient for me, So why not for my brother?

The price is too high. The rooms are too small. The bog is too soft. The building will fall. The architect is too absurd. The State Board's half alive. Accreditation's for the birds. And two and two make five!

What? Two and two make five? That's true! A no vote on voting day Will mean double sessions, at more cost to you! A stupid decision, I'd say.

So you see, C.T.C., You should be just like me. LET'S VOTE YES ON VOTING DAY. AND WE'LL BOTH HAVE OUR WAY.

"Yes" will give us lower taxes. "Yes" will give us better schools. Do not heed the voice that promises A paradise for fools.

LOUIS SUSSMAN 66 Van Reyper Place

Gives Answers To "Yes" Voters

Dear Sir: The Nov. 2, 1961, issue of your paper carried six letters concerning the recent high school referendum under your "Speak Up" column. Five were from "Yes" voters and one from a "No" voter. As a "No" voter, I would like to answer some points brought up by the "yes" voters.

Rabbi Victor Cohen succumbs to the usual device of branding as "unprogressive" (by implication) those who voted "No." As for the election verdict being a blow to education, I think Rabbi Cohen might benefit from reading some of the latest criticisms of our educational system. He will find that the methods labeled "Progressive Education" in the recent past are not exactly considered "progressive" today. What was considered "Progressive Education" then is considered by many today as the greatest blow to education in the past 100 years.

Rabbi Cohen casts aspersions on the moral, ethical and intelligence of some "No" voters, and even makes the fantastic statement: "Perhaps we may even question the democratic right to vote on this issue." What could be written about this quote would fill volumes! However, I will pass and refer you to another quote: "No one here will allow the destruction of our democratic attitude, etc." May I say, that our "democratic attitude" was expressed on Oct. 17, 1961, is our "democratic attitude" worthless until the vote comes out "Yes?"

BUILDINGS AND APPARATUS

Mr. Louis Sussman makes the mistake of equating educational excellence or adequacy with new buildings and up-to-date apparatus. If this were all we needed we would, indeed, be the most educated nation in the world, be-

Republican party in Essex County.

And for this service he now gets abuse. We wouldn't mind if it came from unselfish quarters. The hard truth is that most of Bob Kean's critics are persons whose primary activity for the Republican party is to use it as a means of getting on the public payroll.

The Republican Party will rue the day when Bob Kean retires from party activity. When that day comes he will be calling it quits for all time. Undoubtedly, if Mrs. Kean had her way that day would have been yesterday.

What surprises us is Kean's refusal to tell them all where to go—and he in turn take the nearest exit into his wife's outstretched arms. Through it all Bob Kean has remained the gentleman he was, with his personal integrity shining through his every action. A more loyal and dedicated leader the Republican party never had. Kean deserves a better reward than condemnation by would-be leaders.

Here We Go Again

The Board of Education has voted to submit the question of a new high school to the public at an election scheduled for December 21st.

The Board's reasoning makes sense to us.

The N. J. State Dept. of Education has demanded that our school officials correct "substandard" conditions existing at the Belleville High School. The highly respected, non-profit Middle States Association Commission on Secondary Schools also demands action to correct deficiencies and "substandard" conditions in the high school.

Neither the N. J. State Dept. of Education nor the Middle States Association on Secondary Schools is empowered to order our local school officials to construct a new high school.

The school board has been told substandard conditions exist in our high school—and it has been instructed to correct the deficiencies.

School authorities have three alternatives—build a new school—build additions to the high school and eight grammar schools—or inaugurate double sessions for high school students.

The School Board counseled with paid professional advisors—Rutgers University and Columbia University experts. All agreed the most economical and efficient solution was the construction of a new high school. Hence the decision of the School Board to submit the question of a new high school to the voters.

October 17th a majority of voters that bothered to visit the polls rejected the new high school proposal. Paradoxically the same voters went to the polls a week ago Tuesday and voted in favor of a $6 million dollar expenditure to acquire more recreational lands for state use and an additional 40 millions of dollars for more state institutions. The Institutional Bond issue received 3,478 "Yes" votes and 1,821 "No" votes. The Recreation Lands Bond issue, popularly referred to as the Green Acres Bond Issue was favored 3,035 to 2,157.

A $100 million for state use but not an extra penny for our school children.

The School Board is on the verge of entering into conferences concerning the annual school budget to be submitted to the voters at the Feb. 8th School Board Election. In this regard it must decide whether or not to include the heavy tax burden of double sessions for our high school students.

The projected cost of a double session high school would be more than the average annual cost required to amortize the cost of a new high school. And double sessions at the high school would contribute nothing to solve the overcrowding conditions of our grammar schools. Nor would double sessions provide our high school students with modern school rooms, equipment, and adequate library facilities.

Thus it is easy to follow the school board's reasoning to resubmit the question of a new high school to the voters for a decision early enough to permit it to determine what expense to include in its 1962 budget.

It is unfortunate that the vote on the new high school proposal comes at Christmastime. It is a very inconvenient time for the voters—especially for the large group of mothers with children in school. They will be preoccupied with Christmas shopping for the family, a visit with the children to see Santa, and maybe they may take time out to vote on the new high school proposal.

November 7th Belleville residents rose to their obligations of citizenship and approved two bond issues involving the expenditure of One Hundred Million Dollars.

Will our citizens visit the polls again on December 21st and approve the expenditure of thirty-five cents a week to give our children freedom from substandard school conditions?

Only time will tell.

Vara Does The Impossible

Essex County Democrat leaders are taking credit for the smashing victory their party scored a week ago Tuesday. Very little credit has been given to the yeoman work of the Democrat Municipal leaders.

In Belleville for example, Ralph Vara, Democrat Municipal Chairman was confronted with a herculean task in his successful effort to keep Belleville in the Democrat column.

Dennis Carey, Essex County Democrat leader rejected Vara's perennial request for Belleville representation on the county and state slate. Exposing himself to disciplinary action by a Democrat county boss who rules with an iron fist, Ralph Vara has doggedly fought for legislative recognition for Belleville and its citizens, to the dismay and embarrassment of a Newark-oriented Dennis Carey.

In his efforts Vara was supported by 44 of Belleville's 48 Democrat county committee leaders, Senator Donal Fox, and Congressman Peter Rodino.

Viewing the Vara-Carey fight as an opportunity for personal advancement, last month Mayor Isadore Padula, for the first time in his seven years as a member of the Town Commission, made like a party leader, issuing political statements supporting Democrats, and even held a pre-election reception for Democrat candidates.

While Padula's reception and campaign statements may have impressed visiting candidates, for Vara and Belleville's Democrat county committee the task of keeping Belleville Democratic became all the more formidable.

What our local voters currently think of Padula was convincingly demonstrated on May 2nd, when Padula, making himself the central issue in the government change vote, bid the dust by a vote of 5,421 to 3,497.

Despite the handicap created by Padula's Johnny-come-lately association with the local Democrat Party, and Carey's obstinate refusal to place a Belleville Democrat on the county ticket, Ralph Vara, Mae Mead Mazza, Mary Senator, Commissioner George Kiernan, and countless other Democrat workers turned an impending defeat into a solid victory.

Instead of castigating Vara, Dennis Carey and associates should build a shrine to this man who has given up the past thirteen years of his life strengthening an increasingly ungrateful Democrat party.

Night after night, over 13 years Vara abandoned his growing family and his home in his dedicated effort to make the Democrat party the majority party in Belleville.

To keep Belleville in the Democrat column November 7th was an almost impossible task—but Vara and his associates did it—no thanks to Carey and Padula. In the company of Governor-elect Richard Hughes, Senator Donal Fox and Congressman Peter (Paul Revere) Rodino, Vara should feel mighty comfortable—Carey and Padula notwithstanding.

Ghoulish Activity

Without waiting to extend it the courtesy of a decent burial, family critics of the Republican party demand the scalp of Essex County Republican Chairman Robert W. Kean. They blame Kean for the Democrat victory of November 7th.

And who are these critics. And where are they from? Rock-ribbed Republican areas? Let's look at the record.

In 1957 Democrat Meyer carried Essex County by 33,000 over Republican Forbes—this at a time when the county courthouse was still Republican-controlled. A week ago Tuesday Democrat Hughes beat out Republican Mitchell in Essex County by 21,500—down 11,500 from four years ago and in the face of a Democrat-controlled courthouse.

Kean's first post-election detractor is an Orange GOP leader, a prominent attorney and one-time loser in a Congressional race. And what did Orange do for Republican Mitchell a week ago Tuesday? It went for Democrat Hughes, 6,600 to 4,595, a majority of 2,205. Let's take a look at some of the Newark wards from whence come more of Bob Kean's detractors. The South ward for example gave Hughes a 12,400 majority over Republican Mitchell, 18,026 to 5,681. The Central ward did much better for Democrat Hughes, 10,107 to 2,826 for Republican Mitchell.

Kean must not be made the scapegoat for Mitchell's loss. The election was lost at the precinct level—and not the county level. If there is any blame to be attached to the GOP defeat it is to be found at the doorstep of our municipal leaders.

In the twilight of his youth, Kean at 87 doesn't need the headaches that accompany party leadership. A multi-millionaire, Bob Kean could, and probably should, have been doing what Mrs. Kean and he like best—traveling around the world. Instead, since his retirement from Congress three years ago Kean has devoted most of his waking hours to the spend their school time, as he has to the current campaign to build a new high school. All the new high schools in the world will not keep us from falling behind the Russians—but we can prevent it if we stop spoon-feeding our students and make them realize that getting an education is hard work and worth it.

BLAME SCHOOL BOARD

Mr. Sussman engages in some arithmetic gymnastics and tells us that for every year we don't do what we are told, it costs us $90,000. For the past 11 years, the "educationalists" have been trying to foster a new high school building on the people. Had a sensible program at a reasonable cost (in other words, additions to the high school) been offered, we would now have an adequate high school spacewise.

I blame the present plight of our high school not on the people, but on the Boards of Education and the administrators of the past eleven years who keep insisting that a fancy, new three million dollar building in the bog is the only way to correct and improve our educational system. We, the people, have said "No" to this three times—now said "Yes" to convince the Board of Education and its associates that Belleville can afford a good educational program, but not an educational carnival!

Sincerely yours, PAUL F. BERNHARDT 182 Forest Street

Applauds Mayor Padula For Sidewalk Paving

Very often our "City Fathers" are put on the carpet about some small things we taxpayers in Belleville think we should have for our tax dollar. Much news paper space is given to all of our "gripes" regarding them. This is a letter to express a thank you for something that has been done and something which we people in the area truly appreciate. I have been assigned to conduct our good Mayor to see what could be done about having the stretch of sidewalk from Copper Place down to Mill Street paved. As all of the Belleville Times readers know, Franklin Avenue is a very busy highway and it was worth your life to walk in the street to the subway. The mud, ruts and thorny bushes along the walk made it a real job to try to walk through them.

So now instead of waiting forever on Saturday and Sunday for the bus to take us to the subway, we can walk there in a very short time, and many individuals working within walking distance can walk to and from work.

Sincerely, MRS. EDNA K. MALLEY 135 Smallwood Avenue.

Beck's Column

More photographs will be sold during the next 30 days than during any other time of the year. Therefore it is appropriate to give some hints what to look for and what to avoid.

In most stores you will find photographs jammed in between white goods, TV sets and a variety of other appliances, or you may find small bars placed in closets. None of this has any resemblance to home conditions and consequently you really don't get any idea how such an instrument will sound in your own home. Look for a store that has display facilities removed from the usual store traffic with its interference and noises in homelike surroundings.

By far the most important feature for you to look out for is this: how does it sound to you? Never mind—sales talk like this set has 8 speakers or 3 channels or it is a good buy. Nothing is a good buy unless it accurately suits your needs.

The most overworked gimmick is the number of speakers. There is one phonograph on the market for about $150. - with 8 speakers, each of which costs about a dollar. You can readily see that you can't get much of a speaker for $1. The result is that you hear a poor sound 8 times magnified, because the 8 poor speakers do not make one good one. It is not the number of speakers that counts, it is the design and quality. Generally speaking it is better to have less speakers if one can cover the whole tonal range with them. In such a case, the speakers have to be of special design, of course.

Another gimmick to be wary of is "3 channels". There are only 2 channels and how some people can make 3 channels out of 2, except using deception, has yet to be explained. If you hear a demonstration of a 3 channel stereo, you'll hear first the speakers that reproduce the higher tones only, the bass tones have been cut off. Then they switch the "third channel" in. The bass tones are channeled to a third speaker. The catch is there is only one bass speaker instead of 2. Each stereo channel has to have its own bass, so a set has to have 2 bass speakers.

If you listen to different instruments, you should insist that several sets are hooked up in such a manner that they can be switched instantly. If one waits until the record is taken off one set and put on the other, too much time has elapsed for a good comparison. It is almost useless to listen to one set only or to a set in one store and to another one in a different place. You have to make instant comparisons to be able to hear the differences.

Don't let anybody tell you which set to buy. Choose yourself, nobody else can hear for you. Listening is a most individual matter and only you can pick a set that sounds good to you.

We service what we sell.

To Those That It Concerns:

On Oct. 17 the voters of the town of Belleville went to the polls so that they might cast their votes on two referenda. One of the referenda was the question of whether or not Belleville should enjoy the privilege of getting a new high school and thus not lose its place upon the list of accredited schools.

But, as you know, both issues were defeated. Why?

A while ago the townspeople of Belleville were being praised from all sides as a result of their efforts to send Donald Hulme to Europe. This act surely shows the warm spirit of "town pride" that is present in this town, even if it is not prevalent. Surely you must feel a slight bit taller and walk a little prouder because Belleville made the front pages and gained recognition!

Well, just imagine the way you'd feel now if you had voted for a new high school. Approximately 1,500 students would have gained recognition as having gone to a high school that is classified as a "high school." Also, the teachers that instruct here would have gained recognition because they would have been able to convey their seeds of wisdom to the students, not only by way of speaking, but by means of proper facilities with which they would be more able to express their ideas.

This could be true, but it isn't.

Why?

The "Citizens Tax Council" is supposedly working for the good of the people. Tell us, is it for the "good of the people" when their children go through four years of work and then graduate from a high school that has lost its accreditation?

Many "adults" are complaining about the way the young generation acts and wonder what is to become of the world when we grow up to be the voters of to-ville High!

tomorrow. How can we grow up if we don't have the proper facilities?

But don't you know that our population is going to decrease? Well, when there are 30,000 people in this town and when our run down high school is not overcrowded to a point of no return, we won't be here!

But right now we're climbing up the steps of learning so that we may reach higher plateaus of learning. But we're having a wicked time trying to fight our way through the halls of Belleville High!

To the people who exerted the appendages of their anatomies and exerted pressure upon the "No" lever with their nimble fingers while in the privacy of the voting machine we say "thanks!"

TRADE IN

You wanted to save money, but did you have to trade in the education of the future adults? If so, it wasn't a fair trade—you got gypped!!!

one of merit, trust, honor and understanding.

It would satisfy the ego of some members of the school board who would love to have their names on a plaque. Their argument that the High School has a shortage of classrooms and teachers is worthless. The record shows that the number of teachers have been climbing. More than enrollments, and that many of the shortage reports are exaggerations. Their system is to overestimate enrollments, and to underestimate the number of teachers and classrooms in order to win voters approval.

A new school if approved would be a severe hardship on all the people, since our taxes are too high now. It would be a beautiful building with lounging rooms for some members of the school personnel to relax in. Not a better education for Belleville students. It would also create 20 more jobs for teacher's and produce 34 empty rooms elsewhere in town, which will be used for storage.

This school question is not like the raises granted under the Commission form of Government. Without public approval, if it is defeated, it cannot be built. Although I do not always share the views expressed in your editorials I do respect your right to print them. You have done a tremendous job in town, since you have taken over the power, to bring honest, decent and clean Government to Belleville, and I hope you will keep up the good work.

Dear Sir:

In answer to a letter by Allen H. Crisp in a Newark paper, in regards to the defeat of the High School here in town, may I say the people in Belleville will no longer be sucked in, as guinea pigs at these so called P.T.A. meetings. Our teachers are being used as political pawns in town affairs which is a disgrace to the teaching profession, which is Senior Girl Scout Barbara Regula, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Regula of 39 Little Street, has been chosen as a representative from the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County to attend the triennial Roundup in Vermont next summer, it was announced this week.

Selection of the eight patrols, of eight girls each, who will attend Roundup is the result of several months of preliminary training and try-outs for selection. Selections were based on outdoor and camp skills and the ability to get along as a member of a group in a camp situation.

Further training and preparation will continue for the 64 girls and eight alternates chosen until July 18 when they leave for Button Bay State Park on Lake Champlain in Vermont. The two previous Roundups were held in Colorado and Michigan.

The Roundup in Vermont will be the largest encampment for girls ever held in the western world. It will be attended by 8,500 Girl Scouts from all over the United States, and Girl Guides from the 50 countries in the World

Association of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides. Encampment fees for girls invited from other countries will be paid through the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund in which every Girl Scout participates.

With the Scouts and Guides will come a staff of 1,500 men and women, mostly volunteer workers, who will type, sort food, run the switchboard, deliver the mail, cover the waterfront and provide police and health protection.

Tips On Selecting
Thanksgiving Turkey

You'll find plenty of turkeys in markets this Thanksgiving season, and prices are low, reports Mrs. Irene H. Wolgamot, extension foods and nutrition specialist, Rutgers University. This year's crop runs about a fourth larger than last year's.

Young homemakers usually ask, "How big a turkey will I need?" and "What kind should I buy?" Broad-breasted varieties have the most white meat and a large quantity of meat in relation to bone. These types are meaty and compact, tender and of good flavor.

If you buy your turkey frozen, be sure to allow plenty of time for thawing in the refrigerator or a cool place. It takes two or three days to thaw a large turkey.

For economy, select a large bird — it will cost least per pound per person, to allow for seconds. You might ask at the market to have a large turkey split, so you can roast half of it now and freeze the other half for later use.

Hen turkeys run lighter in weight than toms. They are equal in flavor and tenderness. If you want a small bird, try a "fever-roaster," which is a young bird three to four months old. You can stuff and roast it, if you wish. Or it can be divided into parts to fry or broil.

Belleville High's Varsity Football team lost its fourth straight contest last Saturday when they were defeated 7-6 by Kearny. The Bellboys record now stands at 2-6 while the Cardinals have compiled a 3-5 mark so far this season. Belleville controlled the ball all during the first half but was unable to score. Fumbles also hampered the home team with five of them being reclaimed by the Kearny squad.

Although neither team scored in the first half, the Bellboys made two long drives deep into Kearny territory. Starting from their own 11-yard line the Blue and Gold marched up to the 34-yard line and six plays later the Kearny 27 before giving up the ball on downs. Off tackle runs by Richie Luzzi and Tony Della Terza highlighted this drive. Belleville also came into scoring range in the second period when they had the ball first and then on the 34-yard line. But this attempt was stopped by a fumble on the first down from scrimmage. The Bellboys received the kickoff in the second half, and proceeded to fumble it on the third play. Howie Leonard recovered the ball for Kearny on the 36-yard line and six plays later the Cardinals went over for the tally. The touchdown run was around right end, with Bob Mant skirting 14 yards into the end zone. Tony LaSpada kicked the extra point.

The Bellboys scored their touchdown following the kickoff. After Pat Moreno ran the kick back to the 33-yard line, Joe Latore attempted a hand off on the first play and fumbled the ball. Fred Valero, Bellboy end, picked up the lost pigskin and ran it down to the 31-yard line of Kearny. A personal foul had been detected on the Kardinal tackler and the ball was moved up to the 16-yard line. On the first down Luzzi bulled off guard and ran for the score. Because of an off sides penalty the Blue and Gold had to try the extra point from the 7-yard line and Joe Del Guercio's try was wide.

Belleville made a last minute attempt in the final minutes of the game with some wide open formations but this failed to gain the necessary yardage. On the last play Latore hit on a screen pass to Luzzi which almost pulled the bag out of the fire. But Luzzi was stopped on the Kearny 45-yard line after covering some 32 yards.

Mystery Teen

This week's mystery student is a pretty, petite senior who has a very important position on the twirling squad. She belongs to the Rainbow girls and the Charm Club. She's on the Girls' Drill Team and has played in girls' after school intramurals. In addition to all this, she has maintained a "B" average. Have you guessed the identity of this popular senior yet? If you have, look here next week and check your guess; if you haven't, find out who she is.

The last mystery teen was Ken Foley, 17, who represents the junior class on the Student Council. He plays on the basketball and golf teams. Ken intends to be a lawyer after college.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Foley of 675 Jersalem Street.

Belboys putting on an exhibition of running tackling and blocking. Orange received the ball off and couldn't move the ball so they gave the pigskin up on downs. Belleville then drove for their first tally with Joe Cervasio going around end for the score. After the kickoff, Bellboys again took over possession and marched for the T.D. Chuck Oese scored this one around left end from 5 yards out. Belleville added two more scores in the first half, one by Sorrentino and the other a pass play from Cervasio to Budd.

On the first play after the kickoff Cervasio barreled his way through the line and ran 65 yards for the score. A few plays later

Eastern Conference Ends With Iron Dukes Beating All-Stars And Tying For Second Place

Before a crowd of 2000 fans, the Belleville-Nutley Iron Dukes won their first touchdown Sunday afternoon, Nov. 12, at Nutley's Park Oval. The score was 37-14. This placed the Dukes in a tie for first place in the Eastern Football Conference.

Nick DeBenedetto recovered on own territory, Fred Spicuto and All-Stars' 30 early in the first period to set up the first Dukes score. Tommy Boykin carried around right end for the Dukes to their first touchdown.

Cary Wills then hit "Bo" Munford in the endzone for a 35-yard TD pass play. Don Munford's bid for the extra point was good.

With the All-Stars deep in their own territory, Fred Spicuto and DeBenedetto hit Plainfield's quarterback back on the seven - yard line, causing him to fumble. Once again DeBenedetto recovered for the Dukes. "Chuck" Munford then bulled his way across the tally. The extra point was no good and the Dukes now led by the score of 13-0.

Late in the first period the All-Stars were forced to punt by the brilliant display of defense by the Dukes. Don Munford returned the ball to the Plainfield 40, the score very much the same.

Once again "Bo" Munford in the end zone for a 40-yard TD pass. The extra point was wide. At the end of the first period the Dukes were out in front by the time of 19-0.

All-Stars quarterback L. n d saved a 40-yard pass to end Johnson. With the ball resting on the three, the Dukes stopped the All-Stars until LaVerne Hunter skirled right end to score for the All-Stars. The pass for the extra point was good, making the score 19-7 with the Dukes out front at the half.

The second half of the contest opened with the Dukes marching 82 yards to score, "Chuck" Munford smacking over to pay dirt, "Chuckie", a very hard runner, picked up most of the 82 yards and added by blocks thrown by Boykin and Don Munford. The extra point attempt was wide.

Hunter sparked his Plainfield team by receiving Don Munford's kickoff on the 25 and he ran down the left side of the field for a 75-yard touchdown. T. h pass, Land to Johnson, for the Dukes point was good.

Once again DeBenedetto recovered an All-Stars fumble to set up another Dukes score. Wills faded back to the 40-yard line and tossed a bullet pass down field that was snared by Don Munford for the six points. The try was blocked.

With the All-Stars deep in their territory, Tony Barron crashed through and caused Land to fumble. Barron gobbled up the ball in the endzone immediately for the first of the Dukes tally. The extra point try was wide.

Outstanding plays by the Dukes defense, such as those by DeBenedetto, Dom Pomponio, Bill LaPadula, Tom Apicella, George Ditcher and Barron, enabled the Dukes offense to roll up the score it did.

The 37-14 win over Plainfield gave the Dukes a tie with the Stamford (Conn.) Golden Bears for second place. The Bears lost to the Franklin Miners, 25-6, the same day.

their first taste of victory with a 34-13 score over Irvington. Irvington was just a beginning though for the next week with beautiful defense and an adequate offense they shut out Nutley 14-0. The fourth game the team put a great pass defense by sweeping over Garfield 25-6. After Garfield the team went against its toughest competition, Lyndhurst, and the whole club joined forces and came out with a 27-13 score.

In September of this year, the freshman football team was organized. For nine days the group practiced out in the hot summer sun. They worked and learned and by Sept. 9, there were 35 boys who wanted to play football and were outfitted for the game. Every day until September 23, they practiced and had Brennan now lives at 5 DeWitt Avenue, he formerly lived near the drug store, on Overlook Avenue.

For the correct identification, Brennan won $10—double the usual amount, because there was no winner last week.

One of the persons in the photo is singled out with a circle. Readers are invited to identify this person and the spot where the picture was taken. The first one to do so—by mail or in person at the office of The Times—will receive an award of $5.

Please note: Identification of the person and place must be made by coming to the office of The Times, 246 Washington Avenue, or by mail. Phone calls will not be accepted.

It is important in playing this fascinating game of identification to note these simple rules: 1) the winner must tell us who the person is whose photo is circled and where picture was taken. 2) Entries in the contest must be made in person or by mail. NOT by phone; 3) the prize will be awarded to the one who submits the first correct identification; 4) all decisions by The Times are final; only one entry per family is permitted; 5) contest deadline is 5 p.m. Monday. Failure to follow contest rules in all respects is cause for disqualification.

If no one identifies the circled photo and the place where picture was taken, the prize money will be added to the following week's award.

Each week The Times staff photographer will take a similar picture somewhere in Belleville. Each week the picture will appear on the map page and test your ingenuity — and your power of observation. It can be lots of fun. Get started now. Work fast. Be the first to come to our office with the right answers! Remember, being first means being the winner.

Girl Scouts Present Town With Golden Blossom Garden To Celebrate Anniversary

BROWNIE SCOUT KATHY MAGUIRE watches the cardboard bulb, which was just set in the ground in front of Town Hall. The bulb is a preview of the real ones that were planted and will bloom next Spring. Mrs. A. H. Verhagen, district chairman of the Girl Scouts, is at the left, pictured with Mrs. Alfred E. Seidel, scout leader and Mayor Isadore J. Padula, to whom the garden was presented for the people of Belleville.

AFTER THE PLANTING, Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan poses with scouts, from the left: Toni Spooner, Brownie; Trudi Spooner and Margaret Rose Gibbs, Intermediates; Mrs. R. F. Ritter, leader. Senior Scout Florence Kanouski is hidden.

Girl Scouts from the Belleville District of the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County, presented a Golden Blossom Garden to Belleville in ceremonies on Saturday morning Nov. 4.

The ground in front of Town Hall had been turned the night before and shaped into The Girl Scout Emblem. The Girl Scout troops had budgeted pennies and dimes and purchased 11 Girl Scout Rose Bushes and 400 double bloom tulip bulbs called "The Golden Age". The rose bushes were planted in the Girl Scout Emblem, and holes were made for 200 bulbs. These will outline the Emblem along with the white stones that are its border.

The Girl Scout Rose is a Yellow Floribunda, developed as a tribute to Girl Scouting. It will hold a feature spot in the green and gold Blossoms for the Birthday years which Girl Scouts throughout the country will be planting in celebration of their 50th Golden Anniversary in 1962. As Mrs. A. H. Verhagen, District Chairman of Scouting in Belleville, greeted Mayor Isadore

Hulme

Western concerts are also being arranged for him. Recently Hulme was a guest on "I've Got A Secret," C.B.S. television panel show.

Another successful venture is the manufacture of his Bassett Accordian, a free-base accordian with no fixed chords. The Holmes Co. in Germany will have the accordians ready for commercial sale in six months.

Hulme, who still averages eight hours a day practice, says since winning the title, "I feel a whole lot happier and more relaxed." He admits, however, that there is more pressure on him now because "I have to be sure I'm good each time I play."

FUNDS RAISED

Since this concert was sponsored by the United Fund of Belleville both as a testimonial to Hulme and as a benefit for the Fund Campaign, the evening had the added advantage of raising several hundred dollars for the fund. This money, plus a number

The Brownie Smile Song and Girl Scouts Together was sung by the scouts, who were led by Mrs. R. F. Ritter.

PLANTING CEREMONY

Planting began as three Brownie Scouts, Kathy Maguire, Lynn Cypolinski and Toni Spooner carried large cardboard bulbs which they placed in the ground saying "We bring these tulip bulbs and place them in the ground."

Intermediates, Margaret Rose Gibbs, Trudi Spooner and Kathy Weiss carried two leaves and put them in the ground saying: "Out from the bulbs came these beautiful, long green leaves that stand so tall."

The Seniors, Barbara Franks, Sharon Mines and Florence Kanouski carried a card board tulip and put it in the ground saying: "God sent the sunshine and the rain for us to see, these beautiful flower grow for you and me."

Mrs. Verhagen presented the Golden Garden on behalf of the Girl Scouts of Belleville to Mayor Padula who accepted them on behalf of the people of Belleville. Commissioner Sullivan addressed the girls and leaders.

At the closing the Scouts sang a song written for their rose, called "Golden Rose."

MEMORIAL MONUMENT

The Girl Scouts then proceeded to the Memorial Monument at Union Avenue near Little St., where a smaller emblem, which will be entirely made up of yellow tulips, was planted. Each leader was asked to plant a bulb as were the fathers who had accompanied their daughters. Girl Scouts closed the ceremonies with Taps.

"When in the Spring of 1962 the flowers bloom in golden splendor, the Girl Scouts hope their efforts have helped to beautify their town, and that the Golden Blossom Garden will be a constant reminder to the community that first and foremost, friendship and understanding will help unite not only their town but will also form a chain of good will throughout the world" said a spokesman.

ber of contributions received since last week's report brought the total up to 28 per cent of the goal. While this increase is encouraging, it still leaves Belleville far short of the minimum amount needed by the 12 agencies in the Belleville contributions are at the bottom of the entire totals for Essex and Union Counties.

"This is a sad state of affairs for unless more Belleville residents and business establishments rally to the support of these agencies in the next couple of weeks, this year's drive is bound to go into the record books as the poorest in the history of Belleville where, for some reason, charitable campaigns year after year have fallen short of their goals," said a United Fund spokesman.

"This is not only discouraging to the Trustees, the Campaign Committee and the agencies involved but what is more, it is a tragic commentary on the civic responsibility, or lack thereof, on the part of the people of Belleville."

skethal for young men will also be played on Wednesdays.

All those who wish to enter either the Junior or Intermediate League may do so by notifying Peter Spera, League Director of Robert E. Cook, Superintendent of Recreation.

For the managers of the Senior League teams, a meeting will be held at the Recreation House at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 21. In all cases rosters must be turned in before the starting date of League, Dec. 6, 1961.

A special Play-Clinic Basketball Program open to all elementary school boys will be announced very soon.

Gruhin

DELAY IN FILING DEED

Golden demanded to know why Gruhin had delayed in filing a deed. According to unconfirmed reports title passed from Congregation Ahavath Achim, the former owner, to Gruhin toward the end of November, 1960.

Louis Sussman of 66 Van Ryeper Place, chairman of the local committee for the congregation, said title was held after purchase was negotiated in the Summer of 1960 in order for the synagogue to continue using the building for a Hebrew school. The congregation now is in its new building at 125 Academy Street, there are still religious books and chairs stored in the old building.

Gruhin said the purpose of the building had not yet been changed because the congregation still had possessions left there.

Golden said the property should have been reassessed when a building permit was issued for it on Dec. 14, 1960. The permit was issued to Congregation A.A. and signed by Gruhin.

Building permits for tax-exempt property are free. This permit, however, had been paid for. Jack Orlinsky of 150 Floyd St., president of the congregation, said he did not know of any permit and no permission had been given to use the congregation's name on a permit.

RENOVATION OF FRONT
The permit was issued for the renovation of the front wall. This was done during the summer. Work began last Thursday on an entrance to the building. Town records show the building assessed at $52,000. The land is valued at $13,000. At present rates, if the property were taxed it would be for $23,210, according to the tax assessor department. Gruhin also owns the adjacent lot, which is valued at $5,000.

Sussman said Gruhin had paid about one quarter the assessed value for the purchase.

Emanuel DeNola, tax assessor, said the congregation had filed a standard form in September, 1960 to continue its tax exempt rating for three years. The form would mean that the building would be tax exempt on the records through 1963, as long as it was in the congregation's name.

Accreditation

president of the tax council, the association said that each college "has responsibility for its own admissions policy; and the Association does not attempt to dictate the process of student selection for admission to colleges."

"There is reason to believe, however," the letter said, "that accreditation of a secondary school does have an effect on the college admissions committee."

The tax council insisted that to believe accreditation by Middle States has an effect on admissions was "at best, conjecture." Calabro interpreted the letter as confirmation that accreditation by our Association is not required by any college. Calabro's answer was in a letter to the association dated Nov. 12.

Howard Photo Exhibit Draws Record Entries

One of the unanticipated side-lights of the third annual Howard Savings-staff photo exhibit was the unusual number of 1961 vacation scenes from almost every part of the world. In addition to just about every state in the union, the pictures disclosed that staff members had pretty much covered the world during the past Summer. The exhibit was held of the bank's main office, 768 Broad Street, Newark.

Under the chairmanship of William Zahner of the bank's auditing department, the exhibit surpassed last year's show with 101 of the bank's staff entering 303 pictures. All pictures — most of which are in color — were enlarged to a uniform 5x7 in order to present each with equal effect.

A new feature in this year's exhibit was a customer popularity poll. Customers were asked to view the photos and vote for their favorites in five categories. The results of this poll found George Schneider, manager of the bank's South Orange branch, receiving the most votes for his "Pacific Sunset" as the best scenic picture. Receiving the most votes in the category of best title was "Aerial Ballet," submitted by Harry Blair of the mortgage servicing department.

"On Top of the World," submitted by Mrs. Kathy McGill of the Christmas Club department, received the most votes for the best unusual photo. "The Dome," submitted by Mrs. Mildred Accolla of the mortgage servicing department, receiving the most votes for the best black and white photo.

"Hey Catch," submitted by Roland T. Addis, assistant vice-president, in the methods and research department, received the most votes for a picture of a person or persons.

The exhibit, which was on display from Oct. 23 through Oct. 31, drew large crowds and hundreds of votes were cast. The exhibit has been sent to the downtown office of The Howard for display.

A.A.A. Motor Has High Sales

Joseph Pfeffer of A.A.A. Motor, said recently that, based on local sales, the introduction of the 1962 Mercury line of automobiles in this area can be termed, "a re-bounding success."

Pfeffer said that since the initial public showing of the new Mercury in late September, car-buying interest has been unusually high and sales of Mercury Comet and Mercury Monterey have increased steadily.

A new standard-sized car to be called the Meteor is scheduled for introduction this year.

Styling changes distinguishing the new Comet include a metal applique on the lower rear panel and two circular taillights on each side. In place of last year's high-angled fins, the new rear fenders are tapered downward.

In the front, the car has a new aluminum grille. The familiar side appearance is modified by a full-length molding strip which sweeps low to the rear. A new instrument cluster with easier-to-read instruments and improved illumination are part of the interior styling changes.

The Monterey this year offers 12 models in the standard and new Custom series. The Montneys have been lengthened an inch over last year to 215 1/2 inches, but the wheelbase remains 120 inches.

Both Monterey series have the "Cushion-Link" suspension to improve riding comfort by permitting wheels to move rearward as well as upward under road shocks. Both series also make extensive use of body sound-insulation and include a wide variety of engine-transmission combinations.
