High School Principal Is Appointed

Dr. Ward R. Young, for the past eight years a high school principal at Fallsburg, N.Y., was appointed principal of the Belleville High School Tuesday night by the Board of Education.

The board followed the recommendation of Superintendent of Schools Frank M. Durkee, who commented, "The appointment of Dr. Young, together with the recent appointment of Austin J. MacArthur as high school vice principal, should provide our high school with quality leadership in secondary education."

The appointment was unanimous on the part of the seven members of the board. Mrs. Norma McCool said she hoped the action would be a forerunner of further harmony on the body, which has made few major appointments without dissent, at least, in recent months.

Board member Ernest Arvidsson, who has frequently been critical of Dr. Durkee, congratulated the superintendent on the manner in which he had presented the several candidates for the principalship. Dr. Durkee in turn congratulated the board for the amount of time it had given to interviewing the position-seekers. There had originally been 26 candidates for the position, but many were eliminated for one reason or another earlier this year.

Dr. Young was appointed on a 12-month basis at the full salary rate, 1.8 of the maximum teacher salary, $15,350. The educator, who is 39, is married and has five children. He hopes to move to Belleville when he is able to find proper housing.

Dr. Young will assume his position immediately. He succeeds Hugh D. Kille, the former principal, who retired last December.

The Board of Education received 25 applications for the high school principalship, 4 from the local school system. These were reduced by Dr. Durkee to 7 applicants, all of whom were interviewed in depth by the board. The number was finally reduced to two, the final recommendation coming from Dr. Durkee.

Dr. Young was principal of the Fallsburg Senior High School 1954-58 and participated in the planning of a new junior-senior high school there. He was principal of the latter school 1958-62. Prior to assuming the duties of principal he was for five years a teacher of physical education, assistant director of athletics and varsity basketball coach at Fallsburg Central School.

Belleville's new high school principal received his B. S. degree from Syracuse University in 1947 and his M.A. from Columbia University in 1948. He received his Ed.D. from Columbia in 1961.

In 1947-48 Dr. Young was assistant basketball coach, basketball coach and teacher of science and mathematics at Passaic Valley High School.

He was a salaried assistant to the Institute of Field Studies, Columbia University, 1960-61, and he wrote a doctorate thesis on "School Plant Needs." He was commended by the superintendent of the Fallsburg schools for "excellent work with the curriculum in the new high school."

Golden Calls No-Salary Move 'An Evil Effort'

Councilman James R. Golden this week called attempts to put the salary for Belleville councilmen at $1 a year "an evil effort." He charged the lack of salary would "deny the right of the common man to ever participate in the administration of his government."

He said that only persons of affluence would be able to serve on the council.

"We would be deprived of the services of our greatest representatives," he said. "Only bank presidents and the people who have no spokesman other than those allied with wealth."

Golden also said he was charged that politics was influencing the council's actions and commented it was badly disrupting prospects of cooperative harmony.

AN EDITORIAL:

Eugene G. Barnett

Editor's Note: Mr. Eugene G. Barnett, addressed a letter to us printed in full in the adjacent column, in which he comments upon an editorial appearing in the July 26th issue of the Times-News. The following editorial reply takes the form of an open letter to Mr. Barnett.

Dear Mr. Barnett:

I am always happy to receive letters from readers, critical or complimentary. The only thing we ask is that our correspondent tell the truth.

Either through ignorance, short memory or outright deception your letter does violence to the truth.

For example, the fourth paragraph of your letter reads as follows:

"Misstatement No. 1: — I am not Acting Town Clerk. I am the legal and permanent Town Clerk until such time as the Town Council, acting in accordance with the Administrative Code, designates otherwise."

There must be something wrong with my memory for in the July 26 issue of the Times-News which carried the editorial you allege contains "numerous exaggerations and misstatements skillfully concocted," there appears on Page Three, Column Two, a legal insertion ordered by you of a Town Ordinance which by law bears your signature. Now what title do you suppose appears directly beneath your signature — Town Clerk or Acting Town Clerk? And who put it there?

So that I cannot be accused by you of further "exaggerations and misstatements," Mr. Barnett, I have gone to the trouble and expense to have a zinc engraving made of the legal insertion you gave to our reporter which bears your signature and your title — and here it is:

AN ORDINANCE TO REPEAL AN ORDINANCE TO ESTABLISH THE OFFICE OF ASSISTANT TOWN ATTORNEY IN AND FOR THE TOWN OF BELLEVILLE, AND TO FIX THE SALARY THEREFOR, ADOPTED NOVEMBER 9, 1955.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF BELLEVILLE NEW JERSEY, AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That an ordinance to establish the office of Assistant Town Attorney in and for the Town of Belleville, and to fix the salary therefor, adopted November 9, 1955, as amended, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage and publication, according to law.

Passed first reading July 16, 1962.
Passed second reading July 24, 1962.
Passed third reading August 1, 1962.
Attest: [Signature]
Councilman
Attest: [Signature]
Acting Town Clerk

It was not my intent, Mr. Barnett, to make a federal case of your title but since you raised the question in a manner reflecting upon my integrity and accuracy it is important that the reading public obtain the facts so that our people know where the truth lies.

Now what about your fifth paragraph which you label No. 2. It reads as follows: "The petition circulated by my friends stated clearly the purpose and intent in detailed and understandable language. The fact that I could return to a pre-Clerk status was never concealed or denied."

Mr. Barnett, do you really mean what you say in this paragraph? Let's look at the record. Again, in that same July 26 issue of the Times-News, we published a letter appearing on Page Two, Column One, written by your landlady and your most energetic petition-circulator. The author of the letter is a fine lady who often interests herself in civic causes. She is Mrs. A. C. Izzo and resides at 33 Van Houten Place, which is also your residence. Was Mrs. Izzo under the impression that you had another job waiting for you in City Hall if you were unable to gain reappointment as Town Clerk?

Let's take a confidential look at the contents of her letter. Mrs. Izzo begins her letter comparing your case with that of former Building Inspector Thomas Greco, (present councilman) when former Commissioner Kenneth Smith seven years ago abolished the job of Building Inspector thus putting Tom Greco out of a job. Subsequently the New Jersey Courts ordered the town to reinstate Greco to his old job with back pay.

After reviewing the Greco events, Mrs. Izzo directs her attention to Councilman Tom Greco in these words: "Fate has turned the tables on Tom, for one of Tom's first duties will be to either FIRE OR RETAIN (capitals supplied by me) a fellow Town Hall employee. Eugene Barnett has been employed at the Hall 12 years, etc."

Mr. Barnett — please note the language Mrs. Izzo uses — FIRE OR RETAIN — is there any doubt in your mind now that one of your chief supporters — and landlady — was under the impression you would be out of a job if you failed to gain reappointment as Town Clerk?

In the light of the foregoing was I wrong on July 26 when I editorially stated, "Will he (Barnett) be thrown out of a job as some people have been misled into accepting as fact? The answer is a simple NO."

Thank you, Mr. Barnett, for confirming my statement.

Let's take a peek at your sixth paragraph which you identify as "No. 3."

Among the points made in my editorial of the 26th I stated, "If Barnett secured reappointment Tuesday night he could have remained in the job for another 25 years and then retire. This action, supported by Greco

Barnett Makes Comments On Times Editorial

Town Clerk Eugene G. Barnett has written a letter to The Times-News criticizing an editorial published July 26. The editorial was on the general topic of the need for economy in Belleville's new council-manager government. A reply to Mr. Barnett's letter, which is printed below just as we received it, will be found in an adjoining column.

MR. BARNETT'S LETTER

To the Editor, The Times-News: I do not think your July 26th editorial could ever be considered factual or creditable by anyone seriously concerned about the operation or economy of our town.

To begin with, I feel I must reassure my fellow townsmen, they need have no fear that I would wish to increase their tax burden even one iota and if this Administration can prove real economy and support in combining the Manager's job with that of Town Clerk, then I will relinquish my office of Town Clerk.

However, in all fairness to myself and to my many friends, neighbors and supporters, I must correct the numerous exaggerations and misstatements you so skillfully concocted.

Misstatement No. 1: I am not acting Town Clerk. I am the legal and permanent Town Clerk until such time as the Town Council, acting in accordance with the Administrative Code, designates otherwise.

No. 2: The petition circulated by my friends stated clearly the purpose and intent in detailed and understandable language. The fact that I could return to a pre-Clerk status was never concealed or denied.

No. 3: The mythical $300.00 savings dwindles down considerably when one compares the Principal Clerk's salary of $5,300 plus the additional $2,000 to the Town Manager's salary for assuming the title, plus the salaries of the secretaries to whom extra duties will be assigned in order to perform the necessary clerical work involved.

No. 4: The snide reference to coffee breaks is hardly worth commenting on; however, I will say the editor displays his own ignorance about the recognized importance of a coffee break.

No. 5: The decorum with which the people who attended the meeting conducted themselves is worthy of the highest praise and not the abominable description related to you by your representative in attendance.

As to what virtues were displayed by all the Councilmen at the meeting, I will defer comment and bow to the opinions of my fellowman.

Board Members Do Some Fencing Saved Sum Of $10,000

Members of the Board of Education quoted well known sayings to each other Tuesday night during a discussion of whether the expense of constructing a $774 fence at School 10 was warranted.

Said George Brown, "Good fences make good neighbors."

Said Norma McCool, "Haste makes waste."

Board Attorney Max Schwartz advised the board that because the property that it is proposed to fence in is now being used for private parking it is mandatory that the board take action.

The board voted for the fence, 6 to 1, Mrs. McCool voting no.

20 Town Employees Received Monthly $ Car Allowances

List Includes Acting Town Clerk Eugene Barnett; Twelve Received Paid Telephone Service

A survey submitted to the Town Council reveals that 20 employees of the Town of Belleville have been receiving car allowances totaling more than $600 monthly and 12 have been receiving telephone allowances totaling approximately $90 monthly.

Multi-Zone Bus Patrons To Pay More

Belleville riders of Public Service buses who travel beyond a one-zone limit will have to pay a higher fare starting at 12.91 a.m. Sunday. Thousand of passengers will be affected in this immediate area.

A representative of Public Service Coordinated Transport told The Times-News his company has no figures that reveal just how many residents of any given community take multi-zone rides, and he tried to minimize the effects of the fare hike by reporting that over 78 per cent of its patrons are one-zone riders. However, the fare increase, which was granted August 1 by the Public Utilities Commission, will add an estimated $89,000 to the company's annual revenue, and as one Belleville rider commented, "That's all going to come out of the pockets of us bus patrons."

The increase calls for a 25-cent fare for two-zone rides, up from 20 cents, and 30 cents for three-zone rides, up from 25 cents. There will be no increase in student ticket rates or fares on long route routes not charged under the zone system.

In granting the hike the PUC labeled the existing intrastate schedule "unjust" and one which the boundary situation has not been made since 1953, although some changes have been made through the years. Public Service has been granted until June 1, 1963, to file the registry.

The PUC, however, ordered the company to reappraise its aged zone boundaries. Originally placed at municipal borders, the boundary lines now make little or no sense.

A review of the boundary situation has not been made since 1953, although some changes have been made through the years. Public Service has been granted until June 1, 1963, to file the registry.

Mrs. Laterza Has Operation

Mrs. Robert Laterza, wife of Mayor Laterza, entered Clara Maass Hospital Tuesday for a plastic surgery operation performed by Dr. Mancini-Langere on Wednesday.

Plastic surgery was required as a result of injuries Mrs. Laterza sustained in an automobile accident on May 12. Mrs. Laterza, a teacher at School 7, is expected to be released from the hospital this week to convalesce at home.

The survey was conducted by Acting Town Manager Francis H. McCoy, who has held up the payment of these allowances since the new Town Council took office July 1. McCoy had the power to pay them but said he first wanted to learn the new Council's policy in regard to the allowances.

A check with Nutley officials reveals no Town employees receive regular monthly car allowances except visiting nurses who receive $30.00 per month. No Nutley Town employees are reimbursed for home telephones.

According to McCoy's survey the June car allowances were as follows for each of the 20 persons as named:

Thomas J. McLaughlin, purchasing agent, $35; William J. Friel, tax collector, $21.66; Francis H. McCoy, acting town manager, $21.66; Eugene G. Barnett, acting town clerk, $21.66; Emanuele DeNoia Jr., acting tax assessor, $35; Edward J. Lister, recreation coordinator, $35; Robert E. Cook, recreation superintendent, $35; Charles H. McGinnis, chief of police, $20; Charles B. Tedesco, acting municipal prosecutor, $35; Hugh Welsh, administrative clerk in Public Works department, $35; Edward O'Connor, plumbing inspector, $35; John J. Hewitt, director of welfare, $35; Ralph Risoli, registrar, $21.66; Frank D. Rovell, superintendent of signals, $7.60; Edward J. Lister, recreation coordinator, $20; Donald Smith, deputy chief of police, $7.21; Emerson J. Bush, deputy chief of police, $7.21; Charles H. McGinnis, chief of police, $7.21; Charles B. Tedesco, acting municipal prosecutor, $7.21; Hugh Welsh, administrative clerk, $7.21; Ralph Vara, superintendent of public works, $7.21; Edward O'Connor, plumbing inspector, $8.50; Carl Hundertfand, fire chief, $7.21.

The following were the June telephone allowances:

Edward Burdy, health officer, $2.71; Ralph Risoli, registrar, $2.71; Frank D. Rovell, superintendent of signals, $7.60; Edward J. Lister, recreation coordinator, $20; Donald Smith, deputy chief of police, $7.21; Emerson J. Bush, deputy chief of police, $7.21; Charles H. McGinnis, chief of police, $7.21; Charles B. Tedesco, acting municipal prosecutor, $7.21; Hugh Welsh, administrative clerk, $7.21; Ralph Vara, superintendent of public works, $7.21; Edward O'Connor, plumbing inspector, $8.50; Carl Hundertfand, fire chief, $7.21.

Belleville Taxpayers Will Be Saved Sum Of $10,000

William A. Sommers, manager of Franklin Township since 1959, will become Belleville's first town manager September 1 and he will also assume the duties of town clerk at that time. Mayor Robert M. Laterza said this week that Sommers is the unanimous choice of the Town Council and will be formally appointed at the regular Town Council meeting next Tuesday.

Executive Posts Are Filled At Mansol Ceramics

ALAN SCHWARTZ

Mansol Ceramics Company of Belleville, has announced the appointment of Alan Schwartz as vice president. In his new position, Mr. Schwartz will direct the manufacturing operation.

After World War II and prior to joining Mansol in 1951, Mr. Schwartz was associated with the Bureau of Highway Economics, New Jersey State Highway Department. He and his wife and three sons live in Livingston.

In addition to the complete line of sealing glasses manufactured for use primarily in the hermetic seal industry, Mr. Schwartz will be responsible for manufacturing by Mansol in the recently entered organic field with specially epoxy films and pellets.

T. G. Rabito has been appointed senior chemist, heading up Mansol's newly organized organic department. In this capacity, Mr. Rabito will be responsible for technical service and the expansion of the present organic products line of specialty epoxy films and pellet preforms.

Mr. Rabito will also initiate Mansol's entrance into the development of organic polymers for applications in the ceramic, electrical, electronic and allied fields. The structural and specialty field will be investigated also.

Mr. Rabito's former experience has included positions as chemical consultant for chemical divisions of several important firms in the New York area. He and his wife make their home at 198 Little Street, Belleville.

Mr. Rabito resides at 120 Branch Brook Drive with his wife and three children.

Post 105 Will Meet To Make Plans For Installing Officers

Members of Belleville Post 105, the American Legion, are urged to attend the next meeting of the Post to be held at the post home on Monday, August 13, at 8:30 p.m.

Final plans for the installation of the Post officers will be presented by George Mitchell, installation chairman. The installation will be held on Saturday, August 18, at which time Commander-elect John Kay and his staff of officers will be installed by County Commander John Garrity of Newark.

ZUPARELLA TAKES
REAL ESTATE COURSE

Joseph Zuparella of 71 Wilbur Street, Belleville, is enrolled in an accelerated 15-week summer evening real estate course at the Vale School of Real Estate and Insurance, Newark.

Mayor Laterza said he was highly pleased with the selection of Sommers. He termed the Franklin Township man a "top flight executive who had expressed himself as not merely being willing to assume the duties of clerk as well as that of manager, but as being anxious to do both jobs."

"This will mean a saving of $10,000," the Mayor said, "which will go toward paying the manager's salary."

The job will pay Sommers $15,000 annually, $5,000 more than he had been getting in Franklin Township. He is reported to be highly regarded in the community—he is now leaving.

A man of 35, Sommers is a native of Duluth, Minn. He was graduated from Middlebury College, Vermont, where he majored in political science and public administration. He received a master's degree in public administration from Harvard University in 1953.

From 1953 to 1954 he was a research associate for the Colorado Municipal League. In 1954 he became personnel director and administrative assistant to the city manager of Peoria, Ill., where he served for two years. He was then named town manager of Bensalem Township, Pa., which had just changed its form of government, and served there until moving to Franklin Township.

Sommers served in the Navy from 1944 to 1946. He is married and is the father of four children.

Ely S. Rubin Is Appointed Publisher Of American Brewer

Ely S. Rubin of Belleville has been appointed publisher of American Brewer, the periodical serving the brewing industry since 1868.

Mr. Rubin is a veteran of the alcoholic beverage industry, having previously held editorial posts with New Jersey Beverage Journal and Liquor Publications. He was in charge of southern United States for Puerto Rico Rum Promotion and in sales and promotion for Frankfort Distillers. During World War II he fought with the Fourth Infantry and earned a combat infantry leader and rose from private to captain. Before that he operated a tavern in Kearny. He is a graduate of New York University.

Mr. Rubin resides at 120 Branch Brook Drive with his wife and three children.

It's a double prize next week for the person who first correctly identifies the picture on the Map Page. That's because no correct identifications of the photo last week. We're really a little surprised because it wasn't hard to find a photo as some have said which have, nevertheless, been tagged correctly by astute readers.

Well, you have another chance this week with a brand new picture. Remember it's double money this time, so it's well worth your while to turn now on the Map Page and try your skill. Identify the person either in the picture and name the place where the picture was taken.

There is only one correct answer to the question, and when a winner is announced the source for that answer will be revealed. Please note that the answer must be drawn in person at the office of The Times, 248 Washington Avenue, or by mail. Phone calls will not be accepted.

The prize will be awarded to the one who first submits the correct answer.

To the Editor, The Times-News: Through the medium of your newspaper, and on behalf of the "Friends of Eugene C. Barnett," we want to sincerely thank each and every Bellevillian who so kindly and graciously signed the petition to retain him as town clerk.

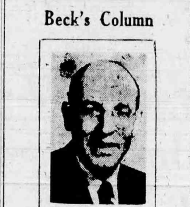

It might be well for us to tell those friends there were 434 signatures on the petition already submitted to our town council at its meeting held on July 24 last, and that we are continuing obtaining additional signatures to supplement those already presented.

Thank you for your newspaper's coverage of this particular issue.

The first to show "new" models every year, traditionally, is RCA. This company still seems to set the pace. The others apparently wait until RCA has shown and then are guided by RCA's pricing. This seems amazing, since RCA does not command the same strong position any more as they once did, at least not as far as black and white TV is concerned. In color, of course, it is RCA all the way as yet, although we probably will see several manufacturers making their own color sets this fall. This is not at all surprising. It is sure now that we will have 3 stations transmitting in color this fall plus the experimental UHF channel 31. Speculation is rampant in the industry when CBS will be compelled to take up regular color broadcasts again. It won't be long and some of CBS' advertisers will demand color. There are rumors that CBS acquired a Hollywood movie color studio. If this is true, we will probably see this network in color this fall also.

The consensus of opinion in the industry is that there will be a great shortage of color sets this fall. The only manufacturer of color tubes is RCA. Although they have started to build a second tube factory, it won't be in production for this fall business. Since December last year there has been consistently a shortage of many color TV models. It is expected that this will become worse this year.

Prices for color sets will stay the same, starting at about $500 - for a set with a plain black metal cabinet. There are no new techniques or developments indicating that the prices will come down soon. The present sets are very good. They require practically no adjustments once they are installed and initially adjusted right. Service requirements in our experience are far less than on many black and white sets. It should be pointed out that it is of the utmost importance that a color set is adjusted correctly for the location where it is used. This requires knowledgeable and experienced technicians, of which unfortunately there are only too few. There is no such thing as packing a brand new color set in front of your home, and use it. It is absolutely necessary that it be adjusted for your location. This adjustment is different for every different location. Unless this is done correctly, a color set will never perform right.

Mrs. James Serritella

Mrs. Clementine (Dean) Serritella of 108 Franklin Street, Belleville, widow of James Serritella, died at Clara Mast Memorial Hospital, after a long illness. She was 83.

Born in Newark, Mrs. Serritella had lived in Belleville for the last 57 years. She belonged to St. Anthony's Church and was a member of the Belleville Chapter of Deborah Hospital. She had a tavern in Belleville for 40 years and operated it since her husband died five years ago.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Catherine Domenick of Belleville; two sons, Theodore and Angelo, both of Belleville; two daughters, Mrs. Vita Squarito of Belleville, who resided with her mother, and Mrs. Catherine Messina, of Bloomfield; two brothers, Angelo and William Domenick, both of Belleville; a sister, Mrs. Katherine Baer of Belleville; and 11 grandchildren.

The funeral was Wednesday from Zaro's Funeral Home, Bloomfield, with a Mass at 9:30 a.m. in St. Anthony's Church, Belleville.

Mrs. Mildred M. Schleifer died Tuesday, August 7, at her home, 73 Prospect Street, following a

In the light of the results, one wonders how many taxpayers could be induced to sign a petition calling for a $300,000 savings at Town Hall?

Mr. Barnett, in "fairness to yourself, your many friends, neighbors and supporters" you need not issue a public apology for your July 30 letter. Your self-interest is understandable. It is unfortunate, however, that you would torture the truth to bolster your indefensible position.

A Proper Subject For Investigation

On June 8th the then Council candidate James R. Golden said in a statement that he was bringing suit against former Commissioner Kenneth Smith, himself a council candidate, for charging Golden with alleged use of town-owned property, facilities and personnel to print and mail Golden campaign literature.

At the time Golden accused Smith of defaming him.

As of this writing Golden has failed to bring suit against Smith, explaining he has three years to act. According to Smith's statement he filed a complaint with the Essex County Prosecutor's office.

Smith's charge against Golden is a serious one. Golden has permitted himself to take office with this cloud hanging over his head. In justice to Golden the Council may want to appoint an investigating committee to determine the facts concerning Smith's allegation and not wait for Golden to file suit. We would think Golden would want such an investigation to remove the last lingering doubt anyone may have concerning the Smith accusation. An alleged misuse of town property and personnel is a proper subject for Council investigation. For Golden to oppose an investigation puts him out of character and permits the question to remain.

Our Police Department

In the July 19 issue of The Times-News we published a page one editorial entitled "Laterza's Narcotics Drive."

While the editorial dealt primarily with Mayor Laterza's inaugural speech in which he declared open war on narcotics peddlers, users, gamblers and political fixers, we made a passing reference to the police department.

This is what we said, "We congratulate our police department for its fine work and support of our new Town Council. For the first time in this century we have a police department that is not obliged to take orders from a political boss. Under the Faulkner Act which governs our new government the Police Department is directly responsible to the Town Manager — a non-political individual."

In last week's Times-News we published a letter received from Councilman James Golden in which, among other things, he said, "I, like many proud friends and relatives of men and superior officers of Belleville's police department from Chiefs down, take strong issue with the false concept that these stalwart guardians of Belleville's law, in the past, were flunkies who served under political bosses. Never to my ken and knowledge have conditions of this nature actually obtained, yet from reading a recent front page editorial this impression might be obtained were one not to inquire further. It is just such deceptive presentation of news that must be stopped if truth in the printed word is to be the order of the day in reporting Belleville news in our town paper."

Since Golden wants to speak about the police department it is valid to examine Golden's pre-election talk on the subject.

Concerning former Public Safety Director Harry Sullivan's management of our police department, following is a press release which Golden asked this newspaper to publish and which appeared in the May 31 Times-News.

Attacking former public safety director Harry Sullivan, Candidate Golden's press release stated, "Golden emphasized that the presentment offered up by the Grand Jury concluded that the Police Department of the Town of Belleville, and especially the Detective Bureau, was poorly organized and showed laxity in operation."

"This presentment," said Golden, "was an outgrowth of an investigation into alleged gambling and a shooting in the Silver Lake section of town, tends to show incompetency and/or irresponsibility of Sullivan to properly discharge the duties of a trusted public official."

The foregoing quotes are directly from the typewriter of James Golden, the council candidate. Judging from Golden's latest statement about our police department it appears he has had a sudden change of heart.

No intimidation or misrepresentation by Golden will silence The Times-News in its effort to put the finger on the failings of any public officials. The editorial columns of the legitimate press represent the personal expression of the editor-publisher. We shall continue to express ourselves on public issues in the same forceful manner which has characterized our past, Golden notwithstanding.

With a non-political Town Manager our police department will be free of political influence — and this is the way it should be.

The Issue, Mr. Golden, Is How Sacred Is a Campaign Pledge?

Councilman James R. Golden, former commission critic who as a critic spent eight years criticizing expenditures by the former Town Commission, continues his frantic efforts to induce a majority of the Town Council to adopt his resolution to pay themselves a $1500 annual salary.

Councilman Golden should be made to realize at issue is not the reasonableness of his salary demands. The central issue is — how sacred is a campaign pledge? Golden has led us and others to believe — before election that is — that he was a "dedicated citizen." And in a pre-election statement Golden said "dedicated citizens would serve their town for $1 per year." Before election Councilman Thomas P. Greco said he believed salaries for Councilmen should be "$600-700."

If campaign pledges are made to be broken then both Golden and Greco have every right to vote themselves a $1,500 — or for that matter — a $5,000 salary. Why stop with $1,500 — might just as well return to the $2,000 and the $2,500 Golden originally requested.

In support of his plea for a $2,000 annual salary, at the July 1 organization meeting of the Town Council, Golden said, "The duties of a Councilman require him to attend a lot of fancy affairs and buy a lot of tickets. I'm not going to take food from my family to pay for things like that."

We have examined the law thoroughly and find nothing that requires a "Councilman to attend a lot of fancy affairs and buy a lot of tickets" as Golden pleads.

Jim Golden is confusing his duties of Councilman with the chores of politicians. If Golden wants to act but his part as a politician and "attend lots of fancy affairs and buy lots of tickets" by all means he should proceed — but not ask the taxpayers to pick up the tab for his political activity.

Any legitimate expense incurred by a Councilman in the discharge of his duties can be paid for by the town — and Golden has arranged for that occurrence by voting to establish a $500 expense account for each Councilman — but as to salaries — let the Councilmen stand up to their campaign pledges or else be recognized as hypocrites.

How Trustworthy Is Your Baby Sitter?

How trustworthy is your baby sitter? This question arises by virtue of a conversation overheard last week on a Public Service No. 13 bus as it wended its way through Washington Avenue in Belleville.

Two high-school-age young ladies were commiserating over the problems they encounter when taking on baby sitting chores. The first young lady was heard to comment, "Gee, I have an awful time with the children for whom I baby sit. At night they are loud, talkative and somewhat unmanageable."

The second young lady responded with, "I found the way to solve my problems with the kids I take care of. When they get unmanageable I stick their heads in the oven, and after they become drowsy, I put them to bed."

Up to this point, the second young lady has been very lucky.

Keeping a child's head in the oven with open gas jets may make a child drowsy but the thin line between life and death for the child is measured by how much gas a child can inhale before she dies.

The woman who overheard this conversation left the bus in Belleville so there was no way of knowing whether or not the baby sitters reside in Belleville or Nutley. It is well that the Belleville lady was eavesdropping since her eavesdropping effort may be the means of saving a child's life.

The foregoing incident is being published in the public interest to alert parents to the hidden dangers that an irresponsible baby sitter presents.

Most of our baby sitters are reliable and responsible young citizens. It is the exception that parents should guard against.

and Golden, would have cost the taxpayers an estimated $300,000 or about a third of a million dollars."

You question this observation with the following: "The mythical $300,000 savings dwindles down considerably when one computes the Principal Clerk's salary of $5,300 plus the additional $2,000 to the Town Manager's salary for assuming the title, plus the salaries of the secretaries to whom extra duties will be assigned in order to perform the necessary clerical work involved."

This observation on your part, Mr. Barnett, reveals a touch of the municipal fiscal philosophy of your political sponsor, former Mayor Isadore Padula. Serving as Town Clerk for the past three years under former Mayor Isadore Padula, apparently you have absorbed some of his municipal administrative philosophy — and that is — retain unnecessary people on the public payroll.

Once again let us together review the statistics I offered in arriving at a suggested $300,000-plus savings over the next 25 years if the job of Town Clerk were merged with that of Town Manager.

On July 26th I said the job of Town Clerk was costing taxpayers $8,500 a year base pay plus pension contributions, payroll taxes, Blue Shield-Blue Cross benefits, and other fringe benefits. I further stated that in the not-too-distant future the job was slated for a $10,560 annual base pay. I estimated all these costs, considered over the projected period one could serve in the office with protection of tenure, would amount to at least $300,000.

You enter a dissent although you do not question the manner in which I arrive at the $300,000 sum. In dissenting you imply the salary of Principal Clerk, $5,300, should be considered before arriving at any possible savings effected by combining the jobs of Town Manager and Town Clerk.

Your inference is false and misleading. While you may return to the post of Principal Clerk do you suppose the person now occupying that job is to be retained on the public payroll? If you believe this then you have misread the handwriting on the wall and the determination of Mayor Robert Laterza, Councilmen Vincent Strumolo and G. George Addonizio to effect economies at Town Hall.

When you state that the Town Manager will receive an additional $2,000 salary for performing the duties of Town Clerk you are either ignorant of the truth or deliberately misrepresenting the facts. Mr. William Sommers, the Town Manager-designate, at a conference with the Town Council a week ago Monday night was subjected to persistent questioning on this point by Councilmen James Golden and Thomas Greco. Sommers replied that he would insist upon receiving the $15,000 salary with or without the job of Town Clerk. If there remains any doubt about this in your mind ask Mr. Sommers.

As for your paragraphs seven and eight designated by you as "No. 4" and "No. 5" suffice it to make two points.

A. Coffee Breaks? How about a break for the taxpayer, Mr. Barnett?

B. I have complete confidence in the integrity of my Belleville Times - News news editor, Mr. Walter Storms, a 40-year veteran of the journalism profession who is held in the highest regard and esteem by public officials in communities which his newspapers served before joining the staff of The Times-News. Would that you displayed a fraction of the accuracy in your letter as Mr. Storms demonstrated in the news account of the Council meeting reported in the July 26 issue of this newspaper and which you criticize.

Mr. Barnett — to sum up — your letter reveals a shocking ignorance of elementary arithmetic and raises serious questions concerning your competency to discharge the duties of Clerk — the job which is waiting for you come September 1.

The wisdom of a majority of the Town Council to continue you in the office of Acting Town Clerk for a 30-day period pending the engagement of a Town Manager is proven by developments since July 24th, the night of the Council meeting.

The Town Manager-designate is more than anxious to assume the additional duties of Town Clerk thus saving taxpayers that $300,000 plus we've been talking about.

For a majority of the Town Council to have followed your advice, the insistent demands of the former economy - minded town critic, James Golden, and the clamor call of your overnight convert, Councilman Tom Greco, would have been sheer folly — a $300,000 blunder.

Company Develops Tiniest Of Labels

Belleville Firm Devises New Type Of Miniature Label

So small it must be read with a magnifying glass, a new, ultra-tiny label called Microlabel has just been announced by American Tag Company of Belleville. The unique new label permits the identification of micro-miniature electronic and other devices too small to be marked by any other means. This advance is the result of two years of intensive research and development by American Tag Company in this complex phase of product identification.

Indicative of the small size in which Microlabels can be supplied is one application successfully devised during the new product's development state. The need was to mark a diode actually smaller in diameter than a pin head. The Microlabel developed for this application measures .025" in diameter with characters .001" high, and carries a 4-digit serial number.

Depending on the application, the new Microlabel can be used to display information in several ways. Probably the most remarkable to date is the micro-printing of schematic circuit diagram labels that completely identify the functions of micromodules. This ready information obviates the need to refer to the number on a standard label, and in turn, to check a reference book containing the circuit diagram.

Other methods for containing information include 1) numerically — any number of digits, and 2) indicia — that is, where a portion of the information remains constant while another portion, such as a serial number, can be varied.

Significant, too, in the American Tag Microlabel is its ability to survive extreme environmental situations. Microlabels have withstood immersion in liquid nitrogen in -196 degrees C (-321 degrees F), exposure to temperatures of 200 degrees C (392 degrees F), for 1,000 hours. They resist most of the solvents encountered in electronic manufacturing, and pass salt spray and moisture tests.

Despite its size, the American Tag Microlabel allows fine quality printing reproduction. Adhesion, too, to glass, metal, ceramics and a wide variety of other materials is exceptionally reliable. American Tag's ability to produce its Microlabels with these characteristics as well as with a selection of specially compounded backings, adhesives and surface materials makes the company's service sought after by leading companies and government agencies.

Microlabels are an extension of the company's Miniature Pressure Sensitive Label line. These labels, which can readily be read with the naked eye, also possess the ability to withstand the environmental extremes encountered in outer space. Many of the components marked with American's Miniature Labels are destined for use in missiles and satellites.

Donald Ryan Studies South Of The Border

Donald Ryan, 285 Holmes Street, Belleville, is studying south of the border at Mexico City College, which is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. According to statistics released by the Institute of International Education, the college has a larger enrollment of American students outside the borders of the United States than any other university abroad except the Sorbonne in Paris.

At MCC all classes are taught in English, except for a few in the graduate school. The credit system is the same as in U. S. universities and colleges. Courses of study, taught by a distinguished international faculty educated in Europe, Latin America

More Case Histories Are Noted

Here are some more case histories of Belleville children who are much in need of a camping experience this summer. Contributions should be made out to the Belleville Fresh Air Fund and sent to the Chamber of Commerce, 246 Washington Avenue.

CASE 6

Jane is nine years old. She is the oldest in a family of four children. Her father is a semi-invalid and her mother works to support the family. Jane helps her father take care of the younger children and tries to help with the housekeeping. Sometimes when daddy is not quite as well as usual a great deal of responsibility falls on Jane. Then she must manage the little ones alone and do all she can to take care of daddy too. Jane often feels that a little girl can't really help very much when she sees her mother crying but Jane's mother does know how much she depends upon the child and she is aware that Jane is sacrificing much of her own childhood to be such a grown up assistant.

Mother and daddy too, dearly love Jane and would like very much to be able to send her to camp for a couple of weeks of healthy fun and recreation. Vacation time is here and it would be possible for the family to make vacation without Jane for a short time.

Wouldn't you like to help Jane recapture the glow and magic of being a child again by helping to send her to camp?

CASE 7

Joseph is the only male in a household of women. First, there is grandmother, then mother, then aunt, then four sisters.

It is pretty hard to be a real boy when no one around quite understands how you feel about worms and turtles and tort bugs and washing behind the ears. It's not that people don't try but girls and women just naturally don't care as much about these things, or maybe they care too much, about washing behind the ears especially.

Joe's father died two years ago in an accident. His mother moved her family of little children in with her mother and sister to help with the expenses and now both she and her sister work while grandma takes care of the children during the day.

Everything is going along pretty well now but there is no money for extra like camp for Joseph.

Several weeks among friendly boys and counselors would help Joe become a man.

CASE 8

Donald is a handicapped ten-year-old boy. He has been able to attend school for only a very short time and is educated at home or in the hospital. He is being taught by his mother and his teachers when he is well enough. As a result, Donald has few friends. He sees other ten-year-old boys playing ball, riding their bikes, going on picnics, going swimming, but Donald has never experienced any of these things himself.

Donald's parents are devoted to their son. His mother is his constant nurse and companion. His father works long hours at two jobs just to try to keep up with his son's heavy medical expenses. But even the most loving mother and hard working father can't substitute for friends in a boy's life.

This summer, Donald's doctor says that the boy can go to a very special camp for handicapped children if we are able to find a way to pay for it.

The boy's heart jumped with joy when he heard the news. How wonderful to finally be allowed some of the natural pleasures of being a boy after long years of steady discouragement and sorrow.

Will you help us keep us keep Donald's fighting spirit?

and the United States, lead to the B.A. and M.A. degrees. Average enrollment is more or less 1,000 students a quarter. MCC enrolls students on the basis of their academic qualifications without regard to race, creed or color.

Donald Ryan is a graduate of Boston College high school in Boston and received his B.A. degree from Harvard in Cambridge, Mass., in 1933. Between 1934 and 1936 he served in the U. S. Army in France. In 1934 he received his M.S.L.S. degree from Columbia University in New York and is presently employed at Rutgers State University in Newark. He is married to Constance Ryan of Belleville.

The college, now in its 22nd year, is situated about 20 minutes' drive from Mexico's cosmopolitan capital city. From the beautifully landscaped and tree-shaded campus, one can catch breath-taking views of the twin snow-capped volcanoes, Popocatepetl and Ixtaccihuatl, and the equally magnificent sight of the city sprawled out over the floor of the Valley of Mexico.

Mexico City offers innumerable pleasures and diversions ranging from the theater, art shows, concerts and museums to bull fights, horse racing and the fastest sport in the world jai alai. And never too far away for a weekend or short vacation jaunt are famous resorts such as Acapulco and Veracruz or the biological sites of Tula, Teotihuacan and Mila.

MCC students come from a wide variety of countries and cultural backgrounds. Each quarter nearly every U. S. state plus numerous foreign countries are represented among the student body. On and off campus, MCC students put into practice the principle of international goodwill and return home richer and more mature from the broadening experience.

Most MCC students live in college approved homes with Mexican families. By learning something of each other's language and customs, ties of friendship between the people of the two countries are strengthened.

Parkway Installs Trouble Boxes For Motorists

The New Jersey Highway Authority today reported the trial installation of an emergency service call system on the Garden State Parkway to serve drivers in distress.

The Authority said the roadside system, set up along a five-mile test area of the Parkway, provides motorists with a series of SOS signal stations for use in summoning State Police or other emergency aid.

Spaced about a mile apart in each direction between Interchanges 125 and 130, the call units transmit a radio signal directly to the Parkway's State Police headquarters by means of a compact hand-cranked generator.

Authority Vice Chairman John B. Townsend said the system has been installed only on a trial basis since it is the first of its kind in the nation. The emergency call system was developed and installed by the I.T.T. Kellogg Company of Chicago.

State Police cars, which patrol the Parkway around the clock, are dispatched to the scene of the call upon receipt of the signal at headquarters with its automatically recorded information as to location and type of aid needed.

Instructions on each "Turn Call" box advise the motorist to set a selector switch pointing to the type of service needed and to the nearest aid station until a button-like light becomes bright (10-15 turns).

Ten roadside call boxes are involved in the system's trial installation along the Parkway—five each on the northbound and southbound roadways. Each red-tinted call unit has an antenna attachment.

Cerrato Attends Chicago School Of Bowling Management

Anthony R. Cerrato, manager of Olympic Bowl, 679 Washington Avenue, Belleville, was in Chicago attending the Brunswick Bowling Management School.

The school has been conducted for the last five years by Brunswick Corporation to present the fundamentals of bowling management to owners and operators of bowling establishments.

The average length of stay in non-federal short-term general hospitals is 7.6 days. In 1964, it was 14 days.

The Old Silver Lake Railroad Depot

Top State Awards For Tri Town Club

THIS IS THE OLD Silver Lake Erie Railroad station as it looked shortly after the turn of the century. The original caption under it read: "The last word in railroad stations. It is doubtful if anything to beat this could be found in any frontier town. The station, however, is largely in keeping with the other facilities which the Silver Lake section seems to enjoy. The railroad stations of Belleville are conspicuous because of their extreme hideousness." The photo was loaned to The Times-News through the courtesy of the Belleville Public Library.

Beautiful Bucolic Belleville

Railroad Was Once The Most Popular Mode Of Transport

By FREDERICK W. PIXLEE

This issue will be devoted to transportation from old Belleville. Our ancestors used steamboats, horse cars and the railroad. Up until the advent of the electric street car, which used motors made by Sprague and Van Duzee at nearby Watessing, the railroad was the most popular method of transportation.

The Paterson and Newark Branch of the Erie 50 years ago was an important branch of that line. It was an easy matter to get to Paterson in a little over 20 minutes. Famous trains like the "Erie Limited," the "Lake Cities" and the "Southern Tier Express" had connecting shuttle trains from Newark, Belleville, Essex and Nutley.

This record would not be complete without mentioning the "Cannonball Express." This train was instituted by several Nutley businessmen as an express to New York City, the last stop before Newark being the Highfield Lane Station in Nutley. Lowly Essex and Belleville were passed without stopping at 50 miles per hour or better. This train was the cause of a sad accident which is half legendary. Some old timers remember it and some do not. I will relate it as it was told to me by a prominent man who prefers to remain anonymous.

A Call For Old-Time Pictures

The articles that have been appearing on this page of The Times-News for several weeks have been attracting considerable attention, both among old-timers in the community whose memories have been stirred and among newcomers who are interested in learning about Belleville as it was in days gone by.

Frederick J. Pixlee, the author of the series, has been doing an excellent job of writing and was able to furnish at least one excellent illustration to go with one of the stories. However, he does not have many of these old pictures, and he is wondering if any other Belleville old-timers might be able to help him out. Get in touch with us at The Times-News or with Mr. Pixlee personally and let us know what you have that you would be willing to lend us.

ACCIDENT

The "Cannonball Express" passed through Belleville about 8:40 a.m., just about the time the children were on their way to School No. 1. The unfortunate accident related below probably occurred sometime during 1890.

A little girl, name unknown, tried to cross the tracks on her way to school that morning. This was somewhere near the Academy or Rutgers Street crossings. The express train hit her with such force that it threw her body up on the telegraph wires; where it dangled grossly for quite a few hours. There was pandemonium in and around the school that morning, where the man who told me the story was then in kindergarten. This accident, more than any other thing, prompted the town fathers to erect a new school a short time later west of the tracks.

I have related the story just as it was told to me and its veracity may be questioned, but the general consensus of opinion is that there was an accident involving a child somewhere in this neighborhood.

I have had some people say that the only "Cannonball Express" was the night milk train, but I believe that my contention is correct for the following reasons:

Some years ago I was acquainted with Mrs. Grace Seymour, the widow of Harry Seymour, who was vice president of the Erie Railroad. This lady is now living in St. Louis, Mo., where she works for the General Services Administration of the United States Government.

MORNING TRAIN

She told me at the time that Mr. Seymour was mainly responsible in having the train known as the "Cannonball Express" stop at the Essex Station commencing about 1917. This was a morning train to New York.

Mr. Seymour was also responsible in having the Erie use modern "Pacific" type locomotives on this branch. They could be seen on this road up until the early 1950's. With their distinctive "Vanderbilt" type tenders, they were a sight to behold. One of them had a chime whistle and was the locomotive that won first prize at the World's Fair in St. Louis, Mo., in the early years of this century. All the steam locomotives have disappeared from this branch of the Erie-Lackawanna and have been replaced by Alco 100's for freight and sturdy GP 7's for dieselized passenger transportation. Their raucous honk is a far cry from the pleasing sound of the steam whistle. The child of today finds it difficult to associate the childish name of "choo-choo" with a locomotive, because they no longer emit such a sound.

GREENWOOD LAKE

A brief summary of the Greenwood Lake Branch of the Erie, which now has only one passenger station in Belleville, is also in order in this narrative.

Originally formulated as the New York, Midland and Western, as mentioned in prior columns, it was an ambitious project planned to go in almost a straight line from New York to Chicago. Almost from the start it was beset by financial troubles and was absorbed into the Erie Empire of Fiske and Gould.

The Orange Branch of this road had a passenger station in Silver Lake. I remember that there was a large Liberty Bond rally there in 1918 and all those who participated in the parade on Heckel Street went to Silver Lake from North Newark on a special train.

The Silver Lake Station is closed and the unique Mushroom Station at Soho is only a memory. Only the Bellwood Park Station remains on this road, which, incidentally, no longer goes to Greenwood Lake!

The Erie was often the butt of "chestnut" jokes by would-be comedians, but the road had enough sense of humor to publish these jokes in the "Erie Railroad Magazine" and also in their timetables. We often think back to the times when it was an event to go to the station to watch the train come in. The glow of the lights in the cars and the red glow on the smoke as the fireman opened the doors to shovel on more coal made a sight that was never to be forgotten.

Then with a melancholy far off whistle, she went around the bend and the red tail lights faded from sight. The train was gone.

Incentive Trophy, Publicity Prize Won By Local B. P. W.

Two first place awards, the Incentive Trophy and first place award for publicity received throughout the year, were won by Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley at the recent convention of the New Jersey Federation held in Atlantic City.

The coveted Incentive Award, the highest award given by the Federation, is presented annually to the club having had the best rounded program and having met the National Federation's aims through their projects for the year. A club must win the trophy three years in a row in order to have permanent possession.

The top prize in the weekly division for publicity was attributed to the cooperation of local newspapers in publishing news releases, and to the chairmen who promoted newsworthy projects.

The Incentive Trophy is the reward of many hours spent by the chairman, Miss Eleanor Storer of 247 Whitford Avenue, Nutley, and her committee, who spurred the activity of the members by a "Win-a-Membership-Pin" contest members receiving points for their part in club affairs.

The International Relations chairman, Gertrude McSpirt and her committee contributed a window "Peace Through Education" their part of Nutley's Mayor's Committee on United Nations Week. Chamber Of Commerce Has Rules For Avoiding Fraud

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce this week asked local housewives to heed some excellent advice being given by the Consumer Frauds Bureau of New Jersey.

Harry T. French, executive director of the Chamber, said the organization receives dozens of calls each week from citizens who have had an unfortunate experience in making some purchase or in contracting for some work to be done.

"In most cases they did not 'watch out' and were duped into signing a questionable contract or accepting unsatisfactory equipment or service, only to regret it later," he said.

"It is better to 'watch out' first," he added. "Let 'watch out' be the watchword."

Mr. French emphasized that the overwhelming majority of businessmen perform with integrity and with high regard for their customers.

The Consumer Frauds Bureau lists the following eight rules for purchasers to follow:

1. "WATCH OUT" for so-called "bargains" offered at prices that are ridiculously low. Check the price of comparable items with other dealers to be certain the bargain is exactly what it is claimed to be. In short, "shop around."

2. "WATCH OUT" lest a door-to-door salesman leaves merchandise with you and has you sign a receipt for it. You probably will get a bill for this merchandise in the next mail. Before you talk to such a salesman, check his credentials and see if he has obtained permission from your municipality to canvass door-to-door.

3. "WATCH OUT" for the "fine print" on all contracts. Never sign a contract without reading it. Above all, never sign a blank contract or blank paper. Demand and get a copy of your contract.

4. "WATCH OUT" for dealers who issue only oral guarantees. Be sure installations of appliances and such furnishings as competing are guaranteed by a dealer in writing.

5. "WATCH OUT" whenever a household appliance, TV set or radio is to be taken from your home for repairs. Always ask for a written estimate of the approximate cost, and also get written assurance that no other work will be done without your consent.

6. "WATCH OUT" for delivered items which are not what you ordered. Don't use them. Notify the seller immediately and, if a finance company is involved, notify the company in writing.

7. "WATCH OUT" for catchphrases like "reduced from," "made to sell for," "save so much," "this is a last chance" and "get in on a good thing." Investigate and ascertain what the retail price actually is.

World Accord Champion Donald Hulme starred at the 1962 "Heart of America" Accordion Festival, August 3, 4 and 5 at the Municipal Auditorium in Topeka, Kansas.

The 21-year-old title-holder, who resides in Belleville, introduced to the Festival audience a remarkable new 200-lb piano accordion created especially for him.

Each Scout Troop will be under the supervision of its Scoutmaster. The Scouts, as members of Patrols, will direct their own tentage, prepare their own meals, and will engage in the Camporee program, which includes religious services, campfires, contests, demonstrations and ceremonies.

The American Foundation for the Blind warns that as our population continues to increase, many more persons will be experiencing defective vision. This medical paradox is all the more complicated because of the nation's estimated 355,000 blind people, half are over 65 years of age.

Ocean Fishing Tournaments Are Enhancing Shore Area

Salt water fishing tournaments are the feature of the season on New Jersey shore, the Division of Fish and Game in the Department of Conservation and Economic Development noted.

Some events peak the excitement into a few days. Others last through a large part of the fishing year, offering weekly and seasonal prizes.

The latter are usually open to all anglers fishing local waters. Advance registration and a nominal fee are required by most.

Tournaments now underway include the Seaside Park Tournament of Fish, through Dec. 15th; the Tuckerton Area Saltwater Fishing Contest, through Nov. 30th; the Cape May County Annual Fishing Contest, through Oct. 15th; the Asbury Park Strip Bass Tournament, Atlantic City Press Fishing Tournament, the Riegle Fishing Derby and the Lavallette Surf Fishing Contest, through Dec. 31st.

The Seaside Park Tournament has weekly seasonal and junior prizes for bluefish. Prizes are also given for either other species.

The Tuckerton contest has prizes for 13 species. All must be caught from boats except perch which may be caught from bank or boat; and striped bass, for which separate prizes are awarded to bank and boat fishermen.

The Cape May competition has awards for both large fish and rare fish caught in the County. The Asbury Park Tournament has both team and individual awards for striped bass. Anglers receive merit patches for each bass registered.

The Lavallette Surf Fishing Contest gives weekly awards for five species up to Sept. 28th. At ter that it is limited to striped bass, with strippers caught before that date eligible for season but not weekly awards.

Short tournaments have more limited participation since most are from deep sea boats. Spectators, however, have a grand time watching the big-fish come in.

Upcoming contests include the Atlantic City Marlin Tournament, July 31st to Aug. 3rd; the Cape May Marlin Tournament at State Harbor on August 13-14 and the Greater Atlantic City Surf Fishing Contest on September 14-16.

The Atlantic City Marlin Tournament has both individual and team competition. The State Marlin will be headquarters for the event, described as the world's largest.

The Cape May Marlin Tournament has special awards for tagging and releasing fish in co-operation with the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution. Thus, trophy fish are kept, conserving the resource and solving the excess meat problem.

Harold Siegel's Honeymoon In The British West Indies

The marriage of Miss Mary Catherine Drukten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Drukten of 90 Floyd Street, Belleville, and West Point Island, N. J., to Harold A. Siegel, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Siegel of Clinton, Pa., was solemnized Saturday morning, August 4, in a ceremony preceding a Nuptial Mass in St. Mary's Church, Nutley.

The Rev. John M. Golding performed the ceremony and celebrated the Mass which was followed by a reception at the Hotel Suburban, East Orange.

Mr. Drukten gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown of silk organza featured a bouffant collar which swept into a chapel train. Amon lace applique re-embroidered with crystals and seed pearls trimmed the bodice and formed a wide border on the sheer skirt.

Her elbow length veil of French illusion fell from a Swedish crown of wax buds and she carried a mistletoe covered with a cascade of gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Anne De Piano of Newark was maid of honor, and the Misses Susan and Patricia Drukten, sisters of the bride, and Miss Edith Siegel, the bridegroom's sister, were bridesmaids. They wore floor length pink silk organza gowns with scoop necklines, short sleeves and puffed backs accented with embroidery. They had matching headpieces and carried peignums and sweetheart roses.

Joseph Walker of Philadelphia served as best man and ushers were Jerome and Thomas Siegel, brothers of the bridegroom, and David Kestner of Philadelphia.

The mother of the bride wore a blue silk organza sheath with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose a pale green silk dress with accessories to match. Each had a white orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from Our Lady of Good Counsel High School, Newark, and Chestnut Hill College and recently completed her second year of Medical School at Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania, Mr. Siegel is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

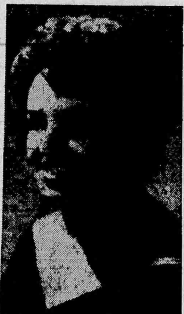

Mr. and Mrs. Siegel are spending a month in Trinidad, Tabago and the British West Indies.

Sermon Series

The summer series of Sunday morning preaching services at the Grace Baptist Church, Overlook Avenue and Bremont Street, began Sunday, August 5, and will continue through Sunday, September 2, at 10 o'clock.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Albert V. Lawson, who will be vacationing in Florida, the Rev. James A. Howell of Union will occupy the pulpit.

Mr. Howell is no stranger to Belleville. He filled the pulpit last summer, and acted as interim pastor prior to calling the present pastor.

Marilyn Swetell Gets Certificate For Completing Course

Mrs. Marilyn R. Swetell, of 40 Joralemon Street, Belleville, is among 34 employees of the Shell Chemical Company, Union, who have been awarded certificates by the Union Junior College Institute, Cranford, for completing an off-campus course in "Chemistry of High Polymers."

The course was given at Shell Chemical Company's laboratory in Union with Farris S. Swackhamer as the instructor. The Union Junior College Institute offers non-credit, college-level courses for adults in the cultural and liberal arts areas and programs for industry and special groups.

Space Is Leased
On Cortlandt St.
To Paint Blender

The 400 Corporation, owned by Seifer Hardware Co., has leased space for a long term of years, through Leslie Blah, Realtor, the entire ground floor of its three-story building at 343 Cortlandt Street in Belleville to Tri Chem Corp.

The lease, now located at 82 Main Street, West Orange, will use the premises, containing 20,000 square feet, for the mixing and blending of color paints, and for the manufacture of paint kits. The space just leased by Tri Chem was formerly occupied by the Federal Laboratory Division of International Telephone & Telegraph Co.

WHY YOU CAN'T READ
MOST PRESCRIPTIONS
Contrary to general belief, physicians do not write prescriptions in code, latin, or purposely unreadable by the patient. The chief reason you cannot safely read them is because the names of the drugs are unfamiliar.
There are more than 4000 different medicines in our prescription laboratories and many of their names are almost similar. We know how to spell each one and their dosage and medical uses. Of course if we ever have the slightest doubt we immediately check with the physician before dispensing.
YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

DANGER!
DON'T PUT SIGNS ON UTILITY POLES
Every day, hundreds of Public Service linemen climb utility poles to help keep your electric service at its best. But many poles have become so covered with metal nails and staples that it has created a safety hazard. Linemen depend on their "spurs" cutting into the wooden pole to provide sure-footed climbing. But if there are nails and staples in the pole, there's a chance that a lineman's spurs will not dig into the wood. A serious accident can result.
"Please help our linemen to help you. Do not put signs on utility poles!"

Candy Strippers Make Good Volunteers At Clara Maass

It has been said, time and time again, that a voluntary non-profit hospital, such as Clara Maass Memorial would never be able to operate without the dedicated help of its adult volunteers. This same truism applies to the group of teenage volunteers, or "candy strippers," as they are familiarly known, who assume the responsibilities of the adults during summer vacation.

Since school closed in June some 150 teenagers including 10 boys, ranging in age from 14 to 17, are taking over numerous assignments at the hospital and doing a very capable job. This volunteer program is in its fourth year, and Miss Marie D'Alessandro, director of volunteers is very pleased with both the attitude of the group toward the job and their ability. She said, in a recent interview, "These youngsters are enthusiastic and willing workers and are not so preoccupied with social activities as are so many of the older teenagers."

It is not possible for a young teenager to walk into the hospital, volunteer for work and be immediately assigned a job. They must first be interviewed by Miss D'Alessandro and, if they pass that screening test, they are then required to attend orientation classes to learn about the hospital — its background, its rules and regulations — and what will be expected of them as volunteer workers. Many are trained in special classes for specific duties. At the completion of their orientation, they are taken on a tour of the hospital and outfitted in a teenage volunteer uniform.

The various jobs to which they are assigned include the information desk, sorting and delivering mail and papers, the Admitting Office, the Pharmacy (clinical), the Physical Therapy and X-Ray departments (as escorts) and the Central Sterile Supply department. This year one girl is using her typing skill to help out in the Public Relations Department.

At the end of the summer, evaluation forms are filled out by both the department heads involved and the candy-strippers. In previous years the "bosses" have found these teenagers to be very helpful. At the same time, the volunteers have found their hospital experience both beneficial and enjoyable. Among other things, they learned to accept responsibility, to follow instructions and to practice good patient and public relations.

So closely do they want to be identified with the hospital and so interested are they in their work, that a group of the older teenagers (in point of service) designed a candy-stripe cap similar to the nurses, and were granted permission to wear them while on duty. The caps were presented to the group of 22 teenagers who had earned them by giving 700 hours of service each, by Miss D'Alessandro at the Volunteer Awards ceremony last May.

The group in the program this summer will give a total of approximately 320 hours of service during July and August. Those from Belleville participating are:

ing are:

Donna Alexander, Lorraine Augusto, Kathy Acerdo, Ellen Beresford, Carol Candloro, JoAnn Chassar, Linda Coeyman, Mary Conklin, Geraldine Garnecki, Joan DiFranco, Theresa Erzo, Janet Ferriai, Ellen Fischer, Joan Ellen Fuchs, Linda Hoebe, Bonnie Jones, Kathleen Josack, Andrea Kost, Lynda Lenahan, Joan MacDonald.

Also Maria McConnon, Camille Malanga, Kathleen Marino, Lucille Mellino, Claire Messina, Karen Mulder, Carol Nucel, Margaret Orsward, Carol Pallante, Rosemary Pallante, Susanne Paratrazzo, Judy Pintaro, Sharon Puchalik, Cathie Senior, Linda Tucker, Linda Vogel, James Byrne, Peter Esposito, Angelo Steffanelli and Marka Verzett.

WOULD PRESENT ANIMAL PETITION

To the Editor, The Times-News:

The article by Mrs. Margaret Rust of Forest Street, in the "Speak Up" column of The Times, concerning the abandonment of small pets, is indeed an interesting item. This is surely a cruel act, particularly in view of the fact that roving bands of these animals may create nuisances, either real or imaginary, on the part of the citizens of an area. However, the sin of commission lies with the individuals who abandon these creatures, and repressive measures should be taken against them, or an educational program undertaken to correct this situation. It is very likely that this problem may be directly or indirectly responsible for the self-appointed "wardens" in several neighborhoods of this town, who have taken it upon themselves to place animal traps on their property purportedly for the protection of birds and property. This had caused considerable harassment to the residents of these areas, insofar as known and identifiable pets have been enticed by food to enter these traps and have been subsequently disposed of without even a courtesy call to the owner.

In one instance a pet was captured and the pound called to collect him. The time elapsing between the call to the pound and their arrival was approximately two and a half hours, during which time the pet was spirited away from his confinement as the cage was empty when the pound attempted collection. This cage was securely locked from the outside with a very small wire mesh, so escape was impossible. The person who caught this animal disclaimed any knowledge of what happened to it.

This situation is felt to be objectionable and intolerable; it provides an easy path for illegal traffic in animals. It is a perfect instrument for a person of vindictive nature to take vengeance out on helpless creatures, and it also deprives a person of his right to recover his pet. Deprivation of any right, small or otherwise, should not be tolerated. The common law provides relief for any damage a pet may commit.

Competent advice reveals that the only solution to this condition is an appeal to the Town Council for an ordinance to prevent private bailing and maintaining of traps. At present it is contemplated to present such a petition, as follows:

PETITION

We, the undersigned, citizens of the Town of Belleville, New Jersey, petition the Mayor and Council of the Town of Belleville, New Jersey, to amend any existing ordinance or ordinances for the control of domestic pets; or to create an ordinance to provide for the protection of owners of certain domestic animals to afford such owners relief from self-appointed wardens by the establishment of law for the proper control of domestic pets; and by ordinance or law to preclude and prevent any unauthorized person or persons from maintaining any trap or device to capture any domestic pet, thereby depriving a rightful owner of his property.

We believe that citizens are entitled under law to maintain certain domestic pets.

We believe that such pets contribute to the happiness of the family community.

We believe that any person or persons, who, without authorization and with questionable motivation or reason, either openly or covertly trap, destroy or otherwise dispose of a domestic pet, illegally encroaches upon the rights of the owner of such a domestic pet.

We believe that reasonable restraint and control of domestic pets is necessary and

Thomas Perry Gains Tuition Scholarship

THOMAS PERRY
Thomas Perry has just been awarded the Abraham and Ida Lipson Memorial Scholarship for the 1962-1963 academic year. He is the son of Thomas Perry of 48 De Witt Avenue.

Tom was a 1961 graduate of Belleville High School, where he belonged to the Student Council, was president of the Freshman Class, and earned letters in varsity football.

Now he is in Bloomfield, where he participated in the French Club, and made the Varsity basketball team. He was also appointed to the Dean's List for his high scholastic average.

The Lipson Scholarship is a full tuition scholarship which is granted annually to a student in Essex County who fulfills the requirements which have been established by the faculty.

Gonzales Named As Recruiter For Air Force

Staff Sergeant Joseph A. Gonzalez has been assigned as recruiter salesman for Belleville, Nutley, Lyndhurst, Harrison, Arlington and Kearny, according to Major James Costello, commander of recruiting service in this area.

Sergeant Gonzalez has an office at 1066 Broad Street in Newark where he will be available to discuss Air Force careers with interested young men in the area.

A recent graduate of the recruiting school at Lackland Air Force Base in Texas, Gonzalez is a newcomer to the area originally coming from Carbondale, Pa.

During his Air Force career Gonzalez has served in the information field as a newspaper editor. His overseas assignments have included North Africa and Okinawa. Some of his Stateside assignments have been in Alabama, New York, Texas and Florida.

Gonzalez resides in Roselle, with his wife, the former Helen Yelverton of Montgomery, Ala., and their son Joseph, Jr., who is four.

Lincoln Tunnel Complex Is Now Underway On Turnpike

Work on the "Lincoln Tunnel Complex," involving the reconstruction and relocation of three northern interchanges of the New Jersey Turnpike, is under way, Joseph Moracoff, Jr., Chairman, announced today at a ground breaking ceremony.

This contract for the basic work, amounting to $11,694,557.50, is the largest construction award by the Authority since completion of the Newark Bay-Hudson County and the Pennsylvania Turnpike connections in 1956.

The "complex" involves the reconstruction and consideration of the Lincoln Tunnel and Secaucus interchanges in Hudson County, where there are four toll plazas at present, and the removal to the south a few miles of the present site of the toll booths at the George Washington Bridge (No. 18) interchange in Bergen County. When completed, there will be only two toll plazas to serve the northern area, as against five at present. The new construction will eliminate delays, expedite traffic, and, generally, simplify vehicle movements, especially during commuting periods. Completion is scheduled for early 1964, in time for the opening of the World's Fair.

It will be of great benefit to those patrons who use the Turnpike in the area and of special benefit in the prompt handling, through a cash transaction, of the commuter traffic to and from Route 46 and the Lincoln Tunnel. Tickets will not be used in this particular movement. Approximately 35,000 vehicles travel every day between Route 46 and the Lincoln Tunnel. The new interchange at Secaucus, to be equipped with about ten lanes, will be amply adequate for quick handling of that commuter traffic.

The contract for this work was awarded to S. J. Groves & Sons Co., of Woodbridge, the low bidder, in the amount of $11,694,557.50. It entails grading, drainage, paving, structures and incidental work in Hudson County, plus the removal of toll booths and existing structures and the removal of toll booths at the George Washington Bridge interchange in Bergen County. Other contracts for lighting, signs, and miscellaneous items are still to be awarded.

The work includes but is not limited to embankment construction; muck excavation; sand disposal and bedding; utility removal; drainage construction and reconstruction; construction of asphalt pavements; granite and

"Pale Look" Will Replace Sun Tan

Enjoy your summer tan while you may. It soon may be out of style. One of the nation's leading skin specialists has predicted that the "pale romantic" look will replace the tanned look in the near future.

A leading dermatologist says that there is a growing public awareness of the fact that chronic exposure to the sun is the most important factor in skin cancer and in causing skin to look aged. The sun, however, makes it appear old, he told a recent convention of the American Medical Association.

Because the public is becoming more conscious of this, Dr. Smith predicts that the "pale look" so popular during Victorian times will be the preferred look of the future. The sun tan is on its way out as a status symbol, he said.

Until the "pale look" causes sunbathing to go out of style, he advises sun bathers to take effective ways to do this, he said.

As literary critic and playwright Clifton Fadiman will attest, a radio is worth more than gold to a blind person. Through it a blind person is able to keep abreast of what's going on in the world, hear concerts, sporting events and other interesting programs which he possibly could not afford to attend, and couldn't see even if there in person.

Belleville Makes Fine Showing At Physical Fitness Meet

Last month Belleville High boys who competed were the School competed in the Third Annual Marine Corps Physical Fitness Meet at Newark State College. One of 135 high schools competing, Belleville finished in 22nd position, beating out 115 other high schools throughout the state.

Nick Pelti, one of the physical education instructors, and head baseball coach, selected five boys from the entire school. The decent society but health certainly is at advantage. And health depends to a considerable extent, of course, on over-all fitness.

Physical fitness can't be attained by playing a game. We already have compulsory physical education classes, but our children are still too soft. Now it is easy to achieve fitness in the modern city where there are few trails to climb, or streams, and trails to follow.

So other ways must be sought. Here are some guiding principles discovered by physical therapists and physical education teachers.

Strength is developed by working against resistance. Repetition alone will not necessarily develop muscles, otherwise a typist's hands would be as large as a truckman's. But running hard, doing standard exercises until you are tired, or pushing or pulling objects that don't push or pull easily will make a difference.

Coordination is achieved by striving consciously for it during a repeated activity. To gain coordination in swimming, diving, golf or throwing a ball you must concentrate on the proper form.

Speed and endurance will be developed more easily after muscles have been established and trained. Herman Wisne's tests. "For best results, each child must have confidence in his ability to improve and to be interested in his own physical development." It is a can show high and encourage him effectively, the problem will be solved.

An important aspect of Belleville High's physical fitness program is vigorous daily activity. The kind and amount of time for such activity will vary with the age and capacities of each child. The suggested "15 minutes of vigorous activity" should be only a part of a regular daily physical education period which meets at least the minimum time requirement prescribed by law.

Valid tests can be used to measure a pupil's progress and to motivate a higher level of physical fitness for an individual. Belleville gives the physical fitness test twice a year. The test consists of sit-ups, pull-ups, squat thrusts, push-ups, aquat, jumps and the 300 yard run. Every boy is required to take the test. All boys who get a score of 250 or better receives a certificate from the U. S. Marine Corps. This year 450 boys received these certificates.

Herman Wisne, director of athletics says, "To attain the physical fitness goal set for youth by President Kennedy, it's going to be necessary for parents and teachers as well as young people to take action."

You don't have to be a tower of strength to win success in mo-

Camp Ro-Li Ends Girls' Season With Ceremony

Camp Ro-Li ended its girls' season with a beautiful and traditional ceremony. A banquet with a Walt Disney theme began the evening's program. Following dinner and singing, awards and swimming cards were presented.

Carol Thompson earned the circle award, while Janet and Debra Sandmyer earned the arrow award. The tetherball tournament was won by Pat Lemmon. Diane Chasin won the checkers tournament. The ping pong tournament found Bonnie Brehm as a winner. Robin Rubenstein and Kathy Wysocki were awarded for scoring the highest in rifle. Sheila Wook was the most skillful in archery, and Pat Lemmon and Helena Chambliss were both runners-up. Janet Wook and Carol Thompson were given awards for their performance in boating.

The following earned Red Cross swimming cards: Advanced swimmers — Laurie Egelsen, Bonnie Brehm. Swimmers — Karin Egelsen, Jo Ann Mitchell. Intermediate — Dorothy Polk, Pam McManis, Janet Egelsen, Margo Mair, Carol Wilson. Advanced beginners — Dolores Perry, Harriet Cranston, Peggy Laola, Susan Rubin, Marianne Lemmon, Judith Estelle.

Beginners — Sheila Cammarino, Frances Giordano, Elaine Franchino, Sharon McKelster, Corinne Hasal, Lorraine Chimento, Shirley Sella, Dorothy Estelle, Jo Anne Sella, Debra Matera, Renee Paschal, Robyn Martin, Jo Anne Bolone, Jo Anne Raso.

The traditional march with candles to the water was filled with tears over leaving. After placing the candles in the water, the group gathered for the last time in song. The following morning the campers left with many reminders and memories of a very worthwhile experience.

The boys are now enjoying the facilities at Camp Ro-Li for four weeks.

are residents of New Jersey seven of New York; two of Pennsylvania; and one is from Maryland. Forty-seven of the fifty seven appointments are recent college graduates. These 47 came from 23 colleges and universities and will undergo an extensive training program which is second to none in both public and private employment. O. U. professional training program constitutes only one of the many advantages attracting recent college graduates. I might add, that these recent graduates were basically exposed to the many advantages of Federal employment through the successful efforts of our college recruiters.

Many stars of stage, screen, radio and T.V. attend regular sessions at the studios of the American Foundation for the Blind, making tapes for the talking book series produced by the Foundation in a program sponsored by the Library of Congress.

Active Week Spent In Belleville Recreation

"I don't have a bike for two, but I have room in my heart for you."

to suit the sign on Annette Guarabito's bike. Annette was one of many to enter her bike in the bike decorating contest at the Recreation House. She won first prize in her age group. Besides the eye catching sign, Annette's bike was decorated with "hot pink" satin ribbons, flowers and jacks.

Philip Cuzzi was another first place winner with his bicycle decorated with red, white and blue crepe paper.

Dave Berendi and Tony Di Giacomo took first prize in the 11-14 year old group with an original, making a girl out of a brown floor mop.

In the young age group Susan Varuch won first prize. Bob Sue and her bike were dressed as Valentines.

Others in the contest who displayed creative abilities were Bobby Donna, Marcella and Linda Osborne.

One hot afternoon the children on School 4 playground held a storytelling hour. Debbi Zicaro told the story "Little Red Riding Hood." Nancy Grasso told about the "Three Bears," and Michael Simini's version of "Rapunzel" was enjoyed by all.

If you are looking for a new, exciting and interesting way of spending your leisure time or if boredom and loneliness give you a crying need for the companionship of fuzzy, gentle little creatures, No. 4 playground has the remedy for all your ailments.

Don't give up hope though, you're not alone in the world. Little Louis, 18, 16, 14, 12, 10, 8, 6, 4, 2, and 1 are all here. Now he's happy and contented. He has found joy in capturing and caring for poor little homeless creatures. Yes, Louis raised caterpillars!

Friendly little animals, they call for nothing more than a few mulberry leaves a day. Louis can be seen walking about the playground with his little pockets bulging with glass jars. He is only too willing to capture these playful creatures on request. So if you'd like to venture into the animal world, why not join Louis in his caterpillar kingdom!

And now comes to Belleville! Msgr. Kelly playground held its annual pet show last week. If you were walking by you could see in the main ring Joey a large brown dog wearing a variety of tricks. In the second place winners ring were Maureen Smythe and Margaret Petroski with their two

Strumolo Assn. To Compete In Bocce Contest

Plenty of interest is being manifested in the coming bocce contest which will see Belleville Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo Association pitted against Newark Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio All Stars.

The battle is all set for Sunday, August 12, at the Villa Strumolo Mills, 24 Cooper Avenue, Long Branch, with game time set at 2 p.m. Following the contest there will be a cook-out featuring delicious viands and refreshments.

Playing for the local Councilman will be Joseph Risoli, "Speed" DeBenedictis, Michael DeRusso, Thomas Strumolo, Barry O'Connor and Strumolo, while the Mayor will have several members of his cabinet and several ringers.

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

Driving On Expressways Requires Extra Caution

When you "tailgate" on a super highway you are less than a second away from an accident.

Following too close to the car ahead is listed as the number one cause of accidents on high speed roads. Safe-minded motorists are well schooled in looking to the right and to the left, but often fail to watch out for the obvious accident. The one that lies directly ahead.

Safety officials point out that while the chance of a pile-up or other limited access highway reduces certain types of accidents, rear-end collisions have increased and have become the worst hazard on these super roads.

The reaction time of an alert motorist is about three-fourths of a second. At 60 miles an hour, on an expressway, this means your car covers 66 feet, or almost four car lengths, before you can even hit the brake pedal.

The insurance business, which has conducted many safe driver studies, warns that unless you give yourself one car length's distance for every ten miles per hour of speed, you will be endangering your life and the lives of others. This column will be glad to answer any questions you may have about property and casualty insurance. Send them to: The Nutley Sun, to the attention of Carl A. Internal Revenue Service Appoints 57 New Agents

Chris L. Gross, Director of the Internal Revenue Service for the Newark District, announced today that the Newark Office recently appointed 57 new employees to the positions of revenue agent, special agent, revenue officer and tax technician.

He said, "These new appointments add to the attractiveness of Revenue Service employment and also to the success of our College Recruitment Program. The IRS is constantly seeking and attracting high quality students to full-time employment following graduation."

Gross further stated, "It is interesting to note, that in keeping with our policy of seeking outstanding students through our College Recruitment Program, we are also participating in two experimental programs in this District. One is the Summer Employment Program for college students and the other is the Federal-College Internship Program which is financed under a grant by the Ford Foundation."

He added, "Of the 57 new appointments, there are 33 Revenue Agents, seven Special Agents, five Revenue Officers, and 12 Tax Technicians. Forty-seven
