

Belleville High School Graduates 325 Seniors At Commencement

Top Students Cite Changes In Personality

It's all over for more than 325 Belleville High School seniors — the end of their four year secondary school careers.

Hundreds of parents, friends and relatives jammed the Municipal Stadium as the graduates received their diplomas last night during high school commencement.

The graduation this year followed the theme "Focus of Change — Education In Our Time." Three student spokesmen continued the theme idea with their terse speeches which they presented to the throng of well wishers.

Cathy Ziel, salutatorian, listed the changes that have taken place within the students. She said that the four years in high school has helped many of the pupils to assume responsibilities expected of persons in an adult world.

Continue to Change

Miss Ziel said she does not believe these changes will end at graduation. "We will continue to change and top progress and grow with this change as long as we continue to think," she said.

Steven Charen, another speaker, said that the association of students with their fellow colleagues and members of the faculty and administration have helped form the "changes within us," he said.

Charen said that their personalities have aided students to mature emotionally and intellectually.

Janet Robertson, valedictorian, spoke about changes throughout the world and their multi-faceted effects on students. She described the rapid changes in the world metaphorically.

Readers Digest Award

She has been given the annual award of The Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community. It was announced by Raymond O. Smith, Principal.

Miss Robertson will receive an honorary one-year subscription to The Reader's Digest in any one of its 14 language editions which she chooses, and a personal certificate from the editors "in recognition of past accomplishments and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

County Vocational School Public Hearing Anticipated

NEW GAS STATION — Herbert C. Klein thanks the Town Council for its recent permission to erect a new gasoline service station at 113 Franklin Avenue and also removal of the station presently on the premises. Klein is a representative of the Atlantic Richfield Co.

"Ignorance" Called Main Protest Movement Reason

The Essex County Board of Education attributed "ignorance" as the reason why Belleville residents have been attempting to halt erection of a vocational school near the Soho Hospital.

The proposed facility, part of the county's program to provide educational facilities for the physical and mentally handicapped children of Essex has been termed by a county school board spokesman as "a project vital to the state."

In an effort to clarify "many misapprehensions regarding the planned school structure, the board will hold several days of public hearings to review with residents the values of the school facility as compared with those detriments claimed by Belleville property owners.

The board is expected to release the dates for the hearings sometime this afternoon.

Special Meeting

The school board earlier this week held a special meeting to discuss some of the problems related to the proposed construction.

P. Joseph Quinn, board president, made the entire board aware of the objections to the school proposal by the Bellewood Park Homeowners Association and the Town Council.

Meanwhile the board maintains that Belleville residents apparently unaware of the benefits of the school and its need throughout the county.

A board spokesman said that since the county already owns land for the school on the Soho property, this is the most advantageous site in the county. Considering any other location, the spokesman said, would mean considering a $1 million purchase which would be added to the county tax rate.

Some seven acres are necessary for the construction.

Ralph Casale May Receive Commendation

Councilman Ralph Casale is expected to be lauded by his council colleagues at the final meeting of the governing body Monday night.

Casale will be praised for attending the remaining council sessions despite the fact he will not be among the governing officials on the new commission which takes over July 8.

Mayor Nuncio Pico and Councilman Robert Westpy, for one reason or another, have decided not to appear at council meetings recently.

One councilman said, "If Casale did not have enough public spirit and devotion to his job to attend the last few council sessions, they would not have been able to realize a quorum. Had that been the case, Belleville would not even have been able to pay a bill."

The council spokesman said that not only has Casale been present at the final meetings, he has also demonstrated a continued keen interest in municipal affairs.

Belleville's new commissioners will be inaugurated July 8, thus ending the short-lived Council-Manager regime.

Rev. William Dike Leaves Belleville Methodist Parish

Local scouting groups and a member of the official family presented plaques to the Rev. William L. Dike honoring his dedication and fine contributions to the community. The Rev. Mr. Dike left Belleville this week to serve the First Methodist in Linden.

Shortly before his departure, local scouts and Vincent Strumolo, Commissioner-elect, offered their best wishes to the Rev. Mr. Dike and gave him plaques praising his dedication to the Wesley Methodist Church and the town. Strumolo presented a resolution on behalf of the Council.

Receiving the awards from the scouts, the Rev. Mr. Dike said, "Although I leave this community, I doubt whether I will get very far away from scouting."

Commenting about Belleville and the Wesley Methodist Church he said, "Just as one finds a warm spot for his first love I shall always think of this church, my first parish, and the people in it with the fondest affection."

The Rev. Mr. Dike has been appointed by Bishop Prince A. Taylor, Jr. to serve the First Methodist Church in Linden.

His appointment made at the 110th session of the Northern New Jersey Annual Conference of the Methodist Church became effective this week.

Rev. Dike had served as Wesley's pastor for three and a half years.

Belleville Foundation Donates $5,000 Grant To Area Rowing Association For Boathouse

$5,000 GRANT — Frank McFadden, (right) trustee of the Belleville Foundation presents a check for $5,000 to Herman Wische, treasurer of the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association. This second $5,000 grant from the foundation assures the future of the high school shell racing in the Belleville-Nutley-Kearny area. Strong supporters of the rowing program are Ernest Arvidson (left), a trustee of the Board of Education and Raymond Smith, high school principal.

Completion of the Belleville-Nutley Kearny boathouse for the high school crew teams of those towns took a long step forward this week.

The Belleville Foundation presented a check to the Belleville Nutley Rowing Association. The donation in the amount of $5,000 was made by Frank McFadden, a foundation trustee to Herman Wische, treasurer of the rowing association.

McFadden is also vice-president of the Fidelity Union Trust Co. Wische is director of health and physical education in the Belleville school system.

Lending support were Ernest Arvidson a member of the Board of Education, vice-president of the Rowing Association, and Raymond Smith, Belleville High School principal.

With the brief ceremony, the Belleville Foundation made its second $5,000 grant to the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association. The association is a temporary group which was organized to raise funds for the construction of a boat house for the high school shell racing crews (Continued On Page 2)

United Community Fall Fund Drive is Planned

Belleville will have a door-to-door United Community Fund Drive throughout the residential areas of the town this fall.

Officers of the project this year have been announced. Seymour Grossman, principal of Belleville's Junior High School, has been named chairman.

Grossman's co-chairman is Mrs. Harold Spray. She is principal of School 7.

Committee member-elect Kenneth Smith, has agreed to serve as honorary chairman. He has volunteered his full support of the campaign this year.

Among the duties of the new officers is the appointment of sectional chairmen throughout Belleville.

The chairmen will appoint nine Section chairmen who will have three to six division captains, who will make the actual calls in September and October.

All of these Belleville residents will be volunteers.

The United Community Fund maintains an office in Nutley serving also as a Community Service Council. All work for the drive will be coordinated through this office under the direction of its executive director, Mrs. Alfred R. Peters.

Anyone who is willing to give some volunteer time to this effort, in any capacity on the drive, or in office work is asked to call the Nutley office, Grossman said.

United Community Fund is an outgrowth of the former Community Chest of Belleville, and replaces the mail campaign of the 1960s.

It covers nine of the former drives — Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Family Service, Red Cross, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Health, Retarded Children, Multiple Sclerosis, and Salvation Army.

It is an opportunity to give one donation to include all these, or to single out favorite charities and designate where the donation is to go given.

The drive will begin on September 28, and at the same time

Belleville's Steve C. Charen Gets Princeton Scholarship

Steven C. Charen has been awarded an academic scholarship to attend Princeton University next September. Steve will be the first Belleville High School graduate ever to attend the Ivy League institution.

Scholastically ranking third in the BHS graduating class of 325 Charen, has been a staff sports writer for the Belleville Times-News for the three and a half years. He is author of the feature column "Sideline Byline" for the past two and a half years.

This has been far from Charen's only activity, however. Just as entering Princeton on the four year scholarship will be far from his only first award.

Best Sports Writer

Most notable among the other "firsts" Charen brought to

Belleville High has been the award as the state's "Best Sports Writer of 1966" by the Scholastic Press Association of New Jersey.

Charen's many activities and interests were written about earlier this year in a "Youth in the News" feature of the Newark Evening News.

His interests include the post of official statistician for all major BHS sports since entering the school as a freshman. In this capacity, he has been commended as an "invaluable aide" to the coaches of football, basketball, and baseball.

Charen has also served as local staff correspondent for the Newark News, Newark Star-Ledger, and New York Times. His accurate reporting and excellent feature information has been cited by the Scholastic Sports Editors of both New Jersey dailies.

During the summers, Charen has continued the sports trend as statistician and publicist with the American Legion Baseball team. Last season, he also had a 3.0 record as a coach, youngest in league history, when late season difficulties deterred the regular team leader. He also

Sports have not completely dominated this active seniors high school years, however. During the past term, for example, Steve has served as president of the school's most prestigious organization, the National Honor Society; co-editor of the school newspaper, the Spotlight; vice-president of the Debating Society; Secretary of the school's leading service organization.

Chamber Of Commerce Plans Local Expo 67

Of the 29 booths which will form Belleville's proposed "Cavalcade of Progress" this September, only nine remain available for rental by local industries or businesses which would care to exhibit in the Chamber of Commerce project.

Harry French, Chamber director, said that "already an impressive list of exhibitors will participate in the showcase."

Educational

The cavalcade will provide the community with an educational as well as promotional glimpse of what Belleville industries and businesses have to offer will highlight this community's very own exposition, to be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce this fall.

The showcase of the town's installations will be geared to show "what Belleville does, what Belleville sells, and what Belleville offers as a place to live and work."

feet but there are smaller ones, he said. Booth backgrounds and arms will consist of draping material supported by aluminum pipes that are joined together with special screw-on aluminum fittings.

Detailed plans for the proposed event, French said "Belleville has much to be proud of in addition to its long history. Our industries play an important role in national defense, space exploration, research and in the building of an ever expanding economy."

Community Can Be Proud

"The community can be proud of its homes, its schools, its recreational and cultural activities in addition to a fine spirit of cooperation between its various religious and ethnic groups."

French said the Cavalcade is a booth type exposition where "what we do and what we have the education and enjoyment of the public."

Most of the booths are 8x8

Opening September 28
Booths will be completely installed and ready for exhibitors to set up their displays on the morning of September 28. The show would open that afternoon 2:30.

The chamber will furnish a standard name sign for each booth. The divider between the booths can be eliminated where an exhibitor desires two or more booths together.

Only chamber members may be exhibitors. Attendance based on the two previous showcases are expected to exceed 15,000 persons.

Winners of the Army ROTC scholarship were selected from over 12,000 high school seniors who applied.

Each scholarship pays for tuition, textbooks, lab fees and provides a subsistence allowance of $50 monthly.

Wallwork Running Against Sarcone In GOP Primary

JAMES H. WALLWORK
Senatorial Candidate

The threat of a Republican primary fight in Essex materialized this week with the announcement that former Essex County Assemblyman James H. Wallwork will head the Senatorial slate of the insurgent Republicans for Party Integrity. He will oppose former senator C. Robert Sarcone in the September GOP primary.

Wallwork, who last fall served as chairman of Senator Case's Speakers' Bureau, said, "We are fighting for Republican Party integrity and for political independence from the Essex Democratic machine. We don't want to see Essex County become another Hudson."

"In addition, we seriously question the qualifications and backgrounds of some of Mr. Yeoman's principal advisers who are not elected and who are accountable to no one. We feel the Essex GOP must be led by men of unimpeachable integrity. We intend to give Republicans and independents a chance to vote for integrity in the September Primary," Wallwork added.

Wallwork's heading, the insurgent ticket is viewed as a significant breakthrough in the battle against the organization forces. The organization also wanted Wallwork on its ticket.

Wallwork added, "We came to our decision to run in a party primary fight reluctantly." He stated that the insurgents twice had agreed to a responsible compromise, but that the organization rejected it. His reference was to a proposal for a five minute committee to run the party, with each side naming two members and State Chairman Webster B. Todd the fifth. "There was, therefore, no alternative to our decision," Wallwork said.

Wallwork predicted that the reform slate would offer to Essex Republicans "candidates of exceptional ability, character, and dedication. We expect to have the entire Senatorial and Freeholder slates announced within two weeks," he said.

The organization thus far has picked only Robert Sarcone to lead the ticket as candidate for Senator.

In a statement of principles sent to Republican County Committee members this week, Wallwork urged "rank and file Republicans throughout the county to join the reform movement in actively working for all of the citizens of Essex County."

"As responsible Republicans, we must undertake a dynamic role by offering programs which seek to resolve today's problems today and anticipate tomorrow's problems in advance of tomorrow."

"To do this, the Republican Party must offer those men and women for elective office who, by training, are best able to initiate and carry out such programs," he said.

"We believe that a political party, including the Republican Party, which can not or will not cleanse itself of mediocrity, indiscretion and lack of purpose can never win the allegiance of the people of Essex County and does not deserve that allegiance."

"We believe that Republicans for Party Integrity will imbue the rank and file members of our Party with that sense of participation, of achievement, and of honor that alone can remake our party into a deserving symbol which governs wisely and well."

The Wallwork candidacy was endorsed by 44 members of the Republicans for Party Integrity at a meeting in the Turtle Brook Restaurant in West Orange.

West Point Graduate

A 1952 graduate of West Point, Wallwork had the academic standing of 13th in a class of 525. Today he is vice-president of Wallwork Bros., Inc., Newark-plumbing, heating and refrigeration wholesalers.

30-Family Apartment Building Given Board Of Adjustment Endorsement

A 30-family apartment building was given endorsement by the Board of Adjustment this week. The board's vote was unanimous. The new building will be located at 675-670 Joralemon Street in Belleville.

The developer, John Dvorak of Belleville, had asked the board for a variance to construct the apartment units. The use is not permitted in a "B" residential zone. That zone allows "a dwelling detached or semi-detached for not more than two families or two housekeeping units."

The board unanimously approved the apartment building construction proposal. Another application submitted by Dvorak did meet such favorable acceptance by the board. He sought permission to convert the basement storage area of an 18-family apartment building at 511 Franklin Avenue, Belleville into two additional apartments.

"B" Residential Zone
The premises are currently located in a "B" residential zone. Permission to erect the apartment building had been granted by the board of Commissioners.

Dvorak's plan for an expansion violates the town's zoning ordinance. While the board has no quarrels with the developers 18-unit apartment construction, it will not tolerate basement apartments.

The new request for 20 family building was denied. The board did allow a basement apartment construction if that apartment is occupied by a superintendent for the building.

Former Miss Diane M. Meola

Wedding In Holy Family For Miss Diane M. Meola

Holy Family Church, Nutley, was the setting Sunday for the marriage of Miss Diane Marie Meola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meola of 66 Jannarone Street, Belleville, formerly of Nutley, to Pfc. Michael R. Ruggiano Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruggiano Sr. of Succasunna. The Rev. Michael Saltarelli performed the afternoon ceremony. A dinner party for the immediate families followed at the San Carlo Restaurant, Lyndhurst.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length chiffon sheath with a scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. A double row of daisies held a two tier illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white daisies and orchids.

Miss Patricia Federico of Belleville was maid of honor. She was attired in a maize Empire styled floor length gown and coat of chiffon. Her two tier illusion veil was attached to a matching bow and she carried a bouquet of yellow daisies.

Yearly Problem

Well mothers, your time has come. As of today, that yearly problem smacks us all in the face. Due to modern child labor laws, we can no longer send our 8-year-olds to a sweatshop and even if we could, it would probably be air conditioned anyway. And not being progressive enough, the tri-semester for grade school youngsters in the somewhere future, Kids — we love them, but with the end of the school year upon us, Miss Clairol's work will be definitely doubted.

First Celebration

A cook-out in Grandpa's yard is a wonderful thing to have at any time. But when it's your first birthday celebration, it just got to be even more fun. Lucky year-old Mario Silvestri of 46 Eugene Place celebrated his first birthday in this fashion. Surrounded by many youngsters age 3 to 12 and sung to by many, assorted relatives, Mario no doubt was in his glory. Nine-year-old sister Susan, and Lorry, and Frank Mondini, Dean DeLaure, Nicki Ann Stromolo, Debby Risoli, Joseph Trabucco, and Michelle and Sal Giangrande were the youngsters who delighted in a barbecue filled not only with hot dogs and hamburgers but games and prizes as well. And even if one wasn't a winner during game time, before any of the youngsters left, each received a pail and shovel as their bounty. Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Mario Silvestri and grandmother Mrs. Mildred Giordano as well as great-grandfather Nick DePerri were all on hand when it came time to sing the traditional birthday wishes to the young lad. Great-grandmother had to send over her birthday wishes from 43 Eugene Place as she wasn't feeling up to that day.

Trio Of Opera Stars Scheduled For Appearance

Three divas who have specialized in Italian opera will adorn Moe Septee's classical lineup at Symphony Hall in 1967-68, but only one is Italian.

Renata Scotta, La Scala soprano who makes her Newark debut on November 11, has ranged from the "bel canto" roles such as Lucia to the most dramatic of the Puccini heroines. Joan Sutherland, concertizing at Symphony Hall in February, has devoted herself to the "bel canto" repertory, sparking revivals of forgotten Donizetti, Bellini and Rossini gems that were "made for her virtuosic gifts and florid style."

Leontyne Price, who will be a January visitor to the Broad Street landmark, made her Metropolitan Opera debut as the volatile heroine of "Il Trovatore" and she has become identified with these lyric-dramatic heroines of Verdi's opera — Aida, Amelia among them.

It is their differentiated styles which guide them towards varying repertoires, and they overlap in many areas of the literature.

ANNUAL AFFAIR: The annual Belleville Varsity Club All-Sports Dinner returned to Belleville last week at the Fountain Restaurant before a large crowd of student athletes, parents, club members, and well wishers.

The affair was dedicated to the memory of the late William Chapman, who, as the program stated, "will always be remembered for his sincerity and devotion in promoting high standards of good sportsmanship."

Besides the presentation of senior awards to 94 members of a dozen winter and spring athletic teams and related organizations, the evening was highlighted by American Legion Award to the most valuable member of the 1967 baseball team, the Colony Club Award to the Best all around senior athlete, a surprise special Award to retired diamond mentor Nick Petti, and the Varsity Club's president's citation to one of its hardest working members.

Awards

MVP: Following the initial welcome by Varsity Club President Robert Cassin, the invocation by Reverend Howard Dav, the dinner hour, and some opening remarks by Master of Ceremonies Rocco Cervasio, the first of the evening's surprise presentations was made. Representing The American Legion, Jack Throckmorton, a former Post 105 Commander and current Assistant Chairman of the Essex County American Legion Baseball

League and General Manager of the Belleville entry in the loop presented the award as the most valuable member of the 1967 Varsity baseball squad to Charley Cuomo.

The senior catcher had just concluded a strong second Varsity season with a team leading 4.29 average that included a dozen extra base hits and was good enough to have him named to the All - Essex County teams of both New Jersey dailies as detailed last week, and in the running for All - State honors. The big backstop who last weekend went for a tryout with the Pittsburgh Pirates is also currently batting at a .471 pace for the local Legion team.

BEST ALL - AROUND: The next presentation, that of the Colony Club was next on the agenda, but before its presentation, it was explained that the award

High School athlete was to be officially renamed in honor of the late William Chapman. The award will now stand as The William Chapman Memoria Colony Club Award.

A brief but emotion charged acceptance statement was then made by the son of the late educator and athletic leader.

Bruno then came to prestigious award that was to mark this year a boy who had been the captain of all three of Belleville's major sport teams, football, basketball, and baseball; was the president of his Senior Class; and an All - County athlete several times over. That performer was of course Richard San Filippo.

Beginning his Varsity career as a sophomore, San Filippo had been a starting performer in both football and baseball. By his junior year the versatile performer who will be entering Monclair State College in the fall added basketball and a second team All-State baseball ranking to his role.

First Love

Captaining all three teams as a senior, San Filippo went on to many unprecedented honors, among them last week's Colony

Club presentation. The three-year sport veteran whose first love is the diamond game is playing for the South Orange Orioles of the Essex County League this summer.

SURPRISE PRESENTATION: The annual senior awards to the participants in a dozen BHS organizations was next on the agenda, but these voluminous presentations will be detailed later. Immediately following the senior award, a surprise presentation was made that many were to consider the highlight of the evening.

This award was made in the form of a belated tribute to Nick Petti for his efforts for Belleville as head baseball mentor for four seasons from 1963 to 1966. During that span, Belleville was to attain unprecedented success with four straight winning years that included two consecutive Big Ten Conference titles, the first in BHS history, three consecutive trips to the finals of the state tournament, the first state tournament title in BHS history, second and third seedings in the prominent Greater Newark Tournament, and during the second two years after Petti's program had been established an amazing 45 - 10 record.

The young educator had stepped down at the conclusion of the 36 campaign to devote full time to his role as Senior Guidance Counselor in the high school. In this key administrative role, Petti was responsible for the placement of 325 BHS seniors at institutions of higher learning or in careers, not to mention countless other counseling chores.

The efforts of Nick Petti for the Youth of Belleville and particularly for its baseball program warranted him all of the (Continued On Page 13)

Belleville To Install Partitions For The New Commission Offices

SECOND FLOOR — The new commission will move into their own individual offices rather than the second floor sprawl that forms part of the municipal building. Members

Belleville's new commissioners will have private offices when they take over the municipal government July 8.

That decision was made at a recent caucus session of the commissioners - elect with Charles Tedesco, town manager.

The offices will be located, according to plans, within the present Municipal Building. Three of them will be created by partitioning the upstairs floor of town hall. The commissioners will be able to establish a headquarters for the departmentalized form of government that the town approved last January.

Presently, the upstairs of the municipal building is crisscrossed with several town agencies.

New Offices

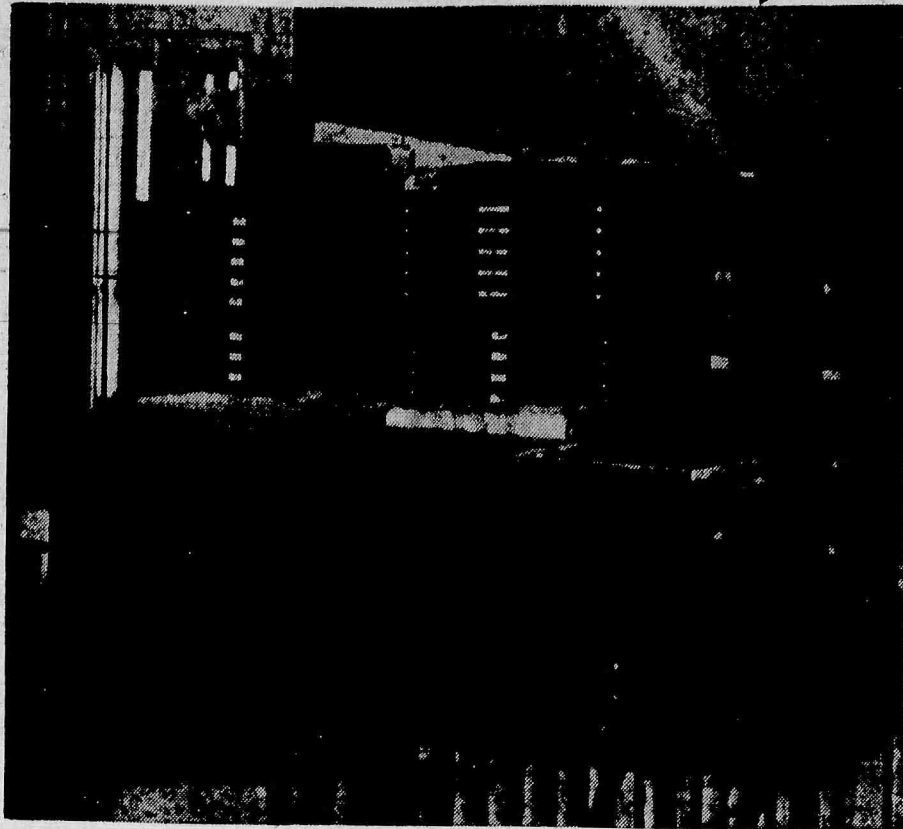

Offices for two other commissioners will be located on the lower levels of town hall.

Plans for the renovation are reportedly proceeding on schedule.

In fact, Tedesco reported to the council recently, "the transition of the municipal government is proceeding smoothly in all respects."

He said the commissioners-elect have lately been studying the municipal budget and placing money in specific accounts for each new town department.

So far, according to all indications, the incoming commissioners have been working "harmoniously."

CROWDED OFFICE — Already very overcrowded with an assortment of records and filing cabinets, the second floor main office of the Municipal Building is expected to be divided into offices for the new commissioners when they take hold of the government July 8.

Businessmen Figure 1966 Tax Return

Many people in business for themselves are now turning to the business of preparing their income tax returns and their social security self-employment tax returns for 1966.

William J. Arnold, social security district manager in Newark, has said this office has had numerous inquiries concerning the correct deadline date for the filing of 1966 tax returns.

Since April 15, the usual deadline date, falls on a non-work day this year, Monday, April 17, 1967, will be the final date for filing timely tax returns in 1966 earnings.

Arnold pointed out that some self-employed people are not required to pay income tax because their net earnings are too low, but those who have net earnings of $400 or more in a year must report their earnings and pay social security taxes. The tax rate for 1966 self-employment net earnings is 6.15 percent. It is extremely important, consideration possible.

Double Trophy

SENIOR AWARDS: Returning to the senior awards which dominated the evening's program it should be noted that these presentations were made to every senior member of the dozen winter and spring organizations involved; several seniors receiving a double trophy for participation in two of the teams or sports. As each boy or girl was called forward for their citation, the coach or advisor of the organization involved would comment briefly on their role in the past—the description here will be limited to a listing of those receiving awards.

Opening this segment of the program first year baseball mentor Charley Travers was to present the senior members of the 1967 Belleville High School baseball team which finished second in the strong Big Ten Conference after a series of heartbreaking one run losses. These members were in order of presentation: Sam Calabria, Rich San Filippo, Joel Pisano, Jim Catalano, Mike Welsh, Jim Serritella, Charley Cuomo, Steve Charen, Bob Bala, Dave Rothwell, Bruce Pindar, and Frank Lapastato. Accommodation also went to Junior Varsity baseball mentor Mario Cocchiola who incidentally will be "defecting" to Nutley's school system and grid program in the fall; Cocchiola, a popular BHS Business teacher, was also J.V. grid coach.

Basketball was next on the agenda with Al LoBailbo making the presentations for this year's hapless team. The senior members honored were: San Filippo, Catalano, Tom Gialanella, Joe Mello, Pisano, Charen, and Mike Mateyka. Junior Varsity coach Danny Grasso was also cited for his efforts.

Michael Salzarulo, a popular Arnold said, to file complete correct tax returns on all self-employment income, since future social security benefits are based upon the amount of net earnings reported. In some cases, where self-employment tax reports were incomplete or where no tax return was filed, self-employed individuals and their families have lost social security benefits.

For persons who for one reason or another have not reported their self-employment income for the last several years, April 17, will be their final opportunity to get credit for 1963 self-employment.

BHS Spanish instructor, was next on the agenda with awards to the three senior members of the school's District Champion bowling team — Doug McCumber, Mike Rowlett, and Bob Santin.

SENIORS FETED: Moving in to the spring arena crew was the next sport to be honored as Bob Andrews, Tom Barton, Fran Esposito, Walt Beresford, Dan Grossman, Joe Malloy, and Vic Mossa with their Senior Varsity Club Awards. Assistant crew coach is Sam Guiffreda.

Cross Country

There were no senior members of the rebuilding cross country team so the program progress directly to golf and the second presentation by Coach Salzarulo, this time to senior duffers Mike Bruno and Rowitz of the rebuilding 1967 squad.

Track was next on the agenda with first year Cross Country and Track mentor Paul Szem making the presentations to the senior members of this year's strong 8-4-1 team. These seniors were, in order of presentation: Ralph Serio, William Davis, Steve Ferrugelli, Pete Greco, Joe Rodriguez, Len Izzo, Rich Pepe.

and Eugene Harvey. (Country to an earlier report Szem will be returning in the fall to open what should be a promising cross country season with an entirely returning team.)

Returning to the winter program, wrestling was next on the alphabetically arranged agenda with James Silvestri making the presentations for his powerful team to: Nick DiDominico, Rich Cucolo, Mike Luongo, Beresford, Joe Villano, Sam Veltri, Esposito, Andrews, Calabria, and Malloy.

The Band

RELATED ORGANIZATIONS: The Belleville High School Band, fresh off its triumphant trip to Montreal's Expo 67 was next on the agenda. Presentations to the senior members of this active organization were made by band master and Better Belleville Cup Winner Robert Wing, who is losing 22 members but should be returning to action in the fall in new uniforms and close to 100 strong.

This organization which in 1965

and '66 respectively represented the State at the New York Worlds Fair and National Cherry Blossom Pageant in Washington D.C., and in 1967 represented the United States in Canada has received countless offers for appearances next year, a month of them is an already accepted one day excursion on September 5 to take part in the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City.

The senior members of this organization are: Betty Breckinridge, Nick Pallante, John Sierco, Izzo, Santin, Jim Suprano, Rich Baker, Sharon Kelemen, Stephanie Kelemen, Bill Idenden, Kathy Sampino, Rich Hearn, Rodriguez, Davis, Linda Hoover, Linda Biondi, Laura Fisher, and Sue Kurzna.

The members of the three sport and award winning BHS cheerleading squad were next on the agenda as introduced by advisor Miss Judy Pirone: Connie Carjone, Camille Casaleto, Lorraine Castelli, Carol Frumzi, and Irene Muscara.

Color Guard

The Color Guard under the direction of Vice Principal John Westlake was next with Anne Celko, Margaret Foster, Linda Luparella, Rosalyn Mostello, Sandy Muscara, and Linda Vaccari receiving awards.

Lastly, the final Senior Awards were made to the band's sister organization the Belleville High School twirling squad. Director Mrs. Pat Pugliese made the presentations to Sharon Assantes, Georgia Brown, Mary Dopart, Dianne Haight, Claudia Hollweg, Denise Lepre, and Barbara Valvano.

VARSITY CLUB: The offers of the Varsity Club which is annually gracious enough to make the aforementioned presentations is headed by this year: Bob Cassin, President; Joseph Casale, vice president; Vincent Sorrentino, Treasurer; William Ellis, corresponding secretary; Nick Landolfi, financial secretary.

The members of the dinner committee for the 1967 affair were: Bill Ellis, Rocco Cervasio, Anthony Cervasio, Michael Byrne, Vin Sorrentino, Jerry Bonavita, Joe Casale, Frank Montarelli, Nick Landolfi, Jr., Joseph Valavano, and Bob Cassin.

ROUND RECORDS: As the season started it had been the mound corps more than any other facet of the game that had been doubted, but in the final accounting the hard-luck squad that lost six of seven one run decisions was one of the team's biggest assets rather than a liability.

Senior southpaw Joel Pisano led the Belleville mound in innings worked by emerging as the number one Bellboy starter and opening exactly half of eleven of Belleville's 22 contests on the mound as the starting pitcher.

In the process Pisano hurled 58 and a third innings to compile a team leading 6-3 record. A steady 1.92 ERA, 45 strikeouts, 24 walks, and 52 hits were also evident in Pisano's work.

Also appearing in exactly half of the Belleville contests was the second of the senior southpaws who appeared destined to carry the entire pitching load in the early going, Mike Welsh.

Welsh's record of 43 innings is probably the most impressive of the Belleville moundsmen with nine of the appearances or 28 and two thirds of it coming in second most active Bellboy hurler. As a fireman Welsh sawer really shown however, turning 1.70 ERA success for a 2-1 record in 14 and a third inning ord and three saves off of 18 and a complete game in two strikeouts, eight walks and 18 starts while allowing only one unearned tally for an impeccable

It was as a starter that the 0.000 ERA.

Clinic
by Joseph M. Angello

Numismatics (coin collecting) is the fastest growing hobby in the world today. In order for coin collecting to develop fully, collectors must express their ability to ask questions.

One very important difference between man and other animals is man's ability to ask questions and search out answers. Due to the large growth of this hobby and popular demand, I will be writing this weekly column on coin collecting. I will be answering questions pertaining to coins and coin collecting.

First Regular Mint Issue
In 1792 the first United States mint was built in Philadelphia. Our first coins authorized by the United States government were struck in 1793. Cents and half-cents exclusively were minted during the year 1793. By the year 1799 almost $50,000 in these coins were put into circulation.

A very serious problem to the various business during these early years was the failure of our government to provide a sufficient amount of circulating coins. Due to this shortage, small denomination coins of the early states and foreign countries continued to be used during the first few years of the 19th century.

Prior to 1792 foreign coins from England, Mexico, Spain, Ireland and other countries were used. We also had coins which were struck by individual states. These are called Colonial Coins. Some of these Colonial coins were minted and used in: New Jersey, Massachusetts, New York, Vermont, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Kentucky and Virginia.

Most of these early colonial coins demand a premium according to the condition of the piece. It is interesting to note that our first President, George Washington donated some of his personal silverware for the first early trial coins, and these coins are very valuable ranging from $750.00 and up.

Questions: I have heard that only a few of the 1913 Liberty Head Nickels were made and can you give me the value?

Answer: Only five of these coins were struck, and they are all accounted for, being housed in prominent collections. The last reported sale price of this coin was $35,000.00.

Question: I have heard the term double struck coin. Would you please define it?

Answer: A double struck coin is a coin that was not properly ejected from the die of the coining press before that die strikes again. This causes two impressions and sometimes two dates in different positions. This type of mint error is eagerly sought after by collectors specializing in that field.

Questions, questions, questions ... send them to The Coin Clinic, c/o this newspaper and watch this column for the answers.

10 Greatest MemoriesDuring the course of Mickey Mantle's 16 year with the Yankees, he has contributed many memorable moments to baseball history. In the current issue of Sport Magazine, Mantle chooses his own "10 Greatest Baseball Memories."September 17, 1950 - Mickey, an 18-year-old shortstop, called up late in the season; is awed at his first meeting with Joe DiMaggio.April 17, 1953 - Mantle, hitting right-handed, slammed a 668-foot homer over the left-centerfield bleachers at Griffith Stadium, Washington. It is reputed to be the longest home run in baseball history and the ball is in the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown.October 4, 1953 - Mantle became the fourth player in baseball history to hit a grand slam homer in the World Series. Mantle's mammoth blow, hit left-handed, landed in the upper deck in left-centerfield at Ebbets Field.
June 21, 1955 - Mickey, hitting right-handed, rapped a change-up 486 feet to dead-center in Yankee Stadium. It is the longest home run ever hit to that area in the park.October 3, 1956 - After homering to give Don Larsen the game's first run in the pitcher's 2-0 perfect game victory over the Dodgers, Mantle made a great backhanded grab of Gil Hodges' low liner to left-center to preserve
Larsen's historic effort.May 22, 1963 - Mantle slammed
handed) against the upper right-field facade of the third deck in Yankee Stadium that he calls
"the hardest ball I ever hit." It is probably the closest anyone has ever come to hitting a ball out of Yankee Stadium and scientific investigation suggests that the ball would have traveled 620 feet if unimpeded.August 4, 1963 - "If I had to pick one as the greatest of all ten memories, this might be it," says Mantle. After missing 61
Mantle received a thunderous ovation from 38,000 fans at Yankee Stadium upon his "first reappearance as a pinchhitter and he responded by slamming a game-tying homer against the Orioles.Sept. 17, 1964 - Mantle singled for his 2,000th major-league hit.
His next at-bat, he slammed his 450th home run.

Top Students Cite Changes In Personality

It's all over for more than 325 Belleville High School Seniors — the end of their four year secondary school careers.

Hundreds of parents, friends and relatives jammed the Municipal Stadium as the graduates received their diplomas last night during high school commencement.

The graduation this year followed the theme "Focus of Change — Education In Our Time." Three student spokesmen continued the theme idea with their terse speeches which they presented to the throng of well wishers.

Cathy Ziel, salutatorian, listed the changes that have taken place within the students. She said that the four years in high school has helped many of the pupils to assume responsibilities expected of persons in an adult world.

Continue to Change

Miss Ziel said she does not believe these changes will end at graduation. "We will continue to change and to progress and grow with this change as long as we continue to think," she said.

Steven Charen, another speaker, said that the association of students with their fellow colleagues and members of the faculty and administration have helped form the "changes within us," he said.

Charen said that their personalities have aided students to mature emotionally and intellectually.

Janet Robertson, valedictorian, spoke about changes throughout the world and their multi-faceted effects on students. She described the rapid changes in the world metaphorically.

Readers Digest Award

She has been given the annual award of The Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community. It was announced by Raymond O. Smith, Principal.

Miss Robertson will receive an honorary one-year subscription to The Reader's Digest in any one of its 14 language editions which she chooses, and a personal certificate from the editors "in recognition of past accomplishments and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

Rev. William Dike Leaves Belleville Methodist Parish

Local scouting groups and a member of the official family presented plaques to the Rev. William L. Dike honoring his dedication and fine contributions to the community. The Rev. Mr. Dike left Belleville this week to serve the First Methodist in Linden.

Shortly before his departure, local scouts and Vincent Strumolo, Commissioner-elect, offered their best wishes to the Rev. Mr. Dike and gave him plaques praising his dedication to the Wesley Methodist Church and the town. Strumolo presented a resolution on behalf of the Council.

Receiving the awards from the scouts, the Rev. Mr. Dike said, "Although I leave this community, I doubt whether I will get very far away from scouting."

Commenting about Belleville and the Wesley Methodist Church, he said, "Just as one finds a warm spot for his first love I shall always think of this church, my first parish, and the people in it with the fondest affection."

The Rev. Mr. Dike has been appointed by Bishop Prince A. Taylor, Jr. to serve the First Methodist Church in Linden.

His appointment made at the 110th session of the Northern New Jersey Annual Conference of the Methodist Church became effective this week.

Rev. Dike had served as Wesley's pastor for three and a half (Continued On Page 9)

Belleville Foundation Donates $5,000 Grant To Area Rowing Association For Boathouse

$5,000 GRANT — Frank McFadden, (right) trustee of the Belleville Foundation presents a check for $5,000 to Herman Wische, treasurer of the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association. This second $5,000 grant from the foundation assures the future of the high school shell racing in the Belleville-Nutley-Kearny area.

Strong supporters of the rowing program are Ernest Arvidson (left), a trustee of the Board of Education and Raymond Smith, high-school principal.

Completion of the Belleville-Nutley Kearny boathouse for the high school crew teams of those towns took a long step forward this week.

The Belleville Foundation presented a check to the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association. The donation in the amount of $5,000 was made by Frank McFadden, a foundation trustee to Herman Wische, treasurer of the rowing association.

McFadden is also vice president of the Fidelity Union Trust Co. Wische is director of health and physical education in the Belleville school system.

Second Grant

Lending support were Ernest Arvidson a member of the Board of Education, vice-president of the Rowing Association, and Raymond Smith, Belleville High School principal.

With the brief ceremony, the Belleville Foundation made its second $5,000 grant to the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association. The association is a temporary group which was organized to raise funds for the construction of a boat house for the high school shell racing crews of (Continued On Page 2)

County Vocational School Public Hearing Anticipated

NEW GAS STATION — Herbert C. Klein thanks the Town Council for its recent permission to erect a new gasoline service station at 113 Franklin Avenue and also removal of the station presently on the premises. Klein is a representative of the Atlantic Richfield Co.

"Ignorance" Called Main Protest Movement Reason

The Essex County Board of Education attributed "ignorance" as the reason why Belleville residents have been attempting to halt erection of a vocational school near the Soho Hospital.

The proposed facility, part of the county's program to provide educational facilities for the physical and mentally handicapped children of Essex has been termed by a county school board spokesman as "a project vital to the state."

In an effort to clarify "many misapprehensions regarding the planned school structure, the board will hold several days of public hearings to review with residents the values of the school facility as compared with those detriments claimed by Belleville property owners.

The board is expected to release the dates for the hearings sometime this afternoon.

Special Meeting

The school board earlier this week held a special meeting to discuss some of the problems related to the proposed construction.

P. Joseph Quinn, board president, made the entire board aware of the objections to the school proposal by the Belvedere Park Homeowners' Association and the Town Council.

Meanwhile the board maintains that Belleville residents apparently unaware of the benefits of the school and its need throughout the county.

A board spokesman said that since the county already owns land for the school on the Soho property, this is the most advantageous site in the county. Considering any other location, the spokesman said, would mean considering a $1 million purchase which would be added to the county tax rate.

Some seven acres are necessary for the construction.

Ralph Casale May Receive Commendation

Councilman Ralph Casale is expected to be lauded by his council colleagues at the final meeting of the governing body Monday night.

Casale will be praised for attending the remaining council sessions despite the fact he will not be among the governing officials on the new commission which takes over July 8.

Mayor Nuncio Pico and Councilman Robert Westpy, for one reason or another, have decided not to appear at council meetings recently.

One councilman said, "If Casale did not have enough public spirit and devotion to his job to attend the last few council sessions, they would not have been able to realize a quorum. Had that been the case, Belleville would not even have been able to pay a bill."

The council spokesman said that not only has Casale been present at the final meetings, he has also demonstrated a continued keen interest in municipal affairs.

Belleville's new commissioners will be inaugurated July 8, thus ending the short-lived Council-Manager regime.

United Community Fall Fund Drive is Planned

Belleville will have a door-to-door United Community Fund Drive throughout the residential areas of the town this Fall.

Officers of the project this year have been announced. Seymour Grossman, principal of Belleville's Junior High School, has been named chairman.

Grossman's co-chairman is Mrs. Harold Spray. She is principal of School 7.

Committee elect Kenneth Smith, has agreed to serve as honorary chairman. He has volunteered his full support of the campaign this year.

Among the duties of the new officers is the appointment of sectional chairmen throughout Belleville.

The chairmen will appoint nine Section chairmen who will have three to six division captains, who will make the actual calls in September and October.

All of these Belleville residents will be volunteers.

The United Community Fund maintains an office in Nutley serving also as a Community Service Council. All work for the drive will be coordinated through this office under the direction of its executive director, Mrs. Alfred R. Peters.

Anyone who is willing to give some volunteer time to this effort, in any capacity on the drive, or in office work is asked to call the Nutley office, Grossman said.

United Community Fund is an outgrowth of the former Community Chest of Belleville, and replaces the mail campaign of the last two years.

It covers nine of the former drives — Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Family Service, Red Cross, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Health, Retarded Children, Multiple Sclerosis, and Salvation Army.

It is an opportunity to give one donation to include all these, or to single out favorite charities and designate where the donation is to go given.

The drive will begin on September 28, and at the same time

Belleville's Steve C. Charen Gets Princeton Scholarship

Steven C. Charen has been awarded an academic scholarship to attend Princeton University next September. Steve will be the first Belleville High School graduate ever to attend the Ivy League institution.

Scholastically ranking third in the BHS graduating class of 325 Charen, has been a staff sports writer for the Belleville Times-News for the three and a half years. He is author of the feature column "Sideline Byline" for the past two and a half years.

This has been far from Charen's only activity, however. Just as entering Princeton on the four year scholarship will be far from his only first award.

Best Sports Writer

Most notable among the other "firsts" Charen brought to

Belleville High has been the award as the state's "Best Sports Writer of 1966" by the Scholastic Press Association of New Jersey.

Charen's many activities and interests were written about earlier this year in a "Youth in the News" feature of the Newark Evening News.

His interests include the post of official statistician for all major BHS sports since entering the school as a freshman. In this capacity, he has been commended as an "invaluable aide" to the coaches of football, basketball, and baseball.

Charen has also served as local staff correspondent for the Newark News, Newark Star-Ledger, and New York Times. His accurate reporting and excellent feature information has been cited by the Scholastic Sports Editors of both New Jersey dailies.

During the summers, Charen has continued the sports trend as statistician and publicist with the American Legion Baseball team. Last season, he also had a 3.0 record as a coach, youngest in league history, when late season difficulties deterred the regular team leader. He also

Sports have not completely dominated this active seniors high school years, however. During the past term, for example, Steve has served as president of the school's most prestigious organization, the National Honor Society; co-editor of the school newspaper, the Spotlight; vice-president of the Debating Society; Secretary of the school's leading service organization.

Chamber Of Commerce Plans Local Expo 67

Of the 29 booths which will form Belleville's proposed "Cavalcade of Progress" this September, only nine remain available for rental by local industries or businesses which would care to exhibit in the Chamber of Commerce project.

Educational

The cavalcade will provide the community with an educational as well as promotional glimpse of what Belleville industries and businesses have to offer will highlight this community's very own exposition, to be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce this fall.

The showcase of the town's installations will be geared to show "what Belleville does, what Belleville sells, and what Belleville offers as a place to live-and-work.

Detailing plans for the proposed event, French said "Belleville has much to be proud of in addition to its long history. Our industries play an important role in national defense, space exploration, research and in the building of an ever expanding economy."

Community Can Be Proud

"The community can be proud of its homes, its schools, its recreational and cultural activities in addition to a fine spirit of cooperation between its various religious and ethnic groups."

French said the Cavalcade is a booth type exposition where in Belleville can be displayed for "what we do and what we have the education and enjoyment of the public."

Most of the booths are 8x8 feet but there are smaller ones, he said. Booth backgrounds and arms will consist of draping material supported by aluminum pipes that are joined together with special screw-on aluminum fittings.

Opening September 28

Booths will be completely installed and ready for exhibitors to set up their displays on the morning of September 28. The show would open that afternoon 2:30.

The chamber will furnish a standard name sign for each booth. The divider between the booths can be decorated where an exhibitor desires two or more booths together.

Only chamber members may be exhibitors. Attendance based on the two previous showcases are expected to exceed 15,000 persons.

AMVETS OFFICERS — Michael Marotti (left) and Al Pico, both of Belleville Amvets Post 23, congratulate each other on becoming state officers at a recent convention in Atlantic City. Pico was elected state commander and Marotti was named first vice commander.

Zyckowski Gets A Scholarship

The Department of the Army announced recently that Thomas S. Zyckowski, 23 Washington Street, Belleville, was one of the 800 outstanding high school graduates selected to receive an Army ROTC four year scholarship.

His selection is based on academic excellence, extra-curricular activities, physical standards, results of college entrance examination boards and evaluation of motivation and leadership potential.

Winners of the Army ROTC scholarship were selected from over 12,000 high school seniors who applied.

Each scholarship pays for tuition, textbooks, lab fees and provides a subsistence allowance of $50 monthly.

Wallwork Running Against Sarcone In GOP Primary

JAMES H. WALLWORK
Senatorial Candidate

The threat of a Republican primary fight in Essex materialized this week with the announcement that former Essex County Assemblyman James H. Wallwork will head the Senatorial slate of the insurgent Republicans for Party Integrity. He will oppose former senator C. Robert Sarcone in the September GOP Primary.

Wallwork, who last fall served as chairman of Senator Case's Speakers' Bureau, said, "We are fighting for Republican Party integrity and for political independence from the Essex Democratic machine. We don't want to see Essex County become another Hudson."

"In addition, we seriously question the qualifications and backgrounds of some of Mr. Yeomans' principal advisers who are not elected and who are accountable to no one. We feel the Essex GOP must be led by men of unimpeachable integrity. We intend to give Republicans and independents a chance to vote for integrity in the September Primary," Wallwork added.

Wallwork's heading, the insurgent ticket is viewed as a significant breakthrough in the battle against the organization forces. The organization also wanted Wallwork on its ticket.

Wallwork added, "We came to our decision to run in a party primary fight reluctantly." He stated that the insurgents twice had agreed to a responsible compromise, but that the organization rejected it. His reference was to a proposal for a five minute committee to run the party, with each side naming two members and State Chairman Webster B. Todd the fifth. "There was, therefore, no alternative to our decision," Wallwork said.

Wallwork predicted that the reform slate would offer to Essex Republicans "candidates of exceptional ability, character, and dedication. We expect to have the entire Senatorial and Freeholder slates announced within two weeks," he said.

The organization thus far has picked only Robert Sarcone to lead the ticket as candidate for Senator.

In a statement of principles sent to Republican County Committee members this week, Wallwork urged "rank and file Republicans throughout the county to join the reform movement in actively working for all of the citizens of Essex County."

"As responsible Republicans, we must undertake a dynamic role by offering programs which seek to resolve today's problems today and anticipate tomorrow's problems in advance of tomorrow."

"To do this, the Republican Party must offer those men and women for elective office who, by training, are best able to initiate and carry out such programs," he said.

"We believe that a political party, which can not or will not cleanse itself of mediocrity, indiscretion and lack of purpose can never win the allegiance of the people of Essex County and does not deserve that allegiance."

"We believe that Republicans for Party Integrity will imbue the rank and file members of our Party with that sense of participation, achievement, and of honor that alone can remake our party into a deserving symbol which governs wisely and well."

The Wallwork candidacy was endorsed by 44 members of the Republicans for Party Integrity at a meeting in the Turtle Brook Restaurant in West Orange.

West Point Graduate
A 1952 graduate of West Point, Wallwork had the academic standing of 13th in a class of 525. Today he is vice-president of Wallwork Bros., Inc., Newark plumbing, heating and refrigeration wholesalers.

30-Family Apartment Building Given Board Of Adjustment Endorsement

A 30-family apartment building was given endorsement by the Board of Adjustment this week. The board's vote was unanimous. The new building will be located at 875-679 Joralemon Street in Belleville.

The developer, John Dvorak of Belleville, had asked the board for a variance to construct the apartment units. The use is not permitted in a "B" residential zone. That zone allows "a dwelling detached or semi-detached for not more than two families or two housekeeping units."

The board unanimously approved the apartment building construction proposal. Another application submitted by Dvorak did meet such favorable acceptance by the board. He sought permission to convert the basement storage area of an 18-family apartment building at 511 Franklin Avenue, Belleville into two additional apartments.

"B" Residential Zone
The premises are currently located in a "B" residential zone. Permission to erect the apartment building had been granted by the board of Commissioners.

Dvorak's plan for an expansion violates the town's zoning ordinance. While the board has no quarrels with the developers 18-unit apartment construction, it will not tolerate basement apartments.

The new request for 20 family building was denied. The board did allow a basement apartment construction if that apartment is occupied by a superintendent for the building.

Drowning Season

The approach of swimming weather brings to mind the fact that each year thousands drown because sensible precautions are not followed by the victims. The following safety rules are worth consideration.

1. Do not swim too early.
2. Use supervised pools.
3. Stay ashore in heavy weather.
4. Keep children out of boats without life-preservers or good swimmers.
5. Teach children to swim early.
6. Wait an hour after eating, before swimming.
7. Use excessive caution when fishing from a boat after dark, especially if in strange waters.

8. Always carry extra life-preservers in boats.

9. If you are deathly afraid of water, stay away from it.

One other word of value is the suggestion of experts that you try one of several floating techniques when next in the water. Many people can float indefinitely without any effort if they will hold their head back so that only the nose is above the water. The feet may extend downward vertically from the surface, but if the individual will be careful to keep his head far back, he will find he can float for hours. Try it. This or some other floating technique may save your life this summer.

Expensive Art for Oilman

A story which made headlines recently was that describing an art fraud in which a wealthy Texas oilman paid large sums of money for "name" paintings, later to be discovered as forgeries.

The works had been acquired — as might have been expected — in Paris. The owner was told by the Art Dealers Association that 44 paintings, water colors and drawings he had bought as works of Modigliani, Picasso, Degas, Chagall, Bonnard and other prominent painters were not the work of these masters.

This case was the most sensational of recent years but there have been many others. In California the Attorney General's office is looking into art collectors' charges that hundreds of forgeries have been sold there in recent months alone.

There is a current law suit in New York City over the charge that a prominent 1965 exhibition consisted primarily of fakes. The U.S. Attorney General's office is investigating at least two cases of forged Jackson Pollacks and Franz Klines.

Thus forgeries are being sold as originals to unsuspecting Americans — with more money than art judgment — in wholesale numbers.

Art need not be expensive; in fact, only the experienced collector or an expert can discern the difference between a masterpiece and a good painting. In general, Americans should buy paintings like every thing else — when they find one they like at a good price and the name of the painter need not be all-important.

Our Westerns

We are still faced with a heavy diet of westerns on television. The industry, like the movie industry before it, appears to be in a rut and night after night western after western is seen on our television screens.

The western kick has grown out of all proportion and is actually holding back historical, educational and cultural progress in the United States. One would think — viewing television — that the only history the United States had was the dusty, dirty, killing history of the wild west.

Actually, the United States has an interesting history, beginning before the Revolutionary War, and instead of such a deluge of eye-to-eye shoot-em-ups, the young and old should occasionally see something portraying Colonial days, the Indian wars, trials of the Revolutionary War, and those of other wars and crises in our history.

In addition to the historic disproportion, the constant flow of killing and shooting and fighting (most of it utterly stupid and imaginary, for the West was never composed of such moronic and hot-headed gun duellers in such numbers) is bad for youth.

Surely this country can offer its young something better, something more inspiring, more uplifting and more civilized. Little wonder that advanced countries like those in Scandinavia and other European countries bar so many of our television programs. As one Danish official explained recently, incalculable harm can be done by such emphasis on brutality, cruelty and violence.

BABSON'S POINT

What Price Foreign Aid

The American people, through their federal government, have spent $123.4 billion for foreign aid during the last 20 years, or 37 percent of our present public debt. There is no doubt whatever regarding the quantity and wide dispersal of this aid, but there is at least room for doubt as to its effectiveness.

Not realizing how very many of his dollars go abroad, the American taxpayer is not overly concerned. And if he were inclined to protest he would only be bewildered because there really is no foreign aid program as such . . . but a vast array of programs of varying scope and objective, a number of which seem to be at cross-purposes with others.

Broadly speaking, most foreign aid programs are "worthy" at least in their intent, but it is almost impossible to tell which have been motivated by our desire to fulfill moral obligations and which by our desire to gain trade, allies, or influence. Being unclear even to ourselves, our objectives are no less a mystery and cause for concern in many parts of the world where we are spreading largess so bountifully.

Fact is that much of our foreign aid has been a sheer waste of money, goods, and effort — sometimes because of poor planning and follow-through, often because of failure to assess local conditions and customs properly. Even that aid which has been well and prudently allocated has not always brought us closer to desired goals. It is appalling that nearly one-third of what we have spent to help other nations has gone to finance foreign armies and military establishments. This in turn has hardened already hostile attitudes between neighboring countries and has encouraged them to spend their own limited resources in war or defense to start the neglect of cultural and economic betterment. We might well ask ourselves if we are spending taxpayers' money wisely — or supporting the cause of peace — by helping to pay for the armies of Greece and Turkey, of Saudi Arabia and Egypt, of India and Pakistan.

Unfortunately also, we have placed too much stress on industrialization of the developing countries and not nearly enough on food production. Our aid to India is a classic example: After some 20 years of such aid at tremendous cost to American taxpayers, the Indian economy is worse off than before and has achieved no more than token betterment in farm output.

Of course, in India we are dealing with a culture that ranks a human being lower than a cow. In our own country, foreign aid has become a sort of sacred cow, too. Efforts to hold the line, much less cut back, on these programs are loudly deplored and roundly attacked as being ignoble and stupid. We are continually being sold on the idea that we must increase our spending for foreign aid, no matter what the cost.

Yet all our vast commitments of taxpayers' money abroad have not brought us the type of success and respect attained — with little expense and fanfare — by the small Nationalist Chinese Government on Formosa as a result of the work of its agricultural demonstration teams in selected African and Latin American nations.

The Chinese teams concentrated on improving food output and on stirring the African and Latin American people to help themselves. Then they withdrew. The results were impressive, in some instances spectacular.

Nationalist Chinese foreign aid does not patronize, cripple, or paralyze; the recipients learn for themselves to rely on their own resources. There is a real lesson here for U.S. foreign aid planners . . . and for American taxpayers as well. Will we heed it, — or will we go right on confusing quantity with quality?

Two Belleville Air Patrol Cadets Attend Conference

Two Belleville residents were among nine Civil Air Patrol cadets and 3 senior escorts from Bloomfield Composite Squadron, a USAF Auxiliary, who traveled to Morristown Airport recently for cadet orientation flights and a tour of the airport.

The cadets were flown in a Maule Rocket aircraft piloted by Major Richardson, USAF, New Jersey Wing Liaison Officer. Cadets Steven Rogers and Douglas Rudy, of Belleville, joined the other cadets at the operations building where the senior escorts explained some of the basics of flight operation, including the reading of weather reports which the cadets watched being teletyped.

Before starting on their tour, the cadets viewed the specially built one-man helicopter which was used in the late James Bond picture. The helicopter was at Morristown Airport for publicity pictures.
The tour and flights were part of the cadets training in airports, airways and electronics which they are now studying.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Some time ago we wrote about a new concept in manufacturing, "Zero Defects" (ZD) which has been given new impetus after the tragic Apollo failure. Surely you have read in the newspapers that an investigation has been made and, as had to be expected, lots of faults have been found. This, of course, is always the case, afterwards.

Now the whole manufacturing industry has adopted the ZD approach. It would be wishful thinking to expect a sudden elimination of all manufacturing defects. Such things take a long time to accomplish.

There is no secret how it could be done. An extensive rigid system of quality control, right from the bottom up starting with the raw material, has to be instituted, continuing with every part and finally far greater care in the assembly of the different parts. After all is done, the final product has to undergo a real test.

Far too many parts are automatically mass-produced these days. The test procedure is rather perfunctory. Here and there a piece is culled from the line and checked and if it is good, it is assumed that all the other pieces out of a given quantity also are good.

No doubt all these steps cost money. Manufacturers are very much conscious of price, and so is the public. However, if the quality of a product is superior than that of a competitor, it becomes known in time. We find in our business, that people are ready to spend a little more, if a set stands up better. It is always the age old story again, in the long run the better is the cheaper, whether it is a piece of merchandise or the quality of service.

We service what we sell.

Yearly Problem

Well mothers, your time has come. As of today, that yearly problem smacks us all in the face. Due to modern child labor laws, we can no longer send our 8-year-olds to a sweatshop and even if we could, it would probably be air conditioned anyway. And not being progressive enough, the tri-semester for grade school youngsters in the somewhere future. Kids — we love them, but with the end of the school year upon us, Miss Clair's work will be definitely doubted.

First Celebration

A cook-out in Grandpa's yard is a wonderful thing to have at any time. But when it's your first birthday celebration, it just got to be even more fun. Lucky year-old Mario Silvestri of 46 Eugene Place celebrated his first birthday in this fashion. Surrounded by many youngsters age 3 to 12 and sung to by many assorted relatives, Mario no doubt was in his glory. Nine-year-old sister Susan, and Larry, and Frank Mondini, Dean DeLaure, Nicki Ann Stromolo, Debby Risoli, Joseph Trabucco, and Michelle and Sal Giangrande were the youngsters who delighted in a barbecue filled not only with hot dogs and hamburgers but games and prizes as well. And even if one wasn't a winner during game time, before any of the youngsters left, each received a pail and shovel as their bounty. Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Mario Silvestri and grandmother Mrs. Mildred Giordano as well as great-grandfather Nick DePerry were all on hand when it came time to sing the traditional birthday wishes to the young lad. Great-grandmother had to send over her birthday wishes from 43 Eugene Place as she wasn't feeling up to part that day.

Trio Of Opera Stars Scheduled For Appearance

Three divas who have specialized in Italian opera will adorn Moe Septee's classical lineup at Symphony Hall in 1967-68, but only one is Italian.

Renata Scotta, La Scala soprano who makes her Newark debut on November 11, has ranged from the "bel canto" roles such as Lucia to the most dramatic of the Puccini heroines. Joan Sutherland, concertizing at Symphony Hall in February, has devoted herself to the "bel canto" repertory, sparking revivals of forgotten Donizetti, Bellini and Rossini gems that were "made for her virtuosic gifts and florid style."

Leontyne Price, who will be a January visitor to the Broad Street landmark, made her Metropolitan Opera debut as the volatile heroine of "Il Trovatore" and she has become identified with these lyric dramatic heroines of Verdi's opera — Aida, Amelia among them.

It is their differentiated styles which guide them towards varying repertories, and they overlap in many areas of the literature.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

Mrs. C. Quinn Honored As Good Citizen of Month

Mrs. Charles Quinn of 252 Branch Brook Drive, Belleville, an operator with New Jersey Bell Telephone Company was honored at a dinner recently as the Telephone company's "Good Citizen of the Month" for May.

Although Mrs. Quinn has never held political office and belongs to only one service club, the Telephone Pioneers of America, she has spent her life working small miracles of individual, personal charity for orphaned children and handicapped and hospitalized adults.

J. Kenneth Loolian, vice president and general manager of New Jersey Bell's metropolitan area, presented a plaque and desk set to Mrs. Quinn at the For-Hills Restaurant, Newark, in recognition of her service.

Mrs. Quinn is a familiar figure at the Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation in West Orange, Essex County Overbrook Hospital in Cedar Grove, New Jersey State Hospital in Greystone Park, and New Jersey Orthopedic Hospital in Orange where she spends most of her free time working with patients undergoing physical therapy and helping to cheer up the bedridden and infirm.

When not visiting patients or orphans, she provides transportation to and from hospitals for needy people, collects and distributes eyeglasses to people who cannot afford them, repairs and dresses dolls for children in orphanages, takes needy and handicapped people shopping and converts men's white shirts into bed jackets for the hospitalized.

She also provides tools and equipment for therapeutic treatment in hospitals and, as part of her work in therapy, offers patients free classes in upholstery.

Mrs. Quinn has been with New Jersey Bell for 41 years. She works in the company's Bloomfield information office.

Formerly a licensed pilot, she now leaves the flying of their two-seater plane in the hands of her husband. The couple have a daughter, Gale, who is an X-Ray technician at Morristown Hospital.

The "Good Citizen of the Month" program was initiated by New Jersey Bell this year to recognize active and retired employees who have distinguished records of public and community service. At the end of the year, "Good Citizen of the Year" will be selected from the monthly award winners.

Guenzlers Return From West Indies

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guenzler of 18 Emily Avenue spent three months in Florida recently with Mrs. Guenzler's sister, Mrs. James Kemp of St. Petersburg, formerly of Nutley.

Bell Street, Belleville, and Diane McDonnell of 32 Dayton Street, Newark, are shown through the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital School of Nursing by Miss Evelyn Hamilton, this September's class. The 33-month Diploma program starts in September. The girls have all been volunteering their spare time after school hours at the hospital.

State Arts Council Reaches 30,000 Persons

The New Jersey State Council on the Arts has announced that the programs it has sponsored during the first four weeks of operation have reached 30,000 persons, most of them students in New Jersey schools.

Governor Richard J. Hughes, who received a Council report on the program, said that the month-long period of activity was "highly satisfying, but only a forerunner of what can become a permanent program of state-sponsored cultural events throughout New Jersey."

The four cultural organizations whose activities were sponsored by the State Council were the Garden State Ballet, the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, the Princeton Chamber Orchestra, and the Morris Repertory Theatre. Each conducted a special program of events under a grant from the council.

IMMUNIZATION SHOTS ARE ALSO FOR ADULTS

Toxoids and vaccines are a must for children. They can practically eliminate the dangers of small pox, typhoid, tetanus and others.

But many adults who were vaccinated in their childhood, seem to have forgotten the importance of this protection. Positive prevention does not always last forever and many adults have neglected necessary booster shots. It is important that all adults visit their physicians as soon as possible to get this added protection.

ANNUAL AFFAIR: The annual Belleville Varsity Club All-Sports Dinner returned to Belleville last week at the Fountain Restaurant before a large crowd of student athletes, parents, club members, and well wishers.

The affair was dedicated to the memory of the late William Chapman, who, as the program stated, "will always be remembered for his sincerity and devotion in promoting high standards of good sportsmanship."

Besides the presentation of senior awards to 94 members of a dozen winter and spring athletic teams and related organizations, the evening was highlighted by American Legion Award to the the annual presentation of the most valuable member of the 1967 baseball team, the Colony Club Award to the Best all around senior athlete, a surprise special Award to retired diamond mentor Nick Petti, and the Varsity Club's president's citation to one of its hardest working members.

The senior catcher had just concluded a strong second Varsity season with a team leading 4.20 average that included a dozen extra base hits and was good enough to have him named to the All - Essex County teams of both New Jersey dailies as detailed last week, and in the running for All - State honors. The big backstop who last weekend went for a tryout with the Pittsburgh Pirates is also currently batting at a .471 pace for the local Legion team.

BEST ALL - AROUND: The next presentation, that of the Colony Club was next on the agenda, but before its presentation, it was explained that the award was made by the son of the late educator and athletic leader, Bruno then came to prestigious award that was to mark this

High School athlete was to be officially renamed in honor of the late William Chapman, The award will now to stand as The William Chapman Memoria Colony Club Award.

A brief but emotion charged acceptance statement was then made by the son of the late educator and athletic leader, Bruno then came to prestigious award that was to mark this year a boy who had been the captain of all three of Belleville's major sport teams, football, basketball, and baseball; was the president of his Senior Class; and an All - County athlete several times over. That performer was of course Richard San Filippo.

Beginning his Varsity career as a sophomore, San Filippo had been a starting performer in both football and baseball. By his junior year the versatile performer who will be entering Monclair State College in the fall added basketball and a second team All-State baseball ranking to his role.

First Love

Captaining all three teams as a senior, San Filippo went on to many unprecedented honors, among them last week's Colony

Club presentation. The three-year sport veteran whose first love is the diamond game is playing for the South Orange Orioles of the Essex County League this summer.

SURPRISE PRESENTATION:

The annual senior awards to the participants in a dozen BHS organizations was next on the agenda, but these voluminous presentations will be detailed later. Immediately following the senior award, a surprise presentation was made that many were to consider the highlight of the evening.

This award was made in the form of a belated tribute to Nick Petti for his efforts for Belleville as head baseball mentor for four seasons from 1963 to 1966. During that span, Belleville was to attain unprecedented success with four straight winning years that included two consecutive Big Ten Conference titles, the first in BHS history, three consecutive tries to the finals of the state tournament, the first state tournament title in BHS history, second and third seedings in the prominent Greater Newark Tournament, and during the second two years after Petti's program had been established an amazing 45 - 10 record.

The young educator had stepped down at the conclusion of the '66 campaign to devote full time to his role as Senior Guidance Counselor in the high school. In this key administrative role, Petti was responsible for the placement of 325 BHS seniors at institutions of higher learning or in careers, not to mention countless other counseling chores.

The efforts of Nick Petti for the Youth of Belleville and particularly for its baseball program warranted him all of the (Continued On Page 13)

New regulations for recognizing state record fish were adopted this year by the State Fish and Game Council. They were aimed at clarifying procedures for anglers catching record fish and at establishing records for species not previously listed. Entries have come in with species not previously listed, including white marlin, bonito, dolphin, and broadbill swordfish. Past catches of unlisted species verified by a recognized outdoor writer are allowed until June 30; three of these entries have qualified and the fourth is under investigation.

Entries of four other fish larger than existing state records have been submitted. One of these, a pollack, has already been recognized as a world record by the International Game Fish Association, official custodians of world salt water records. Recent catches of possible world record cod and black drum are being checked by the IGFA as well as the State Division of Fish and Game, and state officials are looking into a smallmouth bass entry.

Big White Marlin
A white marlin weighing 116 pounds is the largest of several entries for this species. It was caught in 1956 by Stanley Davenport of Newfoundland. A bonito weighing 13 pounds 8 ounces, caught in 1945 by Frank

G. Lykes Jr. of Trenton was verified by outdoor columnist, Herb Blackwell of the Daily Trentonian. A 45-pound dolphin caught in 1963 by Frank Notaro of Bridgeton was verified by Assistant Director Louis A. Rodia of the Cape May County Department of Public Affairs.

If no larger entries are received by June 30, these three fish will stand recognized until larger ones are caught and verified.

Angler Edmund Levitt of Atlantic City is being contacted for verification of his 530-pound broadbill swordfish.

The World Record 43-pound pollack was caught in 1964 by angler Philip BARLOW OFF Brielle was reported by Captain Howard Bogan of the "Jamaica" and weighed on certified scales.

The 81-pound cod caught this March aboard the same boat has been submitted to the IGFA for consideration as a World Record. Angler Joseph Chesla of Manville has been contacted for further details.

A 96-pound 14 ounce black drum caught last spring by M. Plitnick of Dias Creek is being checked with Cape May County Fishing Tournament officials. This weight also exceeds the world record of 94 pounds 4 ounces.

Belleville Angler
Reports of an 8-pound smallmouth bass caught by Cyril Mello of Belleville in the Delaware River in 1960 have been received.

Belleville To Install Partitions For The New Commission Offices

SECOND FLOOR — The new commission will move into their own individual offices rather than the second floor sprawl that forms part of the municipal building. Members

Belleville's new commissioners will have private offices when they take over the municipal government July 8.

That decision was made at a recent caucus session of the commissioners - elect with Charles Tedesco, town manager.

The offices will be located, according to plans, within the present Municipal Building. Three of them will be created by partitioning the upstairs floor of town hall. The commissioners will be able to establish a headquarters for the departmentalized form of government that the town approved last January.

Presently, the upstairs of the municipal building is crisscrossed with several town agencies.

New Offices

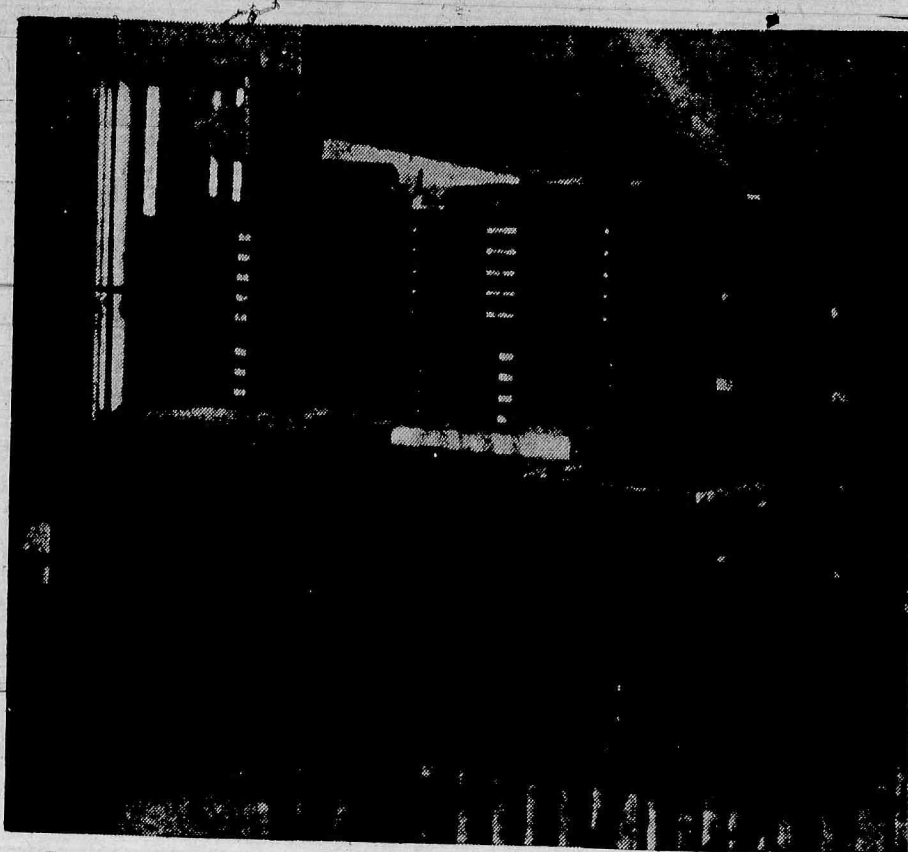

Offices for two other commissioners will be located on the lower levels of town hall.

Plans for the renovation are reportedly proceeding on schedule.

In fact, Tedesco reported to the council recently, "the transition of the new offices is going smoothly in all respects."

He said the commissioners-elect have lately been studying the municipal budget and placing money in specific accounts for each new town department.

So far, according to all indications, the incoming commissioners have been working "harmoniously."

CROWDED OFFICE — Already very overcrowded with an assortment of records and filing cabinets, the second floor main office of the Municipal Building is expected to be divided into offices for the new commissioners when they take hold of the government July 8.

Businessmen Figure 1966 Tax Return

Many people in business for themselves are now turning to the business of preparing their income tax returns and their social security self-employment tax returns for 1966.

William J. Arnold, social security district manager in Newark, has said this office has had numerous inquiries concerning the correct deadline date for the filing of 1966 tax returns.

Since April 15, the usual deadline date, falls on a non-work day this year, Monday, April 17, 1967, will be the final date for filing timely tax returns in 1966 earnings.

Arnold pointed out that some self-employed people are not required to pay income tax because their net earnings are too low, but those who have net earnings of $400 or more in a year must report their earnings and pay social security taxes. The tax rate for 1966 self-employment net earnings is 6.15 percent. It is extremely important,

consideration possible.

Double Trophy

SENIOR AWARDS: Returning to the senior awards which dominated the evening's program it should be noted that these presentations were made to every senior member of the dozen winter and spring organizations involved; several seniors receiving a double trophy for participation in two of the teams or related activities. As each boy or girl was called forward for their citation, the coach or advisor of the organization involved would comment briefly on their role in the past—the description here will be limited to a listing of those receiving awards.

Opening this segment of the program first year baseball mentor Charley Travers was to present the senior members of the 1967 Belleville High School baseball which finished second in the strong Big Ten Conference after a series of heartbreaking one run losses. These members were in order of presentation: Sam Calabria, Rich San Filippo, Joel Pisano, Jim Catalano, Mike Welsh, Jim Serritella, Charley Cuomo, Steve Charen, Bob Bala, Dave Rothwell, Bruce Pindar, and Frank Lapastato. Accommodation also went to Junior Varsity baseball mentor Mario Cocchiola who incidentally will be "defecting" to Nutley's school system and grid program in the fall; Cocchiola, a popular BHS Business teacher, was also J.V. grid coach.

Basketball was next on the agenda with Al LoBello making the presentations for this year's hapless team. The senior members honored were: Sam Filippo, Catalano, Tom Giallanella, Joe Melso, Pisano, Charen, and Mike Mateyka. Junior Varsity coach Danny Grasso was also cited for his efforts.

Michael Salzaruto, a popular

BHS Spanish instructor, was next on the agenda with awards to the three senior members of the school's District Champion bowling team — Doug McCumber, Mike Rowitz, and Bob Santin.

SENIORS FETED: Moving in to the spring arena crew was the next sport to be honored as Bob Andrews, Tom Barton, Fran Esposito, Walt Beresford, Dan Grossman, Joe Malloy, and Vic Mossa with their Senior Varsity Club Awards. Assistant crew coach is Sam Guiffrida.

Cross Country

There were no senior members of the rebuilding cross country team so the program progress directly to golf and the second presentation by Coach Salzaruto, this time to senior duffers Mike Bruno and Rowitz of the rebuilding 1967 squad.

Track was next on the agenda with first year Cross Country and Track mentor Pau Szem making the presentations to the senior members of this year's strong 8-4-1 team. These seniors were, in order of presentation: Ralph Serio, William Davis, Steve Ferruggelli, Pete Greco, Joe Rodriguez, Len Izzo, Rich Pepe.

and Eugene Harvey. (Country to an earlier report Szem will be returning in the fall to open what should be a promising cross country season with an entirely returning team.)

Returning to the winter program, wrestling was next on the alphabetically arranged agenda with James Silvestri making the presentations for his powerful team to: Nick DiDomenico, Rich Cucolo, Mike Luongo, Beresford, Joe Villano, Sam Veltri, Esposito, Andrews, Calabria, and Malloy.

The Band

RELATED ORGANIZATIONS: The Belleville High School Band, fresh off its triumphant trip to Montreal's Expo 67 was next on the agenda. Presentations to the senior members of this active organization were made by band master and Better Belleville Cup Winner Robert Wing, who is losing 22 members but should be returning to action in the fall in new uniforms and close to 100 strong.

This organization which in 1965

and '66 respectively represented the State at the New York Worlds Fair and National Cherry Blossom Pageant in Washington D.C., and in 1967 represented the United States in Canada has received countless offers for appearances next year, a month of them is an already accepted one day excursion on September 5 to take part in the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City.

The senior members of this organization are: Betty Breckinridge, Nick Pallante, John Sierco, Izzo, Santin, Jim Suprano, Rich Baker, Sharon Kelemen, Stephanie Kelemen, Bill Idenden, Kathy Sampino, Rich Hearn, Rod riguez, Davis, Linda Hoover, Linda Biondi, Laura Fisher, and Sue Kurzna.

The members of the three sport and award winning BHS cheerleading squad were next on the agenda as introduced by advisor Miss Judy Pirone: Connie Carbone, Carmie Casaleto, Lorraine Castelli, Carol Frunzi, and Irene Muscara.

Color Guard

The Color Guard under the direction of Vice Principal John Westlake was next with Anne Celio, Margaret Foster, Linda Luparella, Rosalyn Mostello, Sandy Muscara, and Linda Vaccari receiving awards.

Lastly, the final Senior Awards were made to the band's sister organization the Belleville High School twirling squad. Director Mrs. Pat Pugliese made the presentations to Sharon Assantes, Georgia Brown, Mary Dapart, Dianne Haight, Claudia Holweg, Denise Lepre, and Barbara Valvano.

VARSITY CLUB: The offers of the Varsity Club which is annually gracious enough to make the aforementioned presentations is headed by this year: Bob Cassin, President; Joseph Casale, vice president; Vincent Sorrentino, Treasurer; William Ellis, corresponding secretary; Nick Landolfi, financial secretary.

The members of the dinner committee for the 1967 affair were: Bill Ellis, Rocco Cervasio, Anthony Cervasio, Michael Byrne, Vin Sorrentino, Jerry Bonavita, Joe Casale, Frank Montarelli, Nick Landolfi, Jr., Joseph Valavano, and Bob Cassin.

ROUND RECORDS: As the season started it had been the mound corps more than any other facet of the game that had been doubted, but in the final accounting the hard - luck squad that lost six of seven one run decisions was one of the team's biggest assets rather than a liability.

Senior southpaw Joel Pisano led the Belleville mound in innings worked by emerging as the number one Bellboy starter and opening exactly half of eleven of Belleville's 22 contests on the mound as the starting pitcher.

In the process Pisano hurled 58 and a third innings to compile a team leading 6-3 record. A steady 1.92 ERA, 45 strikeouts, 24 walks, and 52 hits were also evident in Pisano's work.

Also appearing in exactly half of the Belleville contests was the second of the senior southpaws who appeared destined to carry the entire pitching load in the early going, Mike Welsh.

Welsh's record of 43 innings is probably the most impressive of the Belleville moundsmen with nine of the appearances or 28 and two thirds of it coming in relief. As a fireman Welsh saw 1.70 ERA success for a 2-1 record and three saves off of 18 strikeouts, eight walks and 18 hits.

It was as a starter that the second most active Bellboy hurtler really shown however, turning in 14 and a third innings and a complete game in two starts while allowing only one unearned tally for an impeccable 0.000 ERA.

Pablo Picasso

The Nutley Sun-Belleville Times has purchased several original and authenticated works of art from a major collection. The purchase was made in order to enable the Sun-Times to make a substantial gesture of appreciation to its many loyal readers and at the same time promote word-of-mouth talk about the Sun and the Times.

The management and staff sincerely wish they could say "thank you" by presenting every reader with an original art work, but the cost is prohibitive, so there will be only one lucky reader.

It is in no way necessary that the person who obtains the original and authenticated Pablo Picasso lithograph be a subscriber of the Sun or Times. It is not necessary to purchase papers with coupons in them. Free coupons (one to a customer) are available at the Sun office.

All you do is fill in the coupon and mail or bring it to the Belleville Times, 246 Washington Ave., Belleville, N.J. The new owner of the 'Picasso' will be announced as soon as the coupons can be tabulated.

Please enter my name for the original and authenticated Pablo Picasso lithograph.

Numismatics (coin collecting) is the fastest growing hobby in the world today. In order for coin collecting to develop fully, collectors must express their ability to ask questions.

One very important difference between man and other animals is man's ability to ask questions and search out answers. Due to the large growth of this hobby and popular demand, I will be writing this weekly column on coin collecting. I will be answering questions pertaining to coins and coin collecting.

First Regular Mint Issue

In 1792 the first United States mint was built in Philadelphia. Our first coins authorized by the United States government were struck in 1793. Cents and half-cents, exclusively were minted during the year 1793. By the year 1799 almost $50,000 in these coins were put into circulation.

A very serious problem to the various business during these early years was the failure of our government to provide a sufficient amount of circulating coins. Due to this shortage, small denomination coins of the early states and foreign countries continued to be used during the first few years of the 19th century.

Prior to 1792 foreign coins from England, Mexico, Spain, Ireland and other countries were used. We also had coins which were struck by individual states. These are called Colonial Coins. Some of these Colonial coins were minted and used in: New Jersey, Massachusetts, New York, Vermont, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Kentucky and Virginia.

Most of these early colonial coins demand a premium according to the condition of the piece. It is interesting to note that our first President, George Washington donated some of his personal silverware for the first early trial coins, and these coins are very valuable ranging from $750.00 and up.

Questions: I have heard that only a few of the 1913 Liberty Head Nickels were made and can you give me the value?

Answer: Only five of these coins were struck, and they are all accounted for, being housed in prominent collections. The last reported sale price of this coin was $35,000.00.

Question: I have heard the term double struck coin. Would you please define it?

Answer: A double struck coin is a coin that was not properly ejected from the die of the coining press before that die strikes again. This causes two impressions and sometimes two dates in different positions. This type of mint error is eagerly sought after by collectors specializing in that field.

Questions, questions, questions ... send them to The Coin Clinic, c/o this newspaper and watch this column for the answers.

School 3 Kindergarten Pupils Plan Summer Vacation

SCHOOL IS OUT — Kindergarten children at School 3 spent this week planning what they were going to do over the long summer. Some children didn't know for sure if they were going to go away vacationing but they did share those plans and

DAY TRIPS — Gerard Salvator (left) said he wants to go to Asbury Park to swim in the ocean, make sand castles and eat snow cones. Robert Wiedeman (center) would hope to visit Pennsylvania to look at the railroads and ride the trains. Alan Wiedeman would like to take day trips to New York City to see the Empire State Building and the Statue of Liberty.

TEACHER — Mrs. Estelle Kugel, kindergarten teacher at School 3 was speaking with Robert Wiedeman when Suzette Dinis (center) confided that she might like to go to summer camp to swim, and hike and play games with other children her age.

UNDECIDED — William Ralph wasn't sure where he would like to go during his vacation. Nevertheless, he is looking forward to the summer months for assorted activities.

WHISKED AWAY — Janet Rossi was certain that she would like to be whisked away on a big jet to some other state where she could meet new people and see new things. David Nyegaard would like to take a camping trip.

A CAMPING TRIP—Donna Fantacone (left) wants to take a camping trip somewhere in the mountain with her family so she could sleep out in a tent all night. Felicia Falzarano thought perhaps a vacation in Florida might be fun where she could stay at a hotel.

PLENTY OF FUN — Some children said they knew specifically where they would be going on their summer vacation. Plans included trips throughout the country, many to

New England, a few to Expo 67 in Canada others will go camping, many more to the shore. All of them expect to have lots of fun.

BOAT RIDE — Anita Fagnoli would enjoy taking a ride on a huge ship which has a pool on board and games for children to play.

ALASKA? — Robert Kressler wants to take a sleigh ride in the middle of July. The best way to do that is a trip to Alaska so he could see how the Eskimos live.

FINAL SCHOOL DAYS — During one of the last school days this term Mrs. Kugel helps her students finish off their workbooks. She is assisting Russell Walsh. In the background is Suzette Dinis.

DISNEYLAND — Lorraine Kemppainen (right) thinks Disneyland is the greatest spot for a vacation. She would like to go there for her summer holiday. She could go on the rides and meet all the Disney characters. David Nyegaard, (left) and Gerard Salvator (center) agree with her decision.
