

County Vocational School Public Hearing Tonight

The Board of Education of the Essex County Vocational Schools will conduct a public hearing tonight to discuss the proposed construction of a vocational and technical high school including facilities to train the handicapped.

The proposed site of the school would be located on county owned 7 acre tract north of the Soho Hospital.

The hearing will be held in the new Belleville High School Auditorium located at 100 Passaic Avenue. The meeting will begin at 7:30.

Speakers Must Register

Citizens wishing to be heard are requested to register and will be heard in the order of their registration.

The Essex County Board attributed "ignorance" as the reason why Belleville residents have been attempting to halt erection of a vocational school near the Soho Hospital.

The proposed facility, part of the county's program to provide educational facilities for the physical and mentally handicapped children of Essex has been termed by a county school board spokesman as "a project vital to the state."

In an effort to clarify "many misapprehensions regarding the planned school structure, the board will hold the public hearings to review with residents the values of the school facility as compared with those detriments claimed by Belleville property owners.

The board is expected to release the dates for the hearings sometime this afternoon.

Special Meeting

The school board had earlier held a special meeting to discuss some of the problems related to the proposed construction.

P. Joseph Quinn, board president, made the entire board aware of the objections to the school proposal by the Belleville.

School Board Authorizes Acoustics for Gym at BHS

Mrs. Thomas McCool, a Board of Education trustee, tried to place the architect of the high school and an educational consultant for the school system on the same hot seat together but was unable to win any support from her colleagues on the board.

Mrs. McCool was annoyed by a board proposal to award a $7,575 contract to Harry Rich Associates to furnish and install sound absorption treatment on the ceiling of the high school gymnasium. After more than a half hour of discussion, the board ignored Mrs. McCool's protestations and voted to go ahead with the acoustical treatment.

Mrs. McCool said that while she was in complete agreement that the work should be accomplished, she was unalterably opposed to paying over $7,000 for a project that should have been, in her opinion, included in the original plans for the high school.

Blames Architect

She blamed Alphonso Alvarez, architect of the high school, and Dr. Felix McCormick, an educational consultant hired at the time of the building's construction, for the deficiency in not only the gymnasium, but the auditorium and the band room as well. She demanded that these two men be sued for the cost of the acoustical treatment.

Max Schwartz, board attorney, said that since the work was done according to specifications, the board had little legal grounds to stand on.

Mrs. McCool argued that she had three meetings with the architect and said that he promised the auditorium and gymnasium would perform adequately.

"Forget It"

"You can forget such verbal agreements. They are difficult to the point of being impossible to prove in court," Schwartz said.

He said that the board has no clear case of neglect against the architect. He said that the trustees could only win their bid if they could prove a deliberate deviation from the provided specifications. Litigation would be a non-productive effort since the basis of the argument is not malpractice but rather professional judgement.

He said the case would be "thin" and "would not reflect with credit on the board."

Mrs. McCool's Reply

Mrs. McCool snapped back, "Paying an additional $7,000 for the acoustical treatment does not reflect with credit on the board either."

"Mr. Alvarez said the roof would be okay . . . and it is not okay . . .

Strumolo Will Head Town Public Works

VINCENT STRUMOLO

Vincent Strumolo, a Belleville Commissioner-elect, hopes that his enthusiasm and optimism regarding the town is an asset he could share with the residents of the community.

He is the man who is expected to head the largest department under the incoming Commission regime — the department of public works. It is a job which he faces with considerable awe, but he admits.

Help from local citizens comes in the form of frequent reports to the department regarding any problem areas that need to be declared a success only.

Fourth of July Field Day Program to Include Racing Events And A Dizzy High Wire Act

A day - long program of sporting events and entertainment will highlight Belleville's annual Fourth of July celebration at the Municipal Stadium.

Beginning at 10 a.m. in the morning with a series of athletic games and surprises, the day will progress until a variety show is presented in the early evening.

That show will feature the "Coronas" high wire act.

The troupe has been called the "greatest high wire family in Europe." They have been one of the main attractions with the Ringling Brothers Circus.

Show Begins 7 p.m.

The show, which begins at 7 p.m. is free to the public. Some 11,000 residents are expected to attend the program.

The variety spectacular also will include Bobby Rollins and his Fairlady balloonologist; Clown Fuster in his clown car; a nine act; a comedy trampoline artist; Ed Erickson, a singer; and Louis Gin and his all state orchestra.

The program is being sponsored by the Belleville Veterans Council.

Commissioner-elect William H. Cullen has announced the program for the recreation department 1967 Fourth of July Field Day. Starting at 10 a.m. at the Municipal Stadium a morning of events will be conducted. Festivities will be led by the 1967 playground staff directed by superintendent of recreation, Bob Cook.

This year there will be three age groups, midgets 6-8, juniors 9-11 and seniors 12-14.

The program will feature numerous racing events.

Holding with tradition, there will be watermelon for the heat winners and handsome prizes for the final winners. Prizes will be presented by Cullen at the close of the program. All boys and girls are invited.

Cullen has announced that Belleville's playgrounds will open on July 3rd. The Commission has obtained an emergency authorization to make appointments to the staff at this earlier date.

Originally it had been ruled that no appointments could be made until after July 8th when the newly elected commission takes office. Had this original ruling been adhered to the summer program would have been greatly curtailed and could not have started until possibly July 10th or later.

This earlier opening also saves the day for the traditional Fourth of July Field Day in that without the special authorization there would have been no personnel to conduct the field day.

Playground programs will be conducted at the Recreation House, Municipal Stadium, Plan-soen Playground, Fairway Playground, Msgr. Kelly Playground, School 1, School 4 and Clearman Field. Construction at School 2 has rendered that site unusable this year.

Scandal Could Cause Commissioners To Discontinue Local ABC Board

The new Belleville Town Commission is expected to abolish the local Alcoholic Beverage Commission. The measure would be permitted in the Walsh Act, under which the incoming commission is governed.

The decision was made, according to a source close to the commissioners elect, as a result of the recent indictment by C. Robert Sarcone, a former state senator, and his two alleged Belleville henchmen on charges involving conspiracy to obtain money from a tavern owner to block the suspension of his liquor license.

The local bistro is the Varsity Bar, located at 35 Williams Street.

The source said the Walsh Act provides that the new commission may perform the duties of the ABC board, if it wants to. He said the latest ABC scandal only points out the lack of control over such autonomous boards.

"Half More Embarrassment"

"We are seeking to halt any further embarrassment to the town of Belleville," the source said.

This week Sarcone withdrew as a candidate for state senator on the Essex County Republican organization ticket. He was indicted for allegedly conspiring to extort money from Sam Stellatella, the Belleville bar owner.

Sarcone announced his decision to the same screening committee which selected him unanimously a month ago to lead the ticket.

The decision, which Sarcone said was not an easy one to make, followed extensive thought after Sarcone examined "the realities of politics and his own personal standards."

He said, "My every waking moment must be spent clearing my name and cleansing the stain that has been placed on my reputation in this county and this state," he said.

"Untrue Charge"

"Let it be said in the most emphatic terms possible that this untrue and malicious charge made against me will be totally disproved in every particular," Sarcone said.

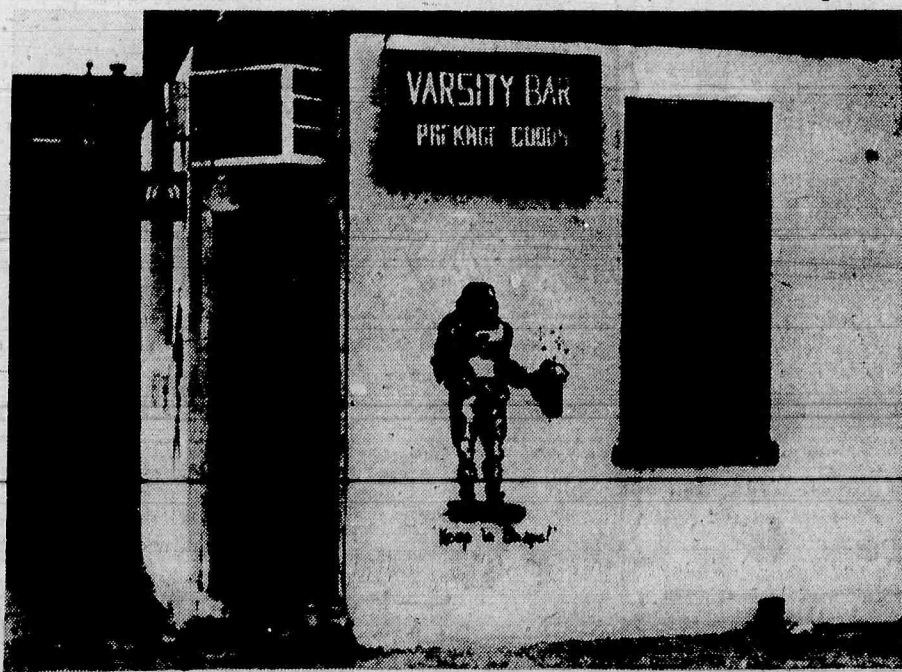

Also named in the indictment handed up to Superior Court Judge James R. Giuliano, the county's assignment judge were Anthony Di Geronimo, chairman of the ABC board, and Arthur Rosania, a board member.

In a second indictment Rosania was charged with attempting to extort and solicit an unlawful fee for performing his duties, while Sarcone was charged with aiding and abetting him on both counts.

The three were charged with trying to obtain $1,200 from Stellatella for dismissing a charge against the Varsity Bar. The charge alleged that alcoholic beverages had been served to a

Revaluation Plan Opposed By Council

The council this week voted to petition the state legislature, on recommendation of Jack Soriano, town attorney, for remedial legislation regarding New Jersey's present policies on the revaluation of property throughout the state.

Soriano presented a four-point proposal which the council accepted. These recommendations form the foundation for the council's petition.

Capable Assessors

They include the selection and placement of sufficient and capable assessors by the state; adoption of a uniform and mandatory set of rules under which all assessors would operate and abolishment of state and county boards of taxation as bearers of tax appeals and retention of the state board of tax appeals for administrative purposes only.

The final request calls for the establishment of the state tax courts under the jurisdiction of the state Supreme Court to be

Park Homeowners Association and the Town Council. Meanwhile the board main that Belleville residents are apparently unaware of the benefits of the school and its need through out the county.

A board spokesman said that since the county already owns land for the school on the Soho property, this is the most advantageous site in the county. Considering any other location, the spokesman said, would mean considering a $1 million purchase which would be added to the county tax rate.

Investigation or repair.

A keener effort to keep Belleville neater. This is also a request Strumolo has made to residents.

"Belleville's image, I am certain will radically improve in time . . . because the five commissioners are dedicated to pushing Belleville ahead," Strumolo said.

Forbearance

The greatest help residents can contribute to the town, Strumolo maintains, is forbearance. "Town officials are not miracle-men. While we do not anticipate any major problems, we need time . . . time to systemize our operations, time to get the new government moving, time to get Belleville rolling like a well-tuned machine. This may take a year, he said.

Strumolo said that he will be on the job about three hours during each day to personally supervise his department. Meanwhile, any problems or complaints could be referred to either Strumolo or the town garage.

"All we ask is that the people cooperate with us . . . we'll do our part," Strumolo said.

involvement with the case is making her upset.

The trustees went ahead to pass the resolution. In another matter, the board voted to authorize payment to Harry Page, Inc. for services rendered in connection with the installation of a new compressor on the walk-in refrigerator in the Belleville Junior High School in the total amount of $242.10.

The trustees authorized payment of $600. to the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association as Belleville's share of expenses for operating the crew house for the 1966 - 67 rowing season.

They confirmed an order placed with George Pocock and Sons for 1968 crew equipment in accordance with its quotation in the total amount of $507, and they awarded an order to Xerox Corporation for the rental of Xerox Copier 813, including service, developer and webs and 6,000 copies for the fiscal year July 1, 1967 to June 30, 1968, in accordance with its school pricing plan and its quotation in the total amount of $459; copies in excess of 6,000 will be billed at $.045 each during this period.

Celebration

A well qualified staff will lead the activities during the summer. The staff will attend a day long playground workshop today June 29.

It will be here that the plans will be finalized for the very busy summer program. The first week of playgrounds will include registration, elementary handicraft, Story Time, Kalah, Dodgeball, Softball, Doll Show and Model Show, Kick Baseball, Checker Tournament, Horseshoe Tournament, Foulshooting and relay races and, of course, the Fourth of July Field Day.

New games will be introduced each week during the summer and each week will be highlighted by a special event. There will be inter- playground softball for boys and girls.

Swimming will be offered at the Friendly House Pool on Frederick Street. One of the features of the summer will be the annual handicraft exhibit scheduled for August 2 at the Belleville Library.

Revaluation

manned by full time judges to serve the entire state.

Belleville recently lost its appeal before the Appellate Division of the Superior Court ordering the town to take all steps necessary, including the appropriation of the necessary money to effectuate a revaluation of all the taxable real property within the community.

Regarding the latest decision, Soriano told the council:

"The newspapers apparently erroneously construed the decision as a victory for the Essex County Tax Board in its quest to have all Essex County municipalities revalue real property periodically by the use of independent firms. To the contrary, both the lower and appellate courts studiously avoided ordering a commercial revaluation.

"The lower court on November 2, 1966 ordered, among other things: That Belleville determine the method to be used for such revaluation within its discretion, provided that such method be in accordance with law.

"The appellate court in a Per Curiam decision stated, The Legislature has imposed upon the assessor the specific duty of determining the full and fair value of each parcel of real property in the district (N.J.S.A. 54:4-23). The statute referred to, N.J.S.A. 54:4-23 provides: All real property shall be assessed to the person owning the same on October 1 in each year.

"The assessor shall ascertain the names of the owners of all real property situate in his taxing district, and after examination and inquiry, determine the full and fair value of each parcel of property situate in the taxing district at such prices as, in his judgment, it would sell for at a fair and bonafide sale by private contract on October 1 next preceding the date on which the assessor shall complete his assessments, as hereinafter required.

"For the purposes of assessment, the assessor shall compute and determine the taxable value of such real property at the level established for the county pursuant to law.

"This is exactly what every assessor should be doing. R. S. 40A:4-63 which provides for the financing of a revaluation program is still permissive. The crux of the Appellate Court decision is as follows: We construe the mandate of the judgment appealed from to direct the municipality and the assessor to perform their respective duties as statutes.

"In my opinion, Soriano said, the future conduct of this entire problem should be left to the judgment of the incoming Board of Commissioners. That board may either revalue commercially or insist that the Town Assessor perform his duty in accordance with N.J.S.A. 54:4-23.

"Curiously enough, a decision to revalue commercially will grant to the Essex County Board of Taxation, by indirection, that which it did not receive by the direction of the courts. It will mark the beginning of another round of costly revaluation programs in the county which the municipalities can ill afford," Soriano said.

"Under the present legislation commercial revaluations are at best temporary. It would be necessary to perform them periodically in which case the assessors would become more clerks," he added.

"My suggestion is that the new Board of Commissioners, in concert with other municipalities, petition the Legislature for remedial legislation," he concluded.

Scandal

minor.

ABC Hearing

At the ABC hearing of the Varsity Bar matter, chairman Di Geronimo summarized alleged charges stating that at no time had any minor been served.

When advised that the complaint stated the police officers had seen the minor come out of his tavern carrying a container of beer, Stellatella showed board members on a chart where the police car had been located, where his bar was and the site of another bar.

He stated that what the minor had been carrying from his bar was a sandwich in a bag, and after he had gone back to the car in said car was a 22-year old friend of his who did have a container of beer with him, and that the police officers did not stop the minor with the sandwich when he came out of the tavern, but after the minor and driver of the car had driven a half block the police officers then looked in the car.

Anthony Fazio, the bartender, stated that at no time has he served a minor, in fact was very strict about asking for draft cards or drivers' licenses when he is in doubt regarding minors, he said.

It was also brought out in the informal hearing that the minor had been brought before the Belleville Magistrate and fined $50 for having liquor in his possession.

Would Contact Later

Chairman Di Geronimo advised Stellatella that board would contact him further.

It was learned following the informal hearing that one of the police officers in the latter matter was still on duty, and at the board members' request he was given permission by his superior officer to discuss the alleged violations in an informal manner with the board.

Police did state they didn't stop the minor until he was in the car but when asked if there was a sandwich in the car as well, his answer was "no."

An executive conference followed, and it was decided to have a conference with the Town Attorney with respect to the alleged violations filed against Varsity Bar, Inc., following which it would be decided what action to take.

Conspiracy

That action, according to Stellatella was the alleged conspiracy on the part of Rosania and Di Geronimo.

The indictment alleged that on May 30 Rosania referred Stellatella to Sarcone who told him the next day that the charges before the ABC board could be dropped without further hearings.

On June 2, the indictment alleged, Sarcone "demanded the sum of $1,200 in return for 'killing' the charges" against the bar.

Amount Reduced

When Stellatella told Sarcone a few days later that he was unable to raise the money, according to the indictment, Sarcone allegedly asked for half that amount.

The indictment further stated that when Stellatella again told Sarcone he was unable to raise the money, Rosania telephoned him to say that the ABC's determination in the matter "would be adverse" and demanded that he try to raise the money.

Stellatella went to the prosecutor's office with his story June 7 and later informed Rosania that he had the money and the message was relayed to Sarcone, according to the indictment. The indictment didn't explain the role of the ABC board.

A second count in the indictment alleged that the three also would confer with attorneys for "corruptly" conspired to commit bribery.

The extortion indictment alleged that Rosania attempted to unlawfully solicit the $1,200 from Stellatella and that Sarcone aided him "in committing the crime of attempted extortion."

A second count in that indictment alleged that Rosania solicited the money "in order to influence a favorable decision" of the ABC board. Asst. Prosecutor Richard B. McGlynn, who presented the state's case to the Grand Jury, recommended to Judge Giuliano that no warrants be issued on the indictments. He said that he date on which they could plead to the charges.

Newark & Essex Bank Will Join With Glen Ridge Trust

Robert G. Cowan, chairman of the Board of National Newark and Essex Bank, and Frank D. Brewer, chairman of the Glen Ridge Trust Company, has announced plans for a merger of those two banking institutions.

The boards of directors of both banks have approved in principle a plan under which Glen Ridge shareholders would receive 5 1/2 shares of National Newark and Essex Bank stock for each share of Glen Ridge Trust Company.

The boards will meet again shortly to approve a merger agreement and a date for meetings of the shareholders of both banks to act on the proposal. The approval of the comptroller of the currency will also be required.

Cowan and Brewer emphasized that all of the employees of the Glen Ridge Trust Company would be retained and that they would be entitled to pension, profit sharing and other employee benefits of National Newark & Essex Bank, receiving full credit for their years of service with Glen Ridge Trust Company.

All of the members of the board of directors of the Glen Ridge Trust Company would continue as members of the Glen Ridge Advisory Board of the National Newark and Essex Bank. Thomas H.B. Boothe, President of the Glen Ridge Trust Company, would become vice president in charge of the Glen Ridge office.

Brewer said: "The Glen Ridge Trust Company, during the past year, reached all time highs in deposits, total resources and trust department assets, and the time is at hand when it will require more room and expensive equipment to meet present and future growth. The proposed consolidation will meet these needs and supply additional facilities. The trust department will be the same as to its staff and location, and the transition will be accomplished without any change in customer relations."

Brewer pointed out that the larger resources and extensive branch facilities of National Newark and Essex Bank would be available to all customers of Glen Ridge Trust Company. He said that the local characteristics of the Glen Ridge Bank will be preserved through the retention of all Glen Ridge employees customers.

National Newark and Essex Bank, as of December 31, 1966, had total resources of $556,700,000. A number of mergers with other Essex County banks have contributed to its growth in the last 20 years. The most recent merger was with First National Bank of West Orange in 1962.

Glen Ridge Trust Company was founded in 1912. It has resources totaling $15,400,000.

Belleville High School Commencement

It was a shame that the altogether fine complexion of Belleville High School's commencement ceremonies last week had to bear the marks of poor taste from many of the parents, children and well-wishers who attended the exercises at Municipal Stadium.

What started off as an almost amusing bit of childish exuberance developed like an infection into a mild buzzing among those assembled in the stadium until finally it seemed that conversations and audible cries from the bleachers had transcended the fact that diplomas were being presented to high school seniors.

The problem began when friends and perhaps relatives of several of the graduates saw fit to yell out congratulations from the stands as the diplomas were conferred. The effect was strange. The sound throughout the stands jumped stereophonically from section to section as each cheering claque increased their applause and screams.

Vocal resources finally not being enough, some decided to bleat away on horns, throw confetti and deliver drum rolls.

By the time half the seniors had received their diplomas, it appeared as if Miss Anne Celso, who read the names of the graduates, was a person to be ignored.

That, in many cases, she could not be heard because of the noise was certainly not the fault of Miss Celso, who courageously went on, despite competition from hundreds of others who wanted to talk too.

By the time a majority of graduates had received their diplomas, parents and other guests began to flee the bleachers to beat the crowds in greeting their son or daughter. This created a throng of people which eventually grew to such proportions as to necessitate being pushed back by auxiliary police.

Even then they refused to maintain enough taste to remain silent until the ceremonies were completed. Many called out and cracked jokes.

It was unfortunate that these events had to distort an occasion of considerable importance and dignity. It was even less fortunate that the occurrence had to be witnessed by school trustees, governing officials and local clergy and, indeed, the graduates themselves.

On the other hand, if Belleville is uninterested in undertaking such formal ceremonies and such deportment is to be accepted, then why bother with caps and gowns, with esoteric speeches, and with the rest of the trappings?

From every other respect the evening was carried off well and should be considered a credit to those schoolmen and participants who organized, planned and presented the Class of 1967.

C. Robert Sarcone

This week former State Senator C. Robert Sarcone withdrew as a Senate candidate on the Yeoman's ticket because of his indictment last week on a charge of trying to shake down a Belleville tavern owner who is in trouble with the municipal Alcoholic Beverage Control Board.

The Grand Jury indictment of Mr. Sarcone is not a finding of guilt. Sarcone denies the shakedown charge. Commenting on the Sarcone development Walter W. Weller Jr., chairman of the Essex County Republicans for Party Integrity, said, "Mr. Sarcone is to be presumed innocent until a court and jury has rendered a verdict. This is the American way." We agree completely with Mr. Weller.

In order to avoid embarrassment to the Yeoman faction he represents, Sarcone quit the ticket. His name was the only candidacy certified by the Yeoman screening committee. And this was done by "acclamation".

The withdrawal of Sarcone's candidacy presents another opportunity for the warring Essex County Republican leaders to resolve their differences, obtain new leadership, and proceed to the tremendous task that lies ahead in November.

The Yeoman's leadership ticket cannot win in November. To regain the confidence of the suburban Republican and attract the support of Essex County independent voters the GOP requires leadership of integrity, new faces, and the voices of men of vision.

The tired rejects and retreats of the Republican Party are inadequate to lead the Republican Party to a November victory.

The intra-party developments of this week will determine the fate of the GOP ticket this November, New Jersey's presidential 1968 sweepstakes, and the gubernatorial election of 1969. GOP stakes are too high to permit selfish wheelers and dealers controlling the party leadership today to retain possession of its machinery.

Colored Currency?

The question of different colors for our paper money is again being raised in the United States, with polls being conducted and politicians speaking out on the subject.

In many European countries paper money is produced not only in different colors to prevent mistakes but in different bill sizes as well. And visitors to the United States often express surprise upon seeing all our bills green - and the same size.

Martin Bormann 'Found' Again

Recently a report that Martin Bormann had been found in Guatemala stirred the world. A man was arrested and interrogated. But no one could be certain; his fingerprints were rushed to Germany.

Let's Go Barefoot

Experts say modern shoe design forces many of us to cram our feet into a space too small for them. Because the toes are cramped, the base of support for the body is not only reduced but the body distorted to compensate.

This, in turn, leads to a slanting pelvis, a slumped chest or rounded shoulders, among many other things. This unnatural position places a stress on our body structure which strains tissues, distorts muscles and jams bones together.

The end result might often be cancer, rheumatic fever, arthritis, allergies, neuritis and other serious body breakdowns.

The best remedy is to go barefoot. The next best thing is to wear a shoe which allows your feet complete freedom. Women are advised to wear saddle oxfords and other low - heel shoes as often as possible and men are advised to wear more Indian moccasins. Men should also remove their shoes when they come home from work and put on slippers.

There the sensation died - like so many other Martin Bormann sensations. The prints were not Bormann's. The search for Hitler's deputy has been the most widespread of all those connected with ex-Nazis. Bormann was Hitler's closest companion and with him until the day of his death.

What happened to him? At first the stories of two ex-Nazis, that he had been killed trying to escape in Berlin, were accepted. Then the men were proved to have lied in other testimony. In 1957 evidence was uncovered that indicated Bormann had escaped to the Austro-Italian border. He was traced to Bolzano.

From Europe he was supposed to have caught a ship (from Genoa) for Buenos Aires. For years reports have been coming in from various parts of Latin America that Bormann had been seen and recognized by old comrades. One woman recognized him. Diplomats who had known him saw him, or so they said.

But no one has finally identified him. And the search goes on. And the world waits for the end of the story - the fate of the Fuehrer's personal secretary, aide and confidant, who could tell the world so much, if captured.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Revaluation Programs Receive Criticism

To the Editor:

Revaluation programs which the county demands be conducted every five years are a disease against the home owners.

The only purpose they serve is to fatten the money belt of the county government which has a large padded payroll and many unnecessary jobs.

The personnel department at the Hall of Records was created by the Democratic administration for the faithful. That plum is a waste of the taxpayer's money, and serves no useful purpose.

During the past eight years the cost to run the county government under Democratic control has increased over $50 million.

The sales tax which was supposed to bring tax relief to the taxpayers was a fat white lie. It was approved without the consent of the People, as were other programs under the Great Society, harmful to many.

People buy homes to avoid paying higher rents, but with the loss of millions in ratables by the state and county projects, including new toll highways, their take-home pay is not enough to live on.

Since we pay taxes to the county and state they should also pay taxes on all their properties, which are included in a revaluation program at the expense of the taxpayers.

What can we do unless we unite together to stop these money-grabbers who are responsible for the conditions that exist.

Note the Republican ticket in November, a true friend of the People, pledged to eliminate the waste in the county government. Their work is reliable.

Next each city or town government should pass a law allowing a $5,000 exemption to all home owners, as is done in Florida to ease the increase expected by the revaluation program.

The town of Nubley has the right idea by protesting. Let us protest with them.

Why should we spend $100,000 and more of the taxpayer's money against their wishes for a revaluation program which would not hold up in the courts.

We have capable assessors to do the job. A handful of men on the county tax board appointed for life can bring chaos in the county for many people. The position should be abolished.

Resident Warns Others Of Fraud Attempts

To the Editor:

A fraud is a fraud, no matter how you twist it. For the benefit of the people this is what happened.

A couple signed a contract to install a new gas heating system in one of their homes, which was paid in full. They have the duplicate copy of the contract.

In the meantime the contractor told the couple he was expecting a phone call from his boss at their home, and could he answer the phone at 10 a.m. Permission was granted.

The call was not from his boss but from a bank representative who asked to speak to the owner of the house. The man said he was the owner of the house, and everything was fine.

It now appears the contractor wrote up a new contract to install an air conditioner in the house, which was never installed, signed both names of the couple and finance it through a bank for $2,900.

The question now remains who is stuck - the couple who signed no contract or the bank which made no personal investigation.

This swindle took place at 76 Miller Street in Newark. It is now in the hands of the fraud department.

Don't let anyone answer your phone when dealing to have some work done. Answer it yourself.

Sincerely yours,
Albert Guglicelli

St. Bartholomew Group To Hold Annual Feast

To the Editor:

The Town Council recently gave permission to the Society of St. Bartholomew to hold a feast in the Silver Lake section on August 19 and 20. A little bit of nostalgia must accompany this announcement for the remaining Old Timers of this area. The feast was started 57 years ago by Gerardo Maltoni and John Pico, and it has continued in spite of wars, depressions, and changing people.

It is a throw - back to a custom brought over from Casano, Italy, which has St. Bartholomew as a patron saint. At one time more than 60 percent of the people of Silver Lake were Cassanese.

This year the committee has appointed Mayor Nuncio Pico as honorary chairman. The Mayor has been a member of this Society since 1915. The present chairman, Anthony De Laterza promises that this year, as in the past, fireworks, music, procession, and street decorations will be better than ever.

He hopes that maybe the Mayor and Council can pass a resolution to guarantee a bright, sunny weekend.

Belleville Woman Likes Roger Babson's Column

To the Editor:

In your June 1 issue there was an article in regard to Roger Babson's report on inflation, etc.

I personally was interested in the article, for in my senior year of high school I received a bid to work for Mr. Babson. He required all employees before starting work at Babson's Reports, Wellesley Hills, Mass., to attend a six-month course at his Babson Statistical School. At the end of six months you received a Bible of your faith with his signature on the front page.

Although Mr. Babson had only one lung, he forgot his misfortune and became a brilliant man in his field.

State Auto Club Wants Toll Probe

The New Jersey Auto Club-AAA has demanded that the state legislature "immediately begin an examination of what appears to be a gross mis-use of motorists' tolls collected on the Garden State Parkway."

The statement was in reference to the recent disclosure that the projected cost of the cultural center along the Parkway at Holmdel had increased from $1.6 million to an estimated $6.5 million.

"The legislature should also ask Parkway officials to explain how they can spend this kind of money on a grandiose project but cannot even give the daily Parkway commuter a reduction in tolls as we have repeatedly asked," said AAA general manager F. Kenneth Schultze.

Smoke Detector Would Provide Fire Alert Alarm

A new ionization type smoke detector which permits early warning of a fire, in its incipient stage has been introduced by Walter Kidde & Co., Inc. in Belleville.

Called the "Fire-Alert" Model FT-100, the detector is the first solid state ionization type available which does not require licensing by the Atomic Energy Commission.

The heart of the "fire-alert" detector is the ionization chamber which contains a radium sulphate crystal, in a quantity smaller than that used to illuminate a watch dial. Each detector is listed by Underwriters' Laboratories for 60-foot spacing to protect an area of 3,600 square feet at minimum sensitivity.

"Fire-alert" operates on a sampling basis and signals an alarm when definite products of combustion, visible or invisible, are detected in the ionization chamber.

"Fire-alert" utilizes solid state circuitry and low voltage — 24 volts DC — wiring. A sensitivity control permits adjustment over a wide range of the detection spectrum. The system is self-supervised to signal any component failure. Power standby is

More Driving Care Is A Necessity

The New Jersey State Safety Council reminds motorists planning their summer vacations that a car heavily loaded with vacation gear demands more driving care.

According to George G. Tra-ver, executive vice president of the council, acceleration is slower, stopping distance longer, sway on curves greater, and the fatigue that may result from the long drives so common at the beginning and end of the vacation makes it easier for an accident to happen.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Last month the trade papers of the electronics industry were in an uproar about a tiny new development of an antenna, which was supposed to replace presently used outside, attic and so-called rabbit ear antennas for radio and TV sets.

About 3 years ago the Air Force began the development of a "sub-miniature integrated antenna" (SIA). It uses transistors and its aim is to replace larger antennas in military communications systems. It is claimed that it has a "potential" for replacing the roof top antenna.

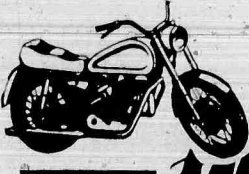

So far the writer has not seen such a device in use, just pictures. Needless to say that the manufacturers of conventional antennas for a moment were frightened, because if such a thing really works, they would be out of business overnight. The reports went as far as claiming that such an antenna could be sold for about $6. or $7.

As usual, it probably will turn out that the first reports were vastly exaggerated. It would certainly be a tremendous improvement if the contraptions on the roofs and the rabbit ears on the TV sets could be eliminated. The writer is most skeptical that this will be the case. No doubt you will read about this sooner or later in the newspapers, probably embroidered by some eager beaver reporter.

It is possible that this new device has application for space technology, which works on extremely high frequencies. Undoubtedly you have seen a short, thin antenna on top of taxicabs, about the thickness and size of a knitting needle. It may be possible that this may be replaced by the new development. As soon as more information will be available, we certainly are going to report on it without delay. We would love it if we could do away with the need for an outside antenna.

Deadline Tomorrow To Withdraw Funds From Saving Accounts, Postmaster Warns

LAST DAY — Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci and Superintendent of Window Services James A. Vitale display a few of the accounts still open and waiting for depositors to withdraw savings from the Postal Savings System. Deadline is tomorrow.

Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci is urging over 2,400 local depositors to withdraw money from the Postal Savings System by tomorrow's deadline for cashing Savings Certificates.

Benucci said there is over $350,000 in unclaimed accounts and if not withdrawn by the set date he must turn all funds over to the U.S. Treasury which will hold them in trust until proper claims are received.

Although depositors will not lose their money, the technicalities required to withdraw savings could involve much legalized red tape, caused delay and be annoying to the claimant, said the postmaster. He also reminded customers that their accounts accrued no interest since the Savings System was abolished on April 26, 1966.

Inaugurated in 1911, the Postal Savings System was established to aid persons living in rural areas that had no banking facilities and for the many immigrants who did not trust the then non-insured banks. Transactions were simple, a certificate was issued in the amount of deposit and surrendered upon withdrawal.

The Post Office was open six days a week, the banks five. The System paid two per cent interest on savings, the banks only one per cent. It offered protection and security and was guaranteed by the U.S. Government. Therefore it prospered and grew until it reached an all time high during World War II. The Newark Office reached its peak in 1947 with 10,000 accounts and over six million dollars on deposit.

Shortly after, the System began to lose its appeal and its depositors. Banks spread throughout every hamlet and village in the country, they raised interest rates to four and five per cent while the system remained at two per cent, they extended hours to accommodate depositors, new investment services were introduced, they became stable under Federal regulations and savings up to $15,000 are insured by Federal Deposit or Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporations.

However, as Postmaster Benucci said, "the Postal Savings System was not and never intended to be a bank. It was a service and the American public owes it a debt of gratitude for it introduced them to a better way of life. It did its job well."

Postmaster Benucci said his clerks will provide necessary forms and guidance to assist depositors in cashing their Savings Certificates and after the deadline date claimants can make the necessary arrangements to redeem Certificates by presenting them to the clerk at window 23, located in the lobby of the Main Post Office in Newark.

Insurance Policies Are Now More Confusing Than Ever

Ever read an insurance policy? how and when to use certain words in a vocabulary. Listeners don't want to work to understand. They don't receive a spurt of joyful satisfaction when someone says "utilize" instead of "use."

Communication would improve greatly if people would use (or is it utilize?) comfortable words, as Bergen Evans calls them.

"Businesses spend plenty of time encouraging executives to communicate clearly. Millions of dollars could be saved annually if people got their messages across with no misunderstanding."

Educators Critical

Educators have come in for their share of criticism in the jargon area. So troublesome is the problem of pedagogue that Dr. James LeSue has written a book to help parents understand what some educators are saying.

"Dr. LeSue explains underachiever like this: 'If you get a report that Junior is underachieving, it means he is (a) a lazy bum; (b) emotionally disturbed; or (c) afflicted with some other fault which prevents his doing as well in his studies as tests and other evidence indicate he should be able to do.'"

Educators, who are entrusted with communicating so many important concepts, must constantly be aware of the needs to use words that are easily digested. So too must everyone who wants to communicate.

The hardest job is the one that you put off until the last minute.

Why a Wig?

It's panic time, that's why! You have exactly 3 minutes to look poised and lovely. And your hair's a mess.

What to do? Why, pop on a wig and you're ready for action. A wig

Why not just any old wig? Because you care about how you look. Cheap wigs look cheap. Synthetic wigs have an unnatural gloss and hold a set poorly. They're stiff. But take care when wigs are merely marked "100% human hair" or "100% European made."

These are often wigs made of oriental or Indian hair manufactured in Europe. They lack bounce, fineness, beauty—all the virtues of European hair, especially Spanish hair.

What's so special about Spanish Hair? Spanish hair is soft and resilient. With a luster and natural beauty all its own.

Why? It could be the Spanish climate. Or the loving care with which Spanish women traditionally groom their hair. Whatever the reason, the result is pure enchantment. And every

Mona Lisa wig is made 100% from this beautiful Spanish human hair... unspoiled by harsh chemicals and overbleaching. That's why a Mona Lisa wig is longer, fuller and more lustrous. So natural, it delights the eye and touch. And defies detection. It takes only two to tangle

Mona Lisa wigs are made by skilled hands that care about the little details. Hair alignment, for instance. If it's not right, tiny burrs on each strand snag and catch on each other. The result? Matting and tangling. Test a wig for alignment by shaking it from side to side. A Mona Lisa wig always falls free and loose.

Mona Lisa ...

The world's finest wig Mona Lisa wigs and wiglets come in the world's most glamorous array of colors: 88 shimmering shades, including exclusive reds and frosted. In two price ranges—hand-made and semi-hand-made... to fit every budget.

Cost For Care of Aged Has Reduced In Jersey

Counties throughout New Jersey are now beginning to realize a reduction in cost of needy persons 65 and over who are patients in state hospitals for mental diseases and tuberculosis and are covered under the extended program of Medical Assistance for the Aged (AA).

Irving J. Engelman, director, state division of public welfare, said "the expanded program, made possible through the 1965 Social Security Amendments, will probably result in an annual savings of $4 million to the State and $2 million to the 21 Counties in New Jersey through increased federal spending."

Student To Get Aid For School

The newest project of the Women's Auxiliary of the Nutley Family Service Bureau is a scholarship to aid graduate students training for professional careers in social work.

Mrs. Randolph Bricker, outgoing Auxiliary president, said the Scholarship Committee headed by Mrs. Edward Maldonado, completed its study, evaluation, and recommendations, and the plan was approved by the Auxiliary Board.

Other members of the Committee were Mrs. Harold Butler; Mrs. William Farley; Mrs. David Jackman; Mrs. Richard J. Hantgen; Mrs. Harold Levin; Mrs. Boris Mangolds, and Mrs. Harry Saunders.

Ex-officio members were Mrs. Bricker; Mrs. Maximilian Perlman, incoming Auxiliary president and Miss Elizabeth A. O'Malley, executive director of the Bureau.

The scholarship for $600 has been given to the Graduate School of Social Work at Rutgers University, to be granted annually to a student in financial need, who lives in Nutley or Essex County and is interested in the Family Service field of social work.

The candidate may be a first or second year student in the 2-year graduate course leading to the degree of master of social work. The school is now in the process of reviewing the qualifications of candidates and will inform the Auxiliary of its selection for the academic year of 1967-68.

Clubwomen Briefed On Events

A Presidents' Council for briefing the 24 top executives of the Eighth District of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs was held recently at the Jersey City Woman's Club.

Attending the all-day session from the Woman's Club of Belleville were Mrs. Richard A. Shafter, president; Mrs. Arthur G. White, treasurer; and Mrs. William R. Kropp, federation secretary.

Plans for eighth district functions in the coming club year were discussed and announcements of the individual organizations were made. Mrs. Shafter announced that the Presidents' Tea will be March 11, 1968. Mrs. Frederick Ziebell, vice-president of the district and presiding officer, commended the Belleville club for their recent gift of the war memorial flagpole to the Town.

Other recent club activities include the presentation of 50 pounds of used nylons, 100 4th of July tray favors, and eight shopping bags full of used stamps to the Greystone Park Association. Used nylons are sold to converters and the funds realized supply televisions, radios, records and players for the patients at the hospital. A container is placed in the vestibule of the clubhouse for all contributions.

The tray favors were made by the members of the American Home Department under the chairmanship of Mrs. Arthur Touw. Approximately 75 pairs of eyeglasses, lenses, cases, and several items of gold jewelry were delivered to the New Eyes for the Needy, Inc. foundation in Short Hills to further their work among the poor that require optical assistance.

DIAMOND YEAR: For Belleville's noteworthy diamond fortunes, 1967 was a year that began with seven consecutive triumphs in pursuit of a second successful defense of the elusive Big Ten Conference crown.

That year then eroded as rain packed the schedule into a staggering nine games in a dozen days and the Bellboys fell into a team wide slump that saw seven of those nine contests evolve into losses (four by one run), and the Big Ten pennant and State Tournament finals hopes slip away.

And yet in the final accounting, although the log showed a somewhat humble 13-9 record that was marked by six out of seven one run decisions as losses and first round elimination from the Greater Newark Tournament, Belleville was still among the top diamond powers in the state. Only three teams were considered potent enough to place two men on the annals of the 1967 All-State baseball team—Greater Newark Tournament champ Morristown, Big Ten champ Nutley, and of course Belleville.

ALL-STATERS: Charley Cuomo and Jim Catalano were the Bellboy All-State representatives for the 1967 campaign to mark the second time in as many years that the Blue and Gold have been among the elite few who have placed a pair on the top: last year Art Sheridan and George DeBrowski had put Belleville on top along with Union and Parsippany then 1-2-3 finishers in the GNT; the year before that Len Luongo had been the lone Bellboy All-Stater to begin the string.

Excellent For Some

For Cuomo and Catalano it had been a year marked by excellence both offensively and defensively. In that first category the pair was head and shoulders above their mates boasting .429 and .418 marks respectively as the next nearest batter recorded a .333 mark; they also accounted for 51 runs batted in between them as compared to 125 for the team, for 21 extra base hits, 23 stolen bases, 19 walks, and defensively two errors.

This is the material that All-Staters are cut from as Cuomo and Catalano led the way throughout a season of disappointment, injury, and what might have been. Without Cuomo the inexperienced Belleville pitchers never would have been able to compile a staff ERA of 1.60, without his timely hitting while the rest of the club was slumping the mid-season disaster might have been worse.

Without Catalano a huge hole from the loss of an All-Stater would have opened in the infield, but instead it was filled in superlative style to give the Bellboys the finest fielding inner-defense in the state, and in Catalano's case one of the most potent offensively, without his late season batting surge—Belleville would not have been able to finish atop the mad scramble for runner-up slot in the Big Ten.

It is ironic that a catcher and a second baseman should be the All-State representatives—shades of Luongo and DeBrowski. Seems as if Belleville has a stranglehold on those two spots.

REVERSAL: Playing 18 of their 22 games within the confines of the Big Ten Conference, the Bellboys season most logically revolved around that loops play. Having finished atop its standings for the past two seasons, the Blue and Gold had entered 1967 determined to do what had never before been done—capture the Big Ten crown for a third consecutive year.

From the start it appeared as if the Bellboys were on course for that summit, but they were also on a collision course with the Nutley squad that had sparred valiantly yet vainly for the title in 1966 before finishing as the runner-up. In the first meeting of the two potential state giants, there was only one loss apiece on the team's ledger—each coming just prior to the pressure packed contest.

Heavy Rains

Rising to the occasion, the Bellboys pounded All-Stater Ken Ingalls for the third time in as many consecutive meetings over two years for a decisive 5-1 triumph and the percentage Big Ten lead. (The heavy rain that had plagued the state's diamond fortunes throughout April as seven games were played and 12 postponed and then continued into May had seen the Maroon in more contests by this juncture so a several point margin still prevailed in their favor—although, Belleville controlled the loss column.)

Both teams staggered out of the key clash somewhat let-down and as it were both tripped in the ensuing encounter—Belleville's error breaking a 25 game back slide for hapless Orange.

Now was the time for the pennant to be decided, a string of Belleville triumphs could have easily demoralized the already beaten Raiders and clinched the unprecedented crown, but such was not to be the case.

Instead Nutley borrowed the spirit from last year's Belleville pennant trail and began to make hay. Just as the '66 Blue and Gold had done, the Maroon began to gain momentum after the first Belleville-Nutley loss while the Bellboys lost three straight after the 5-1 triumph and began the seven of nine backslide.

A series of 1-0 failures followed and then the die was cast for as the second meeting of the two clubs neared, it had little significance—a Nutley crown had been backed into thanks to the floundering Bellboys. A year ago the script had seen the pennant clinched in a somewhat earlier second meeting. The tables had been turned.

LAST DITCH: In fact, the Belleville backslide almost went beyond the scope of the script as a charging Montclair squad moved into the second slot before Belleville could win three of the last four league games, the only loss being 2-1 to Nutley, to regain the runner-up position.

And so it was that the neighboring baseball fortunes came to an end with a reversal of form but still a one-two finish. Both Belleville and Nutley were playing with predominately senior teams during the 1967 campaign, neither has any outstanding prospects coming up.

Tide Turns

The tide has turned from Belleville's baseball fortunes most likely returning to the power of Montclair where thrice the Mountie legions have been flouted of late. The most potent second half of the year club during 1967 will be the 1968 Big Ten champ.

ALL STARS: Returning to the All-Star team selections that marked Belleville's 1967 reign, several other names are still to be added to ranks of the honored. Perhaps the most significant of those not yet mentioned, would have to be a boy who has seen and taken part in it all since coming up to the Varsity as a sophomore, Rich San Filippo.

Having captured an All-County and second team All-State berth last year as a junior, the Belleville captain appeared to have the world on a string as the 1967 season opened.

The "Best All Around BHS Athlete" as he was deemed, was aiming for personal and team goals as the season began. As that winning streak and a .400 average matured it appeared as if both would be realized. But then things took a turn for the worst, the team started floundering, and just Belleville enters a crucial five game in five day stretch, the key to the Blue and Gold infield was injured. Sliding into third for one of the team leading 16 stolen bases that marked his year, San Filippo jammed his thumb.

Painful Accident

This accident made it painful for the three year vet to bat or field and yet he continued as his batting average plummeted somewhat, a hip injury was activated from the grid wars and the All-Star hopes died.

Such hopes die hard, especially in San Filippo's case. For here was an athlete who had taken a big part in the two crowns and then saw a third frittered away, here was an athlete who had missed but one of the 76 games

Herman Wische Named New Jersey Director Of Health and Physical Education Association

Herman Wische, Belleville's director of health, physical education and athletics, has been unanimously elected as president of the New Jersey Director Association for Health and Physical Education for the 1967-68 term.

The association is composed of full time and part time directors or supervisors of health and physical education from most, accredited New Jersey public school districts.

The New Jersey City Directors Association for Health and Physical Education was established to discuss health and physical education policies and objectives and to promote programs that will aid in the total development of the whole child in our public schools. Recent topics of discussion, for example, have included sex education and its role in the public school.

Best Suited

Wische is a man well suited for the honor that his colleagues have bestowed upon him. Having served in the field for 35 years, the respected Belleville administrator has a name that is related throughout the state with the highest form of leadership in the health and physical education field and sportsmanship in athletics.

Wische will be succeeding Daniel Testa of the Vineland Public School system as president of the important association. Under established rules the association will hold regular meetings in the fall, winter, and spring of the school year; with the fall meeting being held in conjunction with the New Jersey Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation and the New Jersey Education Association.

Prior to each of these regular conclaves, Wische will undertake considerable administrative work as he functions closely with association consultant Dr. Everett L. Hebel of the state Department of Education. Special meetings may also be called at Wische's discretion.

Accredited

"Any full time non-teaching director or supervisor of health and physical education in accredited New Jersey public schools may become a member of this association, the By-Laws state, providing he is a member of the New Jersey Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

"Any part-time director or supervisor of health and physical education in accredited New Jersey public schools may become a member of this Association providing he is a member of the New Jersey Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation and recommended by a majority vote of the Association."

"Membership is limited to one representative from each school district."

Other New Jersey City Directors Association for Health and Physical Education officers elected at the Annual Spring meeting along with Belleville's Wische were: vice - president, John Crown, Union County Regional School District; secretary, Alfred Jakucs, Linden Public Schools; treasurer, Anthony Boechiere, West New York Public Schools; public relations chairman, Leonard Dileo, Trenton Public Schools; and membership chairman, William Burcat, Camden Public Schools.

Congratulations are in order for all of these distinguished administrators, upon their election, especially to the new head of the association—Herman B. Wische.

Belleville Students At College Achieve Success With Studies And Cross Country Adventures

Though the number of Belleville students enrolled at Paterson State College, Wayne, is a small one, two Belleville High School graduates have carved a niche at the top for themselves in student activities. Al Paganelli and Bob Moore have more than succeeded in both their studies and in extra-curricular activities.

As students both Al and Bob have comfortably climbed over the 3.0 grade point average at the completion of their sophomore year. Al is majoring in Biology and minoring in the physical sciences while Bob's major is Social Studies and his minor is Speech Arts.

Bob was voted into the office of Student Government President for the 1967-68 year by an overwhelming majority of his peers. He was also elected co-captain of the Men's Fencing Team. Through long hours of practice and determination Bob has risen from the number five man on the Pioneers track Cross Country squad to the number two position. With two years of college to go, Bob's potential as a student and athlete is unbounded.

Editor of Paper

Al Paganelli was elected editor-in-chief of the Paterson State College newspaper, The Beacon, for the coming year. After playing one year of J.V. basketball for Paterson, he decided to concentrate on cross country. This decision proved to be a sound one as he has the number one position on the Pioneer team nailed down.

He has received honorable mention on the state college conference all-star team and garnered this year's most valuable performer trophy for the sport at Paterson state.

Bob and Al have not attained all their goals, however. Both hope to boost their averages in their major fields. Bob would like a shot at an NAA Cross Country Championship medal while Al would like to set his sights on a new course record and all time win record at Paterson State. Both Belleville boys will settle for nothing else than an all-out effort to come out on top again.

"Focus Of Change"—Belleville Grads End 4-Year High School Career

The final weeks of school for a National Merit finalist and the Belleville High School's recent winner of the $4,000 National Newark and Essex Bank Scholarship, some thoughtful, some exciting, and others relaxing.

The last week was spent preparing for and carrying through graduation exercises and enjoying what may be for many the last few moments of comradeship among the seniors, considering how ways lead to way.

The senior trip was generally a happy occasion despite rain which drizzled and poured over Culvermere in Sussex County. It was the fifth annual trip.

Excellent Facilities

The facilities at Culvermere were adequate for a day of fun and relaxation. Students had a variety of sports—baseball, basketball, tennis, swimming, boating, water skiing, golf, horseback riding, etc. There was a large group of faculty to chaperone all day.

At noon a barbecue was held on the beach. Hamburgers, salad, beans, cake, watermelon and a beverage were served.

At five o'clock students changed from sport clothes to dinner clothes and a full course dinner was served. Following dinner an orchestra was provided and students danced until 10 o'clock.

The buses left Belleville High School at 8 a.m. and left Culvermere at 10 p.m.

The entire trip was under the control of the high school and all students obeyed the regulations. It was understood that no alcoholic beverage could be purchased or used during the entire trip.

The scholastic awards assembly was held recently at Belleville High School. Herman Knuppel was the master of ceremonies for the occasion. The first award was presented to Gail Marra, who is the outgoing Booster Club president. Next Jane Tremel received the Tri-Town Scholarship. A series of business awards were presented to the following people: Jane Casale, Margurite Russel Business Award; Carolyn Biale, P.T.A. Award; Joanne Penala, Steno I Award; Carol Senesky, Steno II; Joyce Sugelis, Typing I; Lois Weecham, Bookkeeping I and II and Typing II; and Marie Hasal Accounting Basics.

Peter Greco, outgoing Student Council President, was presented with a personalized gavel by W. Ralph Correll. Also, Dave Jones was given a gift for his efforts as head of the stage crew. throughout his three varsity seasons while ironically collecting 75 hits for a one per game total and stealing 48 bases in 50 attempts. Perhaps more than any one else, San Filippo typifies the disappointment that marked Belleville's second place finish.

ALL STATE: In attaining All-State status, Cuomo and Catalano were cited thusly:

"Defensively, there wasn't a catcher in the state to match Cuomo. Only eight runners in the tough Big Ten dared to try to steal against him. Only two were successful, and they did it against the pitcher.

"He also was a solid hitter, compiling a .429 average on 30 hits on 70 at bats. He knocked in 26 runs. He had six doubles, three triples, and two homers. Cuomo scored 25 times, stole 13 bases, walked 13 times. Oh yes, he was charged with one error.

"Catalano also was charged with an error this season. Not even an All-State infielder is perfect. The Belleville second baseman tried pitching one game. He went eight scoreless innings, then gave up a run in the ninth on a squeeze bunt and lost.

Versatility Proven

"But he proved his versatility. He was a robust hitter—.28 for 67 for a .418 average. He knocked in 25 runs. Five doubles and three triples helped. He scored 15 times and stole 10 bases."

Before leaving the All-State ranks one other name should be mentioned, and that a rather familiar one in the form of Art Sheridan, a 1966 BHS All-Stater who had used up his high school eligibility and went to Croyned Hall where he was to earn All-Private school honors as a hurler.

ALL-COUNTY: In the County three separate debonairers are used to appraise baseball talent. No Belleville player managed the distinction of becoming a unanimous choice for all three County squads, but four players were honored. Coming closest to the unanimous distinction was Cuomo who received the nod on two fronts and whose accomplishments have already been outlined.

The other three one time County were Catalano, who went on to All-State honors, San Filippo, who was a third team All-Stater and Dave Rothwell.

San Filippo's injury marked year ended with a .329 average that included 22 hits, seven for extra bases, 16 steals and 19 RBI's. In the field the key to the best infield in the state was charged with two errors.

Golden Glove

Rothwell was known throughout the County as the man with the golden glove and perhaps it is significant that the All-County team that he as well as San Filippo were chosen to was selected solely through the votes of rival coaches.

In his second Varsity season, Rothwell was undoubtedly the best fielding third baseman in the State, as he accumulated just one error and saved many a hit with his remarkable stops and rifle shot across the diamond. At the plate, Rothwell encountered his All-State downfall with a .291 average that included six extra base hits, 16 walks and 19 RBI's.

Perhaps it is also fitting that the only other Bellboy to receive any sort of County mention should be Jim Serritella. For in drawing an Honorable Mention berth in his second varsity season, the outfielder retained a niche in the Belleville record book. That niche was earned not in a .308 average, seven double, three triple, one homer, varsity year, but in a late starting 32 hit junior campaign that ended with Serritella and Sheridan in possession of the school record for the most season hits at 32.

And so it was that 1967 baseball came to a close for Belleville, two All-Staters, four All-Counties, an honorable mention, a second place finish at 11-7, and a memory of what might have been.

Belleville Cindermen Under New Coach Complete Spring Season Successfully

By EUGENE HARVEY

One sport in the spring Belleville hasn't heard about too much is the tough, competitive, outdoor track and field.

The team under a new coach, Paul Stern, and with very few experienced men proved that hard work can do the trick. The team had a winning season with a record of eight wins, four losses and one tie.

We started out the season with two losses to Passaic and West Side. Then with a rainout week we missed Orange. Central and Vailsburg were next and the team found themselves with a 2-2 record.

Belleville came up against a very tough East Orange team. They defeated us by a margin of 64-53 which surprised a great deal of men, and proved we weren't a pushover. After E.O. the team started moving in a positive direction defeating Nutley, Bloomfield, and West Orange, before halting the streak with an interesting duel meet with Orange that ended in a tie.

That didn't hurt us too much, but with another rainout meet, our next encounter was with Garfield, and because of a freak accident Belleville dropped the meet by seven points. But this didn't affect the team's spirit.

In freezing rain and sharp winds Belleville went into Kearny and upset them. The very next day Belleville rode to Irvington and encountered their first tri-meet running against Irvington and Edison Tech in which we defeated both teams and thus finished with an 8-4-1 record.

Senior Lettermen

Some of the senior lettermen who will be sorely missed will be Steve Ferrugelli who turned in a beautiful job on the high and low hurdles. He also captured the school record in the low hurdles.

Ralph Serio also did a great job in the hurdles. Steve and Ralph were usually 1-2 in their races.

Bill Davis who did a bit of everything proved himself one of the better ones.

Pete Greco and Joe Rodriguez

the sprint men of Belleville who did an outstanding job in the 100 and 220 yard dash. Peter also tied the school record several times with 10 flat time.

Eugene Harvey who had a 10-1 individual record in the 440-yard run held his own while running the fastest 440 in Belleville stadium (52.4) and fastest in Belleville History (51.2) breaking the old record of 52.0.

Len Izzo was the strong stalwart in the 880 yard run. After getting off to a slow start he came back for the team in fine fashion.

Rich Pepe was the pole vaulter who jumped a good 10 feet, 6 inches. He was a tough competitor and god hustler.

McDonald's Restaurant Reports 'Excellent' Business At Opening

Belleville families flocked to the new McDonald's restaurant at 663 Washington Avenue on its opening day, as residents responded eagerly to the idea of hamburgers on a peedy self-service basis, reported Stan Sloane and John Kornblith, operators of the new McDonald's.

"The first day's business was excellent," said Sloane and Kornblith. "And tremendous is the only word for the way Belleville families welcome McDonald's into the community. That is especially heartening because our aim is to become a part of Belleville, a permanent community service just like the grocery or the neighborhood drug store. The wonderful support residents gave our opening indicated that we are well on our way toward that important goal."

The new McDonald's in Belleville is a different kind of restaurant, keeping prices low by streamlining service and limiting its menu with emphasis on the hamburger. Clean, quiet, and well-kept, it is designed to cater to the family trade.

The new restaurant is the newest addition to the nationwide chain which now numbers over 900 units across the country. Nationally, the chain has sold three billion hamburgers since it was started and is selling them at the rate of two million a day. The first McDonald's hamburger restaurant was started in Des Plaines, Illinois in 1955 — with the same quality, rigid standards of supplies and operation today as in 1955, and followed with uniformity throughout the chain.

The menu is limited to items McDonald's has found that a family is most likely to order. Customers place their orders at a self-service window and receive their food in wrappers so that they may take it to car or home — a streamlined system which not only kept down overhead by eliminating carhops, but cuts out two other nuisances, tipping and waiting.

"Exhibition cooking" proved to be a big attraction at the opening.

Bob DePass Now Pennsy Crew Star

Robert DePass, former oarsman at Belleville High School, has been awarded freshman numbers for his outstanding performance on the University of Pennsylvania freshman crew this spring.

The freshmen had a fine season, defeating all their regatta opponents except invincible Harvard and finishing first at the IRA in Syracuse on June 17.

DePass is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis A. DePass of 2 Marion Ct. in Belleville.

ing of the new McDonald's. The spotless kitchen is behind a big plate glass window wall, and customers flocked there to see the gleaming stainless steel equipment and watch McDonald's specially-trained crew turn out orders at the clip of a full meal — burger, French fries and milk shake — in just 50 seconds.

Golfing Courtesy Makes Fairways Safer for Duffers

Crazy antics on the golf course are taking an increasing accident toll, warns Joseph A. Ayares, New Jersey safety coordinator of the Allstate Insurance Companies.

Players run their motorized carts into trees, bombard one another with golf balls, clobber their fellows with clubs and invite electrocution by playing during thunderstorms.

Most golfing injuries, Ayares says, are inflicted by the golf ball that drops from out of nowhere. Such injuries are often slight, for the ball has traveled far enough to lose its initial speed. But at close range a ball can deliver a fatal knockout blow.

Common Courtesy

"Generally these accidents are caused by a lack of common sense and courtesy. Golf is essentially not a dangerous sport, it's only the players who make it hazardous," Ayares points out.

"The rules of golfing etiquette provide the basis for personal conduct from tee to green, but they also help every player avoid the potential accident hazards which are present on all golf courses," says Ayares.

With most golf courses so crowded as a result of the great interest in the game today, Ayares urges golfers to observe the safety rules which are followed by the pros who spend much of their time on the fairways and greens of courses from coast to coast.

Know and obey the rules of golfing etiquette.

Respect fellow players by allowing plenty of room when playing off the tee.

Clear Fairway

Never play until the fairway is clear.

Always play the ball farthest from the hole. Remain clear of others who are swinging clubs for fairway shots.

Always be alert for wild shots onto your fairway. Consider possible danger areas if your shot goes astray.

If you hit into another fairway, use special caution when retrieving your ball. Yield to persons playing there. Return to your fairway as soon as you play your shot.

Never shoot to a green until the players ahead of you have left the putting area. Once your group has "putted out," leave the green as quickly as possible.

Power carts save time, effort and heart strain. But careless operation can cause an accident if turned sharply or driven on steep inclines or in rough areas, they are prone to tip.

At the first sign of rain, take shelter. Lightning strikes most often during the muggy lull preceding rain. Standing in the open, the golfer is often the highest object in the area — making him a perfect target for lightning. The nearest lone tree is a booby trap. Take shelter in a building or crouch in a ditch or sand trap.

comes a permanent, constructive community service. In addition, the restaurant is equipped to turn out big orders for meetings, picnics, and parties, and Sloane and Kornblith hope local organizations will turn to McDonald's for large quantities of burgers and milk shakes.

"We hope the families who crowded our opening will be back," Sloane and Kornblith said. McDonald's is built on repeat family trade. That is why we emphasize high standards and our own 'good neighbor' policy. And that is why the chain picked Belleville for its newest restaurant.

Belleville is the kind of community which is the backbone of McDonald's specialized service — a solid growing family community with plenty of churches, schools and civic spirit.

"We intend to become a permanent, constructive part of Belleville, and are pleased with the way so many local families welcome us on opening day."

State Orchestra Has Performed Before Many

The New Jersey Symphony Orchestra and its affiliated organizations performed before a record audience of more than 160,000 people during its 1966-67 season, the most successful in its history.

This was announced recently in a report on the recently concluded season, issued by Henry P. Becton, president of the New Jersey Symphony.

The orchestra itself, which is New Jersey's only full professional symphony orchestra, gave 13 performances during the year. Phil Grippaldi Wins National Weightlifting Championship

Phil Grippaldi, Belleville's own Hercules, has just won the National Senior Weightlifting Championship.

Lifting in the middle-heavy-weight class Phil pressed, 350 pounds, snatched 295, and jerked 300. His 360-pound-press was a new meet record which he now adds to his National Senior record and his Worlds Junior record. Phil just barely missed a 400 pound clean and jerk on his last lift. He actually had this incredible weight to arms length but just failed to hold it.

Last year, when Phil was sponsored by the Belleville Kiwanis on his trip to California for the Junior Nationals, he took second place, he then took second place in the 1966 Seniors, and then a second in the North Americans. Bob Cook, Supt. of Recreation and lifting coach, predicted then that Phil would be the best in the nation this year.

So far he has won the Junior Nationals at York, Pennsylvania and now the Seniors. He has already been informed that he is to compete as a member of the United States team in the Pan-American games to be held in Winnipeg, Canada this year. It is almost a certainty that he will also compete in the 1967 World Championships, and as Bob Cook predicted five years ago, on the 1968 U S A Olympic team.

Grippaldi is only 20 years old. His future in lifting is almost unlimited, he attends the University of Illinois on a weightlifting scholarship. Perhaps the greatest thing about this ambassador from Belleville is that he has made hundreds of friends among the lifters against whom he has competed and thousands of friends among the audiences that Phil would be the best in

Recreation Peanut League Nearing Season's Finale

In a season that has been upset by rain the recreation peanut baseball league is working toward its close. The Bombers and the Indians share the top standing, each with seven wins and no losses.

This situation is especially interesting in that the two rival teams are coached by brothers, the Bombers by Elmer Haug and the Indians by Robert Haug.

Two games remain for each of these leaders, they must still play each other and the Bombers must get by the White Sox while the Indians must still face the formidable Yankees (3-1-2).

A tremendous battle looms for third place in the league. The Yankees have the inside track but they are being hard pressed by the Cubs and the Clippers, each with 3 - 3 standings and the Pirates must be considered with their 1-3 status.

Even the Giants (2-4), the White Sox (2-1-4) and the Dodgers 1-4 can aspire the third place.

Once again the coaches of these embryo ball players have done a superb job in teaching the game to over two hundred boys. A great deal of credit is due these men who give so much of their time in the interest of our youth.

The coaches of the various teams are as follows: Cardinals — Dave McCarthy; Dodgers — Joe Fomartotto; White Sox — Iggy Visicaro; Giants — Mike Swinarski; Pirates — Bob Jackson; Clippers — Richard Baker; Cubs — Christie Albanese; Yankees — Lou Schreiber; Indians — Robert Haug and Bombers — Elmer Haug.

League standings have little to do with the real purpose of this league. In Peanut League, every boy gets ample opportunity to play and the coaches consider the improvement of players more to their credit than their league standing.

Of course, the boys play to win and the tension is bound to mount as they close in on the end of the season and aim for the championship and the four play-off positions.

Even the Giants (2-4), the White Sox (2-1-4) and the Dodgers 1-4 can aspire the third place.

Area Recreation Softball Leagues Are Competing

Frenchy's softball team has moved out to a 4-0 lead in the Recreation Department Monday Softball League.

In second place at 3-1 is Stash's while Ryans crowd them with a 3-2 standing. Sporting a .500 is the Varsity team then come Rosell's at 1-3 followed by the Fortys — five who are seeking their first win.

In the Recreation Tuesday League its the Robsons, out in front with an unblemished 7-0 standing.

The Hill crests, last years champions are at 4-2 and remain a threat. On the low side of the league are the Trojans 2-5, Belleville Political and Social Club No. 2 team 1-5 and the Frankys 0-7.

Champions of these two leagues will compete along with the champs of the Thursday evening Recreation Benevolent Softball League for a Town - Wide Championship.

Mints and Mint Marks

A mint mark is a small letter normally found on the reverse side of a coin. The Lincoln Cent is one exception to this rule. This mint mark is only found on coins struck at the various Branch Mints. The coins struck at Philadelphia do not carry a mint mark. (Except 1942 through 1945 silver five cent pieces) The letters to designate the various mints are as follows:

C—Charlotte, North Carolina—Gold only. CC—Carson City, Nevada. D—Dahlonaga, Georgia—Gold only. D—Denver, Colorado. O—New Orleans, Louisiana. S—San Francisco, California. P—Philadelphia, Pa.

The mint mark is a very important symbol to the collector, due to the fact that the coinage at the various Branch Mints is usually much smaller than at Philadelphia and many of these Branch Mint pieces are quite scarce.

A point of interest should be made here in reference to a mint mark being removed or added to a coin by an unscrupulous individual to add to the value of a particular coin.

An example of an altered or removed mint mark would be a 1922-D cent, which has a value of $2.00. With the "D" removed would increase the value of this coin to $35.00, although genuine 1922 plain cents do exist and can be easily identified by a professional numismatist.

The genuine 1922 plain cent was produced in the Denver mint. On some of the Denver cents of that year the die became clogged with foreign matter in the area of the mint marks; thus eliminating the mint mark and creating a scarce variety.

QUESTION: I have a $20.00 Gold piece. Can you tell me its value?

ANSWER: The value of this coin would depend on the date, condition and mint mark. Usually $20.00 gold pieces run from $45.00 and up, depending upon the above mentioned factors.

QUESTION: I have heard that the Franklin Half Dollar is the only U.S. coin to carry the advertising of a private firm. I have not been able to find this advertising. How is it possible for this to be and where is it located?

ANSWER: The advertisement is barely visible to the naked eye. It appears on the reverse of the coin, on the cracked side of the Liberty Bell. The signature of the firm which manufactured this bell appears at the top of the crack in the bell. The manufacturer's name, Pass and Stow,

Upsala Football Training Season Opens In Fall

When the Upsala College football training season opens next September, six of the Vikings' outstanding gridmen will not be on the scene, having graduated this week.

Upsala's new basketball coach, Richie Buckelew, is more fortunate than football mentor John Hooper. Only one Viking cager, Captain Wilk Mahland of Wood-Ridge, graduated this year.

Soriano Praised By Councilmen For Service

Jack Soriano, town attorney, was commended by the Town Council at its final meeting Monday, for his "untiring efforts" in behalf of the community.

The official commendation falls only a few short days before Soriano will cease to become attorney on July 1, . . . or at least under the council form of government which expires July 8.

Soriano said in thanking the council, "Belleville is an exciting and vibrant community, a town with real people who are good and hard working."

The council agreed that Soriano's accomplishment over the past two years, including his successful litigation of matters involving the town in the courts of the state as well as giving of this "outstanding legal knowledge to the council during its deliberation on matters involving the problems of the municipality, deserves commendation."

The council went on to extend its best wishes to the attorney for a "long and successful career, filled with many years of good health and happiness."

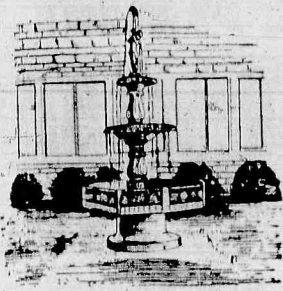

Councilman Ralph Casale added to the council's praise by stating, "Among the small duties of life I hardly know of any more important than that of not praising where praising is due. I would be remiss, if I did not commend our handsome attorney for his dedication, devotion and exceptionally good task."

"I want to thank you for the great job," Casale said.

Newest Museum Art Adventures On View

"Knockout" colors and the unconventional in art characterize the latest additions to the Newark Museum's exhibition, recent trends in art, now on view.
Nine works, including Pop and Hard-Edge paintings, sculpture and constructions, are included in the show, which continues through September 17.

Vibrant shades of orange in combination with other colors make a visual splash at one end of the gallery, where works by three painters of the "systemic" or "hard-edge" school are shown. These include The Nurburg Ring by Nicholas Krushenick, who uses hard black lines and super-colors to produce a strong emotional impact; Blue Line by Larry Zox; and Mercury (Ray Parker's green in the shadow of red), one of artist Kenneth Noland's bright "chev-ron" paintings.

Few office-holders resign from jobs with good salaries and little work.

Male Nurse Says He's Proud of His Profession

He doesn't wear a starched white cap, but Curtis Freed of Cedar Knolls is proud to be called "nurse." Some of his classmates are from Belleville.

Freed, received a B.S. degree from Rutgers College of Nursing yesterday, is pleased to be a man in a woman's world. In fact, he hopes to encourage other young men to join him in the nursing profession.

Despite the fact that he was the only man in his college, Freed shrugs off the idea that nursing isn't a male profession.

"In our society we look on nursing as the role of the woman," he said, "but in past history and in other societies it has been the role of the man."

"There is a great need for male nurses, particularly in psychiatric nursing," he points out.

It was Freed's own experience as an attendant in a psychiatric hospital which first sparked his interest in nursing, and he hopes to work in the field of psychiatric nursing.

Freed was born in Pennsylvania and lived there in the town of Verndorf until the completion of his second year of high school.
He then went to work, completing his high school education in 1957 at the Temple University Adult High School.

After trying his skills at a number of jobs, he joined the staff of Brattleboro Retreat, a psychiatric hospital in Vermont. It was there that Freed decided he wanted to make psychiatric nursing his career.

"I plan to go on to graduate work in psychiatric nursing in a year or two," he said. "After graduation I will teach in the in-service program at Orange Memorial Hospital in Orange, which concentrates on staff development and new nursing ideas and techniques."

Freed, the father of two children, reports that he adjusted easily to being the only man at the Rutgers College of Nursing.

"I felt very comfortable in school," he said. "The faculty and students accepted the situation readily. But even though the faculty would alert the hospitals in advance that a male student would be coming, patients invariably referred to me as 'Doctor' or thought I was an attendant."

Freed believes that the idea of male nurses is going to become more widely accepted, and hopes that high school guidance counselors will begin to encourage young men to become nurses.

Woman Fined For Loitering

A North Arlington woman was fined $25 in Nutley Criminal Court after she pleaded guilty to loitering and creating a disturbance on Centre Street.

Fined was Miss Arleen Ray, 37, of 5 Echart Street, North Arlington. Patrolman Joseph Samples told Magistrate Edwin J. C. Joerg the woman was under the influence of alcohol.

The incident took place at 11:00
June 3 at the Tidewater service station at Union Avenue and Centre Street.

Planetarium Program To Show Solar System

A special noontime planetarium performance will be given at the Newark Museum today at 12:30 p.m. by Gary Swangin, acting planetarium supervisor.

In addition to a performance of the current show, Visitors to the Solar System, Swangin will demonstrate the Copernican Planetarium, a recent gift to the Museum by Mr. and Mrs.
Charles W. Engelhard.

The Copernican Planetarium is an electrically operated instrument which shows planetary movements and the Solar System. An observer may watch events in the Solar System take place in a greatly speeded-up sequence. Years become seconds and the arrangements of planets at any given month and year can be predicted and observed.

Unity Institute Presents Musical Satire Program

A musical satire program will be presented at the Montclair High School Auditorium on Thursday evening, October 12, on the Unity Concert Course stage. Entitled "An Evening with P.D.Q.
Bach," the program, which is under the direction of "Professor" Peter Schickele and which features a full complement of musicians, is a parody of classical music styles and conventions.

The initial presentations of the program in New York at Town brought forth articles in Time, Life, and Newsweek, as well as the New York press, leading to the current national tour.

"P.D.Q. Bach is the name of a dubious son of the great Johan Sebastian Bach. Many people suspect he is the invention of "Professor" Schickele, and most of the "music" on the program is ascribed to his authorship. Among these "compositions" are such works as the cantata "Iphigenia in Brooklyn," the "Perversion for Bicycle, Balloon and Bag pipes" and the "Unbegun ETS Symphony."

These works are performed by an instrumental ensemble called the Royal P.D.Q. Bach Festival Orchestra, one of whose many bizarre instruments is a left-hand ed sewer flute, which Life Magazine described as "a masterpiece of intricate plumbing."

Schickele himself is a former instructor at the Julliard School of Music who decided to have some fun with music after years each work on the program with an incoherent lecture about its history and significance.

The Unity Concert Course will present the following events during the 1967 - 1968 Season: Philadelphia Chamber Symphony on ember 3, Vienna Choir Boys on January 6, Royal Philharmonic Orchestra of London on January 21, National Ballet on March 21, Mildred Miller on April 5, and Andre Watts on April 26.

For reservations and tick information, call Barbara Russell, director of Unity Institute, 67 Church Street, Montclair.

Think small.

Our little car isn't so much of a novelty any more.

A couple of dozen college kids don't try to squeeze inside it.

The guy at the gas station doesn't ask where the gas goes.

Nobody even stares at our shape.

In fact, some people who drive our little flier don't even think about 27 miles to the gallon is going any great guns.

Or using 5 pints of oil instead of 5 quarts.

Or never needing anti-freeze.

Or racking up about 40,000 miles on a set of tires.

That's because once you get used to some of our economies, you don't even think about them any more.

Except when you squeeze into a small parking spot. Or renew your small insurance.

Or pay a small repair bill. Or trade in your old VW for a new one.

Think it over.

A federal grant of $68,031 will be used to implement a statewide project to improve the teaching of the arts in New Jersey classrooms, the State Education Department has announced.

"Classroom Renaissance," a project designed to revitalize school programs in art, music, dance and other creative forms, will be administered through the Dover Town school district, which is the recipient of the federal grant. The project was developed jointly by the Art Education Association, and the Division of Curriculum and Instruction of the Department of Education.

There will be several phases of the project which gets underway this month and runs through January, 1968.

George Fenwick Now An Upsala Director

George A. Fenwick of Short Hills has been appointed director of administrative services at Upsala College, it was announced.

An employee of the college since 1950, Fenwick has been director of development since 1956. He previously served Upsala as director of public relations and executive secretary of the Alumni Association.

In his new assignment, which he will begin on July 1, Fenwick will be the college's chief executive officer for non-academic affairs. The new post will include responsibility for campus planning, construction of new buildings, personnel, purchasing, and other business services.
