BHS Offers Some Good Advice For Adult Students

Over 50 persons have taken advantage of the counseling program sponsored by the Guidance Department at Belleville High School and approved by the Board of Education, said Herman Knuppel, director last week.

Most sought higher intellectual experience, said Knuppel, rather than higher paying jobs during the first four sessions at the High School. All residents have been invited to attend.

Three members of the Guidance Department, Mrs. Regina Degnin, Nicholas Petti, and George Nucera, are donating their time to the project. There is no charge for the service.

Each session has attracted 12 to 14 persons, and the Board has tentatively planned to make the sessions more frequent — perhaps one each week. Although the guidance sessions are not designed for those seeking psychological counseling, Norman Pomerantz, school psychologist, will work with those applicants. The Board also backs this segment of counseling.

The sessions are planned for each second and fourth Wednesday night during the month. Facilities of the department, including college and vocational catalogues, are available to applicants.

Iacullo Joins Movement For Commission

By ANTHONY IACULLO
Anthony Iacullo, Belleville's Republican 1st Ward Chairman, says he has had enough of Council-Manager combination at town hall. He believes this is the time to put Belleville back in the line with the other progressive municipalities in Essex County.

"This movement to return Commission form of government to our town hall," said Iacullo, is one in which party-politics has no part.

The way our town is being run affects Republicans as well as Democrats, Liberals and Conservatives. A high tax rate knows (Continued On Page 2)

Scholarship Exam Time Is Almost Here, Warns BHS Principal Smith

Belleville High School students who expect to complete their secondary school requirements and to enter college in 1968 can register to participate in the 1967-68 National Merit Scholarship Program, Principal Raymond O. Smith announced today.

The first step for all students who wish to enter the nationwide competition is to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQST), which will be given in the school at 9 a.m., Saturday, February 25.

Participating students pay a $2 fee to take the test which is given under the auspices of the Science Research Associates (SRA).

In addition to competing for the scholarships to be awarded in 1968, students can take the test to obtain information useful in planning their future education and careers. With his NMQST scores, compare his performance with that of other high-school students across the country, and give him information on choosing a college and financing his education.

The handbook and other interpretive materials are furnished as a part of reporting the test results.

Residents Ask Council To Ban Truck Traffic

Some 15 outraged residents of the Smallwood Avenue area appeared in Town Hall Monday night to protest against truckers using the streets as loading zones. They also complained to councilmen that drivers used the playground area to maneuver their huge trucks on "The Knoll"—a children's playground area—and with exposing themselves before the children because they have no toilet facilities there.

The noise created by trucks loading and unloading from early morning to 11 p.m. within 50 feet of sleeping children cannot be tolerated," the petition said. It was done in direct defiance of posted signs, the complaint said. There were 57 signatures on the four-page petition, which was read by Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo. The area is zoned A-1. 6 Cops Promoted Thursday During Brief Ceremony

The newly reorganized Police department here got underway last Thursday morning with the promotion of six police officers during brief ceremonies at Town Hall. Acting posts went to five others, two patrolmen were added to the force, and one fireman joined the fire department.

Promoted to Captains were Frank Haight, who heads the detective bureau, and David Waddell and John McNish, all of whom have nearly 20 years as officers on the Belleville force. McNish and Waddell will each have a shift to command.

Three sergeants were also promoted to lieutenants. They were Garimne Zecca, George Lister, and Robert Russamano. Zecca and Lister will be assigned to the police desk where they will dispatch men and keep records. Russamano will handle the traffic division.

Sergeants John Dean and John Monahan were advanced to acting lieutenants and will also be assigned to desk duty. They will get a lieutenants salary.

Patrolmen Anthony Fantacone, Kenneth Place, and Thomas Dunleavy were sworn in as acting sergeants and will supervise squads on street duty. All three will get sergeants pay.

Joining the force were George Sheridan, 429 Jorammon St., and Alexander Freda, 74 Cedar Hill Ave. Both started training at Essex County Police Chiefs School Monday morning.

Chief Donald Smith drew up the new system, their first since 1948. Included is a public relations department headed by Capt. Joseph Smith, who will also head the police personnel department.

Board Member Files Lawsuit

Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero, 52 Van Roper Pl., filed a lawsuit against The Belleville Times, Publisher Frank A. Orechio, and Editor Gordon F. Adams in Essex County Superior Court Dec. 29 charging his professional standing as a dentist and his effectiveness as a member of the Board of Education had been damaged by two stories carried Nov. 17 by The Times.

Mrs. McCool Says Increase Is Up $472,000, With A $50,000 Reserve

The Board of Education adopted a tentative school budget for 1967-68 of $4,154,237.00 Tuesday night during a brief meeting at School 8. Current expenses were set at $3,842,532.00 and capital outlay at $57,425.00, with a debt service of $254,280.00.

Attending the meeting was Board President Ernest S. Arvidson, business administrator Harold Dufford, board member Rocco Saletta, Acting Superintendent on Schools Michael Rosamilia, Board secretary Mrs. Mary Shader, Caesar Romano, a candidate for a Board seat, and a news reporter. Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero came in after the meeting was over.

The Board also set a public hearing on the budget for Jan. 26 at 8 p.m. in the School 8 auditorium.

Mrs. Thomas F. McCool, who was unable to attend due to illness, said the budget revealed a reserve of some $50,000, although the Board has always said there was a $25,000 reserve.

Romano, seeking information for his campaign, asked Arvidson for a look at the budget. "No, sir," said the Board president. "That's classified information," said Mrs. Shader.

Six Candidates Contending For 2 Board Seats

William Pelaja, 314 Greylock Plwy., withdrew from the race for a seat on the Board of Education last week, explaining he did so because of "personal reasons."

But six candidates remained to run for two seats on the Board Feb. 14 — Valentines Day. John DiRienzo, incumbent, filed for reelection. Richard Drake, who has been on the board for eight years and who had once been Board president, did not file for candidacy.

Five other candidates Mrs. Anthony Izzo, Mrs. Elsie Albertine, Michael Albertine, Mrs. Helen Rudden, and Caesar Romano, all of whom appeared before members of the School 5 PTA Monday night will give the qualifications and reasons for seeking a seat on the Board.

Rev. Dike Says There Was No Request For A 'Debate' On Reform

Rev. William L. Dike, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church here, reported he had asked Mrs. Mary V. Senatore, Town Democratic Chairman; Thomas Apicelli, Chairman of the Change of Government movement; and Sal Calabro, chairman of the Vote No Committee to "serve on a panel" for a discussion of the proposed referendum for governmental reform Jan. 31.

"I was going to ask them for an eight to 10-minute presentation," he said. Calabro was agreeable, he said, but Mrs. Senatore said she was "not sure" and that she would call back to let him know her of other decision. Mrs. Senatore, he said never did call back.

He had not asked for a "debate," he said, but that they discuss the proposed change as a group. Mrs. Senatore, he reported, indicated she was fearful it would develop into a debate.

Mrs. Senatore Separates Private And Public Life In The 'Change' Movement

By MRS. MARY SENATORE
Democratic Chairman

Mrs. Mary Senatore, Belleville's very energetic Democratic Town Chairman, has an answer for critics who have attempted to question her motive for taking an active part in the movement to return Commission form of Government to Belleville.

In a statement before a group of ardent workers for Commission Government, Mrs. Senatore, expressed surprise and pity for her critics who, she said, showed lack of working knowledge concerning the provision of their national constitution.

"Under our American Constitution," said Mrs. Senatore, "the individual citizen is free to exercise his or her political belief on the local, county, state and federal levels, in support of good government."

"To be sure, I am a staunch Democrat, but I am also an individual citizen, with civic interests that go beyond political party limits. Belleville has always been a non-partisan municipality in local government matters, as there is plenty to be accomplished on a non-partisan level for the advancement of all of our Belleville residents.

"I am not alone for my crusade for good government. Many Democratic and Republican district leaders want a return of Commission government. Other Belleville citizens in all walks of life have joined the movement; which is a movement to free Belleville from the control of incompetent councilmen and an arrogant manager, whom a majority of councilmen control much like a puppet on a string.

"The tirades of a small band of noisy citizens who speak for these men now in office do not worry me. I have lived in Belleville all of my life, I am honestly interested in the needs of the people, which is more than my critics can truthfully say. My only goal is to see Belleville under sound, efficient control of Commission Government."

F. Douglas Wadsworth, Civic Leader Dies Here

Services were held yesterday for F. Douglas Wadsworth, who died Sunday at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. The Rev. George Van Leuven, pastor of Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church, officiated and interment followed at Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Hanover.

Mr. Wadsworth, a lifelong resident of Belleville, was owner of the Wadsworth Funeral Home at 524 Union Ave. He was graduated from the New York School of Mortuary in 1934 and opened his practice that same year.

Long active in civic affairs, Mr. Wadsworth was a former president of the Belleville Public Library, First Lay Advisory Committee to the Belleville School System, Belleville Lions Club, Li Camp and Belleville Rotary Club. He was a trustee of the Belleville Foundation and also of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. A former Essex County coroner, he served in that office in 1960.

Mr. Wadsworth was the organizer of the annual Fourth of July children's celebration program and was a district commissioner of the Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Locally he was a member of Belleville Lodge 108, F. & A.M. and the Belleville Craftmen's Club. (Continued On Page 15)

CONTRASTING FIGURES: Some 65 persons attending the presentation of facts and figures compiled by the Vote No Committee January 5 at The Fountain. Here Chairman Sal Calabro, Sr., left, uses a projection machine to illustrate his talk in which — according to his figures — proved Council-

Manager operation was better than Commission form. He has asked Town Treasurer Francis McCoy and Town Manager John R. Burnett to certify the accuracy of his figures. Both agreed to have the certification ready within a week.

'Desperate Men' Slight The Working Class, Says Apicelli Of Councilmen

By THOMAS APICELLI

Thomas Apicella, Chairman of the Committee For Commission Government, has expressed concern over the manner in which a news release attributed to Councilman Ralph Casale, Mayor Nunco Pico and Sal Calabro appeared in the January 5th issue of the Belleville Times. In a statement to the press Apicella said:

"It seems to me that this trio of desperate men sought to imply that a restaurant or diner operator is not qualified to decide the merits of the government under which he must live, and for the support of which he must pay high taxes. Only a college professor is fit to be heard."

A paragraph in their release reads: "A referendum calling for a change of government is set for Jan. 31. It was set in motion by a change of government committee headed by Chairman Thomas Apicella, a Lyndhurst diner operator."

Another paragraph states: "Calabro, a college professor has tried to engage the Chairman in public debate, but Apicella refused, explaining that he wouldn't know what to say."

In the first listed paragraph the writers seemed intent upon creating the impression that because I operate a restaurant-diner in Lyndhurst, I should not protest the manipulation of government in Belleville.

In the second paragraph listed, Mr. Calabro is portrayed as a "college professor" fit to be heard, while tradesmen are in the dim-wit class since they operate restaurants, diners, food markets, furniture stores, taverns, butcher shops, beauty parlors, etc.

It is not in my nature to run down a fellow citizen. I experience a pity for anyone who must constantly wave his diploma as evidence of leadership ability. I keep my sheep-skin in my desk drawer, and try to prove my competence by my work for community betterment.

Calabro has been criticized a great deal of penmanship challenge, and oratory at election time, whatever the purpose of the election. At one time he was the spark plug of a Citizen's Council that had a membership of possibly a baker's dozen of citizens. The Council went out of business, even though taxes still go on and on.

But I have no harsh word for "professor." After all, professors like poets must be allowed much leeway in which to exercise their imagination. I have taken issue with the article that appeared in the local paper only because it attacked a segment of our business enterprises and inferred that the operator therein were incapable of thinking in depth. Incapable of knowing the score when it comes to government in operation. I might add, here, that without the tradesmen, government would be in a sorry state.

As a professor, Calabro must have had a course in human psychology. He must have learned that many constructive thinking men and women are never given to glib orations in public halls. As a matter of fact, they usually are big mouth orators shout about. However, if Professor Calabro has not been a patron of my dine restaurant, I invite him to be my guest. Not all the famous people of the metropolitan area have yet patronized my "diner," just as all men of learning have not yet read "professor" Calabro's pamphlet in which he sets forth a few details of his line of bread and butter employment."

Meanwhile, I advise Messrs. Casale, Pico and Calabro to do a little more research on past events at Town Hall before they write any more releases on what jolly good fellows they are, because it seems to me that Mayor Pico has had a case of "amnesia" since 1960.

Town Manager's Report:

Police Officers Promoted, Mrs. Decker New Director

By JOHN R. BURNETT
Town Manager

Blase Costantino has been appointed a School Traffic Guard Temporary, effective January 6, 1967, to replace School Traffic Guard Henry D. Riepe, Sr., who resigned as of January 3, 1967.

Mrs. Irene M. Decker has been appointed Deputy Civil Defense Director, effective January 3, 1967, to replace William G. Hunt, who unfortunately passed away Dec. 25, 1966.

To complete the recently adopted table of organization of the Belleville Police Division, Lieutenants Haight, Waddell and McNish were promoted to captains as of Jan. 6, 1967, pending Civil Service procedure.

Sergeants Zecca, Lister and Russomano were promoted to lieutenants from the certified Civil Service list for the position, and Sergeants Dean and Monaghan were appointed as lieutenants, pending Civil Service examination procedures, all effective as of Jan. 6, 1967.

Patrolmen Dunleavy, Fantacore and Place were promoted to sergeants, pending Civil Service promotional procedures, effective Jan. 6, 1967.

George A. Sheridan, 492B Joramaleon St., and Alexander P. Freda, 74 Cedar Hill Ave., have been appointed patrolmen from the certified Civil Service list for the position, effective Jan. 6, 1967.

These appointments complete the table of organization for the Belleville Police Division.

John J. Cetrulo, 133 Birchwood Dr., has been appointed a fireman from the Belleville Fire Division from the Civil Service certified list for the position, effective January 6, 1967, to fill a vacancy in the Division.

This completes the table of organization for the Fire Division.

The water contract between the Town of Belleville and the City of Newark is now under consideration by the Newark City Council. This contract will replace the contract entered into on Feb. 25, 1964, for a period of one year, and its extension to the date of the pending contract to be signed.

The major changes in the contract increase the cost of water from the $120 per million gallons now being paid to $165 per million gallons daily to six million gallons per day (only the amount of water used up to these maximums to be paid for by the Town).

The contract remains firm as to cost for a period of five years from the date of its signing, with an open-end clause to extend for additional periods of time, subject to a reevaluation of cost to be made following the end of the five year period, depending upon the cost factor of water to the City of Newark, including but not limited to: (a) the acquisition of new supply; (b) the installation of new facilities for transmission of water. Whatever increase so requested will be determined by agreement between the Town of Belleville and the City of Newark or by arbitration.

This contract is for all water supplied to the Town other than that supplied directly by the City of Newark over its own mains to our Silver Lake area and to residents on Clinton Street and on Mill Street between Bridge and Clinton Streets. These water users pay directly to the City of Newark, and their rates will be described in the water rate schedule of the City.

The contract is both equitable and fair, considering the accelerated cost of water supply, and the additional planning for storage transmission facilities provided necessary by the drought of the last five years. With careful economy the Town of Belleville will be able to live with the increased water cost without raising the water rates to the residents of Belleville.

The individual department budgets are now being correlated, and the Services Budget will be forwarded to each member of the Town Council prior to Jan. 15, the required date for submission.

We will try to have our annual Financial Statement completed by the 15th and, if so, can submit to the Council the Council Manager's Proposed Budget for the Cost of Local Government.

The local Improvement Ordinance for the paving, flagging, and curbing of Park street, which we had expected to be ready for Council consideration at this meeting, has not as yet been processed by our bonding attorneys. It will be on the Agenda for Jan. 23.

The terms of the members of the Board of Assessments for Local Improvements expired as of Nov. 9, 1966. I request the Council to consider the two year appointments for this Board at its next regular meeting, as the Clark to the Board informs me sufficient data is now on hand to begin hearings on Local Improvements.

Town Engineer Raymond F. Daly has completed his studies on the proposal for a connector link between Hilton Street and Entwistle Avenue across the rights of way of the water distribution lines owned by the City of Newark, Passaic Consolidated Water Company, and the Northern New Jersey District Water Supply Commission.

These rights of way are 99 feet in width, and Daly points out the distance between the ends of Hilton Street and Entwistle Avenue is approximately 13 feet higher than the end of Hilton Street. The rate of grade, therefore, would be 10 per cent, which is extremely excessive.

The existing cover over the 48 inch water distribution line, owned by the City of Newark, is approximately 2 1/2 feet. These lines would have to be lowered so that a 4 1/2 to 5 foot cover would be maintained to protect the lines. If the street were to be constructed this would require a lowering of both the 48 inch and 42 inch Newark lines, and the cost would approximate $275,000.00.

SP-4 Edward Lister Is Awarded A Bronze Star

Army Specialist Fourth Class Edward J. Lister, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lister, 137 Floyd Street, received the Bronze Star Medal for heroism in ceremonies at Tay Ninh, Vietnam, December 2.

He earned the award for his actions Nov. 4 while serving as night medical corpsman in the medical aid tent when the base camp came under a heavy mortar attack.

When he heard the incoming rounds, he instructed all the patients to get on the floor for temporary protection. When the platoon sergeant arrived, they started evacuating the patients to a nearby drainage ditch when two mortar rounds exploded just outside the tent, giving many of the patients additional wounds.

However, he continued to aid in the evacuation until all the patients had been removed. Only then did he take cover himself.

A medical corpsman in Co. C of the 100th Light Infantry Brigade's 8th Support Battalion, Spec. Lister entered active duty in October 1965 and was stationed at Ft. Devens, Mass., before his arrival in Vietnam last August.

Spec. Lister is a 1962 graduate of Essex Catholic High School in Newark. He also holds the Combat Medical Badge.

Alaska has 5,580 miles of sea coast.

Cpl. Hendrickson Is Awarded Medal

Marine Corporal Donald Hendrickson, son of Mrs. Hazel Hendrickson of 340 Stephens St., was awarded the Purple Heart Medal for wounds sustained while serving with the First Battalion, Fifth Marine Regiment, of the First Marine Division, Chu Lai, Vietnam.

He received the medal for wounds, received in action with an opposing armed force of a foreign country in which armed forces of the United States are engaged.

The medal was presented by Major Peter A. Hilgartner, his Commanding Officer.

residential, and signs posted on the streets prohibit the use by trucks over four tons capacity. But they ignore the sign, complained Neil Raimondi, 167 Smallwood Ave. Last summer, he told the council, one truck had collapsed under its load.

The truckers load lumber onto and off of railroad cars, said Raimondi, often during the weekend. The matter was given to Town Attorney for study.

The accident happened last June, said a resident, but investigating police officers had issued no summons against the driver, although the danger was clearly demonstrated, he said. Lumber spilled over a small traffic circle at the intersection of Hewitt and Smallwood Avenue where children play.

tax bills are issued. By the same token, surely councilmen do not ask which party you belong to when they have you thrown out of town hall meetings.

Belleville prospered under Commission government for four years after the people adopted Commission government.

Now, under Council-Manager rule our government has floundered and failed to deliver as promised after less than five years of operation, during which time recall petitions were filed to recall three of the five councilmen.

I am sure All Republicans living in Belleville welcome the opportunity to help return Commission government to town hall and will vote "yes" on Jan. 31.

MOTHER'S MARCH will be led by Mrs. Joseph G. Biancardi, who holds Essex County Post-Boy Bryan of West Orange. Pinning on his badge is Undersheriff Harry J. Sullivan at right.

Mother's March Planned for Jan. 19th; And Mrs. Biancardi Will Lead The Parade

The annual March of Dimes for county children is planned for Jan. 19 and will continue throughout the week, ending Jan. 25, reported Mrs. Joseph G. Biancardi of 16 King St., who is woman's division chairman.

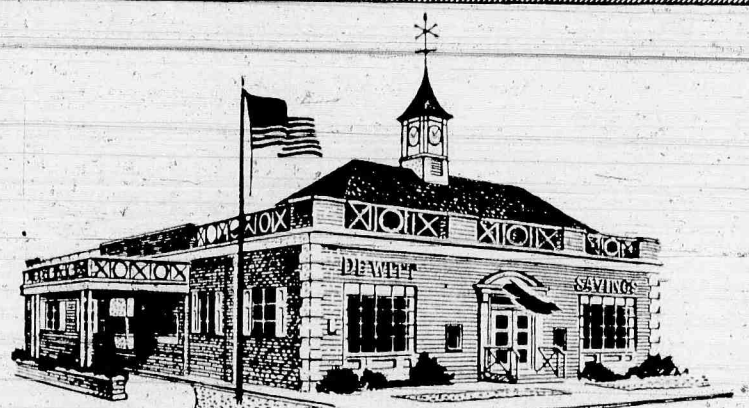

She will be assisted by Mrs. Thomas F. McCool, school boardmember who lives at 194 Fairway Ave. and who is chairman of the Mothers' March.

The March had originally been formed to combat polio, which it met with great success. Now the mothers are turning their efforts toward the greater menace of birth defects, said Mrs. Biancardi.

Each year in the United States 250,000 babies are born with one or more defects. Already much progress has been made and some defects, previously thought to be insoluble puzzles, have become well understood. Much costly research lies ahead and only the contributions to the March of Dimes make this possible.

In Belleville, the drive will get under way on January 19th, and will continue until January 25th. Additional volunteers are needed and those wishing to help may contact Mrs. J. G. Biancardi.

Holy Family R.C. Church, Nutley was the setting December 27 for the wedding of Miss Phyllis Marie Cupparo and Nicholas F. Distefano. The Rev. Michael A. Saltarelli performed the ceremony and a reception followed at the Galaxy Restaurant, Belleville.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dante E. Cupparo of 217 New Street, Belleville, wore a frost crepe gown with empire waistline. The founce sleeves were made of reemboirered Alencon lace and the A-line skirt terminated in a chapel train. Her mantilla was also of Alencon lace and she carried a white prayerbook with a white orchid and cascade of carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Kathleen D'Amico of Nutley. Her formal gown of burgundy rayon had empire waistline and short trumpet sleeves. A small mantilla matched the gown and her bouquet was of white carnations and holly.

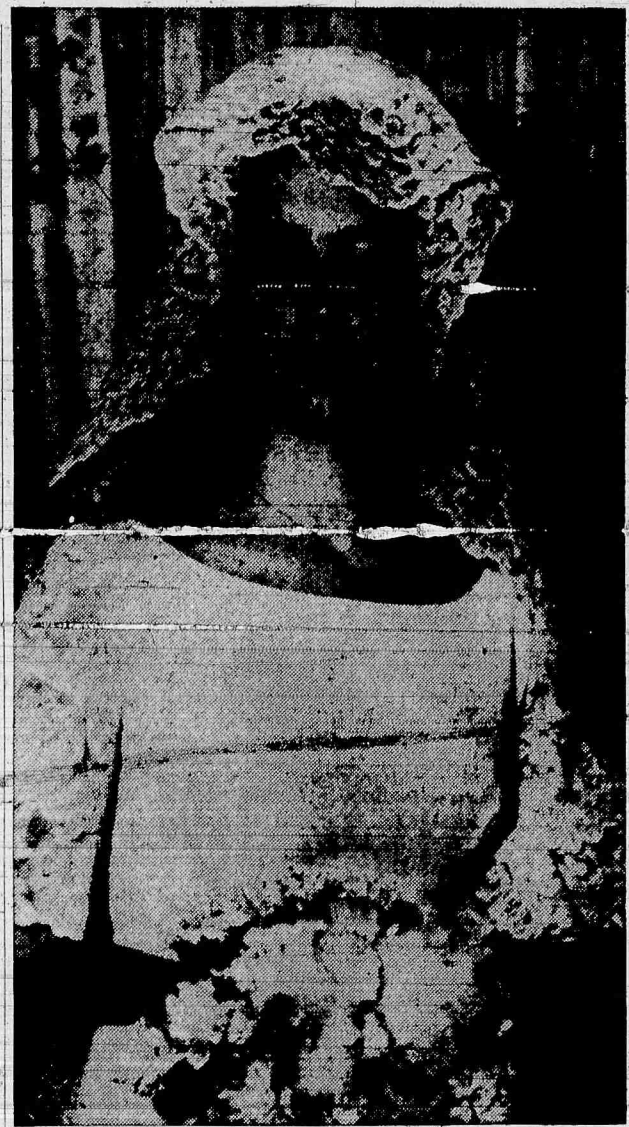

Cousins of the bride, Miss Marilyn Gara of Somerville and Judy Kenny of Staten Island, N. Y. were bridesmaids. Their gowns were the same as the maid of honor's in green.

Mrs. Cupparo was attired in a champagne and gold brocade gown with a full length matching coat. The mother of the bridegroom selected a lake green ensemble with beaded bodice. Their purse corsages were of white orchids.

William Nolan of Princeton was best man and Richard and Ronald Piller, cousins of the bridegroom of New Brunswick ushered for the ceremony. The bride's brother, Richard Cupparo of Belleville was a junior usher.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas V. Distefano of 36 Simples Avenue, New Brunswick.

The bride attended Trenton State College. Mr. Distefano attended Rutgers University and received a BA degree in social studies from Trenton State College. He is serving as a Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force and is in pilot training at Moody Air Force Base, Valdosta, Ga.

Candidates Night

Just 19-days from now the Board of Education will hold its annual election, and there are four anti-Board candidates trying for the two seats available. Two other candidates are backed by the Board majority.

Backing the Board and its policies are incumbent John DiRienzo and Mrs. Helen Rudden.

Not wholly in agreement with present board policies are Caesar Romano (1-A), Michael Aertine (2-A), Mrs. Helen Rudden (3-A), and Mrs. Anthony Izzo (4-A). DiRienzo is 5-A on the ballot followed by Mrs. Rudden with 6-A. Both have the stamp of approval of the Board majority made up of Arvidson, Saletta, DiRuggiero and Juliano.

If you think the Board is doing a good job, vote for 5-A and 6-A. If not, there are four other candidates available. All were present at the School 5 PTA Candidates Night Tuesday, Jan. 10 at 8 p.m. Attend and listen to their views. There will be a question and answer session after the talks by the candidates later. All should have a question and answer session on what their election will mean to the town. G. F. A.

The PTA Puzzle

With the Board of Education election due shortly, you'd think the PTA's here would have scheduled Candidates Night, as in the past, to determine the worth of those seeking a seat on the Board. But no, only School 5 has arranged one.

School 8 (where the Board has its offices) plans a Bowling Night for its monthly meeting. Ditto for several others. If your PTA, which represents the parents of Belleville school students, hasn't planned one, call the presidents and urge them to arrange such a candidate-voter get-together.

At the same time we urge the candidates to use this newspaper to publicize their qualifications for office. By their releases shall ye know them. Our columns are open. For those too shy and retiring to light a candle in the darkness, we'll do the publicizing.

Meanwhile, find out why your PTA hasn't arranged a night in which the candidates can meet prospective voters and vice-versa. Off hand, there isn't much reason for not doing so. Unless they don't care. Add your own qualifications before you vote. G.F.A.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A Clarification

To the editor:

It has been brought to the attention of the officers of the Veterans Ticket Committee that in the controversy over the form of government that the voters of Belleville will select on Jan. 31, 1967, a Council Manager form or a Commission form, that one Salvatore Calabro who is for the retention of the present Council Manager form is directing his venom, not against his opponents but, against the Veterans Ticket Committee because our Belleville Unit is supporting the change of government and prefers the Commission form.

Mr. Calabro, if that is his name, stated that none of the National veterans organizations are supporting any movement of the Veterans Ticket Committee. That, he is 100 per cent correct, but he seemingly does not know the reason. The National veterans organizations are charted by acts of Congress and they attempt to have them change in politics would cause the forfeiture of their charters. If Mr. Calabro meant that none of the members of these National veterans organizations, as individuals are not supporting us, then he is 100 per cent incorrect.

It is the condition that veterans who number the largest and most powerful group of men and women who cannot participate as a unit in politics like Labor, Business and other groups that caused a number of outstanding veterans, to meet and discuss the matter and as a result, the Veterans Ticket Committee was organized in 1945. Just 21 years ago.

The Veterans Ticket Committee has been incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey and may engage in politics, endorse candidates in National, State, County and municipal elections, have units or chapters organized in any municipality.

Membership in the Veterans Ticket Committee is limited to those who have served in any war in which the United States has been engaged, are American citizens and were honorably discharged from the Service. Members pay no dues, are not assessed for the endorsement dinners held to endorse candidates by secret ballots. We do not use military terms for our officers, so that our officers are named chairman, not commanders, secretaries, not adjutants, treasurers, not quartermasters, counselors, not officers of the judge advocate, and so on.

Candidates selected for office at our endorsement dinners are bracketed on a state and known as "The Veterans Choice" and a major campaign is waged to elect them. During the past 21 years 82 per cent of the candidates selected by us have been successful at the polls.

In 1945 I was elected chairman of the Veterans Ticket Committee and have been re-elected each year since that time. As a veteran I served in veteran organizations as Commander of the Essex County Veterans of Foreign Wars, Commander for a number of years of the Greater Newark Post VFW which at that time was the largest VFW Post.

I have served with the American Legion and the Jewish War Veterans, but as a member of these organizations I could not engage in politics in the name of the organizations but can do so not in the name of the Veterans Ticket Committee. During these years I came to realize how helpless the veterans were on the political side, hence the urge to organize the Veterans Ticket Committee.

There are over 22 million veterans in the United States and if others who served in the Armed Forces, but not during war time were counted the number would reach nearly 30 million. There is hardly a family in the United States that is not in some way related to a war veteran.

Our membership includes Republicans and Democrats. Each municipal unit may operate independently and conduct its affairs as the members see best, or of course notifying the parent body of their plans.

Our officers include: Edward Simandl, chairman; Carol V. Girard, secretary; George Sommer, counsel; Edward Barry, Republican chairman; Louise Bernheim, sergeant-at-arms; Douglas Coffey, treasurer; and our leading delegates at endorsement dinners include: Thomas Kepp, West Orange; James Palmieri, Orange; Ray Yeomans, East Orange; George Baul, Bloomfield; Clifford Day, Irvington; and Thomas Kompeck, South Orange; William Schrock, Maplewood; Anthony E. Grasso and Samuel Hollander, Livingston; Nicholas DiBenedetto, Belleville; Louis Frickman, Roseland; Donald McDonald, Montclair; Larry Biase, Cedar Grove; George Borschi, The Caldwell; James Barletto, Newark West Ward; Edward Staugaitis, Newark East Ward; Ralph D'Ambola, Newark North Ward; Robert Ruben, Newark South Ward; Joseph Walker, Newark Central Ward.

The Belleville Unit of the Veterans Ticket Committee notified the parent body that they plan to work for a change of government in Belleville. That is their prerogative. They informed us that a large number of voters, including men of the police, fire and municipal employees are entirely dissatisfied with the present form of government and want a change.

That is what they are doing. We have investigated the situation in Belleville and know from the contacts made that the people of Belleville are dissatisfied with the present form of Government that permitted the importation of an outsider to be the big wheel and whereby the councilmen act as mere puppets on a string. For these reasons we fully believe that there will be a change of government in Belleville, come Jan. 31st.

It is our understanding that, like the members of our Ladies Auxiliary of the parent body, the Belleville Auxiliary is doing a wonderful work among the women voters and this will materially help to bring about the change that it seems the voters of Belleville want, and will obtain.

We are certain that if Mr. Calabro were thinking in terms of what is best for the citizens of Belleville that he would join to effect the change to the Commission Form of Government.

I believe that the publication of this letter will help to put Mr. Calabro straight, perhaps many others who had the same thought as he does about the Veterans Ticket Committee. If he is a veteran we shall be happy to welcome him as a member of the Veterans Ticket Committee.

EDWARD SIMANDL, Chairman
Veterans Ticket Committee
(Mr. Schwartz, are you listening, Hmmm — Editor)

A Debate?

To the Editor:

Belleville voters are being asked to decide on Jan. 31 whether they want to retain the present Council Manager administration or return to the Commission form of government — which they overwhelmingly refused some years ago. It occurs to me that the problem is weighty enough to warrant thorough public ventilation.

Whether on the national or local level, democracy cannot work properly without a fully informed electorate. This is axiomatic, especially in relation to municipal government with its daily impact on the lives, properties, and physical well-being of all local citizens. Mary Senators, were to agree on a right to know exactly how the two forms of government compare with each other, and why one of them should be preferable to the other.

It would be truly in the public interest if the two opposing groups, spearheaded respectively by Mr. Sal Calabro and Mrs. Mary Senators were to agree on a joint meeting, where they could calmly and objectively put before the people their divergent opinions about that form of government is best for Belleville and

When all the working stuffs checked in last week sporting bloody eyeballs, the demon responsible, in most cases, was not rum, but TV. Never have so many seen so much football in a three-day span. Seven games, in 72 hours.

There was excitement for everyone. The half-time entertainment, in color, was spectacular and at least as good as some Broadway shows. Not a single bowl extravaganza had to return any part of its advance sale because critics panned the performance. That's more than David

Anti-Change

To the Editor:

On Jan. 31 Belleville citizens will be faced with the responsibility of voting for the form of government under which they choose to be governed.

The "Vote No Committee" which I am privileged to represent as president, is convinced that our present leader, I am certain you realize you have the inherent responsibility to advise our people as to which type of government is in the best interest. This requires that you, in turn, analyze the facts and evaluate all pertinent parameters.

Might I suggest, therefore, that you consider inviting a speaker from the "Vote No Committee" to address your group in order that you be given the opportunity to present the facts first hand. Perhaps it might be wise to have a representative from the opposing group as well, so that both sides are provided an equal opportunity to be heard?

The "Vote No Committee" has established an organizational policy which is opposed to name-calling and resorting to innuendo. Of course, it should be realized that the Committee cannot control personal statements made by any of its members, and therefore such remarks should be construed as being representative of the individual's opinion.

This policy was adopted because it is realized that personal attacks on the character of government officials have no bearing on the efficiency of the form of government.

The issue is clear cut! We are all concerned with the fate of facts pertaining to local municipal government.

Therefore, we feel it is our duty as well as the "Vote No Committee" to expose all misstatements to the people in a clear, concise, truthful and objective manner.

May we have your cooperation in this endeavor? SAL CALABRO, president

Football was king of the coaxal, starting at noon December 31, at the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Florida. But even this confirmed sports bug, by 10:30 p.m. Monday night, had "had it." With minutes remaining for Steve Spurrier and his Florida Gators mates to wind up creaming the Ramblin' Wreck from Georgia Tech, the switch was flipped and we hit the sack. As evidence of the grid fare indigestion, this agent grabbed a copy of Billy Casper's new book on how to play golf, a gift from Judge Hugh Spemow of Paterson, who spent the holiday time with us in the sunny south. After a couple of days of "Hut 1, Hut 2," FORE sounded pretty good.

You have to admit the economy came off with a healthy shot in the arm — a lot of money changed hands. Most games were sellouts and TV, with its plethora of commercials carrying a hefty price tag, contributed a substantial piece of change to the gross revenues. Add the parking fees, hot dogs and soda and the distilled spirits to ward off the chill and poisonous snake bites, and the spectators spent a few bucks, too.

Even the weather got into the act. Just for a change of pace, scrimmage in freezing temperatures. Meanwhile, Florida and California delivered delightful Fahrenheit readings in the '70's.

Back at the ranch, Gus Fan reveled in the action. He stabbed himself with a forkful of turkey as he tried to watch a swing pass or follow a blizzing lineman, all at the same time; carried out the garbage between games; viewed (would you believe leered) the curvy majorettes and twirlers staging a pretty production; baby — sat as friend Wife did the chores and slept fitfully between commercials.

With all the TV sets burning away, the electric companies chalked up loads of kilowatts. Adding to the output, of course, was the light in the refrigerator, blinking like a beacon as Dad grabbed another brew or a fistful of ham or cheese at breaks in the action.

Alabama's Crimson Tide, whomping a beefy Nebraska unit in the Sugar Bowl, sparked a fresh controversy over who is the No. 1 eleven in the nation. Notre Dame and Michigan State ranked ahead of the "Bama's in the polls, but the ease with which Bear Bryant's boys handled the high-ranking Cornhuskers makes you wonder.

Only a few games remain. The Super Bowl should be exciting. At stake will be $23,000 for the winners and $15,000 for the losers, but Green Bay and the Chiefs from Kansas will knock heads for more than money. Pride will be on the line, too, for the NFL has always contended its circuit is superior to the junior, AFL.

Torpedoman Stein Is Stationed In Yokosuka, Japan

Senior Chief Torpedoman's Mate John R. Stein, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stein of 39 Ralph St., has reported to the Ship Repair Facility of Yokosuka, Japan, for duty.

He will help fulfill the mission of the facility which is to provide logistic support, including dry docking, overhaul repair, alteration and conversion of naval ships and vessels.

Facility provides from lines support capability for Seventh Fleet units deployed in the Far East.

The Ship Repair Facility is located 30 miles south of Tokyo at Fleet Activities, Yokosuka, site of one of the Navy's largest bases outside the continental United States.

Reforms Advised For The World's Biggest Budget

As taxpayers face the annual deluge of demands contained in new budgets for school, municipal, county and state governments, an appeal for a "return to unadorned fiscal responsibility" provides timely advice for biggest spending program — the hundred billion dollar, plus, Federal Government budget now in preparation at Washington.

This was pointed out today by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association in citing the call for reforms in the Federal budget document to regain spending control sounded by Maurice H. Stans at the recent 14th National Tax Conference sponsored by the Tax Foundation.

The former Federal budget director indicated "accounting in consistency," "misleading totals" and "gimmicks" which make the Federal budget "seem less spendable than it is."

Stans urged restoration of "the somewhat tarnished reputation of the budget," declaring: "After all, the budget of the United States is a document of vital significance to everyone in the nation. It affects every citizen's well-being, his environment, and his taxes."

"It is used by economists to project the direction of the economy and to evaluate the soundness of national fiscal and monetary policy. It is studied by foreign nations who judge from it our strength of character and our power to meet international monetary and military situations."

"For these reasons, the Federal budget must be impeccably bound in its accounting principles and beyond reproach in its integrity."

We welcome the support of the veterans group and issue an open invitation to all civic-minded individuals and groups to help Belleville return to the dignity which she greatly deserves. This is our town; we love it, and we cannot afford the tax burden and poor services imposed on us by a Council Manager.

Remember we all know the facts, and we know that the Commission Form of government is the only solution.

THOMAS APPICELLI, chairman
Committee for Change of Government.

They are David C. Lundquist, 148-152 Newark Ave., and Oreste J. Savare, 9 Baldwin Place.

In all, nearly 200 employees will participate in one of four sessions from Prudential's corporate and regional home offices in the United States and Canada.

Lundquist and Savare, underwriters in underwriting divisions at Newark, will study management theory and practice through the case study method, with special emphasis on the administrative process at Prudential.

The people of Belleville must be aware of false facts and figures that have been and will be presented to them. The above facts and figures are actual and honest, for we feel it is our obligation to present the truth in weekly releases.

Let us join together in a united front and eradicate the evils which plague our town. Now is the time to hold our heads up high and exert our right to have a good and efficient form of government.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

We have heard from numerous customers that dealers who do not carry Magnavox merchandise, spread the rumor that all Magnavox sets are made in Japan, implying that consequently they are of inferior quality. Of course, this is untrue. Magnavox color TV sets are made in Greenville, Tennessee, in Magnavox's own plants. Some transistor radios and some small screen portable black and white TV only and the lowest priced 19" color TV set are made in Japan, under supervision of Magnavox engineers. Magnavox also has a factory that makes only record changers, in England.

The reason for this arrangement is simply that it would cost much more to manufacture the same quality merchandise in this country. The record changer for instance has features which can be found only in U.S.-made change-ers costing twice as much. What is wrong with getting better quality for less money?

There is hardly any radio or TV set made in this country that does not have some parts made in Japan, Holland or Germany. If this is the case you can be sure that the same part of the same quality would cost more if it would be bought in this country. The public is always demanding lower prices, this is one way to keep the prices down and the quality up.

It is ridiculous, of course, to consider things made in other countries inferior. It is also ridiculous to state that one should only buy things made in the U.S. Those people who advocate such a policy completely forget that Japan for instance buys far more merchandise from the U.S. than we buy from Japan. The Dutch make the very best X-ray apparatus in the whole world. Germany is well enough known for its quality products. So if next time you hear somebody say in a disparaging manner, that all Magnavox sets are made in Japan, don't believe it. Such a dealer more likely than not, does not own up to the rather high qualifications which the Magnavox factory requires.

We service what we sell.

Caesar Romano, Barban President, Seeks Board of Education Office

BY CAESAR ROMANO

On Thursday, Jan. 5, 1967, I became a candidate for the Belleville Board of Education.

From that moment on it became necessary to acquaint the citizens of Belleville with my background qualifications, my character, my dedication to the principles which I believe, and my constructive offerings to implement and possibly improve certain existing conditions in our school system.

In each of the remaining weeks of the campaign I shall elaborate on one of these issues.

I feel my background qualifications should be the first topic for consideration by you, the citizens of Belleville.

Born of immigrant parents in Madison, N.J., I attended St. Vincent's Parochial School and later, Madison High School where I was active in dramatics, music, student council and sports.

Upon completion of my secondary education, I attended Tusculum College in Greenville, Tenn., as a psychology and music major. I received a Bachelor of Science degree in East Orange, N.J., and pursued only the psychology major.

I have completed refresher courses in psychology and quantitative analysis at Newark College of Engineering and am a graduate of the International Business Machine Accountant's course in I.B.M. computers.

CAESAR ROMANO
School Board Candidate

My business background is diversified.

It began at CIBA Pharmaceutical Co. in both the I.B.M. and the accounting departments. I became associated with American Business Machines Co. and later had the honor of being appointed Eastern Sales Manager.

I am presently a local business representative and account executive for a nationally known container corporation.

I have been active in various societies pertaining to my profession such as the American Materials Handling Society and the Society of Packaging and Handling Engineers, and am engaged in consultant work with these organizations.

This aspect of my background will enable me to fully understand the financial ability of our board of education to provide the maximum available within our educational scope.

Civic affairs have commanded the greater part of my leisure time as I am presently serving as vice chairman of the Robert Treat Council Boy Scouts of America and am a Cubmaster at Wesley Methodist Church in Belleville, where I have had an opportunity to work with the parents and children of our community.

Serving as a member of the Citizens Conference Committee on Narcotics, I further have the opportunity to understand the problems that our youth and our community are facing today.

My charitable activities have included such worthy causes as the Cancer Drive and the March of Dimes.

I am married to the former Barbara Romano nee Patti and is also active in community affairs. She is a past president of the School No. 8 PTA.

My two children, both students at School 8 are Lee Alan, age 8, and Robin, age 5.

I feel that I have a responsibility to them as a parent and to the community as a whole to work for not just an adequate educational system, but for the highest possible educational goals, commensurate with the town's people's ability to support.

We have what amounts to an educational deficiency resulting from our poor town and school image and I feel that it is much that can be done in this area to improve these conditions.

The present controlling interests on the board have done more to damage our school image than to elevate it. They have consistently shown their disregard for the voice of the majority of the people of this town.

Isn't it a coincidence that election day this year should fall on St. Valentine's day. Wouldn't it be nice to put our hearts only to the task of educating our children?

Ladies and gentlemen, our children are the future!

Vote 1-A on election day!

ed citizen for the mayor's consideration.

If you have to run for office—and you do in Belleville—the question is "How do you get nominated?" One method of nominating candidates for school board membership that has been gaining in favor is the caucus method. Under this system, some authority, such as a community organization interested in good schools invites or chooses a group of representatives from local associations for the purpose of canvassing, screening and nominating the best available candidates.

Again, if you have made your mark in the community, the caucus committee will seek you out.

In fact, many authorities feel that the office should seek the candidate, rather than the candidate the office. Look at Belleville's situation.

In any case, in order to get on the ballot you have to file a petition with the school board secretary, Mrs. Mary Shader. The petition must be signed by at least ten persons qualified to vote in the election, but it's a good idea to get more than ten names. The petition must declare that you are qualified to be a board member, that you will serve if elected, and it must contain a verification by one signer that the petition is genuine.

Nominating petitions must be filed with the board secretary on or before 4 p.m. of the 40th day before the election that means today. Since elections are held in February, the deadline would fall on Jan. 5.

Now all you have to do is get elected.

Aliens Must Register Before End of Month

Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci today urged all aliens to fill out "Alien Address Reports" before the end of this month. Forms are available at windows in the lobby of the main Post Office building near the Walnut Street entrance in downtown Newark.

"It is of vital importance to our government that all aliens complete their registration no later than January 31, 1967, as required by law," said the postmaster.

School 5 Gave Candidates A Hard Time

But It's Part Of The Job Running For Office Takes

What kind of an image does the present Board of Education project? It depends on what side of the door you're behind, and Monday night six candidates disagreed.

Incumbent John DiRienzo told an audience at School 5 that the Board was doing an excellent job and their image was fine. Concurring was Mrs. Helen Rudden, a close friend of Board President Ernest S. Arvidson.

But three other candidates said the Board was projecting a bad image and doing a poor job. They were office seekers hoping to take at least one of the two seats vacated by Board member Richard Drake, who gave up his position on the board after eight years, and DiRienzo, ending his first term and trying for reelection.

There was a husband and wife team on the panel, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Albertine, who said they were often poles apart in their views on education. They wouldn't they said, vote as a "bloc."

Mrs. Rudden, who had been vice president of the School 5 PTA, said she was surprised to find mothers interested in the budget and that they were trying to get the voters out. She was proud of the school system, she declared.

Mrs. Anthony Izzo, the first of the candidates to make her intentions known, ran into rough weather during the question and answer session, but said she was working to prevent the defeat of the budget. "People," she said, "are foolish to defeat the budget, and then elect the very people who caused its defeat."

DiRienzo declared the school board's image was a very good one, and he had heard only isolated cat-calls at the Board. "I'm personally very proud of it," he said. He claims the backing of the Board majority.

Caesar Romano, the first speaker, asked residents to put

BOARD CANDIDATES taking a breather during campaign speeches at School 5 Monday night.

Restoration Of Public Trust Is Of Major Importance, Mrs. Izzo

I view the coming Board of Education election campaign as an opportunity to redirect the attention of our Towns people to the real and important issues facing them and how they will be affected throughout the coming year.

I place them in the following order of importance, the Budget, the new Board members, and the restoration of the public trust in the administration of their school system.

The budget must be thoroughly and intelligently evaluated through open and honest approval or objections. This can only be done by attendance of the public hearing by those who have not had the opportunity to be at the PTA meetings at which the budget is read.

Parents should learn for themselves what programs are planned for the improvement of education and how it will truly benefit the children. Most important is that citizens should go to the polls and vote.

The new Board members must be citizens who have demonstrated their concern and have had the courage of their convictions on the serious issues. They must be properly motivated and possess an honest desire to offer constructive solutions in open and direct answers to the questions which will be asked.

Lastly the public faith and trust in the administration of the school system must be restored, by according citizens the respect due them as breadwinners who supply the funds. The present disregard of their wishes must cease.

Interested In Becoming A School Board Member? It's Not All That Hard

Have you often thought, "I'll bet I could do a better job than those fellows on the school board?" If you feel that your present school board isn't doing such a good job, and if you think you really could do better, perhaps it isn't as hard as you imagine to become a school board member.

Or perhaps it's harder.

The legal requirements are very few, and to say, if you can read and write, if you have lived in your school district for at least two years, and if you have no interest, either direct or indirect, in any claim against the board, you are legally qualified to serve on the board of education.

But, are you sure you are willing to devote long hours, without compensation other than the satisfaction of doing a good job, to school board work?

Do you have an unswerving devotion to public education as the best means of preserving and improving our democratic way of life and assuring the nation of good future citizens?

Are you able to work cooperatively and pleasantly with other people as part of a team and not become part of a "bloc"?

Can you take criticism, perhaps even attack, without losing your head and without deviating from what you think is the right position—the position in the best interest of the educational welfare of all the children? Or do you ignore responsible criticism?

Do you possess the attributes of intelligence, integrity, open-mindedness, level-headedness and common sense that are necessary in an effective board member? Or are you a politician at heart?

If you can honestly stand up to the foregoing questions, you may belong on a school board. Now, how do you get there?

School districts fall into two categories. If you live in a Chapter 6 district (mostly city districts), you have to be appointed to the office by your Mayor. If you live in a Chapter 7 (mostly boroughs and townships including Belleville) or in a regional school district you have to run for the office of board member.

How do you get appointed? Well, if you're really a community-minded citizen, you will surely have been active in some community organization—the PTA, the American Legion, the Community Fund, the volunteer fire department, the Lions, the Rotary Club—whatever. Hopefully, the Mayor will choose school board members on the basis of demonstrated community leadership. Often he is open to suggestion by groups who nominate a respect-

How the Chinese do it

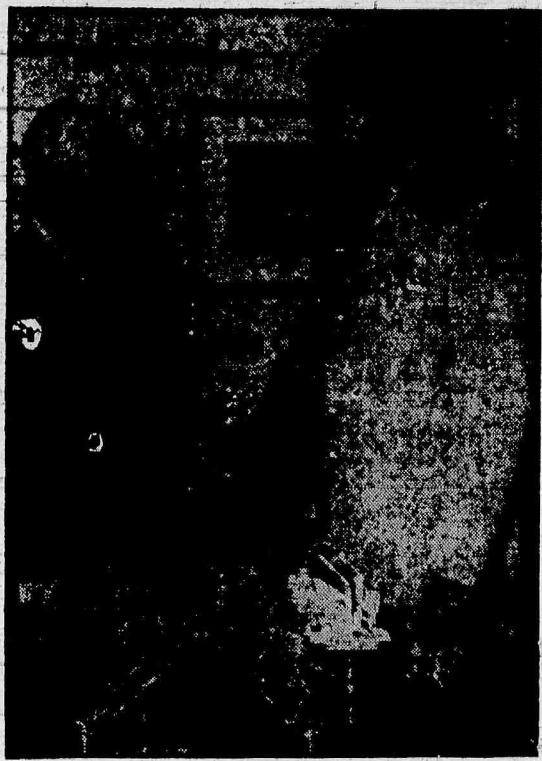

Legend has it that Chinese doctors used to be paid only while their patients were healthy, got no fee during illness. It almost sounds reasonable. In fact, there are physicians today who specialize in keeping their patients healthy. Preventive medicine, it's called. All doctors practice it as much as they can. If you get regular checkups, your doctor has a chance to keep you from getting sick. Modern drugs play a large part in this practice, and that's where we pharmacists come in. But only you can make preventive medicine work—by getting into the habit of regular checkups. It's a very good idea.

Schools Cost Big Money; Where Does It Come From?

Last year we spent $584 million dollars to run the public schools in New Jersey. That's a lot of money. Where did it all come from?

The biggest share of the money we spend for education still comes from the pocket of the property owner. In recent years, however, the State has helped pay for public school education in order to lighten the burden on the local taxpayer. The 3 percent sales tax, which went into effect on July 1, 1966, also helps to ease the load which the property owner bears.

How much does the State pay toward the cost of education? Well, that varies from district to district. It works like this:

The State has established a foundation program sum of $400 per pupil. Stated more simply, $400 is considered as the very least amount which should be spent on the education of each child per year. (Actually, the cost in New Jersey today averages about $600 per child.) The State doesn't pay $400 per child. It pays $400, minus the Local Fair Share, which is the amount the school district itself can raise by a 10 1/2 mill property tax ($1.05 per $100 of property value). The Local Fair Share is simply a minimum tax levy required to participate in the program.

Let's see how this works out. Say, for example, that in district X the Local Fair Share raises the sum of $250 per child. We have, then —

$400 State Foundation
250 Local Fair Share
$150 State aid per pupil

And
$600 Cost per pupil
150 Amount of State aid
$450 Actual cost of district

As you can see, the local school district usually pays much more than does the State to educate each child. In this case, the actual tax rate necessary to raise $450 per pupil would be about $1.90 per $100 of property value.

In some districts — the wealthier ones with high property valuations — the Local Fair Share can be as great or greater than the foundation program sum. To make sure that each district gets some state aid, the law says that every district must get at least $75 in state aid per pupil.

The State also contributes in other ways to public education. It gives financial help to counties which operate full-time day vocational schools. It gives aid for education of handicapped pupils (the physically handicapped,

He's managed to score some of the highest points for an off-game team and his loss next year will be sorely felt by Coach Al LoBalbo.

BRIGHT FUTURE: "I'm looking forward to great things from him," said coach Al LoBalbo Monday afternoon speaking of Bob Baker, a sophomore forward and center. "He's starting to really play some good ball for us. He's gonna be a good one!" Here he takes a stance before the basket at Belleville High School gymnasium.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

He's Dissatisfied

To the Editor:

We are all aware that there will be an election on Jan. 31. I see whether or not Belleville should change its form of government. We are also aware that there are two main camps, one called "the vote NO committee" spearheaded by Sal Calabro and certain councilmen; and the other by Thomas Apicella.

In such an important election, mentally retarded or emotionally disturbed). It contributes to the building of new schools. It even provides emergency help for school districts faced with unanticipated financial calamities.

The State sets two prequalifications for school aid.

1. The school district must live up to certain standards for its schools as set by law, or by the State Department of Education or by the Commissioner of Education.

2. The district must operate its schools for at least 180 days per year. Lots of people think the federal government helps to pay for the public schools. This is true only to a limited extent. The federal government provides moneys for certain special programs or activities such as school lunch and milk programs, some industrial and vocational programs, and a few others.

Recently, under the Elementary and Secondary Education Acts, the federal government has made funds available for programs for disadvantaged children or for experimental or novel programs. The "Head Start" programs are one such example.

It would seem to me that the largest newspaper in the town should play an extremely important role. And on which ever side one stands, he should be able to open the paper and read good, honest reporting and see no editorializing except on the editorial page where it belongs.

You, Mr. Editor, claim that the "Times" is a growing newspaper; but I ask you this, in which way are you growing? It seems to me as an average citizen of this town that you're moving toward complete yellow journalism. On nearly every page I can point to certain statements which make clear your position on the change of government, or in fact on any question.

You may have your likes and dislikes as any normal person, but Mr. Editor, keep them to the editorial page. Do not attempt to pawn off as news reporting your personal beliefs. In addition to this editorializing, you're also guilty of slanting your newspaper so that the articles written about the "Vote No Committee" far exceed the number of articles written about the stand of the Committee for the Change of Government.

It is immaterial at this stage of the game as to who is right concerning the change. This is a matter for each citizen of Belleville to decide for himself on the facts. But it is your duty as the "leading newspaper in Belleville" to present these facts fairly and accurately; and unless this is done, then your newspaper is worthless.

There are many examples of what I have said in every one of your issues, but one of the most flagrant examples is how Mayor Pico and others knew exactly what Mr. Di Benedetto would say in his letter before it was published in your newspaper. Now, Mr. Editor, did you happen to give them a release of this letter?

I hope that this letter is printed to show the people of Belleville that there are citizens, who regardless of the outcome, want to see honest journalism at all times.

LAWRENCE S. SCHWARTZ,
27 Rocca St.,
Belleville, N.J.

(Mr. Schwartz, you are confused. How did Mayor Pico get the information to reply to Mr.

Before Filing Complaints, Check The Board Practices, You May Change Your Mind

So you have a gripe against your school board or against some of the people on it? Perhaps your feelings are justified; again, perhaps they aren't. Check the following list — one of desirable board practices, the other of undesirable practices.

You may change your mind about your board — maybe its members are only trying to do their job. On the other hand, you may find you have good reason for complaint.

A Good Board Member Does:

1. Recognize that his responsibility is not to run the schools, but to see that they are well run. Which administration does Belleville have?

2. Work through the properly appointed administrative officers according to the organization as planned. That's a sore point here.

3. Function as a part of a policy-forming and control board rather than as part of an administrative board.

4. Familiarize himself in a broad and non-technical manner with the problems of the school system.

5. Refer, as far as possible, all complaints and requests to the appropriate administrative officer. Our school principals went to the Board.

6. Try to interpret to the school staff the attitudes, wishes, and needs of the people of the district, and try to interpret to the people the needs, problems and progress of the schools.

7. Voice opinions frankly in board meetings and vote for what seems best for all children of the district, and not as a "bloc."

8. Recognize fully that the appropriate administrative officer is entirely responsible for carrying out a particular policy in accordance with state law and local regulations.

9. Help to frame policies and plans only after considering the recommendations of the appropriate administrative officer, together with his reasons for making such recommendations.

10. Require oral and written reports for the purpose of keeping the board properly informed on school matters.

11. Give all school officials authority in keeping with their responsibilities.

12. Vote only for the best-trained technical and professional employees who have been properly recommended by the appropriate administrative officer.

13. Maintain harmonious relations with other board members when harmonious relations are consistent with their obligations to the schools.

14. Visit the schools to gain clearer understanding of school problems, but doesn't interfere in the day-by-day administration of the schools.

15. Establish criteria for evaluating the efficiency of the administrative officers.

16. Present personal criticisms of school employees only to the appropriate administrative officer.

17. Support and protect school officials in the performance of their duties.

18. Give friendly counsel and advice to the administrative officers.

A Good Board Member Doesn't:
1. Interfere with the day-by-day administration of the schools.

TONI MARONE

A new program has been instituted by the parents of School 9 PTA. It is part of a WE MUST CARE, program whereby parents in the locale of the school are asked to give a helping hand to children to and from school.

The BLOCK PARENT PLAN of School 9 consisting of one or more homes, is an island of safety in each block of the school district. Each home is a refuge for a child from alarming strangers, sudden illness and accident. In a case where a child is followed or threatened or in case of accident, the volunteer is to call the police immediately and detain the child until help arrives. Each home is carefully screened, will display a sign in the front window, and all students, and will be available from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Each volunteer will have a list of addresses and telephone numbers of all children in school so that a parent can be contacted to pick up a child in trouble. The purpose of this Block Parent Service is not to break up fights, or give medical attention, except to save a life. All volunteers must take a first aid course, and be trained to look for identification marks, description of car, license numbers etc. in case of a criminal offense or attempt.

The parents of School 9 district would like to see this program made effective throughout Belleville. Mrs. Servidio, president, and Mrs. Rovel, chairman of the program have made themselves available for any further information, and will be glad to speak at any meeting to answer any further questions.

Many hours of planning have gone into this program with the full cooperation of the Police dept. The protection of children against molesters should be made a first to all the people of Belleville.

School 3 PTA announces the coming of the annual card party on January 27, in the all-purpose room of the school. Mrs. Frank Di Ruggiero, chairman and Mrs. John Giordano, co-chairman promise a gala affair with prizes galore. Tickets may be purchased at the school from any executive board member, or the evening of the card party, at $2.00. Donation is $1.00. All PTA's are invited to attend to make this affair the great success it always is.

The Senior High School PTA will hold a square dance on January 16, after the regular meeting, in the cafeteria. Nicholas Menza, professor of athletics at Seton Hall University, South Orange, will be the caller. Menza has officiated at many games in Belleville over the past few years. All members are cordially invited, for a night of fun. The date: January 16, at 8:00 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Domenick Alfieri and her committee.

HOLIDAY CONVALESCENT

Mrs. Carol Rowitz of 78 Watessing Avenue, Belleville, is back home convalescing after suffering a throat ailment at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. Doing very nicely now, Mr. s. Rowitz spent most of the holidays in the hospital.

Bell Telephone Sets New Records In Calls Over The 1966 Business Year

New Jersey Bell set records across the board in 1966: more telephones, more calls and a $160 million construction and service improvement program.

The company added 200,000 telephones to its statewide network, bringing the total number of telephones in service to more than 3.8 million. Customers used their phones more, too, placing 16.4 million calls on an average business day, up 1.1 million over 1965.

To keep pace with demands for communications services, New Jersey Bell carried out the largest construction program in its history — spending $160 million on new facilities.

Major construction projects completed during the year included two new central offices and additions to 24 others; information centers in Rutherford and Pleasantville; long distance switching centers in Asbury Park and Rochelle Park; a Northern Area headquarters building in Vineland; and the installation of 1.2 million miles of telephone wires.

At the end of 1966, New Jersey Bell's total investment in equipment and buildings had passed the $1.5 billion mark. On the tax side of the ledger during 1966 the company paid out $115 million to the federal government, of which about one-third was in the form of excise tax levied directly on telephone customers. The company also paid $40.5 million in taxes to the state government and to local municipalities.

The record construction program also permitted the company to offer new services to more customers, such as Touch-Tone calling and Expanded Direct Distance Dialing.

Touch-Tone telephones, which feature push-buttons instead of a rotary dial, were available at the end of the year in 126 exchange areas serving 71 percent of the company's telephones.

Expanded Direct Distance Dialing (EDDD), which allows customers to dial collect, person-to-person, credit and station-to-station calls from homes, offices and public telephones, was begun in the Union, Roselle, Linden, Belleville and Cranford areas. Approximately 664,000 telephones in the state are now equipped for EDDD service.

New Jersey Bell also provided its employees with new tools for improving service. The most unusual was a computerized operation to give operators quicker access to long distance telephone rates. Instead of calling another operator for charges on calls between distant points, operators simply key coded data into a computer which gives long distance rates — in voice form.

New Jersey Bell reported that its statewide campaign to combat annoyance calls resulted in the arrest and conviction of 105 persons in the first 11 months of 1966. The maximum penalty for

THE GLASS COMPANY: One of the busiest businesses along Washington Avenue is the Glass Company at 585 Washington Avenue, where everything from pins to television sets are available. making annoyance calls is a $1,000 fine and a year in jail, or both.

The company assists police authorities in annoyance call cases by using line identification equipment, a technique which does not involve listening in on conversations.

Charles Wohlmann Is Awarded Those AF Pilot's Wings

Second Lieutenant Charles T. Wohlmann, son of Mrs. Martha Wohlmann of 446 Cortland St., has been awarded U.S. Air Force silver pilot wings upon graduation at Craig AFB, Ala.

Lt. Wohlmann is being assigned to Robins AFB, Ga., for flying duty with the Strategic Air Command, America's long-range nuclear bomber and missile force.

The lieutenant, a graduate of Belleville High School, was commissioned in 1965 upon completion of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps program at East Carolina College, Greenville, N.C., where he was graduated with a B.S. degree. He is a member of Pi Kappa Phi.

His wife, Charlyn, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Billings, of 2107 Woodland Drive, Durham, N.C.

It's Tax Record Collecting Time Again, Says IRS

Taxpayers who kept good financial records during 1966 will find it easy to prepare their Federal income tax returns in January.

Many taxpayers who use one of the two standard deductions instead of itemizing could save sizable sums by keeping records and itemizing their actual deductions.

Internal Revenue suggests that you start collecting cancelled checks, receipts, records of contributions and all other papers which will help in preparing your 1966 income tax return. These records should be filed in an orderly manner and stored in a safe place so that they will be available when they are needed.

Some of your income may not be taxable but unless you have records identifying the non-taxable cash or property, you may be unable to prove that it is non-taxable.

Expenses may be overlooked or forgotten when you prepare your tax return unless they were recorded at the time they were incurred or paid. An overlooked deductible $25 item could cost you $3 or more in extra tax dollars.

The housewife who doubles as financial secretary for the family can easily save the price of a new outfit by devoting a few minutes each week to properly maintaining records on deductible expenditures.

Good records not only save tax dollars, they are useful in preparing credit applications and they are essential for efficient management of the family finances.

Sabre Cadets Say Thanks to Citizens

The Sabre Cadets, Belleville's first all-girl color guard and drill team, with the assistance of local shop owners, had canisters placed in stores to assist them in the purchase of their uniforms.

The citizens of Belleville, realizing the benefits which could accrue from the good publicity these classy lassies would give Belleville, dipped into their hearts and pocketbooks to help this fine group. The canisters were retrieved this week and the Sabre Cadets would like to go on record as thanking each and every Bellevilleite who contributed.

The Cadets were a little disappointed in human nature, however, when one canister completely disappeared. Whoever the culprit was, we are sure it will not bring him happiness, taking money that was so nobly contributed to a fine cause.

On a happier note, the Sabre Cadets report they now have a business manager, Ray Kingsley of 135 Cortlandt Street. Kingsley has been with drum corps about 34 years, first starting as a player. At present, he is assistant director and chief quartermaster of the Pioneer Drum and Bugle Corps, Kearny.

Must You Retire For Medicare's Many Benefits?

A question frequently asked to day by people approaching 65 is — "Do I have to retire to obtain medicare benefits?"

According to the Social Security district manager of Newark, there is only one answer to this question, and that is — No, you do not have to retire to have medicare benefits. Now, just what do you have to do to get medicare benefits? Again, there is only one answer to this question and that is — take action — visit your social security office and sign up. You don't have to make payments for hospital insurance, but for medical insurance you pay $3 a month. If you are approaching age 65, when should you sign up? The key to obtaining complete medicare coverage at the earliest possible moment is to take action two or three months before the month you reach 65. Medicare can provide you with two kinds of health insurance — hospital insurance and medical insurance, which helps to pay doctor bills. If you sign up two or three months before you become 65, you will have complete coverage starting the first day of your 65th birthday month. For example, let's say your birthday falls on Dec. 28. If you sign up in September, October or November, you will have full medicare protection beginning the first day of December. Now, let's see what happens if you delay action until the month of your 65th birthday. If you sign up in that month, your hospital insurance starts the first day of that month, but your doctor bill insurance will not be effective until the first day of the following month. There is a greater risk if you delay taking action to sign up until after the month of your 65th birthday. For example, if your 65th birthday is in the month of January and you wait until February to apply, your doctor bill insurance is not effective until April 1. The longer you delay in signing up has an effect on the time your doctor bill insurance will begin. If you do not sign up within the three months following the month you reach 65, you will not have another opportunity to do so until the next open enrollment period, your doctor bill insurance protection will not start until July 1, 1968. Medicare and all other benefits provided under the provisions of the Social Security Act are yours only, if you take the required action. It is important to you and your family that you sign up two or three months before you are 65. Once again, we remind you that you do not have to retire to sign up for medicare benefits. Other information and literature about social security benefits and medicare coverage is available through the Social Security District Office. The Newark Office is at 1016 Broad St. and the telephone number is 645-2180. It is open until 9 p.m. on Wednesday evenings.

Kearny Kardinals Take A 29-17 Mat Victory Over Bellboy Grapplers

But BHS Matmen Lost It By Some Close Decisions

by BARRY PIERCE

The Bellboy grapplers headed for Kearny last Saturday to take on a tough Kardinal crew, but with three of their starters sitting on the bench Coach James D'Augustino's men took a beating and came out on the bottom with a 29-17 score for the day.

At 98 pounds, both teams were evenly matched and relatively inexperienced men had it out. Robert Riboli, in for Doug McElroy, wrestled a slightly bigger and stronger Piskin from Kearny. Riboli tried hard but got pinned in 41 seconds of the second period.

The next match was between more experienced men, both returning from last year. Nick DiDomenico, at 105 pounds, came out on top pinning Sharples after 31 seconds of the second period and tying the match at 5-5. DiDomenico has pinned his man in both matches so far this year.

At 115 pounds John Peraino was taken down by Kruegar in the first period, but after that kept his opponent at bay for the rest of the match. But even though his adversary scored no more points, the match ended in a draw.

DISTRICT CHAMP: Nick DiDomenico, a 105-pound scrapper, is the pride of the 1967 Wrestling Squad at Belleville High School, says Coach Jim Silvestri. Here he gives his men some good advice for the forthcoming matches against Irvington Friday at the high school gymnasium at 3:45 p.m. "I hope to see him go all the way," said Silvestri Monday afternoon.

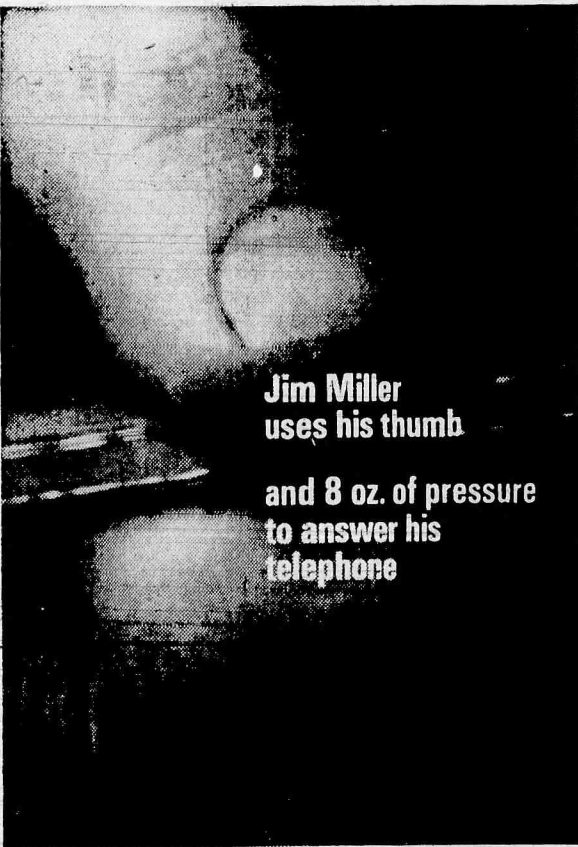

Post Office Sets Record Deliveries

Newark Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci said new records were set this year for mails handled and processed at the Post Office. The December mails totaled 167,349,000 pieces — a 9.8 per cent increase over last year with parcel post mail exceeding more than 11.8 per cent over last year's record of 1,334,000 packages.

The Postmaster said another record was established on Dec. 17, as more than 16,000,000 pieces were distributed, processed and dispatched in one day.

The total revenue of $1,659,565.00, collected during the December period, is 8.3 per cent more than last year.

Benucci said the smooth flow of the mails was the combination of public cooperation to his "Mail Early Plan" and the all out efforts of Postal personnel in getting the job done. "I am grateful to all," said Benucci.

Jim Miller uses his thumb and 8 oz. of pressure to answer his telephone

Telephone man Tom Maule got the idea in a super market.

Tom had been trying to figure out a way to adapt standard telephone equipment for use by one of his customers, Jim Miller, a paralyzed veteran confined to bed and only able to move a portion of his thumb. The telephone engineer found the answer when he stepped on a floor mat that automatically opens super market doors.

Maule figured that if he could set up a similar device—but one requiring only a few ounces of pressure—he would be able to help Jim Miller. After locating the manufacturer of automatic door openers, Tom learned that he could obtain a ribbon-like switch that operated on the same principles, but required only 8 ounces of pressure.

With the ribbon-switch attached to a Bell "hands-free" speakerphone that permits conversation without lifting a receiver, Jim Miller is now able to use his telephone as easily as you do.

Tom Maule is a member of New Jersey Bell's engineering group that designs unique equipment and systems for people who have special problems using the telephone.

If you know of someone who has a special problem, call your local New Jersey Bell Business Office today.

At 168 pounds Bob Andrews moved up from his 156-pound berth to replace injured Walt Beresford. Even though he was outweighed by more than 10 pounds, he used moves and speed to end the match in a 1-1 tie.

Next at 178 pounds sophomore strongman Bob Bonafante took on Byron and rode him for almost the whole match (3:21 seconds) and scored a 4-0 victory over him. In the last match at heavyweight, Sam Calabria filled in for Barry Pearce.

The Kearny man, Rogers, outweighed him by 20 pounds and had JV experience from last year, but Big Sam, out for less than two weeks, charged right in. It was a battle of strength and weight, and the fans screamed twice as loud for them as for any other.

Calabria was ahead until late in the last period when the 220-pound Rogers fell on his chest. Then, almost at the end, the Kearny man reversed him and came out on top by a slim 6-5 margin, ending the event with team scores: Belleville 17, Kearny 29.

On the third of this month, Belleville took on a powerful Barringer squad and got beaten 38-20.

Here is a short summary of the match:

123 pounds — Louie (Barr) dethroned Cucolo (Bell) 6-5.

League Leading Bengals Chew Up BHS Cagers in Big Ten Conference Play

For one quarter it was a close ball game last Friday night, for one quarter defensive ace Rich San Fillipo held the Big Ten Conference's leading scorer Ted Jasieniecki scoreless, and for one quarter the defense minded Blue

Then the Bengals battled back, using their superior height, strength, speed and shooting to tie the score at 5-5 before Jasieniecki poured in his first four points to pull the visitors toward victory.

Bloomfield built their lead to 27-19 with a spurt closing out the half and then steadily poured it on for a 61-35 final.

While the Bengals were making an artistic failure out of the Bellboys determined upset plans, West Orange was having more success in the same vein with league leading Orange. The sur-

Kids Interested In Astronomy?

Special holiday vacation performances of The Holiday Skies, a Christmas planetarium show, have been announced by William Sharp, Newark Museum Planetarium superintendent.

The performances will be given on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Dec. 28, 29 and 30, at 1:15 p.m. Sharp said that the show is intended for the general public, both children and adults. Admission is free but children under 7 are not admitted.

The Holiday Skies will give the audience a view of the stars and planets as they appear during the Christmas season, Jupiter and Saturn will be featured as the brightest objects visible.

"People who receive telescopes or binoculars as gifts often don't know where to look for interesting celestial objects," Mr. Sharp said. "In this survey we will show them the major features of our local skies."

Regular Planetarium performances of Other Milky Ways will be omitted on the Christmas weekend, but will be given on Saturday and Sunday, December 31 and Jan. 1, at 2:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

The Newark Museum, at 40 Washington Street is open Monday through Saturday from 12 noon to 5:30 p.m., Sundays and holidays from 12 p.m. to 6 p.m., and on Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Admission is free.

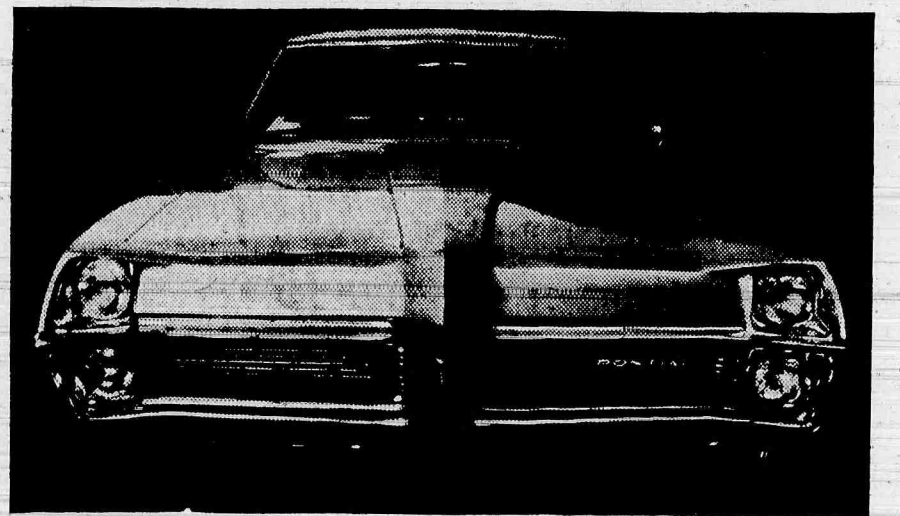

Symphony Hall Visited By 40,000 Children

Almost 40,000 New Jersey school children vied into Symphony Hall to benefit from Mid-day student programming and other cultural events this fall.

Forty student-oriented programs involving music, dance, folklore, theater and film classics as well as lectures, attracted field trips mostly from 10 northern counties of the state.

More youngsters attended evening concerts for which student discount tickets are always available at Newark's cultural center.

Maybe our '67 Pontiac
Is breaking sales records because people don't want to wait until '68 for a copy.

Pontiac Motor Division

Our engineers have become used to seeing their ideas show up on other cars. Two years later. And apparently so have a lot of car buyers. Because 1967 Pontiacs are selling faster than 1966 Pontiacs. And '66 was a record year.

When you think about it, why should you wait around for innovations like our disappearing windshield wipers? Or for imaginative options like our exclusive hood-mounted tach? Especially when you consider that our engineers wouldn't turn a Pontiac loose with anything less than a standard 400 cubic inch V-8. Or a Tempest with anything less than our revolutionary Overhead Cam Six. (Not to mention all those new safety features like GM's energy absorbing steering column and a dual master cylinder brake system with warning lamp.)

In short, our engineers seem to have done it again. They may even start asking or royalties on the copies.

MARATHON VOLUNTEERS: Plans for Belleville's assault upon the World Marathon Basketball game record are moving into high gear with players being recruited for the proposed game during the week of Feb. 20. The marathon is the result of an idea brought forth by several Belleville High School students to earn the town some favorable publicity.

Approximately 150 Belleville High School boys will be needed to take part in this endeavor. Each participant will play in several shifts not to exceed 30 minutes in length during each of the five days of the marathon, however, no boy will be at the game site for more than three hours on any given day.

Preliminary indications from questionnaires distributed Tuesday show that about 100 - 125 BHS boys will be able to take part in the game. This means that participation will probably be opened to freshmen from the Junior High School by the middle of next week.

PBA BACKING: Behind this youthful effort, the Policemen's Benevolent Association has added its support and an agreement to supply the necessary adult leadership. The PBA will be able to provide transportation to and from evening games, while coordinating adult committees for insurance, chaperones, and financial needs.

The Belleville Board of Education has already consented to the use of the Junior High gymnasium for this game. Arrangements have been made to have members of the PBA, as well as a uniformed policeman, in attendance at the Washington Avenue School throughout the Marathon's duration.

THE GOAL: A group in Sioux City, Iowa currently hold the World Marathon Record after a game of 100½ hours. The Belleville goal will be to extend this mark to 111 hours of continuous play. There is no limit to the number of players that may take part as long as the game progresses with no pause longer than a two minute time out.

Further details of the game will appear in this column as they occur. Adult volunteers will be needed to assist in various aspects of the game before the end of January.

BOWLERS: With a strong spurt after a slow start the Belleville bowling team has moved into a challenging position at one game out of first in the 14 team Northern New Jersey Interscholastic Bowling lead. With a veteran team returning from last year, Coach Mike Salzarulo's Keglers could take over the top spot to give them a shot at the league leading Bloomfield looms.

The loops high average bowler, Mike Rowitz, has been pacing the Belleville squad with a 195 average in the first five weeks of the season. Bob Santin, another veteran senior, is also among the league leaders at 185. Seniors Doug McCumber, and juniors Nick Benkey and George Murphy round out the first five for the well bounced Blue and Gold.

RANDOM THOUGHTS: After an impressive start in the Christmas Tournament, Jim Silvestri's young grapplers went into their first dual meet with high pinning form despite the absence of bed-ridden champ Joe Villano. The Bellboys spurted in front 20-3 as Doug McElroy, Nick DiDomini, John Perano, and Mike Luongo registered pins in four of the first five bouts. Then the tide turned as each of the next seven Bellboys were pinned by surging Barringer in one of the most amazing reversals of form in BHS annals.

It all stems back to the pre-season analysis that the Bellboys lack experience at the upper weight classes. Only time can be the great equalizer in what should be a successful year.

The cagers continued to stumble last week, extending their losing skein to nine, the team's not as bad as the record (Continued On Page 13)

BHS Cagers Bow For The 8th Time Before Cardinals

San Fillipo Makes Gallant Effort, But Loses 65-52

BHS's Year Ends With Defeat By — East Orange!

Despite a superlative effort by veteran forward Rich San Fillipo, the Bellboys absorbed their eighth straight defeat last week in the hands of Kearny by a 65-52 count. The opportunistic Kards jumped ahead by ten points in the opening round and then held off several Belleville comeback bids enroute to the victory.

Assigned the task of guarding the Redbirds 20-point average veteran Don Fix, San Fillipo responded with another of his amazing defensive efforts as a harried Fix accounted for but seven points.

Meanwhile, San Fillipo was bombing from the floor himself, assuming the role of the Blue and Gold's leading scorer for the first time this season with a 7 for 15 floor performance enroute to 16 markers. Under the boards, he was also the leader, hauling in 11 rebounds for the games high.

With Fix effectively shackled, Kearny turned to their guards to carry the scoring lead and that they did, as Joe Mosier and newcomer Charley Moore each accounted for 20 points.

Mosier, a vet playmaker not out of his total in the first half with a heavy shooting 7 for 20 field goal mark. In the second half with closer guarding from Bill Sherman and Joel Pisano who spelled the foul-laden junior, Mosier only managed to get off six shots.

That's when Moore took over. With an assist from a loose guarding Bellboy vet, the young Kard drove in for six easy lay-ups to salvage Kearny's victory in the face of a determined Bellboy comeback bid.

Fouls proved a big factor in this outing as two Belleville starters, soph Bob Baker and Sherman picked up three personal fouls (as in the first period) and were forced into limited action the rest of the way. LeRoy Polite, who eventually notched four personal fouls himself replaced Baker, while Pisano turned in a strong effort in place of Sherman in his longest appearance of the season.

The Kards foul troubles came in the form of forward John Gunderman who picked up three in the first quarter and sat out over two quarters before fouling out with :55 remaining. Baker fouled out for Belleville with 3:30 remaining.

Kearny opened the contest by jumping in front to a 5-0 advantage. Belleville managed to close the gap to two at 11-9 before the Kards ran off eight straight points in a one minute run to a ten point first period lead.

From there the margin remained between 6 and 12, except for one Belleville spurt that cut the Kard lead to four mid-way through the second quarter. A last period spurt opened up the final margin.

CDA 'PENNY PARTY'

The first business meeting of the new year for Court Gratia 751, Catholic Daughters of America will take place Monday, January 16 at 8:30 p.m. in St. Mary's School hall.

All members attending should bring a gift for the "Penny Party" social, it was announced by Mrs. Charles Smith chairman, and Mrs. Roger O'Connor, co-chairman.

Having lost their last two game lapses to Conference contenders, The Bellboys went to East Orange last Friday with their spirit completely rattled.

For one quarter they managed to rattle the Panthers with an 8-7 Belleville lead, but then defense — or rather a lack of it — back-fired and EO ran off with a 61-39 rout.

Defensing to perfection in the first period, Belleville appeared ready to turn in its third straight bid for win number three. Instead, scoring leader Mike Mateyka ran into foul trouble, one other Bellboy starter played the prima donna — which led to his coaching — and the Panthers started hitting with the long range artillery.

The half ended at 25-17 with East Orange ahead; after a nine-point second quarter had turned the tide. The margin continued to mount in the second half as the Panthers connected with an amazing 15 of 20 field goal attempts. The Bellboys got a chance to play almost an entire quarter with the team of the future. Ironically, the margin remained exactly the same while the all returnee squad was in the action. Of by then, if not after the first quarter, Belleville pressure subsided and it wasn't even a ball game.

It's A Big Universe We Have Here, But Man Has Managed To Estimate It

By E. T. PEARSON
Amateur Astronomers, Inc.

We live on a ball of rock which has three-quarters of its surface covered by water. The whole thing is enveloped in a layer of air, like the outside skin of an onion.

We call it Earth.

It is about 8,000 miles in diameter, and has a mass of about 6,000,000,000,000,000,000 metric tons, which is pretty big. It takes one year to move around the Sun in a nearly circular orbit.

There are also eight other very large round chunks of material that circle the Sun. At night reflected sunlight makes them look like stars. The ancient Greeks saw them; noticed that their paths wandered among the fixed stars, and called them planets, meaning wanderers. Their individual names, going outward from the Sun, are Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto. Earth's orbit lies between Venus and Mars.

Our Sun is a ball of flaming gas almost a million miles in diameter a hundred times as large as Earth. Nuclear reactions take place in its interior, where the temperature may be 20 million degrees. Each second of time, these nuclear reactions change four million tons of the Sun's mass into light and heat energy. This energy is dissipated into space from the Sun's surface, where the temperature is 10,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

Naturally the planets cannot be too close to this tremendous source of heat or they would melt. Earth is 93 million miles away, which keeps us just comfortably warm. This radius of our orbit, 93,000,000 miles, is called one astronomical unit. 1 AU. Pluto is at 40 AU's from the Sun, which is another way of saying that its orbit has a diameter of 7,300 million miles, a very large circle indeed. It takes Pluto 248 years to make one trip around it.

Our Sun is a star and we think of the nine planets circling around it as its family. Other stars we see at night might well also have families. And all the stars we can see, together with their families of planets (which we cannot see even with very large telescopes), live in one city, which we call the Milky Way galaxy.

Our largest telescopes have told us that there may be a thousand million or more of these galaxy cities. And it has been determined that these cities are so far apart that traveling even at the speed of light, which means moving 186,000 miles every second, it would take over a million years to make a trip to even the nearest. So let's forget these other galaxies and try to visualize the scale of distances in our own Milky Way.

If you have seen a picture of a galaxy like ours, you know it looks like a pinwheel with a white center and a couple of white spiral dots; each dot a star, a sun, sending out light. The diameter of this pinwheel is in the order of 100,000 light years, but it is only about 10,000 light years thick. Our Sun is located about two thirds of the way out from the center.

Altogether there may be two thousand million stars in our city, our Milky Way galaxy. That is ten times the number of all the people in the United States. The stars are more closely packed in the center, but on the average the distance between suns is perhaps four or five light years, something like 20 to 30 trillion miles.

Now suppose that the galaxy picture you saw was the familiar 8 by 10 inch photograph size. Let's enlarge it, to separate the white dots, so that we can locate our Sun and see how close we live to our neighbors. It is not good enough to enlarge the picture ten or 20 times, or even a hundred times. But suppose we enlarged it to cover all of North America. The white dots, the stars, would then be tiny white pinpoints at an average of about 600 feet apart. Our Sun's nearest neighbor would be another white pinpoint two football fields away.

And on this same scale, the immense orbit of Pluto around the pinpoint Sun would be a circle with a diameter of only two inches. Earth and the other planets would be specks of dust a few millionths of an inch in size. You would need a very good microscope to see them. The one inch radius on the circle representing Pluto's orbit would equal 40 AU's, so the microscopic Earth would be circling a pinpoint sun one fortieth of an inch away.

Perhaps one could say that this makes Earth and its teeming millions pretty insignificant in the total picture. On the other hand, it is terribly significant that human minds are capable of measuring, contemplating and theorizing about this immense world of space.

would indicate since three of those losses could easily have been wins with a little more last minute luck. The problems of a lack of height, speed and fire-power are pretty rough to overcome.

Sunday brings about the long-awaited and even longer debated cries of "massacre" being predicted for Green Bay, the NFL-niks seem to forget the successful Dallas Cowboys who gave the Packers such a run for their money were founded as expansions in the same year as the AFL champ Kansas City Chiefs. The Packers should win it on their superior experience in the their superior experience in the ability, but a margin of more than two touchdowns would be very suprising.

(The following was omitted from last week's column about out-going grid mentor Tom Testa. The story should have concluded with this — Editor).

RETIREMENT: Tom Testa's retirement from the sport he loved is one that will surely be regretted. But yet it was not totally unexpected. As predicted in this column as early as December 9, 1965, "a change was coming to the Belleville grid scene. Testa was not chased from the field as that story suggested however, instead he returned for a veteran-less yet 6-3 season which helped to "meet all the challenges in Belleville."

Testa recently told this column that only after he had met his challenge in the gridiron and in other areas could he retire with a feeling of having accomplished something. In regard to the future, he expressed a desire to return to the coaching lines if the right offer came along, although he is very satisfied with his BHS teaching position.

As he put it: "If the picture had been just a little bit different, I probably would have stayed on."

As one of the 1966 players put it upon leaving the Bellboy clubhouse for the last time after the final game, "Thanks coach for getting the most out of us this season. It's been great playing for you."

The Kids Went For Their Jolly Prizes Like — Well, Like Wild Animals

Advance Plans Are Needed For Medical Program

If you are receiving social security benefits and are not yet 65, you will receive a notice about signing up for medical insurance under medicare in the three months before your 65th birthday, reported for the Social Security Administration at 1016 Broad St., Newark.

Medical insurance is the part of medicare that covers doctor bills and other out-of-hospital medical expenses.

The notice will be in the form of a postcard in which you will simply check "Yes" or "No" as to your decision. Sign the card and return it in the envelope provided. This card should be returned no later than the month before you reach 65 for your protection to begin with the month you become 65.

After you have signed the card electing the medical insurance, the $3 monthly premium will be deducted from your social security checks.

Persons reaching age 65 have a seven-month period to sign up for medical insurance. This seven-month period begins with the third month before you reach 65 and ends three months after you reach 65.

If you wait until the month you reach 65 or later to sign up, your coverage will be delayed. If you do not sign up within the seven-month period, you will not have another chance to be protected by medical insurance until the next general enrollment period which is October, November and December of 1967. Then your premium payment would be higher and your protection would

Own A New Snow Thrower? So Watch Out For Danger

The power-driven snow thrower can present hazards for the uniformed and careless user.

This warning comes from the New Jersey State Safety Council. George G. Traver, Executive Vice President of the Council says most injuries occur when the operator attempts to clear snow-clogged paths without first turning off the motor. But careless clearing of snow-clogged paths is not the only possible cause of injury Traver says.

Stones or other objects hidden by the snow can be picked up and thrown by the whirling blades along with the snow. For this reason, he urges operators of snow throwers to make sure no one is in line with the discharge chute and to pay particular attention when clearing driveways and walks covered with crushed stone.

Operators of snow throwers should follow the recommendations of the National Safety Council:

- Read all operating instructions carefully.
- Know how to stop the engine or how to throw the unit out of gear quickly.
- Keep children and pets away from start until July 1, 1968.

The department encouraged all persons nearing age 65, whether social security beneficiaries or not, get in touch with their social security office two or three months before they reach 65 to avoid losing any protection under the medicare program.

State Department Is Searching For Embassy Workers

U.S. Department of State recruiters will be in New York City from Jan. 16 through Feb. 3, in search of secretaries and communications clerks for work in American Embassies and Consulates around the world, and for duty in the "home" offices in Washington, D.C.

"We are looking for secretaries with shorthand skill and communications clerks with teletype or cryptographic experience who are willing to serve anywhere they are needed," said one of the recruiters who has served at Foreign Service posts. "The Foreign Service offers a unique combination of service to our government and the opportunity to live in and learn about other countries," she added, "and those fortunate enough to be selected will find a challenging, rewarding career awaits them."

Positions overseas are open to secretaries with shorthand experience, communications clerks with teletype or cryptographic experience, and male clerks with typing skills. Recent work experience is required for all positions. To qualify, one must be an American citizen at least five years, 21 or older, and able to pass typing and clerical tests. Women must be single without dependents to be considered, but applications will be accepted from qualified married men who have no dependents other than a wife.

Young people who cannot qualify for overseas because they lack work experience or are not yet 21 will be considered for positions in Washington, D.C. and may apply later for overseas assignments.

Interviews will be conducted at the Office Personnel Center of the New York State Employment Service, 575 Lexington Avenue, New York, from Jan. 16 through Feb. 3. Hours are 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and until 7 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday. For further information call 759-1020 and ask for the Government Unit.

Green Acres Acquires Bay Frontage in Salem

The New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development has contracted under the Green Acres program for the purchase of 2,105 acres of open space land including one and one-half miles of bay frontage and one of the last remaining refuge for the breeding bald eagles in New Jersey as an addition to Mad Horse Creek Fish & Game lands, Lower Alloway Township, Salem County.

The acreage, combined with the 3,321 acres already in the Fish & Game tract, would constitute the most northerly of a chain of public game management and wildlife refuge now being acquired along New Jersey's Delaware Bay Shore.

In addition to bay frontage the purchase includes tidal marsh, salt water ponds and tidal streams. It has approximately 250 acres of woodland and up-

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Riedel's Reply

To The Editor:

Why wasn't the news released concerning the "Horse and Bug-gy" form of government that was submitted by the Vote No Committee under the names of J. Inserra, J. Massino, and W. Riedel published in today's issue of The Belleville Times? It certainly was submitted in time for publication.

On Dec. 8 a letter from Nick S. DiBenedetto was published in The Times. This letter resorted to criticizing an individual town councilman. It also resorted to name-calling by referring to certain people as "hacks" because of their family relationships. It also referred to former members of the Citizens Tax Council and relatives of current town officials as "hacks" because they have diligently served on non-paying Town Boards and Town committees.

Was Belleville's town payroll free of members of immediate family members of town commissioners in the past? Definitely not!

Were town board's and committees free of family members and friends of Commissioners during their terms in office? Definitely not!

Are Mr. DiBenedetto and the Citizens for Commission Government interested in attacking individuals on the present Town Council administration, and not actually criticizing the efficient Council - Manager form of government in town? It appears so!

Mr. DiBenedetto states that he estimated that the real estate tax rate in Belleville during the last year of Commission government in Belleville based on 100 per cent of true value "was about $2.28 per hundred dollars of valuation."

First of all taxes were paid in Belleville during that year based on 40 per cent of true value. Second, this writer's tax bill for that year indicates that the 100 per cent value would have been $3.20 and not $2.28. Third, only 20 to 25 per cent of this rate can be attributed to the cost of running the town government under any form of government.

In a letter in The Times signed by Nick DiBenedetto, he criticized the citizen's Tax Council and its former president, Mr. Salvatore Calabro. Mr. Calabro is president of the "Vote No Committee." This writer was never a member of the Citizens Tax Council, but is proud to be a committee on the "Vote No Committee."

Mr. DiBenedetto suggests that Mr. Calabro should have played God in the past and criticized him for contacting local clergymen concerning Belleville's local government. Mr. DiBenedetto says the Citizens Tax Council promised to lower all taxes in town. Could Mr. Calabro, the Citizens Tax Council, or even Mr. DiBenedetto, stopped inflation in the county?

Was Mr. Calabro single-handed to prevent enormous tax increases caused by the Essex County government, and the

The Belleville Times, Thursday, January 12, 1967—15

Belleville Board of Education, as well as a small tax increase on the town level under the present Council - Manager form of government? Has Mr. Calabro done, or not attempted all of the things Mr. DiBenedetto accuses him of doing in the form of questions and not facts?

Town officials have been in touch with the county government about numerous issues concerning county budgets. Mr. Calabro himself has appeared before county officials in the past, yet Mr. DiBenedetto asks, has anything been done in these directions?

Why not ask the Town Manager about these issues and not Mr. Calabro through the press, Mr. DiBenedetto?

Mr. DiBenedetto accuses Mr. Calabro of asking clergymen in town to "take part in the cess-pool of Belleville politics."

The Lord is everywhere. He knows about the town of Belleville. The truth is that Mr. Calabro, ~~was asked by a clergyman~~ of Belleville to present the facts concerning the benefits of the Council - Manager form of government to interested citizens. Mr. Calabro was willing. The clergyman then stated that he wanted to approach Mr. Thomas Apicelli, chairman of the Belleville Citizens for Commission Government, or his designate, to present the benefits of the Commission government. It is this writer understanding that Mr. Apicelli declined this invitation. Belleville needs a change of heart, not a change of government. Belleville's politics are not perfect, but it is not the "cess-pool" that Mr. DiBenedetto refers to. To get the facts, any Belleville citizen who wishes to attend is invited to future "Vote No" meetings.

This writer urges all voters to study the facts and to Vote No on Jan. 31.
WILLIAM W. REIDEL Jr., 58 Plenge Dr., Belleville, N.J.

(Mrs. Mary V. Senatore said Apicelli had not been approached by Rev. William Dike for a debate as reported by Councilman Ralph A. Casale. "He's a liar," she said of Rev. Dike, "and he wears the cloth!" — Editor)

Vote No, He Says

To The Editor:
On Jan. 31 a special election, one of the most important in the town's history, will be decided by the people.

They will either win or lose, sink or swim by the results. The form of government is not important, the people we elect to office to represent the town and people are.

Under Commission government the town suffered much bad publicity, higher taxes, and give-away programs.

Some of the people supporting the change back are politicians rejected by the people. They have the tongue of a viper and are misleading the people with wild statements, and half truths.

To change back now to Commission government would be dangerous. The town would return to the jungle, and hell will again break loose under the Dome.

The people will give up the only voice they have in their Government the recall of any politician who dares to defy the will of the people.

Under Commission government the people have no voice, the commissioners come before the people only once every four years, protected against recall by legal means each will have a political machine if his own.

With the change on the council the Pico administration has been working together as a team which is a healthy sign for the town.

They got our new form of Government off the ground to a point where it is now paying off, progress has been made, much needed new fire equipment has been purchased, and they also produced a surplus of $900,000 dollars.

Most of the increases in our taxes is not the fault of the Pico administration who kept town taxes down as low as possible.

The outrageous tax increase is the fault of the County government, who created many unnecessary jobs with fat salaries, and the "majority bloc" on the Board of Education who have been using their office as a personal checking account at taxpayers expense and who are paying the freight handing out fat wage increases to special school personnel while abolishing useful programs for the students.

The money spent fighting the Durkee case in a losing cause also went down the drain. They have withdrawn all charges against this great educator who has been vindicated.

What a price we had to pay for their mistakes. All four should resign so our school system can move forward without political interference.

The "majority bloc" on the Board of Education is backing the change, and would love to take control of the town Government since their exaggerated school budget of over $500,000 extra dollars was twice rejected by the people because it was too high, and reduced by the council.

Commission government cannot work in Belleville. We lost Terry Field to the Highway Department, and lost one million dollars. Memorial Field was sold to General Motors for a parking lot. It was promised to the people in the Silver Lake area for recreation.

The change back now would create chaos in town, a conflict of interest, a serious crisis could develop with higher taxes and higher rents for all of us.

I appeal to the people all over town for a large NO Vote. It means protection against the return of the discarded political machine.

No Representation

To the Editor:
I was happy to attend the testimonial dinner honoring Belleville's most successful coach Tom Testa held at the Fountain Restaurant on Dec. 29, 1966. To begin a "commendation" for the teachers who attended to help make the affair a huge success.

I was appalled, however, at the token attendance by the remaining school faculty, in particular Mr. George Nucera, President of the Belleville Teachers' Association whose professional duties and responsibilities are to represent his professional colleagues.

Mr. Nucera's pseudo friendship indicated that he has been flirting for the friendship of the "majority bloc" consisting of Mr. Arvidson, Mr. Juliano, Mr. Saletta and Dr. DiRuggiero.

What is the price of friendship that has been established by Mr. Nucera? Has he, as the leader of the Teachers' Association, by boycotting the affair helped to send Coach Testa to the "wolves" the same way he helped send Coach Ronald Kulik and Coach Sam Stellatella?

Is it his hope of a salary raise estimated to be well over $200,000 for the teachers that caused him to reject his long time friend and colleague? Not a bad reward for jumping at the snap of the "majority bloc" fingers? The subjugation of the faculty by the "majority bloc" was apparent.

The absence of members of the "majority bloc" only amplified the feelings harbored by the "Fearsome Four" Mr. Arvidson, Mr. Juliano, Mr. Saletta and Dr. DiRuggiero. Was it just a coincidence that the "majority bloc" and the faculty members headed by Mr. Nucera boycotted the affair along with Mr. Smith, principal and Mr. Westlake, vice-principal of the High School?

A lesson in profession behavior at its lowest.

The taxpayers should now be alerted to a possible resolution to be based quietly by the elected Bd. of Ed. guaranteeing the salary raises before the "Budget Referendum" is placed on the Ballot in February (Some Fun at your expense — estimated to be over $200,000).

Indications of the pressure applied by the "Fearsome Four" who by their past performance of the "Durkee Affair" are aware of every retaliation measure in the book.

It was evident by the attendance at the dinner that the citizens of Belleville do not wish to see Coach Testa terminate his coaching career. Wasn't this also strongly indicated by a leading female politician in charge of the change of government movement who did not attend the affair because of anticipated political maneuvering?

I am publicly appealing to Mr. "Wische" our Athletic Director to "stand up" in protest, for once in his entire career, to the conditions that led to the contemplated resignation. The leading of a movement to outlaw politics in our school athletic program by the complete and total rejection of Mr. Landolfi, Mr. Carney and Mr. Napolitano, politically appointed members of the Athletic Council will be the first step in the right direction.

Please try Mr. Wische!

Registration Today, Tomorrow For Merit Scholarships

Nutley High School juniors who expect to enter college in 1968 can register now to participate in the 1967-68 National Merit and Accomplishments, there will also be the showing of a recently released JCS film, "Anyone Around My Base Is It." A discussion period will follow.

Scholarship Program, Principal David H. Broffman announced this week. Registration will take place in the school's auditorium at 2:45 p.m. today, January 12, and tomorrow.

In addition to competing for the Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1968, students can take the test to obtain information useful in planning their future education and careers. With his NMSQT scores, each participating student will receive a handbook to help him evaluate his scores, compare his performance with that of other high school students across the country, and give him information on choosing a college and financing his education. The handbook and other interpretive materials are furnished as part of reporting the test results.

The highest scoring students in each state will be named Semifinalists and will be eligible for Merit Scholarship consideration. In addition to the National Merit Scholarships financed by NMSC, more than 350 business corporations, foundations, colleges, professional associations, unions, trusts, other organizations, and individuals offer scholarships through the Merit Program.

About 13,440 students have won Merit Scholarships in the eleven Merit Programs to date. Some 2330 Merit Scholarships were awarded in 1966 with stipends ranging from $100 to $1,500 per year for four college years. The amount of a winner's award is determined by assessing the financial assistance he will need to attend the college of his choice.

In the Merit Scholarship competition of last spring, five present NHS seniors were named Semifinalists and thirteen of the Class of '67 received Letters of Commendation. The latter were awarded to Dolores Andriola, Joseph Bergstein, David Burde, Peter Cetta, Robert Dymek, Mary Jane Gurdziel, Elaine Hooper, Maureen McCarthy, John Pope, Jonathan Rowland and Lisbeth Tietzworth. The following were named Semifinalists: Allen Foresta, Michael Landfear, Michele Saunders, Raphael Sonenshein and Jeffrey Sutphen. Finalists in the 1966 competition will be announced in May, 1967.

Drivers Ronald Chernesky (1) and John Smith stand ready at their posts in the John Hawkins' fuel truck ports at 198 Park Avenue, Nutley. The company was started by the late John Henry Hawkins 72 years ago. At one time, part of the business was located in a large yard at the foot of the Passaic River. During those days coal reached Nutley by River barge, but rising tides and additional costs caused the abandonment of the yard. The coal was then shipped by rail. When John Hawkins died in 1928 he left the business to his two sons, David and Martin Hawkins. The business is now carried on by Mrs. David Hawkins and her son John Hawkins. In addition to selling coal, coke and fuel oil, the establishment is active in oil burner sales, installation and service.

Small Business Loans Now Ready For Existing or New Businesses

The Small Business Administration's Economic Opportunity Loan program is now available throughout New Jersey, announced Andrew P. Lynch, SBA Regional Director.

The loans will be made to existing and new businesses by SBA's Regional Office at 10 Commerce Court, Newark, and by 72 other SBA field offices throughout the nation. Previously the program was available on a limited basis in 44 communities.

To find those low-income and other handicapped people with the best potential to successfully operate a business, SBA will work closely with community action agencies, neighborhood centers, regional organizations and other groups throughout the New Jersey area, Lynch said.

These organizations also will be asked to assist in providing volunteers from the business community to work with SBA personnel in providing management assistance to loan recipients.

In announcing the expanded loan program in Washington, SBA Administrator Bernard L. Boutin said:

"We do not intend to make bad loans under this program, but neither do we intend to set up inflexible road blocks. Our people will go out into the ghetto areas in the cities, to the poor sections on the peripheries of the suburbs and to the rural areas.

"We will look for the loans which can expand viable businesses, exploit new ideas, establish small manufacturing plants, the kinds of businesses which can have a healthy effect on the community, which can expand employment opportunities, which can stimulate the economy and be in concert with our national goals.

"And, we intend to work closely in the EOL program with local groups, such as community action agencies and neighborhood centers, as well as with areas and regional organizations devoted to stimulating the development of the disadvantaged and lower-income groups.

"Wherever authorized by the Office of Economic Opportunity, SBA will cooperate with Small Business Development Centers in providing counseling, guidance and management training. SBDCs shall refer applicants for financial assistance, coming to their attention, to SBA.

"In addition, SBA will make available to EOL recipients all of our management assistance tools in a combined effort to assure the success of these small businesses."

A key feature of the expanded EOL program is that it will also seek to assist for the first time those who are above the poverty level, and yet cannot qualify for SBA's regular business loan program. "For too long," said Boutin, "this group of people has been in a sort of financial no-man's land. We intend to help them."

Panthers Lead 'A' League With 1-Point Over Celtics

There was a tightening at the top of the competition in Recreation Junior "A" League basketball this week.

The Celtics dealt out a first loss to the Rebels via 74-33. Big scorers for the winners were Costantino with 22, Panciello with 16, Rosamilia with 14, and Fury, with 12. However, everyone got into the scorebook, Costantino was strong under the basket and Sam Rosamilia was the play maker and ball stealer.

After trailing through the first half the Cougars got to work and beat out the Giants 29-23. Motacki accounted for the 16 points for the winners while Muscara with 10 was high man for the losers. This win put the Cougars in a tie for second place with the Celtics and the Rebels.

In the one other game the Trotters made their debut in the winners column as they defeated the luckless Dribblers 29-19. Spezzaferra was the big man in this game with ten points.
