Belleville Memorial For Dr. King

UNITED CLERGY — Among those who attended the 5 p.m. Palm Sunday service for the murdered Civil Rights leader, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King were: Mayor Kenneth D. Smith, Rev. Robert O. Shaver, Rabbi Henry Glazer, Rev. Mary Farrar, Dr. Converse Duell Rice, Rev. Howard Day, Father Francis Ignaciuinos, Rev. Benedetto Pascale, Rev. Fred Long, Rev. Albert Alspach, Rev. Alfred Stone, and the Rev. Warren Sheen.

SMITH SPEAKS — Mayor Kenneth D. Smith speaks out during the Belleville service for the slain leader of the Civil Rights movement in the United States, Martin Luther King. Mayor Smith stated that he was "shocked and ashamed" that for the second time the country has witnessed the violent death of a man of peace. He suggested that the best way for the community to honor Dr. King was to follow his ideas of non-violence.

Over 500 Show Up At Service

Belleville town officials and clergymen participated in Memorial services for Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, the Negro civil rights leader who was murdered last week in Memphis, Tenn.

The special services were quickly arranged for Palm Sunday by the Ministerium of Belleville, a union of local clergymen. The Belleville Reformed Church was the location of the memorial service and the church was filled beyond capacity to accommodate more than 500 worshippers.

The theme for the memorial, judging by the comments from the six speakers, was a tribute to Dr. King as a man with prophetic vision and as the leading exponent of the racial non-violence movement.

Angered and Ashamed

Mayor Kenneth D. Smith, obviously moved by the murder remarked, "As mayor of a city of 40,000 people, I am angered and ashamed because we are all responsible for King's death. There has been a change in our way of life. People have forgotten faith and religion. Less than 10 per cent of our people go to church today."

"Dr. King had faith in the ability of people to change. Belleville can make the greatest tribute to King by following the goals he had set. And that can bring us closer to him."

The Rev. Dr. Duell C. Rice, former pastor of the Union Baptist Church, Montclair, guest speaker, and a friend of Dr. King said, "Twice in our time we have been saddened by the news of assassination. In each case the victim had been innocent. The purpose in both cases was the act of murder to kill an idea by slaying the dreamer."

Sadness and Confusion

The Rev. Mr. Robert O. Shaver of the Belleville Reformed Church said, "The events

Belleville Churches Schedule Good Friday, Easter Services

Churches throughout Belleville have prepared their Good Friday services and Easter celebrations.

A union service will be held at Wesley Methodist Church on Good Friday from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. Rev. Warren P. Shea of Wesley is host pastor; Rev. Robert Shaver of the Belleville Reformed Church will present the sermon, and Rev. Albert Alspach of Bethany Evangelical Church will read the Scriptures.

Following the 1 p.m. service, residents are invited to go to the Essex County Hospital (Soho) to share in a worship service for Protestant patients. After this service a visitation of patients who are unable to attend will be held.

The evening service starting 8 p.m. at Bethany Lutheran Church will accommodate those unable to attend the afternoon service. Rev. Albert Alspach will be the worship leader, Rev. H. E. Goldston of Second Baptist Church will deliver the sermon and the Rev. Alfred W. Stone of Fessenden Memorial Presbyterian Church will read from the Scriptures.

Also participating in the townwide union service for Good Friday are: Rev. Benedetto Pascale of Silver Lake Baptist Church; Rev. John Mair of Grace Baptist Church; Rev. Howard Day of Montgomery Presbyterian Church; Rev. Anthony Di Quattro of the Belleville Assembly of God; and Rev. Mary A. Farrar of Little Zion UAME. Other Belleville ministers are scheduled to participate.

Belleville Assembly of God Replacing the Sunday School classes and the morning worship service, will be one combined Easter service, starting at 10 a.m. Rev. Anthony Di Quattro will deliver the Easter message and music will be provided by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Anthony Di Quattro. "King All Glorious" will be offered by the adult choir of the church.

The Belleville Assembly of God will also participate in the joint service held at Wesley Methodist Church and Bethany Lutheran Church.

Belleville Reformed Church A sunrise service to greet Easter morning will commence at 6:30 a.m. on the front steps of the church.

The service will be conducted by the young people of the parish with Shirley Kinsley, Edward Verhagen and Susan Wedekind speaking on "Why It Is Important To Me That Christ Rose." Robert Kolmer, a veteran of Vietnam explain how he felt the reality of God through his experiences in Vietnam.

At 9:30 a.m. the Church School will present an Easter Pageant with all the children participating. The main Easter service is scheduled for 11 a.m. Rev. Robert O. Shaver's sermon topic is "He Is Risen Indeed." The choir will do "In Joseph's Lovely Garden" by Helen Dickinson.

Maundy Thursday will be marked by Holy Communion Service at 8 p.m. with Rev. Shaver analyzing the question asked of Jesus, "Lord, Do You Wash My Feet."

The choir will be under the direction of David Holzhauser. Good Friday services will be celebrated in conjunction with the town-wide unity gathering at Wesley Methodist Church and Bethany Lutheran Church.

Bethany Lutheran Church Maundy Thursday Holy Communion Services will be held at 8 p.m. with Rev. Albert Alspach speaking. On Good Friday Bethany Lutheran Church will host eight churches for (Continued On Page 21)

Cherry Bloom Art Festival To Begin Soon

April 19 is the new deadline for entry filing in the first annual Cherry Blossom Art Festival in Belleville.

The festival which will be held April 20 and 21, will highlight the town's yearly salute to spring and the cherry blossoms which have placed Belleville on the map for springtime beauty seekers throughout the country.

Location of the art festival is Washington Avenue, the town's major thoroughfare.

Local Shop-Rite Has New Owner

The Shop-Rite Store at 189 Washington Avenue, Belleville, has been sold, but the change of ownership will not affect the employment of the current staff at the supermarket.

The local Shop-Rite was absorbed by Supermarket General Inc., with home offices in Crainford. The firm, which now owns 79 stores throughout New Jersey, New York, Delaware, Pennsylvania and Connecticut, acquired the Belleville supermarket only recently.

Originally known as Royal Shop-Rite, the Belleville supermarket has been located on Washington Avenue since 1957. Those workers will be retained under the supervision of Les Shauger, district manager for Supermarkets General. Clayton Shepherd, Belleville Shop-Rite manager, will continue to manage the local store.

Shepherd said he is very happy about the ownership change. "It's a good move," he said, "one which will mean extensive store remodeling, painting and general improvement."

Supermarkets General, among its other holdings, has a chain of 11 free standing drug stores, several Shop-Rite gas stations, the 22 units of Genung's Department Store and two major baking companies: the Huber Baking Co. and Freehoffer Baking Co.

Jaycees Committee To Select 10 Miss Cherry Blossom Finalists

A committee of Belleville Jaycees and their wives will select the ten finalists who will compete for the title of Miss Cherry Blossom 1968, on May 4 at Belleville High School.

Contestant chairman, Ron Lanzara indicated the largest number of entries the Jaycees have received this year for participation in the pageant in many years. The girls will be interviewed individually before the committee makes its decision of which ten young ladies should run in the finals. The Cherry Blossom Parade is fast approaching, and parade chairman, Hank Wozniak, has lined up dozens of bands, drum and bugle corps, floats, marching units, and costumed entertainers. The parade will begin at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 21.

Each year, the Jaycees receive many requests from bands wishing to participate in the Cherry Blossom Parade, because of the high ratings the parade has received in past years. Many units simply can't be utilized.

Another factor in the large crowd interest, is the introduction of the ten finalists who will compete for Miss Cherry Blossom 1968.

Each of the ten finalists will ride in a 1968 convertible with her name on the side of the auto. These same ten young ladies will vie for the "Queen Title" on May 4.

Judith Bonkowski, Miss Cherry Blossom 1967, will also appear in the parade, gracing the float which the Jaycees shall put in the line of march. There will also be a surprise entry in the parade as in past years.

How to Identify a QUACK

The American Medical Association Department of Investigation lists the following six simple indicators for spotting a "quack":

1. He uses a special or "secret" formula or machine that is claimed to cure disease.
2. He promises a quick or easy cure.
3. He advertises or uses case histories and testimonials to promote his cure.
4. He clamors constantly for medical investigation and recognition.
5. He claims medical men are persecuting him or are afraid of his competition.
6. He tells you that surgery, x-rays or drugs will cause more harm than good.

BELLEVILLE SERVICE — Rev. Alfred Stone of Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church shakes hands with Dr. Deul Converse Rice, pastor of Montclair Heights Reformed Church. Dr. Rice was the main speaker and personal friend of the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King. Dr. Rice stated that King throughout his life had always chosen "the more excellent way", even if it meant that he would have to endure hardship or death. Martin Luther King was a man of peace and men of peace are rare, according to Rice, in times of violence, such as these have proven to be.

American Legion Post 105 To Celebrate 35 Anniversary

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 105, plans to commemorate its 35th birthday.

All members of Post 105 are invited to share this occasion with the ladies, at the Post Home, 621 Washington Avenue, on the eve of April 25. The business meeting will be dispensed with so that the birthday party may be enjoyed.

Mrs. Arlene Danchak, child welfare program chairman, has been given a sum of money to help her in her work. A donation was sent to the American Legion Department of New Jersey, to help provide toys for various institutions, so that the children may be remembered.

April is appropriately the month in which the auxiliary members concentrate a little harder on their Child Welfare program.

Mrs. Vernon H. Randall, national president, writes that during her recent trip to Malaysia, she attended a groundbreaking ceremony at the site in Gombak, where the permanent hospital building of concrete block and cement floors will be constructed because of Auxiliary "pennies."

The native children will be able to receive much needed medical care without which they could not survive.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by hostess Mrs. Mary Kay and Mrs. Patrick J. Lee.

WILLIAM R. HARRIS

Harris Heads Committee Preparing For Hospital Centennial Celebration

William R. Harris of Essex Fells, President of United Advertising Corp., has been named Chairman of the committee preparing a series of events to mark the 100th Anniversary of Clara Maass Memorial Hospital of Belleville.

Harris has been a member of the hospital's Board of Trustees since 1966.

The highlight of the anniversary activities will be celebrated by a formal dinner-dance May 15th at the Westmount Country Club in West Paterson. Over 1,000 prominent in business, industry and the professions as well as state, county, and municipal officials are expected to attend.

A number of additional events are planned to mark the anniversary, including a campaign to raise funds for a new extended care building for the hospital.

In addition to membership on the Board of Trustees of the hospital, Harris is a director of the Carteret Savings and Loan Association; resident and Director of West Essex industrial park; a director of the Traffic Audit Bureau; a member of the Essex Fells Country Club and the Englewood Yacht Club. He is also a director and past president of the New Jersey Advertising Club.

Al Lange Orchestra to Offer Library Performance Free

The current season of free concerts at the Belleville Public Library will conclude on Sunday, April 21, with a concert by The Al Lange Orchestra.

The public is cordially invited to this special musical entertainment, beginning at 4 p.m. at the library, corner of Washington Avenue and Academy Street.

Lange, well-known Belleville musician, will present a varied program of popular music ranging from Broadway show tunes to the 'good old' standards and contemporary favorites.

The concert series, of which this program is the finale, has been sponsored by the Belleville Public Library in co-operation with The AF of M Local 16.

Essex Community Service Council Studies Welfare Budget in County

As part of its county-wide social planning program, the Essex County Community Services Council, representing the principal community councils of the county, has given serious study to the impact of Essex county's welfare budget upon the social, economic and educational life of the county. The Council is in complete agreement that welfare needs must be adequately provided, however it notes that there is immediate and urgent need for more equitable distribution of the costs.

Trouble at Tocks Island

(Today's guest editorialist is U.S. Senator Harrison A. Williams Jr.)

The Tocks Island Reservoir project, including the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area, which the New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania Congressional delegations have nursed along so carefully, appears to be in trouble.

This, in spite of the fact that the Federal Government has already spent approximately $33 million on planning and land acquisition.

The problem is rapidly rising cost and a falling "cost-benefit ratio", which is federal shorthand for how the cost of the project will compare with the monetary benefits it will bring.

Estimates of the cost of the project have risen each year and this year the Army Corps of Engineers has raised its estimate to $203 million, which is $6.7 million more than last year's estimate.

Several factors have contributed to these rising cost estimates. During the initial planning stages, several years ago, the Corps of Engineers miscalculated the difficulty in building the earthen dam which will back up a 40-thousand-acre reservoir on the Delaware River above the Water Gap. The proposed site for the dam has since been moved, with a resultant increase in estimated cost.

Including the proposed 46-thousand-acre National Recreation Area, some 96-thousand acres of land must be acquired and real estate prices in the area are skyrocketing. And, of course, construction costs rise each year.

To my way of thinking, all this is an argument for speeding up the land acquisition and, perhaps even advancing the proposed date for the start of construction.

As a matter of fact, we were successful, last year, in obtaining an increase in the appropriation for purchase of property in order to forestall speculators who were contributing to a rapid rise in the price of property in the area.

Unfortunately, the chairmen of the key subcommittees in the House and Senate, Rep. Michael Kirwan (D-Ohio) and Sen. Allen Ellender (D-La.) don't see it that way at this point.

They are talking about reconsidering the entire project, notwithstanding the money already spent.

It's discouraging. But the members of the three delegations are now amassing information to present to the two committees which, I believe, will be persuasive.

We can, for instance, point out that only a decade ago the Delaware River went on a rampage which caused many millions of dollars in damage and took dozens of lives. Flood control is one of the elements of the Tocks Island Project.

The five-year drought which ended only two years ago provides persuasive evidence that the billions of gallons of water which would be stored behind the dam are going to be desperately needed.

Industrial and commercial growth is reaching up into the Upper Delaware Valley and requirements for electric power are rising rapidly. The project will produce huge quantities of power.

But, to me, the most persuasive argument for the project is its recreation potential.

There will be a 40-thousand-acre lake, surrounded by a 46-thousand-acre National Recreation Area within an hour's drive of the No. Jersey suburbs, two hours from New York City and three hours from Philadelphia.

There will be fishing, swimming, camping, hiking, every conceivable outdoor activity in some of the most beautiful terrain in the East, as anyone who has visited the Delaware Water Gap or Sussex County knows.

Tocks Island will be a recreation asset for New Jersey matched only by the Atlantic Ocean.

Tax The Television Networks

Columnist Henry Taylor has proposed a tax on the television networks as a means of avoiding heavier taxes for the average working man. He points out that the government allows the networks and radio and TV stations to enjoy a monopoly on publicly-owned frequencies and channels.

Networks and television stations particularly have realized growing profits in recent years. Taylor says the networks increased profits a whopping 25 per cent in the last year, says profits are likely to increase in the future, as will the number of TV outlets.

Since the government renews licenses of radio and TV stations annually, at no cost, Taylor thinks the public is entitled to help from the networks in meeting today's tax burdens. He also proposes to charge the stations for license renewals.

The idea of a tax for somewhat exclusive use of the public's airwaves is worthy of consideration. Whether a tax for station renewals is meritorious, or would raise enough money to mean much in today's economic dilemma, is a question. It would seem, however, that some revenue for the public for use of the airwaves is not unreasonable. And when the networks can pay limited-talent entertainers millions a year obviously they can afford it.

Yet what is more badly needed, and what would more likely avoid higher taxes for the average man, is a law closing various tax loopholes currently existing. Church-owned businesses, for example, still operate tax-free at a great advantage and such ownership is mushrooming as a result. There are other inequities and loopholes which should be corrected if tax rates are to be hiked.

Striking Teachers in America

The nation has witnessed several educational crises in recent months.

As with workers employed in vital industries such as transportation, telephone, etc., a paramount consideration involving the strike question must be the public welfare.

Congress has, perhaps understandably, long dodged this issue. Whether it be compulsory arbitration by an impartial, specially created panel or by a special labor-management relations court, or by some other body, the vast majority is entitled to have its paramount interest protected against stoppages of vital services — in the least objectionable way possible.

U.S. Diet Habits Changing

In an important study by the Agriculture Department, just completed, it has been established that in the decade 1955 to 1965 American eating habits have taken a turn for the worse from the viewpoint of proper nutrition. Americans are eating more starches and rich sauces and not as many poultry products, fruits and vegetables.

It is the first time since the department began keeping records in 1936 on the dietary habits of Americans that the trend has been in the wrong direction. It is not simply a matter of income. Many in higher income brackets are eating an improper diet.

It is thought the cause, at least in part, is the trend among many toward more soft drinks rather than milk and milk products, and a trend toward more ready-baked goods and more meat and sauces.

In every section of the country the nutrients most commonly lacking in the diet were found to be calcium and vitamins A and C. Milk products, and fruits and vegetables, are the main sources of these. Thus those managing households — mothers particularly — might keep in mind the latest disturbing trend in the American diet and take what corrective action is desirable.

The department is meanwhile asking the milling and baking industries to review the possibility of enriching their products. (At present there is no requirement for enriching any bakery product other than bread.)

Seems Only Yesterday

ONE YEAR AGO

Belleville was preparing itself to meet one of the most beautiful aspects of spring — the Branch Brook Park cherry blossoms. The highlights of the day were to be a beauty pageant featuring 10 of Belleville's most attractive young women, and a gigantic, colorful parade, with Peter Rodino acting as grand marshal.

At this time last year the pigeon problem was still making front page news. Dr. Leon F. Whitney, a pigeon fancier agreed that some control should be exercised over the wild pigeons in the area which are known to carry communicable diseases, but stressed his opinion that those birds raised for racing purposes should be spared because they are free from infection.

George Budd was sentenced to 22 days imprisonment for illegally having a hypodermic in his possession.

5 YEARS AGO

Eighteen Newark teenagers were held by the Belleville police for making an unprovoked attack on four Belleville High football players. The Barringer High School boys were distributed in four cars which forced the car in which the Belleville boys were in, to the curbside. The attackers regretted their actions and some offered to pay for damages. Fortunately for all concerned, no one was injured.

Mrs. Therese A. Owens was charged with forging $38,417 worth of her employers check

The Old Timer
"The woman who'd dress to please her husband wears last year's clothes."

She made $39.00 a week, and justified the surplus to her husband by telling him that she made $150. She used the money to go to Broadway shows and for Miami vacations.

10 YEARS AGO

Jack Faust was chosen to head the United Jewish Appeal drive.

The Belleville area sought U.S. Grant for flood control of the third river to widen and deepen it, but it wasn't around to help.

Police attempted to stop a group of teens from attacking a member of their own age. When gentle persuasion proved of no avail, warning shots were fired, immediately after which both assailants and assailed disappeared.

15 YEARS AGO

A simulated bombing incident was arranged to aid Civil Defense training. Police and Firemen were especially busy with mock casualties and disasters.

Belleville churches set an admirable example in brotherhood, by overlooking the minor differences in belief to unite to prepare a special Easter program.

20 YEARS AGO

An article dealing with the cost of Easter clothes listed common responses as "terrific."

The petrean club decided to do a presentation of the musical "New Faces" which has since been revived a number of times, though not recently.

A big Variety show was put on for the Dolan fund, by the VFW. It was presented in hospital wards and at the high school.

Speak Up

Collecting Pet Cats, Dogs Lucrative Business Here

To The Times-News:

The operation of the orphanage and of the home for the aged is a civic responsibility. Whether these institutions are run by a town or by a charitable organization is immaterial. Would you consider turning over the management of such homes for these unfortunates to someone who might run them at a profit? Of course not!

Homeless dogs and cats roam the streets through no fault of their own. They are unwanted and abandoned by people. Are they not a civic responsibility, also?

The running of a dog pound and the employment of a dog warden are a responsibility of the people. It is the policy of the Humane Society of the United States to consider dog control a municipal duty.

Unfortunately, in New Jersey the collecting of stray cats and dogs has become a lucrative business. Cities and towns sign contracts with commercial pound operators who are in this work to make a profit, and wash their hands of an odious duty. What happens to all these unfortunate animals caught in the net of the roving dog catcher? By state law these animals have to be kept for seven days, but what after that? Do you believe these pound operators spend time and effort in finding homes for these strays?

Do you believe that these surplus animals are humanely destroyed?

New Jersey has many large drug concerns which create a tremendous demand for laboratory animals. Some of these concerns breed their own dogs, others buy them by the truckload. Many of these animals, formerly somebody's beloved pets, end up in laboratories. We leave it to your imagination as to why commercial pound operators grow and prosper in New Jersey.

Chairman, Humane Animal Association of Universal Foods Has Acquired Belleville's National Yeast Corp.

Russell D.L. Wirth, chairman of the Board of Universal Foods Corp., Milwaukee, Wis., announced today that the Board of Directors approved an agreement to purchase the outstanding stock of the National Yeast Corporation of Belleville.

Robert T. Foote, President of Universal Foods, stated that the acquisition will be consummated for an undisclosed amount of convertible preferred stock.

Foote said National Yeast recorded sales of approximately $6,500,000 in the fiscal year ending September 30, 1967. Its products are sold mainly to the baking industry in the New England area, the Eastern Seaboard the South-eastern region of the United States. This market is beyond Universal's present marketing area for products sold to the baking industry and gives Universal coast-to-coast distribution for this product line.

National's product line consists of compressed yeast, active dry yeast and a complete line of ingredients for bakeries similar to Universal's present line.

"The acquisition of National Yeast will enable Universal Foods to serve the baking industry on a nation-wide basis for the first time," Foote explained. He added that, "We will now be able to realize significant savings in our distribution costs for other Universal products, such as Italian cheese and chili, which utilize our over-the-road fleet. The fleet now serving the East Coast with these products will handle the distribution of National's yeast and other products. Yeast is a highly perishable product and shipping costs are a major factor in our operation."

"National Yeast, which employs approximately 250 people, has a large sales force on the East Coast. Their plant at Belleville is a well-equipped operation and can quickly be adapted to Universal's manufacturing operations. Consequently, the location of this plant will provide us with excellent national distribution."

Universal Foods has three yeast producing plants, located in Milwaukee; Belle Chasse, Louisiana; and Oakland, California.

Jewish War Veterans' Installation Next Week

North Essex Post No. 146, Jewish War Veterans of America and the Auxiliary will install officers next Wednesday at 8:30 p. m., at the Bloomfield Civic Center.

Albert Cohen of West Orange, state senior vice commander will install the newly elected officers who include: Ronald Levy, Commander; Oscar Nathans, Senior Vice Commander; David Dunsky, Junior Vice Commander, and Robert Rosen, second junior vice commander.

Guest speaker will be the Jewish War Veterans' State Commander Bob Zweiman whose topic will stress the emphasis and need for "Brotherhood." The topic will be publicized by a statewide billboard campaign sponsored by the JWV State Department.

Mrs. Shirley Fruchman of Livingston, president of the Essex County JWV Auxiliary, will be the installing officer for the following new officers: Ida Batkin, president; Mildred Salzman, senior vice president, and Shirley Komish, junior vice president.

Master Sergeant Hyman Reinstein, U. S. A. Retired, will act as officer of the day during the ceremonies.

Underground Electrical Units To Help Traffic Control

The Department of Transportation announced that it will receive bids April 25 on a contract for the installation of underground structures for traffic signals at various locations throughout the state.

The contract is based on the total number of installations the Department expects to make during the year at locations yet to be determined on the State Highway System.

Under this arrangement, a Department spokesman explained, the contractor does the basic non-electrical construction work, freeing the Department's electricians to perform their own specialties.

Public Letdown May Hurt College Bond Issue Vote

Public disappointment over the State's failure to expand public higher education may actually hurt future efforts for expansion, the New Jersey Education Association is cautioning teachers.

"If there is to be a college bond issue this fall — and obviously expansion is desperately needed — we face a public with a great many expectations which have been left unfulfilled," says an editorial in the current issue of the NJEA REVIEW, the monthly journal for New Jersey teachers. A bond issue drive, the REVIEW adds, "will not be an easy campaign."

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

One reads a lot these days about X ray radiation emanating from color TV receivers. It seems that everybody gets in the act, not only Federal Agencies, which are responsible for the control of these matters, also, some State and even local people get in on it and try to get some mileage out of it, as far as publicity is concerned.

The whole thing started with a defect in one model by one company. This has been blown up all out of proportion, making it appear as if there is a widespread problem, which is not the case.

The Federal Standards require that this radiation is not up to exceed a certain level at a distance of 5 centimeters, which is about 2 inches, from the set. We found that the luminous dial on a wrist watch had a greater amount of radiation than any color TV set we had in the store.

If you sit the normal viewing distance away from the set, you don't have a thing to worry about.

We service what we sell.

Knuppel Still Vice President Of Essex Guidance Directors

Herman Knuppel, director of Student Personnel Services for the Belleville Public Schools has been elected Vice-President of the Essex County Guidance Directors' Roundtable for the 1968-69 school year.

Knuppel is also the co-chairman of the Reverse Vocational-Technical School Program that will be conducted at Essex County Vocational High School in Irvington.

Over 30 public and private schools in Essex County will participate in this program on May 14, 1968. The purpose of this conference which has been set up by the guidance directors is to invite all guidance counselors and industrial arts personnel in the area to learn more about the facilities, costs and programs of the private and public vocational and technical schools.

Only professional personnel are invited and refreshments will be served through the courtesy of the Essex County Guidance Directors' Roundtable.

SOCIAL AND CLUB NEWS OF COMMUNITY INTEREST

Belleville Women's Club Attends Special Day at Department Store

In support of the 34th annual observation of Club-woman Day at Hahne & Company of Newark on March 21, members and friends of the Woman's Club of Belleville registered in the name of the local organization beginning at 9 a.m.

Each registrant received a fresh daffodil, a special cosmetic gift and free admission to one of the two of the famous fashion shows putting all clubwomen in a springtime mood. There were special events throughout the store. Table setting, flower arranging, gourmet cooking, special china, silver and glassware exhibits were among the many interesting and exciting displays and demonstrations arranged for the pleasure of the club members and friends.

After the morning fashion show, a drawing was held by the store and Mrs. Richard H. Drake of the Evening Membership department was the lucky winner of a Lady Schick facial suana. Various specials were offered throughout the store and a percentage of the day's income is given by Hahne & Company to support the Federation magazine. "The New Jersey Clubwoman." Last year about $1700 was realized for this purpose.

Those who attended from the club included: Miss Margaret Macmillan, Mrs. Mary Kinloch, Mrs. David Parry, Mrs. Floyd M. Haring, Mrs. Dwight N. Streeter, Mrs. William R. Kropp, Mrs. William A. Baker, Mrs. John Bass, Mrs. H. Irving Russell, Mrs. Douglas Clark, Mrs. William Oertel, Mrs. Peter Spera, Mrs. William J. Morrison, Mrs. Michael Kiszkiel, Mrs. Richard A. Drake and Mrs. James Hollander.

Airline Awards Wings To Joanne M. Pokluda

Miss Joanne Maria Pokluda, daughter of Mrs. Mary Pokluda, 132 Overlook Avenue, has been awarded the silver wings of an American Airlines stewardess after completing training at American's Stewardess College, Fort Worth, Texas.

She has been assigned to flight duty out of New York City.

Miss Pokluda, who was born in Camden, graduated from Belleville High in 1964. She later received a diploma in business from Berkeley Secretarial School. Prior to joining American Airlines, she was employed at 3M Business Products, East Orange.

She is 5'5" tall with light brown hair and hazel eyes.

Miss Pokluda graduated with the eighteenth class of the year at American's unique Stewardess College. During her seven-week training period she studied more than 100 different courses, ranging from make-up and grooming to in-flight food service and theory of flight.

'Crime Prevention Kit' Presented Mrs. Johnson by Business Women

A crime prevention program by the 178,000 member National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs was launched recently with the presentation of a Crime Prevention Kit to Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson at the White House. The kit — a "how-to-do-it" program for action by BPW members in their 3800 local clubs — was presented by Mabel R. McClanahan, Federation president, of Appleton, Wisc.

Mrs. McClanahan, who had first discussed the forthcoming kit with Mrs. Johnson at a White House luncheon earlier this year, said that BPW was "responding to the challenge to all citizens to accept the responsibility to stand up for law and justice and to prevent crime."

figures and goals of the new Garden State Arts Center, scheduled to open in late spring.

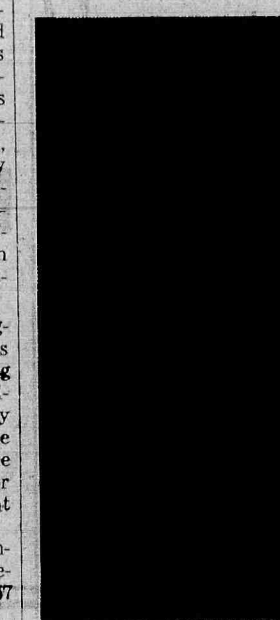

Flynn, substituting for Center Director D. Louis Conte, who was unable to appear because of illness, said that although the arts center seems costly, the tab of a little more than six million would not be sufficient for even minor improvements on one stretch of highway.

Management of the center has not yet reconciled itself to the thought of having a yearly deficit, like most such organizations, Flynn said. As of today so many thousands have expressed an interest in subscriptions that it is possible the center may support itself in spite of the high cost of talent, he said.

The local chapter, Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield, and Nutley, was organized in 1953, and has grown from a membership of 30 to nearly 100. The club has received many expressions of appreciation from local officials for its keen interest in civic affairs.

Teenagers Confront Difficulties Of Caring For Sick Youngsters

FUTURE SITTERS — Over eighty teenagers attended Tri-Town's first session and listened intently as the intricacies of caring for very young children were explained to them by a doctor from Clara Maass. The course, arranged by the Tri-Town Woman's Club, is designed to prepare teenagers for any of the problems that might crop up during their employment as baby sitters.

The Baby - Sitting course, sponsored by Tri - Town Business and Professional Women's Club of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley, and Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, began Saturday, March 30, with eighty teen - agers in attendance. Classes are held in the Doctors' Lecture Hall.

Dr. Arthur Fost, Pediatrician on the staff of the Hospital, discussed at the opening session "What to do if a Child becomes ill when you are Baby - Sitting."

The following sessions will be, April 6, Miss Janice Lores, R.N., Assistant Supervisor of Obstetrics, of the Hospital "Instruction on Diapering, Feeding, Bathing and Handling of Babies"; April 13, the Belleville Fire Department and the Bloomfield Police Department; April 20, the Nutley First Aid Squad and on April 27, the final session, "Keeping the Child Busy while Baby-Sitting" with Mrs. Martin Burns, Kindergarten Teacher, School 5, Belleville, in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daniel Giuliano Were Wed In Forest Hills Church

Joy Ann Heller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Heller, Heller Parkway, Newark, and John Daniel Giuliano, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Giuliano, Valley Street, Newark, were married Saturday afternoon, March 30th in the Forest Hill Presbyterian Church. Reverend John La. Forte officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sheer silk organza over taffeta dress with pearl encrusted Chantilly lace trim and chapel train. A queen's crown of Alencon lace with pearl and crystal droplets held an elbow length veil of imported silk illusion. Her flowers were a cascade of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Helene Francus, maid of honor, wore an amethyst, empire waist, floor length velvet gown, and carried a cascade of lavender orchids.

The bridesmaids, Miss Lenora De Bacco and Miss Rosemarie Giuliano, sister of the groom wore identical gowns of champagne pink and carried pink rosebuds. Each attendant wore an ivory rosebud necklace, gift of the bride.

John Cucuzzo served as best man. Ushers were Bernd Wilm and Robert Giuliano, brother of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Heller wore a parchment beige lace dress with matching coat. Her corsage was a white orchids.

The mother of the groom wore an aquamarine dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

A reception for guests followed. Hostesses were Mrs. Lawrence McMillen, cousin of the bride, Miss Marilyn Laraway, Miss Carol Roch and Miss Laura Dell Aguzzo.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Giuliano left for a wedding trip, the bride wore a bisque crocheted dress with matching accessories and the orchids from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a senior at Ohio State University. The groom is with the International Business Machine Corporation.

PTA Program Covers Varieties of Vacations

The PTA at School No. 3 presented a timely program on camping and vacations April 1. Mrs. Charles Neiningner showed slides and discussed traveling while on vacation. Mrs. Robert Schultz talked about "staying put."

Charles Hill and Norman Thompson discussed the use and care of camp equipment. Representatives of both the YMCA and the Scouts spoke of their camping programs.

An outdoor atmosphere prevailed, with tent and campfire, and a sing-around the campfire was enthusiastically organized.

WHEN DO YOU HAVE AN EMPTY STOMACH?
Sometimes a physician may direct you to take a medicine on an empty stomach. For example, some penicillin is about twice as effective when taken on an empty stomach. Three hours after a meal all the food in the stomach has moved to the next digestive process. It is empty.
If you do not exactly know how to use any medicine and your physician or dentist is not available to answer questions, ask us. The odds are we can immediately give you the correct answer. Never take chances. We are glad to help.
YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

Local Women Bring Home Awards In Art, Garden Plants, Needlepoint

Achievement Day for the American home, art and garden and conservation departments of the Eighth District of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs held at the YMCA in Bayonne, March 27, provided the members of these departments in the Woman's Club of Belleville with an opportunity to enter competition and to display their talents.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Richard A. Shafter, president, a representation went for the day planned by the Eighth District American home department chairman, Mrs. Thomas Scala of Bayonne.

A table of items made by this department was exhibited by Mrs. Arthur Touw, American home chairman for the Belleville club. It included items made by Mrs. Arthur G. White, Mrs. Gerald Patterson, Mrs. H. Irving Russell, Mrs. William R. Kropp and Mrs. Arthur Touw.

Awards for the art department entries included a third award to Mrs. Douglas Clark in Oils - Professional, and Mrs. Floyd M. Haring took first award in amateur watercolor with her "Materials for Flower Arrangement." In the class Oil - Amateur, first award went to Mrs. Haring's

"Prelude to Weaving," an interesting study of bobbins and loom parts used for weaving. Third award was given to Mrs. H. Irving Russell for her still life, "Prize Dahlias."

Garden and conservation entries included House Plants Class I - African violets, in which Mrs. Arthur Mooney took second place. Mrs. Floyd M. Haring won a second place in House Plants Class III - Any Flowering Plant, with an unusual begonia. For the American home entry, Mrs. Mooney's red and white needlepoint footstool won third place in Needlepoint - predesigned.

New Arts Center Subscription List Being Prepared

The Garden State Arts Center has announced it would start mailing out subscription order forms for the premiere 1968 summer season by April 15th.

The subscription brochures will go first to the priority mailing list of New Jersey residents compiled during the past three months from personal requests by the public at large.

The Arts Center, located at Telegraph Hill Park on the Garden State Parkway here, will open June 15th with the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra conducted by Eugene Ormandy and guest pianist Van Cliburn.

Subscription orders will be filled on a first-come basis from the priority list mailing returns. No other reservations will be accepted before then, and individual ticket sales will not begin until May.

The priority mailing list has risen above 15,000 names and addresses representing an indicated order of some 40,000 tickets. However, there will be several subscription series offered for the first season.

Most of the more than 5,000 seats under the roof in the Arts Center's amphitheater — the focal point of the recreational-cultural complex — will be available for subscription. However, a portion will be reserved for individual ticket sales at each performance.

In addition, some 3,500 to 5,000 lawn spaces will be sold on an unreserved basis starting 10 days prior to each performance. Ticket outlets are planned in various locations throughout the State on and off the Parkway.

Play Competition Now Sponsored By Essex CYO

An even dozen Essex County CYO units have entered the CYO's annual One-Act Play Contest with four parishes competing in each of the three preliminary shows which will lead to the County Finals on Tuesday, April 23 in Holy Family School, Nutley.

Two outstanding performers will be selected at each of the three preliminary contests with the best show each evening qualifying for the finals.

St. Peter's of Belleville and Holy Family, Nutley will swing into action at St. Peter's School on Monday, April 15. The host school will lead off the evening at 7:30 p.m. with its presentation of "Child Wonder," directed by Charles Sutter and written by Pete Williams.

The cast will include Jerry Maloney, Camille ePtti, Sharon Delaney, Maureen Madara, Rocco Ferraro and Paul Cloutier.

Holy Family will follow with "Plus ca Change..." with Phyllis Restaino directing.

Also appearing will be St. Catherine of Siena, Cedar Grove and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, Newark.

Group Seeks UFO Sightings

In cooperation with the United States Air Force, The UFO Investigations Committee at the University of Colorado, and the National Investigations committee has been set up for the New Jersey area and the Eastern Seaboard of the United States.

Anyone can report a UFO sighting by writing to the committee at 77 Glass Avenue, Belleville, for full investigation. Anyone interested in joining the committee is also welcome.

Free Chamber Music Concert Set for Newark

The Contemporary Chamber Ensemble will present a free concert Wednesday (April 17) at 8 p.m. in the Newark Museum, 49 Washington St., as part of the Conklin Concert Series of Rutgers in Newark.

The Ensemble, led by Arthur Weisberg, was established in residence at the State University through a Rockefeller Foundation grant to promote the appreciation and composing of contemporary music. Members of the Ensemble are drawn from the New York Woodwind Quintet, the Manhattan Percussion Ensemble, the Beaux Arts and Claremont String Quartets and other groups.

On Friday, April 19, Rutgers in Newark will present a piano recital by Graciela Beretervide of Argentina at 2:30 p.m. in the Campus Center, 350 High Street, Newark.

15-Acre Airco Chemical and Plastics Industry Is Sold Recently to Passaic Industrial Center

Sale of the 15-acre Airco chemical and plastics industrial complex in Belleville, comprising a total of 350,000 square feet of floor space, for redevelopment as an industrial center, has been reported by David Kislak, president of the J. I. Kislak Organization, whose realty firm negotiated the transaction.

The property is assessed at $1.5 million.

Buyer was Abe Ellis, of Orange, owner of the 670,000 square foot Passaic Industrial Center and other prominent properties here and in New York.

Ellis purchased that ten-building complex on Eighth Street, Passaic, through the Kislak firm, about five years ago. Acquisition of the Belleville property increases his industrial terminal facilities to more than a million square feet.

The Airco plant, at one time known as Federal Industries, comprises some 40 interconnected buildings, mostly one-story in height. They are solidly built to accommodate the heaviest of industrial operations.

The plant is on Main Street, facing Route 21. Kislak has been appointed leasing broker for the new center.

Airco, a division of Air Re-

BELLEVILLE INDUSTRY SOLD—The 15-acre Airco Chemical Co. was sold recently to the Passaic Industrial Center which is located on an adjoining tract of land in Passaic.

duction Co., Inc., has used this plant mainly for the production of vinyl upholstery fabrics, principally for the automotive industry.

The chemical and plastics firm will remain in Belleville until July. It is then expected to transfer operations to several other company facilities, including those in Parsip-pany-Troy Hills, Bound Brook, and Ohio.

The parent company's real estate director, O. Lee Snyder, of New York, represented Air Reduction in the sale.

A. Hanson Appointed Executive

The appointment of Albert L. Hanson as president of the Merchandising Equipment Group of Walter Kidde & Company, Inc. of Belleville has been announced by the company.

The Merchandising Equipment Group includes Kidde's Weber Showcase & Fixture, M. & D. Store Fixtures, General Fixture Co., Morris Manufacturing Company and Young Industries, Inc. Headquartered in Los Angeles, the Merchandising Equipment Group manufactures and supplies retail merchandising fixtures, displays and accessories and provides interior design, planning and layout services.

Prior to joining Kidde, Hanson was president of Hill Refrigeration Corporation, Los Angeles, for eight years. Before president of Hill National Refrigeration Sales, Inc., Los Angeles, for eight years. Before that he was vice president and general manager of Drayer-Hanson, Inc., Los Angeles.

A graduate of the University of Southern California with a degree in industrial engineering, Hanson is a member of the Engineering Advisory Board at USC and a director of the university's Engineering Alumni Association. He is a former president of the Los Angeles chapter of the American society of Refrigeration & Air Conditioning Engineers and the Los Angeles chapter of the Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Contractors Association. A native of Los Angeles, he is married and the father of two children.

Movie Hour For Children Now Slated

The Children's Department of the Belleville Public Library will again present two showings of the children's movie hour this month on Saturday April 27th at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Highlighting the program will be a colorful animated tale entitled "Dragon's Tears" about a ferocious dragon and the magic that takes place when a little boy invites him to his birthday party.

Also to be shown is the famous symphonic classic "The Sorcerer's Apprentice", a unique blending of music, bright pastels and characterization.

Completing the Movie Hour will be a color film on a trip to "Yosemite", one of the most interesting national parks in the United States. Viewers will see the beautiful waterfalls and the "high country" seen only by a few Yosemite visitors.

Remember the date, April 27th, at either 10:30 A.M. or 2:30 P.M. at the Belleville Public Library, corner of Washington Avenue and Academy Street.

All children are invited to this entertaining movie hour.

Let's Finish The Job. Vote Reform Republican

Last November, the good people of Essex County went to the polls, determined to rid the county of hack politicians and behind-the-scenes bossism. They wanted to put into office men and women of inner integrity, candidates who had a sense of duty to the people who elected them.

The heart-warming election returns gratified everyone who believes in the cause of good and decent government. REFORM REPUBLICANS elected eleven of their twelve candidates.

But another election soon will be here.

There are three Congressmen to be elected. When in our history has there been a more urgent need in the halls of Congress for men who are completely dedicated to our country's welfare? For our nation is in trouble, deep trouble, and patriotism and political honesty have no substitute.

There are, too, three Freeholders to be elected. The REFORM REPUBLICANS will again present to the voters candidates who are worthy and qualified in every respect. These Freeholder candidates — indeed the whole REFORM REPUBLICAN ticket — will need your loyalty and support.

The bitter taste of defeat last November will drive the same old political machine to any extreme in order to regain power. They must not succeed. Indeed the fight of REFORM REPUBLICANS has just commenced and threatens to be a continuing one.

If you share our high purpose, if you share our hope and trust in the future of our country, join us in this crusade.

Insurance Company Reports Impressive Sales Listing

Impressive gains in sales, premium and investment income were achieved by Intercontinental Life Insurance Company in 1967, Lawrence E. Stern, company president, reported.

In a report to the Company's stockholders, Mr. Stern said he was pleased to announce that the significant increases were recorded in Intercontinental's second full year of operation.

"I am delighted to report that our Company has continued its rapid growth," said Stern. "We have successfully passed through a difficult period for most companies — the second year."

Educators Decry Tuition Hike

The New Jersey Education Association has urged the state to enact five reforms before considering any increase in tuition at the six state colleges.

A tuition increase now would be "improper" and "unjustifiable," said Dr. Frederick L. Hipp, NJEA's executive secretary — "a special tax" on the college student "to raise funds for the New Jersey treasury."

"Instead," Dr. Hipp urged, "the state should take responsible action to expand and improve public higher education in New Jersey from more general revenue sources."

The tuition increase was suggested last week during testimony of Higher Education Chancellor Ralph A. Dungan before the Legislature's Joint Appropriations Committee.

A tightwad is a man who refuses to spend his money as other people want him to spend it.

Kevin A. Brennan is among 50 general agency field representatives of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. who attended the Lifeline Career Conference recently at the company's home office in Boston.

Brennan, who resides at 10 Bellevue Court, Belleville, is a representative for the Newark general agency at 570 Broad Street, in Newark.

The representatives from various sections of the nation are selected to attend the week-long session on the basis of their outstanding qualifications.

The conference, with key home office personnel participating, is designed to keep John Hancock representatives up to date on new trends in the life insurance business and within the company.

Brennan is enrolled in the business management program at Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Moore to Visit Poland USSR This Summer

Robert W. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Moore of 1 Elena Place, Belleville, is visiting Poland and the Soviet Union this summer under the Experiment in International Living Program. Moore is currently a junior at Paterson State College.

The Experiment in International Living has been engaged in international educational exchange since its founder, Dr. Donald B. Watt, first introduced a group of American youths to their French and German-speaking counterparts in Switzerland in 1932. It is now a world-wide organization with representatives in some 60 countries, annually conducting the exchange of more than 5,000 young men and women between the United States and 100 other nations. The Experiment introduced the homestay to international exchange, a concept widely adopted by many other agencies.

An outbound "Experiment" group typically comprises from ten to twelve men and women between the ages of 16 and 20, under the guidance of a specially trained leader, who lives for one month as the "son" or "daughter" of a family abroad. This first-hand opportunity to develop friendships, to learn the customs and traditions of another country, and to participate in the daily life of an "adopted" family is the heart of every Experiment program.

During the second month the American Experimenters travel in the host country, usually accompanied by members of their new families, or engage in work or study projects. During 1967, 2,315 Experimenters visited 44 different countries. They included some 500 participants in overseas study programs jointly sponsored by the Experiment and approximately two dozen U.S. colleges and universities. During 1967, 2,777 persons from 100 nations also visited the United States on Experiment programs.

Children's Movie Hour Successful in Belleville

Following the successful turnouts for each of the two showings of the Children's Movie Hour last month, the Children's Department of the Belleville Public Library will again present both a morning and an afternoon showing of the program on Saturday March 23rd at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

The gay and enchanting color fantasy "Golden Fish" will be the featured movie. This story about a boy, his goldfish, a canary and a marauding cat is guaranteed to amuse the children of all ages.

Also on the program will be three filmstrips. "Custard the Dragon" is a delightfully rhyming tale about a girl, her dog, cat, mouse, and her cowardly dragon, and children will especially enjoy singing along with "The Fox Went Out on a Chilly Night" and "I know An Old Lady" two popular folk songs pictured on color film.

Public speaking is easy. It's the thinking before you speak that's hard.

Fleck Becomes Registrar For East Orange College

Prof. Theodore B. Fleck, director of admissions at Upsala College since 1958, was recently appointed registrar of the East Orange college. Dr. Carl G. Fjellman, president of Upsala, announced that Prof. Fleck will assume his new administrative duties beginning July 1.

In addition to his responsibilities as Registrar, Prof. Fleck will serve as coordinator of a program developed for students from disadvantaged and a typical backgrounds. In this role, his duties will include identification and recruitment of students, aiding in their adjustment to college, and maintaining close liaison with administrative offices in other institutions.

Safety is Essex
Seminar Topic

What to do when a victim stops breathing will be one of the lifesaving highlights of "Rescue," a safety symposium sponsored by the Essex County Medical Society for police, first-aid, and rescue squads from throughout the state on April 20 at North Junior High School in Bloomfield.

Emergency methods for drownings, poisonings, a cute asthma and coronary attacks, shock, and smoke asphyxiation will be discussed by Calvin E. Oyer, M.D., Chairman of the Society's Cardiology Committee, along with other physician-members.

According to Dr. Oyer, afternoon demonstrations will feature the use of Resuci-Anne mannikens provided by the Essex County Heart Association. "These," said the doctor,
"will give participants a chance to actually apply what they have heard and to adapt the most efficient method of emergency treatment."

The pulmonary emergencies will be demonstrated by Frank M. Gallo, M.D., coordinator of the symposium, and Chairman of the Society's First Aid Advisory Committee. Use of airways and other resuscitation methods and when they should be used will be shown.

Dr. Oyer is an associate in medicine at St. James Hospital and an associate in medicine and cardiology at St. Michael's, Newark, and West
Hudson Hospital.

Dr. Gallo is director of an-

Coach Lally Sees Successful Season

The Belleville High School crew teams open their season this afternoon at 3:30 p.m. on the Passaic River. They meet St. Augusta High School, a team from Atlantic City.

And the Belleville oarsmen are approaching their first contest with considerable enthusiasm. Coach Mike Lally looks forward to a successful season. His men have been for weeks gliding along the Passaic River from Wallington to Newark Bay catching the attention of interested bystanders.

Lally's premonition of success is based on the fact his four boats have been hitting the water daily since March 16. And as the days grew longer and longer so did the practice sessions for the 63 Belleville oarsmen.

Stretching into the twilight hours, Lally drilled his men, constantly emphasizing a longer reach, a harder catch, and a more sustained drive. Lally has had his first two boats working on pyramids of power strokes and an exercise designed to promote quicker hands on the recovery.

Is it all working? Lally thinks so. He has taught his oarsmen to develop endurance and a refined form. The varsity has logged most of the 400 miles needed to be ready for this afternoon's match. The final race will be visible from Kearny's Riverbank Park.

But with the meaningful progression which is achieved through practice, the crew teams have also been hampered with problems. One afternoon the varsity had difficulties with rough waters. Their shell began to sink into the river. Pulled from the water the boys assessed the damage to the shell: a few bruises on the skin of the boat. Other than that the shell was still in excellent condition.

The other handicap Belleville faces is their lack of varsity lettermen returning this year to man the number one boat.

The varsity shell will hold bow, Angelo Corino; two, Michael De Feo; three, James Bernarducci; four, Richard Beresford; five, Peter Mueller; six, Stanley Keegan; seven, Peter Faltraco; stroke, Ken Murray and Cox, Michael Maglio.

The returning lettermen are Keegan, Faltraco and Murray.

The junior varsity unit includes, Larry Fink, Allen De Feo, Russel Jerrusik, Roy Newman, Garry Corino, Bill Breckenridge, Larry Gonnello, Scott Fabian and Joseph Zarro.

Reviewing the season, Lally admitted that the important game to watch will be the match with Nutley. He maintains that the game will be close. And forecasts the race might possibly end within five seconds between the two competing teams.

OUTGOING SHELL — Crew Coach Mike Lally offers last minute instructions to members of his varsity squad Peter Mueller, Rich Beresford, Mike Defeo, and Angelo Corino. The team will meet the St. Augusta unit from Atlantic City this afternoon at 3:30 p.m. on the Passaic River.

Three Tax Experts Heard On Seton Hall Radio Show

Three income tax experts will appear on the "Do You Know" program of Seton Hall University's radio station WSOU at 7:00 P.M. on Tuesday.

Ethel Abeles, of South Orange, producer and hostess of this award winning weekly program, will have Irving Fantl, a Certified Public Accountant and accounting professor at Seton Hall, IRS Agent

Harry Ostrowsky and IRS International Issues Examiner David Levine as her guests. The panel will discuss Federal tax law as it affects the average taxpayer and homeowner. Recent changes covering medical expense reporting and dependency exemptions will be included.

Mrs. Abeles reports that she has planned the program to help listeners who have not yet filed their 1967 Federal income tax returns.

RIVER CONGESTION — Members of Belleville's Varsity crew team pause to gaze at ships which occupy Passaic River waters as they row up the major artery.

CATCHES A CRAB — Junior varsity oarsman Ron DeJonge caught a crab, during a practice race with the varsity shell. Coach Mike Lally assesses it.

Senior Citizens Should Drive

Despite visual changes due to age, the older adult in most instances should not have to give up driving which gives him the mobility so important to his independence. This information was released recently by Dr. James Washington, secretary of the Essex Optometric Society in conjunction with the 41st annual observance of Save Your Vision Week.

"However," Dr. Washington commented, "older drivers should recognize their limitations and confine their driving to places, speeds and hours in which they are most comfortable and most competent."

Because aging makes the eyes more susceptible to vision problems, Dr. Washington cautioned older drivers to have a professional vision examination once a year to detect and correct frequent changes in sight brought about by age.

A compliment remains the best way of insuring cooperation once a year to detect and correct frequent changes in sight brought about by age.

The best way to get your share of the wealth of the country is to work hard for it.

Biancardi Association to Sponsor Bugle Corps Competition Locally

The Joseph G. Biancardi Civic Association will sponsor a Drum and Bugle Corps competition on Saturday, June 1st, at 1:30 p.m. at the Belleville High School Stadium.

Foremost Drum and Bugle Corps in the eastern seaboard will participate in this competition.

Participants include: Garfield Cadets, Hawthorne Muchachos, St. Lucy's Cadets, Ridgemen from Our Lady of Perpetual Help, St. Joseph the Patron Cadets and Audubon Bon Bon Girls.

Robert Moore At Conference

Robert Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Moore of 1 Elena Place, Belleville, attended the Eastern States Association for Teacher Education's Forty-third Annual Spring Conference in New York City March 21, 22 and 23.

Moore, a junior at Paterson State College in Wayne, was selected along with five other students to represent the college, at the conference.

There will also be an exhibition by Belleville Sabre Cadets, and the St. Lucy's Kaydettes.

Rain date for this affair is Saturday, June 8th. Belleville's Commissioner William Cullen has been designated as honorary chairman.

Approximately 7000 people are expected to attend this affair. Money derived from this project will be as has been customary, with all the Biancardi Association functions, donated exclusively for charitable purposes.

Meadowlands Reclamation Bill Approval Sought by N.J. Agency

Speedy approval of the bipartisan Dickinson - Guarini bill (S-477) to reclaim the Hackensack Meadowlands was urged today by the New Jersey Committee of Regional Plan Association.

Pointing to pockets of high unemployment in cities surrounding the Hackensack Meadows — Bayonne, Hoboken, Jersey City area, Hackensack, Lodi, Garfield area; Passaic,

Floral, Landscape Paintings Sought for Art Festival

Amateur floral and landscape painters are invited to enter their best paintings in a competition April 27 at the New York Botanical Garden in the Bronx.

This will be the first floral Art Day at the Botanical Garden and in addition to the competition there will be demonstrations on the grounds at Historic Landmark.

Two divisions will be conducted: young adults, 12 through 15 years of age, and any adult 16 years or over.

First prize in the competition (both classes combined), will be a $600 scholarship to the Famous Artists' School. Certificates and plants will be awarded the top three entries in each division.

Paterson area; and the Newark, Elizabeth area — the Regional Plan Committee noted that reclamation of the 25,000-acre marsh would provide immediate work for many unskilled and semiskilled workers and, when reclaimed, the Meadowlands would offer prime space for manufacturing within range of a large labor force if low-skilled persons.

"Private investors stand ready to move sizable amounts of private capital into construction in this area," the statement observes, even with land values that include the cost of reclamation.

The Association's New Jersey Committee particularly supported the provisions for State leadership in the development, which it has called for since 1963. In the current bill, the Committee noted, municipalities could protect their rights with a veto over policy proposals, but the State would retain the initiative and could override the municipal veto by a vote of four out of five members of the proposed State commission. These provisions are required to provide economical reclamation and a well-planned area for use, the Committee feels.

There is also a formula aimed at fair distribution of taxes among the ten municipalities which have part of the Meadowlands within their boundaries.

Manufacturing Plants Are Listed in Manual

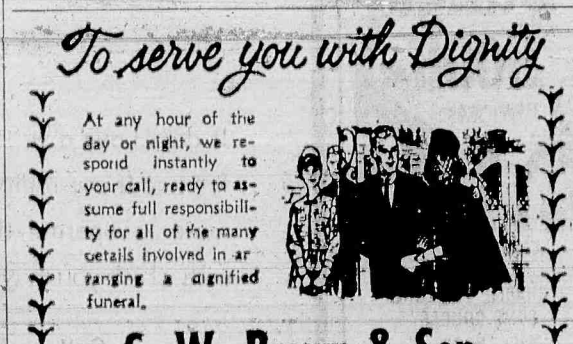

A listing of 15,208 manufacturing establishments throughout the State's 21 counties has been published by the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Conservation Commissioner

Robert A. Roe said the booklet, published as Research Report 147, presents a factual summary of New Jersey's diversified industrial activities since the statistics are based on the U.S. Census of Manufacturers.

Manufacturing plants are listed by counties, showing the types of industries to be found in each, together with number of plants in each employment size. The latter is the annual average for 1963 as reported by the individual establishments.

Belleville Industries Pledge Money To New Jersey Symphony Fund

A combined fund drive for the New Jersey Symphony and Symphony Hall, Inc. has been completed with total pledges of $800,332, thereby exceeding the campaign goal of $650,000 by more than $150,000.

Belleville industries made donations to the fund. This was announced yesterday by W. Paul Stillman chairman of the drive, at a reception at the Robert Treat Hotel here making the conclusion of the campaign. The affair was attended by Governor Richard Hughes and leading officials connected with the drive and the two benefiting institutions.

The statewide fund drive, which was launched only last November 22, was the first in the history of New Jersey to bring more than $100,000 from private sources in a single effort for institutions in the field of the performing arts.

Stillman, who is Chairman of the Board of First National State Bank of New Jersey and also Chairman of the Board of Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, called the campaign result "New Jersey's declaration of cultural independence from New York and Philadelphia."

Governor Hughes noted that nearly all of the pledges were made by corporations headquartered in the state's major operations here. "Once again, our great corporate citizens have demonstrated their willingness, indeed their eagerness, to contribute their resources and their support to the attainment of a better New Jersey and better lives for the people," he declared.

"The welfare of the people of our state and the whole fabric of society in New Jersey are greatly enhanced by the development of our own, strong cultural institutions," the Governor stated. "I believe the culmination of this drive is an historic landmark in New Jersey's cultural life."

The $800,000 is to be divided equally between the two institutions.

Orville E. Beal, treasurer of the campaign and president of the Prudential Insurance Company of America, said that about 110 corporations contributed to the fund drive. He called that a "heartwarming demonstration of corporate interest in the development of the arts for all people of New Jersey." Beal said also that a number of individuals contributed generously.

Others who participated in the occasion at which the campaign conclusion was announced were: Henry P. Becton, president of the New Jersey Symphony, and Charles Laing, president of the Board of Trustees of Symphony Hall.

The Symphony plans to use its share of the drive to help match a Ford Foundation grant. The grant, awarded in 1966, was for $650,000, of which $500,000 was in matching funds.

The Symphony, at the time the campaign started, already had received about $200,000 in separate pledges toward the matching of the grant. Those pledges, plus the eventual payment to the Symphony of approximately $400,000 (The Symphony's share of the pledges to the fund drive), and the subsequent payment of the Ford Foundation funds, will enable the Symphony to establish a million dollar endowment fund, Becton said.

"We have felt that the establishment of such a fund would be the most crucial step in making our state's orchestra one of the truly great orchestras of the nation," Becton said. "Now this fund is clearly committed, and we are determined to follow through on the course we have set for ourselves."

The Ford grant stipulates that besides matching the $500,000, the Symphony must also raise $90,000 in operating funds annually for each of five consecutive years.

"We have much hard work ahead of us to realize our dreams for our orchestra," Becton said, "but it is all within reach, if we remain really determined."

Symphony Hall, formerly known as the Mosque Theater, was fully remodeled in 1964 and its management was taken over by a non-profit organization. The 3,365 seat concert hall is widely recognized as one of the best such auditoriums in the nation.

Laing said that the Symphony Hall share of the campaign proceeds "indirectly will enable us to strengthen our programs aimed at the cultural education of the young people of Northern New Jersey."

Both the Symphony and Symphony Hall conduct extensive programs directed at student audiences. Each institution now reaches over 150,000 young people a year, many of them from low-income core city areas. Both the Symphony and Symphony Hall plan further expansion of these programs.

The New Jersey Symphony last month announced the appointment, effective June 1, of Henry Lewis as Music Director of the Symphony, to replace Kenneth Schermerhorn, who will assume a similar position next fall with the Milwaukee Symphony, Lewis, who is from Los Angeles, is internationally recognized, having been guest conductor with leading orchestras both in the United States and Europe.

Among the larger contributors, and the amounts given, were the following:

Allied Chemical Corporation, 4,500; L. Barnberger & Company, 22,500; Becton, Dickinson & Company, 30,000; Beneficial Finance Company, $6,000; Engelhardt Industries, 45,000; First National State Bank of New Jersey, $60,000; First Trenton National Bank, $45,000; Frank Grad & Sons, $5,000; Hahne & Company - Lord & Taylor, $7,500; Hess Oil and Chemical Corporation, $22,500; Hoffmann - La Roche, Inc., $30,000; International Business Machines Corporation, $6,000; International Telephone & Telegraph Corporation, $6,000; Johnson & Johnson, $9,000; J. Stockholm Philharmonic To Offer New Work in N.Y.

The Stockholm Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Antal Dorati, will be presented in a program of Bartok, Sibelius, Berlioz - and the New York premiere of a work by Karl Birger Blomdahl. Mr. Blomdahl's composition, "Sisyphos", was written as a choreographic suite, based on the Greek myth. The Stockholm Orchestra, although taken on tour in Europe by some of the world's foremost conductors, including Arturo Toscanini, is making its first tour of the United States. Antal Dorati (now Music Director of the Orchestra) the recipient of six Grand Prix du Disque, and has conducted recordings of several of the works being performed in the American tour.

St. Vincent's Hospital Becomes Disaster Unit

St. Vincent's Hospital has signed a contract with the U.S. Public Health Service to become the first voluntary hospital in this area to establish a specialized disaster treatment facility, it was announced today by Sister Clare Dolores, administrator.

In establishing the unit, St. Vincent's will affiliate with the Essex County Sanatorium in Caldwell which will provide the 15,000 cubic-feet of operational space for the mobile unit. An additional 7,200 cubic-feet of space will also be provided by the county facility for storage of the pre-packaged unit until use is required in a community emergency or disaster.

Kidde Appoints New Executives

The advancement of three executives to corporate vice presidencies has been announced by Walter Kidde & Co. Inc. of Belleville. They are Bernard N. Ames, president of Columbian Bronze Corporation, a division of Kidde; James J. Brown, corporate controller, and John L. Kidde, director of international operations. The three new corporate vice presidents will also retain their present positions.

Ames has been president of Columbian Bronze for 12 years. The operation, based in Freeport, Long Island, manufactures marine propellers and marine electronic equipment. Prior to joining Columbian Bronze, Ames was a research engineer for the U. S. Navy's Laboratory of Applied Science.

Ames earned bachelor's and master's degrees in metallurgy, chemistry and ceramics from the University of Alabama. He is a member of the board of directors of United States Lines Company. He also is a member of the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers, the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, the American Foundrymen's Society and the American Society for Testing Materials.

Was Former Manager

Brown joined Kidde as assistant controller and director of planning in 1965 and was promoted to controller the same year. He formerly was manager of the Eastern regional audit staff of Litton Industries, Inc. at Orange, New Jersey, and before that was a

Easter Celebrated In Town's Churches

Belleville's Community Good Friday service. It will start at 8 p.m.

At 6:30 a.m. Easter morning, the sunrise service will commence with the Rev. Alspach officiating.

The church choir under the direction of Mrs. Robert Schulz will sing "Break Forth Into Joy," by Caleb Simper. Guest organist, Herbert Taylor, will perform. Richard Bradley will give a trumpet solo.

There will be a 7:45 a.m. Easter breakfast for all the parishioners. At 9:30 a.m. the Sunday Church school will present a pageant, a biography of Christ in word, song and pantomime, in Beisler Hall.

Main services will begin at 11 a.m. with the same music as the sunrise ceremony. Rev. Alspach has selected for his sermon, "Choose Ye This Day."

Christ Episcopal Church

Thursday at 8 p.m. there will be Holy Communion and sermon. Good Friday services will be extended from 12 a.m. - 3 p.m. and includes Ante-Communion and the Way of the Cross with meditations based on the story of Christ's Passion.

Easter Day will have Festival Eucharist and sermon at the 7 a.m., 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. services. Rev. Fred Long will speak to the congregation.

Special music will be sung under the direction of John M. Markoe, organist and choir master. All choirs will sing.

Congregation Ahavath Achim

On Friday night, which is the first night of Passover, services will commence at 6:15 p.m. and there will be lighting of the candles.

Seder ritual will be observed on both Friday and Saturday night in individual homes.

Regular services will be held Saturday and Sunday morning at 9 a.m. Passover Festival concludes on April 20 with a memorial ceremony, dedicated to the memory of those departed.

Rabbi Henry Glazer will officiate at the service.

Two anthems will be sung by the choir, "Oh, Perfect Life of Love" and "God So Loved The World" at the Maundy Thursday Holy Communion Service, starting at 8 p.m. Rev. Alfred W. Stone's sermon is entitled "Is It I."

On Easter, there will be two services, one at 9:30 a.m. and the other at 11 a.m. "Blow, Golden Trumpets" by Wild will be offered by the Chancel and Westminster choirs. The junior choir will render "Alleluia" by Mozart. Pamela Coon will solo.

Mrs. Eric Hulme, organist and choir director, will play "Tunes for Chimes, and Trumpets" by Saxton. "The Events of Easter" will be Rev. Stone's sermon topic.

Fewsmith will also participate in the community-wide Good Friday service.

Grace Baptist Church

Easter service will be held at 11 a.m. Sunday morning, with the Rev. John Mair speaking on "The Day Dawn." Soloist will be Mrs. Harriet Hammel, who will be singing "The Holy City." Mrs. Roberta Wertz is the music director. Church choir will be singing "The Banner of the Crucified" by Keating.

Dedication of infants will be held Sunday morning.

Grace Baptist Church will participate in Belleville's Union Service on Good Friday.

Montgomery Presbyterian Church

Maundy Thursday service will begin at 8 p.m. with Rev. Howard Day speaking on "Is It I" Anthem, "Go, to Dark Gethsemane" by Noble, will be delivered by the senior choir. Benediction response will be "God, So Loved the World" by Stainer.

Sunday, Easter service will start at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Easter message delivered by Rev. Day will be "You Seek Jesus."

The senior choir will offer "Introit Carol" by Edmonson and the anthem will be "The Lord Hath Arisen" arranged by Rutenbeck. The combined junior and seniors choirs will sing a closing anthem "In Joseph's Lovely Garden" by Dickinson.

St. Anthony's R.C. Church

Thursday at 8 p.m. a celebrated Mass by the priests of the parish will be celebrated, commemorating the Lords Supper. It will be followed by a Eucharist procession.

Visits may be made to the church all through the night. Sermon topic will be "The Commandment To Love One Another." Good Friday at 1 p.m. there will be public recitation of the Stations of the Cross.

At 3 p.m. there will be a Solemn liturgical and communion service. Holy Saturday ceremony for Easter vigil will begin at 10:45, followed by the midnight mass.

Masses on Sunday will be at 7:30, 9, 10, 11, and 12 a.m. The Mass at noon will be a High Mass with the "The Resurrection" as the sermon topic. Children choirs of the school will be singing at all the services.

St. Peter's Church

ST. PETER'S, 159 William Street, the Most Rev. Joseph A. Costello, pastor, Sunday masses, 6, 7, 8 (high) 9:30, 10:45, 12 auditorium. Saturdays of Holy Days, 4 to 5:30 and 7:30 to 9 p.m. Daily after 7 p.m. Mass. Baptism, Sundays at 2 p.m. Novena in honor of Miraculous Medal, 7:45 p.m. Marriage arrangements should be made six weeks in advance.

Second Baptist

Stephens and Academy St., Rev. Hendersen Goldston, pastor. Sunday - 9:30 a.m. Easter Sunday Service; 11 a.m. Easter service.

Silver Lake Baptist Church

Holy Communion service will be held at 7:30 p.m. with the sermon topic the "Meaning of Holy Communion," delivered by the Pastor, Rev. Benedetto Pascale.

On Good Friday, the church will be open from 12 a.m. to 3 p.m. for worship.

Lantern slides on the "Crucifixion of Christ" will be shown at 7:30 p.m. There will be appropriate music at both services.

Easter Sunday at 6:30 p.m. there will be a sunrise service in the church garden. Breakfast will be served at the parsonage. It will be followed by an egg hunt for children. At 11 a.m. there will be a special service with both the junior and senior choirs singing. The recessional will be "The Crowning with Many Crowns." Rev. Benedetto Pascale will have as his sermon topic "He Is Risen." Soloists will be Mrs. A. L. Brunetto and Mrs. Rose Gerace.

Little Zion UAME

154 Stephens St. Dr. Mary A. Farrar, pastor. Sunday - 11 a.m. Easter Sunday service with the Easter message by the Pastor.

Wesley Methodist Church

Tonight a Communion Service will be held at 8 p.m. Dr. Lawrence H. Richards, Superintendent of the Eastern District of the Northern New Jersey Conference of The Methodist Church will be conducting this service, assisted by Rev. Mary Lou Bedarbis, Assistant Minister of Wesley Church. Special music by the choir include "Since By Man Came Death" by the Jubilate Choir; "God So Loved the World" and "Could Ye Not Watch?" by the Chancel Choir. Guest Soloist will be Mrs. Lester Aulenbach.

Easter Sunday services begin with a Sunrise Service at 6 a.m. in Branch Brook Park, Belleville, near the Third River Bridge. This is sponsored by the Methodist Youth Fellowships of Wesley, and the public is cordially invited to join in this worship service. In the event of rain, the service will be at Wesley Methodist Church.

The morning worship services will be at 9:30 and 11 a.m. The sermon topic chosen by Rev. Sheen is "Risen Indeed." Special anthems presented by the choir include "Now the Green Blade Riseth" by the Jubilate Choir; Fanfare for Easter" by the Chancel Choir, and "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah" by both choirs. As a benediction at the close of the services, the combined choir will sing "Christ, We Do All Adore Thee" from Du Bois' "Seven Last Words of Christ."

Experts look into the question of why we live; average citizens might attend to the "how we live" problem.

The danger in ignorance is that so many people have it without the least suspecting it.

Cheerleaders Throughout Northwest Will Compete

Cheerleaders from throughout the northwestern part of the nation will descend on Bloomfield College on August 4-9 for some lively educational activity.

The event is the first annual University of Cheerleading Summer Workshop conducted by the International Cheerleading Foundation, Inc., a non profit organization headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri.

Junior and high school pepsters and their faculty advisors, will reside on the Bloomfield campus. During the period they will learn more than 25 separate segments of the cheerleading field including cheer techniques, Bruin High Step pom-pom routines, uniform fashion design, public speaking, tumbling and gymnastics, to name a few. Of vital importance will be the concentration on teaching pepsters the facets of good student and moral leadership.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Anna Lockward, 84 Succumbs at Clara Maass

Mrs. Anna Hozack Lockward, 84, of 346 Little St., died March 29 at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital. She was the widow of Arthur Lockward. Born in Belleville, Mrs. Lockward lived there most of her life. She was a member of Wesley Methodist Church, Belleville.

Newark College Will Host Writers-Teachers Session

Newark College of Engineering will be host to the first annual New Jersey's Writers-Teachers Conference, an all-day program to be held on the NCE campus April 27. Highlight of conference will be a series of candid workshops at which noted local authors will discuss their writing methods with the several hundred New Jersey teachers expected to attend.

Sponsoring the conference is the New Jersey Association of Teachers of English, who have traditionally presented provocative programs for its membership.

The funeral was held April 1 from the Jewish Memorial Chapel. Interment was at King Solomon's Cemetery.

Martha Atkins, Local Resident For 35 Years

Mrs. Martha J. Atkins, 74, died March 30 at Presbyterian Hospital, New York, after a short illness. She lived at 215 Passaic Avenue, Passaic.

Mrs. Atkins resided in Belleville for over 35 years, coming here from Passaic in 1919. She is the widow of Abram Atkins, who was a member of the Congregation AAA and proprietor of the Boston Store, Belleville.

Mrs. Atkins leaves two sons, Dr. Leonard Atkins of Boston and Dr. Harold Atkins of Centerport, New York; a daughter, Mrs. Muriel Schneider of Ledyard, Connecticut; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Stark and Mrs. Rose Rosenstone, both of Passaic, and five grandchildren.

The funeral was held April 1 from the Jewish Memorial Chapel. Interment was at King Solomon's Cemetery.

High Mass Is Held For Mrs. Donhauser

A High Mass was held yesterday at St. Peter's Church in memory of Mrs. Mary A. Donhauser, who died April 7. She was 70 years of age and lived at 15 Hornblower Avenue.

She was a lifelong resident of Belleville.

Mrs. Donhauser leaves her husband, Leonard J.; her daughter, Mary D. Southard of Belleville; her son John Donhauser of Pompton Lakes; her brother James A. Murray of Belleville; two sisters, Mrs. Joseph A. Weiss of Belleville, Mrs. Geneva Goebel of Cedar Grove and four grandchildren. Services were from the the Kiernan Funeral Home, 101 Union Avenue.

Bayley-Seton Holds Meeting

The Bayley-Seton League of Seton Hall University held its monthly meeting on March 15, at 1:30 p.m. in the Bishop Dougherty Student Center, Theater in the Round. Presiding were Rev. Daniel A. Murphy, moderator and Mrs. Frank J. Bolen of Glen Ridge, president.

The affair featured a return engagement by Bill Sempler and Bob Pagano, part of the famed musical group "The Trioliers" who entertained at the Chanticleer last year. Sempler is a Montclair State graduate and has appeared on TV. Pagano has a master's degree from the Manhattan School of Music. Mrs. Robert J. O'Connell of Montclair was program Chairman.

The person who smiles throughout the day, doesn't have sense enough to know what's going on, or else too much to care.

CARD OF THANKS

MILESKI - Deeming it impossible to thank all in person, I take this means of expressing our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our relatives and friends for all their assistance, words of consolation, floral tributes, and spiritual prayers at the death of our beloved husband and father JOSEPH MILESKI. Especially we wish to thank Rev. Henry Junciewicz of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Rev. Francis Bloske of Holy Family Church, The Nutley Police Department, and The Nutley Fire Squad for all they did for our behalf.

Upsala Athletic Contests
 Although baseball will take a major portion of the sports spotlight at Upsala College this spring, 35 other athletic contests involving the Viking golf, tennis and track teams are on tap.

Coach Fred Wieboldt's golf squad, which will make its home base at the East Orange Golf Club in Short Hills, will play nine matches, which opened at home against Moravian on April 1. In addition, the Upsala golfers will com-at the Knoll Golf Club in Boon-ton.

Hughes at Groundbreaking
 Gov. Richard J. Hughes,
 Transportation Commissioner David J. Goldberg and Trenton Mayor Carmen J. Armenti officiated at a groundbreaking ceremony March 5 at Trent House, South Warren Street, for the one-mile extension of the Route 29 Freeway south from Willow Street to Ferry Street, the Department of Transportation announced recently.

The ceremony marked the start of construction under a $7,488,525 contract awarded to
 S. J. Groves and Sons Co.,
 Woodbridge, on February 22.
 Invitations were extended to state, city, county, Hamilton Township and Federal Bureau of Public Roads officials, as well as local dignitaries.

Davidson was general manager of the company's Northern Area since March
 1967. A graduate of Cornell University, he served three years with the U. S. Navy. He joined New Jersey Bell as a student engineer in 1946. He held several posts in the commercial department and was appointed division commercial manager in the company's Hudson division in 1962. He served as executive assistant and assistant comptroller before his appointment as general manager.

 He and his wife have three daughters and a son and live at 36 Browning Road, Short Hills.

Ford holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Maryland and a Master of Business Administration from Rutgers University. He served three years with the U.
 S. Army. He joined New Jersey Bell in 1954 as a splicer.
 After serving in various capacities he was named to the plant staff at A.T. & T. in 1961.

Kierstead was graduated from Wesleyan University in 1943 and then served three years in the U.S. Navy. He joined New Jersey Bell in 1948 and served in various traffic department assignments in the same capacity in the Hudson and Essex Divisions before his appointment as general directory supervisor in 1966.

Kierstead was a member of the Livingston Board of Education from 1963 to 1967. He, his wife, and two children live at 49 Heron Road, Livingston.

Bell Telephone Co. Announces New Vice Pres., Other Changes

William F. Davidson of Short Hills, general manager of New Jersey Bell's Northern Area, was elected vice president — staff by the company's Board of Directors, effective April 1. He will be succeeded in his present position by Samuel C. Ford of Wayne, general directory manager.

In his new position, Davidson will be responsible for the staff operations of the plant, traffic, commercial and directory departments of the company. Ford will be responsible for the telephone company's operations in Morris and Passaic counties and parts of Bergen, Essex, Somerset, Hunterdon, Warren and Sussex counties.

Other changes announced by the company at the same time were: J. Kenneth Looloian of Madison, vice president and general manager of the company's metropolitan area, has been named assistant vice president of American Telephone and Telegraph Co.; David H. Henderson of Chatham, vice president — staff, will succeed Looloian; and Marvin S. Kierstead of Livingston, will succeed Ford as general directory manager.

Davidson has been general manager of the company's Northern Area since March 1967. A graduate of Cornell University, he served three years with the U. S. Navy. He joined New Jersey Bell as a student engineer in 1946. He held several posts in the commercial department and was

Business Briefs

By JOE STIOCO and JACK GUREWITZ

NNE Operations Rise
 National Newark & Essex Bank reported recently that net operating earnings for the first quarter of 1968 were $1,478,818 or $1.01 per share, up from $1.00 per share earned in the first three months of 1967, based on the average number of shares outstanding during the respective periods.

The bank also reported that total deposits as of March 31, 1968, amounted to $535,416,455, as compared with $497,001,123 a year ago.

Total resources were $613,682,972, on March 31, 1968, as against 562,374,958, on the same date last year.

New Trust Officer
 Russell N. Glatz has joined National Newark & Essex Bank as a trust officer, it was announced today by Gustave E. Wiedenmayer, president.

Mr. Glatz comes to National Newark & Essex from the First National Iron Bank of N.J., Morristown, N.J., where he was an assistant trust officer. Before that, he was with Fiduciary Trust Company of New York.

Mr. Glatz holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Rutgers - The State University. He also attended the Graduate School at New York University.

Mr. Glatz is married and has one child. He lives in Boonton Township, New Jersey.

Brouillard Appointed
 Robert A. Brouillard, of 127 Lakeside Drive, Nutley, has recently been appointed as an agent with the Northern New Jersey Agency of The Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati.

Mr. Brouillard brings to this position a wide range of experience in life and casualty insurance activities with the Brouillard Insurance Agency of Jersey City operated by his father, Auguste W. Brouillard. In addition, he has spent six years in association with Scott Planning Company in Newark, specializing in the sale of combined programs of life insurance and investments.

After attending public schools in Jersey City, Brouillard received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Management at Rutgers University in Newark, where he was a member of the University College Honor Society and Beta Rho Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, a business and professional fraternity.

 Currently vice president of the Yantacaw School P.T.A. and president-elect of that group, Brouillard resides at 127 Lakeside Drive with his wife, Jane, and their three children, Linda, Lois, and Robert, Jr.

Ford Tournament
 C. Edward Schaefer, President of Havens Ford, Inc., Bound Brook, N.J., will be general chairman of the 1968 $150,000 Thunderbird Golf Classic, which was announced recently by Robert J. Murphy, President of the Newark Division Ford Dealers Advertising Association which annually sponsors the tournament.

Schaefer also is vice-president of the Newark District Dealers, who comprise Ford dealers throughout New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania and New York State west of the Hudson River.

Schaefer succeeds Michael C. Nappa as general chairman. He has been prominent in Ford promotions since the first Thunderbird was held at the Upper Montclair Country Club, Clifton, N.J., where it again will be held from August 30 through September 2, Friday through Monday, Labor Day.

As in the past, the proceeds will go to United Cerebral Palsy and affiliated charities. The six tournaments already held raised more than $900,000 for various charities. Last year's Thunderbird, which was won by Arnold Palmer, raised $153,000 for Cerebral Palsy and its affiliates.

New ITT Teleprinter
 A teleprinter donated by ITT World Communications Inc., a subsidiary of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation, will assist radio amateurs in developing a 432-megacycle radio relay station to be placed on the moon in the early 1970's.

The ITT teleprinter will be used by the Nassau College Amateur Satellite Tracking (NASTAR) organization in Garden City, L.I., for relaying progress reports, specifications and other data on Project MOONRAY to Radio Amateurs worldwide.

The aim of this project is to send an active electronic radio repeater to the moon, so that the amateurs can communicate with each other by line-of-sight radio via the lunar station. Project MOONRAY's target objective is to have the five-to 10-pound repeater placed on the moon by members of the third U.S. manned expedition.

In announcing the gift, James R. McNitt, president of ITT Worldcom, praised the NASTAR group for its work in the communications field.

Recalling that both Marconi and Bell were amateurs when they produced their inventions, Mr. McNitt termed the experiment "a pioneering effort which will help advance amateur radio techniques in all countries."

NASTAR has been planning Project MOONRAY for seven years, and has members and technical advisors in West Germany, Switzerland, Australia and Puerto Rico, as well as in the continental United States.

ITT Worldcom has made several contributions to the space-age advancement of amateur radio. In 1966, it joined two other ITT companies in providing a parametric amplifier for Project Telek, an educational satellite communications organization in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. More recently, the ITT subsidiary supplied 25 teleprinters to the Military Affiliate Radio System (MARS) in New Jersey, which provides back-up communications for the armed forces and civil defense organizations in time of emergency or national disaster.

H. F. Brennan Promoted
 Henry F. Brennan, 464 Kingsland Street, Nutley, has been promoted to electronic systems analyst in the Prudential Insurance Co.'s insurance services department.

He joined Prudential in 1952, after graduating from St. Benedict's Preparatory School, and was a programming analyst before this promotion.

Brennan is married to the former Mary Walsh of Newark. They have three daughters and a son.

Those who have traveled will tell you some of the greatest tourist attractions are right here in the United States.

(This column is a weekly glimpse at the variety of books currently available at the Belleville Public Library.)
The Outsiders, By S. E. Hinton. (New York: The Viking Press, 1967).

Many novels now have a sociological point of view; they place their characters into a well-known or well-defined social scene; they attempt to show social pressures at work. This novel is one of them, yet rather different in its way, for it was written about teenagers, by a teenager.

It tells about the world of teenage gangs; in the city of the novel the Greasers, a group of East side underprivileged youths, is opposed to the Socs, West Side rich kids who have cars and better clothes, but are essentially the same in their outlook, though "a little cooler".

The essential monotony of gang life is well portrayed. It is a world that never much varies in its offerings, bounded by the snooker and ball games, the sodas and movies, the streets where one may walk and the streets where one is out-of-bound. The monotony is probably responsible for the outbreaks of violence between the gangs.

Ponboy Curtis is the main character; he, his brothers Sodapop and Darry, their friends Two-Bit, and Steve and Dallas, are clearly defined in their dress, their speech and their habits. Their rough hair, their poor clothes, the constant lack of educational or other real opportunities, are galling to Ponyboy.

He is beaten up by the Socs; he begins to carry a weapon and tries to appropriate a Soc girl cheerleader. Out walking with Johnny, the pair finally get into real trouble. The Socs attack them and try to drown him in a municipal fountain; Johnny kills the Soc boy with his knife and both lam out of town into an old church in the hills. There they wait for days until another member of the gang appears; by this time Johnny has decided that he will go back and give up to the police; but on the way out they find the old church in flames.

They promptly make heroes of themselves by rescuing some small children trapped in the burning building. Johnny however, is injured by a falling timber and finally dies. Ponyboy participates in a big rumble with the Socs, the book's climax, but has had to endure seeing the breakup of his friendships through gang violence.

The abrupt maturing of a youth through these bitter circumstances can be felt in this sensitively written, interesting book.

Cardiology College Convenes

Dr. George D. Burch of Tulane University in New Orleans, president-elect of American College of Cardiology was one of the three featured speakers at the New Jersey Heart Association's nineteenth Annual Scientific Sessions held in Newark's Robert Treat Hotel, March 27.

Dr. Burch was one of the U.S. heart surgeons who called for a three month moratorium on human heart transplants earlier at the Cardiology College's San Francisco Convention.

Dr. Christian Barnard, the South African surgeon who performed the world's first transplant three months ago, later declined to accept the moratorium request.

The Heart Association's 1968 Sessions opened in the Grand Ballroom of the Robert Treat at 2 p.m. following a noon hour press conference featuring a panel composed of five leading heart specialists including Dr. Burch; Dr. Thomas M. McMillan III, president of the New Jersey Heart Association; and Dr. Arthur Bernstein the group's immediate past-president.

John F. Dunn Becomes U.S. Navy Commander

A former aviation electronic technician, working with aircraft electronic equipment, is a Navy commander today. Commander John F. Dunn, 34, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Dunn, of 8 Bell Street, Belleville, was advanced to commander and pinned on his silver oakleaves six weeks later.

A Navy pilot, Dunn entered the Navy in Feb. 1952, and qualified for flight training in May 1953. He earned his wings through the Naval Aviation Cadet program in Nov. 1954. "I've always enjoyed flying. But my most demanding and precise flying is during carrier operations, particularly night carrier landings," said Dunn.

Presently Commander Dunn works in the Air Intelligence Department specializing in photo reconnaissance for Rear Admiral Ralph W. Cousins, commander of the Seventh Fleet's Attack Carrier Striking Force in the Tonkin Gulf. Dunn's work is conducted aboard the force's flagship, USS Kitty Hawk, one of five cruisers and destroyers, carrying out the daily campaign against North Vietnam's supply lines by Naval gunfire and air strikes.

James T. Duff Wins Outstanding Award

Airman First Class James T. Duff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Duff of 52 Smith Street, Belleville, has been recognized for helping his unit earn the U. S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

Airman Duff, a security policeman in the Air Defense Command's 57th Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Keflavik Airport, Iceland, will wear a distinctive service ribbon as a permanent decoration.

The unit was cited for achieving an exceptionally meritorious rating from April, 1966 through May, 1967. The

Student Loans Increasing Throughout New Jersey

An increase of 61.7 per cent in the number of loans to New Jersey students attending colleges was reported today by the State Department of Higher Education.

The report covered the first half of this fiscal year, the period from July 1 through December 31. The number of loans was 20,169, an increase of 7,702 over the first half of the previous fiscal year. They totalled $20,491,245 an increase of $7,956,240.

The average loan increased from $1,005.46 to $1,015.98.

Both state-guaranteed and federally-insured loans were counted in the totals.

State-guaranteed loans numbered 15,587, an increase of 3,120 or 25 per cent. They amounted to $16,150,894, up $3,615,899 or 23.8 per cent.

In addition, there were 4,582 federally-insured loans totaling $4,340,351. The federal program was initiated in October 1967 because state reserve funds were fully committed.

ITT To Expand National Data Service Network

ITT Data Services has announced a multi-million dollar program to expand its commercial data processing operations throughout the United States by establishing additional service centers in more than 20 major cities over the next two years.

Robert A. Leonard, president of this division of International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. said "the new centers will be linked by high speed low-speed data transmission lines to the division's existing computer facilities in such major metropolitan areas as Boston, Los Angeles and New York."

Chuck Connolly Flies His First Solo Flight

Naval Reserve Ensign Charles S. Connolly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Connolly of 128 Carpenter Street, Belleville, has flown his first solo flight.

The flight was made in a T34 "Mentor" trainer aircraft after approximately one month with Training Squadron One at Saufley Field, Naval Auxiliary Field.

The "Mentor" is the military version of the civilian Beechcraft "Bonanza."

He will continue on to more advanced phases of his flight training for approximately 13 more months, before receiving his pilot's "Wings of Gold."
