RECALL MISSES NOV. 5 BALLOT

Council Voting Record Dulls Charge of 'Bloc'

The charge that a majority bloc has and is dominating town government since the Manager-Council form of government went into effect in Belleville in July of 1962 appears more and more unfounded as the voting of all councilmen is published in The Times-News.

The Times-News as a service to our readers, is publishing the entire voting record for the first time.

Beginning with the inauguration meeting of July 1, 1962 and concluding this week with the meeting of May 14, 1963, the record shows that 33 were approved by a 3-1 margin and 23 were approved by a 3-0 vote.

Taking the two meetings published in this week's issue, of the 42 resolutions and ordinances voted upon by the council, 33 were approved by a solid 5-0 vote, 3 passed with a 4-1 margin and only one was passed by a 3-2 split.

The 3-2 vote was cast at the May 14 meeting with both Councilman James R. Golden and former councilman Thomas P. Greco voting against a resolution pertaining to the awarding of a bid for the repaving of Joramelon Street.

During this time only 28 issues were carried by a 3-2 split while 197 were approved 5-0, 61 by a 4-1 vote, 47 were Street.

Debris in Streets Big Problem for DPW

Typical scenes of Belleville streets piled high with debris are shown in the four photos above and the Department of Public Works is crying the blues. It seems town citizens believe that the department has replaced trucking firms and must carry anything and everything away that is piled on the curbing or the streets. While the homeowner is saving trucking fees, the cost to the taxpayers for work done by the department continues to go up. In an effort to stop the piling of construction material and junk in town streets the department will distribute to each home in the near future a pamphlet which will clarify the department's cleanup procedures.

Anti-Debris Campaign Launched By Town's Public Works Department with Pamphlets

The Department of Public Works and Affairs is currently launching a campaign against curbing debris in the Town of Belleville. Ralph Vara, Director of Public Works, announced the time for action to keep our streets clean is "now."

Vara, a member of the department for 27 years, stressed the lack of cooperation on the part of each citizen of Belleville, and added there are annual collection days for such garbage.

Notes Service Calls

"People don't realize that the men of this department are working hard to keep this community clean. We have service calls around the clock for trash that our men aren't called upon to clean up," Vara stated.

The cleanup campaign will reach each home within the next three months via pamphlets and general reminders. It will be the duty of the citizens to follow the Public Works Director's lead.

do's and don'ts of Yesticrining garbage.

"If you take a ride through Belleville, you see that people discard anything and everything," Vara added.

Things like grass, shrub clippings, old wood, and household garbage have been tossed to curbs for pickup.

Anything Goes

"I guess the people take it for granted that anything goes" the Public Works Director concluded.

The Department, which services eight divisions in the community, is located on 48 William Street.

The average income for the 70 — odd laborers employed by the department is in the neighborhood of $5,000. Each load of debris carted onto a truck has to be driven some 10 miles for disposal.

"We have been dumping garbage at the East Harrison dump," Vara revealed.

The task of keeping up with the Joneses is somewhat of a major problem. The Township is comprised of some 40,000 citizens with each contributing to garbage disposal at one time or another.

Pamphlets Noted

The Department requests each individual to help clean up the streets. The water meter readers will be around to hand out pamphlets which include the following information and restrictions:

1. All grass, shrub clippings and other yard debris MUST BE put in containers and placed at curb with household garbage for collection on REGULAR collection days. (The next will be Oct. 1-7)

2. All household articles for disposal must be placed at the curb, with household garbage on REGULAR garbage collection days.

3. Hedges, tree cuttings and wood must be cut in lengths of three feet or less, tied in bundles and put on curb with REGULAR garbage for collection.

4. Dirt, stones, rock and plaster is NOT included and will NOT be collected by the garbage men. These items will be collected by town trucks. Please call Public Works Department for the collection days in your area.

can make a decision claiming that the petitions are void.

"We feel that from now on what ever thoughts these recall discontents have in the matter, that they must return to our Town Council."

Vincent Vecchione, chairman of the Belleville Unit of the Essex County Veterans' Ticket Committee, yesterday noted that the Recall Committee had missed the filing date for putting the issue on the November 5 ballot and raised the question of the legality of the signatures now in the hands of the committee.

In a statement to the press, Vecchione said the signatures were collected with the promise of the recall issue going before the voters in November and claimed that the signatures collected under this promise are no longer valid or usable in the group's announced intention of seeking the recall by a special election before January 1, 1964.

Vecchione said:

"We believe that since John R. Burnett, town clerk, who by law is vested with the responsibility of conducting municipal elections in Belleville, was approached by the Recall discontents and asked for petitions for recall at which time he told them that their duty for placing the matter on the November 5 election was September 6, 1963, on which day the petitions should have been filed with the town clerk and this did not take place.

"We therefore believe since we did not come forth with the petitions, that Mr. Burnett, with the authority vested in him by law, is limited."

Clerk and make a new request, and therefore obtain new signatures."

"We feel that the people of Belleville signed petitions and were told that it would appear on the ballot in the general election of November 7, 1963.

"We also feel that this could go on indefinitely if that were not the case and that there must be a limit."

Man Receives 3-Month Term

A former employee of the Wallace Tire Company, 706 Washington Avenue, Belleville, was sentenced to three months in the Essex County Jail after admitting stealing $191 from the firm August 30.

Richard M. Kirk, 27, of 164 Bruce Street, Newark, who was employed as a general cleaning and utility man, admitted hiding in the cellar of the company's building until after it was locked up then taking $191 from a filing cabinet.

Wallace Cobb, who was employed as a general cleaning and utility man, arrived at work the following morning. He called police and two hours later Kirk admitted the theft.

The For Recall Committee missed its first-announced goal of placing the recall question before the Belleville voters in the November election last week and immediately set its sights on a special election by late November or early December.

The Recall Committee, headed by Robert Westpy, chairman, and backed by Councilman James R. Golden and former councilman Thomas P. Greco, failed to present their petitions to Town Manager John R. Burnett by 4:30 p.m. Friday, which was the deadline for filing if the issue was to be presented to the voters in November.

The Committee is seeking to recall Mayor Robert Laterza, Deputy Mayor G. George Addonizio and Councilman Vincent Strumolo, whom it charges with forming a "Majority Bloc" which has negated the power of the two remaining councilmen and tended to nullify the effectiveness of the public and the Manager-Council form of government.

"We missing of its first goal could change the entire pattern of the recall movement and possibly do away with it altogether."

Westpy admitted that the Recall Committee was still short several hundred signatures of the 4,000 — plus — necessary to place the recall question before the voters. However, he noted that it could just as easily be that the committee has at this moment several hundred more signatures than necessary to require the special election.

Westpy said the committee, upon advice of counsel Emil Wulster, didn't think it wise to go for the general election after considering all of the other matters that will be placed before the voters in November. One of the issues to be voted on in November is choosing a successor to fill the vacant council seat resigned by Thomas P. Greco.

"We have 3,500 signatures audited and put away," said Westpy. "We still have 200 petitions outstanding and with these petitions out we don't know what or how many names are on them. We may have more than enough signatures or we may be short. At this point we don't know."

Westpy did point out that it was known where the petitions were and they would be collected in the near future.

Considering the committee's further course of action, now that the November election is out of the question for the recall matter, Westpy said:

"We will continue to try and work in the recall movement in a special election either in November or early December, which means that we will have only until the end of September to present the petitions to the Town Manager in order to have them checked and the special election scheduled before the first of next year."

"If we cannot do this we will have to do some very serious thinking about holding off until Mayor Laterza and Strumolo's terms will expire, rather than force a special election for a matter of only a couple of months."

Westpy stressed that "Only if the committee took longer than required to collect the necessary signatures to schedule a special election before January, which we don't feel we will," would the committee drop its triple recall movement and switch to working for the defeat of Mayor Laterza and Strumolo in the May election. In the event that this did happen the committee will work to place the recall of Addonizio, whose term of office expires in 1966, on the May ballot.

"I think we have done a good job with this recall," said Westpy. "The November election is announced that we had 3,000 signatures in only six weeks, Mayor Laterza said our claim was utterly ridiculous. This means that even the Mayor thinks we have done a good job in collecting these signatures so short a time."

"The recall movement was officially launched at a meeting in the middle of July. He must have been comparing us with the theft."

Long-Desired Meeting Set Tuesday on Rutan Estates

The threat of legal action and the efforts of Town Attorney Thomas C. D'Avella has brought about the scheduling of the long desired meeting of town officials with the developer of Rutan Estates and his bonding agency.

Town Manager John R. Burnett said the meeting is scheduled Tuesday morning at 11 with Walter Hoppel, developer of Rutan Estates, Gary Nicony, representative of the Continental Casualty Company, bonding agency, and Raymond F. Daly, town engineer.

Town officials have attempted to meet with Hoppel Associates for more than two years involving complaints on road and sidewalk conditions, "as built" drawings of underground utilities, and the erection of stone monuments necessary to control street lines.

Natale Goes To Lexington

Gerald Natale, 22, of 69 Heckel Street, Belleville, was admitted to the Federal Institution at Lexington, Ky., and ordered by Magistrate Edward J. Abramson to stay there until released by authorities as cured of the use of narcotics.

Natale, who was sentenced August 15 to six months in the Essex County Penitentiary after admitting charges of illegal use of narcotics and illegal possession of a hypodermic needle, was recalled August 21 by Magistrate Abramson.

Magistrate Abramson suspended Natale's sentence after receiving proof that Natale had applied for voluntary treatment at the Lexington institution and had been accepted.

Authorities said that Natale can sign himself out of Lexington, which is the reason the magistrate suspended sentence with the stipulation that he must remain at the hospital for treatment as long as officials at the institution want him to remain.

Dear folks—

If you love the look and feel of supple suede as I do, I know you must have admired that beige suede coat in the Lipton Style Show (the one with side splits and ring collar of mink)—Wasn't it just luscious?

You know the leather or suede look is as important this year as the Layered Look—in some cases, it's part of it—suede vests, or dresses with suede-fronted skimmer tops.

And trimmings, too—My goodness, almost everything has a bit of suede here or there!

There's plenty of suede-like fabrics, too—I loved a shift with buttoned-down collar and long sleeves in the sportswear department—it's by Majestic and mighty smart.

In the coat department there are all-weather coats of Wamutta's "Sutta Suede" with dyed-to-match Acriliner and notched collars in glorious shades of Green, deep Apricot and Fawn.

Of course, if you want to be really "in", you must have some leather jewelry—A bracelet, suede or alligator covered, perhaps—Certainly, a leaf pin of colored leather, framed in gold—or a gold chain, interlaced with a leather thong and ending in a leather and gold medallion of quite important proportions!

What fun—shopping at Lipton's—Always something New!

Sincerely

Letty

"Letters from Letty" bring you "news" from Lipton's every week.

Bass Takes Out Petitions, Sixth to Seek Council Seat

The sixth Belleville resident to take out his hat in the race for the vacant seat on the Town Council last week.

John Bass, 52, of 18 Rulan Road, took out petitions at Town Hall and is circulating them. He said he will test public sentiment before actively entering the race for the seat.

Bass is the sixth man to take out petitions for the vacancy which will be decided in the November election. Other candidates are Peter J. Paglia, Patrick Greco, Michael Maglio, Bernard O'Connor and Nicholas Raimo.

Bass, who was a candidate for Second Ward councilman and was defeated in the last election by Mayor Robert Lateral, said he was considering actively seeking the vacant seat, but would want to see public reaction to his petition.

He said: "As a civic leader for many years in the Town of Belleville, which in my opinion is a wonderful town, and with my business experience I'd like to help the present council put the town on a business basis."

An organizer and former president of the Rulan Estates Homeowners' Association, Bass is chairman of the Transportation Committee for the Town of Belleville.

JOHN BASS

He is employed as sales manager of Haag Inc., of Hoboken and Secaucus. Formerly he was employed for 13 years as a salesman by Best Provisions of Newark and worked as sales supervisor for Anheuser-Busch Inc., Bakery Division.

A past vice-president of the Joe Granesse Organization, Bass is married and the father of three sons, all married. He is a member and past prelate of the Loyal Order of Moose.

Suspension of Two Men Upheld by Town Manager

Town Manager John R. Burnett last week upheld the temporary suspensions of two members of the Town's Department of Public Works after citing the dispute at a meeting with Ralph A. Yara, director of Public Works, and one of the suspended employees.

Suspended for five days was Joseph Fornorotto of Belleville. Suspended for three days was Frank Wendling Jr., also of Belleville.

"It's impossible to turn any job where people in the field may choose their own work and choose what they will do to violate a department rule at will," said Burnett.

Admitted Violation

Wendling admitted the violation of a Department rule and voiced no objection to the suspension.

Yara said Fornorotto was suspended after he had been assigned to work in the Water Department and refused to go to work.

"He said he wouldn't go to work in the Water Department and asked why he had to do the hard work," said Yara. "I told him if he did not go to work he was suspended for five days."

Yara said Fornorotto retorted: "That's what you think. I will be back to work tomorrow."

Fornorotto called Town Manager Burnett and a meeting was called in the office of the manager with Yara.

"I listened to both sides of the story and upheld the suspension," said Burnett.

Fornorotto returned to work Tuesday.

Vara said Fornorotto was suspended after he had been assigned to work in the Water Department and refused to go to work.

"He said he wouldn't go to work in the Water Department and asked why he had to do the hard work," said Yara. "I told him if he did not go to work he was suspended for five days."

Yara said Fornorotto retorted: "That's what you think. I will be back to work tomorrow."

Fornorotto called Town Manager Burnett and a meeting was called in the office of the manager with Yara.

"I listened to both sides of the story and upheld the suspension," said Burnett.

Fornorotto returned to work Tuesday.

'Start A Taxpayer's Suit'

This month the Town Council resumes its regular schedule of semi-monthly meetings.

In the past on more than one occasion Town Attorney Thomas D'Avella responded to taxpayer inquiries with an invitation to the individual to "start a taxpayer's suit if you aren't satisfied."

D'Avella is a competent attorney and has had sufficient experience working for the Town of Belleville to have acquired a keen knowledge of this law. There are times when inquiring taxpayers may prove exasperating to elected public officials.

Despite this fact public officials have a compelling obligation to treat taxpayers courteously at all times. We could sympathize with public officials who have experienced frustrations arising from a new form of Government.

Nonetheless, with the business of the community returning to its post-vacation activity it behooves all public officials to reconsider past public performances and reflect a better consideration for taxpayers' interrogatories.

Even a little more courtesy toward each other might improve the Town Council climate.

Two Fruitful Years

Congratulations to Dr. Frank M. Durkee on his completion of two fruitful and progressive years as superintendent of Belleville public schools. Clearly, his nine years previous administrative and supervisory experience in our schools has enabled him to continue and expand upon the high standards of educational leadership established by his predecessor, the late Evan H. Thomas.

The new high school rising on the stadium site is in large measure a symbol of the leadership of our superintendent, as is the move ahead in all our schools. Real progress is being made in improving school facilities, textbooks, audio-visual aids and equipment, development of curriculum, instruction, student activities, student guidance programs, efficient staff operation, and relations with students and parents. Truly, the "new look" of our schools is commendable and long overdue.

Doubtless, being the head of the whole school system as a result of the unit control plan of organization initiated by another great educator, the late Evan H.

Thomas, has enabled Dr. Durkee to be most effective. The discarded dual system of control divides administrative responsibility between a superintendent and a business administrator, thus reducing the effectiveness of a superintendent and compelling the Board of Education to oversee two equal but separate school heads.

Under the leadership of Dr. Durkee Belleville schools are continuing to move ahead, slowly but surely. Both the late Evan H. Thomas and Dr. Durkee were aided in their tireless efforts to modernize our school system by the compulsory switch to single administrative control.

Several years ago dual control was scathingly denounced by an Essex Grand Jury which returned presentment against some board members, April, 1954. The grand jury's action led to adoption of the unit control system of administration, November, 1956. And as a new school year commences Belleville citizens cautiously count their municipal blessings — The Board of Education's unit control system being one of them.

'The Recall Petitions'

The Recall Petitions being circulated to oust Mayor Robert M. Laterza, Deputy Mayor G. George Addonizio, and Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo were not filed in time to place the question on the November ballot. Robert Westpy, Chairman of the Committee for Recall indicated that his group failed to obtain the necessary number of signatures required to place the question on the General Election ballot.

Two of the three Councilmen whose ouster is sought by the Recall Group hold terms that expire next May. Mayor Robert M. Laterza represents the first ward and Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo represents the second ward. Both are up for re-election next May. Since the end of their terms is so near at hand it appears to us to be senseless and a waste of taxpayer money to call for a special election to seek the ouster of these two public officials.

We believe Westpy, Councilman James R. Golden, former President of the Citizens Tax Council Salvatore Calabro, and other leaders of the Recall Group would be well advised to challenge the records of Laterza and Strumolo at the next election which will be held within the next eight months.

As for Deputy Mayor G. George Addonizio, if this group believes his ouster from office is in the public interest a recall petition placing the question on the May ballot would save Belleville Taxpayers the cost of a special election.

As a matter of fact those citizens seeking the recall of Councilman James R. Golden have already decided to delay the filing of recall petitions against Golden for the May Municipal election, thus saving the taxpayers of Belleville the cost of a special election.

We believe the latter decision to be sound and we think Addonizio's opponents would be well advised to defer any recall action against Addonizio until next May's municipal election.

We recognize the fact that State Law provides for the recall of any public official at any time a sufficient number of legal signatures are obtained. However, this legal right must be weighed against the advantages and disadvantages to which taxpayers would be subject.

In the given instance it is our firm belief that a special election to consider the ouster from office of Mayor Robert M. Laterza, Deputy Mayor G. George Addonizio and Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo is a foolish way to spend our taxpayer's money — and this proposal is from the very people who have constantly attempted to persuade Belleville Citizens that they and they alone are the champions of municipal economy.

Not By Bread Alone

A new dimension has been added to the practice of medicine. This happened at the most recent annual meeting of the American Medical Association, when the first program on medicine and religion was presented.

This is a direct result of the rapid advance of medical science. New problems and new needs demanding cooperation by the medical fraternity and churchmen have been created. It is recognized, nowadays, that health is affected by physical, spiritual, emotional and social conditions, and that ideal treatment should be directed toward the whole man. The AMA began its efforts to make this ideal of health care realistic by establishing a Department of "Science and Religion." Ten physicians and ten clergymen were named to provide counsel. Pilot programs followed, and now this Department is prepared to offer its services to hundreds of state and local medical societies.

The need was spoken in the 17th century, by John Donne, poet, preacher, and patient: "I observe the physician with the same diligence as he the disease; I see he fears, and I fear with him... I fear the more because he disguises his fear, and I see it with the more sharpness because he would not have me see it. He knows that his fear shall not disorder the practice and exercise of his art, but he knows that my fear may disorder the effect and working of his practice."

So we return to the ancient injunction — man does not live by bread alone.

Golden Disputes

Time-News Editorial To the Editor, Times-News:

For many years, in the past, I availed myself of the letters to the editor column of this newspaper to impart my views on varied subjects which I felt might interest the residents of our community.

Up to the time of the present ownership of this publication's taking over, frequent insertions authored by me appeared in print on your editorial page.

With the new control of the paper it became clear that any continuation from me, quickly found its way into the wastebasket. I don't question a paper's right to ignore anyone, but, I do challenge its sense of fairness and objectivity when it denies acceptance of copy on what strongly appears the personal political prejudice of the publisher.

While the editorial pages of a newspaper traditionally belong to the paper, the responsibility of presenting the paper's stand on issues does not relieve it of the obligation of observing the basic concepts of responsible journalism. Its stand upon fact, not fancy nor the capricious whim of petulant publishers who may dislike the strong position of courageous men and women who will not kneel before the publisher's position, especially on public and political issues.

In a recent issue of your paper a slanted editorial which only offered half-truths and badly distorted facts made slurring reference to payment of telephone bills by the town. It attempted to vindicate the position of Mayor Laterza, whose cause the Times-News always champions, while degrading others.

It would appear that contrary to the stand taken by the Times-News the position of Mayor Laterza was more vulnerable and subject to blame than any others, since it was learned through information assembled from the Town Manager and the telephone company that the Town was paying for an unlisted telephone in the Mayor's home.

Now just how could any citizen contact the honorable mayor on a phone that he couldn't even find the number of to call? That one really was badly slanted and just doesn't stand up.

About the suggestion that I demand "rigid specifications" may I refresh the publisher with the knowledge that Mr. Tedesco was acting town manager at the time I presume the matter under consideration was reported to have come up.

Law provides that the manager properly presented for consideration of the Council all matters to be considered or voted upon. If, then, was his duty to see that nothing was improper, which he advises me was the case. The specifications were apparent, agent and the department Director, surely not by me.

Believe me, I asked the town attorney for a legal opinion as to the propriety of this matter since Councilmen Greco raised a question. I was informed by the town attorney that everything was proper and in order. Also to be noted is the fact that the measure was passed 41 with Mayor Laterza and Councilmen Addonizio and Strumolo voting for the measure.

Why does the publisher then single me out for criticism and not his dandies? Whom he so stoutly supports.

Surely, if the papers' publisher has any inkling of irregularity his first duty is to turn over to the County Prosecutor any information he might possess or else he held for obstruction of justice.

A further evidence of the editorial's perversion of truth was the false intimation that I had insisted upon Var's raise. Again as above, any action taken by the Council requires a majority vote to be implemented. A Councilman, like a citizen, may recommend, but, only a majority vote can pass or approve a measure. The vote for Var's raise was 5 for it, none against. In view of this, again I ask, why does the paper's publisher pick upon me?

True records show I often oppose what his paper urges, while the other Councilmen, with the exception of Greco, during his tenure in office, often go along with his suggestions. IS THIS THE REAL REASON I AM UNFAIRLY ASSAILED IN THE EDITORIALS OF THE BELLEVILLE TIMES-NEWS? I enjoyed the views expressed by the hospitalized Drew Yskamp. I only regret he is not an inhabitant of our fair town. He seems to have sided up the situation rather well.

Could it be that Mrs. Senator's enthusiasm and pardonable pride in being the town's Democratic chairlady has occasioned her forgetting that we in Belleville have a non-partisan municipal government where no differentiation is made regarding one's political affiliation in relationship to either the Republican or Democratic parties. In fact, obviously, our town would be much better off administratively were it unwrangling from within the Democratic party which, unfortunately, spills over into town hall, as witnessed by the "Cappy" Barnett ousted as town clerk and the ensuing hassle which troups so many within the halls of our town government.

Respectfully submitted, James R. Golden, 62 Tappan Ave., Belleville, N. J.

RECALL MOVE SEEN TO AID GOLDEN

To The Editor, Times-News: I have been reading with interest and vigor in Belleville for over 30 years. Belleville used to be a nice town to live in, but not for the last 10 years, it has been a nightmare for the taxpayers. They finally voted the rotten commission government out, and replaced it with the Council-Manager form, hoping that things would be better and real relief would come for the abused taxpayers.

I regret to say this hope has not been fulfilled, instead of harmony in the council we have a regular mess that has now culminated in a recall movement against the so called majority bloc. The whole thing is pushed by Mr. Golden and Mr. Greco, now resigned, to bring the minority bloc into power and serve the interests of a few frustrated politicians, all above all to put James Golden in the drivers seat. I think the whole affair is just a stunt to fool some people, and it is far from good for the taxpayers. Mr. Golden has been a great disappointment to many voters, including myself. I voted for Golden hoping that he would live up to his pledges he made with a big fanfare on the outside. These pledges are now gone with the wind, and it is now strictly the politician all for himself and the things he condoned on the outside he promoted now on the inside. While there is room for improvement for the whole council, I still say the Golden minority bloc so far has come out second best by a big margin. If a recall was in order, it would be Golden, and I am sure many would gladly sign THIS recall for the rabble-rouser, to bring some badly needed harmony in the town-council.

I hope not many people are fooled and sign up for this recall force for the majority bloc because the motive is personal, and would make things for the town much worse.

Let us keep Golden at least on ICE, or better yet throw him out altogether, and let the frustrated politicians think up some other stunts, trying to fool the Taxpayers. The whole thing is premature, and I hope it gets no support and will be a big flop and save money for the taxpayers. They are very badly in need of some relief.

Belleville can again become a nice town to live in, without a Golden problem, that is anything but golden.

BECK'S COLUMN

An interim report on the experimental operation of the "pay as you go" test in Hartford, Conn., shows that apparently it has been successful.

Subscribers to this service were the only ones who could see the Patterson all Liston fight on TV. There are no commercials, which in itself is a relief. 85% of the subscribers looked at this fight, while 29% looked at the Bolshoi Ballet. Boxing really breathed the life into TV and apparently still commands the largest, and the most attentive, audiences. One would wish though, that the percentages of these 2 programs would be reversed.

Among the top movies "The World of Suzie Wong" had the largest audience, with "Notorious Landlady" and "Counterfeit Trailor" the follow ups.

The number of subscribers to the service is slowly increasing, as the operators find out what the public wants and the quality and variety of programs will be further improved.

Another system is about to be tested in California. It is to be hoped that it will be a success. This would be the only in-home system that would improve their programs. As it is now, they have a captive audience, either "you take it or you leave it" Commission as every other else, will work to the benefit of the consumer.

Next year all TV sets will have to be equipped with an UHF tuner, so there is plenty of room for a "pay as you go" system.

Stuffed Lamb Chops

For a new, impressive way to serve lamb chops, order them the thickness of two rib bones and make a pocket between them, slitting lengthwise. Fill the opening with a small amount of stuffing and broil. There's no need to fasten the opening if you slit the chop from the bone side. It will seal itself during the cooking time.

Storing Lamb

The best way to keep lamb fresh after you bring it home from market: remove wrapping and store it loosely covered in the coldest part of the refrigerator. Store it wrapped if it is prepackaged in materials which do not absorb moisture.

Returnees With that Lonesome Feeling

Empty helmets symbolize departed members of last year's Belleville High School starting offensive lineup. The only returnees are John Senesky, halfback, who will shift to the fullback spot this season, and Linemen Sibi Sica and Joe Del Guercio, co-captain. Coach Tom Testa is busy looking for replacements to fill the gaps from the 95 candidates who reported for the squad.

Search for Offensive Starters Paces Belleville High's Football Sessions

The search for a quarterback played mostly a defense last year, is showing good promise on offense this year and said he expected big things of Cervasio after he became accustomed to his new position.

"John Senesky, who started last year at halfback has shifted over to fullback and is looking good," said Testa. "Tom Greco is our speedster. He only weighs about 130 pounds but has lots of fight and is the fastest man on our squad. He could be the other starting halfback. Another boy coming along well is sophomore Walter Phipps."

Defense Seen Key
Testa noted that his defensive unit was far ahead of his offensive unit at this point in the game. "Actually, defense is the key to our success or failure this season," said Testa, who is beginning his second year as head coach.

Reviewing his possible starting backfield, Testa noted that several of the slots were still undecided. However he noted that halfback Joe Cervasio Jr., who

Charles Oese," noted Testa. "He lacks experience but is a real hustler."

Admitting that he lacks depth in his backfield, Testa likes to talk about his line which at the moment has Co-Captain Joe Del Guercio, a returning starter, at center; Sibi Sica another returnee, at right guard; John Visco, co-captain at left guard; and Warren Ceres and Len Luongo at the tackles. Pressing for starting tackle assignments are Ed Carney, Jerry Lepre and Pete Strumilo.

Looking good at ends are Richard Benecchi, Jerry Lepre and Richard Longo.

"We have a lot of other boys who could be in the starting lineup on September 23 when we open the season," said Testa. "The team has a lot of spirit and every sophomore knows that he will be in the starting lineup. These gives us good morale and a fighting spirit."

Boys Boost Ratner's Comeback

By RUDY NEUMAN

"My mind is so full of thoughts as I sit here dictating the story of my boxing life, a career that has been so exciting, so eventful, so wonderful, a life that few people have been fortunate enough to live."

Ernie Ratner shifted his partially paralyzed body from the sofa and slowly lifted his face. His eyes, sorrowed by years of suffering, looked at a group of neighborhood boys gathered in the hallway listening to their idol.

"I'll tell you where I'll start. I'll begin with those four wonderful boys over there," Ernie pointed. "They stand out most in my mind of all the happenings, since the fateful day when the world turned upside down on me."

That unfortunate day changed the complexion of Ernie's life. An accident that left him in a wheel chair and little hope of ever walking again. It was a freak accident that should not have happened, but by the grace of God, Ernie is fortunate enough to be alive.

At this moment, Ernie wanted to bring up so many points, but the kids were his angels and nothing, not even his first boxing victory, would overshadow his most exciting day.

Ernie grabbed for his wooden crutch and opened his mouth to speak, but no words came. After a moment of pause, the former lightweight fighter said with deep emotion.

"Those boys out there gave me a new life. The doctors said I was washed up after the operation I never could walk again, but I'm doing it."

A rod that shattered Ernie's ribs and spine while working for the Town of Belleville on that fateful morning of Oct. 25, 1959, ended a dream of retiring and raising time watching his grandchildren grow up.

Ernie could tell the time he recovered consciousness in the hospital and discovered he was paralyzed. But that's water under the the bridge. His thoughts were on a wheel chair after the tragedy, those kids.

"Boxing was my life since the age of 16 when I first turned pro," Ernie went on. "I can remember the first time I boxed professionally and knocked out a kid by the name of Sonny Boy DeFisco, a neighborhood guy."

Ernie slumped back and rested his head while he gazed out the window.

"There was the time I boxed the featherweight champ, Pittsburgh Jackie Wilson, in 1931 and the lightweight champ Tony Canard in the following year. I lost both in 10-round decisions, but I managed to keep my head high."

It was a different outlook upon life when Ernie was doomed to chine for my legs, and that's where these kids come in."

Somewhere along the line some gossip was overheard by the neighborhood that Ernie Ratner was in need of exercising equipment.

"I decided to build enough courage and start exercising my arms and fingers. Before long they were responding to the doctors' amazement," Ernie gestured.

But the trials and tribulations of living with a handicap continued to pressure Ernie.

"I borrowed an exercising maand watch these four kids run around like grasshoppers. Little did I know what the little rascals were up to."

The four—Frank Molinari, age 13; Brian Waters, age 11; Roy Newman, age 11, and John Marozzi, age 11 teamed up to campaign house to house for old books and papers to sell. The money they collected went to purchase a much needed bike exerciser.

"I'll never forget that day. We invited the four boys for a spaghetti supper and what a surprise I was in for," Ernie said.

At the conclusion of the dinner, the boys departed in a hurry only to return a half hour later with the biggest surprise in Ernie's life.

"They were standing around something on the porch. It looked like they were hiding something. They sure were," Ernie laughed. "It was something out of a storybook. It's hard to describe the emotional feeling."

The exercising machine was standing within view of the living room as Ernie continued.

"The most enjoyable gift I ever received! Wonderful, just wonderful."

"I live for these kids," Ernie said earnestly.

Now a crippled man of 52, Ernie Ratner is crossing another milestone in his illustrious career. And let me say, that this refusal of full acceptance of his disability all hooks up with one thing—FAITH, an almost divine faith.

Target Practice Important For New Jersey Archers

It's time for New Jersey archers to sharpen their broadheads and take plenty of target practice in preparation for the Bow and Arrow Deer and Bear Season which opens on October 5, according to the Division of Fish and Game.

Bowhunters taking to the fields for the first time this fall must complete a course in bow safety. Bow and arrow licenses will be issued only to hunters who can present a certificate from a bow safety course or a previous bow and arrow license.

There is no charge for the safety course. Lists of qualified archery safety instructors in each county are available from hunting license dealers and Conservation Officers.

Archers should contact instructors promptly to insure that they receive instruction and as a courtesy to the instructors who give their services voluntarily. Youngsters between 14 and 21 must have parental permission to take the course.

The bow and arrow is not a toy but a potentially dangerous weapon. District Conservation Officer John O'Dowd points out. It is particularly important to make sure of the target and never to aim even a blunt arrow at anything you do not intend to shoot.

One deer of either sex may be shot during the bow and arrow season which runs from October 5 through November 7. Bear hunting is open to archers during this season for the first time this year, with a limit of one bear.

Vets San Filippo, Peterson Return to Indians' Grid II

Head coach Gerry Edwards is putting 60 varsity football candidates, including two local players, through double sessions at Montclair State College in preparation for the Indians' opening game Saturday at Clifton High School Stadium against East Stroudsburg State College, Pa.

The 1963 season will be the Indians' 32nd in intercollegiate football. Montclair State has fielded a team continuously since 1928 with the exception of the 1942-45 period during World War II.

Veteran Squad

On paper, the Indians appear to have one of the best teams in their history. With the exception of a few positions Montclair will have a veteran team.

Among those returning are lettermen, Roger Peterson of Nutley and Ron San Filippo of Belleville. Peterson gained 117 yards on 27 carries last season, second best on the squad. The senior halfback will be one of the starting members of the veteran backfield.

San Filippo is also a senior. At 200-pounds, Ron is battling it out for a starting berth at one of the end positions.

Fourth Season
Coach Edwards, starting his fourth season as head coach, has compiled a commendable record of 20 wins and 4 losses.

The 1963 schedule will be ten games and matches the Indians with some of the best college grid teams in the nation. Top opponents include East Stroudsburg, Southern Connecticut State, Ithaca and Indian State, Pa.

Newark Motorist Draws 30 Days

A Newark man was sentenced to 30 days in the County Jail by Magistrate Edward J. Abramson at the September 5 session of Municipal Court after saying he was unable to pay a $200 fine and $5 in court costs.

The man, Thomas DiBlase of 299 Summer Avenue, Newark, was fined the $200 on a charge of mis-stating facts on a motor vehicle registration application.

Court officials said DiBlase had claimed to have automobile insurance when applying for registration. He admitted that he did not have insurance on the vehicle. He was arrested by Motor Vehicle Inspector Kaerath.

Fresh cooked green beans welcome this sauce. Cook bacon until crisp, then dice. Add minced onion and 1/2 cup tomato juice. Simmer a few minutes then pour over cooked beans.

You and Your Insurance
(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

PROPERTY STOLEN FROM YOUR AUTO MAY NOT BE COVERED BY INSURANCE
"If a camera is stolen from my car will my automobile theft policy cover the loss?" a writer questions.

No, it will not. Only equipment attached to your car — and the car itself — is insured against theft. If your hood ornament or hub caps were stolen you would be paid for the loss. You also would be reimbursed if your car radio were taken but not if your portable radio were stolen — at least you would not under the terms of your family automobile policy.

There are, however, policies that do provide this protection. Personal property floater policies or a "homeowners" package policy would cover you if your belongings were taken from your locked car.

Policies also are available that would provide payment even if your belongings were stolen from an unlocked vehicle. These policies are designed to offer the broadest possible insurance protection and are intended to encourage the policyholder to leave his car unlocked.

Where possible, it is a good practice to keep your valuables out of sight — lock them in your trunk or glove compartment. Also, you should always lock your auto and never leave the keys in the ignition, even if you are only going to be away from the car for a moment or two. Across the country cars are stolen at the rate of one every minute and a half and most of them are unlocked.

This column will be glad to answer questions you may have about property and casualty insurance. Send "T" to:

New Jersey Guard Starts Drill Period at Camp Drum

CAMP DRUM, N.Y. — More than 2,400 New Jersey Army National Guardsmen moved into the big, upstate New York training camp over the Labor Day weekend to begin two weeks of rugged field training. As usual, and despite chilly weather, the Jersey units bypassed the post barracks area and rumbled into the bush, where they set up bivouacs.

The Jerseyans came here in motor convays, making most of their way over the New York Thruway and bucking heavy holiday traffic all the way. The movement was made without major mishap.

The Guardsmen here are members of the non-divisional organizations of the New Jersey Army National Guard. The State's 50th Armored Division completed its annual field training here two weeks ago.

In the field are the 102nd Armored Cavalry Regiment of Newark and West Orange; 103rd Armor Group of New Brunswick, with its two battalions, 1st Medium Tank of Woodbridge and 2nd Medium Tank of Phillipsburg; 12th Field Artillery Group of Lawrenceville and one of its attached battalions, 5th Howitzer of Atlantic City; 119th Quartermaster Group of Lawrenceville, with the following units attached: 30th Ordnance Battalion, Camden; 117th Ordnance Company, Morris; 122nd Ordnance Company, Camden; 133rd Transportation Company, Orange; 3rd Army Band, Camden and 19th Medical Detachment, Paterson.

Support for the units is being furnished by the State Headquarters, New Jersey Army National Guard.

Senior officer is Major General James F. Cantwell, Chief of Staff, of New Jersey. Convoy operations and training are under the supervision of Major General Edward O. Wolf of Short Hills, N.J., commander of the 50th Armored Division.

New Girl Scout Handbooks on Sale

Girl Scouts are literally lined up at the counters of the Girl Scout department in all stores selling Girl Scout equipment this week, waiting to buy copies of the brand new handbooks.

The four new Girl Scout handbooks — for the four new age levels of Girl Scouting — will be used as troops start to meet later this month and begin putting into action the newly revised Girl Scout program.

Each age level has its own handbook, jacketed in a distinctive color — for Brownie Girl Scouts (ages 7 and 8); Junior Girl Scouts (ages 9 through 11); Cadette Girl Scouts (ages 12 through 14) and Senior Girl Scouts (ages 15 through 17).

Every girl buying a book this week will receive a book plate for her "first edition."

Troops reorganized in the new age levels will begin meeting in Belleville and Nutley, and throughout the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County beginning next week.

100TH ANNIVERSARY — The Red Cross in 1963 observes the centenary of its founding. The League of Red Cross Societies in Geneva, Switzerland, home of the worldwide Red Cross movement, issued this poster commemorating the anniversary.

Father Menegus Eyes Catholic Education
The Rev. Tiliat Peter Menegus gave an inspiring and practical talk on the "Value of a Catholic Education" following Holy Communion at St. Anthony's School last week.
Father Menegus stated that the reason there is so much crime and communism found among the youth of today is because God has been omitted in their lives. The purpose of a Catholic Education is to put God in our lives. Father Menegus's briefing was a formal and appropriate opening of St. Anthony's scholastic year. Following the sermon, a steak breakfast was served to the students in the cafeteria, and classes started shortly thereafter.
