"It would be well to put to rest the rumor that my opposition to the budget was because I was opposed to salary raises for the Police and Firemen. This is ridiculous on the surface, for I myself am the son of a man who served the town for years as a fireman, and I am well aware of the difficult problem of raising a family on a fireman's salary. My vote was a disapproval of unnecessary expenditures provided for in the budget that should have been eliminated, and not in disapproval of any salary increments.

Personal Study

"In the matter of rezoning Pas-sac Avenue in line with the Town's Master Plan of eliminating apartment houses in what is primarily a one and two-family neighborhood, I might add that I personally and at my own expense spent six days in Superior Court aiding in the successful defense of this ordinance.

"Therefore, I feel that I can in good conscience run on my record with the aim of cleaning up much that remains to be done.
"During my term of office I have advocated an improved and expanded recreation program.
The present program curtailed as it is must be expanded to meet the growing needs of a growing town. Today's youth are filled with many pressures which build tensions that must be relieved by the outlet of recreation.

"Anti-social conduct, often labeled 'juvenile delinquency,' can be prevented and our young people spared missteps which might blight their futures.

Firemen Serve

"It is interesting to note that the more successful programs such as Little League baseball and football are being carried out by volunteers and leading these volunteers are many men from our Police and Fire Departments.

"Prior to my election I advocated the establishment of a Capital Improvement Fund. This has since been done and it is my feeling that some of these funds should be made available to meet our recreation needs through a well planned expanded program."

Cullen who has been previous service to the town as a member of the Lay Advisory Board was a member of the first Planning Board of the town.

He is married to the former dren. He is executive vice president of New Jersey Development

crepancies in the letters contents and pointed to the fact that The Times had editorialized against the apartments for some six years. One as recently as last month.

Norman Lauterette, chairman of the five-member Board of Adjustment, said he had not been questioned by the detectives, "but he, too, laughed at the charges.
"We get all kinds of crack-pot theories," he said, and described several telephone calls which had threatened him if the variance was approved.

Publisher Frank A. Orechio said today he welcomed any probe by the Essex County Prosecutor, and hoped it would uncover "these character assassins."
"You'll notice," said Adams,
"these 'bad' characters don't reveal any specific information;
they whisper these anonymous charges from the safety of unsigned letters." He agreed with Orechio that a probe would be welcome.

"That way we can clear the air," he said.

Parking

The Chamber of Commerce heartily endorses this proposal.
Repeated year after year efforts to get parking through the means now and all these years available have failed, and Belleville stands alone, all its neighbors have public parking.

An Authority

Experience has taught that a Parking Authority can cut through red tape and overcome inertia better, and secure federal funds. It has been argued that the terrain, especially on Washington Ave., makes parking areas difficult to develop.

Well, if our neighbor, Newark can dig up a centuries old historic park, and build a three-story parking garage, and then replace the park over it, then no one can say that we face an impossible problem in Belleville.

Incidentally the Military Park Parking Garage was accomplished by a Parking Authority and it has been said that this saved the area of the city, were it not for this parking facility it is doubtful if some of the largest stores would have remained, the Robert Treat Hotel expanded and many other improvements made.
It is hoped that the other members of the Town Council will join with the mayor and meet this important responsibility not only to the merchants but the citizens of Belleville.

Kalik

The Board: The Board of Education has thoroughly reviewed this matter and has given a hearing to Mr. Kulik, at which hearing he was represented by an agent of the N.J.E.A. The N.J.E.A. representative, together with Mr. Kulik, prepared a statement and presented it to the Board of Education. The Board of Education accepted this statement in good faith. Mr. Kulik several days later told a newspaper reporter that he was not satisfied with this statement. He, at no time, gave any indication to the Board of Education that he was not satisfied until he was questioned. He then admitted that he had made such statements to the reporters.

The Board of Education has considered the foregoing matters, as well as others not mentioned here, and is of the firm opinion that it acted wisely in not re-appointing Mr. Kulik.

Mr. Kulik: I felt I was in a sensitive position concerning my amateur standing, which they threw at me unexpectedly. I knew I was right, but I took the precaution of waiting to check my records before committing myself.

The statement "as well as others not mentioned here" indicates they are digging for further charges because they don't seem to have any now.

The entire statement by the board seems vague and insub-stantial, and still doesn't seem to give any good reason why I should not be re-appointed for the track position.

Strumolo also expressed deep concern for the apparent deterioration of Belleville's recreation

BEDTIME BATTLES

It's not unusual for a youngster to ignore all remarks about bedtime and immediately become very busy.

When he does pay attention he pleads for a little more time and says he isn't sleepy. Then he starts to whine and drives everyone crazy.

Sometimes, he kicks, screams, and says thoughtful things when he's carried upstairs. You may get so upset that you spank the child.

You can avoid bedtime battles
by making bedtime pleasant.
Think of things the child likes to do. Discard anything exciting in order to calm him down before going to bed.

The half-hour before bedtime would be a good time for you two to get better acquainted with each other. This is a time to talk, tell or read stories, listen to music, repeat musical stories, play quiet games.

Keep the time pleasant; never use it to discuss the unpleasant things he did that day.

A child will enjoy being with his parents and have a good time, particularly when this get-together happens every night.

But he also knows that when the clock says bedtime, he has to go right away. If he wastes any time — even five minutes
— that will come off the fun time the next night.

Gina Bachauer
Newark Recital

Gina Bachauer, Greek piano virtuoso, was presented in a recital March 6, at 3 p.m., at Symphony Hall. This program, a repeat of the same concert she presented upon her American debut at Town Hall 13 years ago,
will include:

Toccata, Aria and Fugue in C major, Bach-Busoni, and Sonata in E minor, Haydn.

Mme. Bachauer made her professional debut under Dimitri Mitropoulos's baton in Athens.
She spent wartime in the Middle East, giving more than 600 concerts for Allied troops, then winning fame in Western music circles upon her post-war visit to England.

Researching The Busy Researchers

Dr. Thomas F. Carney, in a broadcast over a Chicago radio station, said: "If any one group of people, whether it be industry or government, ever started directing all the research, research would be dead."

It may sound as if there is some duplication; but it is duplication of objective, rather than duplication of work. If, for example, three companies are working on the solution of the cancer problem, it is likely that each will be using a different approach to the solution.

It is true that the research will cost three times as much, but there will be three times as many chances to solve the problem. I'd rather pass on to the consumer the cost of the cancer cure than to pass on to the consumer the cost of no cancer cure.

Question Box

Q. I have just moved from one area of New Jersey to another.
How long do I have to notify the Division of Motor Vehicles of my change of address, in order to correct it, on my drivers license and registration?

A. The registered owner of a motor vehicle or holder of a driver license who changes his residence is required to notify the Director of Motor Vehicles within one week after moving. "Record Change Forms" are obtainable from any motor vehicle registry or inspection station.

Joint Police-Telephone Campaign
Boosts Arrest of Obscene Callers

Arrests and convictions of persons who make obscene or threatening phone calls have risen dramatically since late last September, when police officials and New Jersey Bell security teams stepped up their statewide campaign against annoyance callers.

The telephone lines of over 141 suspects were identified and 40 persons convicted between October 1, 1965, and February 28 of this year. Fines up to $150 and several suspended jail sentences were imposed. The maximum penalty under New Jersey law for placing an obscene or threatening phone call is a $1,000 fine or a year in jail or both.

"The most important thing we've achieved so far," according to Paul S. Jankovich, chief of police in Perth Amboy, "is getting the message to real and potential offenders that we can and will do everything in our power to arrest them and get convictions."

Police and telephone company specialists concentrate on apprehending obscene or threatening
callers.

"They're our chief target,"
Chief Louis Risacher of the Fair
Lawn police department said,
"because they're usually emotionally disturbed individuals."
Police chief Raymond Mass of Shrewsbury Borough said that the campaign has served as a real deterrent to the sort of people who make obscene and threatening calls, and the practical jokers who seem to get a kick out of annoying people.

We've proved that we can catch them and they're beginning to wake up to that fact.

Public Booths Covered

According to a New Jersey Bell spokesman, offenders can be apprehended whether they make their calls from private telephones or from public phone booths.

Different types of line identification equipment are used depending on the type of central office involved, but in no case is the privacy of communications impaired.

In some instances, the identification equipment registers all telephone numbers called by a suspect and the exact times at which the calls are placed. This information can assist police in making an arrest.

Another type of equipment is attached to the telephone line of a person who has been receiving annoyance calls. The equipment automatically registers the numbers of all telephones calling that number. It also marks the dates and times the calls are made.

Chief J. Kenneth Crane of the Collingswood police department, said that it is not necessary for the annoyance caller to establish a characteristic pattern of calling before he can be apprehended.

What's A Homo Sapiens Ignoramus? He's A Tailgater!

Do you know the difference between an alligator and a tailgater?

Not much! They both have thick skulls, are difficult to communicate with, care nothing about driving safety and are dangerous in their own habitat. The big difference is that alligators are unable to obtain a license to operate a motor vehicle.

It's easy to recognize a tailgater, even if you are one, Charles J. Amis, regional manager of the Allstate Motor Club says out. If you can't see his entire vehicle in your rear view mirror or if he is rapidly closing the gap between the rear of your car and the front of his and has no place to go except forward — it's a tailgater.

And tailgaters cause rear-end collisions which account for more than one-third of all traffic mishaps today and one-half of the resulting injuries.

Sometimes it's easier to shake an alligator than a tailgater. First try moving to the right and letting him pass. If this doesn't work, encourage him to pass by slowing down and waving him on.

Always exercise greater than usual caution when slowing down to discourage tailgaters. Flash your brake lights several times, use the proper arm signal and slow down as gradually as traffic permits.

If he won't pass or drop back, pull off the road. This psychopathic individual may require so much of your attention that you might forget to watch what's going on up ahead. Don't let him hypnotize you!

Similar to the alligator, the tailgater has several species. Some tailgaters are creepers. They just keep getting closer and closer and closer.

Another species of tailgaters comes on like "gangbusters" he's in a hurry. If you see him coming in someone else's lane, watch out. After trying to push the other fellow, he may zip over and try you on for size. If he wants to get through, help him. It's the kind thing to do and you can keep a better eye on him if he's out in front of you.

"Your car's trunk is not the best place to put a tailgater."

warns Amis. "Avoid sudden stops or you may find him in it."

Remember, whether you're "rear-ended" or "rear-ending," you can get hurt. Keep a safe interval — never follow closer than one car length for every 10 miles of speed. Be alert and patient and stay out of "rear-end collisions."

Melodears Diversified:

Musical Mothers Do Much More Than Sing

By BARBARA GAGNON
"We work very hard," says Mrs. Robert (Anita) Schultz, "but it's a lot of fun and very gratifying." Anita is the music chairman and spokesman for the Melodears, a group of 11 women who are also members of School Three PTA.

The Melodears, an outgrowth of the defunct Mother Singers, began in February 1963. While all are bound together as members of the same PTA and their love of music, they are widely diversified in backgrounds and interests.

Mrs. Cornelius (Ina) de Voogt, a charter member, is from the Netherlands and is an American Assistant for the United Nations. She is very active in the YM-YWCA, the Newark Museum and is a Trailside Museum Assistant of Union County.

Mrs. Austin (Phyllis) Walsh, born in Belleville, plays the piano, violin and organ. A music teacher in her home, she is also the choir director for the Grace Baptist Church. Phyllis dreams of taking a trip around the world after her two boys are grown.

The Melodears, have between them, 34 (going on 35) children with the result that finding baby sitters during their rehearsals is their biggest problem. The newest member, Mrs. Geno. (Jeanne) Borgo laughingly says "that she worked her way up 'from the ground floor.'" She has been one of their baby sitters (her own four are all in school) but she is glad "that at last she is advancing."

Jeanne is very talented in the art department and has plenty of opportunity to express herself at both School Three and the Fewsmith Presbyterian Church. Any spare time is devoted to ceramics.

Mrs. Charles (Mary) Neiningner is also a member of Fewsmith and is superintendent of the Junior Department Sunday School. Mary has long enjoyed singing.

MELODEARS REHEARSE: Pictured in their traditional costume of a black skirt and white blouse are the Melodears hard at work rehearsing for their next appearance. In the first row in the usual order are Mrs. Austin Walsh, Mrs. Peter Spera, Mrs. Cornelius De Voogt, Mrs. William Morrison and Mrs. William Smith. She is a past member of the Second Presbyterian Church Choir of Newark and the Treble Clef Chorus of Newark. She, her husband and their son enjoy a summertime of camping.

Through the efforts of Austin MacArthur, principal of School three, time was found on Tuesday afternoons when the music room was free. Anita Schulz is proud of the attendance record at rehearsals and the way the group gets along together. "We don't mind criticism at all and are our own best critics," she said candidly.

One of the most talented of the group is Mrs. William (Mary) Herb, formerly of Rhode Island. She is music consultant for the Town of Nutley. She can play almost any instrument, has given folk music concerts, and is a past member of the Peloguin Chorus in Rhode Island and the New Jersey Oratorio Society. Her three children love music too.

Mrs. Jack (Harriet) Hammell, a graduate of BHS, was a member of the All State High School Chorus in her senior year.

One of their wildest experiences, the group can recall occurred when they were giving their last performance of a season at a charity benefit in an exclusive restaurant. In moving the piano, a leg came off and the piano fell over. "A waiter propped it up again but we concentrated more on that piano than our singing," laughed Anita.

At that performance was Mrs. Thomas (Elsie) Winship Jr., also a charter member. A life long resident of Belleville and the mother of two daughters, Elsie is active in church and civic affairs. She was a member of the subcommittee on Teenage Standards and Department of the Belleville Citizens Conference Committee on Narcotics which was responsible for the booklet "Teenage Code of Ethics" for the Junior High School students and their parents. She is also a good bowler.

Mrs. Peter (Anne) Spera spends most of her time as a Den Mother for Cub Scout Pack 302.

One of the busiest mothers in the group is Mrs. Richard (Marie) Drake. With six children to care for, Marie is also very active in the Women's Club and the Cub Scouts. She manages to find time for oil painting, cake decorating, sewing and needlework too.

Mrs. William J. (Peggy) Morrison has been with the Melodears for a year and a half. As a child she sang with a group of girls headed by the late Mrs. William Smith of Nutley. Mrs.

Smith was the Director of St. Mary's Church Adult Choir. "The Melodears was a good opportunity to get back to something I really enjoyed," said Peggy.

Mrs. Morrison typifies the feeling of all the members who only want women who are really interested.

Anita, mother of three children, organist and choir director at Bethany Lutheran Church explained, "we never accept an engagement unless all can attend." Some of their engagements have included the dedication of the new high school, the New Jersey Pavilion at the World's Fair, and most recently at the World Day of Prayer held at the Fewsmith Presbyterian Church on February 25. They have been invited to sing for the second year in a row, at the St. Christopher's Guild, Newark, in June, which they consider quite an honor.

To celebrate the end of a busy season, they treat themselves to a relaxing evening of dinner out. This year, dinner will be at the "Fleur Tuck." However, they are already looking forward to next year and another dedicated season.

VENEREAL DISEASE IS STILL A WORLD PROBLEM

Although penicillin and other antibiotics are an effective, speedy cure for most cases of syphilis and gonorrhea, these diseases are increasing. Promiscuous exposure, by personal contact with infected people is spreading venereal disease. If treatment is not early, one's health can be permanently injured.

We urge every parent and teenager to send a 5c stamp to the American Medical Association, Chicago, Illinois, for a copy of their Venereal Disease pamphlet. The information in it can prevent much mental anguish and poor health.

Opening Gun Set For Track Team On April 12th Under Coach Pat Forte

Steve Charen

Sideline Byline

BELEVILLE ELITE: Believe it or not, Belleville does rank among the elite in several fields of endeavors. One of the most satisfactory is in the form of the crew team. The Bellboys' rivals at Nutley boast the only other crew squad among the states' public schools while Hun in South Jersey boasts the only other squad in New Jersey.

Thanks to the spirited efforts of the Belleville Varsity Club and Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association the sport is receiving a shot in the arm this year with the addition of a new boathouse. Other steps in the effort to raise crew from the status of a minor to major sport has been full practice for the spring season, and extensive sophomore orientation.

REBUILDING SQUAD: Returning from the squad that bowed to the two-state public school championship a year ago, Coach Mike Lally will have but three of his boys. They are John Campi (seventh seat) and Fred Burbank (six) plus Coxswain George Lupinaich. The rest of the team will require rebuilding. In a recent interview Lally emphasized the determination of the boys and expressed gratitude for the "partially constructed boathouse" and fall practice. The coach felt still more was needed, though, to boost Belleville into national or even regional prominence. Concluding that "Despite the serious lack of equipment and facilities," he said, "the crewmen are performing exceptionally well."

FUTURE PROBLEMS: Troubles could develop for the oarsman, thanks to the school budget. In fact, several sports seem to be in serious trouble according to reports on tentative budget cuts. The truth that could slow Belleville's athletic future will soon be public.

CINDER SCENE: On the embattled track scene Pat Forte is preparing his cinder men for the season opener two weeks hence. So far turnout has been below expectations, but the outlook is still bright.

According to Forte his bright prospects come from among the following group:

Bob Boglione, two miles; Dave Gregonis, one mile; Don Saunders, and Don Jonson, middle distance; Harry Baker, pole vault; Lew Trowbridge, weight events; Frank Spedia and Jim Luty, shot put; Joe Rodriguez and Pete Greco, dashes — 100 and 220; Steve Feureghelli, Distance; Charley Reed, quarter mile; Ralph Serio and Ron Badalamente, hurdles; and Gene Harvey in the high jump.

To date, no assistant coach has been hired and the trackmen are working out under just one man. Future steps in this area are still a subject of heated controversy. LINKS REBUILDING: A wholesale rebuilding will be in store for coach Mike Sagarulo's golfers. With graduation taking three of last season's starters and injuries another, Jim Sheridan will be the only returnee in what might be the last golf season in current BHS annals.

There May Be A Shortage Of Funds, But Not Nerve

The new track season is just a month away from the starting gun as the team is working to get itself into shape, with the captains and coach Pat Forte working together as the practices increase intensity.

It is Coach Forte's hope that Belleville citizens will come to see what appears to be one of the greatest teams in Belleville's track and field history.

Boys interested in joining this year's team can get in touch with Forte after school at the track. He'll be glad to see that you get training in the event of your choice. It would be to the advantage of all good athletes to at least try to compete. Practice isn't too long, and the final results can often be greatly rewarding.

The team itself is hoping to show the Big Ten schools that the BHS runners and field men are ready to take top honors in all meets. Starting with the trackmen, here's a short outlook for the coming season with the BHS team:

Returning Trackmen
The dash — men are getting ready to ruin a few more school records this year, aiming at the 100-yd. dash record of 10.0 seconds and the 220 yd. 24 sec. record. Notable workers are Peter Greco (whose brother set the 100-yd. record) and Joe Rodriguez, the two speedsters of the team.

Next are Charles Reed, Don Johnson, Don Saunders, and the other half and quarter-mile runners, who each set the records or bettered old ones in the past season. They are established men who intend to be doing even better during the coming meets.

The distance men so far are Bob Boglione, the wonder of the cross-country team, whose mile record is the best example of a powerful boy. He set the New Jersey State indoor record for the two-mile run this year.

His running mate is the strong and talented Dave Grigonis, who holds the Sophomore record for the mile, along with several others. Also expected to run are a few other men who have been busy with other school activities, but will come to the scene soon.

Hurdlers' Up
Last of the running team are the hurdlers, who go about 140 yds. in their two events. This group includes Big Harry Baker and Ralph Sireco who last year combined with several men of '65 to make a terrific team.

The field is strong this year, and the leaders can be expected to turn in impressive seasons for themselves. Top is Field Captain Lewis Trowbridge, who is aiming his discus at the 154 ft. mark which Sibi Sica set two years ago.

Lewis' tosses of 145 feet indicate he will go all the way this year. Ed Gutnick and Frank Sprella lead the shot putters, and they seem to give us a small advantage. Working with our runners, Coach Forte hopes to have some pretty good broad jumpers.

UP in The World
Joe Rodriguez, Charles Reed and Don Johnson are working there, but on the other side of the field the high jumpers and pole vaulters find that they are headed for some great records. Head man, and co-captain Harry Baker, holds the record of 11' for the pole vault and Bob Peterson the record of 6'3" in the high jump. They're getting up in the world of jumping, and can go higher this season.

Altogether, the season seems to be headed in the favor of the Bellboys, but they would appreciate being able to show off their talents, and would probably do even better if they could.

So if possible, come to the meets — you'll be informed about them in this column.

Let's show the coach our faith in his boys.

Strumolo's Campaign Manager Reports Stronger Support For Silver Lake District Candidate

Vincent F. Strumolo is considered a favorite to win one of the At-Large seats on the Belleville Council in the May elections, said his campaign manager today. Three Councilman-at-Large seats will be vacated.

Strumolo has expressed pleased surprise at the number of citizens who have joined his campaign forces.

This week the name of David D. Ruddy was added to the ever-growing list of Strumolo supporters. Ruddy maintains law offices at 1000 Broad Street, in Newark, and is the legal advisor of the Strumolo Association. He is also popular with many labor organizations in the county.

Serving on the Belleville Town Council will be no new experience for Strumolo. He was elected to take office with the first five councilmen when the Council-Manager form of government replaced the Commission form in July of 1962.

Strumolo went into office as Councilman from the first Ward. This ward includes the Silver Lake section of Belleville, and the home location of Strumolo where he grew up as a child, developed as a young man and finally married and went into business.

Strumolo knew the needs of his section. He resolved to take care of those needs, one by one, as the representative of the Ward. The first trouble spot tackled by Strumolo was the late mail deliveries. Not only did he register an official complaint at Town Hall, but went to the fountainhead of the mailing system, the office of Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci. At that time Benucci was Acting Postmaster. Today he is the full Postmaster of Newark and its suburbs. Strumolo also called the situation to the attention of the Postmaster General then J. Edward Day.

Strumolo explained the problem and the change effected in this manner:

"I had lived with this antiquated-mail system all my life. I had seen businessmen angry over delayed contracts, old people worried over mail expected from loved ones in the Old Country. When I went into business for myself I experienced a great deal of annoyance because of order delays due to bad mail service. Even Special Delivery service was delayed unduly, because mail for the Silver Lake area went such a devious course before delivery."

For example: A letter, mailed in a Belleville box was collected, sent to Newark, processed, sent back to Belleville for block processing, returned to Newark, processed again and relayed to the Roseville Branch Office. From there, after more processing, it was sent to Silver Lake and distributed to people for whom intended.

"After the Postal Authorities and I worked out a new formula for processing mail intended for the Silver Lake district, mail was delivered direct from the Belleville Office daily, whereas before, a delay of 24 hours was common for each letter or postcard.

"It was my firm conviction that any person aspiring to help run the affairs of a town should first clean up trouble spots in his own area. I started with the mail delivery, a situation that had plagued the Silver Lake taxpayers for 40 years, yet had remained untackled by other town (Continued On Page 19)

Postal Rates Hike Saturday

Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci said today that higher fees for such special services as insured, Certified, Registered and C.O.D. mails and Money Orders become effective Saturday, March 26, 1966.

The new Money Order fees start at 25 cents; Registry increases to 75 cents; Certified Mail to 30 cents; C.O.D. fees begin at 60 cents and insured fees at 20 cents. These are the minimums and fees increase accordingly.

The postmaster urges mailers to get a copy of the new rates from any post office to avoid delays in the delivery of the mail. He especially cautions firm mailers of insured, registered and C.O.D. articles to make certain all fees are correct by the March 26 deadline. Benucci said that for some of the Special Services, this is the first increase in many years.

Medicare Insurance Closes March 31 for Sr. Citizens

With three weeks still to go until the March 31 deadline for enrollment in the voluntary medical insurance part of medicare, about 75 percent of the nation's older people have already signed up.

The medicare insurance will cover 80 percent of doctor bills and a variety of other health services over and above the first $50 of expenses in a year, supplementing the basic hospital insurance provided persons 65 and over under the medicare law. According to figures released by William J. Arnold, Social Security district manager in Newark, 517,000 people, about 78 percent of 661,000 persons 65 and over in the State of New Jersey had enrolled in the voluntary medical insurance as of February 15. Only about 4.5 percent had decided against enrolling and many of these are changing their minds, he said.

"Still to be heard from were about 114,000 New Jersey residents," Arnold said. The percentage of New Jersey residents who have elected to enroll is slightly above the national average — 71 percent on February 15 and 75 percent as of March 1.

The enrollment period for persons who reached 65 before the beginning of this year closes on March 31," Arnold said. Those who fail to enroll by then will have to wait two years for another chance and pay higher premiums. The premium for those who enroll now is $3 a month, one-half of the cost of the protection. The other half is met out of Federal revenues.

"Persons 65 and over, whether or not they have ever worked under social security, are eligible for medicare protection," Arnold emphasized. Also, both hospital insurance and medical insurance benefits are payable whether or not they are retired or continue to work.

Older people in the New Jersey area who are on the social security or railroad retirement benefit rolls and most working people 65 and over were sent medicare insurance enrollment cards in the mail. Anyone who has lost or misplaced his or her card can get another card from the Social Security District Office at 1016 Broad Street, Newark. The telephone number is 645-3911.

Persons 65 and over who have not received enrollment cards should call, visit, or write the district office for information about enrolling for the doctor bill insurance and also about establishing their eligibility for hospital insurance. For those people who cannot call at the office because of work or household duties, Social Security District Offices are providing extra hours of service. In addition to regular weekday hours of 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., all district offices will remain open every Saturday morning from 9 A.M. to 12 Noon throughout March.

All-In-All, BHS Cagers Had A Good Season Under Coach Al LoBalbo

NICK PIZZUTO

This 17-year-old senior also carved an enviable record on the boards this past season with 240 points in his tall-hip pocket. He plays forward on the BHS squad and is a cousin to Pucciarello. He ends a three-year stretch with the Bellboys, and also plans to attend college. He lives at 177 Joralemon St.

By STEVE CHAREN

Ten baskets. That's all that kept the 1965-66 cagers from parlaying their good 12-10 season into an outstanding 19-3 record.

Displaying the effort and determination that kept them in the thick of many battles, the short Bellboys finished a season that saw them tie for fourth place in the Big Ten Conference for the second straight year. They had won their first State Tournament game in half a decade as all school individual scoring records were broken. Along the way the BHS'ers were involved in many tight contests. Seven of them Belleville lost by less than three points.

It was only the spunk and never-die attitude of Al LoBalbo's boys that allowed this heart-breaking phenomena. Half of the near losses came after one of the Bellboys patented fourth quarter come-backs fell just short of their mark.

"A Great Team Effort"
As Coach Lo Balbo put it, "It was a great team effort all year. This team worked progressively harder, if that's possible, despite all the close games that the boys were in, they never let their desire be lessened."

Going with a relatively short team, the Blue and Gold had their problems from the start, only tremendous "boxing-out" under the boards and second effort could counter the opposition advantage.

All in all, it was Rich Pucciarello's year. The veteran senior guard took full advantage of his third varsity campaign as he reworked the school scoring records. Early in the season against Orange, the five-foot-11 senior poured in 36 points to begin his record collection by tying Dom Klein's 1957 single game mark.

Pucciarello Tops
As the season progressed, two 32-point efforts flitted with the mark and the point total mounted. Locked in a three-way battle for Big Ten scoring honors, Pucciarello continued his steady play, passing off the same as usual and hustling all the more.

Still the point total continued to mount until finally, in Belleville's ill-fated Essex County Tournament encounter with St. Benedict's, Pucciarello added 17 points to a second half come back bid to boost his 20 game total to a record 387 passing Klein's 1957 mark of 382 in a 17 game season.

Seaman Pietrzyk In Coast Guard
Seaman Apprentice Theodore M. Pietrzyk, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve J. Pietrzyk of 7 Carolyn Road, has completed eight weeks of intensive recruit training here which gave him the skills he will need as a Coast Guardsman.

Under the able leadership of veteran petty officers he received training in boatmanship, visual signaling, infantry drill, personal hygiene, history and traditions of the Coast Guard.

Other subjects taught here are seamanship, military courtesy and the essentials of good citizenship, all in preparation for his career in the Coast Guard.

Times Columnist Rounds Up Basketball Season

he went on to become the first Bellboy to go over the 400 mark despite being slowed by a badly sprained ankle, finishing with a season total of 410 points. The only other Belleville players to come close to the mark were Klein and Bill Rush.

The Big Ten
Accurate shooting was the key to Pucciarello's success. Doing most of his scoring with a long outside jump shot, "Puchie" connected for 14 field goals with a team leading 43 per cent accuracy. His uncanny 117 of 161 (73 per cent) performance from the foul also led the squad. All around hustle also helped Puch to finish third among the rebounders with 105 caroms.

The star Bellboy's effort was rewarded with a berth on the All Big Ten Team along with a spot for his 1816 average for the second team All-County. Providing a potent two-pronged attack for part of the year, Nick Pizzuto was another key veteran in the Blue and Gold season. Last year the five-foot-11 forward had been the team's number two scorer behind 6-foot-4 Rush, but this season started with a problem.

Damaged Bellboy
Going into the season, Nick was one big question mark for the Bellboys. His back was bothering him and full-time play seemed doubtful. But the sharp-shooting Bellboy doggedly kept playing most of the time although at half speed until finally after about seven games the trouble disappeared.

That, for the only time this season, the Bellboys were at full strength. They took full advantage of it by winning six of their next seven games and climbing from last to second place in the league. The key to the surge was Pizzuto who averaged over 15 points a game down this stretch to take the pressure off of Pucciarello and balance the attack.

The All-County honorable mention forward finished the season with 260 points (12 point norm) on 103 field goals (37 per cent) and 54 of 83 free throws. Pizzuto was at his scoring best under pressure as shown by his 20 for 41 floor performance in the tourney whirl.

Fulmore Guards
At 6-foot-2, Ken Fulmore filled the role of the Bellboy big man. Another of Lo Balbo's veterans, Fulmore had the task of guarding positions behemoths first as a forward and then as a center. Effectively having the rival giants "Surf" made up for his height disadvantage with effective boxing out and effort.

As a result, the league's high scoring big men habitually had their worst nights against Belleville. Last season, Fulmore had been Belleville's "iron-man" having played in every single quarter. Things were different this time around as Ken had several bouts with a chronic virus that cost him practice time and lots of energy. As a result, Fulmore was only available for 19 games playing 74 of 91 quarters (Pucciarello and Pizzuto had both seen action in 88).

During this span, Fulmore managed to lead the Bellboys in rebounding with 19 games while scoring 193 points. Going through the first eight games with a 14 points average Fulmore's scoring then slipped with his health as 86 followed in his final 11.

A Fast Dribbler
Opposition sharpshooters were the specialty of fleet-footed Art Sheridan. The little guard hounded his foe on defense and passed him apart on the attack as he directed the Belleville team. The Blue and Gold playmaker seldom shot, but instead, stymied his foe with fancy dribbling, pinpoint passing, and defensive devices despite scoring 97 points. Sheridan's ball-handling at times got to the point when he was dribbling on his knees enroute to a light victory.

Accuracy from the foul line was another trademark of the Bellboy who won a pre-session scramble for the playmaker spot and held off all later challengers.

Fifth Man
Harry Baker was the fifth of the cagers to be lost in 1966 who started the season. Baker opened at center. Playing a rebounding, hustling type of ball, 6-foot-3 Harry continued along his merry way until Fulmore was temporarily sidelined by a cold.

Then Baker showed he led the team. He scored playing defense and came out as a star. That only problem was the opportunistic Rick San Filippo, Fulmore's substitute hid each of these things a little more so as he wrestled the starting spot away.

Baker's contributions to the Bellboys were many as he came into 21 of the contests to score 72 points and pull down 126 rebounds.

San Filippo was a junior who started the season late because of his football heroics. He made the transformation from guard to forward, worked his way up to the rank of "sixth man," and then capitalized upon Fulmore's absence to crank up the starting line for ten games.

San Filippo 'Busy'
Playing 57 quarters "Flip" concentrated his efforts in defense and rebounding (92), as he gained the experience that will help lead the Bellboys next year. Ironically in his 57 quarters, San Filippo attempted 57 field goals while scoring 57 points.

Jim Carino had gone into the year as the favorite to win the playmaker spot. But a dislocated shoulder from his football days prevented this. Gradually Corino came back into the picture to provide back court bench strength and help the Blue and Gold with his aggressive play.

Bob Patterson was a key factor for awhile serving as Pizzuto's caddy. Using his aggressive style to good advantage under the boards the 6-foot-1 senior was a heavy duty player until he ran into his own problems.

Don Wedekind was another good man on the bench.

Last Senior
Frank Ningo is the last of the record crop of nine seniors that adorned the Bellboy roster. His outstanding attitude and effort was a credit to the team.

Another key benchmark was junior guard Jim Catalano, who managed to get in 16 quarters while doubling for the JV's "Cat" displayed an accurate outside touch and defensive prowess that should make him a big factor next year.

A potential big man for 1966-67 was around in the form of 6-foot-2 Tom Gialanella. Improving steadily as the season progressed he could develop into a starring ball player.

Melso Doubles
Joe Melso saw action for the Varsity and doubled as a JV high-scorer along with Catalano before a sprained ankle prematurely ended his season. Rounding out the bench Mike

RICHARD PUCCIARELLO

He's a 17-year-old senior who, with three years on the BHS cager squad, has managed to rack up one of the most impressive scoring records ever set here. He bucketed 410 points this year; last year it was 227 points for the season. He plans to attend college. He lives at 51 Essex St.

BHS Crewmen Hitting The Waves For A First Meet

The Belleville High School Crew began practice sessions Monday, March 14. Coach Michael Lally had told his oarsmen that they would be rowing by that date.

Crew has become a minor sport, but Lally is determined that it regain its status as a major sport, and to put Belleville back at the top. Meetings, held throughout the winter months, provided interested sophomores an insight into the sport.

On the varsity-junior varsity level, the first race will be held on the Hudson River at Poughkeepsie April 13 or 14. The oarsmen will have had about a month to prepare for this race compared to less than 15 days last year.

There are three returning Varsity oarsmen, co-captain, Coxswain George Lupinacci, and seven-man John Ciampi, plus six man Fred Burbank.

Last year's junior varsity stroke, Frank Simeone, is rowing again in that capacity on the varsity. Lally will find it difficult filling the other five seats with seniors Bob DePass and Mike Mozeika sidelined with physical disabilities.

The varsity hopefuls are Seniors: Pete Vasquez and Kurt Betehtiek; Juniors: Bob Andrew, Walt Beresford, and Frank Esposito. The junior varsity crew will be composed of juniors and sophomores. There is also a possibility for four man shells on either or both levels.

In general, scholastic crew is tough to fill, since it is a demanding sport requiring rhythm, precision, and great strength.

Belleville and Nutley are the only public schools with rowing teams, and the Hun School in South Jersey has the only other team in the state.

ATTENTION PET OWNERS

Do You Want Your Pet To Suffer Or Have Kindness... In Case It Is Lost?

Belleville is calling for bids for services for the taking into custody and impounding of all stray or lost dogs and cats.

Nothing in the specifications bans a commercial dog pound from bidding for the contract. Should a commercial pound be the successful bidder your pet may be sold to a laboratory where it will suffer.

As taxpayers you help support dog wardens. It is your responsibility to see that the contract is carefully placed with a humane organization. Animals cannot make their own plea for mercy and protection, but you can intercede for them.

The Associated Humane Society of New Jersey is humanely operated. It is the best equipped humane shelter in the area, a non-profit organization, and the only shelter in the area endorsed by the Humane Society of the United States.

The Humane Animal Association of Belleville prefers seeing the contract awarded to a humanely operated shelter. Contact the town fathers let them know your preference, then come to the meeting at

Baseballers Spar For Berths, As Petti Worries About Over-Confidence

The BHS Nine Hope For A Good Season Based On All-Important Depth

By STEVE CHAREN

Last year the Belleville nine went into the season an unknown quantity. After a slow start coach Nik Petti got his Bellboys unleashed but still no one thought too much of it. Finally the rest of scholastic baseball caught on and the Bellboys surge was for real; it was too little avail though as Belleville coasted to the Big Ten Conference and State Group IV section 2 title.

This year things will be different. Belleville is the defending champ, a title that makes them everybody's target. Only the first stringers will face the Bellboys in 1966. But they should meet the test.

Going into the fourth year of Petti's regime, the Bellboys will be boasting a squad with five returning starters and more depth and balance than ever before in BHS history. The keys to the form of a defense minded infield will be returning intact with the added benefit of more reserve strength and a stronger bench.

Graduation Blues

Belleville's only unknown factors come behind the plate and in the outfield where graduation has completely stripped the Bellboys, including four of their best hitters. The added experience and confidence centered on the infield should counteract the loss as competition among last seasons reserves and JV's keeps the newcomers at their peak.

Things look very bright at this point of training with only eight days until the April first opener. As Petti put it, "The thing that I am really afraid of at this point is overconfidence."

There is no room to relax for any of the 16 players sparring for jobs on the team. The competition is stiffer than ever before and several vets could be supplanted by strong underclass bids.

Defence Great

Anchoring what might well be the best defensive infield in the state, the Bellboys will open with veteran Frank Minea at first base. The lanky senior was the type of player who continually went about his business making the hardest play seem routine; such efforts should earn him All-County recognition.

Minea was just as reliable at the plate where he finished the year as clean-up hitter off of a .349 average with 18 runs batted in. Frank will have to continue his (RBI) and seven extra base hits, slugging to help make for the graduation hitting loss.

All Group IV and All-County star George DeBrowski will be returning to give Belleville security at second base. Going into his third Varsity season versatile George will do less wandering this campaign, thanks to the department and continue to man the keystone rack.

Short Stopper

In 1965 DeBrowski played nearly flawless ball at his position, committing two errors in 27 games while helping to pull off 11 double plays. His versatility brought him to the mound as a ace and to third base for spot appearances. At the plate Belleville's best clutch hitter gathered a .340 mark.

As a sophomore, Richie San Filippo made the big jump from the freshman team and went on to tie the infield together enroute to a championship season. The classy fielding shortstop was the factor Petti had long lacked for a stellar performance.

The junior all-around athlete flirted with the .300 mark last season while displaying his clutch ability to drive in 15 runs.

A Good Third

At third base Art Sheridan provides the Bellboys with the best defensive play available. The ace fielder has been having problems with his hitting though and is being hard-pressed by newcomer Junior Jim Catalano.

Last season Sheridan was selected for the second All-County team, just barely missing the first, on the strength of his defensive heroics and outstanding job as ace of the Belleville team.

Last season that mound staff was the deepest around with four consistent winners, and all of them are returning. But three new faces have been added to the corps to provide unmatchable depth.

Won 8-Straight

Sheridan should undoubtedly continue as the ace of the staff the warm weather right-hander once the cold weather passes. The warm weather right-hander competed on 8-1 record last season to establish himself as the top hurler in BHS history.

Along the way Sheridan completed a 161 ERA while leading Petti's control-minded staff by walking just ten opponents in 67 innings. After an initial loss in a chilly opener, Art won eight straight contests in 1965, including four shut outs three one-hitters and six complete games in seven starts; he was 2-0 with one save in relief. With Sheridan expected to see much action on the mound, Catalano will have to replace graduated .320 utility man Jim Connells. He has already proved almost Sheridan's equal on defense.

Rich Pucciarello, the "cool weather ace of the mound" stuff will be returning along with his All-County Honorable mention. This season hoping to double in left field, Pucciarello will be out to improve his hitting while maintaining the hurling that saw him earn a 5-1 record and 1.20 ERA in almost 65 innings last year.

More Big Guns

Pucciarello figures to start many of the key Big Ten games for the depth laden Bellboys.

DeBrowski was the third man on the mound in 1965, but new depth makes his need here questionable. Last season he managed a 5-2 record while specializing in relief. It wasn't a rare sight for Bellboys fans to see George and Minea play a fast "game of change."

Coming along strong at the end of the year, rapid Sal Taibi could be a big man in this year's plans. Last season in 41 innings he compiled a 4-1 log and 2.37 ERA. Spring performances indicate improvement. Taibi's big bat could also project him into the infield picture. Last year in his only 10 at bats the senior right hander hit .373; in a recent scrimmage with St. Benedict's he lacked two doubles to go 2 for 2.

A Big Surprise?

Used sparingly in 1965, tall and lanky senior Bruce Sincos could be the surprise man of this year's staff. Known as a "junk man" a-la Eddie Lapot, "Sence" came a long way during last summer's American Legion season, developing off speed deliveries that give hitters fits.

Joining the five seniors right handers a pin of junior southpaws both J.V. graduates will be available in the form of Mike Welsh and Joel Pisano. These two hurled the JV to its best campaign ever in 1965. Both portsiders should see action as Petti's rebuilding job continues.

Behind the plate, the Bellboys will have to fill the shoes of All-Stater Len Luongo, the team's all around leader. Charley Cuomo, as former JV star, seems to be the one destined to fill the role although Steve Studioso is available should he falter. Both of these juniors will have their work cut out for them in lessening the impact of Luongo.

Outfield Decimated

Graduation completely decimated the outfield, robbing the Bellboys of 378 All-County right fielder Nick Grande, 4.21 third team All-County left fielder Tony Landolph, 375 outfielder Tony Magistolo co. captain Joe Cervasio and defensive ace Tom Girdano.

These losses have made the outfield scramble into a wild free for all, but injuries and marks have already thinned the field somewhat as some headway is being made.

Leading the quest for a berth in right field has been solid Sam Calabria, a large junior with a record of steady hitting and adequate fielding. Dave Rothwell, an infielder in the past is making a strong bid for supremacy in center on the strength of his early hitting burst. Petti terms Rothwell "the best hitter in practice so far."

Neither of these positions is assured as yet thanks to the competition and left field is still wide open. Pucciarello has been making a bid for that spot on his reputation as a fleet defender but he is being challenged by powerful Mike Mateyka, fleet Jim Serutella, Welsh and Taibi.

Steve Ceren was also a strong candidate until he sprained his ankle in practice.

And so the battling goes as the season draws closer and closer, soon the inter-squad debate will end and the fight will be provided by a opportunistic foe. Its like that when you're top gun.

MAYOR'S WIFE RELEASED

Mrs. Nuncio R. Pico, wife of the mayor, was released from Clara Maass Memorial Hospital March 16 after being hospitalized for over a week.

League Play-Off's Tough Business For The Teams

Powerhouses of the Recreation Men's Basketball League met last week in the beginning of the League playoffs with the Robsons meeting the Sams and the Hillcrests going against the Stash's in sudden death semi-finals.

All but the Sams had finished in a tie at the end of the regular League.

In the Robson-Sams game it was the Robsons who were the draft-riddled Sams fighting valiantly but vainly. Pizzuto, with 22-points was high scorer for the losers and Luongo did yeoman service both under the boards and in the scoring.

High scoring on the winners team was done by Davitt who accounted for 23 points; and Henderson with 18. Final score 82-54.

An early lead was earned by the Stash's in their battle with the Hillcrests and they held this lead through roavictory. With a six-point lead in the first quarter the Stash's went on to a 35-21 lead at the half.

During the third quarter, the Hillcrests reduced their opponent lead to 12 points and then cut it another 4 points in the final period. However the clock ran out with the Stash's in command 70-62.

The victors success hung very much on the 30-point scoring of Domenick Klein, 20 - points of which he made in the first half.

Next the Stash's and the Robsons tangle for the best two out of three for the championship.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Has Board of Ed Struck Out Again?

To the Editor, Belleville Times: Belleville strikes out again! This time the Board of Education is responsible for the poor batting. Why must an opportunity for success and new honors to be bestowed on Belleville be so easily lost?

Last year, Belleville's track team, under the conscientious supervision of Coach Ronald Kulik, did amazingly well, and it can be easily verified that they were one of the best teams in Belleville's history. During the past year, Coach Kulik, with sincere dedication and determination, worked in hopes of turning out a championship team. If his plans had been carried out, I am sure his hopes would have been realized.

He is greatly admired by the track team, who truly appreciated his planning and the long hours that had led to their success.

All enthusiasm for track success has been lost, because through the trivial arguments and pretty prejudices of members of the Board of Education we have lost an excellent coach. A man whose true interests, many feel, do not lie in track but in football was nominated to replace Mr. Kulik. I am sure that the new coach will do an adequate job for that seems to all that is wanted by the Board. The new coach has none of the vitality and keen interest of Mr. Kulik.

Just three weeks before the first dual-track meet, we can readily see what apathy exists. The first few practices of last year's 1965 season brought out 40 interested boys. On March 15, a beautiful spring like day, 7 boys showed up for practice. The track was in poor shape, the equipment (starters, hurdles, poles, etc.) were not available for use, and no schedule and workout plan was suggested.

From such findings, it's impossible to predict anything but a gloomy forecast for Belleville track.

Who is responsible for such a gross error? Why should people who have, most likely, never attended a Belleville High School track meet and know next to nothing about the sport have the power to make decisions on the qualifications of Mr. Kulik? Did they look into his records at all? We doubt it!

Why were the people being most affected by such a decision - the track team - not consulted? Does the Board not have any confidence in the opinions of these boys? They have facts which are numerous and available to all concerning the former success under the supervision of Mr. Kulik.

To many this is not an important question. Many will not see why such a disturbance should be raised.

But myself, along with many others, feel that an injustice has been done to both an outstanding Belleville citizen and a promising track team. Such an act can not be overlooked, for we must have fairness in all decisions whether they affect a few or a great many.

No fairness is apparent here.

Laura Baker
699 Belleville Ave.
Belleville, N. J.

(If the board persists in its illogical course, it can only be construed as the public - be-damned attitude. Kulik's records show he has done much more to provide the board with satisfaction than not. — Editor)

What's In A Name? To Goodwill Industries It's Everything, Good

Opportunity for an untrained handicapped person at Goodwill Industries is like today — The First Day of Spring. Joe Loudermilk, executive director of Goodwill Industries observed today.

"Everyone associates spring with new life, new beginnings. That's what we offer at Goodwill Industries," he said.

From the first interview that a handicapped person has at Goodwill every effort is made to give the new client an improved chance in life. He or she comes to Goodwill after receiving thorough medical and psychological examination.

Testing Cases

Further psychological testing and interviewing is continued at Goodwill to determine which of three programs the person will enter. A personal adjustment program prepares the individual for basic routine performances that must be done before he actually does his job.

The work-evaluation program seeks to find and develop skills and interests that will fit the person into the proper job. And the On-the-Job Program is a trainee phase in which the individual performs and learns how to handle his job.

"After we know something about the individual, his skills, assets, physical or mental limitations imposed by his handicap, we try to find out what job he would be best suited for," Loudermilk explained.

Attitudes Sought

This is done in a variety of ways. For example, through psychological testing and interviewing, a Goodwill counselor tries to find out what mental attitudes the client may have toward certain types of work. The counselor will learn what personality traits he has that suit him for a particular kind of job and what work would be most beneficial to him.

Temporary job assignments are another way of discovering what a client can or can not do. A handicapped person needs these varied experiences, according to Loudermilk, because he often never worked before. He may not have had the chance to develop potential skills or is unsure of himself and needs to acquire self-confidence.

But Goodwill Industries of New Jersey has achieved success in placing different types of handicapped in suitable jobs. Several months ago Goodwill found work for a cerebral palsied person with one of New Jersey's largest Subscription Houses. She is employed in the Mail Department as a clerk, a job that does not require extensive walking or standing.

Jobs Set

Other placements have included mental retardates as stock clerks and dishwashers and an accident victim as a sales person.

At all times during the entire period that a client is a Goodwill associated Rehabilitation services (such as medical aid, counseling, therapy and vocational training) are available a wanted or needed by the client.

All of these add to the client's chances to begin a new life outside of Goodwill Industries of New Jersey in a regular job in competitive industry as a self-sufficient citizen, Loudermilk said.

To clarify some confusion that may exist in the minds of many residents of Essex, Union and Morris Counties, Loudermilk emphasized that Goodwill Industries of New Jersey in Jersey

A Gross Injustice, Declares Mrs. Baker

To The Editor:

The interested citizens of Belleville think there has been a gross injustice made by the Belleville Board of Education in terminating Coach Ronald Kulik. We think it only reasonable to demand an explanation.

The very successful 1965 season Belleville High School had in track is ample evidence of Coach Kulik's deep interest and capable leadership.

His extensive knowledge of track was put to use in the following outstanding accomplishments:

(1) Cross Country season (1965) Belleville placed first in the Big Ten Conference and third in Essex County Competition.

(2) Belleville High School Track Team (1965) placed third in the Big Ten Relays. The first time such a feat has been accomplished.

City is the only branch of Goodwill Industries of America in the State serving northern New Jersey.

He made it clear that there is no connection between any organization in Newark using Goodwill in its title and the Goodwill Industries of New Jersey. "Not only that," he said, "but our Goodwill is the only Welfare Agency devoted to training and rehabilitation of the physically handicapped."

Persons who contribute to a "Newark Goodwill" in the belief that their money or articles are helping Goodwill Industries or the handicapped are mistaken.

There is only one Goodwill Industries of New Jersey. It is located at 49-55 Fremont St., Jersey City.

completed in Belleville.

(3) Many school records were broken: 3 out of 6 relay records broken, 440 yard dash - pole vault, high jump records broken.

(4) Group IV, Section 2, two mile indoor record was broken by Bob Boglione.

(5) Last year, in the Long Branch Relays, Belleville High School Track Team placed second in the 1 1/2 mile relay.

Coach Kulik's past efforts at Belleville High have been admirable and unselfish. He, himself, is an outstanding personality in track.

He ranks as one of the best five walkers in the United States.

So as to maintain his amateur status, he coaches the Belleville track team without receiving a salary. His desire to help not only the Belleville trackmen, but to bring new honors to Belleville is worthy of praise.

His talents should not be neglected, for he is a greatly needed individual in Belleville if it is to have another successful season.

Student Objects To An Arbitrary Board

To The Editor:

I am a junior at Belleville High School, and I have become disturbed by certain actions contemplated by the Board of Education.

The action I am referring to is the questioning of Mr. Ron Kulik's teaching ability. I am a member of Mr. Kulik's enriched U.S. History class, and I feel that something should be said on behalf of Mr. Kulik.

As a person who plans to major in social studies in college, I have taken many history courses in BHS and have many of Belleville's fine history teachers. Mr. Kulik has been the teacher of fine character and ability and it would be a shame if he were to be removed from his teaching post because of whatever petty dislikes the board may have for him.

I ask the board of education to look deeper into their trivial dislikes and rehires Mr. Ron Kulik because he is a person who exemplifies what a teacher and a man should be.

Bring Kulik Back Next Year, She Asks

To The Editor:

As a student of Belleville High School, I express my deep sorrow in seeing Belleville High School's most popular and well-liked teacher leave because of a few unfair people.

Mr. Ron Kulik is a capable and able person especially when track is concerned. He has proven true and is one of the few left that will take time out to listen to our student problems.

As a former student of Mr. Kulik's, I can honestly say that he is a truly dedicated person in his coaching of the track team.

Mr. Kulik has a wife and two beautiful children who are very proud of him. Why doesn't the town of Belleville be just as proud? If they are proud, and do appreciate what Mr. Kulik has done for Belleville High School's track team, why, then, are the people in the town of Belleville having to stand by and watch him be "cast out" into the pasture by replacing him with someone who isn't half as capable?

What is wrong with our world today? It is always "What can you do for me," rather than "what can I do for you?" You, as a citizen of Belleville and of America can do something for yourself and for a good teacher, a husband, a father, and a wonderful person altogether. RECONSIDER MR. RONALD KULIK. He is more than capable to be an advisor of the track team and a teacher of Belleville High School.

He is an asset.

Susan Brisk
(A B.H.S. Student)

P.S. Would you please publish this in your next issue of the Belleville Times. Thank You.

Gladly, Susan. It is a mystery why the board, in the face of public opinion, still plans to let Kulik's contract expire. It is obvious some kind of a mistake has been made, and the board would be wise to listen, re-evaluate, and revise its thinking on this matter. — Editor)

JHS 'Music Man' Was Great Performance

To The Editor:

My husband, daughter and I had the pleasure of attending the performance of "The Music Man" given by the pupils of the Junior High School. It was indeed an excellent performance and the young people are to be complimented on their performance. In fact everyone who had a part in this great production deserves much credit, even to the ones who printed the colorful programs.

Belleville is to be congratulated on having such promising young citizens.

The Troubled Planners

The Board of Education met Tuesday night in the first of its post-budget cut conferences, during which it examined the various areas to be affected by the Town Council's reduction in next year's school operating funds.

Tentatively scheduled for elimination from next year's curriculum is the curtailment or outright abandonment of several enrichment courses, among them driver education, plus wrestling, possibly crew, and several other courses not yet determined.

Belleville High School principal Raymond O. Smith said none of the Three R's would be touched as far as practicable — after all, a school's purpose is to educate rather than to entertain its students.

And how will this affect the forth coming evaluation planned for next month? It can only be negatively. For one thing, classrooms will be a bit more crowded because the budget may not provide for additional teachers to handle steadily increasing school enrollment. Typewriters, in the business department already battered by inexperienced fingers, will become even more battered due to lack of replacements. Enrichment courses — designed for use by the brighter students — will face curtailment because of additional duties assigned hard-working teachers. It is more than possible that our bright and shiny new school will be down-graded.

The fund shortage, says Board President Ernest S. Arvidson, will jeopardize the quality of instructional material. These shortages, brought about by voters here, violate the principles of sound educational leadership.

Next September the Board of Education, under the shaky direction of Arvidson (who was re-elected by a scant eight votes) should open a campaign of public enlightenment regarding its proposed budget. It should contain an itemized accountability of any possibly suspect fiscal needs rather than generalizations to forestall error or misinterpretation by Town Watchdogs and voters.

And mainly, it should assign a thoughtful and respected spokesman for the board. It is a sensitive post requiring tact and diplomacy — two attributes lacking in its present leader who antagonizes and alienates those whom he needs most for the successful achievement of the board's goals. Smith or Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Rosamilia would fill that office more than adequately. G.F.A.

The Public Be Damned?

The Board of Education seems to insist on doing things the hard way. Let us explain.

Ronald Kulik is rated an "average" teacher. Not great, but definitely not bad. We're all average. Even board members. He is a top track coach as attested to by three department heads, the president of the board of education, his student-trackmen, and the general public. The editor cannot recall the general public being so up in arms over the rights of an individual in many years.

So why should the board stubbornly overrule this imposing array of professional and public support and blindly follow an unwise course in firing this teacher?

The board now says — rather lamely — that they were "not satisfied with his teaching." This is a distracting implausi-bility in view of the record. There is much more to be satisfied with, than not.

There is something totally incongruous about a school board stricken with continuing litigation, saddled with inefficient public relations, and now refusing to acknowledge the public will in this fine example of added thinking.

In view of the foregoing information, board members could now make a modification of a not inflexible ruling and return this teacher to his classroom next year. It is an exceptional case.

In doing so they would serve the public interest — something they were elected to uphold — and extricate themselves from, shall we say, an "unwise" decision? They would also demonstrate to the public that they are not suffering from judicial hardening of the arteries. G.F.A.

Yeah, But Will We Get It?

Belleville's rapidly growing parking problems cannot be solved on a piecemeal basis. For the first time in over 20 years we now have a mayor who proposes to take the bull by the horns and create a commission who will study the feasibility of constructing a lot somewhere in town. Mayor Nuncio R. (As in Ready) Pico says next Monday he will have a resolution prepared for the council which will get the show on the road, providing short-sighted councilmen don't flub the dub.

Hizzoner is up for election next May. It is true, but we're confident this is not a move aimed at garnering votes with the thought of dropping the plans once he's back up there on the podium. If Pico doesn't put his shoulder behind this wheel until it either rev's up or stalls, we shall be more than happy to lambast him for his duplicity.

While there is nothing new in these tactics (one of our "councilmen" promised to serve without pay if elected. But not only took the salary when elected but voted himself an increase later on) it would be political suicide.

So step on the gas, Mr. Pico. G.F.A.

When Apathy Sets In

Public apathy and an I-don't-want-to-get-involved attitude have been the direct cause of many needless and heart-breaking incidents here in Belleville, said Town Manager John R. Burnett last week.

The punk who preyed on town women recently may have been caught earlier, said Burnett, if residents had merely picked up the telephone and called police when they spotted a suspicious character loitering about.

Homes have been burglarized, he said, although neighbors had heard the sounds of breaking glass. On at least one occasion a neighbor had actually witnessed a break-in, but thought it was the owner smashing a window because he had lost a key to his home.

The Town Manager made a plea for public cooperation last week in which he asked Belleville residents to report ALL suspicious activities to police. No honest citizen objects to an officer making a routine check in line of duty. The life, limb, and property you may save may be your own. G.F.A.

Ho Hum, More Crackpots

The facts of human nature (Sigh) are a melancholy truth far from ideal. Crawling around under dank rocks in every municipality are crack-pots — some cruel, a few murderous — but all are silly and vain.

One such stinky creep made an anonymous telephone call to Mrs. Ronald Kulik telling her to "Get out of town" etc. He probably found the time to make the telephone call while his keeper was cleaning out his cage.

Another anonymous numskull laboriously typed the Essex County Prosecutors office a letter reporting that the editor had single-handedly persuaded three councilmen and four members of the board of adjustment to illegally award a variance to the 200-unit garden apartments which the council approved last week (and which The Times has editorialized against for the past six years).

For this, whispered the letter, the editor got $25,000 under the table.

Two years ago one misguided councilman gave us credit for swindling an entire election. The Bd of Ed said we killed a $3.9 million dollar school budget. The power of the press must be immense. This same councilman is now spreading the word that the editor has been fired for not groveling in abject terror before his publisher.

But there is one happy item about all this. The letter writer made a silly — what with modern criminal detection devices being improved every day — and he may soon have official visitors.

Meanwhile the editor anxiously meets every mail man hoping for the delayed delivery of that $25,000 check. G.F.A.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Ronald Kulik Got An Unfair Shake

To the Editor:

In regard to the recent dismissal of Mr. Ronald Kulik as Belleville Senior High School track coach, some questions have been raised as to his teaching ability.

As a former student of Mr. Kulik, I would like to state for the record that in my opinion, he is a competent, well-liked teacher. His class was interesting, informative, and even stimulating.

I will always consider it a privilege to have known Mr. Kulik and to have had him as a teacher.

Kulik Was Satisfied, Reports Mr. Arvidson

To the Editor:

At the request of Mr. Ronald Kulik the Board of Education met at the Board office on Tuesday March 15, to resolve the issues concerning Mr. Kulik. At the conclusion of this meeting it was agreed that the following joint statement would be made.

The School Board and Mr. Ronald Kulik met in executive session this evening to discuss Mr. Kulik's status as track coach in Belleville.

Those issues relating to Mr. Kulik's employment were discussed frankly and fully.

It was agreed that the purpose of the meeting has been achieved and that the issues had been resolved to the satisfaction of both parties.

The School Board and Mr. Kulik believe that further public or private discussion on this matter will serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Ernest S. Arvidson
Pres. Board of Education

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

An increasingly greater number of customers inquire about portable color TV sets. There is one small (12") set by a large manufacturer which is light enough to be called portable. The trouble is that this set is very poor in performance. Definition is bad, print is almost unreadable. If one looks at this model, one does not want it, if one is only a little bit critical.

One large mail order house sells a 16" set which is made in Japan. It is much too heavy to be called portable.

There are a number of 19" color sets on the market. In fact, every manufacturer has one or several models. They are heavy and can not be carried around.

The most popular portable TV set in b/w is 19" and it really is stretching the point to call these portable. Certainly one does not want to carry them any distance, without getting very tired. It appears that anything with a handle is considered to be portable. Apparently because there is a 19" color TV set, it is automatically considered in the portable category. Some factories make these sets with metal cabinets and supply a cart with it. This is fine, as long as they are being moved on even floors. It should be pointed out that for a good color picture as a rule one needs a better antenna than the built-in so-called rabbit ears, which come with the 19" color sets. Unless you are in an exceptionally good location as far as reception is concerned, you won't get a good picture on rabbit ears on a color set.

It looks as if we have to wait for further progress and developments until we have a color TV set with a picture tube large enough and the weight light enough to call it portable. It is no secret that a 15" picture tube is in the development stage. Maybe this will be the solution to our problem. This tube is expected to go in production by the end of this year.

We service what we sell. Beck's Radios TV HI FI Nutley 671-2775

(Kulik says he was given a statement similar to the above, but was not satisfied and refused to sign it on advice of a New Jersey Education Association member who accompanied him to the meeting. — Editor)

Can The Board Explain, This Gentleman Asks?

To the Editor:

There is little more I can say, except to add my voice to those already clamoring for an explanation of why Ronald Kulik was not re-appointed track coach of Belleville High School.

Why do not the citizens of this town, rise up en masse and demand that the sorry situation in our town be changed?

Why is it we never hear of this bad publicity in neighboring towns? Nutley, Bloomfield, Clifton etc. You are almost ashamed to tell people you live in Belleville.

The general impression is that Belleville is mainly peopled by rapists, narcotic addicts and assorted thugs. If a criminal is apprehended in a neighboring town and he happened to pass through Belleville the impression is that Belleville is at fault.

I won't even go into the details of our illustrious town officials — the less said the better. Now it seems the Board of Education is trying to go them one better to create bad publicity for our town.

The Board of Education is supposed to be composed of people who are better educated than the average, therefore we common citizens usually let them run things because they are supposed to have more brains than we have. (but do they use them). But to dismiss a man without even giving an explanation seems to be the height of stupidity.

According to our laws every man is entitled to a fair hearing. This, Ronald Kulik has not gotten up to this point. Perhaps the board has to have a few weeks to think of a reason. No matter what they say now can never change the blunder they have created.

Has someone a personal axe to grind? I think its about time our official family sat down and thought of some concrete way to change the bad image we have all over.

We have gone downhill ever since we changed our form of government in this town. We had high hopes that we were really doing something good, I am now wondering if we have.

Sincerely yours,
Richard B. Iaroli

Michael Rosamilia Slated For Panel In April Meeting

Acting superintendent of Schools Michael T. Rosamilia has been invited to attend the Governor's Conference on Education to be held at Rutgers University Saturday, April 2.

Rosamilia will join leading educators and representatives from business, labor, and community leaders, selected from throughout the state to respond to the question: "How can New Jersey become a state of the first rank in ALL phases of education?"

Governor Richard J. Hughes will open the general conference with a brief address, to be followed by the United States Commissioner of Education, Harold Howe. Conference members will then be divided into one of nine morning and afternoon panels with out-of-state consultants in intensive discussions on matters of educational concern. The conclusions reached will become part of the published conference report.

Parking Authority Can Cut Red Tape, Declares The Belleville Chamber

BY HARRY FRENCH

Public parking has for many years been a major, much talked about problem in Belleville.

All surrounding towns and cities have public parking, some of them for many years.

Many Belleville citizens, frustrated at the inconvenience they suffer when they try to trade in Belleville, frequently drive on to the next community, and Belleville loses the business. Sometimes people who don't think the thing through are inclined to argue that parking benefits only the merchant. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Businessmen who incidentally through real estate and inventory taxes bear their full share of the cost of government do benefit if it is true, but parking is of much more importance to our residents than to the merchant.

Convenience: Parking is important from the standpoint of convenience, time involved in shopping but, even panels titled, "How can we best combine vocational and academic education?" and "How can we improve opportunities for the development of the handicapped child?" It is expected that Governor Hughes will close the conference with a major policy statement.

more important, from the standpoint of safety. The Belleville shopper driving a short distance to a local store over familiar streets is much less exposed to the possibility of accident, and in view of what is happening in many large cities no one can argue that it is not safer to shop right here in Belleville, especially at night.

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico proposes to introduce an ordinance to establish a Parking Authority in Belleville.

Belleville Kiwanis Club Propose New Senion Citizen Recreation Area

But Councilmen React Coldly To Their Planning

Senior Citizens are carefully watching the activities of the Town Council after Kiwanis Club members had proposed the construction of a $70,000 recreation facility for them at Camp Carragher at the foot of Mill St.

"They didn't seem too enthusiastic," said Tom McLaughlin of the club, who explained that the proposed recreation area would include picnic tables, card tables, and a building which would serve as a year-round community center.

The club made its original proposal in a letter to the council Feb. 12, and briefly discussed the matter last week at Town Hall.

Of the councilmen only Councilman Ralph A. Casale reacted favorably. "It's a good idea," he said, "I like the idea very much. I think it's wonderful."

The letter, sent to Town Manager John R. Burnett, said:

"The Belleville Kiwanis Club has elected to organize a project which you and the Council may find extremely beneficial to our community. In keeping with the request of Kiwanis Governor Mervyn Haines that we try to do something for senior citizens, our local club would like to take on an ambitious project with your assistance.

We feel that we can develop Camp Carragher as a recreation area for senior citizens. This will include a sizable structure on the grounds as well as a picnic site and other accommodations. It is our thought that a plan for the entire area shall be presented to you for approval.

Before we proceed further, we would like some indication from you and the council as to the feasibility of our project and what your thinking would be about turning over the property to us on a lease basis.

We wish to make it clear that our request of you will not include any appropriation of funds. It will be our responsibility to make financial provisions. Also, we would expect to maintain the facility after it is completed and in use.

While this letter must be termed as an exploratory request, the enthusiasm with which our directors responded indicates that we are ready to make an all-out effort if your reaction is positive.

BELLEVILLE KIWANIS CLUB, part of an organization renowned for its charitable activities, proposed the construction of a club house and recreation facility for Senior Citizens at Camp Carragher during a meeting at Town Hall two weeks ago. The proposed complex would cost an estimated $70,000 to be paid by Kiwanians. Appearing before the councilmen were Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Rosamilia, Gene Reilly, and Chairman John Zepka, shown above. But Councilmen were not enthusiastic. (Photo by ADAMS)

'Hurricane Alert' Will Not Involve The Public

Local Civil Defense units will have ample opportunity to test their effectiveness March 25 and 26 during Operation 'Hurricane Alert.' Belleville Civil Defense Director John Dean announced that the public will not be involved in the statewide exercise.

"Hurricane Alert" is believed to be the first statewide exercise in the nation devoted solely to training for a major natural disaster. Past exercises conducted on this scale have been held to train personnel to handle emergencies in the event of an enemy attack.

Although the operation is being initiated on state level, county and local Civil Defense officials have been given wide range to cope with problems in their areas, with the manpower and equipment available to them.

State To Be Hit

The operation is based on the premise that a hurricane will enter New Jersey at 6 a.m., March 26, at Port Norris, west of Cape May, and travel north on the 75th parallel. Simulated conditions will be similar to those actually faced last September in Louisiana when Hurricane Betsy struck New Orleans.

Local CID officials will not only have to contend with the hurricane, they will also have numerous other problems brought on by the storm. Flood conditions will prevail all along the coast as well as inland at fresh water areas. Simulated mass evacuations and location of temporary shelters for the evacuees will be among the problems faced by local CID officials.

Certain major highways will be declared flooded and impassable which will require using alternate routes.

High Tides

In addition to hurricane winds ranging to 130 knots, abnormally high tides will reach their peak about midnight, March 25, and again about noon the following day. Maximum surges, on top of the normal tides, will vary from 10 to 14 feet along the coast.

Five locations in the state will be hit by an added simulated disaster in the operation: Vineland, Lakewood, Shrewsbury, Morris-town, and Wayne Township will be hard hit by tornadoes.

guide. At the hearing last Tuesday the board implied it would be difficult keeping this from the press, and that such information would damage my chances of competing in the Olympics. Regarding the "extra pay" mentioned above, I have in my possession a letter from Dr. Durkee, which says, in part:

"This is the salary rate ($400) for this position (track coach), but as you have requested for the 1964-65 season this sum could not be paid, so that you may preserve your amateur status."

I showed this letter to board members Monday during a special meeting, and they still are trying to destroy my amateur standing. In fact, I took a reduction in pay to come to Belleville.

"It's the board's responsibility to check these things out before approving the recommendations of the superintendent. Since I started here at $6,600 per school year, this is not an increase in pay, but a beginning salary. This is the board's attempt to justify their paying another coach — although I was performing this duty at no cost to the taxpayer."

And the use of the word "conspire" seems to be an attempt to suggest that I took part in some illegal act.

The Board: An examination of the personnel file of Mr. Kulik revealed other discrepancies, among these is a letter from Mr. Kulik to the Director of Athletics, which indicates that Mr. Kulik came to Belleville to coach. Mr. Kulik also stated that his one driving ambition is to compete in the Olympics. The Board of Education agrees that this is a laudable goal, however, the purpose of public education is to give learning experience to children and athletics are part of this only when a contribution is made to the learning experience.

Mr. Kulik: Regarding the letter to Mr. Wische, the board conveniently ignored Mr. Wische's statement explaining that it was not a question of teaching or coaching, but a choice of which I preferred coaching, cross-country or track. I came to Belleville to coach track not cross country.

Easter Seal Parade Scheduled For Belleville On Next Monday

The 300 neighborhood volunteers manning the home-to-home Easter Seal Parade in Belleville are hard at work attempting to complete delivery of Easter Seals and collection of Easter Seal contributions over this weekend. The event started Monday.

Jeffrey P. Ruddy, county chairman for the Easter Seal Appeal, pointed out today that next Monday is target date for completion of the Easter Seal Parade. If every Parader completes his assignment, he added, prospects are good that collections in this year's Easter Seal Parade will go well beyond last year's $1,200.00 total.

The Easter Seal Parade is a major part of the local Easter Seal Appeal of Essex County. Easter Seal Committee for Crippled Children and Adults, the statewide Easter Seal organization. The Committee was formed last Fall to help guide and develop Easter Seal services for handicapped people in Essex County.

Ruddy is a member of the Essex County Committee.

The Board of Education Explains Its Decision, But Ronald Kulik Says It Isn't So

ERNEST S. ARVIDSON

Two weeks ago the Belleville Board of Education, after tentatively approving re-natal of social studies teacher Ronald Kulik's contract, suddenly reversed itself and overruled the favorable recommendations of Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Rosamilia, Belleville High School Superintendent Raymond O. Smith, Director of Athletics Herman Wische, and Board of Education President Ernest S. Arvidson and decided not to approve the contract.

No satisfactory reason was given, except that the board was "unsatisfied with his teaching." Nicholas S. Juliano, who touched off one of the most controversial school board scandals since the ouster of Dr. Frank M. Durkee, has still made no statement on why he opposes Kulik's reappointment.

This newspaper has received calls charging the Board of Education with paying off certain coaches for political work on its behalf. Other callers ask what evils the Board of Education has uncovered in Kulik's private life.

In order to clear both Kulik and the Board of Education of unfounded rumors, The Times presents a joint statement by board members, and the response given by Kulik. One board member, Richard H. Drake, said "even after the meeting, I still felt there was no reason for not re-appointing Kulik."

Following is the statement released Tuesday night by the board.

The Board: The Board of Education has long maintained a policy to discuss personnel problems only in closed conference to protect the individual, deviating from this policy only when the person involved has first made the problem public.

When the Board of Education, in 1966, considered the appointment of Mr. Kulik as Head Track Coach the School Administrators stated they would not recommend Mr. Kulik's re-appointment as a teacher, although they recommended his appointment as Head Track Coach. His record as a teacher was only fair and he had showed poor judgment on many occasions, one instance being to arrange with another teacher to sign in for each other.

Mr. Kulik signed in for this teacher one time and when the teacher could not be found it was learned that this teacher was ill at home and in bed.

Mr. Kulik: I was hired as a teacher for the school year 1965-66 and along with this went the coaching position. If they saw fit to hire me as a teacher for this year (1966), why was my position alone held up, while all others were approved? A close check of my ratings will show conclusively that I am a better than average teacher. Last year I had one enrichment class; this year I have been given two enrichment classes, which indicates faith in my ability to teach better-than-average students.

"Signing in" for other teachers is a common practice among Belleville High School teachers.

This incident happened one week before my re-appointment as track coach came up, which would seem to indicate that the board is looking for some reason to dismiss me.

The Board: When Mr. Kulik was recommended for employment by the now suspended Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Durkee, the Board of Education was not informed that he was given credit for two additional steps on the guide more than his teaching experience warranted. Although he had no track coaching experience before coming to Belleville, this extra pay was given to Mr. Kulik to compensate for his track experience. Had he been employed solely on the basis of his teaching experience he would have received $6,200. His actual salary when he started in Belleville was $8,600. The Board of Education was never informed by Dr. Durkee, that Mr. Kulik's salary was more than that to which he was entitled. Mr. Kulik told the Board of Education that he was not aware that his salary was more than he was entitled to have. He states that he did not conspire with Dr. Durkee to arrange the salary, so he would have the same salary as if he were coaching and still it would not indicate that he was being paid for coaching.

Mr. Kulik: This statement concerning my being hired as track coach has no bearing on what Dr. Durkee may or may not have done at that time. I had no knowledge that I was over the salary

Pico Campaigners Gaining Momentum, Say Supporters

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico's campaign for re-election as a member of the Town Council gained appreciable momentum last week with the formal filing of his petitions and the formation of the "Belleville Women for Pico," who will serve as an auxiliary to the Pico Campaign Committee.

Mayor Pico filed his petitions for a place on the ballot for the May 10 election on Monday afternoon with Town Clerk E. G. Barnett — the first of three incumbent councilmen-at-large to do so.

He told the 30-member auxiliary groups at their first gathering at the Fountain that "this is the first time since he councilmanic form of Government was adopted in Belleville that all three councilmen-at-large are simultaneously making a bid for reelection." He was not, he said, committed or beholden to any other candidate. "This is strictly an independent campaign," he said. "I am not involved in any deals or in so-called 'tickets' with any other candidates, whether they be incumbents or new aspirants for office. I am running strictly on my record and experience on a platform devoted to 'Progress, Economy and Dignity.'"

Mrs. Josephine Izzo heads the "Women for Pico" voters registration and women poll workers' committee.

The ladies' meeting was largely devoted to the planning of a Dessert-Fashion Show May 2, at the Fountain. The date has a doubled significance, since it is also Mayor Pico's birthday.

Mrs. Dorothy Loloia is general chairman of the affair. Mrs. Rose DelTuto is ticket chairman.

Cherry Blossom Queen Is Sought By Town Jaycees

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce is looking for candidates for the Miss Cherry Blossom pageant scheduled to be held here April 30, said Joe Peterson, of the Jaycees today.

Kevin Roberts Fund Is Formed By Concerned Residents

By HARRY FRENCH

On December 14th 1965 a tragic accident occurred on Route 3 in North Bergen.

Two young men, one from Nutley, the other from Belleville, had stopped their car to examine a rear wheel and tire. One of the young men held a flashlight. Suddenly a car came around the curve and apparently its driver did not see the parked car, or did not see it in time to stop or swerve his car.

The young man with the flashlight was crushed against the rear bumper of the parked car.

When police arrived and extricated him from the wreckage he was taken by ambulance to North Hudson Hospital and later removed to the Newark City Hospital. Nine hours after the accident it was necessary to amputate both legs just above the knees. His left arm was fractured in three places.

The young man, 23 years old, is Kevin Roberts, 33 Essex St. son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Roberts. He has been in the hospital ever since the accident.

When injured he was pursuing his education and working part time to pay his way through college and planning to some day entering the teaching profession. In addition to his long siege in the hospital, he faces many more months there while he is fitted with artificial limbs and taught to use them and can once again return to school and some day become self-supporting.

There are many tragic stories to be told every year, but here is one of our own young men who in trying to help his friend was so badly injured that he faces a lifetime of struggle not to speak of enormous costs of the treatment he has received and will need. His family is in no position to meet such costs.

A committee of citizens who know Kevin and his family has been formed to act as "trustees" of the "Kevin Roberts Fund" who now appeal to the good people of Belleville to help this young man achieve some of his life's goals.

Town Council Approves $2 Million, 250-Unit Garden Apartment Here

Councilman Cullen Objects; Residents Protests No Avail

The spirited protests of half a dozen speakers, the objections of Councilman William H. Cullen, and the presence of some 25 residents failed to deter the council in approving a $2 million dollar, 250-unit garden apartment at 725 Joralemon St. March 15 at Town Hall. The council voted 3-2 to make the approval official.

The issue of the garden apartment had been broken into two segments by Mayor Nuncio R. Pico after arguments pro and con had lasted until midnight Monday with the debate still in full sway.

The proposed apartments will now be erected in a one-family zone, which by its action the Council had designated the 250-units. The Fairway Civic Association, represented by Nicholas Amato, an attorney, pointed out that state law says a lot cannot be used for anything other than that for which it had been designated. An apartment, he argued, is not a one-family house.

The Vote, 3-2
Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, Councilman Ralph A. Casale, and Robert Westpy, voted for the apartment variance. Opposing was Councilman William H. Cullen and James R. Golden.

Cullen objected on two points. In asking that action on the variance be postponed, he said the town-owned property within 200 feet of the proposed construction and had not been notified as law requires. But Town Counsel Jack Soriano said notices are given on the basis of town-tax lists. But since the town pays no taxes on itself, they were not on the list and therefore did not have to be notified.

His second objection, came about when he noted that construction of the apartments would cut off Fairway Court, a recreation area. Town Manager assured Cullen that the area would not become landlocked. "We don't intend to," he said.

Councilman Golden complained that "Belleville was becoming a mecca for builders," bent on profit at taxpayers expense.

Petitions
Monday Night Charles Barbone

Good News
There's Good News today. Town Manager John R. Burnett said last week that with the approval of the $3,516,996 budget, plus the $286,281 school budget reduction, town taxpayers will have a 24-point increase instead of the estimated 44-points over all. The tax rate will be $4.20 per $100 assessed value for real estate, and $5.47 for business personal property.

had presented the Council with a petition bearing some 85 names, he said, protesting the proposed apartments.

The Belleville Times has editorialized against the apartments ever since they were first proposed some six years ago.

Barbone said he would decide, after conferring with an attorney, whether or not he would appeal the council's approval.

On March 1 the Board of Adjustment voted 3-1 to recommend that application of the Pinnas and Tamburro Development Co. of 100 Halsted St. in East Orange be awarded the variance. The council's decision climaxed five hearings on the apartments since last December.

Registration Hours

The Town Clerk's office will be open for registration of voters 8:30 a.m. to 4:40 p.m. every day at Town Hall, said Town Clerk Eugene Barnett.

Special night hours will be tonight from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.; and Monday, March 28 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., and each evening during the week of March 28th through 31st at the same hours. Transfers and registrations will be accepted, Barnett said.

Incumbent Councilman at Large, William H. Cullen filed petitions on Tuesday for the forthcoming election.

In announcing his intention to seek reelection Cullen said: "I am disturbed by the image of the Town of Belleville that has been built up during the last few years. Many of our citizens have indicated to me that they are subjected to ridicule by their co-workers because of the unfavorable publicity that the Town has received. This condition must not be permitted to continue. All of us must join together to correct this injustice."

"During my period of service to the Town I have always striven to conduct myself in a manner that would reflect the good manners and high ideals of the citizens whom I represent. I have never been a party to vituperative attacks or undignified conduct during my term of office."

No Obstructionist
Although I have often had to vote in the minority my vote has never been obstructionist but stemmed from a refusal to be rushed into voting on matters that were not in the best interest of the town or were not properly explained.

"Before voting against any proposal I have discussed the problem with those many citizens who insight and interest I

Airman Marett Training Over Mediterranean

Airman Apprentice Gerald E. Marett, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Marett of 363 Main St., participated in "Fairgame IV", joint French-U.S. naval training exercise in the western Mediterranean and on Corsica as a crewmember aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Forrestal.

Fairgame is conducted annually between U.S. Sixth Fleet and French naval forces to provide tactical training in conducting air, amphibious and naval operations, as well as defense methods against them.

The three-phase exercise began with U.S. and French carrier task forces training in combined support operations. Participating French and U.S. air and submarine forces provided mock opposition to the carriers.

Phase two consisted of individual ship exercises in which French and U.S. observers were exchanged for orientation and indoctrination.

The final phase of Fairgame was a two-nation amphibious landing at Santa Matza, Corsica, supported by a fast carrier task force and opposed by French and U.S. submarine, land and air forces.

Incumbent Councilman at Large, William H. Cullen filed petitions on Tuesday for the forthcoming election.
