TEDESCO-WUSTER TOWN LEGAL TEAM

Finch Resigns Post Effective February 1

Long-time Town Official Charles B. Tedesco was named acting Town Attorney and Emil B. Wuster of Hackensack was named Special Counsel at Monday night's meeting of the Town Council, by a 3-2 vote.

Town Attorney Walter Finch presented the Council with a letter of resignation, effective February 1, 1965, and was accepted with regrets by the Council.

Sampieri Signs with Sammy Kaye

VINNY SAMPIERI

Singer Vinnie Sampieri of Belleville, formerly of Newark, has been signed by Sammy Kaye and his orchestra to debut with them, January 16, at the New Hartford Armory in New Hartford, Conn.

Sampieri, discharged from the Army only two months ago, has appeared with such personalities as: Buddy Hackett, Steve Lawrence and Edie Gorme, Garry Moore, Patrice Munsel, Connie Francis and many more. He has appeared on numerous T.V. shows and since being discharged has worked locally at the Fountain Restaurant in Belleville and Christie's Cocktail Lounge in Newark.

When asked how it feels to be working with the famous band leader, Sampieri says, "I couldn't think of a better way to start off a New Year, could you?"

A formal resolution will be presented at the next meeting, thanking Finch for his service. Finch's resignation set off a long-heated debate between various council members on the replacement.

Councilman William B. Cullen announced that he was amending his resolution appointing Tedesco acting Town Counsel because Tedesco had asked him to withdraw it, claiming that he did not want the post.

Councilman Cullen submitted the name of John Noonan of Nutley for the Town attorneyship. Councilman James R. Golden, who also had a resolution naming Attorney Theodore Bellet as Town Counsel on the agenda, backed Cullen's resolution naming Noonan to the post. However, it was defeated, 3-2, with Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, and Councilmen Robert Westpy and Ralph Casale voting against the appointment.

Councilman Westpy and Cullen got into quite a debate over the procedure of informing fellow councilmen of resolutions to be brought to the Council chamber for official action. Westpy said he did not have an opportunity to discuss either resolution submitted by Cullen. Cullen said he had informed all Councilmen of his intended resolutions by letter. Westpy admitted he had received the letters, but said he wanted an opportunity to discuss the measures at a pre-conference meeting.

Westpy introduced his resolution, naming Tedesco acting Town Attorney, with no salary increase over what he is now getting as a clerk in the law department, and naming Wuster special Counsel at the $8,000-plus salary previously paid to the Town Attorney.

Councilman Golden opposed the measure, claiming that Attorney Wuster was being paid the $8,000-plus "stay-away" from the Town Council. Wuster had expressed an interest in the job as long as it did not involve attending Council meetings, a handling cases in Municipal Court.

Golden said Westpy had introduced a similar resolution in July and at that time Wuster was willing to take the same post for $4,500. He asked why the additional $4,000 should be paid to

Mrs. Brown, Rev. Pascale Named to Rights Commission

Mrs. Walter P. Brown of 103 Ralph Street, was appointed to the Belleville Commission on Civil Rights as designated by Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, Monday night by a 5-0 vote of the Town Council.

The Rev. Benedetto Pascale of Silver Lakes Baptist Church was reappointed by the Council, also by a 5-0 vote.

Both Mrs. Brown and the Rev. Pascale were appointed to three-year terms that will expire on December 31, 1968.

Mrs. Brown replaces Jack P. Plunkett on the commission. Plunkett's term expired on December 31.

A resident of Belleville for the past 14 years, Mrs. Brown is a member of St. Peter's, Roman Catholic Church, president of the Colored Women's Council of Belleville, served on the Executive Board of School 1's PTA for three years, and is a charter member of the recently formed Friends of the Essex County Children's Emergency Shelter.

She is employed as a supervisor in the Newark Industrial Placement office of the New Jersey State Employment Service, where she has been employed for more than 17 years.

50-Home Community Set For Belleville

Angelo R. Call of South Orange revealed plans to begin construction of the initial model home for a proposed 50-one-family home community located on Joramelon Street at the Third River in Belleville, N. J.

To be called Colonial Estates, Call plans to offer 3 and 4-bedroom homes designed in a colonial styling. According to the builder, the initial permit has been granted and construction will begin as soon as weather permits.

Call explained that his new community will be helping to fill the great need for housing for those families who wish to remain in Essex County, locate nearby Hudson County, just 5 minutes away.

Fire Hose Purchase Tabled, 5-0

The Town Council tabled a resolution called for the purchase of fire hose from the second lowest bidder, on the grounds that the low bidder, Walter Kiddie Sales Company, failed to meet specifications listed by the Town in its advertisement.

Town Manager John R. Burnett said that Fire Chief Carl Hundertpfund had also recommended that the second low bidder's hose be purchased as it was better suited and constructed than the one submitted by the low bidder.

Councilman James R. Golden urged that all bids be returned and the request for hose be readvertised. After some discussion, during which samples of both hoses were presented for the Council inspection, Councilman Robert Westpy proposed that the resolution be tabled and the low bidder be invited to attend the next council meeting, or to submit a letter withdrawing his bid. The motion was approved, 5-0.

Soiree Slated For DiRuggiero

Dr. Frank DiRuggiero is being given a Soiree by a group of his friends at the Galaxy, 338 Franklin Avenue, Belleville, on Tuesday, January 12 at 8 P. M.

Everyone from the Rutan, Bellwood Park and Silver Lake areas is invited to attend.

This is an opportunity for all to meet with Dr. DiRuggiero personally, to more fully understand why he should be re-elected out Board of Education.

2 Incumbents 'Among 10 In School Board Race

Two out of three incumbents are among a field of 10 candidates seeking the three seats in the Board of Education election, scheduled February 9.

Incumbents Mrs. Norma McCool and Dr. Frank DiRuggiero are bidding for another term on the school board. George H. Brown will not seek re-election.

Candidates seeking the three seats in ballot order include:

A1—Rocco H. Saletta, 115 Garden Avenue.

A2—Miss Evelyn Hannon, 26 Perry Street.

A3—Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, 52 Van Riper Place.

A4—Kenneth R. Broo, 132 Fairway Avenue.

A5—Mrs. Norma McCool, 194 Fairway Avenue.

A6—John R. Basile, 84 Charles Street.

A7—Mrs. Agnes J. McCarthy, 238 Ralph Street.

A8—Michael T. DelRusso, 373 North Tenth Street.

A9—Albert Guglielmini Jr., 75 Lake Street.

A10—Frank J. Carragher Sr., 199 Branch Brook Drive.

The school board election is expected to be one of the most spirited in some time. The incumbents face uphill battles due to the additional money which has been spent to complete the new senior high school.

Golden asked: "Why was there no public hearing held to discuss the highway revision plan implemented? Why was not Belleville's Town Engineer consulted nor invited to participate in discussions regarding this? Who was notified by your department of the revision plan and when? Why was not the elected public officials of this affected community notified of the assistance and their opinions sought?"

Golden charged that "this bold faced injustice" smacked of high-handed methods that gives scant regard for home rule or the concern for the residents or public officials of affected communities.

Golden said it seemed incredible that a portion of the old Route 21 should be vacated when it could have served as a north-bound feeder road, giving access to the causeway, rather than being utilized as a factory site that blocks all traffic at that point."

Dinner, Dance Set Saturday For Grossman

The testimonial dinner and dance in honor of Seymour Grossman will be held Saturday evening at the For-Hills Restaurant at 7:30 P.M.

On January 3 Grossman was selected as one of two Scranton University alumni to the National duo or about December 31. Councilman Golden asked for an explanation Monday night at the school board meeting of the Council session as to why the bills were late. No explanation was given.

Grossman is presently principal of Belleville Junior High.

'Smile, You're on Candid Camera'

"Smile, You're on Candid Camera" does not please newborn Barbara Ann Parigi who was filmed along with many other babies who were being discharged as patients from Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

Production Assistants James Jones (earphones) and Jerry Kisker, along with the entire Candid Camera crew, concealed themselves in an obscure position and filmed on video tape the expressions and reactions of youngsters seeing their new baby brother or sister for the first time.

The Parigi family was one of 8 who were filmed. Each mother and father was briefed on a procedure to follow; but the youngsters were not as the human interest that only a child can display was the whole purpose for the visit of Allen Funt's crew.

We learned just recently that one family of the group filmed will appear on Candid Camera's program on Sunday evening, January 17, at 10 p.m. over WCBS-TV.

Although the Parigi family will not appear on TV, their children's reactions to their new sister were recorded on film.

FIRST NEW YEAR'S BABIES — Robert M. Wirtz of Belleville Plaza Babyland presents gift certificates to Mrs. Marie Romano of 165 Horablower Avenue (left) and Mrs. Patricia Kolokowsky of 83 Bremond Street for being the town's first mothers of the New Year at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. Baby Luann Romano, weighing 6 lbs. 7 oz. was the town's first girl, and Stephen Henry Kolokowsky was the town's first New Year boy. The Romanos have two other children, Blaise and Joseph.

28 Calls for Ambulance, 13 Alarms Busy Firemen

Thirteen fire alarms and 2 ambulance calls busied local firemen last week.

Four alarms were sounded New Year's Day, two involving television sets. The first came from Box 31 at Mertz and Division Avenues where a brush fire was doused with the use of a booster line. A blaze in a garbage can at Williams and Washington Avenue was put out by the department.

A short in a television set owned by Miss Moinare at 277 Greylock Parkway was out on styling. Minutes later another alarm from Mr. Stefaneli at Franklin Avenue and Heckel Street, reported an other short in a second television set. The flame was doused with CO2. Both TV sets were damaged.

On January 2 the men were called to wash down gasoline from a car in front of Shop-Rite on Washington Avenue. A second alarm called the men to wash away fuel oil which was spilled in front of 151 DuWitt Avenue. At 12:23 p.m. the department was called to 59 Melux Street, the home of Edward Steeb, where paper in storage burned and damaged a curtain before the fire was put out. Steam from a dryer

Miss Hannon Lists 5-Point Program For Improvement of Town Schools

Evelyn Hannon, candidate for Belleville's Board of Education in the February 9 election, Monday night stated unequivocally that she was not in the race to chastise anyone. She said she felt that the citizens of Belleville had had more than their share of scandal-mongering and were wisely becoming irate at the disruptive effect it has had in the local governing bodies.

"Nothing is ever gained when one candidate devotes his campaign to berating the opposition, and much constructive thought and action is lost," she said. "I feel that each candidate is, instead, obligated to explain why he wishes to serve, and in this instance, in what areas he — or she — believes the local system most needs or wants change."

Asked in what manner she would like to see Belleville's educational facilities develop, Miss Hannon noted five points to be considered.

"The first," Miss Hannon said, "and a major one, because it involves the governmental structure of the town, concerns the lack of a free flow of information between Belleville's two governing bodies — the town council and the Board of Education. Naturally I am most anxious to see that the two operate completely autonomously, as the law provides, and as they have done in the past. But I think each should be cognizant of what the other is doing, and in areas where their services to the children of Belleville overlap, I think they should co-operate with one another whenever possible and eradicate unnecessary duplication. Any other approach than this places too great a burden on the taxpayer and leaves him in a situation where either his youngster must do without certain facilities or he must pay twice for the same service."

"Currently in Belleville there are several special commissions — all active, all under the auspieces of the town government. Two of these commissions, however, have been formed to deal with the special problems and needs of Belleville's young people. A Board of Education should keep itself abreast of the goals and operations of such committees, and should work with them when necessary to assure that the youth involved receive full benefit.

"In addition, Federal funding to these commissions, more often than not, requires co-operation, sometimes interaction, between the committee and the local and state boards of education. While in many cases there is no need for Federal assistance in these projects in Belleville, these young people who do need special assistance, or a special situation in which to work, learn, or live, or special attention, or a special program, should not be deprived because of indifference or politics."

"Town facilities and town problems, regardless of who is overseer or who has jurisdiction, belong to and are the business of all of the people, and both governing bodies in this town are morally bound to see that all of the people — young and old — are served. Other towns have that kind of efficient organization, there is no reason why Belleville cannot."

"Second, up to now school curriculums have placed a great emphasis on preparing students to attend college. And many do continue their education, but many do not. While I feel that the system should continue to provide the best possible pre-college training, I also feel that the young people who end their formal education on graduation from high school should not be neglected. The new senior high school has made some gains toward increased vocational training, but it has only scratched the surface."

"Today when a youth is graduated from high school, he or she must be capable of acquiring and maintaining adequate employment in what has become an evermore skilled and sophisticated work force. The vocational schools nearby are not equipped to handle all those who need this training [all have waiting lists]. The town must fill this void if it expects to have this sequel of its school population become respectable, self-sufficient adults in its community."

"Third, it is well-known that Belleville's program for the mentally retarded is inadequate, and despite inroads made into remedial reading problems, there is still much to be done there. In addition, there is the 'special' student who is yet to be served here in town. Much can, and should be done in these areas."

Special School Projects Cited by Dr. DiRuggiero

This is the first in a series of articles by Dr. Frank N. DiRuggiero, candidate for reelection to the Belleville Board of Education, on the nature of education in Belleville. (Editor's note.)

The Belleville Board of Education recognizing that education is a many-sided investment provides a number of special services to the people of Belleville so that every child may receive not only a quality education but special aid if and when the need for this special aid may occur. Below is an explanation of the special services made available to the citizens of Belleville by the Board of Education.

1. Psychological: We have a full-time psychologist and full-time social worker. We also have contracted for fifteen hours of psychiatric time to assist us in our more severe cases. (The psychiatrist, Dr. Henrietta Bein, is also employed by the Nutley school system and the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic.)

2. Guidance: There is a director of guidance in charge of the entire program. His office is in the senior high school, along with three full-time guidance counselors, one for each class. In the junior high school, we have two full-time counselors for seventh, eighth and ninth grades.

3. Remedial Reading: There are three remedial reading teachers assigned to grades K-6 who assist youngsters in the elementary schools when it's determined that they need help. There is another teaching reading in the junior high school. They all work with the children and also advise teachers on how best to help reading problems.

4. Special Classes: We now have four classes for the educable and one class for the trainable at School 4.

5. Garden School: This serves Essex County but is under our jurisdiction, with the district paying tuition to us for their youngsters. It is a school for the "emotionally and socially maladjusted" children and we now have four classes there. The state reimburses us for a portion of our expenses. (Considering a class for such youngsters in our schools for next year under the Grossi Bill, a new law for special education.)

6. Cerebral Palsy Center: This also serves Essex County with the same kind of tuition arrangement as Garden School. We have three classes there. (Continued On Page 11)

Mrs. McCarthy Stresses Interest In Board Seat

Mrs. Agnes J. McCarthy, 228 Ralph Street, candidate for the Board of Education, ballot position 7 A, on February ninth, last week issued the following statement:

"Although the qualifications to become a candidate for the Board of Education in Belleville are few, I think that the voter would do well before going to the polls on February ninth to ponder some other qualifications. I want to be sure that the candidates of my choice are truly public-spirited citizens, willing to give adequate time to carry out the fulfillment of their responsibilities. Each member of the Board should represent the interests of the community at large rather than one segment. There should be no personal or group axes to grind.

Mrs. McCool Cites Education Gains

Mrs. Norma McCool, seeking reelection to the Board of Education, issued the following statement yesterday:

After serving a term on the Board of Education, I seek reelection in the belief that I am up-to-date on board and school matters and can use this knowledge to the benefit of the schools.

In the past three years we have seen our schools make major strides forward. The reorganization of the system into K-6 elementary schools, a grade 7-9 junior high school and the new high school, representing the greatest accomplishment of all, gave to every taxpayer a sense of ownership, a sense of responsibility and the rewarding feeling of civic pride. To our school children, the benefits will be momentous, particularly if we as parents, temper the advantages with control at home.

In the new high school as in every new building, some problems have presented themselves. Defects in installation, defects in equipment and defects in construction are some areas which have already had developments and others may arise before the guarantee year expires. If reflected I propose to diligently seek that any contractor involved corrects those items which are their responsibility so these don't become a taxpayers burden. As I have never been involved in any deals or other unsavory practices, one may be sure that quality results will be my only aim. Having had executive experience in business, and being fully aware of the dissension which existed on our board and the high school, I feel I can bring to the Board of Education the experience of a taxpayer's burden. As I have never been involved in any deals or other unsavory practices, one may be sure that quality results will be my only aim. Having had executive experience in business, and being fully aware of the dissension which existed on our board and the high school, I feel I can bring to the Board of Education the experience of a taxpayer's burden.

Saletha Explains Reasons For Seeking Board Seat

Rocco H. Saletha, candidate for the Board of Education, issued the following statement yesterday:

"To answer the all important question 'Why I have decided to seek election to the Board of Education,' I wish to state that I have always considered that the education of our youth is the foundation of our society, and I am willing to devote my time and effort to assure that our youth in Belleville will receive the benefits of a good education so that they may face the problems of the future with confidence. It is this interest in youth that has motivated me to run for this office.

"As an independent candidate for the Board of Education elected on February 9th, I have only one thought in mind and that is to be a Board member who will weigh each decision individually and with an open mind. "There has been much discussion of candidate uniting on a political ticket. This is a policy that is common in politics. However, I personally feel that this practice should not be tolerated in our school elections. It is my sincere belief that it would be impossible to arrive at an unbiased decision on any issues under these circumstances. This honored office should not be degraded by political shenanigans or political maneuvering and each person should be elected on his own abilities, merits and independence and not by previous commitment. "My decisions will be based on the needs of our youth not only for today, but also for the future. The other criteria for my decisions will be you, the taxpayers who bear the expenses of our school system. Decisions that are made by groups better their own immediate objectives in mind and seek to disregard the citizens who elected them. In some cases, they use this office as a stepping stone to further their own political ambitions. "If elected, any candidate for election to the school board should study the issues and make

Guglicelli Offers School Aid Plan

Albert Guglicelli, candidate for the Board of Education in the February 9 election, yesterday issued the following release:

"It is impossible for me to come into your homes and talk to you until I am blue in the face. I am seeking a seat on the school board as a candidate for all the people. "Many important decisions must be made in the near future due to the higher cost of education, with the approval of the new high school. "When I appealed to you in the Speakup Column of The Belleville Times to defeat the new high school because it was to be built in the bog area and without a bomb shelter, you did so in October by 732 votes, but the Board of Education refused to recognize that mandate. "When I appealed to you again in The Times-News to vote for a favorite son, N. R. Pico, again you had to be in the majority by choice. Today Mr. Pico is our mayor.

"My intentions have always been honorable and on the side of the people. I have also worked with you to help bring about the election of Bob Westpy. Now that I am a candidate in this race to protect you against wasteful spending of your money, will you help me and give me one of your three votes or will you let the politicians control your votes now that I need them to win? "I cannot buy this election. I do not have the funds to help me. You must stand on your own two feet. The choice is yours. "I was one of the main opponents against Governor Hughes $750 million bond issue, when this joker was soundly defeated by the people, a new idea, a plan proposed by me to bring tax relief to all the people in all parts of the state, who cannot afford to provide quality education, and build new schools, has been adopted by the politicians and approved by the legislature in Trenton.

"Many school referendums are being defeated in this state because they are too expensive. Under my plan, the entire state will benefit to the tune of $100 million per year, when the Turnpike is free and clear in 1972. "The Turnpike belongs to the people and it will continue to work for them forever as a toll highway. Under the plan, if a request is made from any part of the state for funds to provide quality education and to build new schools, it will be checked out, and if the need is there, the money must be granted. The funds must come from Trenton from the profits of the Turnpike. "That was the sole purpose of my plan to bring tax relief to the people. "I do hope you will consider me favorably and give me one of your three votes. I am your right, your hope, if elected, I promise you I will go to Trenton and put pressure on the state house for the funds Belleville needs."

At the organizational meeting for his election, June Carragher issued the following statement: "Quality Education for our youths in all area of curriculum has and shall remain the paramount issue. My interest and genuine concern for all children during my long activities in the C. O. at St. Peter's Little League in Belleville, Mgr. of the Belleville Alumni Basketball games and my appointment to the Advisory Council for the present Board of Education has stimulated me into seeking a position on the Board of Education. I honestly feel that my sincere concern for the youth of Belleville along with my many Youth Activities coupled with my long experience in business enables me serious consideration as a candidate for the Board of Education in Belleville, on Tuesday February 9.

Our large world of today is becoming smaller and smaller due to exploration. A few miles in space Nations that seem ages away in travel yesterday are just around the corner today. Therefore facing all issues squarely can honestly see the need and desire for the establishment of a Russian language department in our Senior High School. A department that will enable us to better understand and prepare our youth for the complex world of language barriers that are ever present and frustrating. The introduction of a foreign language in the fifth and sixth grades on an experimental basis, to be fairly and properly evaluated by our school personnel. A continuation of this area of fine activity if successful with the language curriculum of the Junior and Senior High Schools enabling our students to be better equipped for college and industrial positions that may desire this as a requirement for employment in our ever changing and specialized world.

Candidate Carragher Lists Qualifications for Board

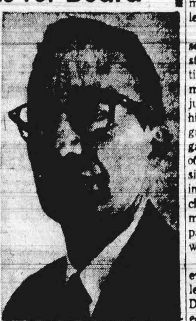

With the election for the Belleville Board of Education a short time away we see and are alerted to the familiar name of "Carragher" being placed on the ballot. A family name that has served Belleville in the past as well as the present with dignity and utility in public office coupled with the many civic and social organizations.

He many friends of the Carragher family recommend to Frank (June) Carragher as a candidate for a seat on the Board of Education in Belleville, on Tuesday February 9.

Frank (June) Carragher is a long resident of Belleville, residing at 199 Branch Brook, attended St. Peter's Grammar School and graduated from the High in 1937. A member of the Student Council for years enabled him to engage better student government. The election of class president in his junior and senior years brought his ideas and objectives of good government into focus.

Active in athletics, he played basketball and baseball, serving as Captain of the basketball team in his junior and senior years, because of his outstanding ability. A truly aggressive young man brought him the distinction, "One who has done most for his class."

Graduation brought him to the American Can Company, where he played professional basketball. As time passed he became employed in a supervisory capacity at Electronics, Newark, N.J., and maintains this position at the present time. He married the former Ellen Bergen of Harrison, who is a Registered Nurse, presently employed as Industrial Nurse for the Tiedwood Neely Company, Belleville. Their son Frank Jr., is a Sales Engineer in the Manhattan Branch of Automatic Switch Company of Florham Park, N.J., and also attends Newark College of Engineering evening classes. He also resides in Belleville on Minor Place with his wife Judy and their two baby daughters Jenni and Ann and Jacqueline.

FRANK CARRAGHER.

At the organizational meeting for his election, June Carragher issued the following statement: "Quality Education for our youths in all area of curriculum has and shall remain the paramount issue. My interest and genuine concern for all children during my long activities in the C. O. at St. Peter's Little League in Belleville, Mgr. of the Belleville Alumni Basketball games and my appointment to the Advisory Council for the present Board of Education has stimulated me into seeking a position on the Board of Education. I honestly feel that my sincere concern for the youth of Belleville along with my many Youth Activities coupled with my long experience in business enables me serious consideration as a candidate for the Board of Education in Belleville, on Tuesday February 9.

Politics in the Police Department?

On two occasions during the past year we have almost written this editorial. On both occasions we accepted somewhat weak official reasons for the transfers of men from the Detective Bureau. But now it seems to us that our responsibility to the Town and its residents makes it a necessity. We now must ask: Is politics shaping decisions and assignments in our Police Department?

Tomorrow a man who is known on the streets as "all Cop", "A guy who would ticket his mother if she over parked", and "A fair Cop", is being returned to uniform duty from the Detective Bureau.

The man who is "all COP" in capital letters, is Kenneth Place, one of the most efficient and dedicated men in the Detective Bureau for the past five years.

Place, as most residents know, joined the department after World War II service with the Rangers and a stay in a Prisoner-of-War camp after he was captured in Italy during the deadly battle at Anzio.

He was promoted to Detective after he made a single-handed capture of two hold-up men. Since that day he has been one of the most efficient Detectives in the bureau — if the solving of crimes is used as a basis. We have heard him praised, by Police Chief Charles McGinnis on several occasions, for his devotion to duty.

Unless our memory fails, it was Detective Place who solved the Washington Avenue Loan Company holdup last year, when he decided to spend some of his free, off-duty time checking reports from surrounding towns on the telephone.

However, as most men who served in the Rangers, where individualism and confidence in one's self and ability are the prime qualifications, Place is a man who will speak his mind when he pleases and to whom he pleases.

On one occasion he was reprimanded by his superiors for giving information to the press on crimes that had been solved.

A rule was passed in the department that only from the Deputy Chief in charge of the Bureau or from then Detective Sergeant John Dean was any information about crime news to be given to the press. The reason given to the press for the rule was that the PBA had objected to the detectives getting their names in the paper. Strangely enough the story that had been released by Place included the names of two patrolmen and was printed in The Times-News and area daily newspapers.

Tuesday we asked why Place was being returned to uniform. The answer given to us and to him was "that he talked too much". As one veteran detective said with disgust: "That's a hell-o'-answer to give a guy after five years of excellent service. Why not a warning before being returned to street duty?"

Several months ago another detective was returned to uniform. The official reason was that "he never made an arrest. However, as soon as a change in some clerical assignments was made in the Police Department, the man was returned to the Bureau. Why was he returned, if he had to be removed in the first place? He had seen this man working in the Bureau and believed him to be the best technical man in the department. However we did not question the Chief's right to return him to uniform if he felt he wasn't the man for the job. We can't help but wonder how much he learned checking doors to qualify him for reassignment to the Detective Bureau in a few months.

Another man was promoted to sergeant and assigned to the Detective Bureau as the second-ranked man in the department. He was praised for his knowledge of police work many times by high police officials. Suddenly he was returned to uniform. When we asked for the reason the official answer was that "he had asked for the transfer."

We were told at that time that many of the men "want out" of the Detective Bureau. We were told that many qualified men will not take the promotion to the Detective Bureau because of its long hours and the fact that the pay is less than $5 more than for walking a beat on a regular tour of duty.

However we do know that Detective Place was proud of his assignment to the Bureau, despite its long hours and little extra pay. We are sure that he didn't ask to be transferred. We also are not satisfied with the explanation that "he talks too much."

We are aware that since Town Manager John R. Burnett has taken on the role of Director of Public Safety, he has allowed both the Police Chief and Fire Chief to run their own departments. We believe this is the way it must be if the Town is going to get its money's worth from both divisions.

However, when the wave of transfers makes the Detective Bureau — which is probably the most important anti-crime unit in any town — take on the appearance of Grand Central Station's waiting room, the Manager should look into the matter.

We believe it is the responsibility of the Council as well as the Town Manager to investigate the inter-department affairs of any and all departments — including the Police Department — when there is a question as to the motivating factors involved in the transfer of personnel.

We have heard Chief McGinnis say on many occasions that "he knew of no politics being played in the Police Department". We wonder if that is the case today? Maybe the Chief should assign one of his detectives to find out.

Once the morale of the Police Department hits bottom, it is usually the start of increased criminal activity in a town. We think it is time for the Council to investigate the morale of our Department to find out if it is as high as officially reported, or if it is near rock bottom.

The people of Belleville are paying for a first-class police department and we don't believe they should have anything less. It is the responsibility of our elected officials to make certain that it is nothing less.

The transfer of Place out of the Detective Bureau is a loss to the Town, if the officer is "clean" as he said he was.

If he has committed a violation of rules that calls for his removal from the Department, we believe the public has a right to know it. We don't subscribe to the theory that the Police Chief is an unquestionable dictator. He is also a public servant and answerable to the Council and the people.

If Officer Place has committed no violation and is being transferred on the whim of Chief McGinnis, we believe it is time the Council investigate the morale of the Police Department.

The transfer of three veteran detectives and reinstatement of one of them in a few months would indicate a lack of organization or judgment on the part of some officials — either that, or politics is being played in the Police Department and we don't mean Democrats vs. Republicans. F.C.W.

Annual Report Cites Growth Of DeWitt Savings and Loan

Another year of progress and growth during 1964, according to the institution's annual report issued today. John P. Dailey, President of DeWitt said that asset growth of $3,583,988 during 1964 represented a 11.5 per cent increase over total assets held one year ago, and that assets at the end of 1964 stood at $24,778,166.82.

Witnesses Prep for Convention

The Nutley congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses continued preparations for their participation in the New Jersey Circuit Bible Convention at Snyder High School in Jersey City on January 29, 30 and 31.

P. W. Dacko, presiding minister of the Nutley congregation discussed the needs of the departments in a meeting this week at Kingdom Hall, 475 Franklin Ave., Nutley, and arranged for volunteers to assist in the areas where they are most needed.

Upwards of 200 volunteers will be required to supervise the 20 departments developed to maintain the convention and to handle the requirements of an attendance that will reach more than 2,500 persons by the final day of the assembly.

Departments such as cafeteria, attendant, cleaning and refreshments require a large staff at all times. P. W. Dacko said, to meet the convention's strict time schedule. Others are often staffed by ministers who lend professional touch to the work. These include cooks, first aid, sound and installation.

"Jehovah's Witnesses spend most of their free time in the ministry," explained P. W. Dacko. "Since the organization is one of preaching the gospel we support our ministry work by volunteering our time and our individual ability toward this end, not only at conventions, but also at the congregation where we associate. Actually this is what the early apostles did and even Jesus himself worked as a carpenter before he devoted his life to the full-time ministry, according to Mark chapter 6, verse 3. There are 64 such ministers with our group and a special session will be held during the convention for delegates.

BECK'S COLUMN
Every once in a while we have an inquiry about component parts for a Hi-Fi system. Some people think that they get better quality at a lower price. There is not the slightest question of doubt about it; you can not. You get much better tone quality for the same amount of money if you buy a ready made unit.

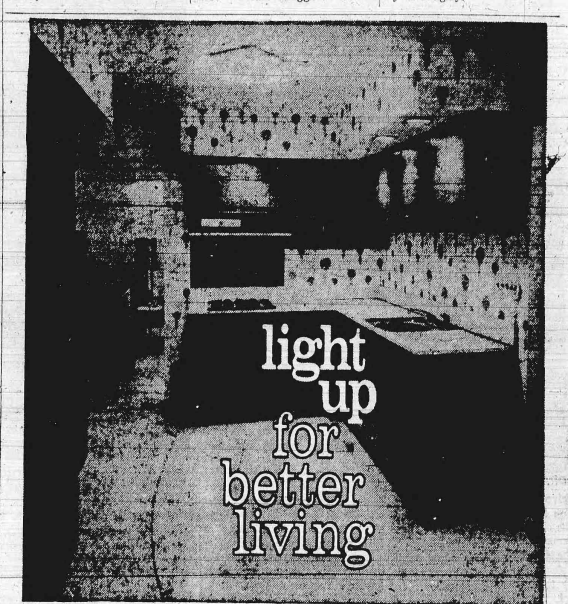

Of course, we are fully aware that some people will give us an argument about this. We have been in the "sound" business for 40 years. About 12 years ago we had an extensive selection of amplifiers and speakers. At that time there were just a few manufacturers of phonographs. If one wanted a real good quality sound system, there was no choice but to build one's own. When the large manufacturers went into this business, there was no longer any need to buy component parts. The sound business really took off with the arrival of stereo. Since then there is a very large selection of excellent phonographs in just about any kind of style and cabinet desired. As far as quality of musical reproduction is concerned, today's ready made phonographs are at least as good, probably better for the same amount of money as you would have to spend on component parts. The only reason to buy component parts would be if you want an off beat cabinet. Manufacturers of phonographs make the usual styles of cabinets to blend in with accepted furniture styling.

One of the largest dealers in component parts only, in Paramus, just announced that he is shifting to ready made units. His reason is that he can sell better value in a factory built phonograph than component parts would give.

If you want to take up sound as a hobby, that is a different story. Money does not get the first consideration in such a case. It is an interesting hobby, but it will become quite expensive because one is never satisfied and always wants to buy a heavier speaker or better speaker, and these can run into real money.

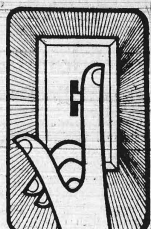

We service what we sell.

For those who don't know, a high school wrestling meet is divided into 12 individual matches. Each match is divided into three two-minute periods. The grapplers get points during the match for reversals, escapes, and other maneuvers. Unless there is a pin, the wrestler with the most points wins the match and his team gets three points. A pin ends the match immediately and is worth five team points. If a match is Nick Pizzuto had his second straight 20 point game by hitting 21. Nick connected on 5 of 9 from the floor in the first quarter to keep Belleville alive, but he sat out part of the second after getting three early personals. Montclair's Larry Simpson came up with 17 points in the second half to lead the winners with 19. Earl Williams, with 16, good job filling in and played in three quarters at the play-maker position . . . With 9 of 19 regular season games over, the Bellboys have averaged 59 points per game while allowing their opponents an average of 50 (530 total points to 454 opponent points). Statistics show Belleville to be a second half team (292 total points to 250) with the fourth quarter (150 points to 125) being the best. In overall scoring, Belleville has a 59.5 points per game, its

Music Ensembles Slated at BHS

The Belleville High School extracurricular music ensembles will present on Wednesday afternoon, January 20, from 3:00 to 3:30 P.M. the first of a series of monthly performances to be held in the high school auditorium.

Participating groups include Brass Ensemble, Woodwind Choir, Baker's Dozen and Chorus, Percussion Quartet and Dance Band.

The series, under the direction of Robert A. Wing and Dr. Samuel W. Peck, will provide balanced programs comprised of music from yesterday, today and tomorrow. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Makes Bid For Teacher Pay Proposal

In keeping with recent salary events in Essex County the Belleville Salary Committee met yesterday and the urgency of adopting this year's guide intact was brought to the fore.

The present salary trend in this country has been emphasized at our earlier meetings — the B.E.A. 1965-66 Proposed Teacher Salary Guide is not a projected view of what will come day happen to salaries in this area but rather a realistic appraisal of our current needs. Right now in Essex County we find: Minimum salaries of $5,400 are not uncommon; Maximums well above $10,500 are prevalent.

and a considerable reduction of steps has taken place. In this context it cannot be overemphasized that any compromise in this year's proposal would be most disadvantageous and would only compound our minimal salary position.

We are certain that the members of the Belleville Board of Education are cognizant of this situation and that in the best interests of local education are planning to endorse the 1965-66 Salary Guide as it has been presented, the Salary Committee said.

Miss Hannon

Space is now available. The relocation of a sizable segment of the grammar school population in the junior high has opened new areas in old, but still useful, school plants.

"Four, it is, of course, hoped that in the near future Belleville will have a psychiatrist; as well as a psychologist, on its staff."

"And last, I am in full support of any program designed to expand the library facilities in the schools. With the exceptions of those children attending Schools Number One, Three, Seven, and Eight, Belleville's schoolchildren live at too great a distance from GRAND OPENING — The new owners of the Purity Food Market in Belleville congratulate each other after the purchase was arranged. They are, Casar Romano, long-active in local and Democratic politics, and Joel Nagel, right. They officially opened their new market last Thursday and are offering many special sales for the remainder of this week.

The public library to use it to the advantage. Consequently, unless the students can be served by the school libraries, they are apt to neglect this area of study and fail to develop the proper reading habits so essential to success in school. Here again, the new found space in the grade schools can be of service.

"Not all this need be done at once. Not all of it can be. But its Board of Education who will the policies formulated by this caretaker the future, as well as either make such progress possible or impede it — not necessarily with malice intended, but simply by overlooking the possibilities, by forgetting the future progressive education."

"I think this town should have Grade A education — the people want it — the children must have it."

"It is my hope that the voters will."

Lombardo's New Book Now on Sale

Vic Lombardo of 42 Continental Avenue, Belleville, is the author of a new book, satirizing education theories. It is entitled, "Teacher, May I Leave The Room?". It is published by the American Southern Publishing Company.

A graduate of Belleville High School, Class of 1961, Lombardo is a senior at Newark State College in Union. He is majoring in the field of mental retardation.

The book was released for sale January 4 and is available at local book stores in hardcover and softback editions.

VIC LOMBARDO

Wasdyke Will Mark 40 Years With Phone Co.

Ambrose P. Wasdyke of 4 Tremont Ave., Belleville, will celebrate his 40th service anniversary with New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. Tuesday. He will be honored at a luncheon at the company's headquarters building in Newark.

A sales staff supervisor in the company's marketing department in Newark, Wasdyke is a member of the Ridgeview Council, H. G. McCully Chapter, Telephone Pioneers of America.

He is a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Nutley, and a former trustee of the Combined Community Chest of Belleville.

He was a civil defense communications consultant to municipalities in northern New Jersey during World War II.

Saletta Explains

to serve you on the school board, I pledge to work for a program that will be the best possible, both time wise for our pupils and money wise for the taxpayers.

"It has been most fortunate that my name was selected to head the ballot. I trust that I will be upmost in your mind when you make your selection on February 9th. Please remember to vote 1A!"

TEACHER SELECTED TO MANAGE CAMPAIGN

Rocco H. Saletta announced at a meeting held at the Branch Brook Manor that Michael J. Rossi, 660 Mill Street, Belleville, will be his campaign advisor and co-ordinator in the forthcoming Board of Education election on February 9th.

Rossi was educated in Nutley Public schools, and he received both his B.S. and M.A. from Seton Hall University. While attending Seton Hall, Mr. Rossi was a member of the Society of the "Seatonian" Staff.

He taught in the Newark Public schools for five years. In 1963, Mr. Rossi left the Newark school system and became a systems engineer with the International Business Machines Corporation.

Rossi returned to the teaching profession in 1964 and is presently teaching the sixth grade at Burnet Hill School, Livingston. He is a member of the Livingston Education Association, The New Jersey Education Association and The National Education Association.

Welfare Council Hears Library Story

The Belleville Community Welfare Council, which had scheduled its 63rd anniversary on January 4th, heard the story of the Belleville Free Public Library with Grimm as the Public Librarian. In his address, he informed the council of the fact that the library was founded on January 4, 1903.

According to Grimm, the front part of the present building was erected in 1941 with the aid of a matching grant from the State. Prior to that, the organization was housed in a rented store. In 1929, the back part of the present building was added in time for the heavy use incident to the Depression.

Organizationally, the library is a separate corporate entity with a board of trustees consisting of seven. Five of these are appointed, and the other two, the mayor and the superintendent of schools, are ex officio. The 1965 operating budget, about $70,000, came entirely from taxes, $5,700.

From the State and the remainder from the Town. The library has seven full-time and several part-time employees.

Grimm indicated that the Belleville Library experienced typical problems which he enumerated as follows: (1) Inability to find sufficient qualified staff, (2) shortage of materials, both qualitatively and quantitatively speaking. (Grimm noted that the library had 40,000 volumes of which only 30,000 were currently useful. He recommended an increase of effective volumes to 80,000 which would meet the standards of the American Library Association for a town the size of Belleville.) (3) Shortage of space.

One recent innovation in the library has been the setting up of an information service. Within a few months, it is anticipated that a branch will be opened.

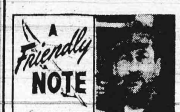

Grimm observed that a library provides free access to the recorded knowledge of civilization. Historically in America, this institution has been linked to the field of self-education.

In conclusion, Grimm noted that only a minority of the town's residents were library users. He indicated that the big job facing the organization was to acquaint non-users with what the library has to offer and to motivate them to employ it for their own benefit.

Grimm was introduced by the Rev. Dr. Frederick Long, Rector of Christ Episcopal Church and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the library.

Horace D. Baldwin, Vice-Chairman of the council, presided.

Interested in odds? If you are a bridge player, for instance, the odds are 158 billion to 1 against picking up a hand with 13 cards of one suit. . . . Odds are that 1 of every 3 families in the U.S. owns a dog or cat. . . . The odds also state that it is 900 to 1 against staying in one job for more than 10 years and, if it happens you are a confirmed natter, relax—the chances of a nervous breakdown are 1 in 1,200.

The odds against getting a first class repair job at any old shop are about the same as that of having a nervous breakdown. Boy Scouts To Mark 55th Anniversary Observance of the 55th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America is set for February 7-13, during Boy Scout Week, according to Arthur L. Manchey, president of the Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America.

"The theme for the week-long celebration will be 'Strengthen America's Heritage,'" Manchey said. "This theme was used during the summer of 1964 for a national program in cooperation with the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge. Because of the vital need for youth to be aware of their American heritage, the theme is being continued during the 1965 Boy Scout Week."

Highlights of the 55th anniversary program will include special religious services and presentations of religious awards on Scout Sabbath, February 5 and 6, and Scout Sunday, February 7. February 8 will be designated as Uniform Day and Scouts will take part in special school programs. The traditional rededication to the ideals of Scouting will be scheduled for 8:15 p.m. on February 8.

Cook of The Week

Ricotta Cavatelle Recipe Wins $5 for Mrs. Aversa

An Italian dish for Ricotta Cavatelle and tatting, but failing to win the weekly recipe contest for Mrs. Ann Aversa of 175 Bremont Street, Belleville.

Mrs. Aversa will receive the $5 given weekly to the winner. All recipes entered will be continued to be judged in future contests.

A newcomer to Belleville, winning is not new to Mrs. Aversa. Some time ago she won the New York Daily News recipe contest with a baked fish dish.

A widow, this week's winner lives in a two-family house with her son, Eugene, who is a machinist, for the Eastwood-Nealley Corp. of Belleville.

Partially handicapped, Mrs. Aversa keeps house for her mother and a sister, devoting most of her time to cooking and trying new recipes. Once her main hobby was lamp shade making.

Human Relations Parley Scheduled by Girl Scouts

A "first" for the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County will be a winter conference on Human Relations to be held Monday, January 25, 9:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m., and again in two evening sessions, on Monday, January 25, 7:45 - 10:00 p.m. and Tuesday, January 26, 7:45 - 10:00 p.m. at Council headquarters, 1 Main Street, Orange.

The conference for consultants and trainers will help them interpret to Girl Scout leaders and girls the "ethnic and cultural differences" in our community as well as promoting increased understanding.

Köhler, formerly secretary of the ADL's National Committee on Race Relations, is the official consultant to the Passage Committee on Human Relations. He was also associate director of the National Community Service Division of the ADL.

Other courses offered on the spring Training Schedule will be in group leadership, outdoor leadership, troop camping, as well as sessions for leaders of Brownies, Juniors, Cadettes and Senior Troops.

A writer's workshop, one on audio-visual equipment, plus other specialized courses will be given to adult Girl Scout volunteers. These regularly scheduled courses are in addition to dozens of courses that will be given throughout the Council's various districts.

This fall 438 adults took training and in the spring 544 received instruction, a total of 982. Mrs. Craig said, "Many people do not realize that the Girl Scouts carry on one of the largest adult education programs in the country for the training of volunteers. We not only have professional trainers, but have developed a corps of excellent volunteers."

CONTEST RULES

Favorite recipes should be submitted in contest. They may be for hors d'oeuvres, soups, salads, meat or fish dishes, vegetables, casseroles, desserts, foreign or American delicacies.

Recipes that do not win the week they are submitted will be considered in subsequent weeks' contests.

A contestant may submit more than one entry. If the same recipe is sent by more than one contestant, the one with the earliest postmark will be the winner. In the case of entries submitted in person at The Times-News office the date and hour will be noted on recipe when it is received.

One winner will be chosen each week and will receive check for $5. The winning recipe will be published each week in the Times-News.

Entries must be typewritten or written legibly and mailed or brought to The Belleville Times-News Recipe Contest Editor, 246 Washington Avenue, Belleville, N. J.

Members of The Times-News staff or members of their immediate families will not be eligible.

May we help you keep a roof over your family?

1. Low-cost mortgage protection life insurance. As little as $5 a month can buy an Allstate Life mortgage cancellation policy to help pay off the mortgage if you die.
2. Low-cost mortgage protection if you're disabled. When you're sick or hurt and can't work, a tax-free "Sick Pay" policy from Allstate can help meet your house payments—and the cost is low.
3. Homeowner package protection. For as little as $10 a year more than ordinary fire insurance from most other companies on home and contents, an Allstate Homeowners Insurance policy can protect you against loss from fire, theft, windstorm and many other hazards—even gives you personal liability protection, in case a visitor gets hurt in an accident on your property and sues.

If you want your family to feel as secure as possible in their home, why not give us a call?
