Subway Fight Could Escalate

Nutley, Bloomfield May Hit PS to Save Trolley

Commissioner, Vincent T. Strumolo this week said he would urge officials from neighboring Nutley and Bloomfield to fight to maintain subway service from the Belleville border to downtown Newark.

Public Service Coordinated Transport Co., the operator of the Newark subway system has served notice on the City of Newark of its intention to abandon its operation of the subway and discontinue its lease on the subway properties as of December 1969.

Fast Service
To Belleville residents, this means they will no longer be able to enjoy the convenience of the mole-like trolley which shoots to the heart of Newark's business center in less than 20 minutes.

Instead, citizens will be forced to use bus transportation or their cars to get to Newark, the state's largest city.

"But let's make no mistake," Commissioner Strumolo said, "This problem does not affect only Belleville. Many residents of both Nutley and Bloomfield use the city subway system to travel to work or to shop. It seems to me both of these towns should join our opposition to Public Service's plan to abandon the trains."

Strumolo described the proposed move as a "savage blow on the part of Public Service, which will greatly and materially affect the convenience and well being of many thousands of persons in the metropolitan area as well as a large part of the local population."

Strumolo added that abandonment of the subway would cause an even greater traffic problem within Newark and its suburbs, particularly in Belleville during the morning and evening rush hours.

He urged the Public Utilities Commission and the Newark State Legislature to exert every effort to insure the continued operation of the subway. The town commission also sent letters to president of the PUC, president of the state Senate, speaker of the Assembly and Governor Hughes.

Strumolo told the commission at a recent meeting that the PUC should be "put on notice that Belleville is tired of being short changed in the area of transportation facilities." He said Nutley and Bloomfield officials should do the same.

Unless Newark, which owns the 4.1-mile line, and Public Service Coordinated Transport Co., which operates it, can reach a new agreement, the subway could go into oblivion.

Operations began on May 20, 1935, from Broad Street, under New Raymond Boulevard to Heller Parkway and service was extended two years later to its present terminal under Pennsylvania Station. A mile of the trip is underground and three miles is in open cut.

Times $100 'Big Win' Contest Generates Excitement Galore!

Precisely at 9 a.m. Friday morning, four women, anxiously awaiting the arrival of the owner of Pariso Brother's Furniture store, met for what they thought would be the first and last time.

All of them possessed a 'Big Win' entry that had been laboriously completed the night before.

All hoped to win, but none really expected to be that lucky.

All were wrong as chance operated to present Belleville's Big Win contest with a surprise four-way tie for the top prize of $100.

Splitting the money this week are: Mrs. James R. Callahan of 10 Harrison Street; Mrs. Arthur H. Connolly of 78 Carner Avenue; Mrs. Bruce Downey of 7 Van Rensselaer Street; and Mrs. Nicholas Massa of 363 Union Avenue.

Especially elated at the result was Mrs. Massa, mother of two young sons, who had been entering the contest faithfully since its inception.

When told of her success, she stated, "at last! You know I've been entering the contest for weeks. The money will be useful for a special occasion that we have coming up." The special occasion that Mrs. Massa mentioned was the first communion of her 7-year-old son, Joey. The money will purchase Joey a new suit for the event.

Mrs. Downey, mother of four children ranging in age from 12 to four years, commented that her prize money "has already been spent on everything from a football to shoes."

Married only since October, Mrs. Connolly, who was "surprised to say the least," indicated that she had probably spent much more than she won since hearing the good news.

Mrs. Callahan, who is the mother of three children, also indicated that the money would be spent quite easily on her daughters, Cathleen, 7; Sharon, 4; and Mary, 3.

The mystery words that the four women fitted together correctly, read: Everyone can use spending money. Get

Municipal Budget Hearing Scheduled for March 25

Public hearing on the municipal budget has been scheduled for March 25 at 8 p.m. in Town Hall.

Belleville's budget (for all purposes) will reflect an 86 point tax hike.

The Belleville Town Commission introduced a budget of $10,930,544, an increase of $9,201,513, an increase of $820,631, increases the tax rate 86 points to $5.43.

Of the total tax levy, the municipality part is $2,628,018, an increase of $246,757; the school amount is $3,709,032, an increase of $249,889; the county segment is $2,692,493, an increase of $325,155, and the veterans and senior citizen allowance is $171,970.

The $10.9 million budget figure includes a general appropriation of $4,357,049 for municipal purposes, which is reduced by $1,729,030 in anticipated revenues other than current property taxes.

The budget is $371,800 less than the tentative budget released three weeks ago by the commissioners, which showed a 107-point increase in the tax rate.

The municipal debt service is $121,410, an increase of $22,844.

The largest increases in the municipal budget are for police and fire department wages. The wage figure for the police is $729,100, an increase of $129,458, and for firemen, $658,550, an increase of $64,280.

BHS Crew Will Begin '68 Season

Belleville oarsman may begin dodging ice flies on the Passaic River soon as they prepare this week for the 1968 crew season.

With the first race only five weeks away, the 63 member Belleville High School crew squad has been working out daily under the direction of co-captains Mike Maglio and Ken Murray.

Following a program of callisthenics and running, Coach Michael Lally has been able to assess his nucleus of seven returning lettermen, around whom he hopes to mold a strong crew for the 1968 season. All of the oarsmen have been participating in wrestling or weight lifting during the winter, and are looking forward to hitting the water next week.

Preventing current use of the Passaic River by the squad are damages to the dock area resulting from ice accumulation. Repairs are now underway. Maintenance men are also refurbishing the new addition of a shower-locker complex to the existing boathouse, slated for completion within the next month.

In addition, the acquisition of a new shell and other badly needed equipment should provide the Belleville crew with the incentive of knowing that they will not lose 15 valuable seconds by racing in an 11-year-old shell patched repeatedly with fiber glass.

The Varsity crew plans to spend many hours of the water in preparation for its opening meet against Arlington High School. That "away" session will be held at Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

The Belleville team does have its advantages this year. The boys are bigger, averaging five pounds more per man and nine inches overall, and they have the opportunity to log more miles by April 13, the season opener.

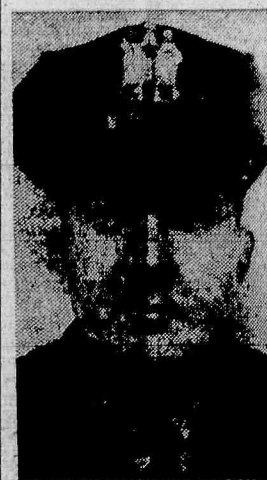

In addition, the Varsity has rowed 175 miles together during the fall, giving Belleville a slight advantage.

Coaches Lally and Giarfida also hope the JV crew will develop sufficiently to help fill the vacancies next year

Mourners Attend Mass For Popular Patrolman

Charles W. Hood, 39, one of Belleville's best-known patrolmen, died suddenly and without warning of cerebral hemorrhage while in his home at 75 Van Houten Place, on February 29.

CHARLES W. HOOD

Approximately 200 persons attended the funeral, which was held March 4 from the Kiernan Funeral Home, 101 Union Avenue, Belleville, with a Mass at 10 a.m. at St. Peter's Church. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, North Arlington.

Smith Eulogizes Patrolman
Mayor Kenneth D. Smith, speaking of Patrolman Hood, said, "Charles Hood was a dedicated and thoroughly reliable officer. He was well-known throughout the town because of the splendid job he did directing traffic on our main avenues."

"We sincerely regret the loss of such a fine officer," Hood was a life-long resident of Belleville.

Died on Day Off

Hood was resting in his home on his day off, according to a department account, and when his wife went to call him for dinner, he did not respond. He was pronounced dead at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital shortly thereafter.

Hood, who would have been 40 on May 9, often directed traffic on Washington Street, cheerfully waving and saying hello to passing motorists, most of whom he knew. He was on traffic duty most of the time since joining the force on August 17, 1952. Prior to that time he served with the Army occupation forces in Germany.

Lifelong Resident
Patrolman Hood, a life-long resident of Belleville, was a member of the Belleville I BA Local and the Belleville Chapter, Knights of Columbus. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Mary Lou Welsh Hood; three sons, Charles, John and William and two daughters, the Misses Mary Elizabeth and Anne Marie Hood, all at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hood, a brother, Joseph, and two sisters, Mrs. Edward O'Connell and Mrs. Robert Mullany, all of Belleville.

Fire Committee Shares Money Among Victims

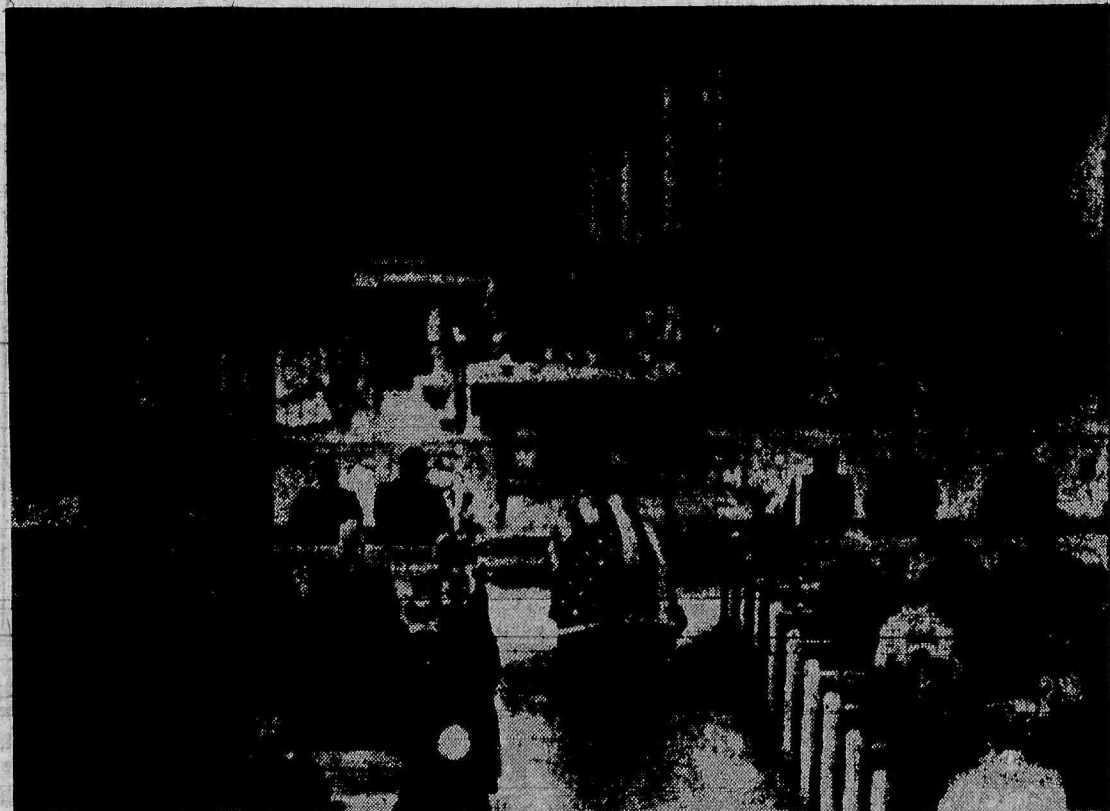

Belleville victims of a fire that destroyed three buildings at 102 - 106 Washington avenue on the morning of January 12 will share in a fund of $14,382.15 which was raised by a Citizens Committee, according to an announcement by former Essex County Assemblyman Joseph G. Biancardi, who headed up the committee.

Biancardi said he wanted to express thanks to the many Belleville organizations and citizens who joined in the drive to raise the funds. Included were: Belleville clergy, civic and veterans organizations, the Red Cross, Belleville Chamber of Commerce, school personnel and the business community.

Along with the $14,382.15 contributed to the cause, were thousands of dollars of food, furniture and clothing that were donated to families that were left homeless by the fire.

Fireman William Baumgartner, who suffered severe injuries in the fire and who is still confined to Clara Maass Hospital, will receive the bulk of the fund, an $8,000 check. Each burned out family will receive $800, water damaged families, $200 each. An elderly

AFTER SUDDEN DEATH — His fellow officers attend Mass in St. Peter's Church for Charles W. Hood, well-known Belleville patrolman who died suddenly in his home on February 29. Hood, always cheerful and polite, a lifelong resident of Belleville, was one of the most popular patrolmen in town, familiar to many citizens as he directed traffic on Washington Avenue.

FULL TURNOUT — Belleville's Police form an honor guard at the last rites of Charles W. Hood, popular patrolman. Nearly 200 people attended the funeral in St. Peter's Church for Hood, who died unexpectedly and without warning of a cerebral hemorrhage while resting at home on his day off. Hood, who was usually assigned to traffic duty, joined the force in 1952.

Safety Symposium Sponsored By Essex Medical Society

Innovations in emergency equipment designed by rescue and first-aid squads will be displayed at "RESCUE," the safety symposium sponsored by the Essex County Medical Society on April 20th.

While physicians from the society are updating police and squadmen from throughout the State on the latest medical emergency methods, corpsmen are expected to enter designs for splints, stretchers and other apparatus used locally in accidents and trauma cases.

The symposium, which will be held at North Junior High School in Bloomfield, also features a demonstration on handling, moving and loading of victims into an ambulance.

WE DISPENSE MANY GENERIC DRUGS

All pharmacies dispense generic drugs in certain prescriptions. The control over what we dispense is determined by the physician only. If he writes for a product by the brand name of the manufacturer, we cannot legally and will not dispense anything else. In 91.5% of all prescriptions filled, according to the National Prescription Audit, brand named drugs were prescribed.

When the physician writes for the product by its generic name, we will dispense a drug made by a reputable firm which has the lowest price. We enjoy saving you money. But, despite their lower costs, we will not dispense any generic drug unless we are certain of its dependable quality.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

Warren Grundfest Wins Top Mathematics Award

Warren Grundfest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grundfest of 10 Van Reyper Place, Belleville, was one of three youngsters to achieve top prizes in a Mathematics project competition at Passaic Collegiate School.

Warren, who is 15-years-old, is in the 10 grade at the Passaic school and loves science. He was awarded a first place gold medal and a certificate, proclaiming his project the most outstanding. The project consisted of some scale drawings of bridges, and an actual bridge model, based on the principle of the right triangle. The model included the environment for the bridge, such as mountains and rivers.

Warren's interest in science extends to attending a special summer camp for students mathematically or musically inclined, Camp Minnowbrook, near Lake Placid.

Others winning major prizes were Loretta Macrae of Clifton, who won for 10 large oak tag constructions illustrating the major geometric theorems and principles; and William Whitson of Rutherford, who made a cartesian three plane space intersection.

The mathematics project was one in a continuing series of student projects held throughout the year in all of the grades in the school.

Court Clerk Returns From Coast Journey

Belleville's popular Court Clerk, Mrs. Ruth Spangler, recently returned from a one-week flying trip to San Diego, California, to visit her newly arrived grand-daughter, Tracy Heather Lee, born February 1.

Mrs. Spangler's son, James S. Lee, III, and his wife Delores, both 21, are graduates of Belleville High School. They were married two years ago at Wesley Methodist Church, Belleville.

Delores Lee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Doe of 53 Berkeley Avenue, Belleville. Mrs. Doe returned from California with Mrs. Spangler.

Lee is a Hospital Corpsman 2nd Class with the Coast Guard. He has been in service for two-and-a-half years. His father, James S. Lee, Jr., a Belleville patrolman, died in 1961.

Newspapers do a tremendous amount of public service but they seldom blow their horns about their efforts for the common good.

New Look at Belleville Recreation Facilities

"They fail to look at it from the child's viewpoint. I go out to these playgrounds myself and I have a ball."

These are the words of Recreation Director Robert Cook of Belleville, who has been trying to put some "guts" back into children's play by eliminating the traditional concepts of a swing-slide type of playground.

According to Cook, whose biggest difficulty has been in making the community and the Belleville commissioners accept the validity of his theory, "play should be used to open the floodgates of the imagination, not to stifle it by presenting a set pattern of play and play equipment."

Cook is looking toward creation of what he feels is a meaningful play program for all the children of Belleville.

A corrugated pipe with differently shaped holes cut out of the metal can be a challenge to children, as they develop their own games and reach to the structure. Children, Cook maintains, quickly tire of swings and slides, but things like "railroad ties" can become Fort Apache or the framework of a skyscraper or just stepping stones toward a goal. They are no longer identifiable as a certain piece of play equipment to be used only in one way.

The "community" play theory which advocates the placement of structures, beams, gables and pipes to catch the fancy of the children, has only recently attained popularity.

It is, however a throwback to the days when there were plenty of empty lots cluttered with junk.

"The children of today have been robbed of a play experience, available to their parents and grandparents," Cook said, "and which the population explosion has eliminated from the community — mainly open spaces."

Cook became interested in recreation while in high school and he later helped direct physical training and recreation in the Army. Formerly trained at the Mechanics Institute in Rochester, he has been involved in the recreation program in Belleville for 15 years.

The placement of the materials in the playground is as important as the materials themselves, he said. "The child is forced to reason, to select a path and follow it. But even when a path is selected and followed, an obstacle such as another child may pop up and another decision must be made."

As for the community aspect of play, Cook has found that children set up codes of rules among themselves, whereby older children will help the younger ones and rights-of-way are set up.

There has been some criticism of the possibility that the children would be more liable to hurt themselves in such a playground, but Cook disagrees.

Nixon Asks for Election Debates

Richard Nixon, who perhaps lost the 1960 election to the late John Kennedy because he agreed to meet him in televised debates, says he wants to debate the Democratic nominee this year. "When they get their candidate I want to debate him," Nixon was quoted as having said recently in New Hampshire.

If there is poetic justice, Nixon should get his wish — but probably won't. In the first place, the nominee of the Democratic Party is almost certain to be President Lyndon Johnson and Johnson has previously expressed less than enthusiasm for the idea of debating a Republican opponent.

It's true circumstances are somewhat different. Kennedy challenged the Vice President, not a President. It can be argued that the President should not agree to live debate because it might adversely affect the image of the Presidency.

Though validity may attach to such arguments, the American people would probably benefit from such televised debates. And since Nixon was sporting enough to agree to them when he was a high official in government, it would seem only a fair return for him to be given the opportunity as challenger.

Exploring the Atmosphere's Bumps

One of the unsolved mysteries of the earth's atmosphere are bumps in the air—an otherwise clear and non-stormy sky. These bumps, or pockets of turbulence, have baffled scientists for years. It was only after World War II that the existence of the jet streams was discovered. The streams shed light on air turbulence but didn't explain all of the atmosphere's mysteries.

The jet streams are something like water currents in the oceans in that they travel thousands of miles but they vary their course much more extensively. Traveling at high speed, they are usually found above 30,000 feet.

Yet bumps in an otherwise clear sky—often causing airline or private plane passengers discomfort—occur at lower altitudes. Some feel they have been responsible for unexplained aircraft accidents.

To understand them, or learn how to detect their presence, both radar and laser beams have been employed but results have been disappointing. Now the Explorers Research Corporation, a non-profit arm of the Explorers Club, is using gliders in an effort to solve the mystery. Glider pilots sail quietly and slowly through areas where turbulence is suspected and measure temperature and electric density. Those in charge of the project believe results are promising.

Since air pockets or bumps can be highly dangerous to craft traveling at near-supersonic speeds the mystery of the bumps is one man must somehow solve.

Call 911 for Help

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, acting after much government prodding, has announced that an emergency number will be established for anyone needing help — 911. That number can be called even from a pay station without cost after the new system is installed, AT&T says. Installation will likely take several years.

There has been pressure for such a system from police chiefs, the FCC and from Congress in recent years — and resistance from AT&T. However, at a cost of some $50,000,000 the company is now moving to meet the government's wishes.

There is some controversy over the new system, some holding that the number 911 must connect the caller with the nearest police or fire station, etc. and not a central clearing house for such calls. One assumes this will be worked out to the satisfaction of local officials in the interest of the fastest and most efficient reporting.

While those in emergency situations have in the past been able to dial 0, the operator, there has been no overall system, with a set number, for emergency calls only. Such an improvement is a logical evolutionary step, both for Bell (AT&T's subsidiary) and independent companies. Several other nations have already found this system desirable, including England.

Bobby Kennedy and Vietnam

Senator Robert Kennedy (D-NY) recently spoke out in the strongest terms he has yet employed—in calling for a compromise end to the Vietnam war. In essence he said:

For twenty years the people of France and the United States have been told the tide is turning, that victory is possible or in sight, etc. "Once, in 1962, I participated in such predictions myself. But for twenty years we have been wrong."

Hundreds of millions are stolen by South Vietnamese government officials while the American people are being asked to pay higher taxes to finance the war. Government corruption in Saigon is the source of the enemy's strength. "The people will not fight to line the pockets of generals . . . we support a government without supporters . . . without American arms that government would not last a day."

U.S. Airline Service Improving

Time was when flying, for airline passengers, had a little zip, something "special" about it. Unfortunately that day is gone forever — with an occasional exception created by an outstanding (and above average) crew.

Today the passenger gets minimum service, especially from most domestic airlines. The stewardesses, formerly chic, smiling and—most important—helpful, often do as little as possible. Current procedure is for the receiving stewardess to stand at the entrance and point to a spot where the boarding passenger himself hangs his suit bag. Even when passengers are burdened with several hand-carried items, stewardesses (especially American girls) usually refuse to lend a hand. Some refuse direct requests.

Seldom does the ordinary passenger get much cooperation these days in "making" a connection. If he requests the captain to wire ahead, often this is not done even when practical. Late flights are often not met by personnel to help arriving passengers hasten to another gate to make a connection.

Check-in lines are standard. Clerks often refuse to hurry to convenience nervous or late passengers; some become indignant if requested to hurry. Distances which must be walked at many of the new airports are excessive. Flights—for most lines—depart late too often.

The airlines, also, have become fat and happy. Practically all are increasing profits and growing. Personal attention would inevitably have been lost with growth, perhaps. The novelty would certainly have passed with time. But one regrets that the more helpful attitude of clerks and stewardesses has also gone with the wind.

Seems Only Yesterday

ONE YEAR AGO

Board of Education President Ernest S. Arvidson was reelected by eight votes, a recount disclosed.

The recount had been made at the request of David E. Haight, a candidate for the board of education who came in third high in the annual election.

Walter Scott Fabian, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fabian of Malone Avenue, Belleville, received the God and Country Award in Scouting at Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church.

FIVE YEARS AGO

A Belleville man found it hard to explain to a sceptical Newark cop just why his car was backed up to a food distributor's back door, especially after the sceptical cop looked in the trunk and discovered his brother crouched there with ax in hand.

Police said the warehouse door was splintered. They charged the pair with attempted breaking and entering.

Dr. Frank M. Durkee, Superintendent of Schools, took a close look at the coming year in which Belleville was to begin its first major school construction program in 34 years.

TEN YEARS AGO

Mrs. Dolores Donato announced her candidacy for a seat on the Board of Commissioners in the election to be held in May.

Organization of the N. R. Pico Association was completed with the appointment of Ralph Casale of Emmet Street as president.

15 YEARS AGO

A Bloomfield man and a Nutley man were arrested on charges of drunken driving by Belleville police and were fined $220 dollars and had their licenses revoked for two years.

A Belleville man was arrested by police on a warrant from Caldwell, on a charge of fraud.

20 YEARS AGO

Belleville police had a busy year according to the annual report filed by Chief Spatz, with Public Safety director Noll. Of 254 criminal complaints in 1947, 196 were solved. Still open were 12 stolen bicycles, fourteen cases of breaking and entering, seven breaking and entering attempts, three cases of fraud, six of gambling, and two robberies.

George E. Stickle of Walnut Street, was named acting superintendent of Newark Airport by the New York Port Authority. Port Authority policies would be established at the airport under the direction of Stickle, an employee of the agency for 20 years.

30 YEARS AGO

Barbara Beck, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Beck of Forest Street, has been auditioned at Warner Bros.' studio as a preliminary to appearing in a short featuring youngsters from three to five years of age.

Before a full audience at the Hobart Ave. School, Millburn, the Belleville Little Theatre presented Eugene O'Neill's one-act play "Ile" to compete in the State tournament.

40 YEARS AGO

Young people from all the Protestant churches in Belleville met at Fewsmith Church to form a Young People's Council.

45 YEARS AGO

The Board of Education decided to place before the State Department of Education the matter of the appointment of George A. Fitzsimmons to the membership on the board. The appointment had been questioned by the town Board of Trade, which declared that it had been informed that Fitzsimmons had not resided in town three years before his appointment.

Members of the Thursday Club attended a party at the Board Theatre.

Valley Neighborhood Contains Fine Folk

To the Editor:

This is in reply to Belleville Times publisher Frank Orechio's editorial of Wednesday, Feb. 21. The strong feeling among the Valley Community is "Can you write an editorial concerning meetings you did not attend?" Your unjust and inaccurate editorial of the Valley meeting as "riot agitators," "rowdy, and disrespectful" is ridiculous.

First, the words "that element" were not used at the School 9 meeting. If the publisher cares to visit the Valley, he will find the community is integrated, both financially and racially. There isn't any "Negro" community, there isn't any "poor" neighborhood here—just good neighbors. We intend for it to stay that way.

One would only have to listen to the Rev. Ferrar to understand what the Negroes, the Irish, the Italians and all others in the Valley community want: a decent place to live without the threat of losing all any time a crisis occurs in the other parts of the town. We want the schools and the whole community to be improved. We believe this is in the best interest of the whole town.

The Mayor and some of the Commissioners have stated that industry has been moving out of Belleville—not in. Therefore presenting a Land Use Plan calling the Valley all industry will cause substantial decay of the community. Improvements to homes and property cannot be encouraged while this great promise of industry (without any substantial reason) is published.

Should the Valley become totally industrialized, the streets throughout the town would have to be widened. The police force and fire department would have to be enlarged. A department of Industry and Labor would have to be created. In short, we would, as your editorial states create a city—with all the added responsibilities.

Many of us question whether we want a city. We feel that the size of Belleville facilitates a suburban town and serves us well as such. Any way you may be persuaded, the question must be decided by the whole Belleville Community. Not the valley. Not Silver Lake.

That is why we welcomed Silver Lake residents at the Valley meeting. That is why they welcomed us at the Silver Lake meeting. This Land Use Plan affects the whole town. I requested that the Silver Lake residents present at the Valley meeting give the Valley residents an opportunity to present their recommendations first and they politely complied. I do not believe the Mayor ever gave them the floor before the meeting was abruptly declared ended.

The Recall question did not even come up at the Valley meeting. Should such a movement begin it will be a reflection of the lack of confidence in the present commissioners caused by their poor leadership. Commissioners who meet their responsibilities and really represent their citizens need not fear recall.

Hacks are effective only when there is fear, and the leaders turn a deaf ear to the concerns of their community.

Family Life Today: Don't Make Comparisons

Making comparisons is a favorite way for parents to handle situations with their own children. Why can't you behave like Johnny? a mother asks her son. Why can't you be punctual like Mary? a daughter hears.

Comparisons! There are many fallacies in making comparisons. It could be that Johnny's mother uses your son as an example of goodness. When using other families for comparisons, we may be harming the ability to communicate with our own family.

Our children may know something about Johnny and Mary which we don't. We may lower the standards or goals we have for our children.

In an actual discussion of this issue with young people the following comments were voiced. "My folks are always telling me about some other kids — isn't he a nice boy?" A girl asked, "But they only see one side of him." Parents need to be cautious for they really do not see every side of a neighbor's child.

Through the use of comparisons, parents are evading the responsibility which is theirs. Each family needs to work out the code by which it lives and functions. Thus, established by outward observances of other children or youth. Behavioral patterns are rightly established when they are worked out in each family, based on its goals, attitudes and values.

Next time you start to say "why," to be followed by a comparison, stop! Instead, try to open the channel of communication with your child. Discuss the problem. Give him a sense of pride in himself. Develop your own sense of responsibility to your family. Your child may just follow the pattern you set.

Woman's Auxiliary at Clara Maass Contributes to Proposed New Unit

Mrs. Elmer Matson of 288 High Street, Nutley, president of the Women's Auxiliary of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital presented three checks to Albin H. Oberg, hospital's executive director, last week which will be applied to the proposed new 150 bed extended care unit.

The Clara Maass Memorial Hospital is celebrating its 100th Anniversary year this year with a variety of events to commemorate the centennial year.

Among the first organizations to contribute financial assistance to the hospital's centennial anniversary was the auxiliary with a pledge of $20,000, $5,000 of which was paid last week.

When the Auxiliary heard that a group of friends had formed a centennial honor roll, the members contributed another $1,000 toward this new formed roll of honor. For gifts of at least $100, individual names will be posted on a plaque which will be located in the hospital's lobby. Organizations, business and industry can have their names listed in a special section of the plaque for a gift of at least $1,000. The purpose of the centennial honor roll is to raise $100,000 to equip the new extended care unit.

A gala formal centennial dinner dance is scheduled at the Westmount Country Club on May 15, complete with Broadway entertainment.

Plans are underway for the preparation of a souvenir ad book. Individual advertising pages will cost $100. The auxiliary was again one of the first organizations to take a full page in the souvenir book.

In accepting the three checks, Oberg paid tribute to the auxiliary and its members for their magnificent support both in money and many hours of volunteer work.

Helpful Hints On Investing

Do you have money to invest? Maybe so. Keeping all your savings in a bank may not be gaining you anything these days.

For example, the cost of living rose 2.8 per cent in 1966. If you had bank savings, their worth went down that amount. You can guard your savings against inflation by investing in something that will grow in value over the years.

There are many ways a family can invest. Some prefer investing in real estate. Although there is no guarantee, land values have been on the increase and there seems to be no stopping it.

Life Insurance is another type of investment. There are two principal types—term and permanent. Term insurance is cheaper. It provides for a lump sum of money upon death. Permanent insurance builds up cash values in addition to payment of face value to the beneficiaries.

Stocks and bonds are other ways a family or individual can invest savings. You may have heard the terms blue-chip and glamour stocks. Blue-chip stocks are from those companies which are long established. These stocks may not vary a great deal in worth from day to day but they are a fairly secure means of investment.

Glamour stocks are initially worth less money. They may vary a great deal in price from day to day. These small-

Kathleen Bissell Honored At Testimonial Dinner

She was also Editor-in-Chief of the GAUNTLET. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Rochester and her Medical degree from Seton Hall University. She interned at Monmouth Medical Center in Long Branch for one year and her residency in Obstetrics and Gynecology was done at Newark City Hospital. She completed her residency there in July of 1967. Dr. Bissell is now in private practice and has her offices in her home, here in Nutley.

She is married to Gerald Bissell, formerly of Belleville, and has a four-year old son, James Domenick. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Domenick DiCiccio of 243 Bloomfield Ave.

er companies may show great promise for the future.

A mutual fund is a fairly good way for a novice to begin investing. A stated amount of money is paid into the fund. The fund then invests this money for you. It is a good choice for those whose investment knowledge is limited.

Local High School Band Scores Solid Hit

BEST FOOT FORWARD — Four young ladies are pictured as they perform to the rhythms of Belleville High School's band at a benefit musical review. The selection was called left to right are: Mike Freda, Dave Hildenbrand, John Bocchino, Ed Muscara and Pat Rudden. The money from the concert will be used to send the band to Virginia's Azalea Festival Parade.

STRIKING UP THE BAND — Robert Wing, director of Belleville High School Band is pictured as he puts the band through its paces at the March 1 music review. The proceeds from the show, which drew a large crowd, are to be used to defray expenses for the band's trip to Virginia to participate in the Azalea Festival.

South Sea Islands Exhibit at Museum

Arts of the South Sea Islands, an exhibition of major pieces from the Newark Museum's Ethnological collection and important loans from the American Museum of Natural History and the Museum of Primitive Art, is now open at the Newark Museum, 49 Washington Street and will continue through April 21.

Today, collectors and the general public appreciate the originality and high artistry of South Seas art, once valued as curiosities of interest only to students of primitive cultures. The fierce representations of spirit gods and ancestors, the pleasing colors, the intricate patterns and repetitions of symbols and motifs, introduce the viewer to a different order of beauty. Yesterday's curios have been accepted as sophisticated works, brilliant in design and execution, worthy of inclusion in the history of world art.

The islanders produced each piece for a practical, ceremonial or religious use. Talented artists worked within established symbols, styles and techniques. Hence, for its fullest appreciation, the purpose of the work also has significance and interest.

Highlights of the exhibition include a 19th century Maori canoe prow from New Zealand, lent by the American Museum of Natural History. Maori war canoes were originally 60 to 100 feet long. This prow shows intricate carving in a controlled, curvilinear style, an elaborate design of interlocking scrolls and stylized human figures.

The most spectacular wood-carvings of Melanesia — perhaps of all primitive people — are those associated with malanggan ceremony of New Ireland, celebrated both to memorialize the dead and to initiate youths into manhood. Brilliantly colored, intricately carved masks, statues and panels are designed by tribal artists for brief use in these ceremonies. Four examples from the Newark Museum's collection are on view.

An awesome basketry mask, almost five feet tall, has been lent by the Museum of Primitive Art. From the Middle Sepik River of New Guinea, it shows the long curving nose typical of art of the region. Meant to frighten away evil spirits, it was placed at the gable of a men's ceremonial house, usually built 60 feet high and over 100 feet long.

Your best friend is the person who tells you the truth, not the one who tells you what you want to hear.

into a consistent money loser for PS and in 1963 Herbert E. Harper, company president pointed to the problem that has plagued railroad operation generally.

"I have questioned the wisdom of investing millions and millions of dollars in fixed rail transit service that is expected to meet changing conditions over a long period of years and provide adequate and proper service to the riders, investors and the taxpayers on whose shoulders today's misjudgements eventually would fall the heaviest."

PS Figures

Evidence of the subway's fiscal woes is provided by PS figures for a five-year period: The number of passengers dropped from 4,571,804 in 1962 to about 4,150,000 in 1966.

Passenger revenues showed a steady rise from $51,786 in 1962 to $659,162 in 1966, but company officials said this reflected two fare increases, in 1962 and 1964.

The fare hikes also helped reduce, but did not eliminate, operating losses, which rose from $223,710 in 1962 to $239,704, then fell to $145,471 in 1966. In connection with the announcement that the company intends to discontinue subway service, while still willing to "consider any suggestions" concerning the subway's fixed costs, Harper said:

"This is up to the judgement of whether the urban area wants to run this. It can't be supported by private industry."

PLAY BIG WIN

CONTEST STARTS FRIDAY MORNING

WIN $1000 'SPENDING MONEY'

It's FUN -- It's EASY!
Everyone Can Play
Pick Up Your FREE Newspaper at our Belleville Office

READ THESE SIMPLE RULES

Each week, in the Belleville Times, Belleville merchants will run tremendous money-saving Weekly Specials on these pages. These weekly special advertisements, which are designed by Belleville merchants to help fight the constantly rising cost-of-living, will feature one tremendous bargain in each ad. Directly under the price in each advertisement there will appear one word. When the reader assembles all the words in proper order, the completed phrase should be brought to the store on Washington Avenue that has been selected to be "Treasure Chest of the Week." Somewhere in the phrase is a clue to the identity of this store where $100 in "spending money" is located. A new phrase and new clue will appear each week. If the "spending money" is not found that week another $100 "spending money" will be added to it. The same will happen the next week if it's still not found. The $100 "spending money" will be in the form of 20 certificates of $5 each and can be spent at any of these participating stores any time — they're just like cash. The Belleville Times will redeem them at face value from the participating merchants. Anyone can play, the whole family—no age limits!

Man Loses Finger Closing Auto Door

While closing his garage door 65, of 37 Maple place, Belleville, Theodore R. Lester, lost a finger of his right hand, which was caught in the door, it was reported recently at Clara Maass Hospital.

Mrs. Anna Zirpola, 64, of 15 Villa place, was treated at the same hospital for a burned left leg. She said she was cooking lunch when she accidentally spilled hot grease on her leg.

As soon as a local citizen does something to win national recognition, he suddenly has a lot of friends he didn't know he had.

Killer Heating Systems Sought By Belleville Health Officials

"We are requesting your assistance in locating and identifying 8000 gas-fired baseboard through-the-wall heaters that may leak carbon monoxide. At the request of the Public Health Service, the American Gas Association also is notifying all local gas utility companies asking their assistance in locating these heaters," Dr. Richard Bevinetto, health officer, said this week.

"The possibility that these heating units may be hazardous was brought to the attention of the Public Health Service following an investigation of a reported carbon monoxide death associated with one of the heating units.

"The public was informed of the potential hazard of these heaters by joint news releases by Sears Roebuck and Company and the Public Health Service last week.

"Sears Roebuck and Co. has announced a recall and replacement program for approximately 6000 heaters sold by them. Most of the Sears heaters were sold between September 1962 and December 1966. They were last offered for regular sale in a catalog circular in August and September 1966. A few remaining units were sold in retail stores during 1967.

"Sears identified four models of its 'Gas Fired Baseboard Thru-Wall Heater' in their recall program. They are Homart Model numbers 133-72561 or 133-725611; 133-72562 or 133-725621; 133-72565 or 133-725651; and 133-72566 or 133-725661. The plate showing these model numbers is located on top of the burner box.

"The news releases suggest that users of these model heaters should contact the manager of the nearest Sears retail store or catalog sales office for assistance in identifying and replacement of the suspected heaters. According to Sears, if a heater is identified as being one of these potentially hazardous models it will be replaced without charge.

"Sears decision to recall these heaters was based on a sample of suspected heating units in homes. The sample was initiated at the request of the Public Health Service and revealed that over 50 per cent of those units tested were emitting levels of carbon monoxide that could under certain conditions be dangerous.

"It is requested that the public assist in this cooperative recall program initiated by Sears and supported by the Public Health Service and the American Gas Association by the following:

- "1. Giving additional publicity to the problem and the recall program.
- "2. Assisting individuals in making positive identification of suspected units.

"In addition to the Sears heaters, 2000 baseboard heaters of similar design and appearance to the Homart models were manufactured and distributed by Samuel Stamping and Enameling Co. of Chattanooga, Tenn., which is now out of business.

"These heaters have the brand name 'Suburban' on the outside of the heater grill. However, there is one other brand of heater on the market which is not involved but also has the brand name 'Suburban' on the heater grill. Positive identification of the hazardous 'SUBURBAN' units can be accomplished as follows:

1. Remove the heater grill.
2. Look for the appliance rating plate attached to the unit for the name of the manufacturer.
3. If the manufacturing firm identified on the rating plate is the 'Samuel Stamping and Enameling Company, Chattanooga, Tenn., and if the unit is one of these models (BB-10-2N, BB-10-3N, BB-10-4N, BB-10-2LP, BB-10-3LP, BB-10-4LP, BB-10-5LP, BB-10-6LP) the heater should be removed and destroyed.

Mitchell Named Vets' Chairman; Lee Honored at Legion Dinner

At a recent meeting of the various veterans' organizations George K. Mitchell of 140 Academy St., Belleville, was elected as Chairman of the Veterans' Council.

Mitchell has been active in town for many years in both civic and veterans' affairs.

On Saturday evening at the American Legion Post Home, a large group of Legionnaires and friends gathered to pay tribute at a testimonial dinner honoring past commander Patrick J. Lee for an outstanding year as local legion leader during 1966-67. Those present enjoyed a delicious roast beef dinner and an entertaining evening listening to the guest speakers praise Patrick J. Lee for a fine American Legion year.

Post Commander Jack Gorman welcomed the people before turning the program over to chairman and master of ceremonies, past Commander Jack Throckmorton, Sr. The invocation was given by post chaplain William McCoy.

Guests at the head table who spoke include, Harry J. Sullivan, former Undersheriff of Essex County, Harry N. Weeks, Former State commander of the American Legion, Mike Henegen, Essex County executive committee man Dr. K. F. Fleisser, Dept. of New Jersey Vice Commander, and Essex County Commander Charles Mulvey.

All spoke on the fine work accomplished by past commander Lee on behalf of Belleville Post 105.

Past Commander Lee is presently serving as a Essex County vice-commander and aspires to the Post of County Commander, election to be held this June at the County Convention to be held in Nutley.

Past Commander Lee was presented a plaque by the membership of the post, presentation by Post Commander Jack Gorman.

Many of the Legion Posts of Essex County were represented by their Commanders and other officers of the posts. Also at the head table was Mrs. Patrick J. Lee wife of the honored guest who is serving as President of the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 105 of Belleville for a second term. Dancing and a social followed the program.

The customs of youth and old people change with the passing years, but it is very difficult for some older people.

Albee Play Is Scheduled At Upsala College Soon

Mrs. Miriam Lundeen of New York City and Dave Kennedy of East Orange will portray the lead roles of Martha and George, while the director of Workshop 90, Charles Plese, and a senior drama student, Susan Phillips, will portray the guests, Nick and Honey.

Death and Transfiguration To be Symphonic Offering

Cesar Franck's Symphony in D, Richard Strauss' Death and Transfiguration and Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture; these are the works chosen by the subscribers of the New Jersey Symphony to be played at the orchestra's all - request concerts March 8 and 9.

The choices, announced by Kenneth Schermerhorn, Music Director of the Symphony, represented the one from each of three categories offered the subscribers. They were, overture, suite or tone poem, and symphony.

The pair of concerts at which the subscribers will hear their favorites will take place at Montclair High School on Friday evening, March 8, and Millburn High School on Saturday evening, March 9. Schermerhorn will conduct both evenings. The concerts will be the last in the 1967-68 Suburban Series for the Symphony.

Ballots were mailed to the Symphony's subscribers in early November, explaining the choices. The returns were in and tabulation was completed by late January.

The runners-up in each classification were the Brahms Symphony Number 4, the Liszt tone poem Les Preludes and Beethoven's Lenore Overture Number 3. In the category of tone poems or suites, the Firebird suite by Stravinsky was a close third, Schermerhorn said.

The balloting showed a wide variety of interests, in nearly all musical periods, though the results showed a preference for the "Romantic" era, he said. Generally, the most popular composers, the results indicated, were Brahms, Beethoven and Tchaikovsky.

There was strong interest, however, in the works of certain contemporary composers. There also was great interest in the Mahler symphonies, though no single Mahler symphony came near winning in the balloting.

Another symphony which received strong support in the voting was the Shostakovich 5th, Schermerhorn said.

Over 180 separate compositions were suggested in the several hundred ballots which were returned.

Top Basketball Player Sought

Essex County Catholic Youth Organization is once again polling Essex County coaches and sportswriters to determine the 23rd outstanding high school basketball player award, an award which was won by two Belleville boys during its existence. In 1951, Charles Travers won the award, and in 1955, Richie Veith won it.

Mel Knight of Seton Hall Prep, currently the leading scorer on the Seton Hall University freshman team, was the 1967 recipient.

Purpose of the award is to stimulate good sportsmanship and conduct on the basketball floor as well as a high scholastic rating in the classroom. The award is presented each year to the player who best combined sportsmanship with athletic and scholastic ability.

Ballots should be returned to the Essex County CYO office by tomorrow.

Understanding Opera Class Schedules Soloists Tonight

Vocal soloists from Nutley and Belleville will sing excerpts from J. Strauss' Die Fledermaus this evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Franklin School music room.

The presentation will be part of the "Understanding Opera" program recently organized by the Nutley Parks and Recreation Department.

Earl Schub, 16 Mapes Ave., Nutley, is scheduled to appear. Other soloists from Nutley and Belleville are expected. Schub will outline to the group, which meets every Thursday at Franklin School, the operations of the Essex Opera Theatre and will talk considerably on the production techniques, staging and rehearsals for that organization's forthcoming production of Die Fledermaus.

That discussion will be followed by excerpts from the opera.

The Essex Opera Theatre, the largest opera repertory company in the county, boasts an active membership of 40 singers, many of whom live in Nutley and Belleville.

Peter A. Dvarackas, director of the Understanding Opera class, said he was eagerly awaiting the presentation by "such an established and reputable troupe." He invited interested residents to attend the lecture-performance.

The Essex Opera Theatre, under the direction of Donald Gage, will present Johann Strauss' "Die Fledermaus" (in English) at North Junior High School on Huck Road off Broad Street, Bloomfield, on Friday, March 29, Saturday, March 30, and Friday, April 5, at 8:15 p.m.

Toyota Motor Corona Model Is Only $2000

In a four-page road test evaluation, the March edition of Road Test magazine hails the new 1968 Toyota Corona hardtop as "being easily the lowest-priced hardtop being sold in America today" and a "hard car to beat for the money in every way."

Road Test is the only major automotive magazine in the United States that does not carry advertising and is considered to be one of the foremost publications in the automotive field in objective road styling, the authoritative automobile magazine said.

"The 1968 models have received a face-lift front and rear though they retain the clean, distinctive lines of last year's Toyotas. The slope of the front hood has been accentuated by a chambered leading edge which stresses the rakish appearance of the car."

The article, in commenting

LOWEST PRICED HARDTOP — The new Toyota Corona 2-door hardtop is the Toyota Motor Company's latest entry in the U.S. import passenger car market. From Japan's No. 1 auto maker, the new car features full reclining bucket seats, the Corona's popular 90 H.P. 1900 CC 4-cylinder engine, standard

4-speed transmission with a floor-mounted stick shift and optional automatic transmission. Priced at Toyota's suggested retail P.O.E. figure of $1,995, the 1968 Corona model has been hailed by Road Test magazine as being "a hard car to beat for the money."

upon the Corona's handling and roadability characteristics, said:

"Performance is and has been, one of Toyota's stronger selling points. With the car's new 4-speed transmission, the Corona hardtop gives even better results. With four gears to make use of the good torque characteristics of the 1900 cc engine, the car provides rapid acceleration.

"The gear box is very smooth and precise and rapid shifts can be made without beating the synchromesh... with this 4-speed addition to the line, Toyota has once more accurately gauged the American market and come up with a practical small GT-type economy car that is fun to drive, cheap to operate and which will undoubtedly enjoy

Legion Ladies Feast Together

Ladies of American Legion Auxiliary, Belleville Unit 105, met at the Post Home, 621 Washington Ave., on Thursday evening, Mrs. Patrick (Dolores) Lee, president, conducted the business meeting.

There will be a dinner for all past presidents on April 29th, to be held at the Friar Tuck Inn, Cedar Grove. Planning to attend are: Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Patrick Lee, Mrs. Eugene Hess, Mrs. Walter Weiss, Mrs. William Kant, Mrs. Julia Huemer and Mrs. Maude Christie.

Hostesses for the evening, Mrs. George Mitchell and Mrs. Eugene Danchak, used a patriotic theme for the tablecloth and table settings, to celebrate the birthday of our first President, George Washington.

Roman Catholic Archdiocese Produces Annual Directory

The 1968 edition of the annual Directory and Almanac of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Newark was issued this week by The CYO Press, 101 University Avenue, Newark.

The 196-page book lists all Catholic priests, churches, schools, institutions, organizations and agencies in Bergen, Essex, Hudson and Union counties. According to the Directory, there are 253 parishes serving the area, 1,333 priests, 268 brothers, 3,474 sisters, 226 elementary schools, 56 high schools, six colleges, nine hospitals and eight children's homes.

Howard Savings Institution Pays Big March Dividend

The state's largest savings bank, The Howard Savings Institution, will be paying a March 1st dividend of more than $8.8 million, it was announced by President John W. Kress.

This will be the 307th consecutive quarterly dividend to be paid by the Bank and it will be a record one, surpassing all previous dividends declared by the Bank in its 110 years of operation. The dividend also brings the total paid to depositors for the last four quarterly periods to more than $33.8 million.

"It makes economic sense," Mr. Kress said, "that an ever-growing segment of the public, especially among our young people, believe in and practice thrift. And it is becoming increasingly evident from the regularity of their deposits that the new status symbol for the growing sophisticated public is 'money in a savings bank.'"

"However, promoting a savings program remains somewhat difficult. The state's present banking regulations rigidly restrict our ability to furnish adequate banking facilities in many of the more populous areas of the county where we have a large number of friends. Fortunately, our ten offices, located in Newark, Irvington, South Orange and North Caldwell, plus our postage-free bank by mail program are all being used by thousands of our depositors.

"Despite these efforts, we are pressing for constructive banking reforms and have often voiced this urgent need for corrective legislation at Trenton. My annual report for the Institution carried these remarks: 'Our continued efforts to secure less restrictive banking legislation for New Jersey has not yet met with success. We are hopeful, however, that 1968 will bring favorable changes in the Branch Banking section of the Statute.'"

"Almost three years ago — May 1965 — both Governor Richard J. Hughes and State Banking Commissioner Charles R. Howell recognized the importance of such legislation and asked for remedial measures that would assist the New Jersey banks in securing the business opportunities that were and still are, going to adjacent states. Despite this problem, The Howard will continue its corporate effort in serving the public with all means at its disposal."

The Howard, now the 16th largest savings bank in the United States, has assets in excess of $840 million.

Walter Kidde May Merge With United States Lines

Alexander Purdon, president of United States Lines Co., and Fred R. Sullivan, chairman of the board of Walter Kidde & Co., Inc., have announced that discussions were held with respect to a merger of the two companies. However, there have not yet been any discussions of an appropriate ratio of exchange of stock to be made in such a merger.

This proposal will be presented to the respective boards of directors as soon as possible, with recommendations as to how the proposal can be implemented.

Purdon stated that in his discussions with Sullivan and the officials of Kidde, he had become convinced of their firm intention to strengthen the position of United States Lines as the leading United States flag steamship company, especially in the field of containerization.

In addition, it was pointed out that the proposed association with Kidde could benefit United States Lines stockholders by furthering their diversification program announced earlier in 1967 in connection with the company's corporate reorganization.

Despite what some people think, going to Church hasn't hurt anyone yet, and it helps a great may.

Of course, you have to pay for electricity to keep your air conditioner humming. And hasn't that cost gone up... like everything else? Definitely not! #### BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Every once in a while a customer buys a color TV set from us and wants immediate delivery. We have to tell him that such a thing is not possible—with us. We are often told that they can get it from other dealers right away, but it is not the same, for the following reasons.

Before a set is delivered from our store to the customer, it has to go through a schedule of tests and checks which take three days. We find this to be absolutely necessary. Quality control at the factory level has been poor, particularly of late, when color TV sets were in great demand. Factories diverted workers ordinarily used for quality control to manufacturing in order to shove out as many sets as possible. We feel very sorry for anybody who gets a color TV set delivered to his house in a factory sealed box. It is most unlikely that such a set will perform perfectly. Even if a TV set leaves the factory in perfect working order, the bouncing and trouncing on the way to the distributors warehouse, from there to the dealer and finally to the customer, put some of the sensitive adjustments out of whack. Some of these adjustments can hardly be made in the customer's house, since this requires the use of sensitive instruments which a technician does not take out of his shop.

Nobody buys an automobile from a dealer who does not have a service shop. A car as it is delivered to a dealer from the factory needs a great number of adjustments, everybody knows this. A color TV set is no different. A car, as it leaves the factory, will run, but far from perfect and unless the necessary adjustments are made, it will never run right. Most of these adjustments can not be made in front of your home, the car dealer needs all kinds of tools and instruments to do it right in his shop. The same goes for a color TV set.

The only way for you to be sure is to buy from a dealer who has his own service shop.

We service what we sell.

Bus. Briefs: New Tax Court Decision Broadens Claims Deductions

Possible casualty losses may suddenly be yours — and you should know as much as possible about what you can expect in every eventuality.

New tax court decision are broadening the tax deductions you can claim for casualty losses well beyond the usual damage caused by floor, fire, storm and theft.

Damage resulting from common household-type mishaps also can produce a deductible loss to the extent the damage exceeds $100, the tax court believes. This is contrary to the Treasury's efforts to bar casualty loss deductions for the ordinary, everyday household accident. If you suffered over $100 of damages in a household-type accident and are willing to fight, if necessary, for the deduction of the over-$100 portion you will find a favorably inclined tax court.

In 1966, the tax court upheld a $1,000 casualty loss for a housewife whose husband had accidentally dropped her diamond ring into a garbage disposal while helping with the dishes. In 1967, the same court allowed a $1,200 casualty loss when a car door was accidentally slammed on a wife's finger with the resulting loss of her ring.

Get Appraisal

If you have had any substantial casualty losses, be sure to get an independent appraisal of the value of the property before and after the casualty. If you don't take this precaution, your loss deduction may be questioned in a later year when it is difficult to get a timely and accurate appraisal. An added incentive for getting an appraisal: The cost is fully deductible.

One caution about casualty losses: If you are unfortunate enough to suffer property damage between Jan. 1 and April 15 of this year inclusive — as a result of a natural disaster — you may be able to deduct this loss on your 1967 return instead of waiting to deduct it in the ordinary way on your 1968 return.

To qualify for this special treatment — which will give you immediate help through an immediate tax deduction — the damage must result from a flood, hurricane, or storm officially declared by the President to be a major disaster.

Tougher Insurance

New Jersey's insurance commissioner's recent order requiring property and liability insurance companies to include investment income in rate-making procedures "threatens the viability of the business and will inhibit the ability of the property and casualty insurance companies to serve the growing needs of New Jersey's economy," the president of the American Insurance Association charged yesterday.

T. Lawrence Jones commented on the decision last week by Commissioner Charles R. Howell in turning down a request for higher auto insurance premiums.

Jones cited findings by the Arthur D. Little, Inc., research organization in its recent study of "Prices and Profits in the Property and Liability Insurance Industry." The study indicated that the industry's profits are less than half those of other industries with a similar risk factor, Jones said, adding that Howell's order will reduce the "low rate of return" even more.

"This decision can only serve to make automobile insurance in New Jersey harder to get," Jones said.

Not Profits

The Little findings, Jones said, "indicate that the net profits of the property and liability insurance field are significantly below those of other financial institutions and manufacturing industries; that this is true considering income from every source and that no revision of the pricing mechanism which would reduce our profits below their present level can be justified on the grounds that present profits are excessive."

Jones declared that for 43 property and casualty companies, the average return was 4.4 per cent for the 11 years from 1955 through 1965.

Branch Reform

Recently, John W. Kress, president of the Howard Savings Institution of Newark, called again for reform of New Jersey banking laws to allow more liberal branch banking.

"The state's present banking regulations rigidly restrict our ability to furnish adequate banking facilities in many of the more populous areas of the county where we have a large number of friends," Kress said.

The Howard, the state's largest bank with assets of more than $840 million, has 10 offices in Newark, Irvington, South Orange and North Caldwell.

Under present state law, commercial and savings banks are limited to having offices in their home counties and are also restricted in opening new branches in towns where another bank already has its headquarters.

Three-Year Wait

Almost three years ago, Kress noted, both Gov. Richard J. Hughes and State Banking Commissioner Charles R. Howell recognized the importance of new banking legislation and asked for remedial measures "that would assist the New Jersey banks in securing the business opportunities that were, and still are, going to adjacent states."

Kress said he is hopeful that 1968 will bring favorable changes in the branch banking statute.

A legislative package to allow expansion of branching privileges and also to allow establishment of bank holding companies was passed by the Assembly last year but failed by a narrow margin to obtain Senate approval.

Kress also announced that the Howard will be paying a March 1 dividend to its depositors of more than $8.8 million, the largest quarterly payment in the bank's 110-year history. The dividend brings the total paid to depositors in the last four quarterly periods to more than $33.8 million.

Touring Change

More than 100 lighting fixture distributors and their wives, who were to have vacationed in Europe, will instead spend a week in the Bahamas in accord with President Johnson's recent request that tourism outside the Western Hemisphere be curtailed.

The change of plans was announced by Maurice M. Rosen, president of Lighting Corporation of America, whose Progress Lighting division is sponsoring the trip. LCA is a subsidiary of Walter Kidde & Company, Inc., Belleville.

In explaining the change in itinerary, Rosen said: "After studying the President's message and supporting statements made by many economists and legislators that curtailment of European trips would help secure a more favorable balance of payments for the American dollar, we felt we had no choice but to revise our plan. When our expenditures were added to the cost of gifts purchased by our guests, more than $100,000 was involved in the projected trip to Europe."

8-Day Stay

The original Progress plan called for an eight-day stay in Europe, beginning March 16. Now, distributors will depart for Paradise Island in the Bahamas on April 29 and return May 6.

Commending Progress for its change in plans, a spokesman for the U.S. Department of Commerce said: "It is always heartening to see new evidence that appeals to make voluntary sacrifices in support of national objectives are seriously heeded by firms as well as individuals in this country.

Income Doubles

Kidde recently announced a net income after taxes in excess of $17,500,000 for the year ending December 31, 1967, compared with $8,005,000 reported the previous year, according to company estimates.

Earnings per common share rose approximately 32 percent to $3.20 in 1967 from $2.43 in 1966, based on the number of shares of common stock outstanding at the end of the year and adjusted for stock dividends, and after deducting preference share dividend requirements.

Sales in 1967 exceeded $423,000,000, compared with 1966 sales of $273,698,000.

Produces Security Equipment

Kidde produces safety, security and protection equipment; industrial and technological equipment, and commercial and consumer products. Kidde recently announced plans to acquire United States Lines Company, subject to stockholder approval. U.S. Lines would be Kidde's entry into the transportation system field. The operations of U.S. Lines are not included in Kidde's 1967 financial figures.

Headquartered in Belleville, Kidde operates more than 70 plants and laboratories in 21 states and six foreign countries.

Excise Taxes

The House Ways and Means Committee approved measures continuing the automobile and telephone excise taxes at their present levels and speeding up corporate tax collections.

The committee also instructed that a statement be inserted in its report to the House on the tax moves which said its action did not preclude future consideration of the President's proposed 10 per cent surcharge on individual and corporate income taxes.

The committee approved measures to continue the auto excise tax at its present rate of 7 per cent of the manufacturer's price through the end of the 1969 calendar year and then eliminate it by the end of 1972. The telephone service tax will be continued at its present 10 per cent rate through 1969 and then gradually will be eliminated.

The corporate tax collection speed-up calls basically for raising from 70 to 80 per cent the amount of total tax liability corporations must pay quarterly.

Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler, who asked that the statement dealing with the surcharge be included in the report, later said administration measures aimed at mending the nation's balance of payments won't be effective unless Congress approves the 10 per cent surcharge. Fowler called the proposal an anti-inflation tax.

You Can Help

He said European nations must help this country and its dollar drain, partly by paying a greater share of defense costs and increasing their aid to underdeveloped countries. He said a lack of cooperation could possibly lead to a worldwide depression.

The administration measures aim at reducing the U.S. balance of payments deficit to $3 billion this year from $3.57 billion deficit of 1967.

In another move to help the balance of payments, a presidential panel said the federal government would try to lure more foreign tourists to the United States with cut-rate travel prices.

William M. Roth, ambassador for trade negotiations, said the solution to the balance of payments problem depended on expanding world trade.

He told a conference in New York: "The U.S. has benefited enormously from its liberal trade policy and from its success in leading the rest of the world in the same direction.

We must presently seek still greater net advantages for our trade because of our balance of payments difficulties."

A grateful Electric Glasheat user says:

"If you notice the temperature you have the wrong heater"
BETTER SWITCH TO GLASSHEAT

IT'S A COMFORTABLE HEAT

that Glasheat gives—never too hot, never too cold," he continued. "So comfortable in fact you never notice the temperature at all. Regardless of the weather it feels like a sunny day indoors. Imagine—every room sunshine warm all winter long. No drafts, no cold corners, just comfort!"

No wonder Electric Glasheat reminds you of sunshine. It is the only heating system that warms with healthful radiant electric rays exactly like the rays of the sun. And this is true throughout the house for every room has its own money-saving thermostat and heating unit.

You can regulate the temperature of each room exactly as you want it, one quite warm, another cooler. And if a room is unoccupied, turn back the thermostat, close the door and save money!

IT'S HEALTHFUL HEAT TOO!

"We had fewer colds last winter and everyone felt fine," says an owner in Caldwell. This is a common report from owners because Electric Glasheat has no flame to burn up the life giving oxygen or produce toxic fumes. And the sunshine rays of Glasheat not only produce an even temperature but maintain humidity at the level doctors recommend for good health.

SAVE CLEANING TIME AND MONEY

"No soot, no smoke, no grime. Glasheat is wonderful," writes another user. "Have never seen anything so clean. Saves me hours I used to spend cleaning and painting."

Another says "In 16 years the only room we have had to do over is the kitchen. No need to repaint the other rooms or dry clean our drapes. And our venetian blinds still look fresh and new. That's why so many owners say, 'Install Electric Glasheat and take it easy.'"

SAFE! Electric Glasheat is absolutely fire-safe and can't overheat. No fumes to worry about, and even accidental contact can't cause blistering.

Electric Glasheat is as silent as sunshine and as pleasant, for there are no moving parts. Saves space too for the area usually used by radiators, furnaces and flues is yours for extra living space.

SAVE MONEY ON HEAT! People admit that Electric Glasheat is tops for comfortable heating. But some feel that it is so ideal it might be too expensive. This is not true—as you will see from these letters describing Glasheat's economy.

One writes, "We installed Glasheat for its greater comfort with the hope that it would be reasonably economical to operate. So we were not prepared for our very low annual heating bills. And since we can now take advantage of the special low heating rate, we save money on our regular current too. And there are no maintenance charges. It all adds up to better heat for less money.

"Though we added two extra rooms" says another owner, "my heating bill is only $175. A pleasant surprise and we have never been so comfortable."

That's the Electric Glasheat story. People install it because of its many advantages—then are delighted to find it is an economy as well.

WHY PAY MORE FOR LESS?

Does Electric Glasheat sound luxurious? It is in every respect but cost. If you would like to know what Electric Glasheat will do for the health, comfort and welfare of your family—and how little it will cost, send the coupon, or phone.

New Jersey Turnpike Introduces Wider, Safer Unitized Highways

The New Jersey Turnpike is introducing a new highway safety concept—the unitized highway—for what is believed to be the world's most heavily traveled toll road.

The unique highway safety design concept of treating each of four three-lane sections as a completely independent road with individual exit and access ramps at each interchange, is the design innovation incorporated into the New Jersey Turnpike's $351 million program now under way to widen its northern 30 miles. The expansion is expected to satisfy the requirements of traffic until the year 1990.

If the three new lanes had merely been added alongside the present roadway to transform it into a six-lane road in each direction, motorists in the inner roadway would be obliged to engage in a series of hazardous maneuvers in an attempt to cut across other traffic lanes to reach the other side of the road when entering or leaving.

Each three lane "barrel" will be a completely integrated, one-direction highway, separated from the other three "barrels" by a median ramped and joined with the outer three-lane sections. When the entire dual-dual is opened to traffic, the unitized concept will come into its own. Traffic control devices will permit either or both barrels to be used, depending upon conditions.

An accident in one barrel may suggest its closing and the diversion of traffic to the other, permitting emergency vehicles to reach the accident without being delayed or delaying other vehicles. Maintenance will be faster, more economical and completely safe because a barrel under repair can be completely closed, with traffic diverted to the other barrel.

The widening of the northern 30 miles of the 131-mile long New Jersey Turnpike is one of the most formidable private road-building programs of recent years and will cost an average of about $11.5 million per mile, compared with $2.2 million per mile for the construction of the highway in 1951.

The northern 30 miles not only constitute the world's most heavily traveled toll road, and is the most expensive to expand, but it also accounts for about 60 per cent of the income of the New Jersey Turnpike.

After the outer barrels are completed with their access and exit ramps, traffic from the present highway will be switched to them and the inner barrels closed while they are ramped and joined with the outer three-lane sections.

Late Winter Sprays Help Control Pests

Dormant sprays help to control overwintering stages of several insects and mites claims John J. Kupcho, County Agricultural Agent of Essex County. Dormant miscible oil sprays are useful for controlling soft scales and some armored scale insects that attack shade trees.

By spraying when trees are dormant you can be sure of covering the bark of trunks and limbs. Select a clear, dry, sunny morning or early afternoon to do your spraying. Spray applications should be made after most danger of freezing nights has passed and before buds open.

As a word of caution dormant oil sprays should not be applied to birch, beech, sugar and Japanese maples, butternut, walnut and hickory trees. Oils may also injure Douglas fir flower buds and will temporarily remove the blue color from Colorado blue spruce.

ITT Division Gets Big Pact

Receipt of an Air Force contract in excess of $17 million for additional production of equipments of the new LORAN C-D hyperbolic navigation system was announced today by a division of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

Leon Himmel, president ITT Avionics Division, said that this award represents fulfillment of an expanding and urgent requirement of this highly accurate and reliable navigation system.

The microminiaturized LORAN C-D airborne system, AN-ARN-92, permits a pilot to navigate his aircraft precisely by simple left-right indicators in any kind of weather and any time of day or night.

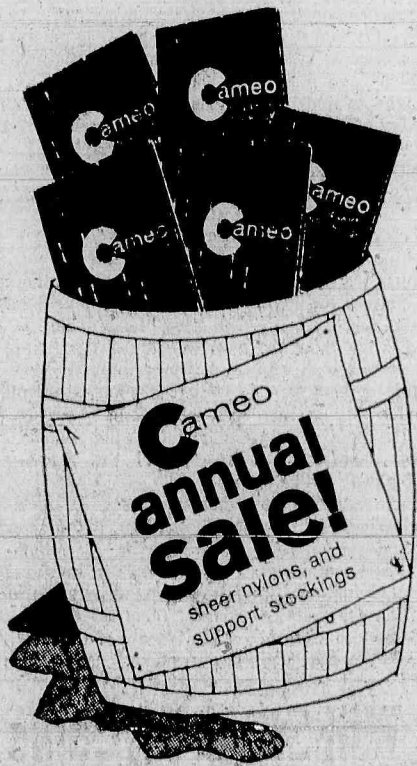

The contract was awarded by the U. S. Air Force Aeronautical Systems Division, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio.

Local American Legion Post 105 Plans For 49th Birth of National Organization

During the Month of March, The American Legion will observe its 49th Birthday with a nationwide "Salute to the American of Tomorrow." There is significance to the Legions emphasis of its anniversary stressing looking ahead when it could justifiably reflect on a proud record of achievement. Belleville Post 105, under the leadership of Commander Jack Gorman has continued long tradition of service to the community. Post 105 has fulfilled its obligation to the hospitalized veterans by its many parties and gifts to both East Orange Veterans Hospital and Lyons Hospital. Our programs among Belleville's children are "second to none. We will continue our many other projects to make Belleville the fine Town that it is."

On Monday, Post 105 together with auxiliary unit 105 will hold a gala birthday party at the Post Home, 621 Washington Avenue. Belleville unit president, Mrs. Patrick J. Lee, has formed a Committee to work with post members to make this a fine affair.

Commander Jack Gorman has announced a committee headed by Chairman Frank Kiernan has charge of all arrangements for the anniversary celebration.

As part of its preparation for the occasion Post 105 is winding up its 1968 membership drive. Post 105 has signed up many Vietnam Vets and is interested in all veterans in Belleville.

Any veteran who is interested and thinks he is eligible for membership is urged to contact membership chairman Patrick Wynn at 32 Beech Post Home, PL-9-6590.

Today presented a challenge to all veterans. Belleville Post 105 feels it is meeting this challenge by our devotion to mutual helpfulness. Helping the hospitalized, the unfortunate, the needy.

"We say to you Mr. "Veteran of Belleville" come and join with us in this great humanitarian effort. Your most welcome!" George K. Mitchell a veteran official said.

The American Legion was founded 49 years ago by a small group of war weary servicemen representing the various outfits of the AEF, meeting in Paris, France. These delegates - still in the uniform of their country and thousands of miles from home-set the foundation for civilian organization of war veterans dedicated to God and Country. Their aim has always been to perpetuate the lofty principles of Justice, Freedom and Democracy.

Today, four generations of war veterans are united under the banner of the American Legion. Each has helped to pay the price of our freedom. Each is aware that aggressive action to subjugate any portion of the world is a direct threat to the freedom of those who have already attained this right.

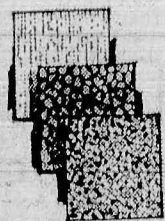

As the American Legion begins its 50th year of service to the community, state and nation it is not wasting time by reflecting on its many past accomplishments. Rather the nations largest organization of war veterans is taking a long hard look at the dynamic role it must play in the America of Tomorrow.
