Lally Is Chairman As New Adjustment Board Organizes

The Belleville Board of Adjustment conducted its initial public meeting in the Council Chambers at Town Hall Tuesday evening, with five appeals for variance being presented for judgment. Decisions in all cases were withheld pending further study of the evidence presented by petitioners, and in some instances, by objectors.

Dominic Lally, chairman of the newly appointed group, compiled the people of Belleville in this instance. Most objections were based on claims that "no hardship was involved, and that the area was protected entirely by one family dwelling."

Sam DiMaio, a builder, and Louis A. Anzalone, one of the listed owners, spoke in favor of an appeal for a variance which would permit an eight-family, two-story structure to be erected on the corner of Carner Avenue and King Street. Anzalone, as chief spokesman for the petitioners, engaged in a spirited but orderly debate with two lawyers who were representing objectors.

Leslie Finch, representing 15 resident property owners in the area, most of whom he introduced from their seats in the audience, based his objections on grounds that the variance was being sought only on "grounds based on profit seeking, with no hardship whatsoever being involved."

BERNARD O'CONNOR

O'Connor Resigns Defense Post After Sommers' Edict

Bernard E. O'Connor resigned his week as director of Civil Defense and Disaster Control in Belleville. He said it was impossible for him to go along with the directive of Town Manager William A. Sommers that no town employee may engage in political activities.

Mr. O'Connor is an elected official of the Democratic party, representing the 1st Ward, 8th District, and he said he had no intention of resigning or of refraining from active participation in the political affairs of the community.

"Involved in Mr. Sommers' decision, as I see it," Mr. O'Connor said, "is his establishment of two classes of citizens for Belleville. When he tells me that I am disqualified from serving my community in a civic effort because of my activity in one of the two major political parties of our country, I believe he is telling me that I am not entitled to first-class citizenship.

"Our American form of government is strong only because we have a two-party system. If Mr. Sommers' policy were to spread across the nation and apply to every hamlet, we would soon find our two-party system disintegrating and America would end up like the France of 1940, with 200 or more political parties."

"Service in the Civil Defense activity of our community is an honor and a privilege and it should not be denied to anybody regardless of his political activity."

"I believe workers of the Democrat and Republican parties are Americans first and party workers second. If Mr. Sommers has any doubt about this, let him look at our war records. When we entered the service of the U. S. Armed Forces, no one asked us for our political affiliation.

As loyal Americans we were asked to carry arms in the defense of this great country of ours. If we were good enough for America, it seems to me we are still good enough for our community."

"I am a civic-minded citizen and most willing to assume additional civic responsibilities. As everyone knows, work in the Civil Defense group is strictly a voluntary effort without pay. I was more than willing to serve my community and neighbors without pay but the ridiculous policy established by Mr. Sommers denies me the right and privilege of serving my family, my neighbors and my community."

at the completion of the hearings, for what he termed "exemplary presentations in all instances, made in a manner which will enable the members of this board to offer judgments which will be in complete accordance with the intent and spirit of our zoning laws, and continuously contributory to the best interests of the people of Belleville."

Meeting with the press after the meeting, Lally's colleagues on the board, Mrs. Mary V. Senatore, Thomas Cuatrecasas, William Abramson and Arthur Rosania, offered complete agreement with the sentiments expressed by the chairman.

In the first hearing before the board, Henry Denner sought a variance which would allow him to convert aging structures on Joralemon Street to modern garden apartments. Architects' plans, including planned parking facilities and other pertinent information, were presented.

Charles A. Gebhardt, an attorney, presented an appeal by the People's National Bank to make possible erection of a branch building at the intersection of Franklin Avenue and Joralemon Street. Mr. Gebhardt stated that the residents in that area were not being provided with convenient banking facilities at this time.

A request for a variance which would allow Concetta Long to erect a two-family structure in the area of Hornblower Avenue and Holmes Street brought objections from two neighbors who were present, on the grounds that "no hardship was involved."

The petitioner claimed that hardship did exist because information had been received indicating that the lot involved may not be large enough to meet requirements for erection of a one-family structure, it is possible that it does meet area requirements needed for two-family dwellings in Belleville.

Mr. Lally assured the petitioner that all legal aspects involved would be studied before a decision is rendered by the board.

'NO HARDSHIP'

Helen Bellows, petitioning for a variance to erect a two-family dwelling on Malone Avenue, ran into spirited objections as a legal representative presented written dissonants from 30 residents who allegedly own 33 parcels of land in the area. Several objectors in the audience also spoke out against the granting of a va-

The annual Leader Training Conference for patrol leaders and other Junior officers in Belleville Boy Scout Troops will be held at Recreation House on Saturday, October 6. Robert Rudden will be in charge, according to Edwin Gasparini, chairman of the District Leadership Training Committee. The program for the day was developed as the result of a series of preliminary steps over the last several months.

First step was selection of a Scout from one of the District's troops to serve as one of Robert Rudden's representatives at the National Junior Leader Training Camp. When these young men returned, they had a special session with Robert M. Butler, headmaster of Newark Academy and chairman of the Council's Leadership Training

The ordinances were 1. Authorizing the improvement as a local improvement. 2. Authorizing the construction of sidewalks. 3. Appropriating $11,900 for the construction of sidewalks. 4. Authorizing installation of a water supply system at a cost of $13,000.

NATIONAL BUSINESS WOMEN'S WEEK OCCURS OCTOBER 7th TO 12th

Shown above are Helen Colehamer of 87 Rossmore Place, a member of the Civic Participation Committee, and Marion E. Hennessey of 298 Union Avenue, a member of the Incentive Committee, of Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club, accepting the signed proclamation from Mayor Robert M. Laterza designating National Business Women's Week in Belleville, October 7 to 12. This period is set aside each year to pay tribute to women in business and the professions.

Group Has Been Active Locally In Three Towns

Mayor Robert M. Laterza of Belleville, Mayor Walter Steinmann of Bloomfield and Mayor Harry W. Chenoweth of Nutley have proclaimed October 7-12 as National Business Women's Week.

Posters also will appear in other prominent spots in the towns. The week is designed to recognize the large part of the working force which women form in the economy of this country.

As further observance of Business Women's Week, Tri-Town's Membership Committee is having a luncheon and fashion show at the Elks Hall on Chestnut Street, Nutley, on October 20th at 1 p.m. This is an opportunity for interested business women to meet the Business and Professional Women's Club as it begins its new year.

Tri-Town united with 175,000 other Business and Professional women in the United States both in celebrating National Business Women's Week in observance of the 43rd anniversary of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club Inc., and working along with these women in the pursuit of the Federation's aim to elevate the standards of women in business and to advance opportunities for women in higher education.

Of the 710 types of jobs held by women today there are almost 20 represented in the local club. Due to the persistent efforts of the Business and Professional Women's Club on the State legislature the women of the State of New Jersey are far more fortunate than those of sister States. The measures, all concentrated in the Bayard Street area where five people were killed in traffic accidents last month, call for resurfacing a section of the old highway, erecting a center barrier, installing warning and regulatory signs, and prohibiting parking in the vicinity of the apparent accident-prone area.

Palmer said his Department engineers are working on plans for resurfacing a 500-foot section of the pavement from the freeway section of Route 21 southward on the old highway. Another plan now on the drafting table will extend the 10-inch-high concrete center barrier about 150 feet south to Bayard Street.

The Commissioner added that a sign engineer was in Belleville last Friday choosing locations for signs to be erected this week. They include a "STOP" sign on the marginal road, about 100 feet south of William Street; a warning sign, "PAVEMENT NARROWS FROM 2 TO 2 LANES" on Route 21 at Rutgers Street, and a "40 M.P.H." sign near William Street.

Installation of an overhead sign spanning the Freeway to alert motorists of "SIGNALS AHEAD" will take about a month to fabricate and erect.

Palmer also announced parking prohibitions had been drawn up and submitted to Belleville officials for their approval and adoption. Under the Highway Department's proposal, parking would be prohibited on both sides of the marginal road (Main St.) from William St. to Bayard St., and along the west curb of Route 21 from Bayard Street to Mill Street.

Parking would also be prohibited along the east curb of Route 21 from a point about 20 feet south of Bayard Street to the end of the ramp to Rutgers St. Construction plans for converting the section of old highway to a modern, limited access freeway are nearing completion. Palmer concluded, and work on the new construction is scheduled to begin before the end of the year.

Burlazzi Named Chairman Of Planning Board

G. Fred Burlazzi of 16 Mt. Pleasant Avenue was elected chairman of Belleville's new Planning Board at an organization meeting Wednesday night. He is in the real estate business and is presently engaged in appraisal work. He also teaches real estate at Rutgers, the State University.

Burlazzi is 63 years old, a self-employed, was elected vice chairman, Theodore M. Wells of 13 Quinon Street was named secretary. Born and brought up in Belleville, Mr. Wells is employed in the Accounting Division of the Post Office Department in Newark.

Other members of the nine-member board are James V. LaMotta of 426 Washington Avenue, Michael Deane of 37 Church Terrace, Councilman Thomas P. Greco of 2 Morris Place, Nicholas Landolfi of 212 Forest Avenue, Daniel A. Valse, acting building inspector, of 299 Brighton Avenue, and Mayor Robert M. Laterza.

The board adopted a set of by-laws and agreed to meet on the first Wednesday of each month, at least temporarily.

The board held its initial meeting on Wednesday last week at which time the members were introduced to the town's new master plan.

Charles Boyce and Joseph DeChiara, representatives of Urban Planning Associates, explained the need of a master plan to guide the community in long range as well as immediate problems. Also explained the master plan is a new zoning ordinance to replace the present ordinance, drawn up in 1923, which was termed "valueless" by Town Manager William A. Sommers. Detailed summaries of the master plan were distributed to the board members for further study.

Anthony Lardiere, who owns and operates The Pantry Pizzeria at 258 Washington Avenue, was the single successful entrant in last week's Map Page Contest. He correctly identified Miss De Piro, of 16 Holmes Street, Nutley, as the person whose photo was encircled on the Map Page, and The Belleville Times-News Office, 246 Washington Avenue, as the establishment in which Miss De Piro was pictured.

Mr. Lardiere will receive a $5 check made payable to the co-operating merchant of the week, The Boston Store, 538-540 Washington Avenue.

Mr. Lardiere, who lives in Newark, is married and the proud father of a 20-year-old daughter, Beverly, who will be married next month.

A member of the Belleville

Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Lardiere is particularly interested in young people. Last Spring, for instance, when the 50th Anniversary of Girl Scouting was being observed, Mr. Lardiere presented each Girl Scout troop in Belleville with a free pizza party. On another occasion, the Recreation Department's baseball winners were awarded their trophies, along with free pizzas, at Mr. Lardiere's establishment.

A new contest is now under way. Be sure you follow the rules.

Teachers Told Children Are Short Changed

New Jersey's persistent school problems are giving thousands of New Jersey children short-changed education, Essex County teachers were told at a recent meeting.

Pupil populations are rising and more New Jersey school children than ever are being educated half-time or under substandard conditions, said Miss Barbara Wolf, representing the New Jersey Education Assn. She was the main speaker at a meeting called by NJEA and the National Education Assn. to keep area educators aware of the need for professional unity.

In New Jersey, the total number of children being educated in public schools has risen from 835,419 in 1955-56 to 1,157,000 today.

Statewide, 36,466 children went to school on half-session in 1955-56. The total for the year just ended was 60,379. "More children than ever are spending less than a full day in school," the speaker noted.

In Essex County, 939 pupils were on half-sessions in 1955-56 compared with 4,809 in 1961-62.

In 1955, 31,218 New Jersey students were placed in substandard classrooms. By last year, the number of children assigned to rooms in churches, community buildings, other leased quarters and school basements had risen to 48,157.

In this county, 1,243 children were in substandard classrooms last year.

Large numbers of New Jersey teachers have less than standard certification, the speaker said. The state total was 3,799 in 1955-56. By last year it had risen to 6,612. In this county, 585 teachers had substandard certification in 1961-62.

One year ago over 9,800 added teachers were needed in New Jersey schools, to fill new positions and to make up for the 7,464 teachers who had retired or otherwise left their school district the previous year.

"Teachers will continue to leave for higher paying jobs in other areas and in other fields until teacher salaries are raised to a realistic level," the speaker said. "As a starter, a bill stalled in the State Senate would guarantee every New Jersey teacher a salary of at least $4,300 a year."

About the other problems confronting New Jersey schools, the speaker observed:

"Only a united teaching profession will be strong enough to end practices which diminish educational opportunity for the state's children."

Essex GOP Sets Campaign For Oct. 15 Start

Essex Republicans will kick-off the Congressional and Freeholder campaigns at a rally at the Mosque Theater, Newark, October 15 with United States Senator Clifford P. Case as the keynote of the Victory in November drive.

Besides Senator Case, more than 2500 Republicans from Newark and suburban Essex will hear Grant Reynolds, White Plains, N. Y., attorney and counsel to Republican National Chairman William E. Miller, and Mrs. Clara H. Williams of Florida, Assistant National Chairman.

A life member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Mr. Reynolds served as president of the White Plains branch of the NAACP for six years and as president of the Cleveland, Ohio, branch of the NAACP for three years.

Mrs. Williams was elected Republican National Committeewoman for Florida in 1956 and 1960. While serving as president of the Women's Republican Club of St. Petersburg, she established it as the largest single political organization in the South with a membership of more than 1500 women.

Rodino Presides As House Okays Cuba Resolution

With Congressman Peter W. Rodino, Jr. presiding, the House of Representatives passed a resolution expressing the determination of the United States with respect to the situation in Cuba. By a record vote of 384-7, the house thus cleared the legislation for the signature of the president, inasmuch as the resolution had already passed the Senate.

Citing the Monroe Doctrine, the Punta Del Este foreign minister this year and the extension of International Communism into Cuba, the resolution stated "That the United States is determined to prevent by whatever means necessary, including the use of force, the extension of Communism to the Americas."

The resolution also called for preventing in Cuba "The creeping military capability endangering the security of the United States" and pledged the United States to support the aspirations of the Cuban people for self-determination.

In his own speech delivered on the floor prior to the vote, Rodino stated, "We must speak out with one voice demonstrating that all America is 100 per cent behind the president. Our stand on Cuba must be strong and forceful, leaving no doubt in the minds of Communists in Cuba, in this hemisphere or in Russia that we are willing to fight, if necessary, to protect our security and the sovereignty of all American Nations."

The New Jersey veteran legislator added, "We must not be swept up in hysteria. This is a situation calling for action stemming from the best possible thinking of clear and reasonable minds."

Congressman Rodino concluded with the observation that "The United States is not in this alone. This is a grave matter, affecting all our American neighbors and friends," he said. "The action we take must be in concert with them, not a unilateral move on our part."

West Caldwell, 9:30 a.m. to noon. The topic is one facet of the year's theme, "Our Education Horizons... Are They High Enough?"

A panel discussion on how your children's talents can be identified and stimulated through school programs and what PTA's can do to encourage such programs will be preceded by a message from the State Department of Education delivered by Dr. Charles Tabler, Consultant, Secondary Office.

County PTA Council Will Examine Education Horizons

The Essex County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations will hold an open meeting about "Your Talented Children" on Tuesday, October 9, at James Caldwell High School.

Air Force Base Toured As Kid's Day Feature

A tour of Stewart Air Force Base, New York, was the highlight of Kid's Day activities for 80 youngsters from the Belleville-Bloomfield area recently, according to information released by Air Force Recruiter Staff Sergeant Joseph A. Gonzalez.

Two buses left Belleville last Saturday to visit the well-known Air Defense Command base escorted by Air Force Recruiters Tech Sergeant Charles Kurzwil and Staff Sergeant David Anderson, both recruiters from the Newark Office at 1066 Broad Street.

Jim DeJonge of Belleville, the Kid's Day chairman, accompanied the youngsters as did Russ Hopkins, Victor Cali, Lou Bruno, Amy Verhagen, Tom Jamison, George Wright, Ed Hassen and Bill Pirk, all from Belleville.

The first order of entertainment for the children, ages 10-15, was an exciting color movie entitled "Vanderburg Aero Space Center."

Following the movie, Colonel James W. Lancaster, Commander of the 4603rd Air Base Group, gave a talk on the mission of Stewart Air Force Base. The base celebrated 20 years of protecting its country in August.

After the talk the kids were treated to a static display of aircraft used in defense, on the Stewart flight line. From there they went to the parachute shop where they were briefed on the many uses of a chute.

The most exciting phase of the tour came when the children witnessed a thrilling exhibition of sky diving.

The children then went to one of the hangars on base for a hearty Air Force type meal.

YOU AND YOUR INSURANCE

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

Product Insurance; A Business Necessity

The owner of a small bakery shop writes to ask what forms of insurance he should buy to protect himself in the event a customer sues him claiming he became ill after eating cake purchased at the shop.

The baker and others who are engaged in producing goods for the public can purchase liability insurance.

Thirty years ago product liability insurance was virtually unknown. However, today this form of coverage is recognized as a business necessity for manufacturers and dealers in products, especially those handling food products.

It is a legal liability form of coverage whereby the insurance company agrees to defend and/or pay damages because of injury—money or property—damages caused by an accident arising from goods or products manufactured, sold, handled or distributed after they have been sold.

Product liability insurance comes into focus after the goods or products have been sold or the service completed. Before that, other forms of public liability insurance, usually owners, landlord and tenants coverage, or manufacturers and contractors liability coverage provide protection.

This column will be glad to answer any questions you may have about property and casualty insurance. Send them to: The BellevilleTimes News, to the attention of Carl A. Orecio or to the Orecio Agency, 43 Washington Ave., Nutley, 10, N. J.

Mr. Sommers' Usurpation

From listening to some of the speeches delivered by our newly appointed Town Manager, William A. Sommers, and by reading some of his comments appearing in the public press one would think his name was on the June 12 municipal ballot.

Mr. Sommers allows as to how he wants the code amended to include a prohibition against political activity. He is also anxious to incorporate other changes into the basic laws which will be adopted by our elected Town Council next week.

We can't recollect seeing Mr. Sommers' name on the sample ballot which every voter received last June. Yet from his attitude it appears Sommers suffers from the mistaken notion that it was he who was elected last June 12 and not the five citizens now occupying seats on the Town Council.

The Council Manager form of government is very simple to understand. Within the framework of the state statutes which govern our form of government the Town Council is required to pass legislation which the Town Manager is expected to enforce. It is as simple as that.

If we may be permitted to take a reading of Mr. Sommers' mind we detect an urge on his part to usurp the authority and responsibility of the Town Council by his endless efforts to rewrite the Administrative Code which governs our municipality.

Mr. Sommers must be made to understand that the Town Council is the body which by law must establish governmental policy — and the Town Manager is obliged to carry out that policy. Why Sommers persists in his efforts to meddle with authorship of legislation is difficult for us to perceive.

Sommers would be well advised to leave the legislation to the duly elected representatives of the people and confine himself to the management phase of our government.

In this regard persistent reports seem to emanate from Town Hall that Sommers is attempting to obtain Civil Service approval to create a new permanent job in the office of Town Clerk. We were under the impression that when Eugene G. Barnett returned to his permanent Civil Service status job of Clerk the town hall payroll would be reduced by one. This reduction has not taken place. Why not? It seems to us that Mr. Sommers has plenty to do just trying to reorganize the police and fire departments which he heads without going out of his way inviting trouble by trying to usurp the authority and responsibility of our elected Town Councilmen.

Another word about that political ban which Sommers wants to invoke. We believe this is a basic municipal policy which should be the exclusive jurisdiction of our elected officials.

We believe the policy is a good one but if it is to be a community policy it should emanate from those public officials directly responsible to the voters — and not a paid employee. In one of the daily papers this week Mr. Sommers was quoted to the effect that he intended to propose to our Town Councilmen an amendment to Belleville's Administrative Code banning political activity by town employees. So the Town Council — Sommers' boss — reads about Sommers' intentions in the newspaper. Common courtesy would seem to suggest that Sommers should have conveyed his intention to the Councilmen rather than have them read about it in an out of town newspaper.

Mr. Sommers came to Belleville with an outstanding reputation as an administrator. From all appearances he has a long way to go to live up to his advance billing.

From Factories To Residential

"SILVER LAKE", treated like a stepchild for more years than its inhabitants care to remember, is finally coming into its own. Legislation to upgrade the area's zoning was successfully sponsored by First Ward Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo.

The Legislation adopted at the last meeting of the Town Council prohibits further construction of industrial buildings in the Silver Lake section.

Until last Tuesday the area was zoned for industrial use. This exposed vacant lots sandwiched in between residential buildings to industrial use. In some cases this situation has arisen much to the discomfort of residents producing as a collateral effect an immediate decrease in the neighboring residential property.

Pained by what was taking place in his neighborhood Councilman — Strumolo demanded the passage of an ordinance which would eliminate for all time the possibility of a factory suddenly rising up between two homes.

The Council changed the zone to Residential Zone Class C. The change brings a temporary halt to further deterioration of the area. It protects life long investments of many Belleville citizens and at the same time it provides our new Planning Board with the time needed to review the community's master plan prepared by the old Planning Board which went out of existence July 1.

The zone change is good for Silver Lake and all Belleville.

Councilman Strumolo is to be commended for his awareness of the problem and his determination to do something about it.

A Tribute To Pharmacists

Your neighborhood pharmacy is one of the indispensable parts of modern health care which has done so much in recent years to raise health standards.

National Pharmacy Week opens Sunday, October 7. The purpose of this annual event is to focus public attention on the contributions made by pharmacists in servicing the health needs of our community, and the fact that the neighborhood pharmacist works for better community health every day of the year.

Sometimes we tend to forget how highly trained a technician a pharmacist must be. A degree in pharmacy requires five years of academic study. Several pharmacy colleges require six years. Following graduation a pharmacist must pass a rigid examination by the State Board of Pharmacy in the state of his choice before he is licensed. Many states also require a year of internship under the supervision of a registered pharmacist as a prerequisite to licensure.

Pharmacy Week, which has been proclaimed by Acting Governor Frank S. Farley is an appropriate time to emphasize the trustworthy health service rendered by pharmacists.

Leonard Rosenstein, president of the New Jersey Pharmaceutical Association, says:

"It is true that we handle many diverse lines as a service to our patrons who look to the neighborhood pharmacy to fill so many of their needs. But our primary interest is in relieving the ills of the sick, restoring their health, and helping them to lead healthier lives. The prescription department is the backbone of every pharmacy and the center of the pharmacist's interest in his devotion to the health and welfare of our citizenry."

"The pharmacist is in the best position," Rosenstein observes, to advise the public regarding the proper precautions to be followed in the use of all medicines. All should agree with his viewpoint, especially, when he says:

"No one would think of going to a barber shop for an operation. We believe it is just as unthinkable to shop in any hole-in-the-wall spot for things like bromides, reducing aids, sleeping tablets, which if not used as directed, can be a serious threat to health, and even life itself."

Let us pause to give serious thought, furthermore to this statement of Mr. Rosenstein:

"It is not enough to say that the label on the bottle or the box warns of this danger. Many labels are all-too-inadequate, sometimes bordering on the illegible. Tragic possibilities lie in the common faith that the label also shows the maximum dosage safe for adults and children."

In a sentence, we can add: drug safety pays, and during National Pharmacy Week, fitting tribute can be bestowed upon our pharmacists for the work they perform for the betterment of community health.

CHILDRESS, TEX. REPORTER: "Not long ago we watched the television program 'Meet the Press.' The gentleman being interviewed . . . was pictured as one of the top economists of the world . . . We wouldn't accuse the man of being in favor of socialism, for we were unable to tell him down, however, he left the impression that so many are leaving now-a-days, viz. 'keep the poor devil poor and he'll give you no trouble.' The way to do that is to tax him for all he's worth. Not having any money, or spare money, the populace is putty in the hands of the powers that be."

Beck's Column

As you know, we try to answer in our column the most frequently asked questions when customers come to our store. Just about every second person these days asks about color.

We have stated in this column for the last few years that color is excellent. There is less service trouble, in our experience, than with black and white sets. It should be mentioned that it is of utmost importance that a color set is set up and adjusted correctly at the location where it is to be used. There is no such thing as unpacking a color set at the point of delivery, hook it up and expect it to work right. It is absolutely necessary to make some adjustments, which vary from location to location. If this is done right, there is no need for further adjustments. Most customers just turn the set on and switch from station to station. There is rarely any other adjustment required. You may have heard that the colors are not right, or some similar comments. Nothing could be further from the facts. You can adjust the colors exactly the way they appear to be right to you and your own personal color perception, which varies from person to person. As you know, some people are color blind and others have a very keen sense for colors.

There are now 3 stations transmitting color programs, channels 4, 7 and 9. Channel 9 alone hold out among the major stations, has shown some color programs, unscheduled and unannounced. It won't be long and they will have a regular color schedule. There is talk that channel 11 will be on very soon in color.

There you have it, plenty of programs, excellent color reproduction, very little service, if the sets are set up right. What more does one want? Of course, color sets cost more, the same as everything else that is better, and they are well worth it. You are invited to come in during the world series, which will be transmitted in color. We will have several sets in operation in our demonstration rooms.

We service what we sell.

Glasby Company Celebrates Its 25th Year

The P. Glasby Manufacturing Co., Inc., 1 Montgomery St., Belleville, is celebrating its 25th anniversary today, October 4.

The company was incorporated in 1937 and is still headed by J. P. Glasby, Jr., noted for many years as a heating pioneer specializing in the use of gas as a heating fuel. Until recently the company manufactured and distributed the Glasby Gas Conversion Burner and other weather conditioning equipment.

The Glasby organization now specializes in precision weldments and assemblies for the leading prime contractors in the defense and space industry in Northern New Jersey.

The events of the anniversary celebration include visitations to the Glasby plant and to its associated company, Vac-U-Max at 37 Rutgers Street, Belleville at a dinner and entertainment at the Robin Hood Inn, Clifton. Participating will be the Board of Directors, all employees and their families.

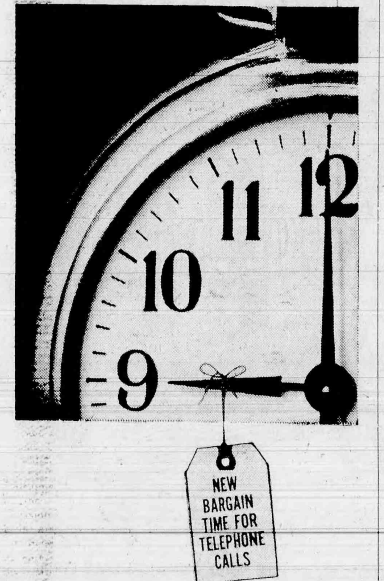

To commemorate the occasion, Lubin Palmer, Jr., executive vice president, says a booklet recording the history of the company with vignettes of the service and family of each employee is being distributed.

Bow And Arrow Hunting Is Becoming Popular

Bow and arrow hunting has become an important sport in New Jersey.

The deer's archery deer season opens on Saturday, October 6, and continues through November 9. Hunting hours are from one half hour before sunrise to one half hour after sunset throughout the State.

One deer of either sex and any age may be taken. The deer must be tagged before transporting and must be reported by mail to the Division of Fish and Game, 230 W. State Street, Trenton, within 24 hours. Failure to do so carries a $100 penalty.

Archers also can hunt deer and small game during the firearms seasons for the various species under the same limits and regulations that apply to firearms. This deer hunting during the firearms season must be between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5 p.m., EST, and is restricted to antlered bucks except under the Hunters Choice provision.

Applicants for a Bow and Arrow License must present to the issuing agent a certificate of completion of a safety course or

Garden State Anglers In For Exciting Fall

Excellent striped bass fishing is expected in the next few weeks.

Surf fishing has started to pick up in the region from Sandy Hook to Manasquan, as well as inshore fishing in waters like Manasquan Inlet and River. This includes the beginning of the southward migration of stripers that usually provides the best fishing of the year during October and November.

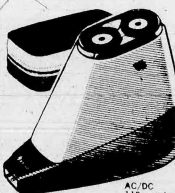

The fine run of stripers this spring should provide an exceptional fall season as they return. The fact that good, though sporadic, catches were made throughout the summer in the Sandy Hook area is further cause for optimism.

Upper Delaware Bay has also provided good fishing for small stripers for most of the summer. The smaller size limit in this section has clearly not depleted the resource.

Stripers are a favorite of surf casters at spots like Island Beach, Sandy Hook Point and the Long Branch jetties. They are also taken by trollers and bait fishermen in many bays and rivers, as well as by some charter and party boats. Some favorite inshore spots include the Highland and Sea Bright bridges, Barnegat Inlet, Great Bay and Egg Island Point in Delaware Bay.

A New Jersey Outdoors article, "The Striped Bass, Prince of the Unpredictables" is available from the Division of Fish and Game, 230 W. State Street, Trenton. It deals with a variety of ways to fish for stripers. Whatever way they choose, Garden State anglers should have an exciting time this fall.

'Red Pin' Is New Idea In Bowling

Olympic Bowl, 679 Washington Ave., Belleville, is playing host to the first annual "Red Pin" tournament. The tournament begins Saturday, October 20, and runs through Sunday, November 11. Qualifying rounds will be held the first three weekends, with the finals being run off on Sunday, November 11.

The tournament is a first of its kind — a totally new idea in bowling. The object of the game is as follows: A red pin will be set up among the 10 pins normally racked. The red pin will replace a regular pin and will be set up wherever the automatic pin setter places it.

The bowlers will try and knock down as many of the regular pins as possible, leaving the red pin standing. You receive 3 points for each pin knocked down. The "Red" pin remains standing. 20 per cent of all original entries will qualify for the finals, and 28 prizes will be awarded, plus door prizes and "On the Spot" cash prizes during the qualifying events, for bowling certain scores.

All prizes will be put on display at Olympic Bowl, starting this Saturday.

The tournament is open to everyone. No average or league affiliation is necessary. It's a game of luck, skill and decisions.

To be eligible for door prizes entry blanks must be submitted by Monday, October 15.

Minister To Youth Joins Wesley Methodist Church

A minister to youth and a director of music have been added to the staff of the Wesley Methodist Church, Belleville, according to an announcement by the pastor, the Rev. Paul Woodward.

The Rev. John Peterson was introduced to the congregation Monday morning and will begin his duties October 7 by assisting Pastor Woodward in World Wide Communion at the 11 o'clock service.

As minister to youth he will be in charge of both the high school Methodist Youth Fellowship and the Junior Intermediate Fellowship for 7th and 8th graders in their Sunday evening meetings. He will also assist in the Sunday morning church school.

The new director of music is Miss Sylvia Straw, a senior music student at Northeast Bible Institute in Essex Fells. Miss Straw begins rehearsal this week with the adult choir of the church and will reorganize the youth and children's choirs later this month.

Also new to the church staff this fall is Mrs. Valerie Nowak, a member of the congregation, who is serving as part time secretary. She will be available at the church office each morning during the week.

Jewish Holy Day Will Be Marked On Weekend

The holiest day of religious observance for Jews all over the world, Yom Kippur, will be marked beginning at Sundown, Sunday. This unique Jewish Holy Day is the culmination of a ten-day period of repentance which began with Rosh Hashana, the Jewish New Year, which this year marked the calendar year of 5723.

All-day worship services are held in synagogues throughout the world. Worshippers usually add to the solemnity of the Holy Day by fasting.

The sundown service begins with the singing of the well-known Kol Nidre, Hebrew for "all vows," a musical plea for remission of hasty and impetuous decisions. Prayers and sermons on Yom Kippur call upon man to use his capacities to overcome personal error and dereliction, remodel the coming year through self-improvement and better understanding of family and neighbor. The prayers include supplications for elimination of poverty, hunger, prejudice, and attainment of world peace.

Girl Scout Troop 954 Holds Annual Election

Parish Event At St. Peter's Is Arranged

Mrs. Thomas Mack, of 19 Oak Street, Belleville, chairman of the Ticket Committee for the annual Parish Card Party at St. Peter's Wednesday evening, October 17 has announced that tickets have been mailed to all paid members. Additional tickets can be obtained from any member of the committee or at St. Peter's Rectory, 155 William Street.

Mrs. Mack has as her co-chairmen Mrs. Edward De Martino and Mrs. Oreste Savare. The Ticket Committee includes Mrs. John Butler, Mrs. Joseph Jeffers, Mrs. Earl Perkins, Mrs. Robert Palumbo, Mrs. Nellie Shultz, Miss Constance Connolly, Mrs. Charles Dunscombe, Mrs. William C. McCoy, Mrs. Nicholas Utrachi, Mrs. William Oertel, Edward De Martino, Joseph Di Matteo, James McConnon, Richard Fanlin, Oreste Savare, Frank Pulidore and Robert Frederick.

A pleasant evening of cards, refreshments and prizes is promised, to be climaxed with the award at 11 o'clock of the Grand Prize, a 1962 Chevrolet Impala four-door hardtop sedan.

Group For Sane Nuclear Policy Selects Officers

At its first meeting of the season, the Belleville Tri-County Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy elected new officers.

Mrs. Diana Witkus, 27 Devon Terrace, Kearny, was elected chairman. Mrs. Witkus has been active in SANE for the past three years. She is the mother of two young children who believes that it is a mother's duty not only to feed and clothe her children well, but also to try to preserve a peaceful world for them.

"How can I insist that my children take vitamin pills each day?" Mrs. Witkus asked, "if I do not also insist that the food they eat is not contaminated by radioactive fallout from all the bomb tests?"

Mrs. Mary O'Connor, 68 Rossmore Place, Belleville, was elected vice-chairman. An active peace worker for the past year, Mrs. O'Connor recalled: "When I first joined SANE I was afraid people would think I was 'different' or a little crazy to believe that I, a housewife, could do something for peace. But as I have learned more and more facts, and then passed them on to my friends, they too have changed from doubters to doers."

Mrs. O'Connor has three children ranging from age 7 to 1, but finds time to work for SANE because she thinks it is her "duty as a mother not only to give life, but to preserve life as well."

Mrs. Gerry Laverne of Belleville was re-elected treasurer for a second term. Miss Christine Cochrane of North Arlington was elected Political Action chairman. The following, all of Belleville, were also named to posts in the local SANE group: Mrs. Jean Findlay, secretary; Mrs. Mary Jo Weston, Literature chairman; Mrs. Rita Simon, Project chairman, and Mrs. Ingrid Frank, Publicity chairman.

The Belleville Tri-County SANE chapter is part of a national organization working for an end to nuclear weapons tests by all nations; total world disarmament with inspection and controls, and a strengthened United Nations to keep the peace in a disarmed world.

The group meets once a month in members' homes to discuss current world problems and decide appropriate educational and political action. Anyone interested in receiving further information about the aims of the SANE group is asked to call Mrs. Findlay.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program by mothers and friends of the eighth grade under the direction of hospitality chairman, Mrs. Raymond Boxer and Mrs. Charles Neiminger.

Miss Patricia Ann Leonardis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Leonardis of 412 DeWitt Avenue, was among thirty girls comprising the Class of 1962 at the Orange Memorial Hospital School of Nursing who received their diplomas recently at graduation ceremonies held in the Orange High School auditorium.

Miss Leonardis, a 1959 graduate of Belleville High School, was active in the Newman Club, fund raising, and skating shows at the School of Nursing.

Baretski Calls For Economic Cuba Blockade

Charles Allan Baretski, Republican candidate for Congress in the 10th District called for an immediate economic blockade of Cuba and urged the country to withhold foreign aid from any nation that gives aid and comfort to any communist government.

"Sometimes it seems as if the current administration has a lemming complex," he said, "because we seem to be afraid to criticize our enemies, we provide food and materials to hostile nations, and we bog down in decision in the face of a crisis. If the current administration is trying to commit suicide I wish they wouldn't try to drag this nation and the free world down with it."

"In past generations this nation has never hesitated to defend the rights of individuals, the freedoms of nations or the traditions of self-government."

"How," the candidate asked, "can we abandon these principles and retain the respect of free peoples and leadership of the free nations?"

Post Office Will Have New Type Money Orders
Postmaster L. A. Reilly of the Newark Postal District has announced that the Newark Post Office, its affiliated Stations and the Branches located in the towns of Belleville, Nutley and Irvington will begin to issue the Department's new yellow-tinted money order form on Saturday, October 13.
The new yellow form will be printed by the Department's new automatic punch-printing machine which accurately records the amount of the money order on the form, stub and receipt.
It will eliminate any margin of error or doubt when cashing the order which may arise from the present hand-written forms. However, Reilly explained that the old blue money order form will still be used by many other post offices and is redeemable at any office within the Newark Postal District and the country.
The print punch money order machine is the first of many changes toward "Improved Service" as planned by the Department for offices within the Newark Postal District. Presently, the Newark office is in the process of training personnel to operate these highly efficient machines.

Event Arranged For Multiple Sclerosis Group
A noteworthy event generally held for a celebration and that is exactly what the Multiple Sclerosis Service Organization of New Jersey will be doing on Friday, October 19, at 8 p.m. at Graulich's, 369 Park Avenue, Orange.
The 11th annual Dessert Card Party of the organization will be a happy event because during the past year ground was purchased in Chester Township and work begun on the long-awaited Nursing Home for victims of multiple sclerosis. And, as usual, there will be dessert and coffee, prizes in abundance and, of course, a White Elephant Table.
Everyone is requested to bring playing cards. Further information regarding the event may be obtained from MSSO Headquarters at 115 Fourth Avenue, East Orange, or from the chairman for the event, Mrs. Margaret Lewis, 9 Grand Place, Arlington.

Beautiful Bucolic Belleville

Copper Mills Were Once Big Industry In The Soho Section

By FREDERICK J. PILLEE

The copper mills that were operated by the Hendricks family in the "Soho" section of Belleville comprised a very prominent industry in our town for over a century.

It was a continuation of the industry founded by Nicholas Rosetti, prompted by the discovery of copper ore of almost 80 per cent purity on the plantation of Arent Schuyler in North Arlington in 1719, the smelting and rolling of copper was already a well established industry in Belleville at the time of the Hendricks Brothers acquisition of the mills in the early part of the nineteenth century.

In 1824 the business was greatly enlarged and they built the lower of "Soho" mill on Second River. The Upper or "Montgomery" mill followed. The original power used was derived from the waterfalls on the river.

RIVER BED ALTERED

No trace of the lower mill can be found today. The waterfall there which in later years was known as "Tiffany's Falls" has also disappeared. This was done when the Essex County Park Commission landscaped the grounds and also changed the bed of Second River.

The only landmarks remaining of the "Montgomery" or Upper Mill are to be found near the present intersection of Mill Street and Franklin Avenue. A small abandoned section of old Mill Street with a pretty arch bridge and an old abandoned brick building are there today.

Through the arch of the bridge can be seen a very pretty waterfall which has been thought by many to be the old "Tiffany's Falls," but this supposition is erroneous. This is all that is left of the old mill race that supplied water power to the Upper Mill and the pond in back of it was once known as Hendrick's Pond.

ORE WAS IMPORTED

After the Schuyler Copper Mine vein ran out they imported ore from Chile, but this was of an inferior quality. It is interesting to note that they imported coal from Liverpool, which seems to be a highly incongruous procedure.

The Morris Canal was not constructed as yet, but the Delaware and Hudson canal was in operation between Port Jervis, N. Y., and Kingston, allowing access to the rich Pennsylvania coal fields by water. Steam packets were plying the Hudson River bringing coal to New York Harbor.

The original method of importing supplies to the mill and exporting its products was by teams of oxen to and from docks on the Passaic River. This was a distance of almost two miles.

An important event which materially helped the Hendricks Mill was the opening of the Morris Canal, which ran about 200 yards from the Montgomery Mill. The tedious trek to the Passaic River was then abandoned, and coal was brought down from Pennsylvania and the product exported by canal boat.

DESTROYED BY FIRE

In 1867 the Lower or "Soho" mill was partially abandoned and one of several disastrous fires which plagued these mills destroyed it in 1875. The Upper Mill was destroyed by fire in 1874 but was rebuilt on a much larger and more modern scale.

The manufacture of copper sheets, wire and rivets was not a "job" for the "Jolly Copper Smith," which was a popular tune of that day and age. It was hard, backbreaking, hand-slashing and utterly grueling work. The scale of pay is not mentioned in any history books of the time.

The construction and opening of the New York, Midland and Western Railroad also was very profitable to the Hendricks's Mills for it ran even closer to them than the Morris Canal and provided access to the vast copper fields near Lake Superior. A large spur was built from the railroad into the plant, part of this spur being used by the present Jergens Lotion establishment.

OFFICE IN CITY

The firm had an office in New York City at 49 Cliff Street and through this office orders were taken from throughout the world.

Herman Hendricks built a fine mansion between John Street and Mill Street on what is now the Essex County Golf Course. This was used by the privately owned Hendricks's Field Golf Club as their clubhouse, but it was demolished when the field was given over to public use.

Sometime during 1908 there was the third and final fire in the Hendricks's Mills, causing extensive damage. Again they were rebuilt but with no appreciable exterior change.

The contemporary history of the Hendricks's Mills is one that the author has very little knowledge of. There are plenty of stories about incidents and happenings in and around the plant but they are vague as to dates and times.

ARMY CAMP

During World War I the plant was in full swing in regard to production and at some time during the period of 1917-1918 there was a small Army encampment on the golf course grounds.

In 1928 the elegant mansion belonging to the Hendricks family was demolished. "Rough the foresight of Henry S. Hendricks the brownstone carriage block was salvaged and placed in storage near Mamaroneck, N. Y.

This stone is now the property of the Belleville Historical Society, now in process of incorporation. The generosity and kindness of the widow of Henry S. Hendricks has made this possible.

The official presentation and dedication of this exquisitely carved brownstone sculpture will be announced at a later date in

Residents are asked to place bundles of old papers at the Street, Maplewood, is president of the organization.

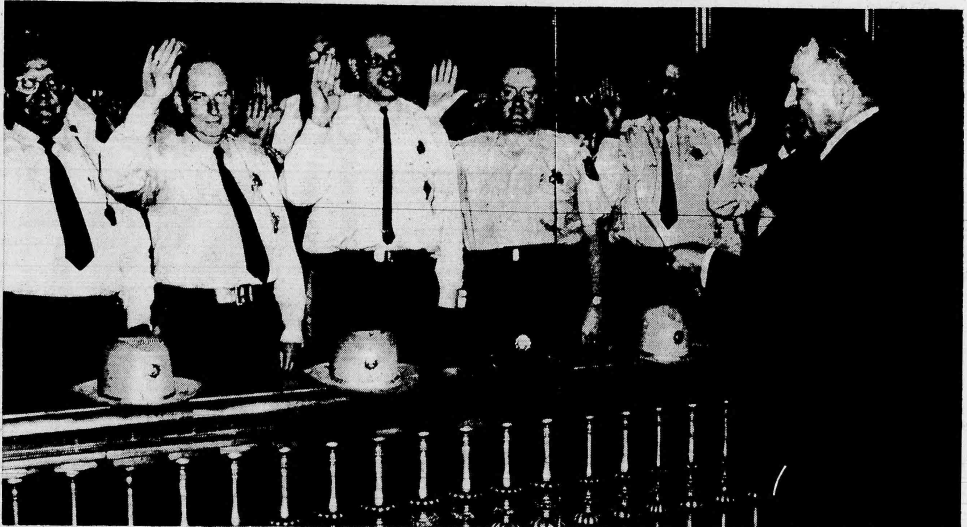

Dr. Culp is director of the crippled children's program for the state health department. He will describe what state services are available and what limitations there are in the state's program so that center parents may learn what supplementary aid to expect.

The center offers treatment and schooling to more than 200 cerebral palsied youngsters. Miss Edith A. Ayres is executive director.
