Retirement -- Who Needs It?

John R. Burnett, 59, placed his name at the head of municipal government in Belleville. At right stands Charles B. Tedesco, now deputy town manager, who held the fort at Town Hall while councilmen sought a new manager.

Last week, at the age of 59, John Rodney Burnett emerged from self-imposed retirement and re-entered the limelight of public life.

With over half a lifetime spent in municipal government, Burnett received the unanimous approval of Town Council over 23 other applicants who wanted to become the second town manager Belleville has ever had.

For 26 years he had been a part of nearby Newark's governing body, but nine months ago he became a political casualty when new leaders took over the reins of government there.

Finds Retirement Dull
He retired to the sandy shores of Normandy Beach and became a part-time tax consultant and appraiser. But the quiet life was not for him. He decided to make application for the town manager's position.

On April 8 at 10:45 p.m. he received a telephone call at his Normandy Beach home. It was from Charles B. Tedesco, acting town manager. "Come to Town Hall tomorrow night," Tedesco told him, "you're the new town manager."

The gruff-voiced, ruddy-faced Burnett was introduced by Mayor Robert M. Laterza as Belleville's next town manager. He was in.

His First Duty
At 9:15 a.m. April 10 Burnett officially took over his new duties, and before the ink was hardly dry on the papers making him town manager, he was off to the muddy site of new high school on a matter calling for his attention.

Since then he has been focusing his blue eyes on town personnel, examining records, and orienting himself to his new job. A normal routine for the town's

Retired Men's Club Mark A Seventh Anniversary Dinner

By WILLIAM HUNT

The Retired Men's Club of Belleville will hold their seventh annual anniversary dinner at noon Wednesday, April 24.

The date was set back one week, due to the Primary election April 16th, and the recreation room of Fawcett Presbyterian Church, where the banquet is to be held, will be used as a polling place, and the United Presbyterian Women's Association will not have access to it to prepare for the following day. As in the past, the women's group are doing the catering.

For the first time, this year an anonymous donor put up a dove prize. There is speculation as to whether it will be a cruise to the Caribbean, or to Hawaii, although some feel it may turn out to be a cordless electric shaver, which can be used anywhere, whether one's electric bill is paid or not. The entertainment this year is

It's The Dean's List For Richard Abbagli

Richard T. Abbagli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Abbagli, 21 Light Street, was among 697 students named to the dean's list for academic achievement at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, announced Dr. E. Harrell, dean of students. To make the list, a student must have maintained a three point average during the semester, the highest average a student may attain is four.

Richard is a graduate of Belleville High School.

Tax Office To Be Open Monday Evenings Now

Acting Town Manager, John R. Burnett, has directed that the Tax Collector's Office be opened for the receipt of tax payments every Monday night beginning on April 22, from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

These special hours are established for the convenience of those taxpayers who find it impossible to go to the Town Hall during the regular business hours between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. The tax office is closed Saturday and Sunday.

Monday is the only night in the week that the tax office will be opened.

Easter Sunday Apartment Fire Damages Homes

Fire badly damaged a four-family apartment house at 243 William Street Sunday afternoon when debris at the rear of the two-story building burst into flame.

Patrolman John Donnelly, who discovered the fire, shortly before 6:30 p.m., ran through the building banging on doors to warn occupants, but all four families were out on Easter visits.

Belleville firefighters quickly brought the blaze under control and prevented the spread of fire to adjoining homes.

All four families who returned home before midnight spent the remainder of the night with friends and relatives. There were no injuries. The first alarm, which brought four fire trucks to the scene, was described as a "brush fire," said Chief Carl Hunsicker.

The building has been known as Chap's Grocery store for many years before being converted to apartments. Living in the building were the families of Fred Seely, Albert Jacobson, Smith Brittingham, and Paul Pucci.

Honored

Nutley and Belleville residents sadly watched town officials lower the flag to half mast Monday as the two towns observed national mourning for the 129 seamen lost aboard the U.S. Submarine Thresher last week.

On Dean's List

Stephen Paul Berron, a pre-med student at Cornell University, College of Arts and Sciences, Ithaca New York, has been placed on the Dean's List for scholastic excellence during the fall term 1962.

He was a 1960 graduate of Belleville High School.

Beauty Pageant Slated For Friday At BHS Gym With 11 Contestants

Last minute plans were being rushed to completion today by harried Cherry Blossom officials who hurried about town checking final details of Belleville's annual three-day Cherry Blossom Festival.

Even the cherry blossoms in nearby Branch Brook Park cooperated by bursting out in full bloom over the weekend, and weathermen predicted a fair day for the parade down Washington Avenue.

Eleven finalists were selected by judges for the Miss Cherry Blossom Pageant being held Friday night at 8 p.m. at the High School auditorium, with over $800 in scholarships going to the beautiful winner of the event.

Festival Schedule

Scout Leaders Cite Activities During The Past Three Months

The quarterly report of Robert Treat Council for the three months ended March 31 lists a membership of 9,181 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult members, announced William H. Keith, president of the Council today.

Keith said that about 150 churches, synagogues, schools, PTAs, housing projects, clubs, civic organizations, and industries are now using the program for boys and young men from 8 to 17 years of age and up. They have charters for 236 Scout units.

In an effort to reach more boys, the Council is helping sponsoring organizations to form new units. An "organizers' meeting" will be held in the Plaza Building, Newark, of the Prudential Insurance Company Thursday evening, April 18. Representatives from the Belleville District will

Woman's Club Bands Together To Help Student Make A Trip

He Will Help Construct An African School

With a little bit of luck — and the generosity of Belleville residents — 20 year old Gilbert Sherman, a Sumner school teacher and a student at Rutgers University will soon be on his way to French West Africa.

Two weeks ago Sherman who lives at 244 Mill Street, made known his plans to make the trip as part of Operation Cross Roads Africa, an organization which is building a school for native students.

The project, begun two years ago, is still incomplete, said Gilbert recently. He, and four other students will make the trip and complete the job. But it takes money — $300 worth of it — and Gilbert Sherman finds himself financially embarrassed just now.

Woman's Club Helps

Last week a Belleville service organization, The Evening Membership Department of the Woman's Club decided to do something about it. They formed a

YOU AND YOUR INSURANCE

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

Careful Driving Can Cut Auto Maintenance Cost

For America's 63 million car owners, the cost of driving and maintaining an automobile is generally regarded as a fixed and inflexible expense. The fact is, however, that you can substantially reduce driving costs.

Studies show you now pay 12 cents per mile to operate your car, if you're average — and you probably are. By contrast, a group of 60 drivers recently covered an average of 23,000 miles in 12 months at a per mile cost of only 6.5 cents.

These men were field agents of the National Automobile Theft Bureau, an organization run by 350 insurance companies to prevent automobile theft and arson. What, you may wonder, do they know about driving that you don't?

While these men admittedly are trained drivers — most of them former highway patrol officers or ex-F.B.I. agents — their driving techniques can be easily adopted by any intelligent motorist.

Drive carefully, they advise. Careless and fast driving habits:

- Tend to increase motoring costs by wasting gasoline and wearing out tires.

- Cause accidents and needless damage.

- Wear out tires much faster. Squealing turns and sudden stops and starts can shorten the life of a tire by thousands of miles.

- Kill economy. A car traveling 70 miles an hour burns 25 per cent more gasoline than one going 60 m.p.h. For optimum economy, as well as safety, maintain an even speed. A driver who avoids a stop or near-stop saves gasoline that would otherwise be wasted regaining speed.

second highest executive.

Burnett comes to Belleville firmly entrenched in governmental methods. "If he can handle Newark," said one councilman, "he can handle Belleville."

The nearest he had ever been to the position of a town manager, he said, was when he was chief analyst for Newark.

An Amended Code
His salary will be $1,000 less than his predecessor, William A. Sommers, who had been paid $16,000 a year. Sommers, Belleville's first town manager, was ousted from office last December because of improper conduct while in office.

Burnett now makes his home at 17 Third Avenue in Normandy Beach, but he plans to move here as soon as he can find housing. "They (the council) have given me until Fall to make the move," he said.

The council also made other concessions for the transition. An amendment to the Municipal Code was approved removing the requirement that he be a member of the Town Managers Association.

Twice-married, Burnett is the father of two boys, one 19, the other 35. His wife of 22 years, Irene, is a former Nucley resident.

He is a career municipal employee with 36 years' experience — 23 on administrative and executive levels. He was chief analyst for Newark City Council, and director of revenue under Mayor Leo P. Carlin.

Cherry Blossoms

Jerry Nusbaum, a social columnist for over 50 years and a man who knows a round figure when he sees one, will also judge. He gained his experience by serving as judge during the recent Miss Irish-American Contest. He is a reporter for the Newark Star-Ledger.

Read The Rules

Rules governing the prizes awarded by cooperating merchants will be found on page 2 of today's Times. These merchants are identified by large white banners on store fronts reading "Cherry Blossom Festival."

Mrs. Arthur L. Tirico, an opera singer who has tutored such operatic luminaries as Cornell MacNeil, baritone with the Metropolitan Opera, and Christopher Lynch, a tenor with the Firestone Theater. She lives at 138 Ridgewood Avenue, Glen Ridge.

And Still More
Miss Ann Henry, a youth advisor for Bamberg's and a teacher of charm courses who lectures on fashion coordination. She is also director of operations of the "Desk Set Fashion Club."

Bruce Dieder, the official make up man for movie stars, and of late the make-up man for the Miss Universe Contest and the New York State Beauty Pageant. He's from New York City.

And Edward J. Carroll, chairman of the judges committee, Fred Devlin, general chairman of the Pageant, and Miss Vera Kettle, all of whom will serve as preliminary screening committee members. They selected the eleven finalists in American Legion Hall Sunday, April 7.

Another Band Enters
An added highlight to the event will be the appearance of the 70-member Drum and Bugle Corps supplied by Ballantine Dancers. There will be 33 seasoned musicians and a 17 man color-guard in the parade down Washington Avenue. The group is composed of former national drum and bugle champions.

A shiny new 1963 Ford is also offered by Mead Ford of Belleville, who will offer the car at cost to holder of the lucky number appearing on copies of The Belleville Times.

A Three-Day sale by Belleville merchants will be held April 25, 26 and 27, who are offering up to 99 per cent discounts on various items listed in The Belleville Times supplement. These items will go to readers holding the lucky number being published in the April 25 edition of The Times. Identifying banners and hunting will be flying from cooperating stores.

The Parade Route
Twelve bands and drum and bugle corps are scheduled to march down Washington Avenue

Saturday afternoon, April 27. They will all make brief stops before the reviewing stand to demonstrate their musical skill.

Leading the parade will be Peter Rodino state representative who will be grand marshal, Allan Bernstein, assistant marshal, and Mayor Robert M. LaTerra.

Councilmen and other local officials also will be on display during the parade.

The event is sponsored by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and local merchants.

Admission to the Pageant Friday night is $1.25, with reserved seats at $1.75.

Summertime Is A-Comin' So Store Clothing Properly

You have a valuable collection of long-term investments — your winter wardrobe, and it merits special attention now to preserve it for another season.

Proper storage will preserve the appearance and fabric of out-of-season clothing, especially wooleens. It will also free space in your closet for summer fashions.

Mrs. Florence G. Minifie, extension clothing specialist at Rutgers University, reminds homemakers that storage areas that are warm, damp and dark encourage insects and mildew. Avoid such places for storage if you can.

Before storing garments for the season, wash or clean them thoroughly, then store them in airtight containers with chemical aids if needed. Any garments that do not need cleaning should at least be aired, brushed and examined for any spots that may be removed by home methods.

Unless absolutely clean, stored garments containing even a small percentage of wool may be destroyed by moths. The specialist says knitted wear containing wool is best stored in airtight containers or even "canned" in jars.

The Line Forms On The Right

Those who wonder why there are always plenty of applicants for jobs with the state governmental agencies and departments — at least most of them — should find the following information quite informative. Prospects for New Jersey state government employees are better than ever; the New Jersey Taxpayers Association found.

On the basis of commitments made last year, to become fully effective in the fiscal year beginning July 1, plus proposals advanced in the Governor's record-high budget message for the new fiscal year, nearly $20 million additional will be spent for employee pay and benefits in fiscal 1964. The state's spending program for the coming fiscal year includes nearly $10 million more in salaries and benefits as a result of action already taken. Included are full-year costs of annual salary increments totaling $3.5 million, more than $6 million for employee pensions and health benefits and a half-million for new positions established in the 1963 fiscal year budget.

For the 1964 fiscal year, as proposed by the governor, a further $10.5 million increase would go for salary benefits (including a five percent overall increase) selective salary range revisions, establishments of a $3,000 minimum salary for all state employees and additional payments for overtime, food and similar allowances.

Now comes the icing on the cake, and this may account for the eagerness of prospective state government employees, in addition to the five percent increase in pay, which isn't a bad boost at all: Besides the direct salary benefits, state employees can (and do, we are sure) enjoy certain "fringe benefits." Included are 12 to 20 days of annual vacation leave; 12 regularly scheduled legal holidays per year; sick leave which can accumulate at the rate of 15 days per year without limit; and annual military leave up to 30 days. The State also pays for employee health and life insurance in full and 50 percent of the cost of a retirement program.

How do you like those figures? There are few unions that can match these total benefits for their members. Is it any wonder that the rolls of state government workers are swelling rapidly? There are few people who don't know a good thing when they see it.

Innocents Abroad

In its indefatigable efforts to present readers with THE complete coverage of local news, very infrequently is The Belleville Times thwarted, opposed, or frustrated. But last week this county's foremost weekly newspaper was given pause.

While investigating new car prices, we asked what a certain model now equipped with power steering and power brakes would cost without such extras.

"I'm afraid that isn't possible," the dealer said regretfully. "Those are mandatory options."

Eagle Scout, Proud Parents

Instructor Of The Month

Navy Lieut. Ray R. Abriola, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Zuccarelli, 291 Union Avenue, has been named instructor of the month at the Pensacola (Fla.) Naval Air Basic Training headquarters. Here he is congratulated by Rear Admiral M. H. Tuttle.

The Conference will open at 1:30 p.m. Starting at noon, there will be a coffee hour, registration, and a tour of exhibits.

Climaxing the conference, there will be a banquet at 6 p.m. with Dr. Louis M. Levitsky, spiritual leader of Congregation Oheb Shalom in South Orange, as the speaker. His topic will be, "Lord, Give Us Men."

Delegates from 78 congregations affiliated with the United Synagogue of America in Northern New Jersey will attend the all-day Conference.

erica is the association of more than 70 Conservative congregations in the United States and the Dominion of Canada and is a constituent member of the World Council of Synagogues.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

The IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers) international convention and show was held during the last week in March at the Coliseum in New York.

As in previous years, there was again a dazzling exhibit of ingenuity. Every available space was taken and still some manufacturers could not be accommodated.

There are really no exhibits of TV or Hi Fi sets. However there are numerous related fields which have a direct bearing on TV. Most exhibitors specialize in one or a few items, except of course the giants of the industry. Test instruments, production machinery, more and more compact computers, microwave systems and semi-conductor (solid state) devices dominated the show. The trend to replace vacuum tubes with transistors becomes more evident every year. We are going to write about the increasing use of "solid state" application in the near future. At present these relatively new devices are used in space electronics and computers, where cost is not such an important factor as in the highly competitive field of consumer products like TV or phonograph applications or radio. It is still cheaper to use tubes instead of transistors in present day TV sets.

One of the advantages of a transistor is the elimination of heat. A tube gets quite hot. However, the picture tube becomes a rather large size cabinet necessary which provides lots of room for air circulation. ## Library Offers A 'Family Night' Program Wednesday

Next Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. the Belleville public library will sponsor a "Family Night" program designed to acquaint families and youngsters with the facilities of the library and the many juvenile book available to them.

Also making an appearance will be author of children's books, Miss Catherine Woolley, who will speak in a brief program at the library at 221 Washington Avenue.

Miss Woolley, will describe the many pleasures of reading — and writing — books for children. She will also demonstrate the fine art of story-telling by reading one of her own favorite children's stories.

Invitation To All Belleville parents are invited to attend with their school-age children. Family Night will offer a unique opportunity — both for adults and youngsters — to get acquainted with books inside and out, in an interesting and stimulating way.

Miss Woolley, whose interest in her own young nephews and nieces drew her into the field of writing for children, has done dozens of books popular with 8-12 year olds. Among them are "Ginnie and the Mystery House," and "Schoolroom Zoo."

A Party Affair She has become well known under the pen name "Jane Thayer" which she uses for her picture books for young children, including: "Gus was a Friendly Ghost," and "The Blueberry Pie Elf."

The program will be followed by refreshments and an informal "open house" period for Belleville families to browse through their public library. There will also be on display some 500 selected new juvenile books — recent and forth coming additions to the library's children's collection.

Family night is part of the library's observance of National Library Week, April 21-27.

BEAUTIFY BELLEVILLE, RESIDENT REQUESTS

To the Editor, The Times-News: How wise the poet was who said, "A thing of beauty is a joy forever." Why cannot Belleville be made just that — a town of beauty? It has a perfect name to suit the part. What the town needs is a civic project for improvement and rejuvenation.

Roseville in Newark is launching such a program. A new era is blossoming in that there. The district aims to eliminate all its drabness. This will be done by repairing — planting grass and flowers — cleaning up debris, and repainting here and there.

Why cannot Belleville merchants and homeowners do the same? We should strive to make our town worthy of its poetic name; to help it stand forth as the epitome of culture and beauty.

Those Old Styles Are Back Again

You may not believe it, but, those tight pants, choke collars, and jazzy hats being worn by the members of Belleville's Walking Club, an organization that this weekend strolls around 1896 across what was then a predominant rural countryside. C. Chinnock, 173 Cedar Hill Avenue, who was a member of the group, furnished the picture.

The same old aloof splendor of 1896 still seems to have regained a hold in Belleville's superior class.

For all practical purposes, the young men and members of the Belleville Walking Club, could be the fashion plates of today. The tight pants could very well be the "slim jims" of today; the single-breasted suits the "natural look"; and the jaunty derby hats the pork pie of 1963.

The group shown said Chinnock began their walks in Nutley and wound up on Garrett Mountain near Paterson.

The three survivors from this old-time walking club are Preslin, Chinnock, and Mackey; all are now past 80 years of age.

Lynhurst Bowlers Take Lead In Team Play Over Opponents

All-Windward Products of Lynhurst has been threatening to take the lead in bowling time. Last week they finally moved into a first place spot with Parkview House by winning Andy's Sport Shop 3-0.

All-Windward played a hot hand as the entire team contributed heavily in games of 100-94, 99-87, and 87-77. John Fusaro led the assault with 199, 203, 235, 37. He was followed closely by Chute (216, 222, 192-611) and Walters (124, 190, 191-598).

Parkview House, the second-half leader since January 14, was up-ended in three games by Keany's Aces. Bob Lubertus (587) topped the victors while M. Lane's (212-599) was high for Parkview. Kondreck Studios, the first-half champs, blanked Cerrato Plumbers. This puts Kondreck's in a good position as they are now just one game out of first place. On Potis, Kondreck's big gun, proved his worth again as he fired games of 199, 233, 213 for a 4-0 set.

Teammate Lloyd George chipped in with 224-584. Cerrato Plumbers top man was Al Walker with 204-551.

Binky's Tavern pulled to within three games of first place along with Basile's. Binky's banded punchless Nick's Texaco with Gene Chamberlain leading the way with 210, 201, 194-605. Wild Bill Hollis was high for Nick's 217-602. Basile's pushed Sunrise Dairies farther into last place by taking two games. Ted Zaleski topped both squads with 212-586.

Other two-game winners were Roseville Auto Body over Porcella Jewelers; Seacucus Five over Olympic Bowl; Rica "5" over Masters Fuel; All Butcher over Local 410.

High scorers were: Ronnie Merritt 247-618; Alex Ciccone 238-615; I. Kane 227-606; Bob Prezjowski 224-587; Bob Newport 214-586; Walt Levens 586; Cookie Seale 211-580; Tony Cerrato 215-07; Don Cerrato 201-574; Gene Maoli 200-572; Tom Romeo 222-571; Frank Volpe 212; John Percello 202-57; Harrigan 214; Mike Carvahlo 217.

Honor Group Taps 51 New Members

By MARLENE JAMES
The Belleville High School chapter of the National Honor Society tapped 51 new members at an impressive ceremony held on Thursday, April 11. The ceremony commenced when 11 members tapped last year while they were juniors marched into the darkened auditorium, each holding a candle. They proceeded to the stage and took their seats.
Alan Harg, president of the society, then introduced the four speakers: Allen La Mura, lit the candle of Scholarship and then spoke about this, one of the four qualities required for membership in the Honor Society; Judith Underwood, lit the candle of Leadership and spoke on this quality; Greg Moisenko lit the candle of Character and spoke on this quality; Judy Tremel lit the remaining candle, Service, and spoke on the quality. The actual tapping then began.

April Is Set As Teaching Career Month

By JACKIE FOSTER
April has been designated as National Teaching Career Month. The purpose of this theme is to impress upon the youth of America the great challenge facing education in the upcoming decade. Also to widen their scope of the teaching field and thus encourage more people to enter this profession.
This program has kept the members of the Belleville chapter of the Future Teachers of America very busy these past weeks. These girls have set out on a program of bringing attention to teaching and to the activities of the club. This has been accomplished by various posters high school.

One of these posters depicts a glum-looking boy saying, "I should have been a teacher." The main display is on the large bulletin board located on the first floor. Rambone, a popular television character, is standing beside his words of wisdom, "Who dares to teach success will reach." These and other displays were the work of a committee headed by Audrey Shidmore. The members included: Lee Goldstein, Mary Goodenough, Lois Di Leo, Rosemary Pollante, Sue Benenziano, Linda Smith and Carol Brichbill.

Edmund Burke Plays Lead In Guild Musical

Edmund Burke, veteran performer in St. Mary's Theatre Guild shows, will play the lead role in the Guild's Spring major, "High Button Shoes." He will recreate the role of Floy, played by Phil Silvers in the original production of the musical comedy on Broadway.

Burke will be remembered for his portrayal of Dan Emmett in the group's first effort, "Look Away, Look Away," and appeared in last year's "Just For Kicks." He directed "Fanny, the Frivolous Flapper" two years ago.

Other leading parts in the musical to be presented four evenings, May 9, 10, 11 and 12 in the gymnasium-auditorium, will be played by Thomas Noone as Papa; Maria MacMunn, Mama; Frank A. Iberer, Pontelou; George MacMunn, Oogle and Maureen Fitzgerald, Fran.

Noone directed "Shepherds on the Shelf," three-act play presented recently by the Guild, in which Burke, Iberer and MacMunn took part. He was the director also of "The Valiant," one-act with MacMunn and Miss Fitzgerald in leading roles. Noone, MacMunn and Iberer played also in "Just For Kicks," "Fanny" and "Look Away, Look Away."

Mrs. MacMunn appeared in the title role in "Fanny" and took part also in "Just For Kicks" and "Look Away, Look Away," and Miss Fitzgerald was in "Fanny" and "Just For Kicks." "High Button Shoes" is being directed by Joseph C. Hayes, with Laurie Smith acting as speech director. A large cast of singers and dancers will perform in many hit numbers in the show, with a scene on the beach at Atlantic City, reminiscent of the Keystone Kops era, promising to be one of the most outstanding.

high school teachers of biology selected in this area as a fellow ship recipient. The announcement was made at Rutgers recently by Dr. Edwin T. Mou, director of the summer institute. The institute, under a grant from the National Science Foundation, is designed to acquaint procedures and materials of the three new approaches to the high school Biology curriculum. This approach was prepared recently by the Biological Science Curriculum study at Boulder, Colo.

Mr. Babb is looking forward with keen interest to this summer's program with the possibility that the new biology course may be incorporated in the science curriculum with the opening of the new high school.

VIEW FROM THE SIDELINES

By RAY FERSKO

The Belleville nine drew the season's first win this week and did so in a star-spangled manner. Led by ace pitcher Ray Datrio and second baseman Mike Liloia, the Bellboys broke a 15-year-old "tradition" and defeated Montclair at Woodman's Field.

It seems that the Bellboys over their batting shoes in this contest, for the entire squad hit. Mike Liloia went for two homers, drove in two runs, and scored four himself.

The highlight of the game came in the 5th inning. Montclair was ahead by a 5-4 lead when Datrio, the winning pitcher, came to the plate with bases loaded, two outs and a 3-2 count, and hit a grand slam home run which allowed Luzzi, Syneski and Liloia as well as himself to score and bring the tally to an 8-4 margin in favor of the Blue and Gold.

Leftfielder Richie Luzzi did very well in the field and at the plate. Luzzi broke a Woodman's Field record with a 440-foot triple in the seventh inning. This was a big win for Belleville, for the Mounties were 4-0 until this game. The Mounties were also rated as a heavy favorite since they had defeated champion Bloomfield prior to their encounter with Belleville.

With the Montclair victory past them, the Blue and Gold met an old rival in Nutley on Saturday and found the Raiders to be a little stronger than anticipated. Nutley blanked Belleville 5-0. The winning pitcher, Joe Records, scattered seven singles. The game was actually won in the first inning as Ron Mease led off with a homer. Two more runs were scored on a single, double, walk, hit batter and sacrifice fly. As usual, the strange field left its mark on the bewildered Belleville fielders. This was also true against Montclair, but in that game Belleville was able to supply the hitting power.

Belleville continually threatened Nutley, although the score shows no indication of this. It was a combination of a good first inning and a couple of infield miscues that led the Raiders to victory. The big play came in the opening inning when Nutley had its 6th man at the plate with a 2-2 count and bases loaded. This player went to first when he was hit by a curve ball that didn't break, thus supplying the way for a good Nutley opener. Within 4 innings, Nutley had a 5-0 lead with Mease doing the hitting and Bill Vnoroth keeping the infield clear and the Maroon out of any base-runner jams. From here on in both teams showed good fielding but poor slugging.

The baseball team will travel tomorrow for a non-conference game with Lodi at 1 p.m. Belleville fans should see a new face on the mound and a decided Blue and Gold victory.

Belleville will again be traveling Saturday as the team goes to Montclair for a second stab at the Mounties. This game, unlike the first, is on the conference slate and will be counted heavily in determining which way the squad is headed. Datrio will probably be the Belleville starter, while Montclair should throw out Bill Thompson. Thompson has earned much recognition this season as he has only allowed two runs to be scored against him in 36 innings of play. This will be a hard game for both teams. Belleville has defeated Montclair in one contest, but Johnson was pitching then, not Thompson. The Bellboys could do it again if Datrio keeps the ball low and the infield works out his mistakes. Nevertheless, high school baseball is most uncanny and the ball game could go either way.

Congratulations are in order for the Freshman baseball team. The freshmen compiled their second win this week with a 7-0 sprint over Newark Tech. The team, under head mentor Pete Spera, is undefeated and unscored on. In two games they have scored 19 runs, while their competition has yet to get any marks in the box scores.

Congratulations are also in order to Dave Hatch who was given honorable mention by The Newark News in its All-County Selections for basketball.

Crew Season Opens April 20

The crew will open its season Saturday at 2 p.m. with a race against Arlington. Spectators may see the finish from Kearny River Park or the site of the old Nereid boathouse. This year's crew looks very promising and may defeat Arlington as they did last year. The varsity boat consists of Cliff Brown, Ray Chapman, Bob Higgins, Ray Morrison, Jim Bade, Ron Delpresto, Jack Gruber, Larry Bernard and Bob Glichrist coxswain. The JV's, along with Nutley, will also race in this meet.

Next week, previews and reviews of Baseball, Track and Crew.

Gift To Smithsonian

Frank Taylor, left, director of the Smithsonian Institution, United States National Museum, Washington, D. C., thanks former Nutley resident Andre Clavier, of ITT Federal Laboratories, Nutley, for the gift of pioneer radio equipment to the museum. Both men are framed in a replica of 10-foot microwave dish antenna, part of historical equipment given to the Smithsonian by the research and manufacturing division of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

Former Nutley Man Recalls Early Experiments In Radio

Pioneer radio equipment which over 30 years ago laid the experimental ground-work resulting in today's world-wide radar and communications networks has been presented to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington by International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

The equipment was turned over to Frank Taylor, director of the United States National Museum, by Andre G. Clavier, leader of the ITT engineering team that in 1931 carried out the first public demonstration of communications across the English Channel between Dover and Calais, using then new ultra-high radio frequencies.

Mr. Clavier retired last year as scientific advisor to the president of ITT Federal Laboratories, Nutley. Mr. Clavier and his wife were long-time residents of Nutley, where they lived at 193 Satterthwaite Avenue.

Given to the Smithsonian to be exhibited was a replica of the ten-foot dish antenna including original transmitter section and power electron tubes, as well as the original antenna dipole assembly used in the demonstration. This was the gear used on the French side of the Channel.

The purpose of the experiments, Mr. Clavier recalls, was to challenge the then accepted principle that wire or cable circuit should be used in preference to radio whenever physically possible.

Mr. Clavier and his colleagues believed that through the development of reliable and flexible radio techniques vast quantities of material and equipment could be conserved and important financial savings realized.

Mr. Clavier, then associated with ITT's Laboratoire Central de Telecommunications, Paris, focused his attention on these bands of the radio frequency spectrum because other bands were either unsuitable or unavailable for what he had in mind.

Beyond the high frequency band of 1700 mc, however, was the wide range of ultra-high frequencies which were then completely unused commercially and only partially explored scientifically.

These microwave frequencies, as they became known, would make it possible, by means of that day. Also, the higher the frequency, the greater the bandwidth available for general communication purposes.

Largely as a result of Mr. Clavier's early work, the use of microwaves became a practical reality. Today microwaves are used in network television over the horizon and line-of-sight radio and television, as well as vital radar links.

Interesting enough, Mr. Clavier likes to remember that the 1931 experiments were originally planned to take place in New Jersey. A 17 1/2 mile line-of-sight radio link had been set up between the Van Pelt farm a few miles east of Calton in Hunterdon County, and a site half-way between Montgomery and Zion on the north slope of the Neshaug Mountain in Somerset County.

Just as plans were being formulated for what was to have been the celebrated demonstration Mr. Clavier was transferred back to France, where the experiment was successfully performed.

In recalling his associations of those days—Charles Mabie, Dr. William J. Cahill and Surrius R. Montclair—Mr. Clavier often reflects on the destiny that chose Europe rather than the United States for a great moment in the development of the Electronic Age.

Cherry Blossoms Greet The Opening Day of Our Pageant

With a little bit of luck, and some cooperation from the weatherman, Belleville residents will soon have a first-hand look at the cherry blossoms now making their annual appearance in Branch Brook Park along the Second River.

Tiny buds of green began making their first appearance last week, and by Easter were scheduled to be well on their way to full blossom. Just in time for the annual Cherry Blossom contest.

Approximately 5,000 of the original cherry trees are planted throughout the country's park system, Belleville's included. Newark is the main center of Essex County but the park system extends through all communities, embracing South Mountain Reservation, Eagle Rock Reservation, Branch Brook Park, Watsessing Park, Brookdale Park, Belleville Park, Verona Park, Cedar Grove Reservation, West Side Park, Maplecrest and Glenfield.

We Got Variety

New Jersey's cherry blossom festival displays more varieties and far larger numbers of blooming trees than does the famous planting of 144 Japanese cherry trees around the famous Tidal Basin in Washington, D. C.

New Jersey does not seek to detract from the attraction provided by the spectacle in the nation's capital. Officials of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development, point out however, that many people who cannot make the pilgrimage to Washington can enjoy a somewhat different and more varied springtime blossom extravaganza within 10 miles from New York City and right here in Belleville.

Park Attracts Them All

In some areas of Branch Brook Park the blooming cherry trees are floodlighted until 11 p.m. In recent years a number of weddings have been held in the park under the cherry blossoms.

New Jersey's original cherry trees were originally acquired in 1908, being purchased with a fund donated for that purpose by Mrs. Felix Fuld of Orange. The original specimens were scientifically set out and nurtured by horticultural experts of the Essex County Park Commission and a program of propagation was developed to bring the blooming specimens to the present total of about 5,000.

Varities include: the Higan Cherry which bears bright pink blossoms about an inch in diameter and which often has a sears a profusion of heavy, pure white blossoms about two inches in diameter — the Amanogawa — and the Kwanan, which are among later.

mental plantings; the Yoshino Cherry, both single and double blossoms (the type planted in Washington).

More Variety

The Sargents Cherry with deep pink blossoms and purple foliage which gradually turns to green; the Shirotae Cherry which bears a profusion of heavy, pure white blossoms about two inches in diameter — the Amanogawa — and the Kwanan, which are among later.

New ITT Process Sends Photos On Beam Of Light

A new process for transmitting a facsimile photograph between two points on a beam of light has been announced by International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

The method employs a device called a gallium arsenide diode, about the size of an ordinary pencil eraser. When electricity is forced through the diode, it emits an invisible ray of light capable of carrying a photograph or other facsimile data.

Hikers Beware! It's Exercise But It's Risky

The hiking rash is good exercise, but it can also be risky, especially for New Jerseyans who do their walking on the streets and highways, says the New Jersey Automobile Club.

"We've got the highest density of cars in the nation, and last year 237 New Jersey pedestrians were killed," said C. Stewart Mead, safety and education director of the club. He added that 8,000 pedestrians are killed annually in the United States.

"If you want to hike," said Mead, "has a starter try a local municipal or County park, such as Branch Brook in Essex. Later, in your hiking career, you can drive out to a State Park, forest or hiking trail. It's even more enjoyable and much safer."

"If you've got to hike on the road, at least walk on the side facing traffic, which will enable you to see oncoming traffic. At night, wear or carry something white, regardless of which side of the road you are on. It is also good practice to hike with two or more companions in case of injury." For locations of areas in which to hike, the Club recommends a book called "Away We Go," published by the Junior League of New Jersey. Covering hundreds of points of interest in the state, it is intended as a cross-section of places to go and things to see within one day's drive of home.

Sandfort Comments On Low Use Of Fluid Milk Here

Third lowest use of milk in fluid form during 1962 is the position of Federal Milk Market 2, which includes northern New Jersey, according to a summary by the United States Department of Agriculture.

This area used only 49 per cent of the milk received for Class I fluid drinking purposes, as compared with the national average of 61 per cent. Only markets lower were Puget Sound in the northwest with 48 per cent, and Chicago with 42 per cent.

"With more than twice as much milk coming into this market area as is being used by families for drinking, any short-ages forecast by proponents of the road you are on. It is also good practice to hike with two or more companions in case of

Covering hundreds of points of interest in the state, it is intended as a cross-section of places to go and things to see within one day's drive of home.

Board Chairman Lally Submits A Resignation

Dominick A. Lally, chairman of the Board of Adjustment, submitted his resignation to the Town Council April 15.

Lally, who has been chairman since the present board took office September 17, had been appointed by Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo. He gave pressure of business as the reason for his resignation.

The May 7 meeting of the board has been postponed pending the appointment of a new chairman, said vice president Mary Senatore. A new chairman will be selected by members of the board.

Next meeting has been scheduled for May 18th.

Liberty Optical Builds A Plant

Liberty Optical Manufacturing Co., Inc., of Newark, designers and manufacturers of eyeglass frames, announced plans March 20 for the construction of a $600,000 plant and executive headquarters at 380-382 Verona Avenue, Newark, facing Branch Brook Park, near the Belleville line.

Joseph G. Bianco, general manager of the company, said that the project involved a one-story 60,000 square foot building which, with parking facilities, will be located on a three-acre tract purchased from Branch Brook Industries Inc., of Newark.

Robert M. Jackson Named A Director

E. Hornsby Wasson, president of New Jersey Bell, has announced the election of Robert M. Jackson, chairman of the board at Wallace and Tiernan, Inc., Belleville, as a director of the telephone company.

Jackson, a resident of Rumson, has been associated since 1930 with Wallace and Tiernan. He was named treasurer in 1946, executive vice president in 1954, president in 1959 and board chairman last year. He is president of the Belleville Foundation, and a member of the executive board of the Robert Treat Council Boy Scouts of America.

Jackson is a graduate of the University of Newark. He is married and has two children. The Jacksons live on Rumson Rd. in Rumson.

Dog Owners Are Offered Free Rabies Protection

Belleville pet owners came in for some good news from the Belleville Health Department this week, when Health Officer Edward G. Burdy announced sponsorship of the annual Free Rabies Clinic here.

New Jersey has not had a case of rabies in humans since 1955, said Burdy, and very few cases among animals. He credits this low rate to the immunization program throughout the state.

All dog owners are urged to take advantage of this free offer, said Burdy Tuesday morning. Clinics will be held at the following places:

Monday, May 13, Town Hall (rear), 8 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Tuesday, May 14, Washington Avenue Fire Headquarters, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Wednesday, May 15, Franklin Street Firehouse, Silver Lake, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Variance Granted

Board of Adjustment approve a variance to construct a second-floor storage area at International Electrical and Flag Decorating Co., 60-68 Honis Street during their regular business meeting April 22.

The addition will cost an estimated $25,000, but must first gain Council approval before the variance can be granted.
