In School Budget

Slash of $300,000

Requested by Golden

The Belleville school budget, twice defeated by the town voters, and now awaiting determination by the Town Council, as provided by law, is to be slashed by $300,000. The amount to be set that would provide adequate educational facilities was strongly criticized by Councilman James R. Golden after Saturday's review of the School budget with the local Board of Education.

Golden objected to the spiraling increases in accounts for administration salaries and instruction salaries pointing out that they have risen $444,840.77 in the past two years. He hit the ratio per earnings of teachers format for granting increases for principals and the School Superintendent, calling the method an incentive for these educational supervisors to "push" for higher teachers pay so as to "keep their own." He singled out Dr. Durkee, school superintendent, who is in line to get a raise that will bring his salary up to $20,500 describing Durkee as now getting more money than many Princeton professors.

"Along these same lines, Golden attacked the policy of Dr. Durkee in 'goaded' teachers under him to get out a favorable vote for the passage of the budget. He called an 'indignity' Durkee's admitted comment that the school budget is at the mercy of the Town Council. Thanks to the inability to get parents to vote for the budget.

Golden said, he didn't feel teachers should be expected to become "political hacks" to deliver votes for Dr. Durkee's advocated policies which the public has convincingly defeated twice, in the case of the school budget.

The Capital outlay portion of the school budget also came under Golden's withering fire. He inquired why it was not placed upon the bond issue question approved last year. He said he feared a bad precedent and thought that the original cost of the new high school had never been fairly explained to the public; that much now placed in Capital Outlay was intended for

Bass Wants Budget Cut By $100,000

John Bass, Belleville civic leader, who led the drive against passage of the school budget today called upon the Town Council to yield to the mandate of the people and substantially cut the school budget to bring it into line with that of last year.

Bass said:

"The people are over taxed and are clamoring for reduction in local taxation. They are fed up with higher taxes and want a halt in reckless spending that is prolonging this sad situation.

"Any attempt at a 'token' adjustment in the school budget by the councilmen will only antagonize the public further and will be interpreted as a farcical effort for politicians to remain in the good graces of educators who personally benefit from higher salaries."

Bass, in pointing out that Mayor Nuncio Pico's brother, a former Belleville Board of Education member is now a faculty member of the Belleville school system, suggested Pico consider "disqualifying himself from voting on the matter, unless he is prepared to observe the people's will and cut the school budget by $100,000."

Bass said the $100,000 reduction would mean about a five point drop in the tax rate and is only 25 per cent of the points that were added to the tax rate this year by the increased school budget.

Traffic Code Hearings Set

The Municipal Council of the Town of Belleville will hold a series of four public hearings concerning the new Traffic Code on the following days at the designated sites:

Wednesday, March 10, 1965, Public School No. 1 at 8:00 P.M.

Thursday, March 11, 1965, Public School No. 4 at 8:00 P.M.

Tuesday, March 16, 1965, Public School No. 8 at 8:00 P.M.

Tuesday, March 23, 1965, Public School No. 10 at 8:00 P.M.

The purpose of the meetings will be to provide neighborhood discussions dealing with the provisions of the proposed code affecting parking regulations throughout the Town of Belleville.

Fire Trucks Due Soon, Says Dunleavy

Belleville's two new pumpers and 85-foot ladder were checked last week in the Seagraves Division of F.W.D. Corp. in Clintonville, Wis., by two members of the local fire department — Captain Edward Dunleavy and Gus DeFranza, department mechanic.

Captain Dunleavy said the two pumpers are expected to arrive in Town "within days." He said: "We saw both of the pumpers being tested for four hours each at the factory last week. The company has just started to manufacture the ladder. The plant is working two shifts so it is difficult to tell just when the ladder will be completed."

"Both of the pumpers tested excellent," said Dunleavy. "We found a few minor items that required adjustment but their inspection program is really terrific. The trucks will be driven into Town by company men," the

$145,969 Given by U.S. To Clara Maass Hospital

The Hospital — In The Park was one of 17 hospitals in New Jersey benefiting from distribution of Federal Grants to institutions having construction programs.

Albin H. Oberg, Executive Director at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, in making the announcement stated that the federal grant of $145,969 will be applied to the new 24-bed psychiatric unit presently under construction. This new unit, Oberg observed, will treat temporarily mentally disturbed patients whose stay at the hospital would probably last no more than 21 days, or at least no more than a month. It is not uncommon, he further remarked, for a hospital to have a few patients at all times who are suffering from a temporary minor mental disturbance and are assigned to a bed the same as any other patient being admitted to the hospital. This new unit will provide better care as the patient will be confined to an area specializing in treatment of these disorders.

The hospital's $5 million expansion program will bring the total bed capacity to 400 and will provide in addition to the Psychiatric unit, an Intensive Care Unit, a new combined Pediatrics - Teeniatrics Department, enlarged Admitting, Emergency and Physical Therapy Departments, and many other improvements.

Band Concert Set Tomorrow

Tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. Mr. Wing, BHS Band Director, will give the downbeat for a big too by 110 high school musicians. The combined BHS and Rutherford school bands will present what may be described as a musical revue rather than the usual type of concert.

Seven Youths Nabbed in Theft of Beer

An 18-year-old youth and six juveniles were recently nabbed by local police in connection with the theft of 40 cases of beer and soda from the D. & F. Beverage Distributors on 113-119 Franklin Avenue, Belleville, on September 5.

Police said Andrew Benenato, 18, of 7 Newark Avenue, Belleville, was arrested early last week on charges of breaking and entering and larceny. He was placed on $25 bail with a hearing scheduled tonight in Magistrates Court.

Detective Michael Marotti said the seven youths broke into the firm by breaking out a window

Saletta's Vote Gives Edge, 4-3, to Foes Of Control by Durkee

In his first board of education meeting, February 24, Rocco Saletta voted with the Julianio-Arvidson-DiRuggiero bloc to establish again in Belleville dual control administration of the school system. Saletta offered no reasons for exempting Harold Dufford, assistant superintendent for schools, from the supervision of Dr. Frank M. Durkee, superintendent of schools.

Though a change from unit control to dual control was not on the agenda of the board meeting, Nicholas Juliano moved to amend the resolution for adoption of annual rules, asking that Article IV as proposed by Ernest Arvidson, October, 1963, be substituted for the unit control article. The actual Article IV adopted was apparently not in the hands of any board members at the time. Even with the hour-and-a-half discussion that followed, no evidence was offered as to how two-headed administration would improve efficiency in the schools.

Reacting to the action of the board in setting up dual control administration of the schools by having the assistant superintendent for business not be responsible to the superintendent of schools, State Commissioner of Education, Frederick M. Baughinger, told the press that dual control like that "violates the generally accepted concepts of administration" and "usually results in confusion and inefficient management." Past events in Belleville, as presented in the 1954 grand jury indictment, documents the Commissioner's position and the failure of dual control in Belleville.

Board Members Comments

Nicholas Juliano and Ernest Arvidson asserted, without presenting any facts, that the superintendent had too much power. Both spoke with ominous and condescending features, exhibiting emotion and prejudice.

Analyzing unit control and dual control, Richard Drake pointed out that all organizations operate effectively with one head man, and that the head man has subordinates, such as assistants, superintendents and principals to assist him in various phases of administration. He said, "Dual control invites meddling in administration of schools by board members."

John DiRienzo said, "You get the most efficient administration of business or schools by having one head man. I am opposed to dual control administration."

The people voted for a change," erupted Dr. Frank M. DiRuggiero, although during the election campaign he refused to

Joint Parley Conducted on School Budget

The Town Council will meet tonight to take action on the twice-defeated 1956-57 School Budget.

The date for official action was set following the joint session of the Board of Education and Town Council Saturday at Town Hall.

In the Saturday session Board members answered questions on the budget from the Councilmen, who now must pass on the $3 million plus budget since it was rejected by the voters on two occasions last month.

The $3,303,100 current expense item was defeated, 1,613 to 1,136 on the second vote, and the $119,000 capital improvement section was turned down, 1,664 to 1,073.

Councilman William Cullen questioned the $128,615 item for maintenance. He inquired why contracted services totaled $35,000 when $65,500 was already allotted for salaries for full-time maintenance men.

Harold A. Dufford, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of business, said all service funds listed were necessary.

Councilman James Golden exhibited a leaflet from Dr. Frank M. Durkee, which he said was sent to the teachers and ended with a statement that the budget was defeated by the "inability to get parents to vote for the budget."

Ernest S. Arvidson, Board President, said the letter was not authorized and that the board would investigate the matter.

Court Awards Risoli Fees

Town Registrar Ralph Risoli was awarded a summary judgment in his fight to regain almost $4,000 in fees collected from the Town of Belleville.

Town Manager John R. Burnett was informed Tuesday of Superior Court Judge Lawrence A. Whipple's decision.

Town Attorney Charles B. Tedesco said the judgment for liability only means that the Judge has ruled in favor of Risoli that he is entitled to fees in addition to his salary. He said it did not determine how much of the fees claimed by Risoli is to be paid by the Town.

Tedesco said the Council may now decide to pay Risoli all of the fees requested or attempt to reach a settlement with him on some lesser figure or go into court to have the actual amount established.

The Town was represented by Former Town Attorney Leslie W. Finch, who represented the Town when the original motion was heard in January.

Band Parents Boosters of Joint Concert

Following a full day of rehearsal tomorrow, the High School musicians will be welcomed into the homes of their BHS counterparts for dinner and a little relaxation before their performance that evening.

An example of hospitality is the result of the enthusiastic cooperation of the BHS Band Parents. More than forty families will have from one to five guests.

At the conclusion of the concert there will be a reception in the high school cafeteria for all performers, their boy or girl friends, and their parents. Our own band girls and twirlers and Band Parents are providing the refreshments. . . while the burly boys haul in the soda . . . pop.

Although the young musicians have labored long and hard to prepare the music and push the drive for ticket sales, the production is truly representative of the interest, initiative and cooperation of the Belleville Band Parents!

An Opportunity to Serve the People

The members of the Town Council are in a pickle, so to speak. The voters have handed them the job of cutting the Board of Education budget, despite the fact that the Council didn't ask for it.

It's easy to speak of a mandate of the people. However, most if not all, members of the Council are having their hands full trying to do the job for which they were elected — operate the affairs of the Town in an efficient manner.

The task of running the Town has proven to be much more difficult than some of the members bargained for when they sought election. They were well-versed and eager to accept the responsibilities and make the necessary decisions on the major items. However, they know little, if anything, about the hundred and one minor items like stray-dog contracts, civil defense appropriations, to solicit bids or place privately the Town insurance business and etc.

To add to these problems now the Council has been placed on a hot seat by the Town's voters, or rather by the fact that only a small percentage of the Town's registered voters took the time to cast their ballot in the school election so that a decisive point of view on the proposed $3 million — plus budget could be seen. After all, only about 4,000 of the Town's more than 18,000 registered voters actually voted in the School elections.

It is clear that those citizens who bothered to vote want the school budget cut. The 20 - point increase is more than 1800 local voters feel their pocketbooks can take. However, how much of a reduction should be made in the budget is made difficult by the educators' cry that any reduction at all will be reflected in the quality of education offered our children. We don't believe it.

The fact that the Board of Education refused to cut even one dollar from the budget after it was defeated at the polls and resubmitted the same budget to the people for the second time inviting a second rejection by the voters makes the decision more difficult for Council members.

We believe resubmitting an unchanged budget for a second time was just a case of pure arrogance by the Board of Education members. To us it revealed a smug attitude usually associated with the Arvidson - Juliano bloc. We believe that every member of the Board had enough business know-how to be able to reduce a budget if he found that available funds wouldn't cover the full bill. At least each individual must have had the personal experience of deciding the difference between what he desired and what he could afford when he was buying a home, a car, or clothing for his children.

Since the voters clearly told the Board on February 9 that they could not, or would not spend the monies sought by the Board in its first proposal, we believe the Board should have deleted items from the budget that would have the least effect on the education of our children. They are closer to the subject and should be better informed than a politically motivated Town Council.

Because the Board acted as it did — presenting the taxpayers with it take-it-or-leave-it basis the entire problem has been dumped into the laps of the Town Council, which still has its own budgetary problems to resolve.

In other years an easy way out for the Council would be to make a token reduction across the board and let it go at that. However we don't believe the people will go along with such a solution at this time. The school budget has increased taxes 20 cents per hundred dollars in assessed valuation. This is a considerable jump. A considerable reduction is indicated.

In our opinion a reduction of 10 points, or about $180,000 in the proposed budget would show the voters public officials are aware of the voters' desire for tax relief. There would still be enough room in the budget to permit the Board to achieve a measure of progress that it says the proposed budget would allow.

The cost of education on a local level is fast reaching the point of diminishing returns. If it continues at its present rate it won't be too many years before this circle is complete and we return to the days of old when only the sons and daughters of the very rich were able to secure an education. Maybe the Board members and educators should study their history books a little better.

Working on the case with Marotti was Detective Hank Olivieri. Also helping in the investigation were Detectives James Pindar and Harold O'Reilly.

Marotti said the first break in the case came two weeks ago, when after receiving a tip involving the first name of a boy, one of the youths was picked up. The six others were soon rounded up. All six juveniles are from Belleville and have been released to their parents.

new installations, especially in the new high school. Golden said his review of the School Budget and his respect for the voters' wishes influenced him to advocate a $300,000 reduction in the school budget, which was up a total of $324,000 over last year. How the other Councilmen will act he could not predict, however, he said he doubted they had the courage to heed the wishes of the public, since their "ties" with the school people are so strong.

Dual School

come out publicly for dual control. At the Board candidates meeting at School Eight he had said, "Dual control is not an issue."

"In the three years I have served on the Board of Education," said Mrs. Norma McCoil, "the board members who tonight propose dual control have carried on an unrelenting campaign of hate and innuendo against the superintendent of schools. To all who will listen, they have said, 'Oh, you don't know,' never supplying any honest facts. The accomplishments for our schools by our superintendent are evident in the development and construction of the new high school, the restoration of accreditation to our high school, the establishment of the junior high school, and general improvements throughout the schools. With the constant harassment of the superintendent that has been carried on, he has accomplished almost a miracle in Belleville. I think it is time for Mr. Arvidson, and others, to put their great energy to work for the sound administration of our schools instead of their prejudices."

Asked whether Saletta had discussed any possible defects in dual control with him before voting for dual control, Dr. Frank M. Durkee, superintendent of schools, said, "He did not. Furthermore, the board as a whole did not discuss any need to change to dual control, either before or after the election."

Dr. Durkee further commented, Division of responsibility at the top of any organization is unsound. In business the conflicting authority of partnerships gave way to the unified authority of the corporation. Further, the common sense meaning of assistant superintendent is violated when he is relieved of responsibility to the executive head of the schools, the superintendent.

If the business operation is to serve the educational welfare of children and to be thoroughly efficient, it must have the eye of the superintendent just as much as the teaching in the classroom.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

The newspapers are full with advertisements for color TV sets, sometimes, at amazingly low prices. Customers who come in our store and want to look at these sets are surprised how cheap they look. They have metal painted purposely painted in ugly colors. They have the obsolete shiny tube which reflects clearly like a mirror. In other words these sets are purposely "built" down to discourage people from buying them.

Invariably customers are disappointed and ask us, as if we made these sets, why "they," meaning of course the manufacturers, do such things. It is unbelievable that people by this time have not become wise to these ads, which are solely designed to bring them in the store and the salesman then it is supposed to tell them, why they should not buy the sets which they came in for. Every effort is being made, of course, to sell "better," meaning higher priced sets.

Neither the factory nor the dealers make any profit on these sets, they are strictly "come on." One very large mail order company offers a color TV set, which is made in Japan. There are no 16" color tubes made in this country. We have not had an opportunity to look these sets over. Such a color set of course, is relatively inexpensive also.

Many customers ask for a "portable" color TV. There aren't any yet. The picture tubes are yet too bulky and too heavy. It will take several years until the size and the weight has been brought down to make portable color TV sets.

We service what we sell.

HOT OR COLD? WHICH IS BEST?
Under certain conditions, states first-aid expert, Dr. Carl L. Porfith, cold applications are better than hot. Cold tends to inhibit bleeding by constricting the small blood vessels in nosebleeds and minor cuts. Applications of ice water alleviates discomfort from insect stings and reptile bites and may delay the chemical action and circulation of injected poisons.
Excessively high body temperature associated with heat prostration can be helped by sponging freely with ice water. And, immediate immersion in ice water of a body part with a minor burn can diminish pain and possibly lessen tissue damage.

Miss Hollberg has attended two modern language institutes: one at the University of Michigan, and another in Germany under the sponsorship of Stanford University. Miss Hollberg's studies have acquainted her expertly with the audio-lingual methods of modern foreign language study.

Miss Hollberg has always been in the use of the Language Laboratory. She is convinced that the language lab affords the student "a great opportunity to make use of the entire period in learning foreign language," and that he can make great use of the numbers of accents which he may hear.

With the dedication of a teacher such as Miss Hollberg, our foreign language department will continue to be an outstanding feature of our school.

Merit Test Registration Set Mar. 13

All 1966 graduates of Belleville Senior High School wanting to enter the 1965-66 National Merit Scholarship competition will be registering at the school guidance office. The qualifying test will be given at BHS on March 13, at 9 P.M.

Students who will complete secondary school in 1966 and enter college in the same calendar year are eligible for scholarship consideration in the 1965-66 merit program.

Merit scholarships are four-year awards. The extent of a winner's financial need determines the amount of his stipend. To receive consideration, the student must take the test in his school when it is offered.

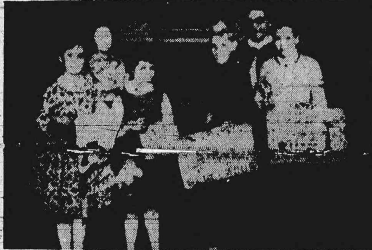

A student's performance on the qualifying test provides him with information that can be used in career planning or in selecting courses in high school and college.

After the test, each participant will receive a "Handbook for Merit Program Participants." This handbook is designed to help students understand their individual test results, to make comparisons with scores of high school students across the country, and to use this information in making educational and vocational plans.

In addition to the awards made by the National Merit Scholarship Corp., about 200 business corporations, foundations, colleges, professional associations, unions, trusts, and individuals give scholarships through the Merit program.

ON HONOR ROLL

Idenden Places First in Oratory; Carlson, Hart Runnersup in Test

BY GAIL MALLISON
An oratorical contest emphasizing the importance of the United States Constitution was presented in Belleville High School on February 25, 1965. It was presented by the Social Studies Department and sponsored by Belleville's American Legion.

Post 105. The mistress of ceremonies, Miss Lois Yocum, presented the three speakers, William Hart, Jeffery Carlson, and Jack Idenden, all seniors at Belleville High School. Each gave a prepared, five-minute oratory. They then followed with an extemporaneous speech for which they had five minutes to prepare.

William Hart's first speech brought out the foundation of our government, and how our lives are based upon it. His extemporaneous talk was on the Seventeenth Amendment, which covered elections in the United States. Jeffery Carlson's first speech was concerned with the "Bill of Rights." He pointed out how the rights of the individual citizen are protected, and how the freedom in America is constantly being challenged from the four corners of the earth. His extemporaneous speech was on Article VI of the United States Constitution.

Jack Idenden's first speech was not only on our rights as citizens, but how we must use and obey them wisely. His extemporaneous speech was on the importance of our Constitution and its necessity in our lives.

After the oratories, the awards were presented. William Hart placed third, Jeffery Carlson, second and Jack Idenden, first.

The students who attended this oratorical contest certainly benefited from the knowledge of these boys. They brought out the importance of our Constitution and its necessity in our lives.

Tom DiBiase Sets Aim At Becoming Senator

Thomas "Di" Biase, an active member of the Senior class, participates in many of the B. H. S. activities. This year, he is the Student Council President. Having all "A's" throughout his high school years, Tom holds a third-place rank in his class.

In previous years, he has been a member of the Math Club, in the basketball league, and the golf team. He has held the position of Key Club Secretary and Junior Class Treasurer. He is also a member of the National Honor Society.

Writing songs for the singing group he belongs to, The Concepts, is one of his many out-of-school activities. The group is going to "cut" a demonstration record for London Records.

The Belleville B.S. Club, under the supervision of Robert Cook, is where Tom spends much of his time.

Tom plans to attend Rutgers, Newark, as a pre-law student. It is Tom's goal.

Tom Di Biase

He hopes to become a successful lawyer, and then enter politics. Becoming Senator of New Jersey Newark, as a pre-law student, is Tom's goal.

2 Summer Programs Set By Scientists of Tomorrow

By Jo Ann Piegare

Scientists of Tomorrow, a non-profit organization dedicated to public service, has sent a letter to Belleville Senior High School regarding high school student summer programs which will begin at the close of school in June. The two programs, JESSI and CASSI, will be of a two-week duration and will deal in the sciences and engineering, and in the communications arts. The programs are available to tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade college-bound students.

The Junior Engineers and Scientists' Summer Institute, JESSI, now in its tenth year, offers an exploration in the sciences and engineering for orientation and guidance purposes. Communications Arts and Sciences Summer Institute, CASSI, is beginning its second year of study in the theories, science, art, and techniques of communications — with self improvement and an introduction to the Liberal Arts studies as its primary objective.

Both programs, held at colleges and universities throughout the nation and taught by regular staff members, are sponsored by Scientists of Tomorrow to associate and acquaint potential college students with the competition, the self-responsibilities, and the study demands of college. The students not only experience being away from home, but even more important are taught how to choose a college and how to adjust to campus life. Because the students are made more aware of the importance and the demands of college, they tend to work harder and even tend to improve their grades.

Those students and parents who are interested in CASSI and JESSI can obtain more information by writing to Scientists of Tomorrow, 309 New Pledner Building, Portland, Oregon, or to KROO, P.O. Box 188, Princetonville, Oregon.

Bellboy JVs Belted Out of ECT Tourney

By Steve Charon
All season long Belleville Varsity and Junior Varsity tour-High's basketball teams have proven it. seemed like luckless squads. Both the Varsity and the Jundrapping many close games. The for Bellboys were paired up with Bellboys latest encounter (with the eventual Tourney Cham-the seeding committees of the pions in the second round of the ECT. After upsetting seeded Weequahic the Big Bellboys fell to the state's premier team, South Side. The Streaks went on to the title Friday while compiling a 21-1 record.

The Belleville J.V.'s were seeded fifth and drew a first round bye in their tournament, but in their first ECT encounter, they ran up against a strong Our Lady of the Valley quintet, and lost 72-51. Valley completed the cycle by downing South Side's Juniors, Friday, 33-32 for the championship.

In that J.V. ECT game, the Bellboys picked-up where they had left off during the regular season by dropping their fifth straight game (at least this time, it was to the best Junior Varsity squad Essex County has to offer).
By the time the ECT was over,
Valley boasted a 19-3 record;
the Bellboys dropped seven of their last eight games to finish with an 8-11 mark.

Valley pounded the Bellboys in the first and last quarters, but only had a 29-38 showing in the middle two periods.

Bivona Wins Regional Wrestling Crown

Dan Bivona became Belleville's first Regional Wrestling Champion when he took the 141 pound title last weekend via a strong comeback and a forfeit.

The week before, Bivona had become the Bellboys first District titlist.
This coming Saturday, Dan will compete with the state's other three Regional Champs for the State Title.

In the Regional battles, Bivona met Muhammed Taleb Rajabi of Paramus, who had gone undefeated in 12 matches this season, in the semi-finals. After a wild first period, Dan trailed 5-2. But Bivona came on strong in the final two periods to win the match (and as it worked out, the title), 7-5.

For the finals, Bivona was to meet Frank Kristi of Glen Rock.

When Kristi didn't show up, Bi-vona was ruled the regional 141 pound Champion.
It is interesting to note that the three other contenders for the state title will have to battle to get down to the 141 weight limit while Danny will have no trouble at all; he's already there.
In fact, Bivona wrestled at 129 for most of the season. Now, he is more than holding his own two weight classes higher.

In the District IV meet, Bi-vona wrestled his way to the 141 pound Championship as the Belleville grapplers placed third in the 11 team field.

Four other Bellboys made their way to the finals before losing.
Two seniors, Tony Festa and Hal

Avallone lost by three points, of North Bergen while Passaic's
Vince Madonna pinned Bob Inico and Joe Villano lost in the Schies of Lyndhurst at 3-40.
Danny then decimated Madonna, finals by wider margins.
In the semi-finals, Bivona took 7-3 for the District IV 141 pound title.

You and Your Insurance
 (A public service column about all forms of insurance.)
ADD INSURANCE COVERAGE TO YOUR COIN COLLECTION
 "A few years ago I bought my young son some coins. Since then he has put together a nice collection, which I would value at about $75," a father writes. "Should I obtain special insurance coverage for the coins?" he asks.
 Generally speaking, you probably are covered for the fact's collection under your homeowners policy. This package insurance plan covers coin collections valued at $100 or less.
 However, as your son's numismatic interests increase, a more specialized policy should be considered. Through an independent insurance agent you can buy insurance specifically designed to protect the collection against virtually any type of loss. Cost of the policy depends upon the value of the collection.
 Such policies usually cover the entire collection, but payment for any one coin generally is limited to $250. If you have higher value coins, they should be individually insured.
 Because there are certain steps you can take to reduce the cost of coin insurance, it is advisable to discuss the matter fully with your agent or broker.
 This column will be glad to answer questions you may have about property or casualty insurance. Send them to:
