Tax Council Charges Against School Board Are Dismissed

Frederick M. Raubinger, state commissioner of education, has dismissed all charges filed by the Citizens Tax Council against the Board of Education.

Max N. Schwartz, board attorney, as soon as he learned the opinion of the commissioner, informed the board the brochure is preparing for the bond issue for new school construction may correctly state that there is no litigation presently pending against the board.

Mr. Schwartz had expressed concern over the success of floating the bonds at a satisfactory interest rate if the suit remained unsettled. The Tax Council was seeking to invalidate the bond issue.

The attorney notified the board two weeks ago that he was requesting the State Department of Education to make a decision in the matter as quickly as possible, and before the board prepared the final draft of its brochure on the bonds.

Mr. Schwartz, in addressing the local board, stressed that although it was his opinion and that of F. Colman Greene, authority on school law with whom he consulted, that the litigation did not properly affect the bond issue, nevertheless, there might be a costly impact on the community if litigation was in process at the time of issuing the bond issue.

May Appoint School Head

The Board of Education will meet in special session next Tuesday, August 7, at 8 p.m. to consider the appointment of a principal for the high school. School Superintendent Frank M. Durkee will make his recommendation for the post at that time.

Hugh D. Kille, the former principal, retired last December. George Thomas Lees succeeded him as acting principal. Mr. Lees died June 2.

They'll Act On Flood Problem

At the invitation of Mayor Robert M. Laterza, right, Congressman Peter W. Rodino Jr. inspected the Third River area last Friday afternoon. Among residents they called on was Mrs. John F. Gierla of 306 Fairway Avenue, seen above. The Gierla property is on the bank of the river, which is now low due to the recent drought, but which becomes a raging torrent after heavy rains, flooding many homes in the area. The Congressman said he has already secured a promise from Army Engineers that Belleville will be included in a study of Passaic Valley flooding problems.

Action Prompted By Inclusion Of $1500 Salary Item

The Town Council by a 3 to 2 vote adopted the new administrative code by resolution Tuesday night. Mayor Robert M. Laterza and Councilman Vincent Strumolo voted against the code, while Councilmen James R. Golden, Thomas P. Greco and G. George Addonizio voted for it.

Was De Noia Ever Legally Appointed?

The Town Council Tuesday night rescinded its appointment made the previous week of Peter A. DeNoia Jr. as Town Assessor and renamed Emanuele De Noia Jr. to the post as Acting Town Assessor for 30 days starting July 31.

The action came as a climax to a rapid series of developments following the refusal of the council by a split vote at its July 24 meeting to appoint DeNoia to a four-year term as recommended by Councilmen James R. Golden and Thomas P. Greco.

DeNoia immediately set to work to sue the council for retention of his position until the end of his term at the end of 1963. Each member of the council was served with papers on Tuesday outlining DeNoia's position. He contends that his appointment does not expire until that date and cannot be shortened.

Thomas P. Greco, Golden told the council Tuesday night that if his resolution of the previous week had been passed the town would have been spared the expense of defending a suit and also the possibility that it might eventually have to pay two assessors.

Councilman G. George Addonizio told Golden he was right so far as he went but had failed to mention something additional. "There is absolutely no proof," Addonizio said, "that DeNoia was ever legally appointed to the post of Tax Assessor at all."

The councilman said that acting Town Manager Francis McCoy and Town Clerk Eugene Barnett had made a complete and exhaustive search of town records and could find no documentation in communications or in minutes of meetings of the Town Commissioners that DeNoia ever had been officially appointed.

On the motion to give DeNoia 30 more days in the post, Golden offered an amendment to make the term for one year and Greco again was his only support. When the amendment failed, all five members of the council voted the 30-day appointment.

The Belleville Foundation Scholarship Fund Committee announced the fourth annual $500 grant to be awarded to the Belleville Foundation Scholar of the Year.

Only students who are continuing their education under Belleville Foundation sponsorship are eligible for the competition.

Paul de Hagara, chairman of the committee, has appointed Samuel Stiffin, guidance counselor at Belleville High School, as chairman of the Award Committee.

Any eligible students who are interested in competing for this award should send transcripts of their college records to Mr. Stiffin at the High School by October 1.

The Foundation offers this award to encourage the best possible academic performance by Belleville college students and as a reward to the outstanding student in this group who is known as the Belleville Foundation Scholar of the Year.

COZINE ELECTED Michael E. Cozine, CPA of Belleville, has been elected a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He is with Joseph Proggatti & Co. in Newark.

Selected Youths Are At Summer Camp Of Little League Richard Rizzolo and Bruce Daddis, both of Belleville, are among 23 selected Little Leaguers from 25 states attending the current session of the Little League Summer Camp at Williamsport, Pa. AN EDITORIAL:

Integrity And Campaign Pledges

The proposed Administrative Code contains a section awarding our Councilmen a $1,500 annual salary. Let's look at the pre-election campaign pledges of our elected public officials.

Mayor Robert Laterza said he would serve for $1.00 per year. At the July 1 organization meeting Laterza publicly reaffirmed his campaign position. At Tuesday night's Council meeting Mayor Laterza indicated his determination to honor his campaign pledge by casting a "NO" vote against adoption of the Administrative Code which provides a $1,500 salary for councilmen.

Councilman Vincent Strumolo made a pre-election pledge to serve for $1.00 per year but if a majority of the Council insisted upon a salary he would consider $600 annual salary as a maximum. Strumolo, like Mayor Laterza, voted against adoption of the Administrative Code at Tuesday's Council meeting because he too opposes the $1,500 council salary. Strumolo wants to redeem his campaign pledge and serve without pay.

But what about the other three Councilmen?

Only Councilman G. George Addonizio seems to be on safe ground. He pledged himself to no salary maximum. In a pre-election statement Addonizio said salary was secondary. On this basis he would not be violating a campaign pledge were he to vote for a $1,500 salary.

Councilman Thomas P. Greco made an outright pledge. In a pre-election statement answering a questionnaire of The Times-News Greco said he believed a councilman's salary should be $600-700. Although Greco opposed a proposal by Golden to establish a $2,500 salary he has yet to tell the people where he stands concerning his campaign pledge. Will Greco honor his campaign pledge? Only time will tell.

How about our former commission critic, peerless Jim Golden? What did he pledge as a candidate? Well, let's take a look at the record. In answer to a Times-News question concerning councilmen's salaries Golden replied:

"The Council might establish compensation in varying amounts up to $2,500 in order to attract the highest type of competent men, however, I feel the dedicated candidate would serve for $1 a year as a contribution to better government. The politician limited to a very low salary might be encouraged to seek graft. Compensation of Council will probably be determined by temperament and dedication of the membership."

Replying to another question put to him by The Times-News concerning payment of expenses to councilmen Golden said:

"If salary is prescribed and accepted, few, if any, expenses would be justified, however, if councilman's services are offered for $1 per year, out of pocket expenses would be proper and appropriate."

It is very clear from the foregoing that James Golden the candidate led many of us to believe he was more than willing to serve the community at $1 per year, for as he observed on May 31, "I feel the dedicated candidate would serve for $1 a year as a contribution to better government."

Maybe the government has improved to such an extent in the 31 days that our Council has served that perhaps we no longer need "better government," hence Golden's desire to serve the people at $2,500.

The citizens of Belleville have a right to expect their elected public officials to keep campaign pledges. If Mayor Laterza and Councilman Strumolo continue to hold fast to their pledge to serve for $1 per year, then Golden should be asked to live up to his implied pledge to likewise serve for $1 per year.

And as for Greco — he pledged to the people of Belleville that he would serve for a salary between $600-700. The voters have a right to demand Greco live up to his campaign pledge. Throughout the campaign Greco stressed — and so did we — the integrity he would bring to public office. A person's integrity is also measured by the manner in which he keeps campaign pledges.

Addonizio pledged nothing, therefore he is under no obligation to recognize any limitation upon a councilman's salary except the consideration that a prudent public official would bring to the question.

Golden Is In No Hurry To Press Lawsuit

Councilman James R. Golden indicated this week he is in no hurry to press the libel charges he has made against former Commissioner Kenneth D. Smith and the Belleville Telegram. Just prior to the June 12 election Golden announced he had initiated his own political career. He said he was not in a hurry to press the libel charges because of an advertisement published in the weekly over Smith's signature. The ad accused Golden of using town facilities and materials and tax-supported employees to further his own political career.

In answer to a question by The Times-News this week Golden said he was still considering the suit but that he believed he had three years under the statute of limitations in which to litigate. He commented that from his standpoint of the law he is fully occupied at present with the suit being brought against him by another former commissioner, Robert C. Grubin. In this suit Golden will have to answer charges that he libeled Grubin in a campaign circular over issues.

Large? which was intended to help promote the candidacy of James R. Golden for the June 12th runoff election. "Do you know that thousands of these political propaganda sheets were printed in the of the Commission of George F. Kiernan at Town Hall by Town employees using Town paper and machines during hours normally set for the discharge of Town business?"

"Did you know that this was done with the full knowledge and approval of Mr. James R. Golden?"

"After the many loud tirades directed against Town officials for using tax dollars for necessary Town expenses every taxpayer cannot help but be amazed at the fact that the very one who blasted officials has used tax-purchased materials and tax-supported employees to further his personal political career."

"Do you wonder whether this brazen misuse of Town property and personnel before election might become common practice after election, should James Golden succeed in his long handed campaign tactics?"

"With this thought in mind, I considered it my duty as a taxpayer and in the interest of public welfare generally to forward a copy of the tax-financed political propaganda to the Essex County Prosecutor's office, and ask for a full investigation."

Two Cabs Stolen From Taxi Firm

The Capitol Cab Co. of 360 Washington Avenue has been operating under a handicap for several days following the theft of two of the firm's fleet of taxis.

Health Depots Here Will Use Mantoux Test

Health Officer Edward G. Burdy has announced a change in the method of tuberculin testing to be used as part of the routine procedure in the Child Health Stations in Belleville.

"The patch test, a method formerly used, is no longer recommended because of its unreliability."

YOU AND YOUR INSURANCE

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

Auto Insurance Firms Put 'Wings' On Pigs And Cows

Insurance companies, which customarily make decisions on basis of statistical proof, have recognized that deer and horses, like birds, take to the air.

The decision, announced recently by the National Automobile Underwriters Association, adds up to an insurance claim "break" for the motorist. On behalf of 370 affiliated companies, the association says all animals striking cars will be regarded as "in flight" and damage will be paid in full under comprehensive auto insurance coverage.

In the past it was up to the claims adjuster to decide whether an animal — such as a deer, horse, pig, dog, cow or bear — which landed on a car, had all of its feet off the ground, and could be said to be flying or whether the animal had its feet on the ground at the moment of impact. If in the judgment of the adjuster the animal was in the air, it was described as a "falling or flying" object and damage was paid in full under the comprehensive insurance coverage portion of the auto policy.

However, if the animal had all of its feet on the ground, the accident was viewed as a collision and payment was afforded only under the provisions of the collision policy, which usually contains a $50, or $100, deductible clause.

ity," Burdy said.

"The recommended tuberculin test, and the one chosen to be used is the Mantoux or skin test. Innumerable published reports on comparative studies of the patch test and the Mantoux test establish the Mantoux as having greater reliability."

"Ideally, each child should have a tuberculin test as part of a routine physical examination in most American communities today, a reaction to tuberculin in children under 6 generally points to a source of infections in or closely related to the household since contacts of young children are limited."

"Few procedures employed on the control of tuberculosis are of greater value than the tuberculin test. It is one of the most valuable procedures in the control of tuberculosis."

brochure. He explained that this was because buyers in the bond market are a sensitive group, and with the number of issues being submitted to them, they meticulously seek to avoid investing in any community where the legality of the issue may be questioned. He said further that if they do invest in the issue, they use this as an argument to increase the interest cost, which would be an item of considerable additional expense to the school district.

Mr. Schwartz said that an additional 1 of 1 per cent interest, which he considered minimal, on a $2,700,000 bond issue would amount to $6,750 a year, and he pointed out that when it is considered that the bond issue is for 30 years, the Citizens Tax Council would have been placing a gigantic burden on the community.

COMMENTS ON
CLERK PETITIONS

To the Editor, The Times-News:

Last Tuesday night I, along with several hundred other Belleville citizens attending the town meeting, witnessed what could be the start of a terrible tragedy for the town. At that meeting petitions signed by over forty-four hundred Belleville residents favoring the reappointment of Eugene Barnett as Town Clerk were presented to the Council. In commenting on the petitions, Mayor Laterza stated that they really didn't mean too much and that everything is settled at the voting machine. In effect, was he not saying that his responsibilities to the wishes of the people ended when he was elected? I'm sure even his most ardent supporters of whom I know many, wholeheartedly disagree with this position. Under our form of government, the prime responsibility of elected officials is to see that the wishes of the people are carried out, and not those of a chosen few.

Informal Talk Will Be Given On Hiroshima

"What Does Hiroshima Mean to us as American Citizens?" will be the subject of an informal talk by the Rev. R. Webb Leonard, assistant pastor of Vincent Methodist Church, Nutley, on Saturday, August 4, at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Epstein, 211 Satterthwaite Avenue, Nutley.

The meeting, to which the public is invited, is sponsored by the Belleville Tri-County Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy in commemoration of the first time an atom bomb was used in warfare. Monday, August 6, is Hiroshima Day, marking the 17th anniversary of that city's atomic bombing.

Mrs. Rita Simon of Belleville, program chairman of the local SANE group, explained that throughout the world Hiroshima Day has become significant as a time of dedication to the cause of world peace — that there shall never be another Hiroshima.

At the SANE sponsored meeting, the Rev. Mr. Leonard will discuss the new book "Burning Conscience" by Major Claude Eatherly, commander of the lead plane Straight Flush which dropped the atom bomb on Hiroshima. Major Eatherly, having dropped the bomb, was so haunted by what he had done that he had a nervous breakdown and spent many years in hospitals undergoing treatment. The book is the result of a long correspondence between Eatherly and the German philosopher Guenther Anders on the question of man's personal guilt in warfare.

All local residents are invited to attend the meeting to listen to voice their own opinions and to clarify their personal thinking about nuclear warfare.

2,000 Boys Play Little Leagues With Food Fair

Eighty-two little league baseball teams — an increase of seven over last year — are receiving financial aid from Food Fair Stores, Inc. this summer. One of these teams is the Belleville Little League team.

This is the ninth consecutive year that Food Fair has sponsored its little league program.

In making the announcement, Jules S. Schwartz, vice president of Food Fair, estimated that 2,000 youngsters in the firm's ten-state, Rhode Island-to-Florida chain are taking part in organized recreational activities through vital importance to local communities. At the same time, he added, "the youngsters in these programs are receiving valuable lessons in good sportsmanship, loyalty, and fair play — all so important in molding good citizens."

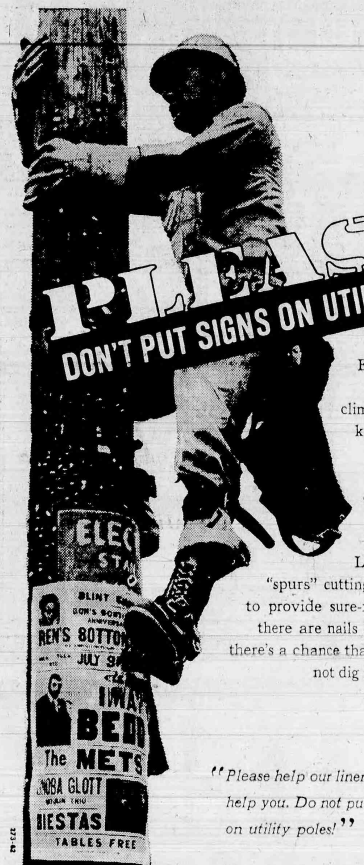

The majority of the teams supported by Food Fair operate under the auspices of the national Little League organization in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

DON'T PUT SIGNS ON UTILITY POLES

Every day, hundreds of Public Service linemen climb utility poles to help keep your electric service at its best. But many poles have become so covered with metal nails and staples that it has created a safety hazard. Linemen depend on their "spurs" cutting into the wooden pole to provide sure-footed climbing. But if there are nails and staples in the pole, there's a chance that a lineman's spurs will not dig into the wood. A serious accident can result.

"Please help our linemen to help you. Do not put signs on utility poles!"

Active Week Is Held At Rec Centers

Handball has been the latest game of interest at Mgr. Kelly playground. Two teams have been organized and have already competed in several tournaments. In the last game, bases were loaded and no outs. A line drive was blasted directly to John Gasinski, who stepped on third and threw to Albert Casaleto at first for a triple play. The big play-off has yet to be scheduled. Those participating in the games were John Gali, Robert Hozar, Paul Seigirwall, Ralph Maceri, William Dawson, John Gasinski, Michael Trembley, Albert Casaleto, Don Pizzelle, Ronald Klemet and Paula Cloutier.

Thursday was a warm day, but Montgomery playground was "cool man." All the "cats" were assembled for a "Beatnik Blast," topped with syrup and whipped cream. More cream and cream "beat" Kathy Uiter took first place. Roxanne McGraw second, and Mickey Zachary third. Some of the older children who in the 12-14 age group. The most assisted in preparing the party "beat" little beatniks were Linda, Claire Witick, Joyce Grilla, Sue San Giacomo, Michelle Santasieri and Cheryl McGraw in that order. A special prize was awarded to Donna Ann Berninger as the youngest beatnik. After refreshments the beatniks loosed. Some of the participants were ed up for a "Limbo Contest." Bob Horn, Maria Basile and Georgeanne Grinnello were the most limber at the limbo.

A candy hunt was held at Platoon playground. The winners were Catherine Butkus and Butch Perin. Some of the other hunters were Biagio Alessio, Michael Butkus, Bob Sullivan, Don Messogio, Billy Nitala, Arnold Striano and Mitchell Wark.

Fairway playground held its annual Banana Split Party. Each child brought plate and spoon and received a generous helping of banana, covered with ice cream,

George Kondreck for his outer-space "carrotman."

School 4 playground has been holding quite a few contests. One was their annual pet show. Entries consisted of a variety of dogs, a cat, a turtle, a lizard and even a ladybug. Prizes were awarded for the prettiest, oddest, and funniest. In that order they were given to Salvatore Fornaratto for his curly white poodle, Louis Corsi for his turtle, and Paul Ianna for his dog Puzie.

A doll contest was also held. Beauties from Italy, Sweden, France, and Mexico could be seen. Also making an appearance was a nun doll, "Baby Suzy, Thumbalina and Liza. First, second, and third prizes were awarded to Barbara Zaccone, Debbie Zaccaro, and Danna Zagorie.

A surprise party was held at School 4 playground for Phyllis Serritella, the handicraft director. The children, holding two cakes and candy, walked into the school yard singing "Happy Birthday."

SQUADS ARE DOING SPLENDID JOB

To the Editor, The Times-News:

It was recently brought to my attention that the boys of the Belleville Civil Defense Rescue Squad are training with the Roseville First Aid Ambulance Squad under the supervision of Chief O'Brien and Deputy Chief Ross.

They are doing a fine job over there and if they can get their ambulance in working condition, fully equipped, they will respond to calls in this city. They are also, on a later date, to ride with a Rescue Squad from another town.

In a city as large as Belleville a Rescue Squad is an important organization to help out and First Aid Ambulance Squad at fires and to get people out of cars and other accidents. The paper drive to get money for ambulance is needed to take cardiac cases, or any other calls where a person needs immediate first aid and transportation to the hospital.

COMMENTS TIMES FOR STAND ON CLERK

To the Editor, The Times-News:
I wish to commend The Belleville Times for its excellent editorial in regard to the town clerk case. I think it was most fitting, and right to the point. The hard-pressed Belleville taxpayers have finally changed their government from the miserable outdated commission-form to the council-manager form. The main factor involved was and remains that the outrageous, crazy spending spree by privilege-minded minority groups must come to an end. The new council must not lose sight of this main issue, and the taxpayers demand it, and are not in the mood to show the patience and complacency allowed in the old setup.

Belleville needs and wants a house-cleaning job by a good, politically unattached Manager, and regardless whose feelings get hurt, and I am afraid this will apply to quite a few in this case, judging from observations in the few council meetings so far. Every sensible citizen will agree that allowance for growing pains will have to be made in every new business, and the best results cannot be expected overnight, or even a few months. There are, however, still some things where a radical change must be enforced and compromise and deals must not be permitted. The harmonious cooperation of the council at present is not very encouraging, and perhaps not easily accomplished.

I wrote in my last letter that election songs rarely remain the same on the inside, and some critics and rabble-rousers are always of much better service for the town on the outside. Events have shown me quite right, one of the first resolutions made was for a nice $2,000 salary start for the councilmen, and perhaps also the first step for the establishment of a nice new gravel train. Fortunately for the taxpayers, there is still a sensible majority so far that has prevented a unified breach of election promises. I wish to salute the gentlemen involved, and hope it remains that way for the good of the town.

The town clerk case is a typical one of the outstanding evils, preventing good government, and the much needed relief for the taxpayers. Overstating, overpay and underwork have flourished in Belleville for years, exercised by power-crazy minority groups, posing with the help of their political stooges as the self-styled masters of the town. All this must stop at once, or we might as well call our councilmen Mr. Commissioner again, and I am quite sure that some, or perhaps only one, would like nothing better than that.

The Times stated the issue clearly. The question involved is NOT what is good for Tom, Dick or Harry, or what some of his friends think he is entitled to have to their way of thinking. The only point involved is "WHAT IS GOOD FOR BELLEVILLE?" So far, the majority vote has provided the right answer, and Belleville taxpayers hope that a good Manager (not the Charlie McCarthy type) will make their hopes come true in due time. If some councilmen have other pipe dreams, no time should be lost to set them on the fresh air via the recall route.

I hope The Belleville Times will keep up its good work to support the taxpayers with sensible editorials in the future, and deserve the name as a good town paper, by being an outlet for Truth and Order to bring and keep Good Government in old Belleville. It might not be easy, but it can and must be done. Let's try hard, and be also a little patient, but not too long. But why waste time fighting, name calling, and explaining, in this case let it be "Res Ipsa Loquitur."

POLICE OFFICERS DO FINE WORK

To the Editor, The Times-News:

The editorial appearing in The Belleville Times News July 18th stated that the first time in a century we have a Police Department that is not obligated to take orders from a Political Boss. Mr. Latorra, our new Mayor, should know better than that, as our Police Department was organized Feb. 1, 1907.

Our father Michael J. Flynn was the first Police Chief and never let any politicians or anyone else run or dictate policy in the way he supervised our town's law enforcement for 30 years. We consider your remark a slur upon the names of all the fine officers and men in our Police Department past and present. Therefore, in fairness to them, we call for an apology to erase the false impressions the citizens of Belleville may have gotten from this editorial.

MISS MARGARET FLYNN
MRS. AGNES FLYNN SOOY

EDITOR'S NOTE

The writers of the above letter erroneously implicate Mayor Latorra in an editorial appearing in The Times-News of July 19. It was — and is — our opinion that under the rejected Commission form of government, control of the Public Safety Department was always in the hands of a politician. This was a fact of life, and the observation is made without any effort to disparage the fine work of the fine police chiefs — past and present — who have headed the department.

Let's Look At The Record

Belleville schools are moving ahead. For the first time in 34 years a new school building is in process of construction, a senior high school at the stadium site. Planning for a junior high school in the present high school building moves ahead each day. Last February, for the first time in many years, a carefully and prudently prepared school budget was approved by the voters the first time it was presented. All personnel received salary increases, including $400 to each teacher. One may remark parenthetically that additional progress in quality education may require denial of increments to teachers who do not show improvement.

The physical facilities of the school system are generally in a high state of good repair. Old floors are gradually being replaced with sanitary tile. Classrooms are being painted. Heating systems are being improved. Roofs are being maintained; none leak. School furniture is being maintained and improved. All equipment — office, business education, shops, audio-visual, cafeteria — is being maintained and improved. Exteriors of buildings and grounds are in better condition than in many years. Damage from vandalism is being reduced.

Processing of standardized requisition lists of supplies and equipment, with some administrative improvements, is resulting in prompter delivery and distribution. September should find all supplies and textbooks awaiting the teachers in the various schools.

More than the administration and physical facilities for learning are being maintained and improved. February saw the issuance of new Board of Education policies for teachers, requiring 25 minutes more daily for the education of the children, 10 minutes in the morning and 15 minutes in the afternoon. Any parent or child now has a better opportunity to confer with a teacher. No longer is the remark heard that "some teachers beat the children out of the schools."

Regardless of some insidious opposition on the part of a few teachers, those who pay the taxes like to see more service for their money. This very popular action with the general public should be maintained by the superintendent and Board of Education. Many people today are thinking of an eight-hour day for teachers to take the place of the six-hour day in spite of the protest of some teachers that they spend much more than the 30-hour week because of work done at their homes.

With the public's general expectation of more from schools and teachers there is a tendency for teacher associations to take on more characteristics of labor unions. But the supervision and administration of those who have the protections of public employees — tenure of office, seniority rights, extended vacations, sick leave, personal business days at public expense, and many others — cannot and must not be turned over to the employees themselves. It is just a little too much for the public to pay increasingly higher salaries and then let public employees practically become independent of supervision.

Long needed progress in re-districting for more uniform class size and reduced per pupil cost is under way. The saving in the School One-School Nine situation is about $5,000 annually.

In the selection of key personnel the Superintendent of Schools has stood staunchly against all political interference with the majority of the board supporting him. Among the finest appointments ever made in Belleville schools are those of Michael Rosamilia, general supervisor; Joseph Grosch, principal of School Nine; Austin MacArthur, vice principal of the High School; Henry Miller, full-time guidance counselor; Nicholas Petti, baseball coach, and Al Lo-Balbo, basketball coach. It is hoped that this high quality will continue to be maintained in the appointment of a high school principal.

For this and much more the enlightened and efficient leadership of Dr. Frank M. Durkee, Superintendent of Schools, is responsible. Opposed at every point by several shortsighted and short memory board members, the superintendent has nevertheless moved ahead for better schools. The strong administration needed by Belleville schools is being put into effect by Dr. Durkee.

and his team of supporters. In supporting the superintendent the board has its only hope of making our schools the best. The slightest encouragement to selfish or insubordinate interests will necessarily hinder the pace of progress.

In the future, necessarily founded on the past, one sees $2,782,000 in school bonds to be marketed. The total image of Belleville and its school system will largely determine whether these bonds go at a high or low rate of interest. The long standing, obstructionist Tax Council suit before the State Department of Education must be properly buried to remove a serious cloud on Belleville bonds. Irresponsible public statements such as those coming from Ernest Arvidson, implying the scrapping of Schools Four and Two, with consequent issuance of possibly another million dollars in school bonds, are another cloud on Belleville bonds.

The board should as expeditiously as possible make clear to the public that no additional building program is now contemplated. The Town Council should also go slow on talk about any issuance of bonds and increase in debt pending the sale of the school bonds. Prudence in this area now can save Belleville thousands of dollars annually in interest charges.

Most important also is the public image of the Belleville Board of Education and administration. A "tight ship" all around will help Belleville to market $2,782,000 in school bonds at the best rate of interest. Let all selfish purposes, from whatever source, retreat before the overriding public welfare of the whole community.

Mr. McCann Is Right

One of our readers, Mr. James P. McCann, has written a letter published elsewhere in this newspaper in which he states, "Under our form of government, the prime responsibility of elected officials is to see that the wishes of the people are carried out, and not those of a chosen few."

Mr. McCann is a vigorous advocate of the measure to reappoint Eugene G. Barnett to the post of Town Clerk.

In the above quote he was taking to task Mayor Robert Laterza for allegedly flaunting the will of the people.

For the record it should be noted that we agree completely with Mr. McCann's observation that "the prime responsibility of elected public officials is to see that the wishes of the people are carried out, and not those of a chosen few." In fact that was the very point that Mayor Laterza made at the last Town Council meeting and which Mr. McCann obviously misunderstood. Mayor Laterza said he would not submit to pressure groups — that there was no greater power than that of the ballot.

The truth is that the collective voice of the people is represented at the polls on election day. What kind of government would we have if the Council responded every time to a special interest group armed with a petition?

In the case which gave rise to Mr. McCann's letter he conveniently ignores the fact that the people of Belleville — 12,000 and 10,000 strong — visited the polls and established precedent by failing to reelect to office one incumbent public official. This was clear evidence that the people wanted change. The elected Councilmen pledged themselves to effect economy at Town Hall. This is the central issue with respect to the office of Town Clerk — and not the person of Eugene Barnett — as some would have us believe.

If the Council is successful in combining the jobs of Town Manager and Town Clerk, Mr. Barnett returns to his position in the Department of Revenue and Finance as Principal Clerk. And the job to which he returns carries lifetime, civil service protection.

Let us for all time dispense with the fake statement heard in many places that to deny Barnett a reappointment to the position of Town Clerk is to put him out in the street without a job.

Every member of the Town Council pledged himself to remove the job of Town Clerk from politics. From the record it is clear that some people are determined at almost any cost to make it a political football.

We must again express admiration for the courage displayed by Mayor Laterza, Councilman G. George Addonizio, and Councilman Vincent Strumolo in rejecting the tremendous political pressures brought to bear upon them to change their position and vote a reappointment to Barnett. Laterza, Addonizio and Strumolo are determined to obtain economy at Town Hall even at the risk of losing votes. We are pleased that at least these three public officials are willing to remember their campaign pledges.

The time has come again for the manufacturers of TV sets to show their "new" merchandise. They call them 1962 models. The automobile industry waits at least until the fall to show their next year models, but the TV people are 5 months ahead. It does not make sense, of course, except perhaps for the reason that the public has been so much indoctrinated with the word "NEW," that the manufacturers think the customers will stream in and gobble up the "new" sets. There is not anything new, except a slightly different cabinet design. As far as performance goes, there is no difference. The so-called TV "portables" are deteriorating in quality, as the prices drop. This is regrettable. Portables, due to their compact design, even at their best have limitations. To lower the quality can only mean one thing—trouble. We have written about this repeatedly during the year. If you have need for a TV portable, we advise not to buy the cheapest model. It will turn out in the long run to be expensive since it will require more frequent repairs.

With the exception of one manufacturer, the industry so far has refrained from lowering the overall quality of the regular 22" sets, which is the most popular size. The prices are about the same. Some factories which have changed over to modern, more efficient production methods, even have lowered their prices somewhat, while those factories, which still use the now obsolete handworking assembly method, find themselves in a price squeeze, since it is more costly in terms of wages and thus the end product is more expensive. In order to justify the higher prices they attempt to tell you that handworking is better. This is not correct, of course, the contrary is true.

WILL YOUR INSURANCE PAY THE WHOLE BILL?

It probably won't. State Farm will! Most car insurance pays only a limited amount for emergency road service. But State Farm Mutual pays the whole bill for such things as delivery of gasoline, mechanical first aid at the place of disablement, and towing to the nearest place where repairs can be done—no dollar limit! Yet, State Farm road service coverage costs only $2 a year or less! That's less than most other companies charge. Yes, you're better off with State Farm—the company that's famous for low rates for careful drivers. And it's the world's largest. Calme today.

WHAT IS AN OTOLOGIST?
Answer. — A physician who specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of diseases of the ear. Most physicians agree that it may be dangerous to use self treatments for any ear problem. Sometimes your family physicians will advise you to consult an Otolologist, if your condition is complicated.
Most prescriptions for the ear are specially compounded under aseptic conditions requiring pharmaceutical skill.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?
