

Social Security Administration Mails Million Medicare Reminder Letters

This week, the Social Security Administration mailed out over a million reminder letters to social security beneficiaries who have not signed up for the supplementary medical insurance part of Medicare. Medicare kits, including an enrollment card for the medical insurance plan, were sent during the fall to the 15 1/2 million social security and railroad retirement beneficiaries 65 or over. About two-thirds of these people have sent back their cards and 90 per cent have checked "Yes" for medical insurance under Medicare. "In New Jersey," William Arnold, social security district manager in Newark, said today, "543,692 people received Medicare kits and enrollment cards last fall. As of the first week in January, 410,961 people had returned their enrollment cards. Of these, 92.8 per cent have signed up for the supplementary medical insurance plan." "Many of the people who have not signed up may not understand how the plan will work and what it offers," he added. "The letter going out from social security headquarters in Baltimore, Maryland, this week should answer some of their questions." Enclosed with this second letter is another enrollment card in case they lost the first one or sent it in marked "No" and have since changed their minds. "The primary message carried in the reminder letter is that who sign up for the supplementary medical insurance," Arnold pointed out, "there will be no need to pay their monthly premiums in cash. The $3 will be automatically deducted from the monthly checks of social security, railroad retirement, and civil service retirees." "Anyone who still has questions about this part of Medicare should get in touch with the social security office," Arnold concluded. "The Social Security Administration is anxious to make sure that everyone who is eligible makes an informed decision about Medicare — and makes it before the 31st of March." The social security office in Newark is at 1016 Broad Street.

Salvation Army Made Christmas Happier

The Salvation Army made the Christmas season happier for over 65,000 persons throughout the state, said a report from the New Jersey Divisional Commander, Lt. Colonel W. Arthur Bramford.

The assistance to the needy is measured not only in the number of persons aided and financial expenditure, but also by the heart of friendship and the concern for others of this humanitarian organization.

Itemized Deduction May Increase Tax Savings For Widows This Year

Employed women and widowers may deduct up to $900 in child care expenses for certain dependents on the 1965 Federal income tax returns if they itemize their deductions. The expenses for the care of certain disabled dependents may also be deducted.

Cost for the care of these dependents is deductible if the care permits the taxpayer to be gainfully employed or to seek employment.

The deduction may be taken by a woman, whether single, married, widowed, divorced or deserted. A man is eligible only if he is widowed, divorced, legally separated from his wife, or if his wife is incapacitated or institutionalized.

Those expenses are deductible for two types of dependents: (1) Children under 13, and (2) someone who is physically or mentally incapable of caring for himself, regardless of age. The disability may be temporary or permanent.

Rodino Seeks To Improve American Common Market

Rep. Peter W. Rodino (D., 10th Dist.) hailed the opening of hearings on the proposed "Interstate Taxation Act," Rodino, ranking member of the House Judiciary committee's special subcommittee on State Taxation of Interstate Commerce which is holding the hearings, is a sponsor of the legislation.

In his statement to the subcommittee, the dean of the New Jersey delegation said: "I am glad that today we have finally reached the point of formal public discussion of this proposal. We are now one step closer to solution of the troublesome problems that have kept our American 'Common Market' from operating at its peak of efficiency."

"I believe the provisions of this bill are the appropriate means to solve the difficulties confronting business and the States. During the coming days of hearings I shall be listening with deep interest to the testimony of witnesses to learn their views on this measure."

The New Jersey Democrat stressed that since this is the start of the hearings, "it would be useful to point out two fundamental considerations which should always be kept in mind before we become immersed in technicalities and details."

"First," he said, "and this is the cornerstone of our concern, the basis for Congressional interest in this area, is the maintenance of the free flow of commerce throughout the United States. The degree to which it can be kept unfettered in large measure determines the health of our economy at every level—local, regional and national. The maintenance of our economic health will benefit every person in this country. What we do here must be in keeping with this principle."

"Secondly," he added, "we must remember that the ultimate conclusion of our study was that the present system works badly both for interstate business and for the States. No solution can be a good one unless it helps them both."

"I believe," he concluded, "that these two precepts are followed in this proposal. I hope these hearings will confirm my belief."

SOCIAL SECURITY

"A deflationary jolt to the nation's economy is expected by some," when an increase in Social Security taxes takes effect. Workers and their employers must pump an additional $1 billion into the Social Security Trust Fund in 1966.

Companies with large payrolls and narrow profit margins may feel the need to raise prices as a means of offsetting the higher tax bite, a move that could result in harmful buyer resistance to its products. And for smaller companies with narrower margins the choice could be a bleak one, indeed.

League of Mercy "Sunshine Pack" of toiletry items and candy and a copy of "War Cry" were distributed to 24,352 persons in 247 hospitals, nursing homes and institutions in the immediate area of the 24 Salvation Army Corps centers and to 8,460 persons in 37 hospitals, state schools and homes for the aged in the 173 Service Unit areas of New Jersey.

The requirements which must be met to claim this deduction are:

1. The deduction may not exceed $600 in the case of one dependent or $900 in the case of two or more dependents.

2. Married women must file a joint return with their husbands and reduce the deduction by the amount that their combined adjusted gross income exceeds $6,000. This rule does not apply, however, if the husband is incapable of self-support due to mental or physical cause.

3. Deductions are not allowed for the care of anyone whom the taxpayer is not entitled to claim as a dependent.

4. If the person receiving the payments performs other duties, only the part paid for the child care may be deducted.

Document No. 5052, Child Care, which furnishes more detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by writing to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service.

The Ironbound Red Shield Boys' Club of The Salvation Army in Newark held a Christmas party for 900 youngsters from the Ironbound community. In addition, a turkey dinner and gifts were given to 35 boys from St. Peter's Orphanage, who were guests of the Ironbound Jaycees and the Boys' Club. Newark Jaycees took 35 club members on a $5 shopping spree at Chase Department store, and 30 underprivileged children from the club went to a party sponsored by the Howard F. Schwartz American Legion Post 406.

For the first time The Salvation Army was able to bring cheer to persons at the Vineland State School for the Retarded, Woodbridge State School and Johnstone Training Center at Bordentown, all in Service Unit Areas.

Christmas dinners were served at The Salvation Army Red Shield Club at Wrightwood to 229 men and women of the armed forces, each of whom plus 641 others at the club during the holiday season received a League of Mercy gift package.

The five Men's Social Service centers in Newark, Atlantic City, Paterson, Jersey City and Trenton served 518 Christmas dinners to homeless men permanently residing at the Social and to transients or lonely men, who had no other place to go on Christmas Day.

The Emergency Home for Women and Children at 82 Washington Street, Newark, cared for 15 persons at Christmas and the following week. At the Door of Hope for Unwed Mothers in Jersey City the 38 girls there had special programs including a trip to Radio City Music Hall, Christmas Eve candlelight supper, Christmas dinner and a buffet supper Christmas night for their parents.

A gift and a League of Mercy "Sunshine Pack" were given to each girl, and the six babies at the Home received Christmas stockings.

Food baskets were given to 1,720 in Service Unit areas, and 100 aged persons in the Bloomfield Service Unit received food and clothing.

Welfare assistance of food, clothing and toys was given to 4,748 families in Corps areas and to 5,852 persons in the Newark region by the Family and Person Service Department.

Mrs. Pearl Asher of the Family and Personal Service Department in Newark made telephone calls to relatives and friends of victims of the Military Park Hotel fire on December 24, and The Salvation Army offered coats and sleeping facilities to those displaced by the fire. Immediate assistance was also offered to families involved in disastrous apartment house fires Christmas Eve and help was given in locating new living quarters for them.

The Salvation Army at the request of other agencies, schools and churches participated in the welfare program in many communities and supplied special request items including new shoes for children.

$3.3 Million

Councilman William H. Cullen told the council she had had in adequate time to study a complex budget and therefore could not make an intelligent estimate of its worth. He later voted against the budget.

Councilman James R. Golden declared the budget was a phoney election year budget, and voted against it.

The town is safe, temporarily, at least, from a law suit by some 35 disgruntled employees who had sought pay increases and back pay for overtime work they claim they had illegally been assigned them over the past years.

Speaking for the employees Town Treasurer Francis McCoy said the group planned no legal action "at this time."

The Present Coast Guard Commandant, Admiral Edwin J. Roland, is the 16th military head of that service since its founding 175 years ago.

going to save money by going to the polls and defeating the school budget?

Well, sir, let me say that your advice is certainly far from constructive or consistent in view of the fact that you say you do not doubt that each item requested in the budget is necessary and that you have no doubts that the board members reduced departmental spending requests.

You go on to compliment the two board members, who are running for re-election for their courageous stand in voting for a high budget without fear of political consequences. Even though the budget is meritorious, you say it still must be defeated because the taxpayers simply cannot afford additional taxes.

But, Mr. Publisher, you fail to mention that each time a budget is defeated it must be resubmitted to the voters for a second vote. Belleville taxpayers have taken this path that you advocate before. What were the results???

(1) A second election, thousands of dollars literally thrown out the window on each additional election.

(2) Our town has acquired a reputation for tolerating an underpaid school system.

(3) We allow our schools to be come run down, not realizing that each time a necessary repair is delayed we double the amount of the original cost.

(4) We certainly do not project a very good image needed to attract high caliber teachers when we, a pattern of defeating budgets, which clearly implies that we are a town to avoid if they possibly can.

(5) Because of the tax cut in last year's budget we prolonged and delayed repairs that must still be made. Items that were needed last year, will still be needed this year.

These are but a few of the consequences that result when citizens do not support their schools, and may I add that the town of Belleville spends less of its tax dollar for education, than many of her surrounding neighbors, even though taxes have steadily gone up over the past ten years. And yet we deeply resent the fact that our neighboring towns have better school systems.

Fellow citizens, we can have a better school system, if we have the courage to face our problems sensibly and realize our obligations not only financially but by keeping ourselves informed, so that when elections come up we will be in a position to vote intelligently and independently without being influenced or pressured; and this means you and your group, Mr. Lally.

Election time is near at hand and our votes will determine whether or not we wish to erase the stigma of disgrace and criticism on our town, and I for one intend to cast my votes for the re-election of the two men I know can and will do this.

State Income Tax Unfair, Declares Jersey Tax Group

A state income tax will be "extremely unfair" to 700,000 New Jersey families with more than one wage earner, said the Citizens Action Committee for a Sales Tax.

Leonard E. Best, chairman of the organization, told a luncheon meeting of the Millburn Rotary Club that another withholding tax increase would penalize the hard work of thousands of families where both husband and wife hold jobs.

He pointed out that the 1960 U.S. Census showed New Jersey with 714,250 families with more than one worker and 770,895 supported by one wage earner.

A sales tax, on the other hand, said Best, "does not put a burden on the family. It is a tax on the economy. And it aids the needy and unemployed by keeping the throttle wide open on an expanding economy."

"These are just two of the many reasons why legislators' mail and objective polls continuously show that people overwhelmingly prefer a sales tax."

Best declared that chances are 61 a state income tax would lead to a sales tax anyway. He said 18 income tax states had to turn to a sales tax "to carry the load," while only three states began with a sales and then turned to an income levy too.

RAILROAD NEWS

The head of the New York Central System credits the millions of dollars a year being spent by the railroad industry in technical marketing and cybernetics research with producing such dramatic changes "if the railroads will regain their dominant role in supplying transportation to our burgeoning economy."

He added that the railroads are doing more research than ever before and more privately financed research than any other form of transportation to day. And some individual railroads, he said, are spending more for research than all other forms of transportation put together.

Newark & Essex Bank Elects Two as Directors

Frederick H. Cook, chairman of the board of Congoleum-Nairn, Inc., and Theron L. Marsh, executive vice president and cashier of the National Newark & Essex Bank, have been elected to the board of directors of National Newark & Essex, it was announced Tuesday by Robert G. Cowan, chairman of the board.

They will fill the vacancies created by the retirements of F. W. Birkenhauer and William L. Maude.

Cook joined Congoleum-Nairn in 1955 as vice president of sales. In March, 1958, he was elected executive vice president and was named president in October of that year. He was graduated by Indiana University in 1930 and served in the Naval Air Force during World War II.

Marsh joined National Newark & Essex in 1934, following his graduation at Princeton University. He was graduated by St. Anthony's High School in 1928. He was named vice president and cashier in 1956 and executive vice president and cashier in 1958. He served as president of the Essex County Bankers' Association and was treasurer and director of the Newark Welfare Federation. He is also a member of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America and former president and executive committee member of the Robert Treat Council, BSA, which presented him its "silver beaver award."

Marsh presently serves on the planning board in Summit, N. J., and in 1957 and 1958, he served as president of the Essex County Bankers' Association and was treasurer and director of the Newark Welfare Federation. He is also a member of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America and former president and executive committee member of the Robert Treat Council, BSA, which presented him its "silver beaver award."

Savings Banks Report Deposits Past $2 Billion

Total deposits at New Jersey's mutual savings banks have soared past the $2 billion mark in 1965, it has been announced by Edmund J. Sauer, Jr., president of the Savings Banks Association.

With all 21 member banks and their 51 offices reporting the continuation of a steady increase in business, deposits at the end of the year stood at $2,037,000,000, an increase of $212,000,000 over the 1964 year-end deposits of $1,825,000,000.

The one million depositors who actually own the savings banks in the state have doubled their total deposits within the past decade. At the end of 1955, total deposits in savings banks stood at $1,010,000,000, half as much as the present figures.

Many different types of accounts are offered by savings banks throughout New Jersey, Sauer pointed out. Along with the basic regular savings account, many member banks conduct school savings programs, Christmas and Vacation Clubs and offer personal checking account services.

Sauer said the continued progress offers "significant indications that New Jersey's mutual savings banks remain foremost in the public mind as the safest and soundest depository for their savings."

"We cannot stress too strongly the emphasis our members place on the safety of deposits," he said. "By providing this protection and the many services mutual savings banks offer with a consistent maximum interest return, we are continuing a growth pattern that has seen our mutual savings banks double in financial strength during the past decade."

BHS Routes Nutley Raiders For 10th Win, Pucciarello 300 Points Up

Maroon Defeat Doesn't Add Much Bellboy Luster

By STEVE CHAREN

Constantly building on their lead, the Bellboys pulled ahead 22 points before turning the game over to the reserve enroute to a 55-40 point of Nutley.

Hitting on 9 of 12 shots from the floor and 3 of 3 from the line, Rich Pucciarello led the attack as he climbed the tri-centenary plateau with his 313th point.

The high scoring Bellboys' effort came against defense minded Tom Pennett, who had used an off night to hold Pucciarello to six points in their first meeting.

Ken Fulmore was next in the Bellboy attack with 12 points while finally making the switch from forward to center. Fulmore has been drawing the middle man's job of guarding the opposition's big men all year, but this was his first shot at the tip-off jumping role.

Strong Defense

Junior, Rich San Filippo who put in two of three shots and played a strong defensive game took over Fulmore's forward role while pushing Harry Baker out of the starting line up.

Meanwhile, the stubborn Raiders were going with a senior dominated line up that had only Junior Steve Brantley, a starter at forward, among the potential returnees. Jack Drury's rebuilding forces boast a 1-14 record and a Varsity roster of ten seniors and two juniors, inactive Cliff Clarke in the other underclassman.

The game started slowly with Belleville leading by five points after one quarter and by seven at the half before ripping the game open with a 16-6 third period to make it 41-24.

The Lineup

The only plus for the Maroon side was their superior rebounding. Hauling down 59 carbous to 27 for Belleville thanks to Ray Ritacco, Brantley and Greg Rarja, the visitors managed to get off 61 shots to 44 before the Bellboys. Accuracy was lacking, though at only 16 field goals found their mark.

Robsons Topple Big Hillcrests In Rec League

In a repeat of their first meeting, the Robsons toppled the mighty Hillcrests in the Recreation Men's Basketball League last Monday.

But where their first win was by a very slim two point margin, this second victory was a rout 78-54. The Robsons just couldn't do anything wrong and they scored.

Scoring by the Robsons was as follows:

Davitt 7, McGinney 15, Robson and Hendrickson each 13, Hercek, 10, and Capetta and Scholz each 7.

In addition to their own ample scoring the Robsons held the Hillcrests two big scorers, Higgings and McNish, to 13 and 11 points each. This win by Stashes reduces the Hillcrests lead in the league to a slender thread.

League standings are Hillcrest 8-2, Stashes 7-2, Robsons, 7-3, Sams 7-3, K.Y.C. 4-6, Oilhouse 3-7, Belle Maid 2-7, BPSC 1-9.

DeMolay Loses First Game Of Year To Jersey

By DOUG McCUMBER

Subchapter Chapter, Order of DeMolay, lost its first game to a tough Jersey Chapter from Jersey City by 33-27, last Wednesday — a close 6-point loss.

Halves controlled the offensive and took advantage of their height advantage. They scored on 12 rebounds and started plays when they got the defensive rebound.

Belleville was down by 20 points, starting the second half and came within 6 points of closing the gap with 30 seconds left in the fourth quarter but time ran out.

High scorer for the night was player-coach Doug McCumber of Suburban with 11 points who pumped in five 20-foot jump shots and one foul shot. Guy Hallsworth and Fred Burbank were tied for second with six points each.

Clifton Matmen Pin Our BHS Team 30-12

The wrestlers lost to a good Clifton team when they took only four of twelve matches last week.

As usual, the end men for Belleville were victorious, both winning by decisions. The season is now a 4-4 record, but the team is hoping to rectify that problem soon.

Nick DiDomenico is still going great as he recorded his sixth dual meet win in as many matches so far this season. He is keeping command of the opposition his work at par as he took the victory by a 13-1 score, with a full throughout the whole time. He had two takedowns, a near fall, a predicament, a reversal, and plenty of riding time in his completely one-sided match.

Rich Cuculo took advantage of his power to over-run his opponent while he used some quick moves and fast thinking to stage his victory at 115 pounds. He is getting better continually, and should be good for several victories in ensuing meets.

Oliveri Comeback

Oliveri started his comeback after being 'off' for a while, as he was the top man in his match with a 6-0 score for his efforts. He gave the fans another look at the proper execution of the takedown, as he used this move well in the first period for his initial two points, to which he later added a quick reversal and had well over three minutes riding time.

As captain, he has done a wonderful job all along in keeping the boys in top spirits during the meets. And it seems that he has uncanny power to call the flip of the coin. In the eight meets, he's had choice six times.

Last, but hardly the least, John Rempusheski overwhelmed his opposition to the tune of 7-2. He did another great job, and got out of trouble the only time he was in it by pulling a beautiful escape. He's done a terrific job at heavy this year, and overcame the lack of confidence he suffered from last year.

Losers' Laments: One thing that really hurt the Bellboys' chances was the loss of 136-pounder Joe Villano. He tore the cartilage in knee, tore some tendons, and is out for the season most likely. Because of this, all the Bellboy Grapplers had to drop down a weight to make up for the slack. And as anyone who has ever gone on a crash diet can tell you, it severely weakened the boys who did, and it might be noted here that all said boys lost. That included Bill Buist, Jim Puleo, and Bob Andrews.

ECT NEXT: The Bellboys have been invited to join the Essex County Basketball Tournament. After closing out the regular season tomorrow night with West Orange, Belleville will start tomorrow's preparations for its meeting with eight-sided St. Benedict's Prep, Tuesday night (7:15 p.m.) at East Orange.

To no one's great surprise, giant Weequahic (16-1) was first choice for the favorite role followed by East Orange (16-1). Valley draws the dubious distinction of facing the tall Indians in the first round while Bloomfield takes on East Orange, the Panthers will then probably face the winner of the St. Benedict's-Belleville battle.

CITY DOMINANCE: Newark's pre-eminence, mostly from City League, continues to be evident for the fifth straight year through out the rest of the seedings. South Side (12-4) defending champion for the past two years drew the third spot followed by Central (11-5), Essex Catholic (an 8-6 Newark school), Wheezy Duke led - Livingston (14-1), Big Ten runner-up Orange (11-5), and St. Benedict's (another 8-6 Newark representative).

BELLBOY FOE: Playing against strong, highly ranked teams, St. Benedict's has held its own in compiling an 8-6 mark. Showing the tendency for high scoring in several outings, the Gray Bees are a foe to be reckoned with for the 10-7 Bellboys. Leading the Newark Prep school is 5-foot-10 Jim Delany, who has over 300 points on the season and a 1100 plus career total. Boasting an average of 24 pints a game, Delany will pose a threat for the Blue and Gold defenders.

OFFENSIVE DEFENSE BATTLE: The opening round ECT games shape up as primarily a battle between St. Benedict's loose attack and Al LoBallo's well-disciplined Bellboy defense. Providing the Blue and Gold defenders are near their peak and both Rich Pucciarello and Nick Pizzuto are hitting from the corners, the Bellboys stand a very good chance to pull off the upset. It will take loads of team work though, as a few mistakes might well be disastrous. Taking past performances into consideration, this could well be one of those battles decided from the foot line.

JV TOURNEY: The Junior Varsity goes into action Saturday in its own version of the Essex County Tournament, facing the winner of a first round Irvington Tech - West Side clash at Clifford Scott.

Due to rules which state "only scholastically eligible freshmen and sophomores will be allowed to play in the JV tournament and that Jayvee tournament players may not have played in any varsity contests," Belleville's junior nucleus will not be able to participate.

LINE-UP CHANGES: The 10-7 Junior Bellboys had been going with a line-up of juniors Jim Curalano, Joe Mello, Tom Giannello, sophomore Bill Sherman and either juniors Mike Mateyka, or Joe Pesano or sophomore Roy Polite as their starting unit. Mello is already out, thanks to a sprained ankle, against Nutley. The juniors will also be sidelined for the tourney.

This leaves the Blue and Gold sophs with a line up of Sherman and Jim Buckley at the guards and any combination of Polite and five other JV's as starters for Charley Travers.

GRAPPLERS CRIPPLED: In jury has struck the wrestling team with devastating force during the past week as first year mentor Jim Sylvester's forces have run up against powerful Columbia, Clifton and Montclair to fall below the .500 mark at 4-5.

The matmen's problems started when undefeated 98-pounder Nick DiDominico missed a few meets with bronchitis. He finally returned as the rest of the team faltered. Injuries have kept John Zoppi, Rick Cucolo (out face) Mike Luongo (sprained hand) and Frank Morgan (sprained hand) the next four lightweights untouched. Although they have usually stayed in action, Co-captain, Bill Bui is a casualty in the next class having missed several matches with assorted ailments. Joe Villano, the Bellboys' only undefeated grappler, from last year tore the cartilage in his knee while dropping his first dual-meet decision at Columbia. The 138-pounder is now out for the year.

Despite early back problems, co-captain Mike Oliveri has been coming strong in the middleweights, he shares with 148-pounders Jim Pulco and Bob Andrews. In the heavy department, the grapplers have sided both their 168 and 177 pounders, Rich Bonkowski and Jim Luty. After that disaster area, unlimited John Rempusheski has been more than holding his own with a 8-1 record.

BIG TEN CHAMPS: East Orange clinched the Big Ten Conference title. It has been closing in on for the past two weeks by decisively pounding second place Orange, 73-54 last Friday. The well-balanced, sharp shooting, fleet-footed Panthers made a run away of this year's race right from the start, falling only once a freak let-down against Irvington.

A slight battle still remains in the Big Ten with five games remaining. This one for second place, Orange seems to hold the inside track, leading by one game and being hopeless. Nutley and Columbia in the final league play. Irvington and Montclair are currently deadlocked behind the Tornadoes with 10-6 marks. The Campers must face rapidly improving Kearny and erratic Bloomfield, while the Mounties go against the Bellboys and East Orange in this week's games.

Up Till Halftime, BHS Was Doing Just Great

By STEVE CHAREN

*Mike Parks banked in a soft one-hander from ten feet out with three seconds remaining to provide Kearny with the margin of victory in a wild 48-46 upset over Belleville.

It had been a battle all the way with the lead changing hands ten times — besides being tied at seven different counts — before the decisive score by the 5-foot-11 senior Kardinal. In dropping their second game in three outings, Al LoBallo's Bellboy cagers fell to 10-7 while the Red birds rose to 5-11.

Dominating the boards thanks to 6-foot-6 Ralph Brateris and 6-foot-3 Greg McLalroy, the hometown Kards had managed to get off eleven more shots than Belleville. The last was one decisive. With Ken Fulmore blanketing Brateris, the Bellboys main problem beneath the boards came from McLalroy who managed to score 14 points over the head of his defensive counterparts.

22-Point Man

Another thorn in the Blue and Gold's side, was senior backcourt man Jeff Moon, who came off the bench in the second quarter to hit an 5 of 9 long field goal attempts before fouling out. Rich Pucciarello was the main cause for the defensive lapse here.

The high scoring Bellboy did manage 22 points, though, to lead the scorers and keep within four buckets of Bloomfield's Ted Jasniecki and Irvington's Jim Nunn for Big Ten scoring honors. Seventeen of Pucciarello's points came in the second half; ten in the hectic final quarter.

Using a stringy pressing defense, the Bellboys had held Kearny scoreless for the first four and a quarter minutes. McLalroy found the range by going over Rich San Filippo. With Belleville holding an early 5-2 lead, the Kards started capitalizing on their height as they rolled to a 12-8 first quarter lead.

Halftime Lead

Sophomore sharp shooter Don Fix extended that margin to five in the second period until the Bellboys came alive with 6:50 remaining. Art Sheridan then drove in for a lay up, and Harry Baker

All of which leaves Belleville in a position to better last season's tie for fourth finish with a pair of wins.

The Big Ten standings as of Monday were:

Team	W	L	PCT
*E. Orange	15	1	.938
Orange	11	5	.688
Irvington	10	6	.625

made two free ones before Fulmore could go on a four-point spurt to put Belleville ahead 18-15 midway through the quarter. Moon then started bombing for the Redbirds, bringing them up even at 20-20 before scoring the last point of the half to leave it at 22 all.

The lead changed hands twice early in the third period before Pucciarello came up with a three-point play to put Belleville up 29-25. The Kards battled back to tie it at 29-29 before the Bellboys pulled ahead 35-23 going into the final round.

Close Game

Fulmore started the eighth by making a free throw, but then the Kards started to move. In the next minute four free ones found their mark along with a jumper by Moon as the tide turned in favor of the Partisan squad 39-36. Belleville cut that lead to 41-40 as the fouls, both called and uncalled came fast and furious.

Kearny moved ahead 44-41 before Pucciarello dropped in six foul shots in a 45 second span to again turn the tide; this time at 46-44. Parks tied it at 46 all with two minutes left before both teams went into a stall.

Belleville tried to set up but lost the ball. Kearny then tried to set up for one last shot. Later Pucciarello was racing downcourt with the ball only to be called for palming with 17 seconds remaining.

Roundup

Instructed to play careful defense and hope for overtime Pucciarello inadvertently doubled teamed playmaker Joe Mosier, leaving Parks all alone in the corner.

After the tie breaker, the Bellboys almost managed overtime when an inbound pass from Sheridan to Pizzuto to Fulmore just bounced off the rim at the buzzer.

BHS Bowlers Lose To Nutley Pin Men In League Play

By DAVE MC CUMBER

The Belleville High School Bowling Team defeated Nutley High one game at Bell Clair Lanes last Thursday in the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic Bowling League.

It was a bad day for the Bell boys when four of the five starters scored 60 and 100 pins below average series. Only Bob Santin made average for the day with a 500 series. The team won the first game and their confidence, already high because of the rival with Nutley was raised another notch, which soon came tumbling down as Nutley returned to win the second and third games.

The team still has to face Bloomfield — a League leader — as well as other teams like Essex Catholic, East Orange, and Carteret.

Team Crippled By Losses, Luty, Buist, Are Absent

By BILL MCCARTHY

A disappointingly small number of fans were at the Wrestling meet last Saturday as the team, missing four of its top men fell to Montclair by a 33-12 score. The biggest problem the team faced was the loss from injuries.

Starting from the top, Jim Luty, the 177 man, developed a boil on his lip, and couldn't wrestle. Rich Bonkowski found it practically impossible to practice and is out with a sore arm which hadn't completely healed.

At practice, Bill Buist wrestled above his weight and is suffering from a rib injury, and it is not known just how bad it is, or when he'll be back in the lineup.

Joe Villano, who was hurt before the last meet, will be out for the entire season, leaving a gap in the team which will be just about impossible to fill. Because the team was in a sad state, the patch-work of the coaches (Mr. Silvestri and Mr. Shott) has been adroit, but couldn't match the power of the Mounties.

End Men Win

Individually, the Bellboys found the same three men powering their way through the opposition. Both "ends" are functioning as they can be expected, as they pinned their men, as did the middle man.

Captain Mike Oliveri. Nick DiDomenico is making a name for himself, as he rolled over Scott of Montclair with a 4-0 lead already on his side. He spent about half a minute taking his man down, then put him in a predicament, and pinned him in the second period.

With his 7-0 record, he might find himself in top position at the tournament this month, and the team sure hopes to take it.

Captain Mike Oliveri started his "warmups" for the districts as he enjoyed a victory in a strange weight class. Having prepared to wrestle at 157 pounds he was gently informed by Coach Silvestri he was going in at 168. Mike took it in good humor, then found that the coach meant it.

But his superior ability was the great difference and that was surely a good match. He was in such fine form that had he not pinned his man, he still would have been up by ten!

"Big John" Leads

At heavyweight, John Rempusheski had to stage a surprising flip to take a sure victory for his opponent and change it into a

'Heart Fund' Drive Set For Month Of Feb.

The Essex County Heart Association launches the Heart Fund Drive this month with two major objectives:

1 To raise money to continue the Association's programs of Research, Education, and Service.

2 To launch the Risk Factors in Heart Attack program.

Now available to the general public is a new leaflet outlining the six Risk Factors:

1 Cholesterol 2 Overweight 3 High Blood Pressure 4 Cigarette smoking 5 Lack of exercise 6 Regular medical checkups.

Although the basic cause of coronary heart disease is not known at the present time, we do know that a number of factors increase the risk of coronary heart disease, and scientists believe that an attack on these factors will decrease the likelihood of heart attacks.

The leadership of the American Heart Association and the Essex County Heart Association believes that the American public should be informed of these risk factors and of the means of minimizing them before a heart attack hits.

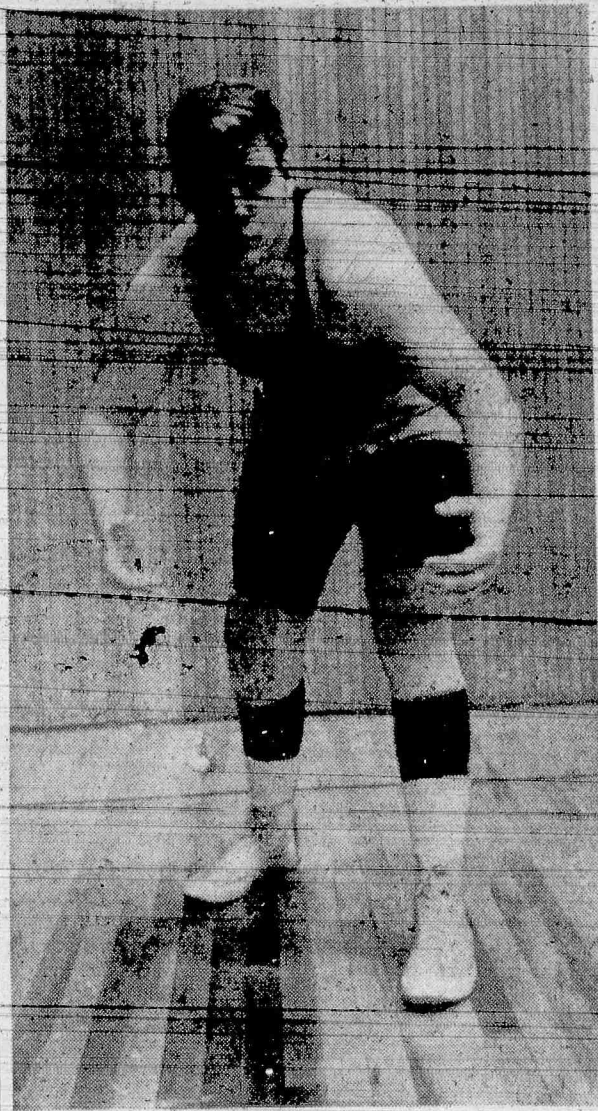

The magnitude of the problem is so great, with nearly a million heart disease deaths a year, and half of those due to coronary disease or heart attacks. It will mean a great saving of life if more Americans will observe and heed the risk reduction factors.

open Feb. 25, 26 and 27 with Towne Players in a production of "A Hatful of Rain."

The theater is conveniently located at the corner of Roseville Avenue and West Market Street.

Larry Zavaglia and John Elliott will play John Pope Sr. and Johnny Pope respectively, and Judith D'Amico and Alan Brower will portray Celia and Polo Pope.

Toni Boyer, Jan Kelik, Tony Betta, and Warren Hollenbake make up the supporting cast.

Strong Board Prevents Scholastic 'Cast' Tag

A strong State Board of Education and a second state university system are the best guarantee that all qualified New Jersey youth will have top-quality college opportunities, the New Jersey Education Association's annual Legislative Conference was told Saturday at Trenton Central High School.

Efforts to splinter higher education from the control of the State Board of Education are aimed at creating a caste system among colleges in New Jersey, warned Mrs. Elizabeth McGonigle said.

Gonigle of Cape May City, NJEA's president.

The State Education Board is responsible for coordinating public education from kindergarten through graduate school. Proposals have been made to create a separate board or several boards to oversee public higher education.

Any such splintering of responsibility could make the public colleges into second-rate, mass production schools for students who aren't top-scorers or can't afford the tuition and cost of the elite private institution, Mrs. McGonigle said.

... DURING NATIONAL BEAUTY SALON WEEK - FEB. 13-19

More than one woman has wondered — "How do I find a hairdresser?" — not just any hairdresser but one who will not only cut your hair well, but style it smartly — one who is conveniently located and whose price is such that you can visit the salon regularly. It is our sincere effort, especially during our celebration of National Beauty Salon Week to direct you to the many fine stylists whose businesses are in the Nutley-Belleville area. Without a personal recommendation from a friend we recommend you to try one of these exceptional salons.

We would also suggest that you make your first appointment — giving your stylist some idea of the type of styles you admire . . . If you have definite ideas suggest them . . . leaving it up to your hairdresser's skillful knowledge how they can best be adapted to your face and hair. It's easy to find a stylist who will please you in this immediate area, because of the many to choose from — each one individual in its decor and styling techniques. "Get a lift with a new hair-do." Make an appointment today with any one of the fine salons advertised on this page.

The man who gave us the twentieth century. Thomas A. Edison is the man...the man whose vision and labor at the turn of the century changed the course of history. Edison's genius for bringing electricity out of the laboratory and into a staggering number of practical uses was the first shot in a scientific revolution that is actually still in its infancy. February 11 is the birthday of Thomas A. Edison, and it is only fitting that the week of his birth be designated National Electrical Week. During this week, we pay tribute to Edison and other outstanding pioneers of electrical progress, whose devotion to mankind have given us a new and better world. ## 3 BHS Students Win Legion Post 105 Speech Test

By GEORGE K. MITCHELL

Belleville Post 105, The American Legion recently held the National High School Oratorical Contest in the auditorium of Belleville High School. A crowd of students was on hand and faculty member served as judges. The winners were:

1st Place, Daniel Grossman, 15, Tremont Av.
2nd place, David Bukunus, 101 Carpenter St.
3rd Place, Gary Creditor, 25 Wilbur St.

The boys' all students of Belleville High School did very well on the subject "The Constitution of the United States." The National High School Oratorical Contest was developed primarily to disseminate a keener knowledge and appreciation of the Constitution of the United States on the part of high school students.

Other objectives of this Constitution Oratorical Contest include the development of leadership, the ability to think and speak clearly and intelligently and the preparation for acceptance of the duties and responsibilities of the rights and privileges of American citizenship.

The Oratorical contest furnishes a most excellent and "live" vehicle for correlating work in the field of social science and English.

Richard Shannon, Contest Chairman from Post 105 said that Daniel Grossman will represent Belleville in the Essex County competition to be held in February at the Essex County Court House.

The three winners from Belleville received prizes from Post 105 and we certainly wish young Grossman the very best in the Essex County contest.

The four winners at the National level receive scholarships amounting $4,000, $2,500, $1,000 and $500 respectively. So you can see it is worth working hard for. Belleville Post 105 is pleased to serve the youth of Belleville.

MAN, WAS IT COLD! Huddled up against the bitter cold that swept the streets of Belleville last weekend were these three boys from Madison Street. From bottom to top are: Steve Rismini, 13, Bobby Giordano, 12, and Bobby Arlt, 13. The snow didn't stop them; it merely added to their pleasure. (Photo by Adams)

3-Month Program Planned To Help Medicare Persons

The Essex County Youth and Economic Rehabilitation Commission today announced plans for a special program to remind the aged of the need to register for Medicare benefits.

The three-month project, with an estimated cost of $19,163 in federal funds would be part of a nationwide "Medicare Alert" drive by Social Security and Anti-poverty officials.

They are planning meetings, publications and door-to-door visits to notify the elderly they must sign up by March 31 to obtain medical care under Social Security.

Martin Lordi, director - chairman of the commission said after a meeting yesterday with Social Security officials that his agency plans to hire a staff of 46 employees - all of them over 65 - for the project. Federal funds have been requested, he said, and the program is to begin Feb. 1.

The project staff will hold special meetings, hand-out literature in 23 languages, and make house visits in all Essex communities except Newark. The county commission's jurisdiction in anti-poverty programs is limited to the suburbs.

A special effort will be made, Lordi said to reach those who have never been enrolled on Social Security but can still obtain the medical benefits, if they sign up before the deadline.

The project staff, Lordi said, would include a full-time director and clerk, four part time captains and 40 part-time aides.

Lordi said information on Medicare will be available at the commission headquarters, 39 Bradford Pl., which will be the office for the special project.

Stamps that have stuck together should be placed in the freezer compartment of your refrigerator. After an hour or so you can pull them apart with the mucilage intact.

Gina Bachauer Plays March 6

The Greek piano virtuoso, Gina Bachauer, will mark the start of her 15th coast-to-coast tour by playing the same program at Symphony Hall March 6 at 3 p.m. which she performed in her American debut at New York's Town Hall in 1950.

Mme. Bachauer, who has been piano protegee to the late King Paul and now the Crown Prince of Greece, has frequently toured the world's concert halls since she left her native Athens during World War II.

She gave 630 recitals for Allied troops in the Middle East during the war, and established reputation as a recitalist in London before finally crossing the Atlantic.

In the Newark concert, presented by Moe Septer, she will play works of Bach-Busoni, Haydn, Liszt and Ravel, as she did 15 years ago when Americans first got a chance to hear what European audiences were already raving about.

Pull That Load Together

Hannibal didn't cross the Alps alone. Grant didn't take Richmond single-handed; neither did Caesar whip the Gauls all by himself.

Pollsters in recent years have been trying to find out just what workers want from their jobs, and were surprised to find out that the snap answer — good wages — was wrong. This is news? Wise employers have known it for some time. In order of preference, workers want (1) appreciation, (2) the feeling of being in on things, (3) help with personal problems, (4) job security, and (5) — and finally — good wages.

The employer who shares his problems

And Still No Action

What with Christmas being over, and the parking meters once standing idle, the Belleville public still feels the parking pinch. Next year, barring another parking meter incident (blown out of all proportion for a municipal oversight some two decades ago when rules were more lax), the problem will still remain — unless our councilmen turn their talents (OK, effort) toward this plaguing problem.

For many years now, do-nothing councilmen have neglected the problem, preferring to pass this vital issue on to their successors. Today, 20 years after some far-sighted councilman first proposed the matter of parking lots, there is still no place to park. Okay, so geography and terrain prevent a "suitable" plot being used. Now what?

There Is A Difference

To an observer standing somewhere west of the Mississippi River the New York Transit strike presented an interesting phenomenon.

Subway trains were just as dead as when the massive power failure struck New York a short while ago, and yet the reaction in some respects was significantly different — although in both instances the nation was presented with the spectacle of a paralyzed metropolis.

The first paralysis originated with an unforeseeable breakdown in a public power system in Canada. The second, by people deliberately walking off their jobs for days in an essential service.

When the dramatic power failure occurred, authorities at all levels of government were quick to question the competence of management and promised stern investigations. The investor-owned with his employees discovers the age-old truth that you can buy hand power — but cannot buy heart power — and that is often the difference between success or failure in any free enterprise. Give employees a chance to be proud of the company they work for. Let them know they are really important.

Yea, verily! The basic need of every individual — as essential as food and drink — more important by far than the size of his pay envelope — is the knowledge that his services are necessary.

There are things in this world that transcend the mere making of money.

G.F.A.

With a well-established reputation for staging little more than a circus once a month (complete with a clown), our skitish councilmen still avoid the subject like the plague; perhaps hoping that by ignoring it, it will go away. It is time for them to replace macaroni-like spines with judicial bone and make a firm investigation of this long over-due matter.

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico said recently that he and his councilmen would like to make a complete study before making a move. Fine. Has that "study" begun yet? Or does it await the next council membership? Or will it be overlooked again while Belleville motorists fume in frustration?

20 years have passed, Mr. Pico.

electric companies will be spending months satisfying the regulatory authorities and the public that everything possible was done to alleviate the power failure which lasted a matter of hours, and to assure that it would never happen again.

But as the buses and trains lay quiet during the transit strike, there was no official clamor for an explanation. There was no taxpayer private enterprise whose competence could be questioned by investigators. Subways and buses are public business in New York.

The latest incident has shown again that the people of New York City have a remarkable ability to accept philosophically the hardships of city life.

It also shows there are virtues in private enterprise, not the least of which is a certainty that when something goes wrong with its performances, an explanation to the public will be forthcoming.

Pay Hikes For Everyone?

Everybody wants to get into the act. As you may have noticed in today's Times, it's the season for presenting budgets to a skeptical public. Many items have merit; many do not. Among the latter are to be found members of the town employees — none of whom have ever been reported as suffering from overwork.

To be frank, a municipal employee is much like an Army private whose chief objective is to put in his or her hours and go home. Whether or not anything is achieved is not to be worried about.

An increase in salary is understandably desirable, but is that tip really necessary?

Town employees can be seen slowly driving along town streets "working". During recent snow removal details four men were slowly shoveling the children's delight into a truck — a job that could have hardly kept one man busy. We're sure you've seen other examples.

A raise for town employees? No, not really.

Those Pinochle Players

Belleville firefighters came to the fore again Thursday night while battling the Sussex Plastics Co. fire which destroyed the one-level building at 83 Academy Street. Five of the men were injured in the four-hour battle.

But most of the town didn't know anything about the fire until the next day, among them town carpenters who sought to demean the department at public meetings. They were all safe in bed, secure in the knowledge that the firemen were playing pinochle in their warm quarters and that their homes were safe.

What they forget is that these men are on the spot when something did happen. And that the reason they're secure is because these pinochle players are ready to risk life and limb in their defense.

They're Good Scouts

This is National Boy Scout Week in the United States, and you'll see these fine youngsters busy throughout the area. It becomes almost trite to announce that almost all presidents, past, present, and future, have been or will be Boy Scouts.

The next time you see one, watch him closely; he just may be a future president, a top executive, or a busy physician.

The leaders of this nation are legend who have been former Scouts. Take your hat off to them this week, OK?

A Snowy Future

The show was a delight for Belleville children; but for adults — and mostly drivers — it was a nightmare.

And now that winter is on the wane, would it not be a good idea for one of our industrious councilmen to start the ball in motion that would institute alternate side of the street parking during a snow-emergency warning?

Most side streets were clogged with parked cars after the recent snow storms, and town employees were hard put to push it away from curbsides due to parked cars.

Nearby Nutley had clear streets within hours after the storm. Belleville was bogged down for days afterward. And perhaps many side streets are still snow-covered even at this late date.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Fair Play For Whom? Asks A Lady Reader

To the Editor, Belleville Times: I take this opportunity to publicly thank your "Reader," Mrs. Rochau, for linking my name with Mr. Arvidson, Mr. Julianio and the Interested Belleville Citizens. I have always been an interested and active citizen and am very proud to know and to support such honest, well informed, able candidates who have the courage to pursue this difficult and unpopular course of action in the interests of our teachers, principals, and other staff personnel, and for the future welfare of our total school system.

May I remind Mrs. Rochau and her associates Mr. Crisp and Mrs. Izzo that they have never been employed to work under the authority, domination and directives of Dr. Durkee. They know not how it feels to be slandered and falsely accused. To have ones personal record of 35 years as a dedicated educator ruined — stacked with derogatory comments based on hearsay, and changed through unprofessional, vindictive action of the chief administrator is shocking and heart-breaking.

No wonder such a large percentage of our educational staff have left during the last four years. I was only one. Before the end of the first year of the Durkee regime I retained a lawyer to protect my position and requested a hearing with the Board of Education.

Dr. Durkee denied me my right to a hearing. Have Mrs. Rochau and other members of the Fair Play Committee no compassion for the rights of others? Are the Durkee supporters completely "snowed under" by the misrepresentations and selfishly slanted distortions of facts presented by their own standard bearer, Dr. Durkee, in the press. I ask, "Fair Play for Whom?"

Mr. Crisp contends that action of the Board of Education namely: to request an investigation of the operation of the Office of the Superintendent of Schools — has brought "bad publicity" to Belleville. Let me remind Mr. Crisp and the public that it is Dr. Durkee, himself, who has put out most of the news releases that have focused public attention on school troubles in Belleville.

Is this his attempt to smear the Board or has he a persecution complex? Bad publicity has surrounded our schools ever since the "pro-Durkee — Anti-Thomas" forces became entrenched in the politics that has since grown like a cancer in our educational scene.

Correction. Mrs. Rochau would have readers believe that the "Arvidson — Julianio supporters" was a minority in the ABC (Active Belleville Citizens). Definitely not so! The truth of the matter is this: The ABC committee operated under a policy to endorse and support qualified non-political (not connected with municipal elections, etc.) candidates dedicated to serve our local schools in a completely objective manner. ABC policy (copied from Mr. Crisp's own press release, December 1960) stated that "ABC" candidates run on their own platforms with no pledge, or commitment in exchange for our (ABC) support, other than that they serve faithfully, diligently and to the best of their ability.

Two years ago some dissension arose among the ABC (Active Belleville Citizens) when several members failed to respect the "no pressure, no commitments" policy. After attempts to pressure or influence the vote of several incumbent board members failed, the original ABC enjoyed a much publicized split. The few dissenters have since become the spokesmen for the Fair Play Committee. The majority (I still have the membership lists from previous years), not the minority as Mrs. Rochau has stated — have joined with the newly formed IBC (Independent Belleville Citizens). This new organization has adopted the old policy of "no pressure and no commitments" from board candidates or members. The new IBC will adhere to the democratic principle of freedom of an elected representative of the people to act in the general interest of this community and its schools without pressure from or commitments to any IBC supporters.

I am again, proud to be a member of the IBC and resent the caption "non-political". Not so" heading to Mrs. Rochau's caustic letter. Let Mrs. Rochau recall and consider these questions:

1. Did Mr. Lally, not seek election to the Belleville Town Council?

2. Did not Dr. Durkee, himself, run for a seat on the Town Council in Somerville, and then in the midst of a "local tempest" and fury of publicity he lost that election? Do you know why, Mrs. Rochau?

Evidently the same "continuing and noticeable pattern of behavior" reported by the NEA were evidenced in Somerville some 20 years ago. But there was then no local editors, Mr. Crisp or Mrs. Rochau to "cover up" and toss the orchids.

3. Does not Mrs. Rochau recall that when she ran for election to the Board of Education Dr. Durkee gave her a large measure of support. Was all of his help given outside and apart from school time?

4. Now "Reader," Mrs. Rochau, who is political? If you can't see the picture yet, do you want to hear more?

Quiet Tom Long.

Minister Speaks On The School Election

To The Editor:

I trust you will find it possible to print this in the issue of your paper prior to the school elections.

The clergy of our community have discussed several times as a group the school situation in our town. Among us there are varying personal opinions as to what is involved and what the solution should be. Above these opinions, however, there is one united concern; namely, the future of our school system and the resultant quality of education coming from it.

This concern is at stake in this election. It is now time for the people to speak: Young Americans have died and are dying still to insure our freedoms — among them the freedom and the right to vote for a candidate of one's own choice.

The clergy are not endorsing candidates, but we ask all voters to get out on Feb. 8 between 2 p.m. and 9 p.m. We ask that they vote with concern, conscience, and conviction. The school is your business. Let your voice be heard by the vote that you cast.

Humane Association Calls For Your Help

To The Editor:

The Humane Animal Association of Belleville held its first 1966 meeting at the recreation house Tuesday, Jan. 25. The following officers were re-elected: Mrs. Sally Hood, chairman; Mrs. Joan Barnes, vice-chairman; Mrs. Kathleen Mulligan, secretary-treasurer; Jack Reynolds, recording secretary; Mrs. Elaine Reynolds, educational chairman.

Those members elected to the advisory board: Jack Daniels; Mrs. Shannon Kossuth; Mrs. William Dear; Mrs. Winnie Young and Mrs. Anna Barretta. The group was formed early in Feb. 1965, with the intention of helping, in some way, the great number of animals who are cruelly abandoned or thoughtlessly discarded by their owners.

A spokesman for the local humane association advises that it is almost unbelievable the number of animals who are thrown out when the interest or the novelty of the pet has worn off and that many pet owners, who can afford to do so, will not even take the trouble of placing an advertisement in a local newspaper (at very little cost) in order to find another home for their pet.

Instead, he stated, they simply send the animal off to the pound to be put to death or perhaps to an even worse fate. The spokesman also stated donations from those desiring to aid the local humane group will be accept gladly.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

The Annual Factory Authorized Magnavox sale started on Monday. In previous years, the sale began on Washington's Birthday. It appears that all kinds of sales begin earlier every year. The joke is a toy sale in November, when the natural demand for the Christmas season is at its peak.

Washington's Birthday sales apparently have become so well established in the minds of shoppers and are taken so much for granted, that an attempt is being made to break this pattern. The fight for the customer's almighty dollar has become so fierce during the Washington's Birthday sales, that somebody decided to start a sale before the competition with other merchandise begins.

Be this as it may be, Magnavox does offer price reductions which are not available at other times of the year. Magnavox merchandise is sold at fixed prices, wherever you buy the item, for the rest of the year. If the price of a Magnavox set is reduced during the sale, it represents a genuine saving. It is well enough known that just about any other brand of TV or phonograph is sold at a different price in different stores. There are no so-called "list" prices with Magnavox. The price on a sales tag is the selling price and not the starting point for haggling. List prices are nonsense. Only the gullible fall for that kind of gimmick. Today nobody sells at "list" prices any more, everybody is a discounteer.

Many items in the Magnavox sale are "one of a kind", so if you are in the market for a TV or phonograph, it is advisable to shop early. Color sets are not included in the sale this year. There is still a bad shortage of color TV. Any color set which can be produced can be sold easily at prevailing prices. There is no need to have a sale on color sets. We have a number of b/w TV and phonographs at attractive prices for this sale.

We service what we sell.

Scouts Planning Activities

New Mexico Ranch To Be Visited By District Scouts

Plans for summer activities for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers in the Belleville Scout District are nearing completion, said Isadore Padula, Jr., district campaign and activities chairman.

For Explorers in the Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America, the "Big One" is a trip to the Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, New Mexico, according to Lawrence A. Benoit, chairman of the Council's Philmont committee.

The Explorer Post that wants 12 days of rugged high mountains and hiking and camping over historic sites which are part of the West will take part in a trip to the 137,000-acre camping empire, Mr. Benoit said.

Fourteen Explorers from Robert Treat Council have already made reservations to participate in the Council's three-week Philmont expedition which will leave on July 11. The expedition is open only to Senior Boy Scouts and Explorers who are 14 years of age and over. The three-week expedition will be by train or chartered bus.

Because of the high standards set for those who make the Philmont Trip, applications will be screened by the Robert Treat Philmont Committee. Applications are accepted from Scout Troops and Explorer Posts for young men who meet the age and camping requirements. Detailed information is available at the Council Service Center.

Philmont Scout Ranch is the gift of the late Waite Phillips. On the ranch is the home of Kit Carson, The Santa Fe Trail crosses part of the ranch property. Also on the ranch are abandoned gold and coal mines. The Scouts still pan for gold with some success. They dig for Indian relics, feed and ride steers, fish, engage in archery and other field sports.

The ranch also has abandoned Pueblo Indian dwellings and Indian writings are found on the walls of caves and canyons.

The ranch boasts the largest herd of bison and the largest herd of burros in the world, plus one of the largest strings of saddle horses in the country.

Who Will Not Make A Good Board Member, Asks An Education Group

"Most citizens know the kinds of qualities they should look for in evaluating prospective candidates for the local school board," declared the State Federation of District Boards of Education, which represents New Jersey's 595 local school districts.

"Citizens naturally seek an intelligent, liberally educated community leader of integrity and independent good judgment for school board membership. They look for someone with an interest in children and a willingness to devote sufficient time to do a good job. They hope that person can see both sides of an issue and will be willing to grow in the job."

"Few citizens, however, give full consideration to those characteristics that may make a candidate a risk to the children and to the taxpayers," says the Federated Boards. According to the school boards, research studies and experience indicate that a community is taking a big chance on a candidate if he can be characterized as being any one of the following:

1. Inflexible;
2. Identified with a particular group, cause or area;
3. Motivated by prestige, personal or political gain, or in search of another title for the community activity list behind his name;
4. Narrow and petty in his attitudes;
5. Precommitted to a special cause or to a personal feud;
6. Vain, unwilling to consider new facts or admit the need to learn new concepts;
7. Illogical and easily swayed by prejudices and insufficient evidence.

JOHN VENTURI

John Venturi Named Town's Man Of Year

John Venturi, owner of Jay Vee Vending Co., has been named "Kiswanian of the Year" by the Belleville Kiwanis Club during its annual Past President's Night Dinner.

Venturi was chosen in recognition for his work with the Key Club of Belleville High School, where he served as chairman and liaison officer.

But his most outstanding service was that of trying to improve the town's image and had led committees for that purpose. He is also active in youth work.

During the brief span of time that the Key Club has been in existence it had won national acclaim for its tutoring service.

Child Guidance Clinic Is The Salvation Of Many Disturbed Children

No Child Is Ever Turned Away From Belleville Clinic

By SARAH HAINES
Belleville is proud of the establishment of the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic in its community.

The Clinic is a voluntary, non-profit service institution in which four neighboring communities, Belleville, Bloomfield, Nutley, and Glen Ridge Community Chest participate to provide psychiatric diagnosis and treatment for emotionally disturbed children, and children with behavior problems.

The Clinic was first proposed by the Belleville Women's Club and established by the State of New Jersey in 1957. Subsequently, the Belleville Child Guidance Association and corresponding associations in the other three municipalities were founded to help sponsor the work of the Clinic. The Clinic also receives support from the State of New Jersey and contributions from civic, service, and fraternal organizations.

It began its service July 1, 1958, housed rent-free in the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital of Belleville. In June of 1963, the Clinic requested larger quarters because Clara Maass could not allocate additional space. They had outgrown their facilities there and needed to expand. The Essex County Freeholders acted on the request and provided space at the County Hospital location, known as So Ho Hospital.

The Clinic was given use of an unoccupied second floor of the So Ho Hospital's former nurses' residence where the Clinic is now located. It is operated as a voluntary organization by its own Board of Trustees.

Belleville is represented by Mr. John J. Hewitt, Mrs. William Haines, Robert Cook, Mrs. William Lapham, Daniel McCarthy, Richard Shafter, and Miss Frances Williamson.

The Administrative Director of the Clinic is Mrs. Ruth O. Coare. The Reverend Mr. R. G. Shafter, president; E. McLean, vice-president; J. J. Hewitt, treasurer; and Mrs. S. Yorton, secretary.

Any child under 16 years of age, living in Belleville, Bloomfield, Nutley, or Glen Ridge is eligible for treatment if it is found that the Clinic can give him the kind of help needed. The parents or guardians, schools, physicians and clergymen, may refer the child for help. However, a parent or guardian must contact the Clinic to request the service.

If the problem is an emergency, an attempt will be made to accept the child immediately. Otherwise, an appointment will be arranged as soon as possible. All information is confidential. Belleville has been most cooperative and ready to assume her place of financial responsibility among the four communities involved.

The Belleville budget allocates an amount for its share in the support of the Clinic each year, which charges a fee if the parents can afford one. But, no child is turned away because of inability to pay. Many children from Belleville have been helped in the past years of the Clinic's operation.

We are not trying to compete for first place, but we want all of our children who need treatment to receive it and urge parents and guardians to seek assistance.

year at the clinic, while Apaka rounds out a year's service. The tiny tables at which they sit were donated to the 108 children at the clinic by the Women's Auxiliary of the Lion's Club here.

Eugene Reilly Named To General Chairmanship Of The Kiwanis Club

Eugene Reilly, a local realtor, has been named general chairman for the 10th Annual Kiwanis Charity Card Party by William Bing, president of the Belleville Kiwanis Club.

The card party will be held at the Elks Auditorium, Wednesday evening April 13. This card party is the only means in which the local Service club raises funds to support the many charitable undertakings of the Kiwanis club that all the residents of the Town of Belleville are familiar with.

The annual card party of the only Kiwanis organization in Belleville has been so promoted along the years that the local people look forward to coming to the Elks Auditorium and sharing in the enjoyment of the men of Kiwanis. This card party is not like any other card party, but rather a show within itself, that people that have been to the previous parties will attest to.

Chairman John Zepka and Victor Call of the Novelty Committee come up with ideas and gimmicks that they have the people rolling in the aisles. The two men have promised some real good ones this year according to Reilly. They are so new that they are not allowing the other members to know.

For a real night out and also share in the enjoyment of supporting a good cause the men of the only Kiwanis club in Belleville are looking forward to a full house at the Elks auditorium, Washington Ave., April 13.

Mayor Pico Signs A Proclamation To Set 'Can Week'

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico has proclaimed the week of Feb. 7, "Belleville Can Week." It was announced today by the Can Manufacturers Institute, Washington, D.C.

"The average Belleville family opens 877 metal cans a year and some 8 1/2 million cans are used annually in Belleville alone," states Mayor Pico in his proclamation. Governor Richard J. Hughes has also proclaimed the week "New Jersey Metal Can Week."

The week highlights Belleville's role in the can manufacturing industry as the location of Belleville Can Company. The firm was founded 37-years ago by Joseph Landolfi and today continues under the leadership of the Landolfi family. The plant produces over 5 million cans a year.

There are 12 can manufacturing plants in northern New Jersey. Collectively they employ 5200 people, produce 3 1/2 billion cans a year and have a payroll in excess of $44.5 million, most of which finds its way into the local economy.

Arvidson, Juliano Reelected To Board of Education

Some 4,562 voters turned out under clear skies Tuesday and defeated the proposed $3,995,795 annual budget; a $275,000 School 2 referendum; and returned Board President Ernest S. Arvidson to office by a slim margin of eight votes.

In a surprising show of strength, board member Nicholas S. Juliano captured some 2,361 votes, which returned him into office for a third term.

Arvidson was in second place in the disputed seat on the board with 2,157 ballots leading David S. Haight to trail with 2,149 votes.

Arvidson was undoubtedly hurt by the bitter dispute with schools Dr. Frank M. Durkee.

Dominick A. Lally, a former board president, trailed the field with 2,088 votes in a race that was close all around. Lally had charged the incumbent members with extravagance in fiscal matters and disdain for the public's wishes.

The School 2 Referendum, tagged at some $275,000 for a proposed all-purpose room and related furnishings, lost out by 271 votes with a final tally of 1,378 ballots for and 1,117 against.

School 2 Referendum And Annual Budget Defeated

Current expenses, set at $3,995,795, went down under a $3,720,000 vote margin. The vote was 2,144 against, an 1,294 for the proposal.

Capitol outlay, set at $90,000, lost by 825 votes — 2,069 against, and 1,244 for the measure.

An early turnout of elderly persons on a fixed income was the first tip that the budget was in for trouble. Last year the budget had been defeated, and later trimmed by the Town Council. This year the budget cut was returned intact plus an additional increase which the board said was mainly earmarked for teachers salaries.

Would the budget again be submitted to the people in another election? "We'll have to discuss it," said board member Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero. Board member Rocco Saletta agreed. Biggest turnout of voters was at School 5, Arvidson's home ground; and at School 3, the district in which Juliano lives.

"You can blame Mr. Pico and company for the defeat of the budget," said Di Ruggiero indignantly, who reported the mayor had been downgrading the budget in private and public talks throughout the town. He also attributed the defeat of the School 2 Referendum to the mayor.

Lally and Haight also came in for some scathing comment from Di Ruggiero. "Lally!" he snorted. "And he's supposed to be an educator!"

After the close defeat Haight said "I would like to congratulate the two winners on their reelection. Now that the election's over, we should all pull together and support the school system."

He also thanked all his supporters who gave him a surprising show of strength. It had

State Will Ignore Both Board Dispute Parties

The State Department of Education warned attorneys for Dr. Frank M. Durkee and Board of Education President Ernest S. Arvidson, that it would not be intimidated by either side in their attempts to persuade the department into favorable action.

The letter, signed by Eric Groezinger, state assistant commissioner of education, noted the large amount of material submitted to his office by both parties, and said such tactics would not sway the department from its duty.

"Neither the commissioner nor the assistant commissioner, who will conduct the hearings, has read or intends to read this (the NEA special committee's report; or any other report while litigation is pending," said Groezinger.

Dr. Frank M. Durkee, ousted superintendent of schools here, and Arvidson have been busy distributing material favorable to their position and unfavorable to the opposition. The commissioner ordered them both to "discontinue and refrain" from any further action.

The hearings opened in Trenton Jan. 26 at the State Department of Education, and are scheduled to resume in the office of Dr. William S. Twitchell, Essex County superintendent of schools in East Orange March 1-2, and March 9-10.

Town Tax Rate Increased By Two-Points Over 1965

The Belleville Town Council introduced its $3,316,985.85 budget for 1966-67 Tuesday night, some $130,000 under the budget recommended by Town Manager John R. Burnett, and presented the town with a tax increase of some 2-points over last year. The Town, said Burnett, was still ahead with the largest surplus on record.

The proposed budget was approved 4-3. Councilmen William H. Cullen and James P. Golden voting against the budget.

"There was no raises" in police, firemen, signal division, or public works salaries, Burnett said, but instead the funds earmarked for future use were included if there is a real need for it. It required by the Civil Service evaluation of job titles now under way. The report is due by April 1.

The largest increase was attributed to a $69,000 garbage contract.

The budget, subject to revision, must be approved by Feb. 10, said Burnett. A public hearing and final adoption will be held March 14 at Town Hall.

A complete municipal budget will be printed in The Belleville Times Feb. 24.

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico declared the Town Council had saved taxpayers a 10-12 point tax increase by disregarding, but not entirely Burnett's recommended budget and emerging with a good balance between the manager's requirements and the council's judgement.

The financial increase, said Pico, was $2,309,600, with a $4.41 tax rate.

Councilman Ralph A. Casale described the budget was one of the best he had ever seen and urged its approval.

There Was No Neutral Ground Tuesday Afternoon As Voters Headed For The Polls In Drove

SCHOOL 7: Ready for the early rush of voters who started off unexpectedly strong was, from left, Mrs. Jennie Cassin, a challenger, and Mrs. Mary Vivido, assistant teller who checked out prospective voters during the seven-hour election.

FOSS-UP: Mrs. Mary Lavanco, at left, and Mrs. Rose Amato, both tellers at School 7, watched the steady parade of voters who had four candidates and two elective votes to cast Tuesday afternoon. There were very few minutes of spare time in their duties.

EXAMINERS: Mrs. Matilda Verdon, assistant teller at School 7, and Mrs. Cecilia Zoeller, secretary of the board of elections, checked each voter who registered in their district. It was one of the most controversial elections in the school history, said old-timers.

SCHOOL 5: Doing the same for their district was, at left, Mrs. Edwin Gasparini and Miss Margaret Guthrie, both challengers, who sat at their tables clearing all prospective voters. The schools used their gymnasiums as polling places for the four-candidate election.
