DEMONSTRATION — The kindergarten class at School Number One has started its safety program for the school year by visiting the fire department during Fire Prevention Week. Each child made a fireman's hat and wore it as he walked to the firehouse. At the fire station firemen Charles Augenbaugh, Ken Langlands and George Scott demonstrated or explained how the many pieces of fire equipment are used. The children were thrilled at seeing the foot ladder raised and lowered. However, they got a bigger thrill in watching the firemen sliding down the pole. Miss Mary Lou Mele, the teacher, was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Carlson, Mrs. Raymond Fauerbach, Mrs. Frank Krabs and Mrs. Arthur Whitman, classroom mothers.

Businessmen Get Warning From Krebs

The Office of Consumer Protection has issued a warning to New Jersey businessmen not to be taken in by unethical classified directory advertising companies.

Paul J. Krebs, executive director, estimated that literally hundreds of New Jersey businessmen have been deceived into purchasing space in worthless classified advertising directories. Krebs described the operation of these companies as follows: A classified directory advertising company will send out IBM punch cards with the Telephone Company's familiar yellow pages insignia prominently displayed.

Businessmen who receive such cards have often assumed that they are invoices from the phone company for advertisements placed in their Yellow Pages. Unfortunately, many of them never note the small print on the bottom of the card which states "this is a proposal form and not a bill, invoice or renewal."

This fine print also reveals that the card is a solicitation from a company totally unconnected with Bell Telephone. Krebs stated, "these companies are operating just within the law. The Yellow Pages symbol has never been registered as a trademark and may be used by anyone. These companies do print a directory and therefore can claim, no matter how limited their coverage or distribution, that they are performing a legitimate service.

The major reason these companies succeed is that many businessmen are not aware that the charge for advertising in Bell Telephone's Yellow Pages is always included in the regular telephone bill.

The firms which have increased their gifts by 25 per cent are: Bache & Co., Howard Savings Institution, Englehard Minerals and Chemicals, J.I. Kislak, Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, N.J. Bell Telephone Co., Berringer Sheet Metals, Western Exterminating, Andrew Jergens Co., Faber Castell Pencil Co.,

26 Local Firms Up UCF Gifts

The Hon. Kenneth Smith, reporting for Seymour Grossman, chairman of the Belleville Division of the United Community Fund, at the first report meeting of the current United Community Fund campaign, stated that Belleville is just beginning its solicitation. He stated that for that reason Belleville campaign leadership would prefer to make their first report on results at the next meeting, which will be held on November 9.

Theron L. Marsh, General Chairman of the campaign, reported that total contributions received to date amount to $1,498,065, for 37 per cent of the total goal.

In making an evaluation of the first reports for the campaign, Marsh paid special tribute to 26 local firms in the Fund area which increased their gifts by at least 25 per cent. He pointed out that these are all "Fair Share Plus" contributions and show a definite trend toward renewed leadership on the part of business in the interest of making this year's goal.

He further stated that many other companies are seriously considering an increase of 25 per cent in their corporate gifts and that he will be privileged to announce their names at later report meetings.

The drive will continue until November 30 and the next report meeting will be held on November 9.

High Court Orders Revamp

The Belleville Commission awarded a $93,000 contract to the Realty Appraisal Company, West New York, N.J., for the total re-evaluation of properties in the town.

Of four bids entered, only two were considered. The other bid being for $94,000. Belleville has been recently ordered by a Superior Court to re-evaluate by October 1, 1968.

A spokesman for the Appraisal Company, which has done the same job for Orange, Bloomfield, and a hundred other New Jersey towns, said that the next step is for the town commissioners to sign a contract with the company and for the latter to put up a bond to show good faith.

The preliminary work of going over back records, making new cards, etc. will take a few months, the spokesman continued. But the men should be out in the field by February.

Although the actual re-evaluation work will be completed by next October, their findings will not go into effect until January 1969.

As Peter Torre, Belleville Tax Assessor, said, "the purpose of the re-evaluation is to equalize each and every property to bring everything to a true and equal value."

The whole problem has arisen because "people are buying properties for a lot more than they are assessed for."

The re-evaluation is not a guarantee that everyone's taxes will rise, Torre stressed.

"Certain properties will reflect a tax payment decrease, whereas others will show an increase," Torre said. "Generally, re-evaluations will almost realize a tax rate decrease. How much a person's tax cost will go up or down, will be in direct relation to how much his property's assessed value has risen to how much the tax rate has dropped."

The whole problem has arisen because "people are buying properties for a lot more than they are assessed for."

Editorial comment on the November 7 General Election will appear in The Belleville Times next week.

Belleville Post Office Burglary Discovered After Phone Tip

Two armed men were arrested last Saturday night for allegedly breaking into the Belleville Post Office.

At 10:43 p.m. the Belleville Police Department received an anonymous phone call. Stories on the call's contents varies slightly. A Belleville detective described the caller as saying "a peculiar light was seen on in the Post Office, like a spotlight." Where as Joseph J. Bennucci, Postmaster of the Newark District, said his report said simply that "people were seen in the Post Office."

Five police officers were sent to the scene and found that the office's side door had been jimmied.

The officers then surrounded the building and ordered the men to come out. One man, Ronald Suchodski, 28, of 366

Port Monmouth Road, Middletown attempted to escape by jumping out of a window of the one story building. He was apprehended as he ran across the lawn of the Christ Episcopal Church, which is across the street from the Post Office.

Police then entered the building, and a one hour search resulted in the capture of Charles Louis Lombardo, 37, of 55 Wallis Avenue, Jersey City, when he made a noise while hiding under a four foot cardboard barrel in a shower being used for a storage compartment.

Bennucci reported that two safes had been tampered with. The thieves had finished opening one and were beginning on the second when they were arrested.

ened pros", were in possession of burglary tools.

One safe had been opened by "peeling" the door (softening the metal with a torch open with bars) rather than "blown" (the use of explosives).

An inventory of cash and stamps turned up that nothing had been removed from the office when the men were arrested.

Belleville Detective Winfield said that a .38 caliber revolver was found on the "church lawn" where the fleeing man had apparently attempted to throw it away.

The two men were jailed in Belleville and held in $5,000 bail each. Lombardo put up bail Sunday and was released. Postal Authorities were notified as soon as the men were brought into the police department and have been working closely with the municipal police.

Both of the suspects have previous prison records, Lombardo having sent some 14 of his 38 years in jails.

Municipal Judge Edward J. Abamson is scheduled to arraign the pair on November 2.

Of the amount of money which could have been taken, Postmaster Bennucci stressed that he has always directed his offices to keep a minimum supply of stamps on hand at all times since the main office can answer any large demand with an immediate delivery, and for all cash to be remanded to a local bank every night.

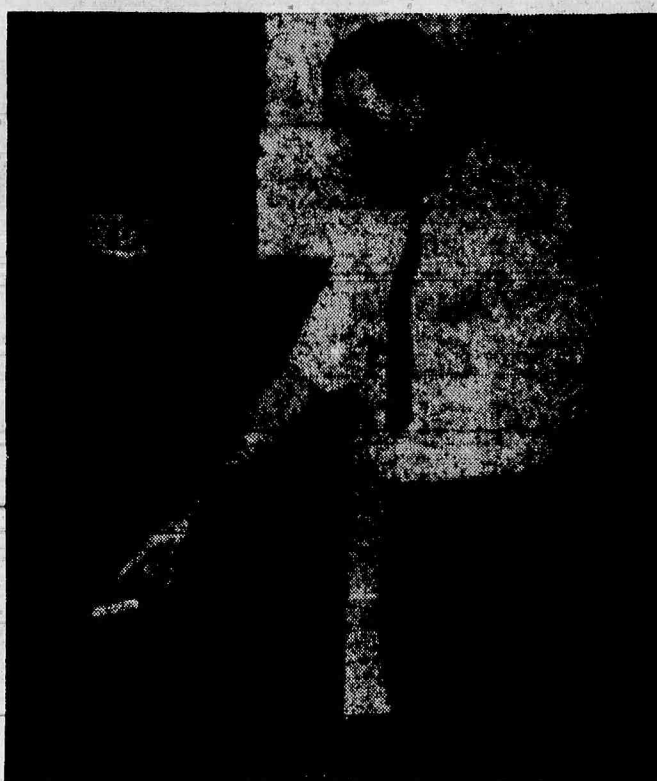

PROFESSIONAL JOB — Postal employee F. Orrei inspects one of the safes which were tampered with. The door had been "peeled" (heated with a torch and then pried open with bars). Police arrived before anything was removed from the premises.

GOOD PLACE TO HIDE — Maybe, but it was not enough. This is where police found Charles Louis Lombardo, 37, when they searched the Belleville Post Office in connection with a burglary there. The scene was a former shower, now storage room in which the suspect hid under a cardboard barrel.

INTERRUPTED — F. Orrei points to a missing safe combination dial which had been removed in preparation for opening this safe by last Saturday night's would-be burglars.

They got to see the inside of this, the second safe that was damaged. Postal Investigators are working with Municipal police on the case.

Board of Education Approves BHS Band Trip To Virginia

The Belleville Board of Education, in an action filed session on Monday night, debated the awarding of contracts, the evening guidance program and school band trip.

After relatively little debate on the first five resolutions, involving the granting or leaving, the appointing of personnel and the approval of a list of substitute teachers, the board then found itself faced with the issues presented by the proposed participation of the Belleville High School Band in the International Azalea Festival Parade in Norfolk Virginia in April of 1968 for which students would raise funds by utilizing the school truck for a newspaper drive.

Nicholas Juliano, trustee, suggested that the resolution lacked clarity and asked if it would be an annual band function. Board President Rocco Saletta indicated that the Virginia trip would be the 1967-1968 annual band function. He added that if the band is to participate in other festivals in the coming years, the board would then pass a resolution specifying time, destination and financing.

Max Schwartz, legal counsel for the board, pointed out that once the resolution was passed the board was legally responsible for financing the trip, even if the students fail to earn sufficient funds. Schwartz said that this factor should be included in the resolution as an indication that the board had considered this possibility.

Another aspect of the resolution was the use of the school truck for fund-raising purposes. Several board members, including Juliano, maintained that the vehicle should be authorized for the use of money raised should be placed in the Student Activity Fund. Ernest Arvidson and John DiRienzo, trustee-agreed, and DiRienzo moved that the resolution be split into two parts. The first would read as amended that "all funds raised by the students for this purpose shall be applied to defray the cost of the undertaking."

The amendment was passed with the stipulations that if there are any extra funds they would be channelled into next years student activity budget, and that all moneys would go through the school.

The second section of the resolution also was approved with the authorization for the truck reading "by the High School Band for the 1967-1968 school year as their annual trip."

The board then considered approval of evening guidance sessions at the High School every other Wednesday, a program which Anthony Greco, Superintendent of Schools, vigorously supported. Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, trustee, Juliano and other board members requested additional information, and case reports based on last year's guidance sessions in order to determine the value of the counselling service. Board President Saletta then asked Greco and Mike Rosamelli, assistant superintendent of schools, to issue a report on the scope and effectiveness of the previous evening counselling program to the other members of the Board.

As far as salaries for the counsellors were concerned, it was agreed in amendment to limit personnel to two counsellors and a secretary per session and to pay on a per diem basis until the effectiveness and the value of the project, and the understanding was assessed. The resolution was passed with one abstention that the board can later reconsider its present position.

Industrial arts instructors, William H. Jenkins, junior high school and Henry A. Wrede, high school, were issued emergency certificates by the board. The board also voted to reimburse the expenses of administrative personnel who are to attend the personnel: Augustus McGinnis (Audio - Visual), Patricia Pugliese (Twirlers), Jane Koels (Yearbook), John Klotz (Spotlight), Judith Pirone (Cheerleaders), Mary Jamgochian (Senior Play), Kay Shauy (treasurer, Senior High) and Mary Turner, Treasurer.

A $25,600 bond anticipation note, dated October 25, 1967, at 3 percent annual interest was issued by the board.

Upon the approval of Frederick P. Weidersum Associates, who received a $1,375.23 payment for architectural services, the board decided to recommend the following contracts: Rieffolo Construction Co. $9,783; Hammond Contracting Co. $2,100.60; Bender Brothers $7,489.50; and N. Yaeger, Inc., $4,437.

The resolution involving the grading and the resurfacing of existing parking areas, and the addition of new parking space near Division Avenue, was awarded to the Gabrielle Brothers of Nutley.

Following a debate that was carried over from the other resolutions.

Rocco Saletta suggested that the board wait for other bids to be submitted. DiRienzo rejoined the board members that work was long overdue it had been put out for bidding, and the present bid, though the only one, was the most reasonable. Arvidson and Dr. Di Ruggiero, indicated that the need was urgent. The clash involved the last possible date when the laying of asphalt was feasible due to the weather conditions. The resolution was passed with only Saletta voting nay.

The bidding controversy erupted again when the board considered a proposed electrical contract of $280. Because there had been no open bidding, as is the boards policy with small contracts, Norma McCool, trustee, suggested that whenever possible the board should open the bidding to give everyone an equal opportunity to respond.

Harold Duffort, Business Administrator maintained that local people should receive some of the board's business, if feasible. A move was made by Arvidson to table the resolution, but it was defeated 4-3 and the resolution passed with DiRienzo dissenting.

Two resolutions authorizing the board to repair the damage caused by the recent airplane crash in Belleville were passed unanimously with the sole amendment stating that the money is to come from the U. S. Aviation Underwriters Corporation.

Michel Nardiello, Director of Special Education Services, addressed the board meeting, before adjournment. Nardiello discussed the problems of the neurologically impaired children that was being devised to handle local school children with motor impediments. At the conclusion of the meeting, Saletta praised the turn-out and commended the parents on their citizenship, and interest.

Three GOP's Blast DEM's On Law Program

Three Republican State Senatorial candidates took sharp exception to the manner in which they say Democrats have continued to "drag their heels in the matter of crime prevention and law enforcement."

James H. Wallwork, Alexander J. Maturri and David W. Dowd said that Democrats "continued to hurl abuse at every legitimate effort to explore the root causes of crime in the County and come up with constructive programs of action."

"Again and again the Democrats have sniped, scorned and attacked every effort, every program, indeed any suggestion on how to deal with growing crime rates and public disorder."

"It even reached the point where Democratic Senator Ingelburt Lumbard for touring parts of Newark to take a first-hand look at the problems."

Lumbard, a nationally recognized crime expert, was asked by Republican candidates to prepare a report for them on law enforcement procedures in the County and ways to improve them. He is consultant to the President's Crime Commission and former counsel on law enforcement to New York Governor Rockefeller.

The candidates said that among Lumbard's recommendations that were adopted by the Republicans to combat crime throughout New Jersey are the creation of a State Department of Criminal Justice; a narcotics control plan including compulsory civil commitment of addicts; the establishment of a State-Wide Investigating Body with power to subpoena, hold hearings and report to the public; a massive effort to strengthen employment opportunities for parolees, and a serious effort to control organized crime and narcotic selling by a carefully guarded, court-controlled method of legal electronic eavesdropping.

Wallwork, Maturri and Dowd said that it was high time that Democrats took the problem of crime out of strictly partisan politics and began to realize that the problem is growing.

"Why haven't the Democrats taken the initiative in doing something about the problem? Are they suggesting that crime and civil disorder are but a passing fancy and that if we ignore them they will go away?"

"We protest this singular lack of concern for the public safety, for it is the public who suffers the most when the machinery of government cracks down and is unable to cope with the problems of our time."

"Democratic harping on every effort to do something about the problems can only be viewed as a defensive tactic designed to cover up inability and inaction. Lest anyone forget it, the Democrats have held the reins of County government during these years of mounting social problems — not the Republicans."

While the Democrats were expressing indignation at events of the past summer, Republicans were already at work probing the root causes. While the Democrats were wringing their hands in dismay, Republicans drafted a full program of specific legislation that must be taken at both the County and State levels.

"No government administration can be considered sound that cannot provide for law and order, and adequately protect its citizens. The voters must decide if the Democrats can continue to defend one of the least effective administrations in the history of Essex County government," Wallwork, Maturri and Dowd concluded.

Children Grow Larger

Statistics show that today's children are taller and heavier than those of a generation ago. However, this does not mean that—given the same food and advantages—today's adults would not have progressed similarly.

Instead it means that increased knowledge of the principles of good nutrition and availability of a wide variety of foods is having its effect.

The fact that our children are larger today than were children in the 1930's does not mean that they will necessarily be that much larger when they are adults. Although many of them will be larger, and statistics show that we are growing taller and heavier, in some cases the statistics reflect an accelerated growth—because of present-day advantages, which would bring today's children to their maximum growth potential earlier than was the case with earlier generations.

There is no denying that a number of childhood diseases have been brought almost to the vanishing point through immunization, and that an improved diet and better knowledge of the factors that affect good health, will create and is creating a taller and heavier race, at least among Americans.

Of Human Nature

The so-called human race presents many puzzles to the student of human nature.

We are not so much amazed at the ignorance which prevails among men as we are at the unwillingness of normal individuals to develop and use the brains that generous nature has so liberally provided.

No. 2 in our catalogue of wonder is the ease with which comparatively ignorant persons give judgement upon people, issues and events. It is often a revelation to listen to an ignoramus with a loquacious tongue.

The Wonder Filter

Hopes of many cigarette smokers, stirred by an announcement some time ago that a revolutionary new filter had been developed, have gone up in smoke—at least to a large degree.

The supposedly wonder filter, control of which had been taken over by Columbia University, is now an embarrassment to the university, according to reports, and President Grayson Kirk recently told a congressional committee the university's action in accepting the new filter had been "premature."

Members of Congress had earlier indicated Columbia's action had misled many into over-estimating the effectiveness of the filter. Others say the filter does not accomplish what had initially been claimed for it.

Thus millions of suckers of "cancer sticks" or "coffin nails" have lost another rationalization and grim discoveries of recent years remain valid warnings.

The Phony Commercial

How many of us take time to analyze phony commercials as we are subjected to on our television screens? Overly - enthusiastic claims are made in newspaper and magazine advertising but one doesn't have to read them. Watching television, one must see and hear the deluge or constantly turn his set on and off.

Surely the establishment of some research board or evaluating agency is needed to police the wild and phony claims of manufacturers competing in falsehoods to sell their products.

Observe closely the phony "tests" one sees on U.S. television. Claims are made that any sensible, educated person sees through but they nevertheless fool the ignorant and the gullible, who pay with their money for gullibility.

All cigarettes, for example, dim the taste buds; none can improve taste. No floor or ear finish could possibly be as tough and durable as manufacturers claim. And tests which show magic effects on the skin after certain sprays have been used are for dream-land.

Promotion and salesmanship have been worshipped in this country as part of the free enterprise system, as has the hard-working man who may be in such a rat-race for the dollar he dies at 40 or 50 of a heart attack (as so many American males do). There can be too much pressure behind promotional sales and the temptation is often great, as a result, to use untruth, or any approach that will sell.

Think carefully about the extreme claims you see and hear on today's television; reward the honest advertiser and perhaps the deceit and deception will decrease.

Seems Only Yesterday

One Year Ago

The Belleville Citizens for Commission Government announced plans for filing some 4,000 petitions with Town Clerk Eugene Barnett in a move designed to change the form of government from Council-Manager to that of Mayor - Commissioner.

The group had set a target date of September, but delayed the presentation because of the necessity of validating each signature. Out of a total of some 5,600, over 1,000 were disqualified for one reason or another.

Belleville parents formed a local chapter of the "We Must Care" program designed to protect children from the advances of the child molester, and elected five local women to head the unit.

Mrs. Jane Gaslin, of 444 Washington Avenue was appointed president of the Belleville Chapter. Also appointed were Mrs. Gloria Morriello, executive vice president; Mrs. Mary Ann DiPaola, vice president; Mrs. Audrey Caprio, secretary; and Mrs. Beverly Wilkerson, coordinating chairman.

Five Years Ago

The Rev. Fredrick L. Long, rector of Christ Episcopal Church said he would be proud to head the committee in charge of the Educational Defense Fund for eight members of the Board of Education indicated by an Essex County Grand Jury on various charges, including the withholding of a letter and a report from the public. The fund was established by The Times-News immediately after the Grand Jury's action.

The Local Assistance Board of the Town of Belleville was formally re-created following the appointment by the Town Council of Rabbi Victor Cohen as chairman of the board. Mrs. Barbara Gagnon was elected secretary. The board appointed John J. Hewitt to be Director of Welfare for a five-year term.

Alan H. Bernstein, president of the Belleville Community Welfare Council, announced the decision of that group to conduct a comprehensive survey of the town's available health and welfare services. The experience of other communities was a major factor in the decision of the Belleville Community Welfare Council to conduct a survey.

Ten Years Ago

Samuel Hanley of 14 Oak Street died of injuries suffered when he was struck by a car driven by Harold E. Bates, of 380 Washington Avenue. The accident occurred at the corner of Washington Avenue and Essex Street. Mr. Hanley was crossing Washington Avenue when he was struck by Bates' car. He was rushed to Columbus Hospital where he later died.

The Board of Directors of Belleville Chapter, American Red Cross, voted approval of the appointment of Mrs. Hilda Sherman as chairman of the Junior Red Cross program. She succeeded Miss Margaret Leahy who held the position the previous ten years.

Mrs. Sherman also succeeded Miss Leahy in the Belleville School system.

Diocesan dignitaries, local clergymen, municipal officials and many residents of the community took part in the dedication ceremonies at Christ Episcopal Church. The Rt. Rev. Benjamin M. Washburn, D.D., Bishop of Newark Diocese placed the cornerstone, striking it three times and saying "In the faith of Jesus Christ we place this stone . . . Here let the true faith and fear of God, with brotherly love ever abide."

Twenty Years Ago

Two men were apprehended by Belleville police, who charged one with possession of horse racing slips and another with bookmaking. Adolph Mazza was arrested on a charge of bookmaking. Also arrested was Joseph Lennis who was found to have racing slips in his possession. Mazza was an employee of Lennis and was implicated by the latter as making book for him.

The Mobile Unit of the Essex County Blood Bank paid its first visit to Belleville. Occasion was a unique one, a group of citizens voluntarily giving blood for the benefit of other citizens in the community—and the initial venture was most successful. Belleville exceeded the quota asked of it by 25 per cent.

George Le Bar, of the Rutgers Street apartments, retracted his statements in which he labeled the Independent Citizens League of New Jersey as a "Communist Front organization." Le Bar stated that further investigation of the group and Herbert Klosk, a Newark attorney, convinced him that he had been wrong in calling it a "Red" organization.

Thirty Years Ago

"Torrid Records" in a Belleville tavern aroused the ire of Mayor William H. Williams who said complaints had been made that residents who like a nip, have been insulted by the type of music ground out on the tavern phonograph.

Director of Streets and Public Improvements, Patrick A. Waters was elated with a report made by Town Engineer Matthew Sheehan—which showed a comparative cost of concrete sidewalks constructed under WPA help.

Miss Pearl Brown was appointed a first grade teacher of No. 1 school. Miss Brown, a graduate of New Jersey State College, Newark, and Belleville High School, class of 1934, was secretary to the Junior League, a Sunday School of the Congregation A.A.A. and on the committee of the Belleville Institute of Public Affairs.

Trying to Achieve Lifelong Ambition

To The Editor, The Belleville Times:

Seven years ago a glowing description appeared in your paper. A Scholarship Football Game was about to be played.

Behind this a slender figure administered encouragement and bandages, lovingly applied. There too, in your paper was a picture of Tom Worley, his mother, my sister, sent this paper to me.

This past week I returned from the sad mission this family has experienced in the loss of Tommy. I learned, too, from his friends and the 1960 edition of the yearbook of Belleville High School the ambitions of Bill Ellis (the quiet figure behind the team) to be a pharmacist. For nine years he has been employed in a drugstore, with only two years of his college dream completed—he needed financial help he could not get. Twelve years later and Bill is still giving of his sympathy and talent in the care of the injured football players.

Bill has another dream, I learned. Could it happen that he might be rewarded by the school and perhaps private donations? So that he might take night college work in the field he has now chosen.

If this reaches the sportsman's heart that I think you have I would like to send a donation to this.

I would like also to commend Carmen Orecchio on his "Sports in the Sun," in the paper that day August 4, 1960. There too was a column called "Sun Rays," in this was something of beauty—a Christmas folder from Munich, with verses called "Christmas Time"—of gentle thoughts and kindly deeds.

Communists Called Racial Provokers

To The Editor:

We are mailing a copy of "You Can Trust the Communists (to be Communists)" by Dr. Fred Schwarz and the "Road to Revolution" by Philip Abbott Luce to approximately 10,000 Negro ministers in the United States. These ministers exercise enormous influence on the Negro community. These books will reveal the true nature of communism and the communist plan to exploit the Negroes by provoking racial rebellion and reducing the United States to anarchy and chaos.

We have now been challenged to send copies of the books to every Negro newspaper in the United States. There is little need to stress the power of the Negro press for good or evil.

This challenge has been accepted, and we now issue a challenge to our constituency to contribute the funds needed for these and similar projects. This special project will cost $10,000 which is additional to the maintenance of our regular work. It is a continuous struggle to secure the $50,000 needed each month. We have survived the summer by the narrowest of margins and our working funds are exhausted. We anticipate and require increased support for the remainder of the year.

There are ominous rumblings of a long, cold winter to follow the long, hot summer. The Negro revolutionaries are discussing how they can select a stormy day, when the National Guard and the Army will be immobilized, for rioting and looting. Stokely Carmichael has bragged to the Algerians that since the Negroes constitute a majority of the citizens of Washington, D.C., they can surround and capture the Pentagon.

To carry out these boasts, the violent revolutionaries must terrorize and control the Negro communities. This is the phase of the revolution on which they are presently concentrating.

The law-abiding citizens, who form the overwhelming majority of the Negro population, must be informed of this plot. Once they are alert to the danger, we may all sleep a little more securely.

Danger lurks everywhere! A new crisis is developing for Guyana. If Cheddi Jagan is elected to power in the next election, the communists will have established a base in South America without firing a shot. An intensive, educational campaign to inform the Indian people of Guyana of the true nature of communism is urgently needed. Dr. Sluis is planning to initiate such a campaign. Again your help is imperative.

The temptation to relax is always with us. This temptation is like the urge to sleep which a man experiences when he is lost in the snow. Yielding to it is the forerunner to certain death.

The love of freedom pulsates in every human breast. If we can harness this love of freedom to an awareness of the devices of tyranny, a mighty and unconquerable force for good will be created. This is the path to peace and freedom.

Babson's Point of View

Christmas Sales

Sales of retail stores just chalked up a new all-time high for September. That is good news for everybody—especially for merchants from coast to coast. For the late summer surge came hard on the heels of a sluggish performance that had most retailers scratching their heads and wondering why Mr. and Mrs. Consumer were saving so much and spending so little. Now we can confidently look forward to a "best-ever" ringing of the nation's cash registers, come Christmastime.

Recent months have seen personal income persistently poking into new high ground . . . to the tune of average monthly chunks of better than $4 billion each. Disposable personal income (what's left after taxes and other payments) had been lagging total personal income. The gap seemed to be the result of a greater disposition on the part of consumers to save more. Perhaps all the spring talk of a "mini-recession" had made people cautious.

Latest figures, however, indicate that spending is coming back into fashion. The September surge at retail stores is a most promising omen for Christmas sale. We can foresee new records without half raising our eyelids; and if we look real hard, it is not difficult to predict gains over Christmas 1966 of 6%, or even 8%. Not everywhere, of course, because big strikes will still be pinching consumer pocketbooks in some areas.

Neither war in Vietnam nor strikes here at home will have too serious an impact on the flow of available goods. Unless, of course, the expected upsurge in store sales should be even greater than we anticipate. In that case, some shelves could be bare for last-minute shoppers.

Fact is, supplies of most goods are plentiful. Not only are we pretty well assured of having both guns and butter; we can also count on generous amounts of quality and luxury items. Next year may be a different story, but for Yuletide 1967 shelves will be well stocked and quality and variety will be more evident than ever.

Most manufacturers, wholesalers, jobbers, and retailers are already optimistic with regard to sales performance during the upcoming holiday season. Some, however, are more cautious—fearing perhaps that this year's higher prices may prove to be an unfavorable factor. In our opinion, the balance of factors favors optimism. Consumers, generally, are better off financially than they were a year ago. They are able to take higher prices in stride and most probably they will do just that . . . in response to diligent and well-directed sales effort on the part of merchants.

One word of caution for buyers, however. It will definitely pay you to shop early this year. Labor and other costs are still rising, and you'll pay more for many a gift in mid-December than you would have had to pay in October or November.

Strong consumer buying power and a disposition to use it will be combined this year with greater availability and wider selection of merchandise than ever before. This combination promises to add up to at least a 6% boost in dollar volume of Christmas sales over the record trade achieved in 1966. Because of higher prices, however, the increase in physical turnover may not be more than 3%-4%.

Retailers should find their increased volume leading to bigger profits compared with the first three quarters of this year. But they will be hard put to improve profitability over their experience at Christmastime last year. Stores that will chalk up the best profits records will be those whose management make a wise—though not excessive—use of promotions while at the same time keeping a sharp eye on sales personnel performance. And above everything else, hold a tight rein on costs without scrimping on customer services.

NCE To Offer Degree In Engineering Science

A new undergraduate program, leading to a bachelor's degree in engineering science, will be started by Newark College of Engineering next fall for those entering the College and for those already enrolled.

Announcement of the program was made by Dr. R. Bryce Andersen, NCE's Dean of Engineering.

"Our new degree program has been especially designed for those young men and women who want to prepare for the newer challenges of engineering," Andersen said.

"New fields such as biomedical engineering, systems engineering, ocean engineering and materials engineering all require a thorough knowledge of how science and engineering interact. Those students with goals in the fundamental sciences of mathematics, physics and chemistry may also learn how science is applied in the solution of engineering problems," Andersen said.

NCE's Engineering Science program will be interdisciplinary, combining the aspects of engineering and science to meet the specific needs of the student with special interests.

"Under the program, students will receive education that will be of particular value in specialized graduate study and yet provide practical foundation for their professional careers," Andersen added.

At NCE the students enrolled in this program will continue to follow the standard Freshman - sophomore years in which introductions to science, engineering, humanities and social sciences are emphasized. In the last two years the Engineering Science students will have a broad opportunity for selecting their field of specialization and with the assistance of the College select a sequence of courses that may well not be duplicated by their fellow students.

As an example a student planning a career in bio-medical engineering may take advanced work in mechanical engineering, chemical engineering and electronics in order to prepare himself for a career in applying engineering techniques to the solution of medical problems.

"In a sense, all engineers today must be able to interrelate their specific engineering skills with the vast accumulation of other engineering and scientific knowledge applicable in a particular situation. What our new program is doing is to take the broad interdisciplinary outlook of engineering and science, and translate this outlook into academic programs for the advantage of the student," Andersen said.

The Engineering Science program at Newark College of Engineering will complement existing undergraduate and graduate programs in five engineering disciplines. Because of the flexibility of the Engineering Science program it is expected that it will become one of the most popular areas of enrollment.

According to Mrs. James R. Waldron, chairman of the event, the Auxiliary will receive a percentage of the sales income at the store on the two "Courtesy Days." A unique method of supporting local non-profit organizations, the downtown store regularly sponsors the sales days for community support.

The Louis Harris "Courtesy Days," said Mrs. William G. Bedell, president of the Auxiliary, will contribute to the regular goal set by the 400-member group for financial support of the 119-bed hospital in meeting patient needs with the most recent medical care and treatment available.

Any married couple, with a couple of youngsters, knows that marriage is a racket.

GENERIC DRUGS ARE OFTEN TOO CHEAP

Before this "Miracle Drug Age," most prescription drugs were generic, which means that they can be manufactured by any supplier. Different makes all, as a rule, have the same name. But they accomplished less. We then had no complicated hormones, antibiotics, or today's expensive researched drugs. The pharmaceutical firms that discover new drugs, brand them with their exclusive name and physicians prescribe that name on their prescriptions. We have no choice. We must dispense that exact brand. Sometimes other suppliers can make these new drugs and use their common or generic name. Only if we are absolutely certain a generic product equals the original, when a physician prescribes by the generic name we will dispense the lower priced medicine.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

Democrats Aided Essex Taxpayers, Saved Millions

The Essex County Democratic legislative slate said yesterday that state aid for schools and roads to Essex County municipalities had increased $19 million as a result of the efforts of the Democratic majority in both Houses of the legislature.

Essex Democratic Majority Leader Assemblyman Paul Poicastro said that Essex Municipalities in 1967 had received a total of $15,731,885 in extra payments for school districts, and that a total of $3,283,000 was given to the County municipalities in the form of aid for county and municipal roads.

"These are tax aid dollars which the Republicans are trying to overlook in the review of legislation beneficial to the citizens of Essex enacted in the 1967 legislature," Poicastro said.

"Poicastro said that in the case of every municipality in Essex County aid to school districts had been increased under the actions of the 1967 legislature.

In listing the school payments Poicastro said that Belleville went from $371,646 to $552,975, Bloomfield from $529,558 to $769,111, Caldwell-West Csladwell from $257,049 to $380,018, Cedar Grove from $218,539 to $296,768, East Orange from $666,952 to $1,007,068, Essex Fells from $21-

624 to $32,278, Fairfield Twp. from $69,467 to $103,742, Glen Ridge from $133,75 to $240,669. Irvington from $494,724 to $688,851, Livingston from $551,420 to $974,508, Millburn $258,789 to $369,940 Montclair from $528,739 to $749,861, Newark from $5,921,503 to $18,455,451 North Caldwell from $50,744 to $71,087 Nutley $90,044 to $533,049.

Orange from $304,747 to $436,119, Roseland from $28,805 to $39,679, South Orange-Malewood from $460,703 to $79,272, Verona from $189,835 to $281,714 West Essex Regional from $17,887 to $217,709. West Orange from $546,587 to $801,646 and Essex Co. Voc. from $119,160 to $302,646. The total actual payments for the year 1966 is listed at $12,252,878 as compared with this year's total of $27,984,763.

On the matter of aid for roads he said that Essex went from $637,000 to $2,473,000 and that state aid for municipal roads in Essex went from $519,000 to $1,966,000.

These state grants are a direct offset against funds which would have to be raised from local tax property assessments and when Republicans ask just what the 1967 legislature did for Essex taxpayers our answer is that it saved the taxpayers 19 million. That's a record that is $19 million more than anything in Republican have ever done for taxpayers in this county," Poicastro said.

State Sees Need For Better Teachers
A report calling for improvement of teacher preparation in New Jersey by greatly expanding school and community experiences of student teachers has been prepared by a committee of educators working with the State Department of Education.
The report, titled "Professional Laboratory Experiences in New Jersey Teacher Education," emphasizes the wide variety of experiences needed in working with children and youth, both inside and outside the school setting. It points up the need for student teachers to gain practical knowledge through involvement with community agencies and youth groups and with all types of students, including slow learners and the poor.
The 23-page document also offers guidelines for school systems and educators on the experiences considered essential and the responsibilities of the students, supervisors, and others involved in teacher preparation.

Biancardi Would Seek Federal Subsidies To Ease Tax Burden

Assemblyman Joseph G. Biancardi, D-Essex, said today he will fight to obtain a subsidy from the state and federal governments to help ease the "strangling tax rate which is crippling taxpayers in the city of Newark."

Biancardi, a Democrat seeking re-election to a second term on November 7, suggested that "both the state and federal government pay the city of Newark a subsidy equal to that which they would pay if they paid real estate taxes on their property holdings in the city."

The federal government, Biancardi pointed out, now owns property valued at $6,700,300 in the city. With completion of the new federal building now being erected on Broad Street, federal real estate holdings will soar to almost $22 million.

If the federal government would pay a subsidy equal to the taxes on that property, Newark's tax rate would be reduced by 154 points and would fall to $6.22 per $100 of assessed valuation, Biancardi pointed out.

Additionally, if the state owned properties, primarily Rutgers, The State University, and Newark College of Engineering, paid taxes on their real estate holdings valued at almost $15 million, the Newark tax rate would fall an additional 98 points, and would further lower the city tax rate to $5.24 per $100 of assessed valuation.

"This method of subsidizing their holdings by the federal and state governments would eliminate the crippling and impossible tax rate that suffocates the small property owner in the city," Biancardi said. "Certainly, something must be done. Federal and state subsidies seem the logical answer. They are feasible, practical and workable."

Biancardi pledged to working toward legislation enabling a state subsidy if re-elected this November.

High School Dropout Charged on Narcotics

A 19-year-old Nutley youth who dropped out of high school has been convicted of driving a car while under the influence of a narcotic drug.

He is Richard W. Coppola, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Coppola, 26 Race Street.

The young Coppola is one of only a few permanent residents convicted here of a narcotics charge. Coppola had been a student at Nutley High School but dropped out three years ago.

His arrest came October 13 at 4 p.m. after his 1964 Ford crashed into a tree in front of 56 Prospect Street on the Nutley-Belleville line. The car was going north, skidded 36 feet, jumped a curb and slammed into the tree.

Coppola left his car and walked home where he was arrested the same afternoon by Patrolman Sal Lubertazzi.

He was also charged with leaving the scene of an accident and being a disorderly person under the narcotics law. Both these charges, however, were dismissed.

Coppola was fined $205 for driving while under the influence of heroin, a narcotic drug. His license was revoked for two years. There was no penitentiary sentence.

Coppola is among 22 registered narcotic addicts in Nutley. The charges of leaving the scene of the accident and using narcotics were dismissed on the motion of town Prosecutor Robert J. Citrino Jr.

Sherriff Hopes To Foil Muggers Through Counterattack Project

"A sharp clip across the face with a handbag, a judiciously placed elbow jab, a vicious bite on the hand or a healthy whack on the noggin with a high-heeled shoe."

These are familiar phrases to more than 12,000 Essex County women who have attended 150 "Counter-attack" lectures by Sheriff Le Roy J. D'Aloia — but in this case — the quotes cannot be attributed to him. Currently, they are being used by a feminine counterpart who knows his speech habits and expressions better than anyone else — she married him.

Mrs. Evelyn D'Aloia, attractive grandmother of two, had five grandmothers of two, had foregone many political activities recently but she has been an enthusiastic supporter of the sheriff's program to assist in making streets safe and protect women from would-be muggers. Her knowledge and interest in the last few days for supplementary teams of has been welcomed by her husband's staff.

The popularity of "Counter-attack" has resulted in a deluge of requests and the need lectures to give the live demonstrations, part of the program, which includes also a film and a few general remarks on self-protection.

Policewoman Marie Martin and Barbara Wallace have been trained to portray attack victims, with Lt. Arthur Magnusson and Detective Bernard Krell posing as assailants. Mrs. D'Aloia volunteered to fill in whenever a policewoman is not available and was an instantaneous success.

The lectures have been hailed widely as progressive personal security programs using techniques that can be mastered quickly by woman in case they might be assaulted, particularly at night, in the streets.

"We may be the gentler sex," says Mrs. D'Aloia, "and the best protection still begins with a piercing scream and instant flight — but if the would-be mugger catches you — it's handy to know some of the refinements of street fighting that can be supplemented by the everyday objects a woman carries with her." Her appraisal is vouchered for by the thousands of

He will not receive at least four weeks of specialist training before being assigned to his first permanent unit. Marines going to combat units will get detailed training in the particular combat skill they are designated for. Those who are going into technical fields will receive their advanced training at one of a variety of technical schools throughout the country.

Belleville Fines 125: $3,500 For Speeding

The State Police's radar trap on Route 21 may be paying off for the town's treasury, but it certainly isn't for many of the people who use the highway.

Mrs. Ruth Spangler, Belleville Court Clerk, reported that last week's $3,500 paid for speeding offenses in the town was certainly not an unusual occurrence. "The week before last," she said, "$3,500 was collected in one night."

Judge Edward J. Abramson presided before Wednesday night's court session at which 41 persons were fined $1,231; and Thursday morning's session at which 83 persons were fined $2,425.

Abramson No Longer A Magistrate

Magistrate Edward J. Abramson is a magistrate no more.

He is a judge. Governor Richard J. Hughes this month signed legislation giving the title of judge to more than 500 municipal magistrates in New Jersey.

Hughes said the new title would increase the dignity of municipal courts in the state. "Besides, most people called magistrates judges anyway," the Governor said.

The legislation was sponsored by Assemblyman Jerome Yerko, democrat, of Bergen County.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

More radio-phonographs are going to be sold between now and Christmas than in any other similar period of time during the year. We would like to give a few words of advice what to look for.

The transition from tubes to transistors is about complete. Even the cheapest record players these days have transistors. It does not make any difference as far as sound quality is concerned whether a set has tubes or transistors. Some manufacturers make it appear as if a unit with transistors will give better tone quality than a unit using tubes. This is incorrect. Either one, if properly designed, is satisfactory.

The phonograph industry like the manufacturers of automobiles play the numbers' game. As to cars it is the horsepower, the more the better, whether all this power is needed or not, that does not seem to make any difference. In the eyes (or better ears) of some phonograph manufacturers, it appears to be the more watts the better. Watt is the measure of power output of an amplifier. You hear and read ridiculous figures like 200 watts, one factory even advertises 320 watts. All you need in the average home is about one tenth of these figures. Some give a "music power" and others a "peak power" rating. The latter is about half the amount of the former.

Unquestionably there are considerable differences in tone quality. It should be stated right here, that you have to pay at least $200. for a good stereo HI FI system and at this price you are just about on the bottom rung of the ladder. You should listen to different sets and compare. It is easy to hear the difference. You don't have to be an expert at all, as long as you can hear, that is all that is necessary. Forget about watts, intermodulation distortion and all these fancy expressions. Buy yourself a set that sounds good to you. It is surely advisable to stay with well known brands and deal with people who have a reputation for honesty and most important, have their own service facilities.

We service what we sell.

Belleville Takes Her Second Against Irvington, 13 to 6

Belleville High School quarterback Richie Del Guercio

was a very proud and very sore individual at the conclusion of last Saturday's gridiron game at Municipal Stadium. For Richie had sparked the Bellboys to a 13-6 win over Irvington's Campers by connecting on 15 of 19 pass attempts and two touchdowns for a total yardage of 156.

This was Belleville's second victory after three consecutive losses. Irvington stands at 1-4. At the conclusion of a first scoreless period during which time the Campers managed to succeed into Belleville territory without doing much harm, Del Guercio connected with a 12 yard pass to reserve end Bob Baker and Belleville got its first touchdown.

The Bellboys, putting on the steam, advanced 80 yards in the next nine plays and longest of which was to right end, 180 pounder Ron Badalanenti who carried the pigskin for 23 yards.

Belleville highlighted the second half kickoff by overrunning Irvington territory for play number 16 and their second TD.

Positioned on the Irvington 29 with four and nine to go, the Del Guercio - Badalanenti combo found their way again on a 12 yard pass for the first down. Shifting the scene to their fourth down on the quarterback found his mark in Greg Kitowicz for the victory play.

With only minute remaining in the final half, Irvington's Bob Kenney TD on a 69 - yard halfback option pass from Bob Kozup. The Camper got the ball again moment later on a kickoff fumble but Frank Aiello's interception put the capper on the remaining seconds.

New Jersey doffs its dunce cap.

Time was when New Jersey was doing very little for its schools and colleges. Many towns could not afford the teachers or schools demanded for a first-class education. The state had insufficient revenues to build and staff enough colleges; and other states were turning away New Jersey students. The Democratic Legislature changed all that. And fast. State aid to local schools has doubled since 1965. Colleges, junior colleges and vocational schools are going up fast. We're building two medical schools. 31,000 students now receive tuition loans and scholarships. The dunce cap is off. And it will stay off with a Democratic Legislature in Trenton.

The Democratic Legislature.

Red Cross Advises Hunters About Extra Precautions With Firearms

As the vanguard of the millions of U.S. mods took to the hunting fields with their rifles and shot guns, the American Red Cross last week urged them to come home intact, and listed basic rules for safe handling of firearms.

"More than 20 million Americans participated in hunting, a pleasant and healthful sport when it is pursued safely," said Howard E. Camp, Jr., area director of Eastern Area Red Cross Safety Services. "But tragically last year 2,800 people in the United States were killed by guns—several hundred of them in hunting accidents."

"This number was an increase of 256 over accidental deaths from firearms in 1965. 'Every hunter, and in fact, everyone who owns a gun,' Camp said, 'should know and abide by these safety rules which have been developed over the years by the Red Cross and other authorities in the field.'"

At All Times

Treat every gun as if it were loaded. Do not indulge in horseplay with guns. Don't point one at anything you don't intend to shoot.

At Home

Keep guns unloaded. After making certain they are unloaded, store them in a locked case or cabinet, out of reach of children. Store ammunition in a separate locked place.

Teach your children the principals of firearms safety.

Before a hunting trip

Be sure you are in good health.

Dress appropriately for the terrain you are going to hunt over. Wear something of distinctive coloring so other hunters will see you.

Know the area in which you are going to hunt. Consult topographical maps showing details of ridges, valleys, trails, and streams.

Take along a small first aid kit, a compass, knife or hatchet, and matches.

Practice your marksmanship to be reasonably certain you can hit what you aim at.

Choose your hunting companions wisely—avoid those who are over-eager, careless, or excitable.

Take along some extra high energy food, like a few chocolate bars.

En route to the hunting field

In cars, boats, or planes, make sure your guns are unloaded. Keep them cased, wrapped, or dismantled.

In the field

These are the important and basic rules for safe gun handling, Mr. Camp said.

Treat every gun as if it were loaded. Never take anyone else's word that a gun is "empty."

Always point the gun muzzle in a safe direction.

Be sure of your target. Never shoot at unidentified noises—wait until the whole animal or bird is visible.

Know the correct way to carry your gun—underarm, shouldered, cradled, or with both hands. Make sure safety is on, finger outside trigger guard, muzzle in safe direction and under control.

Keep the safety on or the chamber unloaded until ready to fire . . . and keep your finger out of the trigger guard, check bore through the breech end before loading to be sure it is clear of foreign objects. Repeat this check frequently while hunting.

Agree beforehand on the area each hunt will cover.

Be sure the action is open when handing the gun to another person, or when stopping to eat, chat, or rest.

Transport unloaded guns in cases for their protection.

When duck hunting from a boat, two hunters should sit back to back. Never lay a loaded gun on bottom of boat.

When hunting in a group, no hunter should carry a gun so that it ever points at another person.

Unload a gun before crossing a fence and pass gun under first.

If, despite all precautions, someone is wounded, these are first aid measures, Mr. Camp advised:

Control bleeding, protect wound from contamination, and give the victim care against shock. Even if the surface wound is small, there still may be extensive internal injuries. Get victim to a physician as soon as possible, and do so with a little movement of the victim is possible.

"All hunters should know first aid," Mr. Camp added. "Their Red Cross chapters offer courses in it regularly."

YOU'LL BE GLAD You switched to Electric Glassheat BECAUSE . . .

(Letters from Glassheat users TELL YOU WHY!)

"IT'S COMFORTABLE HEAT—

just like sunshine in spring", says one Glassheat owner. "You don't feel hot or cold; you are never aware of the temperature. You are just continuously comfortable, and there are no cold spots."

This is true because Glassheat is the only heating system that warms with Radiant Electric rays exactly like the Sun's own rays. A room heated by Glassheat feels like the sunny side of a barn in the spring sunshine. No wonder people enjoy it, and say so:

"JUST THE TEMPERATURE WE WANT IN EACH ROOM; that's one thing I like," says another owner.

True, because money saving thermostats throughout the house permit you to regulate the temperature in each room; 65° in one, 75° in another and 50° in a room not in use.

The temperature is uniform from floor to ceiling, causing a user to write, "Years of living with your Glassheat makes me a firm believer in this type of heat."

YOU'LL SAVE MONEY ON HEAT. A fact that surprises many Glassheat owners.

One writes "We were expecting that Glassheat would be somewhat more economical to operate but we were not prepared for our low annual heating bills. Of course we are also pleased with the savings on our regular current. We take advantage of the special low heating rate."

Another user says, "Though we added two additional rooms, my heating bill amounts to only $175—and we have never been so comfortable. Of course there are no maintenance or service charges. Another saving."

With Radiant Electric Glassheat so inexpensive to install and operate, why pay more for less than the best?

IT IS CLEAN—As one user writes, "Probably the most unique feature of Glassheat is its cleanliness. In 16 years with Glassheat the only room we have had to do over is the kitchen. No need to repaint the other rooms or even wash down the walls."

Says another customer, "No soot, no smoke, no grime. Have never seen anything so clean. And we are saving 30% on the cost of fuel compared to the old system."

IT IS SAFE! No flame, no fumes, no vapor and Glassheat can't overheat. Even accidental contact can't cause blistering. Since there is no flame it is fire-safe. Further it can't burn up the oxygen in the air or reduce the humidity. In fact it maintains a desirable humidity, so there are fewer colds in the Glassheat home and other bothersome ills are averted. No moving parts, so Glassheat is as silent as your shine. Sound luxurious? It is—in every respect by price and the cost of operation.

How much would this ideal trouble-free heat cost? Send the coupon or call us in person and find out. No obligation.

ESSEX COUNTY IS IN GOOD HANDS... KEEP IT THERE!

The Essex Board of Freeholders performs more than 3,800 separate and individual services on behalf of the citizens of Essex County administered through a total of 56 departments of county government. Basically the Board of Freeholders is both the legislative and administrative body of those governmental services which are beyond the capabilities of local municipal governments to handle economically and conveniently. For example the county government administers hospital and health programs, the Court system, correction and penal institutions as well as higher education and public safety and highway and bridges which are used by the County as a whole rather than by individual municipalities.

Of the total County budget more than 60% is allocated to hospitals, health and related services and to the maintaining of the Courts and law and order. Much of the budget allocation is mandatory in fulfillment of obligations of commission services. Essex County government is administered on a sound fiscal basis as reflected in the double A rating given the financial standing of the County by the firm of Moody - Standard, Poor, and the fact that the cost of services in Essex County have risen less in proportion than any other major County in our State.

The successful administration of the County and its services rest in the hands of experienced and proven administrators. The continuation of this good government merits the re-election to the Board of Freeholders of these candidates of experience and vision.

RE-ELECT THESE EXPERIENCED, DEDICATED CANDIDATES

MARGARET MARUCCI-KELLY

For six years, a member of the Board of Freeholders. She is the principal sponsor of the Essex Community College and Essex County Youth and Rehabilitation Commission. A director of the Essex County Mental Health Association.

BENJAMIN W. GORDON

Has served two successive terms as Essex County Freeholder. Mr. Gordon heads the County's Department of Public Works, which under his guidance achieved vast improvements in the county hospital and courtroom facilities.

EDWARD J. McKENNA

Candidate for re-election as Freeholder. Wide experience in the fields of government, business and community affairs. Served four years as a mayor of Irvington and 16 years as town commissioner. He is chairman of the Overbrook hospital.

Smith Appoints Group to Study Town Resources

Mayor Smith announced last week the appointment of a Community Improvement and Development Commission that will help him coordinate efforts to keep Belleville abreast of all the federal, state and private resources available, as well as implement the programs and services available from state aid and the Federal Government.

The unsalaried commission members will advise the Mayor and will prepare the necessary applications.

Charles Rossi will serve as Chairman, Thomas A. D'Avella as attorney, assisted by Frank Carragher, Arthur Haster, Angelo Pesci, George To to and George F. Kiernan.

William Emery Begins Second Seminary Year

William Charles Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Emery, 53 Campbell Avenue, is a second year student at Dallas Graduate School of Theology, 3909 Swiss Avenue, Dallas, Texas, which began its 44th year this fall with a record student body of 393 men.

Dallas Seminary also had a record entering class of 121 men this year. The new students are divided into the following classifications: first-year class, 117; graduate Th.D. course, 2; graduate Th.D. program 1.

GOP, Trio Urge Welfare Costs To Be Lifted

Republican Freeholder candidates Vincent Corrado, Alan Augenblick and William H. Clark recently urged that the unbearable cost of welfare be lifted from the backs of Essex County taxpayers by the State and Federal governments.

The GOP members declared that "welfare grants in Essex today total more than $1 million a week, and Essex more than $1.5 million a month to the welfare program."

Corrado, Augenblick and Clark further declared that "there is general agreement that steadily mounting welfare needs of Essex County, which amount today to more than $52 million annually, are beyond the boundaries of a county problem." They said further that Essex is carrying a disproportionate share of New Jersey's welfare problems and that State or Federal financing of the welfare program could produce immediate relief for the county's local taxpayers.

"It is our belief," the candidates said "that Essex County is not receiving a fair share of the millions produced by New Jersey's new three per cent sales tax. Some of this new money should have been applied to ease the burden of our welfare costs. In addition, the Federal Government is now considering a Republican-conceived program of Federal tax sharing with the states. We strongly suggest that any Federal tax sharing plan include the direct financing of welfare programs in the nation's urban centers."

"The administration of welfare can and should remain in the hands of competent local people, at the municipal and county levels. The day is fast approaching, however, when needed welfare programs could be jeopardized because of the inability or refusal of well-intentioned people to pay an unfair share of their cost."

Kenneth Smith Association Meeting Monday

There will be an important meeting of the Kenneth D. Smith Association at the American Legion Hall, 621 Washington Avenue on Monday, October 30th, 1967 at 8:00 p.m.

Plans must be formulated for our annual Christmas Party for Boystown, so please make every effort to attend.

Italian-American Civic Club Makes Plans for Future

At the last meeting of the Italian-American Civic Club, it was decided to hold the annual Mardi Gras on Saturday evening, February 24, 1968. This affair will be held at the Holiday Inn, Broad Street, Newark.

Anthony Di Geromimo was also elected chairman at this meeting. Assisting Di Geromimo in various committees will be Emil Casale, Joseph Lilois Vincent Vecchione, Michael Albertine, Ralph Rapa, Joseph Cardinale, Frank Ceres, Rocco Ceres, Phil Maiorca and Anthony Di Sarni.

The organization agreed to plan for a Christmas Kiddie Show for the children of a local orphanage and also for the children of the members, the date and time to be announced later.

At this meeting a resolution was passed whereby the members of the organization reaffirmed their support of the principles of democracy. They also strongly emphasized their support of all law enforcement agencies.

Women Will Hear Artist's Lecture

United Church Women of Belleville will meet at Wesley Methodist Church on November 3 for World Community Day.

Tom Sador, a chalk artist, will give an illustrated lecture on the "Gospel in Art." Sador will utilize sound effects, music and colored lights in his 8 p.m. presentation. Refreshments will be served.

Democrats Accused Of Dragging Feet

Senator Frederick J. Scholz (R., Camden) State Republican Campaign Committee Chairman accused Democrats of dragging their feet in producing a master plan for curbing crime and lawlessness in New Jersey.

Scholz said, "Democrats are the party in power. It is their job to come up with a master plan to control crime and lawlessness. The crime rate has increased 60 per cent since 1960 and no master plan has been forthcoming to combat not only its rise but curbing it."

Scholz said, "There is no excuse for Democrat inability to fight crime in the streets. They are trying to throw a smokescreen around the whole issue and confuse it." Scholz said, "The Governor's plan for recruiting civilians is a weak and inadequate replacement for a master plan to prevent the build-up of crime and lawlessness in our state." Scholz said, "The Governor cannot substitute alarm and fear of involvement on the part of the private citizens with apathy. Citizens cannot be charged with tacit acceptance of gambling, loan sharking and prostitution as an excuse for the Democrat inability to control crime."

Scholz said, "Democrats control the law enforcement agencies in our State; they appoint the judges, prosecutors and state police. They have the machinery and organization and expertise to develop a master plan for the control of crime and lawlessness in our streets. Just calling for passage of a few laws concerning disclosure are not the answer, for the problem is a big one and getting bigger. It needs a comprehensive in-depth study and over-all plan."

Scholz called for a watchdog anti-crime commission with the power and money to investigate and subpoena.

Our Creditors say, "Take your Famous Brands and sell them for less... if your customers don't go for half, give them more — you'll save the store."

Stan, who owns the store says, "Wise I'm not, Stuck I got. Dough I need, that you've got. So what's the difference. Pay — Delay. Tomorrow — Sorrow. Stuck I've got, Dough — No, Heads I Lose. Senior Group Growing Fast

The Senior Citizens' organization inaugurated a few months ago by the Belleville Council Knights of Columbus for residents of Belleville is growing rapidly.

Temporary officers were elected last week with Al Weiss, president; Bill Licht, secretary; and George Wirtz, Treasurer. The election of permanent officers will take place next month.

Grand Knight John Ryan, in announcing the start of this activity, said that the Knights of Columbus for many years has been noted for its service to others and invited all eligible Belleville men regardless of creed or color to participate. The facilities of the clubhouse on Bridge Street are available all day Mondays and Thursdays for this purpose.

Jim McCann is the Council's representative and he emphasizes the fact that the activities are planned and carried out by the senior citizens themselves.

The Knights of Columbus, he said, themselves in a very informal atmosphere.

SIDNEY POITIER—WINNER of the Academy Award, Sidney Poitier stars with Ron Sieger in the unusual crime drama, "In The Heat Of The Night," now playing at the Rivoli Theater in Rutherford. Film is in color and tells the story of a detective arrested for murder in a Southern town.

CARE Food Crusade To Reach 32 Countries

C. Malcolm Davis, President of Fidelity Union Trust Company, announced that the Board of Directors at its meeting last week voted a stock dividend of 100,000 shares payable in the ratio of 1 share for each 15 shares held. The stock dividend will be distributed on November 14 to stockholders of record October 27.

"Food for Self-Sufficiency" is the major aim of the 1967 holiday-season CARE Food Crusade appeal, which seeks to send 6,500,000 packages to the hungry in 32 countries as personal gifts from Americans who give a dollar per package.

Combined with cost-sharing plans with host governments and commodity donations by the United States, the $6,500,000 drive will help feed 37,000,000 people during the coming year, it was announced today by Frank L. Goffio, CARE executive director. In addition to U.S. food donations, packages consist of foods bought by CARE to match specific local needs.

Approximately $2,000,000 of the fund goal is slated for emergency food aid to famine victims in India and to refugees and other war victims in the Middle East and South Vietnam.

Most of the balance will be used in long-range feeding programs to help make hungry people capable of feeding and otherwise supporting themselves in the future. More than 25,000,000 children will be fed daily at schools and preschool centers, to assure their full mental and physical growth and improve their aptitude for learning. Family aid will be extended primarily through food-for-work "payments" to villagers engaged in building schools, roads, water systems and other community facilities essential to economic development.

Branch Brook Park To Hold 68th Annual Flower Show

The Essex County Park Commission has announced their Sixty-Eighth Annual Flower Show to be held from October 28 through November 12, at the Branch Brook Park Greenhouses located just south of Heller Parkway, Newark.

This free public display features the well-loved Chrysanthemum. In addition to thousands of these lovely blooms, begonias and a wide variety of flowering and foliage plants will be arranged in a most pleasing manner. The use of screening and other architectural features will aid in complementing the plant materials.

The greenhouses will be open to the public on week days from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and on Saturdays, Sundays and Election Day, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

In excess of 16,000 people are expected to visit this year's show. Group tours are welcomed and greenhouse personnel will be on hand to answer visitor inquiries pertaining to plant culture.

Montclair Museum Show Art Gifts

Opening at the Montclair Art Museum on October 15 is Recent Acquisitions II, a large exhibition, filling both the North and South Galleries and showing all the works acquired by the museum through gifts since October, 1965.

An earlier exhibition displayed paintings and sculpture purchased by the museum during the same period. The present showing is an impressive one and is testimony to the great generosity of the museum's benefactors.

Philadelphia's Chamber Symphony To Perform at Montclair High

The Chamber Symphony of Philadelphia will be sponsored by Unity Concert Course tomorrow, October 27 at the Montclair High School.

Anshell Brusilow, conductor and founder of the Chamber Symphony of Philadelphia, describes the creation of the Group as "A dream come true." There has never been a permanent Chamber Symphony in this country, an ensemble that is not a major orchestra, not a secondary symphony orchestra and not a chamber music group. Most of the chamber orchestra, as we know them are formed when members of a major orchestra get together for occasional concerts.

The Chamber Symphony of Philadelphia is ideal for presentation of the widest possible variety of repertoire: 36 players, a full complement of strings, woodwinds, brass and percussion. A great symphonic literature is at its disposal. Included in the program will be masterpieces of the baroque and romantic periods as well as compositions by outstanding contemporaries, some of which have been especially commissioned.

In Anshell Brusilow, the Chamber Symphony of Philadelphia has a splendid leader. A brilliant violinist and concertmaster of the Philadelphia Orchestra, Mr. Brusilow in exchanging his bow for a baton, follows in the tradition of such great violinist-conductors as Nikisch, Monteux, Mueh, Kleiber, Spohr and Ferdinand David.

Unity Institute will present the following concerts: Cesare

Siepi on Sunday, December 3; Vienna Choir Boys on Saturday, January 6; Royal Philharmonic Orchestra of London on Sunday, January 21; the National Ballet on Friday, March 1; Mildred Miller on Friday, April 5 and pianist Andrey Waits on Friday, April 26. Subscription rates for the remaining seven concerts are $32.50, $26.50, $20.50 and 15.25. For single ticket reservations, please call Barbara Russell, 744-6770 at Unity Institute, 67 Church Street, Montclair.

The 12th annual Camporee was held in Brookdale Park for 253 Girl Scouts and 41 adults September 15 through 17. Belleville sent seven troops and Bloomfield was represented by 12 troops at the camp-out.

Some of the highlights of the weekend were a song session on Friday led by Linda Oliveri and a group of girls from Troop 948 of Belleville and a Saturday night campfire program whose theme was "American Heritage."

Values to Hold." Belleville troops presenting American Heritage songs during the program were Cadette Troop 950, whose leader is Mrs. Edward Cypoliski and Cadette Troop 948, whose leader is Mrs. Andrew Verhagen.

Although the sun was absent for most of the weekend, causing a delay or cancellation of some of the events, it shone on the Scouts who attended the special services given at St. Thomas' Roman Catholic Church, Brookdale Reformed Church and Temple Menorah.

Special mention should be made of the two Belleville troops who stayed until the closing circle on Sunday although some troops left due to inclement weather on Saturday. They were Junior Troop 961 led by Mrs. Charles Hill and Cadette Troop 950.

The fine work of the Cadette inspection crew led by Mrs. Merrill Hoover of Belleville should also be mentioned. The girls from Belleville who served on the crew, making hourly inspections were: Denise Miele and Joan Raak of Troop 950.

CLOTHING CAMPAIGN

BISHOPS THANKSGIVING DRIVE READY

The nineteenth annual clothing collection sponsored by the American Catholic bishops will be conducted in the Archdiocese of Newark during the week of November 5-11. Archbishop Thomas A. Boland has appointed Msgr. Francis J. Houghton, assistant chancellor, to direct the collection in the 252 parishes in Bergen, Essex, Hudson and Union counties.

Each parish will set up its own receiving center for donations of used clothing, shoes, blankets and bedding for distribution overseas by Catholic Relief Services.

"Used clothing that Americans can share or spare becomes precious beyond words to millions around the world in dire need," Msgr. Houghton said. "Not only can it provide protection against the cold of winter or torrential seasonal rains, or blazing tropical sun, but it can often safeguard the very young against crippling or deadly diseases, aid impoverished men and women to find work to continue working, and enable children to attend school without shame. Any garment in wearable condition, any serviceable blanket or item of bed linen, all shoes in good repair, and every household article of clothing will be gratefully received." One area of urgent need during the past year was the Middle East, the campaign director pointed out. Following the conflict there in June, Catholic Relief Services rushed more than $1-million worth of food, clothing, medicines and other supplies to aid the war refugees. More than one million Vietnamese refugees, orphans, widows and other war victims have received aid also. In all, people in 80 countries around the world benefit from the clothing collection, with distribution on the basis of need without regard to race, color, or creed.

Democratic Freeholders Compare Party Budgets

Essex County Democratic Freeholders cited the comparative county budget reports issued by the State Division of Local Government as "conclusive evidence" of prudent Democratic administration of the County budget.

The Democratic Freeholders Mrs. Margaret Marucci-Kelly, Benjamin W. Gordon and Edward J. McKenna who are candidates for re-election said a 10-year comparison from 1958 through 1967 "clearly established that on all lines Essex has fared better than the so called model Republican counties of Monmouth and Morris."

"The official figures as released by the Division of Local Government showed that over a 10-year period the net budgets of Monmouth County have risen 136.32 percent and Morris County 136.50 per cent as compared to an increase in Essex in the net budget of just 78.04 percents." "In fact," the Democratic statement said "in all segments of the county budget Essex fares better than the two model Republican counties on the matter of tax levy. Monmouth shows a gross of 154.65 per cent and Morris 171.68 per cent as compared with just 121.94 per cent for Essex."

On matters of the gross budget Essex again established a better record with the Monmouth budget jumping 157.517 per cent and Morris 165.45 per cent while Essex increase is just 108.54 per cent.

"These figures released by the Division of Local Government constitute the official record and certified to by outside accountants, and they give the lie to the constant Republican charges of runaway spending in Essex," Mrs. Marucci-Kelly said.

Only last week the Republican candidates for Freeholder expressed a gross distortion of facts by stating that taxpayers of Essex County will be ensaddled with a $70 million budget.

"This statement shows gross ignorance or a deliberate move to distort since the actual tax levy budget of Essex County is $54 million and not $70," further stated Mrs. Marucci-Kelly.

When these Republicans proclaim that they intend to cut the budget they clearly refrain from stating how. They don't say how they can cut a budget without cutting services and the public is entitled to know just what they intend to do about our hospitals, our roads, our children's emergency shelter and public safety.

"The fact shows that Essex County budgets are meeting full service for the tax dollar and we in Essex can defend our record on budgets against the best that the Republican model counties pretend to offer. These facts are contained in the official state report and contradict the wild charges by Republican hopefuls."

Dental Society Urges

Don't Give Candy on Halloween

When those ghosts and goblins, sprites and skeletons come calling this Halloween, area residents have been asked by one local group not to give the trick-or-treaters any candy.

The Essex County Dental Society has asked that when the costumed, candy collectors come ringing doorbells that magic night, residents offer fruits, particularly apples.

Dr. Mervin Eisenberg, president of the County unit, said that a diet low in sweets is one of the three cardinal rules for good dental care. The other two are brushing after meals and visiting dentists regularly.

"Fifty per cent of all 2-year-old children in the County have more than one decayed tooth, and chances are one in ten that they will lose all their teeth by the time they are adults," said Eisenberg.

So if homeowners and apartment dwellers in the area will offer fruit or other substitutes for sweets, they will be contributing to the good dental health of these youngsters.

The Essex County Dental Society is comprised of more than 800 practicing dentists who are devoted to the art and science of dentistry. The local group is a component of both the New Jersey State and American Dental Societies.

Starting as a "water boy" while in the 7th grade, "Doc" served as manager-trainer from his high school days to the present time without remuneration, working under coach Ed Berlinski, Tom Testa and presently John Amabile.

"Doc" studied under Charles Yocum, a professional trainer and former trainer of the All-Stars. He then became trainer for the Essex County team in the College Scholarship Bowl games held in Roosevelt Stadium, trainer for the former Belleville - Nutley Iron Dukes, and is now trainer for all Belleville - Nutley Alumni games.

"Doc's" future plans include finishing college, he had attended St. John's University, College of Pharmacy for two years until financial difficulties forced into the training and going into the training field on a professional basis.

'Fire Marburger,' Forsythe Demands

State Senator Edwin B. Forsythe, Minority Leader of State Senate last week demanded that Governor Hughes immediately seek the resignation of his Commissioner of Education Dr. Carl L. Marburger.

"I base my demand upon the fact that Commissioner Marburger is making conflicting statements of policy and then, backing and filling in an effort to extricate himself from untenable positions."

"The parents of thousands and thousands of school children across this State are frightened and upset by the prospect of city children being bussed to the suburbs and suburban children being bussed to the cities," Forsythe continued.

"On the one hand Commissioner Marburger calls for merging of school districts.

es or by fiat," Forsythe said. "The people of New Jersey have now witnessed the extension of the credibility gap to Trenton. They should now be told who is telling the truth about what New Jersey school children face in the future," Forsythe continued.

"Unless the answers are immediately forthcoming by a positive demonstration of position on the part of the Governor, the parents and the students of the schools of our State can only look forward to Dr. Marburger's compulsory merging of districts. They should make no mistake about it, Mr. Marburger with the backing of the Democrat administration and its billion dollar budget have the wherewithall to make the merger plan an actuality."

Ravi Shankar To Perform

Ravi Shankar, virtuoso East Indian sitarist, will perform at Newark's Symphony Hall under the auspices of Moe Seta on Sunday, Nov. 12, at 3 p.m.

Shankar will be accompanied by Alla Rakha playing the tabla (double drums) and Kamala Chakravarty playing the tamboura (droning stringed instrument).

The sitarist, who in his youth was a star member of his brother Uday's Indian dance troupe, has recently become a "pop" idol in America and Great Britain because of the interest of George Harrison of the Beatles in the sitar.

Planning Session Is Held By Board

The group hopes to have a speaker for the November meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Weber. A program has been set up for the balance of the year.

it's a Stretch-In...and Danskin takes the lead!

"Young ones" were born to be active (sometimes to Mom's dismay) ... but Danskin makes sure they are able to be active and fashionable at the same time ... by giving them a "happy-face" of color in really beautiful STRETCH TOPS, PANTS and TIGHTS that should never sit still. The secret's in the marvelous stretch of "all-ways." Washable Helanca® nylon. In scads of dazzling "easy to clean" autumn and winter colors. All ready to "mix-and-match" to your heart's content.
