HERMAN KNUPPEL

The Belleville High School Guidance department under the direction of Mrs. Regina Deguin, junior counselor, and the English department under the direction of Mr. Leonard Marcano, head of the department, will begin a "Planning Your Career" project for all students in English 3 classes.

The project began on Jan. 3 with the administration of the Kuder Preference Survey which will indicate to each student his interest in various occupational areas. This survey will be followed by the distribution of a career booklet to each student with lectures and interpretation of survey results, in each English class by the guidance director and Mrs. Deguin.

After this introduction to the project the students will be responsible for the research and writing of a report on their chosen career.

There will be many visitations to Belleville High School in the next few weeks from college and technical school representatives. Following is a list of the dates and visits. Students who are interested can sign up in the guidance office to arrange for a conference:

Jan. 3, Laboratory Institute of Merchandising - Miss Louise Compere

Jan. 6, Eastern Baptist College, Pa. - Mr. Albert Zuker - 1:30 p.m.

Jan. 6, Maryville College, Tenn. - Mr. Harold Loston 10:30 a.m.

Jan. 7, Naval Reserve Officer Training Program

Jan. 11, Penn Mills College, Pa. - Mr. James Reagan 8:30 a.m.

Jan. 12, Oglethorpe College, Ga. - Mr. William Campbell 11 a.m.

Jan. 20, Metropolitan Ins. Co. William Beaton 9 a.m.

Jan. 21, Upsala College East Orange - Raymond Foust 2:30 p.m.

Jan. 25, Hiram Scott College, Nebraska - Mr. Herbert Lundy 2 p.m.

Don't forget the state examination for state college admission is available for students who prefer to take this type of test rather than the Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Students who are taking the state exam should arrange for the college location by calling or writing to one of the state colleges to which they have applied. The date is Saturday, January 29.

All Belleville High School students who signed up for the Supplementary Oral Language Achievement Test must take it on Tuesday, Feb. 1.

Monday, Jan. 10, 1966 there will be a meeting in the Belleville Junior High School auditorium for all parents of eighth grade students at 8 p.m. and on Wednesday, Jan. 12 there will be a meeting in the auditorium of Belleville High School for parents of ninth-grade students at 8 p.m.

These programs will cover all course descriptions, college admission requirements, vocational opportunities, and opportunities with the Armed Forces.

The next Belleville High School report cards will be distributed on Wednesday, Feb. 2.

The next date for college boards (SAT) after Jan. 8, is Saturday March 5 and the deadline for the application to take the exam without payment of the penalty fee is Jan. 15. You can get your application blank in the Belleville High School guidance office.

The faculty and student body of the Newark Beth Israel Hospital School of Nursing have announced the third "Open House" of the year will be held Wednesday, Jan. 12 at 7:30 p.m.

New Directory Lists Service In Belleville

The 1965 Community Resources Directory, newly revised and expanded guide to health, social welfare, informal education, and recreation services in the Essex-West Hudson area has been published by the United Community Fund and Council in cooperation with the Community Services Council of Essex County.

Copies of the directory are to be found in the collection of the Belleville Public Library. Included in the listings are the 14 agencies located here in Belleville. Cerebral Palsy in Essex County and West Hudson, North Essex Child Guidance Center, and the Essex County Children's Emergency Shelter, are among those that are described in this book.

The 150-page volume, an invaluable tool for groups or individuals involved in civic and social work, lists 475 voluntary and tax-supported agencies in the fields of family and child welfare, group work, recreation, education, hospitals, health services, vocational counselling, rehabilitation and guidance.

Brief descriptions of the services provided by each agency are included, and services are broken down in categories and carefully cross-indexed for easy reference.

A special section on Anti-poverty as well as a greatly expanded listing of agencies in the field of civil rights and inter-group relations has been added since last edition was published in 1961.

New organizations such as the New Jersey Association for Brain Injured Children and the Department of Social Welfare of the Greater Newark Council of Churches, are also listed.

Copies of the new directory may be obtained from the United Community Fund and Council, 45 Branford Place, Newark 07102 at $1 per copy.

Nurse Refresher Course Extended By Med Center

A sudden upsurge of interest in the free Nurse Refresher Course now being offered by Saint Barnabas Medical Center, has caused the Center to extend its Jan. 7 deadline to Jan. 11, announced Miss Florence A. Zarnick, Assistant Director of Nurses for In Service Education, who said that nurses not now practicing their profession are encouraged to telephone the Nursing Office at the Medical Center (992-5500) and make an appointment for an interview.

The aim of the two month course is to update nurses who have not practiced for a year or more in the new techniques and procedures they need to know and understand in order to easily fit into modern hospital duties.

It is being financed by the New Jersey Division of Employment Security through the New Jersey Hospital Association.

Miss Zarnick said the Saint Barnabas course is limited to 15 and applications will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis.

Belleville Firm Votes Dividend

The directors of Global Industries, Inc. of Belleville declared a special year-end dividend of 15 cents per share to holders of the company's Class "A" common stock. The dividend was payable to holders of record and was declared in addition to the regular quarterly payments of 5 cents per Class "A" common share, which totaled 20 cents during the current year.

Global Industries, Inc. makes shoring devices for the construction industry. Its Viking Tool & Machine Co. subsidiary is manufacturers of bending machines, aircraft devices, and taximeters.

Med Assistants To Hold Monthly Meeting Jan. 9

The regular monthly meeting of the Essex County Association of Medical Assistants will be held on Sunday, Jan. 9, in the lecture room of Clara Maass Hospital, Belleville, at 7:30 p.m.

This month's program will be a panel discussion concerning the problems encountered in the doctor's office and was arranged by program chairlady, Mrs. Grace Thomas of 19 Devon St., Kearny.

Miss Elizabeth Laddie, president of 593 Mt. Prospect Ave., Newark, has announced the appointment of Mrs. Vilete Ogden of 16 Laurel Pl., Glen Ridge as chairlady of the Insurance Committee. Mrs. Ogden will fulfill the unexpired term vacated by Miss Joyce Collins of 17 State St., East Orange. Miss Annetta Capasso of 85 Shuyvesant Ave., Newark, was appointed co-chairlady of the Membership Committee headed by Mrs. Lois McCurdy of 557 Stuyvesant Ave., Newark.

Education chairlady, Mrs. Doris Wette of 146 Linden Ave., Kearny has announced that a course on Medical Terminology will begin Jan. 16 at 7 p.m. This course will run for 11 weeks and will be given on Sunday's at the hospital.

In charge of refreshments for this month are Miss Joyce Collins of 17 State St., East Orange and Mrs. Mary Coogan of Rahway.

SEMI-FINALIST: Frances Thaller, a senior at Our Lady Of Good Counsel High School, Newark, is a winner in the National Merit Scholarship tests. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Thaller, 17 Beech St. She plans a pre-med course at Rutgers.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

"MANY LITTLES MAKE MUCH..." Cervantes

Whether we speak of learning, ambition, interest in our fellow man, or saving for the proverbial rainy day, many little do in the words of Cervantes — make a much. Little efforts, or accomplishments remain little until cumulatively they assume respectable proportions. Although it might appear that progress is sometimes a rather painfully slow step by step process, each individual step must be taken if an ultimate goal is to be reached.

At SAMUEL W. BROWN & SON FUNERAL HOME, 267 Centre St. . . . Nutley . . . we conscientiously fulfill our obligation to those who call on us in their hour of darkest need. Our services are complete and comprehensive in every respect. Regularly we provide many extra services . . . Phone 667-0875.

Town Manager Reports Appointments And Two Departmental Requirements

BY JOHN R. BURNETT
Town Manager

I have received the resignation of Rabbi Victor Cohen as a member of the Local Assistance Board of Belleville. The Rabbi has moved out of town. In his place for the balance of his term I have appointed Rabbi David Pincus.

The term of Mayor Nuncio R. Pivo also expires this month and I have reappointed him for the year 1966.

Monignor Joseph M. Kelly's term also expires this month, and I have reappointed him for a four year term as required by Revised Statute 44:115-116.

There is a confirming Resolution for these appointments listed on the present Agenda.

The Civil Service Commission has announced the holding of an open competitive examination for "Patrolmen." Belleville Police Department, at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, Feb. 5, 1966, at the Belleville High School.

The closing date for the filing of applications to take this examination is Jan. 14, 1966.

Application blanks may be secured at our Belleville Police Desk or requested in writing from the Department of Civil Service, State House, Trenton, New Jersey - 08625.

The Civil Service Commission has notified me that Sat. Sprella, Public Health Trainee, will not be accepted by them after Dec. 31, 1965, because the time has expired for his being licensed by the State Health Department. I have, therefore, notified Mr. Sprella that his services will be terminated as of December 31, 1965.

The 1966 detailed Budget for Administrative services is now being correlated, and will be forwarded to the individual councilmen within the next ten days.

I cannot present the full budget until after receiving the financial statement from the auditor, but am confident that this will be received so that the full budget, with the manager's budget message, will be in the hands of the Council during the week of Jan. 10, 1966.

Sign Up For Medicare, Warns Manager

"There are people who still have not taken any steps to sign up for the Medicare program provided by the social security amendments of 1965," William J. Arnold, Social Security District manager in Newark, said today.

"The Medicare program provides two types of protection," Arnold added:

1. Hospital insurance to help pay the cost of hospital and re-retirement rolls. These persons automatically qualify for the hospital insurance protection. Additionally, those persons who have not taken the necessary steps fall into three groups," Arnold continued:

The first group consists of those persons age 65 and over who are on the social security or railroad

Police Chief McGinnis Gives Some Safe Winter Driving Advice

Now Is The Time To Review Your Winter Driving

While it's still in the cold season, yet it's late enough for local drivers to have experienced several bouts with winter driving problems, and Police Chief Charles H. McGinnis suggests that now is a good time for drivers to review recommended measures for handling a seasonal driving difficulties.

"This information does not originate with me," the chief explained. "The source is the Committee on Winter Driving Hazards of the National Safety Council. And it is recommended by the International Association of Chiefs of Police that we help make safe winter driving information known in the interest of traffic control and accident prevention."

Accident prevention is not an insurmountable problem in rough winter weather, the chief maintains. "The secret is to protect one's ability to 'SEE' and to 'STOP'."

Plan Ahead
To cope with winter darkness and bad weather, drivers must get a head start on safety by keeping car lights in good order and windshield clearing equipment — wipers and defrosters — operating properly, Chief McGinnis reassured.

And since seeing is a matter of looking, drivers should be doubly alert when natural visibility deteriorates.

The "stopping" part of the formula suggests the need for good, equalized brakes. In winter, of course, there is that other determining factor — traction. Stopping traction drops dangerously on icy streets. This is when unprepared drivers can "lose their grip," the chief warns.

Research Pays Off
"Fortunately, we in Belleville aren't the only ones thinking about this problem," Chief McGinnis said. "Winter driving research, conducted annually under auspices of the National Safety Council, has already given us much of the information on which a safe winter driving record can be built."

He listed these items of information:
On glare ice, braking distance may be as much as twelve times greater than that on dry pavements (something for pedestrians as well as drivers to remember), averaging 185 feet (ten car lengths!) with regular tires from a speed of only 20 mph. While snow tires reduced this somewhat to 174 feet, reinforced tire chains further shorten it to less than half this distance — 77 feet.

On loosely packed snow, average braking distance from a speed of 20 mph turned out to be 60 feet, while snow tires cut this average to 52 feet, and reinforced tire chains (with special biting cleats) to 38 feet.

More Traffic Advice
Under-inflating tires does not improve traction so much as it reduces stability and engenders tire fatigue.

If the winter ahead still looks kind of long and dangerous to you, information like this may be just what you need, thinks Chief McGinnis, who had this parting shot:

"With braking distances like I've mentioned, from a speed of just 20 miles an hour, you can see why the officers of our department take a dim view of speeders especially when conditions aren't the best."

School Needs And Town Income Are Budget Problems

In Jersey it's budget time when municipal, county and school officials weigh service requirements against revenue prospects and seek to come up with a balance that won't kill the goose that lays the golden egg — the good old taxpayer.

That they aren't finding it easy is evidenced by the way some have been sounding off about tax law revision proposals and suggestions for increased State and federal financial assistance. Counties and municipalities planning major capital improvements formulated capital budgets based on long range improvement plans in November, as required by the New Jersey Division of Local Government. These set-orth projects hat may be included in the regular 1966 budgets.

In municipalities chartered under the Optional Municipal Charter Law of 1950, public hearings are held on preparatory phases of budgets. All municipalities hold hearings after initial approval by municipal governing bodies.

The budget timetable calls for budget approval by municipal governing bodies between January 1 and February 10. The budget is then published and notice of public hearing given before March 10. The public hearing must be conducted between January 29 and March 20. The latter date also is the deadline for final adoption by the municipal governing body. County and school budgets must be completed earlier than those of the municipality.

The combined tax costs of municipal, school and county budgets help determine the final total tax rate for property owners. Last year, the aggregate budgets in Jersey totaled nearly $1.8 billion.

The New Jersey Taxpayers Association reminds taxpayers that this is the time to pay attention, rather than wait for tax bills to arrive next summer.

Teachers Begin Human Rights Courses At The High School

Belleville has the distinction of being the first school system in Essex county, and only the third in the state, to provide an in-service human relations program for its teachers. Ten Tuesday night meetings will be held at the high school here.

Lecturers with sociological and educational backgrounds will instruct the teachers during Tuesday night meetings at 7 p.m. beginning next Tuesday, Jan. 11, through Tuesday, March 22. The $400 charge for the courses will be paid equally by the Board of Education and the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

The courses were recently approved by the Board of Education at the urging of the Belleville Civil Rights Commission. It was co-sponsored by the NCCJ. The Civil Rights Commission had first asked the board to institute the program in 1964, but the request was delayed until Dr. Frank M. Dunton, suspended superintendent of schools, successfully recommended approval to the board.

"There are many youngsters from economically depressed areas whose family lives are practically non-existent, and who feel, as a result, that society doesn't hold too much for them," explained Michael A. Rosamilia, acting superintendent of schools. It is the intent of the program, he said, to have teachers better understand that kind of background so they can handle such problems arising from these youngsters.

Teachers should understand the various ethnic backgrounds, reasons for discrimination, an individual's search for identity and other basic democratic ideals, Rosamilia declared. The board may award credits to participating teachers for salary purposes upon completion of the courses.

Walter L. Glomb to Speak Before Rotary Club On Person-to-Person Satellite Communications

Person-to-person communications via satellites will be the subject of a presentation to be made by an executive engineer of ITT Federal Laboratories before the Rotary Club of Belleville at noon next Wednesday.

Walter L. Glomb, deputy director of the Space Communication Laboratory at ITT Federal Laboratories, will describe developments in satellite communications at a Rotary Club luncheon to be held in the Par-Hills Restaurant, 888 Prospect Ave., Newark, at 12:15 p.m.

He will discuss the history of the communication satellite, its present status and potential in the future.

Glomb is responsible for system design and analysis involving the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation's space communication projects. He joined ITT in 1950 and has been in charge of the company's Space Communication Research Station in Nutley. This station was used as the northern terminal of the historic intercontinental Nutley-Rio de Janeiro space communication link via the first Relay satellite.

The engineer was project manager of the ITT group which designed the company's Space Communication Research Station in Nutley. This station was used as the northern terminal of the historic intercontinental Nutley-Rio de Janeiro space communication link via the first Relay satellite.

Comb received his BS degree in 1946 and his MS in 1953, both from Columbia University. He is Executive Committee Chairman of the North Jersey Section of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers.

Mr. and Mrs. Glomb and their six children live at 48 Enclosure, Nutley.

Dental Society Is Looking For Nicest Smile in Town

"Who has the prettiest smile of them all?" That's the question which will be answered during the week of February 6-12, when boys and girls from each Essex County community will be selected as having the nicest smile in town.

The contest, sponsored by the Essex County Dental Society, is being held in conjunction with National Children's Dental Health Week, aimed at bringing to the attention of the children in the county the importance of good dental health and good dental care.

Each winner will receive an electric toothbrush approved by the Council on Dental Therapeutics of the American Dental Association with every entrant receiving a special toothbrush kit supplied by the county dental society.

All children between six and 14 are eligible to enter. All any child need do is send a full smile snap shot or professional photograph to The Essex County Dental Society, Box 501, Livingston. Entrants are cautioned to include on the back of the photo their name, age, address and phone number.

Closing date for the contest will be January 29, 1966.

In addition, a special film strip, "Billy Meets Tommy Tooth," is being distributed to public and parochial schools in the county for showing and to become part of the schools' audio-visual libraries.

Last Minute Rally Against Bloomfield Fails; BHS Drops Game By 54-52

Steve Charen

Sideline Byline

LUCK LACKING: Basketball is a combination of many things, but basically it can be broken down to 50 per cent desire, 40 per cent ability, and 10 per cent luck. Of the first two quantities, Belleville has its share, but the latter is severely lacking.

With the season just seven games old, Belleville has already managed to lose contests by one, two, and three points. All of these fiascos have come in Big Ten conference games where the Bellboys boast a 2-4 record.

BIG TEN: Going into the season, Belleville was being touted as one of the key contenders for the league crown. Now the Bellboys lie mired in eighth place—just six points from second.

With the erratic Blue and Gold faltering, East Orange is starting what could develop into a run away drive to the title. While whipping five straight Conference foes, the fast breaking Panthers have been very impressive.

STILL ALIVE: The Bellboys' own hopes of supremacy are still alive, but only faintly. Nothing short of a sweep of the remaining 13 league games of a complete E.O. collapse, neither of which is probably, could catapult Belleville to the top. The latest loss at Bloomfield might well have been the crusher.

Now is the time the Bellboys must prove themselves; there is no room for another cliffhanging error. After Tuesday's battle at West Orange, Belleville could get a chance to re-coup Friday at Nutley before moving into the crucial part of the year.

A rematch with the Orange squad that took a double overtime decision follows before second place Montclair invades BHS. A sweep of these four games would be needed to put any emphasis on the next battle, that at East Orange.

FINALE TEAM: Throughout the season the Bellboys have developed the pattern of just playing well enough to keep close for three quarters before pouring it on in the final quarter. Of the 388 points Belleville has scored in seven games, 224 of them have been in the second half, and 142 in the fourth quarter as compared to 164 for the entire first half.

Twice this last minute burst has enabled the Bellboys to cut down huge opposition leads before falling by the way side in the final seconds.

PUCCIARELLO: Leading this Bellboy team in scoring by a wide margin has been guard

Rich Pucciarello. In seven contests he has accounted for 165 points for a 23.5 average. His personal performance often carries Belleville and accounts for their trends; he has scored 22 of his points in the first quarter, 70 in the fourth.

In his third Varsity season, the 6-foot senior leads the Blue and Gold in many departments. Being the most accurate Belleville shooter, "Puch" has made a shade under half of his 121 field goal attempts (59) besides connecting with 47 of 66 (71 per cent) of his free throws. He is also within nine rebounds of the team leader.

THIRD YEAR: Two other three year veterans compose the rest of the backbone of the team. Ken Fulmore at 6-foot-3 draws the league's biggest men to defend while Nick Pizzuto can take the pressure off Pucciarello with accurate long range bombing when not bothered by a sore back.

Playing most of his offense from the lost post, Fulmore has been fed for 108 points and a 15 point average. Leading the rebounders, Ken is a key factor. Despite a slow start, Pizzuto has 64 points (nine average) and should be just about ready to erupt with some scoring reminiscent of last year's 20 point performances.

Of course three men don't make a team. It takes others like rebounder Harry Baker, playmakers Art Sheridan and Jim Corino to feed the high scorers and handle defensive chores. Add key reserves like Bob Paterson, Rich San Filippo, and Jim Catalano to the picture and you have the Bellboy team that will have to tell now if they are to get anywhere in the Big Ten.

TIME RIPE: After showing their potential in a nearly successful comeback at Bloomfield, the Bellboys appear ready to roll. Only time will tell for sure.

Belleville Delegate Attends Convention

A delegation of 210 teenagers and advisors of Northern New Jersey attended the 15th Annual National Convention of United Synagogue Youth in Washington, from Dec. 23 to 26, 1965.

Delegate from Congregation Ahavas Achim at 125 Academy St., was Gary Creditor, 25 Wilbur St.

Judy Lasker of Orange, and Mark Braverman of Camden, were the convention co-chairmen.

By STEVE CHAREN

Trailing by 12 points with less than three minutes remaining, the Bellboys mounted a determined come-back bid that fell four seconds short of success as Bloomfield eked out a 54-52 triumph.

With the Bengals leading 52-40, Ken Fulmore started the attempt with 2:32 remaining when he clicked with a lay-up. Rich Pucciarello, who had but nine points to show for his efforts after three quarters, followed it up with a jump shot seconds later.

Bloomfield's diminutive backcourt tandem of Jim Trisuzzi and John Krygowski then managed to stall away over a minute before the Bellboys gained possession of set up another jumper by a suddenly hot Pucciarello with 1:10 remaining. Rich continued his on-slaught ten seconds later by sinking two free throws to bring Belleville within four points at 52-48.

Two Free Shots

The Bengals then tried a freeze with little Trisuzzi at the head of it. After successfully stalling for 13 seconds, a Belleville steal attempt ended in foul shots.

The decisive points followed with a pair of free ones, but the battle was far from over yet.

Racing down court with a rebound, Pucciarello was fouled. His two free ones made it 54-50. A steal later, Rich connected with a jumper to make it 54-52 with 32 seconds remaining.

The Stall

Once again Bloomfield tried to turn on the stall before being fouled by ball-hawking Bellboys. With 21 seconds left, Nick Pizzuto almost set up the tying fast break only to be charged with his fifth personal. Going to the line, Krygowski missed his shot and Fulmore pulled down the rebound.

Taking the ball up court, the Bellboys immediately tried to call time out, but were ignored momentarily until the clock showed just 15 seconds.

Bringing the ball in from out of bounds, the Bellboys tried to set up that tying shot. Finally, Pucciarello saw an opening and shot. The elusive ball rebounded into the hands of Jim Corino who put it up with five seconds showing on the clock.

Big Ten Loss

The attempt also failed as the ball fell toward the masses under the boards. In the mad scramble that followed, the ball was tapped upward again and again as the players fought for possession, the capacity crowd roared, and the buzzer rang its mournful toll.

Finally the ball found its mark thanks to Harry Baker, but it was three seconds too late. Pandemonium reigned among the partisan fans at the Belleville's shattered big Ten hopes.

Wrestling Team Looks Good, Shows Promise, And May Be A Winner

By WILLIAM D. MC CARTHY

The Belleville High wrestling team has its sights focused on its best season, and there's quite a good chance that the boys will turn the trick.

From our 90 pounders to our unlimited weight class men, the team is in good shape, with a deal of credit deserved by coach James Silvestri.

In his freshman year in this job, his experience as assistant coach last year should be of some benefit — but even more so is his ability to teach the boys the moves, many of which he spent the summer learning at a clinic.

Sylvestri A Leader

In his first assignment at the Bloomfield Invitational Christmas Tournament, he led the Bellboy team to five preliminary victories, and one championship. Nick DiDomenico took the 98-pound class.

His classes in tumbling were quite useful, as the wrestlers use these moves. When they find themselves off balance, they don't get caught in poor position. Several of the moves he has taught the boys seem more like judo than wrestling, but they're all good, and quite often powerfully useful.

Assisting Silvestri this year will be Robert Shott. He seems to be very interested in the fitness of the boys and goes around the practice room making sure that none of the boys are taking shortcuts through their warm ups.

Well Balanced Team

He'll be surveying the action during the Junior Varsity matches, calling the moves his men should be making.

The team is well balanced, with most of last year's team returning again. Nick DiDomenico, last year's lightweight wrestler is back, and we're looking for plenty of sharp work from him, and possibly an exceptional season record.

At 106 lbs., Joe Zoppi will be the lightest of the novices, but that has no bearing on his position on the team.

He has considerable strength, and combines it with smart work to be a promising young wrestler in his first year at this sport.

Three Champs

Going up a class, Mike Lounge, John Bray and Jim Bonkowski vie for the Varsity berth. Jim, who was injured in the nationals, may not be able to wrestle, however. All are veterans of this sport, as Mike took this weight last year.

Bray and Bonkowski were JV men, as Jim was the champ of the JV Tournament at this weight. At 122, Frank Morgan is back with the team, and his legs should stand him in good stead.

Coach Silvestri has been working intensively with him on "figure-fours" and "grapevines."

In the fifth weight class, (130 lbs.), Bill Buist is in his third year of work, and he should do even better than he did last year, as indicated in his match last month. In a recent scrimmage, he wrestled well against Passale.

A Winner

Joe Vilano, who was really a superb wrestler last year (he was undefeated in dual meets), was the only one contending until Bill came up from 140, where both boys shared the matches in JV meets last year.

erful youth, Joe should be able to hold his own against the very best.

At 140, Jim Puleo, a JV of last year, is trying to hold his spot, with Tom Fogerty doing his best to take it away. In the 148-pound class, two sharp rivals are contending for the placement Robert Andrews now holds. Bill McCarthy is also hoping to get it.

Bob, who moved up to this weight after the Invitationals, is now in his first Varsity season, and was the only one contending until Bill came up from 140, where both boys shared the matches in JV meets last year.

well, and has good potential.

Rich Bonkowski, our 168-pounder, is a powerhouse who puts our all he's got every time he wrestles — and does quite a good job of it. He always does well, and should be valuable to the grapplers this year. His protege, Barry Pierce, is coming along well, and has good potential.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

The Year in Review

1965 was a good year and the people of Belleville were busy. The following are reminders of just how busy!

Sandra Elbelshewer received her RN. Dennis O'Neill represented St. Peter's Parish in the Essex County CYO Spelling Bee. Chip Verian and Jackie Mallack celebrated their first birthday. And the James Schiefers moved back to Belleville.

Do you remember when Dan DeNino played Easter Bunny to the children of his neighborhood? The night of the Essex Catholic Senior Prom with Charlene Gibbs and Roy Van Dyke enjoying every minute? That Joseph Nucci graduated from Bloomfield College? That Mr. and Mrs. Frank England toured Europe? Also Mrs. Frank LaPlaca and also Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGrath.

It was a big year for silver wedding anniversaries, too. Among those who celebrated 25 years of marriage were Mr. and Mrs. Edward DeMarino, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tremel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Palumbo and Mr. and Mrs. John Luisi.

How could anyone ever forget the K of C Belleville Council 835 family picnic? The night the lights went out on Belmont Street and their impromptu block party? The victorious Dodgers Little League pennant and the World Series? The two weeks George Lynch, Jr. spent at the Camp Mohican Boy Scout Camp? The weekend in Boston when Mr. and Mrs. James Corino attended the reunion of the 42nd Air Service Squadron? And their son born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGreevy?

Quite a few will always remember the trip to Yankee Stadium sponsored by the Jim Bouton Fan Club for Cystic Fibrosis children. The game between the managers and the fathers of the Little League Baseball... Doc Hood's 90th birthday. The night Sam Panansky was chosen "Man of the Year" by the Men's Club of the Congregation of Ahavath Achim.

Hurricane Betsy in Florida (the Joseph Rileys were there too) and Bessie Zohn as the first mate member of the Weight Watchers! 1966 should be even busier and the Neighborhood News Correspondents hope to tell you all about it.

Janice Jannarone and her friend, Terry Siena, both G. Girls, couldn't wait until December 25 to open their gifts given them by a Belleville resident at a Christmas party.

The party was given by the Stenographers at the Newark

FBI Office

On December 23 the sweets and delicacies, representative of each nationality, were made by the girls and several skirts were presented. Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Jannarone of 621 Jorammon Street. Her friend, Terry, is from Westfield.

Wanna Drag?

During the holidays, Jack Zappa, a car enthusiast spent his spare time working with "Butch" Millard. They are building a '32 Ford Coupe to be used in drag races.

Jack, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zappa of 247 Division Avenue, is a freshman at Vermont Tech and Butch is employed at Cities Service on Washington Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dunleavy of 29 Fairway Avenue entertained 42 guests at their annual open house on December 25. Most of their 42 guests were members of their family.

Holiday Houseguest

Miss Ellen Panansky had as her house guest during the holidays, former Bellevilleite Miss Debbie Pesante. Ellen and Debbie spent long hours catching up on all of the latest news. Ellen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Panansky of Mertz Avenue and Debbie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pesante of West Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford White of 557 Washington Avenue entertained on Christmas day with an open house for friends, neighbors and relatives. This has become the highlight of the holidays each year for the Whites.

See New Year in

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Schuster of Smallwood Avenue, a gala New Year's eve party was held. Those helping the old year out and ringing the New Year in were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berkowitz, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Panansky and Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Zohn of Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wolch from Flushing, New York.

Friends got together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan of 27 Lincoln Terrace for a New Year's eve party. Their guests included, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dacey, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Garbely, Mrs. Flo Cheeseman, Mr. and Mrs. Edward DeMarino, Mr. and Mrs. William Sloan of Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. Russ Thomas of Glen Ridge.

LOCAL MUSIC MAKERS

The Nomads, a new musical group, are making a name for themselves in the field of entertainment. Their wide variety of music is making them a hit with crowds of all ages. The members of the band include: Frank Lappostato on lead guitar, Joe Petrillo on bass, Mike Forte on the drums, Bill Franz on rhythm guitar. They have been playing at many engagements and are appearing on Disc-o-teens, Channel 47 and at Bep's Restaurant on Verona Ave., Newark. They can play anything from McCartney and Lennon to Brahms and Beethoven, and their theme is "Music for the In Crowd". Lots of luck to these Belleville Boys on their new venture.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fusaro, who are the proud homeowners of 529 Memphis Avenue, Belleville. They have been lifelong residents of Belleville and are now taxpayers in this beautiful town.

A surprise birthday party was given to George Del Marino of 691 Mill Street, Belleville at Bep's Restaurant in Newark. Mr. Del Marino was 70 years old. The party was given by his children the Misses Florence and Vicky. Mrs. Nellie Maurelio, Mrs. Angie De Bello, Mrs. Louise Greco, and George Jr. Approximately 60 guests attended.

Get well wishes to Mrs. Ann Silvestri of Greylock Parkway who is recuperating at home after a two week stay in Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. Also get well wishes to Miss Angela Cozzolino, of Linden Avenue, who was hospitalized in Clara Maass for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lappostato had friends over for dinner last week and all had a good time. Some of the guests included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scaltrito, Mr. and Mrs. Dom Palangio and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bray.

Entertains Democrats

Entertaining at the Democratic Club's Christmas Party held at The Fountain was Mrs. Ann Palangio who sang several Italian Songs. Seen having a grand time was Mrs. Rose Lappostato, Mrs. Carmella Bray, Mrs. Angie Scaltrito, Mrs. Mary Senatore, Mrs. Rose Scarpelli, Mrs. Lee Gaccone, Mrs. Helen Barra, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Amato, Miss Rosemary Senatore, Mrs. Jennie Vuno and many others.

Mrs. Rose Guarino of Carney Avenue, Belleville was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Guarino of Brookline Ave., Nottley on Christmas Day. A.S.

James Barton, Marine Corporal, Weds Miss Nancy Vincent of Dallas, Texas

The marriage of Miss Nancy Ellen Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril F. Vincent of 1711 Timbergrove Lane, Dallas, Texas and James Douglas Barton Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas Barton of 110 Dow Street, Belleville was solemnized on December 30. The Rev. Richard E. Johnson of St. Cecilia Church, Dallas performed the ceremony and a reception followed at the bride's home.

Mr. Vincent gave his daughter in marriage. She was gowned in beau de soie with lace forming a scalloped neckline reembroidered with sequins and seed pearls. The panelled skirt terminated in a chapel train; her elbow length veil of candlelight illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Carol Zapalac of Dallas was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Mary Barton the bridegroom's sister, of Belleville, Mrs. Peter Maverick of Austin, Texas and Miss Lois Hartman of Dallas. They wore floor length American Beauty brocade, featuring scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. Hats fashioned of pale pink were held in place by bows of matching brocade and they carried pink chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's brother, Richard Barton of Belleville served as best man. Thomas Barton, another brother of the bridegroom, John Vincent, the bride's brother of Dallas and Peter Maverick of Austin ushered for the ceremony.

Mrs. Barton attended the University of Dallas and is now a senior at Arlington State College. She is employed by Texas Instruments, Inc., Dallas. Her husband attended Rockhurst College and St. Peter's College, Department of Defense Language Institute, Washington, D.C. He is a Corporal in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Following a honeymoon in Texas and New Jersey, the couple will make their home at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS OF COMMUNITY INTEREST

Belleville Evening Group Entertained by Children

The December meeting of the Evening Department, Woman's Club of Belleville, was a festive occasion due to the appearance of a children's choir formed by some of the members' daughters. Directed by Mrs. Richard H. Drake, and accompanied on the piano by Miss Edith M. Richards, they sang the traditional music of the Christmas season for their mothers at the clubhouse.

The same group also assisted in serving the children at the "Luncheon with Santa," affair held earlier in the month. A large turn-out of Belleville small fry helped to make the luncheon, the first of its kind, a success. Mrs. Robert K. Barnes was chairman for the event.

The newly formed drama department, headed by Mrs. Ruth J. Hogan and assisted by Mrs. John W. Noonan, fine arts department chairman, presented their first play, "A Christmas Star for Olga," by Barbara Webb. Members of the cast included

Mrs. Howard Beresford, Miss Jean Bagnall, Mrs. William Oertel, Mrs. Gerald R. Patterson, Miss Edith M. Richards and two children of members, Linda Oliveri and Mary Ellen Oertel.

Mrs. Oliveri, chairman of the group, has announced that another first of the Evening Department will be a "Sweetheart Discotheque Dance" to be held January 29 at the Commonwealth Club in Upper Montclair. Mrs. Noonan is general chairman of the affair.

Show Presented At Essex Catholic

A variety show "Across the Footlights" will be presented on Saturday, January 8, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Essex Catholic High School. The single performance is being given for the benefit of the Cloister Dominicans of Newark. The use of the auditorium has been donated by Essex Catholic.

Producer of the show is Miss Joan Sitek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sitek of Berkeley Avenue. Miss Sitek is a student at Newark State in Union and has also been a substitute teacher in Number Eight School.

Musical Director is John Capparelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Capparelli of Division Avenue. John is a senior at Essex Catholic.

Members of the band who are from Belleville are Michael Vaccari, John Virginio, John Vanetti and John Toscano.

Belleville Red Cross Sends Friendship Boxes and Kits

The Belleville Red Cross recently shipped 150 Friendship boxes and 50 Friendship Kits for the Refugee children in Viet Nam. The Red Cross Children and Youth in schools are sending these gifts as expressions of friendship to displaced families in South Viet Nam.

The Friendship Box is filled for a three to seven year-old child with educational health and recreational items, such as pencils, pads, erasers, crayons, soap, tooth brushes, tooth paste, tops, marbles, dolls, games etc. These schools and the Junior High School met the quota of 150 boxes.

The Friendship Kits are colorful cloth ditty bags containing things for an eight to a 12 year old child such as jigsaw puzzles, harmonicas, drawing pads, crayons, balloons, games, soap, combs, etc. The girls of the Belleville High School sewed the bags at home. A collection was taken from the students and the girls were purchased by the officers of the High School Council. Then the officers and their committee filled the bags. Fifty were completed and shipped.

Officers of the Town Council are Charles Messina, president, Patricia Fosselli, vice president and Joan Raabe, secretary. Mrs. Hilda Sherman is chairman of the Junior Red Cross.

The officers of the High School Red Cross are Carol Shelesky, president, Mary May, vice president and Rosalyn Mostello secretary and treasurer. Miss Linnea Andree is in charge of the High School Red Cross.

Cadette Troop 950 Had Active Year

Members of Cadette Girl Scout Troop 950, Christ Church, have had an active 1965 season. Early in October a two meal hike and lookout took place at Garrett Mountain. Trail blazing, tent pitching, and tin can stove cooking were practiced fulfilling outdoor badge requirements. They also participated in a town-wide roller skating party at Twin City Arena, the Veteran's Day Parade, and collected white cloth for the Kiwanis Cloth for Cancer Drive.

A rededication candle ceremony was held in November at which time the girls had an opportunity to renew their pledge to the scouting laws and promise. Awards for badges earned during the summer were presented to Bette Hill, Deborah Foster, Linda Billick, Patrice Cernero, June Coughlin, Linda Medina, Ingeborg Roehmet, Mary Lynn Janiec, Judith Hollweg, and Susan Drake. Patrol Leaders' Cords were presented to Maryfran Introcaso, Mary Moore, June Coughlin, and Deborah Foster by their assistant leaders.

Ingeborg Roehmet, Lynn Cypoliski, Linda Medina, and Cheryl Moore, respectively. New members, Linda Billick, Patrice Cernero, Susan Drake, Judith Hollweg, Mary Lynn Janiec, Maureen Laugel, Doris Morano, Denise Miele, Cheryl Moore, Deborah McCool, Kathleen Natale, Joan Raabe, Rosemary Shepherd, Linda Smith, and Anna Spagnuolo, were presented with the troop crest, the purple pansy. Judith Hollweg was elected troop treasurer, and Karen McKnight troop scribe.

Along with the outdoor badge requirements the girls have also been learning first aid as training for their Emergency Preparedness Challenge which is the final goal of this years work.

In the spirit of Christmas the girls carolled for the patients at the Essex County Hospital bringing little happiness to those who are ill. The girls returned to Christ Church where a small Christmas party had been prepared for them by Mrs. Eric Roehmet, Mrs. James Natale, and Mrs. Walter Sheppard, complete with candle light and traditional Christmas goodies.

The Board Of Education Election

Four candidates have filed petitions for the February School Board election at which time two seats are to be filled, and Board President Ernest Arvidson and former President Nicholas Juliano are asking the voters to reelect them.

The two challengers are former Board President Dominick Lally, and newcomer David Edward Haight, Jr.

Messrs. Arvidson and Juliano are part of our board majority which has leveled charges against Dr. Frank Durkee, suspended Superintendent of Schools.

At this writing it appears that Dr. Durkee's suspension may be made the major and only significant campaign issue.

It will be a community tragedy if this event comes to pass.

While a committee from the National Education Association has taken testimony concerning certain charges made against Dr. Durkee by four members of the School Board, the fact remains the same charges have been filed against Dr. Durkee by a majority of the School Board with the New Jersey State Education Commissioner.

As of this writing the State Commissioner has not held a hearing and is not expected to make a decision on the matter until some time in February, probably after the school board election. Regardless of the findings by the National Education Study Committee (from which the School Board or Dr. Durkee can make appeals) the final word on this subject must come from the office of the State Education Commissioner. Meantime, the charges against Dr. Durkee's suspension should not be made a subject of the current board campaign.

Lally and Haight should tell the voters of Belleville how their election will improve or upgrade Belleville's educational system.

Lally has served with distinction as a former member of the School Board. He compiled a good record in office. He knows what is expected of a School Board member. He should be able to tell us how Juliano and Arvidson have failed the community as School Board members. Also, he should be able to tell the voters what efforts he will make to remove the strife which currently besets the School Board.

Mr. Haight is new to school board elections. Most certainly he gave serious consideration to his candidacy before he consented to run for the office he seeks. Mr. Haight should tell the voters how his election will place on the Board of Education an individual who can give superior performance over two incumbent members. Juliano and Arvidson have the obligation of defending their records. For both of these men their job is simple. All they have to do is to present their respective records and tell the people why they believe their re-election is in order.

Lally and Haight have the duty of attacking public records of incumbent school board members.

The suspension of Dr. Durkee from his position is not a valid subject of this school board election. To make it so is to involve our community in unprecedented turmoil. Belleville has witnessed some unfavorable publicity days. The worst is still to come if any of the candidates for the School Board election make Dr. Durkee an issue. F.A.O.

Cure for An Injustice

The federal system which grew up in a better-sketter, topsy-turvy manner, is filled with injustices. And one of the worst of these is found in double taxation of dividend income.

Here is how it works. A corporation pays a tax on its income, at the high corporate rate. Then the taxpayer is taxed at his individual income rates on whatever dividends he receives from the same corporation.

This is a matter of real importance today. More than 20 million people now own shares in our corporations, as against the comparative few who possessed these investments not so many years ago. And every one of those 20 million whose dividend income exceeds $100 is compelled to submit to the palpably unfair double-tax.

Various cures for this injustice have been proposed. One is allow the corporation to deduct from its tax base earnings which are paid out in dividends. This would provide relief proportionate to the burden of double taxation at different income levels. And it would do still more. It would make American industry more competitive with European producers—a very important factor now because of the intense world-wide trade rivalry. And it would remove bias against equity capital—that is, the issuance of stock—in new corporate financing which arises from the fact that interest on borrowed money is deductible but dividends are not.

There is more demand for tax revision and reform. Doing something constructive about this unjust double taxation should be high on the list of goals.

Doors to the Unknown

The search for new medical knowledge—knowledge which will prolong life, prevent and cure disease, alleviate pain and mental distress—never ends. And it is a search which takes many forms. The medical researchers, for instance, are forever looking for new and improved drugs, for advanced surgical techniques, and for better ways to deal with all the ills to which minds and bodies are subject. Beyond this, they are exploring areas of mystery in the hope of making discoveries that some day may produce revolutionary advances in may produce revolutionary advances in what is known and what can be done.

A short time ago, to cite an example of this, the American Medical Association's Institute for Biomedical Research was dedicated. Recognizing that biology is the study of life processes and that diseases are aberrations of these processes, the Institute is devoted to the support of fundamental inquiry into the life processes on all basic levels as conceived and directed by its members. There are no dictated research activities—all investigation is originated and performed by its members. Its purpose is to create a privately supported basic research facility of excellence in which the investigator—member may devote his interests to his work without any other duties except as he may elect. Ideal laboratory facilities and ancillary are for members and associate members.

Thus does medicine open, little by little, doors to the unknown and the little known.

Apartments At Fairway Avenue?

Once again the Belleville Board of Adjustment has under consideration an application for the building of garden apartments on vacant land formerly known as the Krugman-DePetro property between Joramoun Street and Fairway Avenue.

When the proposal first came up five years ago we opposed the construction of apartments on this site. Today we continue to oppose the construction on this site.

The taxpayers who purchased their homes in adjoining areas have a right to expect development of this vacant land proceed in accordance with zoning laws applicable at the time they moved into the area. This right would be violated if permission were granted to construct apartments.

If a change in zoning would upgrade the surrounding areas, then, of course, we would be confronted with a different situation.

Two meetings have already been held on this subject and the Board of Adjustment is planning a third meeting Friday night. It is our hope that the wishes of our taxpayers will be respected. F.A.O.

A New Tax?

We have been opposed to new taxes for a long, long time. In recent days when one speaks of state revenues and expenditures all a person hears is that we must choose between a sales or income tax.

Since leaders of both major parties have resolved that we must have new taxes our thoughts must be directed toward the end that the less onerous tax be considered by the New Jersey Legislature.

Big business wants a sales tax. If there must be a tax, we endorse Governor Richard Hughes' approval of a graduated income tax.

A sales tax makes the poor poorer. A graduated income tax places the burden of taxation upon those most able to pay. F.A.O.

Safety At School 2 Discussed By Reader

To the Editor, Belleville Times: I feel that I cannot accept the decision that the Board of Education has reached on the use of the auditorium at School 2.

When an auditorium is located on the third floor and is in a condition such as School 2 auditorium is in, and knowing it to be described as a severe safety hazard as there are reports demonstrating, who among us can take the responsibility of even endangering one child's life?

I just want to let the Board of Education and the public know that this decision is the board's responsibility, and since the board has the power to close his room they're still willing to endanger children's lives.

The board has certainly made a step in the right direction to the extent that they have asked for, and received, permission to use the basement rooms for music and instrument lessons. It is just too bad they cannot see fit to go one step further and close the auditorium altogether.

Although there is a limitation of 30 children (at the most allowed to assemble in the auditorium, I must still insist that under no condition will my children be part of those 30 placed in any such senseless jeopardy.

Association Declares High Record Dividend

Members of the North Jersey Savings & Loan Association, of Passaic, are sharing a record quarterly dividend this week. Charles V. Kasemen, president of the association, reports the dividend voted by the board of directors totaled $635,626 for this last three-month period of the year.

According to Kasemen, this brings the total for the year to more than $2,330,373. In 1963, the dividend totalled slightly more than $2 millions.

Just one year ago, North Kasemen attributed this substantial increase in earnings to dividends would be compounded the association's sound management and credited quarterly instead of semi-annually, as in the past.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Do you ever look at TV channel 31 or 47? Perhaps you can't because your set does not have provision to receive UHF (Ultra High-Frequency) stations. Many people don't even know that there is such a thing as UHF.

All TV sets, manufactured since April last year, have to have a UHF tuner, which enables you to receive 70 additional TV stations, if and when they are transmitting that is. In this vicinity we have presently only the 2 channels mentioned above, 31 and 47.

If your set does not have a UHF tuner, you can buy a converter for about $25. to $30., which enables you to receive these UHF stations.

Most present-day TV sets come equipped with a metal ring about a foot in diameter which is attached to a separate set of terminals in the rear. This is the UHF antenna. You will get some measure of reception with this loop and it varies greatly depending on the location, which is far more important and varied than on regular (VHF) TV. Again as with the regular stations, the UHF reception can be greatly improved by the installation of an outside or attic antenna.

Channel 31 is operated by the City of New York and it is non-commercial. A good portion of the programs are transmissions from the United Nations. Generally speaking, the programs are not exactly of the "entertaining" side like commercial broadcasts. Channel 47 is commercial. The programs are oriented, to a large extent, to different population groups, foreign as well as domestic. This station at the present time operates evenings. Some transmissions are in color.

If you have any questions about UHF, please ask the writer or our technicians. We will be glad to provide the answer.

We service what we sell.

Reader Makes A Plea For Animal Protection

Mr. Frank Orechio's editorial "A Bill To Protect Helpless Animals" was forceful and well-stated just what is needed!

Millions of animals used by medical laboratories in the United States each year are subjected to intense, needless, avoidable suffering.

These laboratories are supported by U.S. Government appropriations exceeding $1 Billion a year. These are our tax dollars and we have a right to demand that the animals receive humane treatment.

Legislation now being considered by Congress would eliminate much of this needless cruelty and at the same time improve the quality of medical research.

Under present conditions, the American people are financing and tolerating a vast and terrible cruelty. It is a cruelty that should be promptly ended for the moral health of our people as well as to protect the helpless animal that suffer.

As a moral issue, the abuse of animals in research demands attention and action. Man's dominion over God's animals is being misused when His creatures are mercilessly and routinely subjected to suffering as they are in increasing numbers, in American laboratories.

Another Comparison With Nearby Chatham

To The Editor, Belleville Times:

In last week's issue, I described the Chatham Township Board of Education's disastrous and expensive attempt to unseat their superintendent of schools. After 31 days of testimony, they failed miserably when the state Commissioner of Education ruled that the responsibility for the unhappy state of affairs "lies with the board of education." Chatham taxpayers were stunned when they had to pick up a $16,000 tab for back pay, legal fees and other expenses.

I would like to add just one more comparison between the two cases: When the Chatham board members responsible for this fiasco ran for reelection, they were tossed out by the outraged voters. This bodes ill for Messrs. Arvidson and Juliano in our February school board election, but would be one ray of sunshine in the Belleville situation.

NEW JERSEY'S INDUSTRIAL PARKS ARE BUILT FOR YOU

You'll be in good company when you locate in one of New Jersey's Industrial Parks!

Here's Why Industrial Parks in New Jersey Offer You the Perfect Plant Site

New Jersey has a great number of made-to-order industrial parks—spacious, well-planned areas that promise industry with everything it needs to succeed: heavy-duty roadways and railroads, all utilities, help in building and financing, local community cooperation. The list is endless... and it's important to know the facts. But look at the facts yourself—look at New Jersey!

First, the market. New Jersey sits right in the middle of Megalopolis: the most concentrated area of wealth and influence in the world. It is served by the nation's two largest deepwater ports. It has the highest ratio of scientists and technicians—eighty-four of America's 100 largest industrial firms are here. And, of great importance, New Jersey offers a number of ending choice of places to visit and things to do.

Town Scouts Collecting Newspapers For Funds

Belleville Boy Scouts are starting the new year with a new method of earning funds for their troop treasuries. It might be called a sort of a multi-purpose permanent paper drive designed to eliminate fire hazards, ease air pollution, and conserve the forests. One bale of paper saves 17 trees.

What the Scouts are doing is collecting waste newspapers, each from a small group of houses near his own home, and on a regular basis, every two weeks all year round. The Scout then stores the papers in a neat, weatherproof aluminum cabinet behind his own house. A dealer will collect the paper from the cabinets by truck, also on a regular schedule.

The Boy Scout troops participating so far are Troop 375 of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Robert J. Fersch, Scoutmaster, Troop 387, St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church, Thomas S. Sibilia, Scoutmaster, and Troop 388, Christ Episcopal Church, Robert May, Scoutmaster.

This new system, the circuit says, will help the household or by removing a fire hazard of storing waste paper and saving him a lot of trouble. It will help others, it goes on, by contributing to the conservation of our forests and easing air pollution caused by paper burning.

The funds from the sale of paper will be placed in the Troop treasury and used for camping and the purchase of small equipment items and program supplies.

Belleville is the first place in the United States to try this new conservation money earning method. It is expected that other scout troops will soon join the movement in Belleville.

20 before a packed audience at School 8. He was suspended without pay pending a decision on some 22 charges placed against him by Arvidson, with the approval of the board majority composed of Nicholas S. Julliano, Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, and Rocco Salletta.

The Charges

In addition to the alleged use of school property to duplicate anti-control petitions (the importance of which Arvidson had at first scoffed at), Durkee was faced with charges of undermining board policies, hampering the entire educational system, and impairing the quality and effectiveness of instruction.

Durkee denied a report that the NEA's report could be used as supplemental evidence by the commission, since none of the witnesses who testified before the investigating committee were under oath.

An appeal has been made by the board against the ruling by Dr. William S. Twichell, county superintendent of schools, who refused the board permission to establish the post of business administrator—a position now held by Harold Burford.

A hearing is scheduled for Jan. 25.

title, however, has not been transferred.

The new Route 21 has been in use since 1964 while the short dead end street has been used by Wallace & Tieman employees as a parking area. With no clear ownership indicated, Torre has been assessing the land as it had been before the exchange between the company and the state.

In its decision, the board found no legal reason for assessing the company and ruled the land was owned by the Highway Department. The board set the omitted assessment at $69,100.

The highway department will now be required to pay some $2,743 for 1964-65 taxes on the property. The tax rate here is $3.47 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The board had conducted the hearing at the request of Torre, who wanted a clear directive to guide him in his duties.

who had once been vice president, has allied himself with Arvidson's recommendations to the board and, with Dr. Frank DiRuggiero and Rocco Salletta, formed a majority in almost all decisions approved by the board. Julliano, soft-spoken and efficient, is considered one of the board's most deliberate and thoughtful members. Despite criticism for invariably voting as part of the majority, Julliano says he is doing the best he can under trying conditions.

His reason for seeking reelection? An unwillingness to quit under fire, and a firm belief in his position.

Lally, who has consistently backed Durkee, and who took a large share of credit for the successful drive for a new high school, has been relatively neutral in school affairs until the Durkee affair developed.

What are his motives in running for a board seat after serving previously? He feels the four member majority have performed a disservice to the town in ousting Durkee, in over-estimating the annual school budget, and what he considers "arrogance in office."

Haight, a new candidate for office with no previous experience in municipal affairs, hopes to bring "a fresh viewpoint" to the board. His sole motive in running for a seat on the board, he said, is to serve the town. He was the last to file a petition.

operative meters. A few motorists had—perhaps out of long habit—fed coins into meters whose legality has been cast in doubt by a sharp-eyed Newark News reporter who contested a parking ticket issued outside Town Hall recently.

Magistrate Edward J. Abramson, said the town's 300 meters were, as far as he was concerned, illegal, and before acting on any more tickets issued by the cops, he would have to see an order from the state.

The 24-year-old ordinance, which had been amended three times had not been approved by the state, a requirement added after the initial ordinance had been passed by the council. The town is now awaiting action on

Kard Game Goes To BHS by 60-44

Tally In 2nd Win

Big Fen win number two came to Belleville in a big way last week as the Bellboys hit their stride and routed Brateris 60-44.

After the first quarter ended in a 12-12 tie, Coach Al Lo Balbo's boy's began to jell as they steadily built up a good lead. Moving into high gear during the final period, the Bellboys grabbed their 12 point margin during the first eight minutes before giving way to a squad of Belleville juniors.

Ken Fulmore had drawn the monumental task of guarding the Kard 6-6 leader, Ralph Brateris. Despite a three-inch height disadvantage, Fulmore responded brilliantly by holding the giant visitor to eight points while scoring 14 himself. Foul trouble and a weak ankle hindered Brateris somewhat, but it was generally Fulmore's defensive efforts that had him miss nine of 13 field goal attempts.

Rebounding from an off-night against East Orange, an accurate Rich Pucciarello led the Bellboys with 25 points. Starting slowly with two points in the first quarter "Puch" picked up his scoring pace as the game progressed, finishing with ten points in his abbreviated fourth quarter to better his average by a point.

Going into the game Hal Baker and Art Sheridan remained as the only two Bellboys to have appeared in every quarter. Their records bit the dust against the Kardinals as Baker got into early foul trouble and Sheridan sat out a period to give him Carlo a chance.

Still among the missing was the Bellboys' key front court reserve Bob Paterson, who is sidelined by a virus. With the absence of the 6-foot 2 senior, junior Rich San Filippo has taken over the role as back-up man for Fulmore, Pizzuto and Baker.

Starting quickly, the Bellboys had managed to pull ahead to a five point lead before the Kard the ordinance which would again set the meters to collecting coins. But this approval had not been received by Tuesday night. In fact, said Burnett, it was still being shuffled from one authority in Trenton to another.

David E. Haight Jr. Enters Race For Board Of Education Position

DAVID E. HAIGHT JR.

A 33-year-old Newark merchant and Belleville resident, became the fourth and last candidate to file for the Feb. 8 school board election Friday afternoon when he entered the office of the Board of Education at School 8 with high hopes, the proper petition, and the endorsement of the Fair Play Committee.

He was David E. Haight Jr. who said he hoped to bring a fresh point of view to the board membership; felt a member of the board shouldn't serve too long; and declared he would try to keep his official acts, if elected, on an impersonal level.

Haight graduated from School 3 in 1938, and Belleville High School in 1952. He later attended Dartmouth and graduated in 1956 with a Bachelor of Arts degree after having majored in government. He served three years as a captain in the U.S.A.F. as a radar observer.

He has had no previous service on any administrative body, but feels this is the opportunity to serve the town. "I've been thinking about it for some time," he said Tuesday morning, "and I finally decided to run." He was explained, particularly disturbed by the problem now facing the board of education.

He is a member of the Jay-ces and was president from 1963 to 1964. "They don't endorse anyone," he said, "but encourage the individual to participate in town activities."

He is a member of the Wesley Methodist Church and in addition to serving on the official board, has been a member of various committees.

Haight, who is unmarried, lives at 292 Union Ave., and shares operation of a small market in Newark, with his father.

Main criticism had come from political figures who demanded the resign post as Democratic committeeman. O'Connor, however, pointed to the word of the law which said he mustn't campaign while in office, and he isn't active in politics, he said.

Meanwhile, Vincent Mustachio, who lost the position to O'Connor, has been reported photographing the acting plumber's work, and trying to get enough backing from other plumbers to ouster O'Connor.

Despite O'Connor holding two jobs — one with the county, the other with the town — there have been no complaints to his professional capability. He has missed none of the inspections he's called to make.

O'Connor reported his detractors had been trying to schedule two inspections at the same time in order to prove he wasn't capable of doing the work.

Belleville's Commission on Civil Rights will be discussed by Theodore M. Wells, Commission Chairman to the Belleville Community Welfare Council at 8:15 p.m. Monday, Jan. 10 at the DeWitt Savings & Loan Association, 463 Washington Ave.

Wells, a life-long town resident, became vice chairman of the Commission after it was created by Town Council ordinance in September, 1963. He advanced to chairman in October, 1965. Prior to the creation of the Commission on Civil Rights, Wells was a member of the Town Planning Commission.

In April of 1965, Wells became the first Negro in the country to assume a state office in the Masonic Order. At that time, he was appointed a grand chaplain of the New Jersey Lodge. In this post, he visits about ten lodges a

GORDON F. ADAMS

THE TROUBLE WITH music appreciation in general is that people — especially young students — are taught to have too much respect for music; they should be taught to love it instead.

What Ringo Starr is to the unbarbered set in the metropolitan area, George Bizet, in his own much more modulated 18th century way, is to youthful music lovers who will see and hear his masterpiece "Carmen" Friday afternoon at Symphony Hall in Newark.

Around 1 p.m. some 50 members of the Belleville Junior High School chorus will clamber aboard a big bus and join a sold out house of 3,500 other students to witness their first real, live opera. Perhaps more than any other "Carmen" has introduced youngsters to the fact that good music is not a deadly bore.

The opera has something for everyone: comedy, sword fights, love interest, and, at the end, a murder — just like TV. It's all set to bounce, floric music guaranteed to keep toes tapping. Accompanying the kids will be music teachers Wendell Parr and Pearl Anderson.

DRAWING STRAWS: On New Year's Eve Board Secretary Mrs. Mary Shader arrived in her office at School 8 and began preparing cards bearing the names of the four candidates for a seat on the Board of Education during the forthcoming election.

Former board president Dominick Lally arrived first. Next came David E. Haight Jr., the only new candidate to file, followed by Dr. Frank DiRuggiero and his wife.

"Who will shake up the names in the box?" asked Mrs. Shader.

"I will," volunteered Dr. DiRuggiero, and started shaking the box vigorously.

Mrs. Shader reached into the box and began drawing names for position on the board of education election ballot.

"David E. Haight Jr.," she read, "first place."

"Dominick A. Lally," she intoned, second place.

"Ernest S. Arvidson," she continued, third place.

"Nicholas S. Julianio," she said, fourth place. The participants began leaving the office.

"Good night, Doc," said Lally to DiRuggiero. Stony silence.

As Lally and Haight left in high spirits with the two top places on the ballot, Julianio arrived, perhaps wondering about his position on the ballot and how he got there.

NAMES IN THE NEW: LOU "VEE BEE" BRUNO will soon join Sheriff Leroy D'Aloia's fine array of special deputies. School Board attorney MAX N. SCHWARTZ recovering at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital after minor surgery (but it wasn't minor surgery to him!).

News Highlights of 1965: There Were Few (If Any) Dull Moments Here

What kind of year had 1965 and a return to the academic been for Belleville residents? Told by BHS graduates who told Well, it was one marked by pain their juniors of the trials and tribulations of college courses. Town Council, the youthful joyous production of "Guys and Dolls" by students at Belleville High School; and the spry record of a professional career undergoing attack by administrative colleagues who should be working together.

It was a year in which the Bellboys had a pretty good season, only to have their coach faced with charges of impartiality. On the bright side was the selection of one of the town's loveliest girls as Miss Cherry Blossom Queen; the arrival of Santa Claus at Clearman Field; over who his successor would be; Charles B. Tedesco, a trained attorney, again stepped into breach, as he has on numerous occasions.

Ten residents filed petitions for a seat on the board of Education, including two incumbents, Mrs. Thomas F. McCool and Dr. Frank DiRuggiero. Both regained their seats.

Mrs. Marie Romano, 165 Hornblower Ave., and Mrs. Patricia Kolokowsky, 83 Bremond St., came in first and second with the first of a bumper crop of babies born at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital.

A strike lasting some 20 days was ended at ITT by 2,800 workers here, in Nutley, and Clinton.

Emil B. Wuster, a Hackensack attorney, declined to accept an appointment as town attorney to replace Finch. Said he wouldn't take the job if offered and couldn't attend council meetings.

Councilman Robert Westpy blamed Wuster's refusal on a tax rate was anticipated at $4.07.

The school budget went down to defeat, which would allow residents to demand more and better services later on. Current expenses lost by 136 votes; capital outlay went down by 332 votes.

Mrs. McCool and Dr. DiRuggiero were returned to their anticipated board of education seats, by high Belleville residents, and Rocco Saletta filled the vacancy left by George Brown who decided not to run again. The vote went like this: DiRuggiero, 2,401; Saletta, 2,065; and McCool, 1,626. Seven other candidates didn't place.

Councilman James R. Golden was forced to explain his veto Committee that would welcome minority groups to Belleville. While all others could sign the pledge, he refused, saying he felt the pledge would encourage importation. (Ha Hum)

Councilman William McCool opposed the annual budget, with the explanation that the anticipated revenue was too high — despite the fact 1964's Belleville residents, and Rocco Saletta filled the vacancy left by George Brown who decided not to run again. Arvidson: Cited As Achievements Are Accreditation And Prestige

BY ERNEST S. ARVIDSON
President, Board of Education
Six years ago when it became my privilege to serve the community on the Board of Education, our school system was threatened with loss of accreditation because of its lack of facilities. The immediate problem was the manner in which this situation could be corrected. Many Belleville residents assisted in this study and finally determined that the matter could best be resolved by building a new high school. This high school has now been in operation for a year and a half and many improvements in our educational program have been effected. An increase in guidance personnel has enabled the schools to provide much needed help to all students in grades seven through twelve.

Facilities in shop and home economics have made it possible to expand this instruction. Grammar, language and laboratory facilities have been provided. A modern library has been of great help to the students. Children in the elementary schools have benefited by additional space available for many educational opportunities, facilities for improved physical education, and an enriched curriculum have been provided. Durkee Report Due Jan. 16; NEA Committee Will Appear

The eagerly awaited report by the National Education Association committee into alleged misconduct by Dr. Frank M. Durkee, suspended superintendent of schools here, has been tentatively scheduled for Sunday afternoon, Jan. 16 in the Belleville High School auditorium, said board president Ernest S. Arvidson Tuesday morning.

The report will be made in person by the five-member committee who spent four days in October investigating the charges placed against Durkee by Arvidson, just when would read the report — estimated as being some 48 pages in length. Arvidson was unable to say.

Dr. Oscar Thompson, committee coordinator, said the investigating committee is reviewing the final draft and will forward recommendations and changes before the document is approved.

An Election Issue
The board had requested the investigation by the NEA's commission on professional rights and responsibilities, and is expected to be the turning point of the forthcoming school board election in which two incumbents, — Arvidson, who placed the charges, and Nicholas S. Juliano, who backed up Arvidson's actions — are seeking reelection to the board.

The 58-year-old superintendent was suspended with pay May 24, 1965 after Arvidson charged him with illegal use of a duplicating machine. Four months later he was reinstated by order of Dr. Frederick M. Raubinger, state education commissioner. Who said the investigation had been unnecessarily delayed.

Council OK's Plumbing Inspector's Pay Range

The Town Council adopted an ordinance during their regular meeting Dec. 27 fixing the town's plumbing inspectors salary range at $1,200-$1,500 by a 3-2 vote following a controversial two-month battle over the position.

The council amended and approved an ordinance changing the pay scale from $1,000 to $1,200 and overruled councilmen William H. Gillen and James R. Golden who said the change would require a republishing of the ordinance and another public hearing.

Town Attorney Jack Soriano said the two amendments could be made without either action.

The ordinance first came to public attention Nov. 8 when Town Manager John R. Burnett said the post of acting plumbing inspector, held by Bernard O'Connor of 203 Franklin Ave., should be raised to $1,200 to $1,500. It was tabled until Dec. 13 when the measure was amended at $1,000-$1,300 by the council.

O'Connor was appointed by the council Nov. 8 and has been the subject of controversy and personal attack ever since. "I don't let it worry me," said O'Connor recently. "I'm doing my job."

Arvidson, Juliano Face Lally, Haight Feb. 8th

The ouster of Dr. Frank M. Durkee, superintendent of schools, by the four member majority of the board of education became a clear-cut issue Friday with the announcement by two incumbents, Board president Ernest S. Arvidson, 56, and his running mate Nicholas S. Juliano, of plans to seek reelection Feb. 8.

Opposing the two veteran board members were former board president Dominick A. Lally, a frequent and bitter critic of the official action taken by the two men, and David E. Haight Jr., a newcomer to the scene who arrived bearing the endorsement of the Fair Play Committee, a pro-Durkee group headed by Allen C. Sp. (See story on Page 3)

The four-candidate slate is one of the smallest in recent years despite the controversy surrounding the election.

Arvidson, who gave six years service to Belleville, was bitter over the firing of his charges against Durkee which resulted in the suspension of the superintendent Nov. 29 and divided the town.

Nicholas S. Juliano, a member of the board since 1961, had filed some 22 charges against Durkee which resulted in the suspension of the superintendent Nov. 29 and divided the town.

Special Meeting

A special meeting of the Board of Education will be held Monday night at School 8 to formulate a temporary budget for advertising purposes, said Mrs. Mary Shader, board secretary Tuesday. The proposed budget must then go to County superintendent William S. Twitchell for approval.

A public hearing date will be set later.

Tax Ruling On State Land To Face An Appeal

Belleville has been authorized by the Essex County Tax Board to file an assessment of $99,100 against property owned by the State Highway Department, which has been printed from the 1965-66 assessments.

Peter Torre, Tax Collector here, said the town is preparing an appeal from the Board's decision to the State Tax Appeal Board, and doubted the town could assess a state agency.

It would be like taxing another part of the same governmental agency, agreed Town Manager John R. Burnett.

Title Trouble

The land which the town sought to tax was two parcels just off Main Street — Old Route 21 — which had been exchanged from state-owned land by Wallace A. Tordian a year ago to permit the Highway Department to construct the new Route 21. Legal NEWLY ARRIVED David Tango cuddles up against his mother, Mrs. Michael Tango, 7 Frederick St., shortly after his birth last Saturday morning at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, an event which gave him the distinction of being the first baby born in Belleville this year. This striped cat he wears was part of the annual New Year's Day celebration held at the hospital. He arrived at 8:42 a.m. Jan. 1, and weighed in at a hefty 7 pounds, 8 ounces. He was also awarded a gift certificate by Robert Wirtz of Plaza Babyland here.
