

Here's The Little League Of Nations

"Segregation" is just a big word to these first-grade children in Mrs. Benedetto's classroom at Number One School in The Valley. Angered by the stories of racial discord in Belleville, Mrs. Viola H. Spray, principal at the school, said she had never had racial troubles in her school, which has the highest percentage of children of different nationalities. Among her students are Chinese, Puerto Rican, Negro, Cuban, and German. The class is taught by

Mrs. Benedetto, a pretty Italian-American. The photograph was taken by a full-blooded Pawnee Indian, the only "genuine American" in town. Council Adopts $1,981,808 Budget; Kills Planning Board

In a six-and-a-half hour long session Tuesday night the Belleville Town Council adopted a 1963 municipal budget of $1,981,808.33, killed the Planning Board, created a seven-member advisory board to replace it, and unanimously passed a resolution calling for the Newark News to prove its allegations of racial discrimination in Belleville.

The budget represented an increase of $19,172.09 over last year's budget and was, in the opinion of one councilman, "the best shake Belleville ever had." Board Is Killed

The Planning Board was killed in a resolution offered by Councilman James R. Golden over the objections of Board president C. Fred Buziari and several members of the audience who deplored the action which left Belleville without adequate planning for its future. The council immediately created a seven member "advisory" board committee to replace it by a 4-1 vote. Councilman Thomas Grecco abstaining.

Mayor Robert M. Laterza introduced a resolution in which he charged the Newark News reporter with a provocative at-

Negroes Live In 'Ghettos' Here?

An out-of-town member of the Congress on Racial Equality told Belleville Negroes here Sunday that they were living in "separate ghettos" and urged political activity to end segregation.

John C. Harvard, Elizabeth CORE member was guest speaker at Little Zion U.A.M.E. Church.

Last week he had charged Belleville with discriminatory housing. "Negroes," he said, "are not permitted to buy or rent a home north of Washington Avenue." (Washington Avenue runs north and south, there is no "north of" Washington Ave.) He said representatives of ten Belleville real estate agents "conceded" that homeowners practiced discrimination. Saturday a spokesman for the realtors denied making the statement.

Harvard also charged the Negro clergy with being derelict in leading Negroes seeking to better their lot. He claimed a disproportionate rate of the ghetto-discriminatory pattern of Negro life existed here after his attention was called to Belleville by Newark News articles.

Mention of segregated Negroes had been passed over, Harvard claimed, to avoid acknowledgment of an unpleasant situation that would amount to an indictment of the whole community and end Belleville's reputation for tolerance and respect for human dignity.

Shopping Center Opening Delayed By Homeowners

Belleville's newest shopping center at Jorammon Street and Franklin Avenue was temporarily stymied last week when some 35 residents objected to the proposed center.

Objections were laid around Barnett Lane, an access road on the west side of the proposed center, being used as an entrance road to the 13-business shopping center.

The Board of Adjustment reserved decision for the second time, announced Dominick A. Lally, president of the Board.

Russell Kramer, attorney for the Westlake-Belleville Inc., including storm sewers, garbage disposal and police protection, he would waive a claim on Barnett Lane in order to expedite construction. Harry Cox, president of the corporation, agreed with Kramer and said the delay of approval of its use would be more costly than waiting for permission to use the road.

It wasn't required for use in the new center anyway, he added.

Two groups of residents were opposed to the variance being granted. Both wanted certain improvements made in the design of the proposed center, including storm sewers, garbage disposal and police protection.

Four Arrested In Stolen Car

Two Massachusetts men and their teenage girl friends were arrested here early Sunday morning in a stolen Thunderbird after suspicious Belleville patrolmen found them parked at a local service.

The two girls, aged 15 and 16, were later released in their parents' custody.

The two men were being held for Massachusetts authorities charged with possession of a stolen car, said deputy chief Donald Smith Monday.

Police identified the pair as James S. Batchelder, 19, and his companion Kenneth Beauregard, 20, both of Marlboro, Mass. Patrolmen Arthur Fantacone and Frank Geringelli made the arrest after they decided the two young couples were acting suspiciously.

Paul Bernhardt, 184 Forest Street was denied a variance to construct a new two-family dwelling in an A zone.

Joseph Mastrandrea, 29 Nollon Street granted approval to convert a one-family home into a two-family home. Homeless was given as reason for the request.

Stanley Masluch, 47 Harrison Street, had his case deferred until the next meeting when his application for erecting a two-family dwelling in a business zone is heard.

Fred Verlingo, 145 Newark Avenue, had his case postponed after residents complained that a rear addition to his store at that address would attract undesirable juveniles.

Town Employees Kept A Close Watch On River

Department of Public Works men kept a close eye on the Third River near Fairway Avenue last week as heavy rain raised the level of the stream. "We didn't have to go out on it," said Ralph Vara, who heads the department.

The river had caused damage to basements in the area in the past due to flooding in the lower sections of Belleville.

Band To Perform For School 10 PTA Group

Dr. Samuel Peck, director of music in Belleville schools, will address members of School 10 PTA this evening at 8 p.m., during their regular meeting.

The "Baker's Dozen", a singing group, will perform. The High School dance band will furnish a musical program.

Narcotics Addict Found Unconscious

Frank A. Angelo, 23, was arrested and charged with the illegal use of drugs Saturday at 8 p.m. after police found him lying unconscious on the floor of a bathroom at 81 Clinton St.

He was later released on $500 bail for an appearance today March 14 in Municipal Court.

Police said they had received a call from an unidentified person reporting Angelo's condition, and requesting an ambulance.

He was taken to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital where hospital authorities said he was suffering from an overdose of narcotics.

Board To Meet

Belleville Board of Adjustment meets March 19 at Town Hall for its next session, said Dominick A. Lally, president. Balance of pending cases will be heard.

Belleville Man Hot-Foots It To Shore In A Marathon Reply To Walking Craze

Ted J. Davis, a 27-year-old Belleville resident and a technician at Newark Airport is the latest hiker in the Bunion Derby set off by President Kennedy's order for more physical activity by well-upholstered citizens.

Instead of losing a few pounds or a few inches by the 18-hour hike to Asbury Park, 60 miles south of here — Davis was afraid he might gain several inches in blisters. But such was not the case.

The intrepid Davis, who lives at 30 Crescent Terrace, and a friend Robert H. Glidden, 22, of Paterson, stepped off the corner of Broad and Market Streets in Newark at midnight February 18 and headed south.

Child Guidance Association To Meet Tuesday

Belleville Child Guidance Association will hold its regular meeting at 8 p.m., March 19 at the Belleville Woman's Club, 51 Rossmore Place, announced Mrs. Michael Albertine, president of the association.

A film will also be shown depicting the work of a guidance clinic from referral through treatment.

Anger, disbelief, and cries of outrage followed a series of articles appearing in The Newark News last week which depicted Belleville as a town beset by racial strife and stringent discrimination being practiced here.

"I intend to introduce a resolution during the council meeting Tuesday night calling for the Newark News to substantiate their allegations of discrimination in Belleville," he said indignantly.

Some of the principal objectors to the articles were Negro leaders in Belleville, who said there was no discrimination to the degree the articles indicated.

Russell G. Marston, president of the Board of Realtors for Glen Ridge, Nutley, Bloomfield, and Belleville said his statement, in answer to a telephone call by News reporter Kenneth G. Gross, had been "twisted entirely out of shape."

Statement Denied

"I didn't say they (homeowners) discriminated," said Marston. "It's against the law. We do not discriminate. I've told him before that whatever I tell him has a way of coming out backward."

An angry Councilman James R. Golden said his remarks had been distorted after reporter Gross called other councilmen inquiring about "integration" of the police and fire department. "We didn't call him—he called us," Golden said angrily. "Now look at the mess he's in. He made it up. He manufactured it."

"He will find it hard to get anything out of us from now on," said another councilman. "He looks for trouble."

Say No Discrimination

Mrs. Sarah Haines, 36 Newark Avenue, a technician at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital and representative of School Four PTA said "I can honestly say there has been no discrimination in Belleville." Mrs. Haines, a Negro, represents an all-white organization.

Insurance Man Identifies CD Man On Times Map Page

Norman H. Thompson, an insurance agent, said he has identified the man who was pictured in the Newark Times Map Page.

William Hunt, who was encircled in the photograph, is head of the Belleville Civil Defense unit.

"We work together in the radio group of the Civil Defense," Thompson said Tuesday. "I've known him for many years."

Firmans Insurance Co., at 302 Washington Avenue, for which he works, had long traded with the Crescent Press where the picture was taken, he said.

Thompson, who lives at 188 Hornblower Avenue, said he has subscribed to The Belleville Times for years. He will be given the $5 weekly award made out to the cooperating merchant.

A new contest is now under way. Be sure you follow the rules.

It's Time For Art At Public Library

You don't have to go to New York City to see the work of famous artists. There are many fine examples right here in Belleville. At the Public Library.

Belleville Public Library made this observation last week when announcing the acquisition of a number of new books on art, and its appreciation. Many are illustrated in color, said assistant director John R. Abram.

The interest of the American public in art, and especially in Belleville with the Cherry Blossom Painting Contest, sidewalk art shows and the many amateur and some professional painters, has been climbing in the past several years.

The works of Grandia Moses and former President Eisenhower, the importance of culture as encouraged by the Kennedys and now the visit to our shores of two famous women in the form of paintings The Mona Lisa and Whistler's Mother — all of these have made us an art conscious nation.

The Belleville Public Library has added a number of new and varied titles to the art collection. Many of these books have colored illustrations making them small masterpieces in themselves.

The library also has 56 framed reproductions to hang in your home, office, or school. These may be borrowed free of charge for 60 days with a 30-day renewal. Included are works of the old masters, French Impressionists and present day moderns. The interest and circulation of these reproductions has been very popular since this service was started more than a year ago.

A partial list of the new art books added to the library are: Chinese landscape painting by Sherman E. Lee. Through amazing colored plates and brief text we go back to the fifth-third centuries B. C. of this famous form of art. The unknown shore by Dore Ashton.

A highly readable commentary on the development of modern art in postwar America and Europe.

Art and the spirit of man by Rene Huyghe. Using 324 illustrations the author discusses the artists means of communication to the viewer through the use of line, space, color, light, subject matter and motifs.

Art and architecture in Europe by Antonin Matejcek. A clear and logical summary of the evolution of art forms in Europe over a time-span of some 200 centuries. (800 illustrations).

Abstract painting by Michel Seuphor. Fifty years of accomplishment from Kandinsky to the present and illustrated with 530 reproductions—382 in full color.

and white descent said, "As long as I've lived in Belleville, I've never heard of discrimination here." Mrs. Smith, a Negro, was recently lauded by her fellow townsmen for her devotion to Belleville's homeless children.

A dissenting voice came from Mrs. Natalie Dickinson, 68 Mill Street, who heads the Colored Women's Welfare Council. She said her efforts to obtain a home on Roosevelt Avenue had been fruitless after she told the advertiser that she was colored.

Housing is a Problem
"I tell them I was colored to save myself from being hurt later on," she said. In each instance, she reported, the party replied "I'm sorry, it's not for Negroes."

Mrs. Dickinson said most of the discrimination was in housing. She said she had applied at the high school for employment, but had heard nothing since.

Dr. Frank M. Durkee, Schools Superintendent who handles all personnel, said there were now no Negroes in the school system with the exception of a high school teacher. There are none on the waiting list for employment. Even so, he remarked Friday, "it wasn't through design, it just turned out that way."

Integration Is Good Here
Gordon F. Adams, a full-blooded Pawnee Indian and editor of The Belleville Times, took this view. "It is unfortunate that we have this social defect in human nature; but here in Belleville minority groups are far better off than in towns such as Englewood and Newark. Look at lower Jersey City." He found the adverse reports greatly magnified.

Mrs. Viola H. Spray, principal at School Number One, said her school, which has the highest percentage of non-white children in the school system, had never had racial difficulty. "I have never," Mrs. Spray said indignantly, "I have NEVER had that kind of trouble here!" She said Negro parents had called to see what the story was all about. Some of her most ardent PTA members are Negroes, she said with quiet pride.

No Serious Threat
Gilbert Stout, 5 Terrace Place, a town employee for the past 14 years, also took up the defense of his hometown.

"It's not a serious threat!" he said. "I've gone through every grade here and there's no discrimination as far as I'm concerned." Stout is also a Negro who has spent a lifetime in and about Belleville.

Rev. Henderson H. Goldston, Negro pastor of the Second Baptist Church at 32 Academy Street detected a "hidden discrimination" in Belleville. "There is a limited amount in Belleville," he said Sunday afternoon. But he said there was by no means a vicious anti-Negro feeling here.

"Those articles were way out of bounds," declared Seymour Grossman, superintendent at School 7. "It just isn't so. Nobody even THINKS about it here. It's been manufactured."

Grossman headed the Brotherhood Week observation here last year.

Employers Hire Negroes
Clara Mass Memorial Hospital, a non-profit organization, is perhaps the largest employer of Negroes in Belleville where they are in positions ranging from kitchen helpers to physicians, with a liberal sprinkling of college graduates in between. There is no discrimination here," said Harold Whitman, Public Relations Director at the hospital.

Theo M. Wells, 13 Quinton Street, Negro member of the Belleville Planning Board, said the greatest fault was in housing. "I regret to say it, but experience indicates that." However, he added, the present turmoil wasn't the result of action by my people."

YOU AND YOUR INSURANCE

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

RETAIL STORE PACKAGE POLICIES ARE AVAILABLE

"I have a 'homeowners package' policy, which covers my house. 'Can I,' a reader asks, "get a similar policy to protect my dry goods store?"

Yes, a new special multi-peril insurance program for retail stores is currently available in most states. These package policies result in insurance savings of about 15 per cent compared with the cost of the same coverages purchased under separate insurance policies.

Under the new program, there are three "package" coverages available to retail establishments.

One is a policy covering business personal property contained in a retail store and auxiliary warehouses, protecting it from loss by fire, lightning, windstorm, hail, explosion, smoke, vehicles or aircraft, and riot.

The package also provides the policyholder with liability coverage, and, for an additional premium, he can obtain coverage against the risks of burglary, sprinkler leakage, and vandalism, as well as business interruption, and loss of rents. The second package broadens the basic policy. It includes coverage against collapse, falling objects, weight of ice, snow or sleet, sprinkler leakage, vandalism and malicious mischief, premises burglary and robbery and limited off-premises and transportation.

The third "package" provides the retail establishment with "all risk" coverage, which means all perils except those specifically excluded under the policy are covered. For more complete information about this form of insurance contact your independent insurance agent.

Kidde Announces New Type Of Fire Extinguishing Unit

Quick action extinguishing for Class A fires in paper, wood and cloth is offered by the new 2½-gallon pressurized water - anti-freeze extingisher by Walter Kidde & Company, Belleville.

A squeeze-handle unit, the portable extingisher kills fires with a highly effective 30 - 40 - foot stream of clear water. When placed at low temperature locations it is filled with a loaded stream anti-freeze solution. This eliminates the handling of acid bottles as in the case of soda-acid extinguishers and also gives it some effectiveness on Class B fires in flammable liquids.

Stainless steel construction and easy recharging with pressurized air or nitrogen make maintenance a simple, infrequent procedure. A pressure gauge shows operating readiness at a glance. The new extingisher is rated at 2-A by Underwriters' Laboratories and is listed by Factory Mutual Laboratories.

Lynch Launches War On Parkway's Toll Proposal

Assemblyman Richard A. Lynch (D. Essex) has declared war on what he calls the Garden State Parkway's "breach of promise" to the residents of Essex County.

Lynch has introduced in the Legislature Assembly Bill A-276 to provide free entrance and exit at the Hoover Avenue, Bloomfield Avenue, and Liberty Street ramps to the Garden State Parkway and thus, "compel the Parkway officials to live up to, at least partially, to their promise of 1952 to provide free rides between the Passaic County and Union County lines."

Lynch cited two major reasons in support of his Bill. The first is to remove the discrimination against Essex County riders on the Parkway who now pay an average of 3 cents a mile while drivers in the Southern counties only pay one cent. Permitting free entrance and exit at Hoover Avenue will help equalize matters. The proposal to add an additional 10 cent fee within Essex County was termed an outrage by Lynch. The second is to ease the congestion and eliminate the traffic hazards existing at the Bloomfield Avenue ramp, the last free northbound exit from the Parkway in Essex County.

Since the Parkway has opened, 156 accidents involving 80 injuries, have occurred at Bloomfield Avenue, when motorists jockey to beat the bumper to bumper traffic existing at that intersection. Lynch branded the proposal to close the Bloomfield Avenue ramps and to locate the ramps at Liberty Street or elsewhere as ridiculous and a wanton waste of Parkway money.

If made toll free, Belleville and Nutley motorists will use the Hoover Avenue ramps which will relieve the traffic pressure at Bloomfield Avenue.

"This can be accomplished in a simple and inexpensive way by using the extreme right hand lanes at the Belleville Avenue Toll Trap, he maintains.

"The motorists of Essex County," Lynch concluded, "have received grossly unfair treatment from the Parkway Authority from the inception. Even now, the Parkway is talking of eliminating so-called 'free riders' of Essex County, despite the fact that to gain a favorable vote for the referendum in Essex County, one of the principal functions of the Parkway, it was promised, was to facilitate our North-South intra-county traffic."

Community Welfare Council Elects Bernstein Chairman

The Belleville Community Welfare Council has elected Alan H. Bernstein of 317 Branch Brook Drive as chairman and Mrs. Victor L. Hart of 118 Crest Drive and George Mitchell of 149 Academy Street as vice-chairmen. Bernstein, Mrs. Hart and Horace D. Baldwin of 180 Malone Avenue were also elected to the Board of Trustees of the Welfare Federation of Newark, which conducts the annual United Appeals campaign.

The Council members unanimously approved the retention of the Town's Planning Board.

"Only through a Planning Board" said Bernstein, "can we replace stagnation and decay with growth. The industrial development of the Newark meadowlands will bring thousands of workers into this area. They will seek good homes, good schools and good health facilities, which we are not fully prepared to offer at this time."

U.S. Testing Quality Seal

A new seal of approval, the emblem of a recently formed New Jersey company, will soon be reassuring consumers throughout the nation that the products they buy come up to rigid standards.

The Seal of Quality, on packages and in advertising, will indicate that the products have been tested and certified by the Nationwide Consumer Testing Institute, Inc., a company that employs several hundred scientists, engineers and technicians from the North Jersey area.

Formation of NCTI was announced recently by A. L. Brasell, president of United States Testing Company, Inc. The new consumer-oriented subsidiary of U. S. Testing will enable the parent company to concentrate on confidential research and testing programs for industry and government.

U. S. Testing has been a leader in the testing field since 1889 and now has laboratories in eight cities across the country. Both

U. S. Testing and NCTI have headquarters at 1415 Park Avenue, Hoboken.

Mr. Brasell said Nationwide Consumer Testing Institute would permit use of its seal on consumer products found by testing to be of high quality. The Institute continually checks on the products, examining some purchased in stores and inspecting others on the production line.

In addition to testing construction, materials and performance of products, the Institute will provide manufacturers with reports on product acceptance, human engineering, and the effectiveness of their advertising.

The Institute will publish a quarterly journal entitled "EVALUATION." Written and edited by experts in education, science, government, and business, the publication will be devoted to the improvement of testing techniques and thus, improvement in the quality of consumer products.

Officers of the Testing Institute are Mr. Brasell of Essex Falls, president; H. M. Block of Denerville, vice president; and Stuart B. Walker of Ridgewood, secretary-treasurer.

Strife Where There Is No Strife

The ugly monster of racial discord raised its head over Belleville last week—the direct result of a series of articles appearing in a Newark newspaper and written by Kenneth Gross.

The issue of racial differences have never drawn the attention of Town Fathers, educators, police, or other public officials. Our small Negro population here has always lived peacefully, safe from riots, boycotts, and other manifestations of both real and imaginary racial inequality. Now an issue has been provoked where formerly there was none.

In an effort to bury this ghastly specter Negro leaders themselves have driven the strongest nail in the coffin. They say there is no discrimination in Belleville. And what there is, is by no means comparable to Mississippi's own peculiar brand.

Negroes are on the Town Planning Board; one is a PTA representative for School Four, predominantly white in character; one teaches at Belleville High School; others are on the public payroll as municipal employees; while still others are employed as school crossing guards.

But to say there is absolutely no discrimination here would be absurd. It is a holdover from the dark days of ignorance, bigotry, and intolerance. We have always had these holler-than-thou hypocrites who tacitly approve segregation, and perhaps always will. It is against the law to practice discrimination; but you can't legislate ignorance out of the human mind.

There is the remark that Negroes are "kept" in The Valley. It is true that Belleville's heaviest Negro population makes its home there. But next door are Irish families, Puerto Ricans, Jewish, German, newly arrived Cubans, all living in gentle harmony. They are uncomplaining. Are they being "kept" in racial bondage? No. It is not a ghetto. It could be preference that keeps them there. Perhaps it fits their financial needs. It is entirely possible they never even thought they were down-trodden. Until now.

It is to our great shame that two large industries in Belleville are known among our Negro citizens as places where they are persona non grata. To our credit is the fact that one Town Hall employee made a personal trip to a Negro home to notify him of his addition to the municipal payroll.

This essential social metamorphosis has progressed without a ripple here. To prod a sleeping monster into action could cause irreparable damage to our town, its people, and to its future.

Abe Had Words For It

Readers of this newspaper may recall a suggestion made several years ago that the nation's racial problems could be solved by bundling up the Negroes and dispatching them off to Africa — homeland of their ancestors. The idea is no more new than it is normal.

Both before and during the Civil War there were those who advanced in all seriousness and charity the proposition that Negroes would be happier if deported. There were even some projects to that end. But none of the proponents of that weird scheme ever could explain satisfactorily just why the Negroes, to the exclusion of whites, should be chosen for such arbitrary displacement. All were — and are — immigrants or descendants of immigrants.

But later one distinguished American, in discussing the question of Negro and other minority rights, once proposed another type of emigration. Abraham Lincoln wrote to a friend in August, 1855: "Our progress in degeneracy appears to me to be pretty rapid. As a nation we began by declaring that 'All men are created equal.' Now we practically read 'all men are created equal, except Negroes.' When the Know-Nothings get control, it will read 'all men are created equal except Negroes, foreigners and Catholics.' When it comes to this, I shall prefer emigration to some country where they make no pretense of loving liberty — to Russia, for instance, where despotism can be taken pure, and without the base alloy of hypocrisy."

The only Real Americans in Belleville are the American Indians. And there are claims that even they migrated to this country from Asia via the Aleutian chain many centuries ago. Perhaps we're ALL a bunch of darned foreigners.

Donal C. Fox

Since 1955 Donal C. Fox of South Orange has represented the people of Essex County in the New Jersey Senate. Elected as a Democrat, Fox nevertheless kept his campaign promise and for seven years served in the New Jersey Senate on a strictly non-partisan basis.

Fox is an unusual public official. He keeps his promises. He refused to permit his senate office to become a chattel of the Essex Democrat party — or its political boss. His independence and integrity cost him renomination and certain reelection to the Senate seat he has so capably filled during these troublesome times. Failure to win renomination at the hands of the political hacks who ignored his service to the people is a cheap price for Fox to pay to retain his unblemished reputation.

In private life Senator Fox is a very competent, successful attorney.

Fox retires from office — voluntarily and temporarily — enjoying the respect and confidence of the citizens who had the good fortune to be served by him.

Impeccably honest during his entire seven years in the New Jersey Senate, Fox refused to compromise his principles for personal profits. Fox's record in office will stand as a living memorial to his personal integrity. The sad fact is that we have too few men of Fox's competence and personal integrity in public office today.

Senator Fox is one of the reasons why New Jersey race track promoters have been unable to see the fulfillment of their plans to construct a race track in the Secaucus meadows. Early in his campaigning days Fox took a strong position against a North Jersey race track — and he has steadfastly maintained that position. It is a well known fact that the political bosses want a track in the Secaucus meadows.

During his seven years in the New Jersey Senate, Fox compiled an imposing record:

Fox opposed the punitive "Independent Voters Bill" which would have restricted citizens from seeking office at November elections as Independent candidates.

Fox co-authored the Fox-Lance Urban Renewal Bill which stimulated vast apartment housing projects in the big cities, thus indirectly decreasing the suburban communities' county tax contributions by reason of increased city assessments. This legislation serves as a model and has been copied by other states across the nation.

Fox led the fight to enact narcotics reform bills.

Fox led the fight for a depressed East-West Freeway.

Fox kept the judiciary beyond the reach of the politician's hand by recommending highly qualified lawyers for appointment to the bench and in the office of Prosecutor.

Fox has been a champion of aid to the mentally ill.

Fox has been in the forefront in the daily battles to provide our children with better education. State Aid to Education has been one of Fox's chief interests. In 1960 Fox was cited by the New Jersey Education Association as the Senator who did the most for education. Fox received the organization's "Outstanding Legislator" award that year.

Fox's list of accomplishments in office seems endless.

There is only one simple reason why Fox failed to receive the support of the "screening committee" which denied him the Democrat nomination — Fox refused to be a "yes man" to Essex County Democrat Chairman Dennis-Carey.

We think Carey erred in denying Fox renomination to the Senate seat in which he served so well for seven long years. We think Carey's action has created a serious problem for the Democrat candidates come the November election. Maybe Carey is gambling that the public has a short memory — and maybe he is right. Time will tell. Meanwhile we are confident we express the sentiments of our readers when we say to Senator Fox — thanks for a job well done — better for you to retain your reputation than your office.

ITT Awarded $4.5 Million Contract

NEW YORK — A contract for over $4.5 million to supply advanced air navigation equipment has been awarded to ITT Federal Laboratories, Nutley, N. J., a division of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

According to Leon Himmel, vice president, Avionics, at ITT Federal Laboratories, the award from the U. S. Navy Bureau of Ships calls for ITTEL to develop and manufacture units of a new Tacan (tactical air navigation) radio navigation equipment for shipboard operation.

The advanced equipment, designated the AN-UR-20, is a new generation of shipboard Tacan employing the latest solid state engineering techniques which will significantly reduce the number of vacuum tubes in the sets.

The new Tacan Radio sets will consist of three principal units, an antenna, transponder (receiver-transmitter) beacon, and a test, monitor, and control unit, the latter designed to continuously check out the equipment's operating performance.

Developed for the U. S. military by ITT Federal Laboratories, the Tacan system provides aircraft with continuous distance and bearing information from a shipboard or land-based beacon. Tacan is the standard U. S. short range air navigation system and is operational with the U. S. Air Force and Navy. The distance portion of Tacan is standard with the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), an aviation agency of the United Nations.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

We are in the process of extensive remodeling and enlarging our store. Preliminary work has been done already. In a short time we have to clear the floors for the contractor. This means we have to dispose of the merchandise presently on display.

It is well enough known that everything can be sold if the price is right. We think the greatly reduced prices will make our TV and Hi-Fi sets sell fast.

The reason for the price reduction is simply this: Instead of waiting until the inevitable dust makes the sets look shabby, and then sell them cheaper, we prefer to sell them now while they are in perfect condition.

Walls will be removed, beams have to be put in and the place will be a mess for a few days with dust flying around and settling everywhere. But that can't be avoided. It has to get worse before it will get better. Afterwards we will have much more room and a better looking store to display merchandise properly. Our service department will be streamlined for even more efficient operation to service our customers better.

This sale won't last long. The contractor has to start working inside soon. If you need a new TV, Hi-Fi or color set or if you want to buy an organ, you can save a good deal of money during the next few days. Needless to say that everything is our regular stock and carries the usual guarantee and service.

We Service What We Sell.

Pound for pound, potatoes usually are the most economical food on the U. S. market most months. An acre of potatoes can produce a larger tonnage of food than an acre devoted to any other food production. Also potatoes are relatively easy to handle, store and ship.

PARSNIP SWEETNESS

The parsnip is strictly a winter and early spring vegetable for it takes about two weeks exposure to near-freezing temperature to change its starch to sugar.

Some hamburger stands keep a bowl of parsley sprigs on the cashier's desk. Nibbling-parsley is said to do away with the odor of raw onion which often accompanies hamburger.

Rutabagas should be firm, fairly smooth, with few flat scars around the crown and very few fibrous roots at the base.

Model UN Plans Well Underway

By MARLISE JAMES

The ten students chosen to represent Belleville High in the East Coast Model U.N. are working to prepare for this project which will take place April 4, 5 and 6 in Wilmington, Del. According to Miss Marilyn Chichester, faculty adviser, the model U.N. is designed to teach interested students as much as possible about the workings of the real United Nations.

Belleville High is representing the delegation from Italy and a student has been chosen to serve on every committee that delegates from Italy are on. Each student has had to draw up two resolutions that will be sent to the committee that organizes this project.

This committee will then choose the best resolutions for each committee from those submitted, and these are the ones that will be discussed during the meetings.

Everyone working on this project had to take a test on the U.N. Thursday, March 7. They will also take a trip to the U.N. and will speak to a delegate from Italy sometime before the project begins.

The students chosen to take part are Judy Underwood, Camille Simini, Arthur Asantes, Angela Maculoso and Marlise James.

Also participating are Barbara Meola, Joann Torco, Michael Lukow, Ralph Casale, and Ronald Kapurano.

Alternates are Dolores Rodriquez, Harry Dunn, James Fogarty and John Peslak.

By SUSAN WALTERS

Charles Connolly is student band director for the Belleville High School Band. This is a position to which a senior member of the band is picked each year. Mr. Ned Troutman, band master, makes the selection. As student director, Charles takes charge of the band in the absence of the director. He conducts one number during the annual band concert and gives advice to the other band members when he can. To be chosen student director, the band master has to recognize qualities of leadership, responsibility, and musical talent in the person he selects.

Charles' interests include playing the oboe, clarinet and alto sax; following international automobile racing; and deer hunting. The future includes furthering his education at Villanova University, where he hopes to keep up his musical activities. At present, Charles is awaiting a decision on the granting of an ROTC scholarship with which he will have all his expenses paid by the U. S. Navy. During his four years at college the Navy will train him to be an officer.

By RAY FERSKO

Head basketball coach Al Lo Balbo has announced there will be an All Star basketball game on Wednesday, March 20, at 7 p.m. in the Belleville High School gymnasium.

The teams are made up of eighth graders from the Belleville School System. The two teams, which will be coached by Charles Travers and Nicholas Petti, contain the town's outstanding grammar school students. The boys have been assimilated into two squads, according to their potential and native ability.

The game will be supervised by Belleville Athletic Director Herman Wische and Coach Lo Balbo. There will be awards and trophies furnished to members of both squads and all spectators will be welcome for this event. This game is part of Belleville's abounding new basketball program. The boys who will be playing have been working very hard in the Saturday morning basketball clinic at the high school. At the beginning of the season, when the clinic first started, the boys barely had any basketball background. However, under the tutelage of Coach Lo Balbo and Mr. Wische, the boys learned the fundamentals of the game and are beginning to develop a strong intensive interest in the sport and are starting to show some real promise.

The boys who will play in this game are Joe Wadoloski, James Catalano, Tom Gialanella, Doug Cheney, Rich San Filippo, Gordon Potis, Mike Butkus, Arthur Godfrey, Lou Giacomini, Steve Cerca, John Picco, Glen Lillie, Pete Greco, Tom Oese, Art Sheridan, Joel Pisano, Frank Esposito, Dan Burns, Norm Wells, Mario Gabrieli and Dom Mallory.

SPRING SPORTS

The initial meetings of the spring sports have taken place and the wheels are turning under the able direction of three ambitious young coaches. The track team, which is coached by Tom Testa and his assistant, Pat Forte met last Tuesday. The team elected their captains and made two excellent choices as they picked mile-runner, Jim Harvey and hurdler Chris Lepera. It is interesting to note that both boys are A students and outstanding in their own fields, particularly Harvey, who placed third in this year's state indoor meet and paced only 15 seconds off the state mile record in his junior year.

Head Coach Stan Scher met with the crew candidates on March 5, and captains were picked. They are Ray Morrison and Jim Bade. Both boys proved their merit last year as they rowed varsity and were junior oarsmen in the eight-man shell sent to the Nationals. Bade has also started varsity football for the past two years and is active in school affairs. Morrison, sports editor of the High School newspaper, has also maintained an A average for the past four years.

Last, but not least, is baseball. Under the direction of Nick Petti, an excellent man in the field who has proven his ability as an outstanding coach, Belleville is making great strides in a rejuvenated baseball program. Mr. Petti will be assisted by Charles Travers and Pete Spera.

WRESTLING AND BASKETBALL INTRAMURALS

Watch for the results of the wrestling and basketball intramurals, story of March 20th's all star game, the inside pictures of Spring Sports, and the progress made to date.

Congratulations to the faculty of Belleville High for Friday's "fine" exhibition of basketball. The score, Faculty 28, Students 21.

RECREATION-KIWANIS JUNIOR BOWLING

The Colony Club still leads the boys division of Recreation-Kiwanis Junior Bowling holding its six frame margin over Tiber Hardware. Six games behind Tiber Hardware is Laterza Drugs, all of which leaves the winning of this league much in question.

RECREATION-KIWANIS JUNIOR BOWLING

In the girls division of the Recreation-Kiwanis Junior Bowling League, the Branch Brook Lanes team continues to set the pace with a 15-game lead over the second place Olympic Bowl team. Although Branch Brook seems to be secure in first place there is a mighty battle waging for second place honors. Lined up tight behind Olympic are the Pantry, Crescent Press, and Belleville Times.

Belleville Times, now in fifth place, is only 2½ games out of second. Even sixth place Rose Reilly Agency and seventh place American Legion 105 are still threats to that second place spot. Only last place Jolly Cleaners, plagued by absences, seems to be out of the running.

RECREATION-KIWANIS JUNIOR BOWLING

DeBacco Brothers Sport Shop has put on a steady effort for the last few weeks and has moved into the lead in the Recreation-Kiwanis Junior Bowling at Branch Brook Lanes. The DeBacco boys have climbed four games in two weeks to displace Sale's Barber Shop.

As this league moves into its closing stages the intensity of the competition is indicated by the fact that the top five teams are separated by one game each with the fifth place Pariso Brothers only four games out of the lead.

Louaies Men's Shop has climbed from fourth to third place and Henris Dinet has followed them, moving from fifth to fourth. Basile of Pariso Brothers still holds the High Game High Score.

Three Are Elected To Welfare Council

Alan H. Bernstein was elected chairman of the Belleville Community Welfare Council March 5. Mrs. Victor L. Hart and George Mitchell were elected vice-chairmen.

Together with Horace D. Baldwin, the two were elected to the Board of Trustees of the Welfare Federation of Newark which conducts the annual United Appeals campaign.

INTERNAL REVENUE TO MERGE DISTRICTS

Administrative changes expected to save an estimated five million dollars a year in Internal Revenue Service operations will result in the expansion of the Newark District next January 1 to include the area presently serviced by the Camden District. Local District Director Frank S. Turbell, Jr., said these are essentially "behind the scenes" changes and will result in improved service to taxpayers in both areas.

Consider Contributions When Claiming Federal Tax Deductions

Contributions to qualified organizations are deductible. If you claim deductions on your federal income tax return, Frank S.
Turbett, Jr., Director of Internal Revenue for the Newark District, said this week.

He said deductible contributions include gifts to domestic religious, charitable, educational, scientific, or literary organizations, and organizations for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals.

Gifts to domestic war veterans' organizations, or to government organizations, are deductible if used exclusively for public purposes.
So also are gifts to fraternal organizations, if used for charitable, religious, or other purposes already listed, the District Director added.

You cannot deduct dues or other payments to an organization for which you are entitled to receive a personal benefit.

Gifts of property are deducible in the amount of the fair market value of the property at the time of contribution.

Certain State and Local Taxes Deductible Frank Turbett Says

You may deduct certain state and local taxes on Federal income tax returns, Frank S. Tur-bett, Jr., Director of Internal Revenue for the Newark District, said this week.

He explained: If you elect to itemize your deductions, you can deduct personal property taxes, state income taxes, and real estate taxes. You can also deduct state or local sales taxes. Although no such taxes are imposed within the Newark District, some few taxpayers can deduct sales taxes paid to New York City. The New Jersey state gasoline tax is deductible as is also the cost of automobile license and registration fees.

If you had state income taxes withheld from your salary, or if you made estimated state income tax payments, you can deduct the amounts for the year in which withheld or paid.

Taxpayers with questions about deducting State and local taxes may get Document 5075, "Taxes," from any local Internal Revenue Service office.

divisions. The net and gross divided 2438 scratch and, aided by a 348-pin handicap, totaled 2781 pins to lead the gross event.

assisted by a 327-pin handicap, grossed 2668 pins.

Special Rules Apply To Deductions For Medical Expenses

Special rules apply to deductions for medical and dental expenses on Federal income tax returns, Frank S. Turbett, Jr., Director of Internal Revenue for the Newark District, said this week.

Deductible expenses include amounts paid for diagnosis, prevention, cure, correction or treatment of a physical or mental defect or illness, and for ordinary transportation necessary to get medical care, he explained.

Payments for doctor, dentist, nurse and hospital bills, and payments for eyeglasses, artificial teeth, hearing aids, medical or surgical appliances, braces, X-ray examinations or treatments, and premiums for hospital and medical insurance are deducible.

The cost of medicines and drugs is deductible as medical expense only in the amount it exceeds one per cent of the taxpayer's income reported on line 9, page 1 of Form 1040, regardless of his age.

You cannot deduct payments for funeral expenses, cemetery plots, illegal operations and illegal drugs, life insurance premiums, travel for a rest or change or the portion of premiums paid for health and accident policies covering loss of earnings.

We, the Pageant Committee, extend to you an invitation to enter the Miss Cherry Blossom Pageant. In order to assure you that this Pageant will be staged with the highest standards of dignity and good taste, we offer the following information for your consideration:

I. Since it is our intention to enter the winner of this contest in The Essex County Miss America Pageant, we are conducting our Pageant according to the rules and regulations of the Miss America Pageant itself. It is our hope that, in the future, we may have Miss America living in our own hometown.

II. The main prizes to be awarded are as follows:

1st Prize: $500 Scholarship

2nd Prize: $250 Scholarship

3rd Prize: $125 Scholarship

There will be additional prizes for each of the ten finalists that will participate in the final judging. The merchants, businessmen, and other civic organizations have been most co-operative in donating the many prizes that will be awarded.

III. Approximately three weeks before the contest, the applicants will be interviewed by the panel of Judges in order to select 10 finalists. Entrants will be interviewed individually and will be asked a few general questions by the judges.

IV. On the night of the contest, the finalists will compete in three categories:

A. Evening Gown B. Talent C. Swimsuit

Do not let the idea of a talent competition frighten you. While talent does play a part in the Judging, it is by no means the determining factor.
