3 School Board Vacancies

It's election time again. But municipal politicians will have to step aside for this one and residents eager to secure seats as Board of Education trustees will come forth to vie for the three available seats on the school board which become vacant February 13. But preparation for this election is not as far off as it would seem.

Citizens interested in voting in this election must register by January 4. Also, residents who wish to file nominating petitions for their candidacy must do so on the same date. So far only Rocco Saletta, board president has indicated he will be a candidate for reelection. Two other incumbents Mrs. Norma McCool and Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero have not stated if they would run again. However, both are expected to announce their intentions at Monday's school board meeting.

Up to press time, Mrs. Mary Shader, board secretary, said that no other petitions had been filed with her office.

Petitions may be obtained from secretary of the Board of Education.

All candidates filing petitions must meet the requirements as prescribed in New Jersey School Law.

Must Be Citizens

(1) Candidate must be a citizen and resident of the territory contained in the district, for at least two years.

(2) Candidate shall have been a resident of the school district for at least two years immediately preceding his becoming a member of the Board of Education.

(3) He shall be able to read and write.

(4) He shall not be directly or indirectly interested in any contract with or claim against the board.

(5) He must be 21 years of age to qualify for office.

The position which the names of candidates shall have upon the annual school election ballot or voting machine shall be determined by the secretary of the Board of Education by conducting a drawing.

The drawing shall take place at eight o'clock in the evening on the day following the last day for filing nominating petitions for the annual school election, at the regular meeting place of the Board of Education. In case the day fixed by law falls on a Sunday, the drawing shall be held on the following day.

Any legal voter of the district shall have the privilege of witnessing the drawing.

Ballot Position

The dates for the drawing for position on the ballot or voting machine will be held: (Continued On Page 2)

Is Communication Between 5 Officials Too Much For Belleville To Expect?

Town Commission Battles About Health Department

Belleville's Town Commission this week held its most violent session since the new form of government took over the reigns of the community.

The bitter conflagration of sharp words and angry spirits from the town officials grew so stringent at one point that the small commission audience appeared obviously embarrassed.

Commissioner Vincent Strumolo, who was red faced, shouted so loud to be heard over the din of confusion that his voice seemed to rise several octaves. Commissioner Mary Senatore, meanwhile, battled tempestuously. Mayor Kenneth D. Smith, who tossed back and forth in his chair, snapped at Strumolo venomously as the commissioner kept proclaiming he has the victim of the "majority bloc."

Smith kept firing back with the identical line: "Mr. Strumolo you are acting like a child and there will be no harmony on this board until you stop acting like a child."

Cullen Stays Aloof

Commissioner Joseph McGreevy waited for pauses in the yelling match to add his two cents. Only Commissioner William Cullen remained aloof from the battle.

The commissioners began spitting verbal acid at one another when Strumolo announced he had fired health officer Dr. Gerson Ram and replaced him with a veneral disease specialist and Dr. J. Richard Bevinetto.

Strumolo said "It is time for this board to sit down to serious business and stop bickering. I am ready to make a pledge of harmony."

Smith, at that point, turned in his seat toward Strumolo and said, "I think we've listened to you long enough."

He said that Strumolo had not told the truth throughout the entire health department controversy. He criticized the official for firing Dr. Ram and hiring Dr. Bevinetto without an ordinance providing for his salary.

And concerning Strumolo's claim that the town had lost thousands of dollars in state aid by not appointing a full time health officer, both Smith and finance director McGreevy said it would cost the town more money in the long run to be applicable for this aid.

"Not once did you speak the truth," Smith said, adding, "We're sick of having you hold your meetings with the newspapers and not with us."

Commissioner Joseph McGreevy said he did not want the new health officer on the payroll and asked for a legal opinion from Charles Tedesco, town attorney, to determine if the community has to pay Bevinetto.

COMMISSION ARGUMENT — Mayor Kenneth T. Strumolo this week concerning the health department. Smith pounds his fist against a desk during an argument with Commissioner Vincent Strumolo.

Belleville Priest Donates 1000th Pint of Blood to Essex County

Last Friday afternoon, Father James Heavey of St. Peter's Church, became quite a dizzy person.

For Father Heavey, who has donated much to the town of Belleville gave a little more. In this case it was the one-thousandth pint of blood to be donated by the community through the Knights of Columbus to the Essex County Blood Bank.

Twice a year the blood bank comes into Belleville for donations. The Knights of Columbus along with the Holy Name Society of St. Peter's Church have donated blood since 1948.

Heading the list with 34 pints of blood given since 1948 is Eugene Barnett, Belleville's Town Clerk as well as the chairman of the blood program for the Belleville Council Knights of Columbus. Following Barnett is George Mahler who has donated 25 pints since 1950. Then Michael Dacey with 21 pints, also since 1950. Next is John Zalewski with 22 pints donated since 1950. After Zalewski come Father Heavey, who since 1956 has donated 17 pints of blood. Friday, Father Heavey was the 13th person to donate blood and his 18th pint made the one-thousandth pint for the community.

The only after effect was a slight dizziness along with a few pats on the back. Donating 15 pints since 1955 is Russel Conroy; Willis MacDonald gave 14 pints since 1956; Thomas McEnery, 14 pints since 1955 and Howard Barnett, 14 pints since 1956. Then, William Kemmely, (from Westfield) gave 13 pints since 1959; William Schott, (from Caldwell) 12 pints since 1958 and Joseph McGreevy six pints since 1949.

Recently associated with K of C and the Holy Name Society was a new donor, the Belleville Craftsman Club. According to Dr. S. William Kalb the blood bank, which has its

Crew Facility Almost Ready

For the first time since 1961, the Nutley and Belleville High School crews will have a completed boathouse from which to work. Bids on the long-awaited facility on the bank of the Passaic River were signed last week and work on the structure is already under way.

Dr. Signey Rogoff, president of the Belleville-Nutley Rowing Association, says the completed facility will be ready before the opening of the spring season.

GEM Construction of Nutley was low bidder in the amount of $35,475. Two years ago, the Rowing Association completed a garage-type structure at the river sight. The existing structure houses the boats used by crews from both Nutley and Belleville High Schools.

Now under construction is the remaining portion of the overall plan including locker, toilet and shower facilities sufficient for 300 boys. James Bailey of Nutley is the architect.

Belleville and Nutley High Schools sponsor about 200 boys in crew each spring. Nutley additionally trains about 50 young men during the autumn months. Dr. Rogoff notes "in recent years, crew has attracted almost as many participants as football. Presently limited facilities seem to be the only reason for keeping crew from being the largest athletic activity here."

Working closely with the Rowing Association are members of the Nutley and Belleville crews from both Nutley and

Health Officer Says Politics Is Unhealthy

By CARL LEVINE

"I do not delve into politics. I am not a politician and I don't have to kow-tow to anyone, not as long as I am making a good living as a physician," remarked Vincent T. Strumolo's candidate for health officer, Dr. J. Richard Bevinetto.

Dr. Bevinetto, a resident of 1 South Stanley Road, South Orange, was named by Town Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo on a temporary basis at an annual salary of $11,500, until he takes a Civil Service examination for the post.

Dr. Bevinetto follows in the footsteps of the recently ejected Dr. Gerson T. Ram of Cedar Grove. Ram was relieved of his duties after he failed to comply with departmental directives issued by Commissioner Strumolo.

Since his first official day last Friday, Dr. Bevinetto says that things have been going according to schedule. He further adds that Ralph Risoli, registrar of vital statistics and Bob Mercurio, sanitary inspector, who filled in on a temporary basis as health officer following Ram's dismissal left little to accomplish at the present time.

The South Orange physician who at one time was associated with all phases of the New-work Health Department for 30 years adds that his regular practice of physician - surgeon will not interfere with his duties within Belleville.

Bevinetto, 64, is a graduate of both Syracuse University and the University Laval Medical School in Canada.

A proud father as well as physician, Dr. Bevinetto has two grown children; a daughter Cathy of Nutley and a son, Richard of Newark.

In conclusion, Dr. Bevinetto says that although his office is in a lull because of the approaching holiday season departmental duties will pick up after the holidays at no time will he be that busy to refuse any town resident a few minutes to discuss any problem, says the South Orange doctor. "I am a friend to everybody."

Norma McCool Aids Fund Drive

"One of the most significant commitments a woman can make today is to do her best to assure the birth of healthy children. Her own, first of all, and the children of all mothers."

Mrs. Norma McCool of 194 Fairway Avenue, made this comment following the announcement of her appointment as chairman of the 1968 thirtieth anniversary Mothers' March for the March of Dimes in Belleville by General Chairman Mrs. Helen Biancardi.

lives taken by birth defects. Only heart disease cause more deaths, and because birth defects claim their victims so early in life, they result in the loss of many more productive years," Mrs. McCool declared.

"Even more tragic," she said, "is the survival of large numbers of children suffering from defects which can doom them to lives of physical or mental disability."

The campaign leader pointed out that while the March of Dimes is expanding research into the causes of birth defects, many disabling conditions can be avoided if the defect is detected and treated early.

The March of Dimes supports a nationwide network of treatment centers where early diagnosis and expert treatment is provided by teams of medical specialists. The local "Center" is located at Babies Hospital, Newark, where pat-

Tuberculosis Tests Given To Children, Teachers

Each year almost 400,000 public school students, teachers, cafeteria workers, and other school employees in New Jersey are tested for tuberculosis. State law requires pupils in Grades 1-5 and 12 to have a tuberculin test.

Students from throughout New Jersey are being given the best possible care.

Another important aspect of the March of Dimes' fight against birth defects, said Mrs. McCool is an educational program aimed at informing all prospective mothers of the importance of prenatal care. Since defective prenatal development is the leading cause of infant mortality and stillbirths, proper medical supervision during pregnancy can minimize risks to the child and mother.

"When the Marching Mother says 'please,'" Mrs. McCool appealed "won't you give a child a chance."

Programs are under the direction of the New Jersey State Department of Education and the New Jersey State Department of Health.

The New Jersey Tuberculosis and Health Association, which has been fighting TB for over 60 years, considers tuberculin testing of school children an extremely important phase of any program to eradicate tuberculosis. The Association adds that since we do know that TB can actually be eradicated it is important that we take the eradication task seriously.

The aim of tuberculin testing of children in this eradication program is to create a new generation free of infectious TB bacillus. The TB association says the importance of such an achievement cannot be measured unless we realize that today between 25 and 30 million Americans are infected with TB bacillus. Half of them are over 45.

Of 400,000 who may be TB tested in the schools in any given year, relatively few active cases of TB may be found. However, as the tuberculin test even shows if you have been exposed to the disease there may be as many as 10,000 pupils teachers; and other school personnel requiring further tests because they are positive reactors, that is, exposed to TB germs.

Until recently having a periodic chest X-ray was the main course a reactor was asked to follow in order to see that he kept free of active disease.

Today the TB association says a new dimension is being added in the follow-up of tuberculin reactors. It is called chemoprophylaxis. What it means is to use drugs to prevent tuberculosis. This is considered one of the most important parts of the modern tuberculosis control program.

The TB association says that seven trials conducted by the U.S. Public Health Service show that the drug isoniazid, used to treat primary infection, is very effective in preventing the development of TB in those already infected (reactors) and also in preventing the relapse of inactive tuberculosis.

The family physician can institute chemo-prophylaxis, the TB Association states, for certain positive reactors.

The TB Association says that it is not practical to treat the entire population of positive reactors.

Deer Hunting Season Opens

New Jersey's deer hunting season got off to a good start on Monday, according to Commissioner Robert A. Roe of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Hunters turned out in force in many areas, especially in central New Jersey. Their success was generally good even in some sections that saw below average pressure.

Field reports from the Division of Fish and Game indicate that Hunterdon County had heavy pressure, with good numbers of deer taken, although surprisingly few hunters used the Round Valley Reservoir area. The 17 bucks taken by the Guinea Hollow Gun Club of Pittstown indicate the high degree of success enjoyed by hunters.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

We hear often from people who did not buy their color sets from us that they have been charged too much for a repair. Invariably they compare the repair charges with the charges for a black and white set.

A color TV is far more complicated, has many more parts and tubes and requires adjustments for color, which are not necessary for b-w sets. It takes considerably more time to repair a color TV and after the repair it has to be set up again the same as when it was new. And you may consider yourself lucky if you have a competent color TV mechanic, because there are very few experienced men around. During the last 3 years the industry sold about 15 million color sets. Most mechanics 3 years ago did not want to have anything to do with color, they did not have sense enough to learn and some do not have the money to buy the expensive test equipment which is absolutely necessary and indispensable for a proper color TV repair.

Since most of our customers request service contracts which are all inclusive, parts and labor, we don't have this problem about complaints for repair charges. Whatever has to be done, parts, tubes, or picture tube and labor, is covered under the contract. Our technicians have serviced color TV sets for 13 years. Consequently our technicians are thoroughly familiar with Color TV.

It always has been and still is our advice to buy from a dealer who has his own service department. Dealers who do not have service facilities try to tell you that you get much better so-called "factory" service. Don't you believe it! You would not buy an automobile from a dealer if he does not have a repair shop. Why then buy a TV from a store if he sends you for the most important part of the transaction, the service, to somebody else. You only ask for a run-around.

We service what we sell.

Cub Scouts Enjoy Outing

On November 12 cub scouts from Pack 148 Lincoln School, took a bus trip to Hope, N.J., to discover the "Land of Make Believe."

Among the many things which delighted the cubs was the large fireplace and climbing the chimney stairs to the North Pole to see Santa Claus and his famous reindeer, Rudolph.

Colonel Corn, the talking scarecrow, puzzled many youngsters as well as the maze of evergreen trees where quite a few cubs were temporarily lost.

Santa's workshop was very busy getting toys and dolls ready for the holidays.

The pack also provided a real fire engine ride with siren, bells, noise and much excitement, plus a hayride through the fields and into the woods.

Republican Party Responsibility

Essex County Republican candidates swept every major office at the polls on election day, Tuesday November 7. This victory gives the party responsibility to organize the County Court House and represent the people of Essex County in the State Assembly and in the State Senate.

By virtue of legislative redistricting, five Democrats will represent Essex County citizens in the New Jersey Legislature, the other seven being Republicans. The present complexion of the Board of Freeholders is six Democrats and three Republicans. The County Supervisor, who has veto power over the actions of the Board of Freeholders, is a Republican, Walter Blasi, who on two occasions has pledged his fidelity and loyalty to the present Republican County Chairman, William F. Yeomans of Newark's West Ward.

In November, three unusually well qualified men were elected to the Board of Freeholders. They are Vincent Corrado, a highly successful businessman; Alan Augenblick, another successful businessman operating a family owned corporation, and William Clark, former mayor of Livingston and an engineer with the N. J. Bell Telephone Co. All three are not cut from the usual run of the mill political cloth. Both Augenblick and Corrado were nominated by the Reform Republicans under the leadership of Walter W. Weller Jr., Executive Vice-President of the world's largest pharmaceutical manufacturing company, Hoffmann-LaRoche, Inc. Clark ran on the organization line and squeaked through to win at the September 12 primary election.

Clark said he is an independent thinker and his actions as a member of the Board of Freeholders will not be dictated by the politicians who now control the County Chairman's seat.

Clark may not realize it but other people in the Republican party organization headed by William F. Yeomans, claim to control his vote. One of the fellows close to William F. Yeomans says he can "deliver" Clark any time they need his vote. Another fellow close to Yeomans with a criminal record, (later expunged) is quoted as saying, "I own Blasi." (The reference is to County Supervisor, Walter Blasi).

It appears the incumbent Freeholders Stuart Hausmann, Thomas Farley and Hyman Mintz are working as a unit and will vote as such. If we are to place any credibility in the word of Freeholder-elect William Clark, he must be considered separate and apart from the other three who are reported to be available for anything the Yeomans crowd wants in the way of patronage. Freeholders-elect, Augenblick and Corrado, can be considered as voting together to reorganize the Board of Freeholders.

The mystery man of the Yeoman's crowd wants Newark's Robert Sarcone as County Counsel. We do not believe any of the Freeholders will be able to swallow this selection.

The time has arrived when the two-bit wheelers and dealers should leave the reorganization of the Board of Freeholders to the Freeholders themselves. County Supervisor Blasi who insists upon sticking his nose into the Freeholder reorganization business, ought to remember that he was not elected to the Board of Freeholders — despite his pledge of allegiance to William F. Yeomans. Blasi has no legal right to sit in a reorganization conference of the Freeholders. As of this writing he has been an interloper and has thrown his weight around trying to deliver for a political boss.

At the state level, we were shocked to discover Republican State Chairman, Webster B. Todd, talking out of both sides of his mouth at the same time. It was Todd who scuttled the Essex County Legislative delegation's effort to obtain a leadership post in the new legislature. Todd holds a strictly political office. He has no authority or right to interfere with the reorganization of the state legislature but despite this fact, he is trying to dictate legislative committee assignments for Republican Senators and Assemblymen from Essex County. Todd is using his influence to help William F. Yeomans and the motley crew around him.

We always had a high regard for Mr. Todd but his recent actions place him in a category of the Ward healers. Todd's manipulations in Trenton do not serve the best interests of Essex County citizens. He alone was responsible for Jim Wallwork losing his fight for a leadership post in the New Jersey Senate. Todd and his Trenton cohorts may have to pay for this miscarriage of justice when vote counting time comes around in the Spring.

Todd is also engaged in a bit of duplicity concerning next year's presidential election. On the one hand he pretends that he wants to see U. S. Senator Clifford P. Case as New Jersey's favorite son, and on the other hand he informs his intimates that he, Todd, will see to it that Case has no influence with the delegation.

The Essex County Republican Senators represent sufficient votes to sustain a gubernatorial veto. No party policy at the State level established by Todd's office can be effective without support of the Essex County delegation. Deliberately or otherwise, Mr. Todd is making every effort to antagonize Essex Senators and Assemblymen elected on the Reform Republican ticket.

Winter Vacations Offer Variety

We in the United States have seen the growth of two-car families, home-owning families and many other signs of economic progress.

Fishing, boating and all sorts of outdoors activities have boomed in recent years. And now comes the winter vacation trend. Most of us take a summer vacation. But the idea of two vacations a year is alien to millions.

Yet more and more people are doing it each year. This is the time of year for you to think about taking a winter break.

You can take the typical winter vacation — in mountains and snow, and ski or sled, etc. Or you can head for the warmer states, such as Florida or California.

The point is that studies of the largest corporations, and labor specialists, prove that the worker who takes two vacations a year is more efficient in his work than those who get a break only once a year. The vacation in the winter need not be an expensive one. The idea is to get a break, or a rest.

Reading this, you are probably agreeing with the conclusion. But will you do anything about it? Make your plans now, if possible, to enjoy a break from the grind this winter.

Children and Guns

It's true "boys will be boys," but parents can often avoid tragedy by using more care in teaching children the danger of commonplace things.

Every so often we read of children who start fires with gasoline, with resulting explosions and tragedy. These children were not taught the dangers of gasoline.

It is not unusual to read or hear of youngsters who find firearms which belong to their fathers and probably, without understanding the nature of their act, kill someone. Two little boys got into an argument recently and one shot the other with a pistol. The killer was only six years old.

Who imagines for a minute that the tot understood the effect of his pistol-pointing and that he really had murder in his heart? Who, in reality, was responsible for this tragedy?

Seema Only Yesterday

ONE YEAR AGO

Robert C. Lincoln, president of the New Jersey State Federation of Teachers, announced the appointment of Stephen N. Aduato to the chairmanship of the organization's 29th Annual Convention.

Mrs. Jovinna Corbo, of Forest avenue was a national winner in the "Portrait Sweepstakes" contest, sponsored by John H. Breck Co., manufacturer of hair care products.

Boyd, president of the Belleville Board of Education announced the formation of a committee under the jurisdiction of the Board to study and review the entire school curriculum, explore all areas of facilities, staff and equipment, and to submit recommendations according to its findings.

15 YEARS AGO

It was the same old story under new rules, when Belleville High's basketball team, under the direction of Coach Jitty Wische, opened its season with a 67 to 54 victory over Passaic High.

An ordinance was adopted on first reading by the Board of Commissioners providing for the licensing of soft drink and other food vending machines and setting a fee of $5 per year for the license.

20 YEARS AGO

Strenuous efforts by local organizations and church groups failed to effect the banning of the film "Forever Amber" at the Capitol Theatre.

The supreme Court granted a writ to show cause why Civil Service should not certify Charles Tedesco on the public safety payroll.

25 YEARS AGO

The members of the Junior Order of American Mechanics were planning a roast turkey dinner in the council rooms on Stephens Street. Arrangements were a charge of the entertainment committee headed by Harry Burnett.

40 YEARS AGO

Troop 3, Girl Scouts, held its weekly meeting with Captain Mrs. May Holden in charge and elected Helen Hall, president; Lenore Lees, secretary, and Ruth Kimmeler treasurer.

A committee was named by the official board of Wesley Methodist Church to consider plans for church expansion.

The Brightons were defeated by the strong Union team of Paterson by a score of 19-12. The features for the Brightons were the end running of Morse, the line plunging of Mekis and Oniff and the exceptionally good playing of Oswald, who intercepted several forward passes.

Speak Up

Newark Man Commends Work Of Belleville's Police, Firemen

To The Editor, The Belleville Times:

My sister, Mrs. Florence Richardson, 60 Cedar Lane South (Stephen Crane Village), Newark, recently was struck, along with another lady, by a car that jumped the curb on Franklin Street. The Fire Department Ambulance responded with Firemen Dunn and Misivaccia, who picked them up and transported them to Clara Maass Hospital.

When I arrived at the emergency room of the hospital one of the first things, my sister said was "The fire department brought me here. They were wonderful!" "They told me that everything was all right, and that they would take care of everything. They asked me where I was injured and told me not to move. They were very gentle and did their best to make me comfortable on the way here." "Please thank them for me."

My sister's words speak for themselves. But I would also like to say "thanks" to the well trained and intelligent men of the Belleville Fire Department. The way they carried out their assignment is a credit to the town, the Fire Department and themselves.

Each witness to whom I spoke referred with pride when they mentioned "Our Firemen" or "Our Fire Department" took them to the hospital. Such praise is deserved by the performance of your men.

Thanks to them, the Fire and Police departments for service well rendered and gratefully appreciated.

Edward E. Lee

First National's Newark Building Wins Award

The First National State Bank Building in Newark, along with nine other commercial buildings and plants throughout New Jersey has been chosen a winner of the 1967 New Jersey New Good Neighbor Award.

This was announced today by Leonard C. Johnson, president of the New Jersey Manufacturers Association, co-sponsor of the annual awards competition along with New Jersey Business Magazine.

Another winner of the award, now in its eighth year, was the J & J Distributing Co., for its office building and warehouse at 16 Bleeker Street, Millburn.

Other recipients of the 1967 New Good Neighbor Awards are:

Oakite Products, Inc., for its new international headquarters in Berkeley Heights.

Medical Park, a new, four-building complex for medical and dental facilities in Wayne.

Waldron-Hartig Division of the Midland Ross Corporation, for its new plant and office building in Franklin Township.

Tenneco Chemicals, Inc., for its office and laboratory building in Piscataway Township.

Ultronics Systems Corporation, an electronics firm in Mt. Laurel for its new headquarters facility there.

Laurel, for its new headquarters facility there.

Sandoz, Inc., for its new headquarters and laboratory facility in East Hanover.

Quail Hill, a new restaurant of early American architecture located in Smithville's complex of recreated early American buildings.

Warner Lambert, Pharmaceutical Co., for its new data processing center and office building in Morris Plains.

The winners, Johnson said, were selected on the basis of their economic value to their respective areas, beauty of plant and grounds and the consideration given to the working force and the community in the planning, location and construction of the buildings. Also considered, he said, were such items of community importance as smoke and other pollution control, handling of traffic generated by the new facilities, and the willingness of the institutions to participate in local affairs.

The 18-story First National State Building at 550 Broad Street is owned by the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company. It was nominated for the award by Lawrence Hoguet, president of the Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce.

Architect for the project was Frank Grad & Sons of Newark.

with Eggers & Higgins of New York serving as consulting architects. The builder was the George A. Fuller Co., one of the foremost construction firms in the nation.

In his letter of nomination,

Hoguet called the new building "an impressive addition to the revitalized Washington Park area."

"In concept, design and execution, the structure reflects a unique pooling of talents and illustrates the very real contributions which private business can make toward the realization of an area's overall urban renewal goals," he stated.

The structure is the most recent in the complex of six buildings planned and financed in the Washington Park area by Mutual Benefit Life.

The J & J Distributing Co.,

one of the state's leading wholesalers of liquors and wines, has its new, two-story, building at 16 Bleeker Street, Millburn. It was constructed by the Murray Construction Co. of Springfield, with S. Lawrence Klein of Newark as architect.

Mayor Ralph R. Batch of Millburn, in a letter of nomination, stated: "We have been informed by others in the industry that this building is acknowledged to be the finest in the honors."

The awards will be presented at a luncheon in Newark on December 11. Representatives of the winning firms, nominators, builders and architects will be on hand to share in the honors.

Congressman P. Rodino Favors A UN Resolution

Congressman Peter W. Rodino, Jr. (D-N.J.) today urged the House Foreign Affairs Committee to immediately take up and favorably support a resolution sponsored by himself and 15 other U.S. Congressmen, seeking U.N. Security Council consideration of the Vietnam conflict.

Rodino, dean of the New Jersey Congressional delegation, explained that his resolution was identical to the Mansfield U.N. - Vietnam Resolution that recently passed the Senate by a unanimous 82-0 vote.

"The U.N. represents the most appropriate forum to bring this tragic and agonizing conflict to the stage where negotiation can play the vital role envisioned by the U.N. Charter for the solution of international disputes," stated Rodino.

"It appears clear that now more than ever," continued Rodino, "we should bring to bear the weight of international peace keeping machinery to impose a third force upon the contending parties. While it is generally recognized that the U.N. enjoys less success in mediating conflicts involving major powers, our foreign policy responsibility to make use of Security-Council machinery is no less clear and evident."

"To those who call for 'negotiation now' I would only say yes - but since we have been unable to find the enemy willing to meet with us, let us go a step further and seek the desired goal within the framework of the only international body recognized by most of mankind as competent to handle such disputes," noted Rodino.

"The U.N. has been a touchstone of basic U.S. foreign policy since its inception in 1945. In Korea we fought not as one nation, but rather as a United Nations force determined to meet and check aggression through the implementation of legally authorized collective security.

Sel-Rex Robbed Bullion Stolen

Four thousand pounds of bullion, the value of which was not fully known at press time, was stolen from the Sel-Rex Corporation, 75 River Road, sometime over the weekend.

The break into the plant was reported Monday morning by A. E. Hartmann and R. Reilly, supervisors of the precious metals department.

According to Police Detectives, a wing of the firm's building was broken into. The persons who made off with the bars of gold, silver, copper and nickel first broke through a brick block wall and an inside wall to gain access to precious metals.

Detective Le Roy Vandewende and Alfred Ciccone, who are investigating, report an attempt to reach the Sel-

Rex vault was made a few months ago. The burglary attempt succeeded in drilling a hole through the roof of the vault building by failed in gaining access to the place the gold was stored.

New Navy Antenna Permits Submarines Communication Via Satellite with Ships

A division of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation has announced it has designed and built a type of experimental antenna that for the first time allows submarines to communicate via satellite with suitably equipped submarines, ships, aircraft and fixed or mobile stations thousands of miles apart.

Rand V. Araskig, president, ITT Defense Communications Division, said the antenna design is significant because the equipment is steerable in azimuth and elevation, yet compact enough to fit in the sail (superstructure) of a submarine.

The U.S. Naval Ships Systems Command, Washington,

D.C., contracted with ITT Defense Communications for the submarine-satellite communication antenna design and development.

An ITT Defense Communications Division submarine-satellite communication antenna successfully participated in recent inter-service satellite communication tests conducted via LES-3, an experimental communication satellite.

A major challenge to designers of submarine antennas for satellite communications has been the limited space available to install the devices.

The new antenna is the latest development of ITT Defense Communications' antenna laboratory, which has been designing and building submarine antennas over the past decade for communications in the VLF through UHF frequency range.

Two and two still make four, in spite of progress in other fields.

Old-Fashioned Cider Just Doesn't Happen

Does good, fresh cider just happen?

G. A. VanHouten, vice president of Garden State Farms, says not.

"Good, fresh cider has to be made in the old-fashioned way—pressed in an old-fashioned cider press to have the same fresh taste of road-side stand cider," VanHouten said.

That's why Garden State Farms operated an old-fashioned cider mill in the mountains of New York. There, with a few refinements such as washing and scrubbing the apples before pressing, cider is made in exactly the same way it was in grandfather's day.

Bushels of ripe, juicy apples from nearby orchards are shipped to the Garden State Farms' cider press in Warwick, N. Y. A blend of seven varieties yields the best flavor and holding quality. Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Rome, Courtland, McIntosh, Greening and Winesap apples all contribute to the old-fashioned goodness. Some are sweet, others a little tart. The blend gives the cider a flavor that is "just right."

About 1200 bushels of apples are pressed each day to yield 5,000 gallons of Garden State Farms' cider.

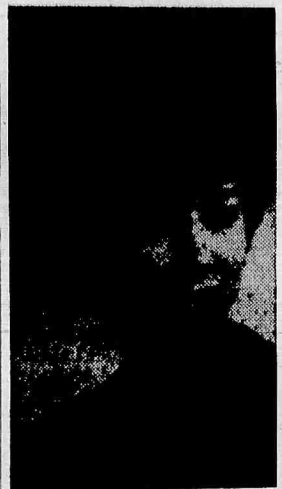

Garden State Farms' cider is less than 24 hours old when it arrives in the store. Immediately after pressing, it is shipped in refrigerated tank trucks to the bottling plant in Midland Park, N. J., where it is put into plastic gallon and half-gallon jugs. From there it is trucked frosty cold to stores.

Old-fashioned cider flavor comes from the pumice (apple pulp) in the liquid. When the apple pulp is filtered out, the cider becomes apple juice. Garden State Farms' cider is not filtered or strained. It is cloudy—all of the flavorful pumice is still there!

That is why good, old-fashioned flavor cider has to be made in the good, old-fashioned way. It doesn't just happen.

Salvation Army Gives Toys To Those Less Fortunate

Mrs. August Hussman of 143 Crest Drive, Belleville (left), an employee of New Jersey Bell Telephone Company with Mrs. Major Paul D. Seiler, New Jersey Divisional Home League Secretary of The Salvation Army, proudly displays the baby doll she dressed by hand in a white christening outfit with knitted hat and sweater.

Mrs. Hussman won a purple grand prize ribbon among dolls dressed for The Salvation Army by employees of the telephone company.

Eleven companies and banks in the Greater Newark Area participated in the tenth annual doll program of The Salvation Army. Their employees and friends dressed 1500 dolls, which will be given to less fortunate little girls at Christmas through The Salvation Army's Toy Shop.

Dolls will also be given to shut-in and hospitalized children through the Service Extension Program of The Salvation Army in suburban and rural areas of the state.

Two residents of Belleville received honorable mention ribbons. They are Miss Maryann Nucci of 25 Parkview Avenue, a New Jersey Bell employee and Miss Barbara Bartholomew of 15 Essex Street, employee of the Fireman's Fund American Insurance Companies.

Judging of dolls is done at individual companies, and ribbons are awarded for grand, first, second and honorable mention selections chosen on the basis of workmanship, unusual attire and the special appeal of dress on each doll.

SALVATION ARMY — Mrs. August Hussman, a Bell Telephone employee and Mrs.

Major Paul D. Seiler, home league secretary of the Salvation Army display a doll and the outfit which Mrs. Hussman designed for it.

Christmas Mail Floods Belleville Post Office Annex

67 JORALEMON STREET — Among the articles of mail that passed through the Belleville Post Office annex last week was a package from a Joralemon Street resident to friends in Brooklyn. Hundreds of packages are processed daily and sent on to their destination through the local facility.

BELLEVILLE ANNEX — The afternoon shift of post office workers prepare for the onslaught of holiday mail which passes their hands. These men separate the mail according to the type of delivery posted on the packages. For example special delivery items are removed from general and air delivery mail at this point.

PACKAGES GALORE — In addition to packages from local businesses and industries, bulky Christmas items by the thousands are passing through the Belleville annex. The

Belleville Youngsters Attend St. Peter's Book Sale

BROWSING — A young lad from St. Peter's School browses at a book during a recent book sale which ended today.

'LOOK' — Little Janice Torsello, 6, motions to her classmate, John Ventura, 6, that their picture is being taken by a Belleville Times photographer. Joseph Oberio and Vincent Vinente, both six years old, are too busy reading to be bothered. All 720 children who attend Saint Peter's School browsed through the tables of books.

"I LIKE BOOKS" — and this is just what the Catholic Daughters of Saint Peter's Parish try to encourage with their fourth annual book fair, the profits of which go to the school's library. The fair, with some 200 different books, was open last week for three days and closed on Thursday.

Dangerous Toys, Holiday Hazard

Potentially dangerous toys and Christmas tree hazards will cause several hundred American children to suffer needless eye injuries during the coming holiday season, reports the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

On behalf of the Society's annual nation-wide Safe Toy Campaign, John W. Ferree, M.D., executive director of the NSPB, warns parents that 17 per cent of the more serious injuries to children's eyes are caused by missile-type toys such as pellet guns, dart guns, air guns, bean shooters and many toys with rubber bands such as sling shots. "Parents should also be alerted against buying seemingly harmless toys having protruding points, sharp edges, detachable parts or those made with flammable or plastic materials that shatter," says Dr. Ferree.

As part of the seasonal Safe Toy Campaign, the Society recommends that:

Christmas trees, not made fire-proof by approved chemical sprays, should be kept in water to prevent drying and causing fire hazards.

Christmas trees should be kept away from heated radiators or fireplaces.

All electrical wiring should be double-checked for shorts that can cause sparks and flames.

All tree decorations should be unbreakable and nonflammable.

More than 40 per cent of the accidents causing visual impairment in the U.S. today occur in the home, reports the National Society. According to latest data from the Public Health Services' National Health Survey, this represents a greater number than the combined number of at-work and automobile accidents in which eye injuries are sustained.

The society emphasizes that good eye-safety habits and attitudes should be practiced in the home not only at Christmas time but all year round. Aerosol spray cans containing many different pressurized liquids such as insecticides, deodorants, antibiotics, oven cleaners, paint, and hair fixatives, should be kept out of reach of children at all times. It has been recently found that these liquids, if accidentally sprayed into the eye, can cause severe corneal damage.

The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, Inc., founded in 1908, is the oldest voluntary health agency nationally engaged in the prevention of blindness through a comprehensive program of community services, public and professional education and research.

New Jersey Symphony Seeks Musical Director

A special committee was organized yesterday to screen applicants for the job of music director of the New Jersey Symphony. The post is being vacated in the fall of 1968 by Kenneth Schermerhorn who will at that time become conductor of the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra.

In announcing formation of the new committee, Henry P. Becton, president of the New Jersey Symphony, said that more than 100 applications already have been received from conductors throughout the United States.

The committee's job, he said, will be to select the best candidates, conduct personal interviews, then to visit the applicants, and to see them in performance.

Finally, Becton said, the committee will present its recommendations to the Board of Trustees. No deadline has been announced for the appointment of a new director.

Comprehensive Care

Mental Health Is Stressed At Clinic Program

Some fifty officers, trustees and friends of the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic, together with official representatives of the four cooperating municipalities, attended the annual open house at the Clinic, 570 Belleville Avenue, Belleville, and heard the future needs of comprehensive mental health centers discussed.

The guests were made welcome by Mrs. Ruth O. Cowell, Executive Director of the Clinic, and Mr. Edwin W. Jamieson of Glen Ridge, president of the Board of Trustees. They were given a tour of the offices, consultation rooms, and group therapy facilities provided at the Clinic for psychiatric diagnosis and treatment of emotionally disturbed children.

Mrs. Harold Levin, of Nutley, vice president of the Board, introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Frank Friedlander, the chairman of the Essex County Mental Health Board, who addressed herself to the subject of "Comprehensive Mental Health Centers".

Mrs. Friedlander, a former psychiatric social worker, prior to her service on the County Board, had been one of the organizers of the Child Guidance Clinic for the Oranges and Maplewood, and a founding Board member of both the New Jersey and the Essex County Mental Health Associations. She stated that modern psychiatric philosophy and treatment methods had as their aim prevention of hospitalization of the seriously disturbed patient, whether child or adult.

"The most effective treatment of mentally disturbed people takes place in the community in which they live," she stressed. However, for thorough and comprehensive treatment a mental health center would have to provide not only for hospitalization, but also for out-patient services, including a family emergency service, and for consultation with individuals as well as groups.

Aside from diagnosis and treatment, the comprehensive center also should provide post-hospitalization care for patients, including facilities for their social and perhaps even vocational rehabilitation, and for research and evaluation of treatment methods.

She stressed that under the Mental Health Act of 1963, Federal support has been granted for two new mental health centers in the State of New Jersey; approval for a third one, to be located in New ark, has already been obtained. Federal grants are obtainable not only for construction of new mental health facilities, but also for up to 75 per cent of the cost of staffing them, the latter support on a decreasing basis over a four year period.

Prior to the speech, Mrs. W. O. Payne, of Glen Ridge, chairman of the special gifts committee, acknowledged the gifts of equipment for the play therapy room and the activity therapy room during the past several months from the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company; Tri-Town Business and Professional Women of Bloomfield, Belleville and Nutley; St. Mary's Knights of Columbus, of Nutley; the Nutley Masonic Lodge and the UNICO of Bloomfield.

Mrs. Payne expressed the special appreciation of the Trustees to Mrs. Gertrude LaPlaca, of Belleville, president and Miss Hazel White and Miss Frances Williamson, of the Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club, and to Paul Alongi, Esq., president of Bloomfield UNICO.

Executive Director, Mrs. Cowell, introduced the members of the Clinic's staff to the guests: Dr. Anthony Velez, who recently assumed the duties of the Clinic's Medical Director; psychiatric social worker; L. William Nye, MSW, senior psychiatric social worker and field instructor; Mrs. Lila R. Pikus, MSW and Mrs. Mildred Sudran, MSW, senior psychiatric social workers; Miss Eileen Kaene, BA, and Clarence Leach, BA, junior psychiatric social workers; Mrs. A. Myrtle Erickson, administrative assistant; Mrs. Minnie Cio and Mrs. Patricia Kamermayer, clerk-typist; Johnson, mayor Glen Ridge, and the Honorable Joseph McGreevy, member of the Belleville Board of Commissioners, were among the guests. Other prominent public servants present at the affair included Eugene Barnett, Belleville Town Clerk, Miss Helen Gilman, of the Belleville Department of Health, Dr. Joseph Pikus, of the Hospital and Health Council of Metropolitan New Jersey; Richard B. Morgan, chairman of the Belleville Community Council.

Belleville to Play Kearny Away Friday Night

Belleville's basketball team continues in the Big Ten Conference series of games at Kearny this Friday at 8 p.m. The Bellboys will meet their Kearny opponents away with a 0-1 record having lost to Nutley Tuesday evening by a close 50-46 score.

That game, certainly a gripping one, was played at home.

Freshman Basketball Squad Tries Hard But Loses 41-28

An inexperienced Belleville freshman basketball team, hampered by lack of scrimmage practice, put up a good fight against the more skilled Garfield team in the Junior High Gym last Friday.

Losing 41-28, the Belleville Boilermakers were able to stay within seven points of their opponents until the second half of the game when Garfield scored 22 points to the frosh's 13.

The Boilermakers were led by the Guard, Serrattella, who scored one-third of this team's points while making only three personal fouls.

John Atherton, the frosh's 6'1 1/2" center, led the Bellboys, going six for 10 from the floor.

A three for four third quarter, enabled Atherton to demonstrate that he is capable of breaking away from his man and getting into the open.

Ralph Macri and Rocco Marroti were outstanding in ball control and rebounds and set up most of the plays. Tom Jones was the second high scorer with two field goals and two fouls.

The frosh showed a need for more endurance, as Garfield turned on the steam in the second half, running away with the game.

Guys and Dolls Offers Billiards

by John Anderson
Today's billiard lounges are not comparable to the pool parlors of the 20's. You'll find no back room for illegal card games or numbers rackets.

Belleville's example of a fine billiard lounge is 'Guys and Dolls' located on Washington Avenue.

Upon entering 'Guys and Dolls' one is struck by the blending of the old and new. The room is large, almost square, with deep pile red wall-to-wall carpeting. Each table is illuminated by low suspended lamps adding a cozy atmosphere, while soft background music offsets the hushed conversations of concentrated sportsmen.

The clientele from day to evening shifts from senior citizens, who enjoy whiling the afternoon away over the green-felt tables, to an after-dinner group of young fellows who in

And in the tense final moments of the game the long standing sports rivalry between the neighboring communities blossomed as spectators for both teams rose to their feet screaming and cheering as Nutley carried the game by four points.

Belleville met the Nutley contingent with justified optimism considering the Bellboys had defeated Garfield in a non-conference match late last week.

During that game Belleville capitalized on free throws in a hectic fourth quarter to post a come-from-behind 81-79 win. The Bellboys converted 39 free throws in the foul-ridden contest, several in the final period rally.

The Boilermakers paced by John Toskovitch had jumped to a 10-point half.

The Bellboys were unable to continue this last minute thrust in their match against Nutley.

After an exciting first half the teams fought their way through the third quarter ending with a tie 34-34 score.

Going into the final quarter Belleville missed four straight foul shots. Bill Sherman then hit with a jump shot.

Turkey Shoot Makes Big Hit With 28 Birds Won

It was all Daniel Boones & Davey Crocketts and Annie Oakleys as the Recreation Department conducted its first annual Turkey Shoot.

With a smiling Commissioner Bill Cullen looking on, over a hundred different people tried their luck at providing for their family Thanksgiving table. With a few shooting twice there were twenty-eight turkeys won with the shooting of one hundred and forty targets.

Matthew J. Callahan did an admirable job of seeing to it that the firing was done in an orderly and safe manner. Thanks to his fine organization the firing line was a model. Phil Newsome & Anthony Caruso did the pre-event set up. Harold Brand did a fine job along with Tony Caruso on registering and on scoring the targets. Even Dick Davey jumped in and lent a hand in the operation. Mayor Kenneth Smith was on the scene and a competitor. Although our chief executive had little luck with the random target his grandson came thru a winner.

The random target added fun to the game because it gave everyone a chance. Robert Milano of 181 DeWitt Avenue and M. Stanko of 12 Bell Street were winners with high scores of 46 points each while the lowest score to win a bird was a modest 10 points.

There was one winner from among each five shooters and beyond being able to hit the target, skill was of little help. For instance Dick Dacey put all three of his shots in the target plus two shots that someone else had inadvertently shot at his target and still came up with a total score of only ten points.

All of the participants had a good time and it looks as though the Turkey Shoot may become a part of Belleville's tradition.

Bob Navitski then fouled allowing Belleville's Leroy Polite to pick up a point to tie the score one again. He missed, however, the second shot. Polite then fouled allowing Thompson to score twice.

More fouls. This time Nell Auricchio was responsible and Rich Schulz, Belleville's 6 foot, one-inch junior picked up both shots. The score, 40-40 once again was tied.

The final period saw the lead see-saw back and forth with Belleville taking a one-point command as late as 1:46 left in the stanza.

Thompson sparked the Maroon attack with 15 of Nutley's final 16 tallies. Included in Thompson's fourth period total were seven foul shots in as many attempts.

The junior standout, who played Tuesday night despite a winter cold, averaged 14.55 points as a sophomore. Auricchio who matched Thompson's 17-point total at Belleville showed dramatic improvement over last winter when he averaged only 2.69 per game.

Tuesday's game was delayed six minutes when officials were forced to rule whether Bob Rusca had four of five personal fouls. The Belleville book showed five and it's home book that is the official record. However, both officials were made aware that the Nutley official scorer, Steve Blank, as well as two newspaper score books indicated only four fouls for Rusca.

The dispute, as things turned out, didn't cost any serious damage. Rusca left the game with four minutes remaining.

During Tuesday's preliminary match, Nutley took Belleville's junior varsity 56-40.

Commission Studies 12 New Codes

The town commissioners voted unanimously at last Monday's meeting for the adoption of an ordinance amending the penalty sections of some 12 town ordinances created during the Council-Manager Plan "D" form of government, which ended July 8, 1967.

Under the previous form of government these ordinances were provided with penalties to exceed $500 or by imprisonment for no more than 90 days. When the government changed to the commission form of government, the penalty clauses of all ordinances are governed by the provisions of state laws which provide and authorize a governing body to prescribe penalties for the violation of ordinances for a period not exceed 90 days in jail nor a $200 fine.

The following 12 ordinances were effected by the state law:

"An ordinance to restrain and suppress gaming houses, as well as all instruments and devices used for gaming and to prohibit and prevent all gaming and fraudulent devices of every kind."

"An ordinance prohibiting the dumping, depositing and accumulation of garbage, rubbish and other discarded materials."

"An ordinance to prohibit the opening of fire hydrants by unauthorized persons."

"An ordinance to prohibit interference with officers in the performance of their lawful duties."

"An ordinance regulating the distribution of obscene literature or pictures."

"An ordinance prohibiting the abandonment of vehicles on public streets and public property."

"An ordinance prohibiting the dumping, depositing and accumulation of garbage, rubbish, refuse and other discarded materials upon the public streets, public places, on vacant or occupied lands."

Rome Is Destination For Faith Pilgrimage

A year of faith pilgrimage from St. Peter's parish, Belleville, to St. Peter's Rome, has been announced by Bishop Joseph A. Costello, pastor of St. Peter's Belleville.

The pilgrimage was initially announced by Bishop Costello when the year of faith was opened last June 29 with a special Pontifical Mass in Belleville. The year of faith, promulgated by Pope Paul VI, commemorates the 1900th anniversary of the death of St. Peter.

St. Peter's has been centering its devotions and activities of this year around the theme of the year of faith to be climaxed by the pilgrimage to Rome.

The pilgrimage will extend from June 22 to July 7 of 1968. Those participating in the pilgrimage will be present in Rome for the closing of the year of faith on June 29. An audience with His Holiness, Pope Paul VI, is planned for the group.

In addition to the stay in Rome, the itinerary includes visits to Paris, Lourdes, Naples, Florence, Geneva and Killarney.

Clinic Director Speaks Out

"The typical referral of a child to the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic comes from a school at which place the youngster has evidenced some symptoms such as aggressive behavior or stealing." This was the statement of Mrs. Ruth O. Cowell, executive director of the Clinic to the Belleville Community Council at its December 4th meeting. Mrs. Cowell pointed out that most of her young patients could be classified as unhappy kids. Parents of these youngsters are usually involved in the treatment since the child's problems often developed within the family setting.

Mrs. Cowell stressed that it is absolutely necessary for effective treatment for the therapist to establish a satisfactory relationship with the child. In this respect, it is vital to obtain the child's trust. She pointed out that emotional disturbances are really feeling disturbances, so that a major phase of treatment is to deal with the child's feelings. The group sessions as well as individual appointments were used depending on the nature of the case.

According to the speaker, the clinic was organized in 1958 to provide therapy for emotionally disturbed children from the four municipalities of Belleville, Bloomfield, Glen Ridge and Nutley. Although the service receives some state subsidy as well as fees from users based on ability to pay, its major support is from the four towns. The formula apportioning the cost is based on two attributes: (1) total population of the town and (2) the proportion of the town's caseload at the Clinic over a five year period.

Regarding New Jersey's needs, Mrs. Cowell stated that the greatest lack is the almost complete dearth of residential treatment facilities for children too disturbed to be helped on an outpatient basis.

Looking to the future, Mrs. Cowell believes that the clinic would fall naturally into the new concept of the Comprehensive Mental Health Center. She pointed out that this plan for a comprehensive range of mental health services would not necessarily require that they be geographically located at one spot. Thus, an agency such as the clinic might become a part of a larger mental health program while retaining its present location on the grounds of the Essex County Hospital.

Learning that a request for Belleville's portion of the clinic's expenses for the next fiscal year was currently before the Health Department, action was taken by the meeting requesting that Commissioner Vincent Strumolo give this favorable consideration.

A letter of resignation from the Council's Secretary, Bert Hunter, was accepted with regret. He will be taking a position with the Health and Welfare Council of Philadelphia beginning January 2.

Shoveling Snow Can Be a Danger

Since the out-of-shape man and his snow-shovel are soon parted — by exhaustion if not a more serious heart attack, the Heart Association offers these pointers to help weather the storm when the first snows appear.

If a man is middle aged — 40 or over — and physically fit, he can go about it in moderation.

If he is overweight and out of shape, he should see a doctor, even if he has no symptoms of ill health.

If he has a history of heart disease, it is imperative he see a doctor before touching a shovel to snow.

Shoveling should be done before eating, or at least two hours afterward. Avoid undue exertion immediately after meals.

Take occasional breaks. Even the healthy man can push himself to the point of harm.

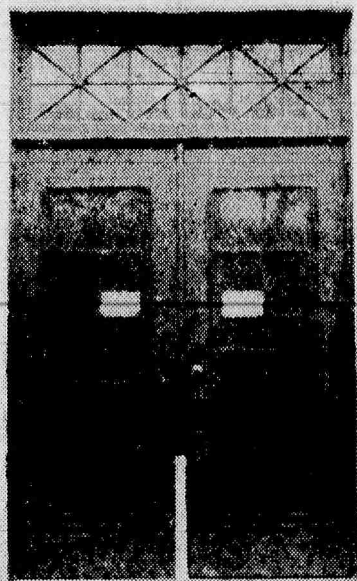

Use all your muscles — back and legs — not just the arms to lift the shovel. Remember, snow is heavier when wet.

Don't drink or smoke. The former may give you a false lift and lead to overexertion. Smoking and cold constrict blood vessels. In combination, they can be dangerous during unaccustomed heavy labors.

Wear warm, but light clothing. Insufficient clothing may lead to a chill. Too much clothing could lead to overheating, also a danger.

If a man has doubts that he should shovel at all, he shouldn't pass the job along to his wife.

The person who always has bad luck may be specializing in it.

NEW LOOK — Recently refaced was the complete front portion of school 4 on Magnolia Street as well as both sides. The job, approved by the Board of Education, was done for the complete price of $12,450. Aside from the newly surfaced columns, the bricks were sand blasted to bring out a new luster, the steps and window sills were done over for added protection. The back portion of the school will be completed in the spring time.

YOUNG PLANTERS — To sixth graders, Joseph LaValle, left, and James Loconti, both pupils at School number 4 were picked by Director of Special Education, Michael Nariello to plant 100 tulips and 50 hyacinths as a science school project. The boys planted the flowers after the scrubby was installed along the front portion of the school. According to the director both youngsters were "selected at random for they're just two nice boys." James and Joseph mentioned that they had slight experience in planting especially after doing enough work around their gardens during the summer vacation.

FINAL APPROVAL — Michael Nariello, Director of Special Education, left, appears with Joseph LaValle, and James Loconti on the front steps of School 4 to give his final approval of their dual project. Both lads, sixth graders at the school, were picked by the director to plant flowers as a science school project. The school front was recently redecorated with scrubby, flowers and a cherry tree which was a gift from the Belleville Kiwanis Club. The lay out of the flowers came about with the combined efforts of both Nariello and Tom Gresca, principal of school 8.

Four new room settings
Come see what's been done to the Country Corner. Our home furnishings department has been expanded to 4 handsome settings, a Cushman Colonial bedroom, a Plymwood pine dining room, a living room by Frank G. Harden and a family room of Bourbon Barrel originals.

Authentic Early American Fabrics
Each room is decorated in the best Early American tradition, from the fine Berven carpets, to the matching print wall coverings and upholstery fabrics of the Greeff Collection (through special arrangement with the Henry Ford Museum).

Electronic "guided tour"
You'll enjoy browsing through these handsome settings. Each has recorded background music and narrative to explain in detail what you see. You may wish to avail yourself of our decorating service or choose from the myriad of decorative accessories available. Whatever you seek in Early American decor, you'll find at the Country Corner.

Freshly ground coffee while you wait

Gourmet Shops
We've also added many new features to our Country Store. There's a complete line of S.S. Pierce gourmet foods, a cheese shop with a complete assortment of country-fresh imported and domestic cheeses, and if you're a coffee lover, we'll grind blends of the finest beans to your specifications.

Restored Post Office,
There's a complete post office circa 1900, Tobacco Shop, Candle Shop, and of course penny candies and goodies galore.

Won't you stop and see us? Sample a piece of cheese and enjoy browsing in the unhurried atmosphere of North Jersey's Americana marketplace, the Rowe-Manse Country Corner.

The old country store was much more than a place in which to buy the family groceries. It was a combination of bank, clubhouse, common meeting place for friends and neighbors and also, Post Office, fourth class. The store keeper, was likely one of the most important men in the community. Besides being Postmaster, he was often clerk of the town and keeper of land records; sometimes too, he was the Justice of the Peace.

The country store sold almost everything, bar soap, hayforks, blue jeans, patent medicines (which could cure any ailment known to man), candles, guns, food, dried fruits, exotic spices from faraway lands, and a list of substantial too long to list.

In this day of impersonal supermarkets and gleaming stainless steel, the warm country store would be a welcome place to visit, if just to browse and once again smell the mingling of a hundred spices; to sample a piece of penny candy from a jar or a cracker from a huge wooden barrel.

The Rowe-Manse COUNTRY CORNER was founded to provide such a place to visit. The owner and originator, Carmen Maggio, has stocked and furnished this store to recreate the country store of yesterday. Bring the children and rediscover a part of our heritage.

Five Towns Appropriate $216,959 for Hospitals

This year five of the 22 municipalities in Essex County appropriated $216,959 for hospitals.

These figures are contained in the Sixth Annual Survey of County and Municipal Grants to Voluntary Hospitals in the State of New Jersey, released today by Leo Connolly Associates, Inc., hospital financial consultants, with offices in Union, New Jersey.

According to the Connolly Survey, the amount of county aid for general hospital purposes in 1967 totaled $7,297,200, compared to the 1966 figure of $7,024,020. In addition to the money allotted for general hospital purposes, Ocean and Somerset Counties also designated $80,000 for hospital construction. This, however, was a drop of $50,000 from the previous year's total when Hunterdon County had also set aside funds for this purpose.

Fall is the time to enjoy good food, a roaring fire and nature's outdoor technicolor productions, not yet on television.

During the past year, The Howard's 362,000 depositors have received almost $33 million in dividends of interest on their savings, an amount greater than the total assets of the Bank 50 years ago. "IT'S A COMFORTABLE HEAT
THAT GLASSHEAT GIVES
Just like SUNSHINE in Spring!"

"...IT'S HEALTHFUL HEAT, TOO;
WE HAD FEWER COLDS LAST

WINTER and everyone felt fine" she continued.

No wonder their health was improved. Electric Glassheat heats without flame, so there are no toxic fumes or vapor to pollute the air. The life-giving oxygen is not burned up and the humidity is kept at the most desirable and healthful level.

Money saving thermostats in every room make it easy to maintain exactly the temperature you want throughout the house. No drafty floors or cold corners, ever. And the rays that warm you are exactly like the rays of the sun. Imagine! Summer sunshine in every room all winter long.

No wonder the Electric Glassheat house is a healthful as well as comfortable home.

"SO CLEAN! NO SOOT, DUST

OR SMOKE, so we save on cleaning bills," says another owner.

"In all these years with Electric Glassheat we never needed to dry clean our drapes, or furniture. No need to repaint or even wash walls and ceiling. And our Venetian blinds still look fresh and new. Taking these facts into consideration lowers our cost of heating still more."

"SAVE MONEY ON

ELECTRIC BILLS, ALSO! "We expected Glassheat to be inexpensive to operate but it amazed us by costing even less than estimated. And since we can now take advantage of the special low heating rate we save on our regular current, too. And of course there are no maintenance or service charges! still another saving." Another Glassheat owner says, "We added two rooms, but still my heating bill is $175." Again and again people install Electric Glassheat because of its many outstanding advantages, and then are delighted to discover that this remarkable form of heat is an economy as well.

IT'S SAFE AND SILENT!

Electric Glassheat can't overheat, and it is absolutely fire-safe. Even accidental contact can't cause blistering and there are no fumes or vapor to worry about.

Since there are no moving parts there is no sound. Electric Glassheat is as silent as sunshine, and as pleasant. Saves space, too, for the area usually occupied by radiators, boilers and flues is yours to use as extra living space and a better arrangement of furniture.

Rutgers Undertakes A Quiet Job

NEW BRUNSWICK—The first joint research project combining the talents of the new Rutgers Medical School and the Rutgers College of Engineering is being conducted in a quiet and uncluttered laboratory on the University Heights campus of the State University.

This cooperative beginning of medical-engineering research is centered around a single heart problem—why is it that persons with artificial heart valves very often develop a red blood cell problem?

Thousands Stricken
The operation for an artificial heart valve implant lasts about half an hour and, as a result of its success, thousands of people who had been stricken with valvular heart disease have been able to lead normal or near normal lives. The valves themselves represent a remarkable triumph of engineering skill and design. Implanted in the human heart, they have to open and close something like 40,000,000 times a year without fail, according to estimates, and they have to function perfectly for about 40 years.

This they do, admirably and astonishingly to the layman, but a problem has arisen in some cases where artificial heart valves have been implanted. Some patients with valvular heart disease who have undergone valve prosthesis have developed what is known as mechanical hemolysis. This means that there is a decline in the number of red blood cells.

Develops Faster
Normally in heart valve cases, says Dr. William S. Wilson, professor of medicine at the Rutgers Medical School, the body compensates for this by simply developing red blood cells faster.

However, there can be a lessening of the number of red cells to the point where anemia develops. It is believed that turbulence in the blood stream set up by the artificial heart valve may be a significant factor in causing this condition.

The weapon used in attacking this perplexing problem in the laboratory at the Rutgers College of Engineering is the comparatively new and promising science of biomedical engineering.

One of Several
This project is only one of several heart research projects under way at the College of Engineering, but it is the pioneering heart research project in cooperation with the Rutgers Medical School.

Garry Katz, an undergraduate and resident of 2013 Wickford Road, South Plainfield, is conducting the actual research under the direction of a member of the engineering faculty and in consultation with Dr. Wilson.

The idea in the research experiment is to measure in the laboratory the turbulence downstream from the valve and try to correlate the structure of the turbulence with the destruction of the red blood cells.

Various Rates
Essentially, the equipment to do this consists of a long glass tube with a mechanical valve, in this case a new type known as a Smeloff - Cutter mitral valve, at about the half-way point in the length of the tube.

Water is run through the tube and valve at various flow rates, and the velocity and turbulence of the fluid behind the valve is measured by several instruments. By making a number of calculations based on the properties of blood, the researchers can treat the water used in studying fluid flow as though it were blood.

"This kind of investigation," said Dr. Richard L. Peskin, of 3 Dogwood Drive, Trenton, an associate professor in the department of mechanical and aerospace engineering, and supervisor of this particular project, "falls into the realm of mechanical engineering. Our responsibility is to study fluid mechanical turbulence by determining the equipment, measuring and recording instruments and acquiring the fundamental data in order to understand heart valve turbulence."

Dr. Wilson, a resident of 563 Church Street, Bound Brook, and holder at Rutgers of the Sussex County Heart Association Chair of Cardiology, uses his medical knowledge to acquaint his engineering colleagues with the medical problem and to relate their experimental design to the human heart problem.

He believes that this sort of cooperative effort, should be encouraged because physicians and engineers have bodies of knowledge and research tools which complement and supplement each other.

The research, financed by a National Science Foundation grant, began last summer. The foundation grants a small stipend to students such as Katz who are working on such projects and pays for the equipment and supplies involved.

Katz, a senior in the five-year program under which he will get both a Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts degree, said he selected this particular research because it is the kind of application of mechanical engineering that has a distinct appeal to him.

Construction Underway At YMCA Adult Centers

Construction is underway for a conference center on the site of Linwood, the Sussex County adult camp operated by the YM - YWCA of Newark and vicinity.

Louis Briegel, executive director of camping Services Branch of the Newark "Y", has announced that the structure is being built to meet the demand for facilities which will provide meeting and housing accommodations for non-profit groups on a year-round basis.

The new building will be completed February 15, when the first groups will be booked for conferences. Architect for the two-story building is J. Frederick Cook Jr. of Livingston, a member of the Y's Kamp Kiamasha Committee. Joseph Zitone is general contractor.

The right clothing (warm but light) can help the snow shoveler. But some men wear too much, your Heart Association warns, while others court chills by not wearing enough; both dangerous to the circulation.

Eastern Star Holding Giant Candy Sale Drive

The Order of Eastern Star is holding a candy sale drive to raise funds for a proposed 12-room addition to the organization's Home for the Aged at Somerville.

If men have any doubts about their health, they should turn over the snow shovel to a healthy teen-ager, your Heart Association says.

Chanukah Initiates Traditional Festival

The feast of lights also known as the holiday of Chanukah will begin on Tuesday evening, December 26th. The word Chanukah means dedications and it refers to the rededication of the Holy Temple of Jerusalem in the year 108, before the Christian era. It contains a message to freedom-loving people everywhere. It recalls the first struggle in written history, when man fought not for material positions, but for ideals, especially the ideal of human liberty. When the Maccabees pushed back the Syrian tyrants from the Sacred Temple they spoke for democracy, the spirit of refusing to be intimidated by force. This festival salutes humanity's first heroes in a religious cause. The festival lasts for eight days. The last day of the holiday is on the third of January. Chanukah celebrations will be held at Temple B'nai Israel during Hebrew School sessions on January second. The gala religious school program conducted annually by the pupils will be held on Sunday, December 17th at 10:30 a.m. The Sisterhood of the congregation will distribute tokens to the children following the program.

DeWitt Savings Head Returns From Confab

Executives at DeWitt Savings and Loan Association, Belleville, have been very busy lately. While the president of the bank, John P. Dailey was at a convention from which he has just returned, executive vice president, Robert M. Williams, was elected First Vice President of the Savings and Loan Institute, Garden State Chapter No. 67.

Dailey, who had attended the 75th Convention of the United States Savings and Loan League, stated that it was the largest one ever held with 5,250 delegates in attendance

John P. Dailey

Robert M. Williams

from all 50 states in the Union.

While at the Convention, Dailey went on several tours of inspection of new and existing housing in the San Francisco Bay area. He also participated in panel discussions covering problems of Savings and Loan Associations in the $30-million to $40-million asset category.

Dailey attended many of the meetings of the four-day Convention and heard addresses by the Chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank, the Senior Vice President of The Bank of America, and Members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board.

Dailey, on his return, reported to the DeWitt Board of Directors that a tight mortgage market would continue into the first six months of 1968 and that the cost of money would remain high.

Williams, who is a resident of 11 Summit Road, Verona, is a graduate of the Institute in 1961 and has been Second Vice President since 1966 previously serving as a Trustee of the Savings and Loan Educational Facility for three years.

Williams is married to the former Wilma Cantwell, and has two children, Gregory and Karen, who attend Brookdale Avenue School in Verona.

MONSTROUS LETTER SORTERS? — Newark Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci, right, scans blueprints, not of a monster from outer space but of the new multi-position Letter Sorters being used by the Newark Post office. With Benucci is Installation Field Engineer Frank Boerner. The sorters are capable of processing 36,000 letters per hour. The first to be used in the greater New York, New Jersey metropolitan area, the machines are operated by specially trained postal clerks who will double the production output of letter distribution as compared to the old 77 pigeon hole method of hand-sorting mail.

Don Densler Has Crossed The Equator

Gunnery Mate Third Class Donald A. Densler, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Densler of 214 Overlook Ave., Belleville, was initiated into the "Royal Order of Shellbacks" when his ship, the U. S. Coast Guard Cutter Bering Strait, crossed the equator.

The "Pollywogs" (men who had not crossed the equator before) were initiated by a "Royal Court" of "Shellbacks" who had previously crossed the equator.

Following ancient Naval tradition, the court included "King Neptune," the "Queen" and the "Royal Baby," all selected from veteran "Shellbacks."

Operating with the U. S. Seventh Fleet off the coast of Vietnam, the Bering Strait is currently participating in Operation Market Time designed to prevent infiltration by sea of enemy troops, supplies and ammunition from North to South Vietnam.

'Insist on Safe Toys Ones Which Won't Cause Shock, Fire'

(Belleville's Fire Department last week issued a holiday greeting and warning to people putting up their decorations.)

On the most memorable night nearly 2000 years ago, wise men were led by a star to the glorious presence of the new-born Christ Child.

We continue to celebrate the birth of the Christ Child as we renew our faith in God and love of our fellow man.

Families and friends are drawn together in a spirit of joy and love. The visit of the wise men bearing gifts for the CHILD set the precedent for our happy custom of gift giving. The exchange of gifts symbolizes our love and concern for each other.

This concern for each other is also expressed in our observance of holiday safety tips to keep this season merry. We of the Belleville Fire Department wish to convey to all our citizens the following Holiday Safety Tips.

WRAPPINGS: Gift wrapping should be gathered up and disposed of promptly after the presents have been opened.

TOYS: Insist on safe toys . . . those which can't cause shock, fire or explosion. Good judgement is essential in purchasing chemical sets . . . for children. Toys requiring fuels may be especially hazardous in young hands. All play with chemical toys or those involving fuels should be supervised by parents. When buying electrical toys, choose only those bearing the U.L. label. If an electrical train is on your shopping list this Christmas make certain you set it up well away from the Christmas tree.

TREE: Keep your tree outdoors until you are ready to set it up. For setting up your tree, use a sturdy stand that can hold water. Set the tree so that it won't block doorways, and away from any source of heat. Keep the water container filled. In trimming the tree, use flameproof decorations of glass or metal, not flammable cotton or paper. Take the tree down when needles begin to fall. Discard it outdoors . . . NEVER burn it in the fireplace or in an incinerator. When erecting your tree, make a diagonal cut across the trunk about an inch above the original cut, and always keep this cut covered with water.

LIGHTING: Am etal tree should never be strung with electric lights, instead use off - the - tree lighting, with colored floodlights for safe and colorful illumination. Inspect your lighting sets for fraying or loose sockets. Discard damaged sets and make sure the ones you use bear the U.L. label. Have a separate switch at some distance from the tree for tuning the tree lights on or off. NEVER leave tree lights burning when you leave the house or go to bed. Check the needles around the lights from time to time. If they begin to turn brown, change the position of the lights. Decorative lighting should not be so concentrated as to overload circuits. Electrical equipment used out of doors should be designed for that purpose.

IN CASE OF FIRE IN THE HOME: QUICKLY GET EVERYONE OUT OF THE HOUSE. CALL THE FIRE DEPARTMENT. BE SURE EVERYONE IN YOUR FAMILY KNOWS HOW TO CALL THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

IN CASE OF FIRE AT PUBLIC GATHERING: WALK do not run to the nearest exit. CALL the Fire Department immediately. KEEP CALM.

From all the firemen and officers of the Belleville Fire Department we wish to extend our best wishes for a very joyous and fire safe Christmas to all our citizens.

Vietnam Is Exciting Says ITT Technician

A "service call" for Joe Lahullier can be an exciting experience. His last one took him to Vietnam.

A field service engineer with ITT Avionics Division, Nutley, he is one of the force of experienced, resourceful men who go where the action is to assure round - the - clock reliability of military navigation equipment that bears the label of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

Concerned/Engineers

In this electronic age the obvious tools of war are supplemented by an array of complex equipment that men also rely upon for their lives. And it is with this gear that Joe and his fellow engineers are concerned.

These field maintenance and modification experts are backed up by a spare parts support department that is hell-bent on trying to beat its own record of shipping a crucial part out the door just 53 minutes after receipt of a distress cablegram. And Joe's recent activities in Vietnam add further credit to the hard-working group.

Since last October, Joe has been specializing in servicing shipboard AN-URN-20 Tacan (tactical air navigation) sets which serve as electronic signposts to guide military planes to and from their destinations 24 hours a day.

Strategic Locations

Ships equipped with Tacan navigation beacons are assigned to strategic locations 30 to 35 days at a stretch, during which time any interruption in the service may literally become a matter of life and death to the pilots who depend upon the navigation aid to get them to their destination and back.

Joe's field engineering services are only infrequently required, but when they are, he gets to the scene — one way or another.

Here's how Joe himself, described his recent mission:

Aboard Hospital Ship
"In Manila, Philippine Islands, I boarded the hospital ship USS Repose in Subic Bay. When on station in Vietnam the ship uses ITT Tacan equipment to guide helicopters bearing battle-field wounded to its deck.

"The destroyer USS Fox, moored nearby, also was in need of technical assistance for its Tacan equipment. I worked days on the Fox and nights on the Repose.

"I expected to sail on the USS Repose for Vietnam providing technical assistance while on board, but the Repose had barely gotten under way when a longboat drew alongside to transfer me to the Fox. I made arrangements to return to the Repose at a later date.

Equipment Check

"On the destroyer the ship's technicians and I checked over the Tacan equipment before the ship sailed to its station and when the job was finished, I boarded a helicopter and started a multi-hop flight to Da Nang, South Vietnam, where I hoped to rendezvous with the Repose.

"At Da Nang, I learned that the Repose was north, at Dong Ha, and that I probably could get a ride to a halfway point the next morning. As it turned out, I soon had good reason to wonder how the next day would end."

Joe smiles now as he recalls the events of that morning.

"I bedded down at Da Nang, grateful for the opportunity to get some sleep. At 3 a.m. I was jolted off my cot by the shock of an explosion. Making a fast retreat to the relative safety of a bunker, I could see U.S. aircraft dropping flares while others strafed a distant hillside from which the Viet Cong were shelling the airbase. Our artillery was returning the shelling.

"Periodically an enemy shell would strike a parked aircraft or a fuel storage area, and the sky would light up like daytime, only with a red hue. Eventually all quieted down.

"Later in the morning I hitched a ride aboard a helicopter flying north with supplies and eventually arrived at Dong Ha airfield. When I introduced myself in the operations building, the officer in charge's look told me that Dong Ha was not a very good stopover, since the "red" had been shelled 20 times in the last nine days.

"When I told him I wanted to get offshore to the USS Repose, he said a medical evacuation helicopter was ready to leave and that there might be room for me. 'But,' he warned, 'that bird may go into a battle zone' to evacuate casualties, and if it comes to a choice between room for you or room for the wounded you'll star where the wounded are picked up."

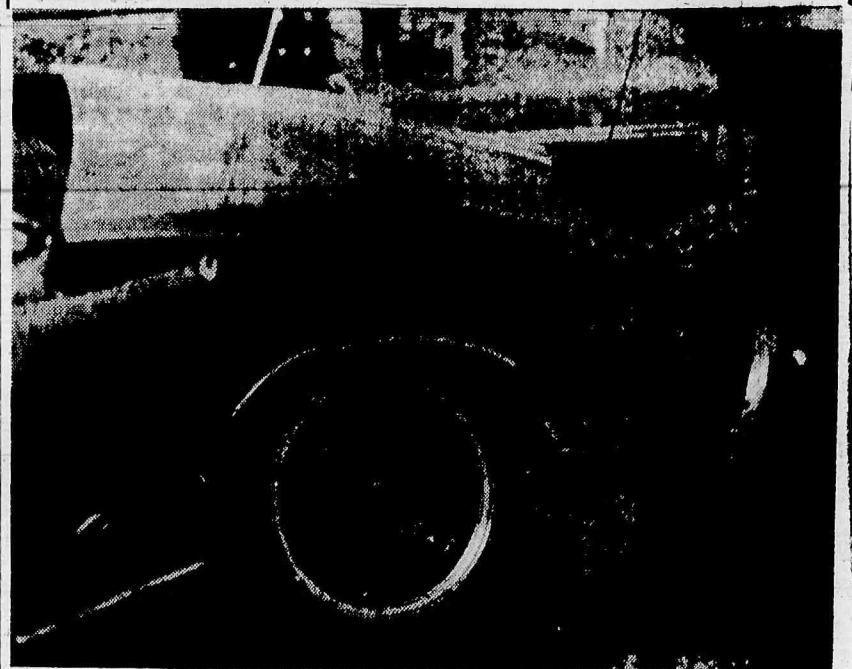

The helicopter flew to the Repose without diversion, however, and no fateful decision had to be made.

Return Trip

"Aboard the Repose I showered, changed my clothes and grabbed a sandwich before checking the navigation equipment. After completing the technical checkout I had started back in the Philippines, I was able to catch up on secondary activities such as eating and sleeping."

Joe's willingness to perform despite his experiences did not go unnoticed. Capt. James M. Campbell, the commanding officer of the USS Repose, wrote a letter to ITT commending Joe.

Women Hurt in Crash

BAD WEATHER . . . was the probable cause of the accident which occurred at the intersection of Hancox and Union Avenues, Monday afternoon, at the height of the rainy, dismal day. Mrs. Sophie Serio of 355 Division Avenue, Belleville, driver of the above auto, complained of pains in her left arm.

She struck the auto of another Belleville resident, Frank Alesio, who was going East on Hancox Avenue. Alesio escaped with minor injuries. Both cars were towed from the scene. The Nutley First Aid Squad responded to the accident.

Fred Luciano Returns Home After Discharge

Specialist Fourth Class Fred Luciano Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luciano Sr. of 63 Campbell Avenue, Belleville, was discharged from his tour of military duty on November 29.

Following his training in the states, Luciano served with the infantry in Vungtau, Pleiku, the Mekong Delta and along the Cambodian border. When he returned to the states, he was stationed at Fort Polk, La., as a security guard working with new recruits.

Luciano's brothers Joseph, Gennaro, and Nicholas and his sister Annette welcomed him home.

Patrick Zicaro Returns Home

Sergeant Patrick Zicaro of 244 North Belmont Avenue, Belleville, recently returned from Vietnam on a 40-day leave after serving a year in the war zone.

Zicaro, who received airborne training at Fort Benning, Ga., was awarded the silver star with a "V" for valor at Con Thien, May 8, 1967. He was also awarded the Vietnamese Cross for gallantry and was recommended for the Bronze Star.

Before joining the Army in June 1965, the sergeant worked as a proofer for the Newark News, upon graduating from Belleville High School in June, 1962.

Zicaro has now been assigned to Fort Bragg, N.C.

Leontyne Price To Offer Recital This January

Metropolitan Opera soprano Leontyne Price will sing with symphony orchestra in a Moe Septice Series Concert Saturday, Jan. 13 at Symphony Hall, Newark.

It will be one of the few concert appearances the star will make outside her performances with the Metropolitan this season.

Now at the peak of an illustrious career, Leontyne Price has been awarded more accolades than perhaps any living singer, including an unprecedented 42-minute ovation at her Metropolitan debut in Il Trovatore in 1961, and her selection as Cleopatra in Samuel Barber's opera Antony and Cleopatra premiered at the Metropolitan on its opening night at Lincoln Center last season.

Ten years before her Metropolitan debut the director of the Juilliard School of Music's opera department had commented, "We have the voice of a century." His words have been supported by Miss Price's achievements since.

Even before her Metropolitan debut, Miss Price had achieved international success in recitals and opera productions here and abroad. Her debut was made in Paris in 1952 in Virgil Thomson's "Four Saints in Three Acts."

'DRIVE AND GUTS' — These, Joe Carter PMC backfield coach says, are Joe Mossa's main attributes. The 163 pound half-back has carried 29 times for 110 yards. His coach's only regret is that he doesn't weigh 190 pounds. "Maybe it's just as well he doesn't weigh 190," the coach added. "The way Joe hits, at 190 pounds he'd be hurting people on every play."

PMC Coach: 'Mossa's Secret Is He Won't Go Down First Time He's Hit

Joe Mossa's only regret is that he has but 163 pounds to give to his college.

His college is the Pennsylvania Military College branch of PMC Colleges and when his 163 pounds are encased in football uniform and appropriate pads, Mossa qualifies as, pound for pound, one of the most effective Cadet runners in recent years.

"If only Joe weighed about 190 pounds," sighed head coach Ed Lawless after watching his pint-sized terror carry 29 times for 110 yards against Swarthmore College.

"Maybe it's just as well he doesn't weigh 190," Lawless added. "The way Joe hits, at 190 pounds, he'd be hurting people on every play."

Fans who saw Mossa rip the Swarthmore College line to shreds won't believe it, but Mossa never played varsity ball in high school because he had a heart murmur.

He outgrew the childhood defect and now the only heart problems connected with Mossa are the ones he causes in opposing linemen.

Upon enrolling at PMC in 1965, Mossa received a clean bill of health from physicians and immediately went out for the frosh football team. He was something less than an overnight sensation, alternating between the third and fourth strings.

Mossa moved up to the varsity as a sophomore, but still didn't attract much attention. What little action he saw was in the role of a punter.

At the start of drills this season, Mossa again was listed as the No. 3 left halfback. But fate stepped in — in the form of knee injuries to the two players ahead of him — and now you couldn't get Mossa out of the Cadet lineup with anything less than dynamite.

"Mossa's secret is that he won't go down the first time he's hit," Coach Lawless said. "Many times against Swarthmore, he'd hit the line and find the hole closed up. But Joe simply slid along the line until he found daylight and banged through for good yardage."

John J. Binkiewicz In Operation Wheeler

John Burke of 22 Laurel Court, Belleville, is among the 130 Montclair State College sophomores serving as tutors in all of Montclair's eleven elementary schools this fall as part of a course in child psychology. The project, directed by Dr. Jerome M. Seidman, professor of psychology and education, was started last year on a smaller scale and proved so helpful to both students and schools that it has been expanded this year.

Children in need of tutoring are identified by their teachers, and instruction is given, either individually or in small groups, in such subjects as reading, writing, arithmetic, social studies and science. During the semester tutors spend 23 to 30 clock hours in their assigned school, meeting their pupils at specified times, at least one a week. They are assisted by subject-matter specialists in the elementary schools.

Another Mossa booster is Joe Carter, PMC backfield coach and himself a former great Cadet halfback. "Joe's main attributes are drive and guts," Carter said. "Right now, he's a halfback running like a fullback. He hasn't learned to go sideways yet and pick his spots. All that will come in time. Remember, this is only his first season of football."

"And when Joe does learn," Carter added, "watch out!"

'One Helluva Runner' Is the Paganelli Label

Al Paganelli has done what everyone at Paterson State College has been expecting him to do ever since he came to the Wayne school in September, 1965.

Al has destroyed every Paterson State Cross-Country record in existence in leading his harrier mates to a 10-5 season and a third place finish in the NAIA District 31 Championships.

Breaking records is nothing new for the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Paganelli of 32 Dawson Street, Belleville. At Belleville High School Al teamed up with some of the greatest distance stars ever to run for BHS to break the standard for the two-mile relay (Don Saunders, Dave Grigoris, and the great Bob Boglione) were the other members of the relay team that Paganelli anchored. Al ran the half-mile on the 1 and 7/8 mile medley relay team that took first at the 1965 Big Ten Relays in a record time that erased Bloomfield's eight year-old mark.

Shedding the Blue and Gold of Belleville and donning the Black and Orange of Paterson State, Al broke the freshman record for the five mile jaunt. He was slowed in his sophomore year by a virus. But he was nothing less than sensational this past season.

Broke School Record

Every time out on the monstrous Paterson State course, he broke the Varsity school record. Al lowered the standard from 25:09 to a blazing 24:46 as he broke his own school record four times. The 24:46 established a new all-comers mark, wiping out the 24:55 set in 1966 by Jim Harris of Montclair State College.

Al continued on to win eleven of fifteen dual meets to set a new record for most wins in a season.

In the State College Championships, Al took fifth behind four Trenton State runners. In doing so he defeated champ, Jim Harris, for the first time in eleven meetings.

But it was in the NAIA District 31 Championships that Al stole the show. His fourth place finish qualified him for a trip to Omaha, Nebraska for the NAIA finals. Again he defeated Harris in head-to-head competition for the second straight time.

Al has garnered the PSC 1966 Most Valuable Performer award and seems to be a shoo-in to win it again.

With speed to compliment his already fantastic endurance, the 5'10", 130 pound junior has one more year to lower his own records. The consensus of opinion was best summed up by one brief comment: "He's one helluva runner!"

The first 1967-1968 parent-scout meeting of Troop 152 held recently was highlighted by numerous presentations of scouting awards and marks the beginning of another scouting season at Holy Family Church.

participated in summer camp advancement activities. Of the 18 awards, Nicholas Brendisi received seven; David Italiani, five; Tom Fulmer, two; Tom Roach, two and Sam Cesario, two.

Vitale, Robert Insera, Jim Fulmer and Philip Lovell.

In addition to the scouting awards, new positions within the troop were filled. ### Mrs. Senatore Explains Her Dumping Procedures To The Editor:

After reading a recent press release in the Newark News, my first reaction was to ignore it, because I felt, once again Belleville has made unfavorable headlines, showing inter-family squabbles and why?

However, after due deliberation, I felt that these unwarranted and grossly exaggerated untruths must be answered, in order that the People of Belleville be fairly and accurately appraised of the "TRUE FACTS" that accounted for this release.

Mr. Citizen, I ask you, would not the proper administrative procedure be to notify the Commissioner of Public Works if there be such a condition by way of a written complaint, not by a recent release. Should this condition really exist, should he not have requested in writing, that proper measures be taken to correct the situation and not make false public statements, desirous to himself?

The answer is simply this, Mr. Mercurio, had made his desires known to me that if and when an ordinance for a full time health officer was passed by the Board of Commissioners, "he" would like to be the "nominee" and asked me for support. In my answer to his seeking my vote, I informed him that in my opinion he did not have the proper credentials to fulfill the position which he seeks, and until he secured same, he could not expect my vote.

Like an angered child, who has been deprived of a toy, he set about to get even, not only with my department but forsook the best services for the taxpayers by his own selfishness.

This, I assure you was the primary reason for this uncalled for unfavorable release and not because he was interested in the welfare and image of the town.

I assure you, this again, proves honestly that the Director of this employees' department is allowing his employees the use of improper channels and expressing more and more his own inassurances, of how to conduct a department. Examining Mr. Mercurio's complaints and quote, The Department of Public Works does not allow to collect garbage, his very own department is responsible for this.

Is he giving our department credit for performing their department duties? The truth of the matter is that an alleged garbage matter he complains about was not placed there by Public Works Department. The true facts are as such, Mr. L. Duva, a Belleville resident, upon approach was asked by me, as Director of Public Works, and explained that if given the opportunity to give you, the citizens, faster, better and more efficient service and at a tremendous savings to the town, if we could be allowed to store our leaves from Monday to Thursday and remove on Friday.

G. Toto Active In State Credit Union League

George A. Toto has resided in town for the last 22 years. Educated in Newark and Bloomfield, he attended a management supervisor school. During the Second World War he acted as a defense job instructor. Toto has been employed by Walter Kidde and Company, Belleville since 1936 and is presently supervisor of inspection in the Aero - Space Division.

Married and the father of two, Toto is financial secretary of Local 146, UAW-CIO for 10 years; president of the Essex-West Madison Chapter of N.J. Credit Union League; a member of the Board of Directors of N. J. Credit Union League; treasurer of the Belleville Community Chest; co-chairman of the Clara Maass Hospital Building Fund Committee; and co-chairman of the committee for payroll deduction for donations for United Appeals, Belleville-Nutley area.

Bloomfield College Okays

Contract for construction of Bloomfield College's new science and classroom building has been awarded to the Rieffolo Construction Company of Belleville. Dr. Theodore A. Rath, president of the College, signed the contract, yesterday and construction is expected to start within the next two weeks, at the site, Liberty and Spruce Streets in Bloomfield.

BELLEVILLE LOT SURVEYED — Commissioner Mary Senatore, director of the Department of Public Works, surveys a lot which her department uses to store leaves and debris for weekly deposits to area dumps.

day to our specific dumping grounds, we would be able to save manpower, wear and tear on equipment, gasoline and get into the badly neglected areas, due to the neglect of the past administration, much faster. He agreed wholeheartedly, and understands our problems. I might add, Mr. Duva offered his land without additional cost to the town.

If this area in question, is a reservoir for vermin as Mr. Mercurio alleges, it shocks me to think, it took him five months to discover this condition, and allow such a condition, as he falsely states, to go by for the best interest, as he quotes, "The people of Belleville's welfare." The only logical conclusion on this matter is that either Mr. Mercurio has not visited the area in question during his duties as sanitary inspector in the past five months, or the condition he falsely describes is not as he describes it to be. I believe the latter of the two is the more truthful.

In closing, I might add that our neighboring town of Nutley has been following the same practices of storing in town weekly and then removing the leaves. For many years this practice has been going on, I'm sure their sanitary inspector is dutiful and has the best interest of its citizens in mind. It is indeed, a sad thought, when realizing the time and effort exerted by the Directors of all the other departments (other than this particular Director and employee), that only efficiency, service, economy are our only main concern, to come up with ideas, to relieve the heavy burdens placed on the taxpayers and give them the fastest service for the least monies, and to find a director and employee can only concern themselves with only their own selfish satisfaction is more important than you, the taxpayers.

Commissioner Mary V. Senatore

Hunters Will Shoot Deer On Saturday

Selected New Jersey hunters will have an extra chance to bag a deer this Saturday, according to Commissioner Robert A. Roe of the Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Over 14,000 permits were issued to licensed hunters to participate in the special hunt.
Permit holders were chosen from nearly 40,000 applicants by random selection conducted by computer.

In addition, farmers were granted permits by applying within a specified time period.
These permits were issued only to members of the family occupying a farm meeting
State agricultural standards.

Each Special Permit holder may shoot one deer of either sex in the County for which the permit was issued. A Farmer Permit holder may shoot one deer on his own farm. A shotgun, loaded with buckshot is the only legal weapon.
Hunting hours are 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.

With two exceptions, only permit holders may carry firearms in the woods and fields on December 16. The exceptions are waterfowl hunters, who must have a Federal Duck Stamp, and hunters on licensed semi-wild or commercial preserves, who must stay within the licensed area. These hunters may carry only legal bird shot.

Fish and Game Conservation Officers and volunteer deputies will be out in force to insure compliance with conservation and safety regulations. They will be especially alert to insure that only permit holders are in the field, that they hunt only in the proper area that all deer are reported properly.

Any deer bagged during the special season must be immediately tagged with the temporary possession tag attached to the Permit and taken to a State checking station before 7 p.m. A possession tag will be issued by the Bureau of Wildlife Management at the checking station.

Tuberculosis Campaign
Gets Underway in Essex
