Mayor Tells Library Board:

'Am Aggravated'

By ROBERT M. LATERZA
Mayor of Belleville in a letter May 27 to the Board of Trustees of the Free Public Library

I have become increasingly disturbed by the actions of the Library Board as to their handling of budgetary and financial matters.

I am aggravated, to say the least, by the comments shown in the minutes of the Board in an attempt to justify its financial decisions.

I am well aware of the autonomous powers of the Library Board, but I also know that the autonomy does not make our Belleville Public Library an entity unto itself. The library is a necessary and important service to the citizens of Belleville. However indispensable, it is still part of town government.

At the organizational meeting of the present Library Board, I discussed with you your proposal for the establishment of a branch library or a bookmobile. However, as well as service proposals, I told you that we could not consider a bookmobile for the year 1963, because the expense involved could not be justified until the need was made positive by a definite study proving increased book demand from all sections of our town. For approximately the same reason, I told you we could not consider the establishment of a branch library unless some town structures were available to lessen the tax impact upon our citizens.

I also asked you to hold the line budget wise as to the creation of new jobs, salary increases or promotions, in order to give this first Council elected under our new form of government an opportunity to thoroughly correlate all municipal functions as to need and the ability of the taxpayers of Belleville to provide.

Your Board obviously refused to consider my request, because when your budget was finally presented it contained positive requests for all the items I requested you to hold in abeyance until full and proper studies could be made.

As I had anticipated, these budget requests were stricken, and the library budget was adopted in the amount of $62,200, for the calendar year of 1963. Above and beyond this, the Town, in its own budgetary appropriation carried the cost for the library pension fund and fringe medical benefits for library employees. The Town also absorbed the clerical cost for all financial bookkeeping of the library.

This adopted budget was not only advertised, as required by law, but received extensive coverage in the local press. Your Board was certainly made aware of the final approved budgetary figure. The Council also expressed at that time its intention to make no raises to town employees retroactive to any date prior to final budget approval, and adopted, as a part of its fiscal policy, a provision that any such salary increases would become effective as of July 1, 1963.

Board President Replies:

'I'm Deeply Shocked'

By MRS. R. A. SHAFER
President of the Board of Trustees of the Free Public Library in a letter June 6 to Mayor Laterza

In a letter, dated May 27, Mayor Laterza felt called upon to castigate the Board of Trustees of the Belleville Public Library for their "handling of budgetary and financial matters."

Mr. Laterza confesses himself particularly "aggravated" because the Library Board, in its budget estimate for 1963-64, included a supplementary item for a possible branch library. As could be expected, this particular item was tracelessly eliminated before the Library Budget, in its curtailed form, was adopted by the Town Council. In all fairness, there should, at this time, be no further argument about it. Yet Mr. Laterza recalls that at the organizational meeting of the present Library Board, on September 14, 1963, he had tried to persuade the Board from any possible proposals for a branch library, a bookmobile, "as well as many other service proposals."

The fact is that the minutes of that meeting, except for noting Mr. Laterza's presence as an ex officio member of the Board, do not contain the slightest mention of Mr. Laterza's advice to "hold the line budgetwise." Mr. Laterza is regularly served with a copy of the minutes of each Library Board meeting, whether attended by him or not. Obviously, for the sake of the record, he would have immediately requested a correction of the minutes to show that he raised his warning voice at the September 14 meeting. He never requested such a correction, must appear therefore doubtful that whatever remarks Mr. Laterza did make, or thinks to have made, on that occasion, were of sufficient importance, even to himself, to insist on having them incorporated in the minutes.

The September 14, 1963, meeting was the only one and only time that Mr. Laterza, in spite of repeated invitations, ever attended any of the meetings of the Library Board of which, by virtue of his titular office as mayor, he is a member. Even his own conviction that "the library is a necessary and important service to the citizens of Belleville," does not seem to entail the obligation for him to participate in any of the deliberations of the Library Board.

He speaks therefore without any personal knowledge if he undertakes to criticize the Library Board's spending money. (Continued On Page 7)

Historymobile Will Visit Belleville All Day Friday

The New Jersey Tercentenary Historymobile visits Belleville tomorrow (Friday, June 7) with its new exhibit, "New Jersey: From Colony to State, 1750-1850."

The Belleville Tercentenary Committee and the Belleville Kiwanis Club, co-sponsors, has invited everyone to see the 16-ton blue, gold and white State museum on wheels, which journeyed from Oregon, last summer and was on display at the World's Fair in Seattle. It will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. and will be parked on Washington Avenue in front of Belleville High School. The Historymobile is free and special arrangements have been made for Belleville's school children to visit this important exhibit.

In the Historymobile you can step back into time and see an earlier New Jersey. You begin when Jerseymen were being ruled by the King. You see a new state born, and contributing to the founding of a nation.

On display is New Jersey's first Constitution, dated July 2, 1776, the first State Constitution to give women, Negroes and aliens the vote. It also established a national Legislature and set the pattern for the United States Senate by providing an upper chamber with equal representation for all counties.

The exhibit tells of John Stevens of Hoboken, who built the nation's first railroad locomotive in 1825 and the world's first ocean going steamboat; Seth Boyden of Newark, who invented patent leather; Samuel Colt, who manufactured his famous pistols in Paterson; and Jacob Rutgers, a two-hundred founder and first President of Queens College (now Rutgers, the State University).

When asked if the use of barbiturates and habit-forming narcotics are relatively serious problems, Mr. Smith answered: "We have as much of a problem as any other high school in the area. This type of thing is one easily blown out of proportion."

Pupil Suspensions In Drug Cases Are Called 'Guidance Procedures'

"Violation of drug or narcotics laws by a pupil . . . shall be deemed to be just cause for suspension," ruled the Board of Education last week.

This has been the traditional right of school principals, exercised in order to "protect the health, welfare and safety of other pupils." However, this procedure was formalized because of the increased use of barbiturates among Belleville high schoolers.

Recently two pupils were suspended for the use of "bennies," a non-addictive stimulant.

Belleville High School Principal Raymond O. Smith explained to The Times-News that the suspension of these students was "more a guidance action than a disciplinary one."

Mr. Smith outlined the measures taken with a "user." "Our first step is to call the school doctor. A series of tests are taken which may indicate the presence of drugs. If the tests are positive, we try to have the parents come in immediately; then the police.

"Users Watched Closely
"The youngster is suspended for two weeks. We encourage him to take his school work home and not to fall behind. After the two-week period, the suspended pupil is readmitted, but not without a medical certificate proving he is free from the influence of drugs."

A complete confidential file is kept on each pupil who has used the principal said. "We watch all former and possible users very closely."

When asked if the use of barbiturates and habit-forming narcotics are relatively serious problems, Mr. Smith answered: "We have as much of a problem as any other high school in the area. This type of thing is one easily blown out of proportion."

Low Percentage
Belleville High has 1600 students. Only two students, or about one-eighth of one percent, have been apprehended for the use of barbiturates. No dope addicts are known in the school.

"The problem," continued the principal, "seems to be widespread. We have the assistant principal plus a teacher patrolling the halls looking for suspicious persons. Most of these come from the Newark area."

Soon a representative from the Essex County Sheriff's Office will be featured at an assembly program to educate the students of the effects of barbiturates and narcotics. Teachers have already been given information sheets alerting them to the symptoms of a "kick" drugs.

According to Mr. Smith, the solution to the drug problem requires the services of many agencies. "It's a team job. The parents, police, church, medical authorities can't do it alone."

Mrs. William J. Vail, seated, receives plaque in recognition of 27 years of service as secretary of the Belleville Nutley TB Association, from the newly elected president of the Association.

Chamber Of Commerce Extends Drive For New Membership

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce is in the latest stages of its membership drive. Originally the expansion program was scheduled to terminate at the end of May, but because of encouraging results it was extended for several days.

On Tuesday, May 28, a large group of Belleville's leading businessmen gathered at a luncheon meeting at Parrillo's to review the 18 - point improvement program; and many of these leading citizens signed on as new members of the Chamber of Commerce as they are convinced that this one, unified effort will greatly enhance not only the business climate but will help the citizens of Belleville as well.

In addition, a number of the larger corporations and companies have expressed their interest in taking an active part in the Chamber's program.

Harry French, executive secretary of Belleville's Chamber, stated that he anticipates full cooperation from the various businessmen in town and that the membership drive will be a success.

The 18 - point town improvement program has many features that are long - range programs, but a number of them will be acted upon as soon as possible.

P. Douglas Wadsworth, General Chairman, along with James Devaney, also was encouraged by Tuesday's meeting and stated that Belleville businessmen are proudly displaying their plaques indicating that they are members in good standing.

The Belleville Chamber was originally organized 20 years ago and was reactivated in 1960. Since that time, it has been active in town improvement programs but this is their first concerted effort as a unified group.

Reading Will Be Encouraged During Summer

Summer reading lists are being prepared for students in all grades in the Belleville schools. Working with committees of teachers, Miss Pohl, elementary supervisor, and Michael Rosamilia, general supervisor, are developing graded reading lists which will be placed in the Public Library and distributed to teachers. In the high school, department heads will present reading lists to the high school principal, Raymond Smith, which will be combined into one list and made available to the Public Library and the various teachers.

Between now and the close of school, June 21, students, in consultation with their teachers, should plan some summer reading, according to Dr. Frank M. Durkee, Superintendent of Schools. But in any event, by having reading lists in the Public Library, it will be possible for parents and students to have help at any time during the summer in selecting books that can be useful in an educational way.

VFW District Convention Again Set For Belleville

Belleville will again be the site of the annual convention of the 4th District of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and their Auxiliary this Saturday and Sunday. The two-day convention will be held at the post home of the Younginger-Alden Post on Belleville Avenue.

Burnett Asks Change In Fire Setup

Sweeping improvements in the Belleville fire department were recommended last week by the Town Manager John R. Burnett and urged by the Fire Insurance Rating Organization of N.J.

Burnett asked the Town Council to consider relocation of the Franklin Street firehouse is the vicinity of Belleville and Franklin Avenues. The present firehouse is 40 years old and obsolete. Moreover, says Burnett, it is located on an exceedingly heavy traffic artery that is too narrow to assure easy access for fire engines responding to emergency calls.

The Town Manager made several inspections since he took office in April. These tours convinced him he says, that the fire department is not only understaffed but using "obsolete and badly worn" equipment. He recommended the following:

- Seven additional firemen
- Replacement of the ambulance
- Immediate replacement of two 250 gallon pumping engines with 750 gallon capacity vehicles
- Immediate replacement of the 85' aerial ladder truck with an 85' minimum ladder vehicle

Neither affirmative nor negative action was taken on Burnett's report. Ideally he hoped that the Council would "first approve the thought and take action to prepare the necessary reports and documents substantiating my recommendations." However, he plans to bring the matter up again at the next meeting of the Town Council, Tuesday, June 11, at 8:30 in the Town Hall.

Fire Chief Carl F. Hundertpfund commented, "Since I became chief in July, 1958, I said we are undermanned and in need of equipment. The engines that I want to replace are 20 to 25 years old."

The Fire Insurance Rating Organization of N.J., further revealed deficiencies in the town's fire-fighting facilities. In a letter to Mr. Burnett the insurance company wrote: "After investigating the water supply available for fire protection purposes in the industrial area along Cortlandt Street between Little St. and Greycliff Avenue... Tests indicate that the distribution system is seriously deficient."

Tests showed that residual pressure ranges from 600 s.p.m. to 750 s.p.m., instead of the standard requirement of 2000 g.

McGreevy Is Named Head Of Auxiliary

At a recent meeting of the Parents' Auxiliary of the Holy Family Center for Retarded Children, Rev. Matthew M. Pesantello, M.A., Archdiocesan Director of the Apostolate for Mentally Retarded, spoke to the parents on the program of the Apostolate in the Newark Diocese, and the part the Parents' Auxiliary could play in making this program highly effective in Belleville, Nutley, Bloomfield, and adjoining communities.

In the election of officers which concluded the meeting, John McGreevy was selected as president, with Mrs. Margaret Milazzo, vice-president; Nunzio Accardo, treasurer; and Mrs. Angelo Chappellie, secretary. A tentative date of September 13, was set for the first annual card party of the Auxiliary.

Key committees for the card party were appointed by Mr. McGreevy, with Mr. Accardo, Mrs. Chappellie, and Malcolm E. Condon to serve as co-chairmen of the ticket committee with Mrs. Peggy Cullari, Mrs. Mary Ann Cass, and Mrs. Julia S. Condon comprising the table prize committee.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held in the basement meeting room of the rectory at Holy Family Church, Nutley, Wednesday, June 12, at 7:30 p.m. Parents and friends of the retarded are invited to attend and to become active members and supporters of the Auxiliary.

YOU AND YOUR INSURANCE

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

Even Wigs are Covered Under Homeowners Policy

"I bought a wig and my husband was pretty angry when he saw the price. Can I buy an insurance policy (out of my household allowance) to cover the wig-and-me-in case something happens?" a fashion conscious housewife asks.

Yes, wigs can be insured, but you might not have to save your pennies to pay for the policy. If you and your husband own your home and carry one of the newer homeowners policies, the wig is already protected (as part of your personal property). In fact, if you own a "broad form" policy, your wig is protected against 10 perils, not including your husband's fire.

Perils that are covered include fire, theft, vandalism and windstorm - to protect you if your wig blows off on a gusty day.

If you are a professional entertainer, or by the nature of your profession your wig is part of your job, you may want to insure it under a special floater policy.

Insuring a wig is no joke. A first-class imported model may sell from $700 to $1000 or more and thefts of wigs, funny as they may sound in newspaper stories, are increasing and are no laughing matter to the victims.

Since most homeowners policies contain some limitations on coverage of personal items (while traveling, for example), it would be a wise idea to check with your insurance agent to be sure you are adequately protected if you have purchased an expensive wig.

This column will be glad to answer questions you may have about property and casualty insurance. Send them to:

Summer Job Hunting?

With school ending, many young people are thinking of job prospects for the months ahead. But job opportunities are limited, and it is important for young people to realize that it takes more than "wishing" to secure a job.

Employers say good grooming and courtesy are two of the first things they note about a potential applicant. This means that young people especially—who usually have little in the way of real experience to offer—must make personal appearance for an interview count almost as much as qualifications.

Strive for a neat, well-groomed appearance when going to an interview. Obvious "best" clothes may create the impression that you don't need the job; on the other hand, flashy clothes may suggest that you intend to appear at work in careless dress.

Pick a happy medium; simple, but not flamboyant. Select subdued colors and styles that are conservatively cut. Be certain clothes are well pressed, and free from spots and stains, as well as properly accessorized.

Cleanliness and neatness are prime requisites. The virtues of a neat hair style, well-cared-for hands and a clean complexion cannot be overrated.

Along with these factors, put your best foot forward: be punctual, poised and confident.

Think before you speak and say what you have to say in a concise and respectful manner.

Competition for good jobs and advancement is always keen. After you get a job, remember that good grooming, courtesy and efficiency will help you to keep it.

Safe Boating

Safe Boating Starts at the Dock. How well prepared a boatman is determines how safe the trip will be. Preparedness covers a multitude of subjects in the boating field. For instance, the hull of the vessel must be prepared to cope with the type of waters where boating will be done.

The equipment in the vessel should be adequate to meet any eventuality that may arise; man overboard, fire, grounding, collision, sinking, etc.

The boat operator should be prepared; know the waters, know how the boat handles, know the rules of the road, know how to use the equipment, figure out what to do if the vessel is involved in an accident or if there is a fire aboard. Inform passengers what is expected of them. Hold drills with the members of the family, assigning each one a specific job. In a boat accident, no one opens the door and steps out on solid ground, as might be done in an automobile mishap.

A life-saving device enables a person to make shore, even though he has sustained an injury.

According to U. S. Coast Guard statistics for 1962 there were 796 persons in peril in the water, 592 perished; 447 by drowning. Of the 592 who perished in the water, 441 had no lifesaving device.

Many boating interests recognize the need for preparedness and offer fine courses. The U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, the U. S. Power Squadrons and the Outboard Boating Club of America are leaders in the field of boating education. Every boat owner or potential boat owner should attend one of these fine courses, and a course on first aid.

Something To Think About

There has been considerable talk of a federal body, court, or some other agency which would have the absolute power to resolve labor-management difficulties and controversies. This body, the argument runs, would be able to prevent the costly and damaging strikes that have plagued so many areas of the economy, including enterprises intimately connected with the national defense.

The pressures for this come from two sides. There are managements that support it, on the theory that labor would no longer hold a whip hand over their operations. There are unions that also support it, on the theory that the political power their membership exerts would give them the edge in the settlement of opposed claims and demands.

The danger here is real. The result might well be total government domination of both management and unions. If it is to control and dictate to the one, it must control and dictate to the other. The faults of the present way of handling disputes would be small indeed in comparison to the destruction of freedom.

The Sound Of Music

Contrary to what we sometimes believe is the opinion of our fellow townspeople — namely, that this weekly news can be whipped together as quickly as a large daily with a staff fifty times as great — contrary to this belief, we say, it is necessary for us to prepare our paper a day or so before the press begins to roll.

So, as of now, we have no idea what the weather will be like on the evening of Thursday, June 6. But we would like to offer a suggestion.

If it's a pleasant rain-free evening, and you're looking for something new in the way of diversion, tie yourself to the terrace lawn of the Federal Laboratories near the tower and lagoon. There the Nutley Symphony Orchestra is presenting its annual "pops" concert.

If you have never sat out under the stars and listened to music, you have a treat in store. There is something special about sitting comfortably in the quiet darkness, relaxed and at peace, listening to the sound of fine music well-performed.

It beats tired TV re-runs any day.

And should Thursday's weather prove inclement, the rain date is Friday, June 7.

No Tax Worries Then

Believe it or not, there was a time when Jerseymen didn't have to worry about taxes — but you have to go back 200 years to find it.

Lawrence H. Gipson in "The Triumphant Empire," a study of British history before the Revolution, quotes New Jersey's Colonial Governor Johnathan Belcher (1747-1757) as having written in 1749 "This 17 years since any tax was raised on the people for the support of government." Actually, the report states, the people of New Jersey had paid no provincial taxes for a period of 20 years and "only trivial amounts for 12 years prior to that."

Looking further into this "phenomenon," the book said the explanation "lies in the small expense involved in administering the colony and the high efficiency of its Loan-Office in lending bills of credit on interest to landowners for making improvements."

How times have changed!

UP SPEAK

ASKS AMENDMENT OF DRUG LAWS

To the Editor, The Times-News: Fear of "punk" dope users and laxity with the younger generation in general were emphasized by Detective Lt. Thomas Mueller of the Essex County Sheriff's office in his presentation on narcotics at the monthly meeting of the Rutan Estates Homeowners Association on Monday night, May 20, at the Belleville Recreation House on Joramelon Street in Belleville. Lt. Mueller launched a scathing and pungent denunciation of permissive, scared and careless parents who through their own selfishness contribute to the waywardness of their children. This leaves the way open for the susceptibility of these children to the temptations used by the narcotics "pushers."

Lt. Mueller presented a shocking picture of the extent of narcotics traffic in the State and especially in Essex County. The economies, vast profits involved, and the many and varied methods used by addicts were also explained. A color motion picture and exhibits of the actual devices and drugs used were presented.

Recently numerous newspaper headlines have been concerned with this subject, and the work of Lt. Mueller's department. The local and state laws must be revised to give the police more leeway in dealing with these problems. There are not enough teeth in the current laws and many limitations of the law hamper the apprehension of the narcotic users and peddlers. The time and warrant laws must be broadened as narcotics is deep rooted in crime. The main cause behind dope usage in this country is subversiveness.

Every citizen should be made more conscious of this problem. Anyone interested should contact the Essex County Sheriff's office. The laws must be amended.

A dope habit is not formed overnight. The victim must be willing. Parental guidance and strong family ties are the strongest defense against this scourge to mankind.

BECK'S COLUMN

BY MAX BECK

After innumerable delays, at long last we finished our enlargement and remodeling program.

We cordially invite the readers of the column, our customers and friends to come in and have a look at what we did.

The expansion and changes became necessary due to the growth of our business, particularly color TV which really took off. Since we stock every available RCA color TV set and have the finest service facilities, we have become the largest single servicing color TV dealer in the state. In recognition of this RCA sold us for this event only a number of color sets at very much reduced prices, which we offer together with great reductions on all other color sets, during this special sale.

We take this opportunity to thank our customers for their loyal support, which made this improvement in our facilities possible and necessary. It will enable us to serve you even better by presenting an even larger variety of merchandise, each group in a special department.

We service what we sell.

PUBLIC SERVICE ELECTRIC AND GAS COMPANY
Taxoaying Servant of a Great State

I Am

These decisions were reached after long and careful consultations with our municipal auditors as to proper fiscal programming and budgetary procedures.

Neither I, nor any of my colleagues on the Town Council, have any desire to impede in any way the proper growth and expansion of our Public Library, nor to infringe upon the autonomous powers of the Library Board. We do, and we will insist upon a fair and proper budget presentation and necessary cooperation between all units and functions of our town government.

In your minutes dated March 12, 1963, there is a statement, "The current operating budget for 1963-1964 being cut by 10 percent." The Town Council the board on a motion by Mr. Wadsworth and seconded by Reverend Long agreed to table until an indefinite date the repairs to the ceiling in the rear reading room and also the repairs to the Academy Street sidewalk. Said motion was passed by the board.

From the language it is quite apparent that your Board is attempting to cast the Town Council in the role of legislative organ. With your continuing reference to the cutting of the 1963 budget, you also place blame on the Town Council for not providing moneys for repairing the ceiling in the rear reading room and the Academy Street sidewalk. As a matter of fact, the dispositive fact, you requested the Town Council last Fall to transfer moneys in the amount of $4899.13 from your Salary Account, No. 80, to your General Account, No. 81, for the specific purposes of purchasing certain furniture and equipment, making major repairs to the Academy Street sidewalk and retaining walls, the repairing and repainting of the ceiling of the rear room on the first floor and the installation of new rear doors at the lower level entrance.

The Town Council, by resolution adopted on November 27, 1962, made this transfer as requested, and the said amount of $4899.13 was placed in your General Account, No. 81. In your question and in our belief that these moneys would be used as you stipulated. Instead it was used for the purchase of supplies of all types, from paper clips to crayons and the payment of bills for telephone service, fuel oil and minor repairs. Not one single penny of this appropriation was used for any of the repairs for which you requested the transfer. Except for $29.23 now standing in this account, the moneys have been exhausted, and now the repair work has been done.

You now have the industry, the only word which properly fits this situation, to lay the blame at the door of the Town Council for your failure to effectuate said repairs. How and by what reasons you can possibly justify your procedure in this particular manner?

You also clearly demonstrated by your action, in sending direct to Civil Service Commission the CS6 forms changing the salary ranges of your library employees without notification to either the Town Manager or Finance Department, your refusal to cooperate with the Council in paper clips and crayons." Nor could he, because of his constant absence, be cognizant of the good and substantial reasons that led to the postponement of certain repair work.

Mr. Laterza admits being "aware of the autonomous powers of the Library Board," yet because of his absence record he is obviously unaware that salary increases for Library staff members customarily and by long usage always have been made retroactive to January 1. Had he been in attendance of any subsequent Library Board meeting, or had he even read the minutes carefully, he would have known that no formal notice had ever been served on, or received by, the Library Board to the effect that the ground rules pertaining to salary increases had been changed. When Mr. Laterza's complaint about what he terms "this unfortunate situation," was badly misdirected. He should have addressed it to himself. For if there is any virtue whatever to any of his complaints, then he, as a member of the Library Board, bears an equal moral and factual responsibility with any other Board member for the fiscal policy of the Library Board. Certainly, the Board as a whole would have been only too happy to avail itself of his wise counsel.

The fiscal policy of any public body is — and by virtue of our basic democratic concepts, ought to be — subject to the widest possible scrutiny and, if necessary, criticism. However, I cannot help but feeling shocked and deeply aggrieved at the manner in which Mr. Laterza felt compelled to take the Library Board to task for its stewardship. Leaving aside for a moment his own personal involvement and responsibility, none of the specific complaints that, for reasons unknown to me, he is making publicly about the Library Board, could probably justify the malicious tenor of his

Dear folks—
June may be the month of roses to the poets, but for the rest of us, it's really the month of Gifts!

Graduation, Father's Day, Weddings, Bon Voyage, a birthday or two—oh me!—I'd better get busy at Lipton's and be prepared!

Mrs. Cassell, in the Jewelry department, gave me a real inspiration. With everyone wearing gifts these days you just have to have lots and lots of beads—(longer length, of course.)

It's just amazing how you can change your whole appearance by a different string of beads, a bracelet or two and some fantastic earrings. (I quote.)

She was just unpacking the new wooden sets—Dark or light natural wood, beautifully grained and polished, interspersed with Catalin, in lovely colors!

(Couldn't help giggling over the thought of some old Manhattan Indian chief, way back you-know-when, sending his braves off on a trading expedition with the admonition, "Now, don't take any wooden beads, boys!")

Seriously, tho',—they're mighty smart and so are the cork sets, either natural or tinted.

I selected some of those Very New patio earrings, too—the colors are delectable.

That takes care of my young graduates—next week I'll concentrate on my June brides!

June is fun—buying gifts at Lipton's,—and they wrap them so gorgeously, too!

Sincerely
Lettie

Belboys Extend Winning Streak as Orange and East Orange Fall

Coach Petti and his greatly improved baseball team ended the season this week with a 9-8 record. This is the best record the Belboys have compiled in 15 years. Of the nine games won, the Belboys took their last seven in a row.

On May 25, the Petti nine journeyed to Orange and came back with an 8-5 win. This Ray D'Atorio's eighth win, was a close one until the ninth inning. The Tornadoes had broken a 3-3 tie with two runs in the bottom of the eighth. In the Belboys decisive ninth, John Syneski and Dave Hatch rapped out doubles which were combined with three singles and an Orange throwing error to bring about a five-run rally.

Dave Hatch, Richie Luzzi, George Connelly and powerful John Syneski were the hitting stars of the game, while Mike Lilioia and Frank Ray looked real sharp defensively. Dave Hatch came into his own form as he found a new home on first base. This game like the whole season started slowly, but ended with a great deal of unstoppable momentum as Belleville evened their record off to 8-8.

Belleville	0	0	0	1	1	0	1	0	5	-8
Orange	2	1	0	0	0	0	2	0	5	-5

Panthers Foiled by 10-1 Score

In a Big Ten Conference game, Belleville routed East Orange 10-1 on the sharp pitching of Ray D'Atorio, and the solid hitting of John Syneski. D'Atorio turned in a five-hitter, striking out 7 and walking 2. Syneski went four for four. He homered in the fourth with Frank Ray on base and singled Mike Lilioia home in the fifth, when Belleville tallied four times. In the fifth inning, when the four runs were scored, Cervasio walked and stole second on a Luzzi double. Frank Ray, then singled Luzzi home and Syneski singled Lilioia to the tally, followed by another D'Atorio R. B. I.

In the eighth inning, Frank Ray walked and Luongo bashed him home. George Connelly made it to first by an error and Cervasio then hit Connelly and Luongo around. The Panthers stalked a run in the ninth frame with two outs as Ehert homered.

Thus ended a season of which the entire team can be proud. They endured the hardships of a strange field for each game but managed to come out with a record which showed a combination of a concerted team effort and coaching know-how of Coach Petti.

Cindermen End Season with West Orange Romp

The Belleville High School Track Team, under the able tutelage of Coaches Testa and Forte, ended another highly successful season this week. In this final week of competition, the Belboys had two meets. One was with the Irvington Campers, the other with the West Orange Cowboys.

Against the Campers Belleville lost by a small but decisive 56-52 score. Although the Blue and Gold lost, there were a few outstanding performances. In the high hurdles, Irvington's John Kuhn took first with a 16.1 time. Nevertheless, Belleville's Steselles came in a close second. Greco and Brown ran an unusual 10.2 dead heat for first place in the 100 yard dash. As usual, Jim Harvey took the mile with a 4:42.6 time. Richard Ziegler, an ever improving Junior that you fans will hear a great deal about next year, paced to second place with 4:42.4. In the 440, Jim Orsini ran a 53.3 for a second place and a new school record. John Steselles was first in the low hurdles and team captain, Chris Pepera was right behind him. Tom Greco took a 23.5 first place in the 220, while his speedy compatriot Gus Brown was second with a 24.2 time.

The meet was actually lost in the field events, for Belleville only scored 10 points, while Irvington scored 26. If Belleville could have taken one or two more places in these events the tables would have been reversed, as Belleville had a 15-point advantage prior to the field events.

On May 30, West Orange came to Belleville and went home with their ears pinned back. Belleville easily took the Cowboys by a 72½-55½ score. In this meet the Blue and Gold took 10 first places, 6 seconds, and 3 thirds. West Orange paced to a mere 2 firsts, 3 seconds and 5 thirds.

"From the Sidelines" it was evident that this was one of Belleville's better meets. In the track events, Belleville took all the first places. The field men improved as Sica walked off with a first place in the discus and Gus Brown jumped 20 feet 10½ inches for a first place in the broad jump. Oleg Moisenko and Harold Avalone respectively took second and third place in the shot put. Peter Eccles, a sophomore, who has shown many sparks of promise this season, placed second in the pole vault, and Bob Byers took third in the high jump. On the track, Steselles and Bennetchi respectively took first and second in the high hurdles. Speedy, Tom Greco was number one in the 100 yard dash with Gus Brown two tenths of a second behind him for second place. Jim Harvey, and Rich Ziegler ran a dead first place for the mile. In the half mile John Doerer took first with Bob McGietan in second. Jim Orsini placed number one in the 440 and Art Asantes was the third man. In the low hurdles, Chris Lepara placed first with teammate John Steselles four tenths of a second behind him.

All in all this was a fine meet and a real team effort. This, the season's last meet wrapped up a highly successful season, that only came from hard work. Next year, the team will practically be the same so the future does look bright for the Blue and Gold Cindermen.

Coach Testa Panel Member

Congratulations are in order to Coach Thomas A. Testa for being selected as a panel member to the sixth Annual Bergen County Coaches Association Football Clinic. Coach Testa has the honor of being the only Essex County coach on the panel and one of it's only two New Jersey coaches selected to serve on the eight man panel. The other six participants all hail from nearby New York.

The clinic, which is scheduled for June 8, will be held at Winston White Stadium, in Englewood. The main topics in this all day affair are: defensive variation to meet changing offenses, rule blocking in multiple offense, fundamental line play, box alignments to cover all pass patterns, and the wing-T Roll Out Option Series.

Coach Testa, I am sure will represent Belleville in a proud fashion and help make the clinic a much more meaningful and stimulating day. I am also confident that Tom Testa will gain a great deal from this and put the newly acquired knowledge that he gets from this clinic to use and coach Belleville to another banner year in the fall.

In next week's edition, there will be a detailed Spring Sports Review along with pictures and articles of the outstanding Spring Sports Athletes. On June 20, the season's final article will be published. At this time there will also be a complete review of the year long sports program and a glimpse into the future. Although the column ends June 20, "View from the Sidelines" will resume September 1 as the Bellboy 11 takes to the gridiron.

We've got it! The amazing new MAGIC GRID* that gets MORE HEAT FROM LESS OIL!

Fuel savings in test homes range from 9% to as much as 44%!

Here's dramatic news... money-saving news... about modern oil heat. An amazing new invention—the MAGIC GRID Heat Booster—is now available for home installation in this area. The MAGIC GRID slows the heat to your present burner... inside your present furnace... more efficient, and even hotter flame. It works like magic to further improve the efficiency of oil heating... make it even more economical... add new quietness... and insure clean heat.

Each installation also includes a special system of ignition controls—developed for exclusive use with the MAGIC GRID Heat Booster.

BEFORE MAGIC GRID installation, the flame in many high-pressure oil furnaces looks like this. The flame is not concentrated in the combustion area but is scattered as some droplets of oil escape the broad flame pattern.

AFTER installing the MAGIC GRID and its special ignition controls, the flame pattern dramatically changes. It is solid and compact, more efficiently controlled. Fuel burns hotter, because it burns more completely.

Actual home tests prove savings up to 44%! Tested for an entire heating season in many typical homes, MAGIC GRID installations proved themselves in one of the coldest winters of recent years. Savings ranged from a low of 9% to a high of 44%. The average saving was 21%—in actual dollars, $53.50!

Every homeowner in the test found that the MAGIC GRID made oil heat more economical than ever. Some even saved enough money—in just one heating season—to pay for complete installation of the MAGIC GRID and its control system.

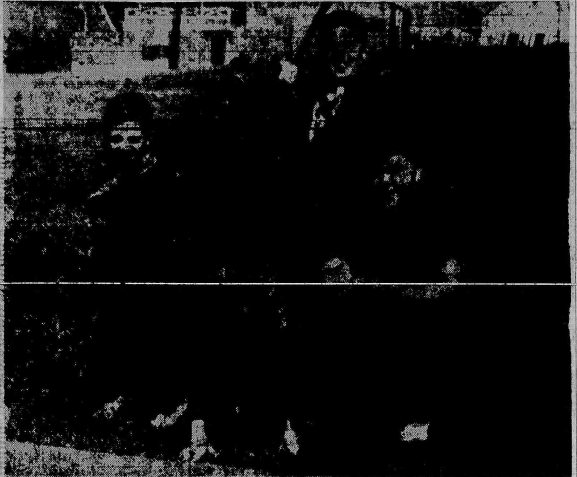

Phone us or mail coupon NOW!
Normal installations of the MAGIC GRID are simple, and you experience no inconvenience. But we must fill orders on a first-come, first-served basis. To avoid disappointment, to be sure you are among the first, please act today!

Club Scouts Lead The Pack

Here are the champs of Cub Scout Pack 307. From left is Walter Weiss, 10, who ran the quarter-mile; Vincent Cutro, 9, preparing to repeat his standing broad jump; and Michael Albertine, Jr., 9, all set to heave that javelin. In foreground is Cubmaster Sam Zacone, who made the meet last Sunday possible.

The Belleville Cub Scouts of Pack 307 held one of their first track meets ever sponsored by Cub Scouts at the stadium last week and managed to cop five awards for being fleet of foot, strong of arm, and long on lung.

Walter Weiss, 10, 19 Madison Street, took third place against Bloomfield's Vincent Cutro, 9, took two third place awards with his running of the 50-yard dash and the standing broad jump; while Michael Albertine Jr., 9 (going on ten, he says) took first place for his javelin throwing, and fourth in the soft ball - throwing contest.

Sam Zacone, Cubmaster who lives at 14 Sycamore Drive, was given credit for originating the inter-Cub sports activity. Zacone, who is a School Seven teacher, takes a great interest in all scouting activity - especially the young Cubs.

Ed Mahasky, who led Bloomfield's Troop 25, offered the Belleville boys some stiff competition and walked away with most of the gold badges.

Zacone says he plans to continue his competitive meets with other Cub Scout in the area as a means of keeping his boys in top physical as well as instilling a good healthy competitive spirit in the boys.

Supervisory Unit Safeguards Lines In Alarm Systems
An accessory unit that can be mounted on the monitor unit of a kidde intrusion detection alarm system to indicate the slightest tampering with the system's telephone line is now available from the Alarms Division of Walter Kidde & Company, Inc.
The unit, Model CSU-840, provides superior supervision of the carrier line connecting the detector equipment with the remote monitor unit in the guard or police station, and makes it virtually impossible for even an expert to compromise the system through the carrier line.
Using a balanced bridge circuit into which a pulsating voltage is introduced, the supervisory unit increases the sensitivity required by the Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., specifications.

Presenting... Marlise James

By TONI PITERA

Who's the girl that hands out news assignments to her reporters, then has to write them herself five minutes before dead line? Who's the girl everyone depends on to have a good Belleville Times School page? Marlise James, that's who! Marlise is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard James of 77 Bernice Road. However, because of all her activities, home is where she rarely is.

Marlise is a high "B" student and is a member of the National Honor Society. She is editor of The Belleville Times School Page, Associate-editor of the "SPOT LIGHT," editor of last year's Student Handbook and is on the literary staff of the Monitor. She has participated in girls' intramurals and belonged to the Future Teachers' Club, Officials Club and the Student Council. Marlise was chosen as a dele-

An unusual assembly will be presented to the student body on Friday morning. A Historymobile will be in front of Belleville High School to commemorate the 300 year centennial celebration of New Jersey. The Historymobile is a large museum on wheels. It contains priceless New Jersey documents many of which are over a century old.

This air-conditioned trailer has a public address system and will be free to the high school students and the 7th and 8th grade students as well.

The museum has eleven interesting exhibits. They are: From Indian Trails to Horses; The N.J. Constitution, 1776; People, Purpose, Progress; Cockpit of the Revolution; New Jersey as a Republic; "We, Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects"; New Jersey From Colony to State; and "The Goodness of Iron".

This assembly is sponsored by the Belleville Kiwanis, and the Belleville Tercentenary Committee. The administration is sure it will be a rewarding as well as an enlightening exhibit.

Captains Selected For Coming Year

By PAULA ZACCONE

As the result of the try-outs held on May 15th, Mary Conklin will lead next year's twirlers as Belleville High's head majorette. Mary, now a junior, placed first on the list of five contestants trying out for the position. She has been a member of the squad for two years which qualifies her for head majorette. Mary also takes an active part in intramural sports and Officials' club. Much of her time is devoted to her duties as typing editor of the "Spotlight".

The two runners-up who will serve as co-captains are Mary Lou Davies and June Di Rienzo. Both girls also have been twirlers for two years and take part

Frank Pomaco Mystery Teen

Did you recognize Frank Pomaco as the last mystery teen? Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vito Pomaco of 47 Emmett St.

This active junior is on the football team, Junior Senate, and worked on the Handbook Committee. He is currently running for vice-president of the Student Council.

Though sports fill much of Frank's busy schedule, he has a high "B" average and enjoys algebra and history.

After graduation, Frank would like to attend college and enter either the business or teaching profession.

FINE YEAR

Belleville High School twirlers and band climaxed one of their finest years by taking a field trip to West Point Military Academy on May 29. The students left school at 7:30 a.m. and returned to Belleville at 7:00 p.m. While at the academy the twirlers watched drill performances given by the cadets. They also were given instructions on drilling and marching. The trip proved to be both enjoyable and enlightening.

Spanish Club Has Traditional Fete

By PAULA ZACCONE

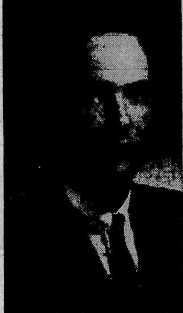

On Wednesday, May 29, Belleville High's Spanish Club under the direction of Mr. Michael Salazar was host to nearly 90 parents and students. The occasion, a typical Spanish dinner, consisted of arroz con pollo (chicken with rice) and was prepared by the club members.

Held in the school cafeteria, the dinner proved to be delicious as well as educational. Senor Vidal was the keynote speaker of the evening.

The club officers: president, Linda Frey; vice-president, Helen Fitzpatrick; secretary, Audrey Skidmore; and treasurer, Peter Rossi, have done a fine job in preparation for the event. Accommodations also go to Linda Durkee, chairman of the affair, and Bonnie Jones, entertainment chairman.

The Spanish Club, consisting only of students studying the language for two or more years, has elected its officers for next year. They are president, Linda Durkee; vice-president, Ruth Ann Long; secretary, Dolores Rodriguez; and treasurer, Bonnie Jones.

ADVERTISMENT

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM

Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look portly? You'll be thrilled by the new way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim. If you're more than 35 pounds overweight, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, another figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girde constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A Featherstitched panel down each side of this girde will contour your hips if they are a problem. The girde itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It feels like nothing on but has such slimming strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim" is the peak achievement of the design-genius, Olga.

Be "Suddenly Slim" today in either girde or panty version. Featured at LADY FAIR, 510 Franklin Ave., Nutley NO 7-6000.

Dr. John Grundfest Is Elected F.A.C.A.

Jack Grundfest, M.D., Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, has been elected a Fellow of the American College of Angiology. Now in its tenth year, the American College of Angiology is providing a common forum for American scientists working in the field of vascular disease, to meet and exchange both research findings and clinical experience.

The College sponsors annual scientific meetings, as well as regional conferences and Symposia, open to Fellows of the College. The program is designed to provide information on the newest techniques and developments in the field of vascular disease.

Newly elected Fellows will be introduced to their colleagues at a reception and banquet in Atlantic City Saturday June 15, at the fifth annual meeting of the College.

STUDENT WINS AWARD

In a contest sponsored by the New Jersey Student Craftsmen Fair with entries from all over the state, Belleville's William Hoppel has won second place with a model home he designed and built in Mr. Gabry's architectural drafting class. Mr. Gabry is Belleville High's Mechanical drawing teacher.

Those who fear the world may soon become overpopulated are really optimists, in that they don't believe overpopulation may be prevented for many decades or possibly forever by an all-out worldwide nuclear war.

MYSTERY TEEN

A sophomore boy who plays on three Belleville High varsity teams is the mystery-teen. He was a candidate for a school office in the recent election. This busy athlete likes going places with "the boys" and doing homework. (?) Eating and sleeping occupy some of his happiest hours also. The cafeteria is where he can be seen before school starts. Now do you know who he is? T.P.

a word about QUALITY

Quality is a word we all understand because it means better living at lower cost.

At Viola Brothers we have always stressed quality from top to bottom, from side to side, in every operation of our company and in every service we provide. We feel that is probably the main reason why people in this section usually check with us first whenever they decide to remodel their home. It is also the reason, we think why so many "Do-It-Yourselfers" stop by and talk with us, whether they are buying materials for a brand new playroom or just to pick up a garden tool. It's also why so many contractors, big and small insist on quality building materials from Viola Brothers.

YES . . . QUALITY IS VIOLA BROS.

We invite you to take advantage of it. It costs you nothing more.

SOME INSIDE ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS ABOUT MAIL ADVERTISING and SOME FACTS about NEWSPAPER

ADVERTISING!

THE NEWSPAPER IS THE RETAILER'S TRADITIONAL, BASIC ADVERTISING MEDIUM

Newspaper advertising sells merchandise. Advertisers know this . . . and last year invested $3.7 billion in newspapers. That's more than they spent in radio, TV, magazines, and outdoor combined! The newspaper advertiser knows what he's buying. Circulation is known. Market coverage is known. Continuing newspaper studies have developed reliable information about readership and ad noting. Consumer attitudes toward newspapers have been sampled and tabulated.

Contrast this with the mail advertising situation. Until now, little accurate information has been developed about shoppers' attitudes toward mail advertising and their feelings and actions toward advertisers who rely on this medium.

In 1960, the Bureau of Advertising, ANPA, commissioned Market Research Service of New York to make a study in depth of six hundred consumers and their attitudes toward both newspaper advertising and mail advertising. Interviews took place in four cities — Trenton, N. J.; Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Waco, Texas; and Spokane, Wash. These markets were chosen to sample opinion in different geographic areas. The interviews were divided equally between men and women, and apportioned for correct representation of various income, educational, and social groups.

HERE ARE SOME OF THE THINGS REVEALED BY THIS STUDY...

Who Gets Mail Advertising?

Almost everybody . . . and they get lots of it. Two out of ten persons get some mail advertising daily; more than seven out of ten get some every week. And a little more than half of those interviewed find that advertising matter makes up at least half of all the mail they receive. Almost all this advertising matter arrives unasked for. The weekly newspaper, however, is invited into the homes of a far larger audience. Nearly nine out of ten families get a newspaper every week — a newspaper they want to read and pay to read.

How Do They Feel About Mail Advertising?

Mail advertising produces mixed reactions. Almost four out of ten persons are considerably annoyed, and only slightly curious, when they get advertising in the mail. There is interesting evidence that the people with more money to spend are the most annoyed by mail advertising. For instance, forty-seven per cent of the upper economic group expressed annoyance, against twenty-nine per cent of the lower economic group.

What Do They Do With Mail Advertising?

A majority — fifty-three per cent — throw away mail advertising without reading it, with no more than an identifying glance. A bare twenty per cent read mail advertising with interest or curiosity.

Do People Believe Mail Advertising?

Not much — with one exception. The exception is mail advertising from a store where a charge account is maintained. This is understandable, since charge account maintenance implies acceptance of a store. Fifty per cent or more, of those questioned, described mail advertising from such a store and newspaper advertising as "believable." But only nine per cent felt that other kinds of mailers were "believable."

The use of an advertising medium which most people feel is not believable naturally tends to create a poor store image.

ON EVERY COUNT SHOPPERS PREFER THE STORE THAT ADVERTISES IN THE NEWSPAPER!

Market Research Service asked people to imagine moving into a new community where they had no knowledge of stores. How would they choose between two equally accessible stores — Store "A" which advertised by mail, and Store "B" which advertised in newspapers? Judging only from the medium used, which store would they prefer to shop? Which store would probably offer quality merchandise . . . value . . . real bargains . . . well-known brands? Interviews show the overwhelming preference for the store that advertises in newspapers. Note, too, the tendency for higher income groups to show stronger preference for the newspaper advertiser.
