Chamber Of Commerce Will Sponsor Cavalcade

DALE CARNEGIE COURSE — Sam Keller, a representative of the Dale Carnegie Institute, announced that the first class of the 14-week course begins tonight at 7 p.m. at Clara Maass Hospital. Keller has spent months with the local Chamber of Commerce recruiting class members for the course.

Local Dale Carnegie Course Begins Tonight

The Dale Carnegie Course will be held under the sponsorship of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, beginning at 7 p.m. tonight at the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. Sessions of the course will be held in a classroom, but those taking the course should come to the main entrance of the hospital where guides will direct them to class room.

Sam Keller of the Leadership and Sales Training Institute of New Jersey is Essex area manager of the Institute.

Over a million people have taken the course in the United States and many have benefited from the experience. Keller has been working with chamber officials for the past two months in developing the enrollment for the course.

Leadership Abilities
Developing the leadership ability of Belleville residents, merchants and industrialists is the latest goal of the local Chamber of Commerce as it embarks with its Dale Carnegie course within the community.

The 14-week study sessions are expected to be held once a week from 7 to 11 p.m.

Harry French, Chamber of Commerce director, told a group of industrialists recently that the studies would be tailored to the individual and would do wonders toward providing a high calibre of leadership in Belleville.

Aimed primarily at the businessman and industrialist, the program is designed to improve customer relationships, to strengthen the skills and attitudes of personnel, and to create a more powerful supervisory force.

It also hopes to foster better personal development in the area.

To introduce local leaders to the Dale Carnegie program the chamber held a series of meetings and luncheon. At one of these "inspirational clinics for business owners and executives only, Samuel Keller, a representative of the Dale Carnegie program, demonstrated how quickly and easily an organization could be made to operate with greater efficiency, produce a greater volume of business at more profit with fewer headaches.

Keller told the businessmen that his course, now widely used and endorsed by major industrial installations throughout the country, could develop "latent leadership abilities and attitudes."

Event Is Set For Sept. 28

Of the 29 booths which will form Belleville's proposed "Cavalcade of Progress" this month, only four remain available for rental by local industries or businesses which would care to exhibit in the Chamber of Commerce project.

Harry French, Chamber director, said that "an impressive list of exhibitors will participate in the showcase."

Educational
The cavalcade will provide the community with an educational as well as promotional glimpse of what Belleville industries and businesses have to offer will highlight this community's very own exposition, to be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce this month.

The showcase of the town's installations will be geared to show "what Belleville does, what Belleville sells, and what Belleville offers as a place to live and work."

Detailing plans for the proposed event, French said, "Belleville has much to be proud of in addition to its long history. Our industries play an important role in national defense, space exploration, research and in the building of an ever expanding economy."

Community Can Be Proud

"The community can be proud of its homes, its schools, its recreational and cultural activities in addition to fine spirit of cooperation between its various religious and ethnic groups."

French said the Cavalcade is a booth type exposition where in Belleville can be displayed for "what we do and what we have the education and enjoyment of the public."

Most of the booths are 8 x 8 feet but there are smaller ones, he said. Booth backgrounds and awnings will consist of draping material supported by aluminum pipes that are joined together with special screw-on aluminum fittings.

Opening September 28

Booths will be completely installed and ready for exhibitors to set up their displays on the morning of September 28. The show would open that afternoon at 2:30.

The chamber will furnish a standard name sign for each booth. The divider between the booths can be eliminated where an exhibitor desires two or more booths together.

Only chamber members may be exhibitors. Attendance based on the two previous showcases are expected to exceed 15,000 persons.

PRIMARY ELECTION FIGHT IS SET FOR TUESDAY

WASHINGTON VISITORS — Deborah Rittacco of Belleville (above) was one of the Essex County winners of the "We Must Care" poster contest to be congratulated by Congressman Peter Rodino during a Washington trip. "We Must Care" is an organization dedicated to finding ways of preventing the sexual abuse of children. Other Essex winners with Rodino are Michael Kret, Nutley and Steven Werner of Orange. The children enjoyed a guided tour of the FBI Building.

Sally Hood Attacks Smith's 'Gag Rule'

Mrs. Sally Hood, a local resident, criticized Mayor Kenneth D. Smith for creating what she described as a "gag rule."

Mrs. Hood referred to Mayor Smith's ruling which prohibits residents from speaking for more than five minutes at public hearings. She said that it is very difficult to ask complete questions and receive complete answers in five short minutes.

Mrs. Hood said she did not know whether Mayor Smith's decision at a meeting. "Next time I'll let them arrest me," she said she would check into the Smith's ruling was unfair.

Mayor Smith recently ordered a police officer to seat Mrs. Hood when she refused to sit down and stop addressing the commission at a meeting. "Next time I'll let them arrest me," she said she would check into the Smith's ruling was unfair.

Active Area GOP Race

With the summer election of the town Board of Commissioners the local political arena will involve only county committee chairmen from Belleville at Tuesday's primary elections.

Republican residents here will also select candidates for state senator, assembly, and for county freeholder and sheriff. The lines of the GOP battleground will be formed between the Reform Republicans and the Organization Republicans for Clean Government.

Belleville residents who are registered Republicans can vote in the primary this year.

There is no county or state Democratic contest this year. However, within the local Democratic ranks there is a contest for county committee chairman in Belleville third district of the first ward.

The only other contest — also is first district of the second Democratic — is within the town's first district of the second ward between Frank Pulidore, 30 Bayard Street, representing the Regular Democratic Organization and Thomas J. Devine, a Demo-

Band Plays In Atlantic City Parade

The band color guard and twirlers returned Tuesday evening from their triumphant expedition to the Miss America pageant at Atlantic City.

The Belleville contingent of more than 120 students, was second in a huge parade lineup which traversed a three mile area on Atlantic City's famous resort boardwalk.

The parade started at 3:30 p.m. The local unit was lined up at Massachusetts Avenue and stepped off shortly before 4 p.m. playing "Oh, Marie." That was followed by "Dixie" and "Yellow Rose of Texas."

More than 115,000 spectators viewed the annual parade as marchers promenaded down the boardwalk within full view of the Atlantic Ocean.

Robert Wing, band director, received a plaque from the Miss America Pageant Association for "outstanding participation" in the national event.

Wing told the association spokesmen upon accepting the award that the band, color guard and twirlers were honored and happy to have represented Belleville and the state at the pageant.

He said he was eager to attend the beauty festival next year.

The event was described as extremely well organized. Wing received eight pages of instructions and two maps to help him prepare the band's agenda for their performance.

Traveled By Bus

The musical group left Belleville before noon from the high school in three buses. The band members ate lunch at one of the New Jersey Parkway restaurants halfway through their 2½ hour journey.

Five chaperones were on hand to assist the teenagers who attended the beauty pageant.

Belleville students were thrilled to see many of the pageant finalists at the parade in their gowns.

The local band was one of the few New Jersey bands to represent the state at the event.

The units were judged on the basis of conduct, appearance and performance.

This fall the band has taken on new personnel to replace graduating seniors. Half of the 80 piece band is new.

During the summer months, the band held two paper drives to finance the trip to Atlantic City. The groups also began practice in late August for the performance.

The band had a chance to display some 80 new band uniforms during the Atlantic City parade.

Belleville Robbery

Local Resident Loses $1,600 In Valuables

William Mundy of 259 Belleville Avenue did not have fun during the Labor Day week-end. Looking back on it, in fact, he considers Sunday a rather bad dream.

His house was ransacked in broad daylight and he suffered a loss of over $1,600 in household items, furniture, piggy banks and jewelry. He said that the robbery at his home was one of several in the area recently.

"There have been quite a few robberies around here . . . not that it would surprise anyone since there is plenty of narcotics on this hill (Belleville Avenue near Union Avenue at Belleville Park). The police have been pulling bodies out of the buses hereabouts for years," Mundy said.

Found Door Open

"I was away for about six hours on Sunday. When I got back I saw the door flapping in the breeze and my portable television on the lawn. I knew something was wrong so I told my wife to go next door and phone for the police.

"When I went inside I discovered that our color television was missing. The light was on upstairs . . . but I wasn't going to go up because I've got lots of guns there and plenty of ammunition. If they were still up there . . . I wasn't going to get my head blown off.

The police arrived quickly and went upstairs with their guns out. But the vandals had fled with my wife's jewelry, a 38 police special pistol and a rifle . . . not to mention 50 rounds of ammunition. They even took our kids' piggy banks."

Narcotics Addicts

Mundy said, "It looks to me as if some guys on narcotics took the stuff. And what worries me is the fact that they have those guns and all that ammunition. If they get desperate again you just know there is going to be trouble."

Mundy said his neighbors said they did not see anyone enter or leave the house.

The robbers gained entrance to Mundy's home through a rear window by cutting open a screen and raising the window. The exit was apparently made through the front door since it was found unlocked and waving in the wind.

Police Investigating

"It seems so strange that nobody saw anything. They must have made quite a disturbance carting a 25-inch television out of the house . . . not to mention all those guns."

Police are still investigating the incident, Mundy said.

Mundy also noted that he was surprised that the police had not given more information to the press regarding past robberies in the area. He said if he had known that the area was the section for repeated thefts, he would have taken greater precautions in guarding his home.

ILLEGAL ENTRY — Vandals broke into the home of William Mundy at 259 Belleville Avenue Sunday and stole more than $1,600 worth of valuables. Police are investigating the crime.

Institute Will Present Musical Satire Program

P.D.Q. Bach, whose music will be presented by Unity Concert Course at the Montclair High School, October 12, is the Bach nobody knows. Anybody, that is, except Peter Schickele, former professor at the Juilliard School of Music and himself a composer. A few years ago Schickele, first presented the works of P.D.Q. Bach, who was the oddest of the twenty-odd sons of J.S. Bach. Few people even suspected the existence of P.D.Q. Bach before Schickele; in fact, J.S. Bach himself seemed totally unaware of him. But his fame now seems assured, for he has become known as the "Fun Composer" of recent times.

Observe, for example, the scholarly apparatus with which the life and works of P.D.Q. are presented--the division into various creative "periods," the use of authentic musical forms, the solemn attempt to trace "influences" and trends. P.D.Q. Bach represents musicology carried to absurdity, but it is an enjoyable, not to say educational, journey.

Peter Schickele says he first began to "discover" P.D.Q. Bach about ten years ago, and developed his music during informal chamber music sessions at Juilliard and at the Aspen, Colo., Festival.

Schickele is originally from North Dakota, and took his first musical lessons (clarinet and basoon) in Fargo. Later he studied at Juilliard and Swarthmore, and also taught at both institutions. He also had a Ford Foundation grant as "composer-in-residence" to the Los Angeles Public School System. He has written music of his own both in jazz and classical idioms, and intends to write more. But he finds himself getting increasingly involved with P.D.Q. Bach, and is unquestionably the world's greatest expert on his music and his instruments.

Other concerts to be presented by Unity Concert Course are: Philadelphia Chamber Symphony, October 27; Cesare Siepi, December 3; Vienna Choir Boys, January 6; Royal Philharmonic Orchestra of London, January 21; the National Ballet, March 1; Mildred Miller on April 5; and Andre Watts, April 26.

Subscription rates for eight concerts are as follows: $35, $28.50, $22, $16.50, $13. For additional information, please call Barbara Russell, director of Unity Institute.

State's 251 Banks Tops $13 Billion

Total deposits in New Jersey's 251 banks topped thirteen billion dollars for the first time during the first half of 1967, reported W. Robert Davis, President of the New Jersey Bankers Association, and president, Camden Trust Company.

According to figures released by the Regional Administrator of National Banks and the New Jersey Commissioner of Banking and Insurance, deposits in New Jersey banks totaled $13.2 billion on June 30, 1967, an increase of more than 400 million dollars, or 5.85 per cent since the same day in 1966.

"New Jersey banks' total resources also gained 5.77% to $14.75 billion in the same period," Mr. Davis said. "These funds were used in a variety of ways, perhaps the most important of which is the furthering of New Jersey's economic position through loans made to New Jersey industry, businessmen, and consumers."

Fall Hunting Commences This Week

Fall hunting in New Jersey will get underway this week, when the railbird season opens one half hour before sunrise on Saturday, September 2, according to Commissioner Robert A. Roe of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Clapper rail and sora rail are the principal species available in New Jersey, with King, Virginia and yellow rails also open. The season will run through November 10, with hunting hours of one half hour before sunrise to sunset.

Special reduced bag limits apply to clapper and king rails. No more than 7 of these birds may be taken daily, and the possession limit is 14. This limit applies in all Atlantic Flyway states north of Maryland, as established by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. For sora, Virginia and yellow rails, the daily limit is 15 and the possession limit 30. These species are also migratory and under federal jurisdiction.

Clapper rail nest in New Jersey, particularly in the coastal marshes south of Tuckerton. Breeding success has been below average for several seasons, and New Jersey reduced the bag several years before the federal reduction.

Causes of the decline in clapper production are under intensive study by State and federal wildlife biologists. Sportsmen can cooperate by turning in hands and information if they bag any banded rail. Although initial nesting success was slightly improved this spring, May floods destroyed a number of nests, and hunting prospects are below normal.

Sora prospects are brighter, since abundant rainfall improved the growth of wild rice on the meadows along Delaware Bay, where these birds dwell when they fly in from the north in early September. Sora nesting success was such as to justify federal retention of the generous bag limits.

Aggregate County Spending Is Higher

Costs of 21 county governments averaged $47.47 for each man, woman and child in New Jersey last year.

Aggregate county spending of more than $330 million in 1966 represented a per capita increase, statewide, of $2.58 over the previous year for each of the State's estimated population of nearly 7,000,000.

The overall county government per capita expenditure last year included $40.39 for current operations; $4.13 for capital improvements and $2.95 for debt service.

Compilations by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association showed that, within the counties, overall expenditures per person ranged from a high of $91.79 in the resort county of Cape May to a low of $27.58 in Burlington County.

In releasing the averages, the Taxpayers Association pointed out that comparisons of per capita costs can be misleading unless local conditions are taken into account. In any evaluation, the Association said, consideration should be given such circumstances as functions performed, adequacy of services, emergency expenditures, and the scheduling of capital improvements, as well as demands of seasonal population fluctuations in the resort counties.

The per capita figures are among those compiled by the Taxpayers Association for inclusion in the forthcoming 1967 edition of its annual publication, "Financial Statistics of New Jersey Local Government." Other pre-publication reports issued by the Association have presented data for each of the counties showing revenues, budgets, expenditures and related outlays. The booklet also will cover municipal and school district statistics.

"GOP Sued for Rent"

Last Wednesday's daily newspapers published the following headlines, "GOP SUED FOR RENT".

The GOP group which was sued for unpaid rent is the Essex County Republican organization whose candidates appear on Line F of Tuesday's ballot. The landlord charged that the Essex County Republican committee was $7,500 in arrears on rent between September 1966 and August of this year - a period of time when William F. Yeomans has been serving as County Chairman.

The landlord also is seeking $420,000 plus interest for cleaning and restoring the building to enable him to rent it to another tenant.

The landlord also claims that although the Republicans promised to pay the rent from time to time the GOP failed to make any payments.

This is the Republican leadership which is asking Republican voters to elect its Line F candidates Tuesday, September 12. If the present Republican leadership, Line F, is unable or emotionally disinterested to meet its moral and legal obligations - if the present Republican leadership (Line F) makes promises to pay rent and then breaks those very promises - it is high time new leadership is found for the Republican party.

There are many reasons why Republicans in Essex County are entitled to new leadership at this time. If there was no other reason, the legal suit against the Line F organization is enough reason for Republicans throughout Essex County to rebel and free the party from a morally bankrupt leadership.

It is difficult for us to imagine any Republican who knowingly would want to associate himself or herself with a leadership that cannot keep its word and won't pay its rent.

Our recommendation to Republican voters for election on Tuesday is the complete slate of Republican candidates that appear on Line E - Reform Republicans - the people who believe that party integrity must be restored in order to attract enough voters to win in November. F.A.O.

Ike's Point on Vietnam

Former President Dwight Eisenhower caused a stir in Washington recently when he suggested Congress consider declaring war on North Vietnam. Most of the reaction on Capitol Hill, including much from Republicans, was negative.

Eisenhower says the United States can't win "a war of gradualism," and that we're now in what amounts to a war, with 450,000 U. S. troops in Vietnam. With today's heavy fatalities and the expectation that many more Americans will be asked to give their lives, Eisenhower believe it's time to consider winning the war our first priority.

"When you must use force to support a national aim, for example in the defense of another country's freedom, there is no higher authority to which you can appeal. Therefore, you must win. To do that you need all the power you have and you must use it quickly and secretly so as to achieve surprise."

The former President believes the mistake in our Vietnam policy was to send in U. S. troops, which former President Kennedy did in 1962 -- 15,000 of them. "When President Kennedy came in we had 735 advisors in Vietnam -- and the situation didn't look bad. After we sent 15,000 troops over there the character of the war changed," he recalls.

Eisenhower's position is becoming more critical of Administration policy on Vietnam, and he is said to feel General William Westmoreland should be more solidly supported by the White House. His criticisms are certain to have an effect on public opinion and major political implications.

Basil Rathbone

For lovers of A. Conan Doyle's immortal detective stories, in which Sherlock Holmes is the incomparable, the death of Basil Rathbone is a heavy blow. Rathbone was unquestionable the best Sherlock Holmes ever filmed.

Ironically, he was so good in the role, which he played for seven years (in films 1939-46), he finally quit in disgust saying he would never be able to play anything else if he didn't escape from that characterization.

Rathbone was a South African by birth and served, like so many of the famous actors dying these days, in World War I. He made his debut on the British stage in 1911 and was successful in many Shakespearean roles. It was not until 1939, on the eve of World War II, that he struck lightning as the greatest screen player of Sir Arthur's fictional Sherlock Holmes.

His crisp voice, smooth diction and clean appearance won him fame and popularity but in recent years he turned to television and often played minor roles. He told friends he liked the freedom minor roles gave him -- and he selected the roles he would enjoy playing.

Seldom has a character portrayal left a stronger impression on the American people than Rathbone's Sherlock Holmes, however, and he will be forever remembered in the part, and missed -- especially when these great detective stories are enjoyed.

Speculation: Nixon and Reagan

The latest political speculation in Washington concerns the possibility of an alliance between Richard Nixon and Governor Ronald Reagan of California. Whereas a few weeks ago the gossip concerned a possible Nelson Rockefeller-Reagan ticket in 1968, now there's inside talk Nixon may be the one to push Reagan for the top spot on the ticket, should his chances falter, in 1968.

Some Reagan supporters feel Nixon is likely to make a less-than-overwhelming showing in the primaries next spring and that this will be the writing on the wall

Expressway Construction Called For

The N.J. Highway Users' Conference today called for construction of the Central Jersey Expressway with state funds and opposed installation of additional toll gates on the Garden State Parkway.

The conference, comprised of statewide organizations interested in promoting a sound state highway program, announced its position on the controversial plan to use parkway tolls to build the highway in a brochure outlining its program for the coming year.

In addition to the conference membership the program has been endorsed by a number of other organizations, including Operating Engineers Local 825, AFL-CIO; Associated General Contractors of New Jersey; The Southern New Jersey Development Council; The AAA Public Affairs Council; and a number of companies, business associations and chambers of commerce.

The conference program points out that the present highway system in New Jersey contains deficiencies which will cost $811 million to correct, and states "The needs are 10 times greater than construction funds available."

While these deficiencies exist the current highway improvement budget was slashed $4 million before its passage this year, indicating the need for a greater awareness of the state's highway problems on the part of state legislators.

The conference also points out New Jersey is 46th among the states in completing its portion of the federal interstate system and is one of only five states that does not have some form of dedication of highway user taxes for highway purposes.

New Jersey is the leading state in diverting these revenues to non-highway purposes and the brochure points out that more than $1 billion has been used for non-highway purposes over the years. This could have paid for more than 2,180 miles of new highways, the conference states.

The conference recommends the diversion of highway taxes be stopped and this revenue--$250 million--be used to build roads for the state's motorists who number more than three million.

The conference supports the improvement of rail rapid transit facilities but not to the detriment of the highway program and the needs of the motorist who

ARE YOUR CHILDREN PREPARED FOR SCHOOL?

Mothers are busy these days. For school beginning is a big event. Health records must be checked to make certain vaccinations are still potent and if not, booster shots are a "must."

Children leaving home for college should visit the family physician for a health check-up. Essential medicines the doctor thinks necessary must be packed. And, the eating habits of all children at school, may have to be assisted. Too many grab a hasty bite for meals which lack the important vitamins needed for their growing bodies. Most physicians advise daily vitamins for school children.

Most TV manufacturers come out with their new models about Labor Day, when people are back from vacations, summer houses and outdoor activities.

The distributors and retailers are given a preview of the new merchandise during the generally slow summer time. As is customary, we report on the more important brands and their offerings.

As a rule RCA is first. This year Magnavox beat them to it. A number of smaller factories also had early shows, which gives a good overall indication of things to come.

Color TV has been very good now for several years. There have not been any drastic changes or improvements on color sets of late. The greatest changes for the better have taken place at the transmitters and cameras. Better lighting techniques for indoor shows and zoom and wide angle lenses for outdoor events improved the picture quality very much.

A great improvement of the brightness of picture tubes by the use of improved phosphorous has been accomplished. Magnavox came out 3 years ago with an automatic control which eliminates the need for frequent re-adjustment of the fine tuner. If this is not set just right, the colors will be off. Most people can not tune the fine tuner for the best setting, the Magnavox arrangement eliminates the need for this critical adjustment, the set does it itself.

A number of manufacturers started again using the round 21" picture tube, which they had given up already. This tube is excellent, having been used for 10 years and the sets using this size are about $50. to $100. lower in price than the 25" (diagonal measurement outside to outside) tube. The small space gained in the corners of the rectangular tube does not mean anything to lots of people, to whom price is important.

Big Day Ahead For Area Scouts

Saturday, September 9, 1967

(rain date Sunday, September 10, 1967) is the Big Day for some 2,000 Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Explorers who are registered in 50 units in the Robert Treat Council which encompasses Irvington, Belleville, and Newark.

The Big Scout Olympic finals will be held at the Newark Schools Stadium on Bloomfield Avenue. Action begins at 2:00 p.m. when the units will assemble on the field for the Call to Colors and the Lighting of the Flame.

This Big Day will culminate several months of intensive training for the Unit Leaders and their Scouts. Each is hoping to leave with an individual trophy for first, second or third place in the events and a Unit trophy for his Unit having accumulated the most points.

Tryouts

Tryouts leading up to the finals were held in the playfields of the Reverend Wm. P. Hayes Homes, Christopher Columbus Homes, Kretchner Homes and the John W. Hyatt Court. These tryouts were meaningful to the boys and leaders in familiarizing them with the procedure of the events and instructing them on how to compete among other Scouts in a sportsmanlike spirit.

Charles Sandman Undertakes Study

Congressman Charles W. Sandman, Jr., has reported he has undertaken a study to determine how to interest more young women and men in pursuing hospital nursing careers.

Congressman Sandman made the announcement after conferring with New Jersey representatives of hospitals, the nursing profession and Johnson and Johnson, manufacturers of pharmaceuticals.

Pointing out that the shortage of nurses is a nationwide problem and that it is particularly acute in New Jersey, Congressman Sandman said that he and three other New Jersey Members of Congress were advised:

"Based on a population of 6,000,000 people in 1964, New Jersey should have had 24,000 working nurses; statistics show the state had 21,860 working nurses or a shortage of 2,140 active nurses. Seventy-nine New Jersey voluntary hospitals reported positions open for 1,084 nurses in November of 1966."

Lieutenant Loeffler Wins Song Contest; Sing for Safety Experiment Successful

The "Sing for Safety" song contest, sponsored by the Proving Ground Safety Office, terminated this week with the presentation of awards to the final two winners. A Belleville resident was one of the winners.

Colonel George C. Clowes, APC Commanding Officer, made the presentations to First Lieutenant Richard W. Loeffler. Lieutenant Loeffler is a research and development coordinator with Ballistic Research Laboratories, whose home is in Belleville. Both received transfer radios.

In commenting on the song contest, Colonel Clowes stated that it was completely unique and undertaken somewhat as an experiment, as no other installation is known to have used any similar method to promote safety.

"Outstanding Success"
"It was an outstanding success," Colonel Clowes said. "Practically the entire post population participated in one way or another and each was instilled with some thoughts of safety in so doing. Those who did not compose and submit safety songs, did read, enjoy and profit by their message as published in the Post Daily Bulletin."

Literally hundreds of entries were submitted to the Safety Office from every organization at the Proving Ground. The better compositions, sung by Eddie Dwyer of the Post Information Office, were made into tape recordings and were utilized in various ways.

At the recent Armed Forces Day demonstration here, one of these recordings, containing over 50 songs, was broadcast continuously throughout the day over the APC amplification unit as "Singing Safety Commercials," with over 50,000 people listening in.

Colonel Clowes said that "purely from the standpoint of safety promotion, this idea was as effective as any known device or method in putting across the safety factor to thousands of people at negligible cost or effort."

Copies of Recordings

Copies of these recordings were also placed over sound systems at the Special Services Club and cafeteria and consideration is being given to utilizing them in other post areas, including Post Exchange, theatre, clubs, as well as during troop breaks in training sessions.

Off-post agencies have also welcomed the safety recordings. John C. Mitchell Jr., general chairman of the Aberdeen 75th Anniversary Jubilee Committee, stated that the safety songs, broadcast during the town's festivities, not only provided additional entertainment but also gave excellent safety pointers to the public.

In the belief that this plan could be used effectively at other installations to aid in lowering the nation's accident death rate, the APC Safety Office has forwarded the complete plan for the contest to the Department of the Army for consideration.

It was also forwarded to Calvin R. Delto, chairman of the central area, Maryland Federation Safety Council, for dissemination to other Federal agencies and safety councils throughout the United States.

"And 3¢ for the Governor..."

Cashiers have a quip these days about where your sales tax money goes. Next time you hear it, you might mention that 77 cents of every sales tax dollar has come right back home as state aid to local school districts and local road construction. And the rest of it goes for college construction, aid to commuters, highway construction, aid to local health districts, just to name a few. If we wanted the schools and services, the Governor and the Democratic Legislature—and most of the Republicans—knew we had to raise the money. Until someone comes up with a way to get something for nothing, there's no other way.

"People Who Like Belleville" Enthusiastic

A civic organization called "People Who Like Belleville" and the Town Commission recently that it would heartily endorse any action of the governing body might take to improve the community.

Mrs. Jean G. Bronlie, who spoke for the new committee said to Commissioner Mary Senatore.

"Several months ago, representatives of the Belleville Council of Churches conferred with Municipal authorities, indicating a desire to assist in Civic Improvements wherever possible," Mrs. Bronlie said.

A few meetings followed with the town Council, resulting in a decision to expand the original activity of the group to include members of all service clubs, Board of Education representatives and other interested civic groups.

"In conjunction with the development of a program for this group, it became increasingly evident that our town has been singularly recognized from time to time through outstanding accomplishments in many areas. Thus the name of our group evolved into 'People Who Like Belleville'."

"Therefore, we commend to you the support of this civic endeavor whereby the image of Belleville can be enlightened, and we call upon you for more discussion in detail as to how this may be accomplished, as soon as you have had a chance to familiarize yourself with your new office," Mrs. Bronlie said to the Commission.

We are an informal association of people interested in the town of Belleville, who are associating themselves together for the following purposes:

1. To improve Belleville's public image.
2. To try to instill more civic pride in all citizens of the town.
3. To encourage the development of and maintenance of adequate educational facilities.
4. To see that there are more activities provided for the youth of the town.
5. To do all in power to help promote a clean, attractive, law-abiding community.

6. To foster, develop and improve the cultural atmosphere within the Community, especially in the areas of Art, Music and writing.

7. To see that events of merit are publicized in a much wider area.

8. To encourage the public recognition of outstanding achievements by individuals, groups and companies within the community.

9. To support, wherever possible, the elected officials of the community in their efforts to develop programs of community benefit.

"It was the feeling of this committee that we urge the group to pass a resolution urging the idea of a professional Public Relations person or agency on the member of the Town Commission. There is much work that needs to be done to improve Belleville's image, and this is best handled by those who know their business," Mrs. Bronlie said. "It was also felt that it needs to be stressed that the members of this group, or the group as a whole, should make themselves available."

HOWARD

TO PAY $8.3 MILLION

John W. Kress, president of The Howard Savings Institution, reported today that the institution will pay its 305th consecutive dividend tomorrow. The dividend will be in excess of $8,300,000 and is almost $1,500,000 more than the amount paid to depositors for the same period last year.

"This is our largest quarterly dividend in the 110 years of our service," Kress notes, "and it takes on a meaningful emphasis when it is related to the welfare of the people. This, and the continuous flow of Howard dividends into the economy -- approximately $32,000,000 this past year -- is certainly helping many of our depositors to meet their general cost of living expense, while providing employment for others."

Among all banks in New Jersey, The Howard pays the most in total dividends to its depositors. As a mutual organization owned by 355,000 depositors, The Howard Savings, since it was chartered more than 100 years ago, has evaluated its role in the growth of Newark.

"We plan," continued Kress, "to intensify savings promotion in the schools so as to educate the students on the merits of thrift through a 'Save to Have' program. A large segment of Newarkers have banked with us since their early school days. Today they are proud owners of their own homes and businesses."

So this dividend, plus those to be earned by thrifty depositors in the future, should help other people to attain similar goals."

The Howard Savings with assets in excess of $825,000,000 is now the 16th largest savings bank in the nation, the largest in New Jersey and among the first 200 in size of all banks in the free world. It has 10 offices in Newark, South Orange, Irvington and North Caldwell.

Belleville Football Season Just Ahead

Sideline Byline

Steve Charen

Scholastic Football, 1967 version, officially got underway last Friday with the first day of pre-season practice for 375 schools through - out the state. For first year Belleville High mentor John Amabile, this meant the reporting of 87 sophomores, junior, and senior grid hopefuls.

The immediate target date as practice began with extensive triple session drills was an early season opener just three weeks hence on September 23 at East Orange. The three times a day practices yielded to the one a day version yesterday with the opening of classes for the academic year.

With only that one week stretch of all day practices available Amabile and his chief lieutenant Pat Forte stressed offensive maneuvers and timing as an entirely new system was installed by the incoming Head Coach. The defense, which received its first real test yesterday, will remain with basically the same patterns and deployment that has proved so successful for local teams in recent years.

From these practices, Amabile has discovered a flock of hopefuls "who seem to thrive on work" as overall team enthusiasm and willingness to drill have proved to be "real bright notes."

Other bright notes in the eyes of the coaching staff has been the offensive blocking of Lou Della Terza, Giovi Pich, and Ron Badalamenti; the defensive aggressiveness of Angelo Dominick; and the overall play of returnees Rich Del Guercio and Greg Kostowitz. Della Terza at 250 pounds is also a returnee while the other three stand - outs, all seniors, are junior Varsity graduates.

Opening camp with 87 ball players, Amabile encountered 41 junior and senior ball players with at least J.V. experience and 46 sophomore graduates of last seasons unusually large Freshman program. Included in this group were several returning starters including quarterback Del Guercio, two-way tackle Della Terza, cornerback Kostowitz, defensive end George D'Amico, tackle Angelo DiModica, not to mention a bevy of other players with considerable Varsity experience.

The nucleus of the 1967 team seems to be forming most logically around the senior members of the group, especially with a thin junior crop that probably has many hopefuls whose progress was hindered by last season's lack of a sophomore team and consequently spent their time languishing on the J.V., with the passage of the school budget the vital soph link of the grid development program has been re-instated this year.

In addition to the 87 Varsity hopefuls, some 50 freshman football candidates turned out Tuesday for the opening of their practice work - outs. The late Frosh start allowed freshman coaches Don Albanese and George Sampini to assist with the triple session Varsity drills.

Sophomore coaches Bob Wis and Ralph La Conty, a newcomer to the Belleville scene by way of Seton Hall University and the Newark School system also assisted during the week's early full squad work - outs until most of the sophomores were separated from the anticipated Varsity team in practice drills, earlier this week. Those aforementioned triple sessions were in fact, more like quintuplet marathons, at least from a coaching stand - point, as line - men reported first each morning at 8:30 and worked until 10 before the backfield men were drilled from 10:30 to 12 to complete the "first session".

The afternoon session saw line men laboring from 1 until 2:30 when the backs took over until 4. The long day finally drew into its third session at 6:30 with the entire squad gathered for an hour and a half of team instruction.

Stressing offensive work in the early going, Amabile has drawn a better perspective of his personnel in this area after the first several days of practice. Starting up front on the line the personable young Belleville coach outlined the following player developments.

At center a battle for supremacy has erupted as senior Frank "Little or Stumpy" Gingerelli, last season's J. V. hiker is being strongly challenged by junior Carl Corino.

Moving outward at the line Glove Pich, who was described as one of the team's three most impressive offensive blockers seems to have nailed down one of the guards spots. Mike Papparo, also a senior, is the frosh runner for the other post with senior Tony Sofia and junior Bob Ciallella not far behind.

Next Amabile arrived at the tackle position - which he described as undoubtedly the strongest position on the team. The main reason for this conclusion can be traced to the 250 pound bulk of Lou Della Terza, who last year as a junior was a stalwart both offensively and defensively and is currently in excellent form being included among the top three offensive blockers in the early work-outs.

Another reason for the "strongest" tag attached to this position is the wealth of talent behind Della Terza vying for the other two starting tackle roles. In this group is Angelo Dominick, a powerful senior whose aggressiveness has earned him a coaching rave as a defensive line prospect. Frank "Big or Smokey" Gingerelli whose size is not far behind Della Terza's and was a two way stand-out for last season's Junior Varsity; Angelo DiModica, a returning starter who impressed with his steady Varsity play last season but has been slowed by a shoulder ailment this September; George D'Amico a returnee with two seasons' Varsity experience - at defensive end who could well become a two - way performer if offensive tackle weaknesses appear; and lately probably the biggest man on the squad junior Gino Ron Besigiano; a 6 foot, 3, 265 pound chunk of potential.

With this six deep tackle strength it is quite likely that two or more of these Big Bellboys will join Della Terza and D'Amico on the defensive line with one man filling the second tackle post and another being converted to a guard alongside the two returnees.

It is even possible, if need be that five defensive line - men could be drawn from this group, but this is a question that Amabile will answer with drills later this week.

Returning to the tour along the offensive forward wall, the end position is reached where Ron Badalamenti dominates the scene. Badalamenti, a senior with limited Varsity experience is the third of the three aforementioned top line blockers. In fact, a mable described the fleet Bellboy as pound for pound the best blocker he has seen on the Belleville team so far; the J.V. grad was also noted for his "good hands" at the end post last season.

At the other end of the line Greg Kostowitz a powerful 6 foot 3 senior with two years experience in the defensive secondary appears to be making a strong bid for two way status by adding the offensive end role to his duties. Badalamenti and Kostowitz, who played some end last year, are the two most experienced Bellboys at this position although Bob Baker or Bob Picella could figure in the final starting picture with a strong exhibition game showing.

Behind the Belleville quarterback will once again be senior Tony Cervasio who filled in admirably for Del Guercio last season where needed besides quarterbacking the extra - point unit. This season, however, the versatile Cervasio may well be used in another capacity to prevent his talents from languishing on the bench slot back or defensive backfield possibilities point to a dual role for Del Guercio's backup man.

An option - passing - double threat slot back is thus a distinct possibility for the '67 Bellboys.

Elsewhere in the backfield five boys are vying for the running back posts left barren by the graduation of the entire running corps of 1967.

Leading the contingent in the early drilling has been junior Jim Wille, and senior Mike Elshard, both of whom had impressed last season for the Junior Varsity. Other key figures in this wide-open position are seniors Frank Aiello and Joe Shelesky, along with junior John Mozika; any of these players saw considerable J. V. action in '66 as they alternated at the two running back posts throughout the season.

That concludes Amabile's early offensive prognosis. It appears to be one that can easily forecast the '67 Belleville progress. A powerful line seems inevitable with the prospects available which will undoubtedly lead to a powerful Belleville attack.

Added to this first line plus is the return of Del Guercio to the quarterback post where he should find the protection needed for jobs to the likes of Badalamenti, Kostowitz, and Cervasio, and the power needed for his quarterback sweeps.

The only question mark hanging over the Belleville offense appears to be the running back posts left completely without experience by graduation. None of the leading candidates for the two key posts can be classified as from the big back mold although this fullback problem may well be nullified by the superior line.

Speed is another asset not predominate among the running hopefuls as none of the five power-driving gridders can currently exhibit a ligitimate break-away threat.

All of this puts more of a burden upon Del Guercio. But from his post it is one that he will be able to handle in stride. With that big and mobile line in front of him and a set of fleet receivers the air lanes will undoubtedly be a major part of Del Guercio and Amabile's strategy.

As for the backs, one of them is bound to emerge as a big ground gainer for the Bellboys in for no other reason that someone always seems to come to the rescue of an inexperienced backfield to provide the bread and butter. It is just an annual occurrence, one which the Willie Eisenhard - Aiello - Shelesky Mozika quintet has all the potential to keep alive.

Looking to the rest of the team Amabile admitted that "There is no question in my mind that some of our players will have to play both ways. For although we are trying to play as many boys as possible, some players possess too many all around assets to be remain on platoon duty."

Amabile went on to detail some definite two - way men. Leading this group quite naturally was Della Terza a returning double duty tackle who was also described as the team's line leader. Also slated for apparent dual serve at this point are three gridders who will man the defensive secondary in addition to their offensive duties, they are Del Guercio, Badalamenti, and Kostowitz, who will be the veteran of the deep defensive unit. From this point on one day practices will be the only opportunity that Amabile will have, other than week - ends, for drilling, instructing, and choosing a starting squad. Three scrimmages will play a key role in this process as actual game conditions will be employed to test players. The first of the scrimmages, or exhibition games if you will, is slated for this coming Saturday with Essex Catholic.

After this work - out provides an initial indication of the Belleville players reactions under fire North Bergen will be scrimmaged on the following Wednesday. This treat should allow for the final adjustments as the Belleville grid machine nears opening day alignments.

A final test for these alignments will then come later in that week on Saturday, September 16 against Barringer. A week of final preparations will then lie between the Bellboys and the season opener at East Orange.

As usual the Panthers will be boasting a strong and fleet opening day opponent for the Bellboys. But barring any extensive injuries to the traditionally depthless Blue and gold, this should be the year of a long awaited Belleville season opener triumph.

It will be a strong BHS squad that has perennially stymied the Stadium on the 23rd and from all present indications a confident one.

A strong factor on the Belleville side will be the element of surprise, for while the Panthers will predictably play their style of Tom Dean football, they will have no advance knowledge of what to expect from Amabile's realigned forces.

Belleville's new style of offensive play coupled with a defense that has perennially stymied the opposition should be just the right combination for victory.

Once over that hurdle, the Bellboys could well go on to a banner year with a little bit of luck and some momentum. Many of the questions surrounding just how much of banner year this will be, will be answered at the three pre - season scrimmages planned.

From all present indications, however, 1967 will be a very memorable year for Belleville football followers. How the running corps develops and how quickly the defense jells will remain the biggest questions to just how memorable. Only time will tell. Time and experience that is.

New Air Traffic Control Is Designed

A division of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation announced it has demonstrated to U.S. Navy officials an air traffic control system designed to provide U.S. Military forces in an area such as Vietnam with positive information on aircraft position and identification.

Leon Himmel, Vice President, Avionics, IIT Federal Laboratories, said the TANCAE (Tactical Air Navigation Control and Report) system demonstrated under U.S. Navy contract at the Dam Neck facilities, is possible due to the inherent growth potential in the Tacan system with which all U. S. Navy Marine Corps and Air Force aircraft are equipped.

The Tacan (Tactical Air Navigation) system integrates distance - measuring with data on an aircraft's bearing. IIT Federal Laboratories delivered the first production Tacan units to the U.S. Navy and Air Force in 1952, and today is America's leading builder of Tacan equipment.

practice work with a new pro- lege - Bloomfield High's Joe Covrager, practice 5000 meter triumphs at Long Branch and more practice.

A trip to Des Moines Iowa boomed late in the summer for the August 25 United States JC Junior Champ Track and Field Championships. Plaing first in the preliminaries, Boglione later faltered in the main event in this contest. He had won the New Jersey JC championship and the right to represent the state in the meet in June.

Now it is off to Mesa College in Mesa Arizona for the Belleville alumnus who has come so far in just two and a half years of track training. At Mesa, where predominates throughout the year, Boglione will be able to run Cross country and track regularly.

With any semblance of a continuation of the progress that this amazing natural athlete has main in just two and a half years his upcoming four years of collegiate competition might well conclude with a trip to the 1972 Olympics.

Track Star Bob Boglione Is Considered an Olympics Prospect

BY STEVE CHAREN

For Bob Boglione, the boys who just a year ago rewrote the Belleville High School and part of the state Track record books, this was a summer of practice and weekly races. At 18 it was a year of development for the young track star who burst on the Belleville scene with no previous experience two and a half years ago to begin his phenomenal track career.

This career was to mean three state track records for the 1966 BHS graduate who had first taken to the cinders in his junior year. It was then that the young transfer student from Bloomfield High first discovered the natural ability and great running potential that he possessed.

Originally the track team had been undertaken in hopes of building endurance for the grid season, but instead the phenomenal success that included a junior record and the pacing of Belleville's Championship one and seven-eights and two mile relay teams that year changed Boglione's athletic aims.

It was actually at the urging of incumbent track mentor Ron Kulik that Boglione made the switch of sporting allegiances complete, as the elder trackman laid out a rigorous summer practice schedule for his protegee, one that was to include over a 1000 long grueling miles during the summer months. Conscientiously, Boglione followed the training program and developed his new found potential.

Then came September and Boglione's senior year with the Cross Country season providing the first chance for the emerging star to reap the benefits of his summer labor. This was to be a cross country season unequalled in local annuals as Boglione led the team to a 12-1 record by capturing first place in every dual meet. He also led the squad to a league title and County honors while finishing first himself in both these races.

The state sectional harrier meet brought, Boglione's sixteenth straight first and all seemed in readiness for the upcoming state championship. All that was except the Belleville runner's health as he developed a severe chest cold just prior to the state wide race. He raced anyway despite the obvious handicap and managed a seventh place showing.

This brought the long winter months and Kulik saw that the lay-off was not the best prescription for his star. So it was that Boglione ventured out to the indoor track of the Jersey City Army as the first Belleville High athlete ever to compete in a board race.

Making the most of the opportunity, Boglione or "Roadrunner" as he was coming to be called by friends and admirers shattered the state indoor two mile record of 9:59 with a 9:53.5 while capturing his Group IV championship race.

With the spring came track season and for Boglione and the Bellboys more unprecedented success. Alternating between the one and two mile races to constantly face the opposition's best distance runner, Belleville finished first in every dual meet while resetting the school record each time out to lead Coach Pat Forte's cindermen to the most outstanding track season in BHS history with a 10-3 record.

Big Ten Conference
Boglione added to this slate a Big Ten Conference, Newark Board, and Group IV title not to mention a record in the latter.

It was only then in the state finals that the high-flying Bellboy was to meet his downfall at the hands of Essex Catholic's Marty Liquori who had edged him in the county by the second and then repeated the feat in the state finals.

Undaunted by this disappointment and realizing that his track future was in the longer distance races Boglione began his gradual distance raising. In that by capturing the state AAU three mile event and finishing with a time among the top five high schoolers in the country.

From then on it was 100 miles of practice a week along with four weeks of 5000 meter races at Long Branch which were to result in three firsts after and initial loss at the 3/4 mile course record fell from 16:52 to 16:20. Boglione also returned to Warinacoe Park the site of his cold inspired Cross Country finale this time shaving 20 seconds off the track record to lower the mark to 11:52.2.

The summer was to come to a close for the veteran of less than two years with a National AAU 26 Mile marathon, it was in this competition that the youngest runner present, a just turned 18, Boglione found his eventual distance run. In this first endeavor the potential laden athlete took an eighth place finish in a large field to brighten the promise of the future.

The following winter was to be sparse on competition for Boglione as he took post-graduate high schools courses, continued his rigorous training program, and continued to work with the boy who he had trained all summer, Nutley's Richie Furst.

July Fourth Win

Then there came this summer and a somewhat rusty Boglione returned to competition. True to form he did this with a bang on the Fourth of July by bursting the then soaring balloon of his old nemesis Liquori. Meeting his former high school jinx in a handicap race at Bloomfield's Foley Field, the former Belleville runner turned one of his best times ever for the one mile event he had almost abandoned in favor of longer races.

From then on it was to be a summer of practice and more practice, races at Warinacoe Park and first place medals,

Local Woman Spends Half Day In Dark To Understand Handicaps of the Blind

NOT SEEING IS BELIEVING — Mrs. Miriam Baker, of Belleville and Mrs. Jan Frontin of Lynhurst don blindfolds for four hours a day and practice climbing stairs, walking sidewalks and crossing streets. The project is sponsored by Seton Hall.

A local woman is the midst of a six-week summer program on the Seton Hall campus which is attempting to give her a greater rapport with blind students.

The woman Mrs. Miriam Baker of 209 New Street, Belleville, spends four hours a day behind blindfolds and lives the life of a blind person, encountering the everyday situations which the sighted take for granted.

The course, Methods of Teaching Orientation and Mobility to the Blind, carries both graduate and undergraduate credit and is the only such offering in the State. The instructors are Robert Jackie and Robert Parrish, both of whom are employees of the New Jersey Commission for the Blind.

Sister Joseph Marita, has been teaching at St. Lucy's School for the Blind in West Philadelphia for the past five years.

"This course should be a requirement for all instructors of the blind," Sister Joseph stated. "I know that already I have gained a greater empathy and feeling for my charges. Until one is in total darkness for a period of time there is not the projection of one's consciousness into another being with a similar situation."

At the present time financial support is received from the State of New Jersey.

McLaughlin, 33, has been a reporter for the Times for the past five years. Before taking over the State House beat two years ago, he covered the Mercer County Court House. He was a frequent contributor to the Times' "View From Here" column.

Magistrate Abromson Deals Sternly In Court With Local Traffic Violators

Stern measures were taken to further insure the public's safety in Belleville Municipal Court Thursday morning when Magistrate Edward J. Abromson meted out $200 worth of fines to persons charged with traffic violations.

"Driver's licenses are not issued to persons for the purpose of having them act as nuts on the road," asserted Magistrate Abromson during the course of meeting with the separate violators.

Those Belleville residents were: Frank J. Ginerelli, $7; Turco Pavement and Contractors Inc., $15; Lorenzo F. Goins, $25; Vincent Valeri Jr., $30 and 60 days license revocation; Bernie E. Holman, $30 and one month's license revocation; Robert J. Polisse, $20; Robert Doeffinger, $30; Louise Panico, $7; Howard Gelo, $20 and Richard Scott, $30.

The following cases were adjourned to a later date for final hearings: Beatrice Sheppard vs. Wanda Jaglowski for loud and obscene language; Wanda Jaglowski vs. Beatrice Sheppard for malicious damage; Vincent Mucci, of Newark assault and battery against Belleville Patrolman George Sheridan and the use of obscene language against Patrolman Kenneth Place.

Three charges against Gordon D. Potts for driving an unregistered vehicle, driving with fictitious plates and driving while on the State's revocation list. Potts was released on a $25 bond.

Daniel Donato Cardinale and James Vincent Pubino were charged with the possession of heroin and their final hearing date was set for September 13. Both men are being detained.

Army Doctor Fost Completes Course

Army Doctor (Captain) Norman C. Fost, son of Dr. and Mrs. William H. Fost, 264 Holmes Street, Belleville, completed a medical service officer basic course, August 4, at Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

During the 4-week course, he was trained to apply his previously gained medical knowledge to combat conditions in the field.

J. Weiss Completes Infantry Training

Army Private John F. Weiss, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Weiss, 132 Hornblower Avenue, Belleville, completed nine weeks of advanced infantry training July 28 at Ft. Gordon, Ga. His last week of training was spent in guerrilla warfare exercises.

During his guerrilla training, he lived under simulated Vietnam conditions for five days, fighting off night attacks and conducting raids on "enemy" villages. He was taught methods of removing booby traps, setting ambushes, and avoiding enemy ambushes.

Other specialized training included small unit tactics, map reading, land mine warfare, communications, and firing the M-14 rifle, M-60 machine gun and 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

William F. Moraski Wins Army Parachutist's Badge

Army Private William F. Moraski, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moraski, 245 Valley Street, Belleville, received the Army Parachutist Badge July 27 upon completion of the Infantry School's three-week airborne course at Ft. Benning, Georgia.

His training, which included five jumps from a C-130 airplane flying 170 miles an hour at an altitude of 1,250 feet qualified him as a parachutist. He also underwent strenuous physical conditioning.

Lt. R. Pucciarello Financing Course

Second Lieutenant Robert Pucciarello, whose wife Marie lives at 22 Ideal Court, Nutley, has completed a finance officer orientation course at the Army Finance School, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., April 21.

During the 10-week course, he was trained in accounting, comptroller responsibilities, and administrative procedures of Army finance offices.

Lt. Pucciarello, a member of Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity, received his commission through the Reserve Officers' Training Corps program at Seton Hall University, South Orange, where he received his BS degree in 1966.

It is amazing how much time two people can waste trying to shift one person's work between them.

C.R. Darcy Ends Navy Study

Seaman Recruit Cornelius R. Darcy, Jr., 19, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius R. Darcy, Sr. of 564 Bloomfield Avenue, has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other subjects.

Dean Lawton W. Blanton of Montclair State Teachers College spoke to the Belleville Rotary Club on "The Meaning of Student Dissent on the College Campus." He has been professor of mathematics at the University of Florida, member of the Florida State Board of Education, assistant dean of students at The City University of New York and co-author of the book, "Avenues of Understanding."

Dean Blanton states that while there is much publicity given by the papers, television and radio concerning the student dissent on the college campus, only about one or two percent of the total college enrollment throughout the nation actively participates.

Reasons for the dissent are well known and are primarily qualified. They are prolonged educational process, parental pressure for high grades in high school, continued parental pressure for good marks in college so that the student should continue to study and receive a master's or doctorate in order to become successful in a specialized field, and authoritarian pressures in conflict with parents, teachers and other adults.

They resent being told without their having a voice in the matter. They see their world and future much differently than do adults.

They object to depersonalization where everyone becomes a number rather than a name. Large TV classes in college is a good example of this. An exchange of idea within their own age group and friends through travel at home and abroad is important.

Although this might be a passing fad such as we have had in the past, Dr. Blanton, based on his close observations, has great faith in the youth of America.

His speech was most informative and caused those present to reflect. Adults know the answers, but sometimes fail to implement them with vigor.

Rodino Receives Award

Rep. Peter W. Rodino received the "Marconi Award" of the Order Sons of Italy in America at the society's biannual convention in San Francisco, August 19.

The award, established in 1953, is the highest given out by the Order, which is one of the largest fraternal organizations in the world. Past recipients of this honor have been General David Sarnoff, Governor John Volpe, Senator John Pastore, and Honorable Anthony Celebrezze.

Rodino, dean of the New Jersey congressional delegation, in remarks prepared for delivery at the convention, said that "the rash of rioting in our cities, the outbreak of war and tenuous truce in the Middle East and the un-silent guns and elusive peace in Vietnam" added up to a "long, hot season of depressing developments."

But he pointed out that "for all the noisy, raucous demonstrations and counter-demonstrations; for all the hate-America rallies; for all the carping and cover a better nation in all the world."

Rodino said: "Despite its flaws and failings, the United States remains the most democratic, the most prosperous, the most forward-looking, the most humane nation on the face of the earth."

"Imperfect though it may be, ours is a more perfect union than any who would belittle us have been able to create."

"I do not say these things to wave a flag, although I am still old-fashioned enough to believe that patriotism is not old hat. I say these complimentary things about America because we somehow lose sight of them in the heat and fury of momentary discontent."

Noting that the "fabric of America is being strained by the current twisting and tugging of racial tensions," Rodino said "the cloth will not give way or come undone. The fabric of America will remain whole because it is a strong, rich tapestry of many threads, woven with love by millions of immigrants out of single, durable strands of long-cherished customs and long-revered traditions."

Ocean Engineering

At Stevens Institute

A Department of Ocean Engineering has been organized at Stevens Institute of Technology, Dr. Jess H. Davis, president of the college has announced.

Dr. John P. Breslin has been named to head the new department, which will offer a fundamental program this September leading to master's degrees. A doctoral program will be added by September, 1968.

"Finding an effective way for man to extract the many resources of the oceans is a challenging prospect," Dr. Davis said. "To meet this challenge, we will need engineers who understand the effects of the ocean environment."

The program offered will allow specialization in the fluid and rigid body dynamics of moving or sea-going vessels and floating structures, and in the elastic response of movable and fixed marine structures.

BOSS RULE LEADS TO MOB RULE

The Democratic and Republican bosses have failed the people of Essex County. They have shown they do not understand what causes violence or what to do when it starts. Even now, the bosses are looking for scapegoats and alibis—and not coming up with answers for "the long, cold winter" ahead.

September 12 is Republican Primary Day. Here is your opportunity to make the changes now that will come to grips with an intolerable situation. The bosses want you to stay home on Primary Day, because a light vote leads to Boss Rule. And Boss Rule, as we have seen, leads to Mob Rule. Here is why you should vote for Republican REFORM.

VOTE LINE E

Q. How can you say "Boss Rule Leads to Mob Rule?"

A. Boss rule traditionally is responsive only to pressure, especially in big cities. Boss rule is not responsive to the needs of people, because it is not in contact with people. Resentments build up—and explode. Both prevention—and protection—is neglected. The result of Boss Rule is plain to see.

Q. What is the present political leadership doing to protect all the people of Essex County?

A. Wringing its hands. Appointing committees. Looking to Washington. Politicians in the cities blaming the people in the suburbs. Politicians in the suburbs pretending the problem doesn't exist. And every politician with a mimeo machine issuing pious statements that somebody else should do something.

Q. Why should we expect reformers to do any better?

A. Because Reform candidates are tuned in to local needs on a local basis. Unlike the bosses, Reform candidates are not insulated from community needs. Reformers are more interested in protecting people than in protecting their vested interests.

Q. Get specific on protecting citizens—what programs have Reformers called for?

A. Policemen, firemen and Guardsmen who perform hazardous duty should receive hazardous duty pay, similar to the system in effect in our armed forces. A sniper in Newark is no less dangerous than a sniper in Viet Nam. More important than the money is the vote of confidence this will give the men charged with protecting the peace.

Q. What else?

A. Our candidate for sheriff has proposed a five-point action program to coordinate county-wide protection, upgrade professional competence, and come to grips with the narcotics menace in cooperation with local police departments.

Q. "Mob rule" means more than violence in the streets—it means infiltration of our political system by undesirable elements. Have the Reformers thought about that?

A. You bet we have. Boss Rule means that bosses in one party sell out to bosses in the other, ensuring one-party domination. And one-party domination is exactly what we have now. That's why scandals are rampant. No "watchdogs." No competition that keeps the political system clean and alert and unfixable. Reformers will upset that applecart and bring back a real two-party system in Essex.

Q. What about the root causes of riots?

A. They can't be wished away. They have to be faced. Reformers are activists willing to dedicate themselves to understanding human needs and meeting them responsibly. At the point of contact, not at the point of a gun. Since the bosses have failed—and their positions are frozen—isn't this the time to try a fresh approach with vigorous leadership?

Q. Who's eligible to vote in that September 12 Republican primary?

A. If you're a Republican, you are. If you are an independent, you are. Even if you're a Democrat and have not voted in a Democratic primary since 1964—and most have not—you are eligible to register your protest by voting REPUBLICAN REFORM—Line E—on September 12.

Break the vicious circle. Vote to end Boss Rule, and the Mob Rule it leads to—everywhere, sooner or later.

VOTE REPUBLICAN REFORM — LINE E — IN THE SEPTEMBER 12 PRIMARY.

Joe Cervasio Now Leading Grid Halfback

Joe Cervasio of Belleville is one of the leading offensive halfback candidates starting football practice at Cornell.

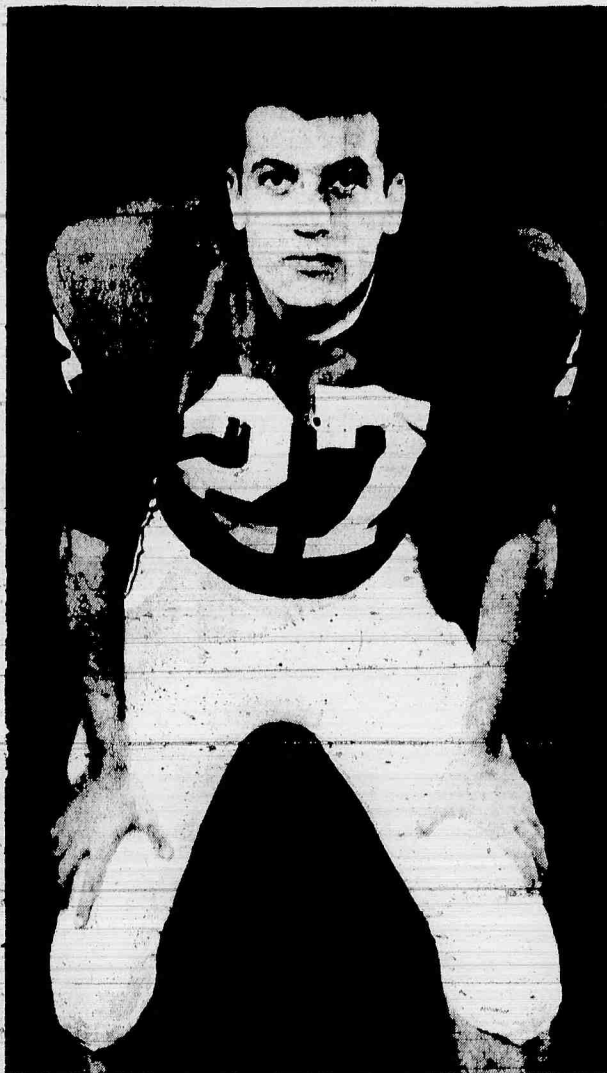

One of the squad's smallest players (5-9, 175), Joe played with the junior varsity last year as a sophomore. He displayed good running and is rated a strong possibility for varsity action by head coach Jack Musick.

Joe will contend with three other juniors -- Chris Ritter of Belvidere, Ed Zak of Clifton and Jim Heeps of Allentown, Pa. -- at the tailback and wingback posts.

Art Sheridan Gets Athletics Scholarship

Art Sheridan, former Croydon Hall Academy baseball and basketball star, has received a full athletic scholarship to Broward County Junior College, Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The 6' 0" 165 pound Belleville athlete was named this past baseball season to the New Jersey All-State team on the basis of his stellar pitching performances for the Leonardo Prep School. In addition to compiling a 5-3 won-lost record, Sheridan batted a hefty .384 with 12 R.B.I.'s. The former Belleville High School All-State selection also played back court for C.H.A.'s varsity basketball team this past year where he averaged 16.0 p.p.g.

Hospital And Drug Costs Are Rising

While hospital and drug costs continue to rise, alert patients can save on their medical bills through quick treatment, following the doctor's orders, and taking full advantage of insurance coverage and income tax deductions.

This advice comes from Dr. Robert C. Anderson, Newark physician who heads the Essex County Medical Society. According to the doctor, a patient should see his regular physician-- who has a complete health history to rely on--as soon as he becomes ill. This step alone can eliminate many expensive and time consuming tests which may already have been administered.

Take your hand out of my pocket...

why should I pay for your strike?

Repeal the Strikers Benefits Law

Almost everybody's got his hand in your pocket these days. Another hand slides in January 1. That's when New Jersey's new law (S-400) provides unemployment checks to strikers. No joke. The law sneaked through by a one-vote margin last April, and only after a lot of political pressure.

This means the unemployment taxes taken out of your paycheck every week will be set aside to pay those on strike. It means more and longer strikes. It means fewer jobs and a weaker economy because companies already here are discouraged from expanding, and those outside the state won't come in. And it means that the hand in your pocket is going to take 20 per cent more in unemployment taxes.

Do we smile and say swell? Or do we say repeal that law, it's bad. The 9,000 (and growing) members of the PUB (Protect Unemployment Benefits) Committee say repeal it, just as it was repealed in 14 other states. If you're for repeal, join us. Every legislative seat in Trenton is up for election this year and all the candidates will be waiting to see how strong the resentment is against paying unemployment checks to strikers. We aim to tell them. You tell your legislative candidates.

Fill in the form below, and send it to PUB headquarters. If you like, enclose a dollar or more. Then get your friends, neighbors and relatives to join also. Let's repeal the strikers benefits law.

NEW RECIPE--Mrs. America of 1967, Marlene Cochran, proves to Roger Caruso, 68 Moore Place, Belleville, how well she makes pancakes. And, Mrs. America should know. She recently spent several weeks showing homemakers how to make some unusual Aunt Jemima pancake recipes. Caruso, who is with the Quaker Oats Co., was in Chicago last week for the company's annual sales meeting.

GOP Plan To Ease Tax Stranglehold

A program to ease the tax burden on the homeowner and find new means to raise revenues for municipal government was urged today by Reform Republican State Senatorial candidates Gerardo L. Del Tufo, Alexander J. Maturri and David W. Dowd.

"Municipal governments are being choked by the lack of sufficient state financial support to keep up with the great growth that has taken place in the suburbs. New Jersey has not been able to provide local communities with a fair share of the tax dollar. Communities, in turn, have been forced to place an even greater tax stranglehold on the homeowner."

The Reform candidates' program calls for:

*the immediate enactment into law by the state legislature of realistic tax policies proposed by the state tax policy commission;

*legislation to be developed by the commission to permit a cut-off when a municipal tax rate reaches a certain level;

*a homestead act that would bring relief to owners of one and two family houses by creating an equitable formula of tax exemptions on the basis of the amount of an assessment considered for taxation;

*and the establishment of a proper tax balance between the state and local municipalities through short and long range guidelines.

"The aim of this program is to keep taxes as low as possible and still keep up with the needs of growing municipalities. If the present imbalance is allowed to continue, we fear that an even greater tax load will be carried by the homeowner. Eventually, community needs may not be met adequately, there will be a slowdown in the construction of new homes and there will be a mass exodus from New Jersey."

Candidates Del Tufo, Maturri and Dowd pointed out that at present the state legislature virtually ignores any tax programs presented to it by the tax commission for legislative action. They recommended broader powers for the commission and a closer adherence to commission tax policies by the legislature.

"It is essential that we meet the homeowner tax problem now before it mushrooms into a statewide economic crisis. Reform Republicans are concerned that homeowners in Essex County, New Jersey's largest county, are already feeling the tax squeeze in their pocketbooks. The state must give its municipalities greater support and look for other means to raise revenues."

"The sales tax, originally intended to give the homeowner some tax relief, has failed to do just that. Local government has been forced to continue to exact its revenue from the homeowner while the state has been unable to come up with effective alternatives."

"The tax policy commission would be charged with the responsibility of exploring every means possible to create a more equitable tax structure than now exists. Recommendations from the commission should automatically be enacted into law by the State Legislature. We are pledged to the fulfillment of these proposals. We are also pledged against any further increase in the sales tax and income tax," candidates

Commissioner McGreevy Supports Organization Republican Candidates

Joseph McGreevy

Belleville Commissioner of Finance Joseph McGreevy has given his full support to the Organization Republicans for Clean Government slate of candidates in the GOP primary election next Tuesday.

At the same time, Former Congressman George M. Wall-hauser, overall county campaign manager, announced that Commissioner McGreevy will serve as an assistant campaign coordinator.

McGreevy, who was elected to the Belleville governing body in May, urged all Belleville voters to give a strong vote of confidence to the leadership of our party and the outstanding slate of candidates selected by a broad-based 42-member screening committee."

He noted that the Republican Party in Essex County had elected a County Supervisor and three Board of Freeholder members last year, as well as giving a big majority to U.S. Senator Clifford P. Case.

"There are sure signs that our party is continuing the resurgence that was started last year, and it is important that all of the candidates on the Organization Republicans slate are nominated in the primary election next Tuesday," he declared.

"Belleville and every other municipality in Essex was represented on the screening committee, while a few members of the so-called insurgent group picked its candidates. In fact, most of the candidates on the rebel ticket appeared before the organization's screening committee, and only after they knew they had not been selected, did they join the rebel ticket."

"I think the voters of Belleville, as well as those from all over Essex County, will elect this outstanding team, which then go on to the major task, winning the general election against the Democrats in the fall."

Nursing Program Begins This Fall

An expanded nursing program will be launched by Union Junior College with the opening of the fall semester with about 130 first-year student nurses from four hospitals enrolled.

The Schools of Nursing of Newark Beth Israel Hospital, and Somerset Hospital, Somerville, will join the program this year along with the Schools of Nursing of Elizabeth and Perth Amboy General Hospitals. Under the program, the student nurses will attend classes at Union Junior College four days a week beginning September 15 and will earn 22 college credits.

Former astronaut M. Scott Carpenter, the only man to penetrate both outer space and deep ocean environments, will be one of three speakers at the opening meetings of an international symposium on "Materials: Key to Effective Use of the Sea" to be held in New York City, September 12-14, 1967.

Joining with Navy Commander Carpenter in addresses at the opening session of the symposium will be Dr. John P. Craven.

Hazardous Duty Pay Suggested for Cops

James H. Wallwork, Reform Republican candidate for State Senate, has called for legislation that will provide "hazardous duty" pay for police and firemen during Mayor-declared emergencies.

"Members of the armed forces receive combat pay above and beyond normal pay whenever they are asked to assume jobs of extreme danger. Sniper fire in combat is no different from sniper fire in American cities," Wallwork said.

"It is time that all communities in Essex County recognize the dedicated jobs being done by our public safety forces. We automatically take it for granted that in time of crisis and disorder, our police and firemen will be there to protect our homes and our lives."

"If we're asking people to go on the firing line and in some cases give their lives to protect us, the least we can do is see that they are given the same monetary recognition as soldiers, sailors, and airmen of our armed forces for especially hazardous duty."

Wallwork noted that proposed legislation for hazardous duty pay is one of a series of specific proposals for violence prevention that is part of the Reform Republican platform.

Earlier, Ralph D'Amola, Reform Republican candidate for Essex County Sheriff, proposed a five-point program to insure that the Sheriff's office is equipped to provide for the safety and well being of every citizen.

"In recent weeks, Reform candidates have called for a bi-partisan state and nationwide action to reassert law and order and remove the root causes of racial tension."

"A substantial part of every tax dollar collected in Essex goes toward the safety, well being, education and civil rights of all citizens. Is there any citizen who would complain about giving due recognition to those who would continue to assure these rights?"

"In addition, we feel that widows' pensions of policemen and firemen killed in the line of duty are woefully inadequate. We realize that many fraternal organizations have been rallying for this cause. Reform Republicans will also join in this cause," Wallwork said.

Reform Candidates Accuse Organization of "Straddling"

Reform Republican candidates Frederic Remington and Donald J. Fitzmaurice today accused the organization Republicans of favoring a law that threatens to create prolonged strikes, drive industry out, and upset the entire economic picture of New Jersey.

The candidates said that S-400, a controversial unemployment compensation bill that was rushed through the state legislature this year is strongly opposed by Reform Republicans and all municipal and statewide Republican organizations.

In their statement, Remington, who is running for state senate, and Fitzmaurice, for assembly, asked the organization why it has chosen a candidate whose position on S-400 is in sharp contrast to Republican principles in Essex County?

"Because the party bosses, in a political power play, are vying for the support of certain labor bosses" in the September 12 primary.

"Must we continue to put up with this kind of leadership - a leadership that is so lacking in political scruples that it actually supports both sides of a controversial issue?"

"While much that is contained in S-400 is of great benefit to New Jersey, the law contains a strike benefit clause that creates a very dangerous situation by requiring employers to subsidize labor disputes against themselves."

"Under the provisions of this clause, unemployment compensation

School administrators in New Jersey are receiving a set of guidelines on the proper use of sation benefits will be paid to strikers who have been out more than six weeks. The Unemployment Compensation Fund was originally set up to help the man involuntarily out of work - not the striker."

The candidates called on the organization to "cut out the straddling and take a stand."

Remington and Fitzmaurice pointed out that the strike benefit clause in S-400 benefits only union members - less than one-fourth of the total New Jersey work force.

"Thus, of the relatively small amount all workers contributed to the fund (nearly $14 million last year against $131 million by employers) nearly two-thirds came from unorganized labor. Since only labor unions call strikes, the strike benefit clause is of absolutely no value to all other employees even though the S-400 law forces them to contribute to it."

"In addition, the striker's benefit could drive industry out of New Jersey as well as severely cripple New Jersey's chances to lure outside industry to the state."

"When industry goes out the tax bill of every citizen goes up," the Reform candidates said.

"Remington is vice president of Peerless Tube Company and is Essex County chairman of Employer's Legislative Committee. Fitzmaurice, a former assemblyman, is vice president of Kenny Press, a Newark printing firm."

live animals for biological experimentation, William H. Warner, director of Secondary Education for the State Department of Education has announced.

The set of rules was developed by the department to aid teachers in establishing the limitations involving the use of live animals in experimentation, Warner said.

"For humane reasons," Warner noted, "we didn't want to allow unlimited use of animals; neither did we want to unilaterally restrict their use as an aid in scientific inquiry."

Reform GOP Labels F. Bate Charge "Insult to Intelligence"

Reform Republicans has labeled Frank L. Bate's reputation of boss charges "an insult to the intelligence of every voter in Essex County."

In their statement, Reform Republicans said: "Is Mr. Bate trying to convince Essex County Republicans that the organization represents them fairly and equally? Is he suggesting that the present leadership is working for the good of all Republicans? If he is, then he sadly underestimates the keen sense of disappointment felt by most Essex Republicans in their party."

The Reform Republicans said that Essex County voters are well aware of the reasons and issues behind the Primary on September 12.

"The conduct of Republican Party affairs is strikingly similar to the way some of these same men ran the party in the mid 1950's when the party fell into disfavor with the voters. The Yeomans-Blank brand of back-room government was in control then and the party plunged to a new low."

"The problems of agriculture cannot be successfully settled by conferences around a desk."
