Greco Scoffs Attacks from Child Care Center Supervisor Locally

BY CARL LEVINE

"All I can tell you is that Mr. Clancy never met with the Board of Education, the superintendent of business or myself, and he never described in any fashion the program connected with the development of any child care center," responded Superintendent of Schools Anthony J. Greco to remarks made by Gerald Clancy, director of the Essex Youth Commission against the board of education while in an interview with this Belleville Times reporter.

"I can tell you though," continued Superintendent Greco, "that Mr. Clancy used profanity in the strongest fashion to me during the course of a telephone conversation."

"Why the generation is angered I do not have the slightest idea. He never explained to the board who would supply the transportation, who would clean up, who would service the food and most of all who would provide the necessary insurance coverage for the children while away from their homes.

"The board at first was interested in the center program, which this community could use, after we talked with Mrs. Patricia Diana, a member of the Belleville Community Council's committee formed to delve into the possibilities of having such a center," concluded Superintendent Greco.

STILL ANOTHER VERSION

"Last May I brought my offer to the state and federal government for information," stated Mrs. Patricia Diana, "to begin a child care center. Then I brought it to the board of education who said they would look it over. During this time I sought help through the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) here on Washington Avenue."

"I gave Mr. Clancy a copy of the proposal and was told by him that he would look into the possibilities of sponsoring it. He added that he could possibly get federal grants to start the program," added Mrs. Diana.

"This was in November," continued Mrs. Diana, "I put it aside because I had to attend insurance school five times a week in New Brunswick and I didn't have the necessary time to donate to the format."

"During this time Mr. Clancy, without any word to me, sent a copy of the proposal to your newspaper for printing, possibly thinking it would get persons interested. At which time no funds were allocated for the center, the board of education was not informed and there was no insurance agency hired to cover the children."

"I will say a few persons are very upset over that particular type of action," concluded the committee woman.

Belleville School Board Gives Child Care Center 'a Run-around', Clancy Protests

GERALD J. CLANCY

"I've been getting a pretty unfair run-around from the Belleville Board of Education including Anthony Greco, Mike Rosamilia and Harold Dufford for too long of a time; the problems that I am encountering should be laid in their laps," angrily remarked Gerald J. Clancy, director of the Child Care Center, 207 Washington Avenue.

"I've been trying to get it across to the board members as well as other town politicians, with no avail, that the town needs a child care center but all I've been getting in return is nothing but aggravation," continued Clancy from behind his office desk.

Ready to open the center anytime after the new year, it will be geared to handle children ages two through six, youngsters of working mothers who have no one to care for them after school hours.

The aims of the center is to provide supervision for these children either by mothers or third year qualified college students. Milk and cookies will be distributed to the children during the course of time spent at the center.

The children will be picked up at their schools and taken directly to the designated center.

Hoping to acquire the basement rooms of the Silver Lake First Baptist Church, Clancy says that the church's pastor, Rev. Benedetto Pascale has done much for the town of Belleville and is willing to help out once again.

For the care and supervision that each child will receive, their mothers must pay in advance $5 a week, and guarantee that the children will be picked up at 6 p.m. sharp. Adds Clancy, "I'm interested in the children of women that actually work and are self-sustaining. I do not want women that bounce from one job

Planners Appeal

Chamber of Commerce Hears Belleville Land Use Discussion

Miss Grace Harris, executive director of the Passaic Valley Citizens Planning Association and Edward Heibert, local Planning Board chairman, appeared before the Local Chamber of Commerce this week to win that organization's support for the land use portion of the proposed new master plan, which will be unveiled for public speculation January 25 at the high school.

And while the chamber members made no official stand of approval of the land use plan at its initial presentation they were extremely sympathetic toward the statements and suggestions made by Miss Harris.

According to Harry French, chamber director, there are strong indications the plan will be endorsed by the businessmen as an overall prospectus which would serve to provide needed parking for the town's major business areas, and as a plan which would prevent portions of the community from deteriorating over the next 25 years. It would also appear, French said, that he would be named as the spokesman speaking in favor of the land use proposals.

These early indications of support are anticipated despite the fact the town planners, their consultants and the chamber members are expecting widespread opposition to the plan from many individual property owners who might be affected by the land use recommendations. But the planners are confident that those residents eager in the orderly development of the community will support the proposal.

One of the undefined portions of the plan, which may become a subject of scrutiny by residents, is the creation of a multiple residential zone. This may mean, according to Miss Harris, more garden apartments in Belleville, or else high rise apartments. She said there are many "excellent sites" for high rise units in town. She was quick to add, however, that high rise apartments have not been a topic for discussion yet with town planners.

And while no school enrollment forecast has been made by her firm regarding garden or high rise apartments, she said that high rise structures would produce "a tremendous ratable and would add to the community's purchasing power."

She also insisted that they would not add much to the local school population.

An important point made by Miss Harris was her hope to complete the comprehensive development plan for Belleville and have it accepted by the planners by the end of 1968.

The planning board recently met with the Commissioners to present the results of a year's study to update portions of the master plan originally prepared in 1962. A subsequent meeting the town planners discussed changes suggested by members of the Commission and agreed on the final draft of the land use plan.

Maps are now prepared for prints by the board's consultants. Prior to the public hearing, the proposal map will be published in The Belleville Times and colored copies of the map will be available for distribution at Town Hall.

Chairman Heibert stressed the fact that the land use plan is to serve as a guide for the future development of the community. It does not mean that changes in land use shown on the plan will be accomplished immediately. The plan is designed to be put into effect over the next 25 years.

There are no immediate plans for urban renewal projects made in connection with the present proposal.

The land use plan which will be the subject of the public hearing is one of the key elements of the master plan. Later studies and hearings will deal with traffic and circulation plan and a community facilities plan. The major purpose of the land use plan is to designate which areas of the community are to be developed in various land uses.

The master plan should not be confused with the zoning ordinance which is a much more specific and binding document. The zoning ordinance will prescribe the use of each lot as well as other controls such as lot size, setback requirements, off-street parking requirements, etc. The planning board will begin work on amending the zoning ordinance as soon as the land use (Continued On Page 9)

Mayor Smith Attacks Strumolo's Directorship of Public Affairs

"The time has come when the taxpayers of our town will be best served by a complete review of the actions of Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo, Director of the Department of Public Affairs, especially since we are, as your Board of Commissioners, making our initial preparations for the 1968 Municipal Budget," Mayor Kenneth D. Smith said this week.

"Commissioner Strumolo's activities as the director of Public Affairs, including his recent actions regarding the position of health officer, are not facts which lead us to wonder what interest he has in the taxpayers of our town."

"Prior to July 8, 1967 and following the selection of the present Commissioners on May 9, 1967 by the voters of our community, agreement was tentatively reached for the assignment of Strumolo to the Department of Public Works. During that 60 day period (Continued On Page 9)

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

In order to get the best color rendition from a color set, it is very important to have the proper lighting, otherwise the colors look faded and washed out.

The best light in the room seems to be from a lamp that throws the light towards the ceiling, from where it is diffused all over the room. The worst is to have a lamp throwing the light directly on the screen. It is also annoying if the lamp reflects in the screen.

In a bright room, during the day, the shades should be pulled down. One always should have some light in the room when looking at color or black and white TV. It causes eyestrain to look at TV in a completely dark room.

Any color set has the same kind and amount of controls as a b-w TV set, and it has 2 more, the color control and the tint control. If the color control is turned all the way to the left, there is no color. This is often a good point to start from. If it appears that the picture is not right. Very slowly one turns this knob towards the right until the desired color intensity is there. The tint control, if the set is adjusted correctly by a technician at the time of installation, should go to green if turned to one extreme and to purple, if turned to the other side of the control. The best setting is when you have "flesh tone". If you have this right it also is a good idea once in a while to turn the brightness control one way or the other. This has a great bearing on color rendition. You will be able to get very pleasant pastel colors if you turn the brightness down to a certain level. Very few people try this, but you should. One can always turn the controls, any one of them, back to where they were before one started to experiment. Try it and you may get a pleasant surprise.

We service what we sell.

Dennis F. Carey Stepping Down

After 14 years as chairman of the Essex County Democrat organization Dennis F. Carey served notice last Thursday that he would not run for reelection to the leadership post when his term ends next April. For all purposes and intent Carey's announcement virtually amounted to a resignation.

Carey has been one of New Jersey's most colorful political leaders. His leadership ability is reflected in the unchallenged fact that he took an insolvent Democrat party, bereft of money and jobs, and made it into a giant killer.

Carey has been more than a competent leader — he has demonstrated qualities that many would-be leaders would be hard-put to recognize — integrity and heart.

Carey's resignation statement is based upon the condition of his health. Carey has learned what many men before him well knew — that politics is a demanding and exhausting business. Although only 64 years old, Carey is bothered with chronic bronchitis, a cardiovascular disease, impaired liver function, and cataracts in both eyes.

With all this physical disability one wonders how Carey has been able to carry on as well as he has.

While we can't and don't share Carey's political philosophy we do admire his leadership ability, bulldog courage, and unflinching loyalty.

Carey is one of New Jersey's smartest political leaders of our time. Next year a good Democrat will take over Carey's title but there is no one around today who can replace him.

Carey's departure from the political scene in Essex County is the best news Republicans have had in a long, long time, even better news than last November's victory.

In his well-earned retirement we wish for Carey good health to enjoy his his leisure time. F.A.O.

The Last Month: December

The last month of 1967 is upon us. The year is almost over and here comes Christmas again. The years go faster and faster as we grow older and all who read this editorial are growing older!

What have you accomplished, personally, during the year? What good have you been able to do during the year? Whom have you been able to help? What have you learned? What have you tried to do, to broaden yourself and better understand others?

What have we done in 1967 to ease the plight of those less fortunate than ourselves? These are the questions to be asked as the year comes to its last month. These are things we can do to bring happiness in the true Christmas spirit.

Holiday Accidents Take Their Toll

It is estimated that between five hundred and one thousand Americans will celebrate the Christmas and New Year's Day holiday period by snuffing out their lives in automobile accidents.

So much is written about safe driving that it is almost repetitious for us to repeat our suggestion that all drivers exercise care during the holiday season. We can only add this to our oft-repeated warnings:

The holiday season in December comes at a time when daylight consumes the shortest period of the twenty-four hour day, and when icing conditions and bad weather are often experienced. Therefore, poor visibility, short daylight hours and congested traffic and highways invite you to become one of the five hundred to one thousand Americans who will be killed during the holiday season this year.

If you are not one of this number of fatalities, you might be one of a far far greater number of casualties, many of whom lose an arm, or a leg, or their eyesight, or who are cut and scarred for life. This would be a very poor way to celebrate the holidays, and we suggest that all citizens who drive stay off the highways during this period whenever possible.

Look Up At The Sky!

The nights are getting colder and are often clear. There is much to learn outside — if you study the heavens briefly. This time of year is an excellent time to study stars because, beginning in December, the brightest of all the stars begins to grace the southeastern sky.

During the last month of the year the Big Dipper drags its tail along the northern horizon, as low as it ever gets (those in the southern part of the United States sometimes cannot even see the end stars of the handle, which disappear below the horizon.)

On a clear night, at about 9:00 p.m., go outside and look up at the sky. Almost due north you will see the Big Dipper, with its handle near the horizon, and its two cupliip stars pointing to the North Star. The North Star is the end of the handle of the Little Dipper. In looking at the cup of the Little Dipper, you will have your eyes on an area where another major constellation can be outlined — Draco the Dragon.

This constellation has a long tail, beginning with stars between the cup of the Big Dipper and the Little Dipper, and extending around the cup of the Little Dipper on up above the horizon, then sharply down again to the four-star, squarish head of Draco.

Hunters-A Special Word to You

This is a note to hunters in this area, to be heeded by all sportsmen. It concerns the preservation of wild life.

Too often in the past we have heard hunters boasting of killing more than their quota, of using unsportsmanlike methods to bring back game.

Those who persist in violating legal limits are guilty on two counts: the legal count and the sportsmanship count.

Naturally, it's impossible for game wardens and federal officials to discover every violation, especially when many occur on land owned by those breaking the law.

This editorial is an appeal to sportsmen to observe limits and the law. In the long run, such a policy will pay dividends to every hunter.

Trustees OK Renovations To Local School Buildings

The Board of Education approved a number of physical renovations to buildings in the school system at a recent meeting.

The Board appointed George Marcelli as head custodian at School 10 for the period January 1, and only through June 30, 1968, at a prorated annual contractual salary of $5,915.

The Board then confirmed an order to Sports Films, Inc., Paterson, for basketball training films, including camera, operator, processing and delivery in the total amount of $200.

Also confirmed was an order to Star Wire Works to furnish and install three wire mesh window guards and one wire mesh door guard at the Junior High School in accordance with its quotation in the total amount of $225.

The Board confirmed an order to McCabe Boiler Works, Inc., Newark, to furnish all labor, material, equipment and insurance to fabricate and erect into position one steel stack atop the brick chimney at the Belleville Senior High School in accordance with its quotation in the total amount of $1800.

The Board awarded an order to Cooperative Cleaning Plant, Inc., Irvington, for cleaning and reconditioning football equipment in accordance with the advertisement and specifications prepared by the Business Administrator and its low bid proposal, dated December 11, 1967, in the total amount of $1,275.70.

The Board of Education authorized the Business Administrator to advertise for bid proposals for paint to be used in the Maintenance Department for the balance of the 1967-68 school year.

Resident Believes Commission Ought to Set Policy on Bidding

To the Editor, Times-News:

Section 12 of an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance Creating the Office of a Central Purchasing Agent and a Committee of Standards and Specifications for the Town of Belleville, providing for... and, defining, regulating and prescribing the functions thereof," read in part, as follows:

"The said Purchasing Agent... shall purchase such materials, supplies, equipment and other items needed... from the lowest responsible bidder, after due advertisement, as may be directed by the Board of Commissioners and as required by law... Advertisement shall not be necessary in case of purchase of small items of less than One Thousand ($1000.00) Dollars, or where the Board of Commissioners shall lawfully direct otherwise."

Belleville citizens are aware that under the Council-Manager form of government, (recently and popularly abandoned by the voters). Section 12 of the above mentioned ordinance was ignored. I am not familiar as to whether any of the former members of the original Board of Commissioners had passed any ordinance amending or deleting the part of Section 12 that I refer to above, nor am I familiar with any subsequent local legislation rescinding the entire ordinance during the time of the Council-Manager rule here in Belleville. Inasmuch as our local ordinance requires our local governing body, would it not still be the requirements that our Purchasing Agent publicly advertise for bids in accordance with our local ordinance.

Having had no direct answer to this question, during the reign of the Council-Manager government, I now make this inquiry of our present Board of Commissioners. I initigated this question after reading a Newark Evening News article (April 20, 1966), by council resolution, the rule requiring public bidding on "items over $1000.00," to award a bid on a contract for workmen's compensation, without public bidding. I know the clipping I enclose does refer to insurance, which terms were deleted in Belleville's ordinance by an amendment ordinance No. 1367, passed June 28th, 1955. In the case of the City of Orange, it appears the $1000.00 rule waived by resolution, only was to cover the specific insurance contract, and that all other items still require public advertising for bids for items over $1000.00. This still may be the case here in Belleville. I want to make it clear to our Board of Commissioners that I am not inquiring as to the insurance bidding, but to requirements of bidding as reflected in our ordinance having reference to all other items over $1000.00.

Respectfully yours,
(Mrs. Norman S. Hood)

Shoemaker Holly Tree
Decorates State Parkway

The Garden State Parkway is all dressed up for Christmas.

The dressing showed among other things the red and green lighting of the plus-300-year Shoemaker Holly tree in the middle of the Parkway down South, and the readiness of its field forces to keep the toll road safe and clear for holiday travel.

LIFELONG GIFT

Of every 20 children born in the underdeveloped countries, 20 are likely to die in infancy because of hunger or effects of malnutrition. Another seven may suffer permanent mental or physical damage. Dollars sent to the CARE Food Crusade, New York 10016, provide daily meals to give undernourished youngsters the chance to grow into normal, self-supporting adults.

Belleville Wrestlers Begin Season Next Thursday Afternoon

Coach Jim Silvestri and his Varsity wrestling team are preparing for an active season. With 12 matches planned beginning January 4 in a home game at 3:30 p.m. against Barringer High School, the Belleville grapplers are toughening up and planning their strategy for the season opener.

Belleville is expected to do well with their wrestling squads this year. Last year the varsity unit came in second in their district. The team was overcome by Essex Catholic High School.

32 Districts

There are 32 districts in the state which form four regions. Should Belleville at the end of the winter season win a district title, the team will vie for placement in the district championships. Winning over the districts would mean a chance at a regional and finally a state crown.

But right now the Belboys are interested in winning their first match with Barringer High School. Yesterday Belleville played a Christmas Tournament event.

There are eight teams competing in the district in which Belleville plays.

Two seniors serve as co-captains on the Belleville varsity squad. They are Barry Peirce, a muscular heavyweight and John Perraino who is 106 pounds.

Wrestling in Belleville has

PRACTICE MATCH — Preparing for their wrestling squads have been practicing in opening game this Thursday Belleville's their auxiliary gym at the high school.

Full Time Job

He was caught by its spell despite earlier interests in football. But he abandoned those once he undertook the wrestling assignment. "I was asked to help as assistant football coach, but I found wrestling to be a fulfilling and full time job."

The objective in amateur wrestling is to win the match by pinning both shoulders of the opponent to the mat for a period of two seconds or, failing to accomplish this, to earn more points than the opponent.

There are two means of determining the winner of a match: a pin and a decision. A pin is scored as five points for the winner's team. Any pin terminates the match at any time, and the man making the pin is declared the winner. If no pin occurs the match can be won by outpointing the opponent. This is a decision and is scored as three points for the winner's team. In the case of a draw, two points are awarded each team.

Three Periods

If no pin occurs the match will last six minutes, divided into three periods of two minutes. In the first two minutes both wrestlers start in an upright position trying to get control of his opponent and trying to bring him down to the mat, thus scoring a "takedown" which is worth two points. To start the second period one wrestler has the option of taking the defensive or offensive position. The offensive position allows the one wrestler to kneel over his opponent who is also kneeling on the mat. The offensive wrestler has the responsibility of staying on top and trying to get a hold with which he can keep his opponent's shoulders on the mat for two seconds, thus pinning and ending the match. If the defender escapes from his defensive position he earns one point for an "escape" and if he in turn can gain control of his opponent he scores two points for a "reversal". If no pin has occurred in either of the first two periods, the opponents change the position of offensive and defense to begin the third period.

DEFINITIONS

Takedown — from a neutral or standing position, wrestler takes opponent to mat and gains control.

Escape — Defensive wrestler gains a neutral position.

Reversal — Defensive wrestler gains control without first gaining a neutral position.

BELLEVILLE WRESTLERS — Coach Jim Silvestri stands with his Varsity Wrestling Team. The squad played a tournament game yesterday. The grapplers first scheduled match will be held next Thursday.

Near Fall — Situation in which offensive wrestler has control of his opponents in a pinning combination, with both shoulders held in contact with the mat for one full second.

Predicament — Offensive wrestler has control of his opponent in a pinning combination with both shoulders held within four inches of the mat for one second, or one shoulder on the mat and the other shoulder within a 45 degree angle of the mat for one second.

Time Advantage — The difference in time accumulated by each wrestler in a position of advantage. One point is scored for the wrestler with one full minute or more.

Stalling — Having a position without making an honest attempt to secure a fall, or backing away in the standing position; also general delay or avoiding progress of match.

Appeal Scheduled For Health Aide

A hearing before the State Civil Service Commission is scheduled this week for Gerson L. Ram of Cedar Grove, former health officer of Belleville, who was removed from office.

Ram, a full-time chemistry professor at Newark College of Engineering, contends that his removal was in violation of Civil Service statutes.

Ram held the $8,000-a-year post for four years. He was fired following a departmental hearing Dec. 6, in which he was found guilty of failing to heed a directive and of being derelict in his duties.

Ram had been suspended twice by Commissioner of Public Affairs Vincent T. Strumolo before being removed from office. The dispute centers about a departmental order that Strumolo gave Ram, setting forth his hours.

Ram contends that he was hired under the old council-manager form of government and had an agreement with the then Town Manager John R. Burnett which specified that he could set his own hours.

The directive stipulating the hours "is an invalid and illegal action without just cause or legal foundation and is arbitrary, capricious and without any legal justification," reads the petition of appeal filed for Ram by Emil Oxfeld, Newark attorney.

Ram is asking for a reversal of the judgment ordering him removed and for full back pay.

Neutral — Position in which neither wrestler has control.

Control — Situation in which a contestant exercises and maintains restraining power over his adversary.

State Defense Contract Office Has New Chief

Colonel James Root, USAF, has been named District Chief, Newark District, Defense Contract Administration Services Region, New York, it has been announced. He succeeds Colonel Robert A. Green, USAF, who recently retired.

The Newark District, with offices at 240 Route 22, Springfield, has operational defense contract responsibility for Hudson, Bergen, Passaic, Essex, Union, Monmouth, Middlesex, Somerset, Morris, Sussex, Warren and Huntingdon Counties in New Jersey, and Richmond County in New York.

Colonel Root, a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., previously was assigned as Director of Procurement and Production, Air Training Command with headquarters at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, encompassing 18 Air Force bases throughout the country.

Decision — If no fall has resulted after expiration of the 3 periods, the wrestler who has scored the greatest number of points provided by the individual match points system is the winner.

Draw — If a draw exists after 6 minutes of wrestling two points are awarded to each

Nuptial Mass In St. Mary's Unites Miss Eileen Clark, Craig A. Ross

MRS. CRAIG A. ROSS
Former Miss Eileen Clark

St. Mary's Church, Nutley, was the setting December 16 for the wedding of Miss Eileen Marie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome J. Clark of 17 Centre Street, Nutley to Craig Allan Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ross of 71 Jefferson Street, Belleville.

The Rev. John Golding celebrated the Nuptial Mass. A reception followed at Parrillo's Restaurant, Belleville.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore an Empire style, A-line gown of lace over satin fashioned with a round neckline, pointed sleeves and a shoulder train.

Her shoulder length veil was held by a white satin bow and she carried a prayerbook with white roses.

Miss Lorraine Clark was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids included the Misses Joy and Marion Ross of Belleville, sisters of the groom and Miss Dianne D'Onofrio of Nutley.

The attendants were in full length gowns of pink crepe and wine velvet topped by wine velvet coats. Headpieces were wine bows with short veils and they carried pink carnations.

John Gobee of Lyndhurst served as best man. Ushering were Fred Iannani of Belleville and Neil Healey and George Hribar of Long Island, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Clark was in a street length crepe dress of peacock blue with matching accessories. Her corsage was of blue tipped white orchids. The groom's mother chose a yellow brocade dress with silver accessories. Her corsage was of yellow tipped white orchids.

Mrs. Ross is a graduate of Nutley High School.

Mr. Ross attended Newark College of Engineering and is presently in the Navy stationed at Newport Rhode Island, where the couple will make their home.

GOLDEN CELEBRATION

Maybe November 26 wasn't anything particularly special to you, but it certainly was to Allen and Alma Current of 325 Stephens Street. That was the date of their golden wedding anniversary. Before going any further, let's wish them the best of anniversary wishes. Now you all must admit, that 50 years of marriage is indeed a reason to celebrate and so that's what the Currents did December 1. Their two sons and daughters-in-law, Allen and Marian Current Jr. and Robert and Joan Current were hosts to their parents and thus were the Sr. Currents feted for their golden wedding. The group spent the evening at the Meadowbrook, Cedar Grove, enjoying dinner and show. Alma of course had a white orchid and Allen sported a carnation in his lapel. A highlight of the evening occurred when a surprise cake appeared for the enjoyment of all. The maitre'd supplied the table with a round of drinks on the house in honor of the occasion. It was slightly after the bewitching hour that one extra happy couple surrounded by their family headed back to Belleville.

ROOTING SEASON

The recent Army - Navy game had many Bellevillites in the grandstands rooting for their favorite team. Among them were the Paul Simpsons with their Nutley neighbors and relations, the John Simpsons. The foursome enjoyed the game immensely, partly due to the fact that their seats near the goalposts made the action easier to follow. Not sure which team the Simpsons were cheering toward, it's just good to know that they all had a good time.

Congratulations to Diane Rappa of 28 Center St., our town. Diane was second runnerup in the 1968 Essex County Junior Miss Pageant that was held the end of November in Nutley High School. Her many qualifications that helped her win her trophy include; being a member of the National Honor Society, secretary of the Student Council, one of the Baker's Dozen, a member of the Telespan Society and quite a few others as well. The 17 year old senior student is certainly a teen, any town should

High School Students Receive Helpful Advice from Graduates

'WORKING CAN WAIT' — Explains Phil Rinaldi, one of the 1967 Belleville High School graduates who returned to BHS to lend advice to current seniors at the annual Alumni

Tea. Rinaldi recommended college over an early career choice as he jostles Rich San Filippo, a former three-letter star at BHS and current Montclair State freshman.

college students answer the questions of the seniors.

The questions covered many areas pertinent for entering students into college. One of the questions asked was "In what ways do you find college different from high school?" Bob Santin, who has been elected president of the freshman class at Montclair State replied, "They don't have morning announcements as they do at Belleville High, and unless you take an active interest in college activities you may get lost socially and academically."

Sandy Muscara who is currently attending Dayton University in Dayton, Ohio, said, "You don't get much sleep.

You have to budget your time." Thomas Barton attending Brandywine Junior College, Wilmington, Delaware stated, "A junior college is easy to get into, but you have to work hard to stay in." Philip Rinaldi who is working in industry said, "I would have gone to college if my grades had been better."

It would be better to go to college after high school rather than working immediately because you'll be working all your life anyway. Don't waste your time in high school by not studying."

Michael Villagio is currently working, but plans to further his education. Mike said, "I would recommend you work a year before going to college."

Awards, donated by the Student Council were presented to the boy and girl graduates who came from the most distant college to attend the Alumni Reunion.

The awards were presented to Linda Collins from Texas College for Women, Denton, Texas and Donald Basile from Colorado State University, Fort Collins, Colorado. Senior members of the Key Club under the supervision of Angelo Corino, President served as the Reception Committee.

Mayor Smith

Strumolo spent much of his time while he was still a councilman under the Council-Manager form of government planning for his role as the director of Public Works.

He went so far as to arrange for the appointment of five citizens as replacements within the department, those arrangements including filing the necessary civil service forms with the Department for work on the morning of July 10th, 1967.

"Further, the commissioners-elect were shocked to learn that Strumolo, many weeks before his inauguration as a member of the Board of Commissioners, was securing the improvement of a number of streets throughout the town. This action without benefit of study by his fellow commissioners for the necessary raising of funds to authorize such improvements, was unheard of and indicative of his complete disregard of his duties as a commissioner.

"I, personally, spoke with Strumolo in an attempt to have him await his being placed in office so that our new form of government could operate in the interest of all taxpayers but all to no avail," Smith said. "As the result of his unwillingness to curb his pre-inauguration activities, it was decided that Strumolo should be assigned to the Department of Public Affairs."

Commission Budget

"The first duty of the Board of Commissioners under our new form of government was the preparation of a 'commission budget' to be set up from the balance placed in our hands by the previous council manager form of government. This, of course, required diligent study in order that the citizens would receive the best services with the monies remaining for our use. Without waiting for information as to the distribution of the monies available for the various departments, Mr. Strumolo 'assumed' he was entitled to the balance set aside for the divisions of his department by the council-manager government.

"In his desire to go ahead without a study of the financial situation Strumolo hired the services of another Sanitary Inspector for his department as well as a Health Department Trainee and a Clerk. Monies for such additional services not being provided in the commission budget, the Commissioner had no alternative but to discontinue the employment of those employees. In fact, I believe the employee's involved discontinued their employment because of the fact they were not being paid for their service.

"Shortly thereafter, Commissioner Strumolo commenced his actions against Gerson L. Ram, Health Officer, who was serving on a part-time basis under the council-manager form of government. Commissioner Strumolo and his employees were well aware of Dr. Ram's position — that he was a full-time professor at the Newark College of Engineering and had been granted permission to perform his duties as Health Officer so as not to conflict with his professorship. Nevertheless, the Commissioner set up a duty schedule for Dr. Ram which was impossible to be complied with and the Commissioner well knew this fact. In this manner Dr. Ram was removed from his office and we are now confronted with another legal battle. Needless to say this situation could have been realized in a business-like manner and without the necessity of a prolonged situation.

"Commissioner Strumolo has now appointed a South Orange doctor for the position of Health Officer at a salary of $11,500, without first amending the ordinance pertaining to salaries for all employees. The present ordinance salary for the position is $5,000 to $8,000, with Dr. Ram having received an annual salary of $6,500. The Commissioner has widely proclaimed his intention of securing State Health Aid which will pay the difference in the salary for this position. He does not, however, tell the citizens that he has agreed with the state to employ the services of another Sanitary Inspector, a Deputy Registrar Vital Statistics and a Clerk. In truth, I am informed the clerk has already been placed on the payroll. All these positions together with those existing in that department amount to a large amount of tax dollars.

"The commissioner, nevertheless, is intent on spending some $43,000 in order to obtain $15,000 from the State Health Aid. He does not consider it important to question the possibility of the next Legislature's failure to provide funds for State Health Aid. What happens in that case? The taxpayers of Belleville will be saddled with an additional $43,000 payroll.

"Finally, I have stated that Commissioner Strumolo has attempted to pay the new health officer a salary of $11,500 per annum without an amendment to the present salary ordinance, to permit such payment. Payment has been stopped as the result of an opinion of the town attorney. Does Commissioner Strumolo accept the situation? No. I have been reliably informed that a payroll will be submitted by the Department of Public Affairs showing a salary for the new health officer at $8,000 per annum and will include the necessary hours of 'overtime service' to attain a $11,500 salary for the position. How long are we supposed to countenance the operation of one department by subterfuge?

"In conclusion, I intend to request that immediate study be given to the entire situation. The citizens of our town are entitled to efficient government by their elected officials and they should never be placed in a position where they must sit idly by and observe the sudden necessity for additional employees in a department which for many years was efficiently administered. For many years, Belleville enjoyed the services of one of the state's leading health officers. Why all the furor now?"

"Let it be clearly understood that no Commissioner is in disagreement as to the necessity of employment of a full-time Health Officer for our town. Strenuous objection, however, is made to the method used to accomplish the purpose by the employment of three additional employees with a total cost of $43,000 being used to obtain $15,000 of State Health Aid. Such a method is obviously ridiculous in every respect and beyond the reasoning of intelligent taxpayers who must pay the bill," Smith said.

According to Clancy, the center, which is under direct supervision of the Essex County Youth Commission, should in no way be hindered by the board of education, for in the long run the community will not have to pay a single cent towards its up keep.

The mothers will pay the bulk of expenses; if and when classrooms should be used for space the janitors who tend the school work to nine in the evening so they will not have to receive any overtime expenses; the buses are paid for by the commission; any furniture needed is donated by interested and understanding businesses.

"So again I ask you," declared Clancy, "why have I encountered trouble from the Board of Education? I must have tried numerous times to speak to Dufford, superintendent of business but he never answers any of my letters.

"What I think I have to do now is make complete fools out of them all, and if that don't help I'll try the politicians next," concluded Clancy.

Ruth Hack; secretary, Mrs. Lillian Metcalf; tellers, Mrs. Mary Montone and Mrs. Grace Napolitano; assistant tellers, Mrs. Ethel Spatz, Mrs. Barbara Pleni and Mrs. Viola Hickler.

The Board of Education at its recent meeting authorized the use of voting machines at the annual election.

The Secretary was authored to notify the town clerk that the last day to register for the annual school election is Thursday, January 4, 1968.

The Board of Education will not mail or make available sample ballots, and it directed the secretary to see that the election is advertised as required by law; to post the notice of the election on each schoolhouse; and to make all necessary arrangements for the election.

The polls will be open from 2 to 9 p.m. or as much longer as may be necessary to enable all present to cast their ballots.

plan is adopted.

Additional public hearings will then be held before the planning board and the Commission.

The present proposal divides the town into nine land use categories. There are three types of residential use: single-family, two-family and multi-family. There are also three types of commercial use: office, general commercial and special commercial. There are industrial area and public and semi-public uses.

The ancient Phoenicians and other eastern civilizations used stones to crack whole wheat for a cereal food they called "bulghul." Today, bulgar wheat processed by modern automated methods is one of the nourishing staples CARE uses in its feeding programs for the world's hungry people.

Community Fund Drive Lags Here

Theron L. Marsh, general chairman of this year's United Community Fund campaign, has announced that the drive has reported a total of its $3,703, 516 or 93 percent of its $4,000,000 goal. This amount is $145,000 or 4 percent more than the $3,558,000 finally audited from last year's campaign. The drive's goal was originally $3,875,000 but was raised to meet the increased needs of the voluntary agencies in the Essex-West Hudson area.

Marsh commended the thousands of volunteers who worked on the drive "who took this challenge seriously and did their best to increase contributions. As a result, many firms promoted Fair Share giving among their employees for the first time. In addition, a number of leading business firms increased their corporate gifts in an aggregate of $85,000."

The following totals were reported by campaign divisions: major gifts, $1,471,305 or 96 percent of quota; employees and executives, $1,366,374 or 96 percent; professional, $64,500 or 92 percent; schools, $82,000 or 91 percent; Oranges, Maplewood, Irvington, $407,112 or 93 percent; city employees, $21,952 or 75 percent; government employees, $40,370 or 96 percent; West Hudson, $29,800 or 96 percent; Nutley, $28,000 or 93 percent; metropolitan business, $85,000 or 93 percent; civic, $91,103 or 100 percent; Belleville, $4,000 or 50 per cent Newark Residential, $12,000 or 40 percent.

In addition to its food aid, during 1967 CARE delivered $119,000 worth of food-production equipment to help hungry people feed themselves.

Essex County College Begins Middle States Accreditation Process

The first step in accreditation for Essex County College came recently when the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools granted the two-year public community college correspondent status.

Correspondent status is the preliminary procedure in the organization's process for accreditation, and, as defined by the Commission "attests that an institution has given evidence of sound planning and of having the resources to implement its plans, has indicated its intent to work toward accreditation, and appears to have the potential for attaining this goal: correspondent status does not imply or assure eventual accreditation by Middle States."

Middle States is an independent regional association that admits institutions to membership through a process of evaluation and accreditation. Its regional membership includes the areas of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Canal Zone, and the Virgin Islands. A grateful Electric Glassheat user says:

"IT'S A COMFORTABLE HEAT THAT GLASSHEAT GIVES

Just like SUNSHINE in Spring!"

"...IT'S HEALTHFUL HEAT, TOO;
WE HAD FEWER COLDS LAST

WINTER and everyone felt fine" she continued.
No wonder their health was improved. Electric Glassheat heats without flame, so there are no toxic fumes or vapor to pollute the air. The life-giving oxygen is not burned up and the humidity is kept at the most desirable and healthful level.

Money saving thermostats in every room make it easy to maintain exactly the temperature you want throughout the house. No drafty floors or cold corners, ever. And the rays that warm you are exactly like the rays of the sun. Imagine! Summer sunshine in every room all winter long. No wonder the Electric Glassheat house is a healthful as well as comfortable home.

"SO CLEAN! NO SOOT, DUST

OR SMOKE, so we save on cleaning bills," says another owner.

"In all these years with Electric Glassheat we never needed to dry clean our drapes, or furniture. No need to repaint or even wash walls and ceiling. And our Venetian blinds still look fresh and new. Taking these facts into consideration lowers our cost of heating still more."

"SAVE MONEY ON
ELECTRIC BILLS, ALSO!" "We expected

Glassheat to be inexpensive to operate but it amazed us by costing even less than estimated. And since we can now take advantage of the special low heating rate we save on our regular current, too. And of course there are no maintenance or service charges! still another saving." Another Glassheat owner says, "We added two rooms, but still my heating bill is $175." Again and again people install Electric Glassheat because of its many outstanding advantages, and then are delighted to discover that this remarkable form of heat is an economy as well.

IT'S SAFE AND SILENT! Electric Glassheat can't overheat, and it is absolutely fire-safe. Even accidental contact can't cause blistering and there are no fumes or vapor to worry about.

Since there are no moving parts there is no sound. Electric Glassheat is as silent as sunshine, and as pleasant. Saves space, too, for the area usually occupied by radiators, boilers and flues is yours to use as extra living space and a better arrangement of furniture.

WHY PAY MORE FOR LESS?

Lady Cadets Hold Party For Holiday

Ladies of the Sabre Cadets Auxiliary held a Christmas party for the girls of the Corps on Friday evening, at the American Legion Post 105 home.

Defeated Belleville School Budget Two Years Ago May Be Causing Varsity Athletics Problems Today

BELLEVILLE GRAB — Bob Baker, Belleville's 6' 1" forward makes a grab for a rebound during the Belleville, West Orange game last week. Coach Paul Szem said that both Baker and Polite were called the team's best rebounders.

DRIBBLING — The West Orange defense attempts to stop a Belleville team man as he dribbles toward the Belleville basket. Belleville lost the game by a close 52-48.

TRAPPED — The West Orange defense traps a Belleville player as he dribbles toward the home basket. Another West Orange squad member also rushes in.

VINNIE CONSTANTINO, a 6' 1" sophomore at Belleville shoots for a goal during the Belleville, West Orange game which Belleville lost 52-48. Constantino did score three goals and two foul shots during the game.

When Belleville residents defeated the school budget two years ago and the Town Council subsequently made serious cuts in the financial prospectus, little did anyone realize that they were seriously undermining the athletic program at the high school, observers say.

In fact, a major cut in the budget is said to be responsible for the difficulties Varsity football and basketball is experiencing this year.

The problem was the elimination of the ninth grade athletic program that year, a regrettable outcome of budgetary incisions. Most coaches and school officials today agree that the lack of foresight then on the part of citizens and the town government is causing the many losses football and basketball squad are facing this season.

For Coach John Amabile, the first year football coach, he was delivered a group of sophomores on his varsity squad many of whom had never seen action on the field before.

And Paul Szem, also a first year coach (basketball), is having his own personnel problems. He was given sophomores with no experience during their freshman year, and the team is beginning to feel it. Even the Jayvee graduates of last year have been described as "green."

As one coach pointed out, "The problem with the basketball team can be summed up in one word: personnel. You have to have the horse if you want to win. It is not a lack of coaching ability or a lack of aggression on the part of the players or a desire to win. They simply haven't the experience... and that takes time."

Unfortunately Belleville doesn't have the time to spare. Meanwhile, Coach Szem has decided to remain quiet for a while. He knows the difficulties in his path and he plans to face them... only quietly.

Belleville Frosh Basketball Team Loses to Montclair, Beats Myrtle

JUNIOR VARSITY ACTION — An unidentified play against a Montclair press. The out of bounds play succeeded, but Belleville lost.

MISSED — Belleville's Number 13 gets off with Montclair. The diving effort of the a jump shot mid-way through the first quarter action of last weeks Junior Varsity clash Mountie defender failed.

By JOHN MCCARTHY

The freshmen basketball team split two games. Montclair completely outscored the frosh as they ran away 41-14. Against Myrtle Junior High in Irvington, the frosh played a tight decisive game as they won 40-25.

Ron Muscara led in scoring for both games with 5 points against the Mounties and sixteen against Myrtle. Ron made most of his baskets on long drives downcourt in the second half. Rocco Marrotti was the second high scorer with 7 points, but he had four fouls. Most of Marrotti's shots were long ones from the corners. Rich Caravetta, still playing with a taped up hand grabbed most of the rebounds and scored 5 points.

The team started with a new defense last week and this week it seemed like a new offense, too. Instead of the ball going between two players who stay in one area and then break, the boys now seem to move around more and are more accurate with their passes with a lesser number of them going astray.

The terminal is a miniature FM microwave radio system. It provides quick-reaction line-of-sight communication under field conditions.

It is completely solid-state and uses microelectronic integrated circuits, thick-film, and monolithic techniques.

The effects of terrain on operating capability, setup time, and siting and alignment requirements were tested on two sets at the Air Force Tactical Air Warfare Center (TAWC), Eglin Air Force Base, Florida.

The tactical terminal requires a minimum of depot support and personnel training. It is essentially self-supporting in the field, with all primary circuit functions and supply voltages monitored, thus facilitating rapid fault isolation to a particular component or disposable module.

The receiver/transmitter/PCM multiplexer set, with integral parabolic antenna, weighs but 45 pounds and measures 15 by 16 by 10 inches. Accompanying each set is a power supply unit and adjustable tripod.

An optional order wire with in-band signaling facilities provides a two-way service channel for link acquisition and operator's communication. The order wire can be used simultaneously with frequency division multiplex (FDM) traffic, and during non-traffic periods with PCM or broadband video.

During the evaluation, communication was established in less than five minutes under typical field conditions across clear, open terrain as well as through heavy, dense foliage. Some tests, of 20 miles and more, were by diffraction propagation. Overwater links also performed satisfactorily.
