Ecumenical Commissioners Receive Bids Service Set On Ice Skating Rinks, Paving

Thanksgiving Eve Ceremony Is Second

Nine Belleville churches will join in an inter-denominational Thanksgiving Day service at the Belleville Reformed Church tonight at 8.

The service will mark the second year that the churches in the Belleville area have gotten together as members of a community which believes in the same God, and have offered their thanks to that God for all the good things that have taken place during the year.

Participating churches for the affair will be the Second Baptist Church, the Little Zion A.M.E. Church, Montgomery Presbyterian Church, Bethany Lutheran Church, Belleville Congregation of God Church, Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church, Grace Baptist Church, St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, and Belleville Reformed Church.

Last year's service drew over 250 people, and it is hoped that an even larger turnout will present itself this year to ask God's blessing on the community of Belleville.

The Liturgist for the evening will be the Rev. Robert Shaver of the host Belleville Reformed Church. The preacher will be the Rev. Howard Day of Montgomery Presbyterian Church.

Serving as readers will be the Rev. DiQuattro of the Belleville Congregation of God Church, and the Rev. John Mair of Grace Baptist Church.

The prayer for the evening will be given by the Rev. Albert Alspach of Bethany Lutheran Church.

The Thanksgiving Eve services are not the first attempts at ecumenical worship in Belleville. The town clergymen have formed a Ministerium, and it is from that body that the ideas for community worship sprang. Thanksgiving naturally was a good time to have such a service because everyone, regardless of faith, has something to be thankful for.

Last January 21, a community worship service was tried in St. Peter's auditorium, and over 800 people attended. The response was so great that another such service is planned for this January.

The women of all the parishes involved in tonight's service have prepared refreshments which will be served after the services. Planners for the service hope that all interested Belleville citizens regardless of their religion will take advantage of the opportunity to worship God as a community. Such an opportunity is one which would not have existed a number of years ago.

God doesn't exist for individual congregations, but rather for all people. All people will be expected tonight.

DeWitt's Daily Attends Miami Savings Confab

John F. Dailey, President of DeWitt Savings and Loan Association, Belleville, has just returned from Miami Beach where he attended the 76th Annual Convention of the United States Savings and Loan League. Dailey stated that the attendance at the convention broke all records, with over 5,500 delegates from all 50 states present.

Among other meetings, Dailey participated in a panel meeting and discussion concerning the problems of Savings and Loan Associations between thirty and forty million dollars.

He also attended addresses by Walter Cronkite, CBS News Analyst and Commentator, and by Senator Everett M. Dirksen, Republican, Illinois. Dailey reported to the DeWitt Board of Directors the conclusions that the two speakers arrived at concerning the effects of the election on the financial community and the economy in general.

Forecasts, according to Dailey, were that money rates would stay high, business will continue to be good, and savings will be somewhat retarded due to increased consumer spending and increased tax payments in April. Dirksen reviewed new legislation of special interest and stated that he anticipated a good working arrangement between the President-Elect and the Democratic Congress, Dailey said.

Dirksen foresaw no problems in this area due, he said, to the conservative nature of the Congress. He anticipated, however, no elimination of the 10% surtax, but a possible reduction however.

John Horne, Chairman of the Board of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Washington, D.C., also addressed the Convention.

Boy Scout Troops Take Part In Show

Eight Belleville scout units will be among more than 70 scouting groups from Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America, which will take part in the big "Scouting in Action Show" on Saturday, November 30, at the Sussex Avenue Armory, 174 Sussex Avenue, Newark.

Among the participating Belleville units are Boy Scout Troop 301 and Cub Pack 301, sponsored by Wesley Methodist Church; Troop 302, sponsored by Bethany Lutheran Church; Troop 375, sponsored by St. Peter's R. C. Church; Troop 388, sponsored by Christ Episcopal Church; Troop 350, sponsored by Fewsmith Memorial Presbyterian Church; Cub Pack 309, sponsored by the School 9 PTA, and Ship 333, sponsored by Wallace & Tiernan, Inc.

Approximately 10,000 people passed through the armory last year to view the scout exhibit booths. This year, up to 15,000 are expected to attend, according to Charles Harlow, field supervisor of Robert Treat Council and director of the show.

The show will feature a wide range of scouting interests by units in Newark, Belleville and Irvington.

Ship 333, for instance, will have a 17-foot sailboat on hand. This unit is repairing and refurbishing the boat for use next year.

Troop 38, sponsored by St. Francis Xavier R.C. Church, Newark, will put its spotlight on a small, but raucous entry. It's a crowd with a damaged wing, picked up by a troop leader recently. Troop members have been caring for it while it recuperates. The crowd is the star of this troop's wildlife exhibit.

Other scout troops and cub packs will have exhibits on the history of the American flag, the contribution of the blacks to American history, oceanography, Morse code, signaling, rope making, first aid, ceramics, jewelry making, and a host of other activities.

Joseph R. Cassidy, executive vice president of Carteret Savings and Loan Association, is general chairman of the show, which will run from 11:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Sing-Out explosion Saturday, December 7, at Belleville Senior High School.

At 8 p.m. "Sing-Out Nutley" will burst upon the scene to present their "UP WITH PEOPLE!" performance. The cast of Sing-Out Nutley is composed of approximately 100 young people from Nutley and they will perform the show they have presented all over the state of New Jersey.

Sing-Out Nutley, part of the National Program of "UP WITH PEOPLE!" is designed not only to be entertaining, but also to leave the audience with a message. For it is more than just a singing group, it is an experience, both for the singers and the audience.

The performers present a lively, positive image in their determination to stand up and "Sing-Out" their beliefs and convictions. They are patriotic, but not chauvinistic; their belief in God is evident from their music, but the songs are not religious. They sing with affirmation about what they believe, but they are not didactic.

The songs, specifically written for the "UP WITH PEOPLE!" movement, express the beliefs and ideals of the cast. Among their repertoire are "What Color is God's Skin?", "Which Way America?", and "Can't You Hear America Calling?"

The "UP WITH PEOPLE!" movement began during the summer of 1965 at Mackinac

Island in Michigan, with the purpose of expressing to the world what many young people feel is the true image and direction of American youth, and in part, to dispel the unfavorable impression shared by many about people of their generation. This full-time national traveling casts and hundreds of local Sing-Outs across the USA and in many foreign countries.

Sing-Out Nutley was organized in June of 1967. Starting with thirty-five interested young people, the group, the original Sing-Out, has now expanded into three. Under the skilled direction of Ron Owens, a Nutley music teacher, performances have brought the cast to the stately War Memorial Building in Trenton, Newark's Symphony Hall, for a combined show with three other New Jersey Sing-Outs, to the Americana Hotel in New York City and to numerous other cities in New Jersey.

In addition to the regular selections performed by the cast, Sing-Out Nutley also features two songs written especially for them by Owens entitled, "We're Going Straight Ahead" and "Sing-Out Something."

Garden Apartment Variance Debated

Bids were received for the construction of ice skating rinks at Planson Playground and Fairway Avenue Playground, for reconstruction of pavement at Fire Headquarters and for improvement of a portion of Wilber and Forest Streets at Monday night's Town Commission meeting.

Gabriel Brothers of Nutley bid $16,990 for the rinks and fire pavement. A bid of $12,700 was received for the street improvements. Both will be referred to Town Engineer John Vreeland who will report back to the commissioners at the next meeting if the proposals meet specifications.

A Zoning Board of Adjustment matter concerning granting of a variance for the erection of a 40 family garden type apartment at Numbers 1-7 Rutgers Court met resistance from George Mitchell, 149 Academy Street.

"Residents have had no assurance in the past, from the builder," he said "that retaining walls would be erected. Once the building is up, we have no recourse to come to the owner and ask for protection of this sort. We want written assurance that the owner will put up retaining walls."

"Rutgers and Academy Street homeowners will be affected," Mitchell continued. "We will be faced with all kinds of problems. The building will be only 10 feet from my property." Mayor Ken Smith called in Building Inspector Vincent Mustacchio who assured Mitchell that there would be retaining walls along the northerly and southerly lines at adequate height to prevent earth erosion.

Commissioner William Cullen then noted that the variance from the Board of Adjustment stipulates the building must have retainer walls and that Mustacchio must approve the plans before application is made for a permit. "He has to live up to the variance," assured Mayor Smith.

Commissioner Joseph McGreevy suggested that the measure be laid over, stating that he would like to talk with the builder. When the resolution was read, McGreevy motioned for tabling and Commissioner Vincent Strumolo seconded it. The motion was passed five to zero.

Final passage was given to revisions in the Civil Service 1966 Reclassification survey. Full time positions and salary ranges include: municipal treasurer, ($13,833-$18,255); principal bookkeeping machine operator, ($6,149-$8,199); town clerk, ($9,180-$12,142) in the department of revenue and finance, part time dentist, ($5,500-$5,900); part time dental aide, ($1,040-$1,300); deputy registrar of vital statistics, ($4,027-$5,441); principal bookkeeping machine operator, ($6,149-$8,199) in the department of public affairs. Head clerk, ($6,149-$8,199) in the department of parks and public property; plumbing inspector, ($1,200-$1,500) in the department of public works.

An ordinance passing on first reading is an amendment to a 1923 ordinance. The new measure regulates and limits the height and bulk of buildings hereafter erected and determines the area of yards, courts and other open spaces. It also restricts congestion and the location of trades and industries designed for specified uses and establishes the boundaries for said purposes. In addition, violations are Dressed in brightly colored jumpers for the girls and jackets and ties for the boys, the group does not "Stand Still", to quote one of their songs, in its endeavor to communicate their convictions. Their delivery is marked by the spontaneity of youth, and when they sing, it is evident that here, indeed, is today's "Go Generation" with something to tell anyone who will listen.

In resolutions, Commissioner McGreevy was given approval to designate appointments to the Board of Assessments for Local Improvements to clear up back projects under the council manager form of government.

Rita E. Di Guglielmo was appointed as a constable for Belleville in the second ward.

A communication was received from June Strelecki, motor vehicle division director, advising that approval is issued for Town Ordinance No. 1814 providing for alternate side of the street parking. This was a mere formality, as the approval was expected.

Communication was also received from George Spangenberg, chairman of the Essex County Planning Board advising that a public hearing on the adoption of the official highway map of Essex will be held Dec. 11 at 1:30 p.m. in the Freeholders Meeting Room, 5th floor of the Hall of Records, Newark.

BELLEVILLE REFORMED — will house the ecumenical Thanksgiving service tonight at 8. Nine Belleville congregations will participate at the church located at Rutgers and Main Streets.

Local Retired Hobbyist Helps Youngsters Enjoy Christmas

"It just takes imagination, you know what I mean," said John H. Hnatew, describing his Christmas hobby display, which will be on display at Belleville Town Hall.

It takes imagination, knowledge of how motors work and what makes things tick. Last year town youngsters enjoyed posing with Hnatew's motorized masterpieces and Santa

Santa Claus Is Coming To Town

Don't forget, Santa's coming to town. Friday at 1:30 p.m. he will land at Clearman Field.

Then at 2 p.m. he will draw the name of the winner of the $100 Savings Bond at Town Hall.

in the lobby of Town Hall. The exact dates the exhibit will be at Town Hall as yet haven't been determined but figure a duration of 10 days about two weeks before Christmas.

Hnatew and his wife live at 21 Ogden Road. They've been Belleville residents for 27 years. Hnatew, 75, worked 49 years with Colgate in Jersey City before retiring.

He does all the work in his spare time. "It's a hobby," he says. "It's good for retired people to have something to occupy their mind. In my case, others can enjoy too."

Hnatew's projects reveal a mastery of mechanics and gears. He has made a Christmas tree with an aluminum grill base that houses 1000 holes and therefore 1000 Christmas lights. Holly is woven around the tree. One 100 watt bulb illuminates the aluminum holes and presents an ingenious fireproof masterpiece. "It's beautiful at night," said Hnatew admiring his work, "and the bulbs don't burn out," he added as an economic reminder.

An elaborate musical merry go round runs on one motor. Other projects are devoted to main space.

Another example of Hnatew's ingenuity is a wedding cake he made to commemorate his 50th wedding anniversary, celebrated this year. The "cake" is made out of cloxor bleach containers empty ones. While not palatable, the cake is available to Belleville residents "free of charge" who are reaching marriage milestones. "They can borrow it any time they want."

Naturally, the top of the cake turns, one revolution per minute. "Every year I add a little bit more to keep myself busy," Hnatew is a senior citizen Belleville can be proud of. See you at Town Hall.

Book on Clara Maass Previewed At Reception

"Clara Maass... A Nurse... A Hospital... A Spirit" was introduced, November 15 at a reception which was held at The Manor in West Orange.

The author of this new book, his tenth about New Jersey, John T. Cunningham, captured the spirit of all Newark, its leading citizens and the trials and tribulations of a struggling hospital which was to become one of New Jersey's greatest hospitals 100 years later.

The volume is illustrated by Ruth N. Keenan, an excellent artist and painter from Nutley, which vividly portrayed the ideals and heroism of a young nurse.

Many of the persons who assisted Cunningham were present that evening, notably Dr. William Crecca, Mrs. Claonia Corriden, Arno Michlowitz, and a host of others.

GOOD READING — Mrs. Rudolph H. Deetjen, 28 Clearman Place, Belleville, wife of the late Rudolph Deetjen, who at the time of his death was a vice president of the Clara Maass Board of Trustees, was among the first to receive an autographed copy of John T. Cunningham's book, "Clara Maass, A Nurse, A Hospital, A Spirit."

Red Cross To Confer

Nutley High School student, Stanley Kiwor has been selected to be a member of the American Red Eastern Area Youth Advisory Council. With it's members selected from chapters in fourteen eastern states, the purpose of the council is to advise the area director and regional directors of Red Cross Youth in matters concerning the programs and activities of youth in Red Cross.

A priority objective of the American Red Cross, according to Regional Director James E. Goins, is to extend the services to people not usually reached by Red Cross. The youth involved in Red Cross can be instrumental in reaching these people, stated Mr. Goins, "We believe that young people from these unreached areas--be they innercity, suburban, or rural--can and should through Red Cross help to meet the needs of others in their own neighborhood. We also believe that Youth from these same unreached areas should be afforded a leadership center experience."

As outlined in the agendas of it's first meeting to be held on December 5 and 6, the council will address itself to such issues as the organizational objectives, the in-school programs, and the transition from high school to college and the carry-over of Red Cross concepts into college campus life. The students involved in the Youth Advisory Council have already been asked to consider these topics and to pose suggestions at the first meeting.

A senior at the high school, Stan has had extensive experience in the Red Cross. During the last two summers, he attended the Red Cross Leadership Development Center at Brandywine Jr. College in Delaware. In Nutley he is presently a student Representative on the Executive Board of the Nutley Red Cross. Stan contributes his experience by working at The Blood Banks and at the Essex County Community Shelter.

The Future Nurse's of Nutley High, are also involved in these programs. Stan also holds the position of President of The Junior Red Cross of Nutley.

YOU'LL BE GLAD You switched to Electric Glassheat BECAUSE ...

(Letters from Glassheat users TELL YOU WHY!)

"IT'S COMFORTABLE HEAT—

just like sunshine in spring", says one Glassheat owner. "You don't feel hot or cold; you are never aware of the temperature. You are just continuously comfortable, and there are no cold spots."

This is true because Glassheat is the only heating system that warms with Radiant Electric rays exactly like the Sun's own rays. A room heated by Glassheat feels like the sunny side of a barn in the spring sunshine. No wonder people enjoy it, and say so:

"JUST THE TEMPERATURE WE WANT IN EACH ROOM; that's one thing I like," says another owner.

True, because money saving thermostats throughout the house permit you to regulate the temperature in each room; 65° in one, 75° in another and 50° in a room not in use. The temperature is uniform from floor to ceiling, causing a user to write, "Years of living with your Glassheat makes me a firm believer in this type of heat."

YOU'LL SAVE MONEY ON HEAT.

A fact that surprises many Glassheat owners. One writes "We were expecting that Glassheat would be somewhat more economical to operate but we were not prepared for our low annual heating bills. Of course we are also pleased with the savings on our regular current. We take advantage of the special low heating rate."

Another user says, "Though we added two additional rooms, my heating bill amounts to only $175—and we have never been so comfortable.

Of course there are no maintenance or service charges. Another saving."

With Radiant Electric Glassheat so inexpensive to install and operate, why pay more for less than the best?

IT IS CLEAN—As one user writes, "Probably the most unique feature of Glassheat is its cleanliness. In 16 years with Glassheat the only room we have had to do over is the kitchen. No need to repaint the other rooms or even wash down the walls."

Says another customer, "No soot, no smoke, no grime. Have never seen anything so clean. And we are saving 30% on the cost of fuel compared to the old system."

IT IS SAFE! No flame, no fumes, no vapor and Glassheat can't overheat. Even accidental contact can't cause blistering. Since there is no flame it is fire-safe. Further it can't burn up the oxygen in the air or reduce the humidity. In fact it maintains a desirable humidity, so there are fewer colds in the Glassheat home and other bothersome ills are aided. No moving parts, so Glassheat is as silent as sunshine. Sound luxurious? It is—in every respect but price and the cost of operation.

How much would this ideal trouble-free heat cost? Send the coupon or call us in person and find out. No obligation.

Thanksgiving a time to say "Thank You"

State Symphony Due At Montclair

Encouraging ticket sales for the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra's concert at Montclair High School December 6, are surpassing expectations. Although tickets are normally available at the door, advance sales are now expected to limit such last minute availability. The repeat performance scheduled for the following night (Dec. 7) in Milburn is already sold out according to Geoffrey Platt, Jr., Symphony manager.

Tickets, still remaining, can be purchased at the C. W. Perdue Radio Company at 10 South Park Street, Montclair. Mrs. Robert F. Perdue, former concert chairman for the Montclair area and member of the Board of Trustees, gives Henry Lewis, the Symphony's new Music Director, a lot of the credit. "He has done a fantastic job with the orchestra. We are now able to offer those who have been commuting to New York for their music, something to stay home for," she said.

The Perdue family has been long time supporters of the New Jersey Symphony. Mr. C. W. Perdue, Sr., was active on the Concerts Committees as well as having served on the Board of Trustees several years ago. Their business, which boasts of having Henry Lewis as one of their best record customers, has been encouraging attendance at the Montclair concerts for a number of years, by providing a ticket sales service for the Symphony.

Erick Friedman, violinist, will be the featured soloist at the December 6 concert in Montclair. He will perform Bruch's Violin Concerto No. 1 in G Minor.

Legislative Investigation Needed

The Prosecutor's Office

THE PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE
The Governor's Commission on the study of Newark riots heard testimony from many witnesses, a number of whom were giving expression to their prejudices, which led to a Grand Jury investigation of charges that influence was for sale at the Newark City Hall.

The first major result of the Grand Jury investigation was an indictment of a highly respected and capable career police official, Newark Police Director Dominick Spina.

Mr. Spina was forced to go to trial and after the Prosecutor presented the government's case, the judge threw it out of court, exonerating Spina.

To us in the bleachers there was something funny about the Spina indictment. Here was a police official under investigation by a Grand Jury, pleading for an opportunity to appear before the Grand Jury to give testimony in connection with an investigation of his department. It is a matter of record the Prosecutor's office refused to permit Mr. Spina to appear before the Grand Jury.

Legally the Prosecutor has this right. Morally we think the Prosecutor's decision was a miscarriage of justice. More — it compelled Mr. Spina to spend thousands of dollars for legal fees and the taxpayers have been obliged to spend thousands of dollars in order to try a case against a good and decent public official, which should not have been in court in the first place.

Now let's take a look at how the Prosecutor's office has been handling Grand Jury investigations of other public officials.

From Mayor Hugh Addonizio on down to the Director of Inspections, Grand Jury requests balance sheets, net worth statements and oral testimony.

Strangely Mr. Spina was not asked for a net worth statement, an omission which is very difficult to understand when police departments across the nation are the first suspected targets for "payoff" investigations.

There is another public official in Newark who up to this very moment apparently lives in a sanctuary beyond the reach and interest of the Grand Jury and the Prosecutor's office. By reason of his job and rumors abounding in Newark City Hall, one would presume a cursory examination by the Grand Jury would be a normal thing. We speak of the Office of Supervisor of Weights and Measures in the City of Newark. The "Acting" Supervisor is Michael Giuliano who is a part-time Supervisor of Weights and Measures, a part-time State Senator and a part time insurance broker.

Allegations have been heard for a long time that Giuliano's insurance business may involve conflicts of interest, in that he may be receiving insurance premiums from commercial and business establishments which come under his Weights and Measures jurisdiction. At the very least, to demonstrate to the public that the Grand Jury investigation of affairs at Newark City Hall are just and fair why should not all top public officials in Newark be treated equally?

The circumstances surrounding the Spina indictment give off a foul odor. The refusal of the Prosecutor to permit Spina to appear voluntarily before the Grand Jury requires a remedy by legislation.

All in all we believe the above circumstances and peculiar situations require the N.J. Senate Investigation Committee to undertake a probe to determine the fairness and adequacy of the present Newark probe.

The judicial dismissal of the Spina case has shaken public confidence in the objectivity of the Prosecutor's office. To redeem itself in the public eye, the Prosecutor's office needs a vote of confidence from an objective investigative body.

GOP Disservice

Mr. Intile Takes The 5th?

December 15 is a very important day in American history and in the life and times of the Republican Party.

On that day members of the Electoral College will meet to cast their ballots to elect the next President of the United States.

At this point it is believed there are enough qualified Electors to elect Richard M. Nixon as the next President of the United States.

In this regard there is an Elector representing the State of New Jersey living in Essex County whose credentials as a member of the Electoral College are under question. Joseph Intile, president of the J.I. Enterprises, Inc. and the real power of the regular Republican Organization in Essex County has remained silent in the face of public requests asking him to admit or deny that his public record includes Presidential pardon to void an alleged federal violation rap.

It is customary for politicians who are under suspicion to clear the air by making a public statement concerning the allegations against them. But Mr. Intile is no customary politician. However, the question before the House is not the personal interest of Mr. Intile but more important, the greater interest of the Republican Party and the election of Nixon as President.

Legal opinions hold that a person who has been granted a Presidential pardon has all of his rights restored except to qualify as a member of the Electoral College. If in face Mr. Intile has had the high honor of a Presidential pardon he owes it to the party he allegedly represents to present public evidence from qualified legal counsel that he, Joe Intile, is qualified to sit as a member of the Electoral College. For Mr. Intile, time is fast running out.

Thanksgiving, 1968

Our American Thanksgiving, one of the few holidays we have exported to older countries, dates from 1863. Credit for bringing about the annual observance is generally given to Mrs. Sarah J. Hale of Boston, who in the Ladies Magazine of Boston and later Godey's Lady's Book of Philadelphia wrote many editorials proposing such a holiday.

Having campaigned for over thirty years in behalf of a Thanksgiving Day, Mrs. Hale finally wrote and suggested observance of such a day to President Lincoln, who issued the first national proclamation setting aside a Thanksgiving Day during the Civil War, in 1863.

In the early years, especially in the North, children often adopted the old Scottish custom of donning their parents clothes and soliciting from adults fresh fruit—a custom related to New Year's Day in parts of Europe. This and the almost purely religious observance of the day has changed with the years.

During President Franklin Roosevelt's years in the White House the date of Thanksgiving was sometimes changed but most Americans preferred the fourth Thursday in November as a day of thanksgiving for the year's harvest, and life's blessings in general, and Congress established this date as a permanent one.

In 1968 the American people still have much to be thankful for, but the agony of the times is a continuing war in Vietnam and many families observe this year's Thanksgiving with the hope that next year the fighting and dying in Asia will have ended. In connection with the domestic strife and dissention recently prevalent in many parts of the country, millions hope that those who have damned our country, and emphasized its faults, will take stock and realize the many advantages and benefits enjoyed by all Americans of every race, creed and political belief.

The entire front page of the TIMES read: "Lord, behold our family here assembled. We thank Thee for this place in which we dwell—for the love that unites us: for the peace accorded us this day—for the hope which we expect the morrow—for our friends in all parts of the earth, and . . . Let peace abound in our small company."

Soon to be released by the Belleville Planning Board were the results of a master plan revision that had been shuffled around during the previous year. The original plan was made in 1961 by the Urban Planning Association of New York, but never fully agreed upon. Briefly, the plan included the problems of land use, community facilities and traffic congestion.

Linda Pedalino of 11 Denver Street, Belleville, earned first place honors in the junior instrumental division in Essex County's annual Search for Talent contest.

5 YEARS AGO

Essex County Prosecutor Brendon T. Burn said he still had received no word from the State Attorney General granting permission to dismiss the three remaining indictments against present and former members of the Board of Education. The three remaining indictments involved charges of misconduct.

Dr. John J. McGuire of Newark gave a talk and showed films on heart surgery at a meeting of Belleville Chapter of Deborah at the Belleville Recreation House. Mr. Sal Marino, of Nutley, was in charge of the entertainment.

Robert H. Kessler of 15 Branch Brook Drive was awarded a $500 Alumni scholarship at Rutgers School of Law. Kessler, a law senior, was a graduate of Rutgers Newark.

10 YEARS AGO

Seven young Belleville boys between the ages of 6 and 13 were released in the custody of their parents pending appearance in Juvenile Court on charges of damaging a vacant factory building. The boys were picked up by Belleville police earlier in the week. Damage to the building was estimated at $2,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Antonelli, of 37 Mertz Avenue, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at Biase's Restaurant, Newark. One hundred friends and relatives were invited to attend the reception from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. The couple received a special blessing at an anniversary Mass in St. Peter's Church.

15 YEARS AGO

Miss Ann Gaeta of 7 Passaic Avenue attended and participated in the Student Council Convention held at Rutgers University, New Brunswick. Miss Gaeta was assistant treasurer of the Student Council at the Essex County Vocational and Technical High School, North Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. George B.H. Wagner celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at a dinner party at their home, 385 Stephens Street. Rose, Wagner, formerly Rose Schumacher, and George had been married November 18, 1903 by William Reib of St. John's Lutheran Church in Newark. Mrs. Wagner was born March 24, 1884 and Mr. Wagner April 2, 1884, only 10 days later, on the same block in Newark.

The initial meeting of the Parent Education Group of the P.T.A. No. 3 was held at the school. A spirited discussion of "Temper, Obstinance, and Jealousy" was carried on. Purpose of the group, headed by Mrs. Dwight Streeter, was to discuss problems common to all parents of children from kindergarten to high school age levels.

20 YEARS AGO

John J. Kant, postmaster of Belleville, announced the installation of a new stamp vending machine in the lobby of the local Post Office. A time-saving device, Kant urged residents to avail themselves of the machine to avoid standing in line at the windows.

Santa Claus arrived a little bit early for about 2,600 Bellevillites and brought with him gifts in the form of Christmas Club Checks. The checks added up to a total of more than $250,000 which was a slight increase over the last year. With 26 more shopping days left til Christmas those lucky citizens were well equipped to do their holiday shopping early.

The Hollywood touch was evident when the newly-constructed gas station at Joralemon Street and Franklin Avenue officially opened. A parade led by the Holy Family Fife and Drum Corps of Nutley and the presence of town and Standard Oil Company officials marked the debut of the latest gas dispensing business in Belleville.

35 YEARS AGO

Holbert, principal of the high school, accompanied the group. Representatives of the local council included John Manger, president, Warren Tietz, Alma Blochman and Marian Miller.

Flooding Corrected

To The Times:

In the early 1960s Rutan Estates Homeowners' Association complained long and loud about flooding conditions in the Rutan Estates area. A couple of years ago when Joralemon Street was repaved a new 30 inch storm sewer was installed on the southerly side of Joralemon Street along the Glendale Cemetery. It was reported at REHOA's last regular quarterly meeting that the sewer has efficiently corrected a severe flooding condition which used to exist on the corner of Rutan Road and Joralemon Street. The purpose of this letter is to publicly thank all Town personnel, both past and present, who participated in this project. Also, REHOA wishes to thank the Belleville Times-News for the publicity it gave to this problem. Lastly, REHOA especially thanks the taxpayers of Belleville without whose tax dollars this project could not have been completed.

Thank you Belleville.

Sincerely yours,
W. Riedel, Secretary

Red Cross Service

Greetings Taped To Servicemen

American servicemen and women around the world will be able to hear personal holiday greetings from their loved ones again this year, through the Red Cross "Voice From Home" program.

Relatives of those serving in the armed forces overseas can record their message at the nearest district office of the Essex Chapter beginning Monday, Dec. 2 through Saturday, Dec. 7. The program is sponsored by the Service to Military Families Department of the chapter which offers the taped message and postage to any U.S. military installation, ship or air base free of charge.

Recordings will be made by appointment at Red Cross offices in Belleville, Bloomfield, Kearny, Newark, East Orange, and Caldwell.

Each recording session takes about 20 minutes and is supervised by a trained Red Cross volunteer.

Prepared sheets suggesting ideas on what to say and how to plan your message are available from Red Cross offices. Mailing containers as well as postage are also provided.

According to Mrs. Frank Low, Orange, chairman of the Essex Chapter Voice From Home program, there is no limitation on the number of people who can record a tape. During the past eight years that Red Cross has been sponsoring the holiday messages, even family pets have joined in the recording sessions.

The only requirement, Mrs. Low points out, is that all members of the group who wish to take part, are present at the same time.

Frequently, as reported by the families of servicemen who have sent tapes overseas in the past, the servicemen have used the same tape to send a return message home. Since standard tape recording equipment is available now at most military posts, air fields and on ships as well as at most service clubs, servicemen report few situations in which they have had difficulty in playing the message.

Last year, nearly 150 servicemen from the Essex Chapter area received Voice From Home tapes. Over half of these were in Vietnam.

Letters received by Red Cross from armed forces personnel who got these holiday messages last year indicated that they were the most appreciated gifts received.

Those in charge of the Voice From Home program in the Essex Chapter Districts include Mrs. Leonard Bade and Thomas Wright in Belleville.

Lou Mazza Promoted

Louis S. Mazza, son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Mazza of 58 May St., Belleville, has been promoted to captain in the U. S. Air Force.

The captain's wife, Mary, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cenci of 20 Mermaid Road, Toms River, N.J.

Children Are Influenced By Parents' Behavior

How aware are we of the way we influence our children? When we express our feelings, we are communicating our values and attitudes.

One value which is vital to our day is that of respect for others. This is a value learned through experience very early in life.

A child respected as an individual will respect other people as individuals. Our children reflect our adult attitudes and learn from our example.

A child will think it is perfectly all right to look down upon people who are different when he sees his parents do it.

It doesn't matter how much parents tell a child to respect grandmother, or someone of a different race, nationality, or religion. The adult must show respect by setting an example. A child will do what his parents do, rather than what they tell him to do.

Children learn much more than they are consciously taught. If a father swears, a child will learn those words as quickly as other words anyone tries to teach him.

If a father says he doesn't like spinach, the child won't eat it.

Should mother say a family down the street is lazy or shiftless, the child believes it. Then, he may add to this belief that anyone of that race, religion or nationality is the same.

His limited experience has not permitted him to learn for himself. He has accepted his parents' attitudes. This is one way children learn prejudice.

The opposite is as true. Children can appreciate differences in their parents' teaching them about an interesting and varied world.

And parents can help a child to grow up knowing that differences are interesting and to be appreciated.

Rodino Demands Insurance Study

Rep. Peter W. Rodino (D-10th District) insisted today that the federal automobile insurance study include "an investigation in depth" of non-renewal of policies in New Jersey.

In a letter to Secretary Alan Boyd, who is directing the Department of Transportation study, Rodino said:

"Horace J. Bryant New Jersey Deputy Insurance Commissioner, reported recently that an average of 7,500 motorists in the state are losing their auto liability insurance each month.

"A state law enacted in September prevents insurance companies from canceling policies, but it does not prevent companies from not renewing policies at the termination of a policy year.

"I think we can agree that any auto insurance system that does not assure continuous coverage to motorists who pay their premiums and do not run afoul of the law is inadequate and unsatisfactory."

"Rodino, dean of the New Jersey congressional delegation, was instrumental in bringing about the current auto

Faulkner Act Adopted By 50 Municipalities

Six additional New Jersey municipalities have adopted new forms of government under the State's Optional Municipal Charter Law as a result of voting at the 1968 elections.

When the changes are effected, 50 municipal governments will be operating under the "Faulkner Act" which the New Jersey Legislature adopted in 1950 to give local voters a choice of modern governmental forms.

The 1968 additions are Evesham Township (Burlington County), Lawrence Township (Mercer County), Phillipsburg (Warren County), West Milford Township (Passaic County), all of which voted to switch to council-manager type government, and Washington Township (Bergen County) where voters selected the mayor-council plan. painters who joined together in 1895 to form a kind of academy of American Impressionism; the "Tonalist," Dabo, Dessar, Ranger, Sartain and Tryon; and those traditional painters of the 30's and 40's who chose to remain aloof from social protest and from the beginnings of non-objective painting.

Four new exhibitions are on view at the Montclair Art Museum through January 5.

Highlighting the holiday season is the Christmas Story In Art, an exhibition of early European paintings and sculptures depicting the Nativity.

The works, all from the museum's permanent collection, are shown against a background of panels decorated with hand-made Italian papers.

The panels have been specially designed to suggest Romanesque and Gothic settings. Shown here are Max Reichlich's "Prophets," two fragments from a series surrounding an altar painting in the Convent Neustift; the Spanish painting "Gifts of the Magi"; Cosimo Roselli's "Adoration of the Child by the Virgin"; the "Presentation at the Temple," an oil painting on wood panel by the Antwerp Master.

insurance study. He was one of the first members of Congress to pinpoint shortcomings and failures in the auto insurance system. His criticisms were confirmed by a study by the House Judiciary Committee, of which he is a ranking member.

In his letter to Secretary Boyd, Rodino said:

"It is my understanding that many of the non-renewals in New Jersey are arbitrary and unreasonable, but there is nothing in existing laws to prohibit companies from terminating coverage if they so choose.

"I insist that your auto insurance study include an investigation in depth of the non-renewal practice in New Jersey, and I would like to benotified when you will do so, so that I can arrange to attend your sessions on this vital subject."

Rodino said he will continue to keep "close and constant watch on the progress of the Transportation Department study to ensure that the motorists' needs are given top priority."

made by local charter commissions following study East Windsor Township in Mercer County chose council manager government in a referendum brought about by citizen petition. The changes to the new forms of government will take effect variously on July 1, next and January, 1970.

Four other municipalities rejected governmental change. Hamilton Township (Mercer County) and Lacey Township (Ocean County) voted down local charter commission recommendations. Atlantic City (Atlantic County) and Edison Township (Middlesex County) rejected petition proposals.

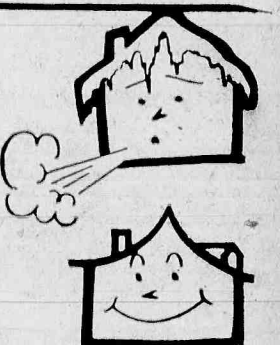

A tabulation prepared by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association also shows that voters in ten other municipalities have authorized charter studies.

Public Service To Light Up For Christmas

An electrically illuminated Christmas display covering the facade of Public Service Electric and Gas Company's Terminal Building on Park Place, Newark, will be turned on December 2 to herald the start of the holiday season. The decorations will be lighted nightly until January 1.

Approximately 19,000 lamps are being used in this year's holiday lighting arrangements on the Newark Terminal Building and on 27 of the company's commercial office buildings located in its service area, from Bergen County to Camden. The lamps in the Terminal Building decorations total 61,000 watts.

The Park Place decorations feature a giant illuminated wreath with a bow swage stretching across the front of the building and extending 50 feet high. On Christmas Loans at have a Santa clause.

They can solve all your present problems.

What good is a loan that solves your present problems but creates new ones for you a little later? That's why our loans have a Santa clause: borrow now for your Christmas needs, and you set the date for the first payment, to fit in with your needs and convenience, not ours. We do all this with a smile, too. During "People's Hours," not Bankers' hours. That's what we call treating you like a neighbor, not a number. Which just fits the Season, right?

How to stop paying 10¢ and 15¢ toll charges when you call people living in other towns.

Here's a way to eliminate 10¢ and 15¢ toll charges on calls to New Jersey telephone numbers. It's a new service called Selective Calling, and it's available right now.*

Here's how it works for individual-line residence customers. You select the 10- or 15-cent New Jersey exchange areas served by New Jersey Bell that you call or would like to call frequently. You pay an additional small fixed monthly charge for each exchange selected. Then you can make as many calls as you wish to those exchanges at no extra cost.

The monthly rate for the first exchange you select ranges from $1.25 to $2.50. Additional exchanges cost only 25¢ to $1.50.

Wouldn't you like to talk long and often to friends or family living in these 10- or 15-cent exchange areas? And talk happily without toll charges? If so, Selective Calling makes it very easy and economical to do just that.

A similar Selective Calling plan is available at different rates to customers with business phones. For more information, please call your Telephone Business Office. SELECTIVE CALLING: another new service from New Jersey Bell that can save you money.

Orange Is Turkey Foe

NUMBER THREE — George Robinson picks off fourth quarter pass, third of the day on Joe Vitiello to end Bellboys final bid. Walt Kaeli (left) was intended receiver. Lonnie Bunche (22) and Les Derricotte (44) also participate. Indians won, 17-7.

Tornados Bellboys Last Test

Before digging into their Thanksgiving turkeys tomorrow, the Bellboys hope to carve up the Orange Tornados at Bell stadium. Kickoff will be at 11 a.m.

Coach John Amabile had hoped to reverse last year's 3 and 6 record. If the Bellboys lose, they will match that mark. Last year the Tornados were blown off the field, 16-13.

Orange was top-rated and undefeated before bowing to Bayonne, 31-19 in its last outing November 16. They had run through Weequahic (21-13), Kearny (20-12), Irvington (13-6), Columbia (13-6), West Orange (29-0), West Side (21-20) and Central (51-6).

The Tornados were ahead of the Bees 19-6 but were overcome by a talented squad that itself has lost only to powerful North Bergen.

The Tornados feature a varied attack that relies on the running of husky Jim Baker and passing combo of Wayne Frazier and Bob Parsill. Art Brisbane complements Baker in the backfield.

Amabile will be relying, as usual on Jim Wille. It will take an incredible afternoon for Jim to reach the 1,000 yard plateau. He needs 252, but has had a tremendous season. If Joe Vitiello can bounce back from last week's mediocre performance, the Bellboys can end the season on a happy note and then enjoy a big Thanksgiving feast, and then the Varsity Club feast.

vited back to defend their title in early March. Also, the Hockey Club will compete in a Christmas tournament for the first time. The Spectrum in Philadelphia will be the site of this holiday season festival on Dec. 20-21.

Rutgers should be a strong contender again this year for its second straight Middle Atlantic Hockey League Championship. The Scarlet lost only three men through graduation.

Rutgers Lists Hockey Club Season Slate

The Rutgers Hockey Club is busily preparing for its longest schedule in its nine-year history.

Still a club, and not a varsity team, the hockey enthusiasts have scheduled 22 games for this season including two tournaments.

Coach Geoff Gould's charges won last year's Tennessee Tournament and have been inand certainly the best Robert Wing's crew has faced all season.

The Bellboys were a different club from the one that played a sluggish first half. They played inspired football in the third quarter and got back into the contest, Joe Vitiello took the second half kickoff all the way to the Passaic 48. The one man he had left to beat cornered him at the sideline. On third and seven, Vitiello hit Walt Kaeli for a big first down, Walt's first reception of the year. He pulled it off between two defenders. Jim Wille picked up four to the 30, then slanted off left end over at midfield. They went for it all on first down, Charlie Robinson threw to Bernie Durham, who dropped the six pointer. Robinson then hit Billy Johnson on a screen pass for a first down at the 40. Johnson carried to the 26 on a trap play and then two plays later spun off two tacklers for a 17 yard TD and a 14-0 halftime advantage.

Johnson seemed to be running in slow motion, and the Bellboys seemed to be waiting for the whistle to end the play. At the half fans were treated by the fine Belleville band and Passaic's musicians, one of the best bands in the state

State Gorge Ski Area Progresses

Recreation facilities at New Jersey's Great Gorge Ski Area were inspected recently by the State Fish and Game Council, according to Commissioner Robert A. Roe of the State Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

The Council was highly impressed by the rapid development of the ski area and the future plans for jumping and cross-country as well as downhill skiing. A portion of the area is leased from the Division of Fish and Game, utilizing a portion of the Hamburg Mountain Wildlife Management area to furnish winter recreation without detriment to hunting.

The inspection included a ride on the mile-long chair lift to the summit lodge, a helicopter tour of the area and slides illustrating its growing popularity with skiers. Council members were fascinated by the miles of fiberglass pipe carrying water and air for the world's largest snow-making machine.

During a brief business session, the Council heard reports on the opening of the bow and arrow deer season. Hunters appeared to enjoy themselves on opening day, October 5, although the Bureau of Wildlife Management has not yet received indications as to success. The Information and Education Section is checking reports of a 200-pound deer, the first entry in the weight division of the new Trophy Deer Recognition program.

A RAINBOW MAY BE A DANGEROUS SIGN
If at night you often see a rainbow around the street or car lights, this may be a warning signal of a possible glaucoma. It is only one of the symptoms and is not a positive diagnosis. But to protect against blindness, you should immediately consult a physician.
If the diagnosis is early, many cases of glaucoma can be controlled by weak solutions of miotics, increasing the strength until the best reacting formula is found. When the tension cannot be lessened, immediate surgery may be imperative.

Sophs Romp

The Baby Bellboys ended their campaign on a losing note, their first of the season, as their brethren, the sophomores, blitzed them 39-0 Saturday at Clearman Field.

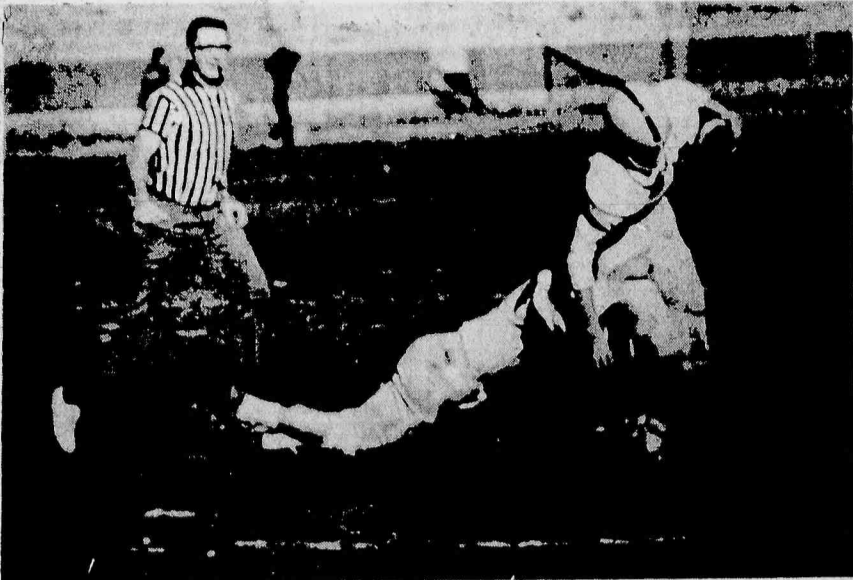

"We have no excuses, we were beaten by a better club," said coach George Zanfini. He and head coach John Senesky led the frosh to the Big Ten Conference championship and a 7-0 record til the final clash.

"Of course they used sophs who hadn't played sophomore ball but had played junior varsity and varsity ball. But that's no excuse. They beat us with experience, execution and precision. Their quarterback (Joe Papsidero) was right on target. They were bigger than us, but so was every club we faced this year and it didn't bother us before. My boys from last year beat me (the 1967 frosh compiled a 7-0-1 mark, the tie against Nutley)."

Last year's group beat the sophs, but Zanfini and Senesky can point with pride to their grid accomplishments

GOT HIM — Soph quarterback Joe Papsidero is caught from behind after short gain in the first quarter at Clearman Field by Rich Ciallella.

ON THE DEFENSIVE — Mike Egidio (22) breaks up pass meant for soph Ron Moscura. Frank Calabrese (32) assists. Frosh got bombed 39-0.

LOOK MA, ONE HAND — It's Frank Petite on the receiving end again for the Baby Bellboys.

RATHER PETITE — Passing combination of Joe Lotriglio and Frank Petite was only bright spot for the frosh Saturday. Here Frank hauls one in against Joe Papsidero (11) and Rich Della Turza.

Oh. Oh. Oh. It's Christmas and your bank balance is as empty as Mother Hubbard's cupboard.

Can Johnny live without his bike for another year? Or Debbie without her doll's house?

Maybe, if they have to.

But why run short of cash at Christmas time.

If you have a Chec-King Account with National Newark and Essex, you don't have to.

Chec-King is the 3-in-1 account. Credit is guaranteed from $500 to $5,500.

You also get a Chec-King check guarantee card so you can cash your check, up to $200, at any of our 31 offices or established businesses throughout Northern New Jersey.

Now, which would you rather have: A plain old ordinary checking account with no cash reserve and no check guarantee card?

Or Chec-King, with everything? Ho. Ho. Ho.

Indians Scalp Bellboys In Bloodletting, 17-7

NOT SO FUNNY — Steve Allen intercepts screen pass meant for Jim Wille. He took it 35 yards for Pas-saic touchdown and 7-0 lead.

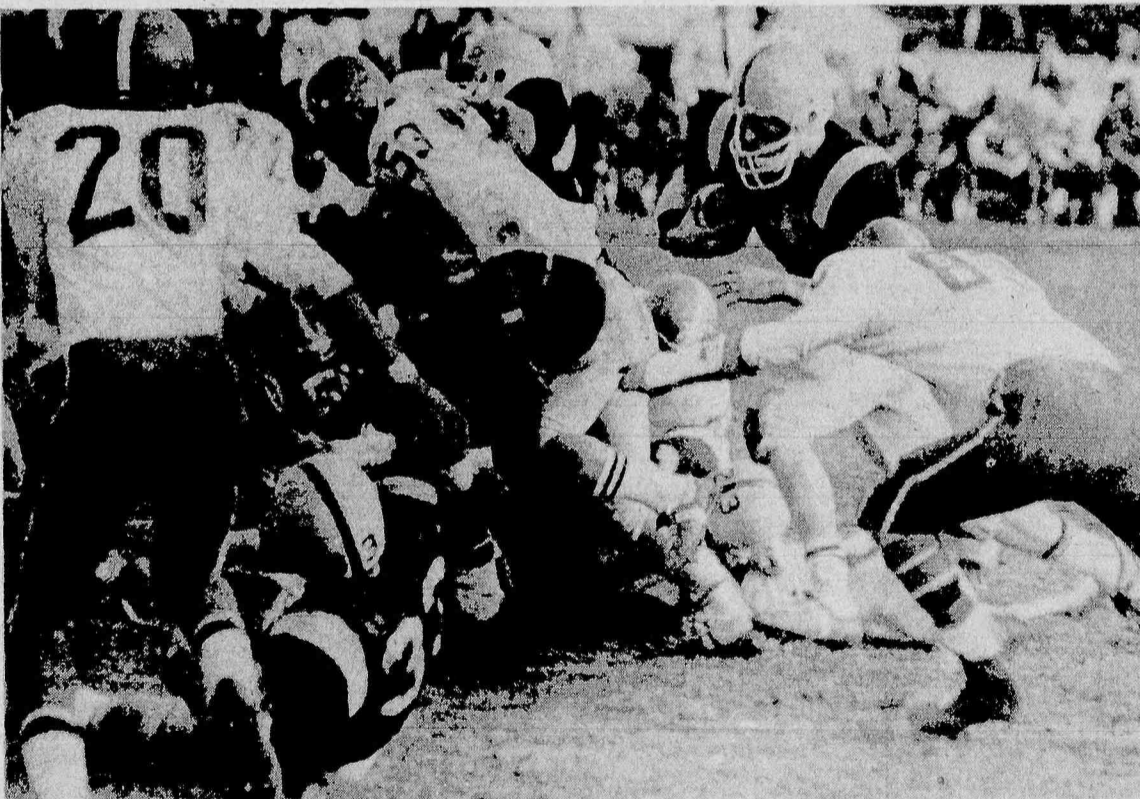

WILLE FOR SIX — Jim Wille scores from the one on fourth down dive to register Bellboys only touchdown in third period. For big Jim it was his fifth TD of the year.

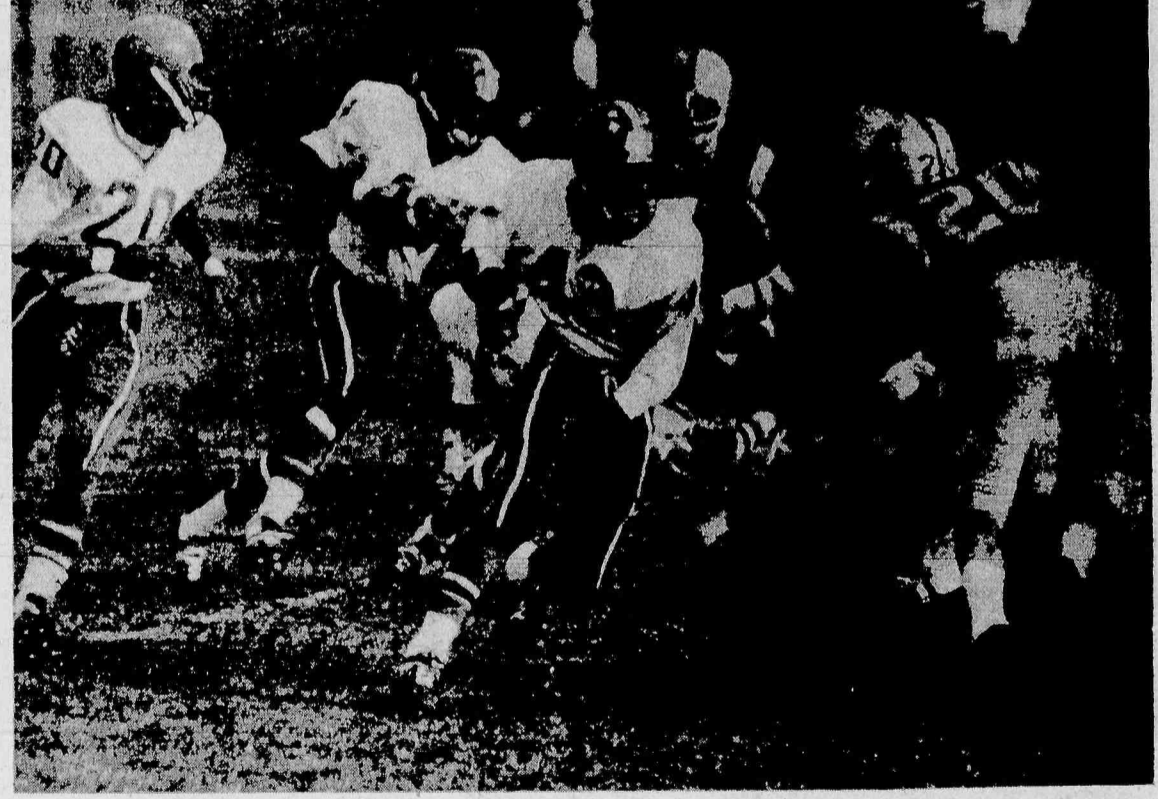

UPS — Topsy turvy world of football greets jumbo Jim Wille as he picks up short gain in second quarter. Jim has now rushed for 748 yards.

AND DOWNS — Joe Vitiello hits the skids after first quarter first down scramble. Tom Shafer (81) prepares to pounce.

HIT THAT HOLE — Jim Wille, Belleville workhorse, carries for four yard gain in the third quarter. Steve Allen (53), Billy Johnson (20) and Bob Tyburczy (83) close in.

DEXTEROUS DERRICOTTE — Lester Derricotte delicately cradles the pigskin on 11 yard end run for first down. Joe Ritacco (20) made the stop.

SPINNING SCORE — Billy Johnson has one leg free and before whistle can blow, he's on his way to Indians second TD and 14-0 halftime lead.

MISFIRED — Vince Costantino can't come up with Joe Vitiello third down toss. Bellboys missed connections on fourth down too, after recovering first quarter fumble.

Passaic Game

to the four yard line, Jim carried on first and goal to the two; on second and goal to the one; on third and goal to the one-foot line and on fourth down he dove into the end zone. Mike Drury kicked the extra point (Bob Ciallella is out for the year). There was 7:54 to go in the third quarter and the Bellboys had the momentum.

Passaic lost two yards on first down and couldn't gain a first down. Passaic punted.

SEAN CONNERY "FROM RUSSIA WITH LOVE"
NEXT ATTRACTION: PAPER LION

Ted DelGuercio was stripped of the football and the Indians had it at the Bellboy 44.
Lonnie Bunche broke up a pass to Durham and John Mozeka intercepted a wobbly pass to swing the pendulum the other way again. Doug Brown was thrown for a 13 yard loss attempting a pass on the option play and the Bellboys had to give up the football.
Passaic move to the Belleville 25. MickelMayer just missed a 82 yard field goal. It was long enough, but just wide, a 42 yard boot.
The Indians held the Bellboys on their own reservation again and then marched to the clincher, MickelMayer's fifth field goal of the year. A face mask infraction against Les Derricotte gave Passaic the ball at the 29. On third down, Charles Robinson ran out of the pocket to a first down at the 15. MickelMayer added his three pointer from the 26, then kicked the ball through the end zone.
George Robinson intercepted on first down as the Bellboys made a desperation drive and the Indians ran out the clock. It was another tough loss by the Bellboys, as they were again hindered by a poor start.

Broadway Is My Beat
By JOEY SASSO

Is Abe Margolies' affection for his fellow man a good enough philosophy to run multi-million dollar business enterprises?
The results of "Love thy workers and customers" in his case should make this big business look into the Margolies plan as a replacement of management consultants and efficiency experts.

The many aspects of Abe Margolies today include:
He is one of the nation's largest jewelry manufacturers.
He owns and operates a million dollar per year restaurant, Les Champs, 25 East 40th St.
He underwrote the Beatles' concert at Shea Stadium, as well as concerts for Judy Garland, Tony Bennett, the Rolling Stones and many others.
He is working on producing a film starring Rocky Graziano hopefully a remake of "The Champ."
He invested more than a million dollars this year in Broadway shows.
Margolies the jewelry manufacturer, president of Zale Manufacturing Division of the 250 million dollar Zale Stores and also in his role as co-owner of Faleck & Margolies. He gives his all to jewelry until six o'clock p.m. From six on, Margolies, the Restaurant owner, movie producer, Broadway producer and "everybody's buddy" goes into operation.
It all started when he chose apprenticeship as a diamond cutter over a career as a semi-pro basketball player.
"As an appreci ce, I was berated in the European fashion. I promised myself that any man who worked for me would have his dignity." His workers are free to come in at whatever time they wish. He has never had to fire a worker. He has hired boys who were juvenile delinquents who turned out to be his best employees!
"I have a positive point of view. A glass of water is never half empty, it is half full," says Abe.
He was one of a group of seven investors which took over the Les Champs Restaurant to save a man's job. The Restaurant would have folded unless they took over.
Abe seldom showed up at meetings of the other six investors. When he did he always had many suggestions. Finally he was challenged: "Why don't you take it over." He did and has operated it most successfully from the point of view of the customer, one which he hopes he will never lose.
Abe is one of the producers of the Israeli company, Fiddler On The Roof. He followed this success in a million dollar search to find out what was wrong with Broadway Theatre.

His first investment in show business was to help his hood friend Sidney Bernstein with whom he battled Nazis on the New York streets. Abe was determined that Sidney would be the "biggest agent on Broadway." His investments in Sid's projects have run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars, and today, Mr. Bernstein is independently wealthy as the manager of "The Rascals."
Abe's ownership of the New Yorker Hotel and many other far flung projects, have never resulted from his asking "How much will I make," but rather "I want to help a friend."
Abe's partner in his original jewelry business was disabled many years ago, but still retains his interest. Abe has more than two hundred ex James Monroe High School fellow alumnae working with him and more than fifty relatives.
He was the first to build a jewelry manufacturing plant in Puerto Rico where they refer to him as the "Lovable Gringo."
As to explain the secret of his success, Abe throws up his hands and says "I guess you have to like people."

Hospital Banquet Presided Over By Etherington

The president of Wesleyan University, Edwin D. Etherington, will preside at The Mountaintop Hospital convocation banquet Thursday evening, November 21. Etherington is past president of the American Stock Exchange and a former resident of Upper Montclair.

Principal speaker at the banquet, which will take place at The Manor in West Orange, will be Stanley W. Olson, M.D., director of the nation's Regional Medical Programs for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Etherington, who attended Montclair Academy and graduated from Lawrenceville School, is the twelfth president of Wesleyan. He received his undergraduate degree there in 1948 and his LL.B. degree from Yale Law School. He later served as law clerk to the Honorable Henry W. Edgerton of the United States Court of Appeals in Washington, D.C.

Members of Etherington's family have for many years been associated with The Mountaintop Hospital. His father, the late Charles K. Etherington, served as a trustee at the hospital from 1943 to 1948 and his mother, still active in the women's auxiliary at the hospital, was a trustee for five years, from 1960 to 1965. His sister-in-law, Mrs. Roger B. Etherington, is currently serving as president of the women's auxiliary.

Appointed assistant secretary of the New York Stock Exchange in 1956, Etherington became vice president in charge of civic and governmental affairs in 1958. He left the New York Stock Exchange in 1961, and following a partnership in Pershing & Co. in New York, he was elected president of the American Stock Exchange in 1962. He resigned this position to assume the presidency of Wesleyan University in July, 1967.

State Planners Report Upswing in Zoning Rules

Nine out of ten New Jersey municipalities now have zoning ordinances, according to a report issued today by the Division of State and Regional Planning.

The 62-page report, Zoning in New Jersey--1967, said 516 of the state's 567 municipalities--a total of 91 per cent--have adopted zoning ordinances. This is an increase of 21 per cent since a previous report on zoning was issued in 1960.

Two-thirds of the new zoning ordinances were adopted by municipalities in Warren, Sussex, Hunterdon, Cumberland, Gloucester and Atlantic Counties.

ART AIDS PSYCHOLOGISTS — These drawings are among several hundred gathered at random from New Jersey students of all ages for use in a research project aimed at improving methods of psychological drawing analysis. Dr. Virginia D. C. Bennett of the Rutgers Graduate School of Education heads up the project described in article below.

Children's Drawings Can Give Personality Insight

The next time you go to a PTA meeting, take more than a passing glance at the children's drawings hanging on the bulletin board.

The drawings, especially of the human figure, may reveal more about your child than his artistic talent. They may, in fact, provide clues to his personality, self-concept and overall adjustment in school and at home.

Chances are you and the art teacher may not be aware of this, but it is a good bet the school psychologist is. Drawing analysis has probably been a part of his test battery for years.

Attempts to improve methods of drawing analysis through research are being made at Rutgers Graduate School of Education by Dr. Virginia D. C. Bennett of the educational psychology department.

As Dr. Bennett points out, there is a tendency among psychologists to use a "cookbook" approach in analyzing drawings; that is, the notion that "this particular graphic trait in a drawing indicates that particular characteristic in the child's personality."

There is a need to use an overall approach, Dr. Bennett says, judging these traits in combination rather than on a one-to-one relationship. In tests administered to more than 200 sixth grade children in one school district in the state, Dr. Bennett found there were 27 "graphic traits" in drawings that can be measures of a child's personality, self-concept or adjustment.

These ranged from the position of the figure on the page and its size to the absence or presence of details such as hands, ears, and mouths. The danger in analyzing drawings the "cookbook" approach is evident in findings related to the types of buttons found on children's drawings, Dr. Bennett notes.

It has been believed that the presence of buttons indicated dependency needs on the part of the child. And, in fact, the big, round snowman type interns are offered in both Medicine and Dentistry. Externs are accepted in the Departments of Surgery, Medicine, Pediatrics and Pathology.

of buttons found in drawings of younger children may reveal such needs.

Dr. Bennett points out, however, that the absence of buttons in an older child's drawing may indicate something different. Because buttons found on older children's drawings tend to be detailed, decorative additions, their absence may indicate the drawer feels he lacks the ability to draw them accurately.

One possible interpretation of this, she says, is a feeling of inadequacy.

Similarly, the absence of hands in an older child's drawing may indicate the same feeling. A younger child will draw hands on a figure crudely, but an older child, realizing that artistically correct hands are hard to draw, may hide them in pockets or behind the back.

Dr. Bennett uses draw-a-person tests, rather than draw-a-man tests, which have been used previously to determine a child's level of achievement.

By asking a child to draw a person, the tester can add another variable to the graphic traits, sex. Most persons tend to draw their own sex first, and sometimes the reverse can indicate an abnormality of some sort. After the first drawing, the child is asked to draw the opposite sex, and here, disparities in size of the figures may indicate a one-sided parental dominance.

But, Dr. Bennett points out, that each "graphic trait" must be weighed against the others.

Leon Hess Elected Trustee Of New Jersey Symphony

The election of Leon Hess as a new Trustee of the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, has been announced by Henry P. Becton, president of the New Jersey Symphony.

Hess is chairman of the Board of Directors of the Hess Oil and Chemical Corporation of Perth Amboy, N.J. He is a resident of New York City.

In making the announcement, Becton said "We are fortunate to have the opportunity to welcome a man of Mr. Hess's stature to the Board of Trustees. His broad background and experience certainly will serve as an asset to our orchestra."

and against the total drawing to get an accurate picture of the child.

Dr. Bennett discredits the value of artistic ability as a factor in drawing analysis, noting that years ago it was believed that an artistically superior drawing was an indicator of "better" mental health.

It now has been found, she says, that the same graphic traits are evident in an artistically "good" drawing as in a "poor" one.

One factor complicating accurate drawing analysis is age, and new research by Dr. Bennett is aimed at determining when these "graphic traits" become personality clues as opposed to developmental characteristics. To do this, she has collected a random sample of drawings of students in kindergarten to twelfth grade throughout the state.

Also to be examined at the same time is a similar number of drawings by Japanese children collected by a colleague, Dr. Ivan Holowinsky.

The drawings will be compared according to age and I.Q. and special attention will be paid to the fact that many of the Oriental children draw figures resembling Caucasians.

Sergeant Theodore Steinmeyer of the Nutley Police Department will graduate tomorrow from the nineteenth "Operation Combine" class for municipal police officers at the New Jersey Police Academy in Sea Girt.

The two-week courses, which have been designed to help municipalities cope with problems concerning prevention and control of civil disturbances, stress the importance of community relations.

Yale University and the Brooklyn Museum. Twenty lithographs by Catherwood, lent by the Newark Public Library, will also be included.

Frederick Catherwood, an architect, artist and archaeologist, was born in London in 1799 and first came to America in 1839. He accompanied John Lloyd Stephens, an American author and traveler, on two amateur archaeological trips to Central America, Chiapas and Yucatan in the 1840's.

Lectures in this area are given on Community Affairs Programs, Juvenile Relations, Press Relations and related subjects aimed at the prevention of disorders.

The remainder of the curriculum, dealing with the control phase, features lectures, demonstrations and projects on: Law (National, State and Local); Intelligence; Operational and Logistical Planning; Leadership, Supervision and Discipline; Patrols (mobile, foot and fixed); Crowd and Sniper Control; Arrest, Identification and Detention; Reporting Procedures; and the Roles of Assisting Agencies.

The major objective of the initial courses is to establish an effective program for general command officers who will coordinate and direct the activities of the municipal police department's field operation. Subsequent courses are scheduled to instruct field supervision and operational personnel in disorder control techniques.

School Musical

Thanksgiving Comes To Town

Nine kindergarten through third grade classes put on a special Thanksgiving show at Belleville's School 4 Monday.

The musical program and community sing was highlighted by a film on Thanksgiving.

Each of the two kindergarten, two first, three second and two third grade classrooms presented poems depicting the meaning and enjoyment of the holiday. The special class trainees at the school were guests at the performance.

Miss Holland, music supervisor, accompanied the youngsters. Mrs. Fritts, second grade teacher also provided background for some pieces.

This is Miss Holland's first year not only at School 4, but in the Belleville system and teaching itself. "It was a nice way for her to warm up to Belleville parents," said Mrs. Magistro, third grade teacher.

Second and third grade teachers Mrs. Fritts, Miss Caputo, Mrs. Magistro, and Mrs. Marino, collaborated on production. Mrs. Lucas a parent and Mrs. Marino, got together to outfit the youngsters, and make colorful headpieces.

Principal Michael Nardiello is proud of his faculty's "intensive efforts" to provide youngsters with enjoyable moments such as the prelude to tomorrow's Thanksgiving feast.

Community Service Held At Nutley High

Nutley's third annual Thanksgiving Community service will be given at the high school at 8 p.m. tonight. Troop E Is Celebrating Its Tenth Anniversary

The Troop E State Police detachment on the Garden State Parkway is marking a birthday anniversary and, like most any 10-year-old, it's bigger and busier than ever and still growing.

Its personnel complement has increased almost three times--from 84 to 113 men--since the unit became an entity in its own through separation from the New Jersey Turnpike's Troop D a decade ago. It is to grow a bit more soon with the addition of a lieutenant and a trooper.

The two more men will help with a burgeoning workload--both on the road and in the headquarters office--that is supported by an array of statistics showing increased Troop E activity in every major category of police duty.

Troop E patrols the Parkway 24 hours a day year-round from one end to the other--a distance of 173 miles. It is there for traffic control, law enforcement safety education, care of disabled vehicles and motorists, accident relief and investigation, and service to the traveler.

While part of the New Jersey State Police Division under Superintendent David B. Kelly, Troop E is a detachment specifically assigned to the Parkway. The New Jersey Highway Authority, which operates the Parkway, pays the total policing bill for all its toll sections.

Captain Karl K. Kloo, who was a sergeant in Troop E at the start in 1958 and returned to it as Commander this past August, said the growth in work can be summed up in one word: "voluminous".

He pointed to the traffic load and other statistics as illustrations. For example, vehicle mileage on the Parkway last year showed an increase of 329 million miles over the total in 1959 (first full year of the Troop's operations). Viewed another way, twice as many cars rode the road.

Aids to travelers rose from 29,006 in 1959 to 38,750 in 1967; motor vehicle summonses, from 14,012 to 17,692; criminal and disorderly person arrests, from 117 to 209; traffic warnings, from 10,668 to 24,081; and accidents from 973 to 1,701.

The Troop recovered 22 stolen cars in 1959 and 81 in 1967; and assignments covering dismantled posts (at construction sites, traffic checks and the like) climbed from 179 to 1,108 last year.

Criminal investigations increased more than 20 times, from 112 to 2,321. These included cases involving stolen cars, use of the Parkway as an escape route by fugitives, and the transporting of narcotics, "bootleg" cigarettes and guns.

Also in investigatory categories, the Troop's activities rose from 2,663 traffic and 610 other cases to 6,009 and 1,701.

The Parkway authorities do not use radar as a speed enforcement tool for their express road, preferring to rely on personal patrols by the Troopers. Accordingly, the Troop E men can be found patrolling in both State Police-marked and unmarked cars.

A testimonial to their efforts can be found in the fact that the Parkway has been consistently rated the safest superhighway in the nation. In the 10 years since 1958, the Parkway three times has had annual fatality rates of less than 1 traffic death per 100 million miles of vehicle travel. One of those three came last year. The Parkway started as a toll road in 1954.

Troop E has its headquarters in the Highway Authority's administration building at Woodbridge (Milepost 123), and has roadside stations along the Parkway at Avalon, Bass River, Pleasant Plains, Holmdel and Bloomfield.

Sahbra, Israeli Cafe

One of the most exciting and pulsating entertainment experiences in New York City—the entertainment capital of the world—is Cafe Sahbra, the only authentic Israeli cafe and night club in America.

Located at the Hotel Westover on 72nd Street, between Broadway and West End Avenue, Cafe Sahbra has become the most talked about club in New York.

The club features two shows nightly and a third on Saturday nights, in addition to a Sunday afternoon dining, dancing and showtime spectacle.

Featuring Israeli entertainers, Cafe Sahbra rings with Hebrew, Jewish and American dance music. In addition, it has become a meeting place for Hollywood celebrities when in New York.

As a result the club's management has a regularly scheduled "Celebrity Night" every Sunday evening.

In addition to attracting couples and small parties, Cafe Sahbra has become extremely popular as a facility for large gatherings, able to comfortably facilitate parties up to 400 people.

Cafe Sahbra observes strict dietary laws and has become an ideal location for festive functions, such as weddings, parties, testimonials, Bar-

Mitzvahs, and specialized luncheons and dinners.

Some of New York City's most noted newspaper critics have hailed Cafe Sahbra as "New York's newest hit." Included in that group are Walter Winchell, Danton Walker, Louis Sobol and Bob Sylvester.

Coed Move

Explorer Posts To Register Qualified Girl Scouts Soon

Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. today expressed their pleasure at the announcement by the National Executive Board of the Boy Scouts that special interest Explorer Posts will be open to registered members of qualified girls' organizations, starting in January, 1969.

Girl and Boy Scouts have been working informally together for some years on community service projects and other co-ed activities.

The common goals of the two organizations led Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., in September, 1967, to propose the possibility of official joint boy-girl activities, particularly in such projects as service to the inner-city and other poverty areas. This suggestion was accepted by the national executive committees of both organizations in the form of a statement of consensus. Since then, a series of meetings have been held among Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other youth organizations.

The Boy Scout proposal for girl participation in special interest Explorer Posts is viewed as an excellent first step toward this kind of cooperative action. It is seen as an effective means to utilize the total resources of the community in the interests of youth career exploration. Within the Senior Girl Scout program, "Panorama" troops provide similar opportunities. Senior Girl Scouts ages 14 through 17, would hold their basic membership in Girl Scouts, but participate in special interest Explorer Post activities. Each special interest Post is sponsored by a professional or business group and provides young people with an opportunity for vocational exploration related to the interest of the sponsoring group, such as science, journalism, or aviation.

A spokesman for the national organization said, "This new historic move can result in added benefits, not only to the young people involved, but to their communities as well."

Check Prices To Alleviate Overspending

What can the home-maker do to economize so that the grocery bill will not soar to impossible heights?

One basic step would be to always look at the price of things in a store. Vegetables are a good example. There is usually a wide range in cost of different vegetables.

Not only the cost of a vegetable should be kept in mind, but also how much of what you buy is edible and how much must be thrown away.

We Americans waste far too much food. The homemaker must learn to buy just enough of a particular food and not buy so much that some will end up in the garbage pail.

You may choose to become expert on the use of extenders. Extenders are low-cost foods like macaroni, spaghetti and cheese, which, when combined with more expensive foods, make a little of the latter go a long way. A wholesome example of this is eggs, now relatively reasonable, and which make a perfect extender in hundreds of dishes.

It is possible to save some bacon drippings and beef or pork fat to use for frying potatoes and onions for browning meat for stews and braised dishes and for seasoning soups and vegetables.

Glasses Can Add 'Spec's Appeal'

On Twiggy they're a trademark. On the Princess of Monaco they're regal. When Sophia Loren wears them, she seems sexier and Lucille Ball looks like an adorable owl. But what about you?

Will your glasses add "spec's appeal" to your appearance?

Of course they will if you'll take a tip from the beautiful people who now spend almost as much time choosing eyewear frames that are flattering—as well as far out, fun or just high-fashion—as they do selecting clothes, cosmetics and hair styles.

In fact, if Dorothy Parker were writing today she'd undoubtedly have to revise her famous lines to read: "Most men make passes at girls who wear glasses." Because most men are attracted to girls who know what the score is, they get with it. And these days, as you may have noticed, specs are making the scene from L.A. to London Town, from cover girls to campus queens, from discotheques to drawing rooms.

How do chic tricks and mod moms manage to look so spectacular in spectacles?

The secret lies in the word "frame". When you choose the right type of frame, your glasses will actually work for you, emphasizing your best features and minimizing your deficiencies. They can also highlight your outfit, your image or your moods, helping you to make that quick switch from desk decorum to date devastation, from outdoor sport to candlelight coquette, from friendly pal to frame fatale.

How to choose an in-fashion frame which flatters?

It all starts with the shape of your face. Since the classic ideal of beauty is the oval face, your frame or frames should be those which—whatever your type—tend to create that illusion.

Picture above are a few suggestions on high fashion framework as conceived by a group of leading beauty stylists working with frame designers of the American Optical Company, one of the world's largest and best known makers of eyewear.

If you're lucky enough to have an oval face to start with, your frame should be gently rounded, almost understated, so that its shape does nothing to detract from that of your face. A triangular face, as shown, looks best with a big, rounded-eyed frame; a diamond-shaped face will be most flattered by the new "hexagonal" eyewear; the length of an oblong face can be reduced by a square frame while the round or heartshaped type should choose frames with a longish, slightly narrow look to minimize the width of forehead and cheekbones.

Once you have determined your own frame fashion group, Continued on Page 16

The Right Frame Is Key To Glasses With Class

you still have a wide variety of styles, colors, materials, and trimmings to choose from. Because, though few people are aware of it, the design of each new eyeglass frame is as thoroughly worked over and "prayed over" as the creation of any couturier's original. For instance, frame designers at American Optical follow Paris openings, consult with hair stylists, cosmetic and color experts as well as beauty and fashion editors... then create hundreds of new eyewear designs similar to those pictured.

This year, the designers are concentrating on "geometrics", following the big trend in clothes, costume jewelry, fabrics and furniture with the result that frames in the shape of squares, diamonds, oblongs, hexagonals and oversized circles are very much in vogue.

As to colors, for daywear the experts advise a tone ranging from amber to black, the go-with-everything basics. But these colors include a wide choice--all the way from honey blonde to mock turtle and from sand gray to midnight jet. Actually, just as in choosing a hat, a lipstick or face powder you'll be wise to sit down in front of a mirror and try on a number of shades in order to find the one most flattering to your hair, eyes and skin tones.

Speaking of hair, you may be wondering how to find frames to fit your latest hair-do. Remember it's the shape of your face, not your hair, which should be the determining factor. But many women prefer to have several variations of their styles of frames--just as they use falls and switches to effect more elaborate coiffures for their after-dark personalities.

Bi-focals, by the way, can be fitted easily into the new big lenses and geometric shapes so that mod mothers can -- and do--wear eyewear as flattering and high fashioned as their daughters.

Gelatine Cooking Good For Any Kind Of Food

Why not begin using more gelatine cookery in your menu? Gelatine is tasteless and colorless--but these qualities are actually often the most valuable ones. It makes it possible for you to make use of the taste, texture and color of almost every other food. Gelatine offers a means of giving form to such foods as beaten eggs and whipped cream.

Gelatine dishes can be served at any point in a meal. There are jellied hors d'oeuvres, soups, salads, mousses, aspics, and many kinds of desserts.

Gelatine can help you beat high prices by extending your supply of expensive food so it serves more people.

Men's Fashions For Fall Started By Color Harvest

By O.E. Schoeffler,

Fashion Director of Esquire Magazine

Much of the fashion excitement in menswear this Fall and Winter -- and don't fool yourself, it's mounting excitement, and there's more of it every day! -- stems from color. Spearheaded by Esquire's Color Harvest, it includes four separate families of color: Harvest Browns, an assemblage of warm, autumnal hues; sun-bleached, golden Harvest Wheat; newly clear and positive Harvest Greens, and vibrant Harvest Blue.

These major color classifications will be found in suits and tailored sportswear -- jackets and slacks -- in a wide range of fabrics: solids, houndstooth and Tattersall checks, Glenurquhart and windowpane plaids, and newly resurgent stripes.

These Harvest colors are extremely well-adapted to the principal silhouettes of suits and jackets, with shape leading the fashion field. Two-button jackets with somewhat broader shoulders, slightly wider lapels and definite waist suppression are decidedly the most in demand, followed closely by the perennial 3-button jacket (even the traditional Natural Shoulder model is now available with a bit of shape).

The 1-button look is climbing fast in the popularity polls, too -- as is a multiplicity of double-breasted silhouettes, ranging from the high-cut, 6-button jacket with a distinctly "Edwardian" look to the single set of low-placed double buttons.

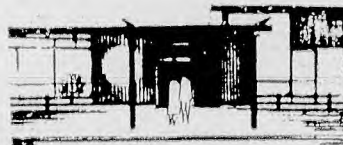

More and more men are opting for a variety of shapes and silhouettes in their wardrobes these days rather than sticking to a single "old reliable." Vents -- either single or double -- are lengthening visibly, with 10 to 12 inches preferred by most men. Trousers are most often pleatless and rather tapered, with or without cuffs as personal preference decrees. The "Edwardian" jacket calls for trousers that are cut a bit fuller from knee to ankle.

The lighter, livelier look of fabrics for suits and sport jackets dictates deeper, brighter tones in shirtings, with intermediate-to-dark colors well to the fore. Underlining the importance of the shirt is the "more collar" look, with spread models, button-downs (with or without buttons) and a few pin-collar models to be seen. Wider ties -- an average of 3 1/4" the most popular -- offer a greater area for imaginative patterns and colors, emphasized by coordinated pocket squares.

The foremost trends in footwear are the blunted toe and metallic trims, with the latter encompassing chains, metal "bits" and larger buckles on strap-and-buckle models. There's more brown to be seen in shoes as well, ranging from burnished golden shades to russet tones to deeper, blacker browns -- all of which blend beautifully with Esquire Harvest Colors. Socks are lightening and brightening somewhat, for the same reason, as are the season's hats.

In outercoats, two major breakthroughs reflect the urge to luxury that's part and parcel of the new fashion explosion.

Family Health Helps Barnabas Works For Safety

Saint Barnabas Medical Center and the Council on Family Health has become partners in a demonstration of cooperation between programs for the prevention and treatment of illness and injury at the dedication service for the twin hyperbaric medicine chambers presented by the 500 members of The Guild of Saint Barnabas Medical Center.

The programs of the Council on Family Health, a non-profit organization sponsored by leading members of the drug industry, are designed to prevent home accidents. The council presented awards to singer Connie Francis and other personalities for their distinguished public service in the national radio campaign for home safety.

The Saint Barnabas Hyperbaric Medicine and Research facility, the world's largest, most complete and busiest is an exciting new modality in the treatment of illness and injury. It consists of the two interconnecting main chambers with ancillary and support equipment along with other special facilities.

In eighteen months of operation the facility has been used for over 6,000 patient treatments and procedures for over 400 patients including the first kidney transplant and has demonstrated dramatic results in the clinical use of hyperbaric medicine and is utilized on a national basis. The use of the Medical Center's FAA hospital heliport allows for helicopter transportation of emergency patients who are directly taken to the Hyperbaric Medicine and Research facility.

Anthony Scala of Livingston, president, Saint Barnabas Medical Center said, "The outstanding continuing contribution made by The Guild, with their financial support and the many other areas of volunteer service, allows us to continue to build a total Medical Center to take care of the total needs of our patients."

"We shall continue," said Mrs. Charles H. Rybolt of West Orange, president of The Guild, "to offer our time, effort and support to Saint Barnabas in assisting this outstanding Medical Center in its service to humanity."

One of the twin hyperbaric medicine chambers was the scene of the presentation of the national awards by the Council on Family Health to entertainment personalities for their contributions to the album, "Home Safety Tips from the Stars."

Howard A. Prentice, Ed.D., of Washington, D.C., President of the Council on Family Health began his remarks saying, "It is with a sense of awe that I stand inside this hyperbaric medicine chamber at Saint Barnabas Medical Center and realize the tremendous almost miraculous advancements in medicine that we are seeing unfold today. These advancements are not the work of a few individuals. We are witnessing a march of progress in which hundreds of thousands of dedicated, hard-working people are contributing their efforts."

The presentations made to such famous stars as Connie Francis, Greta Thyssen, Emilia Conde, and radio figures The Rev. Dr. Fred L. Long of Belleville and The Rev. Dana F. Kennedy of Conn., both of The Episcopal Church (Bill Bertenshaw of Maplewood, Radio and TV Director, Producer, accepted the award for Dr. Kennedy) were watched through the use of the Medical Center's closed circuit TV system by those in the 500 seat auditorium and patients throughout Saint Barnabas.

Three firsts were evident with this awards ceremony. It marked the first time that national broadcast awards were ever presented in New Jersey - the first time such a presentation was made in a hospital - and the first time any award had been given inside a hyperbaric chamber.

Scala thanked Dr. Prentice for the great honor awarded Saint Barnabas in having the Council Awards presented at the Medical Center and congratulated and thanked those who received the awards for their great contribution in helping to alleviate accidents with their "Home Safety Tips." "We," he said, "are partners. Our preventive program has a theme of 'Helping to keep well people well'. Truly this eventful day is another milestone for Saint Barnabas Medical Center".

People who enjoy privileges rarely believe that democracy has any right to curb their prerogatives.

Education is not to be confused with a degree from an institution of learning.

AWARD WINNERS—Receiving awards for their part in a national home safety radio campaign from Saint Barnabas Medi-

Ladies Beware Of Outdated Spices Because They Can Ruin Any Meal

Many a modern homemaker who is quite realistic about ridding her closet of outmoded clothes and unbecoming hats never thinks of "sorting out" her spice shelf. Spices can go out of date very easily, especially if ground, it is only sensible to get rid of tag-ends which have lost their true and enchanting aroma.

The flavor of spices arises from natural oils which appear in the cell structure of the fruit, bark, leaf or other aromatic part of the plant used for a spice. After the spice is ground the volatile oils are exposed to air and gradually start to lose strength.

We cannot see this happen- ing for these natural oils fly away in invisible particles, leaving behind an exhausted powder or crumbled leaves. Compare such lingering remainder with a newly opened container of that same spice and there's an amazing difference.

The spices used in a dish cost so little, just pennies, that it is false economy to risk the flavor of a dish made with other ingredients which cost much more.

You can help protect the aroma of your new stock of spices by observing these simple rules.

Close the container firmly after each use.

Store your spices in the coolest, driest, darkest place in the kitchen, away from stove heat and bright sunlight. Date each container upon purchase and use your spices often for they add greatly to the enjoyment of food.

Pumpkin Show Features Five Foot Pie

Every year since 1903, at that time of year "When the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock," the city of Circleville, Ohio, shuts up shop and concentrates on the Pumpkin Show. This is one of the big annual festivals of our country, "as American as pumpkin pie," and attracts some 300,000 participants and visitors.

Everything's for fun and everything's free! Exhibits of foods and handicrafts, prettiest babies, baton twirling and hog-calling. Pumpkin pie eating, however, is the real attraction with a monster pumpkin pie five feet across as the star of the show.

Over the years the best recipes have been collected and printed in a souvenir pumpkin recipe booklet. There are pumpkin pies in variety, pumpkin cakes and cookies, pumpkin soup and pumpkin burgers. As every pumpkin pie baker knows, the filling can be seasoned with almost unlimited combinations of sweet spices, with some of the best bakers seasoning to taste.

Many of Circleville's prize-winning pumpkin pie bakers have discovered that delicious and convenient blend of spices, pumpkin pie spice. Here, in one container we have cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves and ginger. It is blended for pumpkin pie above all, but this same blend of spices gives delightful aroma to cookies, spice cakes, breakfast toast and buns. It's ideal for baked winter squash, mashed sweet potatoes, candied carrots.

Home economists of the American Spice Trade Association created this luscious recipe and named it Pickaway Pumpkin Pie in honor of the county which surrounds Circleville and the Pumpkin Show. Pumpkin Parfait is another flavorfully spiced pumpkin dessert.

Fashion Notes Show Shirts

Shirts with jumpers and with pants vary from the befrilled numbers to the very mannish style shirt. A favorite with the pants and sleeveless bodice is the shirt with high collar and French cuffs. A knotted tie is worn with the buttoned down collar.

The girl who likes a feminine touch with her long pants wears a blouse with ruffles down the front and ruffles around the cuff.
