

Group Begins SOS Program

An aroused group of citizens have formed an SOS, Save Our Schools, campaign "to restore to our community the pride and dignity that came with a modern school system and full accreditation."

Louis Sussman, spokesman for the group, said "We can do this by urging upon our neighbors an overwhelming yes vote for the school referendum on Dec. 21."

The committee strongly endorsed the school building program, calling it a sound one that should be adopted without delay.

SOS was organized to provide an active voice for the passage of the school proposal. Sussman said the group would actively campaign to "save the high school from decay and the school system from destruction."

Parents, organizations, businessmen, students, "in fact, everyone," will be asked to join the effort, he said, "to provide a victory for our town, our school."

Principal Post Made At School 19

A full-time principal post in School Nine was recreated Monday night by the Board of Education. The position replaces a jointly held principalship of Schools One and Nine, created in July for economic reasons.

Mrs. Viola Spry named principal of the combined administration at the beginning of the school year, was made full-time principal of School One.

The board had agreed to study objections voiced by parents after the new plan was adopted.

Applications are being considered for the School Nine position and also for the principalship of Belleville High School. Hugh D. Kittle, high school principal, will resign at the end of the year.

All Lit Up Like A Christmas Tree

WASHINGTON AVENUE reflects the Christmas season with ten strings of lights, including a new arch over Belleville Avenue. Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the decorations will shine until after the New Year.

First Hanukkah Candles To Shine Saturday Night

Hanukkah, the eight-day festival of lights commemorating the victory of the Maccabees in their fight against tyranny, begins Saturday night, Dec. 2.

The festival is celebrated by the kindling of a Menorah, a miniature candelabra, for eight days. Each night one more candle is lit. The holiday is a bright one and a gay one, gay especially for children who receive a gift each night.

Congregation Ahavath Achim will celebrate the Hanukkah festival on Sunday morning at 10 in the Sisterhood Social Hall. The children of the school will present a series of plays and will exchange gifts. On Saturday morning the children will have a pre-Hanukkah service. On Friday night, Dec. 8, a Hanukkah service will be held in the main Synagogue.

Jack Orlinsky, President of the Congregation and Rabbi Victor Cohen, Spiritual Leader, jointly expressed their "hope and prayer that the lights of Hanukkah will kindle the hope for peace throughout the world."

Padula Will Ask County For Tax Bill

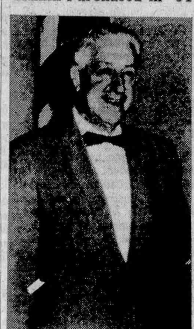

Sullivan Recuperating; No Need For Surgery

Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan, director of Public Safety, was reported in "good condition and jolly spirits" in Clara Maass Memorial Hospital this week where he is recuperating from a fall.

Hospital authorities said surgery would not be necessary. It was thought earlier that an operation would be needed to repair torn muscles in his right leg. His knee, at that time, had been too swollen to determine the extent of damage.

Sullivan is responding well to physical therapy and whirlpool treatments for his knee, authorities said.

Says Town Investigation Being Made Of Property Gruhin Purchased In '61

MAYOR ISADORE J. PADULA

The county will be asked shortly by tax former tax-exempt synagogue property at 317-319 Washington Avenue, allegedly owned by Commissioner Robert C. Gruhin. Mayor Isadore J. Padula, director of the department of Revenue and Finance, said at Tuesday night's commission meeting he would present the proposal at the next meeting.

The mayor said he had drawn the proposal for presentation that night but he was delaying it pending the completion of investigation by Emanuel DeNoia Jr., tax assessor. Mayor Padula said the investigation would be finished by the next meeting.

The tax bill will be sent to Congregation Ahavath Achim, DeNoia said, despite charges that Gruhin is the owner. Town records still show the congregation to be owners.

Religious institutions are tax-exempt. A building permit was issued Dec. 14 for renovations. DeNoia said investigations showed "the character of the renovation has converted the intended use of the building from religious to commercial." Signs in the building advertise space for rent.

"I am satisfied, as far as I am concerned, that it should be taxed," DeNoia said.

Gruhin remained silent, refusing to comment about the deed for the property, which congregation spokesmen said he bought in 1961. Title passed to Gruhin during November, 1961, sources said. There has been no deed filed. Gruhin would only say all

D'Avella Named To Second Term

Thomas D'Avella has been appointed to his second term as Belleville's town attorney. The appointment was made by Mayor Isadore J. Padula and approved by the commission at a meeting earlier this month.

D'Avella's term is designated to run until December, 1962, or until his successor is appointed. This term would overlap into the administration of Council officials elected next May. The position pays $8,300 per year.

D'Avella had served as assistant town attorney for five years.

Juliano Starts Attempt To Hit Superintendent Of Schools With Gag-Rule

NICHOLAS JULIANO

An attempt to strip the superintendent of schools of his power to make bylaws for the school board will be made by Nicholas Juliano, board member, at the next board meeting.

Juliano gave notice at the Board of Education's regular meeting Monday night that he would propose an amendment of the rules that would limit authorization to release public statements to the board president. The board's rules now designate the president and the superintendent, jointly or individually, as spokesmen, allowing them to make statements to the public and the press on behalf of the board.

Citizens Advisory Committee To Prepare Fact Publication With Board Of Education

After a two-hour session during the Board of Education meeting Monday night, the board decided the Citizens School Building Advisory Committee could best continue its work by remaining an advisory committee and immediately helping to prepare a fact sheet for voters on the Dec. 21 referendum question.

There never seemed to be any doubt that committee members wanted to stay with the board, but several board members said the committee might function better if it were divorced from the Board of Education and permitted to actively campaign for the new school.

Allan H. Crisp, chairman of the advisory committee had asked the board the status of the committee, which was formed in April, 1960. It has been functioning as a lay group tied in with

Contest To Judge House Displays

Five prizes will be awarded to the best five entries in this year's Home Christmas Display Contest conducted by the Belleville Recreation Department.

Preliminary judging will be done on Dec. 26 and 27. Final judging will be on Dec. 28. Winners of prizes and honorable mention will be listed in The Belleville Times-News.

The judges will try to see every home in Belleville, but this can be better assured if those who wish to enter the contest will submit their name and address to the Recreation Department either by post card or by phone, said a spokesman.

Town Committee Gives Vara 25-3-3 Vote Of Confidence

Ralph Vara, Democratic chairman, was given a vote of confidence by the town committee in a meeting at Town Hall last week. The vote was 25 for Vara, three against him and three abstentions. Thirteen members of the 44-member committee were not present.

Vara had come under fire during the general election campaign when he was accused of not giving full support to the entire Democratic ticket. He is an outspoken opponent of Dennis P. Carey, Democratic County chairman, currently engaged in a suit contesting the legality of Carey's election.

Carey, in turn, has implied he could no longer deal with Vara. He ignored Vara, giving funds to Shaffer of the Third Ward said even though there were 13 absentees, that did not mean each Democratic worker at the polls on Election Day, Mayor Isadore

"Survival in the Nuclear Age" will be the subject of a community symposium to be held at Pewsitt Presbyterian Church, Union Avenue and Little Street, Belleville, Wednesday evening, Dec. 13, at 8:30.

The symposium, which will feature speakers for civil defense, the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy, a scientists group and the clergy, will discuss publicly and seek answers to such questions as: Would our society survive an atomic war? What are the alternatives to war? David Daniels of Belleville will speak on civil defense, Donald Keys will present the views of the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy, Dr. Philip Feigelson will speak for the Scientists Committee on Radiation Information, a group of uncommitted scientists seeking answers to what atomic blast and radiation

Citizens Debate Ordinances On Parking And Paving

Belleville streets, paving them and parking on them, was discussed by aroused citizens at Tuesday night's town commission meeting.

An ordinance for the construction of concrete curbs and paved shoulders on a portion of Joramelon Street was attacked by John Bass, president of Rulan Estates Home Owners Association, who insisted the homeowners did not need the 800 feet of paving that would be charged to them.

Commissioner Robert C. Gruhin, director of Public Works, who introduced the ordinance said it was "part of a process to complete curbs on Joramelon Street." The orderly process of the engineering department, he said, is to prepare plans in sections on drafts for additional improvements farther along the street, he said. Mayor Isadore J. Padula requested that the completed plans be presented instead of having them "come in piecemeal."

The curbing, Gruhin said, "will help the flow of traffic and people who may be walking there." He called the situation as it exists

Amvets Leader Urges More Civil Defense Planning

The national leader of Amvets today urged more civil defense planning by James V. Galioto, commander of Amvets Post 26, Mayor Isadore J. Padula introduced the national commander, the Rev. Benedetto Palleo, pastor of Silver Lake Baptist Church, delivered the invocation. Other dignitaries were Commissioners Robert C. Gruhin, George F. Kiegnan and Nunzio R. Pico.

Declaring that "survival through sensible preparation is not cowardly," the visitor characterized as the nation's greatest deterrent against war "the ability to survive, to retaliate and to destroy our enemies."

Assuming the duties of National Commander on Oct. 1, Mr. Fickel, accompanied by his wife, Jewel, is engaged in a cross-country tour during which he plans to visit all of the continental states with his Amvets Survival Caravan, which features a full-size outway of a fallout shelter mounted on a trailer.

He likens his role to that of modern-day Paul Revere, having dedicated his entire year in office to alerting Americans to the rules of survival, to more positive action in civil defense planning and to what he has termed "a declaration of war" on the highway accident rate.

Citizens may speak their piece at town commission meetings, as long as it's only ten minutes worth. Mayor Isadore J. Padula said at the end of Tuesday night's three and a half hour commission meeting that he would strictly enforce a ten-minute rule passed Aug. 24, 1954.

Cerebral Palsy Center Receives $400 For Library From Belleville Kiwanis

A gift of $400 to establish a professional library at the Cerebral Palsy School and Treatment Center of Essex and West Hudson was donated today by Joseph G. Fell, president of Belleville Kiwanis Club. Fell presented the check to Miss Phyllis Burgess, center clinic coordinator, and Mrs. Richard Geiger, speech therapist.

The Kiwanis Club, whose 40 members raised the funds during the year through card parties, gave the contribution for the purchase of 60 books to launch the library.

"The staff will be able to supplement its training and experience with these valuable reference works and professional journals," said Miss Edith A. Ayres, center executive director.

A plaque in honor of the club's gift has been hung in the library. The gift represents continuous support of the Cerebral Palsy

Robert Treat Council Begins Winter Program

A series of meetings next week in the Belleville, Newark and Irvington Districts of Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America, will inaugurate the winter scouting program.

The first events will be in a quarterly session of the Council's Exploring Cabinet to be held Monday evening, Dec. 4, in Culmore Hall, Newark College of Engineering.

During the week, the District Committees composed of Institutional Representatives and Members-at-Large will conduct their annual meetings.

The Council Cabinet is composed of Explorers, high school age young men, elected by their Districts.

Edward Coing, Assistant Director of Education of Public Service Company will be inducted as Cabinet Adviser. Major George Ingles, assigned by the United States Air Force as Explorer Project Officer for New York and New Jersey, will be the guest of the Cabinet.

Plans will be made for activities to be held during the first quarter of the new year, including a winter encampment, canoe trip and a vocational or career exploration.

New Cabinet officers will also be elected.

Each of the seven District Committees' meetings will follow a dinner in which ceremonies, demonstrations and exhibits will be presented by selected Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers.

The Amvets leader added that "it is our contention that no nation will launch a surprise attack against the United States in the clear and certain knowledge that we cannot be defeated by such a blow and that we have the capacity — yes, and the will — to survive, to retaliate and to destroy our enemies."

"That, in fact, is the mission of our country's civil defense program. And that is why every one of us has an individual responsibility, no less than the front-line troops in the foxholes of the last war, to train ourselves and our families for survival — to make morally certain that we are prepared and that we dare to live."

Commander Fifelek noted that federal civil defense planning is now under major overhaul in Washington and already is producing new points of emphasis — particularly in the area of community shelter programs.

"But we as citizens," he said, "have an equal obligation of our own federal government by developing our own local plans for community action as individuals, as neighbors and through our own local governmental units."

Through the Amvets Survival Caravan, Commander Fifelek is distributing federal civil defense literature and other forms of guidance prepared by Amvets on the basis of known civil defense programs. The idea of the caravan itself was given the blessing of the top civil defense planners in the Pentagon. Commander Fifelek hopes to dramatize his alert through visits with the Governors and civil defense directors of at least 48 continental states.

Citizens Debate now a safety hazard.

The ordinance would cost $8,700. The paving would be a general improvement, paid for by the town taxpayers; the curbs would be assessed against the local owners. It was tabled until the next meeting for second and final reading. To be passed the ordinance would need four votes. Commissioner George F. Kiernan has already declared himself against any major expenditures before the change of government. Commissioner Harry J. Sullivan, hospitalized with a leg injury, was not present.

PARKING BAN

An ordinance banning parking on the north side of Mill Street beginning on the west side of Washington Avenue was advocated by a group of Mill Street residents who said cars from Branch Brook Manor, 13 Washington Avenue, were creating an uncontrollable disturbance.

John F. Rush, 106 Mill Street, argued, "The streets are not private parking places and that is what Mill Street is being used for."

Residents complained that cars parked illegally and obstructed driveways of private homes. Bernard J. Tinsdale, Belleville patrolman of 110 Mill Street, said he wasn't able to get into his garage.

Vernon S. Wildstein, counsel for Branch Brook Manor, said "We are looking for extra parking facilities" to solve the problem.

In a written statement the Chamber of Commerce asked the commission to vote against the ordinance, which might set a trend on additional legislation limiting parking in other business areas.

The ordinance was tabled for second and final reading at the

Anyone else must obtain permission by special action of the board. Juliano's amendment would provide this "special action" clause also.

Juliano said he was reacting against statements he felt did not reflect the thinking of the entire board. Dominic A. Lally, board president, said he was completely satisfied with the handling of the picture by the superintendent, Dr. Frank M. Durkee, and would continue to conduct public affairs through him.

The board's attorney Max N. Schwartz, considered Juliano's statement a "moral obligation" forbidding him to give any legal explanations to the public. There is nothing yet legally binding in Juliano's notice, he said.

"Before they gag me, I'll have quite a few things to say," vowed Dr. Durkee.

Scout Unit Organizers Hold Meeting Tonight

A training meeting of Scout unit organizers for Newark, Belleville and Irvington will be held tonight at 8 in the Public Service auditorium, Newark.
At a recent luncheon meeting, John Kress, president of Howard Savings Institution and chairman of the Citizens Committee, said there were 35,000 eligible boys in the area covered by the local Robert Treat Council, but only 6,000 were now enrolled in the scout movement. The Citizens Committee has as its objective 50 new Scout troops, Cub packs, and Explorer posts.
The purpose of the training meeting will be to outline and discuss the steps necessary to organize these units by churches, schools, civic organizations, housing projects, and other groups.
Among those present at the planning session was Seymour Grossman, principal of School Seven.

This year the American Foundation for the Blind granted 79 Summer school scholarships to teachers of blind children from 20 states, in addition to 20 general scholarships and ten fellowships.

Help Our Fire Chief Have A Merry Holiday

Help our fire chief and his men have a Merry Christmas this year by using cash with fire around the house, says the National Board of Fire Underwriters.
The chief and his men, like everyone else, would prefer to have quiet Christmas dinners with their families, the Board adds.
You can make the chief happy by being careful to avoid fire this holiday season. In addition, you can have a Merry Christmas yourself without the prospect of a rebuilding bill in January.

That Former Synagogue Property

At the Town Commission meeting Tuesday night Mayor Isadore Padula announced he had planned to make a public disclosure concerning the tax exempt status of the former synagogue on Washington Avenue.

But the Mayor voluntarily begged off from a public statement until his department's investigation is completed.

Mayor Padula becomes baffling once again. Why make a public statement at all Mayor?

Either you have the facts or you don't. Either the property is tax exempt or it isn't. Either the property is owned by Commissioner Robert Gruhn or it isn't. Either your department was aware of the building by its tax-exempt owners or it wasn't.

Either there was an evasion of real estate taxes or there wasn't. Either your department was negligent or it wasn't.

Mr. Mayor, what is all the delay and secrecy about? Our taxpayers are entitled to a prompt answer. And incidentally, Mr. Mayor, who is investigating whom? Certainly the people are entitled to know who is being investigated and by whom. Is this too much to ask, Mr. Mayor?

And one more thing, Mr. Mayor, what is the status of that pregnant paving contract invoice? You approved the invoice but did you sign the check? Your town attorney said it was ok to pay.

"Tabled"

"TABLED" says Mayor Isadore Padula—and with that action Belleville citizens really get their money's worth from our Town Commission.

This week two ordinances were tabled. It didn't matter to our officials that taxpayers attended a public meeting to see our officials in action. This week it was Mill Street parking and unwanted curbing on Jerusalem Street.

Still tabled to the best of our knowledge are ordinances to acquire the abandoned telephone company building on Washington Avenue for use as a police headquarters. Then we have the Gruhn-Padula ordinance to establish a public parking lot atop Cardiac Hill (Rutgers Street). And so it goes—on and on—a never ending effort by our Padula-led Commission to put off decisions on matters that really count for another day—in the long distant future.

Well, come May and July a Padula-dominated Commission need worry no more. A politically-free City Manager will provide the leadership and inspiration so obviously lacking during the past seven years.

Meanwhile, we hope Padula and his crowd decide to table all new "spending" ordinances for consideration of next year's new Town Council. This kind of "tabling" we are all for.

Juliano's Gag Rule Is Really Anti-Durkee

Under the rules and regulations which guide the operations of our school system two officials are empowered to issue public statements on behalf of the Board of Education.

The board-adopted rules authorize the School Board President and the School Superintendent to issue public statements. Time has proven the rule to be sound.

Now along comes Board member Nicholas Juliano who wants to gag School Superintendent Frank Durkee. It may be recalled that Juliano was one of the minority board members who voted against the appointment of Dr. Durkee.

Juliano Monday night gave notice he would introduce a resolution at the next meeting to amend the rules to authorize only the School Board President to make statements for the Board of Education.

Juliano's gag-rule amendment appears to be to be ill-conceived and unwarranted. Dr. Durkee is a top-flight professional educator. Any school system would be proud to have him as a spokesman. But—of course—things just have to be different in Belleville.

Based upon official and unofficial actions and reports Juliano and Arvidson are determined to make things difficult for Dr. Durkee. Both men opposed Durkee's appointment — and it is obvious they haven't quite adjusted themselves to the basic fact of life that Durkee is here to stay.

We would suspect that Dr. Durkee will enjoy being relieved of the heavy responsibility and burden he carries as a spokesman for a Board of Education that recently gives all the earmarks of becoming factional and indulging in the cult of personality.

We believe the Juliano gag - rule is strictly an anti-Durkee effort and in the best interests of our school system should be rejected.

Belleville's "SOS"

A group of responsible Belleville citizens viewing with alarm the further downgrading of Belleville arising from the loss of accreditation of our high school by the Middle States Association have taken matters into their own hands and organized a modern day vigilante committee, whose sole purpose is to persuade a majority of Belleville's voters to visit the polls Thursday, December 21st, and vote in favor of the construction of a new high school.

If Belleville is to keep step with the 20th century—if Belleville children are to receive a first rate education—if we honestly believe our children are entitled to the best—then the job of the SOS committee will be minimal.

On the other hand, if a majority of Belleville voters still refuses to approve an expenditure of Seven Cents per day for a new high school building the task of the SOS committee is not an enviable one.

Our best guess is that despite the tremendous blow our school system has received by the loss of accreditation of the Middle States Association, the new high school project remains in jeopardy. One of the reasons for this sad state of educational affairs in Belleville is the high cost of running our town hall, an activity with no connection whatever with our school system.

We urge interested Belleville citizens to join a neighborhood SOS group, roll up your sleeves and join the common effort to insure for our children the same rights all the towns about us provide for their children.

Is it fair for Belleville's high school children to receive a second rate education while high school children of neighboring Bloomfield, Kearny, Nutley, North Arlington and Newark receive a first class education? Your vote on December 21st will provide the answer.

"Golden, You've Had It"

At the close of Tuesday evening's Commission meeting Mayor Isadore Padula announced that henceforth the 1954 rule limiting speakers to ten minutes will be enforced.

The gag - rule was introduced by Padula shortly after he took office in 1954. The effect of its enforcement was to curb speeches of Commission critic James Golden, who at the time, and until last year, was Padula's most vocal critic.

For the past year or so — Padula, as presiding officer of the Commission, has permitted Golden unlimited speaking time. A half - hour was not unusual for an average Golden speech.

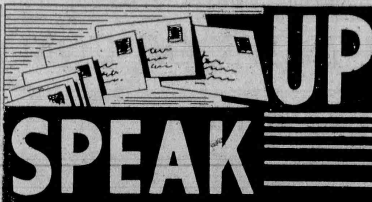

Now this accommodation of Golden by Padula is to cease. By enforcing the ten minute limitation on speakers Padula is telling Belleville's best known town critic—"Golden, you've had it."

Need Yes Vote To Let 'Dreams Come True'

Townpeople: I want to start my letter by saying that I might be different from others who are fighting for and against the new high school which you will be voting for again in the near future. I'm not a taxpayer and I'm not a voter, but I am one of the students that will be either attending the new high school in a few years or the old one next year. I don't consider myself different from my classmates or my friends so I believe that my opinions go for many other people. We really care about our education. We care whether we go to schools that are overcrowded and lacking the proper facilities. We want good schools where we can get good opportunities. Later, we'll be able to go on and make something of ourselves. Don't tell me Belleville High School is "first class" or even "good enough" because that's not true!

SIX YEARS AGO I would also like to comment on certain things said before the previous election. It was related that in the year 1955 a group of respected men inspected the school and said its facilities were "adequate." The new furnishings in some of the rooms "greatly improved what must have been a rather drab plant." In short, it rated Belleville High School quite highly. But that was in 1955, six years ago! In that time the enrollment has increased greatly, the new furnishings have turned to old under stress, and our standards have dropped greatly. To make you see what a difference six years can make, let me put it this way. In six years we would have a completely new high school, one that we could be proud of. Young people that graduated from this school would be much better educated and would have better opportunities toward obtaining a job, and have better chances of entering a good college, which is now leaning toward the impossible since Belleville High School has lost its accreditation. These are just a few of the changes that could be brought about in the next six years. This job can't be done alone. We need your help in supporting this campaign. We need your vote to make these dreams come true.

Sincerely,
GAIL CRONAUER
An eighth grade student,
153 Fairway Avenue.

Appreciates Quick Action of Emergency Squads

Gentlemen: On Oct. 12, 1961 I had a heart attack. My wife called our doctor. He was out at the time. His answering service told my wife to call emergency service of our Police and Fire Departments, which she did. They were both there in minutes and gave me oxygen until my doctor arrived. I want to offer my heartfelt thanks for the quick response from both the Police and Fire Departments.

Points Out School Program Is 'Overall'

To the Editor: One more shabby prop has collapsed under an already soggy platform of those who oppose the building of a new high school.

Prior to the recent referendum we were told that a new high school would cost much more than an addition to the old building, and that the Board of Education was not interested in doing anything for the younger children in the grammar schools.

Thinking people already knew that this was a complete falsehood yet the unthinking fell for it. Now the facts are before us, for not only will the alterations and the addition to the old high school cost more than a new building and give us a hedge podge monstrosity, but it will do nothing to help the situation in the grammar schools where we would still have sub-standard classrooms. A new high school on the other hand would eliminate these sub-standard rooms making them available for much-needed libraries and other facilities enriching the grammar school curriculum.

OVERALL PROGRAM Yet the opponents of the new high school bleat that they first want an "overall educational program." How "overall" can you get? For the new high school would improve education from the kindergarten to the senior in the high school. What else is there?

Further, the financial costs will

Beck's Column

The question most frequently asked by customers who come in the store is about color.

Many people tell us they heard that it is not perfected yet, there is much trouble and the set needs too frequent adjustments, etc.

All of this, of course, is incorrect. We have sold color sets now for 7 years. Like with everything new, there were some bugs in the beginning. These have long been eliminated. During the last few years color sets have been excellent. In our experience they have given less trouble than many black and white sets, and as far as adjustments go, they practically do not require any adjustments once they are set up right. Many of our customers who have bought color sets from us, have not touched the controls for months. More so than on b-w sets, the service and initial installation are most important. Unfortunately there are not enough experienced technicians yet to service color sets. Our men know color sets, since they worked on them for 7 years.

Some people tell us they have seen color sets with very bright and vivid colors. That does not have to be. You can adjust the colors exactly to your own liking. Color perception is an individual matter and varies from one person to the other. You can compensate for this difference by adjusting the color controls, just as you like to see colors.

Another often heard objection is the quality of the black and white picture on a color set. The fact is the matter is that the b-w picture on a color set, if it is initially adjusted correctly, is far better than on a b-w set. The composition of the coating on the inside of a color tube gives the picture depth and dimension which is not possible with a b-w set.

It all boils down to essentially one thing: if you get enjoyment out of TV and can afford to pay $300. - (or more for a nicer looking cabinet) we advise you to buy a color TV rather than a black and white.

We service what we sell.

be higher on an annual basis due to the fact that a bond issue for alteration cannot be amortized over as long a period as for new construction. So those whose hearts bleed for the poor taxpayers are actually trying to sell a pig in a poke. Maintenance costs will be higher in a "re-built job" than in a new building, too.

Let us hope that the good sense of the people will prevail on Dec. 21 and that they will at the polls repudiate the false educational theories presented by would-be educational experts and that they will listen to the real experts and vote yes for the new high school on Dec. 21.

Presents Alternative To Building Program For New High School

Dear Sir: Please consider this an open reply to the letter written by the high school "Mr. K." He has declared that he is happy to see we are so far behind in our education system. He has, however, no objection to the communistic manner in which we voted on the high school proposal.

In Russia the voters are allowed to choose between voting yes and voting no. Thus were the citizens of Belleville allowed to vote. The Board of Education in their desire to see a new school did not provide for an alternative. They then cried the "Blues" when their pet bill was beaten.

ALTERNATIVE I, therefore propose the following alternative to be placed on the Dec. 21 ballot.

1) The Board of Education is to be allowed to purchase all property on the block where the present school is situated.

2) The property if purchased is to be disposed of as follows:

- a) The one family residence is to be used as headquarters for the Board of Education thereby freeing valuable classroom space in School Number Eight.
- b) The Elks Building to be used as either an additional gymnasium or an area for laboratory sciences such as Chemistry, Biology, Science and others. This would free additional needed classrooms and allow the setting up of more modern facilities.
- c) The present high school building to be modernized and expanded to meet the needed and required extra classrooms.

If the voters were given an American choice I would like to see how they would vote. I write this letter not only as citizen of Belleville but as a graduate of the Class of '59 and as a future teacher and I hope that this newspaper will have enough fairness to give the other side a chance to be heard.

Yours very truly,
GRADUATE, BELLEVILLE

To Whom It May Concern: On the evening of March 19, 1961 I was struck by an automobile on the corners of Belleville Avenue and Franklin Avenue. I was helped very much by several police officers and to this date I do not know their names.

I would appreciate it very much if you would post this letter so that they may know that my family and I, thank them very much for their help that evening. If it were not for them and the Nutley First Aid Squad getting me to Clara Mass Hospital as fast as they did I am sure I would not be writing this letter today.

Thanking you again, I remain,
Sincerely yours,

Blames Voters

To the Editor: The voters of Belleville now are proud of themselves. They have accomplished three things: they are responsible for our high school's loss of accreditation, they have saved themselves ten or twenty dollars a year in taxes, and they have jeopardized the future of over 1,000 students now attending our high school and the students that will follow them. Now they can sit back proudly and say, "This I have done, all this is what it means to be a citizen of Belleville."

If the men who voted against the school would have given up one or two of their bowling nights and the women one or two trips to the beauty parlor, they could have paid for their tax increase. As an immediate result their children and all the students of Belleville will have to suffer, because the voters of Belleville wanted to save a few dollars.

HIGH TAX RATE You can complain all you want about the high tax rate in Belleville. If our town is being run inefficiently, you have no one to blame but yourselves, because you, the voters elected the officers that are running our town. So don't blame our tax rate for your fine accomplishment.

Post 105 Plans Three Parties And Paper Drive

Belleville Post No. 105, American Legion, will have its monthly paper drive on Sunday, Dec. 3. All Belleville residents are asked to have bundles of papers, magazines, at the curb for a 9 a.m. pick-up.

James LaMotta, Rehabilitation Chairman, reported that Post 105 would conduct a ward party at East Orange Veterans' Hospital on Tuesday, Dec. 5. Bingo will be played and prizes awarded. Refreshments will be served to the patients. All those planning to assist should be at the hospital by 7 p.m., he said.

Commander Dwight Shaffer has appointed Mrs. Ruth Miller chairman for the annual children's Christmas party to be held at the home, 621 Washington Avenue, on Sunday, Dec. 17. Plans for the affair will be completed shortly, she said.

Mary Marx, chairman of the Post's New Year's Eve party announced plans were complete for "a fine evening and tickets are for the general public, Legionnaires and friends." "Make up your table now and secure your reservations any Wednesday evening at the Post home," he said.

dents and our future."
A meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 6 at 8 p.m. at the Galaxy, 338 Franklin Avenue, he announced.

At an organizational meeting Tuesday night, Al Gaudin was named chairman; James Leary, secretary; Victor Cal, treasurer.
The group was mentioned at a Board of Education meeting Monday night after it was suggested that the Citizens School Building Advisory Committee be divorced from the board to permit it to campaign actively for the school building program. The SOS, an autonomous committee, can provide the forceful campaign needed, Sussman said.

taxes due the town would be received.

Records show that the building permit was issued to the congregation and signed by Gruhn. Congregation officials said they have been out of the building since June, 1960. Their responsibility for the property ended when they sold it, he said.

DeNoia said he had begun his investigation of the building before James R. Golden of 62 Tappan Avenue charged at a commission meeting that Gruhn was dodging taxes. The tax assessor checks for completion and use of buildings that have been issued permits, DeNoia said.

Taxes for 1961 would total $2,217.70, according to the tax assessor department. Town records show the building assessed at $50,000 and the land at $15,000.

The omitted tax assessment was called to the attention of the Essex County Tax Board by Golden. Joseph Solimine, board secretary, said he was "marking time" until he received a report from the Belleville tax assessor.

Advisory

the board.

The committee's publications and statements must be approved by the president of the board and the superintendent of schools. The board, when it pays for the publication assumes full responsibility for it. School boards can legally give public funds to prevent facts about a school from being published, but not to propagate or influence voters, said Max N. Schwartz, board attorney.

The board is currently fighting charges made by the Citizens Tax Council that public funds were misused. A public hearing will be held Dec. 11 and 12 in Newark.

RESTRICTIONS
Richard H. Drake, board member, said the committee could better function without being associated with the board, which restricts it. "I feel there is a need to go beyond that and expect people to vote," he said.

The advisory committee cannot officially influence voters. "It can only present information in direct and unbiased language," without telling citizens how to interpret it, according to Schwartz. "Why expend your energies on a job that we, as a board, can do?" questioned Drake.

Crisp insisted it was "much better to limit ourselves to one factual piece." It is legal for members of the committee to join other groups and acting as individuals, rather than as members of the advisory committee, actively promote the referendum, he pointed out. Schwartz agreed. Dr. Frank W. DeLuggerio, board member said active campaigners for the referendum were forming another group, an SOS, Save Our Schools. Committee, which would have an organizational meeting Tuesday. Louis Sussman, member of the lay advisory group, said he was one of a dozen forming the new group. Crisp said he would join.

Schwartz said there was no specific terminal date for the operation of the advisory committee. "The committee still can have the responsibility after Dec. 21 for aiding public education," he said.

Schwartz suggested he could clear the board and advisory committee publication with William S. Twichell, county superintendent of schools, before it was released, for the protection of the board.

Wrestling Added To BHS Sports On Informal Basis

Meets With Four Schools Set For First Season

Wrestling has been adopted on a one-year temporary basis in Belleville High to see if interest and enthusiasm warrant making it part of the school program. The Board of Education approved the adoption unanimously at its regular meeting Monday night.

Herman Wische, director of physical education, health and safety, called the program "an experiment." He explained the sport was begun last year on an intra-school basis. The response was so good, he said, the athletic department decided to work the program one step further.

The approved schedule calls for matches with Nutley, Irvington, West Orange and Montclair. Belleville will meet all four schools away. "We're still short of space and we don't know how it will work out," he said. The group has picked only schools in their first or second year of the wrestling. "We are not interested in score," Wische said, "only in participation."

The coach, Stanley Scher, is working on a volunteer basis, Wische said.

By MARLISE JAMES

Who's for the team... in the cold and in the rain... Who's for the team, win or lose? The cheerleaders, that's who.

"It's great. Loads of fun," says one member, Cathie Jensen, "and worth all that practice and aches and pains." Most of all, the girls of the squad agree with Barbara Salomone that they're cheerleaders because, "we enjoy helping the team."

This year's very cheerful, energetic and moral-boosting squad is headed by Judy Pirone and consists of Donna Betchick, Helen Denzler, Cathie Jensen, Mary Liloia, Jackie Melius, Sue Miller, Marilyn Paganelli, Nina Pipitone, Sharon Puchalvik, Barbara Russo, and Barbara Salomone.

Cheering at a winning game, says Sharon, is "just great." Undaunted spirit makes them seek some consolation in games the Belboys lose. "It doesn't matter," offers Marilyn, "its playing the game well that counts too."

"People could, and should, show more school spirit by going to the games and supporting the team whether it wins or loses," urges Donna. The cheerleading captain, Judy, thinks more pep rallies could help improve school spirit. "Rallies arouse interest and spirit and get more people out to the games," agrees Mary.

Showing complete conviction and school spirit, Nina says that after a game she likes to "go get something to eat and celebrate our victory."

Cheerleaders, according to Helen, usually have six months to a year of practice behind them before making the squad, although "it really depends on the individual." Judy Pirone recalls that it took a lot of hard work and practice.

Many girls feel they couldn't make the squad because they are too nervous at tryouts. Nervousness asks Sharon, "is there a way to overcome it?" "Relax, do your best and smile," advises Jackie. "Keep smiling and never give up," adds Mary. "Practice as much as you can," says Sue. She reflects the enthusiasm of the squad when she tells aspirants, "put your whole self into it."

The cheerleaders are quick to offer their help to any girls who want it. Mary invites them to contact her or any other member of the group.

Being a cheerleader brings many rewards, but "popularity doesn't come hand in hand with cheering," says Cathie. "More people just know your name, that's all," Barbara Russo jokes.

That one fringe benefit is cheering keeps her in shape. And then of course, it's taught her how to iron shoelaces.

BHS WINS ORANGE GRID CLASSIC 7-6

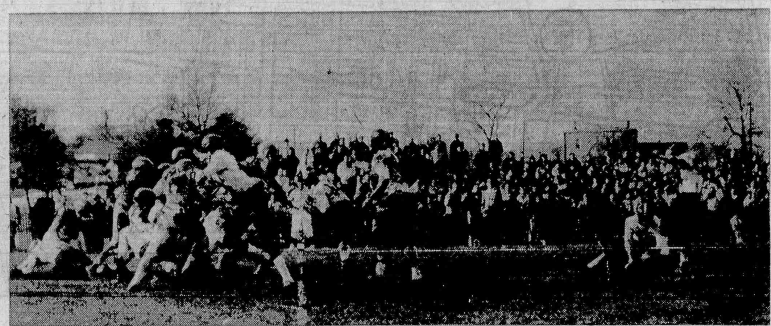

DelGuercio's Extra Point Makes Turkey Day '61 Glorious

For The Memories Of Victory

BOB BYERS hauls in the touchdown pass from Joe Latore in the end zone for the Bellboys only score. This play coming on fourth down with six yards to go found Byers all alone in the end zone.

JOE DEL GUERCIO about to administer the game 7-6. Belleville's wall of blockers are shown, successfully winning extra point, enabling Belleville to defeat Orange, keeping out Tornado defenders.

JUST OUT OF THE GRASP of Belleville's Bob Byers is this first quarter pass, falling just short of the goal line. Joe Latore heaved the pigskin on a fourth down situation from the 21 yard line, but just missed hitting his mark. The Bellboys used their bewildering spread formation on this play and almost were successful.

Bellboys Dominate Orange Eleven

By ROGER WARTELL

Ending its 1961 season in glorious fashion, Belleville High's football team edged Orange on Thanksgiving Day, 7-6. The Bellboys played one of their best games of the year as they dominated the visitors most of the way. The contest which was played before 7,000 fans, exhibited two tight defenses and good ball handling by both squads. Belleville outgained the Orangemen 180 yards to 82 yards with Richie Luzzi and Stan Tomaszewski doing most of the carrying.

Orange received the opening kickoff and for a while it looked as if they were heading for a score. Starting out from their 31 yard line, the Tornadoes moved the pigskin up to the 46 in four plays. On the next play there was a fumble on the handoff and Bellboy Vin Sorrentino recovered the ball on the 45 yard line. Belleville then grounded its way down to the 21 where the Orange defense stopped the drive. The Bellboys fought their way down to the 21 yard marker once more in the first period but again the Tornadoes halted their march.

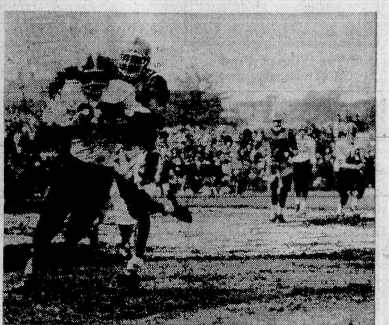

In the second quarter the home team began a drive from the 40 yard line and penetrated down to the Orange 15. For the third time Belleville's drive was repulsed short of the goal line. Byers 6 pass from Latore (Del Joe Del Guercio attempted a 32 yard field goal on fourth down but his kick fell short.

The Bellboys resumed play in the second half but were forced to punt after three downs. Orange received the kick from Richie Luzzi on its 44 yard line but failed to gain a first. With a four and three situation, the Tornadoes booted the ball to Belleville's 21 yard marker. From there the Bellboys began to pour it on and drove 79 yards in 12 plays for the score. Joe Latore started things going with a 23 yard run around end. Richie Luzzi also added 17 yards on a carry which brought the pigskin down to the 10 yard line. The Bellboys then chopped their way to the 6 yard line where on fourth down Joe Latore connected with Bob Byers in the end zone.

Orange scored its touchdown with four minutes left in the game. Returning a punt to the 33 yard line of Belleville, the Tornadoes were given the ball on the 18 yard stripe on the next play because of a pass interference call. From there Orange was held for three downs by Belleville's defensive wall. But on fourth down Tom Bailey took a pitch out around left end and galloped untouched for the score. Bailey attempted to even the score but his kick was the slightest bit wide.

Belleville	0	0	7	0	7

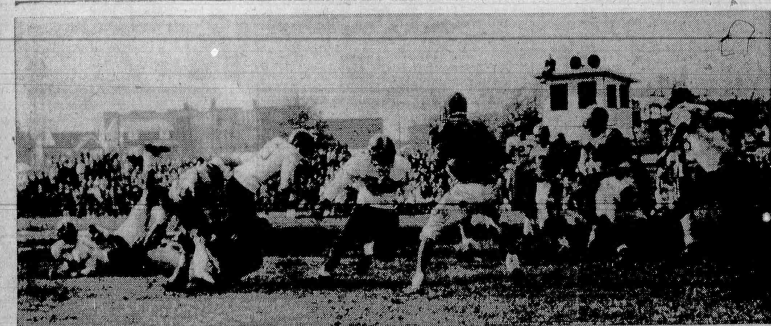

Byers 6 pass from Latore (Del Joe Del Guercio kick) Bailey 18 run (kick failed.)

RICHE LUZZI, Bellboy halfback, is pulled down from behind by one of Orange's bruising linemen. Luzzi attempted to go around end but was brought down around midfield after a short gain.

For The Team ...

PAT MORENO about to be stopped by two of Orange's linemen on the Orange 46 yard line. Mike Rega throws a block against a would-be tackler in this second quarter play.

To Preach In Nutley

RALPH WEST

Ralph West, who has spent 36 years in the Lord's service, bringing the Gospel to seamen from all parts of the world, will speak in Nutley Sunday, Dec. 3. He will be at Franklin Avenue Gospel Chapel, 501 Franklin Avenue, at 2 P.M.

All are invited to hear Mr. West. He not only brings the Word of God as a messenger of Christ, but he also corresponds with Christian seamen in many nations.

Elwood Theatre

Installs New Seats

Robert F. Smerling, vice-president of Eastern Management Theatres, announced the circuit's Elwood Theatre, Newark, will temporarily close on Dec. 18 to expedite installation of new seats as well as other decorative improvements. The theatre will reopen on the evening of Dec. 22.

The present seating capacity of 350 will be reduced to 850 new pushback chairs. Tailored to improve sightlines and ease of viewing, comfort and leg room will be assured by a seating plan that will provide 38 inches between rows.

A new feature will be the installation of a specially constructed smoking section on the main floor where patrons may smoke during performance.

The rest rooms as well as the lobby and auditorium are included in the general redecoration.

The seat installation and renovations are under the supervision of James L. Ellis, division manager of the theatre circuit. Carl Kester is manager of the movie playhouse.
