Happy Holidays, Everyone!

The happy children above are but a few of the many Belleville students who will soon enjoy eleven class-less days when all public schools close down for the Christmas holidays. The above photograph was made at School 8 Monday afternoon after students from the town's schools had carefully made their own letters from aluminum under the direction of art director P. Webster Diehl.

Laterza Reports Progress In Brief Term In Council Office

Mayor Robert M. Laterza addressed members of the Belleville Manufacturers Association recently, and reported a state of good municipal health despite adverse publicity to the contrary. He outlined the progress made by his administration under the new form of government voted in earlier this year.

Mayor Laterza, with an eye toward a budgetary savings, hired a Town Manager and combined the position of town clerk at a savings of some $9,000 per annum.

Manager Fails Duties
"Unfortunately," he observed, "the town manager did not perform in accordance with all contractual obligations."

Belleville has two million dollars in shiruberry used to beautify Town. The Fire Department went on a reduced work week from 56 hours to 42 hours with an additional cost of $6,000 this year instead of $30 to $40,000. He hopes, he said, to reduce that figure even more next year.

There have been no new employees added to the payroll, except the ousted town manager.

Boards Appointed
A new Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission has been appointed, a new Board of Adjustment, a Planning Board, Assessment Board, Tax Assessor, a Parks and Playground Study Commission, and an Advisory Committee on Youth have also been appointed to deal with Belleville's problems.

Following is the Mayor's speech which was delivered to some 200

Two-Alarm Apartment House Fire Routs 25 Families From Smoke-Filled Building

School's Out!

All Belleville public schools will dismiss students for the Christmas vacation Friday, December 21 at 1 p.m.

Classes will resume Wednesday morning January 2, announced Richard H. Drake, President of the Board of Education.

Juliano In Try For Second Term

"Our school system faces its most crucial problems in the ensuing few months. The first school expansion program in over a quarter century is at the threshold of realization. The reactionary and retrogressive element in our midst continues its abortive efforts to halt school expansion progress. This insidious threat must be challenged and repelled. For our children's sake and for future progress in our town, this destructive movement will not succeed. It cannot succeed. It MUST NOT succeed!" declared Nicholas Juliano, incumbent member of the Board of Education, who seeks reelection to another term in the February School Board elections.

Juliano, a business manager of Office Employees International Union, AFL-CIO representing office employees throughout New Jersey. He has been active in Belleville school affairs since 1952. He served two terms as PTA president, School No. 3 and as its Parent Education Chairman. He was also a member of the Lay Needs Committee, school curricula study groups, and in better schools organizations.

Juliano has studied labor-management relations at several metropolitan universities. He is chairman of the Trade Union Consulting Committee, Rutgers Labor-Management Institute. He is associated with the Union Leadership Academy for union officers sponsored with the cooperation and assistance of the Labor Programs of Rutgers, Cornell, Penn State, Connecticut and West Virginia universities.

In June 1962, Juliano received the first formal labor education certificate degree in "Labor Unionism" from Rutgers University, the first of its kind in the country. Juliano helped to design the curriculum for this four year course.

Juliano is married to the former Miss Florence Restaino of Newark, and lives at 559 Union Avenue. They have two daughters, Annette, a sophomore at Rutgers University, and Christine, a senior at Newark State Teachers College.

An early morning flash fire routed some 25 families from their two-story apartment building at 105 Belleville Avenue Monday morning, injuring one fireman, and causing two elderly women to be taken to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

There were no serious injuries in the two-alarm fire which started in the basement apartment of building superintendent Charles J. Taylor, although smoke damage may cause additional loss. His daughter slept in the damaged room.

Fire Chief Carl Hundertpfund said cause of the blaze was unknown, but speculated that a short circuit or cigarette could have started the fire. The apartment was unoccupied at the time of the fire.

Belleville firemen ran through the three-story apartment building sounding the alarm. Several of them carried 82-year-old Mrs. Mildred Hoffman to a waiting ambulance which took her to the hospital. She was suffering from arthritis and was treated for mild smoke inhalation and later returned to her apartment.

Mrs. Elizabeth Haas, 72, was also taken to Clara Maass Hospital and treated for a mild case of smoke poisoning.

Fireman Dawson Bloom of the William Street Station was treated for an injured elbow and was later released.

Four trucks sped to the scene of the fire, followed by two ambulances. Traffic was blocked between Hornblowers to Washington Avenue for nearly an hour. Some 30 firemen fought the blaze.

Arvidson Again Seeks Election

Ernest S. Arvidson, a 56-year-old tool manufacturer, tossed his hat into the ring again Monday when he announced plans to seek re-election in the forth-coming Belleville School Board elections.

Arvidson has served one term in what turned out to be the stormiest session the Board has ever had. But this hasn't altered his determination to serve the people of Belleville.

"I think we (the Board) should work together; not as seven people going off in different directions," he said Monday. He also expressed his belief that he, and other Board members under indictment for alleged misconduct in office, would be cleared during the January 2 trials at Newark.

"After all, we haven't had a chance to face our accusers; we haven't been able to tell our stories yet."

Here Are Ten Ways To Beat The Cold Wave In Belleville

For the last ten years now, Jack Eyer has been guiding Belleville children across town streets at various intersections during some mighty cold weather. But last week some of the coldest wind this year blew across his red nose. Here he flaps his hands in an effort to keep circulation in his hands.

So stop shaking; it's only cold air...

For The Belleville Times reader who starts shivering at the first wintry blast the following advice is proffered, free of charge as a courtesy to our readers.

1. Sit on radiators, they're warmer than chairs.
2. Save postcards from Florida, California, and Hawaii until you have enough to start a small bonfire.
3. Stay out of air-conditioned movies and watch TV re-runs of movies made in the South Seas.
4. Don't kiss girls who have cold noses.
5. Refrain from swimming in the Passaic River during the present cold weather.
6. Always wear gloves when drinking cold sodas.
7. Never, never stand near an open refrigerator.
8. Use a woolen handkerchief when blowing your nose.
9. If you MUST wear a tropical suit, keep the collar turned up.
10. Don't go seal hunting.

Board Re-advertises High School Bids In Monday Night Meeting

Members See $370,000 Drop In Building Costs

Belleville School Board authorized the re-advertisement of bids for the proposed new $2 million dollar high school Monday night during its regular meeting at School 8, but over the strenuous protestations of Mrs. Thomas F. McCool, who cast the single dissenting vote in a 6-1 decision.

By re-evaluation and design of the plans for the school by architect Alfonso Alvarez, further savings of nearly $370,000 were made when changes were substituted for less expensive building materials with no loss in quality.

Quantity, Yes; Quality, No

Board President Richard Drake assured the members that there had been no drastic cuts that were injurious to the over-all construction of the school. "There will be no extreme cuts," he said.

Six contracts will be re-advertised. Last week seven bids were rejected when they all exceeded the original estimate of $2,730,000 by nearly 25 per cent.

An auxiliary gymnasium was eliminated from the plans. "And that's too bad," said George H. Brown, Board member.

The gym, which had been an alternative on the original plans, will be added to the base bid if the Board can afford it.

Telephone Debate Rejected

The resolution to re-advertise the bids went almost unopposed until a telephone call came from Mrs. Thomas F. McCool, who had been unable to attend the meeting after an office fall which injured her foot.

Mrs. McCool is the single female member of the Board of Education, and a steady antagonist of her fellow Board members.

In a telephone conversation with Mrs. Mary Shader, Board secretary, she attempted to take part in the debate via telephone, but was turned down by other members of the Board.

A Missing Item
Next, she protested the matter of re-advertising the bids that wasn't on the copy of the agenda she had. A quick peek-by Harold A. Dufford, assistant superintendent, disclosed that she had indeed been served with a complete copy of the agenda. But the Board checked further.

Mrs. Shader referred to a paragraph on the bottom of one of the pages, which Mrs. McCool claimed she didn't have. She replied by saying her agenda was incomplete.

"She had it there in front of her all the time," grumbled one Board member.

She Decides to Attend
Her next move was to request a 30 minute recess in order that she might appear personally at the meeting to question the new resolution, which Drake consented to after consulting with other Board members.

Forty-five minutes later Mrs. McCool made her belated appearance, hobbling into the room on crutches with her left foot encased in bandages. She was armed with a thick dossier of notes

Firefighters Survey The Damage

Six Belleville firemen and the company chaplain examine the debris outside the basement apartment at 105 Belleville Avenue. Quick action by the Belleville Fire Department prevented more extensive damage which could have resulted from the two-alarm fire. Almost every apartment in the building was filled with smoke.

A Stamp Of Distinction

A smile of quiet pride wreaths the face of Charles Smith, 10, a Belleville stamp collector, who displays four Dag Hammarskjold inverts and his letter to President Kennedy. His missive was returned stamped and re-stamped — the unmistakable imprint of bureaucracy at its shining best.

The Local Stamp Machine Didn't Have It; So Belleville Boy Writes To The President

If anything perturbs the otherwise serene disposition of Charles Smith, it is the thought of missing a good bet. Charles, who is a 10-year-old fifth grade student at School No. 1, remedied the situation by writing a letter directly to the source of his problem at Washington, D. C.

He wrote to President Kennedy. It wasn't Cricket

It seems that when the government began mass production of the misprinted four cent Dag stamp November 13th, Charley figured Uncle Sam was playing dirty pool by deflating a philatelic bonanza; but, he decided to add the oddity to his collection anyway.

"Dear President Kennedy," he wrote, and the following letter explained his need of the stamps for his collection. He carefully enclosed 16 cents — a dime, a nickel, and a penny — and sat back to await a note from JFK. Presidents are generally nice people who like all little boys, but they are sometimes very busy and unable to respond personally to children who do write him. Such was the case with Charley and his letter.

An Official Envelope But one day last week an impressive brown envelope arrived at Charley's duplex apartment at 189 Cortlandt Street. At upper left it was stamped "The White House." Charley was on pins and needles.

It would be nice to report that President Kennedy had answered personally, but he didn't.

Instead one of his close associates had taken note of Charley's problem and had purchased the stamps all properly — or improperly — misprinted complete with invert.

Now Charley is sole owner of four of some 120 million stamps. But you can't say his collection is incomplete. Now the young We are embarked on a plan to members of the Manufacturers Association.

Washington, and how many other kids on the block have such a distinction?

MR. CHAIRMAN, FRIENDS: I appear before you this evening as the mayor of a community in which we can all take pride. As mayor it is my greatest privilege.

Nineteen months ago the citizens of Belleville voted for a government change. This change went into effect with the "swearing in" of the present five councilmen on July 1.

The new form of government brought with it the requirement to adopt legislation to accommodate the workings of this new government. It is officially known as the administrative code.

The New Government

To aid in drafting the administrative code, the Town Council engaged an expert in Municipal Legislation, an outstanding attorney, Mr. Clive Cummins.

On September 25, almost three months after the new Council assumed the reins of government, the new administrative code was adopted. In the meantime the Town Council went about its business of hiring a town manager, who would assume the administrative chores of our Municipal Government.

Economic Measures

In an effort to introduce economy in Town Hall at the earliest opportunity, three of your councilmen, myself included, voted to hire a town manager who would also discharge the duties of town clerk at a savings estimated at $9,000 per year.

Unfortunately the town manager did not perform in accordance with all contractual obligations.

and the majority of the Town Council supported my motion to terminate his employ with the Town of Belleville.

Explains Actions

This was a most difficult decision to make, but utmost in my mind was to serve the best interest of the community in which I was born and which I am now privileged to serve.

The office of town manager under our form of government is probably more powerful than any other job in Belleville — either in government or business or industry. It is for that reason that Belleville must have a manager who will maintain administrative standards above and beyond political considerations, and it is because of this very fact that I shall continue to fight to insure for our people the selection of a town manager who will demonstrate respect for law and order in Belleville.

On the whole the past five months have not been so barren in official accomplishment, as some orators and propagandists would lead you to believe.

Savings Enumerated

Belleville streets are cleaner today than they were before we took office — and at no extra expense. Belleville owns an estimated $2,000,000 worth of curbside trees which are being trimmed without unnecessarily "trimming" the taxpayer. Our Fire Department went on a reduced work week — from 56 hours to 42 hours, with only an additional cost of $6,000. This year instead of the $30,000-$40,000 others wanted to spend. Next year every effort will be made to eliminate even this extra cost.

Since we assumed office in July nobody has been added to the payroll, except the manager. Since we took office on July 1, we appointed a new Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission, a new Board of Adjustment, a new Planning Board, a new Assessment Board, a new Tax Assessor, a Parks and Playgrounds Study Commission, an Advisory Committee on Youth, as well as other commissions.

Other Legislative Matters

We reapointed our eminent jurist, Eddie Abramson, as town magistrate.

We supported a ban prohibiting municipal employees from engaging in political activity. I, personally, initiated the action notifying vendors doing business with the Town of Belleville that it would be against the public interest to give any municipal employee gifts at Christmas or any other time. As a matter of fact I intend to introduce an ordinance making it a misdemeanor for any town employee to accept a gift or gratuity from any person at any time whose interest may be affected by the official action of said employee.

Survey's The Future

Although we were elected and sworn into office on July 1, a long five months ago, the fact is that the prior administration pretty much determined the scope of municipal services and expenditures for the period ending December 31.

We are embarked on a plan to have a professional survey made of municipal services and jobs. As a result of that survey we hope to see a substantial reduction in the cost of operating our town government. Needless jobs will be eliminated. Others will be consolidated.

The 40-Hour Week

At the next regular meeting of the Town Council I propose to introduce a resolution requiring Town Hall employees to work a 40 hour week. At the moment they are working 32½ hours a week. I believe the salaries paid to town hall employees are commensurate with those paid to employees in private industry working a 40 hour week. (Orange

CD Supplies Are Received By Belleville Officials

Wednesday, December 12th the first shipments of food, water, medical supplies, sanitation and radiological equipment arrived in Belleville.

Having met the federal requirements early in a recent survey, it is the fourth municipality in Northern New Jersey, and fifth in the state, to receive the supplies, which are furnished by the federal government at no cost to the town.

The first shelter was approved for Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, with accommodations for 354 persons, 654 cubic feet of supplies weighing about 2990 pounds and valued about $650 was received.

The second approved shelter at the high school was stocked with 790 cubic feet weighing 3990 lbs. and valued at $1097 and was picked up at the Raritan Arsenal at Metuchen. It was unloaded at the shelters by town employees under the supervision of CD Director Raymond E. Martz with the cooperation of Ralph Vana, Superintendent of Public Works of the Belleville municipality.

Eighteen public shelters have been approved in the survey made during the summer by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and their architects, but so far Director Martz has received only two requests. Executive Director of Civil Defense for Essex County says more are in the processing stage.

Montclair, Nutley, all work 40 hours.

The Town of Belleville is a corporation with almost $170,000, 000 in assets. It costs taxpayers about $6,000,000 to maintain municipal services, including our school system and Belleville's contribution to county government. Town Hall is responsible for about one-third of your tax bill.

Reaffirms Position

Your goal and my goal — your goal and the Council's objective is one and the same. We want a town of which we can all be proud — we want good, clean government at reasonable cost.

We want progress, but not at the expense of forcing home owners and industries to leave town. Belleville's wealth is its people. Before me tonight sit representatives of some of our nation's industrial giants. They enjoy national and international fame. We want our community to share in that fame. We are fortunate to be the home for Wallace & Tiernan, Walter Kidde Co., Andrew Jergens Co., National Yeast Corp., Federal Industries, Sonneborn Chemical & Refining Company — the list seems to be endless. Lest we forget we can all take pride in claiming Clara Maass Hospital as our very own.

Urges Advancement

Belleville has stood still for too long. Elected officials cannot get this town moving ahead without help. We need the help of our citizens. We need your help. We need the cooperation of our town employees.

Belleville is a good town. Our citizens are fine people. We are determined to make Belleville a better town. We are determined to restore the luster to a good name—Belleville.

I am a member of a third generation Belleville family. In a sense, my family reputation — and that of all native Bellevilleites is interwoven with that of our community. This is my great heritage — my family name and a great birthplace. My family reputation is a personal possession. The reputation of our community belongs to all of us. To the best of my ability I shall continue my efforts to give you honest government with personal integrity — this pledge I make to you.

Were the new specifications, she wanted to know, the same as the ones submitted to vote during the referendum?

The Board pointed out that had she attended a budget meeting she would know the answer to that question.

Theatrics, Says Members

"The answer to your question is available to you at any time from the Board office if you'd just call," retorted Ernest S. Arvidson. "Now is not the time to ask these questions."

"A grandstand play!" declared Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero. "That's Mrs. McCool right down the line!"

After arguing with three of her fellow Board members, Mrs. McCool lost the debate and Drake called for a vote on the resolution. As the members were polled by Mrs. Shader, Mrs. McCool answered, "Emphatically, No!"

"Emphatically, Yes," answered Nicholas S. Juliano, illustrating the wide difference of opinions between Mrs. McCool and the rest of the Board.

With passage of the resolution against her will, Mrs. McCool has one last departing remark to make to the Board.

"It's gag-rule!" she cried.

Mrs. Robert Barnes, 56 Wallace Street, a spectator at the crowded meeting, delivered a rather vague parallel between a child's growth and the Board of Education's progress in educational matters in prepared statement she read to the Board members.

"Need, but lack of finances," she told the members is one of the problems. Indecision, which has left Belleville without a new high school after months of planning, is responsible for the present state of unpreparedness, she said.

The Recalls

Petitions are in circulation asking for recall of public officials. One group asks for the recall of Mayor Robert M. Laterza, Deputy Mayor G. George Addonizio and Councilman Vincent T. Strunio.

Another petition asks for the recall of Councilman James R. Golden. The reason for Golden's requested recall is his alleged use of his council seat for obstructionist purposes.

Only Councilman Thomas P. Creco remains free of recall talk and action.

The law governing recall provides that one year must elapse before a public official can be recalled. In the case of our Town Council no recall action is legal until one year from the date of assumption of office by its members. The Council took office on July 1. Recall petitions cannot legally be signed prior to July 1, 1963.

Any recall petitions signed now would be invalid in view of the legal requirements.

Moreover the Council has been in office less than six months — hardly a period to make a judgment for or against recall. In addition one of the arguments originally advanced in favor of our form of government was that its provisions require biennial elections, thus affording the voters an opportunity to pass judgment upon Council members every two years, hence eliminating the need for resort to the expensive recall election method of replacement of public officials out of favor with the voters.

However, permitting the law to take its course may not satisfy the little, frustrated, power-hungry politicians.

Belleville's Hometown Pride

Our editorial hat is off to our wonderful football team and its great coach, Tom Testa.

Through sheer determination to win this season the team covered itself with glory and in the process brought fame to our community.

The will to win was ever present when our boys took to the gridiron. The citizen support given the team was a marvelous demonstration of home town pride.

Closing a season with eight wins and only one loss the 1962 Belleville High School football team will go down in local sports history as one of the best. And the season's results are quite a tribute to Coach Tom Testa who finished his first season in a blaze of glory.

Anyone today who says Belleville citizens lack hometown pride should have spent a couple of Saturday afternoons at the stadium. The evidence was there every time our gridiron greats played a home game.

UP SPEAK

Arvidson Wants To Complete The Job

To the Editor, The Times-News: Three years ago the Division of Public Buildings, Rutgers University, made their report on Belleville's school facilities. This report left no doubt that Belleville needed additional school buildings and recommended the construction of a new high school. This concurred with the Columbia Survey of 1950. The Middle States Association also was concerned by our lack of facilities. As a candidate for membership on the Board of Education three years ago, I favored the construction of added facilities and on that basis was elected to a seat on the Board, and proceeded to carry out this mandate of the people. I had hoped that by Sept. of 1963 our high school students would be in a new building. Numerous road blocks have been encountered and considerable work remains for the board to do.

I have never voluntarily left a project uncompleted and I am therefore again becoming a candidate for continued membership on the board.

It has truly been said that bricks and mortar do not insure quality education, but adequate facilities for teaching are necessary. A board member must be constantly aware of the other facets which go to make up quality education. Since moving to Belleville in 1943 Mrs. Arvidson and myself have been interested in many civic organizations, Parent Teacher Associations, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Heart Fund and other charity drives. I serve in the Civilian Defense Organization, on the Police Auxiliary. We have two sons, one a graduate Aeronautical Engineer and the other at school at Newark Academy.

I am the owner of Arco Tool & Mfg. Co. of North Arlington, which company specializes in engineering and manufacturing of tools for automatic machines. In the weeks between now and board election time I shall endeavor to acquaint the people of our community with what I believe are some of the educational facets and will state my position regarding them.

Belleville Cops Are Lauded For Services

To the Editor: The Times-News I wish to express my appreciation to the Police and Fire Department for the prompt and efficient service they rendered on the morning of December 13. I called the Police Department to tell them I thought my husband was having a heart attack. They had two policemen here in less than five minutes. A little later a policeman brought a doctor, the first two policemen were on their way in to go off duty but they stood by with oxygen until they weren't needed. Later when my doctor called the ambulance it was here in a short time to rush my husband to the hospital.

Both my husband and I want to thank the policemen for their assistance and also the firemen who manned the ambulance. Mrs. Lester Verdon

Beautiful Bucolic Belleville

Christmas In Our Town Of Belleville Fifty Years Ago

By FRED J. PIXLEE

Of course the most exciting time in Belleville long ago was the Christmas time. There was no great fanfare made of it among the local merchants; no exquisitely lighted thoroughfares; no homeowners competing with each other for the best decorated houses.

The Belleville of today is to be commended on the finely decorated portion of Washington Avenue, and the efforts of some homeowners to decorate their homes is also worthy of mention. But, in my opinion, the nature and phase of decoration is often done in the spirit of "Keeping up with the Jones's" and sometimes is overdone.

The Belleville of the decade between 1908 and 1915 did not boast of many houses that were lighted by electricity. The only effort to decorate a house by electric lights was made by one John Boote, who occupied a house still standing on De Witt Avenue next to School Three. He had three huge stars formed with electric lights in his windows. As he was employed by an electrical concern, it was a comparatively easy matter for him to do so.

Trains and Dolls

Among the younger generation there were two staple items. Trains for boys, dolls for girls. Being a boy, I knew very little of the latter and cared less. But trains were a different matter.

These trains were very crude representations of the real article. The method of propulsion was a clockwork arrangement and the first time around the track the train usually went too fast and fell off, and the second time around it was a talking about the cheap foreign trains that most boys got for Christmas. An engine that only remotely resembled the real thing, a four-wheel tender, or a coal car as we always called it, and two or three passenger cars, also with four wheels. A rather pitiful and disappointing train to say the least.

There were a few fortunate lads who received the finely detailed trains made by the Ives Corporation of Bridgeport, Conn. This had an engine with a clockwork governor to assure an even speed and it also looked like a pretty good engine. They also had eight wheel passenger cars which were very realistic.

The late Herbert Lambrecht and his brother Edwin, present address of the latter unknown to the author, shared one of these Ives marvels together. It may still be in existence, and if so would be worth something as a collector's item.

Toy Drawbridge

The only article in this line that I ever had was a marvelous turntable drawbridge; which I received for Christmas in 1911. This was kept for many years but my mother discarded it after she went to move it one day and the whole top came off. This also had a spring in its base which caused the turntable to revolve. If this still existed it would be a collector's item of considerable value.

However, the trains, with their cranks and their frequent derailments, did pass away the time on many a rainy or snowy day in the winter.

Of course, the most fortunate of all the boys was the lad who got an electric train for Christmas. They were also in their infancy and the crude representations are a far cry from the finely detailed models of today. Electric trains were also expensive.

To the readers of the column our customers and friends a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year from all of us at sive and unless the house was wired for electricity it was almost an impossibility to try to run them on batteries. They were practically reserved for small fry who lived in a house where there was electricity.

So, this type of train was only given to a select few. The poor ones had the less expensive "Standard" Gauge trains, using 2 1/2 inch track, needed a large mansion to run in. "O" Gauge still exists in fine detail, and smaller and very expensive "HO" Gauge is very popular today, not so much with the children as with the fathers.

The trains of today are a far cry from the early crude attempts that were prized possessions 50 years ago.

Steam Age Is Gone
The age of steam has disappeared and of late the electric train has changed its form into missile carriers, exploding freight cars and rocket carrying engines; all of which have little to do with real railroading. Enough of bombs and missiles in real life, let alone making futuristic and unreal reproductions for children.

Most of us in the olden days looked forward to the electric train that never came and when we were grown up were afraid to be caught "playing" with trains. Through my understanding wife I became one of that great fraternity that boasts of more adult members than minors. The trains of today are usually too complicated for small minds to grasp in regard to even setting them up.

Through this avocation, I was able to give my services in the Army Transportation Corps intelligently and on one occasion was able to successfully load a locomotive on a freighter for overseas duty.

Sometimes there is a nostalgic feeling of other Christmas Days in the past, with the old wind-up trains going around the tree that no modern train can quite ever supercede; elegant and intricate though it may be.

AN EDITORIAL:

It's Beginning To Look A Lot Like Christmas

By MARLISE JAMES

Santa Claus will soon be here. The signs of his yearly debut are all around the town—from the decorations on the town hall to the glittering, glimmering soap windows. In thinking about Christmas we realize that as a civilization, we have come a long way from the first Christmas some 1900 years ago. At that period of time, the people watched gladiators being eaten by lions rather than the Sunday afternoon basketball or football game.

But we, as a civilization, shouldn't sit back and pat ourselves on the back, for we still have a long way to go. There are still parts of the world where people find nothing wrong with eating their enemies. In our own country, although we have risen above the cannibal stage, it is still common to tear enemies apart—not with knives but with words, but they can hurt someone just as much.

In other parts of the world, such as China, millions of people starve each year. Although this problem, too, has been alleviated in the U.S., many people here will be lucky to have a hamburger for Christmas dinner, while others will throw away half a turkey the next day.

While we have the right to celebrate Christmas or Hanukkah or whatever holidays our religion observes, other people in other countries (as close to us as Cuba) don't even have the right to have a religion.

And as that fat, jolly, good-natured symbol of our prosperity, Santa Claus, comes and brings many little children games, dolls, and toys galore, other children in other countries will be running around dark streets looking for a warm place to sleep.

So, before you sit down and complacently say, "Isn't it wonderful the way everyone today has such a merry Christmas?" ask yourself one question, "Is all this fair?" If your honest answer is "No," ask yourself, "What can I do about it?"

INQUIRING REPORTER

Question: If you could give President Kennedy a gift for Christmas, what would you give him?

Laura Baker: A haircut.
Jackie Foster: A new rocking chair.
Bonnie Cook: Eighteen PT boats, 8 Rottie Cazootie horns, six Howdy Doodly bouncing balls, and one rubber swan.
Barbara Russo: A tie like every other man gets for Christmas.
Ray Chapman: "Castro Con-vertible."

Phil Di Meo: Correspondence course with Signor Gelsomino.
Richie Blanch: What do you mean? He should give me a gift!
Janet Borino: What can I give to a man who has everything?
Susan Borino: A ribbon to tie up his brown hair.
Marie DiPasquale: A box of cigars imported from Cuba.
Joan Hoffman: A kiss.
Jane Hubb: A comb.
Veronica Rempuskeski: My Spanish book so we'd have better Cuban relations.
Linda Reitberger: A bottle of aspirin.

Busy Angie Cuozzo, president of the B.H.S. student council, looks over some papers that need her attention.

Angie Cuozzo Head Of Student Council

By PAULINE RUBINO

Angela Cuozzo, an industrious B. H. S. senior, is president of the Student Council this year. She was active in the Student Council for three years before her election. Her election platform, which she is actively carrying out this year, emphasized new spirit to go with the new administration. In Angie's opinion, "There has been more school spirit and participation under the new administration."

Other than being president of the Student Council, she has also been active on the Spotlight, the bulletin board committee, drill team, Leader's Club, Officials Club, and the Monad typing and sales staff. Angie has also participated in intramural basketball and volleyball.

Outside of school, Angie is also very active in sports. She has

At Random

By CHRIS LA PARA

With the Belleville-Nutley Trophy and the Group IV, Section II Championship tucked away in the football team's treasure house, with basketball and wrestling starting shortly, and if we look ahead, with spring sports beginning practice in only four months, we are prompted to consider the athlete.

Since the days of the ancient Greeks, the athlete has waged a struggle to emulate the god Olympus. He has striven to adhere ever so closely to the Olympic motto: "Citius, Altius, Fortius" (Faster, Higher, Stronger). He has developed over the years to the point where his performances approach the epitome of perfection. Yet, he constantly remains unsatisfied with near perfection; he must reach for excellence.

The athlete is a hyper-sensitive being. He is emotionally moved by the beauty, the glory and the triumph of his competitive world. No words can adequately depict the satisfaction, the utter bliss of winning, nor can they convey the agonizing melancholia of defeat. It is in this sphere of emotion that a strong, inimitable character is molded.

The athlete is man at his vicious and savage best. At the outset of competition he looms an uncivilized barbarian filled with such contempt and hatred for his opponent that he is desirous of inflicting upon himself complete and unadulterated destruction. Had he the ability and the immunity, he would drink the venom of vipers just to become more animalistic.

He disregards all protocol, all amiability, all morals and enters the arena with a frenzied rage which can only be eased by victory. One would believe the athlete to be a murderous panther mercilessly stalking his prey, if he were to hear the assorted grunts and snorts uttered during the athletic wars.

Here another point presents itself. To the athlete, competition is war and he wages an all-out effort to win it. He pushes his body to the very limits of its endurance, he abuses it as if to inflict upon himself punishment for some sinful deed, and he strains and urges that quickly fatiguing bulk in an attempt to merely last out the event.

And when it is all over, when the pain of competition is over and the after effects leave his stomach quickly soured, he falls right there heaving, coughing, spitting, reeking in blood, dirt, and sweat; he becomes the either glorified in victory or down-paragon of physical prostration, ridden in defeat.

The guest speaker for the evening was Charles F. McCarthy, news director of station WPAT. He spoke about his experiences in the journalism field, particularly those connected with his present post as head of a news bureau at a metropolitan radio station.

The evening concluded with the president cordially hoping to see everyone at "Journalism Day," which will take place during the spring at Upsala College.

OBITUARIES

Anthony Parise Dies Monday At Pine Lake Home

Anthony J. Parise, a retired meat cutter who had lived in Belleville for nearly 35 years, died at his home at Pine Lake Park early Monday morning of a heart attack. He was 73 years old.

Mr. Parise, who was semi-retired for the last seven years, had been employed by Gustave Sobko of Newark for nearly 40 years.

He was a member of the Belleville Elks club, a life member of the Manchester Volunteer Fire Company No. 1. He was also a member of St. Joseph's Church and had formerly attended St. Peter's Church in Belleville.

He is survived by his wife Lucy; a son Dominic of Pine Lake Park; five daughters, Mrs. Lucile Buriuzzi, and Mrs. Johanna Zaccarne, all of Belleville, and Mrs. Margaret Fattorusso of Pine Lake Park; and Mrs. Christine Guerriero of Verona; a brother, Joseph, Newark; three sisters, Mrs. Anna Freslone, Mrs. Lucy Reese, and Mrs. Dorothy Caruso, all of Belleville; and 13 grandchildren.

By RAY FERSKO

Stan Scher and Pete Spera's grapplers will have their first match this afternoon (Thursday) at 4 p.m. in the Belleville High School gymnasium. The team has been working diligently and has accomplished a great deal in their scrimmages with top wrestling schools, Passaic, St. Benedict's, Watchung Hills and North Plainfield. Coach Scher is hoping the fine experience that the boys have received in scrimmage will help them in competition. Belleville is handicapped, as they are the youngest in the league, but with their strong will to win they should do well. The team has a great many underclassmen, so they're hopefully looking to the future.

In the 85 lb. weight class, the Bellboys have Fred Cuccio and Alan Roman. The 105 lb. class is headed by Sophomore Tony Lento, who has learned to use quite a few moves. The two Ebert brothers, David and Richard dominate the 112 and 120 lb. weight class. The 127 lb. class is headed by Dan Bivone. In the 135 is Jack Gruber, a smart wrestler. The 140 is between Chip, Lepree and Ben Schwartz.

Both boys have shown much control on the mat. Pat Valese heads the 145 class. Pound for pound Pat is one of the strongest boys on the squad. Captain Joe DelGuercio has the 156 weight group. Joe will be a mainstay of the team this year. In the 165 lb. class there is Joe Valvano and Oleg Moisenko. Joe Dambola should head the 175 pounders and the heavyweight seems to be a battle between John Rosciniti and Harold Avalone.

BELLEVILLE FAVORED OVER PASSAIC IN CAGE TILT

Coach LoBalbo's fine cagers looked very sharp in their first start against Garfield. The impressive 75-45 score says a lot for the outstanding performance put on by the whole team. An all around excellent job was done by Ray Harmon who scored 27 and Dave Hatch who scored 26. Fine ball handling was also exhibited by Lenny Luongo and Mike Liloia.

Steve Fox showed aggressiveness and perseverance as he came in and scored 8 points. However, the team made too many mistakes on defense and forced the offense attack too many times. The offense was not patient enough, and because of these errors the board strength wasn't what it should have been. It is always good to win the first one, and it's in the first game that the errors always keep coming up.

Tomorrow night the team will travel to Passaic. Passaic is very strong. The Bellboys will have to be more patient on offense, for they can't afford to give away any mistakes. Passaic will capitalize on any of these offensive errors.

Belleville must also watch their fouling. In last week's Garfield game, the Bellboys allowed 17 free throws, while giving only 14 from the floor. Most of the foul shots were scored on one and ones and this is an unnecessary evil. The team is exerting effort and showing much progress. Passaic will not be easy, but if the Bellboys continue to show their drive and play hard nose basketball, they will win by a small margin.

Bellboys Outpoint Garfield 75 to 45

By RAY FERSKO

Led by sharp-shooting forwards Dave Hatch and Ray Harmon, and center Steve Fox, the Bellboys opened their cage season where the football season left off.

The game was Belleville's all the way from the first two points by Lenny Luongo to the last by Dave Hatch. Luongo's opening hook shot broke the ice and from there the Bellmakers could not gain control as Dave Hatch and Ray Harmon poured in three baskets each in the first quarter. The only Garfield scorer, Bob Frank was with two layups and a free throw.

In the second quarter, Belleville's hard working offense continued to pick up baskets. With playmaker Mike Liloia and quick back court man Lenny Luongo bringing up the ball, Belleville's smooth offense worked in 17 points in second quarter. Hatch started the scoring with two jump shots from the side. Harmon then picked up a bunny and went to the line for another two, with a few seconds left to the half. Liloia dribbled in, going in, Belleville's half time score up to 31. The Bellmakers did their best scoring in this second quarter. They started their scoring with 3 layups by Frank and then scored the next 9 points from the line. Kimetz scored two. Borzevick 1 and Frank 11. Thus the half time score was 31-19, Belleville.

Belleville zoomed ahead in the beginning of the third quarter as Hatch, Fox, and Harmon stuffed them in from the sides. Nevertheless, Kimetz of Garfield became hard to stop in the last four minutes of the third. Five times he penetrated the Belleville defense as he hit 5 for 5, from corner, giving him 10 of his teams third period 13 points.

Belleville finally sewed up the game in the fourth quarter as they miraculously hit for 31 points, while Garfield was kept down to 8 foul shots and 3 poppers from the floor. One by Uhas and two by Frank.

The fourth quarter started with substitutes Frank Ray and Joe Cervasio bringing the ball up. Hatch met with 6 passes and capitalized on 4 for 8 points, while Harmon went to the line to score 3 and hit 3 from the floor.

Fox intercepted a Garfield pass and turned it into a two-pointer, then hit another, 2 from the floor. Bill Rush and Frank Ray also scored 4 points each as they made their varsity debuts. The Bellboys successfully won their season opener by a 30 point margin.

Double Prize Goes To Map Page Identification Man

A double prize goes to Joe Melillo of 85 Malone Avenue, the first person to correctly identify Frank O'Neil, Jr. as the youngster circled in last week's Map Page picture. Because no one identified the person pictured last week, that $5 check has been added to this week's prize.

A new contest is now under way. Be sure to follow the rules.

Identify the person circled in the picture by giving his or her full name, and also state the place where the picture was taken.

The answer must be delivered in person to the office of The Times-News, 246 Washington Avenue, or it may be sent through the mail. Telephone entries will not be accepted.

The person who first submits a correct identification of the subject in the picture and the place where the picture was taken.

Only one person in a family may submit an answer.

The contest deadline is noon on Friday of the same week that the Map Page appears. If no correct identification is made by that time the prize will be added to the following week's award.

A decision by The Times-News as to the winner is final and may not be disputed.

Golden Subpoena Bid Is

'A Grandstand Play'

Says Times Publisher

Town Attorney Thomas D'Avella ruled this week that only the Town Council sitting as a body has the right of subpoena. The question arose by reason of a demand made by Councilman James R. Golden that Frank A. Orechio, editor-publisher of The Times-News be subpoenaed to testify at Friday night's hearing called to hear William A. Sommers, suspended Town Manager, give answers to the reasons for his proposed ouster.

Golden wanted to know if Orechio exerted influence on members of the Belleville Town Council in the removal of Sommers from his position. Orechio, who is editor-publisher of The Times-News, scoffed at Golden's subpoena bid, labeling Golden's attempt "a grandstand play so typical of Mr. Golden."

Orechio said "Golden has spent many years attacking public spirited citizens, in attacking me he is conforming to his old behavior pattern, a Golden trademark in our community."

"Our citizens should remember that Mr. Golden is already a defendant in a libel suit," Orechio observed. "Golden apparently will stop at nothing to draw attention to himself. Instead of permitting Mr. Sommers an opportunity to be heard Friday night Mr. Golden appears to want the spotlight and the next day's headlines. Golden has an unquenchable thirst for newspaper publicity and he apparently doesn't care what he does to get it," concluded Orechio.

"Golden apparently wants to use me as one of his publicity props," said Orechio, "I hope he has a good time."

Belleville GI Now In Thailand Still Taking Those Tests

PFC Dennis M. Sepe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Sepe, 138 Cedar Hill Avenue, recently completed two weeks of Army training tests with other members of Company A of the 35th Infantry's 1st Battle Group in Thailand.

The tests emphasized the role of the soldier in infantry squad tactics through actual live-fire situations. Simulated "Aggressor" forces and actual mortar fire provided realism for the squads during the tests.

A mortarmen in the company, Sepe entered the Army in April 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

It's A New Life For These Newlyweds,
A Happy Couple Married Late In Life

MR. & MRS. OSKAR HOFMANN

On Christmas Day, Mr. and Mrs. Oskar Hofmann of 540 Kingsland Street, Nutley, will be married exactly one month, and like many other newly-married couples, they are looking forward to their first holiday together.

But they have a distinction. This new bride is 70 years old, and her bridegroom will be 81 Saturday.

Mr. Hofmann of Athens, N.Y., was born in Germany in 1881. This is his third marriage. He has four children, five grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. He is a former lace manufacturer, and has been retired for the past 17 years.

Old Country Origin

Short of stature, with sturdy upright figure, Mr. Hofmann sat quietly by while his wife explained the circumstances of their marriage.

She is the former Emmy Denzin, widow of Max Denzin, well-known builder and contractor who worked in Nutley for many local buildings. She and her husband Max came to this country from Germany in 1921, settling at once in this town.

Their Children Are Grown

They lived for years on Ackerman Street, where their three daughters grew up. Now map-ried, the daughters are Mrs. Walter Meinhansen of 540 Kingsland Street, Mrs. Eugene Nothoff of 536 Kingsland Street, and Mrs. Laurance Pedersen of 2 Harvard Place, Belleville. There are six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren as descendants.

Suddenly, ten years ago, Max died of a heart attack.

They're Old Acquaintances

Mrs. Denzin became acquainted with Oskar a number of years ago, when he married a girl friend of hers. The two met again last August at a surprise party given for Mrs. Denzin on her 70th birthday. A romance blossomed.

The couple were married in the Redeemer Lutheran Church, North Newark, last month with Pastor Paul F. Arndt performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Max Rath of Chestnut Street, friends of the couple, were matron of honor and best man.

Outlook Is Bright

Both bride and bridegroom are in good health and cheerful in outlook. Mrs. Hofmann is small, pert, and bright-eyed as a sparrow. She has a warm friendly smile, and a ready laugh. She does a great deal of knitting and likes to watch TV. She is also a member of the Redeemer Lutheran Church and belongs to the Ladies' Aid Society. In addition to raising her own family, she has also taken care of the ten foster children over the years.

They're Hobby Conscious

M. Hofmann is a member of the Steuben Society, and likes to work in his garden in good weather, but at this time of year he prefers to cook and fuss in the kitchen. He is slightly hard of hearing due to a cartilage growth. The growth might be removed, he said, but he's too young to bother with such things now. Perhaps when he's a hundred years old, he said jokingly.

Both the Hofmanns look forward to the future with as much zest as any other newly-married couple. In fact, their love of life seems to illustrate exactly what the poet Browning meant when he wrote:

"Grow old along with me,
The best is yet to be."

Engaged

JOANNE MARINARO

Mr. and Mrs. John Marinaro of Pleasant Avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Joanne, to Vincent Cozzolino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cozzolino of Linden Avenue.

The couple are graduates of Belleville High School. The bride-elect was graduated from Newark State College where she was a member of Beta Delta Chi. She is a teacher in Kearny. Mr. Cozzolino was graduated from the School of Visual Arts in New York, and is art director for ABC Freight Forwarding Co., New York.

An August wedding is planned.

J.W.V. Auxiliary
Sets Film, Party

The Ladies Auxiliary of North Essex Post 146, Jewish War Veterans, will hold a meeting at the Bloomfield Civic Center, 84 Broad St., Bloomfield, on Wednesday evening, December 26, at 8:30 o'clock. A film entitled "Magic Shelf" will be shown, revealing many suggestions for enhancing the serving of appetizing meals. Mr. Albert Cohen is program chairman and Mrs. Ora Broski is hospitality chairman. Mrs. Abe Salzman is President of the Auxiliary.

The Auxiliary held a party at the East Orange Veterans' Hospital last Tuesday, December 18. The charm chairs of the Clifford J. Scott High School, East Orange, and Miss Pelice Zella, Ballard Singer and guitarist from Hackensack, provided entertainment. Chairman of the party was Mrs. Hilda Schier. Hostesses were Mrs. Mae Pressler, Miss Robin Schier, Mrs. Mildred Mindel, Mrs. Blanche Moskowitz, and Mrs. Bernice Sapelnan.

"Grow old along with me,
The best is yet to be."

Music And Cookie Swap
Marks Evening Group Affair

The Evening Department of the Woman's Club held its Christmas program in true holiday style, with candles, wreaths, tree and glitter. They were entertained by Belleville's own "Baker's Dozen."

The A. Milanos
Mark Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Milano Sr. of 97 Passaic Avenue celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last Saturday at a dinner-party held at their home. They had their seven children as guests.

Present were Phyllis Milano, Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Milano, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hahula, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stabinski, all of Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Milano of Nutley; and Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Milano, Jr. of Bloomfield.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Milano's eleven grandchildren. Later in the evening eight friends paid a surprise visit to offer their congratulations to the anniversary couple.

Sweet Adelines To Sing
For Caldwell Old Guard

The West Essex Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc. will entertain the Caldwell Old Guard at their annual Christmas party at the First Presbyterian Church of Caldwell tomorrow evening, December 21.

The West Essex Chapter of Sweet Adelines, international women's barbershop - style singing organization, meets every Thursday evening at the First Congregational Church of Montclair. Anyone interested in joining the group may call Mrs. Mary Lou Gibbons of 507 Centre Street at NO 7-0075 in the evening for information.

VISIT JUNGLE GARDENS

Mr. and Mrs. G. Lukowiak of 241 Ralph Street, enjoyed a visit to Sarasota Jungle Gardens during their recent vacation on Florida's Lower West Coast. The visitors mingled with flamingos and other rare wildfowl from every continent roaming freely in these world-famous gardens. Other points of interest in Jungle Gardens were hundreds of unusually colorful tropical plantings, huge Palms bordering jungle trails, ar brilliant macaws and cockatoos which pose with visitors for pictures.

under the direction of Dr. Samuel W. Peck. Individual solos were also on the program, as well as a Sing-along in which club members participated.

A "Cookie Swap" followed the entertainment. In this exchange, each member brought two dozen cookies, gift-wrapped, and took home someone else's. It was a novel way to exchange Christmas cookies.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served.

At an earlier meeting of the Home Committee, held at the home of Mrs. John E. Connolly, 50 Marion Court, favors were made for Greystone Hospital for Christmas.
