Young Belleville Man Found Dead in Cellar

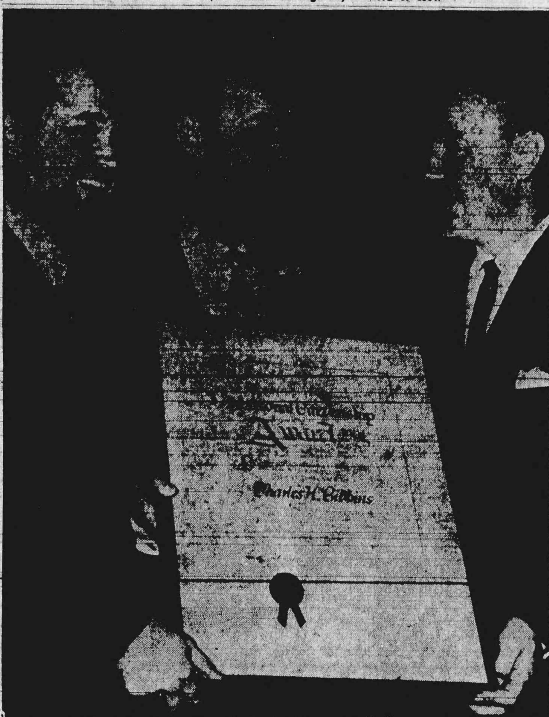

Ronald Nieczkowski, 22, of 547 Washington Avenue, Belleville, was found dead in a basement apartment where they said he wasn't breathing. The officers administered oxygen and then called headquarters for a doctor.

Police said Nieczkowski was pronounced dead by Dr. Donald Brown, police physician, at 2:30 a.m.

Police received a phone call at 2:10 a.m. from Donald Mowry of the Washington Avenue address, who told Desk Sergeant Zecca that there was an emergency at his residence.

Sgt. Zecca detailed Officers Vincent Cosentino and John Vreeland and dispatched the fire department ambulance to the scene.

Board Votes Full School Bus Service

Full school bus service will be offered to Belleville High students this fall, instead of the limited service for which funds were allocated last spring.

The school board has unanimously approved busing all high school students living more than two miles away, even though state reimbursements cover only those living two and a half miles away.

The decision at Monday night's special meeting means the board will spend $6,000 more on transportation than the budget provides. The deficit is to be made up from unspecified surpluses in other budget areas.

Busing policy has stirred up parental anger several times in the past year.

When the board's budget request was twice turned down by the voters last winter, bus service was one of the items on which the board cut back. Citizens objected to the pared-down transportation item, charging the board was trying to punish the public for voting down the budget.

Board members seemed at that time that if surpluses should develop, full bus service would be reinstated.

When the new high school opened last fall and the school board was faced with providing transportation to the junior high as well as the high school, the board tried to cut out bus transportation for high school students living less than two and a half miles away. Protests were so strong that the board backed down after several conferences with affected parents and stayed with the two-mile policy.

Now qualifying for bus transportation are 428 pupils, of whom 190 are high school students who don't live two and a half miles from school and therefore won't qualify for the seventy-five percent state reimbursement. Cost of the extra bus service for the 190 pupils is $9,600.

The total contract for senior and junior high buses awarded to Public Service Coordinated Transit will cost $26,000 before state aid. Also approved was a $3,100 contract to the same company to transport five classes of "educable" and "trainable" retarded students to the James G. Shawger School (Number Four).

Honored for Work by IRS

Mrs. Lucille Speranza, of 60 Bell Street, Belleville, has received a coveted Treasury Department Certificate of Award as well as a sizeable check for her superior work — this year for the District Headquarters Office of the Internal Revenue Service.

Four other employees of the District Headquarters Office also received this award this year. These awards are traditionally made only to those individuals whose performance is well above the standards required for their particular work assignment.

Alumni Grid Squad Forming

After last year's exciting Belleville-Alumni football game, a good crowd is expected to attend this year's game to be played at Belleville Municipal Stadium at 8 p.m. on September 18.

Belleville Alumni football players who wish to participate in this game may report to Belleville Municipal Stadium on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings at 6 p.m. Pete Spera will be working out with the team there.

Tickets for the game will go on sale today and may be purchased from any Little League manager and members of the football team alumni.

Golden Says Manager 'Hamstringing' Efforts

Councilman James R. Golden charged Town Manager John R. Burnet with attempting to "hamstring" his efforts to check on Town records and rapped the Manager for his "determined uncooperative attitude" toward suggestions offered by him for the improvement of the town.

In a letter to Burnet, made public by Golden, the Councilman took issue with Burnet's directive at the last Council meeting to Administrative Aide Charles B. Tedesco, directing him not to prepare legislation for Golden.

Golden said: "An administrative order issued to you and not rescinded, directs that Mr. Tedesco is to be consulted in regards to proposed legal matters. It is noted, further, that during a caucus discussion concerning the appointment of a town attorney, Mr. Tedesco assured the Council that he would continue to prepare ordinances and resolutions for the Council."

The Councilman charged: "Your high-handed tactics leaves me with no alternative than to suspect that, just as in previous cases when you gave orders to department heads not to permit me to inspect public records, that your motivation is to obstruct, thwart and make as difficult as possible by discharging my responsibilities as a representative of the people of this community."

Golden notified the manager that he — acting as a private citizen — had requested A. R. Mangione, State Director of Municipal Classifications, Department of Civil Service, to conduct a desk audit of Tedesco's job to the town attorney.

Metzler Quits Police Force; Oese Named

Officer John Metzler, of 190 Malone Avenue, Belleville, has given the Belleville Police Department his resignation, which is effective August 21. After 17 years on the police force, Officer Metzler is opening a gas station in Hackettstown, N.J.

Joseph G. Oese, Jr., 27 DeWitt Avenue, Belleville, has been appointed, effective August 23, to the Belleville Police Department to replace Officer Metzler. Oese was second on the list, but was appointed because the first man is in the military service.

Pop Concert On Ice

The second pop concert on ice will be presented Aug. 19 at the South Mountain Arena. The show has a 7:30 p.m. curtain time.

The county parks commission notes general admission will be $1.00 for adults and 65 cents for children.

Plan to Hire 65 to 100 Students

Applications will be submitted this week for federal poverty money to employ from 65 to 100 local high school students on a part-time basis with various town departments.

The local poverty agency, the Belleville Youth Evaluation and Employment Commission, must submit the application for Neighborhood Youth Corps funds by tomorrow to the County Youth and Rehabilitation Commission, whose deadline is Monday to submit suburban Essex plans to the federal Department of Labor.

Biggest chunk of the after-school and summer jobs has been requested by the school system. Acting superintendent Michael Rosamilia has requested 63 employees. Another request for three Neighborhood Youth Corpsmen has been made by the library.

Still uncertain is a bid for 25 employees by Town Hall. Town Manager John R. Burnet is holding off until Town Attorney Jack J. Soriano meets with the local youth commission to settle its legal status. Burnet says Neighborhood Youth Corpsmen will assist "from the treasurer's office on down", but plans aren't definite.

Belleville YEEC chairman Loy Bruno estimates the final application will ask for about 75 positions.

Bruno adds his group will try to iron out the legal questions with Soriano before the application deadline. As it's now constituted, the group doesn't have authority to handle funds. Soriano recommends reorganization as a corporation.

Rosamilia, who coordinates the poverty program here in addition to his school duties, says criteria as to financial need of job recipients haven't been set up, but will be determined locally.

In some cases the federal funds will pay for duties the school board now finances. In others, the jobs will be additional services not now performed.

Examples of replacing locally-financed jobs with federal payrolls are proposed Neighborhood Corpsman jobs on the school custodial and clerical staffs.

Fifteen Corpsmen will replace and supplement the eight youths now hired for summer work on the custodial staff. Three NYECers in the central school office will

Five Local Pupils On Dean's List

Five Belleville students were among 192 undergraduate students of the State University of New York at Albany named to the Dean's List for the second semester of the 1964-65 school year.

Later he moved to Belleville with his family and attended public schools there. He is a 1956 graduate of Belleville High School where he was active in football and basketball.

Crisp's Team Wins Brooklyn Bridge Tourney

Robert Crisp of 238 New Street was a member of a bridge team which scored a major upset in the Greater New York Bridge Association's Brooklyn tournament at the Hotel New York Hilton on July 25.

Playing against a field containing many ranking experts, they were one of the youngest teams ever to win the Open Team championship at such an event in New York.

Crisp's partners were Ken Levensold, Martin Personick and Alan Gelfand, all students at City College. He has played in a number of national tournaments and has 289 points toward 300 required for a Life Master degree.

POOR MANAGERS

The planned economy in the modern home often fails to work because of faulty blueprints.

Circus Act Scheduled at Olympic Pool

Thousands are flocking daily to a 4-million gallon swimming pool which, after nearly 40 years, still is one of the biggest in the world. The pool at Olympic Park, in Irvington and Maplewood, was constructed in the 20's and is renowned for having water purer than that from North Jersey drinking faucets.

The mammoth facility rarely reaches capacity attendance, even with this summer's restrictions on home pools. Its water, incidentally, comes from artesian wells on the park's own property. Red Cross swimming instruction is given at the pool each morning for an enrollment of more than 1,000 children.

Olympic will have a new circus bill on Monday, featuring the Three Talows, perch aerialists. Simpson's wild animal act also is on the bill.

The current free show has the Huddys, an aerial act; Tiebor's trained seals, and the Tenners, Australian rope and whip performers.

Lemberger, Orth In Combat Drills

Alan D. Lemberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Lemberger of 580 Washington Avenue, Belleville, and Walter H. Orth, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Orth of 16 Nolon Street, Belleville, are currently undergoing a six-week program of intensive combat training as Reserve Officer Training Corp (ROTC) cadets at Fort Devens, Mass.

Lemberger and Orth, juniors at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J., will receive their commission as second Lieutenants in the United States Army following graduation from the university in June 1966.

Lemberger, a 1962 Belleville High School graduate, is majoring in ceramic engineering, and is a member of Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity and Young Democrats at the university.

Orth, a 1962 Belleville High School graduate, is a member Zeta Psi Fraternity and Varsity and Freshman Crew.

He has been joined there by James L. Kilpatrick, son of Mr. & Mrs. Francis Kilpatrick, of 26 Wilber Street, Belleville, and Edward Caruso, son of Mr. & Mrs. Anthony Caruso, of 86 Lincoln Avenue, Newark. Both Kilpatrick and Caruso are Belleville High graduates, with Kilpatrick attending LaSalle College, Philadelphia, majoring in sociology, and Caruso having completed his junior year at Upsala as a math

Our Stray Animal Shelter

Recently three Belleville citizens appointed by the Belleville Town Council to a properly created committee went through an experience which leaves many questions unanswered.

Responding to citizen pressure, the Town Council appointed an inspection committee empowered to visit the premises of Belleville's "dog catcher" to assure the community's citizens that our stray pets, when seized by the "dog catcher," are properly housed and cared for.

Edward J. Littig, Mrs. Sally Hood and Mrs. Kathleen Mulligan, three members of the committee, made a surprise visit to the premises of Frank Grohman, operator of the Humane Animal Shelter in Lodi and were turned away.

Mr. Grohman contended that he had not received notice of the committee's appointment and, therefore, permission to enter his premises was refused.

Town Clerk Eugene G. Barnett insists that two letters were mailed to Mr. Grohman, one to advise him of the committee's creation and a second letter advising Mr. Grohman of the Council appointment to the committee. Mr. Grohman claims he did not receive Barnett's correspondence. In passing, it might be noted that the Town of Belleville does mail checks to Mr. Grohman and in the absence of any complaints, we must assume that Mr. Grohman has received his mail bearing the checks.

Whether or not Mr. Grohman received the mail from Barnett advising him of the committee's appointment and membership it seems to us that when three citizens take the time and trouble to drive out to Lodi, Mr. Grohman should welcome the opportunity to display his premises to civic-minded citizens from our community, regardless if they visit in their private capacity as plain, ordinary citizens or in their official capacity as members of a formal community committee.

Mr. Grohman contends "I can't just let anyone pass through here (his animal shelter). We have vicious dogs, sick dogs, nice dogs - all kinds of dogs. Some one might catch a disease."

If we read Mr. Grohman correctly, he is telling us that vicious dogs, sick dogs and nice dogs are all kept together in his shelter. If our presumption is correct, we wonder whether or not Mr. Grohman's shelter is the proper place to shelter our stray animals.

Most certainly, citizens on an inspection tour of an animal shelter would not, in the first place, go wandering around the premises without a guide. Additionally, it would appear to us that sick dogs would be, or should be, lodged in a closed-in area; and one would hardly think that Mr. Grohman would permit vicious dogs to be on the loose in his shelter.

We believe Mr. Grohman was standing on ceremony when he refused admission to our three citizens.

Moreover, we are not satisfied that the recent visit of the Town Manager and two other officials to Mr. Grohman's premises was what the Town Council intended when it created a Citizens' Committee. The visit by town officials is no substitute for a surprise visit by a Citizens' Committee for if it is, let us be truthful with ourselves and admit that the creation of a Citizens' Committee was undertaken to meet public objection to the Town Council's award of a contract to Mr. Grohman - and the politicians who conceived the idea to create the committee didn't expect - (and preferably didn't want) it to function.

Support Your Police

Sometimes after we watch a Western movie on our television screen in which heroes are made out of Jesse James or Billy the Kid it is difficult for us to recall who the "Bad Guys" really were.

Thinking it over, we discovered that the same thing is happening today in real life. Swamped by a flood of stories in the daily press and on television and radio each day we almost begin to believe that the minorities were the special target of every policeman walking a beat.

Listening to the propaganda that keeps repeating and repeating from almost every corner, we found that we were forming a mental picture of our policemen that made Hitler's Gestapo look like a branch of the local Boy Scouts.

If we accepted the stories that are being circulated by irresponsible leaders of minority groups today we would believe that every man who pined on a policeman's shield suddenly turned into a sadistic monster with the aim in life of beating in someone's head with a club, or drilling a hole in a fellow human with a bullet.

Since we have spent many years in various police stations in many cities and have spent many hours with policemen off duty as well as on, we well know that the picture painted above is as far wrong as any can possibly be.

We wondered how it was possible for the truth to become so warped that even level-headed citizens are beginning to look at each patrolman walking his beat with a suspicious eye.

Suddenly two things became clear. The first is that when you are speaking of minorities one of the smallest in our community is the police force. The usual police force is outnumbered 500 to 1 or better. Secondly, the first step in any plan designed by any group which might be thinking of taking the law into its own hands would be to discredit the men whose job it is to provide law and order in our communities. One of the most successful methods of discrediting any group or individual is Hitler's technique which was based on the fact that if you tell anyone the same lie enough times he will soon accept it as fact.

We believe this is what is happening in America today. It seems to be the vogue today to make the policeman, who is doing his duty and upholding the law, into a bad guy, the lawbreaker who has decided that the rules drawn to protect our society were not meant for him, suddenly seems to have taken on the role of the fellow who needs protection.

We're not going to say that there are not bad policemen who are willing to abuse the trust placed in them by their fellow citizens. We do not discount every charge of police brutality. However we refuse to swallow the stories that are being passed around which makes every man who pins on a shield a shakedown artist and a sadist who gets pleasure from beating someone senseless.

For any society to ask men to enforce its laws and protect it and its property from criminals and then turn on the same men and condemn them for doing the biddings of society is breaking faith.

If we continue to break faith with our policemen, how can we expect them, to provide the protection we demand for ourselves and our families?

We think it's time each and every citizen take a long second look at the policeman and his job in today's world. The nation's crime rate continues to climb. Each year more and more decent citizens are victims of the hoodlum element that sees our laws as a challenge to its ability to break them and escape punishment.

Each year our police officers are caught in a tighter and tighter squeeze between the demands of the citizens to clean up crime and the same citizens who demand a bigger and better break for our criminals.

We think it's time each individual goes out of his way to thank the patrolman on his beat for the security and protection that he provides each and every one of us.

The next time you hear a story of a crooked cop or police brutality, before passing the story along as fact, ask yourself if the policeman just picked out an individual from a crowd or if he was performing his duty in protecting a citizen against one of the criminal crowd?

We're not going to get into a discussion as to whether or not our society is what created the criminal. However we do urge you to remember when a policeman is making an arrest or attempting to settle an unruly mob, who the "Bad Guy" really is.

If we are going to live in a society in which we can raise our families without fear we must support our police. The police are all that stand between us and the need to strap on a gun to provide our own protection and a society in which the "fast gun" rules.

Each day our police are engaged in a battle against crime which can turn into a "Hot War" on any corner at any second. The least average citizen can do to help is to offer his moral support.

Once we stop hitting our police in the back with vicious rumors, they can settle down to their job of ridding our cities and towns of crime. Support your police.

An Open Letter To Every Shopper

To The Editor, Times-News:

If you live in one of the areas of population served by a number of chain stores which have become familiar with the weekly throwaway sometimes called the Shopper's Guide, etc. Year after year they are the same. Pictures of steaks, heads of lettuce, cans of coffee, cartons of eggs scream out at you from their pages week after week. Everything is the same excepting one thing and that is the price.

One of the news magazines writes that out on the West Coast the shopper is paying thirty cents more per pound for steak and twenty cents more per pound for pork chops than he paid in June of 1964. And the Department of Agriculture in Washington also expects food prices to continue to rise through the summer of 1965 after which the picture is still fuzzy.

Now it is not too easy to know where to place the entire blame for this continued increase in price of the commodities which the American people require to feed our ever growing population. And perhaps there is no one particular place to put all of the blame. Some blame the weather because the floods and the cold can work havoc on the crops. Some are blaming the Department of Labor which has put down on the use of braceros who come into the United States from Mexico to work in the fields. But matter what the reason for the increase in price, one survey tells us that the food prices continue to soar.

There is one place where no body seems to put any of the blame and this is on Mr. and Mrs. Buyer themselves. But whether they know it or not the customer is responsible for an increase in prices by not only permitting an open market but by keeping such establishments open by their patronage. An executive of a large eastern food chain said, "It is unwise to consider opening retail stores on Sundays for if certain food stores, for example, were to remain open and build up sales by special promotions, their competitors probably would not allow them to continually siphon off their weekly customers by such tactics. Therefore, other food markets and chain stores would also open on Sunday. The result of all stores being open on Sunday, of course, would mean more sales for anyone, for there is only so much business available in each community. It would mean that they would merely be redistributing their normal weekly sales over seven days instead of six days."

The additional number of employees needed would prove costly for under most Union contracts, Sunday work rates high premium pay. Since they would be forced to pay this higher service of cost, light, heat, etc. for Sunday operations, it would inevitably result in an increase of food prices.

"Since the margin of net profit in food stores is very small, averaging approximately only one per cent, no retailer can afford to increase his operating costs without passing the additional expense on to the customer in the form of higher prices. Therefore, it is unwise for the customer to deliberately precipitate an increase in food prices by permitting Sunday business."

Of course, this applies not only to food but any other commodity. Remember, the price of the entire price of Sunday buying is not recorded on the cash register. There are hidden costs such as those sustained by people who must work to serve you because you did not plan your purchasing six other days a week. Their day rest and worship, to which they are entitled, has been taken away from them by you. You have contributed to the breakdown of the family which needs one day together for rest and worship when you make your Sunday purchases.

Everything on the Shopper's throwaway sheet is the same - the same pictures, the same commodities, everything is the same but the prices and one survey says they are 15 per cent higher than a year ago.

Don't blame Washington entirely, maybe you precipitated some of the price increase by unnecessary Sunday buying.

AMBULANCE SERVICE PRAISED BY NURSE

To The Editor, Times-News:

For the past two weeks Mrs. Senatore has seen fit to criticize our local ambulance service. I feel that this is an unjust and totally unwarranted complaint. Having past personal experience in the use of our local ambulance for both emergency treatment and hospital transportation for my family, I have found them prompt and efficient. From my experiences as a nurse and having worked in hospitals and emergency rooms, I can truthfully say that I have never found any ambulance better equipped or any ambulance attendants better prepared or more willing to do their jobs.

As far as I can understand, from Mrs. Senatore's letters, she is complaining of a man shortage, lack of sufficient oxygen and blankets. Mrs. Senatore supports her claim by saying "respectable citizens have said that only one fireman, with not enough oxygen and no blanket, responded." I question first that these "respectable citizens" are capable of knowing or judging if there is enough oxygen in a tank, and if there was a man shortage. I feel that if you examine all the facts you will find that the patient did receive sufficient oxygen, was covered by a blanket and was attended by two trained men who transported him to the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

I feel that the citizens of this town all owe a great deal to both our Fire and Police Departments, and it appears to me that Mrs. Senatore is drawing conclusions without a basic knowledge of the true services provided for the town by our ambulance. Very truly yours,

READER HITS ATTACK ON AMBULANCE SERVICE

To The Editor, Times-News:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to the members of the emergency division of our fire department. They have in the past rendered to both myself and my family invaluable assistance during times of crisis.

I am acquainted with only my personal experience regarding the fulfillment of their duties. I am not trying to make a generalization holding true to other cases. I simply want to state that if it were not for the services rendered to my family, certain tragedy would have been the result.

I also feel that charges leveled at their work if not in a form of constructive criticism would do little but cause mistrust of this noble department.

In appreciation for your fine assistance I can only voice a few short words of praise. I sincerely hope that this attack provoked by that factor of town politics will cease. The proficiency shown on your part should be exerted by all of our citizens.

Sincerely yours
Mrs. Mary Terzo

BECK'S COLUMN

The second manufacturer to show the TV set models to be sold this fall is RCA. It had to be expected that RCA is concentrating on color TV. They created color, almost singlehanded, although RCA made use of a number of patents held by other inventors. It is estimated that RCA's investment in color development is around 200 million dollars. Now it pays off. We are in a color explosion!

Technically, there is little change compared to last year's sets. The major portion of this year's sales still will be in the 21" size, which is a round tube. Gradually during the second half of the year, we will see more models with 25" rectangular picture tubes. RCA does not make 23" rectangular tubes. Unfortunately, there is a price difference of about $100 - more for 25" tubes and actually the picture is not much larger.

There is an RCA color set in just about every style and wood finish. Customers have become very much more conscious, and they will select the manufacturer's product, who makes the large variety of color sets. One outstanding model deserves mention. It is an upright cabinet with doors, housing the TV set of course and a phonograph plus AM and FM radio. The price is very high, but it is strikingly different and no doubt will create a lot of customer interest.

As other factories, RCA has cut down to some extent on black and white consoles, since color TV became more popular, and they have extended the number of "portable" TV sets. As we have stated in previous columns, some portables just are not portable, since they are too heavy. This is the first year that RCA offers a 12" transistor TV set, black and white of course. It will be interesting to find out how it will perform.

The great draw back of compact, small TV sets, which have been excessive heat, should be eliminated by the use of transistors. As soon as we have given this set "the works", we will report on it further.

We'll report what you tell.

Marchese and their sons, Vincent and Sam, have returned from a vacation of touring the nation's capital. A highlight of their trip was their tour of the Justice Department and seeing the FBI in action.

Mrs. Gerald Bianchi of 22 Merz Avenue took time out from her busy schedule of golf and bridge to visit relatives in Tom's River where she played—you guessed it—golf and bridge.

Ellen Panasky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Panasky of 21 Merz Avenue, recently spent the weekend with former Belleville Debbie Pesante. Ellen reports they had a ball.

First Section of Boathouse Nears Completion; 'Interested' Kearny Board to Discuss Joining

Construction on the Nutley-Belleville boathouse is proceeding on schedule and will be ready for use by the time school opens. Exterior work is completed on the first section, which will be used as shell storage space. Eventually two more sections of similar size will be added, to be used as shower room and locker room.

How long it will take to erect the entire planned facility depends primarily on whether or not the Kearny board of education decides to participate in the project.

A survey of several Kearny school board members indicates a generally favorable attitude toward starting early work on the boathouse and sharing a third of the cost of the boathouse. But the project does not appear to be a top priority item.

Discussion on the boathouse is slated for the Kearny board's September meeting. A decision probably won't be made until late in the fall, when the Kearny board begins to draw up next year's budget.

Kearny schools business manager Ralph Burgess thinks the board might decide to accept the Nutley-Belleville offer to have a facility for a year on a trial basis before making a decision.

Kearny High students had been invited to use the Belleville-Nutley shells this spring to try out the facility for a year on a trial basis before making a decision.

BOATHOUSE PROGRESS—The shell of the Nutley-Belleville boathouse, first third of the proposed building, is now up. This section will house the crew shells. Steel racks for the boats are visible inside the building.

crew, but there were no takers. As an indication of community interest in Kearny, one of that town's service clubs has offered to donate a shell to Kearny High if a decision is made to take up the sport.

Because the new boathouse is located in Kearny, that town's school funds may be used for the project. Belleville and Nutley school boards cannot legally pay for facilities outside their towns.

William Chapman, president of the fund raising group, the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association, Inc., reports the cost of the first section will be $14,800, of which from $1,200 to $1,500 will be in donated materials and services. Completion of the first section of the boathouse will leave between $1,000 and $1,500 left in the building fund. The remaining two sections are expected to be slightly more expensive than the first, since plumbing facilities will be added to the cost.

Chapman hopes completion of the first section of the building will stimulate fund-raising.

Mat Clinic Attended by Four Youths
Four Belleville students were among 199 high school, junior high and preparatory school youngsters who participated in the first session of the 30th annual William Sheridan Wrestling, Coaching Clinic at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa.

Participating students were John R. Baker, St. Benedict's Preparatory; John M. Dirmick, Essex Catholic High School; John J. Gargas, Essex Catholic High School; and Michael E. Gargas, Essex Catholic High School.

The first session concluded August 7, and a second session is scheduled through August 14. Gerry Leeman, head coach of Lehigh University's wrestling teams, is clinic director assisted by his regular-season aide, Eddie Hamer. Both are former national intercollegiate mat champions. Leeman has been successful at Lehigh, coaching teams to 120 dual meet triumphs against only 23 losses and three draws since 1952.

Last season Lehigh placed third in the NCAA tournament at Lehigh.

New Jersey Jaycees Will Benefit From Giant-Eagle Football Clash

Raising money for New Jersey Jaycees is the prime reason for the Giant-Eagle clash which pits the Philadelphia Eagles against the New York Giants at 2 p.m. in Palmer Stadium here on Saturday, August 28.

Pregame ceremonies begin at 1:30 P.M.

The New Jersey Jaycees, sponsor of the fourth annual benefit game between the traditional gridiron rivals, has a set goal of $155,000 for charity from game proceeds.

"Every town in the state where there is a participating Jaycee chapter will benefit from the Classic," general chairman Richard W. Glenn of Howell said today. Money will be distributed through local chapters to charity and welfare organizations in their home town and through large grants from the New Jersey Jaycees to seven statewide groups," he noted.

Nutley Jaycees has traditionally used its share of the Football Classic proceeds to kick off the annual Camp Fund drive sponsored by The Nutley Sun.

Rodino Hails Immigration Bill Progress

Sen. Robert J. Rodino (D-N.J.) last week praised the House Judiciary Committee for its progress in passing a bill to liberalize the nation's immigration laws and predicted swift passage of the measure by the entire House.

Rodino, dean of the New Jersey Congressional delegation, said that final enactment of the bill (H.R. 2580) "will climax a 17-year personal campaign to wipe out discriminatory features in the present immigration process. He noted that the bill is designed to ease the hardships caused by the enforced separation of members of families and to provide a more equitable system of immigration.

A ranking member of the House Judiciary Committee and an architect of the revision bill, Rodino emphasized that the pending legislation would not open the floodgates to unrestricted immigration.

This is a bipartisan bill, Rodino said, "to establish a system of immigrant admissions that more accurately reflects our sense of fair play."

Major provisions of the historic bill are:

- (1) Repeal of the national origins quota system effective July 1, 1968.
- (2) Authorization of 170,000 visas annually for all countries outside the Western Hemisphere, exclusive of spouses, children, and parents of United States citizens.
- (3) Use of the authorized but unused visa numbers during the three year period, 1965-1967, to clean out the preference waiting lists in countries with oversubscribed quotas.

(4) Immediate repeal of the Asia Pacific triangle.

- (5) A ceiling of 20,000 per year on any one country, excluding spouses, children, and parents of United States citizens.
- (6) New controls by the Department of Labor on all non-preference immigrants, immigrants with skills and crafts needed in the United States and workers of all types emigrating from the independent countries of the Western Hemisphere.

Nurse Refresher Course Planned at Clara Maass

Are you a Graduate Nurse who has been out of practice because of home duties or other reasons? Now that your family is grown up, would you like to return to the nursing profession but hesitate to do so because you have been out of touch with modern up-to-date nursing techniques? Well, Clara Maass Memorial Hospital can help you.

Starting this fall, under the sponsorship of Hospital Refresher & Education Training, a federal program, and in cooperation with the New Jersey Hospital Association, the Nursing Service Department at the Clara Maass Hospital will conduct such a refresher course for Graduate Nurses. The course is open to any graduate professional nurse who has been away from nursing for 1 year or more. Classes will begin in October and will run about 6 weeks, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., 5 days per week at no cost to the nurse. Faculty members will be the approval of the Hospital Refresher & Education Training. The course of study will follow a pre-determined curriculum. At the end of the program, nurses who complete the course satisfactorily will be given a certificate which will certify that they have completed their additional training and are eligible for employment in any hospital.

A spokesman for Clara Maass Memorial Hospital stated that positions will be offered to those nurses completing the course. Applicants are being accepted for the Nurse Refresher Course. The course is a comprehensive one. Clinical practice will supplement the theoretical retraining.

Mowry said he checked Nieczkowski about 2 A.M. and couldn't detect any breathing.

The County physician said it would be about 10 days before the results of the test to determine cause of death was available.

extra duties to allow more thorough preparation for classroom assignments. The high school has requested clerical assistants for eight department heads, and ten lab assistants to set up classroom demonstrations and experiments.

While the more than 20 school custodial employees requested were the equivalent of seven or eight full-time employees, Harold Dufford says the extra help is badly needed to compensate for cuts in the maintenance budget made last spring.

Five of the maintenance personnel will do work related to their industrial arts vocational courses. Some of the proposed jobs appear to be potentially controversial. As part of an expanded vocational education program at the high school, ten girls will be paid not only for preparation of food and maintenance work in the school cafeteria, but also for waiting on tables so they can learn to be good waitresses.

The enlarged vocational program for girls is being financed by a new $90,000 grant from the state education department. It will enable two classes of ten and a half daily periods of home economics courses, instead of the present one period each day.

Keeping politics out of the Neighborhood Youth Corps may prove difficult, based on previous experience in town. The employment of a handful of youths to work on school maintenance summer work recently produced charges of favoritism toward sons of school board members.

CHILDREN NO LONGER NEED HAVE MEASLES.

Nearly five million American and Canadian children come down with measles each year. Mild as this disease is considered, some cases have serious complications which have caused deaths. Experts say measles now do more harm than polio.

Dr. Saul Krugman of New York University School of Medicine recently stated, "There is no excuse for any child to endure the disease of measles or its risks. Newly perfected vaccines almost always prevent that possibility. So, if your child has not yet had measles, go to your physician for protection against this danger."

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a vaccine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Faster gas service for you

In years gone by, repairing the gas service which runs from the street to your basement meant digging up your street, sidewalk and lawn and interfering with traffic. Now, a service pipe requiring repair is used in its present position as a sleeve to protect a copper tubing which is inserted within it to carry the gas. In this manner, only one small opening in the street is necessary. Repairs are completed faster and with little annoyance. Public Service has instituted these faster, easier repair methods so you can enjoy all the advantages of a modern fuel - gas, with maximum convenience and dependability.

Pomaco, Bobby Turken, Barbara while swimming in the warm, in Valvano, and John Visco spent Sunday afternoon on Long Branch Beach. As every weekend, they built a bonfire. But two weeks ago, for the first time, the Long Branch Fire Department paid them a visit.

It seems that bonfires on the beach are prohibited in Long Branch. The bewildered group His highest score has been in the

RECREATION HOUSE

The fifth week was occupied with many tournaments and ball games. We played baseball, softball, tether ball, kick ball, dodge ball, and spurt.

Winners of the ping pong tournaments were Bob Pegaro and Jerry Casale. Jerry also took the Kalah championship. Bob Hanley took 1st place in horseshoes. Relay races were held on Thursday afternoon.

SCHOOL NO. 4 PLAYGROUND

We ended the month of July with a very busy week at the playground. We held two tournaments this week. Kenny Cifrodelli was the champion of our checker tournament and Vincent Popolizio the champion of our exciting Kalah tournament.

Also held this week were several bicycle races. In a race for the fastest bicycle Nicholas Sodo placed second.

At the beginning of the week we planned a Roaring 20's and Pizza Party. On Monday morning everyone helped in making tickets for the party. Then Mary Ann Costantino and Ann Pascheria volunteered to sell the tickets. They did an excellent job in organizing the party. Vincent Popolizio was also very helpful.

He saw to it that all the children stayed in a line and he collected the tickets from each child.

SCHOOL NO. 2 PLAYGROUND

The past week was highlighted by a pleasant surprise on Wednesday when orange aide was served. Learning accompanied experience, and Leonard Goodman learned that it is dangerous to climb trees when he tore his pants.

Guests to the playground added much interest. Mr. Salzarulo led a group in the games of "O-U" and "Twenty-one". His tips on shooting were graciously accepted by the participants.

On Thursday afternoon Angelo Marrella, and a small group of girls were taught the basic techniques of tennis.

CLEARMAN FIELD PLAYGROUND

The score is all tied and only one point is needed to determine the champion—there's a shot! It's blocked. — and an a two week vacation in Lavelette. Anne and Linda Celio are vacationing in Sea Girt. "That Wanda Leba really has nerve! Imagine driving a car at 100 mph in a one way street the wrong way. Dolores Melia thinks she's cool, too. She sits on the hood painting the wind shield black."

George Cook, Tony "Dumper" Magistro, and Mike Welsh were in Shea Stadium August 3. Karen Ryan has returned from a holiday in Point Pleasant. Irene Muscara is in Seaside and Jimmy Puleo is there now. Larry Brase and Joe Veneziano were in Seaside Saturday. Sue Cali is in Lavelette. Sammy Spodofora has a '65 black Chevy convertible.

Rosemary Hunt is employed by the Cascade Diaper Service.

Marlene La Luna works at the Belleville Town Hall. Tony Landolfi recently had an operation. Linda Celio, what do you think about Luigi Pinkleton? Sharon Peirce is in New England.

Also included in our weeks program was making jewelry boxes, decorating bottles with yarn and macaroni, working on our paper mache animal, playing baseball, dodgeball and having a paper picking up contest.

STADIUM PLAYGROUND

Instead of a "Gay Nineties" party, the children at the Stadium had a "By the Sea" party. Eddie Autisi won first prize with his beach bum outfit, and honorable mention goes to Janice Gingerelli, Chazlene Cerami and Donna Casale for their bathing beauty outfits.

The highlight of the afternoon, however, was the running of various relay races. The children had a corkscrew relay, a running relay and a 440 relay in which batons were used. The 440 relay was by far the most exciting. The winning team which won four out of the six races consisted of Barbara, John, Leslie, Flora, Barbara S., Barbara A., and Andrea.

FAIRWAY AVENUE PLAYGROUND

We had a busy week filled with many preparations for the Circus Day which was held on Friday. All the children helped in the preparations for Circus Day. There were many committees organized. Signs made signs announcing the Circus; older boys distributed the signs throughout Belleville, and some made the stands for the various games. On Friday morning everyone helped decorate the Park and set up the different stands.

The Stadium Playground was invited to join with us in the fun, and they did their share of work too, by making beautiful hats for all the younger children. The circus Day proved to be a huge success, with approximately 250 people, including many parents.

Fourteen game booths were set up throughout the Park. Some of the older children from Fairway and teenage volunteers, from T. A. C. helped run the games. A few of the games were Checker Toss, Clothespin Drop, Knock 'em Down, Bowling Game, Add-Arama, Dart-Balloon Game, Penny Toss, Golf Skee Ball, Candle Shoot, Grab Bag and Guess the Beans.

Prizes were given to the winners of all the games. But the favorite game of all was the Pie Toss; however, instead of using pies, blue dyed farina was thrown at the target. A special thanks to our cooperative farina targets: Stephen Tague, Mark Cosentino and Martha Peldunas and Ralph Petrucci.
