

Planning Board Proposes Major Face-Lifting In The Valley Section And Silver Lake Area

A public hearing will be held on the proposed land use section of the recently completed master plan on Thursday, Feb. 13 at 7:30 p.m. in Town Hall, the Belleville Planning Board has announced.

The land use plan is the first section of the master plan proposed by the board. Additional public hearings are planned periodically for the other sections, which are a traffic circulation plan, community facilities plan and central business district plan.

The Planning Board said in a statement that the land use plan designated proposed uses for various sections of town over the next 20 years. It would serve as a "basic guide in directing the overall development of Belleville."

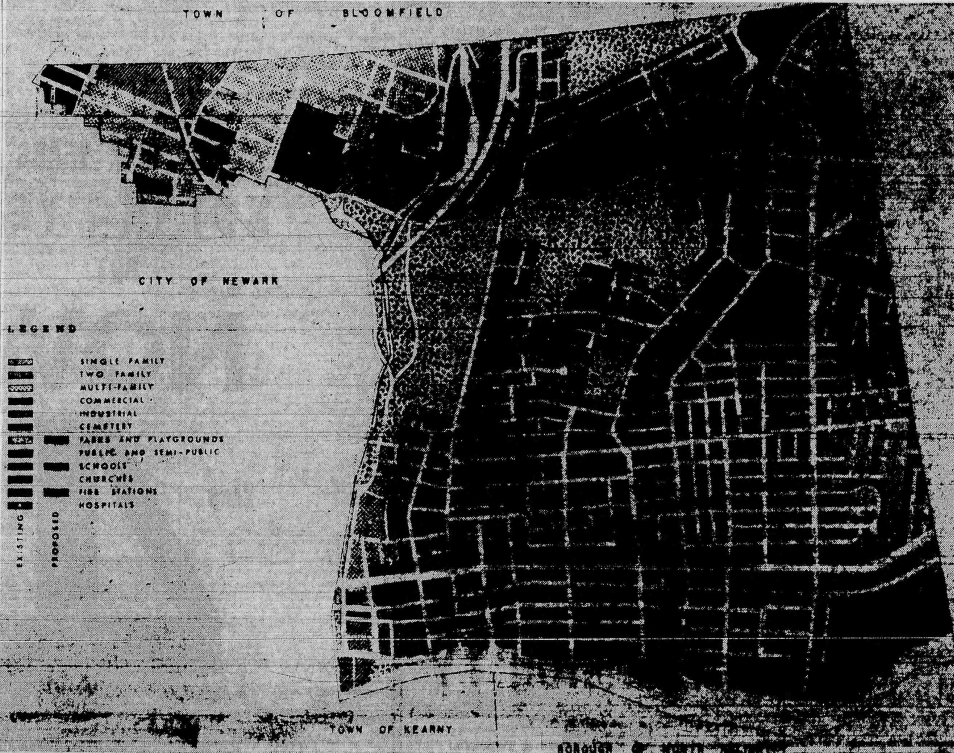

Included in the plan is a proposal that the entire Silver Lake area be developed for apartments. It is also suggested that area be provided with "ample community facilities and parks."

For two-family residences, the plan envisions a modern arched shopping center along Washington Avenue with ample off-street parking facilities for every section.

The entire Valley area east of the Erie Railroad is seen as an industrial park district "to provide for the expansion of existing industries and for the attraction of additions of new plants."

The plan encourages two-family homes in the area north of Belleville Avenue between Union and Garden Avenues and in an area between the northern end of the Essex County Golf course and Jarameno Street.

Four Members Delay School Board Actions

Adjourn One Meeting: Absent From Another

Four Board of Education members blocked action twice this week on six proposals, which included the appointment of a principal for School Nine, approval of architectural plans for additions to Schools One and Four and authorization of the issuance of the first bond anticipation note on the school building program.

The delaying action came after a quiet public hearing Monday night on the proposed school budget. The special meeting was called for the hearing and, according to the agenda, consideration of the six proposals.

Immediately after the budget was adopted, Ernest S. Arvidson, board member, moved for adjournment. His motion came just before consideration of the proposal appointing Joseph B. Groach principal of School Nine. Nicholas S. Juliano seconded the motion and Lally demanded a reason for Arvidson's action.

"IN ORDER"

"A motion is in order to adjourn," retorted Arvidson, "because this meeting was called for a special purpose — holding a hearing on a budget. And that purpose is accomplished."

Lally insisted there "is nothing wrong with adding motions to an agenda." Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, board member who is a past board president, backed up Lally, saying "It is within your rights as president to make up the agenda."

Board Of Education Adopts Budget Showing Slight Rise

The Board of Education adopted a 1962-63 budget Monday night that calls for a five-point tax increase. No one in the small audience objected. Only one person called for clarification of a minor point.

This year's entire budget total is $2,534,879.50. This requires a total sum of $2,181,017.00 to be raised by local taxes, causing a 5.13-point rise in the current tax rate of $2.85 per $100 of assessed valuation. This is the smallest increase since 1957.

The budget will go before the voters in the school election Tuesday, Feb. 13.

Teacher salaries accounted for $1,587,436.29 or 70 per cent of the gross budget and $29,310.58 of the overall increase. The town's teachers will receive a $400 pay increase. Balances from the 1961-62 account will keep down the overall cost of the raises, according to Dominic A. Lally, board president.

Guglicelli Back In Race Again After Withdrawal

After deciding to withdraw from the school board race and finding he was still legally considered a candidate, Albert Guglicelli Jr. has re-entered the campaign with promises that he would support the Superintendent of Schools and devote his efforts to policy-making as a member of the board.

Guglicelli had said he would not run because he had been pressured by many friends who said he "was fighting a losing battle against three political machines." As an independent, he said, he was told he had little chance to win.

According to law persons who signed his petition also had to authorize his withdrawal. Although Paul Francisco, candidate for the Board of Education, said this week he would "remove the tarnish from the reputation of the Belleville school system" if he were elected to the board. He emphasized his plans for economy, saying he would make improvements with the taxpayer in mind.

"The time for electioneering is fast running out," he said in a statement. "Soon Feb. 13 will be upon us and the will of the people will decide those three citizens."

Mertz Named Court Clerk

Raymond E. Mertz, a Belleville insurance broker, has been appointed court clerk of Belleville. Mertz, a lifelong local resident, is the son of a former Parks and Public Property commissioner, the late Raymond E. Mertz.

The appointment for the $5,300-a-year job was made last week and forwarded to Trenton by Magistrate Edward J. Abronsom for confirmation.

Mertz began his clerk duties on Monday in an acting capacity. He will succeed Charles B. Tedesco, court clerk for the past 14 years. Tedesco had to choose between two positions he held, after a supreme court ruling that clerk duties could not be performed by a police department employee. Tedesco is also administrative clerk in the Public Safety Department, a job he will keep.

Mrs. McCool Says Poor Planning Plagued Boards

Mrs. Norma McCool repeated this week her charges that the Board of Education has lacked foresight and allowed Belleville schools to become unequal in building facilities. She also said again she would review the junior high system before converting the K-8 setup to the planned K-9-3.

In a statement, the candidate for a school board seat, said: "My interest in good education has induced me to become a candidate for the Board of Education."

Michael V. Albertine, Board of Education incumbent, said this week his interest in children and in their education, together with his desire to raise the "already fine standards in the Belleville school system so that it will be among the best in the country," were some reasons prompting him to seek re-election.

"A public school must provide for all students regardless of their differences in ability and

Belleville Seeks Appraisers' Value Of Gruhin Property

The Town of Belleville will call in professional appraisers for a valuation on property at 317-319 Washington Avenue, owned by the wife of Commissioner Robert C. Gruhin. The appraisals will be used as part of an appeal the town is making from the assessment placed on the property by the Essex County Board of Taxation, according to Emanuele DeNoia, Jr., tax assessor.

The county body ruled recently the land should be assessed at $5,600 for 1961 and 1962. This would make the true value $14,000, the same as the purchase price.

J. C. Clemmshaw Co., professional appraisal firm that assessed the whole town, put a true value of $55,000 on the Washington Avenue property. The firm has been called in for another appraisal since the "face of the property has been changed," DeNoia said. The building has undergone construction to convert it for commercial use. It formerly was a synagogue.

True Value Rises

A release from the Essex County Board of Taxation giving true valuations for real property for 1962 in the 22 municipalities composing the county shows that true value in Belleville for 1962 is $159,911.14. This is some $6,000,000 more than the 1961 figure of $153,975.248.

Property in Belleville is assessed at 36.35 per cent, according to the board's table, the assessed valuation being $56,149,500.

ADULT SCHOOL REGISTRATION-FEB. 5, 6, 7

Golden Brings Complaints Directly To Grand Jury

James R. Golden, self-appointed town investigator, has bypassed the Essex County Prosecutor and brought his complaints to the county Grand Jury for investigation. Golden, dissatisfied with a decision made by Brendan Byrne, county prosecutor, appeared directly to the Grand Jury, on a paving contract extended from $5,735 to $14,879 by the town.

Golden had originally asked that the prosecutor investigate the contract. After a study, Byrne ruled last week that nothing in the contract warranted turning it over to the Grand Jury.

Golden's request for investigation was made in a letter to the foreman of the Grand Jury. He also asked that the body look into payroll practices of the Department of Public Works. Golden has charged that about 31 men are paid for a 44-hour week, although they are only working 40 hours. According to Commissioner Robert C. Grubin, director of the department, this practice has been used for many years, dating back to the changeover from a six-day week to a five-day week.

The prosecutor is studying this complaint, brought to his attention by Golden.

Golden's letter to the Grand Jury, dated Jan. 23, stated: "I realize that petition is big and infrequent that contain one's request to be heard by the Grand Jury, however, that is the purport of this correspondence."

"QUESTIONABLE NATURE"

Several matters of questionable nature affecting the administration of the Town of Belleville, N. J. have been called to the attention of the Prosecutor by me.

Mr. Byrne has ruled in one, that a paving contract extended from $5,735 to $14,879 was legal, contending there was no evidence of criminal intent. He said nothing in the contract warranted turning it over to the Grand Jury. He suggested he might have legislative recommendations for the state attorney general to establish "definiteness as to what a contract can call for."

I am enclosing a front page news story approp to this case which graphically enumerates most of the salient facts. It, however, doesn't tell how the local ordinance creating the office of central purchase in town was patently violated as the testimony of Purchasing Agent should have shown in the reports garnered by the prosecutor's investigators.

EVER CENT CLAUSE

The contract contained the unheard-of 100-per-cent clause which was even exceeded. It is indeed difficult to understand the normalcy of such a contract. How could bidders submit intelligent bids with so large conjecture in the volume of their work, unless they had advance knowledge?

The prosecutor has been advised by me that official documents records of the town show clearly that for the past several years about 31 men in the Public Works Dept. have been paid 44 hrs. pay for actually 40 hrs. of work. These men are hourly employees, their Civil Service forms show the work requirements as 44 hrs. The money expended for this well exceeds $50,000 for the past three years. I consider this misappropriation of public funds. There has been no denial, only the explanation that this has been the practice and policy of previous office-holders, surely this doesn't make it legal nor proper does it?

"IRREGULARITIES"

Sir, I'm not a lawyer and I do not wish to gratuitously challenge the prosecutor's studied decisions nor action. I only feel that irregularities exist in the handling of Belleville town hall affairs when in the past eight years previous Grand Jury action has brought indictments, recommendations and presentments.

I believe that the Grand Jury should look into all aspects of local ordinances ignored and repeated failure of developer's to construct a bridge that supposedly had been assured. I feel that the information is not called to the attention of the Grand Jury. I can't know about these things and that therefore no action is taken to deter the continued odious practices that flout dedicated and decent local government.

Might I be permitted to appear before your honorable body to discuss these matters?

Sincerely yours,
JAMES R. GOLDEN

Bass Joins Golden Appeal To Grand Jury

John Bass, president of Rutan Estates Homeowners Association, has appealed to the Essex County Grand Jury for permission to appear and voice his complaints against the conduct of municipal affairs. Bass joins Golden in his direct appeal to the Grand Jury. Both had petitioned the Essex County Prosecutor with complaints in the past.

Bass said he was particularly concerned with "everything that has happened in Rutan Estates, especially roads and streets. Bass had charged the town was negligent in the Rutan area."

"Basically I am concerned with the general practices of town administration," he said.

One of the basis of the original Clemmishaw valuation, DeNoia assessed the property at $25,800 for 1962 tax purposes. should originate with the superintendent, he said.

"We are currently witnessing attacks by one group upon another in order that the people they have elected to sponsor will obtain seats as members of the Board of Education in the forthcoming election," he said in a statement. "I, for one, do not have this trouble. As an independent candidate, I am not burdened with such doings. I believe this is fortunate for me. As I previously stated, I would consider work for the betterment of the whole school program. While this may also be true of the other candidates, a number of them are subject to organizational pressures."

I would not enter myself under such conditions. I would like to state that, if elected, my decisions, will be based on your needs, and your ability to afford any additional costs. I do not believe that any institution is automatically improved just because great amounts of money are spent. This has been demonstrated time and time again. Organizational pressures may force the passing of items which are not for the betterment of the system, and would create additional tax burdens.

"As an independent, I am also free from political affiliations. Politics have no place whatsoever in education. This has been demonstrated time and time again. To integrate political and educational groups is a cardinal sin. We must not allow it to happen. We all know that sooner or later, as mature adults, our children will have to face up to political pressures in their every day vocations. Why should we expedite the point in their development years."

EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

"Education is the very foundation of the greatness of our country. Our teachers, and primarily our Superintendent, Dr. Frank M. Durkee, must not be hampered, in their quest to give us, the taxpaying public, the kind of education we desire and must have for our children. Like any successful organization, a school system must be headed by one who has the knowledge, interest, integrity and desire to be progressive.

"People with less knowledge than a corporation head, do not and cannot hamper the operation of his office. The reason is simple. They do not have the background necessary. The same applies in the educational structure of the Town of Belleville. The organization is headed by one who is as qualified as you can obtain. Isn't it a logical deduction that decisions of a certain nature, and appointments or recommendations should have their origin with him? I think so. That is the reason he has been retained."

AS OVERSEER

"I am certain that the same system is in use wherever you earn your keep. Somebody has to be in charge. I believe it is the duty of the Board of Education to act as overseer of the whole operation. However, a board has limitations."

"The faculty of the whole school program is very good. I feel that the people engaged in teaching our children are really trying to do a job for us. They deserve proper support, and recognition. Today teachers have a very difficult task confronting them. They must prepare the child to assume his place in a highly specialized world. If you do not specialize today, your chances are pretty nil of becoming successful. This means that we must obtain people who really know their subject matter in order that our children are subjected to as much knowledge as they can absorb."

"A sound Board of Education would be an asset in this day and age. There is absolutely no place for dickering and power struggles on a board. If this is allowed to take place, it is your child who will be the ultimate loser. I firmly believe this to be true. If a candidate does not have the progress of your child foremost in mind, he should not be elected."

"I am certain that you will consider each and every candidate for his merit and for that which you feel he will be able to contribute to the progress of your child. If you do this, I am certain that you will make the wisest choice possible."

All I ask is that you make certain you cast your ballot. This is most important because the will of the people will speak. If you neglect to do so, I believe you relinquish the right to complain or criticize."

NO DISPUTES

"At the start of my campaign to secure a seat on the Board of Education, I stated that I would not engage in any verbal or written disputes with any one. I intend to abide by my decision. We all know what is basically wrong with the present board structure. I do not think it necessary to go into it at this time. Those of us who read the papers will recall with ease the amount of dispute that has been in evidence. I do not think this is for the betterment of the educational program. I ask that you consider me for what I represent. I shall, at all times, try to give you the type of service and representation you are entitled to. My cause is your cause. As intelligent people, I am certain you will make the right choice."

ning the schools. The Board should employ an impartial, scientific testing service to see that specifications are correct and properly adhered to. Every ounce of concrete and every item of material that goes in the new school should be checked for conformity to specifications. I pledge to the people that if I am re-elected I shall take every possible measure to assure that every penny of the school money helps to produce a quality school.

"Continued improvement of curriculum must be achieved. In the K-5-3 plan of school organization, increased attention should be given not only to the college bound students but to the 60 per cent who go directly into business and industry."

GUIDANCE

"I shall support an improved program of pupil guidance. Too many of our students never get through high school. Too many of our students are unable to get the courses they want and need. Too often students do not receive the help they need. This will reduce the number of 'dropouts.'"

"I shall continue to work for adequate salaries for all school employees in comparison with other school districts, in our county."

"If reelected, my only objective will be to serve well the ment of more adequate library service in all of our schools."

"I shall support the development of an adequate lunch service program in all schools. At present many parents find the lunch program unsatisfactory in the elementary schools."

"I shall support a program for introduction of foreign language in grades seven and eight, and subsequently, lower elementary grades. In the world order of today and the future citizens should be able to speak several languages."

PSYCHOLOGY SERVICE

"Six years on the Board of Education has impressed me with the need for more psychological services to our children. I shall support a program to increase psychological services."

"I shall support a program for better health services to our children in all schools."

There are all workable ideas that can mean better education for the children in Belleville schools."

"I reelected, my only objective will be to serve well the schools of Belleville. My own children are in the schools. I am a product of the Belleville schools; and I shall aim to serve the best interests of all the people. Your vote for me on Feb. 13 will be a vote for continued progress in education in Belleville."

are floated. State aid funds are included for debt service on bond anticipation notes in the early stages of building the senior high school and for remodeling school buildings.

Lally called the budget "a prudent balance between what is most desirable in our schools and the ability of our taxpayers to maintain and improve their schools."

to the board secretary. He could not run, his petitioners submitted no document. The candidates' names were submitted Tuesday for placement on the ballot, and Guglicelli's was among them.

Dr. Guglicelli, with his name on the ballot, issued a statement this week: "I have given much thought to our town and the school system. Both are in a critical state of affairs. We must all work together to improve the morale of the community. Immediate steps should be taken to review this unpleasant situation."

CORRECT AND IMPROVE

"All policies, rules and regulations should be studied and corrected to bring about improved community relations. No one person can be blamed for the problems that exist. Everyone is responsible. No good can come from the continuation of criticism of individuals or groups, or how the new school won a victory by 81 votes, or how Dr. (Frank M.) Durke received his appointment, that vacancy occurred by the passing of the late Mr. Evan Thomas and had to be filled. Dr. Durke had the experience and know-how and was best qualified to serve in that capacity. We are fortunate to have such a man as superintendent."

"If I am elected I will respect the leadership as head of the school system."

MORE EXPLICIT

"Responsibility within the administration staff should be more explicit and complete."

"Teachers, principals and other staff members should share in policy-making where decisions will affect their work and welfare. Develop clean-cut provisions for evaluating teachers and sound evaluation policies in order to boost morale and gain and give their good will, since now we will have two high schools instead of one."

EDUCATION AND SPORTS

"A larger role must be taken in developing educational and sports programs, which are both a low end and need to be overhauled. One of the main reasons for the election of a new school board would be the responsible spending of millions of the taxpayers' dollars."

"There are three political machines in the field. This ABC group would love to win control of the school system. If it happens it would be a detriment to our school system. They would produce chaos with their rule and throw the whole system out of order."

"If I am elected as the odd man I can keep it clean."

Peck

never belonged to, endorsed or actively worked with, or for any political groups or individuals. As a result I am not indebted or obligated in any way and completely free to use my own judgment and common sense in helping to determine school policy and action."

"I fully believe that all supervisory positions in the school system should be filled as quickly as possible to insure top-notch performance, which can not be accomplished without continuous supervision at all levels, and in my judgment all appointments to supervisory positions should be made from the ranks of our own school personnel. The only exceptions would be where our own personnel could not meet the necessary requirements."

By SEPT. '63

"Again I repeat the present school building program and the K-12 conversion must be carried out to a successful completion by September 1963, which will not only restore accreditation of our high school, but will allow our teachers to put forth their best efforts in educating our children rather than putting them through the frustrations they now suffer by not being able to do so because of poor environment due to a lack of proper space and facilities."

"We cannot afford to have this program obstructed or interfered with and I am pledging myself to work for the successful completion of this program by September 1963."

Albertine

therefore cannot give attention to those only interested in advanced education. It is my hope, if re-elected, to bring our standards as closely in line with the highest standards possible, in proportion with the potential of each group of children. Our students who are headed for college will thus receive a better preparation and those who do not go to college will be better qualified to enter the vocational field."

"The experience I have gained during the past three years enables me to give support and encouragement to the administration, the principals and the teachers in a concerted effort to raise the standards of teaching and to enrich the curriculum."

"I feel that I can be entirely objective in my judgment concerning the problems which will be confronting the Board of Education since, if I am re-elected, I will once again represent all of the people of Belleville not just a group, organization or individual."

Lally

intelligence as well as for more advanced students.

"Wrestling was added to our list of sports. We believe in offering the students diversified activities so that many of our students will be able to participate."

"This board took advantage of all State Aid and National Defense Act Funds available for Mathematic and Science facilities."

GARDEN SCHOOL

"We undertook the responsibility of sponsoring the Garden School to which all Essex communities may send their students if the tuition is paid by these sending communities to Belleville. The State Department of Education commended us for sponsoring this worthwhile project."

"In addition to the normal and perpetual maintenance of our school buildings, major physical improvements were completed:

"Aluminum windows at School No. 1 were installed.

"A $14,000 concrete wall was built and parking facilities were improved at School No. 5.

"The lights around our school buildings proved to be a good investment and this board was responsible for many other improvements too numerous to list."

DILIGENT WORK

"The present board members worked with diligence and prudence to formulate a reduced budget, which shows the lowest in our history since 1957. This budget will soon be submitted to the public of Belleville for approval."

"A good measuring device to judge a person's future is by his past performance."

"I can justify everything I did as a member of the Belleville Board of Education."

"On the contrary, I feel happy that I am able to present my record to you."

"Now we are embarking on a new program. A program that is believed in and fought for from the start. I would like to be given the opportunity to help administer this program. I intend to cooperate with our Superintendent of Schools and to continue to serve you."

"I believe in all this for the best interest of our children. My only reward is better education for every American child."

uation.

"As a mother and a person who is familiar with children in all their phases, I would never do anything contrary to their interests and education is far too big an item to be slighted."

"However, we teach our children by example. We try to let them follow our lead, by our self-selecting employing good principles. Certainly one thing we would not want them to learn is that 'the end justifies the means.' I have been raised to believe that nothing good develops from something bad, but sometimes, due to the conscientious efforts by individuals, something fine can emerge."

"Today we are faced with a momentous task, with a board divided to back it up. The townspeople are either wary of compromise or bitter over past issues. The unity of thinking has been lost, and consequently, our educational system is in jeopardy. The passing of a referendum has not nor will not correct what is lacking in our system."

NOT AN OGRE

"The board must not be an ogre to be feared, hated and disputed by friend and foe alike, but rather it should be the focal point from which all sound policy emerges. To accomplish this, we must understand the views of other members for only in that spirit of enlightenment can progress be achieved. Also, our citizens should be wholly and completely informed of all situations existing. Surely no citizen objects to completely necessary economical expenditures."

"However, to have foresight is to have economy, for something well planned, judiciously advised and economically sound will have dividends in the future."

"It was this very lack of foresight for at least ten years or more by board members, that has allowed the school system to become so unequal as far as buildings are concerned. The prime object was war between 'yes' and 'no' while our children in certain locations had to exist in conditions which are a slur to our integrity and intelligence. The democratic principles upon which our country has been founded have been exploited here."

"My regard for foresight has also led me to believe that the resolved junior high leaves much to be desired. This is part of a plan which needs much reviewing if we are to be sure and not sorry."

"The heart and warmth of the people has been left out of deliberations which vitally affect them."

"I humbly submit my pledge to devote every effort to return the dignity and pride to our school system; by not only the support of the board on issues but by the wholehearted backing of our citizens."

"I urge you to consider the two other candidates who are sponsored by the Citizens Tax Council, Mr. Paul Bernhardt and Mr. Paul Francisco, for in unity there is strength."

Mertz

"I have no regret for anything I did as a member of the Belleville Board of Education."

"On the contrary, I feel happy that I am able to present my record to you."

ens who will help guide the Belleville educational system for the next three years. I sincerely hope I find myself in this select group."

"If I may, I ask you to take a few minutes to read again those aims and objectives I will earnestly attempt to implement if elected to the board."

1. To remove the tarnish from the reputation of the Belleville school system through diligent efforts to improve curriculum, teacher morale, student interest and by publishing the many good works that regularly occur in the system.

2. To never lose sight of the fact that the board members are elected representatives of the taxpayers of Belleville.

LONGRANGE PLANS

3. To institute long-range plans for systematic improvement of all facets of the school system, consistent with the ability of the taxpayers to bear the financial burden.

4. To immediately seek out and eliminate from the system all areas of waste, inefficiency and incompetence. To truly give taxpayer and student alike a dollar's worth of education for every dollar of expenditure.

5. To strive to unite the good efforts of all citizens, groups, parent-teacher associations and other interested parties in town. To direct this united effort, coupled with the utmost cooperation of the Board and school administrators, toward the improvement of the entire school system.

POSSIBLE SOLUTIONS

"It has been my experience that all problems have many possible solutions and it is usually the ability of the analyzer who will dictate if the wisest course is chosen. As everyone knows, it is very difficult to satisfy all points of view in any subjective discussion, but it is the mark of the good administrator who can achieve harmony by sacrificing principle."

deliberations.

"I have tried to conduct my campaign on the highest level, consistent with the high regard I have for the majority of Belleville citizens, among whom are numbered many friends and neighbors. In the moments of anger, I have slipped to the level of some willful antagonist. I apologize; for if nothing else the Board must set the example for the children of our town."

"In closing, let me urge and sincerely recommend the full slate of Citizens Tax Council candidates. A vote for Paul Bernhardt, Norma McCool, and myself, Paul Francisco, is a vote for progress in Belleville's education."

port our school system and maintain it free from political interference. No politics should hinder the area and scope of the superintendent's authority."

FILL PRINCIPAL POST

"The day-to-day responsibility of our school system is justly in the hands of the superintendent of Schools. In order for him to maintain an efficient working organization, he must be allowed to make the primary selection to fill existing vacancies. Recommending a person to fill a principalship is within his area of responsibility. His recommendations should not be impeded by board members, since delay in filling a post only brings harm to the students themselves."

"The manner in which our school system is administered reflects to a large extent on our future citizens. We must guard, protect and strengthen that system to improve our quality of education."

Planning Board

the western and northern part of town, which the plan said are the most recently developed areas.

The plan emphasizes renewal and slum clearance.

A large colored rendering of the land use plan, copies of the land use report and the back and white maps are in the Town Clerk's office in Town Hall.

FLEXIBLE PROPOSAL

According to the Planning Board, the plan is to be regarded as a flexible proposal based upon a study of today's conditions and trends as they relate to the occurrences of the past. The Planning Board said it was essential for implementation of the plan that its proposals, and their relationship to the whole, be continuously re-evaluated and revised, since changing conditions affect the physical, social and economic structure of the community.

"On the other hand the objectives and policies upon which the plan is based should be considered more permanent and representative of the general philosophy underlying the thinking of the Planning Board towards the future development of the town, the board said."

In general, the Planning Board said the main goal of the town is to preserve and protect the special qualities that have made Belleville a good community in which to live. "This goal recognizes that growth of the residential, commercial and industrial areas of town is inevitable, and that such development should be controlled in order that a beneficial, rather than an adverse effect, upon those characteristics and amenities which create a pleasant environment may be achieved."

Included in the board's report were seven objectives that constituted the basic policy proposal and formed the framework upon which the land use plan was based.

These are:

"1. To preserve stable neighborhoods and to aid the future neighborhoods which are free of any adverse environmental conditions."

"2. To encourage a balanced residential, commercial and industrial development which will strengthen the town's tax base."

ties.

"4. To provide sites for additional industrial activities, and to increase local employment opportunities and to expand the tax base."

"5. To encourage variety in residential development, which would permit occupancy by people with varying incomes, characteristics and desires."

"6. To encourage the acquisition of land needed for public uses as far in advance as practicable."

"7. To preserve and improve the town's overall physical appearance."

Four Members

There is nothing in the law to stop the board from considering additional proposals at a special meeting, according to Max N. Schwartz, board attorney. Schwartz ruled that the motion to adjourn could not be debated, but must be put to a vote immediately.

The roll was called. Arthur M. Pico and Michael V. Albertine sided with Juliano and Arvidson against Richard H. Drake, Lally and Dr. DiRuggiero. And the meeting was over.

RETALIATION

Lally retaliated by calling a special meeting for Tuesday evening. The four who voted to adjourn Monday's meeting were not present on Tuesday. Without a majority present, no board action could be taken.

Dominic A. Lally, board president, said Tuesday night he would arrange a meeting for Monday, Feb. 5, if the four could attend."

Arvidson said after Monday's meeting, "The Board of Education was given a low, inside curve and we didn't want to go to bat on it." He said members did not receive sufficient notification of the additions to the agenda. Arvidson said his objections were "definitely not against" Grosch for whom he had only praise. "I am against the manner in which the proposal was presented," Arvidson explained.

Juliano said he was not given sufficient notification of the agenda and the meeting was called only for a hearing on the budget. Albertine and Pico agreed.

DID NOT ATTEND

None of the four expected to attend Tuesday's meeting when questioned after the conclusion of the Monday meeting, Arvidson and Albertine said they had prepared.

vious engagements that could not be broken. Juliano and Pico said they would have to check their schedules but they did not think they could attend."

None did attend.

Lally, Drake and Dr. DiRuggiero were at the Tuesday meeting and upon recommendation of the board attorney, waited 15 minutes before leaving the Board of Education office. Twenty-five persons sat in silence to wait, also.

Schwartz said this was the first time in his 11 years as board counsel, that a quorum was not present when a meeting was called.

Dr. DiRuggiero labeled both nights' actions by the four board members as "purely rotten politics," Lally agreed.

"POLITICS"

Monday night's adjournment brought charges of politics from several parents whose children attend School Nine. For economy reasons, the principalships of Schools One and Nine have been combined under one principal, Mrs. Violet Spray. After a citizens committee from School Nine petitioned the board on Oct. 13, 1961 to appoint a full-time principal to the school, the board resolved on Nov. 27 to go back to full-time principals in the two schools. Mrs. Spray will become full-time principal at School One. Mrs. Dominic C. Macaluso is 452 Washington Avenue, president of the high school PTA, whose seven-year-old daughter attends School Nine, charged the school board with stalling tactics. "They've stalled us through two referendum votes and now they are going to stall us through a school election," she argued after Monday's meeting was adjourned.

Parents from the school had hired a lawyer, Francis Hayden of Newark, to plead their case for a full-time principal. According to Mrs. Macaluso, the pupils were receiving "substandard" education with a part-time principal in charge. She said she would contact Hayden in an effort to transfer her daughter from the school until a principal was named.

"HOW LONG?"

"How long are they going to stall us?" she demanded. "Is this a school system? The money is here in this budget for a new principal."

Mrs. Macaluso said her daughter was stabled with a pencil while at the school recently. She charged the incident was not reported to proper officials because of "lack of supervision" in School Nine.

Grosch, 43, was recommended for the principalship by Dr. Frank M. Durke, Superintendent of Schools. A seventh and eighth grade teacher at School Four, he lives at 5 Nulton Street with his wife and three children.

WHAT DETERMINES VITAMIN QUALITY?

It is not the price, for door-to-door vitamin sales people usually charge a great deal more for similar potencies than a pharmacy. They generally overstate benefits, says the Department of Health.

It is not the potency on the label that is all important. What counts is how well will the body absorb the contents. The vitamins we supply are made by the reliable drug firms who make the prescription medicines. No manufacturing tests for quality are left out to reduce price.

CD Student Dispersal Plan,
Communications, Explained

A large group of Belleville High School PTA members witnessed a presentation recently of the film, "Seconds for Survival," an impressive picture produced by the Bell Telephone Company, showing the national warning system and how in a matter of seconds, the entire North American Continent can be alerted in case of an imminent attack by a foreign country.

The program was arranged by Henry Miller, social studies department head at the school, and program chairman for the PTA. After the showing of the film, Ludwig R. Pesa, local CD director, described the new State plan for school population dispersal in case of an "alert" or "take cover" signal.

The director explained the new plan in detail, as laid down by the State of New Jersey in its official directive 71 which was sent to all municipalities in the 21 counties. Mr. Pesa participated also in a question and answer forum that followed.

Later in the evening Pesa, who had set up a portable radio for two-way amateur communication in the high school cafeteria, put out a call for any radio amateurs of Belleville who were tuning in the Civil Defense frequency to check in in order to demonstrate the practicability of radio communication should telephones or other means be disrupted.

As one after another of the stations checked in, the director was able to show that there are one or two radio amateur stations affiliated with Civil Defense within one or two blocks of every public school as well as the two parochial schools, with the exception of School 9.

The following radio stations checked in with Director Pesa, at the High School, and gave their locations and the schools they could cover: Ed Clegg, School 7; Ed Johnson, reported for Bill Fisher, normally mobile to any point; but confined to his location.

Entering College

The program is sponsored by the Theta Rho, a junior and senior high boys club in Suburban Service. Chairman of the program is Bill Bromberg. Bob Kerner is president of Theta Rho.

Holy Family
School Places
In CYO Contest

Two Bergen County parochial schools were named winners of the annual CYO Journalism Contest today by Msgr. John J. Kiley, Catholic youth director of the Newark Archdiocese. St. Francis School, Ridgeland Park, was named best among school newspapers for its publication, "Angels Echo." Tops in the magazine division was Mt. Virgin School, Garfield, which publishes "Virginette."

Holy Family School, Nutley which issues "Scholastic High Lights," was second in the magazine field. The judging followed a series of lectures and demonstrations given last October in which parochial school students were shown how to go about publishing a school newspaper. Thirty schools participated.

Home that evening, for St. Peter's.

Bill Fisher, Jr. was mobile in different parts of the town, Tom Kopac, covered School 8; Joe Stahs, School 10; Matthew Calahan, School 1; William G. Hunt, School 3. All stations checked in with the High School station within 10 minutes.

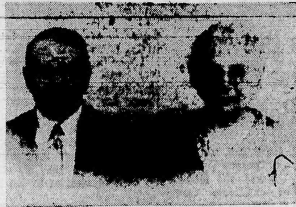

Also available but not called were Chas. Manione, for St. Anthony's School; Jim Barton covering St. Peter's; Harry Ford for the High School; Norman Thompson, mobile unit assigned anywhere needed; Peter Fino covering School 4; Jim Peichard, School 2; Richard McKinley, Recreation House; Larry Pesa, Jr. would be sent from his home on Floyd Street to School 9.

Mr. Pesa stated that the question how can they be alerted may be answered by the fact that one or more of these stations is always on the air and in a matter of minutes the rest can be alerted; also if they are on the air, Conrad will alert them. If they are not on the air, someone in the house would probably be watching television listening to radio broadcasts, and in the event of a real emergency every form of broadcasting would cease immediately and Conrad would take over on 640 or 1240 Kilocycles.

In other showings, approximately 820 high school students saw "Seconds for Survival" in connection with social science, history and allied classes.

Warning Given

If you have a refrigerator or icebox on your property which is in use, remove its doors, knock the lock off, or put a chain around the door and padlock it so that a small child cannot open it, crawl in, shut himself in and suffocate. This is required by law and was urged this week by Edward G. Burdy, Health Officer.

The Sinister Influence Of Politics On Our School Board

Monday evening Belleville citizens were treated to a rare performance of shabby politics as practiced by an expert.

The Board of Education meeting was primarily called to dispose of the 1962-63 school system budget, up before the voters for approval or rejection Tuesday, February 13th.

Added to the Board's agenda for consideration on the same evening were several pressing matters upon which the school board has failed to act.

There were nine items on the agenda. The first three concerned the 1962-63 school year budget. 35 persons were in attendance and not a single taxpayer spoke out against the budget. Only one person rose to her feet to make inquiry about fluorescent lighting for School Two. Assured by School Board President Lally that the budget included a provision for the installation of fluorescent lights in School Two the taxpayer returned to her seat and thus ended questioning on the Two Million Eight Hundred and Thirty-Five Thousand Dollar ($2,835,000) budget.

Board President Dominic Lally proceeded to item number four on the agenda — the appointment of a principal for School Nine which the Board authorized in a resolution adopted on November 27, 1961. Quickly Board Member Ernest Arvidson offered a motion to adjourn — and just as quickly the motion was seconded by his ABC cohort, Nicholas Juliano. Following this lead were two strangers to ABC company, Michael Albertine and Arthur Pico.

Albertine and Pico had their own axe to grind. Arvidson, apparently having knowledge of this, took advantage of the situation in an obvious political effort to embarrass Board President Dominic Lally and Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, both of whom are up for reelection February 13th.

So — the motion to adjourn — a non-debatable one, was approved by a 4-3 vote.

Arvidson may have proved himself a smart politician Monday night but we hold to a strong belief that Belleville citizens do not appreciate his type of shenanigans.

The three board members anxious to stay on the job and complete the work outlined in the agenda were Board President Dominic Lally, Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, and Board member Richard Drake.

Three classifications of board members developed from Monday night's meeting — the dedicated, the foolish, and the dangerous.

The dedicated — Lally, DiRuggiero and Drake.

The foolish — Albertine and Pico.

The dangerous — Arvidson and Juliano. Mrs. D. C. Macaluso, president of the High School P. T. A. with a child in School Nine, and apparent spokesman for the school's parents charged the board with "stalling" on a promise to appoint a principal. "What are we waiting for?" asked Mrs. Macaluso. The answer, Mrs. Macaluso is obvious — for school board politicians to destroy our school system.

Dr. Frank DiRuggiero labeled the adjournment "rotten politics." Lally agreed with this observation — and so do we.

The vote on the adjournment resolution separated the men from the politicians. Arvidson's disruptive tactics may have won for him a political round but 100 school children and nine teachers at School Nine became pawns in his not-so-slick game of politics.

The sinister influence of politics is permeating School Board activities and the shocking discovery is its source — Two ABC board members. One wonders if Nicholas Juliano's anger over his failure to have his Newark friend appointed School Superintendent last Summer, in place of Dr. Durkee, may not have terminated its usefulness as a Board member.

At any rate, the four adjournment boys failed to show up at a special board meeting called for that Tuesday night. Arvidson's excuse for his failure to attend the meeting — (one to last no more than fifteen minutes) — was a previous boy scout meeting commitment, a worthy cause indeed. Juliano, well, he was encumbered with a sickness problem in the family. Art Pico? Duties with a part-time job made it impossible for him to attend. Albertine? "Nursing a cold," says Albertine, up for reelection Tuesday, February 13th.

So — a meeting was held Tuesday night but for lack of a quorum no action was legally possible. Drake, Lally, and DiRuggiero were there, however, ready and willing to dispose of the board's pressing business.

Board President Dominic Lally has sent out a call for another meeting — Monday, February 5th, at 8:00 p.m. "Rotten Politics" again? Perhaps a "State of the Union" message on the biased press.

Another bit of unfinished business is the appointment of a new high school principal to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hugh Kittle last December. No time should be lost in getting on with the business of manning our school staff at the executive level. Executives, discharging their duties in an "Acting" capacity do not enjoy the force of command that comes from a permanent appointment. This should be obvious to everyone — except of course politicians bent upon trading jobs for votes.

Thank heaven Dr. Frank Durkee is above political deals for it would indeed be a dark day for Belleville if the office of School Superintendent fell into the hands of politicians.

Belleville was blessed with a strong School Superintendent in the late Evan Thomas. And in the person of Dr. Frank Durkee we have an equally strong and independent public official who is entitled to the full support of our citizens and School Board.

The Turtle-Like Speed Of Federal Government

Almost weekly for the past six months we have been receiving in our mail publicity releases from the U. S. Treasury Internal Revenue Service office serving our area and located at 1090 Broad Street, Newark.

When space permits, the releases are published. We consider it a public service to print them since the subject matter is intended to aid our readers, and does.

For these past six months every Internal Revenue Service publicity release includes a legend which never changes — the title of the release's author — "ACTING DIRECTOR Kenneth O. Hook."

Mr. Hook has been serving as Acting Director ever since the death last summer of his superior, the late IRS Director Joseph E. J. Mayer. Mr. Hook is a career Treasury Department employee and has served as Assistant Director of the Newark office for 14 years, and upon the death of Joseph Mayer was made Acting Director.

His present "Acting" title reminds us of the time six years ago when the late Joseph Mayer held a similar shaky title back in 1955. For about 14 months Mr. Mayer was an Acting Director. To make matters worse Mayer's understudy, former Assistant Director Roy Brine was Acting Assistant Director for 18 months!

Regardless what level of government we speak of, the "Acting" status of any public official executive is bad for department morale, and it is bad for the taxpayers who are served by the various departments and levels of government.

As in the case during the Eisenhower years in 1955 when we believed Joseph Mayer's performance in the job as "Acting Director" of the Newark IRS office merited a permanent appointment to the position, in the current situation we believe that Mr. Hook, after serving four years as Assistant Director and now completing six months as "Acting Director" of the Newark office, merits the permanent appointment.

If Hook, a career Treasury Department employee, is good enough to be "Acting Director" for six months he is obviously sufficiently competent to attain permanent status in the position. From where we sit it is as simple as that, unless of course there exist extenuating circumstances above and beyond the call of public performance that have escaped us.

Two Million taxpayers and 1000 Internal Revenue Service employees embraced by the Newark District office are entitled to a permanent Director — and the sooner the better.

SHELDON, IOWA, MAIL: Welfare statism is right now, making serious inroads on American liberties and privileges that have from the birth of our nation been regarded basic. These inroads have evolved from controls that have been accepted as the 'price' of federal assistance.

"Redevelopment has followed this familiar course, with millions of dollars now being poured directly into local communities without so much as a by-your-leave to the states. . . . Similar usurpation of local autonomy was in certain prospect, had the Administration's school bill not been defeated. . . ."

Calls Brown "Worst Choice" For Board Seat

Dear Editor: I attended a P.T.A. meeting at School 8 on Thursday, Jan. 18, at which I asked the following question of candidate George Brown:

"Is it not true that at a meeting of the High School P.T.A. which was called specifically to discuss the school building program, you the chairman charged the subject on the agenda by ignoring the film and the commentary by Dr. McCormack and proceeded to introduce an entirely different plan along your own ideas. Would this not indicate a lack of wholehearted support for the plans which you now wish to have a hand in formulating policy for?"

His answer was, yes he did recall the incident but he went on to explain that he had acted in jest and was promptly called down by Mrs. Macaluso, the vice chairman.

— Brown enjoys the reputation of being a super-duper lawyer and I doubt very much whether he would have been satisfied with that explanation to a serious question on a serious charge. I would point out to him not so.

Alert Belleville Citizens Committee that this action by the president of the High School P.T.A. in the face of the Rutgers Report by educational experts and the presentation by Dr. McCormack school building consultant, was, in the least, irresponsible and we certainly don't need responsibility on this or any other Board of Education.

PARENTS AGREED

I have had occasion to speak with a number of parents who attended that meeting. They had one thing in common to say about the reaction after the meeting: They all felt confused, frustrated and despairing of ever achieving the goal of securing a new high school for their children.

This was the result of Mr. Brown's crude joke or trick however one may characterize it and now he hopes we will take it lightly.

Mr. Brown's jest did not indicate wholehearted support for the school building program and I am sure there must be many others who do not enjoy his brand of humor. I would even venture far enough to suspect that his position contributed largely to the defeat of the Oct. 17 referendum.

I point out to him a famous quotation on earnestness.

"There are important cases in which the difference between half a heart and a whole heart makes just the difference between signal defeat and a splendid victory." A.L.K. Boyd, Scot divine, AS P.T.A. PRESIDENT

In addition one of his own supporters answered my inquiry into his qualifications in this manner: "He is a fine man, but I must admit he did not make a very good P.T.A. president."

In my opinion Mr. Brown is perhaps the worst choice anyone could make for this new Board of Education if one is sincerely concerned about the policy which will be formulated and due to govern the coming supervision of the construction of a new high school.

To those people who have unwittingly joined this so-called alphabetical group I wish to say that I have come to the conclusion that the leadership consists of the most united friendly enemies hell bent on seeking revenge for some personal grudge and that they would even out of their own nose to spite their face.

Urges Support For Incumbents

To the Editors: The candidates, endorsed by The Citizens Tax Council, who preach the wrong economy and who were never interested in an expansion program, are certainly not the type needed on the Board of Education since they are not good for a good educational program we owe our future citizens.

There are also three candidates on the so called "Rochaud or ABC ticket" who always denounced sectionalism. Yet these same candidates are responsible for such a division of our town and we all know that this is not conducive or wholesome for our town and for our educational program.

These "Rochaud" candidates were entrusted by the present board to assist them in a worthwhile educational program.

I now believe that these people put forth their best efforts in seeking to undermine the incumbents for their own selfish aspirations.

QUESTIONS MOTIVES

One of the candidates publicly denounced our superintendent and now I question his motives in seeking election to the Board of Education.

I should think that these candidates who profess to be strongly for better education would put aside their selfish desires and strive harder to work in conjunction with the present board and support it in its endeavor to complete a program that was sponsored by this board.

"SAD DAYS"

These candidates are encouraged and led by some one who has selfish, egotistical motives which serve no purpose but will bring sad days to this community.

Before casting your vote on February 13th, I hope you weigh matters carefully and decide to re-elect our incumbents who worked so diligently on our educational expansion program. Give them a chance to be of further service to the youth of Belleville.

Gives Support To Lally As Best Qualified Man

Dear Editor: I must confess I like your hard-hitting, slam-bang style of editorials. Whether they are for, or against, our town's public officials, I think your editorials of the past several months have been great. Keep up your good work, for the next few months, at least.

Now about the upcoming elections for the three vacant spots on our Board of Education. The more speeches and prepared statements I read in your fine paper, the more I am convinced the man who stands highest in all around ability is Dominic Lally, currently president of the board.

What are the qualities which make Mr. Lally the number one man in this field of twelve good people? I list them below, not necessarily in their order of importance:

1—He is currently a mathematics teacher, so understands the problems of teachers.

2—Mr. Lally is well acquainted, in one way or another, with things which affect school children.

3—Mr. Lally understands building construction.

4—Mr. Lally knows how to spend your tax dollars wisely as evidenced by the fact he saved our town several thousands of dollars during his present term.

5—Last, but not least, Mr. Lally has had three years of experience on the Board.

Many of the men running for election on the board may have two of the above qualities; some may have three, but not one has all five!

You must remember that in campaigns of this kind, all candidates sound good and make all kinds of promises. But most of these fellows are still an unknown quantity, no matter what their occupation or station in life. Mr. Lally is not an unknown quantity because he proved what he can do during his current three-year term.

Mr. Lally is running independently. He is not sponsored by anyone or any organization. Sponsored candidates, especially those sponsored by organizations, are not always free to exercise their own opinion. You know the old saying, "He who pays the fiddler calls the tune."

In view of all this Dominic Lally must have earned your confidence and your vote and should be returned to the board for another three-year term. I would appreciate your putting him at the top of your cluster of three names. He is a natural—he is a must.

Freshmen Suffer Upset By Kearny Cagers

By RAY FERSKO
The Freshmen met Kearny for a second time last Friday and lost 50 to 34. This game was a great upset to Belleville inasmuch as they had defeated Kearny in a previous game.

The game opened with Kearny taking the lead on foul shots. Belleville snapped back in the second period and at the half the score was Belleville 21, Kearny 20. The third quarter was a disastrous one for Belleville, who forced two baskets to Kearny's eight. In the fourth quarter, Frank Ray of Belleville came back to score eight points but Kearny pulled ahead with 12 more baskets.

The Belleville team was led by Ray who scored 23 points. The Freshmen were off with their foul shots and they couldn't gain control of the boards. Their record now stands six-three. With four games left they can still finish with a good record if they resume playing heads-up ball.

It's The Slick Chicks By Four Games

The Slick Chicks with 40 wins and 20 losses are the number one team in the Recreation Women's Wednesday Night Bowling League. Her high game, 218 series, 540, and average, 148.37, have not been topped.

St. Anthony's Falls Half Game Behinds First

St. Anthony's I lost a triple to Holy Cross to fall one-half game out of first place in the Essex County CYO Intermediate Boys A League. Vincent Squitiro of St. Anthony's remained first in individual scoring with a 181 average.

St. Anthony's II has slipped in to sixth place in the B League. Anthony Studenny's 132 average leads the team.

BHS Cagers Split Two Games In Closely Fought Contests

By ROGER WARTELL
Belleville High's cagers split two games last week as they edged out Irvington 65-54, and lost to Columbia 54-49. Both games were closely fought all the way with the outcome in doubt until the final seconds. The Blue and Gold's record now stands at 2-1, with three contests left to play. Their next opponent will be Orange, whom they will play at Belleville tomorrow.

Irvington jumped into an early lead against the Bellboys last Tuesday, and led at the end of the first quarter 12-8. The home team fought back gamely and shots by Tony Raimo and Ray Harmon knotted the score at 18 all midway in the second period. Belleville then took over the scoring and increased its advantage to 31-23 at the half. Larry Lozowski put in 14 points in the first half and kept the Campers in contention.

Led by Dave Hatch and Bob Byers, the Bellboys continued to maintain the lead and opened up a seven point spread by the end of the third quarter. Belled 48-42, the Campers rallied early in the last period and cut the margin to 51-48 with Belleville out in front. Larry Lozowski then hit on two long jump shots, tying up the score 52-52 with three minutes left in the game.

FINAL MINUTE

Irvington, making use of a full court press, shook up the Belleville squad and put in four baskets within a minute, to go ahead 60-52. After calling a time-out, the Bellboys began to find the range again and closed the visitors' lead to three points. Two quick baskets placed Belleville back into the lead 63-62 with 40 seconds remaining. Irvington then stalled waiting for a last shot. This strategy seemed to pay off as Lozowski sank a jumper at the ten-second mark. But with only two seconds left in the game Ray Harmon was fooled attempting to take a shot. With the count in the balance Harmon proceeded to sink both shots to give Belleville its second win.

AROUND THE TURN — Ed Dansky, of 63 Overhill Road find all angles o left, of 51 Overhill Road and Bill Denning — ice skating are fun.

READY TO GO — Maureen Smythe, left, of 13 Howard Place and Margaret Petroski of 10 Van Rensselaer Street balance in preparation as they take to the ice.

Ice skating has proved to be a popular activity for Belleville residents since the Essex County Park Commission stopped depending upon the weather by constructing two artificial ice rinks in the county — South Mountain Arena and Branch Brook Skating Rink. Branch Brook, which was first opened in 1957, offers skating six months of the year. It is brilliantly floodlighted for night sessions and equipped with an outstanding high fidelity music system. New, this year, is a parking area able to accommodate 230 cars immediately adjacent to the rink. Skaters are now able to park their cars within the walls of what was once a storage reservoir for the city of Newark and they can skate only a few steps away.

Branch Brook features afternoon sessions every day but Wednesday and evening periods every night but Sunday. Nighttime skating has been enhanced by soft lighting from new spotlights, making Branch Brook Rink an attractive spot for a date. Morning sessions on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday provide the opportunity for housewives to enjoy a leisurely skating period.

Keeping Pace with New Jersey's Future... that's Public Service

With the responsibility of serving nearly 80% of New Jersey's population with electricity and gas, the past year saw Public Service invest more than $120 million to expand its facilities. Without trying to count the proverbial eggs, Public Service sees no reason why New Jersey's growth pattern should change in 1962.

Your Income Tax

TAXPAYER ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE
Federal income tax returns must be filed by April 15 this year. The Newark District Office of the Internal Revenue Service, again reminds the public.

Taxpayers who need assistance on a question or two in preparing their returns were advised by the tax official to telephone the nearest revenue office. If more help is needed than can be given by phone, taxpayers should visit the revenue office.

Internal Revenue Service offices will be open for taxpayer assistance 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M. Mondays through Fridays, up to and including April 15. Taxpayers seeking help are urged by the acting director to telephone or visit revenue offices as soon as possible.

For prompt service, the tax officials advised taxpayers to have their returns on hand and the facts in mind before the call or visit is made.

WHO CAN USE

CARD FORM 1040-A Taxpayers having incomes up to $10,000 again may use the simple card Form 1040-A in filing their 1961 federal income tax returns, Mr. Hook said. Husband and wife may file a joint return on Form 1040-A if their combined income is under $10,000, he added. Taxpayers whose income consists of wages reported on Form W-2 and not more than $200 in dividends, interest and wages not subject to withholding, may use the short Form 1040-A.

He added:
"In using this form, taxpayers must take the standard ten per cent deduction allowed for contributions, interest payments, medical expenses and the like."

"As in past years, taxpayers with income under $5,000 may
Internal Revenue Service do it for them."

Mr. Hook said taxpayers can use Form 1040-A if they (1) claim status as "head of household" or "surviving spouse";
(2) claim credits for dividends received or retirement income;
(3) claim exclusion for
"stock pay"; (4) paid an estimated tax during the year; (5) claim travel, transportation or other expenses; (6) do not use the cash method; (7) are non-resident aliens; (8) are delinquent in filing their returns; (9) are subject to self-employment tax; or (10) itemize deductions or spouse itemizes deduction on a separate return.

Mr. Hook said if the taxpayer computes his own tax and finds additional tax due, "a check or money order, payable to 'Internal Revenue Service,' must accompany the return."

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS

REQUIRED
Mr. Hook reminded taxpayers they should include their social security numbers, if they have them, on their income tax returns and declarations of estimated tax, both due by April 16.

Recent legislation authorizes the Internal Revenue Service to require taxpayers to furnish information necessary for assignment of identifying numbers to them. Numbers so assigned are required to be included by taxpayers on their returns. The Service needs this additional identification under its automatic data processing of tax returns. This system is now being installed.

For an individual taxpayer, this identifying number will be his social security number.

Mr. Hook added that some 90 per cent of all taxpayers have been regularly entering their social security numbers on their returns, and they should continue to do so.

He said the Service is undertaking to supply number application forms to taxpayers who have never had a social security number, or who have forgotten theirs, to a minimum of inconvenience.

These application forms will be mailed to taxpayers who do not report social security numbers on their returns this year.

Mr. Hook said taxpayers who do not have numbers should file their returns without numbers and await receipt of this application rather than contact the Internal Revenue or Social Security independently. Persons requiring a social security number for employment purposes should, of course, apply in the regular way.

Dividend Income
MUST BE REPORTED
Dividends received by taxpayers during 1961 must be reported on federal income tax returns,
Mr. Hook said.

If you own stock in a corporation, the payments you receive out of the company's earnings and profits must be reported in your tax return.

"Usually, dividends are paid in cash, but if paid in merchandise or other property, they are taxable at their fair market value."

"You must report those dividends credited to your account as well as those which you actually receive."

"You also must report the dividends on your stock which is held in the name of your broker."

"Your distributable share of dividends from partnership, estates and trusts also must be reported."

"If you have any other questions about your federal income tax return, telephone your local Internal Revenue office."

THE PHYSICAL EFFORT required by jobs in industry today is well within the work capacity of most people with heart conditions. Your Heart Association says that the majority of persons suffering from most types of heart conditions can work at many kinds of jobs on an equal footing with non-cardiacs.

Mayor Proclaims February As Heart Month

Mayor Isadore J. Padula has proclaimed February as Heart Month in Belleville.

The mayor said leading heart authorities agree that medical science is on the verge of important breakthroughs. He called upon local citizens to help speed research advances urgently needed to alleviate suffering and protect hearts in this town.

"I urge our citizens, through their businesses, civic and service organizations and in their family circles to assist in achieving this victory by contributing generously to the Heart Fund drive of the Essex County Heart Association," he said.

The Heart Fund drive begins here today and will continue throughout the month. It will reach a high point during Heart Sunday, Feb. 25, when volunteers will ring doorbells throughout the residential areas of this town for contributions from their neighbors.

Joseph B. Grosch, Belleville Chairman, has called for 490 volunteers to help in the drive.

The Essex County Heart Association is a chapter of the American Heart Association, the nation's only voluntary health agency dedicated exclusively to combating the heart and blood vessel diseases. These diseases account for more deaths each year than all other causes combined.

Nearly every little country, and big ones as well, has an idea of getting money from Uncle Sam.

It's Girl Scout Cookie Time Again

GIRL SCOUTS point out that their annual cookie sale is here again. Pictured in their reminder are, from the left: Senior Scout, Barbara Regula; Brownie Scout Girl Scouts of Belleville are making their annual door-to-door campaign to sell Girl Scout cookies. The cookie sale began Saturday, Jan. 27.

Orders for five different varieties of cookies, baked especially for Girl Scouts, will be taken through Feb. 9.

Deliveries of cookies will take place Feb. 23 to March 5, according to Mrs. Anthony F. Moro. This represents a change in organization, since in the past cookies have been carried and sold simultaneously.

Teams of two or more Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scouts, will offer the town selling cookie mixes, a new cinnamon flavored cookie, double-fudge-filled, vanilla and assorted sandwich cookies.

"Girl Scouts sell cookies to help themselves," explained Mrs. A. H. Verhagen, district chairman. "We're not just asking for funds, we give full measure in the wonderful cookies we sell, and in this way are able to raise necessary money to help support the Girl Scout program."

The primary purpose of the Cookie Sales is for the development and improvement of camping properties, and to help defray part of the Girl Scout camp operating expenses, added Mrs. Verhagen.
