Santa Leaves North Pole Today Enroute To Belleville and Vicinity

By GORDON F. ADAMS

For the past several weeks children and their parents have been making preparations for his yearly appearance here. After a pre-Christmas visit here last month, Santa left for home and the monstrous job of fulfilling the children's many requests for gifts.

But Santa warned the kids not to expect ALL the things they asked for, although he will try to fill every request. "I have an awful lot of children to take care of this year," he said, "and I have to make all the gifts go around so everyone gets a present."

And helping Santa make certain that Christmas was a happy occasion were many Belleville residents who thought of their less fortunate friends. Among them were:

Bobby Barnes, 10, of 174 Cedar Hill Ave.; Johnny Vernacchia, 153 New St.; and Eddie Oertel, 179 New St., who made little Christmas trees from magazines and sold them. The money—over $26—was sent to Father Eagan at Boystown-in Kearny to assure them of a happy and Merry Christmas.

American Legion Post 299 out in Silver Lake prepared and delivered some 10 baskets of food—complete from turkey to nuts—which went to needy families in the area. They packed the baskets Monday night.

The members of American Legion Post 105 held a party for the kids from the Children's Shelter last week, stuffing them with candy and loading them down with gifts as well as giving the Shelter $125 for future use.

NORTH POLE, December 22 (Special to The Belleville Times) — Santa Claus, the yuletide saint revered by youngsters everywhere, left his snowbound home here early today in his bright red sleigh drawn by eight prancing reindeer (one with a red nose!) He sailed off southward toward Belleville and the homes of Good Little Children and was expected to arrive later Saturday evening—after all Good Little Children are fast asleep.

On Dec. 10 children from the Cerebral Palsy School and Treatment Center at 7 Sanford Ave. were the guests of Assemblyman Joseph G. Biardicardi at a Christmas Party held at The Fountain. They were entertained with a full-scale magic show, music and refreshments. The Association also handed out toys for the children, reported Mrs. Nathan Vernick, executive director.

President Lyndon B. Johnson sent Christmas Greetings to Belleville Boy Scouts, too. "You have our best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year," he wrote. "May it be filled with the joys and good will and brotherhood with which Scouting is forever endowed."

Thirty-four servicemen fighting in Vietnam have been sent Christmas packages by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Belleville Fire Department said Mrs. Jean Dunn, a spokesman for the group. They are seeking the names of additional servicemen, and asked that parents send the names and addresses to any of the town's three firehouses.

Christ Episcopal Church at 393 Washington Ave. will hold a Service for the Vigil of Christmas on Christmas Eve at 7:30 p.m. with music by the Junior and pre-Senior Choirs. At 11 p.m. there will be an organ and carillon recital of carols.

On Dec. 19 the members of American Legion Post 105 held a party at the Post Home for members children. Gifts, a movie, and plenty of candy was on the agenda for the evening, said committeemen Pat Wynn and Jack Gorman. Earlier they had gone to East Orange Veterans Hospital and treated some 40 patients to an early Christmas party.

Out at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital patients were soothed by the carols of local residents who toured the wards. The Choral group from Wallace & Tiernan sang on Dec. 12th. The Belleville High School's Baker's Dozen, student nurses, and children from St. Anthony's Church also raised their voices in song at the town's biggest hospital.

Troop 4 of St. Michael's Church in Newark, sang. So did the combined choirs of the Nutley Women's club and the Belleville Reformed Church and the children's

Town Churches Offering Expanded Services With The Christmas Season

And the angels said unto them, "Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people; for there is born to you this day in the city of David, A Saviour who is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger." — Luke II: 9-12.

With the reading of the ancient scriptures, Christ's birth is hailed once again and the holiday season ushered in. Belleville's churches will join the world-wide Christmas celebration with carols, candlelight services, and midnight masses. A schedule of events follows:

BETHANY LUTHERAN CHURCH

A carol and candle lighting service will be held Christmas Eve at 11 o'clock. Anthems will be rendered by the Senior Choir and include "Hush-a Bye, Holy Child" by Richard Kountz and "Bethlehem" by Bowker Stickles.

A Christmas morning family service will begin at 11 a.m. with the youth choir singing "Silent Night, Holy Night" in German and a Polish carol tune, "Slowly Flakes Are Falling Silently."

CHRIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The vigil of Christmas will begin at 7:30 p.m. Christmas eve with Holy Communion and a Christmas story related by Rev. Frederick Long, rector. Special music offered by the junior and pre-senior choirs includes the 13th century French Carol, "Here Betwixt Ass and Oxen Mild," and the 17th French Carol, "Let All Mortal Flesh." Since this is the service attended by young children, the blessing of the Christmas crib will take place.

An organ and carillon recital of carols at 11:15 p.m. open services later in the evening. The festival eucharist and sermon of and "The Slumber of Jesus" arranged by Roberts. The Organ p.m. with the senior choir under the direction of John M. Markoe, taking part.

Selections include Mauburn's 15th century anthem "Dost Thou in a Manger Lie?", and Christina Rossetti's "In the Bleak Mid-Winter." Dr. Long's sermon is "Seven O'clock News, Silent Night."

A recording of the service will be made for broadcast Christmas morning at 10 a.m. over radio station WYNY.

Holy Communion will be administered at the 11 a.m. morning services with the combined junior and senior choirs rendering "A Great and Mighty Wonder," an 8th century carol by St. Germanus.

Monday, St. Stephen's Day; Tuesday, St. John's Day, and Wednesday, Holy Innocents Day, will be observed with Holy Communion offered at 10 a.m.

FEWSMITH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Christmas eve candlelight services will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. with the Rev. George L. Van Leuven, pastor, officiating. Mrs. Hazel L. Hulme organist and choir director will open the services with the prelude, "Pastorale," by Guilman, Thomas Bogdan, guest tenor soloist, will sing the aria, "Comfort Ye My People," from Handel's "Messiah," and "Birthday of a King" by Niedlinger. The chancel choir will sing "When the Sun had Sunk to Rest," an English Noel, festival eucharist and sermon of and "The Slumber of Jesus" arranged by Roberts. The Organ selection, "Postlude on Adeste Fideles" by Thiman will end the services.

Two services will be held Christmas morning at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. The early service will include a selection by the junior choir, "What Do You Bear to the Babe?" and The Westminster Choir has prepared "There is No Rose" by Britten.

The 11 a.m. services will feature the chancel choir singing "Glory to God in the Highest," by Pergolesi and "A Joyous Christmas Song" by Gevaert. Organ music is the same for both services with the prelude, "What Child is This?" arranged by R. V. Williams and "Joy to the World" arranged by Husted for the postlude. Pastor Van Leuven's sermon at both services is "The Best News Ever—Luke 2:10-11."

GRACE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Couples' Club of the church is in charge of the Christmas eve candlelight service at 7:30 p.m. Christmas Day services will begin at 9:45 a.m. with church school. At the 11 a.m. worship, the Rev. John W. A. Mair, pastor, will speak on "Where Does God Fit In?" The combined choirs will join for special music for the service.

MONTGOMERY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A candlelight service led by the Rev. Howard B. Day Jr., pastor, will be held at 11 p.m. Christmas eve. The youth choir will sing special Christmas music accompanied by a flute duet. Before the service there will be a concert of organ and chimes played by Mrs. Paul Lewis.

There will be only one service at 11 a.m. Christmas Day with a story of the Son of Mary delivered by Pastor Day. All children, youth, and adults will join together in a family worship service instead of church school for this special day.

ST. ANTHONY'S CHURCH

The schedule of confessions for Christmas eve is from 3 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. There will be no confessions heard in the evening. A Christmas carol service at 11:30 p.m. sung by the church choir will precede the traditional midnight masses. A solemn high mass will be celebrated in the church and low mass in the chapel.

Christmas day masses will be celebrated at 7:30 a.m., 9 a.m., 10 a.m., 11 a.m. and noon in the church and at 9 a.m., 11:05 p.m., and 12 midnight in the chapel.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH

Confessions will remain the same Saturday afternoon from 4 p.m. to 5:30 but there will be none heard in the evening.

A carol service at 11:45 p.m. will precede midnight mass Christmas eve, sung by the choirs of the church. Midnight mass will be concelebrated by the Most Rev. Joseph A. Costello, pastor, and all the priests of the parish. No children will be allowed to attend. Parishioners will join with the priests for the people's mass by Dom Gregory Murray.

How to add years
to your life

100 years ago the average American could expect to live about 40 years.

Today—about 70. Modern sanitation, diet, drugs and medical practice have added 30 years to our life span. And note that 70 is average. Many die sooner. Many live longer. You up your chances of being a "longer" if you eat properly and get proper medical care. This means periodic check-ups by your physician. As pharmacists we are pleased to help by supplying the drugs your doctor prescribes—drugs unknown a century ago. We're so conscious of the effectiveness of modern medicine that we're shooting for a life span of 100 years.

How about you?

Coffee, Anyone? Bob Alvear's Pay-Rite Store Has That Item Too

After Five Years As An Employee, He Decides To Try It On His Own

By swiveling around on one of the nine stools at the luncheonette in the rear of his drug store, Bob Alvear can look out over Washington Avenue and see the cop on the corner busy directing traffic at the second busiest intersection in town. And it is a source of satisfaction to him because, at the age of 24, he is operating his own business for the first time.

Alvear, who lives at 67 Nelson Ave. in Jersey City, first came to Belleville five years ago as an employee of Seymour Levi who owns Lord's Stationery store a block south. He liked what he saw here, and when the owner of Reed's Drug Store moved out earlier this year he studied the situation, scraped up his resources, and took the plunge.

In less than six months Alvear is making a comfortable living with his discount variety store. And to further increase his business he has installed a luncheonette at the rear of the store at 183 Wash. Av. Most of his customers are from Shop-Rite a few doors south, and chilly cops who patrol the streets and direct traffic at the intersection of Washington Avenue and Rutgers Street.

But hungry shoppers are discovering the place now, and find it convenient to warm up with a cup of coffee. "I'm trying to hold the line at ten-cents a cup," said Alvear Tuesday afternoon. "He doesn't carry pharmaceutical drugs, just those which can be sold across the counter without a prescription, such as aspirin, cosmetics, and hair spray.

He is a member of the National Guard and serves as a Private First Class with the 50th Armored Division. He spent six months at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri before coming back to Belleville and his new business. Along the way he picked up photography as a hobby. He also handles photographic supplies.

Alvear and his wife Teresa have a two-year-old son named Robert. And if things continue to go as good as they have, he's here to stay.

The Municipal Welfare Department issued some 25 tickets to "Heartbeat," on Tuesday, Dec. 27, the gift of town merchants, reported Mrs. Hugh O'Toole, director. Other service organizations had contacted her asking for names and addresses of needy families here who could use a Christmas basket. The Elks, among others, took five names. Also wanting information was the American Legion and the Belleville Fire Department's Ladies Auxiliary.

Museum Offers Winter Festival

The annual Junior Museum Festival at the Newark Museum, 49 Washington St., will be held for children of six years and over on Wednesday, Dec. 28, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. The one-day Festival is planned to provide activities for local children on holiday vacations. Admission is free.

William Barnes, Junior Museum Supervisor, promises a departure from the usual Festival programming. He said, "We intend to provide the youngsters with an afternoon of entertainment and participation more closely related to the wonders of the natural and scientific world represented in the Museum's collections. If possible, we are going to prove that 'a little learning can be a fun thing.'

The Festival will have a carnival atmosphere, with 15 different booths devoted to varied skill games and exhibits, some of Indian and Eskimo origin. A "snowflake" booth will parkle with a multitude of snowflake patterns which the visitors may try to imitate in paper and other materials.

A corridor of peepholes will provide strange views and unusual sights, all correlated with Nature Corner, the Junior Art workshops, or aspects of winter. Indian and Eskimo games will be demonstrated and played and new adventures, such as a crawl through a teepee, will be on the program. Simple refreshments will be served.

Casualty Losses Must Be Documented Early

Federal taxpayers who have casualty losses can save time and money by documenting their loss while it is fresh in their minds. If they wait until they are preparing their 1966 income tax returns, they may forget to deduct the loss or they may be unable to remember all of the details. Deductions for casualty losses on income tax returns can be made only by taxpayers who itemize their deductions on Form 1040. They cannot be claimed on the short tax form or by taxpayers who use either of the standard deductions.

Let's face it. You should think about snow tires before it snows. Don't chance getting stuck. Have your snow tires mounted early. In fact, if you wait too long before coming to see us, you may not be able to get the size and style you want. Some of our better snow tires, such as Uniroyal's Winterides, are at a premium even now before the season really begins.

No wonder! A snow tire spends most of its life on snowless roads. And the Winteride is a snow tire tested to do 100 mph...when there is no snow. That's one of the reasons it's called The Dry Road Snow Tire and is in such great demand. Winteride's big, big tractor-type treads dig you out of deep snow quick, but also give you a smooth, quiet ride on dry roads where you travel most of the time.

Peace In Our Time?

CHRISTMAS is almost here, but the Dove of Peace is still fluttering over the vast wasteland of war, discontent, and starvation.

In Vietnam American soldiers are fighting — and dying — in an undeclared war even as thousands more arrive each day on that foreign battlefield in an inexorable escalation of that war.

Unhappily, United States bombing of Hanoi when new efforts are under way to achieve peace negotiations is bound to undermine faith in the genuineness of Washington's latest offer to discuss a prolonged cease-fire. Hanoi will not come to the peace table on its knees after having its will to resist strengthened by the allied bombings.

In Israel the United Arab Republic is waging an unceasing war with the Jews, who themselves were the oppressed less than two decades ago. Indian and Pakistan are observing an uneasy truce. Cambodia and Thailand are on the verge of entering the conflict as Korea stirs restlessly after a costly war.

The ghastly specter of reborn Nazism is appearing in Bavaria with the election of a former Nazi as chancellor. Red China, which hasn't left its boundaries in 400 years, is being called an aggressor for fortifying its borders.

Will we ever find "Peace in our time?" Probably not. But as long as people are trying through the Peace Corps, the United Nations, and the church, it may one day come to pass. Our only hope for world peace will come through our children. But they Alas! will follow their parents example.

In Honorable Service

Saturday night will be the longest night of the year for Belleville children because that's when Santa arrives from up North. He is nearly always preceded by The Sandman who makes sure childish eyes are tightly closed before he comes sliding down the chimney.

But for every child with visions of sugar plums dancing before his eyes, there are many who would surely face a bleak Christmas without the kindly ministrations of service clubs in Belleville. The

Something For Everyone

And what does jolly Old St. Nick have in his voluminous bag of goodies for our public figures? For each and every one he will deliver a gift certain to please — well, maybe.

MAYOR NUNCIO R. PICO: Four toy soldiers, each with a built-in timer that speeds up debate and allows them to perform their duties with mechanical precision and military decorum.

COUNCILMAN WILLIAM H. CULLEN: A two-headed coin that will provide him with firm decisions which will be — at times — in agreement with the rest of the council.

COUNCILMAN RALPH A. CASALE: The plans for a future Recreation House, perhaps next year.

COUNCILMAN ROBERT E. WESTPY:

Miles of ceiling work within driving distance of Belleville. (Instead of down in Georgia!)

COUNCILMAN VINCENT T. STRUMOLO: A deed to Silver Lake (He already owns most of it anyway).

TOWN MANAGER JOHN R. BURNETT: A crest of arms bearing the motto "Silence is golden."

FORMER COUNCILMAN JAMES R. GOLDEN: A long-playing record of "Busman's Holiday."

TOWN ATTORNEY JACK SORIANO: An extra volume of legal decisions with which to placate a certain female woman who questions his every move.

THE FOUR-MEMBER BOARD OF EDUCATION MAJORITY: A copy of "How to win friends and influence people" — legitimately.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Unanswered Questions

To the Editor:

The line forms on the right:

The disgraceful and stormy behavior, unrelentingly pursued by the "majority bloc" consisting of Mr. Arvidson, Mr. Saletta, Mr. Julianio and Dr. DiRuggiero, elected members of the Board of Education, manifested itself again at the Varsity Club Dinner to honor Belleville's varsity athletes held at the Robin Hood Inn, Montclair, on Dec. 1. The affair was well-attended by friends and relatives of our football squad.

The success of the dinner honoring the football squad was indeed a tribute to the athletes and the loyal citizens of the Varsity Club whose untiring efforts to keep Belleville's athletic image the best in the state, in the fact of almost unnumberable handicaps placed in their paths by the actions of the "majority bloc" on our elected Board of Education and their so-called chosen "Three" Joseph Landolfi, Edward Carney and Joseph Napolitano, politically appointed members.

Pride and appreciation was evident by the loyal followers of our football squad and their respected coach Mr. Testa for the firm stand displayed by the Varsity Club that evening.

Evident to all persons present was a heated discussion between William Chapman, principal of president of the Varsity Club and the master of ceremonies. It should be noted for the record also that Mr. Chapman, who as a member of the athletic council in 1961 voted against retaining Mr. Testa as head football coach.

Mr. Chapman did not seem pleased — he seemed to be trying to curtail Mr. Zoppas' toast honoring Mr. Testa and the football squad.

Mr. Chapman apparently forgot he was addressing the loyal friends of athletes, because his words fell on deaf ears and Mr. Zoppa delivered his remarks praising Coach Testa and his successful record as head football coach, and in so doing firmly questioned the unjustified curtailment of the sports program by the Board of Education.

Attending the affair was Herman Wische, Belleville Athletic Director who in the past has been conspicuous by his "silence" in taking "no stand" in defense of the loss of the may coaches in his athletic program.

Present also was Joseph Landolfi and Edward Carney, two of the members of the Athletic Council who have not as yet, with Joseph Napolitano, given our town the explanation of their negative vote against retaining coach Testa.

The people are still waiting for your reply Mr. Landolfi, Mr. Carney and Mr. Napolitano, or could the reason for your silence be "Guilt"? If it is the cross you must shoulder the rest of your lives, you have been used — Resign, and get out because you cannot stay underground forever.

The final irony — Mr. Chapman is now associated with the movement to improve Belleville's image. His resignation from the committee would be the first forward step in the right direction towards improving our image.

Santa's Little Helpers Ready For Christmas

"Operation Santa Claus," sponsored by the Christmas Bureau of the United Community Fund and Council of Essex and West Hudson, will shortly begin its work for the less fortunate at the holiday season.

The Bureau serves as a clearing house between organizations, clubs and individuals who want to bring a happier holiday to those in need, and the social agencies who know of families and individuals who need help during this season.

The Christmas Bureau does not attempt to raise funds, although cash donations as well as gifts of food, toys and clothing will be appreciated.

Upon receipt of such gifts, "Operation Santa Claus," through its director, Mrs. Marie Harrison, will contact the social agencies and see that they are channeled to those who need them.

Anyone who cares to help make a brighter Christmas for others can call Mrs. Harrison at the United Community Fund office, 45 Branford Pl., Newark, telephone MA 3 - 6030, and every effort will be made to guide their generosity to those who might otherwise be forgotten.

Where was Mr. Calabro when they changed the Administrative Code where they omitted the college qualification of the manager and allowed a politician to be appointed?

Where was Mr. Calabro when the town was receiving all the bad publicity All under council-manager government.

Mr. Calabro promised the towns people that a manager would be appointed from the City Managers Association. Why then didn't Mr. Calabro step to the front and file a protest when they hired the present town man

A LETTER FROM WARREN KNIGHT

No, Virginia, God Is Not Dead, But We All Must Pursue Him

Dear Virginia:

Years ago, as a little girl, you asked if there really is a Santa Claus. A newspaperman's reply became an editorial classic, climaxed by that famed line . . . "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus."

Today, another query may cross your mind, as we prepare to celebrate another birthday of Jesus Christ, Son of God.

This era of new philosophies has given birth to one of the most dramatic and startling questions of our time . . . and already answered by some theologians. They would have us subscribe to the philosophy that . . . God is dead.

Can we believe it? Is it possible to shatter in a single bold statement, our concept of God and immortality? If he is dead, there is no Heaven to which we ascend after death . . . no retribution, no Judgement Day . . . for whom do we stand before if not God?

Religious scoffers are not new. History records blasphemers, worshippers of graven images . . . and the true disbeliever . . . the atheist. The new breed in our generation propounding the theory that God is dead say man no longer believes He exists, so He does not function within man's mind. Now, how do you destroy a god? Why, by disbelief, expressed in physical force or removing Him, or it, from the mind.

For truly profound judgement, man falls short on qualifications. When all goes well, God is . . . to coin the phrase . . . out of sight, out of mind. But let adversity strike—illness, catastrophe, loss of a loved one, venture into battle . . . and we ask, or pray for, His help, His assistance.

I remember a favorite grandfather. Aged, ill, he lay in a semi-coma for days, expressionless, filled with pain-easing sedatives. As he finally crossed the border from life to death, his eyes opened wide, as though he were witnessing something too magnificent to behold . . . and he succumbed with a faint smile on his face, in majestic repose. What did he see? A dead God?

Can we attribute to a dead man the miracles wrought through the ages? Blind people see, the crippled walk, the deaf hear . . . and medical science often is without an explanation. At this moment, across the land, physicians are telling patients, families of patients, and themselves . . . "everything that science can do has been done, now it's in the hands of God." Is a dead man at the wheel of Destiny's vehicle as it runs its course?

When did He die? After Christ was born, or before? Or has God passed on recently, recognizing the inexorable march to self-destruction that man seems bent on taking, through war, hate and moral deterioration?

In Peter, third verse, chapter nine, the disciple said: "But the Lord delayeth not his promise, as some imagine, but death patiently for your sake, not willing that any should perish, but that all should return to penance." To a dead God?

And Thomas Merton, a Trappist monk, wrote: "The quietness and hiddenness and placidity of truly good people in the world all proclaim the glory of God. All creatures, every graceful movement, every ordered act of the human will, all are sent to us as prophets from God. But because of our stubbornness they come to us only to blind us further." Is this the work of a dead God?

No, Virginia, God is not dead: He lives . . . but we must pursue his teachings, believe in His being, seek him out . . . and one day, in death or however, we'll find him . . . very much alive.

Final Plans Are Made For Dec. 29 Testa Testimonial

Final arrangements have been made for the Testimonial Dinner honoring Tom Testa, one of Belleville's most successful football coaches, on Thursday, Dec. 29, at the Fountain Restaurant at 8 p.m.

Warren Ceres, Charles G. Marra, Mario Ponzio, Richard San Fillipo, Jerry Corbo, Michael Albertine, George Zoppa, Joseph Cernero, Anthony Ponzio, Rocco Cervasio, Mrs. Michael Luongo, Theodore DelGuercio, Frank Bonavita, Jr., H. "Bus" Gauspohl, Anthony Guiliano, and Mario Cocchiola.

It is estimated that 500 will be in attendance.

The program will be as follows: Rev. Michael A. Saltarelli of Holy Family Church will give ers are Rev. Matthew Pesaniello of Holy Family Church, Ernest V. Musmanno, member of BHS faculty; Leonard Luongo and Joseph Cervasio, former All State '66 Football Team; Dr. Alden

Smoke Signals

GORDON F. ADAMS

BAH! HUMBUG! With Christmas Eve but a jingle-bell away Junior High School Principal Seymour Grossman took the role of Scrooge. The Times, as you may have heard, is growing. And as part of our expansion we are seeking delivery boys who can make spending money by delivering The Times to subscribers in town. Our circulation man stopped in at the Junior High School seeking carriers.

He explained his presence and asked to speak to Grossman (Who, need we say, doesn't care for The Times) He sent back word by his secretary that it wasn't the policy to cooperate in these matters. Grossman had been ordered by Board of Education President Ernest S. Arvidson to make an apology to The Times recently for making uncalled for remarks to parents — who had promptly reported him.

Are there no students in Belleville Junior High School who can use spending money? Are there no needy students helping their families to make ends meet? If so, they are being denied the chance to earn by the petty-displeasure of a small man. Ugh!

So if there are any students who want to earn a few bucks, just call Eddie Bonnet at NO 7-2100. You're welcome.

RUMORS. RUMORS. RUMORS. The story has been making the rounds lately that the editor is about to resign and/or get fired. Nonsense! But on March 11 or thereabouts he will climb aboard a Paa Am jet liner and take off for India for six weeks or so.

The last time this rumor got started it was pushed off by that former councilman . . . er . . . now what was that name again?

THE NUMBERS GAME: The largest assortment of low number license tags to be found around this neck of the woods may be seen opposite the Sun Building in Nutley where The Times is published.

EFO 1 belongs to the publisher. The black caddy with ETA 2 belongs to the editor (Editor-Times-Adams, see?). The PRW 5 license tag is owned by Philip R. White, managing editor of The Sun. And there are perhaps five other cars there within the one-to-five range.

What does it all mean? Nothing, really.

THE POLITICIANS: On Monday's agenda at Town Hall there was a petition from residents of the Silver Lake district who were asking the Town Council to provide a stop light at the intersection of Cross Street and Belmont Avenue for the protection of their children who attend nearby School 4. And whose names do you suppose headed the list of petitioners? None other than those old vote-getters Thomas Apicelli of Joralemon Street, and Mrs. Mary Saletta, of Garden Avenue, whose hubby is a beloved member of the Board of Education majority. The rest of the names were from the Silver Lake district. Ho hum.

VILLANO CONFIDENT: Returning for his third time around Joe Villano will be out to improve upon a second in the District status that he finished with last year. With his power and experience behind a 21.3 record State laurels are within reach at this Bellboy. Sophomore Tom Palose is his understudy.

The last of the Bellboy returnees is to be found at 135 pounds in the form of senior Mike Luongo. A journeyman grappler for the past two seasons, Luongo could be a big factor in the Bellboys fortunes during the current campaign. Junior Angelo Corino is his back-up man.

In a spirited wrestle-off battle senior Frank Esposito prevailed as a starter in the 140 pound class overriding JV grad Harry Maroulakos, a junior.

Probably the most contested position on the squad however is the 148 spot. Here a pair of senior JV grads, Sam Veltri and Tom Fegarty, are vying for consideration. Going into the Christmas Tourney, Veltri will be the Belleville representative in this spot on the strength of a Wrestle-off victory.

HEAVYWEIGHTS: pulling a wrestle-off upset of senior returnee Bob Andrews, junior Allen Agostino capped the tend that will see the Bellboys send an inexperienced group that includes three first year grapplers to the mats in the upper weight classes. Agostino's forceful upset came to a letterman of five matches at 156.

Being lured from the banks of the Passaic, crew veteran Walt Beresford begins his first year as a matman starting in the 167 pound slot. Sophomore Rich Jones is his backup man.

Powerful sophomore Bob Bonafanti holds down the next spot as the Bellboys muscular 178 pounder. Soph Matt Zichelli is his back-up.

Rounding out the starting lineup Barry Pierce will hold down the end of the Bellboy fort in the

Bellboys Foul Out 57-46 To West Orange For Third Straight Loss

EX-BELLBOY: Big John Rempusheski, a tough tackle now serving as a lineman for the Lea College team out in Albert Lea, Mo., takes a firm stand while representing the town as a BHS graduate. He was also a member of the wrestling team while attending Belleville High School.

But Despite Referees Helping, A Good Time Was Had By All

It's not so much whether they won or lost, but how the game was played that mars the Bellboys' most recent failure in their three game losing streak. Over in West Orange, the determined Bellboys managed to put in their best shooting performance of the year while suffering through the antics of a pair of officials who would have put the Keystone Kops to shame.

It wasn't that the numerous foul calls were one-sided or that they clearly decided the game—although the three players who eventually fouled out of this artistic fiasco had to have quite a beating on the outcome.

It wasn't the 35 personals and two technical fouls that were called either, nor the vanquishing of Bellboy Coach Al LoBalbo and guard Jim Catalano, that mark this game as one to be remembered. It was the countless over and undersights that constantly kept an overflow crowd guessing.

In the end, it all came down to another case of the Bellboys threatening to make their move and came from behind all the way, but never quite mounting the spurt needed to turn the trick in a 57-46 loss.

It all started uniquely with three Bellboy starters, Catalano, Bill Sherman, and Bob Baker each drawing three personal fouls in the first quarter. This made for an interesting game as each was limited in his action the rest of the way until Catalano and Sherman eventually fouled out with 15 and 2:46 remaining respectively.

The fact that Belleville's high scoring guard Catalano had had drawn just one personal foul over the first four games and that two of the five calls on this occasion appeared to be phantom "shirt-tail" efforts is to be disregarded.

Things are not to be taken at face value.

As it were the Cowboys could have run the Bellboys right off the court in that first period with a little accuracy, but in the spirit of good sportsmanship and fair play West Orange consented to be atrocious at the foul line, missing seven free throw in the first quarter enroute to a 15 made 15 missed effort.

Through it all LeRoy Polite, (who eventually drew four personals himself) and Joel Pisano took up the slack for the foul-laden Bellboy starters confined to the bench. They combined with Rich San Filippo and Mike Mateyka until the final minute when the roof caved in. With Belleville withing five points—as they had been most of the way—and the Cowboy Ron Shiffman already among the missing, Catalano was attempting to lead one last charge at the elusive lead.

But that was not to be the case as he came out on the short end of a chargecall, and taking his 17 point and five foul total proceeded toward the bench. It was not to the satisfaction of the spirits that prevailed, however, and a technical misunderstanding ensued. Not satisfied with being questioned upon they actions, the prevailing rulers tacked another technical onto coach LoBalbo and, not so kindly, asked the coach who had been greeted with a gruff first quarter, "Shut up" and to leave the premises.

What ensued mattered little as the margin swelled, except that with a little more impetus the West Orange gym might well have looked like a gladiators' arena a la the Coliseum of old, with the Belleville fans cast in the role of the feasting lions.

In the course of the festivities the Bellboys shot an admirable 19 of 46 .413 percentage from the floor or their best of the year. Catalano was high man with 17 points, followed by Mateyka's 11 and Polite's 10. Bill Buro led the 396 shooting winners with 15 points as a way off Ron Shiffman accounted for but 10 points.

Howard Savings Property Taxes At $22.6 Million

The Howard Savings Institution of Newark announced today that its New Jersey real estate taxes for this year, 1966, paid to some 507 municipalities, exceeded $22.6 million.

Funds for such payments came from escrowed monies deposited monthly by the Institution's more than 38,800 mortgagors.

The Howard has over 7,700 mortgagors in 20 municipalities located in Essex County, and pays here an annual tax bill of over $7 million. Over $2.1 million of this money goes to the city of Newark.

The Howard's policy of handling its mortgagors' tax obligations is a major undertaking involving more than 155,000 transactions each year, according to John W. Kress, Howard president. "This is a special service which is greatly appreciated by municipal tax collectors," Kress said.

The Howard, the largest lender of mortgage money in the state, invests its entire $535 million portfolio in New Jersey properties, with every county represented.

Harold Preston Goes To Europe

Boilerman Technician Second Class Harold M. Preston, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Preston of 219 Branch Brook Drive, left Newport, R. I. as a crewmember aboard the destroyer USS Vesole of Destroyer Squadron-24, Cruiser Destroyer Force, Atlantic Fleet for a four-month deployment with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

The Vesole is scheduled for various operations and exercises with other units of the Sixth Fleet, plus visits to a few of the many scenic and historic ports on the three continents that ring the Mediterranean.

While deployed with the fleet the Vesole will be playing an important part in the Navy's overall mission, "control of the seas."

Robert Maier Ends Basic

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy Petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other subjects.

MAN THE MATS: Slowly they progressed, conditioning exercise by conditioning exercise, move by move, and practice session by practice session. Finally, much blood, sweat, and tears later what is the most grueling practice schedule of any scholastic sport was completed. The men have been separated from the boys, and Coach Jim Silvestri's grapplers were ready to take to the mats.

Next Wednesday, Jan. 18, will mark the first real test of the fruits of the Bellboys' efforts as the season opens with the annual Christmas Tournament. The regular season opener follows close on the heels of that event as powerful Barringer poses the initial dual meet opposition on Jan. 3.

YOUNG BUT STRONG: featuring a squad marked by four returnees' among the 12 weight classes the Blue and Gold will be going at it with a relatively inexperienced squad in the early matches. Of the other starters three are graduates of the defunct Junior Varsity, and an unusually large group of five starters are first year men.

The great turnover can be traced to a new crop of musclemen that Silvestri has recruited to give his grapplers more team strength than any previous BHS mat squad. This power is not without its problems though, for wrestling is as much a sport of skill and knowledge of maneuvers as it is of strength. Pure brute force will not prevail on the mats.

These factors combine to leave the grapplers a question mark as the season gets under way. If the many new men, several of whom upset veteran favorites in an intra-squad wrestle-off to win their starting berths, can come along fast with the limited tactics they have attained in over a month of intensive practice, the bellboys could jell into quite a power, but if the new men are slow in developing, the early going will be rough.

SPIRIT: Despite the lack of a JV team, the high spirited matmen have held their number up to 34 after an opening day turnout of 44. For the younger matmen who have but a remote chance of cracking the 12 man starting group, the realization is apparently strong that a year of practice this time around is the only road to a successful season next time around.

Silvestri's band consists of an even dozen seniors, seven of whom currently rank as starters, and a very promising crop of fifteen sophomores. In this muscular group the Bellboys Bright

DiDomenico Aiming:

Domenico is returning this season in the 105 pound slot. After compiling a 17-1 record last time around as a 98-pounder, the third year veteran will be aiming for the State title he just missed as a junior. Behind him 195 is promising Soph John V.

At the 115 pound slot the boys are faced with their real problems to date as one potential returnee from last year's Varsity fell to marks.

Jim Bonkowski, a senior who last year was the District JV champ who fell to a dislocated shoulder. Junior John Periana, JV grad, then appeared to the front runner for the belt, but he was upset in the 1st tourney wrestle-off by fast developing soph Bill Ginger.

(The Bellboys have these intra-squad wrestle-offs for the past to start before every meet, so this should be an interesting position to watch.)

Shades of Cassius Clay, I Cucolo, who is returning for third year in the 123 pound slot, claims to be the "good looking one" among the Bellboy grapplers. With both senior John Uva and junior Don Vales behind him, Cucolo will also have to continue his trend as the "winning one" if he is to prevail.

DISGUSTED: Not only was beginning of last week's column omitted in the form of the four paragraphs but the promised review of the 1966 grid sea was omitted for the third consecutive week.

At least the monotony was broken it was the beginning not end of the story that was left this time.

MISS MARIE BRISK

In the Spirit of Christmas

Let us turn our thoughts to the first Christmas and capture in our hearts all the peace, love and understanding of that Day.

In the true spirit of Christmas, we wish you a happy and holy Day and pray that the blessings of the season will truly be yours.

Housekeeping Short-Cuts Make Holidays Merrier

If you are one of those who wishes that some of the work could be taken out of the holiday days, read on. You'll get some moral support if nothing else.

Keeping the house neat and clean for planned and unplanned guests is of special concern at this season. Don't worry about a little dust and lint. If you can't dust and vacuum as much as you would like, forget it. Clutter is what makes a house look messy. Keep the place as picked up and in order as possible. Guests don't see a little dust as easily as they see things obviously out of place.

A holiday dinner is over and Mrs. Homemaker has full dinner service for 20 people plus pots and pans staring her in the face. One homemaker has had it on this score. This year it's paper plates. If the family objects, they get to do the dishes this year. If you can't face the thought of paper dishes for a big dinner, consider them for small, more informal buffets and parties.

As the big days arrive and the thoughts of work still underwhelm you, take a few minutes to consider ways of cutting out some steps. Ask yourself these questions:

Are all the decorations necessary? Is all the food necessary? If so, can a simplified recipe be substituted or can semi-prepared food be used?

Could you enlist more help from other family members?

Are you worrying about details that no one will notice? Give yourself a present this year of not overworking.

Urge Measures To Solve Teacher Shortage Problem

The State Department of Education today released a report on a study of the teacher shortage situation in New Jersey, containing long range recommendations for solving the problem during the next decade.

"Imbalances in Teacher Supply in New Jersey," completed by the department for the State Board of Education, shows that the teacher shortage is highly critical in some fields of teaching and in certain areas of the state. In other areas there is sometimes an oversupply.

The southern, central and northwestern areas have critical shortages, while the northeast generally finds most of the teachers it needs.

The report urges public and private colleges to make plans now to provide additional space for teacher preparation in the needed fields. And it also recommends rapid development of plans for the building of two new state colleges, one in the southeast and the other in the northwest, to include teaching programs in the fields that are critical in those particular locations.

It also stresses the need to examine other sources of teacher supply, including housewives with teacher preparation, federal projects such as the National Teacher Corps, and liberal arts graduates who wish to prepare for teaching.

Stop 90 MPH Motorist At Gun-Point on Rt. 21

A 20-year-old Newark man was stopped at gunpoint on Route 21 and finally brought to a stop at gunpoint, has been arrested on three charges by Patrolman Anthony Intile.

Ruben De Los Santos, 114 Broad Street, Newark, will face charges of reckless driving, operating a vehicle without a license and unlawful use of an automobile. The car he was operating was stolen earlier the same day from Newark.

Also involved was a 15-year-old Newark boy who was taken to a juvenile home. De Los Santos is being held at Newark Street Jail on $500 bail.

Officer Intile's attention was attracted to the car after he heard a loud screeching of brakes at the Park Avenue intersection near Route 21 shortly after 4:30 p.m. Dec. 12.

Intile said the two occupants then exchanged places, behind the steering wheel before the car turned into the northbound entrance of Route 21. Intile gave chase in the patrol car at speeds up to 90 miles per hour.

The chase continued for three miles up the superhighway. Intile eventually drove along side the speeding vehicle, pulled his revolver and motioned the car to a stop.

Troop 147 Patrol Hikes About Washington, D.C.

The Howling Wolf Patrol of Troop 147, Franklin Reformed Church, visited Washington D.C. after winning three consecutive patrol contests (winter, spring, summer 1966).

Leading the group to this triple win was Patrol Leader and Life Scout Clifford Braun Jr. who is the troop's youngest junior leader and is now serving as troop scribe and librarian.

Primary purpose of the Washington trip was to hike the 16 mile Lincoln Trail maintained by the National Capital Area Boy Scout Council. The cool sunny day hike started at the Lincoln Memorial and passed through several sites associated with President Lincoln during the Civil War, including Ford's Theater, the House where Lincoln died, the White House, Fort Stevens, and the Anderson House (Lincoln's summer White House), where the hike ended.

Another Anderson House figured in the Scouts' trip, as the group guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of Bladensburg, Maryland, long time friends of Scoutmaster Welenofsky.

Each hiker received a trail medal after completing the hike and after reading a book on Abraham Lincoln. On Sunday after Mass at the National Shrine, the group visited Kennedy's Grave, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Washington Monument, and the Capitol.

A Newark man paid $365 in fines to Nutley Traffic Court Wednesday night for driving while on the revoked list, operating an unregistered car and illegally using automobile license plates.

Magistrate Edwin J. C. Joerg found Robert C. Lovelace, 28, of 18 Wall Street, Newark, guilty of all three charges. Lovelace was arrested by Ptl. Robert Schwarze at 2:17 a.m. November 26.

Schwarze said he arrested Lovelace after observing a car going at a fast rate of speed. Schwarze followed the 1956 Oldsmobile in the police car and eventually stopped the vehicle on Passaic Avenue near the Clifton line.

Schwarze discovered that Lovelace was driving without a license and that the vehicle was unregistered and was displaying license plates assigned to another car.

Magistrate Joerg fined Lovelace $255 for driving while on the revoked list. Joerg also revoked Lovelace's license for an additional year. The Newark man also paid $55 for misusing license plates and $55 for operating an unregistered vehicle.

Lovelace was not represented by an attorney. He pleaded guilty to all three charges.

October 4, 12:35 p.m. — Frank Mizer, 171 Hancock Avenue, reported a tool box containing approximately $400 in tools was missing from his garage. He told Sgt. John Kane at the police desk that most of the tools were of the auto mechanics type.

October 6, 10:26 a.m. — Three wrought iron tables were taken from the front porch of the Willie A. Thompson home at 97 Satterthwaite Avenue. The tables are valued at $15. Sgt. Edward Niedzinski and Ptl. Harry Austin investigated.

September 28, 8 a.m. Deputy Police Chief Sal Dimichino reported a burgundy silk sports jacket valued at $97.50 taken from his car. Dimichino was attending a meeting at the Armvets when theft took place.

October 11, 12:53 p.m. About $110 in cash was taken from a closet in the home of Sal Cognetta, 214 Centre Street. Cognetta told Detective Stan Kowalik that there was no forced entry made into his apartment.

Cognetta also reported on September 26 that he awoke to find $17 missing which he claims was put on a bedside television set before he went to sleep.
