Bookbinding: A Vanishing Craft

Examining the leather spine of a soon-to-be-bound book are, at right, Julius Meyer, the last of a long line of family bookbinders, and his partner Lindley Graves, who joined the business in 1948. Together the two have maintained a link with the fast-disappearing past by their hand-binding of books and periodicals. They are of the opinion their craft will soon be lost because of a lack of interest in the manual arts by present day youth.

Fund To Honor Herman S. Entin

A charitable foundation to be named in honor of a former officer of the Belleville Kiwanis Club has been authorized by the international organization.

Russell F. Hopkins, club secretary made the announcement last week after the Board of Trustees authorized the formation of the foundation, to be named in honor of Herman S. Entin, who was vice president of the Belleville Kiwanis Club at the time of his death.

A dinner in early December is planned for Mrs. Entin of 201 Fairway Avenue, when a $1,000 check will be presented as the initial deposit of the newly formed foundation.

Object of the foundation is to further charitable, youth, and other related projects carried on by the club.

Jaycee-ettes Elect Four New Officers

Members of the Jaycee-ettes elected four Belleville residents to office November 29 during the regular meeting.

The officers of the newly formed organization are Mrs. Fred Devlin, president; Mrs. Robert Licker, vice-president and State director; Mrs. Bernard O'Connor, secretary; and Mrs. Allan Bernstein, treasurer.

Plans are being made for the first annual installation dinner at which time the officers will be installed by Jaycee-ette State President, Mrs. Gerry Matson. The dinner will be held some time in January.

The next meeting of the organization will be held Thursday, December 23, and thereafter on the second Thursday of each month at the Belleville Recreation House at 8:30 p.m. All wives of Junior Chamber of Commerce members and those women whose husbands are potential members are cordially invited to attend.

Political Groups Unite In Effort To Restore Peace In Council Chambers

Five Belleville civic groups have banded together in an effort to reconcile the political differences between the majority bloc led by Mayor Robert M. Laterza, and the two councilmen who oppose them or else.

The "or else" was an alternative recall movement tentatively planned for presentation July 20 by the Citizens Tax Council if the ousted Town Manager is not restored to duty.

"We haven't officially started the recall petitions," said Martin L. Resnik, a 49-year-old chief engineer and trustee in the Tax Council. "But if Sommers is reinstated, we have 1,500 petitions already printed."

In a crowded meeting room at 569 Washington Avenue, one faction demanded immediate action on the recent suspension of William A. Sommers from his $15,000 per year job as Town Manager after three months in office. But others were more moderate, urging caution before action.

Stubbornly defending the ousted Town Manager is Councilman James R. Golden and Thomas P. Greco. Both men, almost as a matter of routine, cast opposing votes on business matters presented by Mayor Laterza.

Attending the meeting Wednesday night were representatives of Fairway Civic Association, Businessmen for Better Government, Rutan Estates Homeowners, River Park Civic Association, and the Citizens Tax Council.

Resnik, who lives at 160 Bremond Street, said his group was disillusioned by the Council's vote of Sommers' insistence on separation of politics and public

Laterza Explains Reasons Behind Town's Business

Nearly 100 Belleville manufacturers attended a meeting Tuesday night at For-Hills restaurant and heard a report of good municipal health by Mayor Robert M. Laterza, despite adverse publicity.

He enumerated the financial shortcuts which saved taxpayers thousands of dollars; explained the reasons why William A. Sommers was discharged (for failure to conform to his contract); and reaffirmed his intention to hire only the best for Belleville's proper administration of public affairs.

Belleville first political considerations second, he said.

Town office holders came in for some attention, too.

The Mayor announced plans to set a penalty for town employees who engage in politics or accept bribes and other remuneration for services granted or implied.

Finch had gone from door to door in his neighborhood passing out two typewritten sheets of paper containing a copy of the Bill of Rights, and an excerpt from the new ordinance.

Police refused to arrest him.

Town Attorney Thomas C. D'Avella later ruled that such material was not prohibited from distribution, nor was that the intent of the ordinance.

"I'm not political," said Finch, who lives at 7 Tappan Avenue.

"All I wanted to do was make sure that freedom of speech was not violated."

Station Attendant Earns $5 Cash Award For Customer

A sharp-eyed Belleville Times reader spotted Pay De Pasquale, who works at Jannarone's Service station, as the mysterious person encircled in a picture on the map page last week, and qualified for the $5 check offered by The Times.

Joe Vecchione, 31, an editor for the Ballantine and Sons employee newspaper in Newark, recognized De Pasquale as the man who fills his gas tank each morning. His hobby is reading.

Vecchione lives at 181 Overbrook Avenue with his wife Eleanor, and their four children.

Santa will pick five of the letters for special prizes. These letters will be picked by chance. Santa will deliver the prizes on the day before Christmas. In addition Santa will answer each letter he receives.

Santa asks his friends to write soon so he can answer them before Christmas.

Window Damage

Mrs. Minerva Stinson, who works in The Belleville Times Washington Avenue office, is shown examining two holes shot in the front window by vandals. Seven other places of business were pelted with what Belleville Police believe was a pellet gun. The damage was caused Monday night.

Attorney Invites Arrest, But Cops Refuse The Job

"All I was trying to do was make sure the ordinance didn't violate section 7 of the constitution regarding freedom of speech and the press."

So said Leslie W. Finch, a 42-year-old Belleville attorney, after notifying police of his intention to violate the newly adopted town ordinance prohibiting the distribution of handbills last week.

Finch had gone from door to door in his neighborhood passing out two typewritten sheets of paper containing a copy of the Bill of Rights, and an excerpt from the new ordinance.

Police refused to arrest him.

Town Attorney Thomas C. D'Avella later ruled that such material was not prohibited from distribution, nor was that the intent of the ordinance.

New High School To Exceed Estimated Figure, Says Board

Belleville's new high school came one step closer to realization Monday night when the School Board received seven bids for construction of the proposed facility.

The lowest bid exceeded the $2,120,000 estimate by some $548,440.00. The 26 per cent increase was blamed on the current hasle going on between Board members and the possibility of work stoppage brought about by these unsettled conditions.

The bids didn't include an estimated $730,000 for construction administration, insurance, fee site work, and furnishings.

Bids Are Hiked

The bids were higher than anticipated, said Alphonso Alvarez, school architect of 204 Belleville Avenue, Upper Montclair, "because of the indictments against school officials."

Alvarez was one of ten persons indicted last year for alleged irregularities during the campaign for a new high school.

Of eleven prospective bidders who considered the Belleville school before the indictments, seven showed up at the meeting Monday night. This was indicative of the low estate to which business matters have fallen in Belleville, said one businessman attending the meeting.

Board President Richard H. Drake agreed that "certain conditions would increase costs."

A Dissenting Member

Mrs. Thomas Norma McCool, a Board member who lives at 194 Fairway Avenue, and one of two not indicted, made a post-meeting announcement that she would oppose the acceptance of the bids during the December 17 meeting at which time bids will be opened.

She would like to have the bids re-advertised, she said, after the trials are concluded.

Mrs. McCool, an office manager at Newark, has been a steady antagonist of the all-male Board, and was responsible for the indictment of her fellow Board members.

Bidders Seek Time

Low bidder was made by Pike Construction Co., of Paterson for $1,424,550.

Several bidders were on hand during the meeting to request additional time to prepare bids. Drake vetoed the request, explaining that insufficient time to notify contractors, in addition to legal procedures would preclude the matter.

Some 100 representatives of contractors attended the meeting at School's auditorium. Reading of the bids took almost two hours.

CHRISTMAS MOVIES

A filmed Christmas program, closed by the Community singing of Christmas Carols, will be shown at Public School Number Seven, 20 Passaic Avenue, December 17.

The films, provided by Bergen Motion Picture Service of Lodi, will be shown at 9 a.m., ending at 3 p.m.

Idea Exchange

Last week the Belleville Jaycees visited their counterparts at Bloomfield and literally "passed the barrel" in a symbolic exchange of ideas. Allen Bernstein, passed the barrel to George Henry, Bloomfield Jaycee president. The members later devoted the meeting to the importance of public speaking.

For The Kids It's Fun, But Not For The Town's Snow Removal Crews, Says Vara

To Belleville children it's the beginning of a winter's dream; but to Ralph Vara it can become a nightmare.

Vara, who is superintendent of Public Works, is already making plans for the forthcoming winter weather and its attendant problems of snow removal.

Proceeds go toward the school's scholarship fund. Mrs. Irving Miller is president of the P.T.A.

and his crew will have cleared the snow from every major thoroughfare in town, and will have started on side streets. Roads from overnight parking on main started on side streets. The hills required some five tons of salt last year, about average, said Vara, and are usually cleared within two hours by two trucks. Twelve snow plows are also available for the winter wars.

Within five and a half hours after the first snow fall, Vara was

Only The Worm Need Work, Or So It Seemed

By JOHN T. CUNNINGHAM

Madness lay on the land. Sober farmers throughout New Jersey tossed good judgment to the winds, a medical doctor in Burlington turned common thief and delusions of grandeur touched everyone from staid housewives to studious clergymen.

Morus multicaulus fever had come.

The "fever" took its name from the Chinese mulberry tree—the Morus multicaulus species—which New Jerseymen planted in the late 1830's with a fervor generally reserved for treasure hunts.

Anyone the least bit susceptible to the get-rich-quick virus caught Morus multicaulus fever. Just thinking about the multicaulus brought dreams: leaves from the tree would be fed to silkworms, the cocoons would spin cocoons, the cocoons would be sold to silk makers at high prices. The harvest would be golden, and after the initial planting, only a little worm need work.

Multicaulus fever took hold slowly, spread in part by New Jersey editors who fretted lest New England get all the silk riches. The editor of the Newark Sentinel of Freedom warned in October, 1835, that "New England has taken nearly a monopoly" on growing the Chinese mulberry tree.

By the spring of 1836 the fever had become high in New Jersey (touching first in Warren County where a hastily-formed company of silk-worm enthusiasts secured a charter. Farmers everywhere neglected their wheat to plant Morus multicaulus orchards.

Delightful nonsense filled the newspapers, all of it sure to inflame the rising madness.

Typical was a bit of fancy figuring in the Sentinel of Freedom. A "man in Connecticut" had two trees from which he sliced 202 cuttings. If he planted these, each would make a tree capable of producing more cuttings. He could feed silkworms and the grateful feasters would produce 30 pounds of silk the first year, 160 pounds the second year, 240 pounds the third year and so on forever.

Any man with a bit of land, a pencil and a long winter's night could reckon himself a millionaire, herd of all he surveyed and husband of a wife with six silk dresses.

The State Legislature moved on February 21, 1838, "to encourage the culture of silk" by authorizing a state bounty of 15 cents per pound "for cocoons of silk, the produce of worms raised in this state." The editor of the Hunterdon Democrat howled that the "wheat grower is taxed to support the silk stocking mania" but few heeded that wee voice of doom.

Judge John S. Van Dyke of Princeton became the first to qualify for a state bonus, and when he took his cocoons to Trenton in June, 1838, the occasion called for full-scale celebration. Even Governor William Pennington stopped by to extend "the warmest praise."

That summer turned oppressively hot and dry. Multicaulus trees wilted in the fields, but silk companies or societies optimistically formed in Belvidere, Freehold, Burlington, Princeton, Newark, Woodbury, Allentown, Columbus, Trenton, Elizabethtown and scattered spots in Morris and Bergen counties.

Success? A Princeton man sold $4,000 worth of trees in 1838, at 27 cents per tree. Rev. D. V. McLean of Freehold reported that he had fed 100,000 silkworms "with complete success." Ward Cheney & Brothers of Connecticut erected a silk coonery in Burlington, as a cafeteria for millions of hungry silkworms.

A visitor to Burlington in the summer of 1838 wrote that "you can scarcely go into a house but you find the inmates engaged in feeding worms." It wasn't a mania, the visitor wrote, because Burlington people "are not liable to be inveigled by designing men into speculative pursuits."

Being "grave, sedate and industrious" was no inoculation against the fever. Burlington in 1838 had more than 300,000 Morus multicaulus trees, probably more trees in one location than in any of the nine Eastern states touched by the madness.

Things reached such a boiling point in old Burlington that thieves raided mulberry plantations and stole trees worth $1 a piece. The "grave, sedate and industrious" sadly heard that a own physician had been arrested for stealing trees and from a fellow physician at that.

Up went the fever. Speculators bought and sold trees, most of them with no knowledge of how to feed silkworms. Actually, few paid much attention to the lowly silkworm, the only real worker in the lot.

Suddenly the fever broke, dropped first by the cold spring of 1839 that killed thousands of trees. Disillusionment set in; the Trenton Gazette in December told of three-foot trees being sold for three quarters of a cent apiece. A year before they would have been "worth" 50 times that.

The mathematics were clear. Hundreds of farmers chopped down Morus multicaulus trees and burned them for firewood, thus getting the only warmth any of them really had a right to expect from the fever. Next spring they were back on the same old field—sowing wheat.

The silkworm? He was on his way back to China, where he belonged.

YOU AND YOUR INSURANCE

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

Auto Insurers To Restrict Cancellation Of Policies

Many insurance companies are planning to restrict their right to cancel automobile liability insurance policies on private passenger cars.

The National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters, a national rating organization representing more than 250 insurance companies, has requested insurance department approval of this program in 43 states, Washington, D. C. and Puerto Rico. Many have already approved it.

The plan will not affect the policyholders' unrestricted right to cancel auto insurance policies.

The rule states that unless the insurance company gives notice to the policyholder within 60 days after issuance of a policy it can be cancelled only for specified reasons.

All of these reasons are in the area of public policy, such as:

- failure to pay premiums
- fraudulent misrepresentation in obtaining insurance
- suspension or revocation of a driver's license

Liability is the form of insurance that protects the policyholder against claims for personal injury, death or property damage caused by the negligent operation of his automobile.

B. H. S. To Participate In Model United Nations

By MARLISE JAMES
It has been announced that ten Belleville High School students will represent the Italian delegation at the model United Nations to take place April 5, 6 and 7 in Wilmington, Del. These students will be chosen on their ability to do research, to speak in front of a group and their knowledge of the background and principles of the U.N.

The model U.N. is a project that over one hundred schools from the whole East coast and Canada participate in. Each school represents a delegation from a country and members of the different delegations "serve" on the various U.N. committees. Research is done beforehand so the students know the viewpoint of the country they represent on the different resolutions that will be discussed. These resolutions are drafted beforehand and deal with current affairs that have been or are being discussed in the real U.N.

Miss Marilyn Chichester, a member of the high school history department, is the faculty member responsible for preparing the BHS delegation for this experience in world affairs.

HOLDS CHRISTMAS PARTY
The December meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of School 7 has been set aside for an evening of fun. The theme of the evening will be "Holiday Inn". S. Claus, Prop. The decorating committee is hard at work to provide a festive atmosphere, plus fun for everyone. A large attendance is expected. Meeting will start promptly at 8 p.m. on Monday December 10.

He Came To Aid Of Both The Parties

By JOHN T. CUNNINGHAM

The kicking donkey and the ponderous elephant, so far separated at election time, really are brothers under the skin—or more properly, under the pen for the creator of both symbols was Thomas Nast, the Harper's Weekly artist who lived in Morristown during his most famous years.

Nast's memory lives on in Morristown. His mansion, privately owned, stands as a monument to the days when President Grant, Mark Twain and other leaders of the time visited. A town fire company owns some of Nast's sketches, contributed when Nast was an honorary fireman. Morristown Public Library often exhibits his original cartoons and drawings.

Yet Thomas Nast is honored most during each political campaign, when both parties proudly sport his donkey or elephant symbols. Cartoonists also have adopted the two ever since Nast's time, and ever since the beasts have frolicked (or died) on editorial pages.

Neither of the now much-esteemed party symbols grew out of affection. Nast's first cartoon elephant displayed the Republicans stumbling on the brink of disaster. His first donkey lampooned a political "jackass" that kicked everything, including the good in government.

Born in Germany in 1840, the son of a trombonist in a Bavarian military band, Nast came to America in 1846 and at the age of 15 was an artist with Frank Leslie's Illustrated Weekly. His first published drawing depicted holiday crowds aboard the Hoboken ferry; years later Nast rode that same ferry as he commuted between Morristown and New York.

Nast won his first national fame for his Civil War drawings in Harper's Weekly, and by 1865 the bold signature of "The Nast" was nearly as well known in America as that of "A. Lincoln."

The first Democratic cartoon appeared in Harper's on January 15, 1870, when Nast sketched a donkey kicking a dead lion which bore the name of the late Edwin M. Stanton. However, Nast drew the donkey to symbolize the "Copperhead Papers" (or Democratic press) rather than the party itself.

Nast lived in New York at the time of that first cartoon, but early in 1871 he moved to Morristown. Both the elephant and the donkey became widely used while "The Nast" lived in Morristown, and worked in his big second floor studio.

The donkey, trotted out only occasionally, but always as a Democrat, became just another beast in Nast's stable after the first appearance. Once in 1871 he showed the donkey coupled to a horse labeled "Republican," with the pair making a powerful team driven by Tammany Hall.

President Grant always won Nast's praise and the two developed a warm friendship. Grant visited the Nast in Morristown and on one occasion embarrassed Nast by asking for a cigar. The artist said he had none.

"It's all right, Nast," Grant said as he pulled cigars from his own pocket, "I remembered that you don't smoke. Besides, I never go into action without ammunition."

Republicans infuriated Nast in 1874 by displaying fright at the mere mention that Grant might seek a third term. Nast revealed his scorn in Harper's on November 7, 1874, in a cartoon where the elephant appeared for the first time.

Nast's cartoon showed the beasts of the forest running in panic from a donkey shouting that Grant wanted to be another Caesar. Notably this Nast donkey was not the Democratic party, but rather the "N. Y. Herald," a leading newspaper used in suggesting that Grant wanted a third term. This time a terror-stricken fox represented the Democrats.

Most frightened of all was the elephant labeled "Republican" delicately trying to please everyone and in the process trodding thin planks covering a pit named "Chaos."

Although "The Nast" endures through his donkey and elephant his chief contemporary fame rested on two things: a deadly assault on New York City's Tammany Tiger and his annual Christmas drawings.

Boss Bill Tweed of Tammany Hall ruefully admitted that Nast's pen was the most powerful weapon hurled against the incredibly corrupt political machine that plundered the city at will. Except for the New York Times, Nast had no newspaper allies in the fight against Tweed. Nast's pen-pointed disclosures first linked and then frightened

35 Years Of Safe Driving

It took him 35 years, but he finally made it. Hugh McNulty, a district supervisor for Dugan Brothers who lives at 481 Delavan Ave., Newark, recently received a special award for 35 years of accident-free driving over a million miles of road throughout the state, said company officials last week. Here McNulty stands beside his delivery truck smiling with pride.

Questions And Answers On Social Security

Q. Last year I earned $2,000 and received six monthly social security checks. When I filed my earnings report with the social security office, I estimated my earnings would be $2,000 for this year. Recently I received a raise and my earnings for this year will be about $2,000. Should I report this to social security now or wait until I file my earnings report at the close of the year?

A. You should report the increase immediately to your nearest social security office and file a new estimate of earnings for this year to avoid an overpayment in your benefits.

Q. I have been receiving monthly benefits for myself and my children. My oldest son became 18 in May and I reported this to social security. Now he has accepted full time employment and will earn over $2,000 this year. Do I have to report his earnings to social security?

A. Yes, before April 15, 1963, you will have to report his earnings for this year, because he was under 18 in one or more months of the year and earned over $100 in the year.

Q. I have forgotten how much I estimated my earnings would be for this year. I think I will earn about $2,000. Should I make a report to this effect? I don't know whether these earnings would be higher or lower than my earlier estimate.

A. Make the report. If the previous estimate was lower, this will help prevent any overpayment to you. If the previous estimate was higher, more benefits will be sent to you within the year.

Q. I estimated my correct year's earnings when I applied for social security benefits. I have discovered that my earnings probably will be about $100 higher. Should I report this expected increase now, or wait until I complete the year and make my annual report of the Social Security Administration?

A. You should report the increase now. Any substantial increase in your estimate should be reported so that an adjustment can be made while you are still working and better able to get along without a check. If the report is not made, you may be deprived of a benefit check later when it will cause hardship.

Pageant Place Is Given To Belleville Girl

The title, Junior Miss of East Essex County, was awarded to Dorothy E. MacKewen of Hamilton Place, Nutley, a senior at Nutley High School.

The Nutley Jaycees sponsored their first annual affair at the local high school. Miss Annette Bruno of Nutley took second place and Miss Barbara Racioppi of Belleville took third place. Judging for the pageant was handled in three phases consisting of talent, promenade in evening gowns, and sports wear, and answering of general questions asked the girls.

Miss MacKewen did a pantomime with music from the show Oklahoma. Miss Bruno demonstrated proper modeling techniques with explanations of the different steps. Miss Racioppi did a pantomime and dance.

President Art Engel announced that Miss MacKewen will be entered in the Jaycee state finals to be held in Elizabeth, January 19. First place selection of the pageant will then go on to the national finals which will be held in Mobile, Alabama during February. Chairman of the affair was Mike Paulino, and Ray Breault was his vice-chairman.

Mr. Paulino had as a judging staff, Trax Colton, a local Jersey lad who has made several pictures in Hollywood, the latest being "It Happened in Athens" opposite Jayne Mansfield; Charles White, a television personality who is presently appearing in "Love of Life," and who has appeared in over 300 Broadway plays and television programs including "The Iceman Cometh"; Warren Skurel, a musical educator in the Nutley school system and a member of the Nutley Symphony Society; Ruth Westhoff, a model in the commercial advertising field who reigned as Miss Greater Newark; Miss Prudential Brokerage; and Miss Metropolitan Home Builder; Myrna Reich, a speech therapist and teacher from West Orange, who was chosen as Miss Carleton; Miss Bethelien, Pa., and who has done show room modeling in the New York area; Miss Sherrie Goodman, a teacher in the Milburn school system who has been a fashion model; and H. Ellsworth Nathan, director of Public Relations at the Wilfred Academy, substituting for David Malovany, director of the school, who was originally scheduled to judge, but was called away on a business trip on Saturday morning.

Master of Ceremonies for the pageant was Michael Cetnick, who has directed and acted in many shows in our community.

Membership Drive Enrolls Many New Scouts

The climax of the "GO" Membership Roundup of Belleville District of Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America, will come toward the end of this month in an Open House meeting of each Cub Pack, Scout Troop and Explorer Post. The Roundup has enrolled scores of new members in the local units, according to Harry Winfield, district commissioner.

Mr. Winfield said the committee of each unit will make plans for induction of new members and for a get-acquainted program for the institutional representatives and parents as part of the Open House. The event will be held in the hall or meeting room provided by the sponsoring institution.

The annual meeting of the Belleville District, attended by members-at-large and institutional representatives, was held December 5 in the Galaxy Restaurant. Ernest Arvidson was elected as chairman. Vice-chairman will be George H. Brown and William Chapman.

The committee recommended Harry Winfield for re-appointment as district commissioner. The committee also recommended that Scout troops will attend Robert Treat Council's annual Den Chief Training Conference in Newark Academy on Saturday, December 8 from 10 to 4 p.m. The conference has been arranged by the Council's Committee on Leadership Training and a committee representative from Belleville and other Irvington and Newark Districts of the Council.

Medical Care For The Aged

The New Jersey Legislature this week could have given to our elder citizens a very fine Christmas present — but thanks to the Democrats in the Assembly there will be less joy in the hearts of our elders this week.

The Republican Senate passed legislation to implement the Kerr-Mills bill which was passed by the U. S. Congress a full two years ago. Under the Republican program needy persons over 65 would be eligible for free medical care provided they do not have an income exceeding $1,800 if single, or of $3,000 if married.

Republicans in the Assembly led by Minority Leader Carmine Savino, are "ready, willing and able to vote for Kerr-Mills whenever the Democrats can get together."

The Essex Democrat Assemblymen refused to vote in favor of the Republican legislation despite the fact it represented a compromise with Democrat Governor Richard Hughes who is supporting the Senate-approved measure.

Next year the Assembly members will be up for election. It might be well to remember the attitude of the Democrat Assemblymen when visiting the polls next November.

Infra-Red Light Invention Offers Help In Emergency

Broken windows in plant or to an intruder. Stand-by 12-volt store, sections temporarily placed off - limits and other areas where intrusion security must be quickly provided now can be protected with a portable infra-red security needs and can be transferred to a new site in minutes.

A completely tamper - proof unit, the new Portable Lynco-O-Larm is adaptable to changing needs and can be transferred to a new site in minutes. Optics are large for high sensitivity and quick alignment.

To put the alarm in operation, the case top — which contains a reflector disk — is removed and stood upright on its built-in legs at one end of the space to be protected. At the other end, the main case is placed with its infra-red light projector and receiver units facing the reflector. With fast, simple alignment, the light projector's beam is reflected back across the security area by the reflector to the receiver. Any break in the light path such as caused by the entrance of an intruder causes the alarm to trigger.

An area entrance as wide as 50 feet can be protected with the new portable. It measures 17x 17x8 inches overall, weighs 26 pounds, and its sturdy case is fitted with a carrying handle.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

We dislike to be repetitious but by far the most frequently asked question these days is about color TV. We have written about it repeatedly during the last few months. After 8 years experience selling and servicing color sets we find them performing very well now. From every point of view, the colors are excellent. If you saw them differently, it was not the fault of the set. The operator either did not tune it in right or it was not set up correctly initially for the location where the set was used. This is most frequently the case. The best car won't perform right if the carburetor or the ignition system is incorrectly adjusted. It's not the fault of the car, it's the fault of the person responsible for these adjustments.

If a color TV is set up correctly for the location, hardly any adjustments are necessary. We have many customers who did not make any adjustments at all for 6 or 8 months. If the first set-up is not right, no amount of fiddling and fussing with the controls will get you the right colors.

The black and white picture on a color set is better than on a black and white set. This has to do with the greater band width required on a color set. You see details which you can not see on a black and white set because of the narrower band width. A color set is constructed better than a black and white set. It has to be in order to get color pictures. Consequently there is less service trouble with a color TV than with many black and white sets. With the purchase of the two lowest priced models, we offer one year parts warranty and service for $14.50. The parts warranty and service is included in the higher priced sets.

All of this is based on our 8 years of experience selling and servicing hundreds of color TV sets. This we are well aware, probably will be known to what you may have heard, most of all of it most likely hearsay.

We service what we sell

News Highlights

By ARLENE SCHIAVONE

Festivities of the Thanksgiving season commenced at Belleville High School on Wednesday, November 21, with an assembly program flavored with traditional music and stories of Thanksgiving. The program included musical selections by the orchestra, the Glee Club, the Choir, and Bakers Dozen. Pat McNamara added to the entertainment with a satirical story of Thanksgiving. School was dismissed at 12:35, giving everyone an early send-off to prepare for the holiday.

Excitement filled the air as the crowds filled the stands at Orange on November 24 to witness the Belleville - Orange football game. The day was clear and crisp as the two teams met and fought for a victory, each with an eye toward glory. The disappointment felt by many by the postponement of the Thanksgiving Day game was remedied for the Belleville fans, at least, by the Bellboys' triumph over Orange. This was another step in the Bellboys' climb to the top, the final chance to make Belleville stand out as a really great team.

The fine efforts of the team were rewarded by the announcement of the final team standing. The Bellboys have earned not only first place standing in the Group 4, Section 2 competition, but they have brought themselves up to second place in the State competition, being topped only by Clifton High.

Senior members of the Twirling Squad, Cheerleaders, and Band members were saluted during the half-time show of Saturday's game. In addition to the lovely corsages given to each girl by the Student Council, the head majorette and co-captains were each given a bouquet of blue and gold flowers by the members of the squad.

Belleville High School held open house on Tuesday afternoon, November 20, and all parents were invited to come in and speak to the teachers about students progress in school.

Future Teachers' Club sponsored a tea for all members on Wednesday afternoon, November 28, in the school cafeteria. Guest speakers included BHS graduates, two of whom are now attending teachers colleges and two who are now teaching. The purpose of the tea was to familiarize girls interested in a career in teaching with the various aspects of the profession.

The final results of the try-outs held in early October for Bakers Dozen have been posted. The list included members of last year's Bakers Dozen and new members. These girls have already begun rehearsals to prepare for the busy schedule for the Christmas season.

The enchantment of the academy-winning movie "West Side Story" was once again made available to BHS students on November 28. Many students, under the supervision of Dr. Peck and Mr. Troutman, took this opportunity to see the movie, which was shown at Montclair High. They spoke of Belleville's winning season.

Baker's Dozen Is Distinctive Group

By JACQUELINE FOSTER

A social event in the town of Belleville is never complete without a medley of songs by the Baker's Dozen. This group of 26 talented girls, under the supervision of Dr. Peck, has achieved a place of fine distinction in the field of music.

It is a great honor to be able to rank as a member of this group, but this position is achieved only through hard work and much practice. The group is open to any girl in Belleville High who survives the keen competition of the audition. During the week preceding tryouts, practices are scheduled for every morning. This is to enable all to become acquainted with the four possible songs to be used in the final audition. The tune was "Stardust" this year, and the competition was as keen as ever. The results of this audition are not yet known but will be posted soon.

The Baker's Dozen usually gives precedence to songs of religious or traditional nature, although a few show tunes have been added. The music is sung in four parts: first soprano, second soprano, first alto and second alto. They are usually accompanied on the piano by Joann Torre.

The Baker's Dozen may be seen at many social affairs in and around Belleville. This year they have performed at the School 72-T.A., the Kearney Athletic exchange assembly and the annual Thanksgiving assembly in the high school. Their future plans include a visit to Clara Maass to present a selection of Christmas and holiday songs. They will also make a return

Varsity Banquet Is Huge Success

By JOAN HOFFMAN

The Robin Hood Inn provided the setting for the 18th Annual Varsity Club Football Banquet November 29, at the Robin Hood Inn, Clifton. The crowd that followed Belleville to every football game seemed to be at the banquet, for it was filled to capacity. It was the perfect climax to a truly victorious season.

Doing an excellent job as toastmaster, Ed Carney introduced the president of the Varsity Club, Joseph B. Grosh, who welcomed everyone. Rev. Benedetto Pascale of the Silver Lake Baptist Church gave the invocation and the singing of the Alma Mater was led by Bill Chapman.

The scheduled guest speaker for the evening, Reed "Bo" Bobovich of the New York Giants was suddenly taken ill and sent as a replacement speaker, a fellow teammate, Lou Krouzac. Mr. Krouzac told about his experiences in football and gave many helpful pointers to our present football team.

Two honored guests were coach Sandy Phillips of Nulley High School and Clary Anderson, coach at Montclair High. They spoke of Belleville's winning season and the fine job done by coach Tom Testa and the team.

These were distributed to the Belleville principal Raymond Smith, who also remarked on the team's success.

The big moment of the evening was the Belleville - Nulley Trophy presentation to Belleville after a nine-year lapse. Following this, a new award, the Freshmen Award was presented to the Freshmen coaching staff for their fine season.

After a standing ovation for Coach Testa, the Senior Awards were distributed to the senior football players. Coach Testa presented the trophies to each with a complimentary reference to their playing skill. Receiving the trophies were James Bader, Richard Blanch, Robert Byers, Joseph D'Amola, Drew Horvat, Joseph Luzzi, Richard Luzzi, Robert McGowan, James Orsini, Louis Pomponio, John Resciniti, Stanley Tomaszewski, Paul Valase, Joseph Valvano, Tom Weaver, Ken Zarro and Frank Zimna.

Two highlights of the evening were the Nelson Landon Trophy and the Tony Pascal Trophy awards to the Most Improved and Most Valuable Player. Louis Pomponio was awarded Most Improved and Joseph Luzzi and Richard Luzzi shared honors of Most Valuable Player.

Belleville Post 105, American Legion, presented its Scholarship Award to Joseph Luzzi for his scholastic ability, football achievements, loyalty to his team and school and sportsmanship.

Special recognition was also given to the Senior band members, twirlers and cheerleaders for their colorful additions to the games.

To conclude the evening, Joe Grosh extended a hearty thank you to everyone who had participated and helped to make the evening and season the huge success it was.

John Peslak, a senior at Belleville High, is to be awarded the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award. This award, given annually, is evidence of superior scientific aptitude.

Raymond O. Smith, principal at BHS, said that these awards are especially significant today when everyone realizes the importance of science in our secondary schools. The high school guidance director, Samuel Slikin, stated that the Bausch and Lomb award provides appropriate recognition to senior students within high scholastic standing in the science subjects.

The Science Award, a handsome bronze medal, is presented in more than 8000 schools. There have been 162,000 winners since 1933, when the award was first introduced. As the results of many surveys, it has been revealed that more than 50 per cent of the winners have been encouraged by the award to follow scientific careers.

Winners of the honorary Science Awards are eligible to compete for science scholarships. These scholarships are sponsored by Bausch and Lomb, Inc.

Grid Star Luzzi Credits The Team

By PAULINA RUBINO

"Spirit and the team's desire to win are responsible for this year's football record (8-1)" says Richie Luzzi, a five-foot-nine, 170 pound senior halfback. Luzzi has been one of the star players of the 1962 football season, playing both safety and halfback positions on the team. Richie has played varsity football since his freshman year and has found his favorite position to be halfback and his favorite formation to be wing right.

"This year our offense changed to pro type plays," says Richie.

It Happens Next Week

By LAURA BAKER

December 1 — Belleville High School will hold College Board Examinations on Saturday. This is the first of four chances the seniors have to take this test.

Seniors who plan to attend college are urged to take the exam on this date or on January 1. Applications can be obtained at the Guidance Department. Two hundred seniors are expected to take this test. In the morning from 8 o'clock until 12 o'clock, the students will take the Scholastic Aptitude Test and in the afternoon from 1-6 o'clock 545 seniors will have a chance to take the Achievement and Writing Samples.

Seniors who plan to further their education will find that taking the sample exams in March or May will benefit them in their senior year.

December 6 — A group of seniors will go to Clara Maass Hospital to participate in a Career Day. The program will begin at 9:00 a.m. and terminate at 3:00 p.m. The purpose is to acquaint the students with hospital careers. Each student will be assigned to a career in the field in which he is most interested.

Some of the careers available are: Director of Nursing Services, Personnel Manager, Executive Engineer, Dietician, Purchasing Agent, Pharmacist, X-Ray Technician etc.

At 9:00, the students will assemble in the Lecture Hall for a general orientation. At 9:30, they will see a movie on nursing. At 10:00 the students will report to their specified department where they will learn more about the occupation. The students will have a buffet luncheon at 12:15. From 1 to 2:30, they will take a tour of the hospital. A question and answer period will follow. Here they will have an opportunity to clear up any doubts or questions they may have.

One of mankind's international idiosyncrasies which bothers me—well, it really doesn't bother me, for I'm not going to let it get to the point where it will cause some psychic disorder or other—but is the idiosyncrasy which intrigues me is the one where Earth people refer to Martians as "little green men."

The intriguing element lies in the fact that the dullness and greenness factors—come straight from left field. Why, in the name of Oliver Cromwell, can't the Martians be blue or yellow or scotch plaid or alternating orange and black stripes? And similarly, why are they little? As long as we are assuming that life (on Mars) in the form of some rational being is in the realm of possibility, why can't that life, that being, exist as a big rotund, corpulent hulk dwelling on the brink of obesity? If we turn the tables a bit and view the typical Martian family sitting down in the living room with some friends and then hear some one jokingly mention: "Say, wouldn't it be funny to look out some night and see this glowing silver disc sitting in your backyard and a bunch of little green guys from Earth making themselves at home?" we can readily see the absurdity of the whole affair.

Naturally, we all know there aren't any green men on Earth except possibly those who are aesthetically ill as a result of the consumption of some foul food or perhaps the jolly green giant who grows vegetables.

I don't know why people picture in their mind's eye a Martian as the clichéd little green man, but it might be they are still under the influence of Orson Welles' horrendous radio portrayal of a Martian invasion of Earth or perhaps, to them green is the most ridiculous color a man could be. Ah, but whatever, the mind is a strange instrument.

Although this is not a scholarship contest, the Elks National Foundation has made available $13,600 in United States Savings Bonds as prizes. These will be awarded to the outstanding boys and girls in communities who have held offices in school, who have participated in co-curricular activities, and who have been active in civic and community activities.

Awards range from a local prize presented by Lodge 1123 of $25 Savings Bonds to a national prize of $1,000 in Savings Bonds. Mr. Smith advises active seniors to secure their entry blanks from the guidance office as soon as possible as the deadline for submitting them is growing near.

The National Association of Secondary School Principals has placed this contest on the Approved List of National Contests and Activities for 1962-63.

First Wrestling Match In Belleville History Set

By AL MCCLURE

The first varsity wrestling match in the history of Belleville High School will take place on December 20 when the Bellboys play host to the Maroon Raiders of Nutley.

Nutley will be out to reverse the humiliating defeat suffered at the hands of the Bellboys gridgers, while the Belleville grapplers will be trying to start their initial season on a victorious note.

Coach Stan Scher and assistant coach Pete Spera have been doing a remarkable job in teaching the members of the team the fundamentals of the sport and conditioning the team in order to be ready for their opening match in the High School gym.

The Bellboys grapplers boast a good nucleus of promising grapplers, who will be hoping to start their initial season on a winning note, and should do remarkably well for a first year team.

Football star Joe DeGuerio is the captain and mainstay of the squad and Coach Scher will be counting on him to set the example for the team by winning several bouts in the 157 lbs. class.

Among the other very promising wrestlers on the squad are Tony Lento (105 lbs.), Chip Lepore (147 lbs.), and Phil DeMaio (165 lbs.) and Jack Gruber (133 lbs.). The squad is composed almost entirely of underclassmen, with Gruber being the only senior on the team.

At this time all the starting positions are open for competition in its initial season. Besides Nutley, the Bellboys meet wrestlers competing in each of the twelve weight classes. There are 45 candidates on the squad plus, and the cuts have already been made. This is very promising because with such a large turnout, Coach Scher will be able, through fiercer competition, to develop a stronger squad.

The team has scheduled seven matches in its initial season. Besides Nutley, the Bellboys meet St. Benedict's, one of the strong-

CAGERS WORKING HARD FOR GARFIELD OPENER

New Coach Al LoBabo and his eager young squad are hopefully looking forward to their season opener against the Garfield Boilermakers on December 14. This is the start of the basketball season.

Coach LoBabo says it will still take a lot of time until he can really motivate the squad. There are still three or four positions open, and they will go to the personnel who can best work together as a unit. The piecing together of the squad probably won't be completed until the final cut of the football candidates. For the most part, the football players are still out, as it will take them a while to get together on the new defensive and offensive patterns.

Coach LoBabo says "No one is being overrated, for all the boys have the desire, but the openings must be fit with the best." The defense is entirely new and very strange as yet, and the fundamentals are still not keen enough, but with hard work the team is becoming sharper and crisper every day.

It is interesting to note that the team is heavy with sophomores. In order for a senior to remain on the team they're going to have to start. The coaching staff is looking to the future with the many up-and-coming sophomores.

Palletex Paints Still Leads Friday Nighters

Palletex Paints still leads the Friday Night Olympic Women's League. The Friday nights at the Olympic Lane will always find ten teams very much in the running for that first place spot in the standings.

Stanley's Tavern is and has been right behind Palletex Paints and is now three games behind them in the win column. The balance of the teams keep jockeying for position each week, and each week usually finds a few changes in the standings.

Alice Kish is still the high roller with her 242 game and the closest rival is Lili Dieterle with a 209. Louise Savi of the Forest Hill Movers is the only bowler to roll a three-game series of identical games this year so far.

Another unusual event that occurred in this league is that Frances Page of Kavanagh's and Betty Shafer of the Four Pennies have rolled identical total series for three weeks in a row. Frances Page rolled almost the same individual games each of those three weeks with a difference of only one pin. The team standings are:

	Won	Lost
Palletex Paints	27	9
Stanley's Tavern	24	12
American Glass	21	15
Forest Hill Movers	19	17
Kavanagh's	18	18
Waverly Builders	18	18
Four Pennies	17	19
Four Strikes	14	22
Major Excavators	11	25
Dark Horses	11	25

The individual standings still find Alice Kish in the lead with her average of 153. Myrtle Miller 176; Jean Tensen 168; Helen Feder 161; Alice Hurst 161; Amelia Steutel 161.

Lois Gosslee Bowls Unusual League Series

In the Tuesday Afternoon Brookdale Women's Bowling League at Broad and Bay Lanes, Lois Gosslee earned the Bowlers "Patch" for a most unusual career in this league is that 149-149-149 series, leading her team to first position, as well. Lois is captain for the Johnson Realty team, and they are closely followed by A. Preston Phoenix Builders in second place; Associated Tree Experts third; Ted Peters Stadium Tavern fourth; Brookdale Sea Food 5th; Adam Hats 6th; Bellas Floor Covering 7th; Clifford Tool Specialties 8th; International Coining and Stamping 9th; Terry Drugs 10th.

This week's bowling included some other fine individual scores by Ria Kendall 195; Madeline Adams 191; Margaret Harleman 176; Jean Tensen 168; Helen Feder 161; Alice Hurst 161; Amelia Steutel 161.

Bookbinding

the custom bound books for their longevity; and engineering firms who amass sizeable amounts of technical literature over a years time. All of these brochures and magazines are fair game for the Meyer bookbinding business.

And while their services are most costly (five times as much as mass produced bookbinding). The books last longer and stand up to harder usage. You pay for what you get.

Fresh Talent Needed

While it is highly unlikely that the Meyer business will ever face bankruptcy, Meyer is justly concerned about the professional health of the business caused by the lack of replacements for an age-old craft.

Even the unions fail to produce skilled craftsmen.

"Give one a piece of leather," Meyer said, "and he doesn't know what to do with it." He shook his head.

"There's a great opportunity for young fellows in this field if they want to learn it."

'Santa Claus' Film Is Coming To Allwood

"Santa Claus" is coming to the Allwood Theatre in Clifton, matinees only, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, December 14, 15 and 16. It's beautifully filmed in color with the talented Joseph Elias Moreno as Santa.

Winner of the Golden Gate Award for the Best Family Films at the San Francisco International Film Festival, "Santa Claus" will delight young and old with its magic trip through Santa's fairyland castle.

In the movie, there are no elves and peppermint sticks. Instead, there are representative children from all the nations of the world, and their job is to help make toys that will thrill children everywhere. Santa has his reindeer, of course, but the Russian children want him to replace the reindeer with Sputniks.

Santa does use modern devices to help him in his work — an observatory with Scientific Devices like the earscope, telescope, cosmic telescope, master eye and a dreamscope. These devices help him watch children everywhere and keep the tots from fooling him.

The Allwood manager described "Santa Claus" as a "most appropriate picture" to begin the theatre's Christmas showings.

Grand Opening Slated For New Cinerama Film

The most exciting premiere of a motion picture in New Jersey is planned for Wednesday evening, December 12, when the M-G-M-Cinerama production of "The Wonderful World of the Brothers Grimm" has its exclusive New Jersey opening at the Clairmonte — Cinerama Theatre, Montclair.

The star-studded cast includes such names as Lawrence Harvey, Claire Bloom, Carl Hosen, Walter Slezak, Oscar Homolka, Barbara Eden, Yvette Mimieux, Russ Tamblyn, Jim Backus, Beulah Bondi, Terry-Thomas and Buddy Hackett.

The story is one of excitement and laughter, being a biography of the world-famed, folk lore writers, their conflicts, romances, perils and their ultimate achievement of fame and success. Interwoven into the delightful film are three of their famed tales done in the magnificent scope of Cinerama and Technicolor.

The Junior Membership Department of the N. J. State Federation of Women's Clubs is sponsoring a Christmas night with the funds realized going to their project, the Hospital Ship S. S. Hope.

Napkin Company Admits Shortage
A New York City paper napkin manufacturer pleaded guilty to short changing several of its customers recently and was fined $25 on each of four counts in Nutley Municipal Court.

laboratories, universities, consultants, and others. The Section has a contact committee with members in almost 200 laboratories or organizations where chemists are employed.

This widely diverse group of interests is reflected in the way the North Jersey Section serves its members. For programs and organization there are four geographical Subsections and six topical Groups. The Subsections are Central, Lackawanna, Passaic Valley, and Raritan Valley. With central meeting places in Elizabeth, Summit, Passaic, and New Brunswick, respectively.

The topical Groups are Analytical, Biochemical, Industrial and Engineering, Organic, Physical Chemistry and Polymer Groups. Each Subsection and Group has its own set of officers and committees to plan and execute a program for the members. Programs are mainly for dissemination of chemical information and discussion.

Officers of the North Jersey Section are Dr. L. T. Eby, chairman (Enjay Chemical Company, Elizabeth); Dr. A. W. Meyer, chairman-elect (U. S. Rubber Co., Wayne); Dr. C. E. Weill, secretary (Rutgers University, Newark); and Dr. C. L. Brown, treasurer (Esso Research and Engineering Co., Linden).

Snow Queen Contest Now Under Way

Snow Queen Contest entries are now being accepted for the 12th annual Snowball Dance sponsored by the Essex County CYO. It was the dance, which is the highlight of the CYO's winter social activities, will be held on January 26 at Seton Hall University.

Each parish in the county which sells more than 25 tickets for the dance will be eligible to enter their own local queen. Over $300 in gifts will be awarded when the new queen is crowned.

The CYO group that sells the most tickets will determine the 1963 queen. Miss Joyce Zena of St. Peter's, Belleville, won the 1962 Snow Queen. The deadline for entries is January 4.

LET'S SPEAK

Disgruntled Candidates Causing All the Furor

To The Editor, The Times-News: The firing of Mr. Sommers Tuesday night was a step in the right direction, the people won't stand for any type of a political deal under this new form of government. Political deals are made by politicians, when we pay a manager 15,000 per year, we expect him to live up to the law, and carry it out to the letter.

Those persons at the meeting Tuesday night, who voiced their protest at the firing of Mr. Sommers, are defeated candidates, and former town critics, under the commission government, the target was former Mayor Padula and the telegram, they have now switched their attack to Mr. Orechio and The Belleville Times. Mr. Orechio has nothing to gain trying to bring good government to Belleville, he does not run the town, or give orders to the Council, those remarks are made by the defeated people. They are unfounded, and should be disregarded, both papers have done a great service to the people in presenting the facts.

The good name of Belleville is again being dragged through the mud by the power seeking politicians, who wish to remain in the limelight, it was hoped that this new form of Government, (I was against it) would bring about better conditions, but there is a certain element in town, that is determined to do the dirty work for the people. They are, and won't be fooled again.

When Mr. Sommers applied for the position as manager, he left the impression on the Council, that he could do a job for the people, and hold the tax line. He broke loose.

Barnett was demoted; Mr. DeNoia was fired before his term in office expired. He was replaced by a former town employee with no put in salary. A Civil Service was called for town registrar. The successful applicant, a Mrs. James Lee was certified for the appointment.

Instead of placing her in the position, he voided the test, with the poor excuse, the test was taken by only two applicants.

I can recall a few cases where a test was taken by only one person, who passed, and received the appointment, he also created a job in the Hall at $5,500 per year, and called for a test to add 10 new men to the Fire Department. The increase in his salary would be about 13 points. Since he has been discharged the firemen's test has been cancelled.

This expert who came to town had the experience in this type of government, he was a manager elsewhere for a number of years. Since he has admitted he violated the administrative code adopted by the Council, and knowing he was to be fired for that reason, and for his attempt to stop an investigation which did not concern him, he fired Mr. Risoli, to protect his own job. A political move that did not work.

He could have replaced Mr. Risoli with Mrs. James Lee who was certified by Civil Service, since Civil Service won't step in to protect its applicants, I feel they have outlived their usefulness, and should be discarded.

After three years of service our school teachers have tenure, and the superintendent should apply to all town employees with three years service or more to protect them in their jobs against future administrations. If I had tenure in my job with the county, instead of Civil Service, no politician could have my job terminated, while I was out sick for political reasons. I hope someday the good people of Belleville will get together and force an administrative code on all town employees, and elect men to office who are honest and sincere in their desire to serve them, and not the politicians.

With a little encouragement by the people, I may seek a seat on the School Board, because of conditions that exist with our grammar schools. One, Two, four, and five which have long been neglected.

ALBERT GUGLIELMI
75 Lake St.

ABRUPT EXIT BY TOWN MANAGER IS DEPLORED

To The Editor, The Times-News: This is in response to Mr. W. F. Abel's letter of November 20th, "Sommers just doesn't fit" in which you stated that some people and some civic organizations in Belleville are "in the dark" over the reasons for the dismissal of Mr. Sommers from the position of Town Manager.

Mr. Abel you know as well as I that the majority of the people were "fed up" with the commission form of government because of a 3 to 2 vote on the majority of the issues. What happened? We change the form of government. Now what happens? We have new men in office but we still have a 3 to 2 vote on the majority of issues.

Regarding your second paragraph — I would like to know how you can have a clean, smooth-running, efficient governing body with economy in mind when the present council is not smooth-running.

Now to your third paragraph — As I understand Mr. Sommers was entitled to attend the convention in Atlantic City (I imagine that there were many other Town Managers there otherwise there would not have been a convention) and unless you have some positive proof (not hearsay) you are misleading the people of Belleville with your statement "expensive fiasco".

In reference to your fourth paragraph — This is repetitive to paragraph two.

Your paragraph five is headed "Clean and Efficient" I take this to mean no one working for the town should be fired by anybody but the council majority. In other words keep hiring-no firing. I cannot comment on the balance of this paragraph as I do not know the facts.

We now come to your last paragraph and I quote in full "To The Citizens of Belleville — Is this the type of 'character' you want in control of your town? The majority of the council felt that Mr. Sommers didn't belong."

The four words that stand out in this paragraph are "The Majority of the Council. Here we are back to commission form of government."

Summarizing your letter I take it that three men are controlling the town of Belleville and whatever they say must be obeyed.

Now Mr. Abel lets look a little further into this matter: How many people in government have made mistakes? Answer: Many. How many people in government have admitted their mistakes? Answer: Mr. Sommers.

People must remember that any one man coming from the outside to become head of a large business will meet with a lot of resentment. A good town manager should be free from politics and it is not an easy task. It is my judgement that Mr. Sommers tried to make adjustments but was not given sufficient time. It is also my opinion that Belleville will not get a Town Manager for quite some time and the Taxpayers will suffer.

WILLIAM F. KOEHLER
234 Division Avenue.

PROTESTS DISMISSAL OF TOWN MANAGER

To The Editor, The Times-News: Below is a copy of a letter which I have sent to Mayor Larterza protesting his action in the dismissal of our town manager. I feel it is the duty of every civic-minded citizen of Belleville to be heard in this most important matter.

SAMUEL A. AMOSCATO, D.D.S.
601 Jerusalem Street

Hon. Robert M. Larterza
56 Reservoir Place
Belleville, N. J.
Hon. Mayor Larterza:

I am writing this letter to strongly protest your action and the action of the Town Council at your last Council meeting on November 20, 1962. The dismissal of our new town manager after only three months in office, is totally unjustified and not in keeping with your campaign promises. Apparently, this is not only my individual opinion, but is a feeling which seems to be prominent among your constituents.

I, therefore, vigorously urge you to reconsider your stand on this important matter, and thus, truly represent the will of the people who so generously elected you to public office.

You must certainly be aware of the inconsistency of the Belleville voter, a large majority one election can be completely reversed the next. Each and every vote counts. Mr. Mayor, even mine.
