GOP Wins All Contests In Belleville

"Belleville has woke-up, the people are disgusted. This election served two purposes: it broke the strangle hold the Democrats had on the town and on the county and it showed that Belleville will no longer tolerate half-heartedness and inefficiency as has existed in the past," Harvey Kramer, president of the Citizens' Committee For Republicans, and the party's campaign manager Michael Dasaro said in a joint statement Tuesday night.

After the final votes had been gathered in the Democratic headquarters of Joseph G. Biancardi, candidate for general assembly, and part of the huge crowd drifted to the street away from the smoke filled store, the words of the Biancardi followers were bitter with defeat.

"This is ridiculous," said one middle aged gentleman, "it was a slaughter."

"If Mr. Johnson had run today," remarked another elderly voter, "he would have had his head handed back to him on a silver platter."

"We've been divided that's why we failed," said another irate follower as he stormed out of the Washington Avenue headquarters.

But taking the defeat as a true Committeewoman, Mary Senatore asked for a moment of silence inside the crowded store as she remarked "I've often wondered how it was to be defeated . . . its a bitter feeling . . . but no one can say that we didn't fight every inch of the way."

In a major political upset, the first of such to come to this community of 40,000, six senatorial candidates, all Republicans, took the ball away from the Democrats and kept it aloft till the towel was thrown in the ring.

trance as the main stairway leading from the visitors' parking lot is being demolished. A new stairway will be installed along with a visitors' elevator for easy access to the main lobby from the visitors' parking lot.

This new construction is Phase 4 of the hospital's renovation program which first started in 1964. The completion of this program will remove offices from the Clinic Wing.

Phase 1 was the new construction and renovation of the South Wing. This provided additional kitchen facilities, a new 24-bed Psychiatric Unit, a new 27-bed Pediatrics Department, plus 25 additional Medical-Surgical beds.

Phase 2 took place in the North Wing. This provided facilities for a Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation Department which is now 10 times larger than the original facilities.

Phase 3 moved into the West Wing, permitting a greatly enlarged Emergency Room, Admitting facilities, Central Service, Laboratory, X-Ray Departments and a 21-bed Intensive Care Unit, complete with the most modern life-saving, patient-monitoring equipment.

The present construction and renovation will not only modernize the main visitors' lobby, provide a Personnel, Public Relations and Purchasing Department Reception area but will remove office personnel from the Clinic area making it possible to open the Clinic facilities in the North Wing. Realizing that inconveniences have occurred during the past four years to both patients and visitors, the hospital's Board of Trustees and Administrative Staff have appreciated your cooperation during this transition period and look forward to the completion of the fourth stage of this program during its 100th Anniversary which will take place in 1968.

Secaucus Kills Plans for Track

SECAUCUS (Special to Belleville Times) — Belleville horse fans who had been planning on betting at the Jersey Downs close by on Route 3 will have to wait at least another five years.

Voters in the small community of Secaucus turned in losing tickets Tuesday night and nixed the race track in this municipality until at least 1972.

Santa Claus Coming to Town Via Helicopter, Landing At Clearman Field November 24

As the excitement of the Fall Sales Days Drawing begins to die down work has already begun on plans for the arrival of Santa Claus by helicopter on Thursday, November 24 at 1:15 at Clearman Field, according to Harry T. French, Executive Director of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce.

According to French, Santa's arrival which has been done this way for the last four years, drawn an estimated four thousand children, all eager to see the old man with his long white beard.

Tight security measures by the municipal police always insure the safety of all as the large helicopter swoops in direct from the North Pole.

Once the helicopter has left, the children will be allowed onto the field. From the field, Santa will ride in an open car, supplied by the George Mead Ford Dealer, in a parade led by the Belleville High School Marching Band.

The procession will terminate at Town Hall where Santa will be met by Belleville's Mayor Kenneth T. Smith and his four Commissioners. Santa will then give the signal which will turn on the town's Christmas lights. From here the famous gift-giver will visit the various stores in the area.

Negro's Case Being Appealed

Larry Robinson, a Negro, recently won a court decision which ruled that the Branch Brook Manor Apartments of Belleville had discriminated against him because of his race, and refused to rent him an apartment.

The apartments owners, George and Martin Levin, are in the process of appealing that decision. The Appellate Division of Superior Court has so far decided that Robinson should be rented an apartment immediately but not, however, under the same two-year lease, terms and conditions given other tenants. The ruling provides that this lease will become void if the Court finally rules against Robinson. At the present time he is gathering his money to move in until at least the court decides.

On April 29, 1967 Robinson, a BHS graduate and Belleville resident for six years, applied for a two-and-one-half-room apartment to be leased from June 1. Having heard rumors that the Manor practiced discrimination, Robinson had a friend, a white girl, act as a "tester". She applied for the same apartment the same day, claiming that she was under 21, had an income of $100 a week, and was single. Robinson, 20, had an income of $106, and is single.

According to Robinson, both he and the girl were met cordially and filled out applications.

To establish more conclusively their claim, Robinson and the tester, arranged with a third person to receive any phone calls which might result from the tester's application for the apartment.

According to Robinson, that call the same evening around 6 P.M. from a man who said he was the apartment's renting agent, Charles Walton. The man allegedly told her that it "looked like she (the tester) would get the apartment."

In early May, Robinson said he filed a complaint with the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights charging George and Martin Levin, owners; Vincent G. Stroway, manager; and Charles Walton, rental agent with illegal discrimination against him.

Investigators were sent out by the division, and a conciliatory meeting took place at which Robinson did not appear according to the division's rules. Conciliation broke down and a date was set for a hearing.

The result of the hearing July 10 was that Robinson would get his apartment, but his parents would have to co-sign since he is under 21 and he cannot enter a legal contract. The apartment was also ordered to have their renting records available for inspection at any time for a period of a year.

ion at any time for a period of a year.

"If we turn down a person who does not have enough money or is under 21 or is colored then we have discriminated against him," Vincent Stroway, the apartment's manager said of the case in point.

"If this Mr. Robinson was 21 years of age and had an income of $115 a week, we would be more than happy to rent to him, but he did not. Our minimum income range is very strict, when the state's investigators came here and looked at our records they didn't find one instance in which we had took exception to this rule," Stroway said.

About the court's decision Stroway said: "I don't understand it frankly."

"I am not nor ever going to refuse anyone what they're entitled to," Stroway concluded.

Charles Walton, the apartment's renting agent explained what exactly his job was. "My authority is only to display apartments to prospective renters. If any tenant is in-

Burglary Suspects Arraigned

Ronald Suchdolski, 28, and Charles Louis Lombardo, 37, were arraigned in Belleville Municipal Court on charges of breaking and entering, larceny and possession of a revolver in connection with an attempted burglary at the town Post Office October 21.

The two men brought separately before Judge Edward J. Abramson waived hearings deciding to have their cases go directly to the Essex County Grand Jury for deliberation as to whether indictments will be handed down for prosecution.

Appearing before the court first, Suchdolski had been held at the Newark Street Jail since his arrest in lieu of $5,000 bail. While awaiting arraignment, a detainer was placed on Suchdolski by federal authorities, to insure that he would be kept under arrest. Because of this, sheriff's deputies had to bring him to court and then return him to jail rather than Belleville policemen.

Lombardo appeared in court with his attorney. He was then served with the federal warrant for his arrest and taken into custody.

Bail will now be set by federal authorities.

NEW BANK BRANCH — Belleville's Peoples National Bank and Trust Company announced

ed their plans for its third office to be constructed at 22 Bloomfield Avenue, Belleville.

The new one - story structure will feature a drive-in teller, parking for approximately 50 cars, and 3300 square feet of office area.

ARRAIGNED — Charles Louis Lombardo, 37, of 55 Wallis Avenue, Jersey City has waived his right to a preliminary hearing before Judge Edward J. Abramson in Belleville's Municipal Court last Thursday. He is charged with breaking and entry, larceny, and possession of a revolver. He was found hiding in the Post Office after police received an anonymous phone tip that something suspicious was going on there.

ALSO WAIVED HEARING — Ronald Suchdolski, 28, of 366 Perl Monmouth Road, Middletown is also accused of breaking and entering, larceny, and possession of a revolver. Both cases were referred for action to the Essex County Grand Jury. Suchdolski was apprehended when police saw him climbing out a back window of the Post Office. While Suchdolski has been held in lieu of $5,000 bail since he was arrested, Lombardo was able to make bail after one night in jail.

'Sell' Future Home Before Buying It

It may seem as backward as starting dinner with dessert, but the first step when evaluating a home which you are trying to "sell" it mentally beforehand. This is the advice of Nicholas Friday, president of the New Jersey Association of Real Estate Boards.

"By appraising a home in much the same fashion as a professional appraiser might," says the real estate executive, "the prospective purchaser can judge the home's bad and good points from another viewpoint. Thus, he can avoid making the purchase on a strictly emotional basis which could reflect adversely if he ever wants to resell it."

Trenton Reporter Appointed College Information Director

Allan W. Drake, veteran Trenton City Hall reporter for the local newspaper, has been named director of public information at Rider College. President Franklin F. Moore announced last week.

Drake, 33, is a 1956 Rider graduate in journalism and covered City Hall for The Trentonian and the Trenton Evening Times for seven years before moving over to the State House this year.

He begins his new duties November 13 and replaces B. Rudolph Linthorst, who has been named director of public relations at Mercer County Community College.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Do you remember the days of radio programs like "Amos and Andy," "Major Bowes," "Amateur Hour," "Duffy's Tavern," just to name a few? That was the time when radio had about reached its peak. Then came TV, first slowly and then suddenly like an avalanche and radio lost much of its attraction.

Regular, AM (Amplitude Modulated) radio gradually deteriorated in programming, until it became mainly a portion of a rock and roll record and an advertisement, and that as many as 24 hours a day. No wonder that some people in the electronic industry predicted the doom of this section of home entertainment.

And then came FM (Frequency Modulation). It had a long and hard struggle merely to survive. First there were only a few sets capable of receiving FM, the regular AM radios can not receive it. It began with a couple of stations, which lost money. There was no advertising in the beginning and the program material was strictly "high-brow," classical music. What does FM have that AM does not have? There is practically no static on FM from electric motors, thunder storms, elevators, vacuum cleaners and other electrical devices. The other great difference is a vastly better tone quality than is possible on AM. This alone, of course has great appeal to music lovers.

Nevertheless, it took almost 20 years until these advantages of FM became generally known, and there are still a large number of people who even today have no idea what FM means. They are learning fast, though, as evidenced by the ever increasing number of customers who buy FM sets. The great improvement of musical quality through stereo reproduction and the adaptation of FM stations to broadcast in stereo finally brought about the "breakthrough."

In the beginning, FM receivers were far more expensive than AM sets. Improvements in circuitry and mass production brought the prices down so these sets are in reach of just about everybody.

If you are in the market for a new radio, by all means listen to FM.

We service what we sell.

Arrested Sept. 19 By Local Police

Joseph Delaporte of 61 Forest Street, Belleville was arrested recently for possession of stolen property. Arraigned Thursday before Judge Edward J. Abramson, his case was forwarded to the Essex County Grand Jury to await action.

Delaporte's arrest came September 19 after a local resident called police reporting two men "doing something to a car." The two men appeared to be emptying a 1966 Cadillac which had Rhode Island license plates. The unidentified resident also reported to police that the men were driving another car, a 1964 Cadillac the license plate of which she read to the police.

At 3:15 p.m., according to police, Detectives Thomas Dunleavy and Kenneth Place apprehended Delaporte at his home after finding that 1964 Cadillac belonged to him.

When questioned by police, Delaporte signed a confession saying he had been called late the night before by a friend identified only as Carlos. According to the confession which was read aloud at the hearing, Carlos told him that he wanted to "get a car" and would pay Delaporte a hundred dollars to help him. In the confession, Delaporte acknowledged that he assumed that his friend meant to "steal a car".

Delaporte went on to state that he picked Carlos up at 2 a.m. and drove him to a motel, where Carlos ran in and drove out a 1966 Cadillac. From there, they drove the cars to a Belleville street where they stripped it.

Carlos then left without giving Delaporte the hundred dollars he had promised, the confession states, and Delaporte then went home.

When Delaporte was brought to police headquarters, it was discovered that a Teletype message had been received from the Bergen police putting a bulletin on a stolen car, a 1966 Cadillac with Rhode Island plates, Detective Place testified at the hearing.

Delaporte was then booked for possession of stolen property.

At the arraignment, the defense attorney, Norman Fischbein tried in a number of ways to discredit the evidence. Questioned was whether the detectives who conducted the investigation were sure that the defendant had signed a waiver to speak with a lawyer before signing the confession.

Nutley Divided on Vietnam Conflict

U. S. Indictment Upsets Residents

The emotional depths of the Hawk vs. Dove controversy over the Vietnam Conflict were brought sharply into focus in Belleville's sister town, Nutley this week.

The town is divided sharply today over a letter written to the editor and published in The Sun two weeks ago. In it a Nutley youth now living in New York expressed strong aversion to America's part in the current conflict.

The writer, Carl J. Hinke, accused America's national and military leaders of genocide, lying, betrayal, and murder. He also announced his refusal to register for the draft and stated "I do not love this country."

Although the Sun did not agree with the Hinke letter, it allowed its publication in the belief that under the Constitution's freedom of speech clause every citizen should have equal entry into the columns of all newspapers.

However, the Sun reserved the privilege of comment on its editorial page. It appeared last week under the title "I Do Not Love This Country." In it Frank A. Orechio, publisher, made his now famous comment. "His sentiments sound like a mixed-up kid who wasn't worth his mother's labor pains," and proposed a fund raising drive to buy Hinke a one-way ticket to North Viet Nam.

The next day the phones began to ring with calls both for Hinke and Orechio. Opinions were sharply divided. Letters began arriving. Some cancelled subscriptions other praised the Orechio editorial. Rumors of a local effort to organize a "peace demonstration" in front of the Sunbank building have circulated.

In order that both sides of the question may have equal opportunity for exposure in the letters to the editor column, The Sun will hold all letters and publish them at one time in the Thanksgiving issue of November 22nd.

To the Editor,
The Nutley Sun:

On this historic day, I join hands with those men who will not be called accomplices to genocide. These are just men; we believe that the only justice we can hold is that of God, that of conscience, that of love. Our justice does not stem from the belief in a political system; our justice stems from truth.

I am an American. Those leaders of the government have lied to the public who brought them into power. Those leaders have betrayed the trust and innocence of all the peoples of the world. THOSE leaders have murdered women and children. Those leaders have destroyed the spark of life within so many young men, that they can never know again the laughter of children at play.

I do not love this country; I am a citizen of the world. When a human being suffers, so also do I suffer; when a human being is imprisoned, so also am I imprisoned; when a human being is destroyed, so also must you destroy me. You cannot know those fragile qualities that make each person beautiful: love, joy, compassion, mercy, peace.

I have found a woman with whom I am to share my life. We must build a better world and a better society so that our children will never have to know your hatred, your greed, your violence, your guilt. In the spirit of nonviolence and agape, I announce my refusal to register with a system of conscription that enforces murder, the murder of all life.

Your prisons are not stronger nor large enough to hold the spirit of our love.

Take peace. "Where there is hatred, let me sow love."

In peace and life,
Carl J. Hinke
139 Walnut Street
Nutley, N.J.

(Mr. Hinke, who completed his junior year at Nutley High School last June, has since joined an organization called The Resistance listing an address at 5 Beekman Street, New York City. The above letter was mailed from that address in behalf of The Resistance—Editor.)

Last week's Nutley Sun included a letter to the editor from a young Nutleyite, Carl J. Hinke. Mr. Hinke completed his junior year at Nutley High School last June and has since joined an organization called "The Resistance" whose listed address is 5 Beekman Street, New York City.

Because he lives in America, and because this country guarantees freedom of the press, Mr. Hinke was able to have his views published in this newspaper.

On the one hand he says, "I am an American." And just as he gets that thought off his chest he adds, "I do not love this country." I have found a woman with whom I am to share my life. We must build a better world and a better society, so that our children will never have to know your hatred, your greed, your violence, your guilt. In the spirit of nonviolence and agape, I announce my refusal to register with a system of conscription that enforces murder, the murder of all life.

Young Mr. Hinke's published sentiments must prove embarrassing to his family who have an excellent record of being good, law-abiding Americans. His sentiments, sound like a mixed-up kid who wasn't worth his mother's labor pains. But just in case young Mr. Hinke is not a mixed-up kid — that he really hates America — we would like to extend an invitation to him to leave our country at the very earliest moment — and The Sun will sponsor a drive to raise funds for Mr. Hinke to buy a one way ticket to North Vietnam or some other "democratic" country which he can love to his heart's content.

DINNER THIS SATURDAY

Post 70 to Honor Frank Lorenzetti

Frank Lorenzetti, 1967 Commander of Nutley American Legion, Post 70, will be guest of honor at the annual Post Commander's Dinner to be held this Saturday.

James West Now Legion Commander

James O. West, Ventnor, newly elected department commander of the New Jersey American Legion, will direct a membership promotion workshop of post and county officers and membership chairmen from Bergen, Essex, Hudson and Passaic Counties, at the home of the Louis Wenzel, Jr. American Legion Post 147, Legion Place, East Paterson, New Jersey, on October 26, 1967, at 8 p.m.

The purpose of the conference, the second in a series of such workshops to be held throughout the department of New Jersey, is to acquaint the 1967-1968 Post and county legion officers with the legion's membership program for the ensuing year.

West, a World War II Veteran, was elected department commander at the legion's convention in Wildwood. He is a member and past commander of the James Harvey Post 144, Ventnor City; a past county commander of Atlantic County and a past department vice commander (1961). He has a distinguished record of service with the American Legion, having served on many important post, county department and national committees.

Dr. K. F. Fiesser, Butler, also elected at Wildwood, will be responsible for the promotion of legion activities in the four counties and will preside at the workshop at East Paterson on October 26th.

Lorenzetti served in the European theatre of operations during World War II. He is an employee of Ballantine & Sons brewery in Newark.

Very active in American Legion activities since joining Post 70, Lorenzetti has served as membership and entertainment chairman as well as commander last year. The dinner will be served in the Hammond Room of the Post home, 45 Franklin Avenue, at 7:30 p.m. Past Commander Anthony Turturiello will serve as toastmaster.

Double Birthday Celebrated By Peoples National

The Peoples National Bank & Trust Company celebrated a double birthday October 20, 1967. It was the Aiken Office's fourth anniversary, and the birthday of its chairman of the board, B. Thomas Aiken.

The Branch employees serve coffee and doughnuts to everyone and birthday cake for the boss.

The Aiken Office will soon be joined by Peoples National Bank & Trust Company's third Office on Bloomfield Avenue in Belleville, adjoining Newark and Bloomfield.

Eggs And The Sonic Boom

In an elaborate test conducted during several periods of 1966, involving hundreds of flights by eleven types of supersonic aircraft, a federal study of sonic boom tests indicates booms caused by such fast-flying aircraft probably do not disrupt the laying habits of chickens.

For people, however, the problem is not as simple. The irritation caused by sonic booms can be considerable and tests indicate the newer aircraft will be forced to reduce their speed considerably over land.

Booms can be increased in intensity by weather conditions and, when strong enough, break windows, damage, both buildings and their contents and cause major discomfort because of their loudness and shock.

Thus humans seem to be more directly concerned than animals and birds. Among the birds there are various reactions. Chickens continued laying — perhaps they acclimated themselves to the booms. Turkeys didn't seem to be overly disturbed. Yet the owner of a pheasant-breeding flock has filed a claim against the government (where the tests were held — near Edwards Air Force Base, California) saying his flock's egg production dropped heavily under the stress of the booms.

One would have thought, naively perhaps, that a good boom or two at the proper time might have been just the touch to pep up egg production.

On Keeping Well

Some time ago a doctor said the breakdown of blood vessels in the human body caused four times as many deaths as cancer. He further stated that what really kills people is they wear out their bodies thirty years too soon.

What did the doctor propose people do to prevent blood vessels from breaking down? His answer was to "eat well and not too much. Rest well, and get sufficient exercise."

The doctor insisted that people in the United States are over-fed and suggested they reduce food consumption by half to live longer and be healthier. He said that fatigue was a major factor in accident, disease and the wearing out of bodies. He suggested people at work need rest periods every two hours and that "ten minutes of relaxation will work wonders."

Baptist Church Closed

A protestant church has been closed in Spain by Spanish police. The Baptist church was attended by fewer than twenty members, according to newspaper reports, but the incident struck a note of fear among all Protestants in Spain.

The church was closed under a new Spanish law which had at first been hailed as a religious freedom law. Initial drafts of the law did indeed grant freedom to various faiths but the test of the law was so altered before it passed that there is now fear many Protestant churches will be closed.

There are only about 30,000 Protestants practicing in Spain, about 500 ministers; they have been harassed and bounded for decades by Spanish police. Even the new law on religion recently passed by the Spanish Cortes refuses to recognize Protestant churches and terms them associations, which must win approval from the Ministry of Justice.

The recent church closing shocked Protestants all over the world who had been led to believe a measure of tolerance and freedom would be forthcoming in Spain as a result of the new law. The Rev. Jose Cardona Gregori, executive secretary for the 400 Protestant churches in Spain, was quoted after the closing as saying a "very difficult" time lay ahead for minority faiths in Spain.

Such detours into the past, reminiscent of the intolerance and fanaticism of the Middle Ages, do little to advance the cause of Christian unity. Those who cherish freedom and democracy, which includes Americans of all faiths, are disheartened at such setbacks.

Polls Show LBJ's Support Down

The latest public opinion polls indicate President Lyndon Johnson is in trouble. The trouble is not immediately critical because there is no election this year. But if the recent trend continues into 1968 the President will have cause for serious concern.

Mr. Johnson's support is at an all-time low — since he assumed the Presidency in 1963. The most recent Gallup Poll shows only 39 per cent of the people queried approve of the way he is handling his job.

The President's popularity has been subject to wide variations, last year dipped to less than fifty per cent approval, but it has never — until this month — dropped below forty per cent.

The reasons for Mr. Johnson's trouble are fairly obvious. First, more than fifty per cent of the people, according to the polls, disapprove of his handling of the escalating war in Vietnam. A heavy majority are opposed to new taxes to finance the war.

And racial troubles which have spread havoc all over America and tarnished the American image throughout the world are blamed, by some, on federal policies.

The indications have been, for several months now, that Mr. Johnson must put things right in Vietnam, by some form of settlement or other arrangement, or face defeat in 1968.

Moscow Dentente?

A strange note was recently sounded by Pravda, when the government newspaper published an article demanding that Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba stop meddling in the internal affairs of its Latin neighbors.

In effect, the call was for Castro to cease his efforts to stir revolutions in Colombia, Bolivia, Venezuela and Guatemala.

At about the same time it was belatedly revealed that Soviet Premier Alexi Kosygin had old President Lyndon Johnson at their summit meeting in Glassboro, New Jersey, in June, that if the United States halted its bombing of North Vietnam, negotiations to end the Vietnamese war could begin.

These and other hints and indications have led some to conclude a genuine detente between Russia and the United States is in the making. Such a turn of events is possible, of course, but it is much too early to place any dependence on such hope. It is worthy of note that these hints of an easing of relations develop, many of our military analysts are saying that in the next few years the U.S.S.R. will have gained a missile and nuclear lead over us for the first time.

Different Styles For Editorials

In writing editorials commenting on and drawing conclusions about current events, every editor is charged with a grave responsibility. There are different styles of writing editorials, and the reader is entitled to know something about them and something about editorial policy.

In the first place, there is the free-wheeling editor, who has a solution for every local, national or international problem. The editor knows all the answers and always presents the correct course of action.

This editor may carry with him a majority of his readers, simply because he spends more of his time getting acquainted with the facts, and details a good case behind arguments he presents.

Another type of editor tries honestly to present both sides of controversial issues and outlines general recommendations, or sometimes a course of action. This editor doesn't have the solution to all the day's problems, nor does he usually include sensational attacks on persons or organizations or parties, which some people like so much.

In this newspaper the reader is offered information and opinion designed to help him reach intelligent conclusions.

Your duty as a voting citizen is to form an opinion of your own, based on a fair presentation of news events and facts, and this is the purpose of informative and educational editorial columns.

Living It Up at Atlantic City Not Best Way to Spend Tax

To the Editor, Times-News:

Five years ago — SEEMS ONLY YESTERDAY — you editorially commented, November 20th, 1962, under the title CONVENTION EXPENSES:

"Some of our Town Hall employees left town last Tuesday for their annual pilgrimage to Atlantic City. The delegation this year was headed by our genial economy-minded professional Town Manager William A. Sommers. Sommers did the inviting — and the taxpayers will be obliged to foot the bill. At least three officials to our knowledge turned down Sommers' invitation to live it up at Atlantic City at the expense of our oppressed taxpayers. They were Mayor Robert M. Laterza, Deputy Mayor G. George Addonizio, and Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo. We must await the presentation of bills before a full accounting can be made to the people of Belleville. If this safari produces no more than past trips under the auspices of our Commission government it will probably end up a total loss for the taxpayers. Again we make our annual complaints — the expense to send a delegation of town employees to Atlantic City year after year is a waste of taxpayer's money. We think a better use can be made of the money."

Good for your comments, Mr. Editor! Now let's see what another citizen had to say about this same Atlantic City safari, this time in 1966, and this time from a Mayor of a leading New Jersey city: (reported thus)

"... the Mayor, last night renewed his fight to keep attendance by local officials at conventions to a minimum. The Mayor, who still has not approved vouchers submitted by councilmen for the State League of Municipalities Convention last November, said the statute which permits reimbursement for convention expenses was being abused. He stated, 'The city attorney informs me that this statute applies only to members of the governing body. Such being the law, I fail to see how we can give so broad an interpretation as to include just about every employee who may have a title. He said that the city has lead all other communities in his county for four of the last five years in the number of employees attending the league's annual convence in Atlantic City and he vowed to reduce this number. These convention abuses must be curbed', the Mayor warned. 'You may be sure that this year there will be a receipt for every cent granted a ny convention claim. There was a time when men served for honor and prestige, with little thought of self.'

Monday night, at the Regular Town Meeting, October 23rd, 1967, under resolution no. 6, the Board of Commissioners recommended advancing the time for the holding of the Belleville Regular Meeting of the Board to Thursday night, November 9th from Monday November 13th, 1967. At a meeting the following night, Tuesday, October 24th, the Irvington Town Council voted to hold their next scheduled meeting one day earlier, making their own meeting date Monday, November 13th in place of Tuesday, 'because of a conflict with the opening of the annual conference of the New Jersey League of Municipalities in Atlantic City.' From all appearances then, Irvington Town officials will be "at home" on Monday night, November 13th, holding their town's council meeting. In as much as the convention does not begin until Tuesday, November 14th, wonder why Belleville found it necessary to advance our regular town meeting to Tuesday, November 9th from Monday the 13th? Let us hope that there are no plans by anyone to, as per your editorial comment, "Live it up at Atlantic City at the expense of our oppressed taxpayers" for one day longer than is absolutely essential.

Don't Die! Take a Pap Smear Test

Public response to a free cancer testing at all Essex County hospitals on next Tuesday, November 14th, has been overwhelming.

The Essex County Chapter of the American Cancer Society and the Essex County Medical Society are sponsoring a "Pap Smear Day" test for women teenage and adult, which will be conducted free of charge at all hospitals in hours of 9:00 and 4:00 on Tuesday, Belleville and Nutley women may take the test at Clafa Maass Hospital.

"Most of the major firms in our County have even gone beyond the appeal of the sponsoring groups by offering to give time off to women employees to take part in the testing. We are also further pleased that the entire civic community is giving full cooperation and publicity to the testing and to its effort to save lives." Nicholas Di Giovanni and Vincent Strumolo, Nutley & Belleville Cancer Crusade Chairman said.

Garaffa-Mooney Nuptials Performed Saturday In St. Mary's Church, Nutley

MRS. JOSEPH T. GARAFFA
Former Miss Sharon Mooney

St. Mary's Church, Nutley, was the setting Saturday for the marriage of Miss Sharon E. Mooney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Mooney of 337 Main Street to Joseph T. Garaffa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Garaffa of Irvington.

The Rev. John F. Hennessey performed the afternoon ceremony. A reception followed at Branch Brook Manor, Belleville.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white floor length sheath of silk peau de soie with long sleeves, applied with lace and seed pearls. A cathedral train was attached at the shoulders.

A lace and seed pearl petal headpiece held her three tier French illusion veil and she carried a cascade of stephanotis and glamelias.

Mrs. Joseph Juliano of Belleville was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Lynda Murphy of Parsippany, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Kenneth Ruff of Bloomfield. Miss Karen Dawn Luke of Little Falls, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and Shawn Anne Juliano of Belleville, also a niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The attendants wore sheaths of orange and gold brocade with matching orange satin coats and orange satin bow headpieces. Bouquets were orange and gold fuji mums and pom poms.

Vincent Cagno of Irvington was best man. Ushers included Salvatore Garaffa of Irvington, brother of the groom and Victor Verlezza of Newark. Thomas Iacona of Union, cousin of the groom, was junior usher while William Luke was ring bearer.

Mrs. Mooney chose a silver and green brocade floor length sheath with matching coat and green accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid with green center. The groom's mother wore an apricot floor length sheath of crepe and chiffon with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid with apricot accessories.

Mrs. Garaffa, a graduate of Belleville High School, attended Willfred Beauty Academy. She is secretary to the personnel director at RETS Electric School, Nutley.

Mr. Garaffa, an alumnus of Irvington High School, served in the army and is with New Jersey Wholesale Drug Company, Hillside.

The couple will make their home in Irvington.

Emily Schaeffer Engaged To Lawrence C. Chinnock

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Schaeffer Sr. of Harrington Park announce the engagement of their daughter, Emily Louise to Lawrence C. Chinnock Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Chinnock of 31 Crescent Terrace.

Miss Schaeffer, a graduate of Mary Help of Christians Academy and Caldwell College for Women, is a mathematics teacher at St. Luke's High School, Hoboken.

Mr. Chinnock Jr., an alumnus of Belleville High School and Bloomfield College, is a biology teacher at St. Cecilia's High School, Englewood. He is on the executive board of the New Jersey Science Teachers' Association.

The wedding is planned for June 29.

MISS EMILY SCHAEFFER

Engagement Is Announced Of Rosemary Harrigan

Mrs. Lois Harrigan of 450 Washington Avenue announces the engagement of her daughter, Rosemary to Spec. 4 Bruce G. Zillgenz, son of Mrs. Arlean Cook of 1 Essex Street. Miss Harrigan attends Willfred Beauty School, Newark.

Spec. 4 Zillgenz has recently returned from a tour of duty in Korea and is now stationed at Fort Dix as an instructor of new recruits. A fall wedding is planned.

Open House At School 5

In observance of National Education Week, the annual Open House of School 5 was held November 6th.

Following the Open House, the regular monthly meeting of the P.T.A. was held in the all-purpose room.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Joseph G. Giordano, senior highway representative from the New Jersey Division of Motor Vehicles, who spoke on traffic safety. Mr. Giordano, a former Motor Vehicle Inspector and former teacher, has been employed by the Division of Motor Vehicles since 1953.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Shawger School Association Gives New Mothers Tea

On October 13 the Home and School Association of James G. Shawger School gave a tea for the mothers of kindergarten children and new students. Newly appointed classroom mothers were also invited in order to meet each other and become familiar with the school.

The first regular meeting of the Home and School Association was October 17. A program was presented by the Cub Scouts. Also on the program were Mrs. Betty Rovell and Mrs. Lois Servidio, who spoke about the new Helping Hand Block Parent Plan. Lt. Robert Russomano was also on hand for whatever information required pertaining to police ruling in relation to this block plan.

Carol Diane Demark, Richard G. Roy Married In Grace Baptist Church

Miss Carol Diane Demark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Demark of 75 Little Street and Richard Gary Roy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Roy of Bernardsville, were married October 28 in Grace Baptist Church, Belleville.

The Rev. John Mair performed the ceremony. A reception followed at The Fiesta, Woodridge.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line duiset satin gown with re-embroidered Alencon lace bordering the elbow length sleeves and medallion paneled skirt. The dress was fashioned with a detachable chapel train.

A four tier elbow length veil was held by a cluster of petals embroidered with seed pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade of glamelias, baby white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. G. Gordon Kaestner of River Vale was her sister's matron of honor. Mrs. Angela Walko of Verona and Miss Lorraine Zingler of Elizabeth were bridesmaids. Julie Jean Kaestner was flower girl.

The attendants wore gowns designed with chocolate brown velvet bodices and skirts of champagne chiffon over crepe. The bodice was trimmed with a shocking pink band. Headpieces were tri-colored floor length veils and they carried cascades of baby pink carnations and roses with brown velvet streamers.

The flower girl was similarly attired in a short dress with a miniature bouquet.

Clinton Roy of Bernardsville served as best man for his brother. Ushering were Mr. Kaestner and David Thomas of Bedminster.

Mrs. Demark chose a rayon silk turquoise sheath with matching accessories. Her corsage was white cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother was in a dress of shocking pink ribbon lace over pink crepe with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink cymbid.

Historic Wilson Home Donated To State By Evangelist Church

On behalf of the State of New Jersey, Robert A. Roe, Commissioner of the State Department of Conservation and Economic Development, last Saturday accepted the James Wilson Marshall House in Lambertville as a historic gift from St. John The Evangelist Roman Catholic Church. This significant event marked the first time that a religious group has generously exhibited attentive interest in historic preservation. The deed presentation was made by His Excellency, the Most Reverend George W. Ahl of Trenton, and Reverend Russell E. Loughman, Pastor of St. John The Evangelist Roman Catholic Church. This house is a monument to the combined endeavors of church, town government officials and the Lambertville Historical Society whose support will make possible the maintenance of this boyhood home of James Wilson Marshall.

Catholic Bishops To Sponsor 19th Annual Clothing Drive

The week of Nov. 5-11 will mark the nineteenth annual Thanksgiving Clothing Campaign under the sponsorship of the Catholic bishops of the United States.

Catholic churches and schools in Bergen, Essex, Hudson and Union counties will serve as collection centers for used clothing, shoes, blankets and bedding for distribution overseas to the needy.

Archbishop Thomas A. Boland, in a statement proclaiming the campaign, said: "The Middle East crisis earlier this year and the year-long devastation of the people of Vietnam have all but depleted the goods gathered in America this time last year. There is now a unique opportunity for us to replenish the storehouses and give substance to the words of the Gospel parable, 'I was naked and you covered me.'

Overwork, we understand, does not age the nerve cell upon which longevity depends.

Religion, we suspect, can be measured in an individual by manners displayed.

Children of 'Working Poor' Now Eligible for Head Start

Senator Harrison A. Williams, Jr. (D-NJ) disclosed today that income guidelines for the pre-school Head Start program will be increased for the city of Newark.

The ruling applies only to Newark, but the Newark situation has prompted a nationwide study of the guidelines. The ruling means that children from families of the so-called "working poor" previously excluded will now be admitted to the program.

Senator Williams said that the Office of Economic Opportunity will soon announce a $700 increase in the amount a family can earn, and still enter children in the Head Start classes. Under the present system, children whose parents earn more than the OEO guideline are ineligible for the program.

The OEO decision will give Newark Pre-School Council

Inc. permission to enroll hundreds of children previously excluded.

Sen. Williams said that the administrative decision was made after he pointed out to OEO officials that a family of four on welfare in New Jersey, with an annual income of $4200, could send children to Head Start classes, but a working family of four with an income of less than $4200 remained ineligible.

"The pressures in a city like Newark make it imperative that these Head Start guidelines be liberally extended," Williams said. "The income guidelines must not penalize the working man who happens to make less than those on welfare."

OEO officials have indicated that the Newark decision will be a model for a study of national guidelines. Labor Department statistics should reveal whether or not a national revamping of the guidelines is in order.

Specialists stress is that their confections are made from home recipes. Although salt water taffy is still Fralinger's top seller, its macaroon and fudge lines have mushroomed to remarkable proportions in recent years.

Mrs. Marian Young, operator of the Kitty Kelly Candy Shop at the Chalfonte Hotel, claims to have the largest assortment of candies on Atlantic City's boardwalk. She commented that fudge is a perennial favorite the year round, with chocolates running a close second as the choice of the thousands of guests who attend business meetings and conventions during the winter months.

According to Richard J. Larkin, chief of the Conservation Department's State Protection Section, a large part of the shore area's confectionery business consists of mail orders sent to all part of the United States and many foreign countries. Fralinger recently received an order for a $2 box of candy with an enclosed check to cover $38 air mail postage to South Africa.

Atlantic City's boardwalk probably has the greatest concentration of candy concessions of any one street in the world and the area between concentration of candy concessions is often referred to as "the sweetest mile on earth."

It is remarkable what some people will do for publicity, even when most of it is worthless.

News is not what happens; it is what is reported.

Surprise Areas Lost To GOP

TRENTON, NOV. 7 (Special to Belleville Times) — A run-down of county elections reveals that Republicans have captured control in several traditionally Democratic counties including Bergen, Passaic and Union.

Republicans won all five Bergen Senate seats and all 12 Assembly seats.

In Passaic, all three Senate seats and three of the five Assembly posts went to the Republicans.

Three more Senate seats from Union — a swing county — were won by the GOP. Republicans in Union County also won five of seven contests for the State Assembly.

Todd Tells Why Victory Came

TRENTON, NOV. 7 (Special to Belleville Times) — State Republican Chairman Webster Todd met with reporters here tonight and outlined his reasons why the GOP scored its landslide today throughout the Garden State.

Todd also said the first order of business next January will be the repeal of the controversial strikers' benefits law. The bill (S-400) is scheduled to go into effect on January 1 and would pay striking workers unemployment benefits.

Republicans campaigned heavily for repeal of the bill, Todd noted, and he told The Times his party would not disappoint the voters of New Jersey.

The chief sponsor of S-400, Joseph Keegan of Passaic County, lost his Senate seat Tuesday night.

Todd said Tuesday's Republican victory was due not only to hard work of party members and candidates, but to such issues as the restlessness of the electorate, a desire for a change in government, Vietnam, taxes, backlash from the Newark rioting — especially in suburban communities such as Nutley and Belleville — the school integration controversy and the strikers' benefits law.

State Names Director For Migrant Workers

Salvatore A. Tronco has been named supervisor of the State Department of Education's educational program for children of seasonal, migrant and rural deprived workers.

Tronco, an educator 16 years served the last three years as an aide in the office of the Burlington County superintendent of schools where he coordinated federal assistance programs.

In his new assignment, Tronco will assist Westry Horne, coordinator of migrant education, in the operation of an expanded school program for disadvantaged children and adults in the rural sections of New Jersey.

Democrats Drop Reins To State

TRENTON, NOV. 7 (Special to Belleville Times) — Republicans not only regained control of both houses of the Legislature tonight, the GOP appears certain to win enough seats to gain the two-thirds majority in both the Assembly and Senate which would enable tonight's victors to override any potential vetoes by Democrat Governor Richard J. Hughes.

With returns still incomplete, Republicans appear to have turned around the Democrats' previous 2-1 majority into a 3-1 margin for the GOP. The final tallies indicated a Republican margin of 31 to 9 in the Senate. In the State Assembly, 58 Republicans had won seats compared to 22 Democrats.

Republicans also took over in key New Jersey counties including Essex, Union, Passaic, Middlesex and possible even Mercer.

The victory tonight places the Republicans in an advantageous position going into next year's Presidential election and the 1969 gubernatorial race in New Jersey.

State Developing Driver Education Program

The Federal Highway Administration has approved a highway safety grant to New Jersey for planning and developing a driver education program it was announced today.

The $12,750 grant — to be matched by the State on a 50-50 basis — will assist the State in developing a program to meet the Federal Highway Safety Standard on Driver Education promulgated under the National Highway Safety Act of 1966.

The project will develop a State program for driver education which will attempt to reach approximately 106,000 high school students during the first year of operation, increasing to 130,000 students in 1974. At the present time, about 40 percent of the eligible students are receiving driver education instruction consisting of 30 hours of classroom instruction plus 6 hours of behind-the-wheel training.

Republicans Score Big Belleville Win

J. Matturi, David W. Dodd, Gerardo L. Del Tufo, Milton A. Waldor and Michael A. Giuliano received the full support of their people and if all goes all right, will keep that respect on their side till the next senatorial elections.

Topping the six Republicans was Wallwork who tallied at total 5,535 votes for both wards. Pulling in 2,082 in the first and 3,443 in the second. Taking second place was Giuliano with a total figure of 5,258 votes; 2,546 in the first ward and 2,712 in the second.

Del Tufo was the number two man to carry the second ward to its fullest with 2,764 (under Wallwork's 3,443). He received 2,376 votes in the first ward for a grand gathering of 5,160.

Next on the scale was Matturi tipping it with a total of 4,875 votes. Gathering 2,306 in the first ward and 2,569 in the second.

County Seats Go To GOP

NEWARK, NOV. 7 (Special to Belleville Times) — Republicans in Essex County scored nearly a clean sweep tonight with only six State Assembly seats being returned to the Democrats.

Incomplete returns give the Republicans all six Senate seats and half of the dozen positions in the Assembly.

All three posts on the Essex County Board of Freeholders went to the republicans which means that power on the board shifts to the GOP as of next January. It will be the first time in a decade that Republicans will have controlled the County Courthouse.

The election already is being viewed as a possible fatal blow to Democratic Chairman Dennis Carrey.

Essex County voters knocked Sheriff LeRoy D'Aloia out of office and gave the position to Republican Ralph D'Ambola a civil service employee in D'Aloia's office.

second. Following Matturi was Dowd with 2,060 votes in the first ward and 2,376 in the second for a total of 4,436.

Bringing up the rear for the grand finale was Waldor with 2,002 in the first ward and 2,366 in the second for a figure of 4,368.

The following is a list of the Democrats running for the same seat.

Nicholas T. Femicola, first ward (numbers represent all districts) 2,288, second ward, 2,106, total 4,394; John B. Giblin, first ward, 2,024, second ward 1,895, total 3,919; Maclyn S. Goldman first ward, 1,877, second ward, 1,818, total 3,695.

Hutchins F. Inge, first ward 1,728, second ward, 1,670, total, 3,398; David Mandelbaum first ward 1,783, second ward, 1,700, total, 3,483 and Victor F. Addonizio, first ward, 2,051, second ward 1,883 for a total of 3,934.

In the race for sheriff, Ralph D'Ambola, Republican, won out over LeRoy J. D'Aloia, Democrat.

D'Ambola totaled 2,169 in the first ward, 2,491 in the second ward and a town total of 4,660. D'Aloia totaled 2,284 in the first ward, 2,086 in the second and a total of 4,370.

In the battle for membership to the general Assembly Ralph A. Caputo and C. Richard Fiore, both Republicans defeated Armand E. Lembo and Joseph G. Biancardi.

Caputo gathered a total 2,217 votes for the twelve districts comprising the first ward and then, surpassed this figure in the second ward with 2,504 votes for a grand count of 4,721.

Fiore gathered a total 2,178 votes in the first ward and surpassed that mark in the second ward by collecting a total 2,419 votes for a grand figure of 4,597.

Both Democrats put up a good fight except for Lembo dropping off in the second ward. He collected a total 2,077 votes in ward one and didn't quite top that mark in the second ward by only putting in 1,949 votes for total of 4,026. Biancardi on the other hand put up a hard battle for the assembly position by topping both his opponents in the first ward but dropped off in the second ward. He collected a total 4,563 votes; 2,384 for the first ward and 2,179 for the second.

In the race for membership on the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Vincent Corrado, Alan Augenblick and William H. Clark all Republicans, beat M. Marucci-Kelly, Benjamin Gordon, and Edward J. McKenna, Democrats and former incumbents.

Corrado totaled 2,187 in the first ward, 2,491 in the second ward and a town total of 4,660. Alan Augenblick received 2,017 in the first ward, 2,392 in the second, and a total of 4,409; Clark accumulated 2,077 in the first ward, 2,445 in the second and a total of 4,522.

Democrats Marucci-Kelly totaled 1,998 in the first ward, 1,874 in the second and a total of 3,872 in the town. Gordon took 1,795 in the first ward, 1,803 in the second and 3,598 for the town. McKenna received 1,950 in the first ward, 1,836 in the second and 3,786 for the town.

For Coroners Bellevilleites chose Joseph L. Parsons, Winfield J. Atno and Nicholas LaSpina, all Republicans, over Leo Goldsticker, Joseph Palaia and Emmet Lewis.

Parsons accumulated 1,976 votes in the first ward, 2,356 in the second and a town total of 4,332. Atno won 2,006 votes in the first ward, 2,342 in the second, and 4,348 from the town. La Spina received 2,224 in the first ward, 2,559 in the second and 4,803 in the town.

Leo Goldsticker took 1,776 in the first ward, 1,741 in the second, and 3,517 from the town. Joseph Palaia received 2,024 from the first ward, 1,899 from the second, and 3,923 from the town. Lewis took 1,765 in the first ward, 1,724 from the second and 3,489 from the town.

Of the 17,075 total registered from the town of Belleville 9,949 voted Tuesday, a percentage of 5.76.

Top Level Cops Talk Of Nation's Crime

The nation's spiraling crime wave will be discussed by Attorney General Arthur J. Sills, Colonel David B. Kelly, state police superintendent, and mayors Hugh J. Addonizio of Newark, Carmen J. Armenti of Trenton and Ralph F. Batch of Millburn at special sessions during the 52nd annual Conference of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities to meet November 14-17 at Atlantic City.

Sills, Addonizio and Armenti will participate in a Thursday morning session (November 16) on the recent Report of the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice. The report, containing recommendations of a special blue-ribbon panel of presidential appointees, which analyzed crime causes, has had a major impact on police officials across the nation.

Appearing on the same program will be Major Eugene Olaff, operations officer for the New Jersey State Police and Bruce J. Terris assistant to the Vice President for the District of Columbia and a former staff member of the President's Crime Commission. Law enforcement advanced training and intensive training of police personnel will be aired at a session Thursday afternoon, to be chaired by Mayor Batch. Speaking will be Ralph W. Bachman, special agent in charge of the Newark office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; John J. Heffernan, president of the New Jersey State Patrolman's Benevolent Association; Leo A. Cullo, executive secretary of the New Jersey Police Training Commission; Dr. Robert H. McCabe, President of Essex County College and State Police Superintendent Kelly. The conference is expected to draw over 7,000 municipal officials and consultants. The 4-day meeting is the largest local government workshop of its kind in the country, according to Mayor Louis Bay 2nd of Hawthorne, League President.

Mobile Lab May Receive Federal Aid

Essex County Sheriff Le Roy J. D'Aloia disclosed last week he is probing sources of federal fund grants that might finance his proposal for a mobile crime laboratory that would service municipal police departments in the area. His plan has the approval of the Essex County Police Chiefs' Association.

D'Aloia said he is receiving "professional advice at no cost to the county" from law enforcement consultants with whom he is friendly, on possible sources of federal grants and also has asked Reps. Peter W. Rodino, Jr. (10th Dist. Dem.) and Joseph Minish (11th Dist. Dem.), for their cooperation.

The sheriff said it was his understanding that some federal funds might be available for a project of this nature and he has asked federal enforcement experts to check.

"The entire plan is two-pronged," D'Aloia declared. "From a practical standpoint, a mobile laboratory would save each municipal police department in the county a substantial amount of money. A single, mobile laboratory that could service many law enforcement units in Essex would drastically cut these costs."

"If, in addition, federal subsidies can be obtained to curb the county's investment, there will be another fiscal saving locally and a tremendous added service to protect the public."

D'Aloia also revealed he has reached into the industrial business community for cooperation in obtaining individual underwriting of the costs of certain major items that would be needed for the laboratory. "The career officers in the sheriff's department are completely sold on the plan and are assisting in compiling sources and information on their own initiative and on their own time — graphically demonstrating their professional interest."

Belleville Crews Building For Big Season

The Belleville High School Varsity Eight along with the junior varsity, sophomore, and freshman crews can be seen stroking up and down the Passaic River. Since the end of September, the varsity shell had been averaging six miles a day with no practice on Saturday.

Coach Mike Lally has been working the boys quite hard, and due to his constant encouragement and advice, there has been a big development in the team which can be clearly seen as fall practice comes to a close.

In the varsity shell there are four returning varsity oarsmen who should be seen this spring. The Bellboys do not have any races during the fall season. But because of the continuous practice they receive, they are able to improve their style and better prepare themselves for the crew season beginning in the spring.

BIG CREW

The varsity has a much larger crew this year in comparison to last year's crew. They average 6' in height and 165 lbs. in weight which means a lot of power in the varsity shell. Even though they have strength and ability, they still must compete with tough crew teams from the neighboring vicinity. However, their grit, determination, and ability, linked with their strong desire for victory, will be a very hard combination to beat.

Coxswaining the shell this fall has been junior Joe Zarra. Zarro, who had previous experience in the freshman shell two years ago, was out last year; but is now back as a member of the strong varsity crew. He has been doing a tremendous job steering the shell. Zarro replaced Danny Grossman, who was lost to last year's graduating class.

In the stroke position is Scott Fabian, also a junior. Scott, a returnee from last year's varsity shell, has plenty of power and enough experience to take the place of Frank Esposito who graduated.

Scott had been moved from the number four seat to his present position.

Peter Faltraco is a junior who occupies the number seven seat. When rowing with the varsity shell last year, he was in the three seat but now is taking the place of Bob Andrews, a '67 graduate.

Richard Beresford has made himself a place in the number six seat. Richard previously rowed with the junior varsity. Now, he is a varsity oarsman and a member of the junior class. He is also one of the tallest members on the crew team.

Next we find Gary Corino in the number five seat. Corino is a junior and this is his first year in the varsity shell after his leaving the junior varsity boat. Gary is replacing Walter Beresford of the '67 graduating class.

Rowing in the number four seat is Stanley Keegan, a senior. Keegan is a returnee from the varsity shell. He has had a lot of experience on the crew team. Keegan is also the biggest member of the team, and his size and strength are relied on heavily as a main source of power to help propel the shell.

Occupying the number three seat is Pete Mueller, a senior. Pete has come a long way from last year's third shell, and should do quite well this year.

Kenneth Murray is a senior and a returnee from last year's team. He occupied the number two seat last year and maintains the same seat this year. Murray is a great help to the shell due to his strength, despite the fact that he is the smallest member on the team.

Joseph Bray, a crew veteran, but a new member to the varsity shell is the bow. Bray who is a senior, replaces Victor Mossa, a graduate of last year's class.

LOW STROKE

The varsity eight has been keeping the stroke at a very low pace. The stroke is about a "26" as compared to last year's 37-38. The reason behind the low stroke, is due to Coach Mike Lally, who would like to have more power in the shell; this is accomplished when the stroke is low. When the spring season begins, Coach Lally will once again raise the stroke to the previous 36 stroke.

Freshmen, under the coaching of Sam Guiffreda, have been working out in what is known to them as the barge. It is basically two shells held together by braces. This barge is helping the freshmen get the feel of rowing before they attempt to race in a single shell.

The junior varsity shell is composed of mostly new members. The majority of sophomore and junior members have had no previous rowing experience, but they have come a long way under the guidance of Coach Guiffreda.

The complete roster of senior, junior, and sophomore crew members is as follows: Richard Bini, Gary Benec-chi, John Foster, Larry Fink, Bill Breckenridge, John Moscatello, Steve Taffet, John Drabik, Ray Kerner, Kevin Sutton, Ron DeJonge, Russ Jerisik, John Ressler, and Ray Brubaker.

Also, Joe Zarra, Stan Keegan, Scott Fabian, Dick Beresford, Gary Corino, Pete Faltraco, Jay Bray, Bob Cassanelli, Rick Cavalluzzi, Pete Mueller, Frank Sebillia, Steve Ferrara, Tom Ferrara, Ken Murray, and Camine Accomando.

The preceding members of the crew teams are looking forward to a victorious season and a good deal of support from the student body.

St. Vincent's Names New Administrator

Michael F. Costello of 5 Savoy Street, Colonia, has been named assistant administrator at St. Vincent's Hospital, effective immediately. It was announced last week.

Previous to his appointment, Costello specialized in Blue Cross hospital reimbursement audits and Medicare costs in New Jersey hospitals.

State To Aid Towns With Federal Funds

The New Jersey Department of Community Affairs announced last week it has applied for $591,433 in federal funds to expand its technical assistance to municipalities with populations of 100,000 or less.

Community Affairs Commissioner Paul N. Ylvisaker said the Department is seeking the federal grant under Title IX of the Demonstration Cities and Metropolitan Development Act of 1966. The application was submitted to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

"What we propose to do in our application to HUD is part of an overall effort to increase and improve technical assistance and the flow of urban information to the State's smaller communities," Commissioner Ylvisaker said. "This effort also includes upgrading the skills of local administrators and expanded research on local problems. In short, we would use the funds to make local government in New Jersey more professional."

The application proposes 12 programs in which the Department would hire specialists in areas of municipal government to advise and assist New Jersey communities; establish systems to collect and disseminate information; and encourage municipalities which have not yet applied for federal Model Cities funds to do so by making available more personnel to help them draft applications.

The proposal also provides for an interchange of municipal and county officials whose expertise may answer a specific need of another county or municipality. The Department would reimburse the lending community for the time the official spends in another locality.

Specialists to be added to the Department would include experts in such areas as housing rehabilitation, code assistance and information, debt management and automatic data processing. These specialists and their units would give technical assistance to localities in the latest methods and procedures in their fields.

The application also proposes to hire a technological coordinator and staff to find technical solutions to problems faced by municipalities, such as refuse disposal, transportation, construction and maintenance of municipal facilities, etc. and establish an urban library to collect, file and make available to specialists and municipalities up-to-date urban information.

Commissioner Strumulo Suspends Dr. Ram Again; Hearing Tomorrow To Decide Health Officer's Fate

At the present time Belleville has no health officer.

Monday, Belleville's Commissioner Vincent Strumulo suspended for the third time Dr. George L. Ram for violation of Civil Service rule 59. This time the suspension, instead of for five days, is a forstep to removal from office.

A hearing is scheduled for tomorrow, November 10 at 9:30 a.m. at the Belleville Health Department.

In a letter stating his action, Strumulo said:

"I have done everything humanly possible to avoid this action but Dr. Ram has continually ignored and defied my directives. Under these circumstances I had no other recourse but to take disciplinary action against the health officer.

When contacted at his Newark College of Engineering office, where he is employed as a chemistry instructor, Dr. Ram refused to speak of the issue and referred this reporter to his lawyer.

Ram's attorney, Emil Oxfield of Newark, said that Dr. Ram was fulfilling all the duties of his office as health officer in accordance with the agreement set up when he was hired.

"When Dr. Ram refused to issue Strumulo a license for his meat market because he was selling flowers in it and the fertilizers involved just don't mix with selling food, Strumulo said he would get Dr. Ram," Oxfield said. "This is what he meant I guess."

"Dr. Ram holds a doctorate

Connelly Wins Three State Lifting Contest

George Connelly of Belleville's Recreation Barbell Club has just won the Tri-State (N.J., N.Y., & Penn.) Power Lifting Championship.

Lifting in the meet as a Light Heavyweight George amassed a most impressive total of 1,340 pounds. This meet drew some of the most outstanding lifters of the East and competition was keen.

On his path to victory George did a bench press of 316 lbs., a full squat with 467 pounds, and a Dead Lift of 557 pounds. This was an especially pleasant win for George because he defeated last year's Champion as well as surpassing all of his own past best performances.

George also appeared at Newark Academy with Recreation Department Superintendent Bob Cook at the A. A. U. Workshop where they demonstrated the methods of weight training for sports.

Two Belleville Men Arrested For Assaulting Nutley Cops

Two Belleville men have been arrested for assaulting two Nutley Police officers.

Involved were Sgts. Robert DeLitta and Theodore Steinmeyer. The incident — consisting of a fist fight — occurred Monday night at 10:04 p.m. at Washington Avenue and Centre Street.

The two Belleville men, both in the 20's have been charged with assault and battery on a police officer — a high misdemeanor. The men are on $1,000 bail each.

The men will be given a preliminary hearing before Judge Edwin J. C. Joerg this week.

Bellboys Prepare For Kearny After 28-7 Defeat

FORMER BHS PLAYERS — Former Belleville High School gridder's Tony Sorrentino, left, and Jim Corino are members of the Trenton State College football team who will be in action Saturday, November 4, when the Lions host Montclair State in a renewal of New Jersey's second oldest collegiate football rivalry at 1:30 p.m. A 6-0, 195 pound junior, Sorrentino has started at defensive end in every game for Coach Bob Salois. A Health & Physical Education major, he is a resident of 100 White Oak Terrace, Belleville. Corino moved into the starting quarterback slot when senior, Ted Barbafo was moved to flanker against Wagner College. He has completed 20 passes in 65 attempts for 284 yards and four touchdowns. Corino is a 5-11 sophomore, who lives in St. Mary's Place in Belleville. He is majoring in Business Education with plans for a career in teaching.

"After last week's game, we're going to have our hands full." "I can't speculate on next week's game, they're a little big for us over there." The first quote made by Belleville's Varsity football coach John Amabile and the second made by Kearney's head coach, Don Wernes shows the cautious approach teams with 2 and 5 records have to exhibit.

While Amabile gravely speaks of "preparing for a tough ball game, and Wernes gripes that his tackles, while weighing 210, are only about 5' 9", both praise members of the opposing team commenting that so-and-so is the man they will have to try and stop. Wernes commented that they were expecting "a lot of trouble with that big tackle, Lou Della Terza. Della Terza, number 45, is a 250 pound, 6' 3" senior who plays right tackle. Amabile remarked that he respected Kearney's left end number 88 Mike Land, who ran 86 yards on the opening kick off of a recent game.

Both teams have played Bloomfield: Belleville lost 27-0. Kearney lost 48-6; Irvington: Belleville won 13-6. Kearney lost 14-7; West Orange: Belleville lost 28-7. Kearney won 7-0.

Kearney's 2 and 5 record was compiled by also playing Emerson (lost 28-14), Orange (lost 20-7), Montclair (lost 33-0), and Columbia (won 21-14). Belleville has played East Orange (lost 32-0), Nutley (lost 38-7), West Side (won 20-0) and Garfield (lost 28-0).

Belleville beat Kearney 33-13 last year.

When questioned about his team's preference for runs or passes, Wernes said: "We try to mix it up, by not sticking to either the ground or air. We try to stress our defense, but when the other teams are bigger and faster, what can you do?"

On Belleville's record, Wernes said that the Bellboys "play a tough schedule, you can't figure from records." "When they run alot we use a six man line, Wernes said, but Belleville "seems to be about half and half" we'll have to switch back and forth. Amabile calls both his own and Kearney's team basically aerial oriented. Belleville's defeats rest on defense problems. Amabile feels, "Our basic defense of 5 and 2 is ok and we'll stick to it, it's a matter of execution, letting the boys to move after the ball, this is what we're not doing. This week we'll be looking for a better team effort by the boys, especially defensively, this is our biggest problem."

Caruso Charms Bellboys With A 20-7 Victory Song

by John McCarthy

Richy Caruso did it again as he lead the Belleville freshman team to a 20-7 victory over Orange on the twentieth. In the first half, Rich scored on two twenty yard touchdown runs, following one of these with an extra point.

In the third quarter, possession of the ball seasawed and as the fourth period progressed, it seemed as if the game would end 13-0, but with third down and 5 yards to go, on the Bellboys 29, Caruso swung to his right and ran 71 yards for the third TD of the game.

Joe Papsidero added the twentieth point, but with only two minutes left to go in the game ran 42 yards to score. On this play and Orange blocker pushed Rich down and injured his leg, a move which will sideline Rich from the up coming Irvington game.

The Freshman Bellboys go into the game with a 3-0-1 record. According to the coach, this undefeated team has a strong chance of staying that way for the remainder of the season.

All Teams Are Parted By A Game

As the Belleville Recreation football teams head into their second round of games the two leagues find each team separated from the next by just one game. In the Lightweight Division the Elks have taken the position of top gun and will be the special target of the Varsity, Lions and Kiwanis each of whom have fallen to the speed and power of the Elks.

The Varsity stands next in line with a 2-1 record, then the Lions at 1-3 and the Kiwanis have yet to taste victory. Despite the standings, the games have been very close and the second round could bring about some changes of position.

This year's Heavyweights have been playing real sharp football with every team looking like champions.

Devons are still very much in the running however, having lost only to the Jolly's and that by a close score. Airco (1-2) is a definite power and has had very close scores in its two losses, and the American Legion is sure to hit the second round with renewed vigor and determination.

Commissioner Gives Bellevillites Chance To Bag Turkey Dinners

Commissioner Bill Cullen is planning another special event as encore to the very successful Belleville Golf Day. This time it's a good old fashioned Turkey Shoot.

Shooters are invited to the Belleville Police Pistol Range, Jorammon Street and Hoover Avenue on Sunday November 19 from 1 to 4 p.m.

Applications for the event are available at the Recreation Department, 407 Jorammon Street, Town Hall; the Sportsmans Haven and at DeBacco Brothers. Both guns and ammunition will be furnished at the Range.

For the very modest fee of $1.00 a shooter gets three shots at a random target. Random targets have spots of varying point values on them, however the marksmen will have no way of knowing what score is on each spot, thus introducing an element of chance to the event. Those with the highest scores will win the turkeys.

There is a minimum age of 12 required, and all minors must be accompanied by their parents. Ladies are also welcome. It should be real family fun to stop in on the 19th and shoot for the Thanksgiving Turkey.

Archery Is Taught In Belleville Classes

Archery classes which are offered by the Recreation Department on Thursday evenings at the Friendly House have been well received.

Under the guidance of Friendly House Director John D'Onofrio and the very capable instruction of Silver Arrow Bowmen Carmine DeMaggio and Mario Mustachino the children of Belleville are rapidly acquiring the skills of archery.

The evening is divided into two parts, from 7 to 8 p.m. for girls and 8 to 9 p.m. for boys. Bows and arrows are furnished by the Recreation Department.

On the subject of Archery, the Silver Arrow Bowmen are deep in a continuing Hunting Tournament being conducted at the Recreation Range at Friendly House. Members of this club have contributed their efforts in painting and fixing the range facilities. Their activities are conducted on a self-sufficient basis in addition to which they volunteer the leadership to the Recreation Archery classes which are open to all Belleville youngsters.

Belleville Physicians Receive Plaques

Three Belleville doctors were recently named along with a list of 274 Essex County physicians who have served continuously as participating physicians with the Medical Surgical Plan of New Jersey (Blue Shield) since the plans founding in 1942.

Receiving their plaques at a dinner in the Hotel Suburban in East Orange were: Anthony R. Caputo, 301 Washington Avenue, Peter Cordasco of 50 Newark Avenue and William Taffet of 418 Union Avenue. The plaque stated "In recognition of 25 years, 1942-1967 of outstanding community service as a participating physician in the New Jersey Blue Shield Plan."

They further announced that the Blue Rocks of Wilmington, Delaware, a drum and bugle corp will be one of the first to march past the reviewing stand. Also taking part in the festivities will be the Mummies String Band, who are known country wide, as well as the Stardusters.

One of the more dubious honors claimed by Texas which is big in many respects—is that it tops all other states in the number of tornadoes, says the Insurance Information Institute.

As to whether Walton could have made the call to Robinson's friend, he said that from 6 to 11:30 of evening in question he was at a Masonic lodge meeting from which no one may leave.

Tenants of the Branch Brook Manor Apartments said when interviewed this week:

"I've never really heard of any discrimination, all different races of people live here, Negro, Chinese, Indians," Mrs. Ivan Giniger of 6 Belle Terrace said.

Mrs. Neil Smolens of 317 Branchbrook Terrace said of existing discrimination practiced by the management: "Not that I know of. . . . In fact we were even told when we rented that they have a policy of renting to anyone as long as they come up to their standards."

Mrs. Vireidie of 302 Branchbrook Terrace, a tenant since last September who had come from Bombay, India, remarked that she had never had any such trouble.

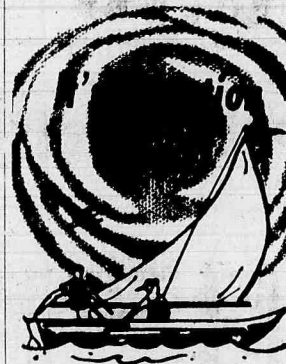

Stroway said that if the court feels that "our standards are too high, let them tell us that, but don't say that we've discriminated."

Jersey Schools Behind

"From any viewpoint, New Jersey is out of step. While reorganization of school districts into larger units has become a matter of high priority in almost every state in continued to drag along like a ball and chain a strong of obsolete and generally inefficient school systems."

Charles H. Harrison, former education editor of the Hackensack Record and now associate editor of Education News, made this statement this afternoon while urging school board members to speed school consolidation in New Jersey in order to provide "better and more economical education" for all children. Mr. Harrison spoke at a session of the 15th annual workshop of the State Federation of District Board of Education in Atlantic City.

Also addressing this session were Mrs. Ruth H. Mancuso of Glassboro, President of the National School Boards Association, and chairman of the Committee to Study School William E. Inman, a specialist on school district reorganization in the U. S. Office of Education.

Addressing a session on "The Management Function in Board - Staff Relationships," John Metzler, associate professor of industrial relations at Newark College of Engineering and Federation consultant on board - staff relationships, said: "Administrators and boards alike must learn to live with the fact that their decisions will be subject to question, as will their actions. They must learn to live with the fact that demands will be pressed and that the allocation of available funds will be argued. This does not necessarily work to the detriment of the educational process, it merely adds a new dimension."

At another session, Dr. J. Wade Bingham, Associate Secretary of the Commission on Secondary Schools, Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, reminded delegates that "A school should be growing, changing, adapting and reaching out to educate today's children to cope with the rapidly changing world they will live in as adults."

Glassboro Scene Of Urban Meeting

Young's appearance will be at 6 p.m. banquet that will culminate an afternoon workshop of the South Jersey civil rights unit. Moderator of the evening program will be Associate Professor Samuel Withell of the College's Social Studies Department.

Belleville Boy Pre-med Student

Emanuel P. De Noia, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel De Noia of 388 Joralemon Street, Belleville, has entered Manhattan College, the Bronx, N.Y., as a freshman this fall. He is among 959 incoming freshmen enrolled at the college this year, including 73 New Jersey residents.

De Noia is a graduate of St. Benedict's Prep School Newark, and will take part in Manhattan's Pre-Med Program.

Dr. Eisenberg Urges Dental Examinations

Now that summer is over and children are back at their school desks and into their routine, it is time for their dental checkup which is invariably neglected during the vacation period.

This is the advice of Dr. Mevin Eisenberg, president of the Essex County Dental Society, who reminds residents that one in every ten children will lose all their teeth by the time they are adults.

A checkup is one of the three cardinal rules of good dental health, the Society says. Brushing after eating, avoiding sweets and a well-balanced diet are key rules. But visiting the dentist is extremely

Chemical Caravan Catalyst Fund Established

As part of the 8th annual Chemical Caravan, the New Jersey Chemical Industry Council has established a $1,000 fund to be awarded to four selected high schools in the state. Max A. Minning, chairman of the 1967 Caravan and president and chief executive officer of Witco Chemical Company, Inc., announced today.

Called the Chemical Caravan Catalyst Fund, the awards are intended primarily to enable high school science departments to complete projects that might go unfulfilled without outside support. "It is hoped that these funds might be used to initiate an annual science fair, to help start a high school science club, or to sponsor a particular event or activity directed to science education," Mr. Minning said.

Piles Of Wet Leaves Will Smother Grass

Leaves that are allowed to pile up on a lawn will smother the grass rather quickly.

So don't put off raking until the last leaf falls, cautions John J. Kupcho, County Agricultural Agent of Essex County.

It may seem a futile job to start raking leaves while so many still cling to the trees, but an established as well as a newly seeded lawn can be seriously hurt by a covering of leaves.

This is especially true when leaves get wet and form a tight mat.

There's little, if any, fertiliz-ing value in fallen leaves, according to Mr. Kupcho, so it's a mistake to think that leaves will nourish the grasses. Rather, you can put leaves into the compost pile and later make good use of the organic material from the pile.

Mr. Kupcho suggests a mechanical leaf rake for larger lawns where hand-raking can take lots of time and work.

Hunters Reminded To Respect Property

Consideration for landowners is a key to broader hunting opportunities, Commissioner Robert A. Roe of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development reminded sportsmen this week.

Many hunters are looking ahead to the opening of small game season on November 11 and wondering about the best place to hunt. While there are Wildlife Management Areas and 150,000 acres of State forests, some of the best wildlife habitat is still under private ownership.

OBITUARIES

Anthony Di Meo, 52; Bartender At Gallagher's

Anthony Di Meo, 52, of 251 Verona Avenue, Newark, formerly of Belleville died suddenly November 1 while visiting friends in Matawan. He was 52. Mr. Di Meo had been employed as a full time bartender at Gallagher's Tavern here. Born in Newark, Mr. Di Meo resided in Belleville for over 30 years. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus Council 835, Belleville.

He leaves his wife, Ann N. Brienza Di Meo; two daughters, Mrs. Carl (Phyllis) Lejeune of Fairfield and Mrs. Louis (Diana) Epner of Morris Plains; three sons, Philip J. of Little Falls, Michael at home and Lance Corporal Anthony J. stationed with the United States Marine Corp.

San Diego, California and six grandchildren.

The funeral was held on Saturday from the Kiernan Funeral Home, 101 Union Avenue followed by a High Mass at St. Peter's Church. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery, North Arlington.

Michael Capanear, 73; Belleville Civic Leader

Michael Capanear, 73, of 34 Franklin Street, Belleville, suffered a heart attack as he was leaving the Belleville Town Hall on October 27.

The attack occurred as Mr. Capanear was walking to his car on Lincoln Avenue. Police and ambulance units, alerted by a passer-by, rushed him to Clara Maass Memorial Hospital where he died hours later.

Mr. Capanear, a resident of Nutley since he was nine years old, was a retired office manager. He worked for the George Matthew Adams Service in New York for 45 years before his 1960 retirement.

Active in town and civic affairs, Mr. Capanear was a member of the Tripoli Park political and social club, the Holy Name Society and the Guard of Honor of St. Anthony's Church, Belleville. In 1944 he was appointed to the Trustee by Commissioner Louis A. Noll. He served as vice-president to the board from 1946 to 1949, when he became the president of the Board of Trustees. Ten years ago, Mr. Capanear was responsible for donating books to School No. 4 to aide their establishment of a library. He was also unofficial advisor to the foreign born, and was instrumental in introducing many newcomers to America's citizen-

W. Spickofsky, 50; Suddenly At Home

William Spickofsky, 50, of 83 Harrison Street died suddenly November 3 at his home. Born in Virginia, Mr. Spickofsky resided in Nutley 20 years coming here from Wallington.

Mr. Spickofsky was the son of Nicholas and Helen Moskowitz Spickofsky of Saddle Brook.

He was employed as a mechanic with the Ochippo Company of Garfield. He was a communicant of Holy Family Church.

Mr. Spickofsky leaves his wife, Julia A. Korzystko Spickofsky; three daughters, the Misses Agnes and Gail Spick and Allen of Nutley; four sons, Spickofsky of San Francisco, California; two sons, William of San Francisco, California and Allen of Nutley; four sisters, Mrs. Katherine Maczko of East Rutherford, Miss Julia Spickofsky of Saddle Brook, Mrs. Olga Corey of Minneapolis, Minnesota and Mrs. Helen Barbera of Hackensack, six brothers, Michael of Los Angeles, California, Al of Wildwood, Nicholas of West Paterson, George of Carlstad, Walter of Saddle Brook and Carol of Clifton.

The funeral was held Monday morning from the Johnsee Nutley Home for Funerals, 536-538 Washington Avenue followed by a Mass at Holy Family Church. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery, North Arlington.

Mrs. M. Fraser 40 Years Here, After Illness

A High Requiem Mass was offered Saturday morning in St. Mary's Church for Mrs. William Fraser of 23 Race Street who died Thursday at her home. She was 69.

Mrs. Fraser was the former Mary N. Smith.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. she moved to Nutley over 43 years ago. She was a member of the Rosary Society of Mount Carmel Church and a charter member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Nutley Fire Department.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Fraser is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Margaret De Jesus of Nutley; three sons, Donald of Nutley, William of Washington and Ronald of Miami, Fla.; two brothers, William of New York and Frank of Florida; four sisters, Mrs. Rosetta McCann, Mrs. Harriet Devlin, Mrs. Jennie Egan and Mrs. Anna Clougher all of New York; seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The S. W. Brown and Son Funeral Home, 267 Centre Street handled the arrangements. Interment was held in Immaculate Conception Cemetery, Upper Montclair.

"...IT'S HEALTHFUL HEAT, TOO; WE HAD FEWER COLDS LAST WINTER and everyone felt fine" she continued. No wonder their health was improved. Electric Glassheat heats without flame, so there are no toxic fumes or vapor to pollute the air. The life-giving oxygen is not burned up and the humidity is kept at the most desirable and healthful level.

Money saving thermostats in every room make it easy to maintain exactly the temperature you want throughout the house. No drafty floors or cold corners, ever. And the rays that warm you are exactly like the rays of the sun. Imagine! Summer sunshine in every room all winter long. No wonder the Electric Glassheat house is a healthful as well as comfortable home.

"SO CLEAN! NO SOOT, DUST OR SMOKE," so we save on cleaning bills," says another owner.

"In all these years with Electric Glassheat we never needed to dry clean our drapes, or furniture. No need to repaint or even wash walls and ceiling. And our Venetian blinds still look fresh and new. Taking these facts into consideration lowers our cost of heating still more."

"SAVE MONEY ON ELECTRIC BILLS, ALSO!" We expected Glassheat to be inexpensive to operate but it amazed us by costing even less than estimated. And since we can now take advantage of the special low heating rate we save on our regular current, too. And of course there are no maintenance or service charges! It's another saving." Another Glassheat owner says, "We added two rooms, but still my heating bill is $175." Again and again people install Electric Glassheat because of its many outstanding advantages, and then are delighted to discover that this remarkable form of heat is an economy as well.

IT'S SAFE AND SILENT! Electric Glassheat can't overheat, and it is absolutely fire-safe. Even accidental contact can't cause blistering and there are no fumes or vapor to worry about.

Since there are no moving parts there is no sound. Electric Glassheat is as silent as sunshine, and as pleasant. Saves space, too, for the area usually occupied by radiators, boilers and flues is yours to use as extra living space and a better arrangement of furniture.

WHY PAY MORE FOR LESS?

Sound ideal? It is, as many owners will tell you. If you would like to know how little this luxurious—but economical heat will cost you, send the coupon or call in person.

Garden State Farms To Open New Dairy Outlet In Paterson
Garden State Farms, Inc., is increasing its number of jug - milk stores with the opening of a new dairy store at 332 - 21st Avenue, Paterson. The new store will open November 2, 1967.

In announcing the expansion, Mr. G. A. VanHouten, vice president, said that future Garden State Farms plans call for a total of nine new stores to be opened throughout New Jersey during the second half of 1967.

The main reason for the expansion, said VanHouten, is large increase in consumers picking up their milk in half-gallon and gallon containers at stores located conveniently near their homes.

Smartness is never synonymous with vulgarity and improprieties.

Garden State Tours Outlined in Booklet

New Jersey has the answer to the question, "Where shall we go this fall?" which may be found in a booklet issued by the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Conservation Commissioner Robert A. Roe said the publication titled "New Jersey's Scenic and Historic Tours," contains eighteen tour outlines, ranging from a pleasant afternoon drive to several days of journeying in the Garden State. Twelve motor trips to scenic and historic areas of the State are presented on easy-to-read maps. Especially suitable for the fall of the year are the five package tours described in capsule form. The booklet also includes a complete three-day itinerary covering most of the historic and scenic spots of New Jersey.

One popular day-trip from Newark or Jersey City includes a visit to Boxwood Hall, Elizabeth. This is the restored two-hundred-year-old home of Elias Boudinot, president of the Continental Congress in 1783.

The trip also takes in English town, the areas of the Battle of Monmouth and the heroism of Molly Pitcher, and the Old Tennent Church, which was built in 1751 and is noted for its Revolutionary associations. A stop at Asbury Park and a view of the ocean, with its salt-laden air, is also part of this tour.

A journey beginning in the Camden area leads to the State Capitol at Trenton. On the way stops are made in Burlington to visit the home of Captain James Lawrence, naval hero, and the birthplace of James Fenimore Cooper, author of thrilling Indian tales.

In Trenton, the Trent House and the Old Barracks in which Hessian troops were housed during the Revolution, make an interesting visit.

The return is by way of Mt. Holly, a quaint town with narrow streets and old houses of Colonial architecture, and Haddonfield for a look at the

The child who attempts to reform father and mother ought to be between the shafts pulling the family load.

The trouble with many American homes is that they have no "head of the house" and no "wife of the house."

Art Discussions To Be Featured At Club Meeting

Celebrating National Art Month, the Woman's Club of Belleville will place special emphasis on the program sponsored by the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs at all its November meetings. The regular meeting to be held at the clubhouse on November 13 at 1 P.M. will be followed by a special program on Bangkok presented by Mrs. Charles G. Maise who returned recently from a round-the-world trip. Special emphasis will be on the architecture and landscapes of the country.

Indian King Tavern, where the Legislature of New Jersey met in 1777.

Other trips in the booklet feature shore resorts; a visit to Batsto, the restored historic community on the state-owned Wharton Tract; historic old towns along the Delaware; quiet farm villages in Hunterdon and Warren Counties; and the restored Victorian Village at Cape May.

Copies of "New Jersey's Scenic and Historic Tours" may be obtained without charge from the State Promotion Section, N.J. Department of Conservation and Economic Development, Box 1889, Trenton, N. J. 08625.

An annual feature of the celebration of Art Month is the Penny Art Fund sponsored by the state federation and the collection will be taken at the meeting. The total of the pennies collected in all clubs was over $700 last year and these special funds are used to purchase art for public buildings and for the new headquarters building in New Brunswick. New Jersey artists are paid for their works from these funds.

Mrs. Richard A. Shafter, president of the Woman's Club announced that it was the decision of the executive board to participate in the town-wide parade in celebration of Veteran's Day, Sunday, November 12, 1967 at 3 P.M. Mrs. Shafter will be an honored guest on the reviewing stand.

The American Home Department will bake and wrap for shipment to our service cookies and candies. Approximately 25,000 boxes will be furnished from all the clubs in the state and the Air Force will deliver them to all the outposts all over the world. A special citation was awarded to the state federation for this project at last year's convention by the Air Force.

Continuing the art theme for the month, the book review given by Mrs. Floyd M. Harding was "A Thread In The Tapestry" by Sarah Churchill.

Belleville Artist, Hans Weingaertner To Appear In Newark Art Show

Recent paintings by outstanding New Jersey artists will go on exhibit in Newark, November 10-17. Over 100 paintings by 18 artists will make up "The Small Round Room" exhibition at Third Presbyterian Church, Ridge Street and Abington Avenue.

Prominent artists displaying several recent works are Hans Weingaertner, James Carlin, Anthony Triano, E. Ingersoll-Maurice, and Henry Gasser. Also exhibiting several works are Dick Crocker, Julie Van, Serge Novin, and Gregor Litinsky. Director of "The Small Round Room" is Frank Conner, who organized the salon and is exhibiting a group of his canvases.

The show is a comprehensive survey of professional painting and sculpture being done in North Jersey. It is also the first presentation of major artists in this section of the city. All work on exhibit is for sale.

"Prize-winning paintings are being shown by Hans Weingaertner and James Carlin," notes Mr. Conner. "The canvas by Weingaertner won an award in the 30th Anniversary Competition. The Canvas by Carlin won an award from the Associated Artists. We are proud to show work of this caliber in a new exhibition."

"Hans Weingaertner is presenting a wide selection of his work. His canvases continue the theme of his last one-man show, at the Newark Museum. They capture the feeling of the Jersey coast and meadows. Some came from Weingaertner's observations of the river banks at Lyndhurst," the director reports.

Li'l Abner Opening For Three Nights At BHS's Auditorium November 16th

Vince Godleski will have the title role of the guileless hero and Sue Dougher will play his innocent but persistent pursuer, Daisy Mae, in the musical which opens a three evening engagement at the BHS Auditorium beginning Thursday, November 16.

The tuneless hit, written by Norman Panama and Melvin Frank from the celebrated cartoon strip by Al Capp, with a delightful score by Johnny Mercer and Gene de Paul (the tunesmiths for "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers") can for close to 700 performances on Broadway from 1956 through 1958.

The cast will also include Mary Cial as the rough-and-ready Mammy Yokum, and Walt Weiss as her lovable but dominated husband, Pappy Yokum. Dave Halpern will appear as the sly and crafty General Bullmoose and Tom Melchione will have the role of the friendly marriage broker, Marryin Sam. Susan Simon will play the seductive Appassionata Von Climax, Rosemarie Biondi will have the role of the irresistible Stupefying Jones, Larry Spinelli will play her merchandising brother, available Jones, Gary Ellis will appear as Mayor Dawgmeat, Margaret Albertine will be seen as Moonbeam McSwine, the pig-loving Mountain Amazon, and Jif Sollo will have the role of Earthquake McGoon.

Robert Wing and student John Reilly have directed the production, and Kathy Haddances, which include the celebrated Sadie Hawkins Day race.

The melodic and hilarious hit concerns the citizens of Dogpatch, U.S.A., when the powers that be in Washington decide that their mountain community is the most unnecessary town in the nation, and therefore the perfect site for atomic bomb tests. Only proof that Dogpatch does produce something useful can save the Yokums and the Scraggs from eviction. When Mammy Yokum comes forth with her famous Yokumberry Tonic, which is capable of turning weaklings into Atlases with ne good swig, Dogpatch citizens breathe a sigh of relief.

Li'l Abner, the prime example of the success of Yokumberry Tonic, is taken off to Washington as Exhibit A for the cause of Dogpatch. But General Bullmoose, the crafty politician, tries to obtain the secret formula from Li'l Abner for his own profit, with the aid of the alluring and pulchritudinous Appassionata Von Climax, and the hypnotic evil Eye Fleagle, who has the magical power of the Double Whammy. But Mammy and Pappy Yokum get wind of General Bullmoose's plot, and the entire population of Dogpatch invades the capital city to rescue Abner.

Ther Mercer - de Paul score is filled with hits such as "Namely You," "If I Had My Druthers," "Love in a Home," and such hilarious foot-stompingers as "Progress is the Root of All Evil," "Oh Happy Day" (in which Yokumberry Tonic inspires leading scientist to dream of a conveyor - belt future), "The Country's in the Very Best of Hand" and the secret formula from Li'l Abner for his own profit, with the own pigments and prepares his own paints.

Exhibitors from the Newark area include Serge Novin and Gregory Litinsky. From suburban areas, exhibitors include Leo Monti; Cranford; Hella Ballin, Union; Mary Brown, Kearney; and Anthony Triano, Kearney. Mrs. Conner is a resident of Levittown, Pa., and a member of Newark's Third Church.

The showing at Third Church is open to the public weekday evenings from 7 to 10 p. m., and all day Saturday.

PANTRY PIZZA, THE ONLY GENUINE PIZZERIA ON WASHINGTON AVE., BELLEVILLE, THAT SELLS FROM A SLICE TO A STACK FOR THE BEST IN CATERED PIZZA PARTIES

Anthony Lardiere, owner and chef at The Pantry Pizza, 258 Washington Ave., Belleville (opposite the Junior High School) has become quite famous in the area for his catered pizza parties. Organizations in Belleville and its environs top off their evenings of fun with a stack of his exceptionally fine tasting pizzas. Such groups as the Belleville Kiwanis, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cerebral Palsy Benefit Bingo, Knights of Columbus, Belleville V.F.W. Cadets, The Elks, Upsilon College fraternities and dances of the North Arlington Police and Fire Dep'ts, have all enjoyed refreshments from The Pantry Pizza's. Many charitable groups in the area also take advantage of Pantry Pizza's "Special Fund Raising Plan". A call to Mr. Lardiere at 759-4339 will give you all the details of this easy way to raise money. Pantry Pizza may not be the fanciest establishment on the outside but Anthony Lardiere does wonders on the inside with his pizza. All the dough and sauce are made by him. He supervises the baking and arranges for the piping hot delivery to homes, factories and offices. A call to Tony at 759-4339 will bring his thin crust specialty to you in just a matter of minutes.

Business Briefs

Nonfarm wage and salary employment in New Jersey increased more than seasonally by 2,400 from July to August. According to estimates prepared by the New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry, August employment, excluding farm, domestic, self-employed, and unpaid family workers, was 2,435,600.

Earnings increased 5c per share and rose to $1888 for the first nine months of this year. Public Service Electric and Gas Company has reported. This compares with $1.79 for the same period last year. For the twelve months ended September 30, the earnings per share were $2.43 as compared to $2.34 in the prior twelve-month period.

The board of directors of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation today proposed a split of the shares of common stock of the Corporation on a two-for-one basis and increase the authorized common stock proportionately.

Howard Johnson's 14 restaurants located at Service Areas along the 131-mile New Jersey Turnpike raised $2,642.75 in contributions to help send American Athletes to the 1968 Olympic Games, it was announced jointly by Turnpike Executive Director William J. Flanagan and Allan Barnes, Howard Johnson vice-president, Mid-Atlantic Division, and Director of Turnpike Howard Johnson operations.

Federal prime government contracts totaling $47,196,197 went to 160 firms throughout the State during September. Robert A. Roe, Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development announced today.

The appointment of Matthew Derham of 35 Kendall Ave., Maplewood, as general manager of the Automobile Club Underwriters Agency of Florham Park, it was announced today.

The Howard Savings Institution released last week that they will be issuing checks amounting to $3,500,000 to their over 21,000 Christmas Club members this fall. The pre-holiday payout will include bonuses to those members who have completed their club payments as scheduled.

"The consumer conservatism of the past twelve months has greatly improved the financial position of the typical American family, and the stage has been set for more vigorous consumer spending and borrowing," said Dr. William C. Freund, chief economist, Prudential Insurance Company of America, Newark, here last week.

Medical Group Will Meet

The Essex County Chapter of the American Association of Medical Assistants will hold its regular monthly meeting on Sunday, at 7:30 p.m. in Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville.

Mrs. Grace Thomas, president of the Chapter, will preside. A representation from the Squibb Company will show a film: "Modern Nutrition."

Mr. Gatto will be responsible for the sales of the sebacic acid, fatty acid, and plasticizer divisions of Harchem.

Ratcliffe Wins Promotion At Prudential Insurance

Robert C. Ratcliffe, 12 Coeyman Avenue, Nutley, has been promoted to programming analyst in the group insurance division of the Prudential Insurance Co.

He joined the company in 1948 and was a programmer before this promotion. Ratcliffe graduated from Nutley High School in 1943.

During WW II he was in the Navy and served in the Pacific.

Ratcliffe is a member of the Nutley Volunteer Fire Department Hose Company No. 2.

He is married to the former Jeanette Friday of Belleville. They have two daughters.

Full ROTC Scholarships Are Available

Applications for the U. S. Army's 800 four-year ROTC scholarships are being accepted from high school senior men. Lt. Col. E. G. Moffatt professor of Military Science at Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, announced recently. The scholarships can be used at any of the 247 colleges and universities offering Army ROTC.

All scholarships are awarded without regard to financial need on the basis of academic excellence, participation in extracurricular activities, leadership potential and physical proficiency.

Scholarship recipients receive full payment for tuition, books and laboratory expenses and other small fees in addition to a $50 monthly allowance.

The program provides an opportunity for the student to meet a large portion of his college expenses and upon graduation fulfill his military obligation as an officer in the U. S. Army.

ITT Names W. Merriam Vice President

Election of William R. Merriam as a vice president of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation was announced today by Edward J. Gerrity, Jr., senior vice president and director - Corporate Relations and Advertising.

Mr. Merriam will continue as director of Washington relations for ITT.

A native of Washington, D. C., Mr. Merriam joined ITT in April 1961 as assistant to the vice president for Public Relations. He was elected assistant vice president in January 1965.

Manual Lists Services For Mentally Retarded

A comprehensive manual about services for the mentally retarded in New Jersey, including a county-by-county directory, has been published by the New Jersey Association for Retarded Children.

The 200-page work, in soft cover, is believed by state and national officials to be the only one of its kind in the country.

Called "Resources for the Retarded in New Jersey," Governor Hughes has described the book as "an excellent work and perhaps unmatched for its usefulness to anyone concerned with mental retardation. It is certain to impose its message and its moral weight on the minds of all of us who are working to enrich the lives of our retarded people."
