Chamber Searches For 1967 Little Miss Belleville

Who's going to be Little Miss Belleville for 1967?

The Chamber of Commerce has begun its annual search for the town's cutest young lady, said Harry French, executive secretary, and any Belleville girl in the first to sixth grade is eligible for the contest.

Photographs of the contestants will be taken at Kondreck's Studio beginning Saturday, Jan. 7 and continuing until Saturday, Jan. 21. Voting for the youngsters will begin Feb. 9 and continue through Feb. 25. The contest is one of the most successful the Chamber has ever promoted.

Last year's winner was Debbie Current, who later went on to state-wide fame as Little Miss Garden State at Atlantic City.

Applications are available at the following businesses:

The Fountain, 46 Watessing Ave., Pariso Brothers Furniture Store, 16 Washington Ave.; Tannen's Shoe Store, 141 Washington Ave.; Mary Dell Fashions, 155 Washington Ave.; Andrew Thomas Men's Store, 155-A Washington Ave.; Royal Shop Rite Market, 169 Washington Ave.; and Jolly Cleaners, 300 Washington Ave.; Muscara School of Music, 314 Washington Ave.; DeWitt Savings and Loan Association, (Continued On Page 3)

Testa Testimonial

Over 500 guests are expected to attend the testimonial dinner tonight for football coach Tom Testa, scheduled for tonight at 8 p.m. at The Fountain on Watessing Ave. For Testa, 37, who lives at 15 Hickory Rd., Nutley, it will be the second testimonial dinner in as many months.

He explained that there were "too many bosses" to do his job well. The Varsity Club had backed his stand during their dinner for him last month.

THE FIRST SNOWFALL: And it was a dilly! Trudging cautiously through some eight-inches of snow at Branch Brook Park Monday morning was Leroy Roll, 31 Park View, and his six-year-old son Donald, who was enjoying the sleigh ride.

Trotting along for company was the family pup "Toots." Streets were clogged Sunday and snow plows were hard pressed to clear the streets after one of the heaviest snow storms so far this year. (Photo by ADAMS)

Mustaccio Fails In Bid For Plumbing Inspector

Bernard O'Connor, a tough 37-year-old ex-Marine sergeant, won his fight to retain his position as Town Plumbing Inspector last week when a hearing before Town Manager John R. Burnett cleared him of any wrongdoing after three months without his plumbing license.

College Men To Help Choose A Superintendent?

Two university representative to consult with and advise the Belleville Board of Education in its search for a new school superintendent are in prospect following the regular evening meeting of Dec. 19.

In an unanimously moved resolution, the Board said the educators, upon recommendation of the county superintendent of schools, should be invited to "consult and advise..." on the procedures to follow in the selection of the superintendent of schools.

The Board said in the preamble it hoped to implement further the recommendations of the National Education Association regarding the selection of a superintendent, and that it hoped to seek a sufficient number of suitable applicants from which to select.

Dr. William Twichell, county schools superintendent, could not be reached for comment on the resolution. It is believed, however, that he may decline to accept the responsibility for naming the two-man "acceleration team."

In another action, the Board, on recommendation of the business administrator, ordered cleaning and reconditioning of football equipment for a $880 fee. Olympic Record Itioning Co. made the low bid.

Apartment OK'd

A 240-unit garden apartment has been approved for the bog area off Joramem St. by County Judge Joseph B. Sugrue after some five years of controversy and litigation.

"He has received his license again," said Burnett Tuesday afternoon, and been returned to the job. O'Connor, who lives at 207 Franklin Ave., took the examination for plumbing inspector in Trenton, passed the test, and was certified for a license by the State Health Department.

Vincent Mustaccio, who had been acting plumbing inspector, filed the charges against O'Connor, claiming O'Connor had falsified his qualifications for the job with Civil Service. Where had Mustaccio gotten the information?

"I've never found out," said Burnett. "It would be most interesting to know." Burnett added that the complaint was based on O'Connor's military experience as an apprentice plumber and had been improperly certified.

The ex-Marine had had his license suspended for five days less than three months by Civil Service who had studied the case at the behest of Mustaccio. O'Connor did have a proper license when certified for the job, declared Burnett.

He was reinstated Dec. 21.

Funeral Friday For Auto Victim

He was discharged from the army a year ago and had been employed by Blickman, Inc. in Weehawken. He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Filaramosca, a brother, Richard, and a sister, Joyce, all of whom live at the family residence here.

New Year's Babe To Be Feted By Town Merchants

The Clara Maass Memorial Hospital staff is looking forward to much excitement on New Year's Day due to the "First Baby of the Year" contest sponsored by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Sol Sherman of Sherman's Childrens Shop, the Chamber has organized a new program to honor the town's first new citizen of 1967, and to welcome him or her with a shower of gifts contributed by many of the town's merchants.

Mrs. Sherman reported that an assortment of 16 gifts will be presented to the first Belleville baby of the year born to a Belleville resident at the hospital.

Harry French, executive secretary for the Chamber who urged town merchants to participate in this program, said that many of the town merchants said they would like to see this as an annual event.

Not only will the town's first newborn of the year be lavished with gifts as well as good wishes, but it also displays a spirit of co-operation prevalent in the Chamber of Commerce.

Merchants participating in the program are: Essex Buying Service, Crescent Press, Royal Shop-Rite, Fountain Restaurant, Belleville Times, W. T. Grant Company, Abbot's Drug Store, DeWitt Savings & Loan, Tannen's Shoe Store, Allen Pontiac, Inc., Kondreck Photographers, Belleville Rosery, Yudin's Paint Store, Sherman's Children Shop, Charles Jewellers, Inc., Paul's Shoe Store, and Robert R. Alves.

Mrs. Izzo Joins The Race For Board Seat

Richard Drake Says He Does Not Seek Reelection Feb. 14

Mrs. Josephine Izzo, 33 Van Houten Pl. became the first woman to enter the race for a seat on the Board of Education when she filed her petitions with Mrs. Mary Shader, Board secretary Dec. 20 at School 8.

"It is time to call a halt to the overly obstinate attitude, unsound policies, and impractical methods the Board has employed over the past year," she declared. She would join Mrs. Thomas F. McCool as the second woman on the Board if elected.

Richard H. Drake, incumbent, has announced his intentions of leaving the Board with the expiration of his term next February. Frank DiRienzo, also an incumbent, is expected to file for the office before the Jan. 5 deadline.

FIRST CANDIDATE: Mrs. Anthony Izzo (in dark coat) was the first of the candidates for a seat on the Board of Education to file petitions. She was accompanied to Board of Education offices at School 8 by, from left, James McCann, who is forming a committee for male support for Mrs. Izzo; Mrs. Patty Walsh, 131 Malone Avenue, who will form a woman's group to back Mrs. Izzo; Jack Rega, who will coordinate the committees; and Mrs. Mary Shader, Board Secretary who accepted the petitions.

INSPECTION TOUR: Accompanying the committee who will select Belleville's most artistically decorated home based on a Christmas theme was Jeanne Fornarotto, 4, of 523

Union Avenue, who examines the tiny show figures on the snow-covered lawn of the George Sbarra home at 34 Perry Street. Winners of the annual event will be announced next week.

Paul Brandman And His Busy Shoe Shop Are In Step With The Times

This Busy Proprietor Can Easily Get To The Foot Of All Problems

The proprietor of Paul's Shoe Shop at 153 Washington Ave. is — of course Paul Brandman, a 62-year-old merchant who has spent some 34 years in the business of supplying footwear to the pedal extremities. And what Brandman doesn't know about shoes is not to be known.

Brandman, who lives at 483 Joralemon St., started his own business at 87 Washington Ave. and gradually worked his way from store to store until today he has a coveted position opposite Town Hall. On a clear day one can hear the screams of outrage coming from the Council Chambers.

He has always been in the selling end of the business, and knows his product well. He carries the better brands such as Florsheim and Stride-Rite. "We do a lot of orthopedic work," said his manager Harold Roth, who is a resident of Clifton and who has worked for Brandman for the past year. Both are inveterate jokers and bandy phrases about like Pat and Mike.

He had been helped in his work by his wife, Esther, who passed away six years ago. Since then he has depended on two sons — Harold, 25, and Leonard, 20, who is a soldier in Thailand serving as a mechanic.

He is presently intrigued by a photograph Leonard sent home recently. It shows the soldier playfully fondling a boa constrictor, the company pet.

Harold is married is studying for his doctorate in chemistry at Seton Hall. He has another year to go, said Brandman with pride. He too, helps at the store when he has time.

Brandman's chief claim to fame is the vast amount of blood he has donated to the Red Cross Blood Bank — some 39 pints. "I'm the champion donor," he said Tuesday afternoon. "An other pint and I'll be a member of the Five Gallon Club."

From the 19 seats in his establishment, Brandman has probably served a goodly part of the town of Belleville at one time or another. The chances are good he'll serve them all before too long.

Pfc. M. Raimo Is Now In Vietnam

The 9th Infantry Division's 3d Brigade arrived in Vietnam, Dec. 19. Private First Class Frank Raimo, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Raimo, 72 Heckel St., sailed with the brigade when it departed the west coast of the U.S. last month.

The 9th Division, stationed at Ft. Riley Kan., was formed a year ago from veteran cadre personnel and soldiers considered to be among the best ever trained by the U.S. Army.

Pfc. Raimo is a member of Co. B of the brigade's 5th Bat., 60th Inf.

IN STEP with the times is Paul Brandman and his manager, Harold Roth, at right, a kinderred soul.

There's Plenty Of Reason To Celebrate New Year's, But Take It Easy, Okay?

The birth of a New Year may seem to many people a precious little reason for celebrating. As you tot up your Christmas bills, worry about your mounting fuel expenses, and ponder the world situation, you may reflect that if 1967 is going to be like 1966, who needs it?

But never fear. There is plenty of other excuses for celebrating on Jan. 1.

Birthdays are always good for a party. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI was born Jan. 1, 1895. Instead of shouting "Happy New Year," you can shout "Happy birthday, J. Edgar!"

Other famous people have New Year's Day for their birthdays, said researchers for Wild Book Encyclopedia. Lorenzo deMedici, patron of the arts and ruler of Florence, was born Jan. 1, 1449. Revolutionary patriot Paul Revere called Jan. 1, 1735, his birthday, and Revolutionary hero, "Mad Anthony" Wayne was born on the same date 10 years later.

And though it may be unchivalrous to mention a lady's age, flackmaker Betsy Ross came into the world Jan. 1, 1732. There are plenty of other reasons for celebration. Haiti proclaimed its independence from France, Jan. 1, 1804. Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation Jan. 1, 1863. The Commonwealth of Australia was proclaimed Jan. 1, 1901. And the United States parcel post service began Jan. 1, 1913.

But don't let your party last long, not more than a week or two. It was on Jan. 16, 1919, that the 18th amendment to the Constitution was ratified.

That's the amendment that prohibited the sale of alcoholic beverages.

This, Too, Was 1966

THE YEAR 1966 was, with all its agonies, the year of unfinished business. We have all become accustomed to living in a world of flux. It is not Herclitus, not Hegel or Marx, who fathers contemporary philosophy.

Patterns set in 1966 were vague and imprecise. Apart from its terrible tragedies in high places, this was not a year of dramatic progress or dramatic failure. We mourn its victims, not its achievements.

This old rock has completed another spin out here in the stars and everybody looks back. Where has Belleville been? Where is it now? And where will it go in the next twelve months? The documents are all in now, and what has been the town record? It may not have glittered with the sheen of accomplishment it might have; but it wasn't all darkness, either.

The Board of Education's ill-advised troubles with its superintendent of schools morally damaged the town and split its loyalties beyond hope of recovery. Honorable men, after completing such a distasteful job, would join Dr. Frank M. Durkee in voluntary exile. But they are not honorable men. What will 1967 bring to the Board of Education? Sadly, we must predict an unabashed continuance of the four-member majority's disdain for public opinion.

Politically, the year was remarkably static. After the unlamented departure of a former councilman through the elective process, the governing body settled down to a business-like routine. They are now men conducting municipal affairs instead of clowns trying hard for the lime-light.

The present council is now marred by the faint suggestion of the old days caused by the puzzling attitude of Councilman William H. Cullen, who seems to be a hesitant Golden, and a potential return to the days of bombast and picaresque behavior.

Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, a gentleman at heart, was mainly to blame for the town's troubles for allowing his councilmen to wander so far afield from the basic principles of parliamentary procedure. But when he did lay down the law, he was criticized for being too harsh!

One of the town's major accomplishments was the ouster from office of James R. Golden, a discredited councilman who was directly responsible for some of the most boorish conduct ever witnessed on a council chamber floor. Who will rise in his place to plunge the town into oblivion? Golden says he will seek reelection under the proposed commission form of government — hardly a good recommendation for the proposed change.

But to the average Belleville resident, problems were more direct. "Lemme see," said Mr. Belleville. "My forehead got bigger, but my scalp got smaller. Hair today gone tomorrow."

"I gained 20 pounds so there is more of me. There's the same amount of free air in the world, but I got to breathe faster to get my share of it. Fat people have to take deep breaths. Twice I told the boss to improve the firm — so there went the possibility of any raise in pay this year."

"I had ten fights with my wife, and the record shows at best one draw and nine losses. On the other hand, I did manage to stay out of jail."

Yes, human problems were less complicated.

Headlines cried of crises, Explorer sent back pictures from the moon, LBJ's voice was heard from outer space ("Get me down! Get me down!") — but on the theory, cherished by no one but me, it's the trivia that really counts.

Joseph Fornarotto was afraid he knew what the big hit song of World War III would be. "Over Here."

"There are no problems in your business — as long as there are people, there'll be news," one guy told us. But the way the news is coming from Vietnam, I wonder how long there will be people? Over in China Town they are celebrating 4662, "The Year of the Dog," and in many ways it was, it was.

Democratic sweeps, Vietnam crises, Gaullist victories — and at least a few wise words from Washington: "Using atomic energy for The Bomb is like using electricity only for the electric chair."

In Belleville the Christmas trees were well lit. On New Year's, the people are. It was a nice way to celebrate His birthday.

So the old year ends and the new year begins. We draw a summary that is incomplete before we even reach the totals. But there is reassurance in whatever measurement we make, and there is the promise of time still following, time ahead. Reassurance, even in the knowledge that yesterday's unfinished business is tomorrow's eternal legacy. — G.F.A.

United Nations; Hope For Peace, Or Grim Failure?

Considering the state of world affairs, you almost have to be a candidate for the funny farm if you can say "Happy New Year" without tongue in cheek. Americans, however, are more optimistic than older brethren around the globe and the future is bright.

Unless some trigger-happy power unleashes a nuclear attack, our nation will keep its eye on the gross national product, automobile production, Dow Jones averages and the proposed guaranteed income for non-workers. Another Utopian fringe benefit is the 20-hour work week... giving us more leisure time to create more fringe benefits.

Two cars, caviar and champagne... the simpler things in life — will stay important. While the struggle goes on at home to keep the materialistic head above water, occasional reminders of such detached events as the Vietnam war, tax increases, Great Society boondoggles, recession depression, inflation and deflation will reach our subliminal. The ideological clashes — with hot and cold wars — can be expected to flash across TV screens and newspaper headlines. This will prove that man on earth is something less than perfect, even though created in God's image.

In the face of this "slim" element of trouble, remember the United Nations. For two decades, seated in architectural splendor on New York City's posh East Side, the UN has a remarkable record... of inadequacy. Despite consuming vast sums of money, mostly American, the UN's efforts at peace-keeping, stemming the spread of tyranny and oppression of peoples over the world, is one thing — a grim mockery.

Through UN history, when Soviet Russia battered little Hungary and Red China crushed Tibet, for example, the august body never invoked sanctions against these aggressors. Today, in Africa, Ibo tribesmen are massacred by the Hausa, the Watutsi tribe faces extermination and may some day be remembered only as a dance fad, and Congo terrorists attack Angola. This is just part of the scene in that country... The Arab nations and Israel teeter on the brink of war, too. Still, no UN sanctions.

Pity Poor Rhodesia, however. There is no war or bloodshed but the UN, supported by the United States and other major powers, plans sanctions against Rhodesia, because a white minority refuses to turn over to a black majority the power to rule that nation.

Once again, Uncle Sam is picking up hot chestnuts that belong in the hands of Johnny Bull. Why should we support the British, when they and other "friendly" nations keep shipping materials and goods to the North Vietnamese? Supplies, incidentally, which end up in the hands of the Viet Cong, killing American soldiers fighting that ideological war to protect the world from Communism. To date, over 6,000 U.S. soldiers have died in the rice paddies and jungles... with more to come.

Readers of this newspaper probably view the UN with a certain amount of detachment... as a tourist attraction, a school trip for the sixth grade class in history. Lofty idealism has wrapped itself around the UN, but make no mistake, its actions effect every family in this nation.

The UN has had a long trial run... two decades. In any other field but diplomacy, it would be ruled a failure. As long as we remain diplomatically naive and provide a world-wide public forum for United States critics, the UN can be nothing but a severe headache. Some will say — turn the other cheek, in answer to criticism. We already have.

Hope may spring eternal, but this is ridiculous.

To The Firemen

TO THE EDITOR:

Our heartfelt thanks go to the men from Belleville's Fire Department for the fast service that was received when our mother's home was burning early Monday morning Dec. 19.

The action that was taken kept the fire to a small area. Also, thanks are due to the deputy chief who was in charge. THE FORNAROTTO'S, 90 Franklin St., Belleville, N.J.

Grateful Family

TO THE EDITOR:

The family of Mrs. Vic Carbone would like to thank the Police Department and the Fire Department for having responded to our call for aid for our mother. Many towns find a great many faults with their police and fire departments. We in Belleville can be proud of our men in blue. They have been polite and have shown concern for the people they are called upon to help.

To these men we say, "Thank you!" MRS. DONALD CAIRNS, MRS. FRED PROSPERI, 32 Honiss St., Belleville, N.J.

If the charges were justified, why were they withdrawn? Surely it was not done by a tenderhearted Board majority. The first statement clearly says Durkee is guiltless. So who's confused?

The story clearly reflects another unhappy case in school administration. — Editor.

Out To Pasture?

TO THE EDITOR:

Mr. Wische, out to Pasture:

Now that Tom Testa's career as head football coach of Belleville varsity football is coming to a close it is time to reevaluate the entire athletic program with a view towards eliminating the deplorable conditions that are causing capable coaches to become subservient to the "Fearless Foursome" of the elected Bd. of Ed. (Mr. Arvidson, Mr. Juliano, Dr. DiRuggiero and Mr. Saletta) or be relieved of their duties one way or another.

One can reasonably assume that the negative votes cast against Mr. Testa's recommendation by Athletic Council members, Mr. Landolfi, Mr. Carney and Mr. Napolitano were dictated by the "Fearless Foursome."

We have publicly asked the aforementioned members to explain the guidelines used in determining their votes. To date there has been no reply from them.

By their action towards our most successful football coach we know they are unqualified to sit in judgement on any athletic controversy. The citizens of Belleville have lost confidence in them. Their resignation from the Athletic Council is warranted.

Where was our Athletic Director Herman Wische during the adverse actions by the "Fearless Foursome" (Mr. Arvidson, Mr. Juliano, Dr. DiRuggiero and Mr. Saletta) that riddled "His coaching staff" to pieces. Strange, that he did not utter one public word in defense of "Any of his coaches."

Was his silence also dictated by the "Fearless Foursome" who recently approved a substantial raise in salary for him?

Surely, his opinions based on his close association with all coaching staff members would shed some light on the fitness of Ron Kulik, recently discharged track coach, Nick Petty, ex-baseball coach, and now Tom Testa, former football coach. As titular head of Belleville's school athletics, the deplorable petty politics prevalent in our school athletic program should be shouldered by Mr. Wische.

He has shown a lack of courage and loyalty to his men, and above all he has let down Belleville's students who are being denied the services of proven qualified coaches.

The "Fearless Foursome" would have us believe that the mire that has bogged our school system, especially the athletic department is due to the "budget cut by the town Council." Yet they seem to find funds for exorbitant raises for friendly administrators, and needless expenditures of taxpayers money to remove a capable (by their latest evaluation) school superintendent Dr. Durkee.

On and on it goes into an endless road. Wouldn't it be a wonderful New Year if the above mentioned "Fearless Foursome" the "Unholy trio" Landolfi, Carney and Napolitano were all put out to pasture with Mr. Wische? (Continued On Page 16)

Smoke Signals

GORDON F. ADAMS

NEW LEAF: Well, it's all over but paying the bills. And who was the real Santa Claus? Why, it was Good Old Dad, who else? Shortly after midnight Saturday a new babe will arrive in town amid clouds of hope, good will, and optimism. But for Dad, it will simply mean a return to the grindstone. It will be, however, a labor of love, and God bless him.

THE NOT-SO-CRYSTAL BALL: What lies ahead during 1967 for battered old Belleville? Well, there's the referendum for a change-of-government, and already friend and foe are baring their fangs for the battle. It's sad we can't have stable government here. The only answer is to elevate the caliber of candidates seeking office. If there's any doubt, just check the names of prospective candidates hoping for a chance at the public payroll.

After the ouster of J. Reynolds Golden (He retired from office by public demand), who was there to rise from obscurity and plunge the town into a chaos again? None other than the aforementioned municipal reject who modestly announced plans to run for office under the commission form of government. Even the Democratic Party here gave him bum's rush.

The Bd of Ed is seeking a new superintendent of schools after keeping the town in an uproar for over a year. Michael Rosamilia, acting superintendent of schools, has publicly washed his hands of any suggestion that he take the post. What kind of a situation will the new superintendent find himself in?

The Town has a new Parking Authority — one of the few blessings of last year — and merchants here do not yet belong to the Chamber of Commerce. The stronger the CoC grows, the more Belleville will grow.

Despite the urging of The Times, most business men here carefully shirked their responsibilities and none could be found to run for office during the May Municipal Election. Hence, our town troubles. All the service clubs (who have well-qualified members) couldn't muster one good name for the Town Council. They are simply good-time Charlie clubs laughing it up once a week while the town staggers slowly along.

STITCH IN TIME:

Mapplewood, Bloomfield, Short Hills, and Nutley schools plan to show the film "The Bad Strangers" to their students as a warning against the danger of perverts molesting children. But not Belleville. Why? One naive principal says such a situation doesn't exist here. The cops know better. The Board of Ed says it will decide after the first of the year.

It's a presentation of "We Must Care" Chapter 4 here, which is led by Mrs. Michael Moriello, 148 Garden Ave., and she has experience to guide her.

With the unanimous approval of other educators, you'll think our provincial principals would give it priority. They fear it would warp junior's id. Mrs. Violet Spray of School 7 is one principal who could preface such a motion picture with the proper amount of wisdom that would guarantee her children wouldn't have their twigs bent in the wrong direction.

REASON WHY:

Betram Powers, prez of NY's International Typographical Union, predicts his printers will get the "biggest, fattest and juiciest contract" ever as negotiation time approaches. He thinks nine other newspaper unions will do as good. The reason why he says this is that the newspaper industry in NY no longer has any "poor cousins to cry poor" mouth. He's correct. They're dead as a mackerel. They expired during the last strike — a little wedding-out process that took some 140 days.

ABOUT TIME:

The Department, for the first time, defied crackpots who criticized religious motifs and brought out a Christmas Stamp truly representative of the event it commemorates. Christmas, after all, observes the birthday of Jesus Christ.

And to have a stamp with a funeral wreath or a jolly Santa Claus is a travesty of the true significance of the day. To deny the public the beauty of these paintings on their postage stamps is to be foolish and petty. Personally, I hope it's only the first of our "religious" Christmas postage stamps.

SIBBY SICA of Belleville has been named Upsala's most valuable lineman of the 1953 football season, and Lou Checchetto of Newark has won the award as the Vikings' most valuable back. A 5-10, 205-pound guard, Sica was a key man in Upsala's successful (6-2) season. A junior, he played both offense and defense, appearing in all eight of his team's contests this year.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

He's Outraged

To The Editor:

During the course of the hearings on the charges against Dr. Durkee by the Belleville Board of Education, whom I represented for that purpose, I deemed it necessary to write you with respect to what I claim was erroneous and prejudiced reporting of the event. My letter, which you published in September, 1966, concluded as follows: "Since I anticipate a continuation of this type of biased and unreliable reporting by you, it is my purpose to defer such action as I deem appropriate until the termination of the proceedings."

The termination of the proceedings confirms the fears which I then expressed and the faint hope when I entertained at the prospect that at the very least, your zeal in behalf of the Superintendent to creep into your news columns in reporting the final disposition of the matter, and that your views would be restricted to the editorial columns.

On Dec. 1, 1966 your front page banner headline read as follows: BOARD LOSES CASE AGAINST DURKEE; SUPERINTENDENT AWARDED $26,000.00 PLUS WITHDRAWAL OF BOARD CHARGES.

This is, in my judgment, flagrantly deceptive and untruthful reporting. What makes it inexcusably significant is that you well know this to be so. The conclusion is inescapable and simple logic dictates that this headline story was deliberately designed to mislead your readers into the belief that your story reflected, and reported a finding or determination by the Commissioner of Education.

It has been brought to our attention that this issue of your paper is being circularized in the town as a sample copy which merely confirms my view that this erroneous headline was solely for political purposes to influence the vote in the pending school board election against those who were obligated by the oath of their office to perform a distasteful task. To have done less would have been an abdication of their responsibility.

When this story was published you were acquainted with the legal documents which terminated the litigation and which the board spread in full on its minutes. It consisted of a stipulation signed by Dr. Durkee, the Board and their respective counsel, and the Judgment of Dismissal signed by the Commissioner of Education. These instruments clearly recited that the Superintendent submits his resignation upon specified conditions and the judgment simply approves of the stipulation and the termination of the hearings.

How you manage to read into this that "the Board loses the case," and that an "award" is made to the Superintendent would normally be difficult to perceive. But that difficulty is dissipated since it is crystal clear that you intended by this headline to convey the impression that you were reporting the decision or determination of the Commissioner.

No such event occurred, as you well know, and no devious reasoning on your part can explain, much less justify, such reckless and irresponsible journalism.

If you see fit to appraise the resignation of the Superintendent under the terms of the stipulation as a loss by the Board and a victory for Dr. Durkee, that is your privilege — though I venture the opinion that many would not agree with you. However, elemental rules of responsible journalism demand that this evaluation be restricted to your editorial columns and that such a periodical will not permit its news columns to be used to expound or promote the editor's personal views and prejudices. This, I charge, is precisely what occurred in this instance.

Since you claim to be the only newspaper published in the community imposes an additional responsibility on you to be truthful, if not accurate, in reporting events which affect your readers. Based on this truism, I ask that you re-examine this headline story and that you print a retraction in as prominent a position as the original story so that your readers, and those now being circularized with this edition will be apprized of the true facts so as to enable them to properly assess the situation. How else can one expect an enlightened public to vote intelligently on matters which so vitally affect them.

It is not my desire to continue this dialogue since I perceive that this would be a disservice to the school system and its children and youth whose welfare must always be the paramount consideration. But, I do and shall insist that the record be set straight before my association with the event is terminated.

SAUL ALEXANDER, COUNSELOR AT LAW, 5 COLT ST., PATERSON.

After re-examining the headlines, there's still nothing to retract. The Board, represented by Alexander, withdrew all charges, paid Dr. Durkee some $26,000, and said he was guiltless — after trying to convict him for over a year. This, too, was "spread in full on the minutes."

And as for "devious reasoning" one has to look no further than the Board statements. May we quote two of them?

1. "No inference or implication of improper conduct on the part of the superintendent is to be inferred from the resignation of the superintendent."

2. The settlement is "in no way to be considered an admission that preferment of the charges made by the Board were not justified."

The story clearly reflects another unhappy case in school administration. — Editor.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Customers often ask us why we don't write in this column about the quality of the programs.

The purpose of this column is not to take issue with program material. We are trying to make some of the more intricate technical TV developments more understandable by the use of simple, easy to understand language. The writer is a technician, not a program critic.

In the first place we find that opinions about certain programs vary greatly and we have no intention to get into this controversy. If one likes a program, fine, if one does not, there is always that little button to shut the set off or to a different station. We are fortunate enough to have our selection from 7 VHF and 2 UHF stations. Last week one customer came to our store with a visitor from Pennsylvania. They get only one local station. They get only one local station. It is snowy. He could not get away from a TV set here and he marveled at the wonderful reception and choice of stations. He was entranced with color TV.

We have stated in an earlier column that it is impossible to have first-rate entertainment all the time, there simply is not enough talent available. Before TV a musical hit played for 10 or more years before even the major part of the country was covered. To day on TV 50 million people see it at the same time. If it is repeated, there is something about seeing "the same thing all the time."

If you are not satisfied with the program material, just make yourself heard. If enough people do that, there will be a change. You can write to the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D.C. 20541, or sponsor. The FCC is very sensitive to criticism. But don't just criticize, make some suggestions what you would like to see and hear.

We service what we sell. Beck's Radio TV Hi-Fi News 667-2275

Pfc. R. Sarokas Now In Vietnam

Army Pfc. Richard S. Sarokas, 21, son of Joseph Sarokas Sr., 425 Greylock Pkwy., arrived in Long Binh, Vietnam, Nov. 27 with his unit, the 5th Battalion, 2nd Artillery.

Pfc. Sarokas, who completed 11 weeks of training in air defense and ground support at Ft. Bliss, Tex., before leaving for Vietnam, is a gunner in the 2nd Artillery Battery C.

The battalion will contribute fire power from four batteries of M-42 Self Propelled Automatic Weapons. The M-42, known as the "Duster," is manned by a crew of five and consists of two 40 - millimeter cannons, turret mounted on a truck vehicle.

Attached to the battalion is a battery of track mounted Quad 50 caliber machine guns.

He entered on active duty in November, 1965 and completed basic training at Ft. Dix.

He is a 1963 graduate of Baringer High School in Newark, and was employed by Cheston Co., in Newark, before entering the Army.

A Public Address System to Be Installed Next Year

A company - wide public address system connecting nine generating stations, ten switching stations and eight electric service dispatchers' offices simultaneously, will be placed in service early next year by the Electric Department of Public Service Electric and Gas Company.

This installation is the result of a thorough investigation of the company's communication facilities following the Northeast blackout in November, 1965. All parts of the new system will be backed up by storage batteries so that sudden loss of A.C. power will not affect it. Each of the 27 locations will have an acknowledgment button, which when pressed, will light an indicator in Newark telling the load dispatcher that each location has heard the message.

The telephone company is supplying all the circuits to provide the talking signal and the complete acknowledgment system between each location and the Newark office. Public Service is installing the necessary amplifiers and speakers for the switching stations and service dispatchers' offices. At the generating stations, the telephone circuits will be connected to the existing station public address systems so that the top supervisors can hear the message no matter where they may be in the plant. All use of this system will be recorded on the present load dispatcher magnetic tape recording equipment.

In emergencies, time is the most important factor. Information must be passed along rapidly to many areas so that operators can put in motion established emergency procedures. It was apparent to the company that with the existing system, valuable time would be lost during an emergency while load dispatchers rang and talked to operators, call by call, to each one of the 27 operating centers. During a major disturbance, operators at many locations would be so busy that answering the telephone would be delayed. At the same time, the dispatchers would be swamped with calls from personnel who must have information concerning the nature of the emergency.

Various radio ideas were investigated, but no satisfactory system for acknowledgment could be worked out. The system using telephone company service and acknowledgment equipment seemed to have all the features that were considered desirable.

This facility is being installed primarily for use during major emergencies. However, it is expected that it will provide valuable service in day - to - day operation.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

Two Belleville Seniors are Competing In Tomorrow's Homemaker Search

Mary Jean Moyle and Phyllis Linfante are two Belleville High School seniors who recently took part in the General Mills, Inc. Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow contest. They took a written knowledge and attitude test dealing with homemaking on December 6.

By entering, one of the girls could go on to earn a $5,000 college scholarship from $110,000 in scholarships available. National runners-up will be awarded $4,000 and $2,000 scholarships, respectively. State winners will be awarded $1,500 grants with $500 awards going to state runners-up.

Schools having winners will be presented sets of Encyclopaedia Britannica and local winners will be presented with specially designed silver charms and will have their test papers entered in the state competition.

Mary Jean noted that the test did not emphasize any one particular thing but covered in detail, sewing, cooking, buying and budgeting, fabrics, marriage counseling, and family living.

She is in her third year of homemaking at BHIS and enjoys classes with her teacher, Mrs. Elizabeth Agnoli. She has not yet decided to major in home economics if she goes on to college. For the present she likes to bake and prefers making fancy cookies to anything else. Mary has always sewed and now makes some of her own clothes.

Besides being adept at home, she is taking modern jazz dancing lessons at the Studio Workshop, Nutley. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moyle of 218 Little Street.

Phyllis, a sixth year home ec student, was puzzled over the questions concerning making use of space in a given room area. She also mentioned the amount of detail the test went into on specifics such as the use of different threads and fabrics.

She would like to go on to be a dietician since foods interest her the most but she also likes the creative aspect that interior decorating offers.

The daughter of Peter Linfante of 27 Rocco Street, and the late Mrs. Linfante, she is chief cook and bottle-washer at home. She enjoys all kinds of cooking and knows a variety of dishes to the delight at her family.

Through practice, she has come to be good at budgeting for the household and has also tried her hand at sewing once in a while.

Phyllis is a former member of the student council and outside of school enjoys bowling and dancing.

This spring, state winners will be accompanied by a school advisor on an expense-paid educational tour of historical shrines in Washington, D. C. and Colonial Williamsburg. The trip will culminate with a dinner when the All-American Homemaker of tomorrow and her runners-up will be announced.

Judging for national honors is on the basis of the original test scores plus personal observation and interviews during the tour.

Always the heart of our business

Why do most drugstores sell everything from breakfast to dance wax...? The answer is simple. It is a matter of economic necessity. Americans, thank goodness, are generally healthy and there are not enough prescriptions to keep all drugstores going. Thus, we sell a variety of merchandise. By so doing we are able to stay open and render assistance whenever and wherever it is needed. Prescription service, however, continues to be the heart of our business and we are always pleased to assist you when medication is needed.

Sideline Byline

YEAR THAT WAS: As 1966 draws to a close it leaves behind a bushel full of athletic records unequaled in quality or quantity. With the best seasons ever recorded on two fronts plus wide - spread success in other endeavors, the Year that Was might well have been the best in Belleville's scholastic sport history.

Highlights in the year of championships included: The Bellboys first State Tournament win in half a decade at the close of the last cage season; an unprecedented crop of three finalists and two district champs for the powerful grapplers, a rebuilding bowling team that broke a handful of records; an amazing 23.5 diamond season that surpassed 1965's laurels and capped by the retirement of the best coach in Belleville history - Nick Petti.

We also had the strongest track season on Bellboy annals with first year mentor Pat Forte leading his troops to 10.3 success with one of the state's top runners at the fore - front of this burst; a methodical "state public school" crew championship over Nutley and carrying over into the current scholastic term with a strong 6.3 grid showing by a determined but inexperienced squad.

Quite a record to be proud of with Belleville sports was at its best in '66.

WINTER CLOSE: Nineteen Hundred and sixty six began with the close of a group of routine seasons that managed to leave their marks upon posterity despite a lack of overwhelming success.

On the basketball scene Coach Al LoBallo's cagers were in the process of closing out a fourth place finish 12-10 season that could have produced, 19.3 greatness had ten more baskets been scored in the course of seven less than three point losses.

Capping the season as Rich Pucciarello moved into the record books as the first Bellboy to break the 400 point mark, the Bellboys added spoils success to their year while assuring a winning season in a low scoring triumph over defending District champion Bloomfield in the opening round of the tourney. Pucciarello's efforts saw him average 19 points and score 410 in a 22 game season.

On the mats Coach Jim Silvestri was enjoying unprecedented individual success for the five year history of the sport at Belleville. Finishing a disappointing 5.6 year, Nick DiDomenico and Mike Oliver went on the arm district titles for the first dual Bellboy champions. DiDomenico (then a junior) capped his season with only one loss from the 98 - pound set, and that coming in the Regional semi.

Oliver, a senior Bellboy captain came back from marked by injury year to earn his 156, title. At the other extreme much improved heavy weight John Rempuschki went through his 12 - match season downing every foe but one - a Kearny bruiser who edged him out of District honors despite a regular season loss.

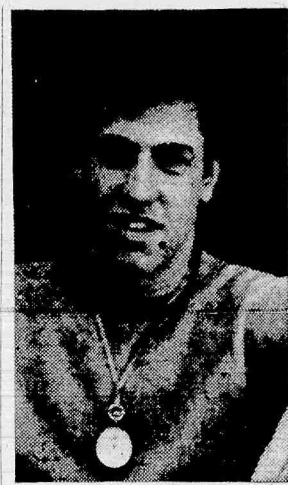

For Mike Salzarulo's bowlers a team of four juniors and a soph made the future bright with a mid - loop finish in the 12 team North Jersey league. Then a junior Mike Rowitz led the efforts establishing records for high averages and series along the way.

UNBELIEVABLE: With the best seasons ever on two fronts spicing the air for a combined 33.8 h.g. spring of 1966 is one time that may never be equalled for unbelievable success.

DIAMOND DUST: On the diamonds, Petti was leading the Bellboys to new heights of success for the third consecutive year. Slumping at the end of the long campaign with three straight one - run losses, the Blue and Gold still managed to attain 23.5 success to replace the 1965 squad in the niche as best ever.

In the process the Bellboys pailed down their second Big Ten Conference crown by a healthy four game margin after an early season chase with neighboring Nutley.

Starting like world beaters the

BOB BOGLIONE

Bellboys swept through their first seven foes with a 52 - 11 run margin before flying at the plate and going 31 innings without an earned run. Getting their second wind, the longest streak on BHS annals was added to a season that had begun with the fastest start ever seen. This drive saw the Blue and Gold win 14 straight foes to make a shambles of the stretch run for the Big Ten pennant.

In the process of the late season spurt, Art Sheridan (who may be All - State) tied the seasonal win high for a BHS pitcher while establishing a career record of 17 triumphs in two terms. The versatile Bellboy also played five other positions as needed while batting .396.

Providing strength up the middle another All - Stater George Debrowski teamed with junior Rich San Filippo to give Belleville an unbeatable double - play combo. Also in the course of the record barrage, junior Jim Serritella added a hot bat to the fire to surpass the school record of 31 seasonal safeties.

CINDER TRACKS: Not to be outdone, Pat Forte's Cindermen took nine straight meets after a slow start enroute to a 10.3 slate that bettered the previous years BHS high of 8.4. Going with a squad manned mainly by returnees from the 1965 precedent setting team, the Bellboys used a determined second effort to overcome numerous injuries with success.

Leading the way all season was two Bellboys captains Bob Boglione and Harry Baker, both of whom took nothing but dual meet firsts in 1966. Boglione did his share in the distance runs while Baker handled the pole vault and hurdles.

Despite some lopsided victories and many an outstanding individual performance, other cinder highlights have to be third place showing in the Big Ten, second in the Long Branch relays, and fifth in the strong track minded county.

Capturing thirteen dual meet firsts, as well as a Big Ten and Newark Board title before being edged in the County, Boglione finished his amazing tenure at Belleville with a state District title and a prospect of continued success in the future.

STATE CHAMPS: On the crew scene, a successful year by Mike Lally's oarsman was capped by a triumph in the traditional battle with neighboring Nutley for state supremacy in the two team public school class.

NEW TERM: On the gridiron the Bellboys went into 1966 with the prospect of but two Veterans on a smaller than usual squad. But with triple sessions practices Fifth year mentor Tom Testa and his lieutenants Pat Forte and Mario Cocchiola whipped the Bellboys into shape for a 6.3 season marked by two heartbreaking losses and the highest scoring since the days of All-American Rich Luzzi enroute to a 15th ranking in the state for the second consecutive year.

On the Cross country lanes as was the case a year before, golf rebuilding was the theme as Paul Szem, Salzarulo with golf. Unled an experienced team through its pace.

Then came the beginning of the 1966-67 basketball campaign, a new bowling year, and (as of

For The Bellboys It Was One Of Their Best Games Of A Waning Season

For three quarters Friday night, Belleville appeared headed for the upset of the season. Leading undefeated Orange by six points while going into the final period, the Bellboys seemed destined to break a four game backslide with their best effort of the current term while rocking the iBg Ten Conference to its foundations. But they lost 54-44 in a heartbreaker.

It happened as the fourth quarter opened with the big and fast Tornadoes switching from a porous zone defense to a full court press. Taking advantage of their height off of the boards for the first time in the evening and stealing the bewildered Bellboys blind, the visitors from Orange ran off eleven straight points to move in front to stay. A run of six in the waning minutes then sealed the Bellboys fate at 54-44.

Despite their fifth straight loss after two early season wins, The Bellboys easily played their best game of the year in this outing. Putting forth an inspired effort that would have been good enough to overcome any other team in the league (except front-running Orange) Belleville added a rosier hue to the remainder of the season while failing to bring home Christmas two days earlier.

Playing a tight man-to-man defense and scoring with surprising ease, Coach Al LoBallo's Blue and Gold had managed to stay in the ballgame through the first quarter for the first time in recent outings to the 14th surprise of a near capacity crowd in Belleville High School gymnasium. As a matter of fact the game had been tied at 11-11 as late in the quarter as 1:25 before Orange's outstanding junior Bob Butts came up with a three point play.

Thanks to close Bellboy guard play by Rich San Filippo and LeRoy Polite, the six-foot-four visitor was limited to 12 points over the first three quarters, putting a cramp in his normally high scoring tendencies.

It wasn't until the final period that Butts managed to get untracked by pouring in 13 more markers to lead his beleaguered forces from the brinks of certain disaster to a preliminary test win before Orange's show down with second place and once beaten Bloomfield.

With Jim Catalano and San Filippo sharing the scoring honors and leading Belleville's effective steal barrage, the ell boys managed to dominate the second quarter despite an early lapse. Adding to the three points that had finished the first period Orange opened the second, four more points to pull ahead by an 18-11 count.

Then the Bellboys battled back finishing the half with a three and a half minute six point streak that demoralized the ever confident Tornadoes and sent the locals to the locker room leading 21-20.

Then came the third period as the Blue and Gold continued their spurt in what was to have been their best period of the year. Hitting for 7 of 13 field goal attempts while evenly rebounding, a far taller opponent that included 6-foot-four veteran Morris Billingslea, six foot-five rookie Steve Daniels, and six-foot-five newcomer Jim Bailey on its roster. Besides the high jumping Butts, Belleville exhibited the fruits of its hours of practice for the first time.

Catalano led the scoring end of the spurt by depositing 4 of 7 shots for eight of his team leading 15 points. Joining him, soph Bob aker replaced a foul laden Polite in the line-up to toss in another four points, Orange's effort were limited severely by the tight Belleville defense as only 11 shots were allowed in a nine yesterday) some wrestling, but these stories are incomplete as yet as 1966 draws to a close.

NON-SCHOOL: Outside the school scene Belleville sports also marked by some world record weight lifting marks by Phil Grippaldi, a product of Recreation Director Bob Cook's stadium based program and a strong candidate for the 1968 Olympics.

An American Legion baseball season that fell short of its goals despite a strong finish, and news of more state titles to departed walker Ron Kulik; plus a strong and well balanced Little League and recreation League program in several sports, and most noticeably strife.

All but the last are welcome back for another term. Unfortunately, though, all will not be back for 1966 was a year of success that may never again be equalled. Never before at BHS had so few won so many.

Panthers, Rebels Lead The Rec's Junior League

After two league games in the Recreation Junior "A" League the Panthers, and the Rebels have moved to the front by virtue of two straight wins each.

The Celtics, another powerful team in the League, after a dramatic win over the Trotters, came back to drop a squeaker to the Panthers by 19-20.

Another extremely close game was played last week by the Cougars and the Valleys. These teams were tied at the end of the first quarter, the Cougars led 15-10 at the half, the Valleys cut the Cougars lead to 27-24 at the three quarters.

During the last two seconds of the game Gary Sorrentino stole the ball and sunk the tying field goal. Fouled on the shot he sank his foul shot to put his team in the victory column 37-36.

In other games last week the Rebels drubbed the Trotters and the Giants beat out the Dribblers 23-19.

John Moraski was high scorer for the evening laying in 34 points for the Rebels.

Others who scored ten or more points were Gary Trainor with 11 for the Panthers, Richard Moracki with 16 and Richard Caa-fetta with 11 for the Cougars, Joseph Cotugno with a big 18 for the Valleys, Rocco Marotti with 11 for the Dribblers, Frank Rustomano, with 12 for the Giants, Thomas Betz with 13 and Thomas Jones with 12 for the Rebels.

Despite these high scoring records all the teams in this League are demonstrating good team work with everybody contributing both to the score and to the defense.

Much in evidence is the skill many of the players are picking up by attending the Recreation Basketball Clinic which is conducted at the Senior High School by Mr. Al LoBallo and Mr. Herman Wishe.

The Clinic is run every Saturday at 3 p.m. is open to all Belleville boys and will next be run on Jan. 7.

Montclair Downs BHS During Final Minutes With An 31-30 Score

Leading 31-30 going into the final period the Bellboys fell to a spurt of Montclair free throws 48-43 in a recent Big Ten Conference encounter. It was a close battle that saw the lead change hands 16 times before Montclair finally annexed its first triumph before dropping Belleville to .500 at 22.

Having led the scores with an impressive third quarter debut against Kearny, sophomore, Bob Baker earned his first start of the new season. The six-foot one-inch newcomer responded by a gain leading the Blue and Gold scorers before fouling out with 1:18 remaining. It was Baker's fifth personal that sunk the Bellboys. It not only cost his services, but led to the decisive foul shot by Mountie Jim Tansey.

Neither team shot impressively in this artistic fiasco as only 35 of 96 field goal attempts found their mark collectively. The biggest problem (from a Bellboy standpoint) was a bad off - night by outside shooting guard Jim Catalano, who had led the team in scoring in the early going.

Coming out of a sick bed to play, the senior back - courtman couldn't get untracked as he racked up a sub - ten per cent evening.

A district height advantage gave the Mounties an edge in rebounding, but a strong 11 carom performance by Mike Matyeka - who was also earning his first start off of two impressive sub jobs - kept this department from being a complete disaster. This senior forward, who started late after football, also put in an accurate 4 or 8 jumpers enroute to eight points. As the game developed, the Bellboys would have played the whole game with just the starting five players had Baker not fouled out.

Columbia Mauls Bellboys With A 63-32 Upset

Suffering through the waning hours in recent Belleville sports the hapless 1966-67 Bellboys were mauled by a vengeful Coug team, 63-32 at Columbia.

Being out - shot, out - rebounded 42-27 and out - defended 1 Blue and Gold managed to fall behind 29 to 12 after the first half before Columbia's promising junior guard Robby West added the finishing touch with a nifty point third quarter assist from Angelo Iantosca.

Jim Catalano was the only Bellboy to make a significant in the scoring column as accounted for half of the Belleville markers after picking up 12 of the 12 first half points.

From the start it was no 1 game, but at least the young newcomers got a chance to play for the shellshocked locals. Meanwhile Senior Tom Gialanella made his first appearance at a pre - season shoulder dislocation.

What Kind Of A Year Was 1966? It Had Something For Everyone

TOWN LOSS: Ralph A. Vara, 55, who had been a member of the Public Works Department, died as superintendent after some 33 years service. He was known as "Mr. Democrat" and had long been a political force in Belleville. His funeral at Holy Family Church was one of the largest of the year — and marked the passing of a notable figure here.

THE DURKEE CASE was easily the story of the year as the Board pressed a year-long fight to ouster the town's highest educational officer. In the photo at left Dr. Frank M. Durkee nervously pinches his lips while listening to testimony during the hearing. At his right is Mrs. Mary Shader, Board secretary, who said she had nothing to do with the Board's prosecution against Durkee. At right is Eric Groezinger, assistant commissioner of education who heard the case. Seated is Ernest S. Arvidson, who formally filed some 21 charges against the superintendent — and later withdrew them all. Standing is Durkee's attorney William V. Cullen, who tangled Board witnesses in conflicting testimony. He drew from Business Administrator Harold Dufford the admission he

RECREATION: Councilman Ralph A. Casale proposed the construction of a swimming pool and produced a referendum to decide whether or not the town wanted one. The public, however, decided it was too costly, and the proposal went down the drain.

RETIRED: Police Chief Charles McGinnis, 444 Jorammon St., retired Aug. 31 after over 30 years as a chanceman, patrolman, lieutenant, and finally the top position in the department. Donald Smith was made chief after McGinnis left.

CLEANING UP: Chugging briskly up and down the streets here is a "Pelican" street sweeper that cost the town some $14,000, and was part of the reason former Councilman James R. Golden was ejected from the Council Chambers. At left is Town Manager John R. Burnett and road foreman Alfonse Pico, who declared the machinery A-Okay. Nuncio R. Pico, John Caruso, and G. Fred Burlazzi, who was Burnett and road foreman Alfonse Pico, who declared the machinery A-Okay.

TALENT HUNT: With the ending of one Board headache, another started with a search for a new superintendent of schools. Board President Ernest S. Arvidson (at left) assigned Michael Rosamilla acting superintendent, who immediately washed his hands of any desire to take Durkee's place.

BISHOP: Joseph A. Costello, 51, took over as pastor at St. Peter's Church Saturday, July 2 and is now in residence at the rectory. It was his first pastorate after serving in the Newark diocese, of which Belleville is a part. St. Peter's is the largest Roman Catholic church in Belleville.

CIVIC LEADER: William Chapman, principal of School 5, was named chairman of a group who planned to improve the image of Belleville through the emphasis of more positive news of the community. But his part in the Durkee case caused criticism.

LADY DIRECTOR: Mrs. Cecilia O'Toole was named acting director of the Municipal Welfare Department. She took two "firsts" the race for a seat on the Board of Education. Her reasons? She was the first woman so named, and the first new appointee feels a mother understands many of the problems the Board faces. She is a detective here.

LANDMARK: Thurman Davis, 24, became the first Negro to join the Belleville Police Department when he was appointed Sept. 1 by Town Manager John R. Burnett. He lives at 68 Mill St. with his wife Brenda and their daughter Denise. He was a former welder.

POPULAR: Councilman William H. Cullen captured the popular election during the May Municipal Election and came out high in the race. But Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, St. with his wife Brenda and their daughter Denise. He was a former welder.

POPULAR: Councilman William H. Cullen captured the popular election during the May Municipal Election and came out high in the race. But Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, St. with his wife Brenda and their daughter Denise. He was a former welder.

PARKING AUTHORITY: For the first time in over 20 years Belleville councilmen approved a measure April 11 aimed at solving the town's parking problem. Being sworn in are, from left, Frank M. Garruto, George Tiernan, Emile Casale, Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, John Caruso, and G. Fred Burlazzi, who was later named chairman of the group. At right is Town Clerk Eugene Barnett who did the swearing in. They are now seeking office space at Town Hall plus expenses in their search for a parking area.

COACHING LOSSES: Posing with two of his remaining coaches and two of his outstanding football players, Coach Tom Testa sadly gave up the sport he loved after blaming "too many bosses" with interfering with the sports program here. At left is Coach Mario Cocchiola, Joel Pisano (who later won the Varsity Club's coveted award for most valuable player), Testa, Rich San Filippo, and Line Coach Pat Forte, who took over the track squad from Ron Kulik after the Board failed to rehire him last year. Testa joined coaches Nick Petti of baseball renown; and Kulik, who has Olympic potential — both of whom took other jobs. The exodus from coaching ranks has been blamed on Board policy of reducing the sports budget to near zero — a cut which the coaches say is unnecessary.

The News Included Fish, Mailmen, And Misunderstood Councilmen

THE ELECTED: After a lackluster campaign two incumbents were returned to office on the town council, and one was turned out to pasture. Taking the oath of office was, from left, Councilman William H. Cullen, who gained the popular vote, and merged high man at the polls; Nuncio R. Pico, who was temporarily just another member of the council before being renamed mayor; and Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo, who tried to block Pico's reelection as mayor, but failed. Swearing in the man was Town Clerk Eugene Barnett at right. Councilman James R. Golden was the only member to lose his seat. He blamed his defeat on everyone, including The Belleville Times.

SOMETHING FISHY: Third River pollution struck in Belleville near the Nutley line and caused the death of thousands of fish in the shallow stream. Officials were unable to explain the cause of the pollution. At right Edward Bonnet, a former Times advertising manager, holds two exhausted fish up for inspection. Tests by the Passaic Valley Sewerage Commission found the water pure — but the fish continued to die. They decided it was a "one shot" incident of undetermined origin which caused the fish — mainly carp — to die. Children later captured the groggy fish and transferred them to nearby ponds to assure fishing this coming summer.

TEAPOT TEMPEST: Former councilman James R. Golden, ousted from office during the Municipal Election in May, was ousted again — this time by Mayor Nuncio R. Pico, whose orders he had disobeyed when calling for order in the Council Chambers. Golden — long known for his truculent conduct — promptly blamed the mayors action as an attempt to silence a critic. But a municipal court judge listened to the case for two days and found Golden guilty of disorderly conduct as charged in two minutes flat. He appealed the case.

Protect Those Little Eyes, Warns State Optometrists

Families throughout the state are looking forward to a Yuletide Season of happiness, but the State Optometric Association warns that unless caution is exercised, needless eye accidents will mar the excitement of the season and fill many households with anxiety and sorrow.

Perhaps as many as a dozen residents of New Jersey, mostly children, are doomed to lose forever their most precious gift of sight through a holiday accident. "Don't encourage accidents to happen when helping to pack Santa's bag this year," warns Dr. Leslie Mintz, President, NJOA. "Use common sense" he continued "in your gift-giving selections."

The doctor stated that in excess of 18 per cent of all eye injuries suffered by children are caused by potentially dangerous projectal type toys. This type of toy, used by an uninstructed child in an irresponsible way, can be a threat to every member of the family. The purchasing of a potentially destructive toy is a waste of money. Buying by enthusiastic relatives and parents is often impulsive and they seldom consider whether a given child is mature enough to receive the toy.

"Don't risk the eyesight of a loved one," advises Dr. Mintz. "Make sure the sparkle in your child's eye continues all through the new year. Don't let a tragic, avoidable accident happen."

Awareness is of prime importance in the selection of toys. Constantly keep in mind that there is an everpresent danger in protruding points, detachable parts, sharp edges, flammable materials, and glass or plastic which is not shatterproof.

Avoid the temptation of buying toys which are not appropriate for the age of the child receiving them.

In addition to the doctrine of safe toy buying, Dr. Mintz pointed out that there are other hazards associated with the holiday season. The greatest danger is found in the traditional Christmas tree.

A dry tree can ignite explosively, turning what otherwise is a safe household into a blazing inferno with tragic loss of life and property.

BUSY, BUSY, BUSY: The Parcel Post Annex on Main Street here was the scene of controlled pandemonium during the Christmas mail rush. Here employees look agast at the mounting piles of mailed parcels bound for the far corners of the globe. But by Christmastime the busy mailmen had reduced the pile to manageable form and servicemen everywhere got their gifts of cheer from home.

The Metropolitan Opera Cancels Its 3rd Season

The Metropolitan Opera has cancelled the third season of the Metropolitan Opera National Company, 1967-68.

In making the announcement, Anthony A. Bliss, president of the Metropolitan Opera Association, Inc., emphasized the current season would proceed without interruption. The company begins a six-week engagement at New York City Center on Jan. 5.

In a letter to local sponsors from coast to coast, Rise Stevens and Michael Manuel, co-general managers of the National Company, said the cancellation had been made most reluctantly but had become necessary "for several reasons."

"The primary one is the fact that the operating deficits of the National Company, which reached approximately $800,000 for the first season and will probably exceed that sum for the second, are substantially in excess of those originally estimated."

These amounts might not seem unreasonable for start-up losses on an operation of the magnitude involved, with an annual budget of around $2,700,000.

On the other hand, the outside support, which had been hoped for, has not been forthcoming to the extent anticipated and the resulting financial burden falling on the Metropolitan Opera Association has been more than the Opera Association feels able to absorb at this time.

"The Metropolitan Opera Association's deficit in the new opera house in Lincoln Center is substantially above previous years, and above the amounts budgeted, due to many circumstances: Operating problems in the new house, labor interruptions, substantial overruns as a result of production problems with the extensive new productions scheduled."

"This has made it necessary for the Metropolitan Opera Association to institute a special drive for funds to meet our deficits, as well as the foregoing accumulated deficits of the National Company amounting to over $1,500,000."

Under these circumstances the Opera Association understandably must concentrate its full fund-raising efforts on this drive.

Smile — Even If It Hurts, Warns Heart Specialist

Smile the next time you have to shovel snow.

It may help you live longer.

Emotional frustration that erupts into anger at the prospect of shoveling can increase your chances of a heart attack, warn medical specialists of Aetna Life & Casualty.

They point out that snow shoveling is dangerous in itself if you're over 40, especially if you have a tendency toward heart problems. A task that requires sudden, intense exertion, shoveling may be the most physically demanding job you tackle all year.

As you shovel, your heart requires more blood to work faster and harder. If the arteries to your heart muscle can't supply enough, heart trouble strikes.

This health danger increases if you attack that snow drift in anger. Your excited emotional state liberates adrenalin that forces your heart to pump even faster. And, your anger may cause you to shovel too hard, too fast.

If you have any doubts about your health and are middle aged, don't shovel under any circumstances. Get someone else to do it or use a mechanical snow remover.

If you're healthy and must shovel, exercise self control. First, calm down, then pause frequently while shoveling. Should you tire, finish the job later. If you develop a chest pain, call a doctor, then lie down.

It's better to be late for work than to risk a heart attack.

Get the drift?

Brawl at Car Wash Goes to Grand Jury

Charges of atrocious assault and battery stemming from a fight at the Nutley Car Wash have been sent to the Essex County Grand Jury. Facing the charges are David Lee Bennett, 24, of 111 Bloomfield Avenue, Nutley, and Joseph Drayton, 27, of 71 Henodale Place, Newark.

Both were arrested by Patrolman Elmer Sharp following a fight at the Nutley Car Wash at 11 A.M. November 30. Police confiscated knives and pipes used in the battle.

Attorney Thomas D'Avella of the Legal Aid Society, Belleville, represented both defendants. D'Avella waived a local hearing and asked that the matter be sent straight to the Essex County Grand Jury.

Bennett and Drayton are out on $500 bail each. Police pressed charges after the owners of the Car Wash refused to sign complaints. The Nutley Car Wash is owned by Irwin Cohen, 140 Hepburn Road, Clifton, and Martin Cohen, 181 River Road, Nutley. Cohen called police for assistance when he was unable to stop the fight.

Cash Prizes from Gas Contests Must Be Declared For Taxes

Cash prizes won by participants in the games and contests sponsored by gasoline companies and service stations must be reported as income on Federal tax returns.

Winners of prizes, on which a tax of $40 or more will be due, must also amend their declaration when he was unable to stop the fight.

Examples of such awards are items or money received from radio and television give-away shows, door prizes, raffles, lotteries and sweepstakes.

Shares of stock, building lots, merchandise, and vacation trips to luxury resort areas received by employees, salesmen, dealers, corporation officers and others are taxable, too. These awards are usually received in connection with sales contests and promotion programs.

Peduto, Capriglione Named To National Amvet Board

Two members of Nutley Post 30, Leonard A. Peduto, and Anthony J. Capriglione, have been voted members of national committees by the Amvets national hierarchy.

Peduto and Capriglione, former state commanders, were placed respectively on the All-American Council to Combat Communism and the National Grievance Committee. The appointments were made by national commander Leo A. Anderson and confirmed by the National Executive Committee.

Capriglione, serving his fourth year as an NEC member, will attend the semi-annual convocation of that body in Washington, D.C.

DON'T GET CAUGHT WITHOUT WINTERIDE SNOW TIRES!

Uniroyal WINTERIDE SNOW TIRES

Let's face it. You should think about snow tires before it snows. Don't chance getting stuck. Have your snow tires mounted early. In fact, if you wait too long before coming to see us, you may not be able to get the size and style you want. Some of our better snow tires, such as Uniroyal's Winterides, are at a premium even now before the season really begins.

No wonder! A snow tire spends most of its life on snowless roads. And the Winteride is a snow tire tested to do 100 mph...when there is no snow. That's one of the reasons it's called The Dry Road Snow Tire and is in such great demand. Winteride's big, big tractor-type treads dig you out of deep snow quick, but also give you a smooth, quiet ride on dry roads where you travel most of the time.

GOVERNMENT WORKERS

At the close of fiscal 1966 (June 30), the federal government had 2,758,811 civilian employees on its payroll — highest total since the peak World War II years, House manpower subcommittee has disclosed. The figure represented an increase of 230,876 workers over a year earlier, or a 9.1 per cent hike, reports Human Events. Only one government agency, the Federal Aviation Agency, showed a decrease from 1965 to 1966.

The opponents of the present council Manager government have complained about the poor state of roads, street lights, recreation, and parking conditions in Belleville. As Al Smith used to say, "Let's look at the record."

Many of the inadequacies that exist in Belleville today are the result of approximately 40 years of Commission government. Therefore, how can one expect that all of these long standing problems will be corrected in only 4½ years? Council Manager government. Since the inception of Council manager government, Belleville citizens have witnessed the re-construction of Greycliff Parkway, sections of Joralemon Street, Locco Street, and other streets in the Town. Other major streets were repaved during this period in cooperation with the County, such as Belleville Avenue, Franklin Street, and the reconstruction of the bridge over the Third River on Joralemon Street.

New street lighting was provided for the Washington Avenue business district, and lighting has been improved in many residential areas.

areas since the adoption of Council Manager government. The Fairway Avenue Playground was developed under Council Manager government, and was the ice skating rink at the Recreation House. During the last few years of Commission government, not only were virtually no new recreation facilities created, but in fact, then existing park lands along the Passaic River were lost by the Town without replacement or compensation.

Under the Council Manager government a Citizens Advisory Committee has been actively evaluating Town recreation needs and planning for future recreation areas. A new park has been proposed for the Silver Lake area.

The current town administration has been diligently filling the bog area adjacent to the Stadium with minimum cost to the taxpayer. When the land fill is stabilized, a recreational area hed in this area. The Stadium has repaired, painted and improved during this period, also. The deplorable lack of adequate parking is due directly to the lack of foresight during the former Commission form of government. It was not until the advent of Council Manager government that:

1. A minimum of 100 per cent off street parking became a requirement for all new dwellings
2. All Town traffic laws were reviewed, improved and codified;
3. A Parking Authority has been created to attempt to revitalize the Washington Avenue business district by creating off street parking.

Belleville does not need a change of government. Belleville needs a change of heart. Don't vote for a horse and buggy form of government. Vote NO on Jan. 31 and retain an efficient and effective Council Manager form of government.

Horse & Buggy?

The Vote No Committee accuses the opponents of Belleville's present Council - Manager government of attempting to revert to the horse and buggy days by their advocacy of Commission government. Only two towns in Essex County still retain this outmoded form of government.

Commission government can be compared to a buggy being pulled by five government horses, each hitched separately and pulling in separate directions. Under Commission Belleville had five part - time legislators and the same five men acted as part-time administrators. Under Council Manager government Belleville still has five part - time legislators, but it also has a single, separate, and full-time administrator.

In the recent past most of Belleville's elected officials have worked full time at their normal occupations, which are usually located outside of Belleville. How can these same men devote sufficient time to be both part-time legislators and administrators of Belleville affairs?

Belleville school officials were severely criticized a few years ago for attempting to introduce dual administrative control in the school system. How can anyone justify proposing five-way administration which would ex-

The results of the lack of a unified, full - time administration during Commission government is typified by the lack of foresight with regard to the construction of Route 21 through Belleville. Not only was Belleville not reimbursed for the parcels of land taken for the highway, but virtually no accessibility was provided for Belleville citizens wishing to use this road.

Just as you would not use a horse and buggy on a modern highway such as Route 21, you should not use a horse and buggy form of government to govern a community in modern times. Belleville has and needs the Council - Manager form to provide a modern vehicle for sound and progressive government in Belleville. VOTE NO on Jan. 31 1967
