County Checks A Swap

Tax Assessment On Land Can't Be Filed Here

Essex County Board of Taxation will look into the matter of a short spur street in front of Wallace & Tiernan which was exchanged between the Highway Department and the company in 1963, and since has escaped taxation by both Belleville and Essex County.

The short street, in use as a parking lot by Wallace & Tiernan and sealed off with a "plant entrance only" sign, is reported to have been sold to the Highway Department for use as part of the new route 21, and was to have been vacated by June of 1964.

The title has not been transferred since 1963 and the property has still not been vacated. Lacking a sale or transfer of land, contract or transfer, neither is able to assess taxation on the property.

The Belleville Times and the Highway Department agree there is a contract of sale but no conveyance of title.

"The matter should be resolved," said Joseph Solimine, board secretary, and an attempt will be made soon to settle the matter after a meeting with the Town Council.

Peter Torre, town tax assessor, said the original town tax sale will be used until a determination is made by the two factions. There is no way of determining ownership without a deed, he observed.

But it isn't as dark as it seems, Torre observed.

"The town can always collect any omitted taxes assessments after ownership is established."

The matter was brought to the board's attention by letter from Councilman James R. Golden.

Belleville Man Leads Group To Atlantic City

Norman H. Thompson of Belleville, president of the Board of Realtors of Bloomfield, Glen Ridge, Nutley and Belleville, will lead a large delegation of local area Realtors to the 46th Annual Convention of the New Jersey Association of Real Estate Boards.

The Convention, which is one of the largest held in the United States, is expected to attract over 2500 Realtors and their associates to Atlantic City, Dec. 1-4.

Thompson, in addition to being president of the local Board is a Director of the 2700 Realtor Member New Jersey Association of Real Estate Boards, and as such he will participate in the annual business meeting of the Association.

The entire four-day meeting is dedicated to the advancement of the real estate industry. Every session will deal with a different facet which the professional real estate broker and salesman must be informed on if he is to provide the service that today's real estate transactions demand," said Thompson.

Among the many features which will be spotlighted at the convention will be a tax forum on the problems affecting property owners in New Jersey. According to Thompson, the taxation discussion will be particularly fruitful in view of the talk going on in the state for a long range solution to the real estate tax problem.

THE BIG JUMP: Curtis Smith (24) sails upward for a long pass during the BHS Kards game Saturday, but it shot past his outstretched fingertips and bounced ineffectively into the sidelines at Municipal Stadium. The Bell-

3 Injured On Rt. 21 Friday

Traffic was snarled for three miles and three persons were taken to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital Friday afternoon after their car jumped a dividing island on Route 21 near Mill Street.

The three were identified by Belleville Police Sgt. Robert Russomanno as Checkel E. Deutsch, driver of the car; and two passengers, Lea Greenfield, New York, 45, and Stella Dolecki, Elmhurst.

Deutsch of New York City, told Sgt. Russomanno he was in the fast southbound lane when a car passed, cut him off, and struck the right side of his car, forcing him across the island. Belleville Police and ambulance crews were unable to reach the scene of the accident, which took place shortly after 4 p.m. Friday, until Newark police had diverted traffic on Route 21 at Chester St.

Lucille Gallucci Learns It's More Fun To Teach Cadet Girl Scouts

Learning how to teach others can be fun more than 125 Senior and Cadette Girl Scouts discovered Thursday Nov. 11 at Summit Field, South Mountain Reservation, when they gathered for a Cadette Patrol Leaders' Field Day. Lucille Gallucci attended from Belleville.

Senior Girl Scouts, proficient in charcoal and reflector cooking, ceremonial fires, map making, compass reading, tent pitching and knot tying taught the Cadette patrol leaders how to teach these skills.

From Junior Girl Scouting up, Girl Scout troops are divided into patrols which are both work groups and also part of a system of self-government and girl planning.

'Shameful' President Charges

Durkee Scoffs At Estimation Of Commission

Ernest S. Arvidson, president of the Belleville Board of Education, said today Dr. Frank M. Durkee was guilty of "shameful misstatements" issued through Allen Crisp, chairman of the Fair Play Committee here, after reading last week's report of Durkee allies who asked that the probe into alleged misconduct in office be re-opened.

Crisp had reported members of the board, prominent citizens, and other interested parties had not been called for an appearance before the National Educational Association which made the investigation ending Oct. 20 after a four-day hearing.

The special five-member investigating committee, composed of out-of-state educators appointed by the NEA's Commission on Professional Rights and Responsibilities heard testimony for a day against the superintendent.

Leaders "Shocked" Crisp reported three former board members, three past leaders, and half-dozen teachers were never called to testify, although they had been listed by Durkee as persons who could support his position.

Due to a press deadline, Dr. Durkee's comments on this late story will be printed Monday, Nov. 22, as well as a rebuttal by Allen Crisp, whom Arvidson calls a "lackey" of Dr. Durkee.—Editor

"Civic leaders mentioned by Durkee," said Arvidson in a statement issued to The Belleville Times Tuesday afternoon, "were shocked that he should use their names in this manner."

The persons mentioned by Durkee, said Arvidson, had never requested the Commission give them an opportunity to appear in Dr. Durkee's behalf, explaining that even if they did appear, they would have nothing significant to contribute because of unfamiliarity with school affairs.

Reconciliation? These unnamed civic leaders, said Arvidson, were only interested in bringing about a reconciliation between Durkee and the school system.

Arvidson, who didn't name the persons contacted, said, they had confirmed that they had not requested to appear before the commission.

"That Dr. Durkee has lied to the Board of Education is an admitted fact," declared Arvidson. "That Dr. Durkee gave Board member falsified documents is an admitted fact. Dr. Durkee shows that incontrovertible evidence was given to the commission which clearly proves that Dr. Durkee was unprincipled, unethical, and untruthful."

"He now attempts to create doubt about the integrity of a highly qualified commission of his own professional peers of national stature in the field of education." (Continued On Page 15)

Rec Department Has Activities For All

Saturday, Nov. 20, the Recreation Department will open a veritable barrage of indoor activities for Belleville boys and girls. At the Friendly House a basketball clinic will begin for boys at 10 a.m. and will be under the able leadership of Pat Grosso. Although the program is aimed at boys of elementary school age, all are welcome.

Another boys basketball clinic will be conducted at the Junior High School starting at 10 a.m. on Saturday. The clinic will be led by Fred Ruteo and Mike Chieffo.

In the basketball clinics the participants are given fundamentals during part of the period and the rest of the period is given over to games.

For the girls, tumbling will begin at Number 7 School at 10 a.m. under the leadership of Miss Barbara Meola and Miss Lucille Soldo. Girls of eight years and over will be taught elementary tumbling, balance and calisthenics.

The second boys tumbling program is being shifted from the Junior High School on Mondays to Number 3 School on Saturdays and will be from 10 to 11:30 a.m. In the afternoon from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., at Number one school the gym will be open to boys of junior high age for open basketball. Bill Kartz will be in charge of the program.

And, of course, open basketball is conducted at the Junior High School on Saturday afternoon for young men of 15 years and older.

In the morning at Number One School Miss Meola and Miss Soldo will conduct a basketball clinic for girls of elementary and junior high school age. The clinic will be from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Because of the intense interest in girls tumbling a new group will be organized at School 4 in addition to the large group already functioning at School 7 on Wednesday evenings.

The new group will meet on Saturday mornings at 10 a.m. and will also be under the leadership of Miss Elaine Peda. This program will start Nov.

20, provided that the heat problems at the School 4 new all-purpose room has been solved. Should the problem still exist the program will begin on the first Saturday thereafter.

In addition to these activities the Recreation Department is planning to start girls Tumbling at School 4 and at School One as well as volleyball and several other activities if interest is shown.

Basketball Leagues are now being formed for junior high boys and girls, senior high boys and girls, and the men's league is already set to start play next week.

Junior Bowling is rolling at Olympic Bowl on Saturdays with the Boys Midget and Junior Leagues starting at 9 a.m. and the girls at 1 p.m.

Modern Day Artists To Display At The Library

"SELECTED WORK BY CONTEMPORARY NEW JERSEY ARTISTS, 1965," an exhibition of over 80 works, will open at the Newark Museum on Thursday, Nov. 18, and continue through Jan. 2.

The works in the exhibition have been selected by Mildred Baker, Associate Director, and William H. Gerdtz, Curator of Painting and Sculpture, after a review of the recent productions of a great many New Jersey painters and sculptors.

The exhibition will include works in a wide variety of media, including paintings in oil, watercolor, tempera and the new plastics, drawings, and prints, collage, assemblage and sculpture in both familiar and unusual styles and materials. Although the show will be smaller than the juried "biennials" previously held, it will probably contain the largest amount of contemporary professional New Jersey talent ever shown at the Museum. Purchases from the exhibition will be announced later.

Artists included in the exhibition have qualified because they live or work in New Jersey. Many famous names are included, ranging from veteran printmaker Lynd Ward and the distinguished New Jersey artists Ben Shahn, Lee Gatch through such well known younger artists as Carmen Gioero, Henry Niese, George Mueller and Anthony Triano. The sculpture section will be particularly strong and monumental. Among sculptors selected are Dorothea Greenbaum, Joseph Kosaj and George Segal.

It is interesting to note that Edmund Casarella and Worden Day, both well known in the field of printmaking, are now devoting themselves entirely to sculpture. It is hoped that some deserving unknowns may have brought to public notice through this exhibition, since one of its aims is to locate new talent. Among promising newcomers are the young realists Martin Lowenstein and Harry McCormick, "pop" artist Alex Sibiry and new constructionist Gary Kuehn. Most of the most interesting and advanced work being done in the State is connected with our universities and colleges.

In this group are Burt Wasserman at Glassboro State, Howard Goldstein at Trenton State, Tossun Bayrak at Fairleigh Dickinson and Elizabeth Korn at Drew. Reginald Neal, Robert Watts, John Goodyear and others at Douglass College are also engaged in experimentation with advanced forms of expression. There is a large representation of the teachers at the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Arts. Artists in residence, such as sculptor Herbert Ferber at Rutgers and painter Esteban Vicente at Princeton, are also included.

The show also reflects what might be a movement on the part of city artists to seek better studio space and a sampling of the "good life" in New Jersey. Veteran expressionist Franklin Watkins now lives in Loveland Harbor, "op" artist Richard Anusiewicz lives in Frenchtown, sculptor Sahi Swartz in Cliffside Park, sculptor Anthony Padovano in North Bergen and "op" construction maker Mary Buermpster has moved to Glen Ridge. Many other artists of recent residence are included in the show, which should prove a stimulating one.

Joseph Biancardi

Thanks to the Democrat party, Belleville at long last has a direct voice in Trenton.

A local citizen, Joseph Biancardi, was elected November 4 to a seat in the New Jersey Assembly.

Mr. Biancardi is a popular leader of organized labor and enjoys a national reputation. As a member of the New Jersey Assembly we are confident Mr. Biancardi will represent our community with honor, dedication and ability.

Mr. Biancardi has our best wishes for a successful term. In 1967 let us hope we can arrive at Election Day and say to Mr. Biancardi, "Well Done, One Good Term Deserves Another."

—FAO

Robert Yudin

Robert Yudin, member of a prominent local merchandising family, went down to defeat in his first attempt at public office.

Mr. Yudin was a GOP candidate for the New Jersey Assembly. He was snuffed under by an avalanche of votes that came tumbling down upon the weary, upright head of GOP gubernatorial candidate Wayne Dumont.

Mr. Yudin could not surmount the disadvantage of the Dumont candidacy and shared the same fate as some other well-qualified GOP office seekers.

For Mr. Yudin there will be another day — and another candidacy. He ran a fine, clean campaign. Mr. Yudin merits another try at public office.

Administration Vs. Administration

Belleville now has two separate administrations—the Board of Education's four members, and Superintendent Frank M. Durkee and three allied board members. They are at loggerheads.

The consequences are tension and hostility, divided authority, and doubt where accountability rests.

Board composition varies, but usually consists of unpaid lay members who are not trained in the business of running a school. Their most crucial responsibility is always the selection of the system's chief executive. Dr. Frank M. Durkee has been that man for some years now. He is a professional. It was not a poor selection as school administration will testify.

Belleville provides a good case history of the need to incorporate into law the division of board policy from professional administration. Four reforms are needed:

1. Relieve school boards of administrative functions, and transfer them to the superintendent.

2. Establish a screening procedure to determine suitability for board candidacy so the office seeks the man rather than the man the office — often with ulterior motives or at the behest of pressure groups, which are all too apparent at board meetings.

3. Abolition of the public vote on the school budget. Substitute budget hearings which will eliminate crank votes going against the entire budget because one is opposed to some single item.

4. Improve procedures for the selection of superintendents.

School boards have been getting deeper and deeper into the business of running the schools because of the lack of effective leadership among professional administrators, the superintendents and their staffs.

In Belleville Dr. Durkee has not been charged with poor administration. He is being investigated to see if he has provided poor administration.

For your answer, look at the Belleville school system.

Nature Must Obey Necessity

As Shakespeare's Gloucester says "We are not the first who, with best meaning, have incurred the worst." So today we repent.

In a fine fit of frustration at the plodding indecision that marks Town Council affairs, several residents here were described as "exhibitionists" for bedeviling councilmen with — shall we say "minor" problems? But subsequent examination of the topic revealed that two ladies in the audience have indeed served a worthwhile function at Town Hall.

They have kept our councilmen on their toes with probing questions. Because of them our elected officials have been forced to keep their antennae up. Municipal decisions — wise, foolish, or corrupt — come under their close scrutiny. It keeps councilmen cautious.

Mrs. Sally Hood and Mrs. Joan Barnes count the town's change after councilmen dole it out for services rendered, a duty which menfolk are often amiss. They have provided a much-needed checkrein in municipal government. Being relatively human, editors sometime err in a public duty they seldom shirk. In this matter The Belleville Times was in error.

Mrs. Hood, Mrs. Barnes; you will pick up your notebooks and come back to Town Hall? The town needs you down there.

—G.F.A.

Hail To The Opposition!

Individual children, unlike cake mixes, bring to class some highly personal ingredients with built-in limitations and an infinite variety of qualities which indicate success or mediocrity in later life.

Today, for the first time in years, we present Belleville High School's annual "school page," which is written by those sons and daughters you may have thought so childish last week. And in its columns you will find many indications of a successful future for our kids.

Of particular interest were the innocently fearless and bright-eyed observations on the "Practical Guide" issued to students at the junior high school recently. To we jaded adults, these charmingly candid opinions may seem funny. But to our kids a lengthy telephone call or the application of lipstick may be the difference between life or social death.

As we edited our way through their copy, for a short while we were children again, chaffing under good parental advice, which the "Guide" provides: Read what they've written and try to remember the days when you, too, were a teenager struggling your way into an adult-hood scheduled to arrive all too soon.

—G.F.A.

Why, It's Been A Great Summer!

War and rioting have not been the whole story this summer; not at all. Central Park's New York Philharmonic concert attracted audiences of 70,000 persons. Summer schools experienced a record enrollment. Beaches were jammed. There was plenty to be cheerful about this past summer.

For instance, there are no poisonous reptiles in Belleville. Pierre Salinger had three jobs. George C. Wallace did not succeed himself as governor of Alabama under the state's constitution. The minimum balance permissible at the new Banque Continental, which opened in New York last month, will be $25,000 (When! Just made it!).

Rep. Roy H. McVicker (D-Colo.) introduced in the Congressional Record the following commentary on the Watani, the Frug, the Jerk, and other new dances;

"Far from being wanton sex gyrations to tom-tom jungle music, as shocked blues-noses would have us believe, these new dances re-echo the origins of Old World formal dances in which the ladies and courtiers danced opposite each other in perfect time and motion without touching even a fingertip."

Still, it has been hard to find a silverlining in every cloud. Draft calls were doubled. A Gallup Poll reported 37 per cent of those interviewed could see no difference in the way the Democrats and the Republicans handled major problems. President Johnson said, "You fellows know what a star is? That's a bull who's lost his social standing."

Without a sense of humor, how could we endure what President Eisenhower used to call "these troublous (sic) times?"

Well, At Least Someone Up There Likes Us . . .

To The Editor: Times-News:

I have never written to a newspaper before so I hope you will please print my first one. (And probably last one!)

At a PTA meeting last week we mothers got on the topic of our town paper, The Belleville Times. It is much brighter and more readable and interesting than it ever has been. And the pictures are clearer, too.

The main thing we agreed on was that all the political gossip was gone and good riddance! It made our paper so one sided. We noted it didn't take Mr. Adams long to find out what a disgrace they are.

It is nice to have a reporter like Mr. Adams who apparently cares for more people than just those in Town Hall. Now we read about our children and football games, and the band, and columns like the big newspapers.

(We especially enjoy Smoke Signals.)

The editorials are strong and not wishy-washy and I'm sure they make people think as well as squirm a little. I, for one, feel like I know what is going on in town now.

Keep up the good work.

A PTA Mother
(A letter like this recharges my moral batteries after listening to some of the people a newspaper deals with. Thank you, Madam! — Editor).

To His Many Friends

To The Editor, Belleville Times: May I take this opportunity to thank the people of Belleville — the Belleville Times — for its support during the recent election which won me a seat on the Essex County Assembly.

And to all the loyal and hard working friends who spent many hours on my behalf, I say a heartfelt Thank You! I will always be best to protect the best interests of Belleville and Essex County. I am sure that with the backing you have given me, we will make great strides in the years that lie ahead.

Again I say, Thank You for your support.

Guarantee A Happy Christmas, She Asks

To The Editor, The Times: Do you know that Christmas has two sides — an Outside and an Inside?

The OUTSIDE of Christmas is made up of many things . . . the Christmas Tree — The Holy Wreath — the mistletoe — the toys in the stores that bring a special sparkle to children's eyes. It's you decorating the house — the garly wrapped presents beneath the tree — the family, all bundled, going to church.

The OUTSIDE of Christmas is brilliant with color, from Santa Claus in his red suit . . . to the golden brown turkey on the Christmas Day table.

You can also hear the OUTSIDE of Christmas — the ringing of Church bells — the singing of carols that never grow old — the laughter of children — the voices of people, strangers and friends, with their "Merry Christmas" greetings.

This is the OUTSIDE of Christmas — but — none of it would exist, were it not for the INSIDE of Christmas . . . for the INSIDE of Christmas is the Spirit of Christmas. When Christmas gets inside of you — you get inside of Christmas.

The INSIDE gives meaning to the OUTSIDE. It gives you a little more understanding of your daily responsibilities — and causes you to be a little more anxious to make the joy of Christmas a year around experience.

The INSIDE of Christmas also causes you to realize how much your family depends upon your safety to bring happiness to them. You can give your family an extra present this year by giving more thought to safety.

Make certain your home, your family and yourself are safe through this Holiday Season by checking every detail to see that nothing can possibly cause an injury to them or to you.

Enjoy both sides of Christmas and never forget . . . it's the spirit . . . not the "spirits" that make a safe and happy Christmas.

Be Happy

Be Safe

What's The Source Of This Morning Noise?

To The Editor, Belleville Times:

Do you or your readers know the source of the loud, illegal noises that poison our Belleville air each morning commencing about 5 a.m.?

For many months the writer, and I suppose many other citizens, have been disturbed by this raucous, enervating sound; and frustrated that I cannot guess at the offending sources. Could it be a very long train rolling by?

No, because once started, the sound continues until dawn. Hours later by the other sounds of daily work. Could it be one of the factories "down in the Valley"? Perhaps, I have passed by them at daytime hours and heard their nerve-shattering noises with dismay — but at 5 a.m.?

It is the airport? That seems too far away. Is it airplanes — overhead? No — these come and go, but the noise goes on continuously — like a factory next door; or an automobile motor in the house.

We have a town sound ordinance which prohibits unnecessary loud noises during nighttime hours. However, this ordinance is almost impossible to enforce.

I have tried it, and found that without expert testimony, and a decibel meter and decibel reader, and all the concomitant evidence procedures, the courts will not be convinced of the complainant's story. Yet, it is important to our health and sanity that these culprits be punished; that the sounds be subdued, and eliminated during prohibited hours.

Am I alone with this complaint?

I offer a reward to anyone who will provide the necessary evidence as to the identity of the culprits who threaten our health and enjoyment of life, with their offensive practices, and will help in their prosecution.

Our politicians are undoubtedly aware of this offensive situation, but do nothing about it. Our Board of Health is worse than useless in this situation — it not only does not investigate complaints properly, but puts obstacles in the way of prosecution.

There is a remedy for every wrong. I am prepared to do whatever is necessary to try to end this misery and clean up the Belleville air. If new and stronger laws are necessary, they should be enacted. If less moribund civil servants are called for; I am ready to work on that too — but I need help. I must first know the identity of this and have evidence necessary to convict.

Who will help?

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

It took us several days to recover from the blow of the black out. We knew immediately, of course, that there was trouble with the stations, although we had no idea about the extent of the power failure.

Our 2 telephone lines rang incessantly until late at night. The operator cut in once in a while, indicating that many more people were trying to reach us. We finally told the operator of the telephone company to inform the people about the failure.

Most people twisted and turned all the buttons and knobs and dials they could reach on the TV set in an effort to get pictures. Some could not adjust the sets correctly again the next day and we had so many calls, that we were unable to handle them all in one day. Although everyone of our technicians went out. For a couple of days we did not do any bench work, all the bench mechanics went out on calls also. Of course, we took those calls where there was no picture at all first and all these calls had been taken care of in one day. Many sets were just out of adjustment, not enough brightness or contrast, black lines on the side or top, and all the other difficulties. These complaints were taken care of on successive days. We worked early and late and we were glad, when everything was back to normal. Many people complained about not being able to see their usual TV programs. We have every reason to be glad that this section was spared the inconvenience and confusion of a power failure. It is hoped that the cause will be found and steps taken to avert a repetition of such an occurrence.

When The Jaycee Pageant Opens Nov. 28, Joyce Rozek Will Be There

Belleville Girl May Be A Winner During Nutley Contest on School Stage

When those Nutley Jaycees open their annual Essex County Junior Miss Pageant Nov. 28 at the Nutley High School auditorium, one of the shining lights will be Joyce Rozek, a pretty 17-year-old blonde from Belleville High School.

Joyce is not only nice to look at, she has a solid list of academic accomplishment behind her.

For instance she is (take a deep breath) one of nine among some 420 BHS students who are in the top bracket as scholars; she is a twirler and a member of the BHS production of "Guys and Dolls" due Nov. 18, 19, and 20 at the high school; and last year Joyce was a member of the National Honor Society, a hard thing for a junior to achieve, and last year she also managed to win the art and essay contest at Holy Family Church, which she attends, and is a cultural advisor at the same church.

The 5 foot 4 blonde will do a refashion during the pageant and display a self-portrait as proof of her artistic talent.

Joyce is not new at the matter of coming in first at contests of varying importance while an eighth grader at School 7, she was Miss Valentine.

And the way she's going, Joyce could very easily make Belleville proud by winning the pageant next week.

The Essex County Junior Miss Pageant will be enhanced by the appearance of Miss Joan Murray, Mistress of Ceremonies and System. During the New York newspaper strike, Joan appeared at 1 p.m. on the Channel 2 News Extra With Peter Hyams. Strikingly attractive, young, and (according to her critics) "unusually personable," Joan, as judged by one of the major daily newspapers, "has a lifting sense of humor and is blessed with a pleasant speaking voice."

Joan began her career in broadcasting as a secretary in the CBS Television Network Press Information Department in 1959, and worked as a production secretary to "Candid Camera" producer, Allen Funt.

During the spring of 1964, she became an on-the-air interviewer, hostess, and writer as well as

Anthony Rufolo Is Semi-finalist In National Merit Scholarships

By CAROL SPALLETTA

Anthony Rufolo, BHS senior, has been named a 1965-66 Merit Scholarship semi-finalist. The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test was administered nationwide last March in over 17,600 schools. More than 14,000 semi-finalists have been selected production assistant with Kitty Carlisle on NBC's "Women on the Move." Before joining Channel 2 News as the result of a successful audition, which she wrote herself, Joan spent four months traveling in Europe.

Sandy Contella is a Floridian from Orlando. Starting in February, 1962, he initiated, wrote, produced and emceed his own weekly bandstand program - "The Sandy Contella Show" syndicated throughout the South.

was an active participant of the Political Science Club last year. Anthony was the recipient of the physics award as the "Best BHS Physics Student", and the Latin award last June.

Finalists in the test will be selected on the bases of a second examination and recommendations by their respective schools. All Merit Scholars will be selected from the finalist group.

A further student evaluation will include proof of high school grades, creative accomplishments and leadership qualities.

Each Merit Scholarship is a four-year award covering the college undergraduate years and values $700 to a maximum of $16,000 for the four years.

ANTHONY RUFOLO

Winners may apply to the Colleges of their choice and select their own courses. Names of the Merit Scholarship winners chosen from among the finalists will be announced about April 27, 1966.

Drivers Panic Offs

Winter drivers should keep a cool head at all times. Driver panic is prime factor in many sliding mishaps. You can overcome that "helpless" feeling when your car starts to skid by avoiding sharp turns of the steering wheel and by turning steadily in the direction of the skid. Resist any impulse to jam on the brakes. It may only increase the force of the skid.

Devon Electric Upset Ends With 7-6 Score

The upset of the season was engineered by an inspired Devon Electric team as they became the only team to win over the powerful Jolly Cleaners in the Recreation Heavyweight Football League last week.

The game was tight all the way and both teams played magnificent ball. One point after touchdown was the difference in this 7-6 ball game. Devons came up with a defense that contained the Jollys holding them to their lowest score of the season.

In another tight game the American Legion eked out a 21-19 victory over a very hard fighting Airco Plastics team. The boys on the team of Airco played great ball and were scrapping very scrappy Kiwanis team. This game was scoreless during the first half but the Lions began grinding out the yardage in the second half.

In the other Lightweight game the Varsity avenged a first round loss to the Elks by squeezing out a 7-0 win.

Standings among the Lightweights are Lions 5-0, Varsity 2-12, Elks 2-3, and Kiwanis 0-14. These teams are all so closely balanced that there can be no predicting the outcome of any game.

right to the games end. These two games really opened the Heavyweight League up and if the American Legion can take the newly supercharged Devon Electric, and if the front running Jolly Cleaners should drop their last game to the Airco Plastics Products, then we would find the season ended in a 4-2 tie between the Legion and the Jollys.

With one game left in the season the teams stand Jolly Cleaners 4-1, American Legion 3-2, Devon Electric 2-3, and Airco Plastics 1-4.

The Lions continued their winning ways in the Lightweight League as they got rolling in the second half to defeat the

Boglione, Grigonis, And Saunders Lead Meet, With McCarthy Close

By WILLIAM MCARTHY

The BHS cross country team gave Columbia a powerful upset Friday after taking third place in the county meet which Columbia had won.

It was Columbia's only loss of the season as Belleville joined the undefeated teams in the Big Ten Conference. Belleville's overall 12-1 record is tops in New Jersey. They now have a 12 game winning streak after losing to Passaic during the first meet.

Bob Boglione set a new record for the most points (personal) scored by a Belleville runner. During the past season Boglione scored 85 points for more than his nearest competitor.

Rich Zoller scored in 196.

The reason for this great score is quite simple: He has placed first in every meet the team has won. He added another first against Columbia with Dave Grigonis running a flashy third (the missed second place by only a few seconds).

Don Saunders came in fifth, Bill McCarthy sixth, and Frank Millano and Don Johnson 12th and 13th.

The meet showed once again how four powerful runners could make up for a not-so-powerful fifth. The score of the four men when combined is 45. The final score of the meet, however, showed Belleville just nosing out Columbia 27-30.

There is little to be said about such a terrific team, but this might do.

Congratulations for a Job Well Done!

Muddy Bellboys Hang On For 9-6 Win; Kearney Attempt Dies At 6

BHS Outlasts Kards On A Muddy Field, We're Now Up 6-4

By STEVE CHAREN

That resounding crash which shook Belleville last Saturday afternoon probably came after the Bellboys shot down Kearney's high-flying Redbirds by 9-6 — on the other hand it may just have been the Cardinals' heart breaking in two.

After allowing Belleville to jump ahead to a first quarter 9-0 lead on a safety and TD, Kearney completely dominated play. During the last three periods, the Kard defensive machine that had held Belleville scoreless for the past two years allowed the Blue and Gold no first downs and possession for only 12 of 55 plays plus four punts. Meanwhile, the hard-driving Kearney attack was playing a vicious ball control game, running 81 plays.

A Close One
Late in the final quarter, the Cardinals almost pulled off the upset as they drove from their own 25 to the Bellboy six yard line with a minute left to play. Throughout this 14 play march, they were held to a total of 21 yards. The drive was held to one yard in the second quarter, Kearney rolled from its own 20 to a score in 10 plays in a minute and a half. The key to the belated drive was Henry who threw a 22 yarder to Tom Schanz early in the march before capping it with an 18 yarder to Trongone at the 19 yard line and a 19 yard TD toss to Trongone just inside the goal line.

Turning Point
What was probably the deciding factor came next as Burdull's attempt for the extra point sailed wide to the right. Undoubtedly if the score had been 9-7, Kearney would have gone to the field goal late in the game; the odds are they would have made it too.

This was an odd game, in that there were no fumbles despite the sloppy conditions, no interceptions, no Belleville cheerleaders or half-time show thanks to the mud, and most of all only 10 yards in penalties against the Bellboys. Belleville's record against Kearney in recent duels is now 2-1-1, but after the game it's obvious that somebody up there must like the Bellboys.

Another Step Up
It was a hard fought game all the way, but apparently the victorious Bellboys fought just a little harder when it counted. The win brought Belleville's record to 6-2 as Kearney fell to the 4-3 mark.

Charles Reed was again the backbone of the Bellboys attack — what little there was of it — going in 19 times, while an accurate Frank Mineo clicked on 3 of 4 passes for 33 yards.

Meanwhile Trongone was leading Kearney with 81 of their 107 yards rushing in 19 carries besides hauling in four passes for 36 of their 85 yards in the airways. Trongone will be back next year along with Rauson, who went 25 yards in eight tries and Henry, who completed 3 of 3 losses for 50 yards and Kearney's lone score.

What a devastating offensive machine Kard coach Don Wernes (of Newark Bears fame) should have next year.

Black Did It
The only thing that kept the Bellboys out in front was the determined last ditch offensive efforts that stopped long Kard drives at the six, 28, and 35, and the five punts of Mike Mateka. Offensively, after the first quarter, the muddy Bellboys bogged down and were contained inside their own 39 yard line.

Just as has been the case so many times, Belleville started off like a house on fire before dying down. After marching 51 yards with the opening kick-off, Mateka's first punt put Kearney in a hole at the five.

Four plays later from the ten, the Cardinals lined up to punt. Here Burdull made his only miscue of a brilliant day as he sent the snap over John Miller's head and into the end zone. With a gang of Bellboys closing in on the ball, Mills fell on it — and Art Connolly and Bob Druther fell on him for a safety.

The Kards were forced to kick off from the 30. Ron Tomaszewski returned the boot 17 yards to the visitors 43 and Belleville was on the move for the last time of the day.

A Sick Mineo

THAT GASTLY LOOKING thing in the midst of three of our mighty fishermen is a "head-fish" — for want of a better name. Michael Nicolette, 13, at left, James Little, 13 (who said "It's beautiful!"), and John Amann, 13, at right, brought the fish into the office last week after catching it near the Shark River inlet. JV's Now 5-2 After A West Orange Victory; Sophs Beat Columbia

By STEVE CHAREN

An inspired goal line stand in the closing seconds of a muddy defensive battle held off a late West Orange threat and preserved the Bellboy Junior Varsity's four game winning streak, 7-0.

The now 5-2 Junior Bellboys are rolling along after a slow start to become one of the best JV squads in BHS history. They couldn't have picked a better time either, with a senior dominated Varsity above them.

Fullback Mike Welsh provided all the scoring punch needed in the game by rambling 75 yards early in the second quarter. The burst came when a Cowboy linebacker "stunned" the wrong way, and guard Dave Jones and mammoth tackle sophomore Lou Della Tezza opened up a hole that was literally big enough to drive a truck through.

After that the defense minded Bellboy Juniors concentrated on holding the Cowboys in check. With just minutes remaining, the JV's were almost tied when a blocked punt gave West Orange its deepest penetration at the 25. When a clutch four down scramble clicked, the Bellboys found West Orange, with a first and goal situation.

Two plays later the Cowboys were at the one, but the determined Blue and Gold line of ends Armando Conte and Mike Mateka, tackles Sam Calabria and Aiello set up the tally with a pair of long gainers, but Greg Kostowitz went over for the score from the one. Greg then passed to Joe Shelesky for the decisive extra point.

The key to the soph's success has to be attributed to their strength in numbers. Cocchiola has been able to hold together a 30 man squad as compared to the 14 men unit of a year ago.

Five of the sophs have also played for the JV's, with three of these seeing varsity action.

Dogs Get Best Treatment
Looking at it one way, perhaps motorists should treat pedestrians like dogs. Even the most hardened driver will show some reluctance to strike a dog or some other animal. Usually, they don't want to hit pedestrians either, but many drivers assume that pedestrians are better able to look out for themselves. This is not always the case.

Meanwhile the best Sophomore Team in Belleville's history was edging Columbia 7-6 for their fourth win against one defeat and a pair of ties.

The rugged sophs gave away six points when the opening kick-off was returned 80 yards for a score. Mario Cocchiola's troops then battled back, finally scoring in the third quarter.

BHS Trackmen Win Third Race In A Season That Was Great

Belleville's Cross Country team, this time was good enough to give him the new County race record, although he ran some four seconds off his record for the course. His 12:10.2 set in the Big Ten was the fastest time for Branch Brook Park.

Other than this highlight, Belleville had a somewhat bleak showing. Bill McCarthy ran 14th in the race, with Don Saunders following right behind in 15th place. Frank Millano ran 42, Don John son took 50, Al Freda 48, and Gerard Figurelli 68.

If Dave had run — assuming that he would have done about well enough to take sixth — the team score would have been 78 instead of the 122 which gave BHS third place. Considering the fact that first place was won by Columbia with a 92 score, a 72 would have given Belleville a run-away victory instead of a third place.

Bogione took the first place medal. Bill McCarthy received the 40th place medal, and Don Saunders one for 50th. The team (Continued On Page 15)

If this is a Station Wagon, this must be something else.

All right, students, here's today's lesson in Volkswagen logic.

Everyone knows that a real station wagon looks like a bus, right?

So everything else must be something else, right? Good. That's settled.

Now, the "something else" in question is the Volkswagen Squareback Sedan.

We call it the Squareback because that's what it is: a squared-off sedan that gives you lots of extra space that other sedans don't.

But the differences between the two are tremendous: The bus carries people (9) or things (170 cubic feet). No other station wagon comes anywhere near it.

The Squareback carries people or things, too. But not as many (15) and not as much (42.4 cubic feet).

Basically, the Squareback is a sedan. And basically, a Volkswagen.

The engine is more powerful, but it's still in back and still air-cooled.

Every other well-known Volkswagen vehicle is there, too. Plus a few of its own like disc brakes that just ones I well known yet.

The Squareback is just this car for people who want a Volkswagen with more space, more power and nothing more. But the best is still the box for people who want nothing less.

Brook Trout Ready For Our Fishermen

Brown and brook trout destined for the creels of New Jersey anglers in 1967 have started life at the Charles O. Hayford State Fish Hatchery of the Division of Fish and Game in the Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

The process of taking and fertilizing trout eggs began on Oct. 16 for brown trout and Oct. 26 for brook trout. Rainbow trout females are usually ready to produce eggs in late November. Development of a strain of early-spawning rainbows from eggs recently secured from the Greenwalk Trout Hatchery in Bangor, Penna., may result in this species becoming the first to spawn in future years.

Ground spices retain their flavor better in freezer storage than on warm cupboard shelves.

Teenagers Opinion Vary On The 'Guide'

By CAROL SPOLLETTA

On Nov. 4, 1965, a booklet entitled "A Practical Guide for Junior High School Students" was distributed to the student body at Belleville Junior High School. The booklet, depicting what the general behavior and dress of the students should be, has made a definite impression upon students and teachers alike. These are the opinions of several Junior High School students and faculty members in relation to its proposed effectiveness:

Seymour Grossman, principal of Belleville Junior High School said:

"This guide will serve both parents and students in reaching an understanding of what one can expect from the other. If both make an attempt to abide by these rules and regulations, I am sure there will be a keener interest in what each is doing."

"One must have respect for the other. This is one thing the booklet sets out to accomplish. 'Some students need stringent regulations; others know what they can do. It is hoped that this booklet will serve the best interests of our community, and that Belleville will continue to be listed among the best communities in New Jersey.'"

Mario Di Maggio, vice principal of the Junior High, was a consultant on the formulating committee. He feels that this guide was edited by lay people to supplement the Junior High School handbook which was distributed to all students in September.

This booklet should be accepted as a supplement. "I cannot see anyone thinking that the guide is too strict or that we've overdone all areas," he said. "A guide to each individual grade group would be too long and too cumbersome. Certain specifications have been made, however, in regard to such areas as dating."

We tried to give parents a guide so that they don't have to answer 'Tommy's doing it' or 'Susie's doing it!' The parents have something to refer to. If a few parents and students accept this guide, then its task has been accomplished."

Lee Mostello, secretary at the Junior High School stated: "I feel that the rules set forth in this book could be very beneficial to our society if the parents and the school enforce them, and the students are wise enough to abide by them — not taking them as criticism."

James Donovan, Latin teacher at both the Junior and Senior High Schools, felt that the committee which organized the pamphlet showed genuine concern for the youth of Belleville. However, Mr. Donovan also said that religious leaders of the community should have been included on the formulating committee.

Maria Mitucci (8th grade) felt: "What's wrong with dating? If a boy likes you and you like him, I don't see anything wrong with it. The way they say it in the book they think you're going to get married. We aren't really dating now anyway. We're just talking on the phone and going on group dates. They used to do it in their time too."

Stephen Appolina (7th grade) concluded: "Girls should be able to wear a little make-up for having their pictures taken in school, and on special occasions. The dangling jewelry, however, should be banned because its distracting."

Nancy Valentinsson (9th grade) No one's going to listen to it. The kids thought it was stupid. It isn't right because they shouldn't tell us what to do. I find it hard to limit my phone calls to ten minutes. Sometimes I have to get homework assignments."

"The ninth graders should get more freedom. We actually high school students and should receive more privileges."

John Cancelosi (8th grade): "Some things in the booklet are pretty good, but some things — like the 10-minute limit on the telephone — are bad. Sometimes you might be stuck on an assignment and you need more than 10 minutes to get it straightened out. No phone calls after 9 p.m. — this is ridiculous. Suppose you have to use the phone and its after 9 p.m. Are you supposed to wait until the next day?"

"Other things in the booklet were alright. The 9:30 p.m. curfew isn't too early for school nights."

Marilyn Verrico (9th grade): "It's stupid. The kids were all mad. Ninth graders should be allowed to wear make-up and jewelry. At 14, I think they are old enough to go on dates."

"Telephone calls should be between a half hour and 45 minutes. That's how long I talk. It takes me five minutes to dial the number."

"Parties should be from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m. and smoking should be allowed for those whose parents permit it."

Michael Appolina (8th grade) summed up: "In a way it was good-staying out until 9:30 p.m. is O.K., and drinking and smoking are bad for your health."

Teen Of The Week Is Robert DePass

Our first Teen of the Week for the 1965-66 school year is senior Robert DePass.

Bob is tall, blond, and quiet, with a subtle sense of humor. He drives a two-tone 1967 Bel Air. Anyone might simply mistake Bob for an average teenager, but he is not.

Bob has been active in Belleville High since his freshman year. In addition to maintaining a high scholastic average, Bob is kept occupied by a well-rounded schedule of activities. He attended New Jersey Boy's State at Rutgers in New Brunswick this past summer. He is also pre-

Mr. Sal Teaches Students To Talk

Michael Salzarullo has been a member of Belleville High School's Language Department and has taught Spanish for the past seven years. He attended Montclair High School and received his Bachelor of Arts Degree at Upsala College, and achieved his Masters Degree at Seton Hall University.

"Mr. Sal" has previously taught at St. Luke's High School in Hoboken, and at Rahway State Prison where he taught Spanish and other subjects to the inmates of high school maturity.

"Mr. Sal" is involved in many student activities and is advisor to the Junior Senate and the Spanish Club, and coaches both the golf and bowling teams. He enjoys working with them. While all activities make work, it is still rewarding to see kids sacrifice time for school.

"Mr. Sal's" outside interests include golf and bowling. He is a member of the Faculty Bowling Team and is proud of his 196 average. Being an avid golfer, he is equally proud of his golfing scores which average in the high 20's.

Bob hopes to attend Annapolis and major in engineering. His desire to enter a service academy could possibly be expressed by his belief that the recent draft card burners "couldn't be more wrong."

"These people have been given a land of freedom and opportunity, and the one real way a young man has to defend this liberty is by serving in the armed services," he said. "By burning their draft cards, they are only showing that they value their own safety above the liberty and security which could be established for everyone else."

BHS Students Embark On A Record Building Collection Of Records

By CAROL SPOLLETTA

Belleville High School this week embarked on a "Music For Our Schools" program. Its aim is to build the school's record collection and to provide the school with phonograph equipment for playing the records.

The announcement was made by Ralph Correll, Director of Student Activities at BHS, who said the program, under the auspices of the RCA Victor Record Club, will be carried out between now and Nov. 30.

Under the plan, students of BHS will canvass the city enrolling new members in the RCA Victor Record Club. For each new member subscribed, the student will earn two long playing records for the school library and two for himself while the new member enrolled will receive full benefits of membership.

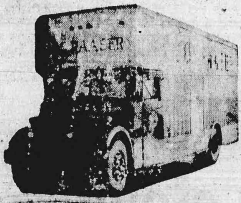

"If students enroll no more than 30 new members," Correll said, "they will earn as much as $1,150 in records, half for the school and half for themselves."

Membership credits also can be built up for the purchase of phonograph equipment for the school and also for the student's personal use.

Records for school and student can be chosen from more than 2,000 albums listed in the RCA Victor catalog of recordings by the world's greatest artists.

There is no limit to the number of memberships enlisted by students, Correll added. "We have urged every student to work on the project so that Belleville High can build a fine record library and acquire enough additional credits for a new stereophonic phonograph upon which to play it."

DOLLAR VALUE-PLUS

In an emergency the value of medicine can hardly be reckoned in dollars. Medicine is priceless when needed.

Yet it is an interesting fact that nationally the average cost of a pharmaceutical prescription is about $2.50 — and more than half of all prescriptions cost less than $2.00. Although higher than 20 years ago, the increase in the cost of medicine lags far behind that of other, and less essential, commodities.

When you purchase a prescription you are sharing in the fruits of scientific research. You are getting today's best buy.

Steve Charen

IT'S TIME NOW to play the ever popular "rating game." Last week the highly respected Saylor Ratings of Dr. William B. Saylor appeared in the Newark News, while the Star-Ledger printed its weekly Top 15 Poll. The contradictions between these two systems show their idiosyncrasy.

According to Dr. Saylor, big Garfield was New Jersey's premier team after seven games while the Ledger put the Boilermakers in the eleventh spot. Sid Dorfman says Perth Amboy is the best despite its 10th place Saylor rating. Obviously both systems can't be even close to being valid with such discrepancies.

With these systems in mind Belleville was rated number 12 in the News and not at all in the Ledger.

HAVING HAD a good chuckle after comparing the two groups of ratings, this department set out to rate New Jersey's scholastic grid powers on its own. The major criteria in the first "Charen Ratings" were the team's record and the strength of its opponents. Going on the principles that one upset does not a season make, and that comparative scores are too deceiving for comparison it quickly became obvious that the rating game wasn't as easy to play at it had appeared.

Finally (after much deliberation) checking, figuring, and re-checking, the following slate emerged. After the school name is given the record for the seven week rating period (which does not include last Saturday's games) an "N" number for their News rating, and an "L" number for the Ledger rating.

7 WEEK CHAREN RATINGS

1. Garfield (6-1) N-1, L-11
2. Perth Amboy (5-0-1) N-2, L-10
3. Montclair (5-1-1) N-2, L-6
4. Passaic (6-1) N-3, L-10
5. Jefferson (6-1) L-4, N-7
6. East Orange (5-2) N-4, L-0
7. Westfield (7-0) L-2, N-5
8. Belleville (5-2) N-12, L-0
9. Union (6-1) L-3, N-0
10. Pascack Valley (7-0) L-5, N-0
11. North Bergen (5-0-2) L-8, N-9
12. North Plainfield (6-1) N-11, L-0
13. New Brunswick (6-1) N-14, L-15
14. South Plainfield (7-0) N-6, L-13
15. Bergen Catholic (6-0) N-8, L-9

AS WE SAID the main factor in sorting out these assorted football powers was the challenge provided by opponents. The top teams all had week after week of upset-hunting powers on their schedule.

Up at the top, there was a virtual tie among the top three teams with very little separating them. Garfield with a host of rugged foes behind them and their only loss coming by a single point edged out Perth Amboy by a hair breadth. Right on the leader's heels came Montclair with one of the roughest schedules in the state.

Passaic with only an upset loss to Clifton marring its record and a 20-19 win over Garfield to its credit was close behind as the only other team with a rating of over 4.00.

Jefferson, with only a loss to Union hurting their standing, edged out East Orange for the next spot. The Panthers near upset of Montclair and impossible schedule accounted for their lofty position.

That brings us to the "favorite son" candidate — the Bellboys. Having downed five middle to low rated opponents wouldn't have brought as high a standing as eighth if taken alone, but coupled with a near win over first-ranked Garfield (13-7) despite some 100 yards in penalties and a last minute fumble-spurred loss to powerful East Orange (21-14), Belleville has pretty impressive credentials.

A Union squad that is fast losing its momentum and undefeated Pascack Valley with a 2-4-5 rating round out the top ten. After the remaining five rated teams comes Fair Lawn, Neptune, and Berkeley Heights bucking to make the grade.

On the basis of brutal schedules or outstanding record, honorable mention goes to (in alphabetical order) Clifton, De Paul, Essex Catholic, Phillipsburg, Scotch Plains, Seton Hall, and Willingboro.

Taking "tongue out of cheek", let's proceed to the team at hand.

THURSDAY MORNING QUARTERBACK: Kearny gave the Bellboys hope for the second best season in their grid history quite a scare by marching to inside the Blue and Gold ten during the closing seconds of Saturday's game. When the Cardinals reached the seven for third down, needing three yards for a first, the determined Bellboys went into their "goal line" defense and held two runs a few feet short of a first on sheer guts.

Seconds later when the Bellboys ran out of downs with 11 seconds remaining in the game, the decision was almost made by coach Tony Testa to give the Kards a safety for a 9-8 score. That play coupled with the ensuing kick-off would almost surely have run out the clock.

A communications breakdown to the "time-out-less" huddle prevented this move, though, and junior Mike Mateyka just barely got off his fifth punt of the day.

SIDE LIGHTS: Kearny threw every thing but the kitchen sink at the Bellboys while using just about every formation available, including numerous variations of the "I", the single-wing, straight-T, flanker, slot back, and full-house formations.

Kard coach Don Wernes, a former Newark Bear full-back, had his boys running with the vengeance of pros while relying mainly on the blocking techniques Wernes had picked up as an assistant-coach to former Coach Baldwin of Bloomfield.

HERO DEPT: Joe Veneziano turned in a brilliant game both defensively and offensively while going two ways for the first time all season. Big Joe switched sides with Bob Drutner at defensive tackle to help balance the unit.

Veneziano also solved the Bellboys long standing problem of a weak left side on the offensive line. Teaming with Jim Luty on the left, Veneziano gives Belleville

Harrier Trials Go To Bellevilles' Boglione

Despite a cold and a fall early in the races at Warinanco Park in Elizabeth Nov. 13, Bob Boglione led the way in the North Jersey Section II cross country trials.

Boglione, a senior at Belleville, won the 2 1/2 mile course, but "Bob" put on a spurt of speed that left Frazier trailing by 25 yards during the final furor. Frazier, During the Essex County meet, he was some 250 yards behind Boglione.

One of the most enjoyable blessings in cold weather is the warm fireside. That is just where motorists should remain unless it is really essential to drive on dark stormy roads.

strike-power on both flanks.

Frank Mineo turned in a brilliant game from his quarterback spot, exhibiting tremendous poise and improvement over last week. Thanks to great protection by the newly solidified forward wall, Mineo also went through the entire game mud-free.

Then, of course, there was Charley Reed, who drove with more vengeance on each play while breaking the 400 yard barrier.

That leaves only Orange in the way of a 7-2 season.

An important message from
C. Malcolm Davis, President,
Fidelity Union Trust Company

PHOTOGRAPH BY PAMAL BACCHIONE

Let's talk about interest rates on savings

Fidelity has raised its rate of interest on savings to 4%.

Under the law we cannot raise it any higher on passbook accounts. We feel old-fashioned thrift is best accomplished with straight, interest-bearing savings accounts. Here is why we firmly believe a Fidelity savings account is still your family's best way to save.

Fidelity has raised its interest on all savings accounts to 4% a year, compounded quarterly. This means that for every one hundred dollars you leave with us for one year, we will pay you $4.06. If you leave that $104.06 with us for another year, we will pay you $4.22 and so on. Leave your money for 18 years and you will more than double it.

The "interest explosion" in Essex County

Fidelity does not wish to raise its interest beyond this 4% ceiling. We believe that doing this would cut our profits too slim. And frankly, we believe in earning enough money to provide the public with modern services and facilities. Enough money to let us pay sufficient wages to employ the caliber of person with whom you like to do business. Enough money to let us pay our 3400 stockholders a fair return on their investment.

Currently there is an "interest explosion" going on in Essex County. Newspapers are filled with advertisements (including our own) announcing new and higher rates of interest. And we must admit that Fidelity's rate is not the highest. In the face of this . . . despite the fact you may earn higher interest elsewhere, we believe there is plentiful reason to continue saving at Fidelity. (Or to start saving here, if you aren't already.) Let's look at some of those reasons.

What about savings institutions?

These are basically of two types: the savings bank and the savings and loan association. (The latter is not a true bank, but some people consider it one and we will too, for the sake of simplicity.) These institutions are specialists. They earn their money mainly by long-term lending on real estate. Because of this specialization, favored tax treatment, and some other factors, they sometimes are able to pay a slightly higher rate of interest on savings accounts than "commercial banks" such as Fidelity can.

Despite that small interest gap, thousands of people save millions of dollars each year in Fidelity and other commercial banks.

The reason why is simple. Commercial banks are full-

Census Bureau Seeks Cause of Unemployment

Local residents will help provide information on the causes of unemployment, nationally, when they answer questions in the Census Bureau's Current Population Survey during the week of Nov. 15, it was announced today by John C. Cullinane, Director of the Bureau's regional office at New York City.

Census Bureau interviewers will be asking job seekers why they are looking for work; for example, did they lose or quit their previous jobs, drop out of school, or what?

This question will be in addition to the usual ones asked each month in the survey about employment and unemployment, which supply the information for national figures released by the U.S. Department of Labor.

The September survey indicated that unemployment at 2.9 million, was down 450,000 from a year ago. Since September 1964, the number of unemployed persons seeking full-time work has been cut by 400,000 to 2.2 million.

Scouts Recommend Six Exercises For Health

Daily exercise is recommended for all boys as part of the Fit for Tomorrow program of the Boy Scouts of America, said Arthur J. Scully, District Scout Executive of the Belleville Scout District. Boy Scouts of America.

He said, "We encourage every Boy Scout to follow a regular fitness program at home including 'Homemade muscle builders' that can be done with a kitchen chair, a bicycle inner tube, or a broomstick. In addition to the program of hiking and camping that will help to meet each boy's physical needs."

The Council's Health and Safety Committee suggested such fitness exercises as these for all boys: Chair bridge. Lie rigid between two chairs, head on one and feet on the other. Lift a third chair over the body from side to side five times.

Chair dip. Start with heels on one chair, hands on other, with arms straight and locked at elbows. Bend arms to lower body the broomstick jump over and back.

Walk-up. Walk fingers up a broomstick in one minute; then drop, and repeat.

The Belleville District committee will meet on Nov. 23 at School 8.

Anti-Freeze For Drivers? It is the car; never the driver, increasing reports from numerous sources show that drinking before driving has become a cause.

Good Cars - Waste of Money?

It is often a waste of money to buy a top quality automobile if it is to be used by a poor quality driver. A top quality driver is one who matches good car performance with good physical and mental condition, sound driver skills and know-how, and a considerable attitude toward others. These and other driver qualities make a good car a good investment.

Federal Income Tax Details Coming Soon

During December instruction booklets for preparing 1965 Federal income tax returns will be mailed to every taxpayer who filed a 1964 return. The booklets should be kept until you are ready to prepare your 1965 return. Each contains a pre-identified tax return which has your name, address and social security number as it is recorded in Internal Revenue

Service's master file at the National Computer Center already printed on its label. Taxpayers are asked to file their tax return on the form sent to them. The label on the tax form is actually "do file it for any reason" and used on the tax return you actually file if for any reason you are unable to see the original mailed to you. If someone else prepares your return, ask him to use the pre-identified return or label. The booklet itself contains complete instructions for preparing and filing your tax return as well as tax tables for figuring the refund due to you. For the first time 1965 income tax returns calling for a refund should be mailed directly to the Regional Service Center in Philadelphia, Penna. Returns with tax payments will continue to be sent to the New Jersey District office in Newark. The addresses for mailing both refund and remittance returns are in the booklet. The 1966 edition of the best-selling "blue book," Your Federal Income Tax, and its companion, publication, Tax Guide for Small Business, will be available at all Internal Revenue offices in late December. Each book will cost 50 cents. If you prefer you may order either or both from the Superintendent of Documents, Dept. T., Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Specify the book or books you desire, enclose payment and your books will be shipped to you. Troubles arise when little white lies come home to roost.

Yule Show Featuring 500 Antique Toys
An exhibition of some 500 antique toys mounted in authentic three-dimensional scenes of Old New York will open to the public on Wednesday, November 17, at the Hallmark Gallery on New York's Fifth Avenue at 56th St. The exhibit, entitled "Antique Toys and Playthings," features a wide variety of old-fashioned toys, dolls, horse-drawn wagons, fire wagons, merry-go-rounds, and all sorts of musical instruments and mechanical devices that fired the imagination of youngsters of a bygone age.

Photo - Engraving
Most of the pictures appearing in The Sun (there were 43 in our last issue) are engraved here in the newspaper plant. Until recently, it was necessary to send pictures to Paterson and Newark for engraving. The Sun used an electronic system developed by Fairchild Camera to etch its photo-engravings appearing in today's issue.

American Hardware, 155 Franklin Avenue, Nutley, has the unique reputation of "if it isn't at American, it isn't in Nutley". Maintaining complete inventories of plumbing & electrical supplies along with an abundance of hardware and power tools makes it a one stop visit for customers. Sales clerks who are specialists in all home repairs also ease the burden. Owned and managed by Joseph Hopmayer, the business is now situated in its new building, pictured above. The new building is twice the size of the old structure which was located across the street. At American you'll find plenty of free parking outside and lots of "browse-ability" inside.

Looking for an unconditionally guaranteed used car, expert service department, courteous treatment and an unequalled reputation? If you are, then you must be looking for Felix Motors, Inc., 126 Washington Ave., Nutley. Owned by Felix Apicella and Lou Rossi, two of the most qualified "useful" car dealers in the area, Felix Motors has been in its new, modern quarters since April, after moving from Belleville where it enjoyed a successful three years. Always 50 choice Chevrolets and other fine used cars in stock.

was given "spike shoe" charms for their finish, the best for a Belleville Senior High Cross Country team.

A real commendation is deserved by the team, the greatest in the school's history of long distance endurance running. Their 11-1 overall record, and 8.0 Big Ten record stands as a never-before done feat, and will be regarded by future teams as the team to match.

ed," the board president addressed the group.

Durkee scoffed at Arvidson's description of commission members as being "his own professional peers."

Probe Requested?
On the commission were a superintendent of schools, a principal of an elementary school, two board of education members,
and a classroom teacher.

Richard B. Kennan, executive secretary of the commission said last week it would be "unusual" for the investigation committee to return.

But I'm sure the committee would consider reopening the investigation if there is clear evidence that something of significance has not already been presented would be produced," added Kennan.

The legal counsel for the commission, Richard Morgan, said the committee "would be deligtated to receive any additional information which individuals or groups believe will serve the interests of the Belleville schools."

The NEA, he said, "has confidence in the committee's integrity."
