A New Shopping Center To Open By September

Above is an artist's conception of the new shopping center soon to arise near the intersection of Jorammon Street and Franklin Avenue, announced Westlake-Belleville Inc., a New Jersey Development group. The center will adjoin the proposed People's National Bank at the same location. The southwestern part of Belleville is the only part of town left open to expansion, said one realtor this week after learning of the proposed shopping center.

Westlake - Belleville, Inc., a New Jersey development group, announced this week that it has secured the necessary permits to build the Belleville Plaza Shopping Center on lands formerly known as Plenge Farm.

The Belleville Plaza will have approximately a 28,000 square foot W. T. Grant Company junior department store including a 1500 square foot outdoor Garden Shop. The initial construction will involve some 36,000 square feet, most of which space has already been leased.

Additional stores will be erected in the future.

Complete banking facilities, has already commenced at the intersection of Franklin Avenue and Jorammon Street.

Plans have been made so that the Plaza will be easily accessible from either street and it is presently contemplated that the stores in the Plaza will open for business around September 1.

Civil Defense Program Ready, Improving, And Capable Of Handling All Situations

A large audience of Belleville residents attended a Civil Defense sponsored public meeting last Thursday night at Town Hall and heard a report of municipal preparedness and an explanation of the mechanization of state, county, and local emergency plans.

Police and firemen's auxiliaries, the rescue teams, and the shelter program came in for praise by Mayor Robert M. Laterza, who addressed the meeting. He later introduced council members to the audience.

Communications Are Ready
Belleville's 28 "ham" radio operators, who operate some 18 sets, were also praised by the mayor. Every school in Belleville, with the exception of School No. 9, has an amateur radio set within a few blocks of the building and is ready for instant utilization in the event of a natural or man-made disaster. William F. Blisshar, 73 Bridge Street, heads the group.

Anxious parents were told by David Slayback, State Department of Defense Coordinator, that emergency evacuation of school children had proven to be unfeasible, and that an alternate plan for their care had been devised.

Students Are Provided For
If time allows, he said, children should leave school and head for home. An hour's warning was considered time enough for the children to reach home and parents, he observed. If only minutes would elapse before a disaster, it would be best for children to remain at school where plans have been, and are required, for their safety.

Belleville recently received, at no expense to the town, thousands of dollars in emergency supplies which are now stockpiled in several locations throughout the town, said William G. Hunt, Deputy Municipal Disaster Control Director.

The Authorities Advise
Also speaking before the group were James D. Maurer, Executive Director for Essex County, who explained standard operating procedures; Herbert Mould, Blenheim Deputy Director, who said a "matching funds" course in civil defense was available to interested parties; and William Miller, plant manager for Westinghouse Lamp Division, who spoke on industrial mutual aid and the necessity of pooling resources in an emergency.

Meeting was held at the urging of Raymond E. Mertz Jr., director of Civil Defense and Disaster Control in Belleville.

Christ Church Hears Broadway Star Entertain

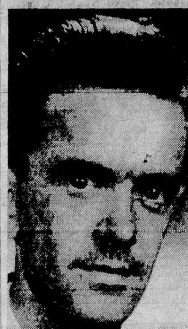

The distinguished star of the American Musical Theater, Ray Middleton appeared at Christ Episcopal Church two Sunday evenings ago.

Midtown, who starred in "South Pacific" and "Annie Get Your Gun" was seen in a new presentation "America In Song and Story" which was presented in Christ Church prior to Middleton's leaving for a nationwide tour.

The entertaining program contained favorite readings of American history, legends and folklore, together with folk songs and other music which he has made famous during his long career on the stage, in radio, and in motion pictures and television. One of the highlights of the program was his moving portrayal of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, delivered just as he gave it in a reenactment of that famous scene on the field of battle in Gettysburg.

Freel Gets Nod Of Educator In Bid For Office

DUNCAN FREEL

Dr. William Warner, New Jersey State Director of Secondary Schools, gave his approval this week of the platform advanced by Duncan M. Freel, candidate for Belleville Board of Education in the February 13 election.

Freel, said Dr. Warner, would "create a new, substantial image of the Belleville school system." Warner told Freel in an interview that Belleville's accreditation, which had been withdrawn by the Middle States Association, could only be regained by completion of the new high school which Belleville voters had approved last year. The accreditation, he added, was granted on

Friends and well-wishers of Mayor Robert M. Laterza are formulating plans for a testimonial dinner in his honor, to be held at The Fountain, Waterswing Avenue, March 17, St. Patrick's Day.

Anticipating a record attendance are chairman Norman Laurette and co-chairman Mary Senatore.

Steak dinners will be served with a motif centered galaxy around the "Auld Sod" in commemoration of St. Patrick and Mayor Laterza's Irish ancestry; namely his mother, the late Elizabeth Moore Laterza.

School 3 P.T.A. Will Hear Narcotics Talk

Thomas Mueller, Essex County Sheriff's Office, will address members of School No. 3 Parent-Teachers Association Monday at 8 p.m. in the all-purpose room at 230 Jorammon Street.

He will speak on the reasons for Essex County's having 5 out of 7 arrests for narcotics addition during an annual number of 2,000 to 3,000 arrests.

Essex Council of P.T.A. now has a committee studying the problem of "glue sniffing" addicts and plans to seek state legislation on the matter.

Burdzy Checks His Chances Of Upsurping Boss's Job

Devious are the ways of public officials. Last week The Belleville Times reported perfect accord within the hallowed halls of the Department of Health and Welfare after checking out a report of strife between Ralph M. Risold, who heads the department, and Edward Burdzy, his town health officer.

Risold declared he knew nothing of the alleged threat to his position by Burdzy. Burdzy, in turn, scoffed at the report of dissatisfaction with his office. He wondered where the report originated.

This week Dr. Jesse B. Aronson, who has offices in Trenton where he is director of the division of local health, re-used a statement saying Burdzy should be in charge of health and welfare, because he is a town health officer.

Burdzy was asked about his apparent about-face after a trip to Trenton last week.

"I have no statement to make," he said from his office Monday afternoon. "Why don't you check with Aronson?"

What was the purpose of his trip to Trenton? "I have nothing to say," he replied.

Last week he assured one and all that administrative troubles were mere figments of a reporters' imagination.

But this week?

"No comment."

Belleville got its new high school Monday night. Actual construction was to begin within ten days, but Ceramini Construction Co. of Belleville was awarded the largest share of the million dollar contracts, will begin removal of fences early next week.

The week-long peacem to Spring will be under the direction of two Chamber men, Fred Devlin, board member of the Chamber of Commerce, will be in charge of the Cherry Blossom Beauty Pageant.

Bob Bowden, A Former Belleville Boy, Signs A Recording Contract

A part-time cab driver and carpenter who once called Belleville "home" recently signed a recording contract with King Records and will soon be singing his own songs over the air.

Bob E. Bowden, 28, 434 Garfield Court, Long Branch, who drove a cab here before moving to his present home, announced his success last week. Bowden is a country and western singer who plays the guitar and sings his own music.

John B. Nilson Is Promoted By Company

John B. Nilson, of 25 Park View Avenue, has been promoted to assistant group pension consultant in the Prudential Insurance Co.'s group pension issue division.

Nilson joined the company in 1956 and was a supervising proposal reviewer before this promotion.

He is married to the former Mary Cordasco of Belleville. The couple have two children: John Jr., 4; and Lynn Ann, 3.

The awards mark the end of 12 years of planning, the defeat of two referendums and approval of the third, and indictment of school officials for alleged malfeasance in office which added up to loss of accreditation to Belleville High School.

The awards also spelled defeat for various political factions, led by the Citizens Tax Council, who had sought to prevent construction of the school with claims of exorbitant construction costs, improper estimates, and hanky panky by board members, eight of whom have been indicted.

It may seem the end of a long, lily job, board president Richard H. Drake told an audience of 67 who turned out to watch the awards, but the real job was just beginning.

First New Construction
The board, he said, had no plans for resting on its oars, but would continue to give Belleville the best, academically, it could provide.

The new high school will be the first new construction in 34 years.

"Of most importance," observed Dr. Frank M. Durkee, "is that we're not only getting a new high school, but one of the best secondary schools in the state, as well as regaining accreditation by the Middle State Association. The new school will give Belleville better education from top to bottom."

Fly in the Ointment

Sitting in the front row and nodding his approval was Dominic Lally, former board president who had taken a leading part in the building program.

The six contracts were uniformly approved by board members, with but one abstention. Mrs. Thomas F. McCool, who is the single woman member of the otherwise all male board, refused to give her approval of the six contracts as part of a continuing pattern she has maintained throughout difficult negotiations for the construction of the school.

Next Week

Space limitations in this week's Times - News have made it necessary to postpone until next week the disclosure where Town Treasurer Francis McCoy said he bid $45,000 from the former Town Commission when making up last year's municipal budget. McCoy's admitted concealment of these funds required taxpayers to pay an additional $45,000 in real estate taxes during 1962.

NEW SHRINE PRESIDENT
Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo was installed a president of Essex County Shrine Club last week during ceremonies at the Fountain Restaurant by outgoing president George Van.

Firefighters On The Spot

Belleville firefighters were out in full force in near-zero weather Monday night when the two-story Perma-Cor building at 58 Mill Street was gutted by fire. The 12:36 a.m. call brought some 36 firemen on the run, but the flames had gained such headway firemen were only able to contain the blaze. Bill Jacquin, 324 Washington Avenue, and Bob Estelle, 22 Ralph Street reported the fire to Patrolman Vincent Cozenzo, who was first on the scene.

Snow, Snow, And More Snow

The bitter cold and accompanying snow that struck Belleville over the past weekend seems to be a state of mind - depending on whose mind is involved. The scene above was enacted many times during the past week as children-throut the town made mercy amid the piles of white snow. Meanwhile their parents wearily dug out cars, cursed the slush, and cautiously trudged down the snow slickened streets. This group was photographed on Holmes Street in Belleville.

Times Subscriber Quickly Identifies Map Page Pix

Today's $5 goes to Mrs. Mary Cobianni, of 4 South Wilber Street for her correct identification of Mrs. Veronica Hickey as The Belleville Times Map Page mystery person.

How did she recognize Mrs. Hickey, and the store in which the picture was taken? Simple. She's Mrs. Hickey's "best friend." And she shops at Tannen's Shoe Store.

She's been a regular subscriber ever since coming here from Boston 14 years ago. "I like to know what's going on in Belleville," she said. She's known Mrs. Hickey ever since their children went to kindergarten together.

Her hobbies are sewing and knitting, and looking after her children.

The rules for this week's contest follow:

Turn to the double-spread map page and you will see a picture of a group of people snapped somewhere in Belleville.

It was also the occasion other worthy endeavors in which the club officially opened a permanent foundation, to be known as the Herman Erbin Charity Foundation, to financially assist in providing scholarships and Belleville. A check for $1,500 was formally presented by the club to Mrs. Herman S. Erbin, the widow of the man for whom the foundation was named, which she in turn turned over to the foundation.

The Citizen of the Year award given to the member for outstanding community service in 1962 was presented to Sam Pearl, president of the Newark Light Co. of Belleville.

School Board Qualifications Are Enumerated

Below is the result of a study by the Essex County Council of Parents and Teachers.

It is being printed here by request of Mrs. Daniel A. McCarthy, District Chairman for Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley.

Suggested qualifications for members of local Boards of Education, Ten Considerations:

1. Should believe in the Public School System as basic to the functioning of democratic government.
2. Should recognize education as a broad continuing process outside and beyond the generally accepted school curriculum.
3. Should be guided by a broad principle of unity of purpose and subordination of self-interest.
4. Should understand and respect the executive functions of the professional administration.
5. Should have the moral stamina to take courageous action for the good of the schools despite outside pressures and influences.
6. Should have skill in maintaining effective cooperation with professional staff, and public relations with citizens and community groups. There should be a constant exchange of views.

7. Should have educational level high enough to command the respect and cooperation of the community at large.

8. Should be public spirited and willing to give adequate time to carry out the fulfillment of their responsibilities.

9. It is imperative that each member represent the interests of the community at large rather than any particular segment of it. No personal or group axes to grind.

10. Considering the board as a whole, it is suggested that the personnel include, if possible, an educator, a professional, a semi-professional, a business person, and a public spirited individual. Since there is no correlation between sex and ability, sex should not be considered.

Lions Club Members Hear Sweet Talk

The role of candy as a "pick-up" was related by George H. Rausch, a representative of the Candy, Chocolate and Confectionery Institute, on January 24.

Rausch, vice president of Mason, Au & Magenheimer Confectionery Manufacturing Co., Inc., in Mineola, L.I., told the Belleville Lions Club in Christian's Restaurant that there is awareness of the value of candy in the average diet as a tasty source of energy. He said this has led to the use of candy to speed production; increase motorist's alertness; provide extra go-power to outdoorsmen and athletes; as an aid to the busy housewife; and to supply the between-meals staying power needed by active youngsters.

Why Did Sommers Try To Block The Finance Department Probe?

(Fourth in a series—Part I)

Why did ousted Town Manager William A. Sommers try to make a deal to call off the investigation of the Revenue and Finance Department authorized by a 3-0 vote of the Town Council on August 28 of last year?

On the record Sommers gave three different reasons. The first query of Sommers was made when he attempted to block the probe by denying to the Council-appointed probers, access to the books and records of the Revenue and Finance Department. At that time Sommers said he didn't mean to block the probe — his hesitation in making available the town's books and records to the probers was occasioned by his concern over the cost of the probe which he suggested might run as high as $6,000.

After The Belleville Times-News exclusively disclosed that Sommers attempted to make a deal to give Ralph Risoli, Town Registrar, job security in exchange for an end to the probe, Sommers on one occasion said he thought the probe was a "witchhunt" and since it would serve no useful purpose he wanted to see it end. On another occasion Sommers said it was his job as Town Manager to protect his employees, and this statement, related to the pending Revenue and Finance probe, implied that Sommers would go to great lengths to protect employees under his jurisdiction, even to making a deal in order to call off an investigation of a vital governmental department.

Many Belleville citizens accepted Sommers' explanations with skepticism. This series is written to place all the facts before our readers to aid them in arriving at a decision as to the actual motive behind Sommers' unusual behavior in this matter.

First word of a Council probe of the Revenue and Finance Department came in the form of a proposed resolution sponsored by Deputy Mayor G. George Addonizio which he caused to have delivered to the then Acting Town Manager, Town Treasurer Francis McCoy on Monday morning, August 13. In those days the Town Council held a pre-meeting conference on the Monday prior to the regularly scheduled semi-monthly Tuesday night Council meeting.

At the sight of the proposed probe-resolution McCoy became livid with rage, and gathering up Town Purchasing Agent Thomas McLaughlin, and Tax Assessor Edward Friel, McCoy led them to Newark to the office of the Essex County Prosecutor where McCoy had prearranged a 4:30 conference with Prosecutor Brendan Byrne.

Meanwhile, about 10:00 a.m. of the same day, Deputy Mayor Addonizio received a telephone call from the Prosecutor inviting the Deputy Mayor to the law enforcers' office in the County Court house.

Prosecutor Byrne told Addonizio that McCoy called his office requesting an appointment to discuss the content of a proposed probe resolution sponsored by Addonizio.

Byrne asked Addonizio if the Deputy Mayor could shed some light on the reasons for McCoy's obvious emotional disturbance brought on by the probe resolution.

Addonizio was unable to shed any light on the problem and assured the Prosecutor his probe was intended to give the new Council a clearer picture of operations in the Revenue and Finance Department as administered under the old Commission government.

At 4:30 p.m., on schedule, McCoy, McLaughlin and Friel entered the hallowed halls of the Prosecutor's private office.

Later that night, at 6:30, McCoy met with the five members of the Town Council in the Council's conference room. In shirt sleeves, open collar, and his tie half way down his shirt front, McCoy made an impassioned plea for Addonizio to withdraw the probe resolution.

"What are you trying to do?" asked McCoy of Addonizio. "This (probe) resolution is aimed at me. I'm the guy who ran the finance department, not Padula, (former Revenue and Finance Director Isadore Padula). I ran an honest department, I don't know what you're trying to prove with an investigation," shouted McCoy, visibly hysterical over the incident.

Addonizio, backing off from his probe demand, reasoned, "Bud (McCoy), you say you have done nothing wrong and you have nothing to fear from an investigation, then why resist the probe; why not go along with me on this?"

"George (Addonizio), a probe won't do anyone any good. I don't like it and I am against it," McCoy answered.

Whereupon much to the relief of McCoy, Addonizio agreed to withdraw temporarily, the probe resolution.

Also joining McCoy in opposition to the probe were Councilmen James R. Golden and Thomas P. Greco.

At the Town Council meeting held the next night, Tuesday, August 14, the Probe resolution never came up for a vote—but a resolution hiring William A. Sommers as Town Manager was brought to a vote and adopted 3-2. Golden and Greco objecting to a provision in the resolution which required Sommers to discharge two jobs — that of Town Manager and Town Clerk.

During the next two weeks McCoy and Sommers conferred a number of times, ostensibly to discuss matters affecting the transition of the Town Manager's position from McCoy to Sommers who was scheduled to take over on September 1.

On Tuesday, August 28, the Town Council met again. This time the same resolution to investigate the Revenue and Finance Department was introduced—by Councilman Vincent F. Strumolo.

On this occasion, outwardly McCoy appeared a radically changed man. Not a muscle twitched, not an eyelash stirred. Here was a composed public servant, brimming over with self-confidence.

Although Golden and Greco walked out of the Council meeting, leaving their three colleagues to conduct the town's affairs, McCoy spoke nary a word against the probe resolution which was adopted by a 3-0 vote.

What caused McCoy, an apparently hysterical and bewildered man on August 13 to produce a sudden change in his behavior to the point where he became a person of quiet confidence and self-assurance on August 28th, the date the probe resolution became law?

Was something said at one of those McCoy-Sommers conferences that took place between August 14-28 to lead McCoy to believe a Finance department probe, even if authorized by Council, would never get off the ground?

On September 1, three days after our Town Council authorized a probe of the Finance department Sommers took over from McCoy — at $15,000 per year.

Shortly after he assumed his post of duty Sommers received a phone call from the council-appointed prober. "I want to get together with you so that I could start the investigation authorized by the Town Council," said the prober to Sommers. "I can't make it right now. I just came on the job," replied Sommers. "Give me about a month and then give me another call," advised Sommers. "Okay," said the prober — and so it came to pass that the month of October came upon the people of Belleville with few if any of our citizens realizing they were on the verge of witnessing an unprecedented series of tammany-type political moves authorized by a professionally trained manager.

(What happened in October and November will be reported in next week's Times-News.)

A Good Budget — But . . .

The Board of Education has worked hard, and as a result of its labors has produced a reasonably sound budget. This year's total budget outlay is $2,910,215.40. Last year's comparable total was $2,834,879.50. This difference represents an increase of $75,335. The foregoing amounts include payments on account of debt service and capital outlays. In attempting to evaluate the efficiency of our day-to-day school operations, resort to other, more valid computations is necessary.

Then there is another set of figures which may be fed to a hungry public—the amount of money to be raised through real estate taxes. Last year, for school purposes, taxpayers were obliged to fork over to the tax collector $2,265,001.50. This year the amount is $2,318,391.40. The result is an increase for this year of $53,389.90, or about nine points in the tax rate.

All the above figures are important but they do not tell the whole story.

Among the most important figures in a school board budget are those concerning themselves with the cost of the day-to-day school operation. Last year the current expense amount in the budget was $2,633,017. The proposed budget calls for $2,731,492.90, producing an increase over last year of $98,476, or approximately 16 points in the tax rate.

The primary reason why taxpayers are asked to raise an additional $53,389.90 instead of the above $98,476 is because the Board of Education is using an extra $35,000 of surplus in this year's budget. Last year the board appropriated $125,000 from surplus to keep down the amount to be raised by taxation. This year this sum was increased to $160,000, a perfectly legal procedure, but unless explained, could result in misleading the voters.

If the proposed budget is approved by the voters at the election on Tuesday, February 12, 1963, it will cost Belleville taxpayers $549.73 to educate each Belleville child. This is an increase of $11.77 per child over last year's cost of $536.60.

Belleville's estimated 5,300 children will be attending ten different schools.

Looking across Belleville's northern boundary at the Nutley school system we find a striking similarity in estimated enrollment figures for the 1963-64 school year. Nutley school authorities anticipate an average daily enrollment of 5,300, only seven less than our own. Here the similarity ends. Nutley's 5,300 school children attend only six schools — four less than Belleville.

In the current year Nutley will spend $503.30 to educate each pupil. Next year it proposes to spend $54, resulting in an increase of $27.70 per pupil. Belleville this year is spending $536.60 per pupil. Next year our school board proposes to spend $549.37 per pupil, an increase of only $11.77 per pupil.

STUPID SPEAK

STUDENTS ARE DISTURBED SAYS CHAMBER OF COMM.

To the Editor, The Times-News:

Recently I wrote to you concerning the loss of accreditation by our Belleville High School in which I tried to portray the economic loss to the town of any further delay in building this much needed facility.

I have received many calls and had many conversations with people who are greatly disturbed by the delay in building the new High School.

However, here are excerpts from a letter received from a student who is unknown to me that I am sure will indicate the feeling on the part of those who must attend our high school.

"Hurrah for you! I have a part-time job, saving money for college but where will they admit me? Our town is in an awful mess isn't it?"

It is regrettable that the young people upon whom our future depends are the victims of so much fuzzy thinking on the part of adults and that instead of bursting with pride as they should be they write "Our town is in an awful mess—isn't it?"

NEW WESTERNS CAPTIVATE VIEWERS

Have you noticed a lack of noise at home lately, while trying to do your homework? Your family is probably inhaling gunsmoke and trail dust, as Matt Dillon and his trusty deputy Chester clean up Dodge City.

The efforts of TV networks to hold their audiences have put new life into the tales of the Old West. The routine "bootin' cowboy of yesterday has been replaced by the legend of Wyatt Earp and other stories that appeal to young and old alike.

Today one-third of the night time TV network hours are Westerns. Twelve shows have been "held over" from last year, while eleven new ones have been added. Why the increase?

Of over 50 shows scuttled last year, not one was a Western. Why have they stayed?

These Westerns are a new kind described as "adult Western." The setting is more concerned with the inner life of the cowboy than the wide open spaces. Sometimes he even has something to do with women, as Gunsmoke's Matt Dillon.

The Old Westerns can be easily spotted — the hero is invincible, never makes a mistake, and usually loves only his horse.

A few of the new adult Westerns are now starring the late Walker, ex-deputy sheriff of Las Vegas, Jim Arness, a 6'4" Minnesotan who plays Gunsmoke's Matt Dillon, and the one-time star of TV Medie, Dick Boone, who now stars in Have Gun, Will Travel. The late Wyatt Earp was the hero in TV's most expensive Western, Wyatt Train, whose hour long programs cost $100,000 each. John Payne is a wandering cowboy in Restless Gun and Hugh O'Brien stars in the legend of Wyatt Earp.

Belleville plans to spend $236,280 to operate its ten schools. The Nutley school board expects to spend $247,291 to operate its six schools. Again the Belleville figures compare favorably with our neighbors.

When taking into consideration the fact that the Belleville system employs ten school buildings, or 40 per cent more than neighboring Nutley requires to educate a like number of students, the Belleville costs compare favorably with our northern neighbor.

Despite this favorable comparison with Nutley the hard fact is that Belleville school officials have a dimension all their own to consider when evaluating the merits of the proposed school budget for this year 1963-64. Town Hall officials want to hold the line on taxes — even to the point of eliminating all employee wage increases. This circumstance places an added burden upon our school board officials. If school employees are granted raises, fairness alone would dictate that all town employees be treated alike.

This is the thought that voters must remember when casting a vote on the budget question. If Town Hall says "NO" to raises so should our voters when voting on the school board budget.

We believe the school board budget is a good one — but we hold strongly to the belief that all town employees should be treated alike.

SCHOOL CANDIDATE

To the Editor, The Times-News:

After reading your article of Jan. 24th, I would like to point out your error. The only time I ran for office was in 1946, when I sought a Commission seat and lost.

Last year I withdrew from the School Board race at the request of my wife. Not to hurt the incumbents, who are friends of mine, she has now given the go ahead sign because conditions in the school system have not improved.

I have no sons named Ralph or Albert Jr., I am Albert Gugliellini Jr. My sons are Roger and Gerald.

If the people elect me to a seat on the board I will serve them well. I will explore every avenue to eliminate waste and cut expenses where possible. The conditions of our grammar school buildings must be considered now before their cost becomes unbearable.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Under the headline: How do you know you are getting 40 per cent off? You find an article in one of these Consumer Magazines which are the "Bible" for many people for advice about what to buy and what not to buy.

Over the years we had many times reason to disagree with these findings, at least as far as the merchandise which we handle, is concerned. We get the sets when the troubles show up, they don't. There are certain rules of design which are basic and if they are not observed, there is sure to be trouble in time. Almost invariably one will find these design deficiencies in low price merchandise and thus, what first appeared to be a good buy at "40 per cent off" turns out to be far more costly in the long run because of high maintenance cost.

A case in point are the low priced "portable" TV sets. We get many of these sets brought to the shop completely worn out after 2 years of use. The station selectors are bad and can not be repaired, which means an expense of about $40, for a new one. Frequently we find a dozen tubes bad, because these tubes are worked at their peak capacity or even higher, which causes early failure.

The article mentioned above laments the disappearance of "list prices," which in most cases were completely unrelated to the actual value of the article. Bargain hunters felt happy if the price tag lists for instance $100, and they bought the item for $60. Of course they did not know that the next buyer often paid only $55. It is amazing how people are taken in by these fake "list prices." The Federal Trade Commission is going after these operators. Perhaps we will soon have a realistic pricing structure and the days of so-called "40 off" may be gone soon.

We service what we sell.

Jayceettes Ask Help
For "Operation Noah"

The Belleville Jayceettes today announced they will join hands with the New Jersey State Jayceettes in supporting an international Jaycee project called "Operation Noah." The organizer is calling upon the towns of Belleville and Nutley for support.

"Operation Noah," as it is appropriately named, began when Tanganyika, Africa, completed plans for a desperately needed dam to supply water for its people. The dam, when completed, will flood the lowlands of the valley where thousands of wild animals now live.

Humanitarians and zoo officials are trying to remove these animals to another area where they may roam again in freedom. After the animals have been safely and carefully transported, their legs must be tied so that they can be transported to safety. Unfortunately, many animals have been injured or the frightened beasts injure themselves on the heavy ropes that bind them as they struggle to escape.

Specialists have decided that soft nylon bonds would be stronger and safer for the animals. Nylon stockings are the answer. The Belleville Jayceettes are therefore appealing to the public for old nylon stockings to be collected before February 9. Anyone interested in this humane cause may contact Mrs. Bernard O'Connor (PL 9-7356) or Mrs. Fred Devlin (PL 9-3527).

The women will be glad to pick up stockings, or to furnish additional information regarding any phase of the operation.

Florente Society Plans

A well-known band will play for dancing, and a buffet dinner will be served. Proceeds from the affair will go towards the building fund.

Chairman of the dance, John Marone, of 26 King Street, or James Cataldo of 97 Overlook Avenue, assistant chairman, will gladly furnish any additional information concerning ticket sale or the dance itself.

MARY ROSE CARSE

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carse of 14 Hornblower Avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Rose, to Andrew Thomas Kennedy, son of Mrs. Andrew J. Kennedy of Scarsdale, New York, and the late Mr. Kennedy.

Miss Carse is a graduate of St. Cecilia High School, Kearny, and is employed as a private secretary with Celanese Corporation, New York City. Mr. Kennedy attended Iona College and Pace College. He is a real estate salesman with Cushman & Wakefield, Inc., New York City.

By RAY FERSKO

The Bellboys lost by a decisive 51-22 score to the Irvington Campers last Tuesday. The complete Bellboy defense fell apart, and the offense couldn't get near the hoop.

Looking at this game in retrospect I feel it is going to be the turning point in Belleville basketball. Belleville can't do it with the seniors, so they are going to give the underclassmen the invaluable experience they need. This was done last Friday night when the campers met the Columbia Cougars and were pinned 62-37. Belleville cannot afford to worry about the rest of the schedule, but rather they should look toward the future.

Against Columbia, the Sophomores and Freshmen met on the starting lineup and did wonderfully. The game would have been more pleasing if the Blue and Gold had acquired a few more of those easy buckets in the first period. Nevertheless, the younger players showed improvement and at the same time gained worthwhile experience. Belleville is going to go somewhere in basketball with Coach Lo Balbo holding the reins, but this all takes time. The senior members of the team realize this and have been co-operating and exerting themselves to their fullest extent in practice for the benefit of Belleville High School basketball.

Tomorrow night, Belleville will meet the Orange Tornadoes at Orange. Orange doesn't have much height, but neither does Belleville's "growing team." At any rate, Belleville will be out there giving everything for a win and they just might.

GRAPPLERS 3-2 AFTER PIN OVER WEST ORANGE

Coach Scher's ever-improving wrestlers continued to win as they easily defeated the West Orange Cowboys 28-15. The team did very well and really has come a long way.

After losing 5-0 in the lightweight division, 105-pounder Tony Festa came back and tied it up as he pinned his man in the last minute. From here it was nip and tuck until the last five matches, when Belleville won all but the heavyweight. The team showed a great deal of improvement in the lightweight classes, which are dominated by the two Ebert brothers, Dave and Rich.

All in all, the team, which is led by undefeated Joe DeGuercio, is shaping up, but they must always allow for a few sharp men in each class.

Columbia Trounces Bellboys

Cougars Gain Easy Victory

By RAY FERSKO

The Columbia Cougars met Belleville last Friday night and gained an easy 62-37 victory. Belleville's "renewed" team did quite well, considering the statistics. Belleville played freshmen and sophomores averaging a low 6-foot against a big senior team averaging 6'3".

Belleville's Rush starting the scoring and the Cougars jumped in with 2 buckets by Payne and Allengarten and a foul shot by Lowenstein. Cervasio then sank 2 free throws for Belleville, but Columbia's 6'8" Novic hit from the line. The first period ended 13-7 Columbia.

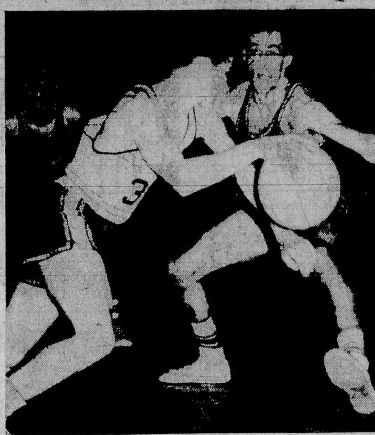

The Bellboys only scored one foul shot in the second quarter and that was by Freshman Ken Fulmore. The Cougars hit 4 free throws, 2 from the outside and 3 buckets from underneath.

Belleville did well in the second half when they scored 19 points to the visitors 22. Luongo, started the third quarter for Columbia, but then Alternagarten scored two free throws and two dunks from the corner. Rush went underneath and swished two points for Belleville's Feldman, Payne and Novic travelled off a few quick buckets for Columbia, but Tomaszewski, Hatch and Lolo stayed in the game.

Belleville hit 11 for 17 foul shots in the last period, one by Luongo, Rush and Fulmore, two by Harmon and Frank Ray and four by Bob Byers. The rest of the fourth period scores were made on field goals by Cervasio, Tomaszewski, Byers and Harmon.

Columbia had scored 8 field goals and 4 free throws in the final minutes. Kempier hit the ninth field goal and the game ended 62-37, Columbia.

A Fast Game

Ronnie Tomaszewski, the dribbling Bellboy, makes a fast play around one end during the Friday night game against Columbia High School. The team dropped another game in a season notable for its losses despite good coaching and a fine team spirit.

Grappling Class

Coach Stanley Scher, standing at right, gives his Bellboy's some of the finer points of grappling during a demonstration at the High School last week. The Belleville squad is new to the game of pinning an opponent, but, despite losses so far this season, they may have the making of champions next year.

Belleville District 'Agent For '62' Named

C. Robert Statnick, 335 Osborne Terrace, Newark, has been named Prudential Insurance Co.'s leading Belleville District Agent for 1962.

Statnick's achievement was announced today by L. J. Giganti, head of the district. He said Statnick's total sales of $410,000 of all types of Prudential Insurance, with annual premiums of $9,500, topped those of all other agents in the Belleville district.

Statnick has been a member of Prudential's Belleville staff since February 1962.

Architects Will Meet February 5 in Madison

The Suburban Society of Architects will meet February 5 at the Bottle Hill restaurant in Madison.

A discussion will be on the relationship of mortgage banking and financing to the challenges of the architect. Arthur G. Pulis, Jr., president, and William F. Haas, vice president of the Franklin Capital Corp., of Newark, will be the guest speakers.

Michael A. Trotta of Belleville is president of the Society. The SSA is one of nine regional chapters of the New Jersey Society of Architects with headquarters at East Orange. Its members include practicing architects and men in the architectural field, living or working in the counties of Morris, Essex, Hunterdon, Union and Warren.

Over 6,000 New Jersey Bell operators serve almost 2,000,000 customers.

Precision work at Western Electric's Kearny Works. Many types of communications equipment are made in Western's five New Jersey plants.

For a small state—a big role in American communications

The telephone industry has created more than 59,000 jobs for New Jersey people. It will spend $655 million here this year — for everything from stationery to satellites to satellite components. That's quite a boost to our state's prosperity. You might call it our most important by-product. Our main product, of course, the finest telephone service in the world.

SUBURBAN WOMEN
All eyes were on Ida Palanski last Thursday evening as she knocked down the pins for a terrific 586 series on games of 177-210-190, to lead her Kavanagh team in a clean sweep over Buick-Git.

Mencik's Market, sparked by Elaine Savino's 539, took Stamore's for three in a tight match while Betty Ross swept three from the Jetties.

In other matches, Le Fior took two from Brookdale Beverage; Allwood Pharmacy over Garlock Liquors; and Costa's Delicatessen won the add game from La Monica's.

Jean Collier continues to lead in the individual averages.

HOME FIRE DRILLS
Home fire rehearsals are necessary to a polished performance, in case occupants are called upon to exit out a real fire drama. Knowing exactly what to do, what escape routes to follow, is a "first safety measure" for every member of the family. Repeated home fire drills will help to minimize panic and make escape orderly and instinctive should fire strike suddenly.

BROWN AHEAD

S. W. Brown, Martindale, won two games from The Lounge, putting them one game ahead to take the lead in the Friday Nite Ladies Bowling League, which bowls at the Cardinal Lanes on Franklin Avenue in Nutley.

McGreedy's Tavern is in third place, having lost two games to Gallagher's Tavern. La Nor's Beauty Salon is tied for fourth place with Gallagher's Tavern, by taking two games from Bay's Drugs. Kohler's Sheet Metal Co. won two games from Belleville Lumber. Pat Narucki of Belleville Lumber hitting the only 500 series of the night on games of 196-169-153 to give her a 5W set.

The standings so far:

TEAMS	W	L
S. W. Brown, Martindale	35
The Lounge	34
McGreedy's Tavern	33
Gallagher's Tavern	32
La Nor's Beauty Salon	32
Belleville Lumber	27
Kohler's Sheet Metal Co.	24
Bay's Drugs	23

Marie Gorman, LN 152
Ida Hoveplan, BD 150
Clara Zamponi, SWB 149
Marie Kohler, KSM 146
Marge Hunter, TL 141

A peculiar coincidence is that the girls who are leading in the league with the highest average are the Captains of each team.

CYO LEAGUE

Holy Family and St. Anthony's are tied for first place in the Essex County CYO Junior Girls Bowling League. Holy Family's Jane Shiles (137), Pat Dimichino (136), and Carole Lardier (131) are holding down the top three positions in the individual scoring race.

St. Mary's trails St. Benedict's by two games in the Intermediate Boys League, but boasts the league's high average bowler in John Hudzik. Hudzik boosted his average to 187 with the week's high series of 587. Teammate Ray Wolff is sixth with a 163 average.

Senior Players Score A Hit

By MARIA CORINO

Belleville High School's 1962-63 basketball team portrays a fine group of highly selected boys. The team has four outstanding senior players. They are David Hatch, Steve Fox, Ray Harmon and Bob Byers. David Hatch, Belleville's key man, participates in varsity basketball and baseball. Most of his spare time is spent at Montclair YMCA where he practices basketball and swimming. David's comments on the team: "We better start playing defense. We haven't been working our defense as we should have. If we had the season could have been much better than it was." David also feels that Mr. Lo-Balbo is "the best coach any team could ever have." David hopes to go to college after graduation. Steve Fox, another attendant of Montclair YMCA, participates in varsity basketball, cross-country and track. His spare time

You Too?

By MARLISE JAMES

Worn out, tired expressions are prevalent around the school this week. Midterms are just a memory in the far distant past of two weeks ago. The tests that inevitably come at the end of a marking period are over and, just yesterday, report cards were distributed.

However, even with all the rush and studying over, the pulse of the school is still beating rather slowly and lazily. Enthusiasm for sports and other activities is dying down. The days before Spring vacation stretch endlessly ahead with only a few one-day holidays to break the chain. The blizzard everyone is hoping for refuses to come. Cough drop and tissue sales are up 90 per cent. People greet each other with sneezes instead of "Hello's." I don't care - this has set in.

What is the cause for this dread disease that strikes both good and bad students alike? Should antidotes for tired blood be put in the cough drops sold in the cafeteria? No, the only cure for this condition is a mental one. Everyone must concentrate on doing their best in work and extra-curriculars. Everyone must convince themselves that they do care what happens in the school and to the school. Everyone must look ahead to the spring and the whole new vistas that open up soon. For the sports minded there is track, crew, baseball, and golf. For the school-minded, there is the band concert, the senior play, sports awards and the Spring Concert. For the upperclassmen, there is honor society tapping. For seniors there is graduation.

Yet, we must realize that to make all these good things in the future really good and enjoyable, we must work now. An hard work will bring the future so much closer quicker.

February 6 — The Freshman Basketball team, under the coaching of Mr. Petti, is scheduled to compete with the St. Benedict team. The Belleville team hopes to have another win to add to their record of five wins and three losses. The game will begin at four o'clock and be played in the Belleville-High gym.

February 8 — The basketball season will end this evening for Belleville Varsity and Junior Varsity teams under the coaching of Mr. A. Lo Balbo and Mr. Charles Travers. Belleville's teams will vie the South Side teams at the former's gym. The game will begin at seven o'clock. The teams hope to see a large crowd to encourage their endeavors.

The Freshman Basketball team will vie the Passaic freshman team on Friday directly after school at four o'clock. Passaic will be the host to Belleville's successful team.

February 9 — Belleville's Junior Varsity Wrestling team will have a match with St. Benedict's. The Belleville team, under the coaches Mr. S. Sher and Mr. P. Spera, will wrestle at eleven o'clock on Saturday morning. This is the last meet of the season.

The National Honor Society under president, Alan Berg will sponsor the annual Valentine's dance. The Student Council will be the co-sponsor to this dance. The group has decided to call the dance the "Sweetheart's Soiree." The dress will be semi-formal and there will be a band and refreshments to entertain the couples. The dance will be held in the girls gym from eight to eleven o'clock.

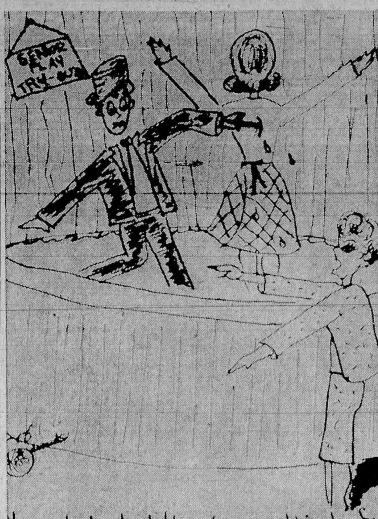

The students have worked hard making the necessary arrangements and posters to inform the student body. All are invited to enjoy what is sure to be an enjoyable evening.

Belleville High Welcomes Back An Old Friend

By PAULINA RUBINO

This year Belleville was happy to welcome back again a familiar face about the high school, that of Raymond O. Smith the principal of the school. It seems that the Belleville school system holds a certain attraction for Mr. Smith.

As a student, Belleville was his Alma Mater. Here he was active as president of the Student Council and also participated on the basketball, football, and tennis teams. Upon graduation from the University of Virginia, Mr. Smith returned to Belleville to teach in the seventh and eighth grades.

Then Mr. Smith again left Belleville to join the service, but after his discharge, he took a position teaching at the high school.

Within a short period of time he moved to a new position as head of the social studies department. Mr. Smith was also the assistant coach of the basketball, football, crew and tennis teams and adviser of the Spotlight.

He was then made vice-principal, but after two years he left Belleville to take a principalship in Manville High. He retained this position for three years. However, a strange twist of fate, Mr. Smith has again returned to Belleville as principal of the high school.

Mr. Smith's outside activities include the army reserve, in which he is a major, sports of any kind, and a stamp collection. In school new plans are being made constantly by him for the benefit of the student body.

Parkview House Leads In Twin Major League Play

Parkview House emerged champion last week after winning their sixth straight game over Sunrise Dairies, which put them ahead with an 81 record in the second half of the Olympic Twin Major League.

The victors were paced by Bob Powell's 23-604; Charles Messina's 566; and "Windy" Antonio's 562. Ted Zaleski, with 221-583, topped the Dairyman.

Local 410 and Cerrito Plumbets remained close runners-up with a 72 record by winning their matches with Olympic Bowl and Kearny Lanes.

High men among these four teams were: W. Levens, 225-616; Tony Cerrito 220-609; W. Carvahlo 205-590; and A. Watters with 224-578.

Another three-game winner was Rieca Five who defeated Manfria's All Butcher, Richie Sells' 204-600, and Ed Grifouli's winners while Ronnie Merritt was highman for the Butchers with 204-601.

Marty Hossann's 216-589 led 225-594, paved the way for the Seacurus Five to a 2-1 win over Masters' Fuel. Paul Bowles was top man for Masters with 214-605.

Andy's Short Shop tripped Binky's Tavern two games to one behind Joe Negra's 211-585.

Other two-game winners were Roseville Auto Body over Nick's Tavern, All Window Products over Porella Jewelers; and Koneck Photographers over Basile Five.

Some of the high individuals among these teams were: Ed Masters' 211-585; John Fusaro, 223; Pete Negro, 222; R. Predomski, 231; W. Ray, 231; B. Sweeney, 231; and A. Mirable, 213.

In part of the program he created his role in "South Pacific" and sang the ever popular "Some Enchanted Evening."

Middleton studied at the Juillard School of Music and has appeared at the Detroit Opera, and with the St. Louis Opera Company. He has toured as soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra after beginning his Broadway career in "Roberta," having been chosen for the part by the show's composer, the late Jerome Kern.

In motion pictures, he starred in "I Dream of Jeannie," and "The Man From Texas." He has appeared on TV in the "Ed Sullivan Show," and other major programs.

In radio, he starred in "Thy Kingdom Come," which was written by the Rector of Christ Church, the Rev. Frederick Long.

Scout College

The Council's "Winterers" for members of Explorer Posts, Air Squadsrons, and Sea Ships were held Saturday and Sunday, January 26 and 27 at the Camp Mohican, Blairstown.

Explorers will attend religious services in Blairstown and participate in skiing, skating, snowshoeing, coasting, ice fishing, archery and other Scouting skills.

Members of the Belleville District Committee and other Scout officials attended the annual Council Meeting at Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company Tuesday evening, January 25.

Many Services Available. In progress, construction was in 1962 on 10 more buildings. Another center for out-side work forces was started in Newark and central offices were now up in Bayville, Edison, Lambertville, Millington, and Piquette.

Central expansion is necessary, Wason said, "to provide more and better service now to the people of New Jersey and to prepare for future requirements of a growing population."

New Construction. Construction of nine buildings was completed in 1962. New central offices were built in Florence, Hopewell, Peapack, Pennington, Phillipsburg, Port Norris and White Horse. A head-quarters for outside work forces was built in Glassboro and a district office was constructed in New Brunswick.

More directly associated with the immediate telephone needs of New Jersey was the inauguration of a state-wide microwave relay system to expand long distance facilities and the introduction of compact switchboards for customers and other equipment which make the telephone easier and more efficient to use.

Closed-circuit television transmission to recognized educational institutions was offered in 1962. The service transmits television programs from studio to receiving locations. Studio equipment and receivers are provided by the customer.

Eastward Dialing. To make dialing easier and more accurate, two automatic dialing devices were offered to customers. The Card Dialer automatically dials a number by means of a punched card. The Rapid "remember" up to 260 numbers which are dialed automatically by selecting the desired party and pushing a button.

New Jersey Bell also introduced the new improved Electronic Secretary, an automatic telephone answering service. The Electronic Secretary answers the telephone with a recorded greeting and then records the message of the caller.

For persons with impaired hearing, the Company made available an improved handset with adjustable volume control.

New Jersey Bell also introduced the Key-Lite and the Telephone Console — compact desktop models which put a keyboard at the finger tips of an attendant. These advanced communications systems allow the attendant to connect outside calls to an extension, hold and transfer calls and set up night connections by pushbuttons.

They've Just Graduated

Clutching their newly-awarded "diplomas" are some of the 27 children who "graduated" from the Belleville Recreation Dept's Play and Pre-School program Friday morning. Mrs. Edna B. Verhagen conducted the 15 week course at the Recreation House at 407 Joramelon Street. They are Robert Osborne, Michael Barbone, Arthur Noble, David Boxer, Aaron Hersch, Thomas Mattucci, John Kaldy, John Sulzawak, Mitchell Zotzer, Eric Stavisky, Anthony Curtese and Nicholas Inaugurato.

Number of Belleville Phones Reaches An All-Time High

Scott Shepherd, manager of the local office of New Jersey Bell, has announced the number of main telephones in the Nutley Exchange (NO 1, 661, NO 7, 667) reached an all-time high of 10,400 on January 1, 1966. He said this represented an increase of about two per cent over the past year.

During 1962 Nutley, which already has one of the largest local calling areas in the state, had the Paterson exchange with over 50,000 subscribers added to its local calling area.

State-wide in 1962, the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. carried out the largest plant improvement program in its 35-year history, according to E. Hornsby Wasson, president.

The $107 million program for 1962 marked the third time the figure had exceeded $100 million. A similar output is expected in 1963.

"Continual expansion is necessary," Wasson said, "to provide more and better service now to the people of New Jersey and to prepare for future requirements of a growing population."

Latest In Ulcer Therapy

Robert Taylor of South Little Silver, N.J., is looking at a tray of food he hopes to eat now that he has received the latest in ulcer treatment at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. Nurses Nancy Rifenbush of Clifton and Mrs. Laurel Silies of 83 Liberty Avenue, Belleville, look on. Mr. Taylor is the first patient to undergo frozen therapy at the hospital. His stay at the hospital was just 3 days as compared to 14 to 21 days under the previous method.

She Pleads Ignorance. In sporadic attacks against her colleagues throughout the four hour long meeting, Mrs. McCool claimed a masculine wall of conspiracy kept her in ignorance of vital financial details which she felt was necessary to properly evaluate the validity of the architects' figures. Her main purpose, she cried, was economy.

On other resolutions on the agenda, Mrs. McCool also abstained, explaining that she must appear "consistent" after declining to OK the six contracts which would allow the school building program to proceed.

Her story of the board's refusal to allow her access to minutes and records fell apart when all other members agreed no such stumbling block had been placed in her search for knowledge.

But Gets No Support. Max Schwartz, who is counsel for the board, and who had supported Mrs. McCool in the past, pulled the rug from under her.

He "found it hard to accept her charge" that records had been denied her. Had he known of such discrimination against Mrs. McCool, he said, he would immediately have ordered the records to be made available to her.

"Bravo, Mrs. McCool!" said Arthur M. Pico, who characterized her feminine colleague as a "witch hunter." "She is a jack-of-all-trades, but master of none."

Lee M. Garson, a spokesman for the Citizens Tax Council and an avid critic of municipal proceedings, began a tirade against the awarding of contracts and directed his attack against architect Alfonso Alvarez, who had spent 18 months designing the school.

The high cost of construction, he shouted loudly, was the result of mistakes the architect made.

Alvarez immediately told Garson he had exceeded the bounds of fair comment during a public meeting, and would direct his attorney to file libel charges against Garson.

Citizens Observations. Garson, visibly chastened, fell back in his chair and said no more. Later, during a recess, Garson left the room trembling with fright.

A few citizens questioned the wisdom of utilizing less expensive material in the new school, but the board explained that transfers of furniture and equipment from the Junior high school would be made at a savings.

Even so, reported Dr. Durkee, some $226,604.87 would be spent for additional new equipment when the new school opens next year.

Summer Plans Are Being Made Early

Named were Dodd Carr, vice-president and personnel administrator; secretary, William C. Smith, assisted by Ben Grimm; Frank Merzand, treasurer; purchasing, Russ Stokes and C. Robert Horsfield; publicity, Ed Johnson and Emil Horak; maintenance, John A. B. Greulich and William Romeelie.

Camp Ro-Li, jointly operated by the Rotary and Lions Club and sponsored by The Belleville Foundation is a non-profit camp for any boy or girl between the ages of 8 through 13 years. Located at Glen Wild Lake, Bloomington, it is a half hour's drive from Nutley and Belleville. The camp will open this year for its 18th consecutive year of operation.

Accredited by the American Camping Association, Camp Ro-Li offers a wide range of camping activities for youngsters. Programs are under the personal supervision of competent co-directors and an experienced staff of counselors. It has developed, over a period of many years, an excellent camping experience for children.

A two-week stay at Camp Ro-Li is offered to boys or girls for $60. Well-balanced meals are planned by a dietician, American Red Cross water safety instructor. In charge of the waterfront: swimming, boating, cookouts, archery, riflery, treasure hunt, Indian lore, hiking, games and crafts are but a few of the many activities at the Camp for children.

Sundays, transportation is provided for its campers to attend church services at nearby Butler.
