Fire Trucks Pass Tests With Flying Colors

PASS TEST — The two new 1,000-gallon pumper trucks recently delivered to the Town Fire Department passed their Underwriters acceptance tests last Thursday morning at Newark with flying colors. Fire Chief Carl F. Hundertpfund said both trucks met the specifications and more than provided a safe margin of reserve. A factory engineer is still busy at Fire Headquarters giving the trucks a final polish as he awaits the arrival of the 85-foot aerial ladder which is expected to arrive from Wisconsin sometime next week.

Protest Act Opposed By Board -- Arvidson

The Belleville Board of Education will deduct one-day's salary from all teaching and administrative personnel absent from schools last Friday for purposes of demonstrating against the cut in the proposed school budget by the Town Council.

Ernest S. Arvidson, board president, announced the Board's decision in a prepared statement Tuesday morning following an executive session of the board Monday night.

Arvidson said that "while the Board of Education is cognizant that the drastic reduction of the school budget will seriously hamper the educational program, it is opposed to the action taken by the teachers to protect this reduction."

Arvidson's statement said: "The Members of the Board of Education received a telegram from the Belleville Education Association on Thursday, March 28, 1965, announcing that teachers would not be in their classrooms on Friday, March 29, 1965. An emergency meeting of the Board of Education was called for Thursday evening, March 28, 1965, and at the request of the Board, representatives of the teachers were present. The Board was informed by said representatives that nearly all teaching personnel and administrators were present at the meeting of the Belleville Education Association held on Wednesday, March 27, and that the vote of the membership to absent themselves on Friday was unanimous. Among the reasons given for this action were the following:

"1. That full information concerning the school budget was available to the Town Council, and, in addition, school personnel needed information concerning the operation of the schools.
"2. That the Town Council accepted the budget reduction proposed by the Town Manager despite the Manager's admission that he was unfamiliar with and lacked knowledge in every area of (Continued On Page 19)

Board Awaits Ruling from County On Business Administrator Post

Ruling on the appointment of Harold A. Dufford as Business Administrator of the Belleville School system by the Board of Education is expected next week from County Superintendent of Schools William S. Twichell.

Twichell said yesterday that he is still awaiting some necessary additional information from the Board of Education before he can arrive at a decision.

The Board had acted in late February to make Dufford, then assistant superintendent of schools, responsible directly to the Board, not Superintendent of Schools Dr. Frank M. Durkee.

However at the March 10 meeting the Board's attorney said that statutes made it impossible for the assistant superintendent not to be answerable to the superintendent.

Two weeks ago the Board adopted a resolution abolishing the post of Assistant Superintendent and named Dufford Business Administrator.

Board Attorney Max N. Schwartz is still figuring out just what Dufford's status is at the present moment, since the Board abolished his assistant superintendent's post, and the new post of business administrator is not officially approved by the county and state.

$270,000 Grant Aids Clara Maass' Intensive Care Unit

The Clara Maass 5-million dollar expansion program was given a boost with a grant of $270,000 for a 21-bed Intensive Care Unit by the Fannie E. Rippe Foundation, Mr. John F. Kidde, Chairman of the Hospital's Board of Trustees, announced today.

Kidde extended his personal gratitude and appreciation of all of the Board members to the Fannie E. Rippe Foundation for its support. Kidde remarked that it is now possible, as a result of this grant, to purchase the most advanced electronic monitoring devices. The Intensive Care Unit at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, is essential to the care of its patients. Therefore in view of the proposed expansion, a 21-bed unit should most adequately serve our needs, Kidde stated.

The objective of such a unit is as follows:

1. To save lives and at the same time shorten the period of hospitalization wherever possible.
2. To have a nursing unit where all equipment and supplies are readily available. This will conserve on nursing personnel.
3. To improve the general hospital program by placing the more critically ill patients in one location.

4. To provide a unit of individual accommodations wherein the patient may have a degree of privacy in a quiet, restful location.

5. To conserve the patient's finances. Private Duty Nurses are scarce and costly. The Intensive Care Unit will minimize the need for such costly services.

6. To concentrate the nursing staff together with the use of modern equipment.

The Intensive Care Unit will be located on the fifth floor of the hospital in the west wing. The location is two floors above the operating room. It can be served by a special elevator reserved for the use of doctors and the transportation of patients.

A dumbwaiter will connect this department with the Central Service Department on the sixth floor and the Pharmacy on the first floor.

The department will consist of four nursing units; three units to have five patient cubicles and the fourth unit, six cubicles. Each patient is separated from the next by a glass and metal partition. The nurses' station is located on the fifth floor of the hospital. The personnel can view the patients at all times. Each unit is designed so that the utility room, kitchen and other service areas are adjacent to the patient.

At the entrance to the department is a Relativ's Waiting Room and a Doctors' Consultation Room. The consultation room adjoins a bedroom so that a physician can remain on duty at any time of the day or night.

Patient monitoring equipment has been given careful consideration in the planning of the Intensive Care Unit. It is felt that such equipment would reduce the time spent by the nurses on routine measurements and make more time available for care. It will provide the physicians and nurses with early knowledge of changes in the patient's condition and should result in more efficient, effective care. It is our belief that lives can be saved by the proper installation and use of such equipment. The equipment presently available will not result in a reduction of nursing personnel. It will, however, permit the personnel to give better care.

After careful study of the equipment available, it was decided to provide patient monitoring equipment for ten of the twenty-one beds. It was felt that at the present time that it would be unnecessary and impractical to monitor all patients.

The monitoring equipment is planned for two units of five beds each. One unit will be designed for cardiac patients and will provide a direct writing recorder for electrocardiograms. The two units will continuously monitor the pulse rate and selective monitoring of temperature and systolic-diastolic blood pressure. High-low warning equipment will be provided on the pulse rate monitor.

The eleven remaining beds in the department will be available for patient use but will not have monitoring equipment at the present time. Panels and conduits will be provided for equipment that might be needed at a later date.

Work is on schedule on the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital expansion and modernization program. A. H. Oberg, the hospital's Executive Director, stated today.

During the early part of 1964, the hospital broke ground for an expansion program that will provide an additional 100 beds and increased supporting facilities. The greatest part of the steelwork for 3 expanded wings has been erected, and brickwork is going up as fast as the weather permits. Oberg commented that with the construction being on (Continued On Page 19)

Palsy Benefit Circus Set to Open Friday

The 'Big Top' will move into the West Orange Armory, April 2, 3 and 4 for the benefit of the Cerebral Palsy Rehabilitation Institute. The Pan American Circus, produced by the Cundari Enterprises, and Don Francisco, the Ringmaster, features Prince El-di-Gordo, The Lion Tamer, and his cageful of lions.

Prince El-di-Gordo will perform with only a chair as he tames the wild animals through their paces. The fearless circus star, from Johannesburg, South Africa, is a fatalist whose attitude makes it possible for him to come back to his arena despite his close brushes with death.

"This is the only life I know," he explains with a shrug, "and that's why I come back, even after one of these close calls. It's a great challenge to me, and always a thrill, to face those big animals in a new duel every show. I hope to continue doing it for a long time. After all, it's dangerous to cross the street, too."

Included in the Pan American Troupe will also be several high-wire acts, clowns and the Scrolettis brothers, whose musical fan-making has brought them international fame as clowns.

Tickets may be purchased from Belleville Town Chairman, Anthony Di Geronimo, 71 Lighan Street.

And older children, who can read, should know about the inside front cover of the telephone directory where the blanks are for emergency numbers. Have you filled them in? When these numbers are immediately available, moments that make a difference can be saved.

An important point—remember to train all the children to give their names, their address and town when reporting any emergency or calling for any help.

Golden Urges Invoking Of Damage Provision For Fire Truck Delay

Golden contends the company has failed to comply with its guarantee that all the ordered equipment would be delivered within 180 working days.

Garden School PTA Joins State PT Unit

The Organizational Meeting of the Garden School P.T.A. March 23, marked a milestone in the work of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers to become the first P.T.A. of a special school of this nature to become affiliated with the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers, and therefore with the National Congress, as well as the Essex County Council of Parents and Teachers.

Since the school's population numbers only 27 children at present, the attendance which numbered over 40 was a truly remarkable achievement.

Many distinguished guests were present and all offered their congratulations to the Garden School P.T.A. and its new status.

These included: Dr. William S. Twichell, Essex County Superintendent of Schools; Ernest S. Arvidson, President and Mrs.

Cancer Control Month Proclaimed

The month of April was designated Cancer Control Month today by Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, who urged all citizens to support the American Cancer Society.

The Mayor's proclamation urging cooperation with the 1965 crusade said:

WHEREAS, cancer strikes families in every community, state and nation, and

WHEREAS, cancer will claim the lives of some 290,000 Americans this year, and

WHEREAS, the American Cancer Society, through its programs of research, education and service and with the help of the medical profession and other agencies has helped save the more than 1,200,000 Americans alive today, cured of cancer, and

WHEREAS, today one-half of all cancer patients could be cured, with research offering the prospect of new cures and the hopes of future cancer prevention, and

WHEREAS, increased voluntary contributions to the American Cancer Society are needed to attain these aims, therefore,

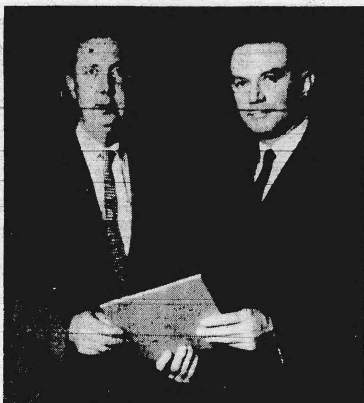

BE IT RESOLVED, that every citizen of Belleville be urged to observe and participate in Cancer Control Month, through support of the American Cancer Society, and by learning from the Society the life-saving facts about cancer, vital to personal protection from this disease.

leading up to the signing of the actual contract on July 9, 1964, Golden maintains several puzzling questions should be answered. First, "Why, after the great furor stirred up about the alleged decept, broken down and held together with baling wire fire engines, did the town wait from April 27, 1964, the date the bids were awarded to Seagraves when several of the principal fire equipment manufacturers obtained from bidding because they said the specifications excluded their product, until two and a half months had elapsed and the town council elections were over and the newly elected Council members had been seated. Before the reputedly urgent needed contract was ever inked?"

"How could this procrastination be condoned if the engines were supposedly so bad? How do they explain there are no longer any complaints nor breakdowns? Was there a propaganda drive resorted to that 'sold' the public on the need for this expensive equipment?"

"That all important Aerial ladder truck hasn't been delivered within the prescribed 180 days of guaranteed delivery and the local paper states it is 'expected to arrive within several weeks.'"

"Using April 27, 1964, the date of acceptance of the Seagraves bid, we see that over eleven months have passed and the complete package of supposedly so urgently needed fire fighting equipment has not yet been delivered. This is an absurd and unusual situation that just doesn't happen in most modern communities. The law department should immediately act to implement the damage provisions of the belatedly entered into contract to protect the town's interests."

Wesley Methodist Church Honored

Wesley Methodist Church, Belleville, has recently received recognition as one of Methodism's oldest churches.

The recognition took the form of a unique citation presented by The Methodist Publishing House, with headquarters in Nashville, Tennessee, on the occasion of its 157th year of service to The Methodist church.

The citation describes the church as "an active Methodist congregation in 1789, the year of the beginning of the Publishing House at old St. George's Methodist Church in Philadelphia."

Wesley Methodist Church is among some 230 Methodist churches in the United States which enjoy the distinction of being as old as the nation itself.

Mrs. McCool Thanks Voters For Support

Mrs. Norma McCool, re-elected to the Board of Education in the past election, expressed her appreciation and thanks to the voters who re-elected her on the school group in a recent release.

She said: "It is with the utmost sincerity that I extend my thanks to all who have made my election possible."

Through the hectic but heart warming days of the campaign, I was able to get closer to a larger portion of the people I have been re-elected to represent.

"It has truly been a rewarding experience which will further aid me in the performance of my office."

"The result of this contact and awakening knowledge has brought forth with great impact to how very important it is for people to get to know their board members."

And even more important, that the board members are able to communicate much more with the people.

Therefore, in view of this awareness I must not only thank those who have so ably assisted me, but pledge, to work even harder in the avenue of communications.

"My deepest thanks go to all of those who worked so very hard in such dedicated earnest and against such overwhelming odds, and for all their momentous efforts, goodwill and faith."

"Likewise, do I appreciate and thank all of those candidates who by good sportsmanship and clean campaigning, helped to raise the level of our board election."

"To the fellow members elected on the same day and to those remaining on the board at present, may I offer hope of future harmony in the interest of all in our educational system."

"This can only be accomplished if we will all put into our term only the best that is in us and leave false hate as false witnesses, behind us."

"To all, may I pledge to endeavor to uphold my office in a commendable manner, to serve our town and educational system to you, our policy and to learn of and attempt to solve to the best of my ability, your problems."

"None of the above could have been possible without the understanding, cooperation and loyalty of all the members of my family, for that which is called inner joy and faith, we share."

"Consistency is the last refuge of the unimaginative."

Mertz Defends Civil Defense

The Town's Civil Defense and Disaster Control program, recently attacked by several citizens at Town Council meetings as useless was defended recently by Raymond E. Mertz Jr., head of the program.

In a letter to Town Manager John R. Burnett, Mertz said:

"It has come to my attention, by many phone calls and other means, that one Mrs. Frank, has attended our Town Council meetings and prevailed upon the Council to abolish the Civil Defense and Disaster Control, by not providing monies for its continuance."

"Of course this is hearsay as far as I am concerned, because I am not available on most Council meeting nights. But apparently she has caused concern among many people have prevailed upon me to write this letter."

"First of all, we have attempted to provide the people of the Town of Belleville with the best possible Civil Defense and Disaster Control nucleus for the least possible outlay of funds."

"I must say nucleus, as volunteers are hard to come by except when things happen such as the Cuban crisis. At that time and for a week after our phone hardly ever stopped ringing. People were calling for instructions and to volunteer. Interesting!"

"Secondly, we have made slow, but steady progress in getting people trained for various jobs that would be required for both man made and natural disasters. We also have a communications section that can be reached and used whenever called upon. In addition the Auxiliary Police are used many-times throughout a year by our Town."

"Thirdly, we have marked and stocked shelters throughout the Town with the little expense of providing transportation for the stocking materials provide by the Federal Government. The Army Engineers have been surveying the Town of Belleville for additional space to be marked and stocked at a future date."

"While I am on the subject of shelters, I must mention that it is true that many people lost their lives right in shelters during the World War 2 bombings. But it is also fact that many people were saved because of the shelters and the supplies stocked in them. London!"

"Fourthly, Civil Defense and Disaster Control's function is an attempt to organize and prepare for happenings that we all hope will never come to pass. However, if we don't organize and prepare what happens to the men, women and children that might survive? Must we bury our heads in the sand and say there is no hope for the people of the Town of Belleville? Or should we prepare for the possibility that the storms on our West coast of this winter might just happen around here? Or the Eastern Airlines plane that crashed in the ocean the other night might just happen to have crashed on this town?"

"Fifthly, in closing, in my humble opinion, to hinder the functions of Civil Defense and Disaster Control would be no different than what the people in New York did in watching a girl crying for help, be stabbed to death and do nothing, because

Spring Comes to Belleville

"Spring, with her golden suns and silver rain, is with us once again."

So Henry Timrod wrote. And many millions of us must have been thinking in those terms, though in a more prosaic fashion. For it has been a long winter, with snow, sleet, rain and storms the order of what usually turned out to be a weekend.

But Spring is with us once again. For those who are statistically minded, it arrived here officially at 3:05 p.m. on March 20. This does not mean, of course, that the skies will clear and the air turn balmy all of a moment. Nature has a way of ignoring the calendar, and many a Spring in its beginnings has been indistinguishable from the Winter that preceded it.

But have patience, the good days are near at hand. It won't be long before the crack of a bat is heard from a Little League diamond, or the shouts of the coxswain echo across the waters of the wide Passaic. The buds will pop from the earth, the trees will flower and it will be time to check out the garden tools and the lawn mower again. But even with these chores to accomplish at regular intervals, there will be time for fishing or just loafing and enjoying the sights and sounds that are uniquely those of Spring.

And later? Well, it won't be long until we'll be able to repeat the words of an unknown poet who seven centuries ago wrote:

"Summer is iucumen in . . ."

The Governor's Guidance on Campaign

Easter is only a few weeks away — and the annual Easter Seal Appeal is in full swing. Let's listen to what Governor Richard J. Hughes has to say about it:

"The physically handicapped, old and young, make up a significant part of the population of every New Jersey community. For this reason, all of us have a grave responsibility with regard to the problems of rehabilitation and other forms of help for the handicapped.

sey address themselves to this problem constantly and effectively. It is their only purpose, and dedicated volunteers and state members devote themselves to it every day of every year.

"Once each year, in the weeks immediately before Easter, these volunteers come to us through the annual Easter Seal Appeal to ask for the funds which make their work possible. Theirs is a worthwhile cause. They deserve our support."

The Governor is talking about our community too.

Town Manager's Report

The Belleville Green Acres lands necessitated removing the application now pending has been complicated to a point that appears to make it unfeasible to continue processing our application.

The Lobnitz property, west of the Third River and north of Jerusalem Street, which has been under consideration for the past 18 months, is under contract of sale to the Morton Development Company, with the closing date set for April 1, 1965.

Officials of this company informed me on Tuesday past that all negotiations for the property had been completed, and the engineering and surveying have proceeded to the point where they were now ready to request a sub-division of the property for the creation of 43 lots for the erection of one family dwellings bordering on a new street to be constructed through the center of the property. The Third River would also be straightened and widened by the developers.

Land purchases and engineering studies to date approximate $200,000, and with this as a base it would be economically unfeasible for the Town of Belleville to continue consideration of this tract as a Green Acres open space project.

It is necessary for Council policy to be determined within the next 30 days if there is still a belief that the project should be undertaken despite costs.

A policy question has arisen that I believe requires Council determination in relation to the center island areas of Greycliff Parkway.

Prior to the narrowing of these islands the earth centers were grass plots, hit the physical work required to narrow the islands necessitated removing the sale of the property abutting the Second River, and across from Maple Avenue, on the ground that it was conveyed to the Town of Belleville by the Jergens Corporation for flood control or recreation purposes.

Mr. Tedesco also tells me that a stipulation in the deed of conveyance from the Jergens Corporation requires their approval of any resale, and that their lack of approval in this case will require cancellation of a Resolution authorizing the sale of the property following the auction.

Under the circumstances I would request consideration by the Town Council in permanently restricting all usage of this property for anything other than recreation purposes in order to preclude any future attempts to purchase and use the property for other than recreational purposes.

The preparation of the Stadium and Stadium grounds is proceeding as fast as possible in order to meet the April 2 opening date of the Belleville High School Baseball team.

We have removed the announce tower, formerly located on the western side of the running track; rebuilt the old baseball field; filled in the holes in the area adjoining the High School grounds; and reseeded the outfield of the present Varsity baseball diamond.

The former baseball field that occupied the southeast corner of the football field will not be used this year. Instead we have seeded the entire area as partial preparation for the 1965 football season.

The running track is also being graded, and we will attempt to put it into proper condition for the track meets scheduled for Belleville High School.

TEACHERS PROTEST DRAWS CRITICISM

To The Editor, Times - News:

The conduct of the school personnel in picketing the Town Council for upholding the mandate by the people who have twice rejected the school budget as too high and exaggerated is a shocking disgrace to this Town.

"If it had been approved like the new high school built in a swamp area against the mandate of the people there would have been no demonstrations."

The school budget was thrown into the laps of the Council by the people who must pick up the tab and wanted it reduced.

The actions of the Council in rejecting the school budget is one of merit. Education in Belleville will not suffer since only necessary items have been removed.

The Board of Education should explore other ways of getting money by making their complaint to Trenton for additional school aid.

Money taken in by the tolls of the Holland Tunnel, which has been paid for many times and belongs to the people, should be equally shared by New York and New Jersey. The same is also true of the tolls taken in by the N.J. Turnpike, when it becomes free and clear and the Garden State Parkway. Why should the Port of New York Authority use toll funds for any other purpose such as culture centers, and restaurant and heliport at the World's Fair. Education is important so are our highways, and tax relief.

READER HITS BEAT ON BUDGET PROTEST

To The Editor, Times - News:

Dear Mr. Nucera, Pres. Belleville Education Association

I worked for and voted for the passage of the school budget as presented. I regret and disapprove the defeat of the budget and the curtailment of any educational facilities by a negative majority — but I support unequivocally the democratic and legal action of the electorate and their representatives who in this instance are the Town Council and the Town Manager.

I am positive that in the process of securing the privilege of wearing the title of Educator you must have learned something about the process of law, and to advocate lawlessness according to Webster's Dictionary is anarchy. The demonstration of protest you and your members staged on school time was to say the least irresponsible and certainly not in the best interest of education by any stretch of the imagination or interpretation. Your action, however, serves notice and warns all parents and other citizens alike that the teachers and principals from this day forward will not hesitate to take unified action and exert pressure to impose their will and their demands on the citizens of Belleville.

Ten years ago I deposited the first of my most precious possessions in a basement kindergarten room in School Number Eight placing him in the care of a person whom I consider to be the second most influential person in his life. To this day I have always had a great deal of respect and the highest regard for all those teachers and principals that I have come to know. I don't think anything could ever change that feeling.

I was born in a generation when educational opportunities were considered a luxury; consequently, I grew to adulthood with a consuming desire to acquire all the blessings of liberty I possibly could in my lifetime, and through my children leave this world a little better than I found it. I firmly believe in and ascribe to the philosophy, "no man is an island," and then continues, "send not to see for when the bell tolls, it tolls for thee."

To this end I have supported any and every worthwhile cause that has ever touched me, whether it was in governmental, educational, or individual improvement; therefore, I support your right to organize the teachers into a union for the betterment of their wages and working conditions — but let's call a spade a spade.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. A. C. Izzo

SCHOOL BUDGET CUT

To The Editor, Times-News:

To whoever one believes that the School Budget was too small, too low or O.F. for the Town Council, meeting on Sunday, to cut the budget by $277,900 and the next day to increase the budget which they control by $186,000 just does not seem to be cricket, or to paraphrase Shakespeare, "There is something purifying in the vicinity of Copenhagen."

STUDENT SUPPORT TEACHERS' PROTEST

To The Editor, Times-News:

I deplore your use of the term "Walk of Ignorance" used in the March 25th editorial. It is not the teachers that are showing their ignorance but rather the voters in Belleville!

The $277,900 cut is nearly a 10 per cent reduction in the yearly budget. The teachers of Belleville are not concerned about their own salaries but rather are concerned with the education of the Belleville student. I definitely feel that if the parents and citizens show absolutely no concern for the advancement and betterment of Belleville then the teachers should.

The budget cut is a disgrace! Many important school functions will be eliminated or curtailed next year because of it. This is unfair to our students! They need every opportunity that we can offer them.

I am hoping to become a teacher. It is a worthy profession requiring much preparation and thought. These people are devoting their time and efforts to improve our youth. They should be given full cooperation but have received none whatsoever.

I feel that you owe these teachers an apology and that it is about time the people of Belleville woke up and realized that through such apathy on the part of the voter Belleville's reputation is slowly sinking to the bottom.

Sincerely,
Laura Baker
609 Belleville Avenue
Belleville, N. J.

P.S. I hope you will have the space to list a progressive view on education in your paper.

(Ed.'s Note: We chose the term "Walk of Ignorance" with care as we believe that it was the proper word as defined by Webster's New American Dictionary — "The state of being without knowledge." We believe most, if not all, of the teachers were uninformed, unaware, and knew little about the budget they are now operating under or the proposed budget which was reduced $277,900 by the Town council.

After the Council made its decision.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

We wrote recently about the shortage of skilled mechanics capable of installing, servicing and repairing all the electronic gadgets in use in homes these days. This applies particularly to color TV.

The "break through" of color TV to the home is the result of the TV industry, has finally occurred. Every manufacturer of TV sets now makes color TV. Some of the only 2-year-olds did not want anything to do with color. For 9 years RCA carried the ball, so to speak, singlehandedly.

Most independent servicemen, regretfully, did not prepare for this avalanche. The factories were forced to set up their own service organizations. The problem is where to find the mechanics? There were not any and the industry had to start to find men willing to learn the trade and train them. It takes years for a man to acquire the knowledge and experience necessary to do this kind of work right. We have heard of numerous cases where people who had bought color TV sets, returned them, simply because the men sent out to service these sets, could not do it right. You can see this in many every department store or on the highways. The writer has yet to see one properly adjusted set, in the places where they are sold many times to look. This is a pity, because people judge color TV by the poor pictures which they see on these temporarily set up and improperly adjusted sets. We repeat our invitation, which we extended many times in this column, if you want to see a properly performing color TV set, please come to our store and location. ### BUSINESSMEN SEEN NEEDED IN GOVERNMENT

To The Editor, Times-News:

When one reads as I do not only the newspapers but also bulletins from the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce and the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Business Week the Readers Digest and others, and listens to news broadcasts in which one reads or hears of various levels of government, which defy the simplest rules of economics, one wonders what kind of men do we have who are passing the bills and ordinances in this fair land of ours?

I guess I better skip answering that one and then come up with, well what kind of men do we need? It seems to me that if we have any these men appear to be much evidence of it, but we sure need more business men. Men who have had to meet a payroll. Men who have had to study cost sheets and have had to fill out the multitude of government reports that come to their desks. Men who have put up capital and put money to work at a risk. Men who risked capital have produced jobs and added to the economic growth of our community state and nation.

We need men who know and understand the economic facts of life and have had to learn the hard way. People who have lived all their lives behind the security of a weekly or monthly pay check haven't the faintest idea of what it means to risk all on a business venture, hence they are inclined to pass laws that kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

Sincerely,
Harry F. French

Annette Juliano, Sherman Among Winners of Wilson Fellowships

Two Belleville students, Annette L. Juliano of 359 Union Avenue, and Gilbert Sherman of 224 Mill Street, both attending Rutgers State University were among the winners of 5 million dollars in graduate Woodrow Wilson fellowships designed to recruit new college teachers.

Over 11,000 faculty nominated college seniors in the United States and Canada competed for the grants, and 1,995 were chosen for the academic year 1965-66.

"The competition alerted thousands of undergraduates to the critical need for qualified college teachers," said Sir Hugh Taylor, president of the Foundation for the United States and Canada, which administers the program.

"Less than one third of the college teachers we need are being produced today. Four years from now, when enrollments are expected to increase 50 per cent, the faculty shortage will become still more acute," he said.

Recipients of Woodrow Wilson Fellowships will receive tuition and fixed fees at the graduate school of their choice, plus $1,000 for living expenses. Extra allowances are made for children. The Foundation also accorded honorable mention to 1,242. The majority of these are expected to receive alternate awards from the sources, Sir Hugh stated.

"We circulate their names widely among the graduate schools of the United States and Canada expressly for that purpose," he added.

The program is the largest private source of support for advanced work in the liberal arts. It has been financed, since 1968, by two Ford Foundation grants totaling $52 million.

The program began in 1945 on a small scale at Princeton University when four recently returned G.I.s were named Kemp Fellows after the donor of the first stipend. Later the name was changed to honor a great president of Princeton and of the United States, and the program was broadened. The Ford Foundation's first grant in 1968 dramatically enlarged the program to 1,000 Fellows a year.

UP SPEAK

ANIMAL WELFARE LEAGUE ORGANIZED
To the Editor, Times-News:—
Our Town Manager, Mr. John R. Burnett, during recent public meetings, as well as during the regular public meetings of our Town Council, in all appearances, tried quite masterfully to give the impression that ALL animals found on the streets in Belleville were STRAY or ABANDONED ones.
Owners of pets in Belleville, as well as throughout the world, know that even with the most careful supervision, man's best friend occasionally manages to escape his forced confinement. It is this friend of man that I have tried to protect through my numerous appeals to the Belleville Councilman that they be swayed by any political interests in their decision regarding the awarding of the animal control contract within our town.
In the bidding this year, identical bids of $300.00 were received. The two bidders offered identical services, too, due to the fact that the specifications had been drawn up to include certain additional requirements, not requested of bidders in previous years' contracts. It was brought out, however, and backed up by a Belleville citizen, that a couple of years back, animals, including one of his own pets, had been lured into baited traps, held and later turned over to a certain dog warden under contract with our town. An animal lured into a baited trap is not necessarily an unwanted, discarded one. It could very likely be a beloved pet, trapped because of existing bad feelings between neighbors in a community and this unfair method might be used to "get even." Due to the facts brought out in recent newspapers as to the greater number of animals recorded by our officials as having been picked up in Belleville in one given year as compared to another year, I certainly feel that our councilmen, before awarding the present contract, might have questioned both contractors bidding on the services of control of our wandering pets, as to just where and how the figures were arrived at. I.e., whether those figures included trapped animals as well as those running at large and considered abandoned in the Belleville streets.

You and Your Insurance

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

CHECK INSURANCE ON MOTOR BOATS

"I plan to buy an outboard motor boat. Can you tell me what arrangements I should make for insuring it?" a reader questions.
If your boat will be powered by a motor with more than 24 horsepower, there are several coverages you should investigate. These include boating liability, medical payments and physical damage insurance. The latter can be purchased separately or added to your homeowners policy.

For smaller boats, canoes and row boats, the liability coverage provided under your homeowners or comprehensive personal liability policies generally will cover you while operating the boat.
When you purchase the boat check the coverages described below with your insurance agent.

Physical damage pays the cost of repairing your boat and outboard motor and generally covers the boat trailer and other boat accessories. It includes payment for damage caused by fire, explosion, collision with other boats, theft, sinking, or loss overboard of the motor. It compares with automobile collision insurance.

Boating liability covers bodily injury and property damage liability claims arising out of ownership, use and maintenance of the boat and outboard motor. This compares to auto liability insurance. The amount of liability coverage depends upon the policy you purchase.

Medical payments covers medical expenses for each person who is injured as the result of an accident while in, or upon, boarding, or leaving the boat. The insurance pays all reasonable expenses for necessary medical, surgical and dental services within one year of the accident. In some policies the insured and his family are not covered. Check this point with your agent.

This column will be glad to answer questions you may have about property or casualty insurance. Send them to:

I am indeed grateful for the town councilman who, during the public meeting, was instrumental in having the town council agree to the inclusion in the contract that all animals picked up in Belleville and having a license thereon, be reported daily to the Belleville police who will, in turn, have the proper official in their department notify the owner of the licensed animal within the twenty - four hour period as to where his pet is and the conditions under which his pet may

Bellboys Open Baseball Season Tomorrow, Host Central

By Steven Charen

Weather - permitting, the Bellboys will open their 1965 baseball campaign tomorrow against Central at Belleville Municipal Stadium. On Saturday, Belleville will travel to Irvington for the Big Ten Conference opener.

As it usually is in scholastic baseball, the weather has been a big factor already. Rain and muddy fields have cancelled most of Belleville's exhibition or practice games. It wasn't until this week that the Bellboys' home field was ready. Most previous practice sessions had been in the BHS gym or in the park.

The stadium field being ready for the opener should give the Bellboys a big boost to start this year. Last season, the diamond wasn't ready until May 2, the year before it was non-existent.

Gone from center field will be the old football-announcing booth that along with the track create a formidable obstacle course. The muddy right field swamp with its protective short fence will also be gone. The festivities begin. The backstop will be there from the start. In high school baseball, a home field makes quite a big difference for various reasons: psychological, experimental, and an example. The Bellboys were 5-2 at home last year and 9-10 away.

The home field, where 12 of 22 regular season games will be played, plus the group of ten returnees, and the strong addition to the squad all point toward a promising season for Belleville. In fact, there is a good chance that the Bellboys will break the record of 14 season wins that they set during the previous campaign.

Although it's early to tell for sure, the Big Ten Conference race should be very tight this year. Compounding the problem is the return to an 18 game league schedule from the previous nine game slate. This year, each team will play each of its conference opponents twice. A Mingo will be making his debut during the previous campaign and was a huge success.

As it appears now nine of the ten teams in the conference have shot at the coveted crown. One Orange appears to be strengthening the keystone sack of the running for another year. Derending champ Muncie, Nut, Phillips, will open the season at large, and West Orange shape up as Belleville's chief title opponent.

COLLEGE SPEAKER — Former Heavyweight Boxing champion Floyd Patterson is congratulated by Msgr. Edward J. Fleming, executive president of Seton Hall University, after he spoke on the role of the professional athlete in the

Adult Gym Classes Eyed By Rec. Dept.

Because of certain interest indicated by some individuals the Recreation Department is exploring the idea of starting adult gym classes for men and for women. Plans are to start the program early in October; this considering that we are so near the outdoor season of tennis, golf, etc. If there is sufficient interest, this program would be most appropriate and would tie in with the national interest in physical fitness.

Those who would be interested in taking part in such activity are asked to call the Recreation House as soon as possible so that careful plans may be made. The Recreation Department is particularly interested in knowing what nights will be most convenient for the greatest number of people. Adult Gym-Nites will have to be coordinated with the Mens Basketball League and the many other activities of the Recreation Indoor Program.

The program for men might include calisthenics, volleyball, tug-of-war, modified basketball etc., while the women's program might run to rhythm exercises, volleyball, various mat exercises and calisthenics. In each case the participants would determine the type of program they would like and the Recreation Department would provide qualified leadership. Recreation Superintendent Bob Cook suggests that such a program will succeed best if the participants would come in groups of three or more. This simplifies transportation and will go a long way toward insuring good attendance.

BHS Track Team Could Surprise

Although Belleville's 1965 Track Team has a young nucleus, no opposing team should regard the Bellboys lightly. Under new head coach Ron Kulik and assistant coach Pat Forte, the Bellboys have really been working out hard to be ready for the coming season.

The team is made up mostly of sophomores and juniors, but there are enough seniors on the squad to show the younger boys the ropes. Senior captains this year are Hal Avalone, shotputter; Martin Schwandt, 440 yd. dash; and Al Paganelli, half miler.

Some of the boys to look for this year in the sprints are Charles Reed, Peter Green, Rich Del Russo, and Joe Hoenig. In the hurdles we have Don Johnson, Art Odle and Harold Baker. Distance men include Dave Grigoris, Don Saunders, Bob Bogliore, Bob Moore, Joe McGuire, Larry Silver, and Al Paganelli. In the shot and discus, Hal Avalone, James Luty, Lou Trowbridge, Frank Sprella and Tony Sorrentino will hold their own.

CREW BOATHOUSE — Ground will be broken during the coming week for this $45,000 boathouse being built by the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association. Structure will be the new home for the high school crew. The boathouse site is on the opposite bank of the Passaic River in Kearny.

First of Three Sections To Be Finished in Month

Ground will be broken during the coming week for the new crew boathouse for Belleville and Nutley High Schools. The building, being financed entirely by public subscriptions, will go up on the Passaic River bank in Kearny.

Construction contracts were signed Friday night after a low bid had been submitted by the Gem Construction Company of Nutley.

Members of the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association report work on the first of three sections for the boathouse should be completed in about 30 days.

The Rowing Association, an incorporated group, was organized solely to accomplish what the boards could not raise funds to build a new home for the high school crews.

Total cost of the structure will run about $45,000. Cost of the first section will be around $14,500. The Rowing Association already has spent $6,000 on a dock and float at the Kearny site. State Statutes prohibit a school board from spending tax money to erect a building on property it does not own in another municipality. The land in Kearny is owned by Kearny and has been dedicated for park purposes.

Although Kearny would not sell the land to Belleville or Nutley, an agreement was reached two years ago permitting the property's lease for a 20 year period with a minimal $100 annual rent. The Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association Inc. was organized to raise the funds for the boathouse with the ultimate intention of turning over the building, when completed, to the two boards of education.

Recreation Baseball Leagues Set Signups

Applications for Recreation Junior League for boys of ten through twelve years while Peanut League and Belleville Little League have been distributed through the schools.

All boys between the ages of eight and twelve who wish to play in one of these Leagues are required to fill out a 1965 application. This includes boys who were on teams last year. The one application for all leagues has been worked out between the Recreation Department and the Belleville Little League in order to simplify the procedure. Any boys who, for some reason, did not receive their applications at school may pick one up at the Recreation House.

After the applications have been turned in they will be processed and the boys will be notified as to first try-out for Little League. After the Little League try-outs are completed and the players selected the next activity will be the formation of the Recreation Junior and Peanut Leagues.

The Recreation Department is seeking good managers for the Peanut League. Men who are patient, like to see youngsters enjoy themselves, like to teach fair play and sportsmanship, and who have a baseball background are needed to take a couple of the twelve teams. All of those who have given their time to the Peanut League have enjoyed seeing these embryonic athletes develop skills and learn to compete in a sportsmanlike way. Men who are interested are asked to call the Recreation Office.

An adjustable ironing board, set low, makes a convenient table for serving refreshments to young guests. Cover it with a pretty plastic cloth and use terry fingertip towels for napkins—all washable with soap or detergent suds.

Baseball, as it is played today, was developed by Alexander Cartwright, a draftsman and surveyor. He laid out a field, drew up a standard set of rules for the game, and organized the country's first ball team, the N.Y. Knickerbocker Club, in 1845-46. The Knickerbockers played their first game at Cartwright Field in Hoboken and were defeated 22-1 by the New York Nine in four innings.

DUAL vs. UNIT CONTROL ISSUE REVIVED

To the Editor, Times-News:
From time to time, your editorials have focused upon a basic school board question relative to the management, control and administration of our school system. Unfortunately, your writings have reflected a lack of understanding of the fundamental issues involved.

It is inevitable, when relying on a single source of information, biased at best, that misconceptions and misrepresentations will occur. On such a vital issue, it is difficult to understand a newspaper's failure to elicit facts from all of the pertinent sources.

such as school law and the school board in addition to the views of the administrator before taking a definite position on the issues. Moreover, it is extremely difficult to reconcile a newspaper's dual position on both sides of two parallel, if not identical situations. For example, the issues reflected in your associate's (FCW) editorial of January 21, 1965 titled, "A Mistake in Judgment" is the identical issue of "checks and balances" in Town government that you choose to label "unit vs. dual control" in our school system. Labels cannot disguise or conceal the real issues!

Notwithstanding the diametrically opposite position to the one in your writings, the editorial is a welcomed break-through to a more perceptive understanding of the basic issues involved. FCW deserves the commendation of our citizens for the succinct and perceptive presentation in terms they can readily understand. The editorial brings into sharp focus the basic issues concerning the proper operation of the Town government under the Manager form of government.

The pertinent editorial with the parallel substitutions is worth repeating here for the benefit of our readers: "A Mistake in Judgment" "Sup, of Schools, F. M. Durkin (Town Manager, John R. Burnett) is a man who handles more problems and make more decisions in one day than most of us do in a month. It is only natural that some of his decisions would be mistakes."

"Most people are aware that 'Supt. of Schools, F. M. Durkin' is a man who handles more problems and make more decisions in one day than most of us do in a month. It is only natural that some of his decisions would be mistakes."

470 BROAD ST.

Opposite Brookside Park

There, Sir, is the basic issue in all of its stark and ugly nakedness — "unchecked dictatorial powers" vs. "checks and balances" rather than spuriously labelled "dual control". The dual policy of our Constitution is caused by two issues: how to have a more perfect union and how to prevent tyranny. The means to the end is federalism. The means to protection against tyranny are checks and balances.

Any school board member who ignores this fundamental issue or acts in any manner as to knowingly lend support to this tyrannical design of unchecked dictatorial powers for the superintendent violates his public trust and breaks faith with electorate that selected him to protect its interests and that of the public school system.

It would appear that the editorial policy of your newspaper supports two opposite sides of the same basic issue. The editorial cited above opposes unchecked dictatorial powers for the superintendent in our public school system. The inconsistency is of no concern here other than to urge correction of an untenable point of view which is incompatible with our democratic concepts.

The preservation of our democratic processes whether in Town government or in our public school system is everyone's responsibility and your newspaper can be of invaluable assistance by publishing the facts for the enlightenment of our townspeople and by supporting the positions of the elected representatives of the people in their sincere efforts to discharge the responsibilities of their offices in the interest of our community.

Nicholas S. Juliano School Board Member
(Ed's Note: Mr. Juliano claims to have detected a division in editorial policy as pertaining to the Town Council and the Board of Education. However just to set the matter straight, the editorial policy of this paper is the same to all local governmental bodies.)

"We do believe the Superintendent of Schools should have power to dictate to the school personnel. We believe the Board of Education, which can hire and fire the Superintendent, is the same check and balance to his powers as the Town Council is to the Town Manager."

As far as the unit versus dual control battle, we believe that there can be no division of responsibility for the operations of the school system or the municipal government. Therefore as the matter stands, the editorial policy of this paper is the same to all local governmental bodies.

We do not recommend that the Town purchasing agent be removed from under the control of the Town Manager. We also do not believe that the school purchasing agent or Business Administrator should be removed from under the control of the Superintendent of Schools, which is what the Board of Education is attempting to do in its battle to create a dual control system for our school system despite the presentment of the Grand Jury and County and State Education officials' advice to the contrary.

READER PRAISES POLICE DEPARTMENT

To the Editor, Times-News:

On behalf of my family and myself I'd like to take this opportunity to publicly and sincerely thank our Police force.

Since our recent unpleasant incident, I've come to know the great need and importance of a fine law enforcement department.

Taxpayers and citizens of Belleville, these words of praise for this branch of our Town government comes from a resident that knows. We've got one to be really proud of.

The patrol cars that ride our streets have one purpose and that is to protect and preserve our property and laws. From Chief McGinnis to our rookie policemen in our service, we have a diligent, hard working and alert organization. The Belleville Police Department leaves little to be desired. They are complete and thorough and get the job done as well as is humanly possible. In case you've forgotten, citizens, policemen are human, warm and sincere workers.

I'd like to especially thank Detective Thomas Dunn, Harold O'Reilly, Hugh O'Toole, Jim Pindar and the patrolmen who have kept a close watch on our house. These faithful men of our police force have done much to ease our personal fears — an emotion so deep that words cannot possibly express their true meanings. Let's not wait until we need the police to appreciate them.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Archie Freedman

GARAGE DECISION RAPID BY READER

To the Editor, Times-News:

All of the property owners and tenants from Watchung Avenue, Belleville, have been hurt very badly from this new Board of Adjustment, by approving permission to build an addition to a Holdorf, Repair Garage located in this street. This garage doesn't conform to the true intent of this "C" zone.

This same garage was rejected permission to build last year from the old Board of Adjustment, on account of many complaints and objections from the property owners in this street.

These are some complaints as follows:

This garage parks many cars, trucks, and cabs in front of neighbors homes, and for many days, and does some repairs on them at the same location, works at late hours seven days a week.

The way he parks these cars in two and three lanes out in the public street, this blocks up the flow of traffic. Results of all this and other conditions we had to call Police many times, and also the Health and Building Inspectors, but the same existing conditions have gone on and no solution to this problem.

And now with all these complaints this Board OF ADJUSTMENT gives this garage owner permission to build. What goes on here? Where is he going to put his junk yard? Are we going to have more trouble here? Or should we contact Trenton?

We all know that the right thing was done here, by the Board of Adjustment. We will remember on election day, and we have many votes.

Gail Cronauer Will Attend GS Jamboree

BY MARY DOPART

Gail Cronauer, a BHS junior, will attend the Girl Scout Jamboree this July at Camp Farnagut, Idaho. She is a member of Senior Troop 981 and was chosen, along with eight other girls from Belleville, Nutley, and Newark area, to participate in this event.

Gail will leave Penn Station on July 10 enroute to Chicago. After staying there for a day, they will tour the United States until they reach Idaho. They will attend the jamboree for approximately two weeks.

Gail has worked diligently and deserved being chosen for this trip. She has been attending Camp Dawson for practice and training sessions every Saturday. Her advisor, Mrs. Anthony Verhagen, has helped her raise money for this trip. In February, they planned a card party at the American Legion Hall that proved to be an overwhelming success.

Thousands of girls from all over the world participate in this jamboree each year. Not only will the girls learn many new skills, but they will also meet many famous and interesting people. Last year, President Johnson was a guest speaker.

coach for 17 years, and he also coached golf.

In 1966, he was appointed to his present position. His duties are as numerous as his title of Director of Education, Health, Athletics, and Safety indicates.

As Director of Physical Education, Herman is responsible for the supervision of the physical education program from kindergarten through the twelfth grade.

As Director of Athletics, he is responsible for all the details involved with the football, cross country, basketball, wrestling, bowling, golf, crew, and baseball team and intramurals on all levels in the elementary and high schools. He schedules contests, hires officials, and sees to it that the field is in good condition, that programs are prepared, and that teams are hired. He also sends visiting teams contracts.

In his other capacities, Herman arranges the tuberculosis tests that are given in grades 1, 5, 9, and 12, and arranges physical examinations and anything else pertaining to health. He is also in charge of the elementary school safety patrols.

Numerous other changes will take place such as a Psychiatric Department in which mentally disturbed patients can be treated for a relatively short period of time - under 30 days - and returned to normal living. Attention has been given to a larger emergency room which will permit an emergency vehicle to be under shelter during inclement weather, and a more comfortable Admissions Department. Other changes will include additional X-ray equipment, larger storage and receiving facilities and an expanded Dietary Department.

Girl Scout adults are going to school via TV when the star-studded series, "Growing Up Today," the first educational TV programs ever produced by the National Girl Scouts, is beamed into New Jersey via Channel 11 (WPIX) for four Saturdays beginning April 1.

The half-hour programs will be shown April 10, 17, 24 and May 1, from 11:00 - 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Howard Craig, Summit, chairman of the Training Committee for the Essex County Girl Scouts, said:

Valerie Bettis, choreographer for Broadway musicals, designed the dance, 'Growing Up.'"

"While the programs were produced primarily to train experienced and new Girl Scout troop leaders, the general public will find them both educational and entertaining," Mrs. Craig said.

"Mothers and fathers will get many good suggestions on how they can help their children have fun in the out-of-doors, become more interested in household duties. They will discover many creative and inexpensive projects their children will enjoy."

"This is the only time the programs will be shown in the Northern New Jersey area," Mrs. Craig said.

schedule it is expected that the entire project will be completed by the early part of 1966 and that we should be in a position to utilize the new facilities by late winter or early spring.

The building program is being supported by contributions from the public, Business and Industry, Foundations, the Medical Staff of the hospital and other interested groups.

In addition to the Intensive Care Unit, the expansion will increase the present bed capacity from 300 to 400. The Pediatrics area will be doubled and will include a combined Pediatrics-Teniatrics Department - something new in this area.

Oberg stated that the Pediatrics Department, which will be relocated, will be adjacent to the present Medical - Surgical area. With this arrangement, Pediatrics patients can be admitted to the Teniatrics area during business hours of the day. The rest of the time, this unit will be used for teen-age patients. He further pointed out that the Physical Therapy Department will be greatly expanded to take care of the growing need for larger quarters and the increased Out-Patient load.

Mrs. George Van Leuven Wins With 'Fruit Salad'

Mrs. George Van Leuven of 19 Tiona Avenue wins this week's cook-of-the-week contest with a recipe for "Fruit Salad." The dish, one of her husband's favorites, originated from the recipe book of her mother who lives in Ohio.

Mr. Van Leuven is the minister of the First United Methodist Church in Belleville. The Times' cook-of-the-week says it was upon the suggestion of members of the United Presbyterian Women that she submitted the fruit salad recipe.

She has been making the salad for "five or six years now" and finds it especially adaptable to church "pot luck" dinners. "I'm not one to enter contests," she said noting this is the first time she can remember winning anything.

The Van Leuven's have two children, Ruth 10 and Paul 8, both pupils at School 5 in Belleville.

Mrs. Van Leuven wins the five dollar cash award for this week's contest. Entries already submitted to the contest editor will continue to be considered in future weeks. Mrs. Van Leuven, and other past winners, may submit additional entries for prizes.

This week's winning salad recipe follows:

FRUIT SALAD
2 3-oz. pkgs. lime gelatin
1 3-oz. pkg. lemon gelatin
1 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese
1 No. 2 1/2 can fruit cocktail
48 or more small colored marshmallows
1/2 cup chopped nuts
2 pkgs. Dream Whip
Prepare gelatin as directed, except substitute fruit cocktail juice for part of the cold water. Beat cream cheese into the gelatin while it is still warm. When the gelatin starts to jell, add fruit cocktail, marshmallows and nuts. Fold in whipped Dream Whip. Serves 20-24.

Mrs. King, Dr. Durkee At Leisure Conference

Local citizens were part of the special conference on the "Challenge of Leisure" held recently at the Prudential Insurance Company in Newark, sponsored by the Group Work and Recreational Division of the Council of Social Agencies.

Dr. Frank M. Durkee, superintendent of schools of Belleville and Mrs. Richard King, 90 Plenge Drive.

They were part of the study group of about 300 educators, clergy, social workers, industrial and business, and labor and government leaders, plus representatives of a cross section of interested groups and organizations and interested citizens, who attended the all-day session.

The key-note address was made by George B. Hartzog, Jr., director, National Park Service, U. S. Dept. of Interior, Washington, D. C. Using as his theme, "The Challenge of Leisure," the speaker pointed out the present average work week of 40 hours and estimated by 1975 the time spent in earning a living would be in the low 30's leaving more time for recreational pursuits.

Hartzog emphasized the availability of parks and woodlands for individuals, families and groups of people for games, picnicking, hiking, fishing, boating and general enjoyment which would be constructive use of "free time." In relation to the goal of a Great Society, he quoted President Johnson, "a place where leisure is a welcome chance to build and reflect, not a feared cause of boredom and restlessness."

The speaker pointed out the availability of many memorials, historic buildings and places that are our nation's heritage. He noted an increased use of these objects and facilities by teachers with school children as well as with other character building organizations. The intermingling of recreation, community service and personal development would be both beneficial and meaningful for all to enjoy the fuller life.

The speech was followed by various discussion groups and the conference ended with a summarization of many points of agreement for future implementation.

Chairman for the day's activities was Harold J. Van Cott, Superintendent of Recreation, Essex Park Commission. In addition to a large number of people from Newark, 17 Essex County Communities were represented plus 10 municipalities in Hudson, Bergen and Union Counties along with a delegation from Trenton and New York City.

The best way out of a difficulty is through it.
