

PORK CHOPS
The American Meat Institute reports that pork has changed. Some people, it says, still have the image of pork as fat meat. This is no longer true. Farmers have "made tremendous strides" in producing a new, meat-type hog which has more of the lean cuts preferred by today's home-maker. This hog, the Institute stresses, is a far cry from the plump, jowly hog of grandfather's day.

"DOCTOR KNOWS BEST..."

As American as pumpkin pie is the phrase, "Doctor knows best." We all remember this truism from childhood. Yet, in this enlightened day, some people, relatively few in number, attempt to diagnose and treat their own illnesses — a dangerous practice to say the least. Only your physician is qualified to diagnose and prescribe. When medication is required, our prescription department is equipped to serve your needs.

Charley, You Should Check Into This More
To the Editor, Times-News:
Whoever this character F.A.O. is, he must be some sort of nut. Why abandon our Junior High School? Just because he says that the place needs to be demolished doesn't actually mean the place has to be done so. True, it could use some repairs, a paint or plaster job here and there. But this doesn't mean to ride the town of the old place.
And this bit about "tender seventh graders" being exposed to dope. This is a lot of bull. What about eighth and ninth graders? I don't mean all of them, of course, for there are a number of "baddies." If there are any dope addicts around you wouldn't know because the dope situation doesn't seem to be here.
I imagine there might be a dozen or more, but dope is never spoken about.
Another thing. A junior high school system increases the student's amount of friends and activities. It takes some time for students to adjust themselves with others. I know, for I was in such a class year. Ninth grade involves a larger number of friends being "made."

If F.A.O. thinks the seventh and eighth grades should be returned to the school system's grammar schools, he is badly mistaken. Junior High School is good training for high school. It shows what certain courses demand, with the fact of certain teachers. Some are easy-going, while others are rough in the sense that they show what they expect from the student.
Others tell the student that they must come and get their marks above. The teachers just don't hand them out.

Councilman Hopes For A Brighter Future...
To the Editor, Times-News:
Reflecting on the year 1965, I feel that everyone can be proud that the town has continued to move forward in spite of the many differences of opinion. While not all capital improvements more important ones have either been finished or are nearly so. I shall continue to give my best honest and forthright, regardless of politics. It is my hope that we can have a better Belleville, not as a town to be in the news for controversy, but as the town in which I was born and raised, and which I know can be the most progressive and enterprising community in the state.
I trust the year 1966 will see the continued progress of programs that have been asked for by the people of the town. I pray that with the cooperation of all, both the official family and citizens of Belleville will continue to move forward in its drive to again be known as one of the leaders of better municipalities.

A Disjointed Council

"Just as a business man cannot, in all honesty, promise more than he can deliver, no member of a council can promise salary raises or committee appointments as his particular gratuity for support at the polls.

"As I have said many times—and truly believe—town government is a business which must either grow, or go into bankruptcy. How well a business grows depends upon its management from the top down. This management involves investments, employee relationship with management, public relations and inter-community cooperation.

"Do we have such in Belleville?

"Unfortunately, we do not. Our councilmen have spent too much valuable time bickering among themselves, fighting for majority power on public issues, while giving too much authority in policy making to the manager, whose job is that he carry out the policies made by the council.

In short, Belleville taxpayers must now safeguard their investments by removing from office those who have failed to give adequate service.

CIRCUS TIME: Ringmaster Frank Iacobacci, Belleville chairman of the Cerebral Palsy Institute, and Miss Sadye Gerson, also of Belleville, get into the spirit of things during a recent planning meeting held at the West Orange Armory. Iacobacci will assist in the Pan-American Circus which opens at the West Orange Armory March 25 for seven performances over the week-end.

3 Belleville Men Join Membership Of Port Service

Three local men were among 40 persons recently welcomed to membership in The Port Service Club.

All three, Peter M. Cuoco, 14 Harvard Place, Kenneth F. Jones, 10 Lloyd Place and John J. Little, 160 Tappan Avenue, are employed by The Port Authority Trans Hudson Corporation (PATH), Jones and Little as Motormen and Cuoco as a trainman.

The Club's membership is comprised of employees who have completed at least 25 years of service with The Port of New York Authority and the Port Authority Trans Hudson Corporation (PATH). Of the 986 persons who have joined the Club since its establishment fourteen years ago, 541 are still with the bi-state agency and PATH.

Those Weekly Paychecks Never Fail When God Is The World's Paymaster

Could you use another pay week and every pursuit of the check?

Of course the answer to this is "yes." Even if you have every thing well budgeted so that you can live comfortably on 24 checks that come to you on the first and the fifteenth of every month, another check would be welcomed. There are sufficient dollars in the ones you are counting on to take care of your daily needs of food, shelter, clothing, medical expenses, contributions and incidentals. You can make it with 24 bi-monthly pay checks, but another one would certainly help.

God offers some extra blessings to us that many people miss. They worship him every week as they gather with their friends and neighbors in their houses of worship. And certainly there is a blessing for that. That's why the Bible says, "forsake not the assembling of yourselves together." But these blessings of corporate worship are the regular pay checks of God's grace and glory.

There is so much more available for all of us if we will spread out our worshipping and our paying to touch every day in the

Interest Rates Increased For Savings Bonds

United-States Savings Bonds are now a more attractive investment than ever before, Robert D. Lilley, president, New Jersey Bell Telephone Company and Industrial Chairman of the 1966 New Jersey Savings Bond Campaign, said today, in commenting on the increase in interest on Series E and H Bonds to 4.15 per cent.

Lilley said that the new rate applies from Dec. 1, 1965 to all Savings Bonds, old and new. "That means," he said, "that between 30 and 40 million Americans who hold more than 49 billion dollars worth of Series E and H bonds will automatically increase their earnings."

"Now, more than ever, it is both practical and patriotic to buy and hold U. S. Savings Bonds."

Under the new rate, announced by President Johnson, Series E Bonds will return $100 for each $75 invested after a maturity period of seven years. The rate increase in the case of H Bonds, which are bought at face value, will be reflected by larger semi-annual interest payments.

"Considering the indestructibility feature of Savings Bonds and the absolute guarantee of principal and interest, this is the finest Savings Bonds package ever offered," Mr. Lilley concluded.

Woodchuck Season

New Jersey's woodchuck hunting season will open at sunrise on Saturday, March 12, according to the Division of Fish and Game.

The long season will run through October 1, affording hunting opportunities when other game species are closed. Licensed hunters may also take woodchucks with shotgun or bow and arrow during the small game season. Hunting hours are sunrise to one half hour after sunset, and there is no bag limit.

For a lovelier you...

Rainbow Trout Being Imported To New Jersey
Special strains of rainbow trout are being imported to New Jersey with the aim of providing superior fish for Garden State anglers.

Personnel at the state fish hatchery in Hackettstown made several trips to West Virginia to obtain consignment of trout from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the West Virginia Conservation Department.

Some 15,000 young Donaldson trout were picked up at West Virginia.

Donaldson is a selectively-bred rainbow strain which has demonstrated exceptional growth potential in New Jersey's Spruce Run Reservoir and elsewhere. Of the consignment, 3,000 were stocked immediately in Spruce Run Creek, and the remaining 12,000 are being held at the State hatchery for breeding stock and future experimental use.

The Donaldsons stocked in Spruce Run Creek averaged 5.8 inches in length, ranging from 3.2 inches to 7.6 inches. Any of them are expected to grow down into the reservoir are a select herring are a full providing forage for trout.

Rodino Wants Drug Addiction Bill Passed "Immediately"

Rep. Peter W. Rodino, Jr. (D-10th District) said today he will press for "immediate passage" of his bill to provide federal assistance to states, counties and municipalities in the war against drug addiction.

Rodino's bill would provide grants-in-aid for the establishment of hospital facilities and programs of post-hospital attention for the care, treatment and rehabilitation of narcotic addicts. The bill would enable the Surgeon General to assist the states, counties and municipalities in "establishing and maintaining adequate measures for the prevention, control and treatment" of drug addiction through federal grants.

Rodino said passage of his bill would "spur all levels of government to greater efforts in developing effective programs to prevent and control the spread of drug addiction."

"The bill recognizes that narcotic addiction is a sickness," Rodino said, "and emphasizes the need for care and rehabilitation through programs of medical supervision, psychiatric treatment, group therapy, individual counseling, family counseling and vocational training."

John VanWinkle Marks 20th Year at State Bank

John S. Van Winkle of Nutley, a trust officer of First National State Bank of New Jersey, this week celebrates his 20th anniversary with the firm. He is in charge of the trust department's securities division.

Van Winkle joined First National State in 1946 after serving the United States army's Signal Corps. He attended Colgate University and Rider College and also studied at the American Institute of Banking and the New York Institute of Finance.

Don't Tamper With Flue Pipes

Public Service Electric and Gas Company calls public attention to the danger of tampering with the flue pipes on gas heaters. During the current cold spell, a number of cases have been reported where customers used "home-made" devices in efforts to obtain increased heat.

Some persons have placed pie tins or coffee cans, with holes drilled in them, into the flue pipe to get more heat. This is dangerous. When the flue pipe is so blocked, the flame burns improperly and deadly carbon monoxide is formed.

Carbon monoxide is odorless and tasteless, and persons in its presence — are usually unaware of it.

Care should be exercised in providing sufficient air to the room or house for burning the fuel on all heaters — whether gas, oil or coal — and in keeping the vent pipe clean.

PAPER FIRST MADE
IN 105 A.D.

The process of paper-making was discovered in 105 A.D. by the Chinese Tsai Lun, but took centuries to reach the West, the National Geographic reports. The Arabs captured some Chinese papermakers about the year 700 and soon began using paper rather than vellum or parchment. Paper arrived in Sicily about 1100 and in Spain about 1150; it then spread to Germany, France and Britain.

ELECTRIC HEAT RATES CUT AGAIN!

Yes, on January 3, 1966 rates for electric heat were reduced again so it now costs less than ever before. Despite its new low cost, Electric Heat still provides a long list of luxurious advantages: room-by-room temperature control, silent operation, absolute cleanliness, virtually no maintenance.

If you are building or buying a new home, be sure to specify Electric Heat. Remember, it now costs less than ever before. Or, if you need assistance in planning for Electric Heating, simply call your local Public Service office now. We will be glad to help and there is no obligation at all.

An Ounce Of Preventicare Planned By Sen. Williams For Older People

By Sen. H.A. Williams, Jr. Washington (Special to The Belleville Times) — The already staggering load on our doctors, nurses, hospitals, and nursing homes will be vastly increased when Medicare become effective, July 1.

Our physicians are badly overworked in trying to keep up with an ever-increasing number of patients. The next time you visit your family doctor, count the number of patients in his waiting room.

Many hospitals have a waiting list for non-emergency patients. It is estimated we have only half the nursing home beds which are needed. Hospitals find it impossible to maintain adequate nursing staffs.

FUTURE DIM
Because of the limited number of places available in medical and nursing schools and the relatively low rate of construction of hospitals and nursing homes, this situation would become worse under any circumstances in the years immediately ahead.

The impact of Medicare is expected to aggravate the situation. That is one of the reasons introduced in the Senate last week legislation aimed at establishing a program called "Preventicare."

Preventicare is a program of voluntary health screening for persons past the age of 50. It is aimed at discovering incipient chronic disease at an easily curable or controllable stage.

FAST TESTING
The screening would be done at highly automated testing centers, at which more than 40 tests would be administered, and the results compiled and analyzed within two-and-a-half hours.

The centers would be limited to testing. The results, analyzed and compiled into readily usable

CALIFORNIA LEADS
In drafting the legislation, we gave careful study to the Kaiser Foundation Health Plan in Oakland, Calif., where a private screening center, much like the ones envisioned in the legislation, is being operated. Some 40,000 persons a year are screened there, at an average cost of $25 per participant. It is estimated that the cost for a comparable physical examination, performed in the traditional manner, would be $75 to $200 and would take hours of physician time.

The savings in money and medical services, including especially doctors and hospitals, which could be effected by this program, are immense. Among individuals 65 or older, more than half have some ailment which is functionally limiting. Many of the most common diseases often show no symptoms until they are well advanced — for instance, diabetes and glaucoma.

If we could find these ailments early, we could save not only money and medical services, but we could save untold suffering.

Missing Social Security Number Delays Returns

Missing or inaccurate Social Security numbers present the largest single reason for delay in sending out Federal income tax refunds, said District Director Joseph M. Shott today.

Reports from the IRS service center in Philadelphia (which processes returns of New Jersey taxpayers) show that of the nearly 10.8 million individual returns received in 1965, nearly 375,000 either left out or gave an inaccurate Social Security number.

When a tax return is not properly identified by Social Security Number, a delay occurs. Processing is held up until the taxpayer has been contacted and the right number obtained.

If the taxpayer is expecting a refund, a wrong or missing number will delay it.

All numbers listed on tax returns are checked by IRS against the master file of numbers kept by the Social Security Administration. In many cases, the discrepancy would not have occurred if the taxpayer had entered the name and number on his tax return exactly as shown on his social security card.

One frequent problem for IRS is that the tax return and Social Security records list two different names for the same number. This often happens when a woman has married but has neglected to notify the Social Security Administration.

New Jersey taxpayers who expect to receive refunds for overpayments on their 1965 income tax return should mail their completed returns directly to the Internal Revenue Service Center 11601 Roosevelt Blvd., Philadelphia, Pa., 19154.

Weingartne Exhibition At Art Gallery

The Seton Hall University Art Gallery has selected the works of Hans Weingartne for the next exhibition to open on March 13 and run until April 3, said Louis de Foix-Crenascol, director.

Born in Bavaria in 1896, Weingartne, who lives at 11 Maple St. here, studied at the Royal Academy and came to the United States in 1922. For 20 years the artist has devoted his energies to the development and encouragement of young artists at the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Arts.

He has had one-man shows at the Brooklyn Museum and the Newark Museum in the past. His works have also been included in exhibitions at the Carnegie Institute, the Art Institute of Chicago, the Whitney Museum in New York City and the Corcoran Gallery in Washington, D.C.

His precise style of painting is outside the rushing mainstream of fashion, yet one never doubts that these are contemporary works. His realism is highly selective and he appears to prefer the segmented, apparently random view and he is capable of stepping back and diagnosing his own time with a microscopic eye.

The Seton Hall Gallery is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily and from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. on Sundays.

ECONOMIC BALANCE
Representative George H. Mahon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, writes in Nation's Business: "... Some body has to draw a line between what the country stands in need of and what it can afford. We should make a sharper distinction between our wants and our needs than we have done in the last 15 or 20 years. We are too readily inclined to make yesterday's wants today's needs. A great problem in government finance these days is that not enough of us lie awake nights worrying about the fact that we are spending beyond our income

Sideline Byline

WERE FORMALITY? All appeared to be running smoothly on the track scene. Last year's coach Ron Kulik was preparing to campaign for what he termed "an undefeated season." On the strength of his record and preliminary recommendations by Athletic Director Herman Wische, BHS Principal Raymond O. Smith, and acting-superintendent of Schools Michael Rosamilia Kulik's new contract as a "volunteer" track coach seemed a mere formality.

It was not to be that simple. The Board of Education rejected Kulik with a split vote and appointed long time assistant coach Pat Forte in his place. Although Forte is well qualified for the post after more than eight years as assistant, the change was totally unexpected.

FOR THE RECORD: Kulik's record and credentials on the cinders had seemed to be more than adequate to assure him of the coaching position. Last season in his first attempt at coaching, the popular young marathon walker guided his charges to an 8-4 record — one of the best in Belleville track history.

Looking ahead to the Fall Kulik outlined a suggested practice schedule for his long-distance runners. Apparently, these strenuous training ideas were followed during the summer. As a result, Kulik led his cross-country squad to a 12-1 record and Big Ten Conference Championship for the most outstanding harrier season Belleville has ever seen.

The same type of interim season practice was suggested for the trackmen and as a result two Bellboys managed to compete on the "indoor boards." So far, Belleville's potentially Olympic-bound walking champ has had uncanny success in predicting his team's record. Kulik now feels the cindermen could be on the brink of an undefeated season.

CREDENTIALS: Besides his obvious coaching success, Kulik has several other points in his favor, not the least of which is his salaried position, to maintain his amateur standing, Kulik coaches on a volunteer basis — a big help for a school with a slashed budget.

His status in the sports field also helps the former mentor in the form of instructional demonstration and contacts with leading figures in the track world, in a relatively short period Kulik instilled renewed spirit and enthusiasm to the Belleville track scene while helping to mould the cinder men into a power.

TEAM WORK: Forte's steady competence speaks for itself. Working primarily with the weight and field men, the coach with Belleville's senior record has proved himself a knowledgeable and able mentor.

It is certain that Forte will do an outstanding job, and no malice is intended toward the authoritative new leader, but the facts remain that Kulik was dumped as coach for no apparent reason. If these two outstanding trackmen had been kept together, Belleville would have boasted the area's best cinder coaching duo.

As we saw last year their teamwork seemed to complement each other and the squad. Why was this tandem split up? Why can't Belleville's track team have the best coaching available, especially when it's at no additional cost to the taxpayers?

REASONS: So far the board has withheld official comment on this coaching change. Obviously, there had to be some reason for the switch and the assorted rumors are flying. This department would like to know the reason for the turn of events.

The high schoolers out for track are the only ones really hurt by this action. The sudden switch has caught the kids completely off guard, and possible demoralized these Bellboys who want to know why the man who has had them preparing for track for several months is among the missing?

Senior Rec Teams Ending Seasonal Play With Some Stiff Competition

As the Recreation Senior Basketball League draws to its close, there is a tightening situation among the top teams. In last week's games the Sams dealt out a second loss to the Silver Lakers to assume a pretty clear title to first place in the league.

As they stand now the Sams were undefeated in the entire first round and have only one second round undefeated, that team is the Bombers.

The Bombers, who did quite poorly in the first round, have shown great power in the second round and are undefeated after five games. They still must face the Silver Lakers and the Sams. In next week's game the Bombers meet the Lakers.

If the Lakers win they will

Softball Leagues Now Being Formed

There will be a brief formation meeting for managers or captains of softball teams wishing to play in slow pitch leagues sponsored by the Belleville Recreation Department. This meeting is to be held at the Recreation House at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, March 15. Teams must be from the town of Belleville.

Games will be played at Belleville Park starting in early May.

Interested In New Jersey History? New Booklet Gives All The Details

The legend of an Indian maiden leaping to her death because of unrequited love, a story of a Colonist fleeing from pursuers, and a tale of Jenny the donkey slipping over a cliff are a few of the many explanations for the picturesquely named Jenny Jump mountain and State Park in Warren County.

These stories are retold in the current issue of a new publication prepared by the Natural Areas section of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Titled "Forest and Park Notes," the newsletter is intended to inform the public of current activities in New Jersey State Forests and parks and to stimulate public interest in the wise use of the State's natural resources. Each issue will feature some special activity or facility available to the public.

The nature lover will find the newsletter a source of information concerning special educational programs, guided interpretive tours, and unusual exhibits to be found at the State's numerous natural areas. There the plant and wildlife sanctuaries have species typical of the area but rarely found in less protected locations.

For the sports enthusiast, and for those interested in all kinds of outdoor relaxation, "Forest and Park Notes" is a handy guide to highlights of current activities and special events at the State's many recreation areas, where picnicking, camping, fishing, hunting, boating, swimming, skiing, and hiking are some of the activities available.

The publication is also a source of little-known stories and facts about New Jersey's fascinating past. These will be of value to students, teachers, and amateur historians. Special attention is given to guided tours and events of significant historic interest.

Those with a more academic or scientific interest in the State also will find something of value in "Forest and Park Notes." An excellent example of articles in this vein is "Man's Nature" in the latest issue, a discussion of the science of ecology and the man-in-the-street's concern with natural resources in an age of technology.

"Forest and Park Notes" is issued bi-monthly; the next issue will be available in April. A copy may be obtained by addressing a request to Natural Areas, New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development, P.O. Box 1889, Trenton, N.J. 08635.

Kathleen Morgan Married in Nutley To George Roff; To Live in Maryland

Holy Family R. C. Church, Nutley, was the setting for the marriage of Miss Kathleen Morgan of Belleville to George A. Roff of Morristown. The Rev. Francis J. Blake offered the Mass. A reception followed at the Bow and Arrow Manor, West Orange.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis X. Morgan, 20 Reservoir Place, Belleville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Roff, 16 Hill Street, Morristown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk faced peau de soie gown with scooped neckline, floor length modified A-line skirt banded at the waistline with pearl flower motifs and crystal beading and elbow length sleeves similarly trimmed. A sleeveless coat featuring shoulder bows fell into a slightly draped chapel train. A large silk-faced peau de soie bow held a three tiered shoulder veil of handrolled silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of orchids.

Miss Anne Morgan of Belleville, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Miss Carol Roff of Morristown, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in carnation pink crepe dresses banded with French satin. A satin bow held a tulle veil and each had a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Norman Morley of Morristown was best man; ushering were Michael Adamek of Spring Lake and Francis X. Morgan Jr. of Belleville, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Morgan wore a celery green silk suit with a Viennese overblouse and carried pink baby orchids. Mrs. Roff was in a blue brocade suit with matching accessories and white baby orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Caldwell College for Women and is with the New Jersey State Bureau of Children's Services. Her husband graduated from Catholic University, Washington, D.C. and is with the U. S. Department of Labor in Washington, D.C.

The couple will make their home in Forestville, Md.

Council Vs. Board Of Education

There is seldom a dull moment at public meeting here in Little Old Belleville, and if they were all carried on in an enlightening and intellectual vein the town would progress farther and much faster.

But, alas, it is not to be. The council-school board conference at School 8 last week only served to illustrate the fact that boorish conduct is not the exclusive domain of hard-punching politicians. As had been expected, the meeting quickly deteriorated into a name-calling clash of personalities.

One of the town's cowardly nit-wits (from the safety of a crowded auditorium) yelled "Fish" at one councilman who had been trying to analyze the school budget. A board member took on a member of the council on a subject only faintly allied to the business at hand.

But despite the acrimonious exchanges board members and councilmen did hear one good, solid suggestion made by Councilman William Cullen.

Why, he wanted to know, didn't the town council and the board of education sit together and work out municipal and school budgets which would assure the best interests of the town being served? It's something to think about. G.F.A.

Those Political Chameleons

The silly season is upon us again, and it's making strange bedfellows of the local politicians. Elections have a way of doing that, you know.

The strangest phenomenon of all is the species bogus politician who have been accusing the local newspaper of — among many other things — slanted reporting, etc. etc. ad nauseum, but who now began beating a heavy path to our door with their "news releases" full of self-praise.

Heretofore their "news" had been relegated to "throw-away" newspapers. It's an indication of how little those papers count in the long run when a politician realizes his treasured releases reach an extremely limited audience.

We don't mind, really. It just shows you what caliber of men we have running — or re-running, as the case may be — for office.

But the taste of those feathers must be awful, indeed, while eating crow. G.F.A.

Subscriptions Are Increasing

"I'm deluged!" cried Lorraine Turriello Tuesday morning. (She is the Belleville Times girl-in-charge-of-subscriptions)

And what was she deluged with? You want to know what she was deluged with? OK, we'll tell you what she was deluged with. She was deluged with the overwhelming response to the Times offer of a free subscription to all Belleville servicemen now on active duty in the far corners of the world.

Last week Publisher Frank A. Orechio proposed the erection of a suitable memorial for Viet Nam veterans — and got the immediate support of the Belleville Veterans Council headed by Joseph Fornarotto.

As an added measure of respect to Pfc. John M. Hoar, who was killed in action in Viet Nam Feb. 13, he also ordered free subscriptions of the Times mailed to all our servicemen.

The subscriptions will not be retroactive (too much bookkeeping, you know) but if your serviceman is now receiving a paid subscription he will be placed on the "free" list as soon as it expires.

What other newspaper cares enough about its veterans to make this offer? (OK, Lorraine, you can get back to work now) G.F.A.

Come, Gentle Spring!

March 20 will be a welcome date. On that day, Spring will officially return. The precise moment will be 8:53 p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

In many parts of the country, this year's Spring will be greeted with even greater relief and enthusiasm than is usually the case. The winter which now nears its end has been a vicious one generally. There have been record or near-record snowstorms, freezes, gales and floods. But now these scourges are approaching their end.

Spring, every Spring, is the season of new life. All of nature burgeons. The trees put out their bright leaves, the flowers bud and bloom. Everywhere there is the sound of birds, safe and warm in their nests. The beings which live in the woods and the waters flourish and produce their young.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Budget's Defeat Will Injure Our Children

To the Editor:

I was just one of over three hundred people who attended the joint meeting of the Board of Education and the Town Council, Tuesday, March 1, and what I witnessed at this meeting was enough to make anyone shudder.

From the onset it was crystal clear that the Town Council was under the impression that this large turnout of the public was going to be a protest against the Board of Education and the school administration. When this proved to be the exact opposite, every feeble pretense of courtesy and respect were dispensed with, and immediately certain members of this Town Council began to show their true colors and whine that this meeting was a demonstration rather than a meeting to discuss the School Budget.

But you didn't have to be a mind reader to get the message that the Town Council wouldn't give two minutes consideration to the needs of the schools and the welfare of the school children.

For the record, let it be known that the Board of Education supplied written information to the Town Council, several days before this meeting took place. Certain members of this illustrious council didn't even bother to look at it, let alone study it. Again, for the sake of keeping the record straight there were many teachers and principals present and they did speak up but, not for themselves or for their salaries. They tried in every way to make the Town Council realize that if they mutilate this school budget, as they did last year's budget, then the children of Belleville are going to be the "victims".

Parents with children in the parochial schools pleaded with these men to realize that the people defeated the School Budget because it is their only means of protest. This doesn't mean the people condone bad schools, or that they are endorsing an inferior school system or that they are willing to allow the schools to fall down, just so long as they save money.

Many citizens pleaded with the council to understand that the schools can no longer be neglected year after year. They tried to show that it is the mismanagement of the Town that they can no longer stand, but as far as I am concerned the people were talking to a stone wall, because the members of the Council made it very clear that they are the ones leading this band, and the people will dance to their tune, and "The voice of Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public be damned!"

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

A customer came to our store recently quite excited, claiming that we had "misrepresented" the set which he purchased from us. He took out a template he had made from the screen and wanted us to show him 25", in any direction.

Of course, we could not show him a distance of 25" on his template. The measurement is taken diagonally from the outside of the glass. We unpacked a new 25" tube and it measured a little more than 25". We showed the customer the manufacturer's listing under the heading of "25" picture tubes which listed the tube we measured. Still muttering, he left the store.

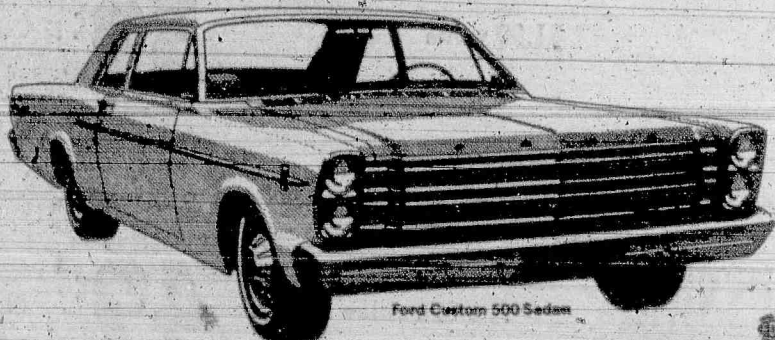

Every once in a great while we experience such a "bing". Generally there is no question about the matter and the general public has accepted the designation by inches. True enough the variety of screen sizes from a 3" to a 27" picture tube is great, but just about everybody is familiar with this terminology and most customers who come to purchase a TV set, know exactly what size they want. Everybody, from the manufacturer, the dealer to the customer, was happy — for once, and there was no misrepresentation.

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) all of a sudden found out that it thinks differently. A new set of rules is expected shortly, as a result of which some time in the near future picture tube sizes may have to be listed either across (horizontally), up and down (vertically) or diagonally or in square inches of picture size. If there was no confusion up to now, this new ruling, in case it goes into effect, will really mess things up. One can only hope that a simple formula, easily understood by everybody, will evolve as the result of strenuous protests by the industry. In the writer's opinion, the present system was perfectly satisfactory. However, if there is going to be a change, the only way it should be listed is as actual square inches of picture size. Probably we have not heard the last of this controversial matter yet.

We service what we sell.

Board Members Outraged After Hearing Council's Plans For School Budget

The Town Council in general, and some of its members in particular came in for some scathing comment by outraged members of the Belleville Board of Education Monday night even as they braced themselves for the coming repercussions to their failure to re-appoint track coach Ronald Kulik to his post.

"If we close down School 8 we might make it," said assistant superintendent of schools Michael Rosamilia jocularly.

"The mayor calls himself a product of Belleville schools," said board member Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, and then does this to the school system.

This cut was by the "supposed" town councilmen, said board vice president Rocco Saletta, was a disgrace. The town council, he added, has deteriorated itself, and now undertakes to cut the school budget, he declared. "It (the town council) should be openly criticized," he said.

The members discussed briefly the possibility of attending the Council's discussions tonight at 8 p.m. during which it had been rumored councilmen were prepared to cut the original $3.9 million dollar budget anywhere from $281,000 down to $150,000.

"It will make the children of our community suffer," said Arvidson, "they will be the ones who will have to pay." The quality of education will suffer, he said, if any reduction is made.

But the board itself has been criticized for not defending their budget before the voters twice said critics, why had not the board explained to the public the need for the funds they had asked for?

Ruling Deferred In License Suit

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce was awaiting word today on its suit against the Town to declare the 1965 licensing ordinance invalid.

The chamber, taking the parts of some 11 business establishments learned last week that Superior Court Judge Walter Conklin reserved decision on the suit March 1.

The chamber has argued that a store licensing ordinance had been created as a revenue producing measure instead of a regulatory move, which the councilmen immediately denied.

The chamber says the town is taxing stores on an inequitable basis licensing by the square feet with fees ranging from $15 to $275.

sidewalks and curbing; installation of better street lighting along Washington Avenue to Holmes Street; reclamation of the Fairview Avenue swamp and the so-called "Bog" area in the proximity of the new high school, and their conversion into playground and varsity baseball fields, respectively.

"It is the first time that the Third River has not flooded during recent snow and rain storms," the Mayor reminded his audience. "There is not a single section of our town that has not become revitalized as the result of such improved facilities."

As an example the Mayor pointed to the new rolling equipment and ambulance of the Fire Department and to the extension of Library facilities by the establishment of a branch library in Silver Lake, "an area habitually treated as a stepchild by former administrations."

Mayor Pico is a lifelong resident of Belleville, and a graduate of the Newark College of Engineering. He was also post-graduate student at the School of Education, Rutgers University, and at New York University. He is now a supervising engineer in the electronic telephone and communications division of Western Electric and throughout his adult life has been highly active in civic affairs and in the field of education.

A Tribute From The President

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 28, 1966

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Hoar:

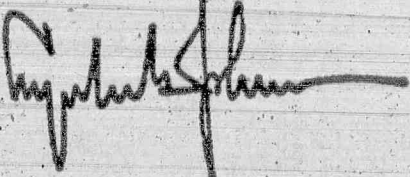

It was with deep regret that I learned of the death of your son, Private First Class John M. Hoar, United States Army, as the result of wounds received due to hostile action while serving in Vietnam.

While I realize that there is little that can be said to lessen your grief, I want you to know that your son was a fine soldier who served his country well. From the time he first entered the service to his latest assignment, he repeatedly demonstrated his loyalty and devotion to duty. You may well be proud of the high regard in which he was held by those with whom he served.

I sincerely hope that the memory of your son's dedicated service will be a source of comfort and pride to you in the years to come. His valiant service is attested to by the award of the Purple Heart from a grateful Nation.

Mrs. Johnson joins me in extending our heartfelt sympathy to you in your tragic loss.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoar
80 Cleveland Street

headed for the Olympics as a walker, works for the school system without salary to maintain his amateur status. If Forte is made head coach, he will command a higher salary — perhaps $600 — and will need an assistant.

A Student Boycott
Is the board of education seeking an assistant. "No," said Arvidson.

Sponsored under the direction of the Rehabilitation Hospital committees of the two organizations, ward parties with food, entertainment and gifts, will be held at Veterans Administration Hospitals at Lyons, N.J., and East Orange, State Hospitals, at Trenton, Ancora, Marlboro and Grey-stone Park, and New Jersey Soldiers' Homes at Meno Park and Vineland.

The Legion's 421 Posts in the State will observe the birthday with dinners, dances, and various types of anniversary celebrations, all themed to the special occasion, according to William R. Huggard, Park Ridge, State Legion Commander.

Arvidson. But on the teachers "sign-out" sheet at Belleville High School there is a notation asking teachers interested in becoming assistant coaches to list records with their applications.

Kulik said he knew of no reason why he should be replaced. His teaching record is rated "average" and "the only thing they (the board) could get me on is a morals charge — and I sure didn't do anything like that," said Kulik.

Student trackmen boycotted Forte's first meeting, and only team captains appeared — mainly to get information as to the situation, said one. It was not a protest against Forte, but notice that they were concerned with Kulik's dismissal.

Arvidson, and board member Richard H. Drake were for accepting the three-man recommendation, but board member Nicholas S. Juliano was firmly against it.

Fire Captain Charles R. Sheldon Receives Tribute From Department

Capt. Charles R. Sheldon, a veteran firefighter with 18 years service with the Belleville Fire Department and a captain for nine years, died March 5 at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital of cancer. He was 44.

He was a native of Dover, but had lived here for the past 22 years. He joined the department in 1948 and eight years later was promoted to captain.

All off-duty firemen attended service from the Wadsworth Funeral Home Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. Fire Department Chaplain Father Ignacius officiated. Casketbearers were Captain Robert Shaughnessy, Harold Dambra, George Meyers, Ralph Casellano, Robert Mazza, and Edward Carr.

The funeral entourage drove slowly past the Town Hall, and up Washington Avenue to Fire Headquarters where he had been stationed. The long line of cars paused briefly as the fire bell tolled and firefighters saluted, then continued northward to Kearny where final services were held in Holy Cross Cemetery.

He is survived by his widow Mrs. M. Patricia Kastner Sheldon, three sons, Robert of Belleville, and David and Steven, both at home, two daughters, Judith and Janet, both at home, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sheldon, Toms River.

Council Set

Burnett said, after examining salary items, that they had increased 21 per cent over 1964-65. Board member Rocco Saletta told an audience last week that teachers salaries would not be touched.

Despite an $85,000 cut the budget was again defeated, Feb. 8. It was then assigned to the town council for further study and reduction.

The council must act within ten-days, which ends today, or the budget goes automatically to the state commissioner for a decision.

Last year the budget was cut $277,000 by the council after the had failed twice in two elections.

Tonight's meeting will read an agenda, "Introduce a resolution fixing the amount necessary for the fiscal operation of Belleville Schools and certifying same to the Essex County Board of Taxation."

What Price Fame? Asks A Track Fan

To The Editor:
After bringing the track team and Belleville into the limelight, after setting new records in track and cross-country, and after winning the Big Ten Conference title and getting Belleville's cross-country team into the state meet, an able coach and a wonderful man is being repaid by receiving the axe from the black hand of politics.

The Board of Education speaks about raising the budget to help defer expenses. Doesn't our track coach help matters by not receiving any pay? Perhaps these ungrateful men should stop for a moment and think about this.

Why do they plan on changing in mid-stream? Will this heighten the morale of our boys?

If those trying to oust our coaches argue "inability," this argument is unfounded. The distinguished record of the team during the cross-country season easily refutes them.

Why not at least let Mr. Ron Kulik complete the present track season with the boys he has turned into sportsmen and real men?

COUNCIL SET TO CUT SCHOOL BUDGET BY $203,000 TONIGHT

Track Coach Ronald Kulik Fired At BHS

School Board Declines To Explain Reasons For Popular Coach's Ouster

Why was Ronald Kulik dropped as track coach at Belleville High School?

He had led his team to unprecedented records as harriers, been recommended for the position of track coach by Director of Athletics Herman B. Wische, Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Rosamilia, and High School Principal Raymond O. Smith.

But the Board of Education overruled these recommendations last week and assigned the post to assistant coach Pat Forte.

These were some of the questions puzzling students, their parents, and sports-minded residents who thought the popular history teacher was the most likely man to head the harriers during the fast-approaching track season.

No Explanation

But the answers were not immediately available.

Ernest S. Arvidson, board president, said the reasons for his dismissal as coach should come from Kulik, who, in turn said he hadn't been notified of the why. "If he wants to find out," said Arvidson, "he can write us a letter and we'll tell him, but I don't think we should publicize it."

Kulik said Tuesday he had written a letter to Smith requesting a hearing before the board of education and would demand an explanation.

Forte, a well-qualified teacher and coach, is paid $400 as assistant coach.

THEY'RE ON THE SPOT: Harried board of education members discuss the latest set back in the school system at School 8 following a meeting with the Town Council. At left is newly-elected vice president Rocco Saletta, Board President Ernest S. Arvidson, and Michael Rosamilia, acting superintendent of schools who is filling in for suspended superintendent of schools Dr. Frank M. Durkee. Now they are faced with explaining why top trackman Ronald Kulik was not reappointed track coach. (Photo by ADAMS)

Two Attornies Named To Replace Schwartz By Board Of Education

Saul R. Alexander, 5 Colt St. Baterson, has been named temporary attorney to handle the case against suspended superintendent of schools Dr. Frank M. Durkee, announced the Belleville Board of Education Monday night.

Alexander, who is replacing in-disposed board attorney Max N. Schwartz, will be paid a $1,000 retainer. Any extra salary "will depend on what else is concerned with the case, and according to the Essex County Bar Association," said board president Ernest S. Arvidson.

Alexander is a specialist in school litigation with some 25 years practice. He was selected by board members Nicholas S. Juliano and Dr. Frank DiRugiero, who had been assigned as a special committee to select a replacement for Schwartz.

A second attorney was named to handle "routine" legal matters during regular board meetings. He is J. Allen Provan, 399 Kearny Ave., Kearny. His salary was set at $150 per month. He had been working with Schwartz on the Durkee case.

Servicemen Responding To Free Subscriptions

Servicemen and their parents began taking advantage of The Belleville Times offer of a free subscription to all servicemen today as word of the paper's generosity spread.

Among the first names to arrive in the Times office was that of Pvt. Donald Milano, RA 12732772, Headquarters Battery 1st Bn., 94th Artillery, APO 09326, New York.

Publisher Frank A. Orechio decided to mail copies of the town's official newspaper to all servicemen after learning of the death of 20-year-old Pfc. John M. Hoar, who was killed in action Feb. 13 in Viet Nam.

Pico: Won't Allow Council To Shirk A Municipal Duty

The $3.9 million dollar annual school budget — voted down by town residents four consecutive times in the past two years — will be arbitrarily cut by the Town Council tonight at 7:15 p.m. during a special meeting at Town Hall.

Tentative estimates for the reductions have ranged from $381,000 down to $150,000 but, said Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, "around $200,000 is a good all-around figure."

Councilmen had agreed to a veil of secrecy regarding the proposed budget cut, but Councilman James R. Golden released the figures to newspapers over the weekend.

Since the exact amount to be cut had not been decided upon, said the mayor, he thought the amount should not be released until it was official.

A Solution Tonight

None of the councilmen could agree on a figure, said the mayor, but he didn't plan on allowing councilmen to pass the decision onto the state commissioner of education.

"I'll demand a roll-call on the cut," said the mayor.

Town Manager John R. Burnett, said he had, after studying the budget, arrived at three figures which would make reasonable reductions in the budget. His first was $182,702, then $214,002, and finally $286,281, but he said he had not been assigned the duty of making a recommendation as he had last year.

Councilman Ralph A. Casale was reported to have advised the lowest possible education, while Councilman James R. Golden held out for the top figure. Councilman William Cullen suggested the budget be forwarded to the state commissioner for adjudication.

Strumolo Scores The Mayor For Weak Leadership

Voters Are Asked To 'Correct' Mistake Of Wrong Men In Office

Vincent Strumolo, a candidate for the Belleville Town Council and former councilman, was highly critical of incumbent councilman-at-large, Mayor Nuncio R. Pico.

"Belleville citizens must soon go to the polls and vote for Councilmen whose terms expire in May," he said today. "What the voters must realize is that they will not merely be performing a routine chore of filling a council seat, but they will be voting to correct the mistake of putting the wrong men in office in previous elections."

"Our mayor is an example of this mistake. He has been a vacillating councilman, striving hard to maintain a false balance of voting power for that body than in profiting sound policies. He has also been a weak mayor, more given to making hollow promises than in upholding the dignity of office when the council is in session, or in holding the line against undue domination by our high-priced town manager."

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico Announces Candidacy

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico today announced his candidacy for the Belleville municipal elections, May 10, in which the seats of three councilmen-at-large are at stake.

At a meeting at his home, Mayor Pico assured a 20-member campaign committee that petitions are now being circulated to secure his place on the ballot for reelection.

His campaign, he told his volunteer workers, would be conducted on the platform of "Progress, Economy and Dignity," and would be "strictly on merit and on the basis of my past record which I am proud to say has resulted, despite manifold improvements, in a surplus of more than $900,000 — the highest surplus in the history of Belleville."

He said, "we could, at this moment, pay off our entire municipal indebtedness and still have a quarter-million dollars left over. Our financial stability is also reflected in the 3 per cent rate at which we can float our municipal bonds, while New York City, on the other hand, has to pay a rate of 4.15 per cent."

Among the major improvements already carried out or presently in the planning and engineering stage, the Mayor cited the widening of Greylock Parkway; conversion of Jorammon Street into "a truly modern, three-lane thoroughfare" with

Those Belleville High School Kids Did It Again; A Sprightly Performance By Talented Students

A BEAUTY: Anne Celfo, a color guard member, was one of the BHS beauties who made the music department's Variety Show a success Friday night at Belleville High School.

EXPERT: Linda Wisneski, a sophomore in her first year as a twirler, was also part of the hour-and-a-half performance at the high school auditorium. It was well attended.

Sax-Man: Lou Luzzi, brought the house down with a beautifully done performance of "Tequila" assisted by the BHS concert band. The sophomore musician has been playing for three years.

EMCEE: Dave Bukugus, a witty and familiar master-of-ceremonies who always looks as if he's walking on stilts, kept the large audience giggling with his quips. He's generally a lead man at BHS.

BANDSMAN: Joe Monda, who blows a mean baritone sax, is ending his first year with the Bellboy band whose director is Robert Wing. He, too, helped make the Variety Show a success.

SENIOR: Richard Dougherty, a bandsman for the past six years, is a tenor sax player with the BHS Band. With his help the band came closer to the day it marches in Washington.

COLOR GUARD: Sandy Muscara, a member of the BHS Color Guard, started and twirled her way across the high school stage last Friday night as part of the high school Variety Show.

SOPHOMORE: Diane Rappa, also a sophomore member of the twirling squad, will remember her first time on stage at BHS, although she has taken part in annual football demonstrations.

THEY WATCHED IT GO DOWN: Scribbling down figures as they were printed on the tally board at School 8, Belleville residents matched sheet-against-sheet until the final count confirmed their suspicions that the annual school budget was

Suggest Ending Tax Exemptions For Organizations

An Internal Revenue Service proposal to tax the advertising revenues of tax-exempt organizations is certain to encounter opposition from hard-hit organizations such as medical and other professional associations, labor union publications, and such diverse groups as the Boy Scouts, the National Education Assn., and the National Geographic Society.

The proposal "is a timely example of the abuse of the administrative and interpretive function of the executive branch," declared Rep. Thomas B. Curtis (R., Mo.), a member of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee.

Journals Affected
Under the proposal, professional journals would be taxed on advertising revenues and above those that cover operating expenses at the 52 percent federal corporate income tax rate.

The new regulation would be based on the 1950 revenue law that was intended to curb the abuse of some tax-exempt organizations of acquiring regular commercial businesses not substantially related to their tax-exempt purposes, except for the need of additional revenue.

"Is it conceivable," asked Curtis in a speech, "that for 15 years Congress did not notice that the Treasury Dept. was not collecting a tax that had been intended by the legislative enactment? Has the Treasury Dept. cringed in uncertainty for 15 years about whether Congress might have meant to impose this tax and now takes the regulation route to find out? If the Revenue Act of 1950 was intended to tax the advertising income of trade, professional and scientific organizations, is it possible that this legislation would have been enacted without the energetic opposition of such organizations?"

Variety Cited
Curtis pointed to the great number and variety of exempt organizations having publications which contain advertising, ranging from the bulletins of local labor unions and small religious organizations to nationally and internationally important scientific journals.

"Advertising has appeared in professional and scientific journals for more than 150 years," he said. "This is no sudden invasion by tax-exempt organizations in the sale of advertising space. Nor is it a fund-raising scheme which some promoter has dreamed up to take advantage of a recent loophole in tax laws."

Despite the legislative history and the clear meaning of the law, Curtis said the IRS "now proposes by regulations to tax the advertising revenue of publications of tax-exempt organizations, irrespective of whether the publication is substantially related or unrelated to its exempt purposes."

Intent Unmistakable
"Since the intent of the law is unmistakable, it is clear that the IRS would, by the adoption of this proposal, usurp the legislative functions and prerogatives of Congress by going beyond the purpose of the statute."

Curtis has introduced legislation to make it clear that the advertising and subscription income derived from the publications of certain non-profit organizations shall not be taxable when such publications, and income therefrom, are substantially related to the purpose or function constituting the organization's basis for its tax exemption.

Garden State Farms Blocks Price Increase

A court order has blocked the State farm from raising consumer milk prices while a suit brought by Garden State Farms against the price increase is before the court.

Appellate Division, Superior Court, handed down the decision, continuing the stay of Office of Milk Industry Order 66-1 first granted to Garden State Farms two weeks ago. Its ruling came at a hearing held on Garden

State Farms' motion to continue the stay until the integrated processing-retailing dairy's appeal from Order 66-1 is heard.

New Jersey consumers were to have started paying higher prices for milk February 1, under Order 66-1S NEW minimums. But, the Appellate Divisions stayed the order January 26 when Garden State Farms took steps to appeal, charging that "there is no evidence before OMI to justify an increase," and that "milk is already sold on a widespread basis through stores.

Faculty-Varsity Teams May Battle Next Week

Surprises galore will be in store for Belleville High School students, next week when the Key Club presents its Third Annual version of the Varsity-Faculty Basketball Game. Always a crowd pleaser, this semi-serious clash should prove to be interesting and amusing.

United Hospitals Plan Refresher RN Course

A 12-week refresher course for inactive registered nurses who wish to return to work will be held at United Hospital of Newark from February 14 to May 6. Classes will be held each Monday Wednesday and Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The course is being held as part of a state-wide project of the Hospital Research and Educational Trust of New Jersey Hospital Association in conjunction with the Vocational Division of the New Jersey Department of Education and the New Jersey Division of Employment Security. The refresher program, which is free, is designed to orient B.N.'s to the latest nursing techniques and to prepare them to resume the practice of nursing.

The playing date for the Annual Contest depends fully on how the Varsity fares in the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association Tournament. The Varsity-Faculty clash will then probably follow later in the week.

All tickets for the 2:45 p.m. Key Club presentation will be sold in advance with sale being held in homerooms and during the lunch periods. Admission is 50 cents.

On February 25, 1779 George Rogers Clark's army of 170 men received the surrender of Henry Hamilton, the British Lieutenant-Governor of Vincennes, Indiana. By this event, the country north-west of the Ohio River was won and thrown open to settlers from the east.

A FINAL SERVICE: Mounting the steps of St. Peter's Church are Belleville servicemen who carry the casket bearing a fallen friend and comrade, Pfc. John M. Hoar, who was killed in action in Viet Nam Feb. 13. Following the casket are John Weber, a son-in-law, Mrs. Mary Henrietta, a sister, Mrs. Mary Beth Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Hoar, and a brother Robert Jr. Casket bearers are, from left, Pvt. Wayne Alling, Pvt. Robert K. Gregory, Pvt. George H. Thomas, Pvt. William P. Alexander, Pvt. Robert Fochesto, and Pvt. Edward P. Winkowski. (Photo by ADAMS)

Cullen: A State Board Determination?

By COUNCILMAN W. CULLEN I believe the budget of the Board of Education should be forwarded to the State Board of Education for several reasons.

I believe ten days are not sufficient time in which to intelligently read the budget, get information as to the reasons for increases or decreases, the purposes for additions or deletions to various segments of the budget, and then to make an honest determination as to what is proper and necessary for the best education of our children.

I would point out even our Town budget was available for several weeks to all councilmen, and several meetings were held regarding it. The final action was the introducing of it by a bare majority.

I believe the voters by returning two incumbents to office showed they had confidence in those who originally prepared this school budget. True, they turned it down twice feeling, apparently, it was too high but is this a mandate to the council to possibly reduce it to a point where some essential programs may be dropped. Is it not possible the voters felt an outside professional look should be given to this budget.

I feel that where there are two elective boards — the Town Council and the Board of Education — one should not try to upset the budget of the other, either by adding too much to one, or cutting too much from the other.

I believe if this budget is given to the State Board of Education the people of Belleville and those responsible for its preparation will be given an excellent outline for future budgets. I believe the state board, with its overall awareness of the educational needs and requirements throughout the State, can and will establish for Belleville guide lines which should be followed in the preparing of budgets for the proper and best education of our children.

As a final suggestion I recommend, that in the future the Town Council and the Board of Education confer on both of their budgets in order to eliminate any misunderstandings.

I believe in this way the taxpayers money will be spent more wisely and the best interest of both the children and those who foot the bill will be served.

Hearing Defects Are Uncovered in Tests

Seventy per cent of the 914 people who recently took a free hearing test at Saint Barnabas Medical Center were found to have a hearing defect.

This was reported by Gerald D'Andrea, Chief Audiologist of the Medical Center's Department of Rehabilitation, who said that 731 adults and 183 children were tested. Those found to have a hearing loss were given a slip which recommended that they consult their family physician to determine a course of treatment. D'Andrea explained that the "remarkably high percentage of those found to have a loss were people who suspected something was wrong and used this opportunity to find out the facts."

Cover bottom of oblong greased casserole with drained Blue Lake green beans. Arrange bacon-wrapped frankfurters on top and pour tomato sauce with cheese over. Bake in moderately hot oven about 20 minutes.

Switchboard To Be Taught At Y

A switchboard receptionist class will be formed in March at the Business School of the YM-YWCA of Newark and vicinity's downtown Branch.

The course will cover complete operation of the 555 Cord Board. In addition to general instruction, each student will receive individual attention from a qualified instructor at the switchboard. The class will meet twice weekly.

Further information is available from the school, 600 Broad St., Newark.

Members of the Y's West Hudson Branch which serves Belleville families are among those eligible to enroll in this course.

Jeremiah O'Shea

A High Mass of Requiem for Jeremiah O'Shea, 83, of 25 Fairway Ave., Belleville, was offered at 9 a.m. Feb. 19 in St. Peter's Church. The funeral was from the Kiernan Funeral Home, 101 Union Ave., Belleville.

Mr. O'Shea, a trolley motor man for Public Service Coordinated Transport Co., died Feb. 16 in Montclair Nursing Home. He retired 18 years ago and was a member of the Amalgamated Transit Union and the Holy Name Society of St. Peter's Church.

Born in Ireland, Mr. O'Shea lived in Belleville 70 years.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Michael J. Higgins and Mrs. John J. Bellis, both of Belleville; a sister, Miss Mary O'Shea of Brooklyn, 20 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Town Council Defers Decision On Purchasing Automobile Insurance
Town-owned vehicles were operating under a binder policy insurance today following the Town Council's decision to defer accepting insurance bids for annual coverage.
The council will wait until their next meeting before accepting bids. The original insurance policy expired Jan. 27.
The latest hassle developed when town insurance firms claimed they had insufficient time to study the provisions of the bids. Three bids were received Monday night, said Town Manager John R. Burnett, but they went unopened when Councilman William Cullen asked that they be returned until insurance agents had time to properly study the bid requirements.
The council decided to accept the bids during their March 14 meeting over the objections of Burnett. "I don't see how any agent could submit a bid," said Cullen. "There just wasn't time."
The town is covered by a binder issued by Norman H. Thompson, 189 Hornblower Ave., who had sold the town its policy last year.

Council Approves A $115,000 Water Main For Town
The Town council introduced an ordinance appropriating some $115,000 in bonds for the installation of a 12-inch water main from the Bloomfield town line to Garden Avenue with a 4:1 vote.
The 4,600-foot main would serve the western section of Belleville including Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. There will be a public hearing on the proposal during the March 14 meeting at Town Hall. Councilman James R. Golden cast the single negative vote.
The council also adopted an ordinance releasing a parcel of recreation department-held land at 71-77 Greylock Avenue for public sale. The land had not been in use since 1945. Councilman William Cullen voted against the release.

Switzerland To Be YMCA Topic On March 16th

Raphael Green will be present to personally narrate his film at 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 6, in the Pelican Room at the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Building, 520 Broad Street, Newark.
Peace-keeper, time-keeper and money-keeper, Switzerland has transformed an infertile country into one of the most beautiful and successful in the world.
Tickets are available in advance from the Adult Program Office Branch which serves Belleville of the "Y" 600 Broad St., Newark, or may be obtained at the door on the night of the program.
Members of the West Hudson residents are among those regularly attending the World Around Us series.

Council OK's Two Licenses
Two $50 licensing were approved by the Town Council Monday night, which will enable Harry Jaff, 15 Essex Street, and George Russ, 1024 Olive St., Elizabeth, to hawk newspapers on specific town streets.
The decision also waived restrictions on an ordinance limiting vehicles to a 15-minute stop at the locations. Approval of a $9 claim by John F. Mallack, custodian of School 3, was OK'd to replace his broken glasses when he was struck by a basketball during a junior league game recently.

The Chamber of Commerce gave its wholehearted approval of Mayor Nuccio R. Pico's establishment of a parking authority here today.
In a letter to the mayor, executive secretary Harry French said members of the "retail trade" are very happy that you have proposed the establishment of a parking authority in Belleville.
Parking is a major problem, French observed, and a parking authority is the only workable solution to a perplexing problem.
"We most surely hope that the town council will vote in favor of your proposal," the letter concluded.

Public Service Is Planning Two Giant Generating Stations

Tentative plans for two new big electric generating projects were revealed in the annual report mailed to stockholders by Public Service Electric and Gas Company.

Plans are being made with Philadelphia Electric Company for construction of two jointly-owned generating stations. Each would have a capacity of 900,000 kilowatts.

One station will be located on the New Jersey side of the lower Delaware River. The other will be located on the other side of the river. No decision has been made as yet on specific locations.

Planning for these new facilities is the result of a joint study of generating capacity needs for 1971-1975.

The 900,000-unit planned for the Public Service side of the Delaware would be the largest single unit in New Jersey.

The company is considering participation with a group of investor-owned utility companies in the construction and operation of a mine-mouth steam generating station near Johnstown, Pa. The station, named "Conemaugh," after the river beside which it will be built, will have two 900,000-kilowatt units. One is scheduled to begin operation in 1970, the other in 1971.

Public Service, if it becomes a participant, would own the largest share, 22.5 per cent and be entitled to 405,000 kilowatts of the capacity. Plans and design work for the station and transmission facilities are in progress.

Public Service is already participating in construction of another mine-mouth steam electric generating station in western Pennsylvania. Called "Keystone," this station will also have two 900,000-kilowatt units. One is scheduled for operation in 1967, the other in 1968. The Public Service share in this station is the largest, approximately 23 per cent. These facilities, along with others which went into operation last year, will help supply the ever-increasing demand for energy in the utility's service area.

Two projects which began operating in 1965 were the largest gas-turbine unit in the world at Sewaren Generating Station, with a net capacity of 140,000 kilowatts and the 330,000 kilowatt Yards Creek Pumped-Storage Generating Station in Warren County. Public Service shares ownership and output of this station with Jersey Central Power & Light Company.

In a message to stockholders included in the report, Watson F. Tait Jr., chairman of the board, noted the principal reason for the spiraling demand for electricity as well as gas.

"While the nation as a whole showed a population gain of 29 per cent from 1950 to 1965," said Tait, "the Middle Atlantic States gained 21 per cent and New Jersey outstripped both in a gain of 40 per cent. Projections for the next dozen years indicate that the rate of increase for New Jersey will continue well above both the national and regional rates."

"Part of this growth and development," Tait added, "has been influenced by the company's continuing programs for aiding businesses to find suitable locations in which to build or expand within our service area."

The annual report states that there was a net increase of 312 major new or expanded commercial and industrial facilities within the company's service area in 1965. This growth created 19,000 new jobs.

The report revealed that total operating revenues exceeded one-half billion dollars for the first time in the company's history. The total was $528,021,259, up 5 per cent over 1964.

The report also states that the sale of electricity increased 9 per cent and electric operating revenues were up 7 per cent over 1964. Gas sales were up 8 per cent and gas operating revenues increased 5 per cent over 1964.

DiDomenico, Oliveri, Rempusheski Last To Go In Regional Tournament

The Season's Over, But BHS Has Promise For '66

By BILL MC CARTHY

Nick DiDomenico, Mike Oliveri and John Rempusheski were the last of the Bellboys in the regionals representing the team in its fourth year.

For the boys, it is the last time they can show their skill. Regardless of the outcome the two seniors, Oliveri and Remp, had to put their all into this, and they did. Their problem was that they faced the toughest of competitors. This region has the roughest grouping. Many of the best parochial and public schools belong to this region, and our wrestlers found out as they fell one by one in the early rounds.

DiDomenico took over the first round, eliminating his man with a few well executed moves. He moved fast and did his work well enough to give him an 8-0 victory. In the semi-finals Nick didn't quite fare as well, losing out to Mulligan of E.C. in a match in which he wrestled as best as he could — as he has all year. For the record, it's notable that this young man is a bright future in wrestling. He may just give Belleville a good name as a wrestling town next year if he can go all the way. Most of the team think he can.

Oliveri Leads

His 17-1 record throughout the season in all his varsity appearances gives him the best record of any grappler who gave his winter to the "endurance" test this sport offers. Most important to BHS, is that he'll be back next year.

Captain Mike Oliveri, our powerful 157-pound man, has had his runs of bad luck, but certainly he has been an important factor in the season. He was the one who had to keep the moral of the team up, even through the slack period of the season. In the preliminaries, he didn't have luck with him, but he did have his wits about him. If the riding time had been in his favor, he would have won.

It was his best, and certainly no one can ask for any more.

As for the biggest man on the team, John Rempusheski he had an odd twist of fate last week, as the man who defeated him couldn't make the regionals and John was to go in his stead.

John, however, found himself going against competition much faster and lighter than he had experienced in the dual matches. His final score showed himself on the short end of a 7-2 score, but he did his best.

As he said himself that the main was just a little too much.

Track Team Is Flexing Those Mighty Muscles

BY BILL MC CARTHY

The BHS tracksters will be seen running around the track this week as they prepare for what could be the greatest season in the school's history.

Featuring such men as Bob Boglione, going for the state record in the one — an two-mile run; Bob Paterson, our terrific high jumper; Joe Rodriguez and

Peter Greco in the 100-yard dash; Louis Trowbridge in the discus field, Harold Baker in the pole vaulting; plus others, like Dave Grigoris, Frank Miliano and Al Freda (sophomore and junior distance men) and plenty of other strong men.

Coach Ron Kulik hopes to guide these boys to Big Ten and Essex County championships. He has offered to give the boys his time voluntarily this season, and will be keeping himself in shape for the various walking meets, in preparation for the Olympics of '68 if possible (and after a look at his trophies and awards, it seems to be likely).

We hope to see you all out for Peter Greco in the 100-yard dash; Louis Trowbridge in the discus field, Harold Baker in the pole vaulting; plus others, like

Trip To France? Newark Library Plans Lectures

An illustrated talk on France: Scenes from Seven Ages was given at the Newark Museum, 49 Washington St., Sunday, Feb. 27, at 3:30 p.m. by Hunter Ross, Curator of Ethnological Collections.

This is the second in a series of travel talks entitled "Before You Go Abroad," scheduled by the Museum to provide helpful information for those planning summer vacation trips.

Ross will show slides taken last summer in France outside of Paris and the regular tourist routes. He will concentrate on interesting but less well known historic sites and structures covering thousands of years and many historical periods that are still visible to travelers today.

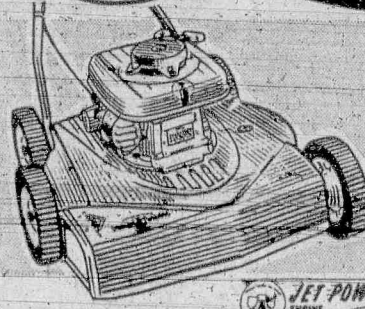

The buildings and sites discussed will include examples from the prehistoric, Roman, romanesque, gothic, renaissance, Louis XIV and XV, and the 19th and 20th centuries.

Ross will also give would-be travelers practical information about costs, accommodations and auto travel in France based on his own recent experience.

The third talk in the series, "Classical Ruins of Sicily," by William H. Gerds, Curator of Painting and Sculpture, will be given on Sunday, March 13.

We Need New Salt Truck Reports Town Manager John R. Burnett

BY JOHN R. BURNETT
In the past few weeks, both Public Works trucks used for the spreading of salt became inoperable to the degree that it has become necessary to combine both trucks into one operating vehicle. During this time we have been compelled to spread salt by hand when necessary.

The one truck, a 1945 Mack chassis, broke down through clutch assembly and rear end failure. The other, also a 1945 Mack chassis, broke down to the degree, our mechanics say, that it is beyond repair. The rear end and clutch assembly in this vehicle were used as substitute parts for the other vehicle. The salt spreader on the second truck, as well as the motor that operates the spreader, broke down completely.

After the repairs are finished, which should be by Friday, Feb. 25, we will have one operating salt spreader. The other truck must be junked. The Public Works mechanics and the Fire Department mechanics are checking the motor to see if minor repairs could be made and then have it used as a replacement for the motor in our converted water truck, which is almost beyond repair.

I bring this to Council attention because it will be necessary to replace at least one of the salt trucks as well as a heavy duty street sweeper during the coming year.

The Water Ordinance, which we discussed with the Council, has been placed on this agenda. It calls for inter-connections with Newark water service at Garden Avenue, and the replacement of the present 8" water main from Garden Avenue westerly along Belleville Avenue to the Bloomfield town line by a 12" main. The replacement of this line at this time is necessary because of the repaving project of the County of Essex for Belleville during 1966.

The total figure involved is $115,000, and is listed as one of the Capital Improvements for 1966.

Deputy Chief Emerson J. Bush has applied for retirement as of April 1, 1966. To meet the requirements of our present table of organization, it will be necessary to promote the present Captain to Deputy Chief, pending promotional procedures; to promote a Lieutenant to Captain; to promote a Sergeant to Acting Lieutenant, pending promotional procedures; and to promote a patrolman to Sergeant.

I have been unable to find any previous policy determination in Belleville as to the accumulation of sick leave and vacation time, while an employee is absent on leave without pay. I, therefore, am issuing a Manager's directive that sick leave and vacation

Arvidson: A Wealth Of Experience, Time, And Effort Went Into Budget

By ERNEST S. ARVIDSON
President, Board of Education

This budget is the culmination of approximately 140 hours of work by board of education members. Countless hours by the school administrators and staff have been devoted to it. The combined service of these Board members to the Board of Education exceeds 35 years. Using these 35 years of experience your board of education developed a budget to fit the needs of the community and the school system which will give our children the learning experience they will need to meet the challenges of our swiftly-changing civilization.

We are all well aware of the dangers to which our children are constantly exposed. A comprehensive program must be maintained to motivate all children of all learning capacities.

We cannot ignore the fact that each dropout, each failure to educate, becomes much more costly to the community, not only in the corrective measures which must be taken later, but in the loss of service to society. Failure to provide for the educational needs is always many times more costly than the initial savings made.

Cuts Listed

With the 35 years of background experience in school matters, your board of education prepared a budget which, in their good judgment, would provide for the needed educational program for Belleville.

The Board considered each item in detail and eliminated those items which, in their judgment, were necessary but could be deferred to another time. When the school budget failed to pass in the first referendum, the Board again considered each item in detail.

The following areas were re-examined with greater care:

— 1 teacher contingency, $5,600; 1 teacher for socially and emotionally maladjusted, $5,800; floor covering, Schools One and Five, $1,100; Driver Education, $15,000 painting, outside trim, School Four, $2,800; toilets, School Four, $12,000; improved lighting facilities, Board Sec'y Office, $1,000; refacing School Four, $8,500; window installation, phys. Ed. Director's Office, SHS, $600; shell and lockers, crew $3,250.

Appropriation for roof repairs, $31,000; Wrestling mat, $3,000; auditorium stage spotlights and floodlights, JHS $750; modernize toilet, School Three $1,000; art department furniture, JHS $1,150; wash basin, etc. $1,000; wash basin, etc. $1,000; rugs, guidance and principal's offices, JHS $300; driver education car, $1,700; resand and refinish floors in JHS Shop $300; reduced appropriation for typewriters, SHS Bus. Ed., $2,000.

Paint JHS, $3,600; upright piano, SHS $1,200; stage shell, $3,000; Stereo Phonograph Unit, SHS, $350; piano, School Nine or Ten, $575; adjustable piano bench, SHS, $50; typewriter, JHS $910; 3/4 ton open pick-up truck, maintenance equipment $2,500; reduced appropriation for maintenance, $4,000.

40 chairs, HS, $600; sites appropriation, $7,500; acoustical treatment, HS Gym, $7,000; installation of Fire detection systems, $20,000;

NDEA EQUIPMENT

SHS — 1 Kodak 16mm sound projector, AV-126, TR 12 w, $650; 1 No. 101 Berkley Press rubber stamp for print shop JHS $199.50; 1 Porto-Scribe Model 15710 for School Four, $169; 2 snow blowers, $400; 1 exhaust fan, School Eight, $75.

FURTHER TRIMMING

Then, with considerable difficulty, we selected for deletion those items which would appear to impose the least harm to the educational program. The total of deletions came to $85,800 and included the following:

1 teacher contingency, $5,600; 1 teacher for the socially and emotionally maladjusted, $5,800; Floor covering, Schools One and Five, $1,100; Painting of outside trim, School Four $2,800; Improvement of lighting facilities, Board Secretary's Office, Window installation, Physical Education Director's Office, SHS $600; Reduction in the appropriation for roof repairs from

$31,000 to $5,000, $26,000;

Auditorium stage spotlights and flood lights, JHS, $750; Art Department furniture, JHS, $1,150; Rugs, Guidance & Principal's Office, Junior High School, $300; Driver Education Car, $1,700; Appropriation for typewriters, SHS $2,000; Business Education Department, Upright Piano, SHS, $350; Stereo Phonograph Unit, SHS, $350; Adjustable piano bench, SHS, $50; 3/4 ton open pick-up truck; Maintenance Equipment, $2,500; Maintenance appropriation from $22,000 to $18,000, $4,000;

Sites — entire appropriation, $7,500; Installation of fire detection systems NDEA equipment, $20,000; NDEA equipment Audio-Visual Equipment—SHS — 1, $650; Kodak 16mm Sound Projector Model, AV-126, TR 12 watt, $650; 1240-page 5 — Print Shop JHS, 1, No. 101 Berkley Press — Rubber stamp $199.50; 1240 — 6 — James Shawyer School, — 1 Porto-Scribe Model 15710, $169; 1240 — Page 7 — Custodial & Maintenance Equipment, 2 snow blowers, $400; 1240 — Page 7 —

exhaust fan, School 8, $75;

Teacher Morale

The board has also made a thorough study and comparison of teacher guides in Essex County and we found that by implementing the guide proposed in this budget, that it will only serve to maintain our present enviable position in the county. This places us in the bottom third among other communities, a position which we cannot decrease without doing irreparable harm. A copy of the comparisons is attached for your information.

We have also examined the relative position in the county as it concerns cost per pupil. As indicated on this data which is also being made available to you, our position on a per pupil basis is 16th among the 22 districts.

We hope that the newspaper accounts of what appeared to be predetermined positions on the budget by members of the Council were as erroneous as statements made in the local press and throw-a-ways, aluding to the increase in taxes which would result from our budget; figures like a $128 increase when in actuality, the figure is under $48, as verified by the Town Finance Officer — a figure further reduced to approximately $40 as a result of the cut we made in the budget. We repeat, we would expect that the Council give consideration to this hearing before making up their minds.

These facts are presented to you five gentlemen of the Council to assist you in your present responsibility to the community. You five and you alone have the unenviable task of providing a budget which will give our children the learning opportunity they need. To further assist you, the Board of Education is further providing you with the following data:

Teacher Says NEA Report Incorrect Reporting Reason For Resignation

The Board of Education erred in its allegation that a teacher had "returned to the school system after having left because of previous difficulty with the superintendent," said Mrs. Michael Rossi of 669 Mill St. in a letter read to members of the board Monday night by her husband.

She left because of family difficulties, and not because of any troubles with suspended superintendent of schools Dr. Frank M. Durkee, her letter said, and she felt morally obligated to rectify the error made in the NEA report.

Board President Ernest S. Arvidson accepted the letter without comment. He explained that he was obeying a directive by State Commissioner of Education Frederick M. Raubinger which forbids him making statements to the press regarding the Durkee affair.

A two-man committee including Nicholas S. Juliano and Dr. Frank M. DiRuggiero was appointed to screen applicants for replacing board attorney Max N. Schwartz, who is in Clara Maass Hospital after suffering a heart attack 10-days ago. Three other members declined to serve on the committee. The legal counsel will be temporary.

We Wish Them Well

Three of Belleville's most prominent citizens were in Clara Maass Memorial Hospital over the weekend suffering from a common ailment — heart trouble.

First, there was Max N. Schwartz, school board attorney, who was stricken for the second time nearly two weeks ago. He has been taken off the critical list, but is still listed as being in "poor condition" by hospital authorities.

To Max go our heartfelt wishes for a full and speedy recovery. That his many friends here wish him the same goes without saying.

Mrs. Thomas F. McCool, a former vice president of the board of education, and presently an active member, was also taken to the hospital by town ambulance

Friday. Despite her condition (it's fair, says a hospital spokesman) she is chipper and anxious to get back to her home and family. To Mrs. McCool go our prayers and best wishes.

Mrs. Nuncio R. Pico, wife of the town mayor was also in "fair" condition Sunday afternoon. She, too, was taken to the hospital after suffering what has been tentatively diagnosed as a heart condition. With Mayor Pico sitting beside her and friends stopping in for a brief chat, we are confident Mrs. Pico will soon rejoin her family and friends. To her, too, go our hopes for a fast recovery.

We are sure the town joins us in a prayer for their recovery and return to their loved ones. May God bless them all.

Win Friends & Influence People

The board of education is its own worst enemy.

Tuesday night during a three-hour conference with members of the town council, board members and several educators in the audience of 153 persons gave many convincing reasons why the twice defeated budget should remain intact.

Why didn't its members speak out in defense of this budget before the election? Why wasn't it worth fighting for? Why, after the battered budget has been repudiated by the voters twice in a row, do they now present such praiseworthy reasons for its passage?

Board members (who are not paid, by the way) are not stily feathering their own nests with ill-gotten public funds as members of the opposition would like you to believe. They make budget requests based on what, in their considered estimation, are needed by the school system for the proper instruction of their students.

When errors are made — as have been made here at times — they should immediately correct them, instead of whining that the press considers them sniveling crooks unworthy of a voice. Members made a point of calling a financial error to public attention, and gave The Times unparalleled influence in deciding the budget's fate.

But they never mentioned the fact that the next edition made the correction on Page One — and the budget still lost out at the polls.

What the board of education needs is a good public relations man to explain their problems to a skeptical public.

For this essential post we have in mind a good man.

The first initial of his last name is Belleville Senior High School Principal Raymond O. Smith.

After that, they may not have as many problems blocking their orderly progress.

The Firemen's Dilemma

Coughing and sneezing, but battling valiantly anyway, the town's firefighters were perched out there on the end of a swaying extension ladder Monday morning trying to control a stubborn blaze which totally destroyed the Joseph Raaser Storage Warehouse.

The fire had gained such headway that they were unable to do more than contain the flames whose smoke billowed over the northern section of Belleville. They did however, save an adjoining home from becoming part of the conflagration. Neighboring manufacturing plants were also protected by the busy firemen.

It is at times like this that the fire department is appreciated. They are brave men doing a dangerous job. Unfortunately, detractors conveniently forget these men in times of peace and quiet.

To them, we say, well done, Men!

Without Fear Or Favor

One of the most important by-products of advertising is the American concept of freedom of the press. Freedom of the press, as it is conceived by the English-speaking world, derives financial support from its advertisers.

From the time of the American Revolution until approximately 1830 American Journalism was represented by a profusion of small, highly biased political sheets — easily recognizable by their small advertising space and the background of their writers.

However, when expanding business firms recognized the need for reaching the public through advertising, editors found a neutral and variegated source of support that made them independent. Indeed, advertising made it imperative that the newspaper should think in terms of serving the whole public.

As government became more complex, as law and rule by bureaus and agencies burgeoned, there is more than ever a need for a press free from control of political interests. Such a press exists only where advertising support has made it possible for a publication to serve the whole public without fear or favor.

G.F.A.

A Welcome Addition

And while we're on the subject, Rocco Saletta, new elected vice president of the board, is showing definite signs of becoming an asset to the board of education.

He's a bit trigger-happy, but at least he's on target. By this time next year Saletta will be well in the black on the credit side of the ledger. G.F.A.

Calling All Servicemen!

What's the best gift you can give a serviceman who's on military duty far from home? One guess. That's right, a copy of his hometown newspaper.

It will be high on his list of priorities. So today The Belleville Times will begin mailing to Belleville servicemen free subscriptions of this newspaper.

It's the largest here and carries the most in pictures and news of this little town on the Passaic River. Parents, relatives, and friends of servicemen are invited to send in the names and addresses of their loved ones which we will place on our mailing list. G.F.A.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Town Has Been Unfair To School 2

To The Editor: Times News.
How could the people of Belleville, who defeated School 2's referendum, be so indifferent to the needs of our children?

I would like to inform these people that we are the only school in the town of Belleville, whose kindergartners must go to another building two blocks from School 2. I would also like to stress, to these people, that School 2 is also the only school in town that does not have a gymnasium. Without this important facility our children are deprived of a proper physical fitness program.

Our auditorium has been termed as extremely hazardous by our own fire chief, and because of this condition, again, our children are being deprived. They do not have any assembly programs. Why should our children do without these necessities?

If this fair, that we must pay taxes for much needed multipurpose rooms in other schools and a new high school and still be voted down on ours? I for one, do not think this is fair at all. What more do we have to do to prove to these voters that this referendum is imperative?

Mrs. Lois Pica
221 Brighton Avenue
Belleville, New Jersey

You might get your PTA to push this matter, Mrs. Pica; or get the School 2 principal, Mr. Minasian to speak up. He has not been notably quiet about this school. — Editor)

Sad, Sad Selection Of Candidates, He Notes

To The Editor:

I must agree with you, the "majority bloc" under any form of government could be good or bad. It is not the fault of the form that brought about the change in the form of government or the recall movement, but the people we elect to office.

The school board as well as the town government have majority blocs of their own. Some have been real bad. Members on the school board cannot be recalled. They can be removed only if convicted of wrongdoing and it is too costly to recall members of the town council.

I was never for the change of manager-council type which the people were led to believe would benefit them the last five years under this new form, which was never given a chance to work by the first majority bloc. It was a nightmare.

Good people who would like to try for the office, but without the support of the people, hesitate to do so. With many thousands of dollars in new ratables coming into town, why do taxes continue to rise? Belleville is not the only town in the state seeking to discard this type of government, which has proven very expensive. It cannot be compared with the old type of government, government where the people have a voice in all town matters.

Under the present set-up the manager has no power, he does not have to answer to the people, his recommendations (if any) can be overruled by the majority bloc. He is the servant of the council, employed by them to carry out their wishes. Failure to do so could mean his dismissal as was Mr. Summers.

I do hope the people are convinced by now that they made a mistake after sweating it out for five years.

Here in Belleville we have all kinds of candidates for office — bus drivers, butchers, truck drivers, none are worthy of my support under any form of government.

Under the commission form there are five departments, each commissioner is responsible for his department and must answer to the people. He cannot pass the buck to someone else.

It would be cheaper and less expensive for the people to make the change. The commissioners have been reasonable in their judgements and did not engage in wholesale firing of good men.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

The factory authorized, Annual Magnavox Sale is in full swing. Although the sale started this year earlier than the usual time (Washington's Birthday), it was not until February 23 that the "action" started. Traditions, seemingly, are hard to break.

It is well enough known that Magnavox is particularly strong in high-fidelity stereo phonographs. This company used transistors years ago, at a time when no other manufacturer had them. In the meantime, the others are trying to catch up with Magnavox and you see more and more transistors used. Still, Magnavox has a very decided lead. The greatest savings, as in previous years, again are in phonographs. Prices have been lowered on some models as much as $100.

All prices on black and white TV sets have been lowered. Because of the shortage of color TV sets, these prices have not been dropped except for one color TV-radio-phonograph combination, which sells now at a price lower than many color TV only sets. This combination is an excellent buy.

One cannot buy a Magnavox set at a reduced price for the rest of the year. The prices for Magnavox merchandise are determined by the factory. There are no so-called "list prices" for Magnavox sets. With most manufacturers the "list" price is inflated and it is the starting point for haggling. If prices for Magnavox are reduced during the time of the annual sale, you make a real saving.

We service what we sell.

Sideline Byline

CHANCE: This week marks the beginning of the annual change of the scholastic athletic scene. As the eager begin their last basketball wars in the state tournament, the grapplers will be stowing their uniforms for another year, and the baseballs and bats along with the track shoes will be coming out of hiding. For others, the change will consist of stowing the bowling ball in favor of an oar or set of gold clubs but no matter how you approach it, spring practice has begun. One hectic month remains before the seasonal change-over is complete.

TOURNEY: The winter season's last hurrah in the form of the (take a deep breath) New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association Basketball Tournament, began this week with one of the largest fields in its history. Among the group are Al Lo Balbo's Bellboys who will take on Bloomfield Saturday night in the second half of a twin bill at Upsala College. The winner of this game will move on to face East Orange Wednesday night.

In two meetings this season, the Bellboys and Bengals have managed a split with Bloomfield taking the first encounter 54-52 and Belleville the second, 56-37. George Cella's junior-dominated Bengals will be relying on Big Ten Conference scoring leader Jed Jasieniecki, diminutive playmaker Jim Trisuzzi, and lean Jack Scott to provide attacking punch. Belleville will counter with league runner-up Rick Pucciarello, his long-shot team mate Nick Pizzuto to center Ken Fulmore for the majority of its attack. Meanwhile Fulmore will try to duplicate his defensive job of holding Jasieniecki below ten points. Art Sheridan handles Belleville's playmaking and Rich San Filippo continues his steady play.

PANTHERS NEXT? Although anything can happen, Belleville should prevail Saturday by about 7 points over the Bengals. That would give the Bellboys their third shot at league champ East Orange. In one of these Big Ten foes previous encounters, Belleville made the Ken Moss-led Panthers squirm before succumbing 50-42. With Frank Milner's Moss, Pierce, Macklin and Company coming into this one fresh off by spanking Essex County champ Weequahic, an upset might well be in store.

GRAPPLERS: Belleville's matmen came to the end of their season last week as they ran up against championship battles in the toughest region of the four in the state. First year mentor Jim Silvestri sent a record three Blue and Gold grapplers into the battle when John Rempusheski

The Belleville Times-News, Thursday, March 3, 1966—3 was chosen as a replacement for unavailable District heavyweight champ Steve Burdulis of Kearny; the previous record was one Belleville representative. Rempusheski's efforts were to win no avail though as he fell in the first round along with Bellboy glory along with the whole Captain Mike Oliveri, Nick Diamond corps. Replacement for Dominico, Belleville's lanky jun the outfield and catching set will for 98 pounder got a little far before failing to Essex and graduates from last seasons Catholic's John Mulligan in the record breaking Junior Varsity squad.

It Was 'Old Home Week' At The Wesley Methodist 175th Anniversary Meet

Dr. Henry Lyle Lambdin of Flötham Park, was guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship service at Wesley Methodist Church, Sunday, Feb. 27 when the church celebrated its 175th Anniversary.

This was a special occasion for Dr. Lambdin as well as for Wesley, as he had delivered the anniversary message at the Church's 150th Anniversary celebration in 1941.

Dr. Lambdin is a professor emeritus of Homiletics at Drew University Theological School in Madison. He has served as pastor of several churches, lectured at Drew, and has served on many councils and boards of the Conference. In addition, he served as superintendent of the Newark District (of which Belleville is a part) in 1940-46, and as an author has contributed widely to many Methodist publications.

He is married to the former Cornelia Vivian Morrow, and they are the parents of three married daughters.

In 1954 the Doane Foundation gave $25,000 to Drew University Theological School as a memorial and in recognition of Dr. Lambdin's work in the field of homiletics and church administration; and also established a Scholarship Fund in the First Methodist Church of Summit in the amount of $25,000 under Dr. Lambdin's name. On being awarded the honor of Professor Emeritus of Homiletics, Dr. Robert F. Oxnat, president of Drew University, wrote, "In recognition of a lifetime contribution to both the church and this university."

In his anniversary message, Dr. Lambdin lifted a selected passage from the Book of Ephesians and told his listeners that they were to "speak the truth in love"; that, to be Christian they

To date Belleville has not had a dishonest governing body. The present Council has done its best, but its best has not been good enough for the progressive needs of our town.

Belleville needs programming on a high level, and efficiency in implementing those programs. For this purpose, we do not need "blobs" of council heads together to the exclusion of others. In these trying times the leaders of government on all levels must pull together as a body.

I intend to give the job of councilman at large my most earnest attention, as my share in the task of putting Belleville back into the ranks of proud and highly respected municipalities.

Citizens Group Demanding Return To Commission Form of Government

(Thomas Apicella, newly appointed chairman of the "Belleville Citizens for Commission Government," issued the following statement to The Belleville Times today. — Editor)

During the past four years in which the Faulkner Council-Manager form of government has operated in Belleville, responsible citizens in all walks of life have become thoroughly disenchanted with its promise of more efficiency at Town Hall than was exercised under the Commission form of government. Belleville had enjoyed prior to 1962.

Council Manager government in Belleville is in for the "Pink Slip," according to members of the "Belleville Citizens for Commission Government," a well organized group of outstanding leaders in the community. Petitions have been circulated throughout the town for some time.

Chairman for this committee is Thomas Apicella, a life-long resident of Belleville, who lives at 499 Joramelon Street with his wife and two children.

He received his elementary and secondary education in the Belleville school system and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in economics from Fairleigh Dickinson University. He is active in many civic organizations, and is especially popular with young adults, who are determined to put Belleville back into the ranks of the progressive communities in the county.

When Apicella accepted the office of chairman for the group he had this to say:

"The extreme interest and sincerity shown for this movement in all sections of our town has compelled me to accept the responsibilities involved in the chairmanship. My interest in Belleville's future is deeply rooted. It grieves me to watch the people being forced farther and farther away from their government operations.

"It was a grave mistake to heed the promises of the Faulkner Act about any of its forms of government, but most particularly those promises set forth in the Council-Manager form D.

Council-manager government in Belleville has been inefficient, insincere and highly expensive to the taxpayers. Not only are we forced to plod to the polls every two years to elect councilmen, but if, by the rule of the Faulkner Act, a candidate does not get a given quota of the votes cast, he is not the winner, but must compete again with his runner-ups. This procedure requires another election, at extra cost in time and money.

"Should some voters find it impossible to return for the second seige of balloting, their choice, as exercised at the regular election may be denied through votes lost allowing a candidate who was really the second best candidate to win. Surely we can call this an unjust procedure which, in truth, makes a mockery of free, democratic elections.

"Under the commission form of government, we had no such mishmash. We went to the polls once every four years and cast our ballots for the candidates we wanted to hold office. There was no tampering with this freedom of choice in the rules of the Walsh Act. Whatever shortcomings an elected official might come up with later, could be, and were, brought under control by the people. At the next election, the misfit could be dropped.

"Until Council-manager government was foisted upon the people of our town, there was no need to 'recall' a town official, nor was any elected official threatened with ejection from the council chambers because he disagreed with the actions of fellow commissioners.

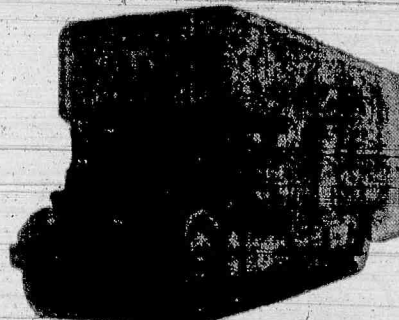

"Belleville has awakened to its mistake. It intends to rectify that mistake by a return to the uncomplicated, honest and efficient commission form of municipal government, with all possible speed."

The Committee claims to have enthusiastic support throughout the town. It will open its Headquarters at 122 Washington Avenue on Friday, March 4th. The public is invited.

Fire Hits Raaser's Warehouse

60 Firemen Battle 2nd Major Fire

For the second time within a month Belleville firefighters were called into action against a stubborn two-alarm blaze which totally destroyed the Joseph Raaser Moving & Storage Co. warehouse at 494 Cortlandt St. early Monday morning.

Damage has tentatively been set at some $10,000 to the two-level building. There were no injuries.

A warehouseman, Eugene Scacchiero, 32 Union Ave., discovered the fire burning in a rear area of the storage room shortly after 8:15 a.m. The fire, he said, was coming from cardboard boxes. Rushing to the front of the building, he reported the fire to secretary Mrs. Judy Fox, 110 Little St. who called firemen.

The flames, fanned by a brisk southern breeze, were confined to the building by firemen who fought the fire from the rooftops of adjoining buildings.

A half-hour later a second alarm was sounded and additional firemen joined the losing battle. Four companies took part in the fight for over an hour before Deputy Fire Chief Bill Fabiani reported the fire under control. The fire burned throughout the day and all Monday night. Assisted by overnight rains the fire was completely out by 9 a.m. Tuesday morning.

There were no injuries reported in the fire, said Fire Chief Carl Hundertpfund.

The cinderblock building, covering a 30 x 90 foot area, was filled with personal belongings and household goods.

Deputy Chief Bush Files Retirement

On April 1 Deputy Police Chief Emerson J. Bush, will turn in his gold badge and enter retirement after some 37 years on the force.

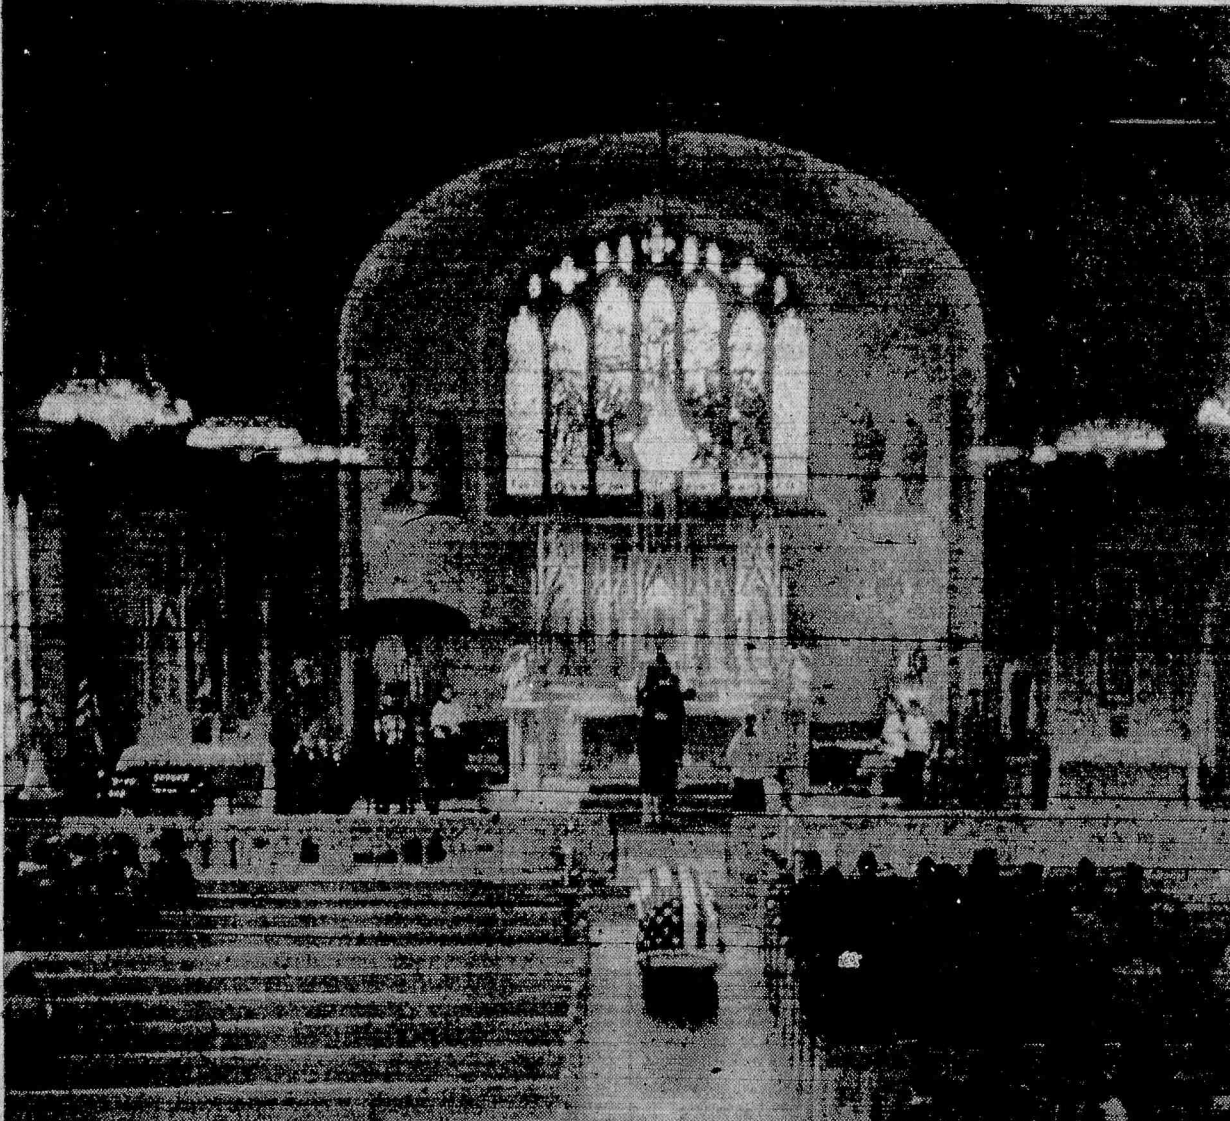

Bush, who will be 63 March 26, filed for retirement last week, said Town Treasurer Francis H. McCoy. His application will be forwarded to the New Jersey Age and Service Retirement Pension Committee for consideration. A decision will be made sometime next week.

Bush is on his regular vacation which ends March 31. His retirement takes effect the following day, he said.

He joined the force as a probationary patrolman in 1928, became a regular officer two years later, and was promoted to lieutenant in 1944. Three years later he became captain, and was finally made deputy chief in 1948 with an annual salary of some $9,456.

BLUE YONDER: Airman Joseph Cervone, 19, is now at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, where he is undergoing basic training. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cervone Sr., 8 Grove St.

OUR HONORED DEAD: A simple, flag-draped coffin bearing the body of Pfc. John M. Hoar, the town's first casualty in the distant Viet Nam conflict, rests before the altar at St. Peter's Church during ceremonies last week. His death spurred efforts to raise a memorial here for Viet Nam

Talent Search

Belleville's Cherry Blossom Pageant will serve as a preliminary competition for the Miss America Pageant, announced Henry Wozniak, president of the Belleville Jaycees, and Bob Kille, pageant director after attending a luncheon given at the Cherry Hill Inn recently.

Some 30 young women will take part in the event, said Wozniak. Last year Miss Gwen Gaudio, Miss Cherry Blossom 1965, was the town representative, and won a trophy for her talent during the event.

The Jaycees are now searching for a 1966 Miss Cherry Blossom. Entry blanks may be obtained from Shop-Rite, W. T. Grants, Jolly Cleaner, A & P Stores, and Kendrick Studios here.

A Testimonial

Mrs. Stephen Kelemen was guest of honor at a testimonial dinner given in tribute to one year's service as president of Belleville Chapter of Deborah, at Thomas Restaurant.

Mrs. Albert Johnston, new president, acted as master of ceremonies.

A presentation of a bracelet and a gold disk was given to Mrs. Kelemen from the members.

Registration Set

In nine elementary schools, registration for kindergarten for September, 1966, will take place during the week of March 7-11, said Michael T. Rosamilia, acting superintendent of schools.

At the time of registration parents should present a birth certificate for the child and immunization records for smallpox, polio, diphtheria, and tetanus.

By early registration, the best planning can be put into the kindergarten program for September.

Over 40 Cars Followed The Town's First Casualty To His Final Rest

The death of 20-year-old Pfc. John M. Hoar in Viet Nam Feb. 13 led in the beginning of a drive for a suitable memorial for Viet Nam veterans; an offer by The Belleville Times to provide — cost free — subscriptions to Belleville servicemen wherever they may be and one of the largest attendances in recent memory during services held at St. Peter's Church.

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, while in favor of a suitable memorial for Viet Nam veterans, said the town already had one on Union Avenue, but agreed that a change or additions to the existing memorial was in order.

"We could either add to the memorial or erect another one," he said, and announced plans to discuss the matter with fellow councilmen. The council, in a separate action Monday, gave official notice of the town's sorrow with a resolution which will be framed and presented to the soldier's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Pfc. Hoar died Feb. 13 near Bongson, Viet Nam after suffering a head wound while in action against the Viet Cong. He had been overseas less than two months.

Strumolo Calls For New Outlook In Government

Vincent Strumolo has presented the required number of signed petitions to the Town Clerk, as the first candidate to declare his intention of campaigning for a seat on the Town Council. He will run as an Independent and at-large, as his supporters feel he is sure to overcome any obstacles previously encountered.

Strumolo is an optimistic person. It is his belief that a sincere candidate for public office does not regard defeat in one election as the whole cloth of public opinion. "We all desire perfection," he said, "but true perfection is hard to attain. This is true in the home, which is our smallest unit of government, and is equally as true in the broader fields of municipal, county, state and national governments.

"It is good that parents set standards for home rule, and that legislative bodies do the same for government in the wider fields. But unless there is the will to uphold such standards and rules, the results can only be negative."

False economy cheats the taxpayers, just as waste cheats them. The people must never look for the "pork barrel" grafters only on the upper levels of their government. Over-extended programs and secret compacts

Additional Budget Cuts Will Cripple The School System, Declares Board

Councilmen May Consider Plea for Minimum Reduction

The Board of Education and members of the Town Council met at School 8 Tuesday night, and for three hours discussed the pro's and cons of governmental economy within the school system before an audience of some 153 persons, mainly teachers, PTA members, and school principals.

Town Red Cross Expands Service For Veterans

Cases Double As Viet Nam Conflict Grows; Fund Drive Planned

Due to the increased draft and the Viet Nam situation, Red Cross services to the military and their families keep increasing in volume and in cost.

Since last year the number of cases in Belleville has more than doubled and so has the cost but the allocation for 1966 from the United Community Fund of Essex and West Hudson has remained the same. Therefore Belleville Chapter of the Red Cross is appealing to its friends during the month of March for their very necessary financial support.

During February 25 military families received service. Three reports on the health and welfare of servicemen were made. Nine verifications for the need for a serviceman's presence due to an emergency at home were sent to Red Cross Field Directors at home or overseas so that the military could decide upon leave or extension of leave.

Six families received counsel and advice. Seven families of new inductees were contacted by letter and advised of the Red Cross services available when necessary.

Long distance calls were also made to Fort Dix, Fort Sill, Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., Fort Knox and Fort Campbell, Ky., and to Washington, D.C.

The chapter subscribes to Answering Service and five volunteers were on duty around the clock to handle problems when they arose.

Suspended Sentence

Frank R. Lia, 51, of 51 Mitchell St., was given a suspended sentence in Nutley Municipal Court last week after he had been charged with being a disorderly person in the Franklin Theatre Jan. 28. He had no previous record, said police.

After being twice defeated at the polls, the budget has been handed to the Town Council for study, which must come up with a decision on how much is — or is not — to be trimmed from an already emasculated school budget.

The council agreed to meet Saturday afternoon at Town Hall to resolve the financial dilemma which brought about two elections on the annual budget set at $3.3 million, which was later cut some $85,000 last week. They must act by March 10.

Councilman Robert Westpy drew from Board President Ernest S. Arvidson the fact that the system was still operating in the black, that the system had added nine teachers to the staff and was still operating funds from last year's budget — which had also been twice defeated at the polls.

Teachers salaries came in for spirited discussion.

After questioning the wisdom of the board's decision to make the Council-Board conference an open meeting, Councilman James R. Golden asked that if teachers were as dedicated as board members painted them, would they be willing to work for a lower salary?

"If there's a cut," said vice president Rocco Saletta, "I want to go on record as saying I would not touch teacher's salaries."

"You didn't touch teacher's salaries last year after the budget cut," said Councilman Westpy. "It's the children of the community who will be affected by this budget," said Arvidson.

Despite surface appearances of well-being within the system, said assistant superintendent Michael Rosamilia, "subtle insufficiencies" can lead to worsening conditions. "It's not a time to declare a moratorium on school problems," he declared.

BHS Band Ready For The Concert Tomorrow Night

Showtime Is At 8:15; Students Are Earning Funds For Big Parade

After adding some $500 to their funds for the proposed trip to Washington, D.C. next month, plus ticket sales collected from tomorrow's "Evening of Entertainment" by members of the Belleville High School music department, the band seems assured of its trip as the town's contribution to the Cherry Blossom Festival.

Under the direction of bandmaster Robert Wing, the dance band, concert band, and members of Twirling Squad and Color guard under the direction of Mrs. Patricia Maucione, will present a lively evening in the auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

On display will be selected musical numbers by the band, plus a tenor sax rendition of "Tequila" by Lou Luzzi, "Sugar Lips" by Bob Santin on the trumpet, and a uet from "Damn Yankees" with Bill Idenden and Linda Coeyman.
