

Belleville Committee Will Try Another Unannounced Visit to Animal Shelter

The Belleville animal-lovers authorized to inspect the Town's contracted animal shelter in Lodi will try another spot inspection of the facility.

Town manager John R. Burnett told the inspection committee to try again, believing they would be admitted without any problem, at an August 23 Town Council meeting when the committee formally complained that they had been barred on a previous unannounced inspection a month ago.

Mrs. Sally Hood, a leader of the inspection group, says no inspection took place in August. The contract with the kennel permits one visit per month by three of the 15-member inspection committee.

At the council session, several citizens protested the actions of Frank Grohsman, operator of the Humane Animal Shelter of New Jersey located in Lodi, and those of Town Manager Burnett.

Animal Shelter Group Gives Complete Report

The following is the report of Belleville's Animal Shelter Inspection Committee which was denied entrance to the Humane Animal Shelter of N.J. in Lodi—a fact that has been in the Belleville news lately. The text explains background details enabling a full understanding of the report.

To the Hon. Mayor Nuncio R. Pico and Members of the Belleville Town Council:

"Re: Report of visit to the Humane Animal Shelter's Kennels. Located at Lodi, N.J., from the group of three (3) designated members of the ANIMAL SHELTER INSPECTION COMMITTEE.

"On Wednesday, July 28th, 1965, Mr. Edward J. Littig, Mrs. Kathleen Mulligan and Mrs. Sally Hood, three (3) members of our group of fifteen, all Belleville citizens, known as the ANIMAL SHELTER INSPECTION COMMITTEE, made the Committee's initial attempt to fulfill the obligations as outlined by Municipal Council Resolution No. W-122, dated April 28th, 1965, and which resolution is part of an agreement between the Town of Belleville and Mr. Frank Grohsman, trading as the Humane Animal Shelter of New Jersey.

"The Committee members left Belleville on Wednesday, July 28th, 1965 at 10:00 A.M. to inspect the kennels located in Lodi, in Bergen County, about 14 miles from Belleville. Upon arriving and announcing the purpose of their visit, the group reports they were denied access to the kennels to make the inspection.

"The three members report that, later that same day, they returned to Belleville and to the Office of the Town Manager and discussed in full their experience with Mr. Charles B. Tedesco, Administrative Clerk in the Town Manager's Office. They produced a letter written by Mr. Grohsman explaining his reason for denying the group access to the kennels. Mr. Tedesco made copies of the letter, returning the original to the three Committee members. Mr. Grohsman's letter is attached to the report turned in to our Committee by

Durkee to Be In Educational Research List

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Frank M. Durkee will be listed in "National Register of Educational Researchers."

The professional directory lists educators who have made important contributions in educational research. It is published by Phi Delta Kappa, an organization which promotes research, service and leadership in education.

Comments Durkee, "too many conclusions in educational practice are based on little more than intuition and belief. Industries that have no more sound basis for their practices go broke. Difficult as it is to carry on research in on-going schools, such research offers the best possibility for teachers and students to have optimum learning for the money expended by the taxpayers."

TO AID THE CAUSE — William Crawford, Chairman of Belleville Elks No. 1123 Crippled Kids Fund, presents check for $600 to Mrs. Nathan Vernick, Director of Cerebral Palsy Center of Essex County and West Hudson Cerebral Palsy School and Treatment Center.

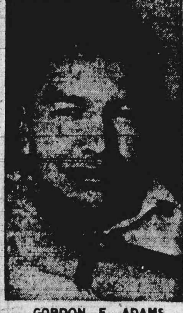

Gordon F. Adams Assigned Assistant Publisher Post

April Could Be Last Month Erie Runs Belleville Trains

"Going out of business" signs will be posted on the Erie-Lackawanna local passenger stations in eight months. After next April 24, rail commuters here will have to find another way to work.

Under the state's request for federal funds to underwrite half of a demonstration project seeking a curb for the moribund commuter line, bus service would replace the Newark Branch Erie Line.

The plan is in two stages. In the first, scheduled to start at the end of October, an express bus will be operated paralleling the railroad to Newark, and schedules will be changed. In the second, slated to start next April, all passenger service on the branch will be dropped.

Local commuters in April will have to take the subsidized express bus, which will be extended to the branch's Hoboken terminals, or Nutley riders will be able to use existing bus lines or a new subsidized bus from their present railroad station to the main line.

Attornies Would Assist In Federal Aid Program

A new approach to getting federal funds for Town projects has been recommended by Mayor Nuncio R. Pico after participating in two recent roundtables in which small city mayors met with federal officials.

Pico recommends employing legal help on a temporary full-time basis to act as liaison with federal agencies whenever the Town embarks on a major construction project with federal grants-in-aid.

Pico met with 200 other mayors of cities of 25 to 50,000 population in Washington three weeks ago, then joined a follow-up meeting of Essex County mayors last Friday.

Presiding at the Washington meeting was vice-president Hubert H. Humphrey. Present to shed light on how the federal government can help solve municipalities' problems were Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor, Housing and Home Finance Agency head Robert C. Weaver, and Secretary of Labor Willard W. Wirtz.

Weaver headed the federal team meeting with county mayors in Irvington, Spokesmen representing the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Small Business Administration, Office of Economic Opportunity, Army Engineers and Departments of Labor and Interior also attended the conference arranged by Representative Paul J. Krebs (D-12th District).

At the Washington session, Pico asked about help on air pollution control, and was referred to several government agencies who could assist. Pico pointed out that expensive technical instruments and technicians to operate them were beyond the means of a Town of Belleville's size.

Other areas in which Belleville might take advantage of federal grants, says Pico, are a new recreation site, a new building for the fire and police departments, and attempts to solve the Town's parking problems.

The mayor says Manager John R. Burnett is too busy running more than 260 Town employees to keep track of what the federal government offers local communities, and that Town Attorney Jack Soriano could not be expected to devote full time to liaison work during work on a specific project.

"Federal government is big business and this means red tape," the mayor reported to the Town Council. "In view of this each community must change from the slow methodical pace of the good old days to a new and rapid approach based on scientific knowledge of the applicable laws controlling Federal aid."

Pico reported the discussion in Washington "revealed nothing

Mertz Quits As CD Head

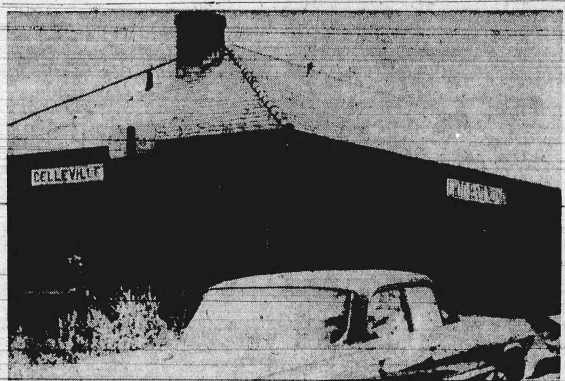

Civil Defense Director Raymond E. Mertz Jr. has resigned effective no later than September 30.

Town Manager John R. Burnett hopes to recommend a successor to the Town Council at the next meeting, September 13.

Mertz, who lives at 24 Beverly Court, resigned to devote more time to his insurance business. He has been CD and Disaster Control Director for the past three years.

The CD head post is unsalaried. A part-time deputy director, William G. Hunt of 302 Union Avenue, receives a $1,200 salary.

Belleville's Civil Defense program came under fire at last year's budget hearings. Mayor Nuncio R. Pico stated several times last year he "tended toward the view that Belleville's CD program should be abandoned," but adds that public interest in the program will decide its fate at budget-time this year.

SOON' OBSOLETE — When the Newark Branch of the Erie Railroad stops passenger service next April, the 22 commuters who use the Belleville station will have to find some other way to get to their jobs. A subsidized express bus will be provided to replace the train. Many residents in the south part of town use the North Newark station just across the town line, on the Boonton-Greenwood Lake Branch. More trains will be provided on that line.

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE FOR NCE STUDENT — John Rosinski, 20, of 60 Bremond Street, is a summer employee at Bell Labs in Whippany. He's pictured observing an oscilloscope screen to study shapes of electric waves passing through the circuit at his hand. A senior in electrical engineering at Newark College of Engineering, Rosinski was selected under NCE's professional development program for its outstanding students. His job at Bell involves a survey of circuits and devices and techniques for monitoring voltage and current.

Jim Golden Questions Collection Of Property Taxes With Auditor

After hearing auditor A. M. Hart explain his recommendations for improving town fiscal practices included with his annual audit of Belleville finances, Councilman James R. Golden appeared satisfied with progress on some of the suggestions but remained critical on most.

The auditor appeared at a special council meeting last Thursday called at Golden's request to explain why similar recommendations appeared on the audit year after year.

Golden says, "I'm sure some of these recommendations concern situations which are rightly carried over from year to year, but I want a more diligent effort to clear them up."

Golden had implied when requesting the meeting with the auditor that re-appearance of the recommendations meant town administrators were ignoring them.

Golden is critical of the handling of collection of back personal property taxes, some dating back over 30 years. He says the Town should stimulate payment by strict enforcement, making an example of those who can afford to pay them, but won't.

Town manager John R. Burnett, the main object of Golden's criticism, says bills and impersonal dunning by the town tax collector are being used to collect the taxes. "I don't think we should seize and auction off these people's possessions or throw them in jail," says the manager, Belleville stopped levying the personal property taxes in 1962.

Golden said he was satisfied with progress made on legal action on tax title lien foreclosures, but objected to hiring former town attorney Lawrence E. Keenan to handle the cases, saying this should be part of the Town attorney's duties.

At the same special meeting, Councilman William H. Cullen criticized the town's administrative chart. Cullen holds that under the council-manager form, all supervisors directly under the manager, with no supervisor above another supervisor. Cullen says he is still researching his criticism.

Cullen says he's complaining only about files, not about the personnel who fill the positions. He claims since the shade tree division was dropped under the change of government, there should be no superintendent of that non-existent division. Cullen also holds that there should be no title of "recreation superintendent," since recreation comes under the public works department, which has a superintendent.

Water Usage Down

Belleville has purchased about 100 million gallons of water less than in July 1965 than it did in July 1964. Although Essex County Hospital and Clara Maass Hospital have gone into full operation and there has been an increase in population due to the new buildings and apartments in Belleville, the figures for July 1965 indicate a considerable reduction in the water purchased from Newark.

Contributing to this reduction are such companies as Barrett Leather Company and Liquid Carbonic, Division of General Dynamics. The Barrett Company, since its installation of a well in July, reduced its purchase of water from Belleville from June's more than 3 million gallons to August's less than a million.

Liquid Carbonic, since it has been treating its well water to make it usable in its cooling process, has reduced the city water consumption rate by approximately 76 gallons per minute, which amounts to more than 3 million gallons a month.

Board, Architect Meet to Discuss Leaks, Oil Line

Building problems ranging from a leaky roof to faulty oil lines were discussed with school architect Alfonso Alvarez at a closed conference of the Board of Education Monday night.

Board president Ernest S. Arvidson said the problem with leaks in the high school gym roof "was being straightened out." He also said fuel lines at School Four would be replaced. The lines apparently had been laid in ash-composition subsoil and some sort of chemical reaction has eroded the lines.

Another high school gym problem, bad acoustics, is also being worked on. The acoustical engineering firm of Michael Kodaris Association of Long Island has been hired to prepare specifications for corrections to the sound situation. The firm previously prepared a preliminary study on the gym noise problem.

The Miracle of Brookline Avenue

Thirty-three years ago, Brookline Avenue — a north-south street that connects Centre and Harrison Streets — was a quiet, residential area.

Today, a substantial part of this street is a bustling educational and religious center. The person responsible for this dramatic change is Monsignor Anthony Di Luca, pastor of the Holy Family Catholic Church.

Thirty-three years ago, Monsignor Di Luca, newly assigned to the parish, roamed the streets of his parish, saw in the hopeful eyes and eager faces of his people a future that could not be denied. His daily walks among his flock spurred him on to new heights and provided him with the inspiration and determination to conceive, plan and construct a new school, two new churches and a new rectory.

Monsignor Di Luca has accomplished more in thirty-three years than a thousand people accomplish in a lifetime.

On Saturday, with all the humbleness known to mankind, Monsignor Di Luca sat in silence while Archbishop Boland dedicated the new church. The complex of buildings that now represent the Holy Family Church and school is a living memorial to one of God's greatest servants, Monsignor Di Luca.

Monsignor Di Luca, invoking the help of the Lord, conceived and carried out a building program for his parish which is looked upon by everyone as the Miracle of Brookline Avenue.

Monsignor Di Luca says all of the new building projects and the good work of the Holy Family Church and school have been accomplished through the willingness of God and the work of his parishioners.

Those of us who have played, lived and worked within the shadows of the Miracle of Brookline Avenue also know that Monsignor Di Luca's divine humbleness would never permit him to take any personal credit for the dazzling accomplishments of his church.

Without the inspired leadership of Monsignor Di Luca, there would have been no dedication of a new church last Sunday and there would not be today the Miracle of Brookline Avenue.

May God bless him and may he continue to enjoy good health for many, many years as he marches forward performing the work of the Lord. FAO

Are City Hall Politicians Kidding the Public?

Recently Town Manager John R. Burnett issued his annual statement relating to the operations of town hall in which he claimed the "cost of town government has increased less than $3,000 in the three years this government (Council-Manager) has been serving the people." This quotation was published on page one of the Thursday, August 5th, Belleville Times under an 8 col. headline entitled: "Manager Notes Town Gains".

Everyone who read Town Manager Burnett's statement believed it to be true — including the undersigned.

Councilman James Golden had his own reservations about Burnett's claim and decided to do something about it. He insisted the certified public accountant who audits the town's books be called before the Town Council and queried on Burnett's annual report. Last Thursday the auditor did appear before the Town Council and if we understood him correctly, the increased cost of town government over the past three years is "not less than $3,000" as Town Manager Burnett led us to believe but actually $282,686.17. This increased cost is arrived at as follows:

Line 8-a of the 1965 budget represents the cost of local government exclusive of Board of Education costs, etc. That amount is $2,396,071.92.

Vietnam

Let it be known at the outset of this editorial that the undersigned, under no circumstances, qualifies himself as a military expert.

The problems of Vietnam are thrust at us daily by radio and television commentators and the daily press.

Unfortunately, the news from Vietnam has not been good and it may be a long time before we turn the corner.

Knowing only what we read in the daily papers, it is our conviction that President Lyndon B. Johnson is doing his very best to minimize the threat of a third world war. We are convinced that President Johnson is trying to insure world peace by securing the independence of South Vietnam.

We do not believe he is timid in his dealings with the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese. He is firm without being belligerent.

The Republican and Democrat members of Congress who have been taking pot shots at President Johnson could best serve our country if they shut up their big mouths and close ranks behind the President of the United States during these most troublesome times.

All members of Congress should place the welfare of our country above their provincial, political interests. Sniping at President Johnson on Vietnam does us no good.

The sooner everyone realizes today we are actually at war, the quicker we can get on with the job of winning the Vietnam war. FAO

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Eleven years ago we entered a new phase of broadcasting, color TV. Only about 5% of television sets have a color set. In California the percentage is a little higher. It is typical for this country that there is either feast or famine. The word from the factories is that color-TV is finally taking off like the proverbial rocket.

Why should there be a shortage of color sets this fall? The answer is the dearth of color TV tubes. There is only one large producer of color tubes in the country, RCA, Sylvania also is making some color tubes and then there are 2 more smaller manufacturers. RCA, Sylvania and Zenith and National Video which produces 2 1/2" color tubes. Admiral is in the process of building a new factory and there are trade reports that GE is going to make color tubes. It will take quite a while until the latter two are ready for production.

It won't be long and all present manufacturers of black and white tubes will have to make color tubes, simply because there won't be much need for B/W picture tubes any more. This will take place within the next 2 years and then we will reach the stage of "feast." Competition will then be as deadly as it has developed to be for b/w picture tubes presently. Different manufacturers will make different sizes of color tubes in an effort to stimulate the market and color TV will be in the same "feast" for picture size as b/w is now. Instead of standardizing on a small, medium and large size, we will have 10 or more with all the attendant waste. Production costs would be lower if only 3 sizes would be available and the final cost for the completed set could be lowered. Apparently this can't be achieved. Is it a wonder that a well known author wrote a book about "The Wastemakers"?

We serve what we sell.

Don't Be Holiday Statistic

Fred Rosenberg, Safety Director of the Motor Club of America, said that he expected the Labor Day Weekend to yield more fatalities than the Fourth of July weekend in which ten New Jerseyans lost their lives and a new national toll of 542 was established.

"All indications point to a traffic weekend filled with auto fatalities," said Rosenberg. He condemned "the deepening sense of the driving public's indifference" toward their own safety and that of others.

Rosenberg urged that drivers practice "both strategic and defensive driving habits" throughout the long weekend and the entire year. "The ability to anticipate potential accidents and take action to avoid them before they happen is essential to safe driving today," noted Rosenberg. "It is well known that four out of every five traffic accidents result from avoidable driver errors."

The FCA Safety Director placed particular emphasis on the avoidance of drinking and driving and stressed that drivers avoid the use of any form of either tranquilizer or "Pep" pills if they are going to drive. "Many people take stimulants either in the form of alcohol or pills under the mistaken belief that they will aid their driving ability, but one-for-the-road is only one-for-the-grave in today's traffic."

The use of seat belts was also urged in both front and rear passenger seats. "A conservative estimate is that seat belts save approximately 5,000 lives annually," said Rosenberg, "but most people fail to buckle up because they are only going a short distance from their home. What they don't know is that the majority of traffic accidents take place within twenty-five miles of home."

He applauded the New Jersey law that will take away the licenses of any teenage driver convicted of drunken driving until that individual has reached the age of 21. "As a former teacher in the secondary schools of New Jersey, I would be the last to condemn all teenagers, but the high rate of accidents young people have, suggests the importance of compulsory high school driver education courses or their equivalent as a condition for the right to possess a driver's license."

When questioned about the effect of adverse weather conditions on the Labor Day Weekend toll of fatalities, the MCA Safety Director noted that, "In 1964, 42,000 out of the total of 48,000 traffic deaths took place in clear weather. Rain or shine, the only antidote to tragedy on the highways is safety-conscious drivers."

"Before you go out Labor Day Weekend," Rosenberg urged New Jersey drivers, "check your automobile out thoroughly. Then check yourself out. Ask yourself if this is going to be your last weekend or just one of a long series of safe and sane ones?"

Open Monday & Friday 'till 9 P.M. — PARKING IN REAR OF STORE

STEP RIGHT UP — On August 18, with the heat in the 90's and oppressive humidity, Patty Higgins, Beth Jewel, Carol Higgins, Patty Lister, Kathleen Higgins and Karen Kister eagerly awaited the first arrivals to their annual carnival which was being held in Higgins driveway at 150 Brighton Avenue. These young citizens had worked for over a month getting merchants to donate door prizes, hot dogs and buns, soda and watermelon. The prizes for the Tin Target, Penny Pitch and other games they collected from friends and neighbors. The cupcakes and bags of popcorn they made themselves. At the end of a very successful day, there had been 200 admissions and a net profit of $104.39 was donated to the Muscular Dystrophy fund. Their original carnival kit which included suggestions of games to play and how to conduct a carnival was obtained from the TV personality, Sonny Fox.

A Big Day for Holy Family

The Most Reverend Thomas A. Boland, Archbishop of Newark, came to Nutley Saturday morning to solemnly bless and dedicate the new Holy Family Catholic Church building. The church serves hundreds of families in both Nutley and Belleville.

More than 700 parishioners turned out for the ceremonies which included a Solemn Pontifical Mass celebrated by Archbishop Boland. The new sanctuary has been in use for Sunday Masses, marriages and baptisms since June 20. Daily Mass has continued to be celebrated in the old building erected in 1938.

The new church building has a seating capacity of 1,200 and is completely air-conditioned. The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Anthony DiLuca, P.A., LL.D., has been pastor of Holy Family since 1933. The parish now numbers some 7,000 members in Nutley and Belleville.

Monsignor DiLuca, 64, will observe his 60th anniversary as a priest in 1966. He suggested the design of the new church edifice after seeing a similar building in his travels. He particularly likes its simple design, especially the lack of pillars and other obstructions.

The pastor notes the new church is in keeping with the reformed liturgy by affording the congregation complete opportunity to participate in the Mass.

RECESSIONAL — Following the blessing of the church and the Pontifical Mass, this was the scene at Holy Family Church Saturday morning.

Mound Milestones
While his first start as a Yankee ranks as Jack Collen's biggest thrill in his baseball career, two other games stand out in the Belleville hurler's memory.

He considers his best game ever pitched was a twelve-inning game for Greensboro in the Carolina League in which he struck out 19 Raleigh batters.

Most memorable game for Belleville High (and a bitter-sweet memory at that) was the time he pitched a no-hitter against Bloomfield, but lost the game 2-1 on errors and a passed ball.

No Major Fires Reported in Town

A minor fire in a Fairway Avenue home and a blaze originating from an oil burner on Van Rensselaer Street provided the major activity for the Belleville Fire Department this week. Chief Carl Hunderpfund reports no injuries for the week.

Chief Hunderpfund also notes that the ambulance made 10 emergency runs and the same number of service calls from August 20-27. The week was highlighted by a noticeable lack of calls to accident scenes.

The summary of fire records for the week follows:
AUGUST 30 — 8:44 a.m. — Smoke in a laundry at 103 Washington Avenue brought out the firemen. The fire was out on arrival and there was no damage.
AUGUST 31 — 9:40 a.m. — A car fire at 405 DeWitt Avenue was reported. The car is owned by Catherine Costello of that address.

AUGUST 21 — 5:12 a.m. — A false alarm turned in at box 613 at Laverne and Smallwood Avenues. 3:14 p.m. — An oil burner fire was reported by Paul Waraka. Firemen extinguished the fire with water and carbon dioxide. Waraka lives at 22 Van Rensselaer Street. 9:25 p.m. — False alarm from box 47 at Holmes and Washington Avenue.

AUGUST 22 — 3:15 a.m. — An early morning blaze brought out the firemen to the Conningham home at 42 Fairway Avenue. Damage was reported as slight.
AUGUST 23 — 2:52 p.m. — A gas dryer was smoking and Mrs. Sorce of 31 Belmont called the fire department. The damage was to the dryer's motor. The smoking stopped when the dryer was disconnected. 9:35 p.m. — An electric iron cord was smoking so Mrs. D. Daniels called the firemen. The department reported to the Daniels' home at 104 Overlook Avenue and unplugged the iron. There was no damage.

AUGUST 24 — 4:00 a.m. — A fire in an embossing machine at Airco Plastics, 621 Main Street, was extinguished with carbon dioxide and the plant's sprinkler system. Minor damage was reported. 9:33 a.m. — Smoke from a garage at 428 Belleville Avenue prompted a telephone alarm. The fire at premises owned by F. Cluff was out when the department arrived. Damage was minor.

AUGUST 25 — 12:01 a.m. — False alarm from box 581 at Ralph St. and Bellavista. 7:15 p.m. — Smoke coming from the roof of the Belleville Avenue bowling alley was the original report, but when the firemen arrived, they discovered a smoking garbage can next door instead.

Playground News

Recreation House Playground—Our next to the last week at the playground was spent playing a variety of games and stringing more beads.

On Wednesday morning we played "Rough Rider." Paulette Tepe and Clarice Bianche were the winners. They each received a small prize. Although the weather was hot, softball has become a favorite among the younger boys. On Thursday afternoon we had a Kalah Tournament. Ronnie Rizzolo was our champion. A Nok Hockey tournament was also held and Michael Vitale was the winner.

A special thanks to Aileen LaMura and her TAC for donating ice cream and soda. We all enjoyed an ice cream soda party on Thursday. To everyone's delight we had a Carvel Flying Saucer party on Friday afternoon.

Planson Playground—In accordance with the week's great heat, we had two swim parties this week. The girls went Monday and the boys went Wednesday. On Tuesday afternoon a trip to the library to see the handicraft exhibit was held. The children enjoyed themselves and were very impressed by Fairway's Turtle.

Friday afternoon was certainly fun filled. A masquerade party was held. Prizes were given to Chris Rovell as the "cutest." Chris had a beautiful pink and blue ballerina's costume of net and satin with pink sequins on it. Joey Bulfinch won the "funniest" dressed as a woman and wearing a baby carriage. The "most original" was Diane Carlissimo who was a Spanish Poncho and carried a guitar. The "ugliest" in costume only, was Lisa Record dressed as a witch. The girl with the "prettiest costume" was Beth Ann Rovell in a blue net and blue sequined dance recital dress with a satin sequined hat to match. All the children are to be congratulated on their beautiful costumes.

Church, Newark offered the services. Mr. Brauer died on August 25 at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville after a brief illness. He was 78.

The husband of Gladys Wright Brauer, he was born in Poland and came to Belleville from Newark 55 years ago. Before his retirement, he was a toolmaker with Mansel Ceramics, Belleville.

Also surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Willis F. (Gloria) Davis of Livingston; a son, Emil H. Jr., living at home; a brother, Adolph of Linden, and three grandchildren.

Ice Skating Popular, Rec Poll Reports

The Belleville Recreation Department has completed tabulation of its Recreation Interest Survey and released the results. Robert E. Cook, Sup. of Recreation reports that the return on the survey questionnaires were most gratifying and showed great care in their filling out.

Many of the questionnaires had explanatory notes and constructive suggestions. The figures released are of those who indicated that they would make use of facilities or take part in activities.

It is interesting to note that 88% of individuals indicated that they would make use of an ice skating rink on the Facility Survey but only 637 indicated that they would take part in Ice Skating on the Activity Survey.

Similarly 542 said they would use tennis courts on the Facility Survey but only 322 said they would take part in the Activity Survey.

As far as indicated interest in facilities the big ones are: Ice Skating Rink 888, Picnic Grounds 743, Winter Coasting Hill 628, Indoor Recreation Center 595 and Tennis Courts 542.

Among the activities it went Swimming 590, Ice Skating 537, Baseball 526, Bowlers 307, Softball 339, Gym Classes 307, Tennis 322. Thereafter a pretty general interest is shown in nearly all of the activities.

No. 2 Playground—The uncomfortable weather brought a variety of games into favor this past week. On Wednesday many of us enjoyed the game of Dino the Dinosaur brought to the playground by owner Rickey Malifano. "Famous People," "Simon Says," and "Red Light" provided the usual thrills. Leonard Goodman earned the title of "King around the Rink" and "The Farmer in the Dell" accounted for a great deal of fun. Jackie Marzella was declared checker champ when he won the King tournament. Benedict Albanese, Charon Carrara, Joanne Goodman, Leonard Goodman, and Jody Raymond express their thanks to the Recreation Department for the great time they had at the ice show.

No. 4 Playground—The first signs of autumn have come to the playground. Interests have changed from softball to touch football and from the shore to school. Stephen Constantino and Maryann Constantino were our champion Kalah players this week. This game has certainly proved to be the most popular game of the summer. Bracelets and clothespin bags were made by the children this week in the arts and crafts periods. Further preparations were made for our Farewell Party. It was decided that everyone would contribute something to the party. This, our last party of the week will be held Thursday afternoon.

Major Activity Playground—Summer is drawing to a close and autumn is arriving. This is quite evident when watching the children change their game of softball to touch football. It is a game which arouses much enthusiasm among participants and spectators. There has been daily competition in it for the past week. On Wednesday, a "Fruit Decorating Contest" was held. Brigitte Fredericks was the winner with her entry of an orange decorated as a face. Next Thursday, we are going to have our final party of the season. It will be a Grab Bag Pizza Party. There will be pizza and kool-aid to eat and each participant will receive a grab bag filled with games and treats. It will be an exciting way to end our fun-filled summer.

Five Days Left At Olympic Park

Five days remain, counting today, in Olympic Park's '65 season and plans are afoot to make the holiday weekend a thunderous finale to the Irvington-Maplewood amusement park's 50th anniversary year.

The free circus for the final week features Bob and Laurence Top, who skate on a six-foot circular platform atop a 60-foot flagpole. Bob Top learned to roller skate on the sidewalks of New York; his wife was a concert harpist in Santiago, Chile, when he met her.

Lona Antek and Her Canines, an unusual dog troupe, and Leo Gasca, Mexican tight wire performer, round out the bill being offered at 4 and 9:30 p.m. daily through Monday.

Concerts by Basile's Olympic Park Band will be presented at intermissions and eyeings in the Grove.

Newark Ballet Academy Season Opens Sept. 20

The Newark Ballet Academy, an official school of the Garden State Ballet, opens its fall season in Newark on September 20 and at its South Orange branch on October 4.

Frédéric Danielli, director, announced there are still openings in the Ford Foundation program, which provides free tuition, strictly professional training for beginners chosen by audition and interviews.

Joining the permanent faculty in both Newark and South Orange will be Ration Segarra, former dancer with Ballet Russ de Monte Carlo, the National Ballet of Canada and for three years with the New York City Ballet.

A veteran of ballet tours from the Caribbean to Western Europe to the Soviet Union.

He will be teaching both ballet and modern dance at the Newark Ballet Academy, South Orange.

Under Ford Foundation sponsorship, ten boys and seven girls have been selected for the beginners' program which offers one year of free instruction with the Newark academy matching Ford grants, administered by the School of American Ballet (home of George Balanchine's New York City Ballet). Three other girls are on full scholarship in their second year of training as part of this professional program. The youngsters must face periodic re-evaluation by School of American Ballet administrators to continue on scholarship.

Segovia Will Highlight Unity Concert

Currently celebrating the 37th anniversary of his first appearance in the United States, Andres Segovia, world-famous Spanish guitarist, will give a recital on the Unity Concert Course, January 21, 1966, in the Montclair High School Auditorium.

Mr. Segovia will include on his program music by such classic composers as Bach, of whose music the guitarist has long been recognized as a leading interpreter. In addition he will play several of the many works dedicated to him by such modern composers as De Falla, Villa-Lobos, and Roussel, as well as a group of Spanish compositions.

Born near Granada in 1893, Segovia is internationally regarded as one of the most distinguished of living musicians. Each year he plays nearly 100 concerts in South America and Europe in addition to his regular tours here. His annual recitals in such U. S. cities as New York, San Francisco, Boston, and Los Angeles are sold out long in advance.

After a recent Town Hall recital, Roes Parmenter wrote: "Such was the artistry of the master guitarist that he held the large audience so silent that the winding of a wrist-watch could be heard for rows around!"

Other events on the series include: The Music of Richard Rodgers, Oct. 8; Victoria de Los Angeles, soprano, Nov. 3; Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, Nov. 14; Rudolf Serkin, Dec. 3; Paul Badura-Skoda and Joerg Demus, Feb. 25; National Ballet, March 11; and Giorgio Tozzi, bass-baritone, May 1. The series of eight are $12, $15.50, $20.50, $27, and $33.50.

In most states, employers do not have to pay higher Workmen's Compensation premiums to cover their employees afflicted with epilepsy.

Some Pavilions at Fair Opening Hour Earlier

As a result of the steadily increasing attendance at the World's Fair, many pavilions have decided to extend their exhibit hours.

Over 100,000 people have paid their way into the Fair on 24 of the last 23 days. This week, the average daily attendance has soared to 145,643, as compared to the 118,000 average maintained from June 14th to July 10th.

Fifteen pavilions have changed their opening hours from 10 to 9 a.m. Five are opening a half hour earlier than usual, at 9:30 a.m., and thirteen have extended their closing hours beyond 10 p.m.

A Splash Party at the Friendly House was sponsored by TAC Wednesday, August 18. John Disano, John Longo, and Andy Ippolito acted as life guards. Those who attended included Billy Butler, Betty Cook, Claudia Hollweg, Pats May, Diane Paterno, stayed at the Andrea Motel in Seaside Heights during the week-end of August 6.

Carol Shelesky and Linda Strack left August 22 for Camp Petty. Members of the Red Cross of various high schools in New Jersey are meeting for five days and are being instructed in leadership. After the completion of the program, the girls will vacation at Ocean City in Maryland.

Jill Swartz, chapter president of the Murray K Fan Club, attended the Beale Concert at Shea Stadium, Sunday, August 15. It was a thrilling experience for Jill, a loyal Beale fan. She enjoyed the 45 minute concert very much, but found it quite hard to see the mop-topped performers.

Bonnie Brehm, Diane Haght, Gail Mallinson, and Jill Swartz were among the group of girls who spent a day in Asbury Park last month. After spending the

Senior-Dominated Squad Opens Practice Yesterday

By STEVEN CHAREN

There's a battle being waged at Belleville's Municipal Stadium today. It started yesterday and it will continue for at least another 25 days. No one is going to try to stop this fight: In fact, the authorities are quite happy about it. You see, this battle is among the members of the BHS football team who are trying to win varsity berths.

With a record turnout of close to 75 senior, junior, and sophomore grid hopefuls, the Bellboys opened their training camp yesterday. And as Head Coach Tom Testa put it, "It's hard to tell now who will be playing. No one's job is certain—we have keen competition for each starting position. We'll just have to wait and see how blossoms earlier."

Now it's up to the combatants to show what they can do, especially the juniors and sophomores who are trying to break into a senior-dominated squad. Twenty-two of the Bellboys will be successful in their quest for starting Varsity positions for Testa plans to form separate offensive and defensive platoons. About another 22 gridgers will also hang on with the Varsity as reserves, some probably doubling as Junior Varsity starters. For the rest, it's on to the J.V. or Sophomore teams for awhile.

The Bellboys have until September 25 when the season opens at East-Orange to prove themselves. Between now and then, two-day practice sessions for a week and then one-day drills (because of school) plus four scrimmages will keep the competitive Blue and Gold gridgers busy.

As plans stand now, the depth-laden Bellboys will stick to their pro type offense although they may "spread" more than in the past to take advantage of backfield speed. The defensive alignments will also remain unchanged from last year's squad that allowed an average of just 5.8 points per game.

Experience-wise Belleville's strong point is the backfield, both offensive and defensive, and the ends. For the most part the line is big and green.

Getting down to the individual positions, twenty-five Bellboys with at least limited Varsity experience from last year lead the way. In most cases the boys are classified just by position—now with the split to offense or defense to come later. Twenty-three of those veterans are seniors, but it is expected that several other juniors and probably a few sophomores will make themselves heard from on the Varsity scene before practice is too far along.

At this point, the surest bet as a starter is co-captain Lew Trowbridge at center. Belleville's club-house cartoonist held down the "hiker" position all last year and is now being counted on to anchor an inexperienced line. Lew may also be given a try on defense.

At the quarterback spot that is so vital in the Bellboys' prototype attack a pair of veteran seniors are competing. Frank Mineo and co-captain Jim Corino shared the signal calling duties last year, and should battle it out right down to the wire before one of them is chosen to start; the possibility that they'll alternate is also open. One or both of these versatile players could also see action in the defensive backfield as was the case in '64. With an eye toward the future, several of the Bellboys' five junior and sophomore field general candidates will also work out at this position, but the change of one of them overtaking Corino and Mineo is slim; starting roles with the J.V.'s and Soph team seem to be their destiny.

Returning from the fearsome defensive forward wall of a year ago is just one of six starters. This guard also saw plenty of action on defense; he is the leader of the Bellboys' large group of line prospects. Jim Pigninelli "Piggy" will have a big role in Belleville plans this year as he stabilizes his rookie teammates. Leading the contenders for the guard sports "Pig" leaves open are Rich Bonkowski, Frank Spirella, and Jim Luty; some of these boys may also fit into the line-backer picture defensively.

All of the tackle jobs are open thanks to the graduation of a pair of two-way performers. At this point, Joe Veneziano and Bob Drueher have a slight edge on the experience they gained filling for All-Stater Len Luongo when he was sidelined by an ankle injury. Right behind these two behemoths is another 200-pounder John Rempusheski, who came on strong late last year. Larry Blake, Joe Bannatto, and several big underclassmen will also make themselves heard from before the four starters are picked.

The Bellboys have plenty of good prospects for the end spots. Leading this group are three boys who saw plenty of Varsity action last year. Russ Mattoon, junior-Richie San-Filippo, and Art Connolly. Mattoon started at offensive end in '64 and went on to be the team's leading scorer with 21 points on two touchdowns and nine out of ten post-after attempts. San-Filippo anchored the deep defensive secondary as a soph while getting some offensive practice with the Individuals and small and moderate-sized firms will be the beneficiaries of proposed legislation to end abuses, hardships and inequities stemming from interstate tax programs," Rep. Peter W. Rodino Jr. (D-10th District) declared today.

Rep. Rodino Cites Benefits Of Proposed Tax Change

After four years of study, a Special House Subcommittee, of which Rodino is ranking member, has recommended far-reaching changes to reduce tax paperwork, and eliminate the unfairness of haphazard administration in the collection of state income taxes, sales and use taxes, capital stock taxes and gross receipts taxes as they apply to interstate manufacturers and merchants.

"Of particular interest to the individual," Rodino said, "is the problem of overtaxation of hold goods. The committee found that people moving from one state to another often have to pay a sales tax before they can change the registration of their car and may also be subject to a tax on all household goods. We propose to eliminate the tax on goods brought into a state by new residents."

Rodino said the Subcommittee study showed that Congressional action "is necessary to reverse the present trend by which businesses are required to pay a whole range of taxes in every state where they sell goods. Our recommendations would have the effect of reducing the number of taxes which companies must pay without reducing state revenues."

Rodino said "cooperation of the federal government" will be made available to states adopting a uniform sales tax law. Such states will have the benefit of Internal Revenue Service audit- ing of interstate merchants for sales tax collections. For business the system would simplify compliance and eliminate costly separate audits by each state, while the states would receive sales taxes they cannot now collect.

The Newark Congressman emphasized that proposed changes "would not free interstate business from paying its way, but would make payment easier by cutting out needless paperwork."

He said "taxpayers have been found to be paying taxes to several states on the same net income, capital stock or gross receipts, as well as paying more than one sales or use tax on a single transaction."

To eliminate this double taxation, Rodino said, the committee recommended that all the states give a credit for taxes previously paid to another state.

Another recommendation would assure equal treatment of out-of-state businesses by prohibiting favored treatment for local taxpayers.

Proposals of the Special Subcommittee, Rodino said, have been approved by the parent

House Judiciary Committee and are now being drafted into legislation. He said the Subcommittee expects to hold hearings on the measure shortly after Congress reconvenes in January.

Children with vision problems involving poor distance vision often do not know that they cannot see as well as other children. The New Jersey Optometric Association states that sight is a personal experience, and it is difficult for a child to compare what he sees with what other children see.

Drivers Ronald Chernesky (1) and John Smith stand ready at their posts in the John Hawkins' fuel truck ports at 198 Park Avenue, Nutley. The company was started by the late John Henry Hawkins 72 years ago. At one time, part of the business was located in a large yard at the foot of the Passaic River. During those days coal reached Nutley by River barge, but rising tides and additional cuts caused the abandonment of the yard. The coal was then shipped by rail. When John Hawkins died in 1928 he left the business to his two sons, David and Martin Hawkins. The business is now carried on by Mrs. David Hawkins and her son John Hawkins. In addition to selling coal, coke and fuel oil, the establishment is active in oil burner sales, installation and service.

Playgrounds Introduce Handicrafts

This summer the Recreation Department departed rather abruptly from old methods in its handicraft program. Under the enthusiastic leadership of Handicraft Supervisor Mrs. Phyllis Serritella the playground children were introduced to many handicrafts forms that involved little or no expense but which were far more creative than in the past.

The emphasis on handicraft was shifted away from commercial items toward things like leathercraft (with leather donated by Federal Industries), wire craft (with colored wires donated by the Telephone Co.), beadcraft (with beads donated by the Sussex Plastic Co.), paper mache, balloon decorating, paper plate decorating, and soap decorating along with many other novel handicraft ideas.

The idea behind this is that handicraft should not be expensive and that the children should be offered skills that they may use long after the playground program is over.

A great deal of credit is due Phyllis Serritella for her leadership and the splendid job she did in organizing the Recreation Handicraft Display which was held at the Public Library.

The Playground Directors also must be commended for their cooperation and leadership as well as their contribution of ideas.

One of the innovations of this summer was the group handicraft projects in which each playground produced a large item with many children sharing in the work. This type of project produces a fine spirit of cooperation and group pride. Among the group projects were a giraffe, a group of sea creatures, a pig and others largely created out of paper mache.

Betty Beck Wins Play Day Award

Betty Ann Beck, of 37 Wilson Place, Belleville, has been awarded the Amos Alonzo Stagg Foundation Award as part of Play Day activities at Belleville Park on August 18.

Miss Beck was awarded a handsome gold medalion appropriately named "Century of Physical Fitness" for her demonstration of outstanding qualities of physical fitness, character, loyalty, and cooperation on the playground during the playground season which began on June 29. The Essex County Park Commission participated in the Stagg Foundation Award this year in an effort to promote physical fitness and call to the attention of county youngsters the wonderful contributions of the grand old man of the athletic world — Amos Alonzo Stagg, who died during the past year in his 103rd year. In the personality and character of Amos Stagg, America's greatest devotee of physical fitness, children can see a true symbol of American greatness which has been dedicated to youth all over the nation.

Ever combine canned tomato and celery soup?

Playground Champs

Clearwater Field was the site on August 25 of the Recreation Department's annual tournament of Champions Day.

All summer long the children on the various playgrounds have been competing in different events to determine playground champions.

As a result of the tournament there are now town-wide champions in the following events:

- Horseshoes, Steve Cosentino, Playground No. 4
- 100 yard dash, Bob Swineford, Clearman Playground
- Checkers, John McCarthy, No. 9 Playground
- Foul Shooting, Woody Douglas, No. 1 Playground
- Nok Hockey, Anthony Mandra, Clearman Playground
- Ping Pong, Kenneth Cifredello, No. 4 Playground
- Softball Throw, Joseph Esposito, Clearman Playground
- Kalah, Martha Weiss, Clearman Playground

Region Softball Tourney Opens Today in Newark

The annual Mid-Atlantic Regional Softball Tournament will open in Newark today, and run through Monday announces Nick Franciella, Newark Softball Commissioner.

The winner of the double-elimination tournament will compete in the World Softball Championships in Clearwater, Florida, late in September. All proceeds from the local tournament will be donated to the Boys' Clubs of Newark, Inc.

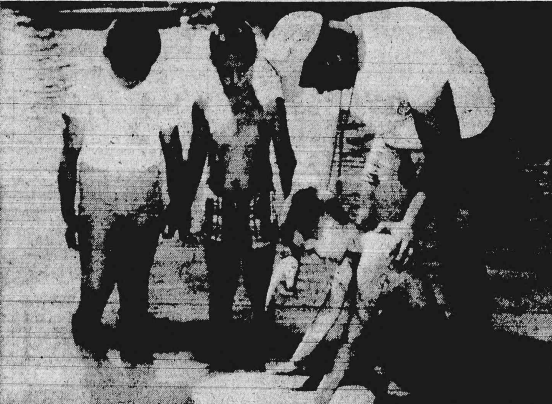

All games will be played at Untermyer Field on Chancellor Avenue, including a double header each evening beginning at 7 and 8:30 p. m. Championship teams from New York City, Rochester, Buffalo, Newark and New Jersey will participate in the regional tournament. Charlie's Long Bar of Newark is the host team for the tournament.

Many so-called "eye defects" found in children ten years ago are now considered a visual inability that proper care and guidance can overcome or circumvent, according to the New Jersey Optometric Association.

The New Jersey Optometric Association states that maladjustment to school and disciplinary problems at home are reasons to suspect vision problems.

BREAKS OWN RECORD — Ronald Kulik, a Belleville High School social studies teacher and a Nutley High School graduate, holds the trophy that he won while breaking his own New Jersey state record for the 10,000-meter walk by two minutes at Long Branch on August 29. Kulik adds this trophy to the collection of trophies and medals that surround him.

Kidde Has Variable Type Detection Unit on Market

An overhear fire detection system for regenerative air preheaters of boilers, that automatically adjusts alarm levels to variable conditions can be achieved. The temperature conditions, has been introduced by Walter Kidde & Company, Inc.

The new device, known as a Differential Overheat-Fire Detection System, also monitors the entire area near the inlet and outlet rotor surface of the preheater, permitting more reliable temperature sensing and detection of hazardous temperature changes as quickly than was previously possible.

The system utilizes strips of length thermistor material mounted in Inconel tubing, as opposed to older methods which use No. 1 Unit Hudson Generating thermocouple spot detectors. This Station of the Public Service Electric and Gas Co. of New Jersey surfaces of the preheater, say.

ADMINISTRATION

The Studio Workshop is under the Direction and Supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shell.

LORRAINE SHELL - an accomplished dance artist, has studied dancing most of her life. She has appeared professionally in many solo dance roles and is a member of the "Ballet Repertory Foundation." Mrs. Shell is a graduate of the "Dance Centre", has studied at the "National Academy of Ballet" under the direction of Thalia Mara, and is attending professional teacher training classes at the Ballet Academy which is directed by Fred Danielli. Lorraine possesses a most unusual grasp and understanding of the science of ballet technique. Her well organized classes are a credit to the dancing profession, exacting barre work with proper correction procedures enables her to bring the student to an amazing degree of professionalism. The choreography of adult dance sequences as well as her patience and understanding of children, have made the Studio Workshop the most successful school for the performing arts in the state.

RICHARD SHELL is recognized as one of the leading baton twirlers in the east. He has won numerous titles including "Eastern United States Champion" and the "Champion of Champions Award." His dazzling routines have thrilled audiences throughout the country. The Modern Jazz dancing classes are a favorite at the Studio; a satisfactory warm up session followed by creative jazz routines seem to bring out the best individual performance in his students. Mr. Shell has studied Modern Jazz with "Luigi" and Joe Castini and currently studies at the Ballet Academy. He has successfully taught twirling and jazz dancing for a number of years and his teaching methods are considered of the highest caliber. Mr. Shell has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in the field of education.

FIELD TRIPS When dancers perform in beautiful costumes, surrounded by wonderful scenery, to the accompaniment of fine music, then we see the art of organized dancing - then we see the ballet. A number of supervised trips including professional ballet performances are a part of the "Studio Workshop's" dance year. This is an extremely important factor in the development of the student's natural enthusiasm and the inspiration is invaluable in fostering a deeper appreciation of dancing.
