Rutan Estates

Vehicular Bridge Protest Growing

William Y. Riedel, resident of Rutan Estates criticized the Town Commissions for "disregarding" letters and petitions from the Rutan Estates Homeowners Association calling for a foot bridge across the Third River to Carolyn Road.

The attack was the latest made in the controversy regarding the commission's endorsement of plans to link an access of Franklin Avenue and Jorammon Street to Carolyn Road at Rutan Estates with a vehicular bridge rather than a foot span.

Town Road Crew to Join Labor Ranks

Public Works Commissioner Mary Senatore was surprised when she learned employees of the road department have taken preliminary steps toward joining a union.

Stating she knew nothing of the union move, Senatore said, "No one has notified me."

The road department, according to a representative said the department was dissatisfied with the local Civil Service organization and the management of the town's public works department.

The American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, has already gotten the signatures of a majority of the 32 workers in the road department.

"We had a meeting last week," a spokesman said, "and decided that we want somebody to represent us at budget time. We don't want to do anything that would hurt the political bosses. We just want an organization to look after us, too."

Mrs. Senatore said, "no one has ever complained to me."

Charles B. Tedesco, town attorney and president of the local Civil Service Association, said:

"It's only one small minority that's doing this. I can't understand why they want to join the ranks of labor. We did more for them than the unions ever did."

The union is reportedly seeking to organize all the municipal employees of Belleville.

The representative of the Road Department complained that neither the Civil Service organization nor the local Public Works Department was interested in the grievances of the town employees.

"The Civil Service Association doesn't represent us when we have trouble," he continued, "and we are forbidden to call up the commissioner of public works and offer our grievances."

"We once had trouble," the spokesman for the pro-union workers added, "and an organization for garage workers called up Commissioner Mary V. Senatore, but she refused to see us then."

Meanwhile, Edward Schultz, a spokesman for the union's state offices in Trenton, confirmed that the process of organizing Belleville employees had begun.

"We've just notified the town officially," Schultz said, "and the Town Commission will have to accept it or attempt to delay it. Next week we will start official negotiations."

Schultz would not reveal what specifically the union would ask for. "We will let people know during our formal negotiations and not before," he said.

Meanwhile, town officials were apparently caught by surprise by the attempt to organize.

New Local Pastor

Rev. Alfred W. Stone Jr.

Fewsmith Church Shepherd Installed At Evening Service

Rev. Alfred W. Stone Jr., was installed as pastor of the Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church of Belleville, Sunday evening, at the church.

The presbytery commission that installed the Rev. Mr. Stone was composed of the moderator of the presbytery, Rev. Henry B. Strock, Jr., who presided and propounded the constitutional questions; Rev. Merle S. Irwin who preached the evening sermon; Rev. Howard Day, who led the evening prayer and Rev. Warriston McCracken, who gave the charge to the congregation.

Elder commissioners at the service were Harold Ross from the Fewsmith Church and Mrs. Uno Anderson from the Montgomery Presbyterian Church of Belleville.

Other participants were the Rev. Thomas E. Brown of Trenton, who read the evening scripture lesson, and Rev. Warren Henseler of the First Reformed Church of Hasbrouck Heights, who gave the charge to the newly installed Pastor.

A reception for Mr. and Mrs. Stone and their family followed at the fellowship hall.

Belleville Prepares to Win Football Battle In Nutley

Rival Teams

Meet Saturday

At Park Oval

It would be difficult to find a rivalry more keenly felt than the annual Belleville-Nutley varsity football game. Indeed, there is nothing less flippant or more tense in area athletics than the yearly gridiron show.

This year Belleville will strut to Nutley's Park Oval Saturday for the big game. And Belleville has complete intentions upon winning. Judging by the special and incisive circumstances of the upcoming event, the qualities and deficits of both teams, and the intense rivalry, qualified observers say Belleville may very well leave Nutley singing a triumphant strain Saturday evening.

The reason for Belleville's enthusiasm is based partially on Belleville's desperate need for a first victory, since the team has lost miserably in its past two contests. Belleville will be fighting what some persons have described as an "overconfident Nutley squad."

Passing Strength

Secondly, observers feel that Nutley's passing strength could collapse should head Belleville coach John Amabile's defensive patterns finally click to provide strength for which they were created.

Nutley after all, is not an unbeatable team. Both Garfield and East Orange its past two opponents, managed to break through the Maroon's defensive system and with the fine passing ability of Belleville's Rich De Guercio there is no reason why -- if the Belleville linemen can come through -- Nutley coach John Biviano's warriors could be overcome.

"If we win this game there will be very few teams that will stand in our way," he remarked. He thinks his Bellboys can find the right spark that will bring them back an overbirth of confidence.

"Bad morale, continued Amabile, "does stem from where losses are concerned and primarily in that field alone."

The Bellboys will meet the Maroon Raiders at Nutley and try to win back in a rivalry match what they lost in two bad defeats to both East Orange and Bloomfield.

Since this particular game is a rivalry match, both teams are going to be getting bruised on the stadiums field. Nutley to keep its record and Belleville has to overcome a poor one.

Championship Form

Coach Amabile admitted that his team knows that it does not look good and has realized what it has done. But we are out to "amend" it, he said.

During its match with East Orange, Belleville was confronted with a championship form. On their first series of downs the mighty East Orange offensive machine marched 68 yards, to score a five yard sweep by Panther quarterback Rhett Sherman.

On the very next play the Panther's opened a hole for halfback Steve Cowan who took the pigskin for a 58 yard touchdown run.

Belleville Clean-UP Week Begins Monday for Fall Trash Removal

As the weather plunges into autumn, Belleville is preparing a major clean-up drive before the cold season.

Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, director of Public Affairs, announced that the fall clean up week will begin this Monday. Clean up operations, Strumolo said, will continue through Saturday on regular trash collection days.

"Now is the time for all citizens to clean out their cellars, yards and garages and attics. The weather is brisk and all but invites participation in a town-wide clean-up program," Strumolo added.

The commissioner recommended citizens to place unwanted items at the curb at night prior to their regular pick up day.

The following objects will be carted off by garbage collectors as long as the debris does not weigh more than 300 pounds: building materials, fixtures, of the heating, plumbing or refrigeration variety; and lumber that does not exceed four feet in length and is tied in sizable bundles.

We hope that Belleville residents will take advantage of this opportunity to clean their homes and grounds, the commissioner said.

"It is so important for outsiders to appreciate Belleville as a beautiful community of fine residential homes, clean streets and grounds. The best step to create this favorable image begins with clean and well kept homes and properties. Certainly residents themselves are interested in beautifying their own land. Getting rid of old piles of lumber, unsightly rubbish, broken fixtures and similar items aid considerably in presenting a better town appearance."

Also cleaner attics, garages and other storage places limit and decrease the dangers of fires.

Strumolo said he hopes Belleville residents will make clean-up week a family project. "Everyone should help make a cleaner Belleville," he said.

Clara Maass Hospital Endures Wildcat Strike of Personnel

The employees of the Dietary Department at Clara Maass Hospital last week walked off the job in a wildcat strike following the suspension of an employee for insubordination.

Other members of Local 1199 AFL-CIO Drug and Hospital employees joined in the protest in support of their fellow employees.

The employee, Mamie Knight, refused to accept an assignment that she had been performing for some time and was consequently suspended for insubordination, the hospital said. She claimed that a non-union employee was assigned to her duties on a part-time basis.

A hospital spokesman stated that for as long as he could remember the employees of the Dietary Department would man the cash register for a little over an hour on a regularly scheduled basis while the first shift personnel were having breakfast. Due to the workload increase during the crisis.

in the Dietary Department, a new employee was hired to assist in these duties.

It was then that the union members protested over non-bargaining unit personnel performing duties normally assigned to them, and rather than accept the orderly grievance procedure, without warning, walked off the job.

The wildcat strike which lasted about 2 1/2 hours was quickly called to a halt when the union officials were contacted pending negotiations.

After numerous discussions with the union officials, the problems were resolved and the tensions eased.

The service employees of the hospital were organized three years ago as members of Local 1199, Drug & Hospital Employees.

Harold C. Widman, administrative assistant, reported that during the work stoppage which occurred just prior to the noon hour, there was no effect on patient care during the crisis.

New Cub Program

Survey To Be Used In Training Leaders

Training in improved scout methods will begin at Thomm's restaurant October 15 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. and at St. Peter's School in Belleville October 9 at 8 p.m. to all local Cub Scout Pack leaders.

Major improvements in the Cub Scout program of the Boy Scouts of America go into effect this month after a 5-year study, and the revisions are expected to increase Cub Scouting's natural appeal for boys and provide more help for volunteer leaders.

"The study findings brought out very clearly the vitality and soundness of the Cub Scout program," Donald J. Parry, scout commissioner, told the Executive Board of the Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America, this week. "There is evidence of genuine enthusiasm for the program on the part of boys, leaders, and parents."

The Cub Scout program was formally launched in 1930, and the last major changes were made in 1952. There are now over two million Cub Scouts in the United States.

One of the early steps before starting the series of studies and surveys was to prepare a "statement of purpose" related to Cub Scouting for the present day, Parry said.

The basic statement that resulted is that "Cub Scouting is a program of the Boy Scouts of America for parents, leaders, and institutions to use with boys 8, 9, and 10 years of age."

Then, the purposes of Cub Scouting were listed: To influence the development of character and encourage spiritual growth; develop habits and attitudes of good citizenship; encourage good sportsmanship and pride in growing strong in mind and body; improve understanding within the family; strengthen the ability to get along with other boys and respect other people; foster a sense of personal achievement by developing new

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Some time ago one company asked permission from the Town of Nutley to make a survey about TV reception, in order to find out whether it would pay them to install a CATV Community Antenna TV system. Nothing more has been heard about this since.

In New York they are busy working on this. Three firms have been authorized to go ahead, each one in a certain section of the city. Conditions in New York are vastly different than in this vicinity. In some sections of New York City reception is very poor. The large steel and glass buildings all but obliterate a TV signal.

As a rule we have good signal strength in this vicinity. Our main problem is ghosts (reflections), usually on one or two stations, and in most cases they are not too bad either. Of course one of the modern, reflection-reducing antennas helps a lot.

There seem to be some sections in every town where reception is not quite as good as in other parts. This is often due to large buildings, church towers, high tension wires or similar obstructions. Fortunately there seem to be at least several stations everywhere that come in good, although they may not always be those that one wants most. It is questionable that it would pay to install a CAT system under these circumstances, because there would hardly be enough subscribers.

If you are plagued with ghosts and still have an old antenna, probably you can improve reception considerably by the installation of a modern antenna. Your serviceman should be able to advise you.

St. Peters Church Will Send Large Delegation To Holy Name Parade

John Triquet, of Van Houten Place, Belleville, president of the Holy Name Society at St. Peter's R. C. Church, Belleville, said more than sixty five men from the parish have already indicated they would be in the "High Hat" group, leading the largest delegation St. Peter's has ever marshaled in the annual Holy Name Parade in Newark on October 8.

Gene Barnett, town clerk, is in charge of this group in "High Hats and Tails," replete with white gloves and cane. "As Gene said recently, 'You'll never know how well you look until you've donned this regalia and marched with us, The Kiernan's - George Sr., Patrick, and George Jr. will serve as Gene's adjutants," Triquet said.

With His Excellency, Bishop Joseph A. Costello, Pastor of St. Peter's, and his three assistants, Rev. Francis A. Ignacino, Rev. Richard J. Groncki, and Rev. James F. Heavey, Spiritual Director of the St. Peter's Holy Name Society, marching at the head of the "High-Hat" contingent, it is expected that at least 450 men from St. Peter's Parish will join in the Parade, to form the largest delegation St. Peter's has ever been able to organize.

William H. "Doc" Hood, the oldest active member of St. Peter's Holy Name Society, at 92, plans to be in the parade, and will be flanked by many more "oldsters" from the Parish.

Grand Marshal John P. Chrenko, of 452 Cortlandt Street, Belleville, a member of St. Peter's Holy Name Society, and its delegate to the Holy Name Federation, has been selected by the Parade's Grand Marshal to head the Fifth Division of the Parade. The St. Peter's group will march in this division.

President Triquet further indicated that all of the marchers are asked to attend the 8 a.m. Holy Name Communion Mass Sunday Morning, October 8th, and are cordially invited to attend the short business meeting of the Holy Name Society, which will follow immediately after the Mass.

The men will assemble in front of the Church at 1:45 p.m. for a short "warm-up" march on the local streets. William Street to Union to Belleville to Washington to William Street and back to the School, where special buses will take every marcher directly to the assembly point in Newark.

At the conclusion of the parade, the same buses will return the men to St. Peter's, where refreshments will be served to everyone.

"With a large Marching Band and also a Drum and Bugle Corps, both from Xavier Catholic High in New York City, providing the marching cadence for the St. Peter contingent, it is hoped the entire St. Peter's Parish will view the march, either in Belleville, or in Newark.

Vehicular Bridge Protest

DeVito, (who was at this meeting) side with me when I was discussing this matter with the Commissioners in Town Hall? DeVito said nothing, while our other Leader, Mrs. Benavista, who lives on top of the hill on Rutan Road, jumping out of her seat shouted that she wanted a vehicle bridge. Why did Mrs. Benavista, after a certain phone call on this subject, state that this was DeVito's idea? These district leaders are Mrs. Senatore's workers! I was always under the impression that the district leaders were supposed to work for the voters in this section. Now, I wonder!

"I spoke to Mr. Gordon, the Freeholder, in his office at the Hall of Records on September 26, 1967. Why wasn't Gordon told about the petition earlier? The list of names have been on file in the Town Hall since 1962! The folks in the Rutan Estates better wake up! This is a job for all, not a few, Patetta said. Reidel, who lives at 58 Plenge Drive, gave a brief history of the bridge controversy. He said,

"Frank Patetta's petition of 1962 was for a foot bridge. There are 245 homes west of the Third River in the Rutan area.

Members of the Rutan Estates Homeowners' Association discussed this matter with the first Town Council in January of 1963. It was agreed that a bridge was a necessity.

On April 2, 1965 a letter to the town fathers from REHOA stated that it was the association's belief that "... we believe that a foot bridge will provide the most practical solution to this problem."

"On Sept. 19, 1965 REHOA wrote a letter to the town fathers requesting the status of the bridge project."

"A letter dated October 6, 1965 from the Town Manager, John R. Burnett, stated 'Please be advised that a majority of the Town Council are in agreement that a foot bridge be constructed across the Third River from Carolyn Road into Rutan Estates ...'

"Letters were written by Rehoia concerning this matter on Dec. 17, 1965, Feb. 16, 1966, and June 16, 1966.

"A letter from Burnett to REHOA dated June 16, 1966 stated 'Third, I had commissioned Mr. Welsh to draw plans for a foot bridge across the Third River at Carolyn Road ...' Further, Burnett stated that the work on the plan was later turned over to Raymond Daly, town engineer.

"A letter from REHO to Burnett dated June 21, 1966 stated 'The residents in the area have clearly been in favor of a foot bridge for four years.'

"The present Town Commissioners contacted the county about the possibility of a bridge at this location, received a positive response from the county, and authorized county action all in a short period of less than

Local Police Represented At 'College'

Graduation ceremonies for the first "Operation Combine" class for municipal police officers was recently held in Kendal-Hall at Trenton State College.

Among the 100-man class included representatives of 12 Mid-Atlantic and Northeastern State Police organizations, as well as representatives from New Jersey's 21 counties. From Essex County came, Nutley Police Chief Francis T. Buel. Belleville was represented by Capt. John J. McNish.

Attending the ceremonies were: New Jersey Governor Richard J. Hughes, Attorney General Arthur J. Sils and Colonel D. B. Kelly, State Police Superintendent. All three men addressed the graduating class.

Reverend John A. McHale, State Police Chaplain, gave the invocation and benediction. Representing the graduating class was Chief George P. Goffkin of the Sparta Township Police. Chief Goffkin has expressed the consensus of New Jersey law enforcement officers in endorsing the program which is in keeping with the need for constant updating of all phases of police training.

With the aid of both Dr. Carl Marburger, Commissioner of Education and Ralph A. Dungan, Chancellor of Higher Education, Colonel Kelly acquired Trenton State College as the first operational class.

My greatest catch is Edwards of course.

What was the urgency? The county had people making measurements at the site today. Why were Patetta's petition and several REHOA letters disregarded? REHOA represents 110 homeowners in 1967.

"The action of the Town Commissioners could not be questioned under the current Town meeting procedures. The resolution, and indeed all Town resolutions, are ruled upon by the Commissioners and a citizen cannot discuss the resolution until after they are passed or rejected. Citizens can only be heard after the Commission has already taken action on all resolutions at a town meeting and he can only speak for five minutes!

"Is this any way to run a 'government of the people?' Reidel asked.

State Parade In Support Of Vietnam

Units from every county in the state are expected to participate in a gigantic parade, October 22, in Newark, to demonstrate support for American fighting men in Vietnam and respect for law.

The parade is being sponsored by a committee composed of representatives of various patriotic, fraternal, service and veterans organizations and is closely aligned with the National Committee for Responsible Patriotism formed by key persons involved in organizing the huge parade held last May in New York City.

Parade co-chairmen Martin Kaufman of Hillside, representing the Jewish War Veterans, and Eugene J. Byrne of Montclair, representing the Ancient Order of Hibernians, reported that the group will shortly open a parade headquarters in downtown Newark.

All organizations and individuals in New Jersey interested in displaying support for our men in Vietnam, were invited to send a representative to the committee meeting, September 11:30 p.m., Military Park Hotel, 16 Park Place, Newark.

Kaufman and Byrne pointed out that the parade will be non-political and nonpartisan, and will in no way indicate either support or opposition to administration policy on Vietnam.

GOP's Mr. Blasi

The G O P's Mr. Blasi was at a meeting last week of Newark's West Ward Republican County Committee, presided over by the Ward Chairman, William F. Yeomans.

Republican Essex county supervisor, Walter Blasi, was called upon to make a speech and this is how he started, -- "During the recent Republican Primary Campaign, we heard of a lot of talk from the opposition about Bill Yeomans and bossism. I want you to know that I pledge my loyalty to our great leader Bill Yeomans."

Apparently, county supervisor Walter Blasi either didn't understand the meaning of the September twelfth election results, or he was out of the country on that fateful political day.

We think Republican voters will want to remember Mr. Blasi's deathbed loyalty statement when he comes up for reelection four years hence. The county supervisor's term of office runs for five years, and Mr. Blasi had the good fortune to see his name on last year's ballot when Senator Clifford P. Case brought in the entire Essex Republican ticket.

Mr. Case will not be on the ballot when Mr. Blasi comes up for reelection. It may be possible that the man to whom Mr. Blasi pledged his loyalty may not even be around to assure Mr. Blasi of the nomination.

Understanding Communism and Ourselves

One obligation of all citizens attempting to follow world events is that to try to understand the systems of government in other countries. For example, some Americans fail to see any merit in the continued existence of royal families--such as in England.

An even more complex pattern is that in the Scandinavian countries. These countries enjoy high standards of living. Yet they are socialist. Three also have kings. And they are democracies.

Does that mean Americans should advocate changes in these countries? Would the American system work better than what now exists? For the United States we feel confident our system is best but we can't always be sure our style of government, if imported, would be best for others.

In Cuba, what disturbs many is the fact that certain progress is being made by Fidel Castro's government. The rate of illiteracy has been reduced. Many new schools and hospitals have been built over the country and one respected U.S. reporter says the standard of education and health has obviously improved since Castro came to power.

Previous Cuban governments did not offer the Cuban people freedom, so we cannot argue that Castro, in heading a dictatorship, has replaced a democratic form of government. Nor can we be sure if we argue the Batista regime was better for the common man than the Castro regime.

All of which should remind us that we cannot solve all the problems of the world, for the various peoples and races of the world, and that our form of government and our political system may not work everywhere. Despite all our good intentions, money and military power, some of the peoples of the world are not yet ready for American-style democracy.

Skiping Opportunities for Minorities

Much scorn is heaped on so-called do-gooders in their crusades for what they see are improvements in society--some just and some unjust. In the United States, where a basically white society is assimilating some twenty million blacks, there is naturally much activity and much criticism and praise in the civil rights field.

It would certainly seem that in recent years some reformers have turned to pampering minorities, excusing crimes, explaining away criminal acts and, in general, adopting the philosophy so many parents adopted fifteen or twenty years ago--that one shouldn't discipline junior.

To some extent and in some cases this approach is productive, but applied wholesale to any group or minority, it has the unfortunate effect of producing a class of martyrs in society, which can threaten the very continued existence of the society itself.

Feelings of guilt, of a moral obligation to correct past injustices, are admirable

Babton's Point of View

Modernizing State Governments

Mounting social unrest in our cities admittedly stems from various causes. But a growing number of public officials, educators, sociologists, and businessmen feel that the cities are stymied -- by their efforts to improve conditions -- by outmoded state constitutions and laws.

Our founding fathers established a federal system comprising (1) a strong central government with specific powers limited by the Constitution and (2) effective state governments to act as a checkrein on this central authority. Their concept of the proper division of power is spelled out in Article X of the Bill of Rights: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

For the first 125 years of our history as a nation, this division of power was adhered to. But beginning early in the present century the federal government has been growing stronger and more authoritarian, casting an ever-lengthening shadow over the states. Climbing local costs for education, public welfare, and other services -- now threatening to expand beyond the ability of the states to pay -- are causing real concern. At last, the urgency of the need to strengthen our system by modernizing state governments is being widely recognized.

In the vanguard of organizations actively plumping for reforms in state government structures is the Committee For Economic Development. The committee asserts that sweeping revisions of state constitutions are necessary to bring these in line with modern conditions. CED also recommends annual sessions for all state legislatures and substantially higher salaries for members. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States is another advocate of state government reform and is trying to enlist broad public support for such a program. Some Chamber officials believe the states could more effectively administer their services if county government functions were to be expanded and updated.

CED, the Chamber, and other groups have made several further recommendations...with basic agreement on one point: That Governors of states should be given more authority and responsibility and be provided with adequate staffs and budgets to permit the proper exercise of such authority and responsibility.

Considerable interest is now being focused on Massachusetts, one of the original 13 states -- which is about to move toward the first major reorganization of state government since colonial days. Last month, the federal government approved a $722,000 comprehensive study to determine how best to update the Bay State's executive department.

Stop The War;

Squash The Surtax

To The Editor:

The projected $29 billion deficit which makes President Johnson call for a 10 percent surtax on income is a grave matter. The President speaks of the dangers of inflation in such a deficit -- but he also says the deficit is caused in part by a general slowdown in our economy. A tax increase would slow it down even more, and reduce job opportunities at a time when unemployed youth are rioting in urban areas.

Mr. Johnson has said "no Vietnam requirements will be short-changed if the Administration's tax program is not enacted." There are alternative ways of raising money to cover the deficit. An excess profits tax would secure many billions of dollars from corporations profiteering from defense contracts.

Coit Industries, for example, made 140 percent profit on one huge contract to manufacture M16 rifles for our armed forces. Plugging tax loopholes such as the 27 percent depletion allowance for oil and minerals could bring in billions.

For political reasons the President would choose rather to economize on domestic programs.

He has issued orders already to effect a $2 billion economy. But the combined anti-poverty, public housing and secondary education expenditure increases over the last three years have been only $6.2 billion, as compared to the $44 billion increase in defense expenditures -- $26 billion having gone to the Vietnam war. Scuttling the entire Great Society program would make much of a dent in the war-swollen deficit, even if it were morally thinkable.

The only economically sound, politically safe and morally right action is to reduce expenditures in Vietnam. If Congress refuses to pass a tax program to finance the escalating war costs, the Administration will have to accept the fact that the war must end -- and soon, before it spirals into World War III.

If you don't want the war surtax, let your Congressman know, immediately.

Sincerely,
Charlotte Mandel, President
Essex County Branch Women's International League for Peace and Freedom

Seems Only Yesterday

One Year Ago

Donald Smith, former deputy chief, stepped up to the position of Belleville Chief of Police, replacing the retiring Charles McGinnis. At the same time came the swearing in of Thurman Davis to the police force--Belleville's first Negro police officer.

Town manager John R. Burnett revealed latest developments on several local recreation projects planned. Belleville was seeking funds from the state Green Acres program to create a three and one half acre recreation site in the Silver Lake section. Completion of definite plans was expected "before the year is out." Plans were also revealed for a half-million dollar public safety building at the corner of Franklin Avenue and Mill Street, to combine police department, fire department and court headquarters.

Court Gratia 751, Catholic Daughters of America, celebrated its 45th year. Selected as the theme for the anniversary commemoration was "A Time to Serve."

William A. Sommers, sworn in as new Belleville Town Manager by Judge Edward Abramson, stated that he would be "tough as hell when it came to fundamental principles." Sommers emphasized that no town employee would be permitted to hold any political office or engage in any political activity. "The Council-Manager form of government is a non-partisan operation," Sommers said. "Mixing politics into it creates an atmosphere contrary to its entire conception."

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce submitted to new Town Manager Sommers a list of 16 suggestions for "making a good town better." They included a new, up-to-date building code, a housing code, warning signs on Washington Avenue intersections and banning of "throwaway" advertising material, sidewalk displays, certain signs and hawkers.

Four persons were killed in a two-car crash on wet, slippery Route 21 late one night. None were Belleville residents.

Ten Years Ago

The enrollment of Belleville High jumped 221 over that of the previous year, school officials announced as they opened for another year.

Rabbi Victor Cohen of Greenfield, Mass., was named spiritual leader of Congregation Ahavath Achim of Belleville. A graduate of New York University, Rabbi Cohen was a prominent Massachusetts clergyman.

Commissioner Elmer Hyde, director of parks and public property, took a strong position in opposition to the Passaic Valley Planning Association's proposal to incorporate 64 lots of the Rutan Estates into a 43 acre county park straddling the Belleville-Nutley line. Hyde stated that the main reason for the plan was to "save money for a builder who had made a bad business transaction" regarding the Rutan Estates.

Twenty Years Ago

At age 65, Mrs. Hannah Peterson, 196 Hornblower Avenue, was told by insurance company doctors that they could not approve a life insurance policy for her because of heart condition. "We can give her only 2 to 3 years to live," they declared. Mrs. Peterson did not take kindly to this advice, and did her best to disprove it. It appeared as though she succeeded--because much of Belleville turned out to help her celebrate her 100th birthday in a gala party at her home.

Still in possession of her faculties to an amazing degree, Mrs. Peterson recognized many guests she had not seen in over 50 years. Over 100 Bellevillites and relatives were present to wish her well.

A member of one of Belleville's oldest families, Mrs. Peterson also celebrated her 88th year as a local resident. Her original home was the first building in all that section of Belleville.

Andrew Cooper, 36 Overlook Avenue, was installed commander of the Belleville American Legion Post 105 in traditional installation ceremonies. A veteran of World War I, Cooper was assisted by Arthur S. Ackerman, senior vice commander; Harry P. Simon, junior vice commander; Richard D. Shannon, finance officer; Kermit B. Giorward, sergeant at arms; Harry McCumber, chaplain; Charles Charrler, service officer; Allan P. Bonhoff, historian; Otto T. Breunich, ritual officer and Arthur A. MacCready, adjutant.

Thirty Years Ago

What is the difference between a one and two family house. The Belleville Town Commission wasn't quite sure, when Director of Streets and Public Improvements Patrick A. Waters puzzled it after a difficult case has arisen. It appeared as though the Board had rejected an application by DeWitt Avenue resident to make alterations, stating that they would set a precedent by making a one family house into a two family one. The builder, William Wilson, stated that his house was to remain a one family one, and that his addition of a sink for an elderly lady residing upstairs did not constitute the change.

The Town Commission also passed an ordinance resurrecting the old smoke abatement department. The salary of Fire Chief Alec Reid was increased from $3,100 to $3,500.

Two cases of infantile paralysis in Belleville were reported to town health officer Eugene Barry. Barry stated that the number was normal, and that the town had seen five cases five years before and one the year preceding.

Thirty-Five Years Ago

School No. 3 closed to all students to attend funeral services for Mrs. Ruth F. Dolan a fourteen year veteran of the School 3 faculty. Mrs. Dolan had been stricken two weeks previously and died despite several blood transfusions. She was resident of Nutley.

Several hundred Belleville citizens were disappointed when Mayor Kenworthy announced that there would be no discussion on the proposal to call upon the State Municipal Finance Commission for assistance in solving Belleville's finance problem. They had come to the town Commission meeting in hopes of hearing further verbal fireworks on the subject, which had been occupying the attention of the town fathers for a considerable period of time.

Sylvania announces a Special Sale for Rich People.

These preposterously elegant 1967 Sylvania Stereo and Color TV Consoles (abounding with all kinds of electronic gizmos) are the most. They're so loaded with luxury that it takes at least 3 healthy men to carry one. So grandiose that they're taking up a lot of space we need for the new Sylvania line for '68. (Which includes a lot of little low-priced models for the needy.)

So something has to give. What gives is the prices. We lowered the prices so much that now almost any run-of-the-mill rich guy can afford one.

It's a great opportunity to save a lot of money, if you can afford to.

PETS NEED LOVE AND PROTECTION

Only persons who will take good care of pets should own them. Children must be taught not to tease or abuse them. Proper grooming, feeding, exercise, attention, discipline, and medical care are "musts." Only an experienced adult should attempt to break up a dog or animal fight.

There are some effective and safe remedies and health-aids for pets which we will be glad to explain to you. But, just as you should consult a physician when ailments or discomforts persist, it is important that a veterinarian be consulted whenever your pets have returning symptoms of a previous problem.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

What do you mean, "armamentarium?"

Sometimes physicians forget and talk their own language. Greek to most people. Now, about the mouthful above, ever hear something like this from your doctor? "... drawing on our present armamentarium to treat you..." Actually, "armamentarium" is just a doctor's word for the array of treatments and medications at his disposal. When it comes to drugs, this armamentarium is something. Thousands and thousands, literally. All are readily available in this pharmacy to help preserve your health when needed—a public service which we are pleased to render.

Appalachians Wanted For Recreation Area

A citizens' movement to protect the Appalachian Highlands from indiscriminate urban sprawl and to preserve its 800 square miles of open spaces for the recreational use of the rapidly growing New Jersey and New York population was launched here today.

The population of this area is expected to rise from 19 million to 30 million in the next three decades, according to Calvin W. Stillman, Ph.D., president of the newly formed Appalachian Highlands Association, Inc. By acting now, this natural green band can be preserved as a "central park" for all of these people, urban sprawl can be stopped before it starts and the Highlands will increase in value.

Transportation Board Okays New Construction

The Department of Transportation reports that clearing operations are underway on Laurel Avenue, Livingston Township. This will start preliminary construction of more than four miles of Interstate Route 280 (the East-West Freeway) in Morris and Essex Counties.

Poirier and McLane Corporation, Yonkers, N.Y., is contractor, winning the contract with a low bid of $7,423,997.62, in June.

The contractor will start Monday clearing the roadway's path from Laurel to Livingston Avenue, Roseland, and easterly from Laurel to Roosevelt Avenue, West Orange. Work will then start on structures to carry Route 280 under relocated Laurel Avenue, followed by construction of a bridge over the Morristown & Erie Railroad and other structures included in the contract.

Engineering School Offers New Terms

Engineering school curriculum planners have a bear by the tail these days, according to one New Jersey college president.

Writing in his annual report issue of NCE Today, quarterly newsletter of Newark College of Engineering, Dr. Robert W. Houten states that the old lines of formal engineering education are breaking down "and new and sometimes startling interdisciplinary requirements are taking their place."

According to Dr. Van Houten, "Where not so long ago the designations of Civil, Mechanical or Electrical engineering were clear-cut, pretty well understood, and all that seemed required, now we are being deluged with such designations as biomedical engineering, systems engineering, electromechanics, space and ocean engineering, cryogenics and so on through a long list of new and bewildering terms."

Belleville Red Cross Will Sponsor Swimming Class

Leonard Bade, chairman of the water safety program for the Belleville District Essex Chapter, American Red Cross announces that two swimming courses will be held this fall.

One course is for girls, beginners through swimmers which will open Saturday for 12 weeks at the Montclair YMCA Pool, 25 Park Street, Montclair.

Classes will be held from 7 to 8 p.m. and the fee for the use of the pool is $6. Registration will be at the pool.

The second course is for boys, beginners through swimmers which will be at the Clifton Boy's Club, 802 Clifton Avenue, Clifton.

This course will start tomorrow for 12 weeks. Classes will be held from 6 to 7 p.m. and the fee for the use of the pool is $6. For further information please call the Belleville district office 759-4610.

Bade also announced that 171 Red Cross certificates were awarded during the summer to boy and girl campers at Camp Ro-Li, operated by the Belleville Rotary and Lion's Club. George Walner directed the program.

Two Local Children Get Stagg Award

Carol Vitiello of 8 Cedar Hill Avenue and Stanley Waldemore of 48 Wilson Place, both of Belleville, have been awarded the Amos Alonzo Stagg Foundation Award as part of activities at Belleville Park, August 15.

They were awarded a handsome gold medallion named "Century of Physical Fitness" for demonstrating outstanding qualities of physical fitness, character, loyalty, and cooperation on the playground during the season which began on June 27.

The Essex County Park Commission participated in the Stagg Foundation Award this year in an effort to promote physical fitness and call to the attention of county youngsters the wonderful contributions of the grand old man of the athletic world -- Amos Alonzo Stagg. In the personality and character of Amos Stagg, American's greatest devotee of physical fitness, children can see a true symbol of American greatness which has been dedicated to youth all over the nation.

Contract Received by ITT

Receipt of an additional $1,700,000 contract from the U.S. Navy for shipboard radio navigation sets to be operated in conjunction with navigation satellites was announced today by a division of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

Dr. Arnold M. Levine, vice president and general manager of ITT Aerospace, disclosed the contract, awarded by the Navy Ships Systems Command.

Bill Karatz will Play Seton Hall Soccer

Seton Hall University will open its 27th soccer season and Coach Menza's 10th when the Pirates face Jersey City State away at noon Saturday. Bill Karatz of Belleville will play halfback.

The Pirates face a stiff 14-tit slate including NCAA finalist L. I. U. and semifinalist Army. Former NCAA champion West Chester, to be met in the home opener on October 4, City College, Fairleigh Dickinson, and Rutgers are other former tournament entries.

Coach Menza expects trouble with Jersey City. The Gothics by winning the last three meetings have evened the series at 3-3-1. The veteran mentor hopes to improve on last year's 3-10 record but is wary despite the return of 14 veterans. "Our opponents have personnel with much more soccer background than most of our players. I would be satisfied with a .500 season but that will be tough to reach," Menza stated.

Only one soph, John Shields from Kearny High, is included in the first 15. The talented Hudsonite has looked so good in pre-season drills that veteran Art Doweiko of Maplewood is understudying him and being used at fullback.

The other fullbacks are Jay Grochmal of Livingston, Ron Giordano of Rutherford, and Dennis Mayer of East Newark and Joe Almeida of East Hanover.

At center halfback is Harry Rapel of Hillside. The other two halfbacks will be chosen from Bill Karatz of Belleville, John Accella of Irvington, Gary Just of East Newark, and Richie Hilbrand of Bound Brook.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

On Saturday, October 21, 1967 from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M., the Nutley Art Group will sponsor the ninth "ten-and-under" sale. Paintings, workshop sketches, art material and craft will be featured at the Nutley Museum, 65 Church Street, Nutley.

Space reservations will be made between October 16 and 20. Work may be brought in Friday evening, October 20, between 7 and 9 p.m. or on Saturday morning, October 21 before 10 a.m. - on day of sale - and picked up not later than 10:30 p.m. on the same day...if there are any left.

Extreme care will be taken of paintings and sketches left unattended, but the club tells us it cannot be responsible for loss or damage. However, the Nutley Art Group prefers that each artist be represented at all times.

Elected to Howard Savings

Richard R. Wiss, president of J. Wiss & Sons Company, Newark cutlery manufacturers, was elected today to the board of managers of The Howard Savings Institution. John W. Kress, president, made the announcement following the Board's regular monthly meeting.

Wiss was graduated from Mercersburg Academy in Pennsylvania in 1932, and in 1936 from Cornell University, with a BS degree in administrative engineering.

A veteran of World War II, Wiss served as a major with the Ordnance Department, Picatinny Arsenal from 1941 to 1946.

He succeeded his father to the presidency of Wiss and Sons Company in 1956, and is the great-grandson of Jacob Wiss, who established the company in 1848.

In 1966 he received the good citizenship award from the Real Estate Board of Newark, Irvington and Hillsdale, North. He is a vice president and board member of the Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America; a member of the board of the United Community Fund of Essex and West Hudson Counties; a board member of the Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce and a member of the executive committee of the American Hardware Manufacturers' Association.

He is a member of the Rotary Club of Newark, the Rock Spring Country Club and Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity. He is also the vice commodore of the Bay Head Yacht Club.

Last year, Wiss commissioned the development of a rose, "Pride of Newark," which was presented to the City on the occasion of Newark's 300th anniversary.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Conry; In Florida

A High Mass of Requiem was offered Wednesday, September 20 in St. Mary's Church Nutley for Mrs. Jennie A. Conry of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, a former resident of Belleville, who died September 16 after Florida residence after a short illness.

Born in Trenton, Mrs. Conry had lived in Belleville for the past 50 years before moving to Florida 10 years ago.

She was the widow of the late Cornelius Conry. Mrs. Conry is survived by two daughters, Miss Etta Conry of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Mrs. William Betsch of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and two grandchildren.

The Wadsworth Funeral Home, 524 Union Avenue, Belleville, was in charge of the arrangements. Interment followed in Immaculate Conception Cemetery, Montclair.

Wiss is married to the former Virginia Drake. He has three children and resides at 25 Jefferson Avenue, Short Hills, New Jersey.

New Service

Investors who have savings or checking accounts at The Howard Savings Institution can now take advantage of a new Howard service, John W. Kress, bank president, announced today.

Known as the Dividend Deposit Service, the new plan permits owners of stocks or mutual fund shares to have their dividend checks sent directly from the corporation or mutual fund to The Howard deposit. The bank then mails a record of the transaction to the depositor. There is no charge for this service.

Kress said that the new service was begun at the request

Phillip V. Drentlau, Longtime Resident

The funeral for Phillip V. Drentlau, 73, of 64 Bell Street, Belleville, who died September 30 at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, after a short illness, was held Monday from the Johnesee Nutley Home for Funerals, 536-538 Washington Avenue, Nutley, with Rev. Albert E. Ailsbach pastor of Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church, officiating.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, Mr. Drentlau was a retired shipping clerk who had worked for Beth Israel Hospital, Newark, 10 years.

He was resident of Belleville 44 years and a member of the Kings County Masonic Lodge #511, Brooklyn, New York and the Bethany Evangelical Lutheran Church of Belleville.

Mr. Drentlau leaves his wife, Mrs. Marie Baum Drentlau, a son, John P. Drentlau of River-edge, and two grandchildren. Interment was in Hackensack Cemetery, Hackensack.

Of many of the bank's more than 350,000 depositors who are sometimes inconvenienced by the need to handle frequent dividend checks, and who do not have the time to keep accurate dividend records.

"The Dividend Deposit Service is designed to accommodate these depositors, who represent an increasing number of bank customers who also have securities," he said.

"It is in the savings bank tradition to provide the public with new services for their needs," he continued, "particularly when these needs grow out of faith and confidence in American industry and our free enterprise system evidenced by the investment in securities."

Jersey Sportsmen's Calendar Prepared

A New Jersey sportsmen's calendar for early fall was announced this week by Commissioner Robert A. Poe of the State Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

In addition to the hunting and fishing dates listed, special attention is called to application deadlines for the December 16 Special Permit deer season to be held in 17 counties. Farmers desiring free permits to hunt their own land must apply on official forms between September 4 and 8. Application forms are available from most County Agricultural Agents and Fish and Game Conservation Officers.

Applications for the 14,740 special permits allocated to licensed hunters for that date are available from license agents. These applications must be received between September 13 and 22. Applications for either type of permit must be sent to the Division of Fish and Game, Box 1809, Trenton, N.J. 08625, within the specified dates.

Licensed hunters and anglers should consult the 1967 Compendium of New Jersey Fish Laws, and 1967-68 Compendium of Game Laws for detailed regulations.

Russian Begins Concert Season

The New Jersey Symphony's 1967-1968 Suburban concert series will begin Friday, October 20, at Montclair High School with a performance featuring the young Russian pianist, Nicolai Petrov.

The concert will be repeated the following evening at Millburn High School. Similar pairs of performances at Montclair and Millburn will take place in February and March. Soloist in February will be the celebrated violinist Ruggiero Ricci. In March, the Symphony will present its first all-request program.

The coming concert season will be directed by the Symphony's Music Director, Kenneth Schermerhorn.

In addition to the suburban series, the coming season will include three performances by the full orchestra at Symphony Hall in Newark, a number of concerts by the New Jersey Symphony Chamber Orchestra, and one of the nation's most extensive student education programs.

The widely acclaimed Petrov, appearing for the first time with any orchestra in the New York metropolitan area, will play Prokofiev's Piano Concerto No. 3 in C Major. On the same program will be Dvorak's Symphony No. 2 in D Minor and Sir John Barbirolli's arrangement of Henry Purcell's Suite for Strings.

Johnny also got free transportation to school.

He goes to a non-profit private school. And most of the time the only way he could get there was by hitchhiking. This was illegal—and perilous. Meanwhile, his friend next door rode safely to public school in a free school bus. No difference between the boys. Only between the schools they attended. The Democratic Legislature thought this was not fair and passed a law that protects all our children. It says that if some children are entitled to free transportation to school, so are all children living at the same or longer distances from school. Certainly there was controversy. But the Democratic Legislature had the courage to act. Now thousands of kids like Johnny are safer.

Walter Kidde Company Reports Sales and Income Has Doubled

For the nine-month period ending September 30, 1967, sales and net income of Walter Kidde & Company, Inc. will be more than double that which was reported by the company for the same period in 1966.

This was estimated by Fred R. Sullivan, chairman of the board and chief executive officer, speaking before the Investment Analysts Society of Chicago at Chicago's Midland Hotel.

Sullivan anticipated sales for the period will be between $255 million and $265 million, with net income after taxes between $9 1/4 million and $9 1/2 million. Earnings per common share, he estimated, will be between $2.10 and $2.15.

For the nine-month period in 1966, Kidde reported sales of $126 million, net income of $4.1 million, and earnings per common share of $1.63, adjusted for stock dividends.

The 1967 nine-month estimates do not include the operations of Grove Manufacturing Company, whose acquisition by Kidde is currently pending; or the proposed acquisition of Lithonia Lighting, Inc., which was announced.

Kidde's sales for the full year of 1967 will be more than $370 million, said Sullivan, not including Grove and Lithonia. This compares with $274 million reported in 1966. Net income and earnings per share will be substantially higher than last year's $8 million and $2.51, respectively, he said; and return on sales and return on investment will continue to improve.

According to Franc M. Ricciardi, president of Kidde, who also addressed the Society, approximately 40% of Kidde's sales are in the safety, security and protection field; 30% to 35% of sales are industrial and technological, and 25% to 30% are commercial and consumer.

Headquartered in Belleville, New Jersey, Kidde employs more than 22,000 people.

Kiwanis Club Explains Law To Children Through Books

It's natural for kids to get into mischief, and many pranks are not very serious. But some "good gags" are actually crimes and can get you or your family into trouble. When mischief interferes with the rights of others, you may be breaking the law whether you know it or not. Ignorance of the law gives you no excuse.

You may not understand the reason for a law and therefore think it is not important to obey it. For instance, opening fire hydrants on a hot day may seem like innocent fun, but it is prohibited because it reduces the water pressure needed to fight fires. Sending in a false fire alarm is serious, not only because it costs a great deal of money to answer an alarm, but because firemen and engines may not be able to answer a call to a real fire if they are out on a false alarm.

It is the job of the police to protect your rights and the rights of others. It is our job to respect our laws and our police officers.

Every state in the union has a juvenile court or children's court for boys and girls under a certain age who come under its jurisdiction. This special court is a friend of young people who have violated the law. Its purpose is to keep young offenders from becoming adult criminals.

Does this mean that if you violated a law you will get off easier than if you had a trial in criminal court? Not at all. If the case was handled in the criminal court, you could go free on bond while awaiting trial. But if the case was in the juvenile court and the judge thought you might get into trouble before the "hearing," you would probably be detained in a jail or a detention home.

A certain act might draw only thirty days in a criminal court, but if you were in the juvenile court for that same act, the judge might decide, after studying your record and the way you have responded to people who tried to help you, that you need a longer period of supervision. Under the law he can send you to an institution where you may remain for more than a year, depending on the progress you make. In juvenile court you can't "buy your way to freedom" by serving time.

If you were placed on probation in the juvenile court, you could quite possibly have more restrictions placed on your freedom than if you received probation from an adult court.

If you get into trouble, the juvenile court judge and his probation officers can help you if you are willing to be helped. The court also assists children who have been neglected by their parents, determines who should be their legal guardians under certain conditions, and performs a number of other tasks for children and families.

Records of the juvenile court are confidential, so no child who is brought before it has to grow up with an official criminal record. But this does not guarantee you against being refused a job should an employer learn that you have been arrested. A single act of recklessness can spoil your whole life unless you are able to show that you can learn by experience. The juvenile court helps young people to do this, but only if they are willing to be helped.

The Branch Brook-Belleville Kiwanis Club has begun distributing 3,000 booklets of the "Law and You" to the school children in the public and parochial schools in Belleville.

The vocational guidance committee, under the leadership of Henry Werner of the Branch Brook-Belleville Kiwanis has endorsed this booklet as one of the most practical means of acquainting students and parents alike of how the "Law and You" affects the daily life of every individual. It is written in simple and understandable language and endorsed by National Council on Crime and Delinquency.

Werner states that over 400,000 copies have been distributed by Kiwanis clubs in all sections of the United States during the first half of 1967 school year, and an additional 500,000 will be given out during the next three months.

Parent and teachers may obtain extra copies from the local club by contacting the Branch Brook-Belleville Kiwanis office, 120 Rutgers Street, Belleville. Copies are free of charge.

The booklet points out that in a dictatorship, one man or one group of men makes the laws, and the people have no say about them.

In America, the people we elect to govern us make our laws. They make them to meet your needs and the needs of all of us. Occasionally a law turns out to be foolish or unfair, and most people decide they dislike it. When that happens, they can work to have the law changed or repealed. But it must be okayed until it is repealed or changed.

Recreation Department Begins Football Leagues On Sunday

The Belleville Recreation Department Football Leagues will open its 12th season Sunday, at both Clearman Field and the Municipal Stadium.

Teams sponsored by the Belleville Elks, Belleville Lions, Belleville Varsity (1966 Champs), and the Kiwanis Club of Belleville makes up the Lightweights Division. The Heavyweights Division is comprised of Jolly Cleaners (1966 Champs), Airco Plastic Products, Devon Electric and American Legion Post 105.

All clubs have been working out for the past three weeks under capable adult guidance. Bill Marcollese and Joe Scaparrota coach the Elks; Elmer Haug & Mike Kelly, Varsity Club; Robert Haug, Kiwanis Club; and Joe Restaino has the Lions Club. In the Heavyweight Division Dick Baker directs the Jolly Cleaners; Bob Valentino, Devon Electric; Pat Spagnolletti, American Legion; and Ralph Greco, Airco.

These men have many fine assistants who are drilling the boys in fundamentals, safety, physical conditioning and sportsmanship. Each club has 22 uniformed players and each player shall be in every game for not less than half a quarter of continuous play unless he is set down for discipline.

Every precaution is taken to prevent injuries. Any boy who looks unduly tired or shaken is removed from the game by the officials. Two Teams play a half a game then rest while the other teams play a half, then the first teams finish, which prevents the players becoming fatigued.

Trophies will be presented to the individuals of the winning team in each league.

Sundays games at the Stadium will pit the Elks vs Kiwanis at 1:30 p.m. and the Legion vs Jolly at 2 p.m. At Clearman Field, the Lions vs Varsity Club at 1:30 p.m. and Devons vs Airco at 2 p.m.

Local Ju-Jitsu Students Model Mini Skirts, Mini Gi's Uniforms

A Gi is the traditional form of clothing used by students and instructors in the oriental self-defense art of Judo and Karate. Stella Sapio (on the left) and Nancy Alexander both of Hasbrouck Heights, are students of Ben Patanella of Bloomfield at the N-B Ju-Jitsu School 234 Washington Avenue, Belleville.

Miss Sapio and Miss Alexander originally started the course for self-defense, but found their figures "so improved that they have decided to continue. The girls are only modeling half the uniform, Patanella is shown wearing the trousers.

Girls and women of all ages are rapidly becoming interested in this protective and body building sport. It is a form of self-defense, improves muscle tone and firms the figure.

Classes for men, women and children are constantly forming at N-B Ju Jitsu and are held in a handsome street-level, air-conditioned studio in the heart of Belleville on Washington Avenue opposite the Peoples Bank Building.

HE'S HURT -- Wounded during an encounter with the law, Faye Dunaway adds Warren Beatty, in the title roles of "Bonnie and Clyde." The story of the notorious bank-robbing gang of the depression-struck 1930's is currently being told on the screen at Nutley's Franklin Theater.

'Maass Memos' Wins Top Prize At Convention

Hospitals throughout the nation are invited to submit copies of internal publications each year for review by the judges for the Malcolm T. MacEachern Competition, sponsored by "Hospital Management," and are awarded recognition for the content and format in a nationwide contest.

The "Maass Memos," an employee house organ prepared by a staff of employee reporters and distributed throughout the hospital every other month, was awarded top honors at the American Hospital Association Convention in Chicago.

This award signifies that for the past year "Maass Memos" has kept everyone informed through pictures and articles of the hospital's activities.

Receiving the award for the reporting staff of the hospital was Albin H. Oberg, executive director. Other hospitals received honorable mention.

Last week at the hospital, Albin H. Oberg presented the plaque to the "Maass Memos" reporting staff which consists of representatives from the various departments.
