Spatz To Retire After 25 Years As Police Chief

CHIEF GEORGE R. SPATZ

Police Chief George R. Spatz, who has headed the Belleville Police Department for more than 25 years, can look back over his long career and say, "We certainly have had a lot of changes." The chief, who joined the department in 1924, will retire on March 4, his 65th birthday.

There are 67 men on the force today. When Chief Spatz joined, he was one of about 25 policemen. The force had grown to 40 when he became police head.

BELLEVILLE GROWS

Serving in all departmental posts except the cycle division, Chief Spatz has watched many developments in the force. "All Rosemead Police, Mothers' March Chairman."

Five Take Petitions For May Election

Five Belleville residents, including two commissioners, have taken out petitions to run in the May 8 election for the new form of council government.

During the past week Commissioner Nuccio R. Pico took out petitions for at-large and council seats. Kiernan is director of the Department of Parks and Public Property; Pico, of Public Affairs. Both are serving their fourth year on the council.

Three persons have taken the first steps in running for seats in the First Ward: Nicholas Raimo, 25 Harrison Street, took large seals and one person from out his petition first. A driver for each of two wards.

Principal Will Be Picked After School Elections

The post of principal at School No. 9 will remain vacant until after the school board election Feb. 13. A four-member majority led by Ernest S. Arvidson, succeeded in blocking the appointment for five days last week.

At a special meeting Friday, Mrs. William Bradley Wins Map Page Contest.

The winner of the week is Mrs. William V. Bradley of 66 Bernice Road, who correctly identified the map page personality as Mrs. Winifred M. Liddy of The Boston Store.

AN EDITORIAL

"Hostile Press" Cry Called Political Fake

The foregoing caption appeared over an article printed in a recent edition of the leading publication in the newspaper profession, "Editor and Publisher."

The news item is so appropriate to the local election scene these days that we believe its publication may serve a useful purpose.

The Times-News is being used as a "whipping-boy" by some organizations and Board of Education candidates who, unable to defend their records and statements against legitimate editorial comment, find it convenient to blame a "hostile and slanted press."

The "Editor and Publisher" article follows:

"State Senator James H. Snowden, of Wilmington, Delaware, berated his fellow politicians for using the press as a 'whipping boy' to hide their own blunders."

"Snowden, a Republican leader, said there are at least three ponderous political poses — three sacred cows — which slowly consume the truth with bovine placidity, and devour dollars, progress and principles, and yield nothing."

"There is an old saying," observed the Senator, "that when the law is on your side, pound the judge; when the facts are on your side, pound on the jury; and when you have neither the law nor the facts, pound on the table."

This admonition was apparently absorbed some time ago by unhappy politicians who couldn't effectively debate their opponents and dared not debate the public — so they attacked the press.

"The news media they learned, was a perfect whipping boy; it was impersonal, did not vote a straight ticket, and no matter how small the politician was, he looked bigger assaulting the press — a tissue paper David throwing pebbles at a newspaper Goliath — and although anyone could see through him, it aroused some sympathy."

"The party faithfully admired his brass if not his brains."

"Today, unhappily, this has become almost a standard practice. Whenever the popularity of a politician, a party, or a policy begins to shrink, some duly appointed mouthpiece utters the piteous wail, about the 'unobjective press' — and paints the Fourth Estate as a wicked, back-biting conspiracy that has invested millions in plant, personnel, and philosophy for the sole purpose of destroying that one politician or that one party, or that one policy."

"This is breast-beating of epic proportions — and withal it is singularly unrewarding, for the press does not shut down nor the politician shut up."

"Perhaps I am expecting too much to suggest that we politicians leave the press alone."

"To the sorely offended politician, of course, the word 'unobjective' means the press has taken the opposite of his particular point of view. You can dismiss, literally out of hand, the whines and petulant pouting about distortion and misquotation."

"Few reporters are hampered by poor eyesight or poor hearing, and in general they are painfully acute in winnowing through the barrage of political oratory to find the few statements that merit the description of news. It is almost useless, however, to point out that the best way to avoid misquotation or distortion is to think before speaking, for my brethren in the political fraternity are unaccustomed to such self-discipline."

"Thank heaven our reporters and editors approach the political scene with the patience of babysitters and the curiosity of clinical psychologists; what a travesty our papers would become if all the political mouthings were printed and given the interpretation the officeholder deemed 'objective.'"

"All of this is said, of course, with a certain amount of wry sympathy for the public official when, for some dilapidated act or thought, he is neatly stretched on the rack by an editor, or when some of his less carefully well-chosen words are recorded for posterity in all their banality and terminological inexactitude."

"Despite the sadistic enjoyment of watching some of my associates being spit and turned in the heat of their own blunders, what concerns me is the need to puncture the prominence, the alleged reasonableness of that sacred cow, the 'hostile press.'"

"Such hostility exists only in the minds of those who cannot accept the possibility that someone else also could be right. The politician who is determined to shroud his faulty judgment behind his phony war with the papers should remember that where ignorance is bliss, it is folly to read."

"But I care not one fig about his anemic conflicts with the press; I do, however, care that the public puts such conflicts in perspective — that the public realize that such histrionics are just camouflage for political error or the hunger pangs of wanting to be right even when wrong."

"For that reason alone — the sacred cow of the hostile press must be relegated where it belongs — to an amusement hall — it bears no relationship to civic morality that wrestling does to sport."

"It is a fake — let it be known as such."

Thirteen School Candidates Vie For Three Board Seats

$2 Million Budget Awaits Approval

Where To Vote

Despite a change in voting wards for the May municipal election, most voters this Tuesday vote in the same schools they have voted in for previous school elections. There are two exceptions to this.

Part of the voters who used to be in Ward Two, district 3 are now in Ward One, district 1. Those who are now in the new Ward One, district 7 will vote in School Eight. Under the former ward lines, these persons vote in School Nine.

Waltock Decries Politics In Grosch Block

Edward Waltock, candidate for one of the three seats on the school board at Tuesday's election said yesterday, "The recommendation of Joseph Grosch as Principal of School Nine by Dr. Frank M. Durkee meets with my wholehearted approval. It is dismaying to me to see the injection of politics with a school system position which should be above political deals," he said in a statement.

"Three times the citizens of Belleville have been compelled to put it out in the bleachers while politicians attempted to manipulate school board activity."

School Costs, Taxes Too High, Says Guglicelli

Albert Guglicelli Jr., a candidate for the Board of Education, attacked school costs and taxes this week as being too high.

"The five and one half point increase in the tax rate as presented by the school board is misleading," he charged in a statement.

"The use of $125,000 of surplus money in the budget made it possible. Last year it was a nine point increase in the tax rate. Another $100,000 in surplus was used to twist the facts."

"This year 267 teachers will receive a salary increase of $400 each, 31 custodians, $300 each."

Albertine Says Qualified Board Is Imperative

Michael V. Albertine, candidate for re-election to the Board of Education, emphasized this week the importance of the experience he has gained from serving on the board for the past three years. He stressed the need for continuity on the board at this time.

"I wish to urge the people of Belleville to vote on Tuesday, Feb. 13, from 2 to 9 p.m. The people you elect to the school board have a public trust of the school."

CANDIDATES' STATEMENTS

This issue of the Times-News carries statements of all candidates submitting releases to us. Four candidates did not submit to the Times-News closing campaign statements. They are Paul F. Bernhardt, George H. Brown, Paul Francisco and Mrs. Norma McCool.

REGISTRATION TONIGHT

Final registration tonight at the high school for adult school classes. The term begins Tuesday, Feb. 13. Twenty-two courses are being offered in this year's adult education program.

Less than 5,000 voters are expected to turn out Tuesday to elect three members of the Board of Education and to vote on a $2,044,879.50 budget, of which $2,181,017 will be raised by local taxes.

The polls open at town schools at 2 o'clock. They will remain open until 9 p.m.

With 13 candidates in the race for three board seats, voters seem to have a wider choice of candidates than they have of issues.

In the final days of the race, both candidates and voters have begun voicing disapproval of factions and states on the Board of Education. Candidates have repeated promises of independence if elected to the board.

Perhaps the only issue on which candidates have all given opinions is on the position of Superintendent of Schools.

INCUMBENTS

Incumbent members seeking re-election are Board president Dominic A. Lally and former Board president Dr. Frank M. Durkee, two of Dr. Frank M. Durkee's most dedicated supporters. In addition, Michael V. Albertine is seeking re-election for a second term. Albertine recently opposed Dr. Durkee's recommendation.

All candidates have said they would support the superintendent of schools and would allow him to carry out his duties. All said they would disagree with the superintendent if they thought his decision were detrimental to school progress.

Brown and Bernhardt took the strongest stand, saying they would dismiss a superintendent who was detrimental to the school.

Factionalism Has No Place Here, Says Peck

Board of Education members must not allow factionalism and personal feelings to affect their judgment, Calvin Peck, school board candidate, said this week.

Peck, seeking election to the board, said he was completely free from obligations to anyone and could act as an independent member if elected.

In a statement, he said: "Our scientific, cultural and economic growth, and our political strength as a nation will depend largely upon the educational facilities we make available to our youth. We owe it to ourselves as a nation and we owe it to our young people who will inherit this nation to provide the aid that will make our schools second to none."

Better Education Is Only Issue, Says Di Rienzo

There is no need to create issues in the Board of Education campaign, said John B. Di Rienzo, candidate for the board. There is one very important issue facing the community, he said. This is the improvement of educational facilities and the expansion of educational facilities.

"In my opinion the foremost issue facing our community is the preservation and restoration of our educational system and its continued progressive improvement to meet the demands of our ever changing times," he said in a statement.

"For the first time in many years Belleville has an opportunity to add sorely needed facilities to an educational system which has remained unchanged for a long period of time."

"I submit this is no time for wrangling, making statements of recommendation for action on the School Nine principalship.

The ten challengers in alphabetical order are as follows: Paul F. Bernhardt, George H. Brown, Ted Del Guercio, John B. Di Rienzo, Paul Francisco, Albert Guglicelli Jr., Mrs. Norma McCool, Calvin Peck, Ralph M. Risoli and Edward L. Waltock.

All candidates have said they would support the superintendent of schools and would allow him to carry out his duties. All said they would disagree with the superintendent if they thought his decision were detrimental to school progress.

Brown and Bernhardt took the strongest stand, saying they would dismiss a superintendent who was detrimental to the school.

Board Must Back Superintendent, Insists Lally

School board members must support the Superintendent of Schools, said Dominic A. Lally, board president. Lally, who is seeking re-election, said members must consider the superintendent as the executive officer of the board.

"The successful school board member is anxious and willing to support the program of educational activities of the school system on whose board of trustees he serves," Lally said this week in a statement.

"This support does not diminish in backing the superintendent and his staff in professional matters. Those board members who cannot accept the delegation of the management of their schools

Factions Entwine With "Deals," Says Del Guercio

Ted Del Guercio, candidate for the Board of Education, repeated his promises of independent action if elected to the school board. He charged that factions and organizational propaganda were harming the town's educational system and strangling the Superintendent of Schools.

In a statement this week, Del Guercio said:

"On Tuesday, Feb. 13, 1962, you will cast your ballot for the three people you feel are qualified to fill the three vacancies which exist on the present Board of Education. I am certain that away." Mrs. Bradley is very fond of the Boston Store since her husband owns Bradley's Tire Service across the street. "I do all the books for my husband," said Mrs. Bradley. With two children, Dorene, 12, and Richard, 8, Mrs. Bradley does her office work at home.

She was a map page winner about six months ago, again thanks to her husband's business. The person on the map page was a Bradley's Tire Service customer.

Readers are invited to identify this person and the spot where the picture was taken. The first one to do so—by mail or in person at the office of the Times—will receive an award of $5.

Please note: Identification of the person and place must be coming by the office of the Times, 246 Washington Avenue, or by mail. Phone calls will not be accepted.

It is important in playing this fascinating game of identification to note these simple rules: 1) the winner must tell us who the person is whose photo is circled and where the picture was taken. 2) Entries in the contest must be made in person or by mail. NOT by phone; 3) the prize will be awarded to the one who submits the first correct identification; 4) all decisions by the Times are final; only one entry per family is permitted; 5) contest deadline is 5 p.m. Monday. Failure to follow contest rules in all respects is cause for disqualification.

If no one identifies the circled photo and the place where the picture was taken, the prize money will be added to the following week's award.

Each week The Times staff photographer will take a similar picture somewhere in Belleville. Each week the picture will appear on the map page and test your ingenuity—and your power of observation. It can be lots of fun. Get started now. Work fast. Be the first to come to the office with the right answers! Remember, being the winner.

you have taken the time to evaluate each and every candidate for his merits and weaknesses. Being one who fully appreciates and adheres to the democracy we so enjoy, I commend you. It is wonderful that under our form of government we are allowed to make the final decision pertaining to those we wish to carry on in our behalf.

"A number of people have commented to me that they are encountering difficulty in making up their minds. I think these people have been confused a great deal by organizational propaganda. As rational beings, you have that intrinsic quality which allows you the freedom of choice. It is imperative that you exercise this quality at this time.

"I believe that the time has come to give the government back to the people. A reform is necessary in order that organizational control over this community may be eliminated. The word 'deal' has become a universal term within the confines of this community.

NO DEALS

"We, as people, are not interested in 'deals' in any manner, shape or form. We can and will do without this evil. We, as whoisome and common people, should be interested in progression and betterment. That is your purpose on this earth. I, for one, do not believe that a person stands still. I am convinced that you are either progressive or regressive. I think you will agree.

"We can hear on any corner that 'so and so has been cut out' or 'so and so is now teamed with so and so.'

"I am not interested in team representation. I am interested in an individual who is capable of determining for himself that which is for the betterment of this community; and more specifically the future of the school system and its occupants.

"As I have stated in the past, a child coming into adulthood in the next decade and subsequent decades, must be one who is capable of specialization. He will have his hands full learning all he can as fast as he can. Progress does not consider chronological years; following World War II have repeatedly demonstrated this point. Complacency has no future. A determined child is the one who will meet the challenge.

"Why should you or I put this in the hands of organized entities who really are not concerned with child progression; whose only purpose is to strangle the growth of a political leader who may satisfy his lust for power of who wish to practice bigotry?

INTERESTED IN THE CHILD

"I will say here and now that I want no part of such happenings. I am interested in the child, the money used to support the betterment of this child—where it is going—and what can be done to make the out-going student more useful to himself and society.

"I do not care if an educator has dots on him. If he or she is the person for the job, I am for them. If not, I have no interest.

"This is my last chance to come into your homes through the media of the press. I wish to thank each and everyone of you who have been kind enough to take a few minutes to read my views. I would also like to thank The Belleville Times for having extended its facility to me.

INDEPENDENT

"As an independent candidate, I urge you to elect me. I promise you the type of cooperation and representation which you have not been receiving. Let us be progressive together. We have all seen the confusion which has existed on the present board. I think we have been kind enough to let us cut out the nonsense and get the job done as soon as possible. Time waits for no one."

Risoli

"Has the Board of Education stopped to realize that if the three parochial schools in Belleville decided to go along with the proposed junior high school program, eliminating their seventh and eighth grades, that this move would pour over 600 students into the proposed junior high school and would cause a catastrophe in our educational program because our school system would not be able to handle this condition, plus the fact that it would cost over $300,000 a year for their education. An increase of over 60 points in your already overburdened tax rate?

"KING-SIZE HEADACHE"

"Has the Board of Education stopped to realize that the juvenile delinquency problem is fast becoming a king-size headache, and more so in communities that have adopted a junior high school system, which system embodies children in the 12 and 13 age groups? Today these 12-year-olds will consider themselves junior high school teens and will be getting away beyond the control of their parents.

"It must be clearly understood that your 12 or 13 year old child will be compelled to walk rain or shine, from practically all areas of town to the junior high school on Washington Avenue, if this is established. The young children will be away from home from 8 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

"The Board of Education failed to tell the taxpayers that in transferring the present high school to a junior high school, we will need the following: a principal, vice principal, teachers, office personnel, at least six custodians and more guidance counselors. This will be an annual burden in taxes of over one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

PREVENT JUNIOR HIGH

"Therefore, I strongly urge the parents of Belleville to join with me in trying to prevent the establishment of a junior high school program, which I believe is unnecessary, too costly and will not eliminate the overcrowded condition.

If elected I will propose to convert the old Belleville High School into a consolidated centralized Administration Building, which will house the following agencies:

1. A Modern Health Center;
2. Free Dental Clinic; 3. Police Department; 4. Fire Department; 5. Public Works Department; 6. Public Affairs Department; 7. Revenue and Finance Department; 8. Recreation Department; 9. Youth Center; 10. Municipal Court; 11. Civilian Defense Headquarters; 12. Community Recreation Center; 13. Welfare Department; 14. A municipal parking lot adjacent to the building, capable of parking 200 cars; 15. All other agencies that may pertain to municipal government.

SELL TOWN HALL

"If the above Administration Building program is adopted, I will propose to the governing bodies that they sell the present town hall and all other town owned buildings at approximately $750,000.

If adopted, future plans to build a new Town Hall at a cost of over $2,000,000 will be abandoned. This proposal will cut down our sky-rocketing tax rate."

solely for the purpose of hiding the true issue, educational improvement. This is not the time for creating issues which are non-existent.

RESTORE EDUCATION

"It is a time for renewed dedication and a doubled effort toward the task of restoring the quality of education to our community which our young people deserve. It is their birthright, and which is the privilege of the citizenry to provide.

"To me the most important single facet of community life in a democracy is to adequately train and educate the young people. If we neglect the proper education and training of our children, the greatest single resource in any community, can we as citizens say to ourselves that we are doing the utmost to safeguard and defend our way of life, the system of free enterprise?

"Let us not lose sight of the fact that the young people we are educating today will be the salvation of our free economy tomorrow and in the future. I say let us not short change them. As it is we have not moved fast enough nor aggressively enough in the field of education, but above all let us not stagnate.

"It is not enough for us as citizens to be critical for criticism without constructive suggestion is valueless. I have not concerned myself with personalities. My chief concern is to dedicate my efforts, abilities and training toward the goal of providing the best education possible for the children of our community commensurate with our ability to pay for it.

BEST ASSET

"What greater asset can any community possess than an enlightened citizenry that understands, knows how, and why our free economic system works. But most important of all, good basic education provides the motivation that we all have a stake in the future preservation of our way of life.

"Sound education is the salvation of our nation, the key to survival in the future complex changing world. Therefore, what greater or more precious legacy can we give our children than a good sound basic education to prepare them for the future.

"As to my background, I have been active in school and other civic affairs for the past 13½ years. I have served as treasurer for two years and president for two years of School 5, PTA, and I am presently a member of the Executive Board of the same organization. Recently, I served as chairman on various sub-committees of the Citizens' School Building Advisory Committee.

ADVANCED DEGREES

"I was educated in the Nutley schools, received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemical Engineering from the Newark College of Engineering, and a Master of Science Degree from Stevens Institute of Technology. Recently, I attended the University of Michigan to study business administration and management.

"I have been employed by the Public Service Electric & Gas Co. for the past 28 years. For the last 20 years I have held various engineering and management positions. During the past 20 years that I have worked as an engineer and manager, I have acquired many skills which I believe will be a valuable asset to me as a board member."

Peck

"This is of vital importance to our community and cannot be accomplished unless we elect to our Board of Education members who can and will sit down, discuss and arbitrate the issues as they come before the board to a successful and logical conclusion. There is no place on our board for members who allow factionalism and personal feelings to adversely affect their judgment in deciding school matters involving our children.

"COMPLETELY FREE"

"Again I state since I have never mixed in political activities, having never belonged to, endorsed or actively worked for any political group or individual, I am not indebted or obligated to anyone and am completely free to use my own judgment and common sense in determining board policy and action. This policy combined with my years of experience and personnel relations in the business world will enable me to be a useful and successful board member.

"It is my aim if elected on Feb. 13:

- "1. To expedite the completion of the school building program by conversion to a K-6-3 system to a successful completion by September 1963. This will provide the necessary facilities to meet the actual needs of the students in our community and insure our children with the proper tools of learning so they are equipped to meet the challenges of the future equally as well as competing students from other communities.
- "2. To help to promote good will and understanding between the board members and the Superintendent of Schools and his staff.
- "3. To protect and insure the right of our citizens to appear before and address the board on matters pertaining to our school system.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

"4. To encourage our teachers and the personnel to put forth their best efforts by working for a grievance procedure which will allow them to present their complaints without fear of reprisal.

"5. To see full accreditation restored to our school system.

"6. To work for improved conditions in our high school cafeteria as well as toilet and locker facilities in our school buildings.

"This entire program is motivated by my desire to give, not only to my own child, but to all the children throughout the town the best education we possibly can within the financial means of myself and my fellow taxpayers.

"To you the voters I sincerely and honestly offer this statement in the hope it will encourage you to come to the polls on Tuesday, Feb. 13 and cast your vote for No. 33 on the voting machine."

to the professionally trained and experienced superintendents should not attempt to gain membership on public school boards.

"The status of the public school superintendent should be recognized on par with the board of education. His position as executive officer of the board should be fully accepted by members of the board and by the public.

COMPLETE CHANGE

He should have complete charge of directing the activities of the schools and be responsible for all the details of administering the school system.

"This is the only fair measure in expecting a superintendent to accept responsibility for results.

"Lack of mutual understanding between the board members and school superintendent relative to their respective duties may become a serious handicap to intelligent, congenial and cooperative action. One thing that must be remembered by both superintendent and board members is the benefit of boys and girls."

"Take for example Dr. Durkee's appointment as School Superintendent. One school board member, not up for reelection at this time uses the pretense that he opposed Dr. Durkee because of the manner in which the appointment was made when all along he was espousing the candidacy of an out-of-towner.

The second example is that of General School Supervisor Michael Rosamilia. After a couple of delays Rosamilia finally received the appointment but the school board members now seeking reelection when this matter came up for consideration by the board?

"School Board Member Michael Albertine originally voted to postpone action on the appointment and finally, when the board was ready to act Mr. Albertine didn't even attend the meeting.

"SPECTACULAR"

"And how we have witnessed another Belleville spectacular—the appointment of Joseph Groesch as Principal of School Nine. It is common knowledge that Joe Groesch would be Principal today if Dr. Durkee were willing to play politics with other appointments.

"I am happy for the welfare of our children that Dr. Durkee refused to bend to the pressures of politicians.

"If a majority of voters believe that I can serve a useful purpose as a board member I pledge that politics will never guide my decisions as a school board member. I further pledge to support board rules permitting Dr. Durkee to screen all candidates for all positions and recommend to the board one candidate at a time for each existing vacancy.

"Regardless how you intend to vote please visit the polls Tuesday and vote. There are 19 names on the ballot and surely among them you will find three candidates in whom you will want to place your trust."

highest order," he said in a statement.

"It is important to bear in mind the following pre-requisites which I have stressed in preceding statements:

"A qualified Board of Education is imperative at this time. It is necessary that board members have the maturity that comes with experience together with a sincere belief in and a willingness to work for the highest degree of public education that our community can demand and afford. It is equally important to have continuity of representation in order to insure the proper functioning of the board in the best interests of the community and the students.

UNITED EFFORT

"The experience I have gained during the past three years enables me to give support and encouragement to the administration, the principals and the teachers in a united effort to raise the standard of teaching and to enrich the curriculum.

"If I am re-elected, I will once again represent all of the people of Belleville, not just a group, organization or individual. I am an independent candidate.

"For a consistent policy and decisive action to insure the success of a new school program, I am once again asking for your program.

WISE SPENDING

Bernhardt, Francisco, Guglielmo and Mrs. McCool have stressed the economic side of the school building program, which was approved by voters Dec. 21. They have all emphasized the importance of wise spending.

The four, along with Risoli, are not in complete agreement with the planned switch to a junior high—senior high school system. Bernhardt, Francisco and Mrs. McCool said they would study the whole system more fully. Risoli said he would fight to stop the adoption of the junior high program.

of tomorrow, the adults of today, must not sell their children's birthright for a 'mess of pottage.'

"If the voters in the Board of Education election will take the time to examine all candidates in terms of civic responsibility, they will not fail their children and the schools.

"In the board campaign I have outlined a course of civic responsibility as a board member: (1) support of the Superintendent of Schools; (2) support of the experts in building the new high school; (3) improved school facilities for all grades; (4) a quality curriculum for all grades; and (5) over-allaries, including a $400 pay increase for all teachers.

"I believe in accentuating the positive in Belleville. From this can come better schools and a greater Belleville. These things, I believe, the people want and need. My re-election will help to assure them. Please exercise your constitutional rights—by calling on yours and on my friends to cast a positive vote for me and for 'Continued Progress in Education.'"

President Kennedy Hails

Donald Hulme's Victory

President John F. Kennedy extended his congratulations last week to Belleville's Donald Hulme for winning the 1961 World Accordion Championship. Hulme received a letter from the White House from Ralph A. Duncan, special assistant to the President.

"On behalf of the President," stated part of the letter, "I would like to extend belated congratulations to you on becoming the 1961 World Accordion Champion. This is indeed an accomplishment, and the President feels sure you represented our country well."

The letter was signed, "With the President's very best wishes," Hulme won the World Accordion Olympics in Italy last September. Funds for the trip were raised by local civic efforts.

Recently Hulme joined the faculty of Camden Accordion School, Camden. He will teach there one day a week. This Sunday, Feb. 11, he will give a concert in Camden in the main ballroom of the Walt Whitman Hotel.

"If the voters in the Board of Education election will take the time to examine all candidates in terms of civic responsibility, they will not fail their children and the schools.

"In the board campaign I have outlined a course of civic responsibility as a board member: (1) support of the Superintendent of Schools; (2) support of the experts in building the new high school; (3) improved school facilities for all grades; (4) a quality curriculum for all grades; and (5) over-allaries, including a $400 pay increase for all teachers.

President Kennedy Hails

Donald Hulme's Victory

President John F. Kennedy extended his congratulations last week to Belleville's Donald Hulme for winning the 1961 World Accordion Championship. Hulme received a letter from the White House from Ralph A. Duncan, special assistant to the President.

"On behalf of the President," stated part of the letter, "I would like to extend belated congratulations to you on becoming the 1961 World Accordion Champion. This is indeed an accomplishment, and the President feels sure you represented our country well."

The letter was signed, "With the President's very best wishes," Hulme won the World Accordion Olympics in Italy last September. Funds for the trip were raised by local civic efforts.

Recently Hulme joined the faculty of Camden Accordion School, Camden. He will teach there one day a week. This Sunday, Feb. 11, he will give a concert in Camden in the main ballroom of the Walt Whitman Hotel.

Masked Bandit Enters Meeting Of Retired Men

A masked bandit approached the secretary's desk during a recent meeting of the Retired Men's Club. He ignored the cash box and merely demanded recognition, claiming his name had been omitted from the club list. He removed his black mask and Leone Ranger had revealed himself as William Riskey of 116 Mill Street, an active member of the group. He also works with the Boy's Club and Senior Citizens Club of Newark.

Members don't suspect that there is another bandit present at every meeting of the club. This one is known in all states east of the Mississippi River as the "Old Bearded Bandit of Belleville," and although he no longer has the long white beard attributed to him, the name still sticks.

Amateur radio operators in those states readily recognize the real "bandit" as William G. Hunt, local CD assistant and secretary, who is official Traffic Relay and Bulletin station operator for northern New Jersey. Retired men know Hunt as their Wednesday morning musical accompanist, but radio hams know him by his "bandit" tag.

KIWANIS HEAR ABOUT WORLD'S FAIR

Kiwanis members recently heard Louis B. Ames, cultural program director of New York World's Fair, speak on plans for the 1964-65 event. Ames complemented his talk with pictures.

Thomas J. McLaughlin is program chairman.

Unico, a service organization, gives an annual Halloween party for the more than 200 youngsters who attend the center regularly for treatment and schooling. The Belleville Unico chapter, which also provides refreshments at the center's Christmas party, raises funds through dinner dances, card parties and fashion shows.

Led by one of the center's occupational therapists and a specially trained teacher, the group is an innovation in programming for cerebral palsied young adults who are often at home with little to occupy their time. Called the Community Relations Group, a nucleus of six young people from 16 to 22 years of age meet three days a week to learn marketable crafts.

A showcase for their work, most of which will be fired in the new kiln, is planned at the center. The group, in addition, is designed to relate these youths to the community as a whole and to provide them with a social experience. The center also hopes to prepare some of the members to enter the workshop of the Occupational Center of Essex County.

Boy Scout Anniversary To Be Observed In Local Churches And Synagogues

The 52nd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America will be observed in scores of Newark, Irvington and Belleville churches and synagogues during the area of the Robert Treat Council this week-end. Boy Scout Sunday is Feb. 11.

As this anniversary recognizes the contributions to family life and the community by the Scouts and Explorers will attend services in uniform with their parents.

Scouts of Jewish faith will attend Scout Sabbath services Friday evening, Feb. 9, and Saturday, Feb. 10.

The Boy Scouts of America believe that no boy can grow to successful manhood without a firm belief in God. As the Scout keeps himself physically strong by training, so he builds himself spiritually by practicing his religion.

SCOUT LAW

The twelfth point of the Scout Law reads:

"A Scout is Reverent. He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion."

Some Scouts go further and give special service to their church or synagogue. This may qualify them for a religious award. This is not a scouting award. It is given by the church and synagogue after he has worked very closely with his minister, priest, Rabbi, ward bishop or spiritual advisor.

The scout movement works with all religious bodies by suggesting the religious awards for the religious awards.

Each religious award requires the scout to learn the history of his church, become familiar with the scriptures, and take an active part in his church or synagogue as well as give personal service in special projects assigned by his religious leader.

RELIGIOUS AWARD

Each year Boy Scouts and Explorers of the Robert Treat Council earn the religious awards of their faiths. The award consists of a medal suspended from a colorful ribbon.

Nationally 49.9 per cent of all Scout units are sponsored by religious bodies. This totals 65,094. More than half the units are sponsored by the churches and synagogues within the Robert Treat Council.

The Ad Altare Dei for Scouts who are Roman Catholics is a bronze cross suspended by a ribbon in national and papal colors. It was earned by 13,672 Scouts and Explorers in 1960.

GOD AND COUNTRY

A total of 10,018 God and Country awards were won by Scouts of Protestant faith in 1960. The design is taken from the shield of the crusaders featuring a red cross on a white background. The ribbon is blue.

Some 1,123 Scouts of Lutheran faith earned the Pro Deo at Patria Award in 1960. The design is the same as the God and Country Award, but the inscription on the bar is in Latin instead of English.

Some 615 Ner Tamid Awards went to Scouts of Jewish faith in 1960. The design represents the Eternal Light found above the Holy Ark in every synagogue.

Some 2,478 Scouts of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints received the Duty to God award in 1960. The design is a buffalo skull with a replica of the Salt Lake City temple.

The Sangha Award for Scouts who are Buddhists shows the Wheel of the Most Excellent Law as created by Gautama Buddha. Scouts who are Moslems may qualify for an "In the Name of God" Award. Boys of the Unitarian-Universalist Churches may earn the "Religion in Life" Award.

Art Exhibit Week In Elementary Schools

Belleville Elementary Public Schools are having Art Exhibit Week, Feb. 5-9. Teachers have on display the work of their students, and parents and interested citizens are invited to visit the schools any day during this week or during the special viewing session provided in each school. Evening sessions have been provided in each school as follows:

Feb. 5 - Schools One, Three, Nine.

Feb. 6 - School Two.

Feb. 7 - Schools Four, Five, Seven.

Feb. 8 - Schools Eight, Ten.

Director of Art P. Webster Diehl and his staff, Mrs. Nora Deleuw and Miss Helen Simpson, work throughout the week with the elementary school teachers in developing basic art concepts and integrating art education as part of the education of each grade.

The art program of Belleville Elementary Schools required $6,783.00 for art materials during the school year plus the salaries of instructors, $39,071.45.

VIEW WORK

The people have an opportunity to see the work being done by the teachers in the Art Department in the event of the special opportunity of seeing the work of their own children.

In the new school program now in the planning stage, when Belleville will have a K-3-3 organization, September, 1963, there will be three separate art departments: elementary school, junior high school, and senior high school. The significant change will be that students in grades 7-8 will then be served by an art department in their own building on a full-time basis instead of the present part-time help received from traveling art teachers in eight elementary schools.

Art education, Dr. Frank M. Durkee, Superintendent of Schools, pointed out, will be improving each year if the Belleville schools.

P.S. Prepares For Defense

In co-operation with the plans of the federal government for national defense, Public Service Electric and Gas Company has joined the ever-growing list of business and industrial firms that have prepared men for emergency defense work.

The company recently completed the training of a group of employees designated as chief monitors and inspectors. Approximately 200 employees, from all departments of the company, attended a series of classes conducted during the past three months at the Essex and Burlington generating stations and the New Brunswick, Hackensack and Orange - Montclair gas distribution headquarters.

The employees have been taught the techniques of protecting themselves, their fellow employees, their families and the public in the event of a nuclear attack on the United States, followed by radioactive fallout over large sections of the country. Much of the work during class sessions was devoted to teaching "monitors" how to use radiation survey meters, often known as Geiger counters.

Veterans Give Voting Advice

The education committee of the Disabled American Veterans of Belleville has issued advice to Belleville citizens.

"In a few weeks we shall go to the polls to elect three members to the Board of Education. Every voter should study the qualifications of each individual candidate and vote according to each individual's ability to do a good job.

"There is no place in education for political or any other kind of ticket to gain a foothold in the educational set-up of our schools. Citizens should vote for candidates that are put up and bound to answer to a central authority, and who will vote as a health agency in 1948.

For Our Children's Sake, Maybe, Will You Think Twice Before Voting Tuesday?

As most of the Eastern Seaboard knows, Tuesday is a special day for Belleville, its citizens, its children, its taxpayers, its school personnel. It is school board election day.

Thirteen candidates are vying for three seats on the School Board. There are as many people outside of Belleville interested in Tuesday's election results as there are within our boundaries.

Machiavellian manipulation of our school system is the real issue to be settled Tuesday. Our neighbors in surrounding communities — and states too — (for the story of Belleville's infamous loss of accreditation was carried across the land by the nation's daily newspapers), are waiting to see who will win Tuesday — the politicians — or our children. So are some of our genuinely interested local citizens.

The 5500 children attending our public school system will have no voice in the election next Tuesday. But of one thing we can all be sure — every child attending Belleville schools will be affected by the election results. Teacher morale will experience a mercurial rise — or — as the alternative — will sag to a new low.

If by your action on Tuesday you express a vote of confidence in the political manipulators of our school system, the message for sure, will get through to our teachers, school clerks, custodians, and principals. You know the result.

DRAGGED THROUGH THE MUD

Three top school posts — and three of our top educators were dragged through the mud within the past six months by political manipulators on the School Board. In August it was the position of School Superintendent — and the outstanding educator who finally received the appointment, Dr. Frank Durkee.

In November it was the position of General Supervisor of our School System — and the career educator who finally received the appointment, native-born Michael Rosamilia. And now — the position is Principal of School Nine — and Dr. Durkee's highly qualified candidate, Joseph Grosch, a local school teacher and civic leader.

The School Nine Principalship has involved the most bizarre and brazen political deals ever conceived by man.

Michael Albertaine has been insisting that he would vote for Dr. Durkee's recommendation of Joseph Grosch to be School Nine Principal if at the same time Dr. Durkee agreed to appoint an Albertaine choice as Belleville High School Football Coach, a vacancy existing by reason of the Board's termination of Ed Berlinski's contract.

Albertaine is boldly looking for votes — and he believed he discovered a nestful in the appointment of a football coach — the School Nine Principalship mattered not — never mind the next generation — all Albertaine is interested in is the next election.

By his action in this instance Albertaine has invited defeat. Perhaps it is just as well. It is easy for Albertaine to be the symbol of a School Board Politician — for he seized every opportunity to prove such a point during the past two weeks.

Win or Lose — Board President Dominic Lally and former Board President Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, in the three cases mentioned above, have been consistently on the side of education and against the politicians. They supported the appointment of Dr. Frank Durkee. They voted for Dr. Durkee's recommendation of Michael Rosamilia as General Supervisor of our school system. They voted for Dr. Durkee's recommendation of Joseph Grosch to be School Nine Principal.

On the dollars and cents side Board President Dominic Lally rendered distinguished service. Because of his engineering and construction skills and knowledge he saved Belleville taxpayers $10,000 in the renovation costs of the Clearman Field fieldhouse. The Board wanted to contract the work at a cost of $18,000. Lally did it his way and the repairs cost the taxpayers $8,000.

Lally saved Belleville taxpayers another $13,000 because he insisted the outside wall at School Three need not be replaced but should be buttressed with concrete columns. The Lally proposal was adopted, netting taxpayers a $13,000 saving.

a seat on the board there are excellent candidates.

For those citizens who desire the female touch we have Mrs. Norma McCool, a mother and a businesswoman. She opposes the Junior High School setup. Primarily her campaign has been developed around the theme that we should consider closing down some grade schools and maybe continue a full four year high school, thus eliminating the use of the present high school on Washington Avenue. Mrs. McCool's proposals are diametrically opposed to the recommendations of the educational experts, from the staffs of Rutgers and Columbia Universities, who made studies of our needs.

Ralph Risoli is a candidate once again. Here is a man that every citizen should see and hear. He is so anxious to serve the public, Ralph runs for almost any public office up for grabs.

His proposals to abandon the present high school for educational purposes and utilize it for municipal purposes has merit and bears study. Risoli emphatically states that a Junior High School contributes to juvenile delinquency. We don't buy this pitch.

Regarding Risoli, we believe his talent and dedication could be used to greater advantage in some other capacity than as a member of the School Board. We believe he is running for the wrong office in the wrong election.

George Brown is a former board member. Among the most qualified of the challengers, Brown started his campaign on the wrong foot. He accused the board of "indecent haste" in the selection of Dr. Durkee as School Superintendent. He made other charges too. And all were baseless.

If Brown is elected, for the best interests of our school children we hope he turns his back upon school-board-faction politics and gets on with the business of providing our future citizens with the best educational opportunities at the lowest possible cost.

John DiRienzo is a self-made man. A chemical engineer, he is well qualified by education and experience to serve on our school board. As a taxpayer and father of two children attending our public schools, DiRienzo can be relied upon to serve both interests with a sense of balance. He has publicly stated his support of the principle that the office of School Superintendent should be above and beyond the reach of politicians.

Calvin Peck worked hard on the Citizens' Committee for the new high school. He is employed at the supervisory level with Public Service. Peck believes "In Dr. Frank Durkee we have a highly qualified superintendent. It is not my intention to impede the School Superintendent in carrying out his duties in any way."

Edward Walcott has repeatedly asserted the need to keep our school board free of personal rancor and petty politics. He has pledged 100 per cent support to Dr. Frank Durkee, insisting that the School Superintendent be free to screen all candidates and make a single recommendation to the board for its acceptance or rejection. For citizens who desire to elect a dedicated supporter of Dr. Durkee on the School Board, Walcott invites their votes.

Ted Del Guercio has much to offer. He joins Walcott in 100 per cent support of Dr. Durkee. Del Guercio played professional baseball for 13 years. He is a graduate of Seton Hall University and holds a B.S. in Education. Del Guercio wants to raise the level of Belleville High School's reputation, with an added emphasis on sports. For our sports-minded voters, Del Guercio's candidacy is made-to-order.

Albert Guglicelli Jr. is a reluctant candidate. After filing his petition of candidacy, Guglicelli decided to withdraw from the race only to find that election laws prohibit a candidate from withdrawing a candidacy. A withdrawal petition necessitates the signatures of the original signers of the petition of candidacy. Guglicelli is a good, well-intentioned soul. Shortly after the campaign got under way he decided there were others in the race who were equally qualified and who shared his school board philosophy.

Guglicelli's decision to withdraw was wise. Since his name appears on the ballot — against his wishes — obviously a vote cast for Guglicelli would be wasted.

Paul Bernhardt, nobody's fool, seems to leave the impression that, if elected, he would make every effort to turn back the clock. Since four present members of the School Board will continue membership regardless of what happens next Tuesday, the citizens in effect will be electing board members to carry on the basic spending policies of the 1961 School Board. Bernhardt is opposed to those policies and, in the light of the foregoing, it is difficult to understand how his election can serve any useful purpose. If

Scores Slate Candidates' Factionalism

Dear Editor:

It follows as surely as night follows day that candidates who align themselves with special groups seeking election of special people must as a condition of their employment be adherent to the group's special interest. Protestations to the contrary indicate self-deception.

The A.B.C. and the C.T.C. were created for the express purpose of advancing the position of men and women who aspire to be leaders but do not possess the qualities which would attract the support of thoughtful independent voters. Consequently they must shroud themselves in a utopian cloak and affect change and cause confusion under the guise of crusades and reforms.

Nevertheless a faction by any other name is still a faction, and two of the world's most illustrious authors and thinkers warned away back in 1776 in these words: "DEMON OF DISCORD."

"Faction is the demon of discord armed with power to do endless mischief, and intent only on destroying whatever opposes its progress—Woe to that state in which it has found an entrance." — George Crabbe 1784-1832 and his fellow compatriot said it this way.

"Faction is the excess and abuse of party — It begins when the first idea of private interest, preferred to public good, gets footing in the heart. — It is always dangerous, yet always contemptible." — Richard Chenevix 1774-1830.

The two factions which we are concerned with today are just as dangerous and just as contemptible.

"SUPER CONCERN" The A.B.C. under the pretense of super concern for the school building program are willing to run the risk of working in vain to satisfy their individual grudges and prejudices. It is not, "the manner in which Dr. Durkee was appointed," that is the issue but rather the fact that board members Julian Arvidson and Drake were not able to block his appointment because they were unable to control a fourth vote.

They knew then as they know now that Dr. Durkee will not play favorites at the expense of the taxpayers' pocketbooks. They know that Dr. Durkee is a dedicated educator who knows and does his job well and would not hesitate to go to the people with any problem which he felt was being fostered upon him which was not in the best interest of the townspeople and the education of their children. Dr. Durkee may be appointed by the board but his real employees are the people.

The incumbents demonstrated their support of this policy but the J.A.D. three went to the A.B.C. three seeking a fourth for this game.

Mr. Brown must certainly object to the method that succeeded in thwarting the plot to discard the man who made it possible for the people to regain faith in their fight for a new high school, whose personal integrity and leadership rallied the support of lay, business and professional people and tackled our problem with such vigor that the ultimate results had to be victory.

PERSONAL GRUDGES As for those with personal grudges against individual board members I have only pity for their inability to rise above themselves. To those who are using prejudice directed at people for their national origin I can only remind them that this is the weapon of the Un-American, and if John DiRienzo and Calvin Peck do not know that George Brown is a Jew, they have been backward in not uncertain terms.

Next the C.T.C. having tasted victory in the change movement can hardly conceal their greed for more power. Openly and unashamedly their candidates speak with two faces, attacking the incumbents and school building program in one breath and promising to support it with the next. Paul Bernhardt says the average citizen knows nothing about the affairs of his child's education. He considers us all too stupid to understand any of the discussion and information which we have been listening to all these months. The Educators are too expert and should leave it to the C.T.C. "do it yourselves."

CLEAR CHOICE C.T.C. spokesmen insistently lamented the lack of a choice in the school referendum on Feb. 13 the choice will be clear and unmistakable.

Factions stand for conflict, dissension and obstruction.

The incumbents stand for unity, progress and achievement.

Of the other candidates I make these observations: Mr. Del Guercio seems to have an unstable equilibrium in his make up which carries him from job to job. He has not yet found his place in industry or profession and I don't feel we ought to allow him to experiment on our B. of E. Mr. Risoli is waiting his talents as a comedian he is a natural.

EDWARD WALCOTT Edward Walcott is the only other candidate who shows a deep understanding of our school problems and has the most promising of all the candidates. I view we have heard in our town in a long time. He is a hard worker with the best interest of our children at heart.

I recommend any three of the following four:

Dominic Lally, Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, Michael Albertaine and Edward Walcott.

To all voters whether your children are attending parochial or public schools at present, the construction of this new high school in our town will someday be very valuable both in education and in progress, which this town sorely needs.

No one can change the course now, the high school will be built but short-sightedness can impede and delay on the slightest pretense. Only sincere, honest and wholehearted men who will give freely of their energy, thought and time can be trusted to finish the job. Vote for good education with unity and progress.

Sincerely,
MRS. A. C. IZZO

POST SCRIPT: I respectfully request that you delete the name of Michael Albertaine from the list of my choice of qualified candidates for election to the Board of Education in my previous letter to you.

PRINCIPALSHIP I reached this decision after I inquired of Mr. Albertaine his reasons for voting to defer the appointment of a Principal of School 9 against the expressed wishes of the mothers who had accused the present board of stalling it long enough.

His answers proved to me that he was putting his political desires above the educational and physical well being of the children involved.

I went to the Board of Education meeting last week (Friday, Feb. 2) and heard with my own ears and saw with my own eyes the depths to which Mr. Albertaine will lower himself to gain reelection.

His public performance was dramatic evidence of his failure to rise above the political system free from political intrigue.

The second revelation was that the C.T.C. and the A.B.C. together with Arthur Pico and Michael Albertaine have decided to cook up a smelling, nauseating kettle of fish and it is to Mr. Dick and Drake's credit that he does not have the stomach to swallow this serving.

Thank you,
MRS. A. C. IZZO

Discusses CTC And Charges Against Board

Dear Sir:

The editorial in the January 11 issue of The Belleville Times entitled "The School Board in Action" is full of inaccuracies and slanders against the organization which this newspaper sided with during the campaign to change Belleville's Government to Council-Manager form. Therefore, I feel it necessary to answer some of the questions which were raised by this editorial.

The charges which were presented by the CTC against the Board were based on evidence which has since been shown to be false. The charges that the Board acted illegally in certain instances. The New Jersey Commissioner of Education, at a preliminary hearing of these charges deemed that the evidence presented, warranted a full hearing. However, the hearing was postponed and scheduled for December 11, 1961 was postponed in order that the tax council lawyer have time to prepare and to avoid conflict with his prior court commitments. A new hearing date has not yet been selected by the Commissioner of Education. All these actions were performed in a legal and democratic manner.

IRRESPONSIBLE This editorial also implies that the School System has been discredited by these charges. It is not the charges that discredit the School System, but the irresponsible statements such as contained in this editorial. For the fact of the matter is that the Board of Education alone was charged with certain violations of the Education Law. It is important to note that the Board of Education is responsible to the citizens who elected them.

Regarding the attitude of candidates toward the Office of the Superintendent of Schools, it is my opinion that there should be an atmosphere of trust and cooperation between them. Since the Board of Education is a policy-making body and the Superintendent of Schools implements the policy it is foolhardy to think that one is more important than the other. However, as I stated above, the Board of Education is based on the principle of self-government, and therefore is responsible to the citizens for education as a whole. If the citizens do not approve of the educational policies of the Board they have the prerogative of changing the Board at the polls. Since the Superintendent of Schools is appointed by the Board of Education he must be responsible to that Board.

This letter is not designed with the intent to discredit the school board during an election campaign, but since these questions were raised in the editorial I felt that some answer was required.

Warns Taxes May Be Needed For Aid Fund

Dear Sir:

The American Red Cross by recent withdrawal from the United Fund is this unfortunate for the United Fund and tragic for Belleville for in some measure it destroys the concept of United giving which is the basis of the foundation of the United Fund.

The Red Cross has withdrawn because it cannot exist on the meager funds made available by the United Fund through the failure of the fund to reach its goal.

Why does Belleville year after year under whatever name, United Fund or Community Chest, reach only 50 per cent, or as in the case of this year, 45 per cent of its goal while all around us the communities raise 80 to 95 per cent?

For one reason or another the leadership and workers to do the soliciting apparently cannot be recruited in Belleville.

FOKEN GIFTS People continue to give token gifts for all 12 agencies the same as they would if each of them were conducting their own campaign, one dollar the usual token gift just will not support 12 agencies.

No one knows for sure. Certainly the vital work of the agencies will suffer; so will the peoples they would serve.

Some of the agencies they render are mandatory by law. The mental or chronically ill, the retarded, the crippled and handicapped, the disturbed, must be cared for, not by private philanthropy, but by government.

So we can expect to see the United Funds failure transformed to a very tangible loss in dollars and cents when we receive our next tax bill, for that's where it will come home.

On top of that, communities are measured in many ways, schools, housing, transportation, shopping facilities etc. High on the list of those factors which create an image of a community is the extent to which citizens meet their obligation to be their brothers' keepers.

Belleville certainly is low down on the totem pole. Of this we are all ashamed and we haven't done so well as we should make a contribution post haste to the United Fund, 557 Washington Avenue.

Gives Support To Tax Council Candidates

Dear Sir:

We are having now on Feb. 13 another one of those referendum elections. I have no doubt that the tax council candidates will be a free for all.

I want no part of it. I wonder why so many want the school board job without pay. Of course, they all have their own reasons. For our children and that nice three million dollar high school. The lovely non-voter playing Santa Claus has thrown it in ABC boys lap by a grandiose 81 votes.

Well then, sucker, is perhaps the right word for it. Belleville voters had a relapse and stayed home. Sure, it was eight or ten thousand, so they have now lots of time thinking about it and should not complain.

REFERENDUM VOTING My referendum voting is over until the State steps in and makes some laws that will stop these referendums, Russian style, being used as a shake-down of the taxpayers. They constitute a farce and ridiculous thing—a disgrace to fair-minded voters who have not sent their intelligence into exile.

There is another joke coming up. Three incumbents seeking reelection. One can only admire their colossal nerve. And they say they will stand on their record—it should be the pocket-books of the homeowners. I am sure that the voters will not bite. They don't like it and the big bounce is in order and will be provided. The motto should be "out" and no regrets.

Christmas is over and maybe also the relapse of the let-George-do-it-his-way. It is better to be for the next May election.

AWAKE AGAIN While even the tax council (Citizens' Tax Council) went to sleep over the holidays, it seems to be awake again. Since the council has done much for a better Belleville, the voters should give full support in the important days ahead and vote for the candidates that are recommended and endorsed by the tax council.

It makes no sense to throw bad things out of the front door and let them come in again by way of the back door. Belleville faces this dilemma in the near future. It is up to the Belleville taxpayers. They must vote and help the council stop complaining when the taxes go higher and higher. The school board asks this year only $34,000 increase. It sounds fishy. As a rule they want $100,000 up. They really think the taxpayers are stupid and maybe from past performance they have a point.

Why talk about dictators in Russia. We seem to like them right on our front door. We started housecleaning in Belleville. By all means, let's finish it or stop complaining.

Defends Brown's Attack On Board Appointment

Dear Sir:

I feel I must comment on your editorial concerning Mr. Brown, one of the candidates for our Board of Education.

From the record, I would like to state that I do not know Mr. Brown. But it seems to me that your interpretation of his statement is entirely different from mine.

INTERVIEW POST I do not know Dr. Durkee. I know he is a fine man and a fine educator. However, as so many candidates have brought up the issue Mr. Brown seems to have been proved correct in stating that the referendum is a farce in which he was chosen without, indeed, he embarrassed Dr. Durkee. I don't doubt for a minute that Dr. Durkee's experience would have made him the obvious choice for the job. But candidates must have been hurt when they were so cautiously passed over after so many years of working for the schools of Belleville. Why the big rush anyway? We needed a superintendent by the 21st of August — why wait? The deadline made the 21st instead of the 24th? As it was the 24th, it should have stayed the 24th.

Also, your editorials constantly attack Mr. Arvidson. As far as I can see, his outbursts only occur when something is done improperly. It seems to me he is only trying to uphold the dignity of the school board, dignity that is sometimes sorely lacking. Apparently you would like Mr. Arvidson to sacrifice his integrity for the sake of harmony.

Very truly yours,
MRS. CHARLES F. ROBERT, JR.

Questions Site Of New High School

Dear Sir:

I would like you to publish this article in The Belleville Times Thursday for every taxpayer in Belleville to read regardless if they wanted the new high school or not. I would like every one paying taxes in Belleville to know about the plot of land the high school is to be built on.

A few years ago five Cape Cod houses were being built on Greylock Parkway. Before two of them were finished they were sinking and had to be moved to higher grounds.

Then either the Town Hall or the builder hired two men to test the land. I spoke to one of them and asked why the ground was sinking. He said years ago and said the ground had been there a long time. A glacier must have been here and left a substance in the ground and underneath the ground will always shift.

REINFORCED Then five houses were built on plings up to 30 feet deep on Greylock Parkway.

The new high school is going to be built on this same plot of land. Suppose the new high school starts sinking like the school that had been built on the same land had to be reinforced. Is the new school going to be reinforced when Belleville has solid land right next to the present High School? Build a big addition? Also, to all people of Belleville, I like to know why the Board of Education didn't recognize three "Nos" for a New High School and one "yes" by 81 votes which was decided Dec. 21, 1961. By all means, let's finish it or stop complaining.

I believe this article should be printed in your paper as so many people read and subscribe to your paper.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. ANNA P. DELLA

"DISCOUNT" a magic word for some, a cause of a derisive smile for others. To the hy and appliance field everybody uses it and nobody can define it.

The word has become meaningless today, because just about everybody sells at a "discount." Discount from what? Many manufacturers tagged their merchandise with such a high "list" price, that reliable stores simply would refuse to sell at these inflated prices and thus became "discounters." Sure, stores have disregarded "list" prices and marked the with their established pricing practices. A store has a certain amount of "overhead" cost, which is determined by the records. Add to this a percentage of profit, and the amount that has to be added to the purchase price is easily determined and establishes the selling price.

Discount stores started to sell appliances at lower prices, because they operated from a garage or a building with bare walls. The merchandise was stacked in factory boxes. You picked what you wanted, paid what you thought was a low over-head, low prices. If you had trouble, it was your headache, no come back, no complaints accepted. Compare this to the hy and appliance store. A salesperson waits on you, the item is checked for proper performance, free delivery, credit and last but not least, service. You are bound to come up with a different price than the bare wall operation. Essentially it boils down to the age old fact, if you pay less, you get less, vice versa. Service of some of the other imponderables that any transaction consists of.

We service what we sell.

Teas For Candidates Top Belleville Social Calendar

By MARLISE JAMES

Because of the upcoming school board election a whirl of parties has been held to introduce the candidates to the public. Heard that the following, which have already taken place, were very successful. A coffee klatch given by Mrs. Samuel Giaccone for Ted Del Guercio, a tea hosted by Mrs. Hillard Mann and Mrs. S. J. Skinner for George H. Brown, Calvin Peck, and John DiRienzo an open house with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scherrer as hosts for Paul Bernhardt, Paul Francisco and Mrs. Norma McCol.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greene introduced a group of their friends to Brown, Mr. DiRienzo and Mr. Peck at a tea at their home, 46 Van Reyper Place, on Feb. 1. The three candidates became acquainted also with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Postorak's friends at their home, 19 Lovell Road, last night, and Mr. and Mrs. Klauinitz of 204 Branch Brook Drive are making plans for a tea to be held at their home tomorrow, Friday.

Speaking of parties, Mrs. Giacone recently celebrated her birthday with an informal gathering at her home, 2 Rutan Rd. Best of luck to the newly elected officers of the Fairway Home-owners Association: president, Tom Colatella; vice president, Daniel Gabrielle; record vice president, Al Smith; recording secretary, James Leary; financial secretary, Anthony Colatella; corresponding secretary, Chester Prosperi; treasurer, Walter Kelenbence; advisor, Charles Borbone; counselor, Nicholas Brescia.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard King, of 90 Plunge Drive have made three contributions to the Armed Services. Their son, Philip, is a Lt. Commander in the Civil Engineer Corp of the Navy, stationed in Naples, Italy, where he is in charge of construction. Their son John, who will graduate from West Point this June, has made a fine record there and is president of the Rifle Club. Jeff is a Seaman First Class specializing in Sonar, stationed on the destroyer Thaddeus Parker which is presently at Norfolk, Va.

could be transacted, but issued a call for another meeting Monday, Feb. 5.

During the interval, Arvidson and the three who had voted with him Monday night asked for a special meeting on Friday, Feb. 2. Their agenda included five proposals, omitting the appointment of a principal for School Nine.

When the full board met Friday, the Arvidson-led majority refused to consider Board President Lally's agenda, which included the sixth proposal.

Charges of politics were voiced by both sides on the issue. Dr. Di Ruggiero and Lally called the delay "dirty, rotten politics." Albertine also called the issue "political." He said "to protect the candidates I think the decision should be postponed until after the election." There is a school board election Tuesday, Feb. 13.

Mothers whose children attend School Nine made the charge of politics when the appointment was first bypassed on Monday, Jan. 29.

"There must be a reason, some political reason this thing is being postponed," said Mrs. Richard Maxwell of 139 Little Street at Friday's meeting. "We have waited six months for this job to be filled. We will wait another 11 days until after the election," she added. "We want no political undertones."

School Nine PTA president

Mrs. Daniel A. McCarthy of 228 Ralph Street said "We want a principal to enter the school with everyone's complete confidence. It is unfair to hinder the man with what has been going on."

"If this has become an issue in the campaign we want to wait," said Mrs. Maxwell. "We are sure the candidate for the job is beyond reproach and we don't want him to enter a job with charges surrounding it."

The women expressed complete confidence in the choice for the job, Joseph B. Grosch. "We respect the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools," said Mrs. McCarthy.

Arvidson said the agreement to appoint a principal had not "been carried out to the fullest." He said the board had also decided to have a part-time clerk at School Nine and a re-districting of pupils. These have not been done, he said, and "there is no indication that it is being carried out." He added, "That is why I am against the principalship."

Mrs. Dominick C. Macauloso of 432 Washington Avenue, one of the prime movers in the fight for a principal, said "It was unanimously decided in a conference with us that the decision be left to the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools. What are we waiting for?"

After questioning the board, Lally said it would be useless to try for another meeting to pass the appointment. It will be left to the new board.

maintenance employees, $150 each; all secretaries, $300 each. Increases in salaries alone are about $200,000.

"BIGGER HEADACHES" "Education in Belleville has become expensive. We can't cut taxes and still play Santa Claus. And that is just the start. There are bigger headaches coming for all the people unless they stop following the sheep. The three political machines must be defeated."

"To convert the present high school into a junior high is another blunder. It will cost the taxpayers another million dollars and create jobs for 30 to 40 more people, at everybody's expense or an increase in the school tax rate of 60 points."

"Citizens of Belleville, do you want those same conditions to continue? You must vote them out of office and save our grammar schools from becoming empty buildings."

"I have also learned parochial schools in town won't teach after the sixth grade if a junior high is approved. That means more overcrowding. And a second junior high will have to be built with a $12 tax rate in the making."

Mrs. (Ralph M.) Risoli, an independent candidate like myself, has presented a plan which has my whole-hearted support. We can work together as a team. Won't you find it in your hearts to vote for us to protect your interest. We need your votes to do the job for you."

For Our Children's Sake, Maybe, Will You Think Twice Before Voting Tuesday?

elects, Bernhardt would ask the new board to undertake an immediate study of our school needs and "I wouldn't hire a single expert."

Paul Francisco is sincere but appears to lack the maturity and personal knowledge of school board activities which we believe the new school board will require to resolve the multi-million dollar problems it will face. A sincere young man, waging a good campaign, we suggest Mr. Francisco make an intelligent and thorough study of our school system and plan for next year's election. If as he states, Francisco has something to contribute to the welfare of our 5500 school children, there is next year and the next.

In conclusion, we urge our readers to think twice — maybe three times — before they cast their votes. Personal likes and dislikes — personal axes to grind — perpetuation of factionalism — political advantage for the May Council election — all these factors cast their awesome shadows over each school building and school child. They all should be disregarded in favor of the single, central issue of the school board election campaign — which three candidates can best serve the interests of our 5500 public school children, the 265 members of our teaching and administrative staffs, and the approximate 11,000 taxpayers.

Don't permit the school board to be a training ground for politicians intent upon using it as a back door entrance to City Hall political power. Cast your votes for candidates with proven interest in school board affairs.

Citizens old enough to vote should be smart enough to identify the politicians and statesmen among the 13 school board candidates — even without a scorecard.

As we said before — the 5500 school children will have no voice in the election next Tuesday. So — as you visit the polls Tuesday between 2:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. permit the tiny, tender finger of a school child to direct your index finger as you push down the three levers of your choice.

Don't Let Up On Cautious Winter Driving, Warns Spatz

In a late winter warning, Chief of Police George R. Spatz cautioned drivers this week against a letup in winter driving caution, which could result in a tragic "letdown."

"After driving this far through another winter, we should know better than to drop our guard now," the chief said, "but this is just the time to beware of that one fatal moment of carelessness."

The chief unloaded a double-barreled charge of excellent advice that he hoped would reach the mark. First, he advised drivers to check their cars for winter-weariness; second, he urged them to check their knowledge of late-winter weather and road conditions as they affect driving.

"You probably are pretty tired of winter just about now, and so you can well imagine that the family car may be getting a little tired of it, too," he said. "This is the time when batteries can run down quickly, when lights may fail, when windshield wipers may show blade fatigue or a serious drop-off in arm pressure against the windshield, and when tire chains may show enough wear to warrant immediate replacement."

The chief warned against procrastination in correcting these or other dangerous defects. "We can expect some of our worst blizzards just about now," he cautioned. "We can't afford to overlook dangerous equipment faults or to postpone correcting them."

In the event this area escapes the usual late-winter blizzards, there are still other seasonal surprises in store which could cause accidents, Chief Spatz noted. "Let's not forget that thawing temperatures during the day frequently cause run — offs which freeze into slippery patches as soon as evening temperatures begin to drop," he emphasized. "Careful driving, at reduced speeds, is a wise precaution, particularly after dark. Stay well within your headlight range so you can spot the slick places in time to prevent a dangerous slide."

a Cart" — a direct effort to persuade shoppers to return to the store the carts which are provided by the market for the convenience of its patrons.

"Shopping carts represent an investment of several thousand dollars which we gladly make for your shopping convenience," stated the advertisement. And then the announcement went on to say: "We have found them in the river! We have found them on rubbish dumps! We have found them abandoned on streets far distant from our store!"

This sounds incredible to us but of course it is true. What prompts people to be so careless with other people's property we'll probably never know. Laziness doubtless has a lot to do with it.

May we add our urging to that of the store that customers be more considerate in their use of carts? In the spirit of fair play and thoughtfulness of the rights of others — won't you please return shopping carts from now on?

An Excellent School Budget

Last Monday the School Board, by unanimous vote, adopted a 1962-63 school board budget which we think is excellent. Calling for only a five point rise in the tax rate, while at the same time giving our teachers a $400 raise, the board has indicated its determination to be thrifty with taxpayer dollars.

School Board President, Dominic Lally, in a covering statement accompanying the School Budget message states, "In the past five years, Belleville has lost 182 teachers and hired 178 new teachers. To train teachers and lose them to other towns is a financial and educational loss to our schools. Thirty teacher replacements were hired this year." A significant observation indeed. Belleville's teacher salaries are well below the highs in this area.

Compared with tax increases of neighboring towns arising from school board budgets, Belleville's five point rise is nominal. Cedar Grove taxes are going up 87 points; Glen Ridge — 69; Nutley — 15; Montclair — 35; Verona — 20; Irvington — 19; North Caldwell — 45.

With a town population of 35,000, and only 35 persons attending the budget hearing, with not a single complaint against the budget expenditures, this in itself is a testimonial to the fiscal integrity of our 1962-63 school budget.

The school board budget is sound and merits the favorable consideration of our voters.

W. J. Orchard Nominated For Sixth Term

The chief also reminded drivers that temperature plays an all-important part in braking and stopping distance determination on snow and ice.

Opening a copy of the National Safety Council's winter driving pamphlet, he pointed to the following statement: "As the temperature rises, ice (and to a lesser degree, snow) becomes much more slippery because of the film of moisture on the surface." The test report further stated that "braking distance on ice doubles as the temperature varies from 0 degrees to 32 degrees Fahrenheit. At 20 mph a car can stop on ice in 114 feet when the temperature is around zero. But at around 30 degrees above zero it will take over 200 feet to stop after the brakes have been applied. With reinforced tire chains on rear wheels the braking distance is reduced to 77 ft."

The chief observed that "we have just come through possibly the coldest part of the winter. At low temperature, ice can almost be described as 'sticky' — comparatively speaking. Now all of a sudden a warming trend, which is in other respects so welcome, can turn pavement ice very, very slippery. This is why I say that now is no time to neglect worn-out tire chains. We may have real use for reinforced chains — between now and spring — and there's always next winter, too."

DON'T DELAY

The chief warned against procrastination in correcting these or other dangerous defects.

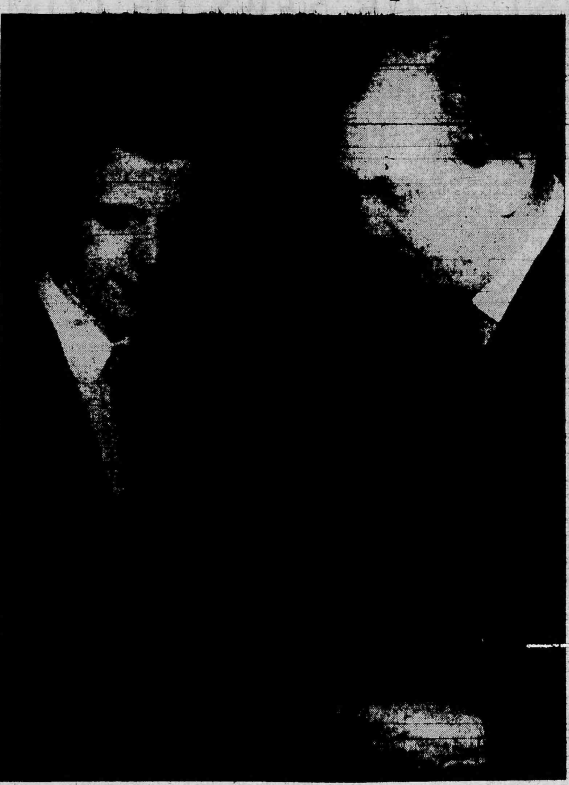

CHIEF "RUSH" SEASON

Chief Spatz also had a warning against the temptation to "rush the season" on the first warm days of spring.

"Let's not spoil our safety record now by being too eager to resume summertime speeds," he suggested. "There'll be some repair work to do on streets and highways which sustained frost damage. In the meantime, let's take it easy."

He complimented Belleville's drivers for the generally high level of cooperation and rational exercise during the winter months. "Without it," he admitted, "we could easily have had some serious emergencies, and possibly some lives lost."

Mother Of Three Sons Answers Arguments Against Junior High Schools

One mother has answered charges and arguments against the junior high school system. Several school board candidates have said during the campaign that the decision to convert Belleville's school set up to K-8-4 needed further study. Belleville now has a K-8-4 system. One candidate, Ralph Risoli has insisted that a junior high would create problems of juvenile delinquency.

Mrs. Robert Rudden of 58 Belmont Street defended junior high schools in a letter to The Belleville Times-News this week. Mrs. Rudden has three sons, aged 13, 12 and 10. She is a Cub Scout den mother and a member of the PTA at School Seven. Her husband is a Boy Scout Troop leader, her two oldest sons are Boy Scouts and the youngest is a cub. Her letter stated:

"Quick, lock up all the doors to the junior high schools in the U.S.A. One of the school board candidates has found out what causes juvenile delinquency. Millions of people are walking the streets today unaware of the fact that they have been, are, or soon will be J.D.'s. Someone better telegraph J. Edgar Hoover. I'm sure he'd love to have this simple answer to his problems. 'OUT OF HAND'."

"We are really making a mistake counting on a junior high. Let's just make the school into a reform school and stop J.D. before these 12, 13, 14 and 15 year old 'monsters' get completely out of hand."

"Sarcastic? Yes, but this is the score tactic being used to make you think our Board of Education doesn't know what it's doing. Do you believe it? Will a junior high make J.D.'s out of our children? "We know (1) 12 to 15 year olds are at their greatest growth and development period, (2) they are gawky, unsure, know it all, (3) are larger than the other children in grammar school where the ages range from five to 15; (4) are smaller and more easily influenced than the 16-19 year olds in high school. (5) They need the challenge they would get from learning new skills - wood working, sewing, home economics, etc. (6) They will be away from home for a longer period of time under adult supervision. Parochial children are at school all day from first grade on. "RAIN THEM EARLY" "Remember, all of our children won't grow up to be professionals. Some will be carpenters,

Twenty Two Join Red Cross Swim

Leonard Bado of the Red Cross is very pleased with the group of adults and teenagers now members of the "Swim and Stay Fit" program.

All seem to be enjoying swimming once a week at the R.C.A. Pool in Harrison and aside from this they say they feel better, he reported. Some of them are even losing weight in the program which is designed to keep people in good condition.

The idea is to try to swim 10 miles, 20 miles, 30 miles, 40 miles up to 50 miles in segments of a quarter of a mile, he said. There is still opportunity for anyone to join since this is more or less an individual program. Persons can join at any time, he added. Any person interested can telephone the Belleville Red Cross.

UP SPEAK

Sullivan Thanks Local Mothers For Dimes March

Dear Sir: Wednesday, Jan. 31, gave us a temperature of 9 degrees above the winter's coldest day, yet that night, bitter cold though it was, it brought out over 200 mothers, some of them grandmothers, participating in Belleville's March of Dimes.

As chairman of Belleville's New March of Dimes program, we cannot adequately find words to express our appreciation, but we know that the self-satisfaction these good women obtain out of realizing the benefits the many, many children, afflicted with polio, birth defects and arthritis, will derive out of their sacrifices, mean more than any words from us.

TREMENDOUS JOB

However, through the medium of your newspaper, I publicly thank them all for a tremendous job well done. We know they will be delighted to know that in one evening they raised $274.54, and that of the 18 suburban towns participating in the March, Belleville came in fourth from the top. My gratitude to them all. Without all these fine women participating, we realize the drive could not be the success it was, but we do want to especially thank Mrs. Stanley J. Akus, who did such an excellent job as Mothers' March chairman, as well as her immediate assistants, Mrs. Charles Bogert, Mrs. William Brickell, Mrs. Kenneth Broo, Mrs. Alan Conklin, Mrs. John Connolly, Miss Constance Connolly, Mrs. Alex Coppola, Mrs. Seymour Grossman, Mrs. Vincent Hearn, Mrs. Manuel Hernandez, Mrs. Anthony Izzo, Mrs. Richard Lockwood, Mrs. Arthur Mooney, Mrs. Angelo Mostello, Mrs. Peter Nappa, Mrs. Michael Pizzuto, Mrs. Joseph Riley, Mrs. Anthony Spooner, Mrs. Joseph Tremel, Mrs. Peter Walker and Mrs. John Westlake, all of whom played an important part in organizing this great group of over 200 women for last Wednesday's March of Dimes.

"I am grateful to them all. Most sincerely, HARRY J. SULLIVAN, Chairman, Belleville's March of Dimes."

Lauds Mrs. A. Simon For Inspiring Instruction

Dear Sir: I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank Mrs. Arthur Simon of 3 Riverdale Avenue. On January 17, she came to my sixth grade classroom in School Seven and taught my students how to fold paper cranes.

These cranes are called "Messengers of Peace" and were inspired by a little Japanese girl who died as a result of the Hiroshima disaster. Mrs. Simon was given the instructions by a Japanese minister at one of the many meetings she attends, (groups striving to keep the peace.) My students were most enthusiastic and did a remarkable job due to her careful instructions. She also inspired them to plan posters using the Peace theme, and suggested some slogans. My favorite was "Peace is Our Only Shelter." Both the cranes and posters will be on display at our annual Art Exhibit, the week of February 5. This exhibit is open to the public.

Again, may I say "Mrs. Simon, I thank you and may God give you strength to carry on the work you are doing."

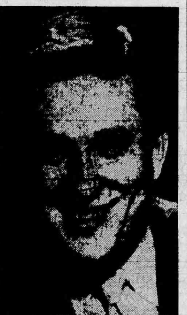

Sincerely, ISABEL WIDNER, 4 Overhill Road

Appreciates Work Of Fire Department

Dear Sir: I wish to express my appreciation for the efficiency and speed the Belleville Fire Dept. demonstrated in extinguishing a fire in my home. Surely it gives my family and my neighbors a feeling of security knowing that a splendid Department is ready to protect them.

Sincerely, RICHARD F. LUKOWIAK SR., 11 Mt. Pleasant Avenue.

Belleville Cagers Route Orange 63-47; Byers High Scorer With 23

By ROGER WARTELL
Belleville High's basketball team won its third game of the season last Friday by routing Orange 63-47. The Bellboys, after gaining a one point advantage in the first period, ran off 15 points to the Tornadoes two. This proved too big a deficit for the visitors to make up, and it resulted in Orange's 15th loss of the season. Bob Byers was high man for the Bellboys as he connected for 23 points. Belleville will finish out the season tomorrow against South Side at home.

Orange opened up the game by jumping into a 5-2 lead, on shots by Vince Patrick and Buster Jones. The Bellboys came right back, and after gaining a 6-5 lead, battled back and forth with their opponents. Led by Byers with eight points and Richie Luzzati with five, Belleville outscored Orange in the second quarter 14-4 and took a 33-29 halftime lead.

Jim Sheridan Rolls 279 Game In Men's League

Big Jim Sheridan was the star of the Recreation Men's Major League Bowling last week when he posted a new high game score and came within a hair's breadth of rolling a perfect game. Sheridan, who sports a 188 league average started bombing out strikes in his second game. Everyone bowling at Branch Brook Lanes that night was keeping one eye on him as he rolled up six, seven, eight and finally ten straight strikes. On his eleventh ball he again hit the pocket but was faced with an exasperating one pin standing. He converted the spare. Then, showing himself a really great bowler by finishing with one more perfect strike for a 279. This went together with his other two games for a new high series of 669.

There was a lot more great bowling this same night. Frank Giordano bowled out a 648 series. Rico Sebastiano a 611, Tony DeFeo rolled 268 game, Joe Ciarella a 243 game. In all 23 games of over 200 were rolled.

Two Wins Spark JV Team; 2nd Tournament Game Today

BELLEVILLE'S Billy Raye and Lenny Loungo wait for rebound.

BILL RUSH (40) hits on a jump shot as an Orange player attempts to block.

By RAY FERSKO
The Belleville J.V.'s lost two games last week to two strong teams and then came back on Friday and Saturday with two decisive victories over Orange and Archbishop Walsh.

Last Friday night, the J.V.'s edged Orange out 25-23. Gaglione, Ceres, Loungo, Rush and Slea led the team to their first win since the Garfield game. At the half Belleville was up by one point.

In the third quarter they surged ahead and took a five point lead, over Orange. With one minute left to play Orange drove down court and trailed by one point. Finally with five seconds left a foul shot by Gaglione saved the game.

Saturday afternoon the outstanding playing of Bill Rush, Allan Coppola, Lenny Loungo and a new recruit from the Freshman team, Frank Ray, gave the J.V.'s a win that will keep them in the Essex County J.V. Tournament. This game showed a great all-around improvement. If they continue this type of play the J.V.'s will surely be victorious for the rest of the season. The J.V.'s will play their second tournament game at Seton Hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock against West Orange.

TAKES EARLY LEAD
Irrington took the lead from the start. Their fast offense and light defense kept Belleville down to a mere 19 points while they scored 31. Belleville was hurt by an over abundance of fouls and Irvington's excellent shooting percentage. Kennedy and Burger of Irvington kept piling bunnies in and the Belleville offense couldn't get around them.

SHOW IMPROVEMENT
On January 25, the blue cagers met the Columbia Tigers at Columbia. Belleville lost by 15 points. The score was 55-40. Although the Bellboys lost, they showed a vast improvement. Levin, Gaglione, Cervasio, Loungo and Ceres all played excellent offensive ball. On defense Sweeney and Bauer did a good job getting the rebounds.

The second place team has actually scored more total pins than the leaders, 13,085 - 12,246. The Corner Pharmacy is still very much in the contest, being just three games out of first.

HOLDING FAST TO FIRST
In the girls league the Rose Reilly Agency team will not be moved from first place, which they have held from the beginning of the season. However they are now being pressed hard by the Olympic Bowl team which is just one and a half games behind.

THE AMERICAN HEART Association and its affiliates and chapters have invested more than 65 million Heart Fund dollars in research since reorganization as a national voluntary health agency in 1948.

Game And A Half Separates Second Place Teams
In the boys' Junior Bowling League at Branch Brook Lanes the Joe-D Auto Repair team continues to hold its lead. Pariso Brothers are just a game and a half behind and DeBacco Brothers meet the Columbia Tigers at Columbia. Belleville lost by 15 points. The score was 55-40. Although the Bellboys lost, they showed a vast improvement. Levin, Gaglione, Cervasio, Loungo and Ceres all played excellent offensive ball. On defense Sweeney and Bauer did a good job getting the rebounds.

CD Light Rescue Team Trains For Emergency Aid

The Belleville Civil Defense Light Rescue Team has successfully completed the Red Cross Standard First Aid Course under the direction of Walter K. Ratz, chairman of First Aid chapter, Belleville Red Cross.

The advanced course for the CD group will begin soon. The team, made up of two squads with five young men in each, has been meeting at CD Headquarters, 203 Washington Avenue, on Tuesday and Thursday evenings for rescue training work. Instruction is provided by Joseph Roccasanto, Civil Defense Chief of Rescue. He is assisted by Jerry Stauhs, captain, and James Barton, leader of Squad One, and Ed Winkowski, leader of Squad Two.

Other members of the team are Charles Bond, Albert Lurker, John Wright, Ronald La Motta, Richard Shafter, Charles Mautone and Peter Fineo. The last two, along with Barton, are licensed radio amateur operators. Organized in November, 1961, the team is composed of Belleville High School students.

Plans are being made to equip the recently acquired light rescue wagon with rescue equipment, first aid supplies, stretchers, blankets, tools, gas masks, two-way radio communication and other essentials to aid in rescue work. The ambulance, which was donated to Civil Defense at no cost to the town, will also be fitted for use by the Rescue and First Aid team.

Dr. Brown Made Chief Local CD Medical Officer

Dr. Donald S. Brown, whose offices and residence are at 211 Washington Avenue, has accepted the post of Chief Medical Officer and Coordinator of the local Civil Defense Medical Unit.

Dr. Brown has been a resident of Belleville for 33 years. He has been established in his present location since 1937. An osteopathic physician, he is the Belleville School Physician and handles all medical services for the Police Department.

He and his wife, Esther, have a son, Donald S. Jr., who is also a physician. He is practicing at Lewisburg, Pa.

Dr. Brown is taking over the post left vacant several weeks ago when Dr. B. E. Failing of 23 Van Ruyper Place, resigned as chief of the medical unit. Dr. Failing said at that time that he now planned to spend most of his time in the South.

Mystery Teen Active Young Dancer Is Really On Her Toes

JOSEPH CERVASIO

Joseph Cervasio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Cervasio of 711 Belleville Avenue was the last mystery teen. Joe, who is the president of the freshman class, is very active in school activities especially those connected with sports. He was high scorer on the Freshman football team and he is now on the Freshman basketball team. He is interested in all sports and they take up much of his time. He is also student council representative for his homeroom.

In addition he is doing very well scholastically. In the future he would like to go to college and thinks he would like to become an engineer.

ANOTHER MYSTERY

Our mystery teen for this week is very busy with school activities. She has been on the twirling squad for the past two years. She is a member of the Varsity Band. She belongs to the Future Nurses, Tumbling and Physics clubs and is also on the Monad staff. Scholastically, she has maintained an A average all the time she has been attending Belleville High School.

Noonan stated that in his opinion, Belleville was no less charitable than any of the other communities in Essex County all of which annually raise more money and a higher percentage of their goal than Belleville. Belleville, year after year, is in last place, it was pointed out.

LEADERSHIP NEEDED

At the other end of the pendulum, the Residential group and the Town Employee group (other than the Dept. of Revenue & Finance) showed up poorly. Noonan further explained that failure of the Residential drive could be attributed more to lack of workers than to lack of interest since about 50 per cent of the $4,000 raised from residents had come in as a result of a mailing campaign decided upon after it was evident that there would be a serious shortage of workers.

WITH REGRET

The announcement of the withdrawal of the Red Cross was received with great concern and regret. The letter from Mrs. Winifred Tucker, Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Red Cross, notifying the United Fund of its withdrawal indicated that the action was taken for economic reasons.

OTHERS CONTINUE

In spite of the disappointing results, it was felt that the objectives of the fund were worthwhile and that a determined effort should be made to keep it active in spite of the Red Cross' withdrawal and to rally greater support and leadership for the next campaign. All of the other agencies agreed to continue as a member of the fund.

Noonan suggested that a committee of agency members and board members be formed to study the matter from all angles and make definite recommendations. It is sincerely hoped by those who believe in the United Fund (and there are many residents of Belleville who were not at the meeting who believe in it) that something fruitful would come from their study for, as one of the Town Commissioners pointed out, "If the United Fund folds, the Town of Belleville will have to supply the services now being provided by these agencies, and the only way that would be possible would be through direct taxation."

MISS DIANA NAPPI — Belleville's ballerina

By MARLISE JAMES
Diana Nappi takes her dancing seriously. It is not only her career, it is her life, she says.

As a performing member of the company, she traveled to Dayton, Ohio last Spring for one of its many appearances. There she performed for a lecture-demonstration at the Northeast Regional Ballet Festival.

This year there have been some changes in the group. The ballerinas are Diana and Joyce, Patty Jakway and Darlene Nappi. But the hard work and the long practice sessions remain the same.

The girls danced in the high school Christmas program and at several grammar schools.

Elks Launch Shield Campaign

New Jersey State Elks' Crippled Children's Committee has launched its 1962 Shield Campaign for $200,000 to augment funds raised by individual Elks' Lodges for Crippled Children's work.

This annual appeal will get underway with the mailing of a sheet of seals bearing the slogan "I'm glad somebody cares." to 1,500,000 New Jersey homes.

Crippled Children helped by Belleville Lodge will benefit from this drive in direct proportion to the amount contributed from this area, as the State Committee returns donations from the area to Belleville Lodge for its work.

Walter R. Fink, chairman of the Crippled Children's Committee for Belleville Lodge, explained recently that the State Committee serves only as a fund-raising and co-ordinating agency. He said its aim is to raise sufficient funds through the State Appeal to augment the work of local Lodges in order to permit them to aid more children.

Proceeds from last year's Drive totaled only $106,996.18 enabling the State's Lodges to spend $225,874.36 to aid the Handicapped Children bringing the overall total expended in New Jersey since 1925 to over $6,000,000.

STATE-WIDE

Last year's expenditures State-wide financed 3,284 examinations, 2,456 speech and physical therapy treatments, 245 operations, 1,707 home visits by nurses. Ten children were supplied with artificial limbs. Three hundred and seventy-five pairs of special shoes were provided, 133 wheel chairs, 242 braces, and many other services such as brace and shoe repairs, x-rays, crutches, eye-glasses, dentures, etc.

Substantial contributions also were made to Cerebral Palsy Clinics, many hospitals in the State, and New Jersey Councils for Retarded Children. The State Scholarship Fund is now financing fully paid college educations for eight handicapped young men and women from New Jersey, and six handicapped children have already graduated with honors from the colleges of their choice.

Fink has headed the local Crippled Children's Committee five years. Other members of the local committee are: William Crawford, co.- chairman; Steve Raleigh, Anthony Caruso, Michael Gaydos, Steve McManus and Edmund Strat.

MOST ART ATTACK

victims recover from a first attack and of those who do, four out of five return to work, says the Heart Association, which is conducting the 1962 Heart Fund campaign throughout February.
