PASS ANTI-LOITERING LAW, 5-0

The anti-loitering ordinance, introduced by the Town Council at the December 28 meeting, met unanimous approval Monday night and was passed, 5-0.

The law, which will become effective 20 days from today, in effect places a 9:30 p.m. curfew on anyone loitering on the streets at night. In a companion resolution accepted the same night in December, the Council instructed the police department to enforce the new law with particular vigilance after the hour of 9:30 p.m.

The law also provides that it is unlawful for any parent, guardian or other adult person in charge of a minor under the age of 18 to permit a minor to remain idle or loiter in violation of the law.

Violators will be punished by a fine not to exceed $500 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 90 days.

In other action the Council adopted three other ordinances. Passing without opposition were the ordinances involving a code regulating the construction, alteration and repair of dwellings and buildings in the Town; and an ordinance changing the name of a portion of High Street from Rutgers Street northerly approximately 265 feet to the Dead End.

The ordinance releasing prior dedication covering the use of the premises at 307-309 Franklin Avenue, was approved 4-1 with Councilman James R. Golden voting no.

While no new ordinances were introduced, the meeting was extended into a two-night session when citizens stood up and spoke on a variety of subjects, including the lack of recreation in Town after hours, the charging of children for materials being used in the Recreation Department's arts and crafts classes, questions on the building of garden apartments and housing projects in the Town, the snow removal, sidewalks, parking and a plea to eliminate a proposed $9,000 item in the proposed Town Budget for Civil Defense.

Mrs. Ingrid Frank, a member of SANE, urged the council to eliminate the Civil Defense appropriation, pointing out that the smallest bomb of today would all but wipe out the Town and its people if dropped in the New York City area. She said the Disaster Control work now credited to the Civil Defense organization would be done by the local police and firemen in the event of an emergency.

The session was continued until Tuesday night, when the Council passed several resolutions and discussed the possibility of granting future insurance policies by formal bid.

The matter was brought up by Town Attorney Walter Finch, when Town Manager John R. Burnett entered two special resolutions granting insurance policies to firms who entered low quotations.

Finch said the law department would enter a report as to the possibility of the Town granting future insurance policies by bid. He said the matter was brought up in a letter from Mrs. Norman Hood.

Mrs. McCarthy Backed For Board by ABC Unit

Allan Crisp and Ralston Josack, co-chairmen of the 1964 ABC Committee campaign, Richard Drake and John Di Rienzo, members of the Board of Education, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rochau, Mrs. Andrew Verhagen, Mrs. Ruth Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McCarthy, have issued the following statement:

"We are a committee of Alert Belleville Citizens (ABC), members of long standing, who are endorsing and supporting Agnes J. (Nancy) McCarthy for election to the Board of Education.

"We are people who, in good conscience, cannot support the slate publicized by this year's group representing the ABC Committee.

"In order to minimize confusion, we have decided to limit our endorsement to Agnes J. (Nancy) McCarthy. With her long record of outstanding service to and interest in education in the Town of Belleville, we believe that she has placed herself far above the rank and file of this year's crop of candidates seeking this responsible

Local Commuter Service Seen Ending Soon by Erie

The likelihood that passenger service on the Newark Branch of the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad for use for passenger service during the past 15 years, as a result of highway development which encourages both auto and bus operation in competition with the rail conveyance, Chairman White declared. "The stockholders of the railroad can not continue to finance commuter transportation for the residents of this state at the huge losses which they annually endure."

During the course of his statement, he pointed out that the Newark Branch line sustains the largest loss of any division of the railroad, bringing a return of just $1 for every $4.75 invested in operation and equipment by the company.

He proposed that the state of New Jersey organize an authority to operate a commuter service of its own, renting track from the Erie-Lackawanna and other existing lines, if it cares to do so to continue this type of transportation function.

Not appearing optimistic that the state would accept this proposal, since the legislative body, Governor Richard Hughes and local Boards of Freeholders have failed to act over the past two years despite repeated warnings that the carriers would no longer endure the huge losses, Chairman White said that within three to five months an application would have to be made to the

The Heart Fund drive will be held on February 1 and will continue throughout the month.

The ABC faction selected only one candidate of the 10 in the field to endorse, The ABC Committee selected a full slate of three. They are Rocco Saletta, Jr.; Dr. Frank N. DiRuggiero and Kenneth Broo.

The split between the ABC factions rests mainly on the long-time controversial question of dual or single control of the school system. At present the schools are being operated under the single control system, with Dr. Frank M. Durkee, superintendent of schools.

The faction headed by Crisp and Josack are in favor of single control. The regular ABC Committee is in favor of dual control.

One member of the faction said the ABC Committee was founded to "keep politics out of the school system." He said the original ABC Committee wanted to find the best qualified men possible to run the schools which have become big business. He said the present ABC Committee has allowed politics to enter into their choices of candidates for endorsement.

Class Size Protested to School Board

A reported overcrowding of a Fifth-Grade Class at School 1 took up most of the time at a Board of Education meeting Monday night.

Eugene Harvey of 10 Quinton Street, said there were about 32 children in the class. Dr. Frank Durkee, superintendent of schools said there were 31 children in the class.

Harvey charged that the children were behind in work. He said his daughter learns quickly and teaches other children.

Dr. Durkee said he was told (Continued On Page 11)

The dance chairman, Robert Palumbo, anticipates a capacity crowd as the Council marks the beginning of its sixty-second year of community service.

The Belleville Council 835 is known to many as one of the most spirited and active Councils in New Jersey.

Won't Take Post Feb. 1, Says Westpy

The Town council was informed Monday night that Attorney Emil Wulster of Hackensack, will not accept the post of special counsel to the Town.

Councilman Robert E. Westpy made the surprise announcement to the council, charging that Wulster refused to accept the post because of an editorial printed last week in The Times-News.

Westpy said he believed the Town of Belleville was the loser, not only in the loss of Wulster's services but perhaps in being able to acquire competent legal advice in the future.

Wulster was scheduled to accept the post effective February 1. He was appointed to the special counsel position as part of a team with Charles B. Tedesco, who was named acting Town Attorney on January 11, by a 3-2 vote.

Councilman Westpy offered the resolution and was supported by Mayor Nuncio P. Pico and Councilman Ralph Casale. Councilmen James R. Golden and William H. Cullen opposed the appointment.

Cullen had offered a resolution naming Tedesco Town Attorney and withdrew it at the request of Tedesco. Cullen then offered the name of Attorney John Noonan of Nutley for the post. His motion as well as one by Golden naming Attorney Theodore Bellet of Belleville, were defeated by 3-2 votes.

Monday night Cullen attempted to move an emergency resolution remaining Noonan to the post. Town Attorney Finch ruled it out of order.

Tuesday night Cullen withdrew the resolution since it was pointed out that Tedesco was the acting Town Attorney and that the Town would not be without legal counsel as of February 1 when Finch's resignation becomes effective.

Mayor Pico and Councilman Golden lauded Finch for his service to the Town and expressed regret that he was forced to resign his post before his term was complete.

The Council agreed to introduce a resolution thanking Finch for his services at the next meeting.

ITT Group Awaits Pact

The 20-week-old strike at International Telephone and Telegraph Laboratories in Belleville, Clifton and Nutley was settled Sunday with most of the workers going back to work.

However some 350 engineers who have returned to work from IUE Local 400 are working without a contract, awaiting a decision of the National Labor Relations Board.

The men have no contract with ITT Federal Laboratories which has refused to recognize Local 400 as their bargaining agent. The jurisdictional and decertification action before the relations board is the result of the dispute.

Guglicelli Backed for Register

After screening many potential candidates the Regular Democratic County Committee has selected the following Five County Candidates:

County Clerk, . . . Sam B.G. Navitsky of Newark, New Jersey County Register, . . . Al Guglicelli of Belleville, New Jersey

Freeholder, . . . Richard Gomes, Owner of Gomes Insurance Agency

Freeholder, . . . Rev. H. P. Sharper, Pastor of Abyssinian Church

Freeholder, . . . Dr. Saul Sherman of Livingston, New Jersey

The Candidates in participating in the state declared themselves solely dedicated to both restoration of freedom of representation in Essex County Government for the voter which has been virtually denied him by bossism in recent years.

The Economy in Essex County is the major objective of the slate of Regular Democrats for Economy in Government. It will be their aim to abolish waste in the administration of County Government.

The organization intends to file a complete slate of candidates in the 1965 primary once the State Legislature determines how many Assembly and Senatorial positions will be required.

At the annual meeting of the DeWitt Savings and Loan Association, Belleville, John P. Dailey, of 60 Reservoir Place, Belleville, was reelected president.

Dailey has been associated with the Savings and Loan industry since 1930 and with the DeWitt Association since 1956. He has served as Secretary and Director, prior to being elected President.

Other officers elected at the annual meeting were: Robert M. Williams, Executive Secretary; Charles M. Nutt, Vice-President; August Plenge, Jr., Vice President; Charles W. Watson, Secretary; George P. Miller, Treasurer; Rena F. Lynch, Assistant Secretary; and William Abramson, Assistant Treasurer.

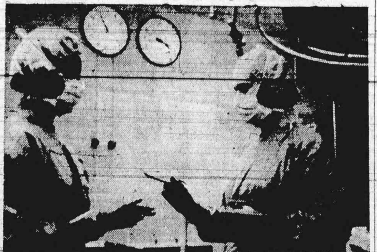

Cataract Removal Made Safer

A new, safer way to remove eye cataracts which was developed within the last year was introduced at Clara Maass Hospital recently.

The method involves freezing the lens onto a tiny applicator instead of removing it with suction. The electro-thermal instrument is among the first to be used in New Jersey.

Although the new method is no faster than the old one, it reduces the chances of complications. Previously doctors had to extract the cataract by means of suction equipment and pressure on the outside of the eye, a process that could be dangerous when a dislocated lens was involved.

With the new method, the cataract is frozen to a small probe that has been electronically cooled to 40 degrees below zero which causes the cataract to adhere to

Candidate Basile Explains Reasons For Seeking Board of Ed Position

John R. Basile, candidate for the Board of Education, issued the following statement this week:

"In the past few weeks I have been asked the following question on innumerable occasions, what has motivated you to seek election to the Board of Education? The single most important and overriding one is a sense of deep obligation. I feel that I owe a debt of gratitude to the Belleville School System and the town itself that can never be repaid."

"It has been just a few short years since the Belleville Board of Education graciously agreed to administer the academic aspects of the Garden School, an institution where emotionally handicapped youngsters with a normal potential are rehabilitated with a view to returning them to the conventional school system as soon as it is feasible. My only son, Robert, is in the Garden School (on referral from School

JOHN R. BASILE

No. 7) in May 1962. His condition has improved in almost unbelievable manner, so much so, that he appears to be ready to return to the regular system in the very near future. His latest IQ test measures him as slightly above average. More words can not express adequately my feelings of Thanking and gratitude for the existence of the Garden School and its sponsorship by Belleville.

"Further, it is then with the deepest humility that I ask you, the voters of Belleville, to elect me to the Board of Education on February 9th, so that I can begin to repay my debt to the town in dedicated service in a position of responsibility commensurate with my vocational and educational background. Since I believe firmly that it is the civic duty and obligation of the educated person to serve his community to the fullest extent possible, when he has the time available, I will endeavor to see personally as many of my fellow townspeople as it is physically possible."

"I spent the last decade in dedicated community service to my fellow man, first in the operation of a retail pharmacy, where I utilized my professional skills as a Registered Pharmacist to compound and dispense the medicines, prescribed by practitioners of medicine and dentistry, necessary to alleviate the suffering and ill of my fellow townspeople. Subsequent to this I have disseminated the latest in information on new therapeutic entities to the medical and dental professions. In my new role as a Professional Sales Representative (detailman) for a major pharmaceutical manufacturer, During the Sabin-Oral Vaccine campaign of 1964, I also volunteered my professional skills to serve my neighbors. Fund raising and educational efforts for the Mental Health Association of Essex County have also occupied my free time. I have served as vice president of the Garden School PTA and helped organize Cub Scout Pack No. 320 at that institution. I am currently the Institutional Representative to the Robert Treat Council."

"I feel that my most important

DelRusso Details Platform

At a meeting held at 373 No. 10th Street, Belleville, and attended by 87 friends, and workers for Michael Del Russo, candidate for Board of Education, on February 9th, Del Russo stated his platform.

He said that our nation is in great peril if we allow our youth to waste their potential by dropping out of school. He said:

"We need every intelligent boy and girl to be given the greatest opportunity ever in our history for education and self development. We need more scientists, engineers, doctors, teachers, lawyers, administrators, economists, and career government employees than ever before. We are involved in a terrible struggle to survive in a largely hostile world, testing our democracy on every possible front. Public, widespread education is the only answer."

Candidate Saletta Lists Tips on Picking Choice

Rocco J. Saletta, candidate for the Board of Education in the February - 9 election, last week issued the following statement:

"On February 9th, all of you will be faced with making a decision that is of prime importance. Your vote will effect the future of our children yours and mine, and our towns stature in the eyes of our neighbors in surrounding communities. Qualified, honest, sincere, and dedicated candidates whose integrity is beyond reproach should be your choice."

"These qualities a candidate should possess, because the candidates you elect on February 9th will be entrusted with spending approximately $3 million of your tax dollars. Anyone can spend money easily as we all know, but when the money belongs to the taxpayers it should be spent wisely so that we can get the best possible educational value for our children."

"I've attended many teas that were arranged for me so that I could meet and have personal contact with a great number of fine citizens who are realizing the importance of this honored office."

"There are no schools available, to my knowledge, that specialize in preparing an individual for the job he must do as a school board member. He or she must be one who is a constructive thinker. One who approaches problems with an open mind. One who has foresight and not hindsight; and finally one who has been and will be a dedicated public servant. The candidates to this honored office should be elected on their own merits, abilities, and independence and should not be subject to external pressures."

"I'd like to thank all of the people whom I've met and talked with-up to now-it has been most encouraging to see and hear their earnestness in wanting to help me be one of the successful candidates on February 9th. With approximately two weeks left until Election Day, it's impossible for me to meet all of the people individually; therefore, a group of my friends are extending an invitation to all citizens of Belleville to attend a tea at Branch Brook Manor on Tuesday, February 2, at 8 P.M."

"There are approximately 19,000 registered voters in town and yet a candidate to the Board of Education has been elected with as few as 1300 votes. This is not the choice of the majority but the minority. With your help, I can and would like to be the choice of the majority."

"I was honored this past week by being selected as one of the three candidates whom the Belleville Citizens Committee has decided to endorse. The ABC Committee will only endorse those candidates who they feel will devote themselves to better public organization. This I have said from the outset of my campaign. It is the wish of the ABC Committee that each of the individuals they have chosen will act independently, think independently, and vote independently as long as their ultimate goal is for the betterment of the educational system and will insure our youth the foundation for a successful future and a better America."

"On January 19, the citizens of Belleville had the opportunity to hear all the candidates express their views at candidates' Night at No. 4 School. I want to thank the PTA of No. 4 School for giving me this opportunity. Citizens will again have the opportunity to listen to the candidates speak at 'Candidates' Night' on Feb. 4th, at School No. 8, at 8:00 P.M."

"Please remember the invitation to the tea at 8:00 P.M., Tuesday, Feb. 2 at Branch Brook Manor. Remember that you can vote for three, so start by voting for three candidates whom the

5 Rules to Improve Board Listed by Mrs. McCarthy

Agnes J. (Nancy) McCarthy, candidate for Belleville's Board of Education, has released the following statement:

"On February ninth the voters of Belleville will go to ten local schools and exercise their right to elect three members to the Board of Education. To these people, not to those who stay at home, I address this message:

"As an independent, I can afford to be a candidate for the seat to be vacated by Mr. George Brown without having to promise patronage to anyone. I regard as suspect some candidates' contention that they run independently. The many wheel-dealers have become involved. Candidates without ethics are a threat to our educational program.

"Believing that a new high school was indeed a necessity I worked to see that the program presented was a success. We have a beautiful new school due only to the concern of thinking people.

"The curriculum of any school is the work of administrators and educators. The business of providing adequate funds while keeping a 'weather eye' open to the taxpayer's pocketbook is the job of the Board. The former has been improving yearly in Belleville - the latter is debatable.

"It is important that a candidate be vitally interested in children. I think I have proven my interest in my twelve years residence here. I continue to learn and grow in knowledge through study in the PTA. I read many publications written with the interest of the child in mind. Surely several years of scouting provided me with some insight to young people's problems, brightest or slowest, but also the average student, who doesn't want or need a college education. Good training programs for technical skills will continue to be important for some time. John A. Jarvis, President of American Vocational Association, Inc. has said: 'Six of every ten youngsters now in grade school will enter the world of work or marriage with a high school diploma or less.' Therefore, if twelve years is to be the 'learning span' let us make it culturally adequate.

"My recommendations to the next Board of Education are these:

Miss Hannon Disputes Foe on Teacher Shifts

At a tea Tuesday night, Evelyn Hannon, candidate for Belleville Board of Education in the February 9th election, took exception to remarks made by Board Member, Dr. Frank DiRuggiero concerning turnover of teachers in the Belleville school system.

The incumbent, Dr. DiRuggiero implied in an interview with a Daily newspaper's reporter a week ago that because of the present teachers pay scale Belleville's schools have been no more than a training ground for teachers who will move to other areas.

"This is not the case this year," Miss Hannon said. "And, I can say that after careful study of records maintained in the office of the Superintendent of Schools, this has not been the case in the past four years, if indeed ever.

"The average service in the Belleville school system of the present staff of teachers is twelve years. This is one of the highest averages in Essex County and on a County by County basis in the entire state. Orange is the only town in this County that can boast of a higher rate—fifteen years. The average years of service in Bloomfield is only

Problem of Dropouts Aired by DiRuggiero

(This is the third in a series of articles by Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, candidate for re-election to the Belleville Board of Education on the nature of education in Belleville.)

"Today we live in an era of automation and expanded technology. The young person with training and know-how is the person who is hired first, moves fastest and earns the highest wages. The young people without such training are the last to be hired and first to be fired. This places a grave responsibility upon our school system. The responsibility of training these people for our accelerated society.

"One of the most pressing problems confronting our system is the school dropout. Dropouts can be defined as pupils who leave school prior to completion of a normal program of studies with no immediate intention of continuing their education. This, of course, has a direct bearing on our Socio-Economic progress.

"Although this problem is a national one, my immediate concern, of course, is with the dropout situation here in Belleville. A recent publication issued by State of New Jersey indicates that on an average, 40 out of 100 students in school today will not complete high school and receive a diploma. This tremendous waste of talent must be curbed.

"In giving this problem some serious thought, I checked into some of the reasons for students dropping out. My inquiries revealed:

"1. Economic status of the family radically changed making it imperative that the student work to help support the family.

"2. Limited academic success.

"3. Reading problem.

"4. Low ability group not provided for to a greater extent.

"5. Not able to adjust socially.

"6. Some schools do not meet the vocational needs necessary.

"These, perhaps, are but a few of the basic reasons students drop out.

Endorsements Explained By ABC Unit

The Alert Belleville Citizens Committee has for many years evaluated candidates for positions on the Board of Education and has endorsed those candidates who have a sincere interest in public education who can most effectively make decisions based on actual facts who will use their wisdom and talents to further the learning process of our children and also use good judgment to insure that full value is returned for each dollar spent.

The most difficult aspect of making such selections is to be able to set aside emotion and personal feelings and decide upon candidates solely on the basis of the candidates ability to fulfill the requirements. The ABC Committee, which is composed of local residents many of whom are business and professional leaders, has after deliberation endorsed three candidates whom they are proud to present to the electorate for consideration: Rocco Saletta, Jr., Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, Jr. and Kenneth Broe, Jr.

Saletta, Jr., has worked with youth groups for several years. He has acquired that basic knowledge of the Belleville school system so essential to board members. His training and his experience in industry are talents which shall serve him in good stead while considering board problems. Saletta's philosophy on education briefly is "We need a well balanced program that will adequately serve the needs of all children."

Dr. Frank DiRuggiero is completing his ninth year of dedicated service on the Board. He has consistently sought to enrich our educational program during that time. The great strides forward which have been made in Belleville during Dr. DiRuggiero's term of office are the best indication of his talent and ability and have earned him the right to continue as a board member.

Kenneth Broe, a lifelong resident of Belleville, has actively participated in many of the community groups which help to guide and encourage our youth. Besides being active in parent teacher associations he has maintained a continuing interest in all school affairs and has acquired a knowledge of the operation of the school system. Broe, because of his education, training and experience in business affairs, will be a valuable asset on Belleville's Board of Education.

Guidance, Dropouts Eyed by Carragher

The press release issued this week by Frank (Junie) Carragher, candidate for the Board of Education revolves around students who are interested in entering the field of business, industry and skilled workmanship, coupled with planned job training, placement programs, with the cooperation of your Board of Education and the Belleville Chamber of Commerce. Carragher's statement is as follows:

"Books, pamphlets, newspaper articles and all sort of reading material is continuously being written, describing great concern regarding the potential college student and the eventual final drop out! We are aware, I am sure they are justified, in their own right, but had they been guided right, many of these young people could become our leading business men of tomorrow.

"This Nation, in the past as well as in the future will continue to raise its head, no matter how heavy the burden of life may be toward the college student for logical eventual leadership in all areas of our society. In their firm hands will pass the glowing torch of Education, wisdom and leadership, generation after generation, securing and shaping a free strong democratic nation. The faltering torch of the 'drop out' must be rekindled to restore faith in these untold numbers, so as to enable them to contribute a worthwhile contribution for themselves and society in general.

"The remaining percentage is the student whose desire and interest lies in the realm of business and industry that demands skilled performance more so now than ever before due to the ever present change to automation.

George H. Brown

George H. Brown leaves the Board of Education by his own choice on February 9. For his intelligent and devoted service to welfare of the Belleville Schools, every citizen should be grateful. Both in his previous term and in the one now ending, Brown has stood for the solid values in American society, giving each superintendent of schools the intelligent support needed in this extraordinarily difficult job.

When the school board politicians instituted the grand-jury-condemned dual control of the school system, Brown led the courageous fight that restored unit control. When this same political group attempted to destroy or subvert the ratio system, by which a proper differential is maintained between the salaries of teachers, administrative and supervisory personnel, Brown provided the intelligent leadership and research that supported this non-political method of compensating school leadership personnel.

Regrettably, it has been learned that George Brown has been ill in Clara Maass Hospital. This newspaper and his many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

May Belleville be so fortunate as to find among the ten aspirants for membership on the board of education three members who will accept and carry out their stewardship with the insight and dedication of George H. Brown—F.A.O.

Norma Rinaldi McCool

When a public official seeks re-election, each voter should examine the overall record and act accordingly.

Sincerely and honestly being the outstanding qualities of Mrs. Norma Rinaldi McCool, she took her oath of office seriously.

When she suspected there might be something wrong with the new school construction, as a public official she properly called the whole matter to the attention of the Prosecutor's Office.

What happened thereafter was the responsibility of the County Prosecutor, the presiding judge, and the twenty-three members of the Grand Jury—not that of Mrs. McCool. The cost of the school board investigation to Belleville and the County is part of the price society pays to keep officials straight.

Regrettably Mrs. McCool's detractors have launched a whispering campaign and are using this subject as an undercurrent issue to try to defeat Mrs. McCool.

The good citizen however, will credit Mrs. McCool with honest intentions and courage. Every public body needs a watchdog to keep it on its toes, even though the results may sometimes be unpleasant. As a school board member Mrs. McCool has filled that role very well.

On the overall record, Mrs. McCool has grown into a good board member. She gave loyal support to the superintendent when she thought he was right. She supported the return of unit-control administration of the schools as an Essex County Grand Jury proposed. She supported ed the ratio system of keeping administrative and supervisory salaries out of politics. Though she dug deeply into matters of construction of the new high school, she supported the additional funds to finish the school. Never one to kid the public Mrs. McCool told the board and the taxpayers more money would be needed to furnish the high school than the board provided. She proposed $50,000 additional funds. Though the board rejected her proposal, time has proved Mrs. McCool right. Wood incessantly by the political bloc on the school board in its interference with the administration of the schools, Mrs. McCool calmly demanded facts and refused to become a party to the conspiracy to undermine Dr. Frank Durkee.

Looking at every item in the school budget with an eye to economy, Mrs. McCool has never hesitated to support expenditures that would mean better education for the children. We have disagreed at times with some of her official acts but Mrs. McCool has shown the independence, capabilities, integrity, and understanding that makes her worthy of re-election.

Mrs. McCool wants to keep the Belleville school system free from the outstretched hands of power hungry politicians determined to use school funds to build a political machine. Mrs. McCool wants the school system run by a professional educator. Dr. Frank Durkee, our school superintendent. We are confident this view is shared by most Belleville parents. —F.A.O.

White America

The news from Alabama and Mississippi is not good. The daily papers and television news reports tell us in word and picture that the bigoted white, populating some of our southern states, still refuses to recognize our black brother as an equal.

This week at Selma, Alabama every conceivable roadblock was thrown into the path of the negroes determined to register to vote. Only a handful of negroes were able to register. The others experienced a frustrating experience. But this will pass—and our Alabama negro will register—and he will vote—and when that time comes, today's white objector better prepare himself for a trip to white South Africa. With the passage of time negroes will end up representing a majority of voters in many Alabama communities. They will be in control of the very courthouses they are forbidden from entering today. And if and when that day arrives they happen to remember some of today's cattle-prodding, who can blame them for wanting to even the score.

The Alabama white man, who today would deny the negro rights guaranteed under our constitution, should lose his citizenship, for his actions are not those of an American. And the Mississippi who kills to preserve an un-American institution, should in turn, receive the death penalty.

All the power of the Federal government should be invoked to undo the wrongs of Selma, Alabama, and Philadelphia, Mississippi.

Three civil rights workers were murdered in cold blood in Philadelphia, Mississippi. The FBI says eye-witnesses have given sworn statements naming the murderers. In Mississippi this apparently will not be sufficient to convict the culprits. It is shocking to think that in this land of freedom, founded by people escaping from persecution, 300 years later we tolerate conditions worse than those from which our forefathers fled.

How much longer must we tolerate phony white supremacy in a nation which purportedly guarantees equal rights for all? —F.A.O.

UP SPEAK

NO REPLACEMENT
FOR OLD GLORY

I cannot help but be disappointed at the unanimous vote of the Town Council of the "One Nation Under God" banners. According to this move, a banner stating "One Nation Under God" would be flown under the American flag on all municipal buildings. It would seem as if the Town Council is doing what they are seeing other towns do, rather than what is apparently in the best interests of the Town.

According to "The Wonderful of Knowledge" for the people of every nation in the world, the flag is a bright and colorful expression of the power, prestige and ideals of their country. Although it is only a piece of cloth, a flag stirs the deepest emotions of every patriotic person, for it symbolizes all that has gone into the making of a nation's history.

The U. S. flag symbolizes all that has happened in this nation from the beginning of U. S. history through the present and into the future. The flag started as a symbol of the American Revolutionists of their hope of freedom and democracy. Today this same flag still represents the hopes of freedom and democracy throughout the world and perhaps it will be my children's fortune to see this same flag fly on another planet, still seeking its ultimate aims—freedom and democracy.

It need not remind the American people that we are "One Nation Under God", for I am sure we will realize that without God's help, this country would not have risen from the obscurity of a new world to the most powerful nation on earth in just 500 years. However, this is or should be aware to the American people through our own flag and not a separate banner. This banner does little more than downgrade the importance of our own American flag which reminds us all of our heritage.

Congressman William H. Cullen stated that his measure is appropriate so long as we are fighting for freedom whether on foreign soil or in our own country for civil rights. I would like to ask Mr. Cullen exactly what he thinks our flag is now doing, or perhaps he feels that we must have this additional banner to clarify exactly what it is that he doesn't understand. Grand Master of the Belleville Knights of Columbus, Daniel Serpentelli stated, "the move would prove to the state that Belleville is truly 'One Nation Under God'." I am sorry to say that if this

State of New Jersey or the Citizens of Belleville do not realize this fact, then the stars and stripes means absolutely nothing and the Citizens of our Town should take a long hard look at themselves.

The second fact that I would like to present is that if this banner must be flown it should be flown above the American flag, rather than below it. By flying this banner underneath the flag, it is putting the flag symbolizing the people, above God. Surely if the banner "must be flown it should be flown above the American flag. If the flag is to be flown above the banner, then we are "One Nation Above God, Not Under God."

In brief summary, I would just like to say that this banner is indeed unnecessary for what it stands for is or should be already understood. Surely now is not the time for the clarification caused by this banner. After last year's terrible disaster in Dallas and the sweeping move of civil rights, the American people do not need a special reminder to inform them that they are "One Nation Under God."

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

We wrote in last week's column about the inadequate TV coverage in the country as a whole and the steps taken by the FCC to remedy this condition. All sets manufactured after May 1, 1964 have to have an UHF tuner capable of receiving 70 more stations, most of which do not exist at this time.

In order to get TV reception, and provide the quest by people clamoring for TV, a number of different systems have been put into operation outside of regular broadcasting stations. One of these is the so-called translator station, which is a low power transmitter that picks up the signal from a regular broadcasting station and re-transmits it in fringe areas where reception is poor. There are close to 2000 of these translators in operation. Many of these small stations would not be necessary if UHF stations were provided. Another method is the erection of a central antenna in a favorable location, which sends the TV signal to the houses and charges a regular fee for it. Then there is pay TV, which originates programs not available from regular stations, and this is transmitted by wire to the homes.

All of this diversification is undesirable from the FCC's point of view, which has much merit. Of course the operators of the different systems will give you an argument on this. Particularly the pay TV people stress the point, that the viewer is a "captive" of the stations, while their system of presenting better programs will give a choice for which enough people are willing to pay.

In this area, UHF in all probability will not mean much for a long time. We are fortunate to have our choice of 7 commercial stations, out of which almost literally goes begging already. With this keen competition, it is inconceivable that somebody would risk money for an UHF station, for which there are only a few viewers. It will take years until there are sufficient receivers with UHF in the hands of the public to make a TV station, supported by advertising, a paying proposition. Important as this change over to UHF is nationally, at this time it does not have much significance for us around here.

We service what we sell.

Dropouts

"Your Board of Education has and will continue to expand the counselling and guidance programs so that a depth study of each student's problem can be undertaken. This will help identify a potential dropout before it is too late. Then, counselling can be effective in keeping the student in school. Our vocational and technical departments are being geared more and more to give the student the degree of business and industrial training so necessary today. The ultimate aim is to keep the boys and girls who are potential dropouts to remain in school through effective counselling and to help the students receive the education necessary for the society in which they live."

"What is needed is an accelerated guidance program. Provisions are being made to alleviate this problem. Such a provision is the addition of a third counselor at the Junior High School to aid and assist the two guidance counselors already at work. This is only the first step, however! I propose to encourage the board to adopt a policy whereby smaller classes can be realized, closer liaison between the school and parent can be established, and closer liaison between schools and employers can be initiated. These are some of the measures necessary to remove the word dropout from our educational vocabulary.

"The experience I have gained during the past nine years on the Board is invaluable in making decisions such as those concerning the reorganization of schools, and I hope that this experience plus my dedication to better education will warrant your support on February 9th."

Girl Scout Cookies Make Delectable "Brownie Pie"

With the annual sale of Girl Scout Cookies currently under way in town, several suggestions for using the cookies in desserts have been received from the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County.

One of the most mouth-watering recipes is for a chewy mint flavored Brownie Pie. Finished with topping of sweetened whipped cream and garnished with curls of shaved chocolate, the pie is handsome enough to grace the center of a buffet table, or it would make an excellent party or bridge club refreshment or company dinner dessert.

The nine-inch pie recipe calls for 14 Girl Scout mint cookies, 3 egg whites, dash of salt, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 tsp. vanilla, 1 cup chopped nut meats, sweetened whipped cream (1/2 to 1 cup heavy cream).

Chill cookies in refrigerator a few minutes, if they have been stored in warm places and frosting is slightly sticky. Break, cut or roll between fold of waxed paper to even crumbs. Beat egg whites and salt to gather until soft peaks form. Gradually beat in sugar, beating

Then, in the third quarter, Irvington overcame a five-point Belleville lead and went ahead by three. Early in the fourth quarter, the Campione began to stall. time-outs in trouble spots, the points: it was the third straight time that Ken has hit double figures. This game was a milestone for Fulmore for in the first quarter he broke the century mark; by the end of the contest Ken had 110 season points. Fulmore made 4 of 9 from the floor (44 per cent) and 5 of 6 from the line (83 per cent) en route to his seventh double figure performance.

One of the most amazing things about the game was that two players connected with 100 per cent of their field goal attempts: Nick Pizzuto made 3 of 3, and Jim Brown 2 of 2. It is rare to have a perfect night, but to have two players do it at the same time is almost unbelievable.

Due to the efforts of Pizzuto, Brown, and Fulmore, the Bellboys led from the floor in percentage 41 to 35. Despite this, Belleville was out scored on field goals, 26-24. As it has been so often, free throws provided the Bellboys (8-5) margin of victory. Both teams were accurate from the line, Belleville making 14 of 20 free ones (70 per cent) to 8 of 10 (80 per cent) for the Campione. This was the fifth Bellboy victory decided by four shots.

Belleville's lack of personnel and practice at the lines pays off. Mike Lanzo led the losers with 13 points, followed closely by Jim Nann with 12. Between them, Lanzo and Nann made 10 of the Campione's 13 field goals and 25 of Irvington's 34 points. Rich Puciarelli held Brad Patten scoreless.

As you probably know, East Orange downed Kearny, 64-54, to take undisputed possession of first place in the Big Ten. The way things are going the Pan-

Belleville's Junior Varsity fell 37-35 to an evenly matched Irvington team. In the two meetings between these teams this year, Belleville has won by a point and lost by two. In this contest, the score was tied at 22 points apiece at half-time.

Bellboy Matmen Capture Two

Belleville wrestling team downed Irvington 30-16 and West Orange 22-21 to extend its record to 3-1; it was the Bellboys third straight win.

The Bellboys took their second straight match by beating Irvington last week. Bob Tishon won his varsity debut by the district championship. When Mike Bango lost the 122 pound class on a reversal the meet was tied at 8-8. Dave Ebert won a close decision before Joe Villano pinned Irvington's Hargodon to make the score 19-13. Mike Oliveri lost a close one on an escape 2-0. Jim Luty, Tony Sorrentino and the heavyweight match on decision to make the final meet score 30-16.

Against West Orange Bellboy had to come from behind to win by a point. After trailing 18-16 Rich Bonkowski took a 6-1 decision to put the Bellboy on top 19-18. Tony Sorrentino then took his second match to give the Cowboys a 21-19 lead. Avalone then took his third straight match 3-2 to pull out the win 22-21.

Before that Nick DiDominico and Rich Cucolo had taken decisions to give Belleville a fast 6-0 lead. The Cowboys came back when Bob Swinford was pinned with 14 seconds remaining.

You and Your Insurance

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

AUTO INSURANCE RATES REFINED UNDER NEW CLASSIFICATION PLAN

"Why is it that insurance companies charge poor driving risks, such as teenage boys, extra premiums but never give reductions to accident free drivers?" asks a woman school teacher, who reports that she has never been involved in an accident.

You are right in saving that insurance companies charge higher or auto liability insurance rates for young men. And the reason you cite — worse driving records — also is correct. Furthermore, since January 1 of this year many companies have been charging unmarried young women drivers more for their insurance for the same reason.

However, you are incorrect in thinking that insurance companies do not give credits for good driving records. In most states, companies generally give a premium reduction — under the Safe Driver Insurance Plan — to motorists with unmarred driving records. Chances are, you are paying less for your coverage because of this plan.

Additionally, you may be in for a further insurance saving if you are between the ages of 30 and 65 and are the sole operator of your car. According to a study recently undertaken by two national insurance rating organizations, women in that category are involved in fewer accidents than other motorists. If that will be reflected in their future auto insurance costs.

One example of this study, a new rating classification plan has been developed which more accurately reflects the driving records. If you are uncertain as to your status, let us check your insurance coverage.

and specialties. What of them? What provisions are being made, if any, and to what degree? Is it our wish to unload these students every year upon the presently overcrowded unemployment lines without the necessary skills and job employment knowledge that they should have at least been offered? In a firm tone I raise my voice in a loud "NO!" and so will a great many students and parents who are sincerely interested in this area.

"Basically, high schools are centered around a curriculum that stresses the academic performance of students touching ever so lightly on the successful preparation of skilled trades. The only students who turn directly to a Vocational School for trades are those who are certain of what they want, but how many at this age know for sure. However, in the new Senior High School, at present, we have a modernized trade center, limited in area. Would it not be wise and beneficial to establish a training program between school, business and industry, while these students are still in school and not wait and try to place them in the unknown fields after graduation. Without some knowledge they still will have their doubts as to the proper trade or business to follow. An unhappy employee is not a good employee.

"I would strongly recommend a series of exploratory meetings with our Chamber of Commerce, who must know of other interested business men, and request of them to create a pilot program concerning students training and placement to meet the critical needs in this ever enlarging field. Cooperative unity and understanding by the Board of Education, the Chamber of Commerce coupled with other business and industrial personnel, shall begin to create a fertile beginning. A beginning based on sound logic and foresight for the improvement and betterment of this vital area. Our youth must be prepared to enter these fields, equipped with the necessary tools of knowledge and the skill for a successful and prosperous future. Yes, the torch shall be theirs to carry, however, they must have the rural fuel to continue the flame to burn. It remains our responsibility to see that these objectives are accomplished through knowl-

Chamber of Commerce, who time again will welcome this very challenge and be of great assistance in organization, time and aidance.

McLaughlin Honored by Kiwanians

The Kiwanis Club of Belleville recently honored Thomas J. McLaughlin, the 1964 President recently at a Past-President Dinner held at the Galaxy Restaurant.

All living Past Presidents were in attendance for the affair. McLaughlin was presented with a diamond Past President pin by Judge Edward Abramson, 1956 president and he received the Past President Plaque from William Pirk, the 1960 President.

A highlight of the dinner was the presentation of 1964 awards to outstanding members of the Belleville Kiwanis for their contribution in making the 1964 administration one of the outstanding records in the history of the local service organization.

Eugene Bailey, a local real estate man, was named as "Kiwanian of the Year" for his support of club projects and in particular for the record breaking "Cloth for Cancer Drive" in which he served as chairman. Vincent Vitty the owner of Atlas Welding in Town received the Appreciation Award for his untiring and unselfish efforts in all causes to further the Kiwanis Spirit.
