TRIUMPHAL ENTRY — The evening's festivities honoring the best BHS baseball team in a quarter-century began with the hometown-sporting varsity players marching to their table at the front of the hall to the strains of the school "Alma Mater" and the standing ovation of townspeople.

ONE STAR TO ANOTHER — Connie Francis (BHS '55) presents a patch marking the Bellboys' Big Ten championship to co-captain and All-State catcher Len Luongo. In background are dinner co-chairman Tony Partola and emcee Judge Edward J. Abramson (rear).

HARD-WON HARDWARE — Examining trophies presented to the team and individual trophies presented to Luongo. The players also will receive official copies of a town council commendatory resolution.

COUNCIL SEEKS NEW ATTORNEY

A MESSAGE TO GRADUATES

Dr. Durkee Speaks to BHS Class of 1965

Unable to speak at the graduation of the Class of 1965, Dr. Frank M. Durkee, Superintendent of Schools, has given permission to print for this class the message he delivered to the previous class.

BY DR. FRANK M. DURKEE

I offer my congratulations to the Class of 1965, their parents, and their teachers. I am sure you will continue to do well, whether in college, technical or professional schools, or the industrial and business world.

At this stage in your education, you are well on your way in the mastery of the basic learnings: (1) to read with understanding, (2) to think for yourself, (3) to express your thoughts clearly, (4) to use mathematics in application to daily life, (5) to grasp some of the realities of natural and human environment, (6) to develop effective citizenship, (7) to develop self-confidence, and (8) to develop a sense of values. In acquiring these basic learnings, you have learned how to learn.

If you have learned how to learn, you have the master key that can open any door of human experience. If you have learned how to learn, you can adapt yourself to whatever the future holds. And there is little doubt that you will find adaptation necessary.

In our economy there is no substitute for specialized skills. While about five million people are jobless in our prosperous economy today, there are almost as many skilled jobs that remain unfilled. Significantly, about four of every five of the unemployed did not complete even an eighth grade education. Get all the education you can and you will be ready for the future.

About 70 per cent of the skilled trades in American manufacturing that existed in 1900 do not exist today. New skilled trades have taken their place. And now with our fast moving science and technology, skills will become obsolete even more rapidly. The explosion of knowledge will continue at a greater pace, and your education in many forms, shall have to continue. But, if you have learned how to learn, you will find life, not a nightmare, but one grand adventure.

Above all, in the days and years to come, remember, "Man does not live by bread alone." No amount of science and mathematics, important as they are, can take the place of a proper sense of values. Your future happiness, the future of our great nation, and the future of the world do not depend on "getting and spending." Seek the good, the beautiful, and the true. Begin with world around you, for as the poet has said:

The tulips hold the dewdrops in their chalice
The birds chant hymns of love to God at dawn;
The Buttercups catch sunbeams with their petals
And spread them in profusion on the lawn.
The night and day, the sunrise and the sunset
The starlight gleam and perfumed blush of bloom
The clover fields and gently rippling waters
Proclaim the love of God, dispelling gloom.
The world is like a chapel full of beauty
The Architect worked out a grand design
The hills and valleys merge in verdant splendor
Art and music... masterpiece divine.
Remember, then, "The world is like a chapel full of beauty," and make the most of it!

High School Baseball Champs Honored by Overflow Crowd

An overflow crowd, many turned away at the door, paid tribute to Belleville High School's Big Ten and Section IV baseball champions Monday night at the championship effort.

In addition to Connie Francis, World Accordion champion Donald Holme, presently starring at the World's Fair, attended and played several selections. Frankie Melton also sang and played several numbers. All members of the Board of Education, and Schools Superintendent Dr. Frank M. Durkee, and received special honor with Mayor Nuncio R. Pico and Councilman William Cullen, Ralph Casale and James Golden attended the dinner. Councilman Robert Westpy presented his regrets by wire at being unable to attend. Magistrate Edward Abramson served as Master of Ceremonies. Many other local citizens joined in paying personal tribute to the coaches and the players, which brought Belleville its first Big Ten championship.

During the dinner, the boys were presented with championship jackets and individual trophies. (Continued On Page 15)

WORK PROGRESSES — Town Manager John R. Burnett checks the progress being made in the construction of the new $200,000 bridge over the Third River at Joramelon Street. Workmen at the site said the erecting of the steel sections will begin as soon as the steel is delivered.

Bridge Progresses Despite Vandals

Work on the $200,000 bridge between Son, Inc. Fort Lee Contractors, erected by the County over the Third River at Joramelon Street is progressing on schedule, in his many years in construction, despite the efforts of local vandals.

"Lumber has been stolen many times," said Youhas, "We found it had broken off the gauges of personal business."

Telesco said he has no desire to retain the position. He said he port the Newark police.

VANDALS COST $200 — An estimated $200 in damage to the contractor's trailer at the Joramelon Street bridge construction site was done by vandals over the weekend. Police are investigating the case. Almost all of the windows in the trailer were smashed. John Youhas of Garfield, project superintendent points to the broken windows.

Noonan, Soriano Eyed For July 1 Appointment

The Town Council interviewed two attorneys Tuesday night for the post of Town Attorney, which will become vacant June 30 when the term of Acting Town Attorney Charles B. Tedesco will expire.

Attorney John Noonan of Nutley and Attorney Jack Soriano of Bloomfield, appeared before the Councilmen at the special meeting and stated their qualifications for the post.

No decision was reached on the matter as Councilman James R. Golden said he had two other attorneys who were interested in the post, Theodore Bellet of Belleville and Marvin Saxman of West Orange.

The Council will interview both attorneys tonight, following their regular caucus session. Attorney Noonan was named for the post by Councilman William H. Cullen, Councilman Ralph Casale introduced the name of Attorney Soriano.

Neither Mayor Nuncio R. Pico or Councilman Robert Westpy has introduced any possible successor to Tedesco at this time. Tedesco, who assumed the acting Town Attorney's post when Leslie W. Finch resigned the post in mid-term because of the press of personal business.

Telesco said he has no desire to retain the position. He said he port the Newark police.

Town Cancer Drive Tops Goal for 3rd Year in Row

The American Cancer Society reported today that Belleville for the third successive year, has gone "over the top" in the annual Cancer Crusade.

The Essex County Chapter American Cancer Society announced that Belleville had already exceeded its 1965 quota of $8,500 and that contributions were still pouring into County Headquarters at 336 S. Harrison Street, East Orange.

Mark Anton, 1965 County Crusade Chairman, singled out what he termed "the exceptional leadership" of former Belleville Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo, who headed the three years of successful cancer campaigns in Belleville.

"It was Strumolo's dedication and the Town of Belleville's co-operation," he said.

The purpose of the project, Wozniak explained, is to make it easier to find house numbers at night, especially helping doctors, police and guests to their

Youth, 13, Nabbed in Store Theft

A 13-year-old Belleville boy will appear in Juvenile Court in connection with the break and entry into Van Demark's store on 150 Washington Avenue last week.

Owner Edward Van Demark reported to police that a thief had taken two cigarette lighters, cigarettes, books and about $15 in change from his establishment.

Detectives Hugh O'Toole and Thomas Dunn investigated the break and entry. They discovered that entrance had been gained through a rear window. When the two detectives found that the theft had been made by a youth, they turned over their investigation to Youth Officer, Detective Michael Marotti, who continued the probe which led to the 13-year-old boy.

Marotti said the youth had admitted entering the store through the rear window about 9:45 at night. He will appear in Juvenile Court.

American Legion Sets Its Convention Dates

Plans for the New Jersey American Legion's 4th Annual Department Convention — to be held at Wildwood September 1-11 — was discussed at a meeting of the Legion's Department Executive Committee at the War Memorial Building in Trenton Saturday. The Legion's Department Auxiliary will also meet in convention at Wildwood on the same dates.

More than 3,000 delegates from the Legion's 421 Posts and 357 Auxiliary Units, with a combined membership of some 37,000 men and women will converge on the well-known seashore resort for which is expected to be the largest state-wide convention of the year.

AERIAL PASSES FINAL TEST — Captain Elward Dunleavy, left, and Milton Cole, Sea-graves Company engineer, check the distance between a pile of water and the ground as the final test of the new aerial ladder. Prior to the check, the pile was placed two inches off the ground and then replaced with a 400-pound barrel. The ladder was hoisted high into the air and then returned to its normal position. The pile was rehung and the check found that there was less than 1-16th of an inch difference. Chief Carl Hunderpfund reported to the Town Manager that this completed the extensive testing and no defects have been found in the new truck.

Fair Play Circulates Petition, Prepares for Taxpayers' Suit

Those school petition-circulators are at it again.

The Fair Play Committee this week began soliciting taxpayers signatures urging the school board not to spend tax funds for an investigation of the school system and the office of the superintendent.

The petition also urges restoring Superintendent of School Dr. Frank M. Durkee to his responsibilities. Durkee was ordered on leave with full pay a month ago until completion of the probe, which has not yet begun.

Nineteen Fair Play members present at a meeting last Thursday in the Recreation building authorized a four-member committee to hire an attorney. The group intends to bring a taxpayers' suit to prevent the board from using tax money for the probe.

Hits Durkee Graduation Absence
A resolution criticizing the action of board members responsible for barring Durkee from participating in yesterday's high school graduation, was passed unanimously. Permission for Durkee to take part was denied when board members Ernest S. Arvidson, Nicholas S. Juliano and Dr. Frank W. Di Biase opposed the Rocco Saletta Jr. abstained.

Fair Play co-chairman Allan H. Crisp cautioned committee members against participating in a rumored pro-Durkee demonstration at the graduation.

The petition was prepared by two Fair Play members, Mrs. S. Daniel McCarthy and Mrs. Anthony Izzo, who organized a 900-signature petition drive for Fair Play's predecessor, the Citizens Committee Against Dual Control.

Copies of the petition will be sent to State Education Commissioner Frederick M. Raubinger.

Some Fair Play members questioned the inclusion of the sentence in the petition urging reinstatement of Durkee. They felt such wording should be approved by the group's lawyer, Fair Play co-chairman Mrs. Edward A. Rochau said the petitions would be scrapped if the lawyer objected, but said the group couldn't postpone the petition drive any longer.

A public meeting of the Fair Play group is slated for tonight at 8 at the Recreation House on Joralemon Street.

paper, Seymour Grossman, now principal of the junior high. Local guitarist Joe Silver (right photo) charmed the pert entertainer into joining him in a brief duet.

Connie Francis Remembers Belleville...

By LAWRENCE E. HAYTER

An elfin grin interrupted the chit-chat of the young woman's repetitions of the same trite but deserved phrases of praise the youthful athletes seated before her had heard all evening.

"Hello there," she waved to a familiar face. Beaming from under a large white turban she conferred to the hundreds of Belleville High sports fans who jammed The Fountain, "one of the old teachers."

For a few seconds the girl pressure cooker of showbiz life seemed far away from Connie Francis as she recalled the days when she and her fellow staff members of the Belleville High newspaper spent long hours at the home of advisor Seymour Grossman scurrying to meet the printer's deadlines.

The ever-present press of autograph-seekers quickly brought the singer-movie actress back to the present as she ended her brief stay at the dinner honoring her alma mater's current championship baseball team.

This autograph game is a sometimes distasteful but necessary professional duty of a celebrity. Yet the singer's graciousness beyond the call of duty seemed to show a real affection for the hometown of her teenaged years.

As she scribbled a name a bit more anglicized than the one she was known by at Belleville High, Miss Francis seemed delighted to hear people recall incidents in her early career or mention an acquaintance of many years ago. "I'll be back next fall for our singer-guitarist Joe Silver, the en- class reunion," she promised the restaurant's Grossman. Between now and lounge, talked her into joining then the class of '55 contribu- tion to the entertainment world. The long, black Cadillac glided assignment in California and Ja- over her shoulder. New Report Covers Employment Trends

Employment trends throughout the State in recent years clearly attest to New Jersey's favorable economic conditions and are now presented in Research Report 137, a publication of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Included in the Report are statistical breakdowns, by county, of the total number of persons employed in manufacturing, trade, services, construction, transportation, finance and miscellaneous categories for the years 1950 through 1963.

Although one of the three smallest counties in land area, Essex County had the greatest number of manufacturing employees with 15.5 per cent of the State's total.

A Vindictive Act by Small Men

The act of barring Superintendent of Schools Dr. Frank M. Durkee, from taking part in the Belleville High School graduation exercises yesterday was a vindictive, petty act by three members of the Board of Education, who clearly indicate that they place their personal vendetta against the man above common decency and the Welfare of our Town.

Refusing to allow Dr. Durkee to address the graduating class — the first to graduate from the new high school for which he fought so long and hard to bring to a reality — was nothing more or less than a personal insult to Durkee.

Board President Ernest S. Arvidson, and members Nicholas Juliano, and Dr. Frank Durkee, in refusing to allow Dr. Durkee to speak at the exercises have lowered themselves into the gutter of local politics. Board Member Rocco Saletta, who abstained from the voting, must also share the responsibility for the action. He could have cast the deciding vote and allowed Dr. Durkee to speak to the students who he had led through four-years of high school.

"This was clearly a question of decency. It did not require a lengthy affiliation with school policies and problems. It was a question of whether or not the Superintendent of Schools would be allowed to address the graduating class. Saletta decided to sit this vote out. Yet on questions where a detailed knowledge of school policies dating back more than a decade come up for vote, Saletta feels himself qualified to cast a ballot. Why not on a question of decency and respect to a man, who — while suspended — has had no wrongdoings capable of relieving him of his duties proven or even charged?

The surprising thing to us is that all three members who voted against allowing Dr. Durkee to speak have had experience with being judged guilty before all the facts have been brought in and an official verdict has been handed down. All three were, among the Board members who were indicted by the Essex County Grand Jury and then proven innocent. For these men to paint Dr. Durkee guilty before the charges are brought forward is an act of small men, certainly not men big enough to be allowed to plan and conduct the operation of our School system.

We have said on several occasions in this space that we are not against the dismissal of Dr. Durkee from his duties, if the Board majority has sufficient charges.

However we are against an attack by any group on any citizen of our Town by half-truths and back-alley insults.

If the Board majority has a case, why not present it to the State Commissioner of Education? Why the delay? Dr. Durkee is drawing taxpayers' money to sit home instead of performing the duties for which he is being paid.

We believe Dr. Durkee has had sufficient vacation at the taxpayers' expense. Now is the time to put him back to work, or present official charges to the Commissioner of Education.

The choice rests in the hands of the majority. To extend the present situation any longer is a disservice to the taxpayers, the school system and the Town.

FCW

Is Mayor Pico Losing Interest

Is Mayor Nuncio R. Pico losing interest in Town affairs or does he find it easier to plead ignorance to a pointed question than to get involved in lengthy discussions at Town Council meetings.

We're sure that Mayor Pico was aware that there was more involved than shaking hands and cutting ribbons when he sought election to the Town Council and accepted the position of mayor.

However at the last Town Council meeting the Mayor turned back two questions of vital interest to the Town that we feel positive he should have had some knowledge about, in view of his decision to cast his ballot when questions involving the two departments faced the Council.

The first question involved the Fire Department. The question which Mayor Pico said he couldn't answer was: What hours are our firemen working? Mayor Pico said he didn't know how the men were putting in their hours, yet he voted to grant them additional pay in the past.

All it would take to find out what hours the firemen are working is to ask the Town Manager. We believe he should have asked the question of the manager, prior to the last time he voted to give the firemen additional salary increases.

The next question involved the Town engineer. The Mayor voted to allow outside engineering help to be hired by the Town for the Joramelon Street repaving contract at an estimated cost of $10,000.

When asked why the Town engineer couldn't perform the duties as he would do normally, Mayor Pico said he had been told that the Town engineer was "over worked."

"What is he doing?" the Mayor was asked.

"I don't know, but I was told that he was over worked," said the Mayor.

We find that a very unsatisfactory answer. Prior to voting to give away $10,000 to an outside firm for engineering services that the Town engineer could and should perform, we think the Mayor could have asked what the Town engineer was doing that made it impossible for him to perform the task.

We agree that $10,000 is not a sizeable sum when compared with the multi-million dollar Town budget. However, it is a big sum of money to most of us and the Mayor's unconcerned handling of the matter would indicate that the job is too much for him to keep pace with while taking care of his personal affairs.

To have faith in one's employees is commendable. However to accept everything at face value, without asking questions to find out just why and how the taxpayers' money is being spent smacks of irresponsibility or just plain lack of interest.

We would suggest that Mayor Pico devote a little more time to the affairs of Town, or step down if he finds he can not keep abreast of Town affairs so that he can cast an intelligent vote. FCW

Saletta Thinking Clearly

New member to the Board of Education, Rocco Saletta has prepared a resolution that will be voted on by the Board at its meeting next Monday night and it should do much to reaffirm the voters who elected him because of their faith in his good judgment and clear thinking.

Saletta's resolution makes amendments to the present rules that are amazing because they have not already been included.

The first change will be to include the fact that the Board Secretary will be allowed to attend executive sessions of the Board and to take minutes to that now the secretary has been excluded from the executive sessions and one member of the Board has been charged with the task of keeping notes. This is certainly a slipshod and careless method for any group to conduct their affairs.

The second change will be the inclusion of a rule that all members of the Board will be notified when all regular and special meetings and conferences of the Board will be held. It seems in the past that some members of the Board have not been notified of the sessions. We know it's hard to believe, but there has been no rule to this effect and many executive sessions have not been attended by members because they were not notified that the session was being held.

The last change will be that all proceedings of the Board, including all conferences will be recorded as prescribed

UP SPEAK

VETS LEADER HITS LACK OF FLAGS

To the Editors, Times-News: I read with great interest the article by Councilman James Golden expressing disappointment over the lack of flying flags from private homes on Flag Day and I also noticed the same thing on Memorial Day.

Councilman Golden is certainly right in his approach to the lack of flags in Belleville. One thing I know is that there are flags in Belleville. The people did a good display job when the nation was in mourning following the assassination of Pres. Kennedy. There were a lot of flags on display then so why not put your flag out on Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Veterans Day etc.

Another awkward situation is the lack of interest and attendance at our yearly Memorial Day program at the Union Ave. monument. This monument was erected "For the Memory of those who served." It includes all service men and women from Belleville for all wars. The program lasts for about one hour at the most and yet the people do not turn out to honor the memory of those who gave all. Did they die in vain or are we too busy with our daily lives, especially a good time on Memorial Day. There is plenty of time after the service to enjoy ones self.

We are a great nation. We pull together in time of War, but in time of peace we can't seem to find time to honor the memories of our deceased. Let's hope that next year on Memorial Day an hour is set aside to honor the war dead of Belleville by a large turnout at the Union Ave. Monument.

SOUPY SALES SEEN FOR BIRDS BY CYO

To the Editor, Times-News: Last issue we lashed at the new British style of dress; this time we find that Soupy Sales is "OUT."

Upon questioning, a majority of St. Anthony's CYO members felt that he was "for the birds," when asked:

"What do you think of Soupy Sales?"

Nicholas Bonfante, "I think that you are forced to laugh at his jokes because they are so pathetic."

Samuel Carollo, "For people with nothing to do, Soupy Sales is the greatest."

Daniel Ayres, "The commercials I like, but it's the show I don't understand."

BOARD MAJORITY HIT ON DURKEE BAN

To the Editor Times-News:

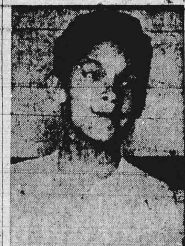

The recent action of the majority of the Board of Education in denying Dr. Durkee any part in the Senior High School graduation exercises should dispel all doubt in the minds of the citizens of Belleville concerning their motives.

They, and all of us should be reminded of the hard work over a long period of time by Dr. Durkee in getting the new high school in the difficult period of its construction and in the smooth transition to a whole new educational set up, K-6-3-3.

Now to deny him any part in the ceremonies of the first graduating class from the new high school is cruel, vindictive and childish.

Meagher Wins Ford Ballet Scholarship

STEVEN MEAGHER

Steven Meagher of 16 Quinton Street, Belleville is one of eight youngsters chosen by administrators of a Ford Foundation ballet scholarship program to continue in free-tuition professional training at the Newark Ballet Academy.

The Ford program, administered by the School of American Ballet in New York, will continue to aid these children for another year, providing full scholarships for three girls, and half scholarships — matched by the Newark Ballet Academy — for Steven and four other boys.

Their progress will again be evaluated next spring to determine whether they warrant continued scholarships. The Ford program is set up strictly to nurture only professional talent, to broaden the resources of ballet theatre in America. These youngsters were sought out by Fred Danelli of Nutley, director of the Newark Ballet Academy and the Garden State Ballet, under the supervision of the School of American Ballet faculty, all formerly professional ballet soloists. This Manhattan school is headquarters of the New York City Ballet.

Out of 19 children who remained through the first season of training, the New York representatives selected Steven Meagher plus others from Newark, West Caldwell, Cedar Grove, Passaic and Dover to continue for another year. Steven, who is 10 years old, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Meagher. He will enter fifth grade at School No. 1 in the fall.

In addition to ballet classes, the boys also take gymnastics training. Danelli is conducting interviews and auditions through the Greater Newark area for applicants who will enter their first year of professional training next fall. Along with the current scholarship students, the new crop will

At last, the repeal of the excise tax has gone through, earlier than planned. The law was expected to go into effect on July 1. There was such a terrific slowdown in business, that the pressure for the earliest repeal became very great. The trade magazines talked about a buyers strike. It is anticipated that the deferred purchases will now be made in short order.

Contrary to the advertisements of some stores, the amount of the tax is not 10% of the retail price in business, that the pressure for the earliest repeal became very great. The trade magazines talked about a buyers strike. It is anticipated that the deferred purchases will now be made in short order.

If you have made a purchase from us and have a refund coming, we will get in touch with you as soon as the machinery is set up and the claim forms are available. You do not have to call us.

One can only hope that the somewhat sticky economy will get the desired "shot in the arm" as a result of this measure. It almost appears that we need one stimulant after another in order to keep the wheels turning in high gear.

BELLBOY LEGION TOPS NUTLEY

Pucciarello Gains Win In Relief of Welsh, 8-5

By STEVE CHAREN

Fighting darkness and impending rain, the Bellboys overcame a 5-4 deficit with a pair of runs in the sixth and another pair in the seventh to down their arch-rivals, Nutley, 8-5 at Park Oval, Nutley.

After blowing a 4-1 lead, the Pinstripers found their backs to the wall with the winless Raider squad on top and very menacing clouds overhead.

Sam Calabria helped to correct this by opening the sixth with a line-drive triple to right center. Charley Cuomo, who was making his Legion debut, then tied it up by delivering a sacrifice fly. Jim Connell kept the rally going when he was safe on an error. Rich Pucciarello, who had replaced Mike Welsh on the mound in the fifth, bopped a single in before Tony Magistro made it 6-5 with another safety.

Nutley High's two pitching hopes for next season, Mike Algeri and Ken Inglis, allowed 11 hits and seven earned runs to the Bellboys. Algeri started and took most of the damage, although he got by the second, third and fifth innings without giving up a hit. Inglis had to bail him out with one down in the fifth and sixth, and later fell victim to a two out seventh inning uprising.

Welsh, Belleville's only southpaw, started as he made his first pitching appearance in over five weeks following a bout with sinusitis. Slight signs of rustiness showed up, but Greg Faria's inside-the-park home-run was the only real damage in Welsh's fourth inning appearance; a fourth-inning error opened the door to three unearned runs.

Pucciarello finished up and took the win while striking out five in three innings. "Fighting continued the hitting spree that has him batting .416 and doubling as an outfielder.

Viruses took their toll before the games started by claiming first baseman Frank Mineo and coach Tony Pratola as victims. This made a first baseman out of Art Sheridan, a "player-coach."

Len Luongo, and left the team in the hands of manager Met Marx.

Other damage showed up during the game as the spectators were treated to a sadistic side-

Survey Shows Picnics, Dances Tops with Teens

On June 7, the Recreation Department, with the generous cooperation of the Belleville High School Principal, Faculty and Students, conducted a survey of Recreation interests among the High School students. Forms were distributed by the Recreation Department by the Student Council, these forms suggested certain activities and left room for write-ins. Also listed were several committees on which students were asked to indicate their willingness to serve. As the forms were filled out, Mr. Correll, Faculty Advisor to the Student Council, talked to the students through the survey on the public address system. Students were asked to write in "yes" for each activity in which they would actually participate and each committee on which they would serve. If they were not interested they were asked to indicate this as well as their reason.

As for activities the preponderant interest was in Picnics, Dances, Sports Days and Swimming Trips. Out of the 965 surveys filled out there were 336 who

Bellboys Drop 9-8 Slugfest To Livingston

Bob Blondi lined a single to center with two down in ninth for his fourth hit and hit Number 18 for Livingston, to drive in the decisive run in a 9-8 Africaner Legion battle. The lead had changed hands five times before the league-leading Lancers avenged their 9-8 GNT loss during high school play.

Livingston's free swinging collection of high school and college players thoroughly pounded two Bellboy hurlers, but left 11 runners stranded to make the game close. Rich Pucciarello started for Belleville, but five batters later two runs were in with two men on and one out. This brought in George Debowksi, who didn't "have it" either. While turning in his first poor relief performance (counting high school ball), Debowksi was pounded for 14 hits and five earned runs in 8.23 innings. Only in the third and seventh rounds were the league leaders retired in order, at least two men reached base safely in every other inning.

The Bellboy batters took advantage of three errors to parlay nine hits into six unearned and two legitimate tallies. The Pinstripers pounded the Livingston starter Dan Newman for six runs on six hits before he was mercifully removed after 2.23 innings. The Lancer ace, Hank Small, then stalled Belleville with 5.13 innings of two-hit relief pitching while allowing just two unearned runs. Don Greenstein, who hit safely in his first, four trips en route to a 4 for 5 day, guarded the lead in the ninth for Small, who had worked four innings the night before.

The Pinstripers encountered one of their typical personnel problems when Len Luongo was forced to retire after four innings because of after effects from some typhoid shots.

among the state's top five teams. Unlike most of the top teams, the Bellboys were an extremely well balanced squad. Every member of that team was suitable for All-Star honors... seven received them.

Len Luongo quite naturally stood out among the BHS players. "Big Len" was rewarded for his four years of toil with a berth on the 1965 All State first team. Belleville's co-captain was also named to the All-Exsex and All-Group teams for the second straight season.

The hefty senior had all the credentials for an excellent reliever. Thanks to his experience Len handled the Bellboys' young hurlers practically single-handedly; he called most of the pitches and knew when to recommend a pitching change. Most runners feared this All-State footballer's accurate arm and didn't stray too far off the bag; 13 who did try to steal didn't make it. Len's size came in handy too, as seven runners trying to score were cut down at the plate.

As a batter, Luongo did more than his share of the damage; he hit a steady .342 with two home runs, two triples, five doubles, and 21 RBI. Len also crossed his opponent up with bunts. "They played me too deep" when the need arose. His dexterity helped him both handling a bat and stopping errant throws.

Lenny will surely be missed next year; after four seasons of Varsity service, it will seem odd without him. Belleville's gift to football and baseball is heading off VPI.

George Debowksi, Belleville's versatile second baseman, was named to the "All-Group IV team besides being a unanimous choice for All-County honors. This junior played a big part in the Bellboys' success during his second Varsity season.

Debowksi was practically flawless at the keystone sack where he committed only two errors all season. George had the pivot mastered well enough to pull-off eleven double plays (more than double last years' total). When the need arose, he returned to third base, where he played last season, and turned in a creditable job.

George also could be counted on as a hurler; relief was his specialty. It wasn't a rare sight for Belleville fans when Debowksi moved over to the mound in a tight situation. As a reliever, George stood out with a .444 ERA that killed many a threat. He also was a starter when needed en route to his 6.2 record.

At the plate, Debowksi was one of Belleville's best clutch hitters. Despite a slow start, George finished with a .340 BA with four doubles, two triples and two round trippers.

Nick Grande, a senior outfielder, was selected to some All-Exsex teams and the second string All-Group squad. Nick's rise was one of the main reasons for Belleville's success.

Grande's biggest asset was his bat as he played the biggest single part in the Belleville attack. Early in the season, the Bellboys' steady hit was the lead-off man; he later was switched to the third spot to take advantage of his clutch hitting.

Nick finished the season with a .378 batting average that was amassed with 25 hits, five of them doubles, one a triple, and two home runs. Grande had a knack for reaching base and

Bloomfield's Gillies Halt Bellboy Scoring Streak at 52; Wins 1-0

It had to happen eventually. After all how long can any baseball team go on without being shut-out?

The Bellboys run scoring, luck finally ran out on June 17 as Bloomfield's John Gillies held a Belleville team scoreless for the first time in 53 games. This amazing string included 27 BHS Varsity games, 19 BHS Junior Varsity games, and seven American Legion encounters stretched over two seasons.

Irvington was the last team to pull the whitewash trick, w a y back on July 21, 1964 in a non-league, American Legion game. John Rhodes and Don Johnson combined on a four hit effort in that game.

Gillies, an All-County southpaw, has now allowed the Bellboys just one tally in 19 innings. That lone score coming in a 1-0, 12 inning high school battle.

"Big John" was not particularly sharp last Thursday night as he allowed eight singles in the 40 min. But, he was murder in the clutch, bearing down to strike out eight and strand seven Bellboys.

A walk and a pair of errors also hindered Gillies effort, but he took them all in stride. His only trouble was in the fourth and last two innings when Belleville managed six of its hits. In choice. Two more singles and an error made it 4-0.

on second and third. Unbelievably, the Bellboys collected two singles in the sixth, but still managed to go down in order. Len Luongo opened the inning with his second single; he advanced to second on an out-field error. When Art Sheridan delivered a single to left, Luongo tried to score and was nailed by the relay. Leading by four runs, Gillies didn't try to hold Sheridan, who had advanced on the throw; so, Art took it upon himself to try to steal third and was cut down by a perfect throw from catcher Stan Kulbacki.

Rich Pucciarello and Charley Cuomo started the seventh with safeties, but Rich Rizzolo grounded into a double play as a pinch hitter to kill that threat.

Sheridan "didn't have it" on this cool night and was touched for the decisive run in the first frame. Art started his downfall by walking Joe Petroskous and John McManus. John De Luca delivered the tally with a single to center.

Sheridan got by the second all-right, but was pounded in the third. Jim Messina and Gary Scourman started the inning by conservatively settling for triples. Their blasts to right and left delivered the next run with a single.

Sheridan to Head New Fund Drive

Richard Sheridan, manager of the professional division of the United Community Fund and Council of Essex and West Hudson, has been named staff director of the UCF Campaign for Nutley and Belleville.

Announcement of the assignment was made today by Edward R. Eberle, Public Service vice president who heads this year's general United Fund campaign.

Appointment of Sheridan as UCF campaign director for Nutley and Belleville indicates the new spirit with which we enter this first fund-raising campaign for the new area-wide organization, Eberle said today.

Coordination of the efforts of the many volunteers who will lead this year's campaigns in Belleville and Nutley is an essential part of our planning to make the fund drive a total success—not only in raising money to support essential agencies and services, but in reawakening public realization of the importance of these agencies and services, the chairman continued.

Sheridan, who is 25, joined the staff of the former Newark Welfare Federation 15 months ago after two years as credit manager for T. M. DuChé & Sons of Clifton. Previous to that, he served in the Army for two years as a social work specialist assigned to Valley Forge General Hospital at Phoenixville, Pa.

Prior to his military service, he attended Seton Hall University, where he is now completing work toward a bachelor's degree. Sheridan is active in community service work in Newark and is a member of the Newark Junior Chamber of Commerce narcotics committee.

He and his wife, the former Lorraine Paulillo of Jersey City, live at 5 Hazen Court, Wayne. Mrs. Sheridan teaches at Robert Erskine grammar school in Ringwood.

Prepare for rainy days, but take time to enjoy the sunshine.

OPEN HOUSE AT BANK — Joseph DeDeo (center), administrator of Newark's Columbus Hospital, extends good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kress at the open house celebration of the newly modernized Bloomfield Avenue Branch of the Howard Savings Institution of which Mr. Kress is president.

Experiment in International Living

Miss Logan to Leave Soon for German Visit

Miss Jacqueline R. Logan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Logan of 361 DeWitt Avenue, Belleville, will depart June 27 for Germany as part of the yearbook Experiment in International Living.

A student at Trenton State College, Miss Logan will return to the United States on August 30. The Experiment in International Living has been engaged in international educational exchange since its founder, Dr. Donald B. Wait, first introduced a group of American youths to their French and German-speaking counterparts in Switzerland in 1932. It has since developed into a worldwide operation with representatives in 59 countries, involved annually in the exchange of some 4,500 young men and women between the United States and the four corners of the world.

The Experiment originated and introduced the homestay to international exchange, a concept since widely adopted by many other agencies.

An Outbound Experiment group typically comprises 10 men and women between the ages of 16 and 30, under the guidance of a specially-trained leader, who live for a month as a "son" or "daughter" of a family abroad. This firsthand opportunity to develop friendships, learn the customs and traditions and participate in the activities of the host country from the vantage point of a family environment is the heart of an Experiment experience. The second month is spent traveling about the country with host family members as their guests or on a work or study project. More than 2,000 American Experimenters will visit 44 different countries on this program in 1965.

In addition to these standard programs and their variants, The Experiment jointly sponsors overseas study programs with colleges and universities and has long cooperated with the State Department on special project assignments. It has trained Peace Corps units for service in fourteen different countries at its School for International Training in Brattleboro, Vermont, where it also conducts language and orientation programs.

Arline Shlissel Receives Degree

Arline Shlissel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shlissel of 129 Beech Street, was graduated June 8 with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Jersey City State College.

She was secretary of the Senior Class, chairman of Junior Class night and served on the yearbook staff and Senior Week Committee.

A graduate of Belleville High School, she plans to enter teaching in the fall.

Girl Scout Activities

Can you sing a song, make puppets, weave, model, play a recorder, tell stories to children, folk dance?

"If you can and have time to spare this summer, the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County needs you," Mrs. Samuel Knox, Council president, said.

The Council will launch a day camp program for girls, seven to 12, at five Public Housing Projects in Newark, from June 28 to mid-August. Camp will be held Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

Both Scouts and non-Scouts, adults and young people, 16 years of age and over, men and women are needed. Any sort of skill which can be shared with girls or taught to counselors is needed, plus unit leaders.

"Working in the inner city will present a challenge to many persons who have a few hours a week to spare," Mrs. Knox said. For further information call Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County, 674-7633, or Mrs. Edward Roehau, District Chairman for Belleville at 759-1379.

Labor Peace Corps Making 3 Grants to South America

Jerry Leopold, executive director of Labor's Peace Corps and Development Program with offices at 26 Washington Avenue, Nutley, has announced the local unit is making three financial grants to South American organizations.

Leopold, president of the electrical workers' union at IFT Laboratories, says the grants are being made under the auspices of CARE and its representatives will in turn give the money to a project in San Jose, Colombia, known as "Tools for Self-Help." The Colombian project is being supervised by United States Peace Corps volunteers Clifford Witt and Louis Ziskind. The volunteers are working on agriculture extension, health and personal hygiene.

Other Grants
The remaining two grants being given by the Nutley organization include funds for an experimental farming center in Mexico, and a meat-packing program in Nicaragua. The Mexican program is at El Penon where students are being taught social development and hygiene in addition to improved farming methods. There were 65 students in the last graduating class, 10 of whom, Leopold notes, were financed by scholarships.

Navy Reserve Seabees Improve Scout Camp

A 2-day work project on June 5 and 6 by a Naval Reserve Construction Division has improved and expanded the facilities at Camp Mohican of Robert Treat Council for their camp improvement project this year. Their first good work project was carried out at the camp in 1957 and repeated in 1958. The Division, consisting of 39 officers and men stationed at Port Newark, performs construction projects for non-profit organizations on a strictly volunteer basis, according to Lt. Cmdr. N.J. Coons of 7 Highland Terrace, Verona, the commanding officer of the Division.

At the camp, the Seabees re-located the electric power line, installed an electric power generator for emergency use, constructed tent floors and paired dining tables for use by Scout Troops and Explorer units. They also put in a new foundation under the water storage tank, and completed other plumbing, carpentry, and electrical work. Council Friends supplied the material and the Seabees provided their own food and cooks.
