

Janette Nutley Center Shows New Fashion Floor to 2,000 Guests

JANETTE OPENING — Joseph R. Vicarisi, proprietor of Janette Nutley Center, was host to 2,000 guests at the private premiere showing of the remodeled store which now features a brand new fashion floor. Above, Nicholas Mazzola, store manager, and his wife meet with guests at Thursday evening's reception.

LARGE CROWD — A scene at Janette Nutley Center's private party Thursday when, in addition to remodeled facilities and a new fashion floor these guests were shown a preview of a collection of new spring and Easter fashions for women and children. The evening affair was attended by 2,000 people.

Laterza Feels New Interests Arising In Town

He Will Run As An Independent During Election

Former Mayor Robert Laterza said last night he is seeking election as councilman-at-large because of a renewed and developing interest on the part of Belleville citizens for better and more economical government.

There has been a great change in community interest in Belleville in recent weeks, Laterza said, and agreed to seek public office again as an independent candidate with no alliances with any other candidates or political party and because the people of Belleville are demonstrating they are keenly interested in good government at a lower tax rate.

Laterza said that when he was approached a year ago by voters to run for office, he hesitated because in his opinion there appeared to be a lack of community interest in civic problems. These problems, he said, included Belleville's high tax rate and the reasons for such a high rate.

Belleville's tax rate, increased Federal government taxes, higher social security taxes, and the threat of a new state tax are punching holes in the pockets and bank accounts of homeowners, businessmen and tenants in Belleville Laterza declared.

The continuous fighting and bickering in town hall leaves no time for consideration of the plight of the Belleville taxpayer or tenants, Laterza said. What is needed is a business-like council that will do something before a major crisis develops.

Q. Can a veteran attend any school of his choice?

A. The schools must be approved by the states. But generally they will be the same institutions which qualified under the prior bills. Any doubt can be resolved by contacting the school or the nearest VA office, which would be Newark or Philadelphia in the case of New Jerseyans.

Q. Are the benefits available now?

A. Educational benefits will not be available until June 1. Other benefits provided by the law have been available since it was enacted.

Q. How does a veteran go about obtaining the benefits?

A. There is nothing he can do at this time to obtain educational benefits because the Veterans Administration hasn't prepared the forms yet. They are expected to be available around the end of April. When the forms are ready, they can be obtained and filled out at any qualified institution or at a VA office. A veteran seeking a home loan should take his discharge papers to the nearest VA office, fill out the forms and obtain a certificate of eligibility.

Q. Is the home loan guarantee the same as it was in the earlier bills?

A. Like the earlier bills, the Town Manager Reports Water Break; Six-Months Leave For F. Dalla Riva

By JOHN BURNETT

1. A failure in the water gate, on the westerly side of Washington Avenue, controlling the flow from 4" main running along Belleville Avenue from Washington Street to Washington Avenue disclosed that tuberculation in the pipe had reduced it to less than 1 1/2" of capacity.

It is important that we replace this line to insure proper water distribution in our commercial district and we propose to make the replacement with a 6" main to conform with the connecting lines to the west and along Washington Avenue.

As this is not a major expenditure, I recommend that the Council appropriate the money from the Capital Outlay account of the Water Department instead of bonding it and have placed the proposed Ordinance on this agenda.

2. Our Workmen's Compensation Policy expires as of May 1st and notices are being mailed to all interested brokers to submit bids for Council consideration at the Meeting of April 25th, 1966.

3. All property owners in the areas under Council proposals for increased recreation facilities have been notified but only one has responded expressing a willingness to sell.

I suggest that the Council arrange for discussion period to determine our next moves in these matters.

4. At his request, I have granted a six month leave of absence to Mr. Frank Dalla Riva, Department of Public Works and Affairs, for personal reasons.

During his leave of absence the Town will not pay his hospitalization or Major Medical costs nor will he be credited with sick time or vacation time.

A PRICELESS RECIPE

In a health emergency, the little slip of paper on which your physician writes his prescription is priceless. You wouldn't part with it under any circumstances.

However, once the emergency has passed, human nature being what it is, you are apt to forget how valuable the prescription really was. Maybe you even grumble a little at its out-of-pocket cost, failing to remember the doctor's professional skill, the countless hours of pharmaceutical research and many other factors that made the "recipe" possible in a health crisis.

Permit our prescription department to fill your next "recipe for health."

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF BELLEVILLE, NEW JERSEY:

Section 1. The sanitary sewer system of the Town of Belleville maintained and operated by the Town shall be improved as follows:

2. By the reconstruction of the sanitary sewer in Acme Street from the Morris Canal westerly 275' more or less.

3. By the construction of a new sanitary sewer in the Morris Canal from Wallace Street to the southerly terminus of Montgomery Place.

Section 2. The sum of $13,500 is hereby appropriated to the payment of the cost of such sanitary sewer improvement. Such appropriation shall be met from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds authorized by and the down payment provided, by this ordinance. Said improvement shall be undertaken as a general improvement, and no part of the cost thereof shall be assessed against property specially benefited.

Section 3. It is hereby determined and stated that (1) the making of such improvement hereinafter referred to as "purpose"; (2) it is not a current expense of said Town and (3) it is necessary to the maintenance and operation of the Town of Belleville, said purpose by the issuance of obligations of said Town pursuant to the Local Bond Law of New Jersey and (4) the estimated cost of said purpose is $13,500 and (5) $650 of said sum is to be provided by the down payment herein after appropriated to finance said purpose, and (6) the estimated maximum amount of bonds or notes to be issued for said purpose is $12,850, and (7) the cost of such purpose, as hereinafter stated, includes the aggregate amount of $1,000 which is estimated to be necessary to finance the cost of such purpose, including architect's fees, accounting, engineering and inspection costs, legal expenses and other expenses, including interest on such obligations to the extent permitted by Section 40A:22b of the Local Bond Law.

Section 4. It is hereby determined and stated that moneys exceeding $650 appropriated for down payments on capital improvements or for the capital improvement fund in budgets heretofore adopted for said Town are now available to finance said purpose. The sum of $930 is hereby appropriated from such moneys to the payment of the cost of said purpose.

Section 5. To finance said purpose, bonds of said Town of an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $12,850 are hereby authorized to be issued pursuant to said Local Bond Law. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate which shall not exceed six per centum (6%) per annum. All matters with respect to said bonds not determined by the ordinance shall be determined by resolutions to be hereafter adopted.

Section 6. All matters with respect to said notes not determined by this or-

In the event that bonds are issued pursuant to this ordinance, the aggregate amount of notes hereby authorized to be issued shall be reduced by an amount equal to the principal amount of the bonds so issued. If the aggregate amount of outstanding bonds and notes issued pursuant to this ordinance shall at any time exceed the sum first mentioned in this section, the moneys raised by the issuance of said bonds shall, to the extent of the amount of such excess, be applied to the payment of such notes then outstanding.

Section 7. It is hereby determined and declared that the period of "maturity" of said bonds, according to its reasonable meaning, is a period of 40 years computed from the date of said bonds.

Section 8. It is hereby determined and stated that the Supplemental Debt Statement, required by said Local Bond Law, has been duly made and filed in the office of the Town Clerk of said Town, and that such statement so filed above shows that the gross debt of said Town, as defined in Section 40A:24 of said Local Bond Law, is increased by this ordinance by $12,850 and that the issuance of the bonds and notes authorized by this ordinance will be within all debt limitations prescribed by said Local Bond Law.

Regional Plan Survey Indicates Single-Family Homes on Decrease

Home building figures for the New York Metropolitan Region for 1964, compiled by Regional Plan Association, show that suburban counties' home construction changed little compared to 1963 although apartments continued to rise in New York City, home building was down nearly 60 percent.

Preliminary figures for 1965 indicate that Manhattan housing construction has rebounded but construction in the other three boroughs and in many suburban counties has dropped somewhat from 1964.

Figures released by the Regional Plan Association indicate that in Nutley 155 units were built in 1964 as compared to 106 in 1963. Twenty-nine of the buildings in 1964 were single family homes; the comparable figure for 1963 was 50.

Although the trend was down for single-family units here, the Regional Plan says the opposite is true in Nutley when apartments were surveyed. The figures cited are 56 for 1963 and 126 for 1964.

The trend toward apartments is evident not only in Nutley, but throughout the suburbs and outer areas of the region and, adds the report, multi-family building is still on the increase. Even in the still-rural counties of the "outer ring" — Orange, Dutchess and the outer half of Suffolk — built more than a quarter of their 1964 housing units in apartments.

In nearby Belleville, figures for 1963 show 12 single family homes built as compared to 181 multi-family units. For Belleville, 1964 figures are 14 single homes, 278 apartment units.

Bloomfield showed comparable figures, as did Caldwell, Cedar Grove, East Orange, Irvington (where in 1964 there were two homes built to 922 apartments), Montclair and Orange.

The inner-suburbs built nearly two-fifths of their 196 units in apartments.

The main wave of home construction has now passed through the suburban counties closest to New York City and Newark Jersey City to counties farther out. More housing units were built in Suffolk County, Long Island, for example, than in any other county in the region.

Nearly half of the units built in the region were in what the Association calls the "intermediate ring," just beyond the first ring of suburban counties.

Regional Plan has gathered building permit figures for the New York Metropolitan Region's 22 counties and 5540 municipalities annually since 1957. The Association is a 37-year-old citizen group working for the efficient, attractive and varied development of the tri-state area surrounding the Port of New York.

Slow, Down Thieves
Can you make your car theft-proof? No — but there are devices which may be purchased which will give you more assurance that your car will be there when you return. The amateur or professional thief is slowed down by a locked car and he may think twice before risking getting caught in the act.

Fairleigh Gets Grant To Study Dust in Air
Fairleigh Dickinson University's Health Research Institute has been awarded a grant of $148,000 by the U. S. Public Health Service to investigate the effects of dusts on human lungs. Studies will be designed to seek information for improvement of safety conditions in industries. Objectives of the program are to identify specific substances that may cause chest diseases, and thus to learn what materials to guard against.

It's Batter Up! For Nick Petti's Nine Tomorrow Against Big Central

BHS Takes On Columbia High Saturday In Big Ten Stakes

By STEVE CHAREN

Defending their state sectional and Big Ten Conference crowns, Nick Petti's Bellboys will open the 1966 season tomorrow by taking on Central at home. The campaign will get into full swing Saturday when the Blue and Gold journey to Columbia for a key clash that highlights the opening of the 18 game Big Ten schedule.

After weeks of practice and experimenting, Petti has come up with a more or less pat line up that will vary only slightly in the outfield to suit the playing field. As Petti put it, "From my experience, there are some fields where you must go with a defensive outfield, just speed alone, while at others, you can make changes and put in hitters. This presents a problem since the majority of the fields are open terrain, where if a ball gets by an outfielder it's a homerun."

The infield is set with the returning quartet of Frank Mineo, George DeBrowski, Rich San Filippo, and Art Sheridan. Leaving the only real search in the utility department.

As defending titlists the Bellboys will have to be able to fight off the efforts of all comers. As it stands now, they'll do it with this line up.

BHS Line Up

In the tentative line up, Dave Rothwell will be leading off playing center field. Rothwell was an infielder last year as a sophomore and because the center field is a trouble spot at Municipal Stadium with its track obstacle, "Most balls are hit to center in high school ball," explained Petti, "so before you can start successfully, you need strength up the middle."

"So far Dave is coming along like an ideal lead off man. He likes to look at a strike and has good speed on the bases, we will be relying on him for many stolen bases this year. He should be our big determining factor."

Against right-handed pitching, southpaw junior Sam Calabria will be batting from the second spot and patrolling right field. Chunky Sam held down that spot last year for the JV's and has shown flashes of superior hitting. According to his fourth year mentor, "Sam seems to be coming along," said Petti. "The thing I like most about him is his good eye and the fact that he seldom strikes out. He should be a good hit and run man and strong bunter."

A third junior, in the form of

RICHIE PUCCIARELLO

HE'S READY: Richard Pucciarello, a 17-year-old pitcher and tentative starting left fielder for the new baseball season, limbered up last week for the BHS Nine. Last year he had a 5-1 record that made him the second best team member.

veteran Richie San Filippo will be batting third and returning to short stop. Last season as a sophomore, Flip united Belleville with his defensive heroics. "The reason for the third spot despite not being an established average hitter," explained Petti, "is that Rich seldom strikes out and always gets a piece of the ball. If you can hit the ball on the ground in high school, you have a good chance of getting on base."

Frank Mineo, a durable senior veteran, will be returning to the clean up spot and first base post he held last year. An outstanding defensive player, Miner also looks like the Bellboys' most outstanding hitter.

As Petti put it, "If you are looking for someone who can hit good pitching, Frank's your man. Statistics prove that last year, he was our best hitter against the top flight pitching. Mineo is also our one long ball hitter."

DeBrowski, Sheridan

All county second basemen George DeBrowski will be back to the position he only committed two errors in 27 games. Batting fifth DeBrowski carries these recommendations.

"George is a real streak hitter, reported Petti, "but you always count on him to get that fat part of the bat on the ball. His only weakness as a hitter is a tendency to swing up and consequently he flies out to the outfield many times."

Starting in left field and batting sixth is a boy who has already established himself as one of Belleville's top hurlers (and the highest scorer in BHS's baseball history) Rich Pucciarello will provide the Bellboys with the needed defensive strength in that sector with his speed and agility. Besides that, Puch "has come a long way as a hitter. He has a lot of experience and is a good bunter. You can rely on him to consistently get a piece of the ball."

Art Sheridan another established top flight hurler will be opening the year at third base. Probably the best defensive man in the state at the hot corner, Sheridan's only problem comes at bat. "Artie should come around," expounded Petti, "but he has a tendency to drop his right shoulder and upper cut the ball. If he can overcome this habit, Art can be a good hitter."

The boy who will have to fill the all-state shoes left by Len Luongo will be batting next in the form of junior Charley Cuomo. Off his JV record, Cuomo seems up to the task with steady back stopping, a strong arm, and average hitting. Petti predicts that "Hard swinging Charley will hit an occasional long ball. His main weakness is that he over-swings; we're working on cutting that swing down."

The pitching situation, however, still remains one big question mark. With the whole season in view Petti answered thusly, "I really don't know who is going to pitch. I can't make a decision as yet, since it all revolves around how the new pitchers come along. Kids like Sal Taibi, Bruce Sincox, Mike Welsh, and Joel Pisono."

"I would love to keep the infield intact, but you must remember that two infielders, Sheridan and DeBrowski, won 14 games and lost 3 as hurlers last year.

I would like to get by Central in the opener with one of our inexperienced pitchers, Sincox, Welsh or Pisono. Then with the Columbia game early in the year, you can look for three pitchers to throw. I would like to finish up most of our games with Sheridan as a reliever."

"At Columbia we need all the speed we can get in the outfield, so Pucciarello, wouldn't pitch our Big Ten game. Taibi will probably start."

As it stands now the Bellboys only really need area utility infielder and reserve outfielder to caddy for the two top hurlers, Sheridan and Pucciarello. A lot depends on Jim Caralano, who could be the one to keep the Bellboys strong with Sheridan pitching.

In the outfield, Mike Mateyka, who has a tendency to over swing along with the best arm on the team ("A natural major league throw from the outfield to the bases," said Petti), could be the answer. All in all it should be a problem that works itself out through competition.

That's how it stands a day before the opener. Tomorrow and Saturday many of the questions posed today will have been answered.

New G.I. Bill Designed To Benefit Millions Of Vets Serving In Viet Nam War

The new G.I. Bill of Rights got the push it needed for enactment from the war in Viet Nam. It will benefit millions of persons; many of them long after the end of the conflict. I was happy to support it," said Sen. Clifford P. Case today.

The new law is modeled after the G.I. bills of the World War II and Korea but, unlike those bills, it has no expiration date.

A number of questions have been raised about the bill and I thought I would use this letter to answer them.

Q. Who is eligible for benefits under the bill?

A. Any veteran who was separated from service under anything but dishonorable circumstances is eligible if he has served on active duty for more than 180 days at any time after January 31, 1955. Any active duty for training, by National Guardsman or Reservists, for example, is excluded in compiling a veteran's eligibility.

Q. What benefits are offered under the new law?

A. The bill provides educational, home loan, medical, war orphan, job placement and hospitalization benefits.

Q. What are the educational benefits?

A. One month of aid is provided for each month of active duty, up to a maximum of 36 months, while pursuing an educational program. A veteran without dependents is eligible for $100 a month and $25 is added for each dependent up to a maximum of $150. These are not as great as

Korean G.I. Bill, I regret to say.

Q. Is the educational aid limited to full time college students?

A. No. Benefits also are available for part-time training and for training in trade, vocational and technical schools below the college level.

Q. How long does a veteran have to take advantage of the educational benefits?

A. Education must be completed within 8 years from the date of discharge or from the effective date of the law, whichever is later.

Over 600 Guests Attend Gala Pico Buffet At The Fountain Friday Evening

Mayor Pico Outlines His Future Planning For Town

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico's campaign for re-election as councilman-at-large May 10 was beginning to hit full stride earlier this week with the appointment of Norman D. Lauterette as campaign manager. Mayor Pico made the announcement of Lauterette's appointment at a campaign kick-off buffet supper at The Fountain, which was attended by some 640 of his friends and supporters.

The candidate told the record crowd that "the function of good government is to do for the people what they cannot do for and by themselves." He added, however, that "the cost of government has to be limited by the ability of the people to pay."

If re-elected, Pico said, he would press for the implementation of a six-year capital improvement program evolved by Town Manager John R. Burnett in accordance with state law and regulations promulgated by the Division of Local Government of the N.J. Department of the Treasury.

Our Potential
Pico explained that "though we may have even now the financial potential for the creation of a better Belleville, we shall carry the program through without any frills and adopt from year to year only such projects as are necessary for the betterment of our town."

"We shall regulate our expenses strictly with a view to maintaining a desirable and steady tax rate."

Lauterette, accepting the appointment as Mayor Pico's campaign manager "with great pride in our town and faith into the future of Belleville." He also discussed the financial situation of the municipality.

Financially Sound
"Under Mayor Pico's administration," he told his audience, "our town is in the best financial condition in its entire history. It is economically sound, and has the largest working surplus ever. True, the tax rate has increased, but an unprejudiced examination of the Town budget will reveal that of an over-all increase of 24 points in the tax rate, the cost of operating all municipal services has increased only 2.2 points."

"The balance of more than nine-tenths of the total rate increase—or 21.8 points—is entirely due to the Essex County and local Board of Education budgets, over which neither the Town Council nor the Town Manager have any control."

Lauterette pledged Mayor Pico and himself to "conduct an entirely independent and dignified campaign, devoid of any personalities, innuendoes, hysterics and malice."

"We intend to bring to the fore the problems confronting our town and to discuss with our citizens, through various media, every item in Mayor Pico's platform, all of them based on 'Progress with Economy and Dignity,'" he said.

Guests
Among the guests at the kick-off party was Councilman Ralph Casale, who announced his "unqualified endorsement" of Pico's candidacy and promised that "if he is re-elected, I for one shall be proud to vote for him again as Mayor of this Town."

Arrangements for the campaign kick-off party were made under the general chairmanship of Daniel Del Tufo by a committee, including:

Thomas R. Colatrella, Joseph R. Liloia, Angelo M. Liloia, Anthony D. Geranimo and Dan Armante.

Arthur ("Rose") Rosanna and his "Sounds" provided the dinner and dance music.

Lauterette is chairman of the Board of Adjustment here for the past two years, and is general manager of the National Yeast Corp. He has been a Belleville resident for over 30 years and has long been active in many civic capacities.

members of the unit have produced more than 50,000 dressings.

Other volunteers of the unit similarly honored Monday for various lengths of service were Mrs. David J. Hallihan, Mrs. Maurice McEligot, Mrs. Richard Breckenridge, Miss Frances Evans, Mrs. William Rame, and Mrs. M. Nixon Diehl.

Silver Service Gift
The Evening Membership Department honored the parent Club with the gift of a splendid silver service and tray set, which was presented by Mrs. Salvatore J. Oliver, Evening Membership Department chairman.

Mrs. Richard A. Shafter, first vice president of the Club, presented three new members to the gathering: Mrs. Phillip Cierce, Mrs. Milton Charen, and Mrs. Michael Licameli.

Guest of honor at the anniversary celebration was Mrs. Georgiana Miller, a charter member of the Club and one of its founders fifty years ago, but more recently a resident of Hanover, Mrs. Miller cut the three-tier birthday cake, which was baked and decorated and donated by Mrs. Floyd M. Haring, art chairman of the Club.

Music and Dramatic Art
Appropriate entertainment provided the framework for the more serious parts of the program. The choral ensemble of the Club took the center under the direction of Mrs. Arthur L. Tirico. A former member of the Metropolitan Opera and now the music department chairman for the seventh and eighth Districts of the State Federation, Mrs. Tirico also offered a number of solo renditions to the accompaniment of Mrs. Catherine Carter Burton. Mrs. Richard Drake, Mrs. George Gebrian, president Mrs. Kropp and Mrs. Edward A. Rochau are members of the choral group.

A dramatic skit in two acts, appropriately called "A Golden Opportunity," written by Mrs. David Parry, was presented under the direction of Mrs. Douglas Clark by Mrs. Gerald Patterson and Miss Ruth J. Hogan, both of the Evening Membership Department, and Mrs. William C. Brownlie, public affairs chairman of the club.

General chairman of arrangements for the anniversary celebration was Mrs. Parry, a past president of the club, who was assisted by an advisory committee of other past presidents, including: Mrs. John E. DeVike, Mrs. Harvey B. Thompson, Mrs. Haring, Mrs. Dwight N. Streeter, Miss Adams and Mrs. Rochau. Mrs. William Baker and Mrs. Clark were in charge of decorations. Mrs. Arthur Mooney was chairman of the Hospitality committee.

SURROUNDED: Mayor Nuncio R. Pico drew one of the largest turn-outs of prospective voters so far last Friday night when a buffet was held for him at The Fountain. Over 640 persons attended the gala event. From left above are Fred Burlazzi, Planning Board; Councilman Ralph A. Casale, Mrs. Pico and His Honor The Mayor; Norman D. Lauterette, chairman of the Board of Adjustment and campaign manager for Pico; Daniel Del Tufo, general chairman of the affair; Rev. Benedetto Pascale, Silver Lake Baptist Church; and Father R.M. Healey, St. Peter's Church who delivered the convocation. (All photos by MOHAN)

KINDERGARTEN: Mrs. Estelle Kugle, a teacher at School One kindergarten, leads her students through the intricacies of classroom studies while preparing them for future assignments. It is the first step they will take for an estimated 12—and hopefully 16—years of classroom attendance in the years ahead. Somewhere among her students may be a president, or a military leader. Or perhaps even a teacher. (Photo by ADAMS)

From left are Norman Lauterette, campaign manager; Biancardi; Mayor Pico; and former Town Commissioner George F. Kiernan. The Mayor became one of six seeking election, or re-election, to the Town Council. "The function of good government," said Pico, "is to do for the people what they cannot do for themselves. Guidance Notes

HERMAN KNUPEL

On Friday, April 29, the students and faculty of the College of Agriculture and Environmental Science at Rutgers—The State University, will hold their Fifth One-Day Program for high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors. This program is designed to acquaint students with the many research activities and educational opportunities at the College of Agriculture. If interested you can register in BHS Guidance Office.

For students who may be vacationing at the shore: Atlantic City High School announces a summer school in grades 9 through 12, and a summer instrumental music program in grades 5 through 12, Wednesday, June 29 to Friday, Aug. 12.

On Tuesday, April 26 at 2:15 p.m. Eberl E. Hollobaugh, Associate Director of Admissions of Keuka College, Keuka Park, N.Y. will be visiting Belleville High School to speak to interested students.

Hofstra University of Hempstead, N.Y. will hold a "College for a Day" program on April 23, starting at 9 a.m. and ending at 1:15 p.m. in the afternoon. This program is designed to give the college-bound high school student a brief exposure to the academic side of campus life. Each student participating will be able to attend three academic classes. All classes will be presented by regular members of the Hofstra faculty. Application blanks are available in BHS Guidance Office.

This week a Summer Institute Bulletin will be available for the Belleville High School students which was prepared by the Guidance Department to give all the necessary information about summer schools, costs, location, dates, and subjects covered by the school. Any parents or students interested can receive one in the guidance office.

Belleville High School has received a letter from Robert McCaffery, personnel manager, Schering Corp., Bloomfield, N.J., and representative of the Cornell University Alumni Association in this area who mentions in the letter that Joseph Cervasio, graduate of 1965, is doing quite well, both scholastically and at football.

Letter from Vincent F. Lindsay, Director of Admissions, Pennsylvania Military College, Chester, Pa. in which he reports they are seeking students because they do not have enough applicants for both Pennsylvania Military College and Penn Morton College (civilian college). He says they will offer admission to genuine late bloomers whose test scores are good, and who are recommended by guidance counselors if the record clearly shows they have gotten down to work in the final three terms of high school and did a good academic job in college-preparatory subjects.

Reminder to parents and students that the UNICO scholarship deadline for applications is March 31, 1966. Mario Di Maggio, chairman of the scholarship committee reminds interested persons that this is a $250 renewable scholarship, and that it is not necessary to prove financial need in order to win the award. Applications available in the BHS Guidance Office.

Parents and students who are seeking financial aid are again reminded of the Belleville Foundation Outright Grant of $500, which is given to an outstanding senior in the graduating class who applies for the award and has been accepted by a college. The Belleville Foundation Loan Fund will also lend up to $600 to a senior who has been accepted by a college, for each year that the student is in college, and there are no interest charges at any time.

The Guidance Director returns

ed on March 19 from a seven day visitation to four industries and 18 colleges which covered over 1,500 miles.

The purpose of these visits is to establish rapport with industries and colleges for student placement, and to accumulate vital information to be distributed to the students of the high school.

Within the next two weeks the formal report on the visitation will be available for distribution to interested parents and students, in the Belleville High School Guidance Office.

Belleville Woman's Club Commemorates Fifty Years Of Service

Shower of Proclamations and Awards Add to Local Club's Golden Anniversary

STATE OFFICERS of the New Jersey Federation of Woman's Clubs were on hand to extend congratulations to the Belleville Woman's Club on its 50 years of service in the town and to take part in the day's festivities to commemorate the event. In the usual order are Mrs. William F. Pratt, state art chairman; Mrs. John W. Castles, youth conservation chairman; Mrs. S. Herbert Taylor, president; Mrs. Robert W. Matthies, member, state board of directors; Mrs. Winfield Bonyngé Jr., public welfare chairman, and Miss Reba Eaton, education chairman.

Members and friends of the Woman's Club of Belleville reviewed half a century of service to the community Monday, March 28, when the club celebrated the 50th anniversary of its founding in the presence of state and national officers at the clubhouse, 51 Rossmore Place.

Mrs. Dwight N. Streeter, a past president of the Club and currently serving as its historian, emphasized that "the Woman's Club is, in fact, the oldest service organization in Belleville."

Formed in 1916

It was originally founded as the Belleville Improvement Association in 1916, with Mrs. Herbert A. Vail at its first president, for the express purpose "to render its members helpful to each other and useful to society."

In pursuit of its programmatic purposes, the association promoted the health, welfare and beauty of the town and took a hand in the improvement of moral conditions. The first Community Christmas Tree was erected by the Association and it was instrumental in establishing the first municipal Recreation Center.

The Association also was the originator of the annual Clean-Up Week, and the wire-basket trash receptacles now standing on every main street corner in Belleville were originally suggested by the women. Its members substantially donated to the Silver Lake Welfare Association for the building of the Silver Lake Community House, and with the outbreak of World War I organized a volunteer Motor Corps, which was later taken over by the local Red Cross chapter, but which to this day is "manned" by some members of the Club.

Joins Federation

In 1922, the Association joined the N. J. State Federation of Women's Clubs and subsequently changed its name to the Woman's Club of Belleville. Mrs. Frederick E. Dodd was the first president of the newly federated Club. Since then the two-year term of presiding officer has been occupied in turn by: Mrs. A. Newton Street, Mrs. William P. Adams, Mrs. R. Clifford Whitfield, Mrs. Charles S. Smith, Mrs. William F. Entekin, Mrs. William M. Englemann, Mrs. Lloyd C. Nunn, Mrs. Elmer S. Hyde, Mrs. John E. DeNike, Mrs. Frank J. Ackerman, Mrs. J. Claude Powers, Mrs. Frederick Idenden, Mrs. William T. Bryan, Mrs. Harvey B. Thompson, Mrs. Arthur E. Mayer, Mrs. Floyd M. Haring, Mrs. Dwight N. Streeter, Miss Esther Adams, Mrs. David Parry, Mrs. Edward A. Rochau, and Mrs. William Kropp the incumbent.

Service Expands

Affiliation with the State Federation added a new dimension to the Club's commitment to civic service by enlisting its membership for the support of national and even international projects sponsored by the State Federation and the General Federation of Women's Clubs. But throughout the years, the Club's main emphasis still remained directed towards service to the community.

Acquire Clubhouse

The year 1928 marked another milestone for the Club with the acquisition of its own Clubhouse at the Rossmore Place address. Other outstanding community services rendered by the Club membership included the establishment of a Cancer Dressing Unit in 1944, which has been headed ever since by Miss Esther Adams; the inauguration of a Library Shut-In service in 1961, and financial support to the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association in the construction of a new boathouse for the joint use of Nutley and Belleville High School crews.

Throughout the years the Club has sponsored essay contests for grade school students on historic and civic subjects, has aided deserving or handicapped scholars in their studies of music and art or in the achievement of their college entrance requirements, and has annually sponsored three-day visits of girl high school seniors to the campus of Douglass College.

Evening Membership Added

In many of these civic endeavors the Club has had the full cooperation of its Evening Membership Department, which saw its inception in 1955. Mrs. Salvatore J. Oliveri is currently serving as chairman.

"Devoted as the Club membership always has been to community service, it was not always hard work alone," Mrs. Streeter recalled. "Some of our members banded together in a 'Fat Ladies' Orchestra' and contributed enormously to the fun at public affairs - not so much perhaps because of their masterful musicianship, since most of them played only toy instruments - but at least by their colorful garb in red blouses of military cut, with big brass buttons and musician's stripes across their chests."

Resolution Presented

The tenor for the golden anniversary eulogies was set by Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, who told the 90 guests at the affair that, "being in political office, I am used to meeting people who want something for themselves. Contrarywise, you ladies of the Woman's Club don't ask - you give! Service is your motto."

The Mayor brought the gathering greetings from other members of the Town Council and presented the Club with a framed resolution, recently adopted by the Council to commemorate the Club's achievements for "the social and civic advancement for the Town of Belleville."

"The Golden Years"

His sentiments were echoed to some extent by Mrs. S. Herbert Taylor, of Cherry Hill, State Federation president, who under the heading of "The Golden Years" also reviewed the accomplishments of the local club. She stressed that the N.J. Federation would not have been able to carry through many of its statewide improvements, except for the unstinting aid and support of local Clubs like that of Belleville.

Mrs. Taylor advised her audience that "there is still room for more improvement, as you will find if you do your homework properly. Just take an occasional walk or drive through your town with open eyes, and you are bound to find many things that could be made better than they are today."

GFWC Scroll Awarded

In a similar vein, Mrs. Robert W. Matthies, of Rutherford, eighth District Vice-Chairman, presented a scroll from national headquarters of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, lauding the local Club for "distinguished service throughout the 50 dynamic years of its existence." Mrs. Matthies urged that the Belleville Club "not merely bask in its past achievements, but also look forward to even greater service to community and nation in the future."

Other state Federation officers presented to the audience by club president Mrs. William R. Kropp included: Mrs. William F. Pratt, of Nutley, state art chairman; Miss Reba Eaton, of the Monday Afternoon Club of Passaic, education chairman; Mrs. John W. Castles, of Rutherford, state youth conservation chairman; Mrs. C. Stanton Jones, of Rutherford, eighth District international relations chairman, and Mrs. Winfield Bonyngé Jr., of Whippany, state public welfare chairman.

Cancer Volunteers Honored

Mrs. Bonyngé, who is also assistant secretary of the N.J. State Cancer Society and a past Essex County president of the same group, honored Miss Esther Adams, one of the oldest local Club members, with the award of a framed certificate for 20 years of service as founder and chairman of the Belleville cancer dressing unit. During the two decades of their voluntary work,

Coach Forte: 'A Chance For A Great Season' For The BHS Track Team

Boglione, Greco And Reed Are Set To Repeat Records

By WILLIAM MCCARTHY

The Trackmen are working at full speed as they move into the last two weeks of practice before the first meets.

The spirit of competition is coming to a fever pitch as the long, middle, and short-distance runners find themselves pushing harder to regain the shape they had just ten months ago. It was the best ever recorded by the trackmen.

Last year, more track records were set than ever before, and it looks as if the returning team is going to duplicate that season.

The noticeable difference on the scene is the addition of the two-mile run. This is an imposing endurance test which not all who try will pass. It certainly gives itself an impossible air, too.

It should be the 'backyard' treat for Bob Boglione and Dave Grigonis, who found it no hard task to practice a full 100-miles-per-week schedule through a cold winter.

'Jumpin' Harry

Of course the pole vault will enjoy the high leaps of Harry Baker. The 11 foot mark he set last year may find itself gone by the end of '66. And naturally, with the likes of Lewis, Trowbridge in the field (especially the discus) there should be another record or two there.

For an over-all look, we'll start with the dashes.

Under the strict supervision, Pete Greco and Joe Rodriguez are gradually closing in on the 100-110-yd. dash record set by Pete's brother Tom Greco. They also run the 220-yd. dash, and hope to eclipse that record too.

Three Big Men

Going a little further will be the likes of Charles Reed, Don Johnson, Don Saunders, Al Freda, Gerard Figurelli, and several new sophomores. The first three men are big names at these distances.

With Charles Reed and Don Johnson moving out in first and second places in almost every meet, it was no surprise when Reed broke the quarter-mile record timing last year. He will be starting where he left off last year. Saunders is the number one half-miler this year, with Al Paganelli now at Paterson State trying to break their records.

Endurance

The distances are one and two-miles for the big men in endurance. They will be varying the appearances in these two events, because when the opposition is strong in one, it is almost assured that the other will be a weak team, so the boys will be putting the best men in each race according to the way the team will benefit most.

Running at that time will be Bob Boglione, Dave Grigonis, William McCarthy, Len Izzi, Ron Miliano, and several of the other boys who led Belleville to its Great Cross-Country season, with the same air of determination. Worth note here is the fact that the only loss last C.C. season was to Passaic, and the boys will be out to even the score this time around.

As for the field men, returning men are Harry Baker, Lewis Trowbridge, and a couple others like Baker's brother Bob, and Giordano, and Sofia, a new boy, Bill Geley has also been working, and he may become an im-

DEFENSE: Appropriately the Bellboys defense of their state and Big Ten Conference titles will be based upon their defensive prowess. Not an overpowering squad, the Blue and Gold win their games on bunts, singles, a tight infield, and control pitching.

Last year an route to a 22-5 season, coach Nick Petti proved that this was a successful formula. Now the imitators must be halted to create a repeat. Every opponent's eyes will be focused on Belleville this year, only the ace of the rival mound corps will be good enough.

TIGHT RACE: This presents a formidable task, one the Bellboys seem up to — but not without a battle. In their quest for Big Ten Conference laurels, Nutley and East Orange stand out as two of Belleville's toughest contenders. Montclair and Columbia should also be in the thick of the fight as yearly contenders.

The long and grueling 18-game league schedule — complicated by rain-outs and non-league games — will provide a test of endurance and the depth with the survival of the fittest. At this point the sister town, and rivals of Belleville and Nutley seem to fill that description.

EARLY TEST: The traditionally slow starting Bellboys will be faced with an early test this year when they are forced to battle a rugged Columbia squad on its home grounds Saturday.

Petti summarized the situation thusly:

"If we can come home with a win over Columbia, we will be tough to beat. I have never won an opening Big Ten game as a coach and have never won at Columbia in my three years as coach. We'll go all out to break this jinx."

The traditionally long-ball hitting and fleet footed Cougars are always at their peak at home. Catching them early could be a break since the South Orange-Maplewood squad lacks experience hurling after the graduation of their Cohen twin pitching duo.

INNER STRENGTH: Last season Belleville's experience and hitting power came from behind the plate and the outfield, while the defensive fortifying factor was in the infield. This time around everything is on the experienced shoulders of Frank Mineo, George DeBrowski, Rich San Filippo, and Art Sheridan. This group will have to continue its top flight fielding, provide the spiritual lift, and handle most of the heavy duty hitting if the Bellboys are to succeed.

The Bellboys are going with a starting squad equally composed of juniors and seniors, a patented trade mark of the Petti regime. They are also going with more depth than ever before.

LONG SEASON: A lot can happen between now and June that make predictions flexible. During the course of a long 22-game season schedule, (Vailsburg has been added to the non-league slate that includes Central, Lincoln, and West Side.) Plenty can come up. But, barring injuries, Belleville is more suited to the task than ever before.

If the opening weekend can provide dual success the Bellboys will be rough to stop in what could be a mad rush to new records and honors.

BHS Grads Plan A 40th Reunion

Belleville High School Class of 1926 will hold a 40th anniversary reunion at Thomm's Restaurant, 80 Park Ave., Newark, Saturday, April 23.

Several former faculty members are expected to attend, among them Mrs. Florence Phranner and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steel.

The class has had reunions at five year intervals since 1951 when they celebrated their 25th year. Former Belleville residents from as far as the states of Washington and California have attended.

Interested graduates and their husbands and wives are urged to make reservations with Wilfred Yudin, 131 De Witt Ave., Henry Gettler, 35 Perry St., or Kathryn Conklin, 14 Montgomery Pl., all of Belleville.

OILY SUBJECT

The American Gas Association points out that only one well in nine drilled is previously unexplored areas finds any gas or oil. And only one in 50 is a real winner, producing a large enough quantity to be profitable. Yet drilling a well can cost from $200,000 to $1 million or more.

BOB BOGLIONE

RECORD BREAKER: One of Belleville's speediest tracksters is the smiling youth above, Bob Boglione, who set track records which gave BHS a set of marks that will stand for some time to come — perhaps until Boglione himself breaks them. With "Bog" heading the track team, BHS team mates had one of its most glorious seasons in many years. (Photo by ADAMS)

Sorrentino Letters

Anthony J. Sorrentino, 18, of 100 White Oak Terr. was awarded his letter for participation in Trenton State College's football team last season.

He had been a starter end for the varsity, and had been voted the most valuable player for the Belleville High School team.

OINK! OINK!

According to the Association of American Railroads, railroad piggyback service which for 10 years made a habit of setting annual traffic records — did it again in 1965. In that year, for the first time since such statistics were originated in 1955, rail piggyback went over the million-car mark.

St. Peter's Sets New Schedules In Society Activity

Joseph Harman, of 13 Bridge St., president of the Holy Name Society at St. Peter's Church, announced today two date changes in the schedule of Society Activity.

The next regular meeting of the Society will be held Monday evening, April 4, at 8 p.m., in the school cafeteria, at the conclusion of the Holy Week Mass at 7 p.m. and the regular Novena to Our Lady Of The Miraculous Medal which follows. Members are urged to attend the Mass and Novena prior to this meeting. A short business meeting is programmed with a social period and refreshments at its conclusion.

The St. Patrick's Dance which was postponed due to the death of Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph M. Kelly, will be held Saturday evening, April 23 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. A cordial invitation to attend the dance is being extended by the Society to all adult members of the Parish and their friends.

Tickets are available from Mr. Jarman and the other officers and members of the executive committee of the Society, and can also be obtained at the Rectory from Rev. James F. Heavey, Spiritual Director of the Holy Name Society at St. Peter's.

Sams Break The Rec League Tie Beating Apples

In the final, tie-breaking, game of the Recreation Junior Basketball League the Little Sams overwhelmed the Apples to take the Championship 41-22.

For the winners, the heavy scoring was done by Cosentino 14, Boecker 12, and Fantus 11. This scoring plus some great team play by Berkheimer, Baumgartner and Maffoon kept the Little Sams ahead all through the game.

The Apples, composed of Corino, Challenor, Burks, Drury, Viatiello and Hartunian fought valiantly in their losing cause. Butkus scored eleven points to lead his team in that department.

As the Recreation Mens Basketball League entered its final playoffs, a best two out of three, between the Robsons and the Stash's the Robsons seemed to have things much their own way.

In their 68-59 victory the Robsons had their sharpshooter Dacey on the books with 17 points, Cappetta was in for 13 points in less than a quarter of play, and Davitt also accounted for 13.

In spite of a tremendous 32 points by Klein and 13 by San Filippo, the Stash's just couldn't cope with the height of their opponents and with the depth. Stash played three quarters with only one man on their bench.

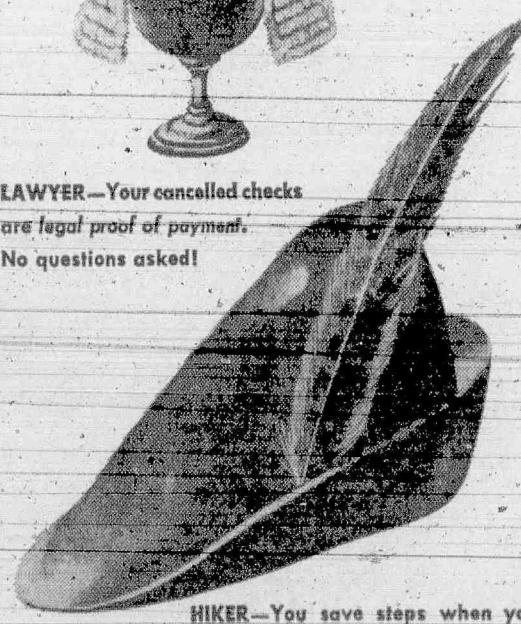

The game was fairly close all the way with the quarter score 16-12, the half 33-30, the three-quarter 59-46 and then the final 68-59.

NINE OUT OF TEN CHILDREN CATCH MEASLES

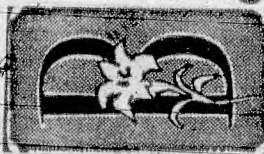

But now they don't have to. Your physician can vaccinate them against measles, just as he does to prevent small pox. Measles is not a simple disease without problems. One out of every six children with measles develop a secondary bacterial infection such as pneumonia or an ear infection. While these infections usually respond to a doctor's care, why allow serious trouble? About one out of every 1,000 cases develop encephalitis — an infection for which there is as yet no specific treatment.

Since the conquest of polio, measles cause more deaths than any other common disease of childhood. If your child has not had measles, and has not yet been vaccinated against it, visit a physician soon.

THERE'S A ROSE FOR EVERY PURPOSE — climbers to beautify a fence; floribundas for rose hedges; hybrid tea roses for quality blooms; tree roses to dignify a garden. Insist on ever-blooming varieties, advises the American Association of Nurserymen.

ANTIQUATED kitchen (left) demanded many wasted steps in meal preparations, offered little storage space. REMODELING (above) arranges work center in compact area behind counter, uses free space for snack area. NEW FLOORING of vinyl asbestos tile covers up defects of the old, badly worn floor, is easy to clean and maintain. Photos from Better Floors Council.

WALLPAPERING? NO, installing a heating system! Electric radiant heating panel, with decorative matte finish, is being applied to ceiling. The system is Sun-Glo, by Goodyear.

A Call For Veterans

Joe Fornoratto is an ex-sailor who probably saw as much of war as any of us; and like all veterans, he will never forget those grim days. Joe is head man with the Belleville Veterans Council, and today he has a request to make of his fellow servicemen.

What with veterans making up a large segment of the nation's population, Joe would like all vets to join one of six servicemen's organizations in town. With the added membership, says Fornoratto, the voice of the vet will be all the louder in the august halls of Congress. It will also provide needed services for vets who might otherwise not have a service officer to help with either personal or military problems.

So if you're a veteran and would like to talk over "the good old days" of any of the past World Wars, join up now. There are many, many benefits other than the happy aspects of comradeship. For instance, on May 2nd the deadline for disabled vets to sign up for that famous "G.I. insurance" if they so desire, says Fornoratto. Service officers here can help you. So join up, OK? G.F.A.

The $25,000 Question

Last week two detectives from the Essex County Prosecutors office stopped in to ask a few questions regarding an anonymous tip which said the editor had accepted a $25,000 bribe under the table for persuading councilmen and Board of Adjustment members to illegally award a mighty expensive variance for a 250-unit garden apartment. Which was baloney, of course, no matter how thin you slice it.

This week the editor of a small political newspaper was being questioned because his columns carry short gossip-type articles which predicted this criminal investigation. Where did he get the advance information? That's what he's worriedly trying to explain to the cops.

Meanwhile the editor is patiently awaiting that $25,000 check. He needs it to buy his new baby son a pair of shoes. G.F.A.

We're In Distinguished Company

Nobody is perfect. And no matter how they try, even newspapers make an occasional blunder. What makes them unique is the fact that they try in the very next edition to correct whatever went wrong.

Last week one of the major magazines published in this country accidentally left out 30 pages. Thirty pages! That's a lot of revenue.

On March 13th the august New York

Times "through an extraordinary Composing Room error" inadvertently printed an editorial page designed for its Far East edition. It resulted in some 400,000 copies being omitted from the final Sunday edition.

So the next time you detect an error in these columns, just remember (chuckle, chuckle) To err is human; to forgive divine. G.F.A.

The Belleville Paradox

Bright on a dearly Monday morning a letter from a soldier arrived at the office thanking us for his free subscription to The Times, plus a few suggestions which we will consider. (See adjoining Column).

Sad to say, it was the first expression of gratitude to be received here. But then our soldiers are too busy fighting to be writing letters and thank-you notes.

As the lieutenant says, the local newspaper is as good as a letter from home — maybe better. It keeps him abreast of the ebb and flow of hometown affairs; it may give him a laugh reading of the antics of our town officials who badger each other over trivial points; and it may also provide him with a basis for casting his vote when that Great Day arrives.

But, in a way, it is sad that town "fathers", and Board of Education members, can disregard public opinion in a town he is now fighting for in far away corners of the world. It is indeed ironic that they tear down what our American soldier is trying to build up. G.F.A.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Ronald Kulik Was A Good Teacher Here

To The Editor:
Ron Kulik whose interest in track is the love of the sport, has even had his family at many of the track meets. This is immaterial though it shows his genuine interest and enthusiasm. He's tried new methods of training and practice which have certainly proved effective.

He has devoted his time and energy unselfishly, even sacrificing his week-ends to make the team and Belleville High School an almost renowned word in the area and ears of the public.

Certainly we are proud of this past year's accomplishments and want the same success in this coming track season. Why then, shouldn't we let the man complete a job well done?

MRS. S. BOGLIONE
Belleville, N.J.

Board Trivialities, Cited In Kulik Case

To The Editor:
On the matter of the ouster of Mr. Ronald Kulik as coach of the 1966 Belleville High School track team, I would like to express my opinion of him as a man and a coach.

Mr. Kulik was close to all of his boys, especially those who expressed a desire to work hard. He kept all political, religious, and social matters off the track because he felt that he was no authority on any of those subjects.

Mr. Kulik was a human being first, and a coach second. But what a coach! His working knowledge of all phases of track was extraordinary, and he juggled last year's team to a record eight wins and four losses. Under Mr. Kulik, school records were broken in the mile relay, two-mile relay, one-and-seven-eighths mile relay, the high jump, pole vault, and quarter-mile. Count them! Six records broken in one year by all underclassmen save one.

Regardless of what triviality the Board of Education found to dismiss Mr. Kulik on, the only fact remaining is that Belleville has again looked the "gift horse in the mouth" and taken another step backward to a stagnant inter-collegiate athletic program. I will always be proud to have been coached by this dedicated man, if only for one year. Someday I hope to be half as good a coach as Mr. Kulik was. Half as good.

Albert G. Paganelli
Co-captain
1965 Track Team

What Does Board Have On Kulik, She Asks?

To The Editor:

When I heard and read about Mr. Kulik not being reappointed as head coach for the track team, I was shocked. I also heard he will not be rehired as a teacher next year, either. To a mother who reads about him and his success with the team and also one who hears a great deal about him from her children, one of whom is in her enriched U. S. History class, you can understand why.

I cannot understand why a teacher, who is respected, admired and well-liked by teenagers, and gives of himself, should not be reappointed as teacher and coach of the track team. From my knowledge of him he is a good teacher. I have been enlightened on many subjects of his teaching through my child.

With all the controversy over the school budget, you would think the Board would be proud to have someone of his caliber teach, to say nothing of his coaching without pay.

I don't know what the Board has in mind on the subject, but I certainly would like to know.

Why, even if Mr. Kulik is not rehired next year, should he be denied the position of track coach for this 1965-66 contract year? I do not understand why our children should have to suffer through the loss of such a highly talented and well qualified teacher and coach.

With all of the antics pulled by the Board of Education and the Town Council, it is getting so that I am ashamed to admit I am a Bellevillite.

Mrs. Wm. Jinks
Belleville

(What with the budget cut, sports is bound to be curtailed. Track — with Kulik in charge — would give BHS a top position in this field, and at no cost to the school.—Editor)

Question Box

Q. I am a salesman and do quite a bit of traveling. A problem I come across frequently is motorists who drive too slow for conditions. This is not only annoying but also very dangerous. Is there a law prohibiting this practice?

A. The law states: "No person shall drive a motor vehicle at such a slow speed as to impede or block the normal and reasonable movement of traffic except when reduced speed is necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law." (Official reply from New Jersey Division of Motor Vehicles.)

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Each week in the year seems to be dedicated to one cause or the other. This, then, is "National Servicemen's Week." Accordingly, we devote one of our display windows to the cause.

The function of the repairman in our economy becomes more and more important with the use of the many machines, apparatus and gadgets, not to speak of the millions and millions of automobiles. Everything is fine, as long as it works. Just let one of these machines go out of order and sometimes, as in the case of an automobile for instance, it is a minor catastrophe in one's daily life. As far as home life is concerned, a TV set supplies, in many households, by far the major portion of entertainment and amusement. If a set is out of order, the whole household routine is disturbed. If our customers call us before 1 p.m., for a repair, we will make the call the same day.

The whole industry is very much concerned about the service situation. There simply are not enough mechanics. It takes years before a man becomes efficient, at least in the TV line. The exploding demand for color sets aggravated the situation greatly. There are very few experienced color TV technicians around. This is one reason why one finds most color sets so poorly adjusted in most stores.

The writer has been in dozens of stores and has yet to see a perfectly performing color set. You hear all kinds of excuses, but rarely the real reason for this malfunction, which is the dearth of experienced mechanics to set up the sets correctly.

Our technicians have 12 years of color TV service experience and they are real experts.

We service what we sell.

Our First Card Of Thanks From Overseas

To The Editor:

I would like to thank you for the consideration that you and the Belleville Times have shown for the men and women of Belleville who are serving in the armed forces. Many times in the past I've disagreed with your editorial policies, but I can not agree or support enough your policy of sending copies of your newspaper to personnel serving their country.

I'm sure I speak for all the Belleville men here in Viet-Nam when I assure you that news from home will provide an enjoyable diversion from the heat, insects and dirt of this country. Even stories if the petty political problems of Belleville are a refreshing change from constant cognizance of the surrounding danger, and the reports we receive of the demonstrations and debates at home. It's manifest that the importance of news from home is a reflection of your own experience while with the 82nd Airborne Division.

More than for anything else, you should be lauded for reminding our neighbors of the harsh realities of war and the loneliness and danger the men face here in this very strange conflict.

You will note that I use the word men because there are no boys in Viet-Nam.

I would like to offer one suggestion for your subscription gift if I may. Newspapers coming as second class mail often are delayed quite a long time. I received the December eighteenth issue of the Times on the fourth of March. It was quite amusing reading the headline urging me to do my Christmas shopping in Belleville. However since my wife has been sending the paper to me by air mail I have been receiving it during the week following publication. Perhaps you might consider airmailing the issues going to Viet-Nam.

This letter was not sent to you for the purposes of publication, but should you desire, to print it please consider my name, unit and return address as privileged and do not publish it. My return address should apprise you of the reason for my reluctance to seek any undue publicity.

If I can ever be of any assistance to you during my tour over here please don't hesitate to ask.

U.S. Army

(You're more than welcome, Hugh! You and the rest of Belleville's fighting servicemen are doing a fine job of protecting America we all love, no matter what its faults may be. Don't thank the old editor; he thanks YOU.—Editor)

Belleville Bingo Winners Are Raking In The Cash For The Second Week

Times Readers Are Getting In The Bingo Spirit

Four more town residents entered the winners circle this week when they walked into the Time office holding a full News-paper Bingo card which entitled them to a cash prize awarded by this newspaper each week.

They had collected their cards from town merchants who participated as sponsors in the weekly games. They're open to everyone (except employees of this newspaper) at no cost.

All you do is pick up a card from a merchant advertising in 'The Times', and match up the numbers with the card, which must be FULL.

Among this week's list of careful checkers were Lewis J. Biondi, 14 Agnes St., who got his card at Lord's; Mrs. Victor Kuprat, 173 Holmes St., a regular shopper at Royal Shop Rite where she picked up her card; Victor Iannelli, 59 New St., went to Jolly Cleaners on business, picked up a card, and later collected from The Times; and Mrs. Michael Swinarske, 86 Tappan Ave., who made her fortune with a Bingo card from De Wit Savings and Loan.

Kulik

but no one would say that was the case. "I'm willing to be crucified if what I'm trying to do is right," he said.

Assistant Superintendent of Schools Michael Rosamilia explained that the board had not been aware of the increase in pay given Kulik. "We have a right to assume that a resume is correct," he said, when considering the employment of a teacher, even though they did not actually have all the details. It was, he said, the responsibility of the superintendent to make sure they are correct.

Action Pending

Board President Arvidson reminded the audience that no action had been taken to re-appoint teachers for next year. It was an extremely biased discussion, the observed.

Board Vice President Rocco Saletta declared that "signing in" had nothing whatsoever to do with it. Conditions chaotic? No, not really, he said. He suggested it was more of a spiteful measure against Coach Forte than anything else. He said he thought team members had more character than that.

He declared that reports of Kulik's not being paid was a "falsehood" and that he had been paid some $900 over two years. He added that students were poor judges of character and in no position to evaluate anyone, least of all Kulik.

"The over-payment," said Board member Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, was discovered two years later "by accident." He acknowledged that not all teachers were on the salary guide, but that it was with board knowledge. "There are exceptions," he agreed.

Board member Richard Drake said he still wasn't sure why Kulik had not been re-appointed. After the meeting the audience gathered in the hallway. Why was Kulik fired?

"They didn't say anything," said one spectator.

"Don't ask me," said another.

"They didn't say."

"I'm quitting," said a track team member.

"I still don't know!" said Ronald Kulik.

Multiple Sclerosis Drive Set For Town

The Multiple Sclerosis Service Organization of New Jersey, Inc., will conduct its yearly fund raising drive in Belleville from March 15 to April 15, said Mrs. Gloria Lavee, local chairman, of 43 Grace Street, Irvington.

Critically Injured

Three-year-old Dante Deronatis, 68 Eugene Pl., was struck by a car in front of his home Friday and critically injured.

Retired Persons Show Due At The Bloomfield Show

"Barriers of Communications," a film by American Telegraph & Telephone Co., will be shown April 13 during the monthly meeting of the American Association of Retired Persons, at the Bloomfield Civic Center. Mrs. William Kirk will be in charge of the program.

Member interested in exhibiting at the Newark Hobby Show should notify Mr. Grabau at P.O. Box 664 or phone 759-2988.

The show will be held in the Public Service Auditorium, Park Place, Newark, March 28 to April 2. Some of the entries are on view at Chase Dept. Store, Broad St., Newark.

Due to the increase in membership it was necessary to look for a larger meeting place and the committee in charge of this will report at the April meeting.

Ralph Elia would like to have more returns of the questionnaire on proposed trips this season. Please notify him so that proper arrangements can be made.

Easter Seal Parade Off To A Slow Start, Says County Chairman Ruddy

Not all Belleville Easter Seal Paraders have completed their neighborhood assignments to deliver Easter Seals and collect Easter Seal contributions, Jeffrey P. Ruddy, Essex County Easter Seal chairman, reported today.

He urged prompt completion of the collection "because everyone should have an opportunity to help handicapped people through Easter Seals."

The home-to-home Easter Seal Parade was scheduled for completion last Monday, but Ruddy said a disappointingly small number of completed Parade kits had been turned in then to Fidelity Union Trust, 144 Washington Ave., the local collection point. That means, he said, that a great many local people have not yet received Easter Seals and have not had a chance to make an Easter Seal contribution.

"The help of everyone interested in helping handicapped people is important," Ruddy emphasized. "Need for Easter Seal services is growing and can only be met if Easter Seal funds grow too. Failure to complete an Easter Seal Parade assignment deprives interested people of their chance to help — and deprives handicapped people of help they need."

Ruddy urged any Easter Seal Parade volunteer who is unable to collect in his neighborhood, or who has any question about his assignment, to contact headquarters of the Essex County Easter Seal Committee for Crippled-Children and Adults, 62 Lincoln Street, East Orange. The phone number is 676-6793.

New Jersey Senators Aid Religious Appeals

U.S. Senators Clifford P. Case and Harrison A. Williams of New Jersey have warmly endorsed the Spring appeals of America's great religious faiths for support of their overseas relief program.

The current appeals are the Protestant "One Great Hour of Sharing" and the Catholic "The Bishops' Relief Fund Appeal," both of which were observed in churches in New Jersey and elsewhere on Sunday March 20, and the "United Jewish Appeal," a continuing effort with special emphasis at this period of the year.

Over 60 Kids Have Entered Chamber's 'Little Miss Belleville' Contest

Town Merchants Sponsor Year's Biggest Event

The Chamber of Commerce is beaming with pride today after some 39 Belleville youngsters had entered the Little Miss Belleville contest, had their photographs taken by Kondreck Studios, and were all a twitter over that great day when the lucky girl is chosen.

Photographs of all contestants will appear in the Times next month in a full-page layout, which will allow voters to select their choice for Little Miss Belleville.

Polling places are distributed throughout the town. Starting from the south end of Belleville there is Pariso Bros. Furniture Co., at 16 Washington Ave.; Tannen's Shoe Shop, 141 Washington Ave.; Mary Dell Fashions, 155 Washington Ave.; Royal Shop Rite, 169 Washington Ave.; Jolly Cleaners, at 300 Washington Avenue; Muscara Music, 314 Washington Ave.; De Witt Savings and Loan Association, 463 Washington Ave.; Abbotts Drug Store, 531 Washington Ave.; Kondreck Studios, 577 Washington Ave.; and The Glass Co., at 585 Washington Ave.

never offered to speak again for the rest of the meeting.

Kulik was responsible for a cross-country team, which set a 12-1 record and the Big Ten Conference championship last year. The track team set a 8-4 record, the best in Belleville High School's history.

Over-payment Cited

Of the Board members, only Frank Di Rienzo gave clear reasons for his opposition to Kulik's re-appointment, saying he felt he had been deceived, but was uncertain who, exactly, had done so.

"All I have heard is that Kulik is a good coach," he said. "But people forget that he was hired to teach and should have been paid $6,200 a year instead of the $6,600 he received." He had been led to believe, he continued, that Kulik was coaching for no salary, but that he actually was being paid.

"I consider this an injustice," he said, "to the Board and to the people who elected me."

Harold Baker, a high school senior and captain of the track team said morale was low, the track in sad condition, and that no schedule had been set up, although the season was but a week away.

Bob Boglione, who set most of the records for the track team last season, reported "everything is in chaos."

Students Questioned

Lawrence E. Silver, 175 Branch Brook Dr., disputed a statement by Arvidson that Kulik had instigated a letter writing campaign on his behalf. The Board had in its possession a letter from a student admitting this, said Arvidson.

But one of the student letter writers who was questioned by Belleville High School Principal Raymond O. Smith, said that an irate parent had ordered a correct statement made in a letter to this newspaper declaring that another coach "who isn't half as capable" had replaced Kulik.

Once in Smith's office, the student said, she had been questioned more about Kulik than about the statement she had come to clarify.

"He tried to put words in my mouth," she said. "I didn't say those things. He would ask questions," she reported, "and then say to the secretary 'put that down.' I didn't even know what he put down there." She had signed nothing, she said, before being excused. He was very angry, she said.

Legal Action Threatened

Earlier Coach Pat Forte had called the student, who is a minor, threatening a lawsuit unless the remark about the unnamed coach was retracted.

Mrs. Pat Forte called a second student also demanding a retraction and threatening law suit. But the student said there was nothing to retract and had not considered the matter further. "This is a free country," the student said. "I have a right to my opinion just as they have."

Another student observed that a child faced with parental orders and closeted with a school principal would probably make any statement under pressure.

Petition Presented

"We have 341 signatures on a petition," said Mrs. Dorothy Boglione, whose son is a track star, "and if they don't mean anything you're saying, the public be damned!" — and they are the ones who put you in office. Sports-minded residents and their friends will remember this disregard of public opinion in future years," she warned "if they continue with Kulik's ouster."

Thomas Balsamo, 175 Floyd St., said the Board "seemed to want reasons drawn up to get rid of Kulik." The reasons presented by the board aren't justified, he said.

Robert Boglione told the Board that "signing in" for other teachers was widespread in Belleville schools and that to single out Kulik indicated a Board searching for reasons to fire Kulik. "They're signing in now," said a board member, "We making darned sure of that!"

Warning Justified

Such a minor infraction of school rules," said Mrs. Jane Baker, doesn't call for immediate dismissal, but an employer should warn the teacher first. "It's grounds for a reprimand,"

George Bollotta Returns After A Tour In Vietnam

SP/4 George Bollotta Jr. was released from active duty with the U.S. Army on March 12. George Bollotta Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bollotta Sr., 97 Magnolia St., entered service on March 13, 1964. He took basic in Fort Dix and has just returned from duty in Viet Nam. He was stationed at Cam Rahn Bay with the 317th Transportation Co. (Light Amphibious) after being in Viet Nam for nine months. "I am very glad to be home and I thank God for my safe return," he said today.

Cullen: Save Town From Ridicule

At a meeting with his supporters last Monday evening, Councilman William H. Cullen, a candidate for re-election reiterated his stand on bringing Belleville's name up from the depths of ridicule.

"I am much concerned with the actions of the Council on several occasions recently," he said, "when the voiced objections of neighborhood people were ignored in the matter of zoning variances."

"When the matter of the variances for the garden apartment at the northeast corner of Mt. Prospect and Belleville Avenue was brought before the Council I visited the site on two different occasions."

No Parking

"I could not see — and still cannot see, — how proper parking could be provided on account of the grade of both Belleville Avenue and Mt. Prospect Avenue. Although we have been plagued with complaints regarding parking in this neighborhood the council majority saw fit to grant this variance."

"Only this morning while driving west on Joralemon Street on my way to the Garden State Parkway I stopped in at Third River Bridge and took a good look at the houses being constructed on the north side of Joralemon Street. I know now that the objections at the time of the approval of the map for this development were well taken."

"There is no rear yard to the lots and the river channel is again being filled by the eroding bank."

Recreation Needed

"Looking to the south of Joralemon Street where an approval has just been given to a variance for a 250 unit apartment I still feel that this property should be condemned for park and recreational purposes."

"We have reached the saturation point with apartments. Every lot more than 40 x 100 feet seems to be the site a five or six unit apartment."

"I ask that you, my friends,

Kevin Roberts Fund Gains More Of Public's Support

A warm-hearted public responded early with funds for a Belleville boy crippled by a tragic automobile accident recently as cash donations began arriving at DeWitt Savings and Loan Association.

Animal Shelter Contract Goes To Lodi Firm

Belleville animal lovers were out en masse Monday night to protest the awarding of a $2,599 contract to the Humane Animal Shelter of New Jersey in Lodi — but since the shelter was the lowest of two bidders it was OK'd by the Council.

The contract calls for the shelter to take into custody all stray dogs and other animals. The management has been the center of bitter controversy by Belleville residents, who claim the shelter was in violation of many state law requirements, including one that animals be held for seven days before being sold.

Mrs. Sally Hood, a spokesman for the animal shelter inspection committee said reports are incomplete and often not made at all, but Town Attorney Jack Soriano said no evidence had been offered to substantiate this charge.

Cops Bag A Con A.W.O.L. From A Nice, Warm, Cell

It just isn't safe for a self-respecting escaped convict to stroll the streets of Belleville these days.

Last week Raymond C. Miller managed to escape from a Stroudsburg, Pa. jail cell. He promptly headed for Belleville and the residence of relatives here. Another relative called police and notified them of Miller's illegal presence.

Five hefty Belleville cops climbed into a prowl car and drove to the address, surrounded the residence, and, with the help of still other relatives, lured the wanted man outside where Officer Carmine Pedalino grabbed the surprised convict before he could make a move. They hustled him into a cell where he stayed until State Police from Pennsylvania came to take him in charge.

Making the arrest were Sgt. George Lister, and Officers Pedalino, Thomas Ricci, Nicholas Berrigan and Richard Sutton.

Last week an organization was formed to help Robert with overwhelming hospital costs that will be spread out over many months.

Roberts, 23, of 33 Essex St., lost both legs in the accident. Trustees, who have been appointed to handle the fund drive, include many of the town's most outstanding businessmen and private citizens.

Robert M. Williams, of DeWitt Savings and Loan, handles the funds. Plans are now under way by a number of organizations to help in the drive.

An upcoming fund raising dinner for Mayor Nuncio R. Pico may see all funds going into the Kevin Roberts Fund instead of for Pico, a spokesman for the gala affair said.

Meanwhile some 14 persons have donated funds.

They are John and Virginia Schenke, Jolly Cleaners, R. H. Deetjen, Nat's Candy Shop, Hohn Holski, J. and A. Drizler Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stolfi, Joanne Stolfi, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. R. Koch, Mr. and Mrs. J. Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nutt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Williams and Harry T. French.

Donations to the fund may be mailed or delivered to Fund Treasurer Robert Williams at DeWitt Savings and Loan.

O'Connor Warns Against Improper Wash-day Advice

Bernard O'Connor, Belleville Plumbing Inspector, warned town residents against an illegal suggestion in recent full-page advertisements reading "Solutions to your every day wash-day stain problems."

The advertisement suggested to householders that they could clean out their water pipes and hot water heaters by creating a partial vacuum to draw in a cleaning compound, a complex polyphosphate product.

O'Connor said today that "The suggested procedure in the advertisements is illegal in New Jersey because it creates an illegal cross-connection." Belleville's plumbing code requires that our portable water supply be protected from backflow due to siphonage or back pressure.

Over 50 Residents Protest Kulik's Ouster; 344 Names On Petition Request His Return

Di Benedetto Is Now An Army Man In Engineering

Army Pvt. Daniel J. Di Benedetto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Di Benedetto, 51 Honiss St., completed a combat engineer course March 25.

During the seven-week course Di Benedetto was trained in the construction and repair of roads, railroads and bridges. Di Benedetto also received training in demolitions and mine warfare.

He entered the Army last September and completed basic training at Fort Dix, N.J.

The 18-year-old soldier attended Bloomfield Technical High School.

Before entering the Army, he was employed by the Peerless Tube Co., Bloomfield.

Over 50 Belleville residents met with the Board of Education Monday night to protest the failure of the board to re-new track coach Ronald Kulik's teaching contract for next year. Another resident and mother of a trackman presented a petition bearing some 344 signatures calling for the board to reconsider and re-new his contract. But board members appeared adamant in the face of public opinion.

For nearly two hours, residents mainly students, parents of track team members, and sports-minded residents argued with six board members. Board President Ernest S. Arvidson at one point tried to cut off debate, telling the audience that they could return to the subject after the business session, but other board members agreed to continue the public hearing.

Board members contend that Kulik was paid over what the salary guide allows, and that it was for coaching in violation of his amateur standing as a star walker who may be headed for the Olympics.

"Records reveal," said Arvidson, "that whether or not he knew it, he was given credit by now suspended superintendent of schools Dr. Frank M. Durkee,

Det. O'Toole Speaks On Dope

Detective Hugh J. O'Toole in charge of narcotics enforcement for the Belleville Police Department, will be the speaker at the April 4 meeting of the Belleville Community Welfare Council.

His topic, said Council Chairman, Jack Grundfest, M.D., will be "Narcotics." The meeting will take place at 8:15 p.m., at the DeWitt Savings and Loan Association.

O'Toole is a native of Belleville and a graduate of the Town's high school in the class of 1942. While in high school, he earned letters in football, baseball and track, during World War II, O'Toole spent four years in the service, 24 months of it in Europe and nine months in the Pacific.

Detective O'Toole joined the Police force in 1950, and received his assignment to narcotics work five years ago.

The public is invited to attend.

First Move To Solve The Problem In Over 20-Years

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico told councilmen Monday night that the parking problem in Belleville was "so complicated it is beyond the realm of the council" and introduced an ordinance calling for the establishment of a parking authority which would examine the acute shortage of parking facilities, make recommendations, and act on the matter. Councilmen voted 3-2 for the authority, with Councilman William Cullen and James R. Golden opposing the measure, Mayor Pico, and Councilmen Ralph A. Casale and Robert Westpy voted affirmatively.

The Mayor's resolution said five commissioners would be named to form the authority and begin study of parking here, allowing hard-pressed councilmen to devote more time to other matters.

Golden objected on the grounds that a capital improvement program over the next five years would be enough to handle the acquisition of a parking facility. "What do we need a parking authority for?" he asked.

He also wanted to know if the town would have to float a bond or need credit? Both Town Manager John R. Burnett and Town Attorney Jack Soriano told him that this consideration could be handled later by the council, and that the ordinance before the council merely created an authority.

Golden, now ending four years on the council, has not proposed any solutions to the parking problem, a sore spot with the Chamber of Commerce and town merchants who backed the Council's action Monday night.

Casale and Westpy agreed that such an authority would "do no harm" in casting their votes for the ordinance.

"We've waited so long," said Casale, "and nothing has happened, that's why I'm going for it. It's a good thing."

For over 20-years councilmen have known of the increasingly touchy problem of parking in Belleville, but have always bowed to merchants along the northern part of Belleville who claimed that a parking lot anywhere but north would take away business.

Ever alert to public opinion, cautious councilmen had shied away from the subject, allowing the problem to grow until today merchants, backed by the Chamber of Commerce, have all but demanded such a study be made.

"Let's face it," said Pico recently, "We need parking facilities."

And the authority membership? "I definitely believe they will serve well," he said, "providing good people are appointed."

Cherry Blossom Parade Planned For April 24th

Sunday Afternoon March To Include Some Of The Areas Best Known Bands

April 24th will be a big day in Belleville.

Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. some of the town's loveliest girls will be taking part in the annual Cherry Blossom Parade down Washington Avenue in downtown Belleville, announced Joe Peterson, a member of the Belleville Junior Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the event.

Award-winning band and floats will be in the line of parade, plus many marching bands including the Cavaliers, Woodsiders, St. Rose of Lima, St. Brendan's, Cedets, Boys Town, and Rachelle Park.

Each of the ten finalists to take part in the event will ride in an open car during the parade.

The parade, will, said Peterson, bring some favorable publicity to the town. More details of the forthcoming parade will be made as they develop, he said.

As many contestants as possible are urged to make application for the beauty contest, he added.

Library Closes During Easter

During Easter Vacation Week the Children's Room of the Belleville Public Library will be open from 10 a.m. till 5:30 p.m. with the exception of Wednesday, April 11, when it will open at 11 a.m.

Regular hours will be observed at the Silver Lake Branch Library: Monday, Friday 1 p.m. - 5 p.m., and Tuesday evening from 6 - 9 p.m.

Both the main and Silver Lake Branch will be closed all day Good Friday, April 8.

Tax Assessor Peter Torre Explains Shortcomings of Local Reassessment

In a letter to the Town Council last Friday, Peter Torre, Belleville Tax Assessor, gave his reasons why his office should not be required to make a reassessment, the first in over ten years — in compliance with a state requirement being foisted on other New Jersey municipalities.

The Local Property Tax Bureau and Essex County Tax Board do not approve of "homemade" reassessments by local assessors, he said, observing that such evaluations must be made with non-professional staffs who have to be trained.

By contract, he said, are the well-organized, highly-trained professional assessors who have the additional quality of being neutral and are able to escape charges of favoritism.

"The advantages of having disinterested, non-local persons perform a vital task of reviewing each and every home and business is obvious," he wrote. "Particularly when the political tone of our community is constantly a challenge."

Deborah Hospital Sets Fashion Show Tonight

The Belleville Chapter of Deborah Hospital will hold a hat fashion show and spaghetti supper tonight at 6 p.m. in the cafeteria of St. Anthony's School. Proceeds of the show will go to the non-sectarian hospital for tuberculosis.

The hospital is located at Browns Mills in The Pines.
