Coaching Appointments Highlight Board Meeting

Due to the Christmas holiday, the Belleville Board of Education will meet December 18 (the board usually meets the fourth Monday of the month).

At the November 25 meeting, resignations and appointments were approved. Resignations and effective dates include: Mrs. Barbara Romano as elementary school nurse, January 1; Carol Rondini, junior high mathematics teacher, January 14; Mrs. Gail Davis, junior high reading teacher, January 15 and Mrs. Maria Yacavino, speech teacher, November 29.

Appointments include: Judith Knight, high school home economics teacher, February 1 and Mrs. Rosemary Hannon, elementary school nurse, January 2.

Also appointed were three sports coaches. Jeffrey Hull will be the assistant coach of the high school wrestling team while Dennis Villano is to tackle the frosh mat job. John Sencer will coach basketball for the seventh and eighth graders.

By-laws and a constitution for the advisory adult education group were adopted.

The board authorized Dr. Samuel Peck, Belleville schools director of music, to attend a music educators national conference. He will travel to Washington, D.C. for the eastern division convention, January 31 through February 3.

A six week leave of absence without pay was approved for Mrs. Marie DeFalco due to illness. Mrs. DeFalco is a cafeteria worker at the senior high school.

Authorization was granted for employment of a temporary time card clerk in the board's business office October 28 through June 30, at a weekly salary of $70. Mrs. Ann DiRuggiero holds the position.

A low quotation of $542 was received for printed checks to purchase supplies and services.

Maintenance work was a subject at the meeting. Authorization was approved to pay Acme Repairs Inc. for repairs at the senior high school cafeteria ($243).

An order was placed with Rainbow Roofing of East Paterson in the amount of $490 for furnishing and installing aluminum expanded bird screens over the stacks at School 3 (there was a slight pigeon problem). Also at School 3 a change order not to exceed $9400 was issued for roof repairs (the original contract calls for $14,633 worth of work). The change order will cover replacement of rotted wood at the 17 leaders on the roof. The exact amount won't be determined until the gutter is taken off and an investigation of the wood is made.

A one year maintenance agreement of $281 was made with National Cash Register for board equipment.

In other business, Walter Fogle Sanger was authorized transportation money for his son who attends Passaic Collegiate School. This is in accordance with state law.

Villa Capri Owner Plans To File Suit Against Town

Nutley Dignitaries Already Charged

Things are fomenting again between Angelo Nardone, owner of the Villa Capri and Belleville town officials.

Nardone and his lawyer, James McTague of Jersey City, plan to file suit this week against 10 Belleville officials for "a vicious conspiracy to ruin me and the Villa."

Nardone had already filed papers against 17 Nutley officials (last summer) and is waiting for that case to come to the courts.

The Villa Capri is located on the Nutley-Belleville border, so Nardone has been involved in legal scuffles with both towns. Nutley officials caused the villa to be closed for a year because of alleged health violations. An Essex County Court later reversed the decision and allowed Nardone to reopen.

Other incidents followed. Nardone was charged with stealing $15 worth of firewood from the Nutley town dump behind the municipal garage. That case also ended up in the County Courts and again Nardone won a favorable decision.

There have been assorted alleged zoning violations. Last year (May) Belleville successfully prosecuted Nardone for storing building materials on town-owned property. On this occasion, Nardone and Judge Edward Abromson had a disagreement about the worth of Nardone's artistic possessions. Building Inspector Vincent Mustacchio had pressed the charges.

"You say all this stuff is not junk," said Abromson, referring to articles Nardone works on for display in the Villa. "I collect these," was Nardone's rejoinder, referring to columns and slabs of marble. "I use them inside and outside my place as decoration. I save the columns because they are valuable. They are art." Nardone's brother finds a lot of the ruins in Italy and sends them over where they are put to use in the villa.

Abromson, issuing a directive to Nardone to clean up, stated, "I never saw any treasures just lying around haphazardly. If you straightened up your art, Mr. Nardone, and treated it with a little respect, everyone would be happy."

Also last year Nardone lost a Nutley case which grew out of his erecting a wall of columns between the Villa and Franklin Avenue. Nardone stated he needed the wall to protect against acts of vandalism.

Speaking from the Villa Monday evening over a glass of wine with Beethoven's Ninth symphony as inspiration, Nardone leveled a blast against the Belleville Police. "They broke all my windows, so now I put in stain glass. I called the police many times, they didn't do their job, that's why the suit's coming. No one was prosecuted. Once I even gave them the license plate of the kids who threw the rocks. There was no action."

"But destiny stepped in. Apparently their car stalled and the police were nearby and they insulted them. They were picked up for that. I was there, and identified them as the offenders and still no action."

Nardone plans to sue for $10,000,000 and states he realistically expects to win a few million. But, it's not for the money. College students frequent Villa. Professors from Fairleigh Dickinson in Rutherford hold classes there, poetry readings are conducted. Nardone is trying to form an operatic group to perform at the Villa. A Christmas opera show is planned.

"I'm trying to preserve a cultural ideal," says Nardone, "the enjoyment of the past. We're lost in this era. Look what we give value to in music, art, literature. Today's music is all repetition. I want to renew the classics, have a rebirth of Neo-Classicism, the Romans and Greeks. I'm fighting the era in my little way, to save just a candleabra from going to the ruins. To me it's more than just a

IN THE NEWS AGAIN — Angelo Nardone, proprietor of the Villa Capri relaxes at his classical coffeehouse. Nardone is ready to do battle with Belleville officials for alleged conspiracy.

Kidde Merges

Shareholders of Walter Kidde & Company, Inc. and United States Lines Company at separate meetings today voted approval for the acquisition of U. S. Lines by Kidde.

Further action on the transaction will await the outcome of a complaint filed by six common shareholders of U. S. Lines in Hudson County (New Jersey) Superior Court.

Kidde's shareholders met in the company's Belleville headquarters and U. S. Lines shareholders in that company's New York City offices.

Fred R. Sullivan, chairman of the board of Kidde, stated that the shareholders of both Kidde and U. S. Lines "will benefit from this blending of talents and resources." Sullivan described U. S. Lines activities in the field of containerization, and asserted that "the potential rewards (of containerization) are enormous for the company that is ready with the equipment, the resources and the know-how to capture a share of the market."

"U. S. Lines has the expertise needed in the shipping field," said Sullivan; "Kidde speaker, Russell Johnson, who is Director of the Peace Education Committee of the American Friends Service Committee in New England. Johnson, in mid-January, 1968, returned from his latest visit to Southeast Asia, a six-week trip which took him to Cambodia, Thailand, and South Vietnam. In Phnom Penh, Penh, he visited the Cambodian Prime Minister, the Chairman of the International Control Commission, the Ambassador of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, and the Representative of the N.L.F. From September 5 through 12, 1967, Russell Johnson, one of forty Americans there, participated in informal and off the road discussions with Vietnamese representatives from the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (North Vietnam) and from the N.L.F. of South Vietnam which took place in Bratislava, Czechoslovakia. The afternoon session is entitled, "End Racism! No more Newark!" and the keynote address will be given by Robert Curvin of Newark. has the complementary resources, including management skills and other capabilities in areas like electronic data systems, materials handling, manufacturing, research and development. Kidde brings to U. S. Lines a broad range of talents in many fields from across this nation and around the world.

"We know that U. S. Lines and Kidde, working together, can achieve greater success for both companies than either could achieve separately," Sullivan declared.

U. S. Lines is one of the nation's largest common carriers of cargo, passengers and mail. Its fleet of 40 cargo vessels services ports in Europe, Hawaii and the Far East from terminals on the East Coast of the United States. The company also owns and operates the luxury passenger liner, SS United States.

business, the Villa, it's a philosophy." The Villa started 15 years ago at 4 Franklin Avenue as a pizza restaurant. Now only coffee is served with free Italian cookies and pastry. The mood is idyllic, relaxing. But Nardone has to fight to keep the Villa alive and thriving with sincere, interested artists.

"It's a mess because they (town officials) keep bothering me. I'm only myself here, putting up stones, working on molds. Belleville continued the conspiracy and oppression Nutley started. "I have been in court maybe 50 times. The great feeling is having the fight out, then the good feeling comes, the calm after. I'll never give up. I feel safe when I'm fighting, otherwise they gang up on you."

"They're always trying to hit me with illegal code violations. It's a general harassment from Mayor Smith on down."

Nardone's plans for the Villa, aside from legal battles, is to "form a club here of sincere artists, opera singers, where they can continue to run the Villa when and if I go to Italy. I think it's good for students to be exposed to the past. It's easy to defend an ideal."

At the Villa, gentlemen must wear ties and jackets. "It hurts the business, but I don't care. It fits in with the classical mold."

That Angelo Nardone is sincere, is undeniable. How successful he will be in defending his ideal is undeterminable.

New Jersey Milk-Dealers Institute is asking the Office of Milk Industry to raise minimum consumer milk prices 4 cents a gallon, or one cent a quart, and it will cost New Jersey consumers $10 million annually. Outside activities include manual labor at the Belleville Children's Shelter.

Regular GOP Organization

Cynical Politicians at Work

Sometimes one wonders just how stupid some politicians think people are.

Recently the Essex County Vocational School Board voted to create new posts and fill staff vacancies.

The impetus for this insult to Essex County taxpayers came from the REGULAR ORGANIZATION REPUBLICAN wing of the Essex County Republican Party. Here is what they are trying to get away with:

1. The appointment of Raymond Yeomans brother of the illustrious County Republican Chairman, William Yeomans, to a $15,000 a year post as assistant business manager of the Vocational School system.

2. The appointment of Frank Darcy as corresponding secretary at $5,000 a year.

3. The appointment of Charles Duebel, a defeated Assembly candidate, as assistant secretary to the Board, a post which usually pays $10,000 a year.

4. The appointment of Mrs. Eleanor Insabella, wife of Newark's West Ward defeated Assembly Organization Republican candidate, Philip Insabella, as assistant to the superintendent at $12,000 a year.

5. The appointment of Mario Genova, defeated organization senate candidate to the post of administrative clerk at $10,000 a year.

6. The appointment of John Rooney, Democrat as assistant treasurer at $3,000 a year.

7. The appointment of a former secretary to the REGULAR REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION Vocational Board chairman at $3.00 an hour.

When the names of these political payoffs hit the newspapers something more than wind hit the fan.

All the Intile Republicans (standard bearer, Joe Intile, is president of J.I. Enterprises, Inc., which controls the Essex County Republican Committee), ran for cover.

County Supervisor Walter C. Blasi, a Joe Intile protege, who is responsible for the appointment of individuals to the Vocational School Board, pleaded ignorance and surprise.

Would you believe that Joe Intile who really runs the REGULAR REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION knew nothing about these lush political plumbs?

Would you believe that the four Intile REGULAR REPUBLICAN Freeholders, C. Stewart Hausmann, Thomas R. Farley, Hyman Mintz and William Clark also knew nothing about this?

REGULAR ORGANIZATION REPUBLICANS is becoming an identification for wheeling and dealing politicians.

The REGULAR ORGANIZATION REPUBLICANS insult the intelligence of voters when they indicate surprise at the political appointments listed above. It was pure and simple - a deal with the knowledge and consent of those persons at the highest level of authority in Intile's Essex County Republican Committee leadership.

The results clearly indicate a bi-partisan deal.

Two jobs for the Democrats and a few "low paying" jobs for the Republicans who Joe Intile expects to use in next year's Republican Primary contest.

For the time being Joe Intile's wing of the Republican Party has had its say and saddled Essex County taxpayers with $45,000 in jobs clearly awarded for political services.

At the next Primary Election voters will have the opportunity to register their dissent with this sordid abuse and misuse of taxpayer monies.

Christmas Mission On Earth

The plans for Apollo 8 to orbit the moon during the Christmas holidays offer the prospect of an exciting adventure, with vast implications for the future.

But while we watch the lunar mission, we cannot overlook the problems that still plague half the people on earth-hunger, poverty, sickness, illiteracy. Nor can we draw border lines on our compassion. In this season above all others, it behooves us to remember the needy both at home and across the world.

CARE offers a way to reach less fortunate peoples in Africa, Asia, the Middle East and Latin America. The current $6,000,000 CARE Food Crusade appeal seeks to deliver 6,000,000 packages, at a dollar each, in the name of the American people. Combines with U.S. donations of farm abundance and operating costs contributed by participating nations, the gifts will help feed 28,000,000 persons in 33 countries during the coming year.

This mission, too, has vast implications for the future. The food will do more than keep people alive. Meals at schools and preschool centers will help malnourished children become healthy, educated, self-supporting adults. Emergency programs will help war and disaster victims build a new and better life. Food-for-work projects will help poor villagers build schools, roads, clinics and other musts for human progress. You can join the "count-down" by mailing your check to: CARE Food Crusade, 660 First Ave., New York, N.Y. 10016.

Chrysler's Try

In the free enterprise society in which we live one can make millions while others starve. This is the system we like, which rewards industry and initiative and penalizes laziness and indulgence.

Social programs, of which we have many and have long had many, are necessary even in a free enterprise society. That is to say, socialism, to varying degrees, is the choice of most Americans, Englishmen, Frenchmen, Germans, etc., in an otherwise relatively free enterprise society, which also varies with each country.

Thus socialism includes the postal service, social security, medicare and many other programs. Generally speaking, in America we have fewer socialist programs, like social security, than European democracies. Some think we have too many; others would like to add more.

In this evolutionary progress, and in our free enterprise society, big business has a responsibility, if only because of the freedom granted it by the majority of Americans. A part of this responsibility is not to add to inflation and act too selfishly in times of crisis for the nation.

In this connection, automobile giant Chrysler has hiked new-car prices by about a hundred dollars the last two years. Last year the company was practically forced to reduce its increase when the government prevailed upon the two other giants to use more restraint. This year the same pattern has developed.

They say Chrysler's recent effort to boost prices almost three per cent was unjustified in view of a good profit picture and expectation, and efficiency improvements in production. In any event General Motors announced a price increase of only 1.6 per cent, which the President described as reasonable.

In all this, the leaders of big, free business in America should constantly keep in mind that the present system will survive only so long as abuses are not flagrant, so as to turn the American people against the system.

FALL

Just why, when winter's drawing near
Do some folks run away
When snow-white fields and a crystal morn
Bring many a jewel'd day.

No matter where we're traveling
January's no time to roam
So isn't that a sensible time

I to enjoy old Home, sweet home?

So don't hurry away too soon,
Missing the best days of all,
No part of the world is more gorgeous Than our part —

"In The Fall."

A Bright Holiday Season

Seems Only Yesterday

By Allan Crisp

No little amusement has been given to the travellers on our new trolley line from watching the motormen grab at where the reins used to be, utter a loud "Gee, up" and for an instant wonder why the horses fail to "gee, up". No doubt they feel sheepish, but they are getting there just the same.

Mr. J. W. Zwingli is preparing for the winter by giving his house an (over) coat of paint.

Mr. C. S. Smith is very desirous of becoming acquainted with the sneak thieves who appropriated his dining room carpet from his clothes line.

The trolley is here to stay. Let the one cent fare stand as it is and we will all be happy. It would be an outrage to have to pay five cents to ride say from Holmes Street to Greenwood Lake depot or up and down the town either way.

A live committee consisting of Messrs. Travers, McCullough, Taylor, Denike and Alexander is in charge of the Jr. O. U. A. M. reception in Hellens new hall at the corner of Mt. Prospect and Verona Avenues in Newark.

All the ten dollar checks sent to a group of Nutley citizens who hoped to build a municipal swimming pool may have been in vain, said the Sun. The Nutley Community Pool Corporation was unable to win an expression of support from the town Commissioners. Political implications of the Commissioners failure to support the pool proposal were just being realized. The Corporation had received more than $12,000 worth of checks, and Commissioner Carl Orechio supported the idea but the proposal died for lack of a second.

This week's paper marked the largest regular edition in The Sun's 73 year old history. The record breaking issue had 44 standard pages. All 44 pages were printed in a single press run.

Edwin McCullen active in political party affairs for only two years was chosen president of the Nutley Young Republicans.

The Nutley Fire Department was called to Hoffman-La Roche when a boiler over-heated causing a blaze on the first floor of the structure. Firemen had the blaze under control swiftly and damage was slight.

Douglas R. Tucker of Lake Street, who was slated to be head of the Nutley Republican Club in 1953, announced for the second time he would not be a candidate to succeed himself as chairman of the Essex Young Republicans.

TACKLED THE WRONG MAN-- A dastardly attempt at highway robbery was made last Monday night Mr. Charles Kamlak, a man who has reached the age of seventy years and has an honorable army record, was accosted by two scoundrels who demanded his money and his valuables. Not being desirous of bestowing silver and gold, Mr. Kamlak substituted steel with such telling effect that he severely wounded one of the ruffians and put both to flight. Fortunately, he is an expert swordsman, as well as an expert chess player.

COMMITTEE MEETING-- Complaint was made that the road which leads through the woods west of Joralemon Street and the Reservoir was improperly lighted. Mr. James Slattery, of Main Street, told the Committee that at night he only found two lights the entire distance--a red and a white one. He was afraid to come back that way, so took another way, which was a very roundabout one to his home. The Committee will see that the road is properly lighted in the future.

Speak Up

Minorities' Rights To Publications

To The Times:

Your editorial on October 17, entitled Magazine Demagoguery, is among the most interesting editorials I have read.

These magazines, to which you refer as using "transparent efforts" and "shooting hard for circulation among certain blocs", certainly have their gall. I am not familiar with these magazines and would appreciate your identifying them.

Who do they think they are and what gives them the right to engage in transparent efforts to increase their circulation?...especially among minority blocs! Next thing you know, every minority group in the country will start thinking they have a right to have their views heard. Just imagine the chaos if every group had its views aired in a magazine. That would only be a first step, next thing newspapers would start expressing views contrary to those of the majority. There would undoubtedly be 'small town' papers of less than national circulation criticizing local and national leaders and expressing political views opposite to the views of the majority.

Your courage in alerting us to this possible evil and to the peculiar vocabulary used by "James Baldwin and others" is noteworthy. I suggest as a symbolic first step in curbing this dangerous trend, that you either go out of business or refrain from publishing any comment contrary to the views of the findings of the latest Gallup Poll, or contrary to the views of the majority of the electorate, as expressed by the most recent national election.

Kenneth J. Foster
104 Demarest Avenue
Bloomfield

(Let's not question the right or even need for minority groups of all kinds to express their opinions. The editorial criticized those publishers who commercially mass-produce magazines appealing to specific groups, magazines which supposedly speak as the "voice" of these special interest groups when in fact, they do not. There are some publishing staffs that mass produce such transparent efforts for conflicting groups in separate magazines. Where is the sincerity of purpose or intent?--Editor)

Thanks The Good For Their Effort

To The Times:

It seems that there is always someone ready and anxious to criticize and talk about any anti-social happening that we may witness. Yet there are few, if any of us, who will take the time out to thank and appreciate the good people and the good things.

I for one, wish to thank Mr. Biancardi for all his effort, planning, and coordination that made our "First Columbus Day Parade" the success that it was. Although Mr. Biancardi was in Europe on the Parade Day, his work in the preceding months was evident and his guiding hand was obvious.

Thank you Mr. Biancardi for your civic-minded goodness.

Walter Kidde's Acquisition Of Crum & Forster Approved

Fred R. Sullivan, Chairman of Walter Kidde & Company, Inc., Belleville and William C. Ridgeway, Jr., Chairman of Crum & Forster, announced today that the Boards of both companies had approved a definitive agreement relating to the previously announced acquisition of Crum & Forster by Walter Kidde and will recommend its approval by shareholders.

The agreement, which was executed today by the companies, provides that C&F will be merged into a new, wholly-owned subsidiary of Kidde, at which time each C&F common share and each one and one quarter shares of C&F convertible preferred, will be converted in a non-taxable transaction into $133 of Kidde securities.

These securities will consist of $49.50 of Kidde common (valued by trading on the New York Stock Exchange during a fixed period shortly before the effective date of the merger), and one share of a new Kidde convertible preferred which the parties have valued for the purposes of the transaction at $83.50. The conversion price for the Kidde preferred will be 115% of the value of Kidde common as determined by the above mentioned formula, each share of the preferred being taken at $83.50 for the purposes of conversion. This Kidde preferred will carry an annual cash dividend of $3.50 accruing with the last C&F dividend payment date prior to the merger. It will not be subject to call for eight years.

The transaction is subject to obtaining a favorable tax ruling from the Internal Revenue Service, the request for which was filed today.

It is anticipated that simultaneous stockholders' meeting of both companies to approve this transaction will be held as soon as practicable. Under the agreement, the effective date of the merger will occur ten business days after such stockholders' meetings or the issuance of the favorable tax ruling, whichever last occurs.

Kidde also announced that it may, from time to time, prior to the shareholders' meetings, purchase stock of Crum & Forster in the market.

A Tree Grows At St. Vincent's

A small silver Christmas tree decorated with donor cards for the eleventh year will shine in the entranceway to St. Vincent's Hospital. As a result of the generosity of friends of the facility run by the Sisters of Charity, more than 5,000 patients in the coming year will benefit from additional comforts and equipment that the Christmastime contributions will provide.

The idea for the "Happiness Tree" was originated in 1958 by Sister Clare Dolores, administrator of the 119-bed community hospital. According to the administrator, "the symbolic tree provides and appropriate way" to expand the generosity of Christmas giving into "year-round benefits for patients."

As each contribution is received, a small donor card is attached to the tree. At the same time, a colored bulb on one of the tall evergreens flanking the pathway to the hospital entrance is lighted up. Over the past years, because of the overwhelming response, additional trees have been used outside.

As an enduring tradition at St. Vincent's, last year contributions to the

Benucci Advises Early Mailing for Christmas

Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci recently warned citizens to "Shop and Mail Early" - mail before December 15. This is the biggest single factor in getting all greeting cards, gifts, etc., delivered before Christmas.

All Christmas cards, sealed or unsealed must bear 6 cent stamps. Postal facilities have been expanded, additional equipment installed and all operations are geared to handle the anticipated record volume of holiday mail this year. "It's Christmas every day at the post office from now on," said Benucci, "The entire Christmas mailing period is a continual battle against time, despite the fact Christmas is only a few short weeks away."

The Postmaster advises Shop And Mail Early; check mailing lists; have complete names and addresses; city, state and ZIP code numbers; for gifts and parcels, use heavy wrapping paper, sturdy cartons, tie with strong twine or tape; buy stamps now, avoid waiting in long lines; use the new 6 cent Christmas stamp, or the 10 cent Air-mail stamp; insure articles of value; separate and bundle mail for local and out-of-town destinations, get a free supply of mailing bands at your post office; use ZIP code numbers on all mailings, use it in your return address.

Local ZIP Code directories and information can be obtained at the post office, "I assure you," said the postmaster, "that with public co-operation, Merry Christmas can be had by all."

Public Service Authorized To Revise Consumer Prices

The Board of Public Utility Commissioners today authorized Public Service Electric and Gas Company, to file a revision of its Tariff to effectuate a total reduction of $346,000 to its gas and electric customers.

Commissioner Brendan T. Byrne said that "The filing will effect an estimated reduction of $232,000 to its gas customers and $114,000 reduction to its electric customers."

In Africa Branigan Serves In Peace Corps

A young Nutley resident has taken up residence in Africa. He is Peter Branigan, 22 son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Branigan of 193 Hillside Avenue.

Peter is in Ivory Coast, one of the new republics on the western shores of Africa. He is serving with the Peace Corps and has been assigned as a teacher of carpentry and cabinet making at the Technical Institute at Yamoussoukro, one of the provincial capitals of the country.

The Nutleyite graduated from Nutley High in 1964 as an honor student and a winner of a merit certificate. He also was one of the better mile and cross country runners of his high school era.

From Nutley High Peter went to Brandeis University at Waltham, Mass., where he became captain of the track team and followed another hobby by playing double bass in the Brandeis Symphony Orchestra. He graduated last June cum laude, with honors in American and English literature. He applied to the Peace Corps last winter and was accepted after numerous physical, scholastic and psychological tests.

For preliminary training the Peace Corps sent him to Louisiana, where he underwent intensive training in French, the language of Ivory Coast. For two succeeding months he went to Geneva, Switzerland, where he was trained in wood craftsmanship at the Institute Central of the International Training Organization. Peter's stay in Ivory Coast, one of the hottest subtropical areas in Africa, is scheduled for the full two-year Peace Corps service.

Register Weapons, Admonishes Nash

Servicemen, ex-servicemen and others who have certain types of unregistered war trophies as souvenirs may be in violation of the Gun Control Act of 1968, unless these weapons or devices were registered with the Internal Revenue Service by December 1.

Roland H. Nash Jr., district director of Internal Revenue for New Jersey, said that machine guns, sawed-off shotguns, sawed-off rifles, bazookas, rockets, mortars, bombs, mines, grenades, and similar destructive devices that have been retained as souvenirs or war trophies must be registered or returned. Representatives of the IRS Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division will offer assistance in registering or disposing of any such weapons or devices.

Owners should not bring the weapon or device to the IRS but should call, write or visit the nearest Alcohol and Tobacco Tax or other IRS office for information and assistance.

The law provides that those who fail to register or dispose of the specified firearms or destructive devices which they possess, may be subject to imprisonment up to 10 years, fines up to $10,000, or both. Civil penalties can also be imposed and property forfeitures take place.

A total of 24 nations, following the lead of the United States Peace Corps, now send Volunteers abroad.

Essex Joining Food Stamp Plan

Five additional New Jersey Counties have been approved by the Federal Government to participate in the Food Stamp Program. With the addition of Essex, Hunterdon, Somerset, Morris, and Monmouth, only the three counties of Gloucester, Burlington and Sussex will not be participating in the New Jersey Food Stamp Program by June 1, 1969, according to Irving J. Engelman, Director of the State Division of Public Welfare.

It is estimated the five newly authorized counties will add nearly 100,000 persons to the program with a bonus food purchasing power of $7,570,600. This "bonus" is paid by the United States Department of Agriculture. Although the benefits of the Food Stamp Program are not limited to families that receive public assistance, by law the State agency charged with the responsibility of public assistance also has responsibility for the administration of Food Stamp Program.

The Food Stamp Program created by the Federal Food Stamp Act of 1964 is intended to provide an opportunity for all low-income families to achieve a better diet and at the same time help the farmer through increased consumption of the nation's farm commodities which are purchased through normal channels of trade. It is a program which preserves the dignity of the individual by permitting people to purchase foods the family prefers and not depend upon direct distribution of a limited group of surplus commodities.

Bids Will Be Received On Demolition Project

Transportation Commissioner David J. Goldberg announced that the Department will receive bids on December 19 for a demolition project on Interstate Route 80 in Warren County.

The project calls for demolition of 14 buildings between Route 94 and Knowlton Road, Knowlton Township, a distance of 3.6 miles.

"IT'S COMFORTABLE HEAT— just like sunshine in spring", says one Glassheat owner. "You don't feel hot or cold; you are never aware of the temperature. You are just continuously comfortable, and there are no cold spots."

This is true because Glassheat is the only heating system that warms with Radiant Electric rays exactly like the Sun's own rays. A room heated by Glassheat feels like the sunny side of a barn in the spring sunshine. No wonder people enjoy it, and say so:

"JUST THE TEMPERATURE WE WANT IN EACH ROOM; that's one thing I like," says another owner. True, because money saving thermostats throughout the house permit you to regulate the temperature in each room; 65° in one, 75° in another and 50° in a room not in use. The temperature is uniform from floor to ceiling, causing a user to write, "Years of living with your Glassheat makes me a firm believer in this type of heat."

YOU'LL SAVE MONEY ON HEAT. A fact that surprises many Glassheat owners. One writes "We were expecting that Glassheat would be somewhat more economical to operate but we were not prepared for our low annual heating bills. Of course we are also pleased with the savings on our regular current. We take advantage of the special low heating rate."

Another user says, "Though we added two additional rooms, my heating bill amounts to only $175—and we have never been so comfortable. Of course there are no maintenance or service charges. Another saving."

With Radiant Electric Glassheat so inexpensive to install and operate, why pay more for less than the best?

IT IS CLEAN—As one user writes, "Probably the most unique feature of Glassheat is cleanliness. In 16 years with Glassheat the only room we have had to do over is the kitchen. No need to repaint the other rooms or even wash down the walls."

Says another customer, "No soot, no smoke, no grime. Have never seen anything so clean. And we are saving 30% on the cost of fuel compared to the old system."

IT IS SAFE! No flame, no fumes, no vapor and Glassheat can't overheat. Even accidental contact can't cause blistering. Since there is no flame it is fire-safe. Further it can't burn up the oxygen in the air or reduce the humidity. In fact it maintains a desirable humidity, so there are fewer colds in the Glassheat home and other bothersome ills are averted. No moving parts, so Glassheat is as silent as sunshine. Sound luxurious? It is—in every respect but price and the cost of operation.

How much would this ideal trouble-free heat cost? Send the coupon or call us in person and find out. No obligation.

Fire Protection Is Essential For Children

One child out of every three who die in fires was alone and helpless when the fire struck.

That is the shocking and tragic conclusion of a study by the National Fire Protection Association, according to F. E. Hartmann, president of the New Jersey State Fire College in a special Fire Prevention Week message.

Never leave small children alone, President Hartmann urges. Even if it's necessary to leave the house only for a few minutes, take them with you unless you can find a neighbor to watch over them.

If you would protect your children from fire at home and at play, follow these precautions:

1. Make sure baby sitters have specific instructions in case of fire. These include orders to get the children out of the house the instant smoke or gas is noted, the location of at least two escape routes from every room, and how to get in touch with the fire department, parents, doctor and police.

2. Keep young children two and under -- in constant sight and mind.

3. Teach older children how to use and respect fire. They learn best by your example.

4. Keep your home free of fire hazards by regular check-ups. The fire department will help in this.

5. Train children of all ages how to get out of the house to safety in case of fire. Have at least two escape routes from every room, and be sure the youngsters know these routes by heart.

Cranberries In Season Can Be Used Many Ways

Cranberries are an American tradition dating back to Plymouth Rock. Cranberries were growing wild along the Cape Cod area when the Pilgrims first landed.

The Indians used cranberries for food and for medicine. Colonial women learned from the Indians that cranberries were a useful, edible fruit. The earliest settlers, being used to stewed fruits, cooked the cranberries in water, added sugar, and called it "cranberry sauce". Cranberries are plentiful in the fall and early winter. You can keep fresh cranberries in the refrigerator for a month or more with no apparent spoilage.

Cranberries can be frozen in the package or can be washed and frozen in plastic bags. You may wish to make your cranberry relishes first and then freeze them.

The following recipes are ones you can incorporate into family meals now and throughout the year.

CRANBERRY ORANGE AND WALNUT RELISH (Makes about 1 quart)

1 1/2 cups fresh cranberries
1 cup oranges
1 cup sugar
1 cup walnuts, chopped

Put cranberries and peeled orange quarters through food chopper. Add sugar and nuts; mix well. Chill in refrigerator a few hours before serving. (If relish made in large quantities for long time, and will be kept a long time, add walnuts just before serving.)

CRANBERRY FRUIT BREAD

1 cup all-purpose sifted flour
1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup shortening
1 cup orange juice

1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 egg, well beaten
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1-2 cups fresh cranberries, coarsely chopped

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, soda and salt. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse cornmeal. Combine orange juice and grated rind with well beaten egg. Pour all at once into dry ingredients, mixing just enough to dampen. Carefully fold in chopped nuts and cranberries. Spoon into greased loaf pan (9x5x3"). Spread corners and sides slightly higher than center. Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees F. about 1 hour...until crust is golden brown and toothpick inserted comes out clean. Remove from pan. Cool. Store overnight for easy slicing.

BAKED LAMB CHOPS WITH HOT CRANBERRY SAUCE

Select six 2-inch thick chops. Wrap with lean bacon and fasten with toothpicks. Dip lightly in flour. Saute in 5 tablespoons melted butter, being careful not to burn butter. Put in heat resisting casserole. Bake in 350 degrees F. oven for 1 1/2 to 2 hours. Pour the following sauce over the chops 1/2 hour before end of baking time. Or heat sauce and serve over chops at the table.

HOT CRANBERRY SAUCE: Combine 1 (1-lb.) can jellied cranberry sauce, 1/2 cup applesauce and 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon in bowl. Beat with rotary beater until smooth and saucy. Heat and follow directions above.

Margaret Fitzgerald Is Bride Of John Richmond

St. Peter's Church was the setting November 30 for the marriage of Miss Margaret Ann Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald of 27 Prospect Place to Robert John Richmond, son of Mrs. Robert Richmond of Kearny and the late Mr. Richmond.

The afternoon ceremony was performed by the Rev. Allan J. Morrelly of St. Rose's Church, Connecticut. A reception followed at Thomm's, Newark.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with an empire bodice, illusion neckline and trimming of lace at the hem and sleeves. Her shoulder length veil was held by a petal headpiece.

Mrs. Raymond VanEssestine of Bloomfield was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Duffy of Clark, sister of the groom and Miss Patricia Bradley of Newark.

They were attired in red and white velvet shirtwaist gowns with roll collars.

Mr. Duffy was best man and James T. Fitzgerald Jr. of Cedar Grove and Robert Murray of Kearny, ushered.

Mrs. Fitzgerald chose a silver satin street length dress with a silver mink collar while the groom's mother was in a mint green chiffon dress.

Mrs. Richmond, a graduate of Queen of Peace High School, North Arlington, is with National Cash Register Company, Newark.

Mr. Richmond, an alumnus of Seton Hall University, is with State Farm Mutual Insurance Company, Union.

Following a honeymoon in Jamaica, the couple will live in Kearny.

AUTHOR'S AUTOGRAPH — John T. Cunningham, noted New Jersey author, autographs a copy of his latest book, "Clara Maass... A Nurse... A Hospital... A Spirit", for Mrs. Rudolph H. Deetjen, wife of the late Rudolph H. Deetjen who was vice president of the Board of Trustees at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital at the time of his death.

Clara Maass Hospital Subject Of New Book

Mrs. Rudolph H. Deetjen, wife of the late Rudolph H. Deetjen, who at the time of his death was a vice president of the Board of Trustees at Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, was among the first to receive an autographed copy of Mr. John T. Cunningham's latest book, "Clara Maass... A Nurse... A Hospital... A Spirit".

This book is a complete digest of the hospital's 100 year history compiled by Mr.

Cunningham, a noted New Jersey historian, on the occasion of the hospital's Centennial year.

Over two hundred guests attended the Annual Medical Staff reception given by the hospital's Board of Trustees at The Manor, West Orange, last week at which time the book was formerly introduced.

Mrs. Deetjen presently resides in Belleville and Mr. Cunningham resides in Florham Park.

Personality Formed In First Six Years

Personality is developed very early in life. In fact, the first six years of life form the patterns for personality and growth throughout a person's lifetime. This fact shows the importance of the home and family in personality development.

Early habits can be changed later in life, provided there is a willingness to change. However, to unlearn or relearn, is much more difficult than to learn for the first time.

Children learn by imitating their parents. Values and attitudes are formed on the basis of the value system by which the parents live. Children formulate attitudes toward other people on the basis of parent's attitudes.

Thus, at a very early age attitudes which govern interpersonal relationships are established. A child's reaction to differences, his appreciation of differences, are based on the thought patterns communicated by the parents.

His own sense of well-being is important to personality development. If he is wanted and loved, he will likely be a happy child. Should he feel unwanted, he may well become rebellious.

The parent's attitude toward the child, the relationship of family members to each other, the atmosphere of the home, and the attitude toward people outside the family group all make a definite contribution to the child's learning and his personality.

Never feel the child is too young to understand or be influenced by parent's values and attitudes. It is while he is young that he is influenced the most. Later he will react on the basis of his own ideas, but during those first few years his ideas are being formulated. It is then that his personality is being molded. He learns from every word spoken by parents.

Ahavath Achim Sisterhood's Hanukkah Supper Sunday

The Sisterhood of Congregation Ahavath Achim of Belleville will hold its Fourth Annual Hanukkah Family Supper on Sunday, December 8th, at 5:00 p.m. in Sisterhood Hall of the Congregation, 125 Academy Street, Belleville. A delicious meal will be prepared and served and the Celebration of Hanukkah will be ushered in. Reservations can be made by contacting the chairman at the Synagogue. Donations are $3.00 per adult - $1.75 per child up to 13 years of age.

Mrs. David Schreier is president of the Sisterhood and Mrs. Henry Creditor is Chairman for the Hanukkah Family Supper.

Hanukkah means dedication. The festival commemorates the Maccabees and their valiant fight for freedom and faith. Hanukkah is also the Festival of Lights, celebrating the rededication and purification of the Temple and the miracle of the lights which flamed for eight days although there was sufficient oil for one day only.

The Menorah is the traditional symbol of this holiday, and belongs in every Jewish home. The Menorah should be a particularly fine ceremonial object, a treasured family heirloom. It might be wrought of silver or some other durable metal. The Menorah may be of traditional or entirely modern design.

Lighting the candles of the Menorah is a beautiful and impressive ceremony for young and old alike. Starting from right to left, one candle is placed on the extreme right end of the Menorah on the first night, two candles are placed at that end on the second night, adding one candle each night, until the eighth night. However, the flames are kindled from left to right, after the singing of the blessing. The Menorah has nine rather than eight candle-holders. The slightly elevated middle holder, or at one end, is used as the Shamash, or kindling candle, from which the Menorah candles are lit.

This year the Hanukkah Holiday begins on Sunday night, December 15th, with the lighting of the first candle.

Late Blooming Chrysanthemums May Be The Wrong Varieties

"Why did my chrysanthemums bloom so late?" Home gardeners often ask this question, says John J. Kupcho, County Agricultural Agent of Essex County and the best answer is that they are the wrong varieties.

Some excellent types that are grown as potted plants and cut flowers in greenhouses just aren't satisfactory for outdoor planting. Many take as long as 12 weeks from bud to bloom. These plants normally flower the first week in December, which is just right in the greenhouse but entirely too late for garden plants.

The beautiful Princess Ann varieties, for example, are sold as potted plants and require 10 weeks from the time buds form until bloom and do not flower until the second week in November. They are not satisfactory as garden chrysanthemums.

Plants that need only six to eight weeks from the time buds form to flowering make the best garden varieties, Mr. Kupcho explains. These plants come into bloom between mid-September and mid-October. Varieties can be selected from catalogs that list the blooming dates. Most catalogs listing home garden varieties do not include those greenhouse types which are not suitable for the home garden.

Ball Of The Oranges Raises Money For Unit

More than 300 business and social leaders in North Jersey attended the annual Ball of the Oranges, November 22 sponsored by East Orange General Hospital.

The Main Ballroom of the Hotel Governor Morris in Morristown was decorated in a gala Star-Spangled Evening theme, essentially featuring the colors of the nation's flag. Senator Clifford Case (R,N.J.) was the guest of honor.

The Honorary Chairmen, Governor and Mrs. Richard Hughes were unable to attend because of a prior commitment.

Other than an evening of relaxation and dancing, the purpose of the Ball was to raise money for equipment additions to the Hospital's Coronary Care Unit. This Unit is designed to provide round-the-clock supervision of patients in the crucial three to five days following a cardiovascular accident.

Route 295 Opening Temporarily Postponed

Will the curse of the Heisman Trophy strike Orenthal James Simpson (Orenthal sounds like a great name for a gasoline mileage ingredient)? What are you kidding, what kind of curse,

The curse of professional ineptitude. Last year's winner was Gary Beban, whom you'd have trouble finding on the Washington Redskins bench, let alone the league's stat sheets. The year before that it was Steve Spurrier, who is achieving nonentity with the San Francisco 49ers.

Then comes 1965's recipient and an exception: Mike Garrett, who not only is starting, but is starring for the Kansas City Chiefs. John Huarte was voted tops in 1964. He is the quarterback for the Jets, no, the Patriots, oops, sorry, the Eagles. Roger Staubach won in 1963. He is still passing for the Navy (though the eventual property of the Cowboys, who have Don Meredith, Craig Morton and Jerry Rhome, thus Staubach should get an immediate shot at the number one job on his discharge).

Ah, 1962. Terry Baker. We all remember Terry as the Jantzen sweater boy, er, Rams quarterback. Rams half-back? Jantzen sweater boy.

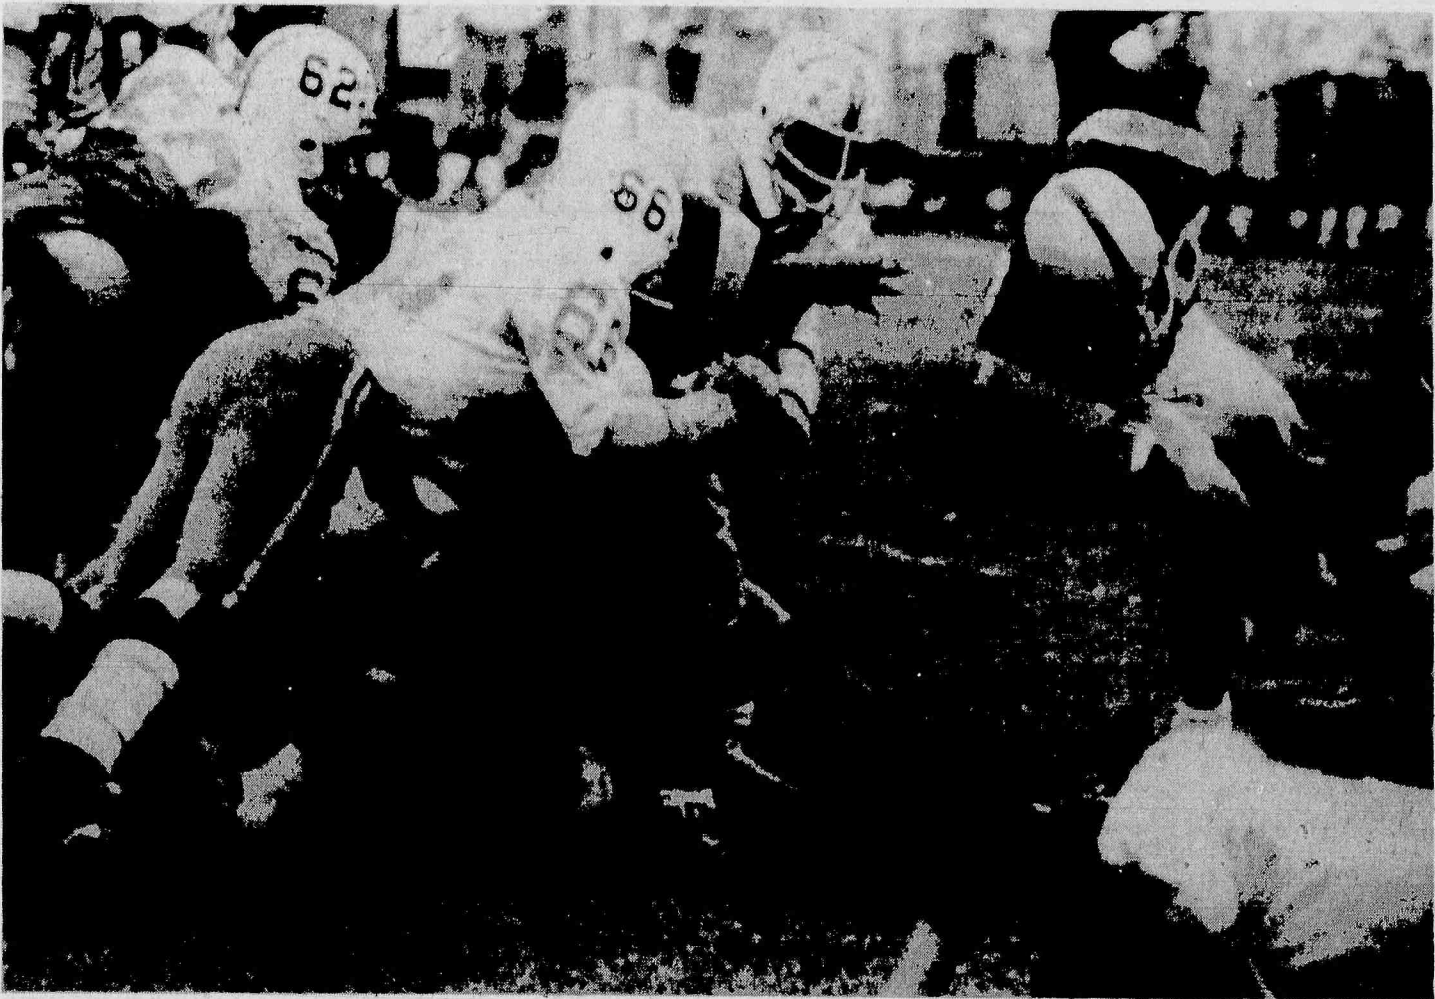

Ernie Davis succeeded Jim Brown at Syracuse and won in 1961. Ernie died of leukemia and never paired with Brown in the Browns backfield.

Joe Bellino destroyed Army in the annual service clash and numerous other opponents. He was the 1960 selection. He tried to make the Patriots as a flanker, but didn't catch on.

Billy Cannon was the top runner in the country at LSU and garnered the Heisman in 1959. The first big name signed by the AFL he was an undistinguished runner for years, now is an undistinguished tight end for the Raiders. Pete Dawkins won in 1958. Pete preferred soccer to football.

John David Crow won in 1957, another exception, as were Paul Hornung in 1956 and Alan Ameche in 1954. About the all-time flop was 1955's choice, Howard "Hopalong" Cassady. Though he lasted as long as the television show (with the Lions, then the Browns), he wasn't as outstanding a runner as William Boyd. Then there was Billy Vessels in 1952. He broke rushing records at Oklahoma. He broke none as a pro with the Colts.

O.J.'s first game after being given the honor was a 21-21 tie with Notre Dame in which he was held to 55 yards in 21 carries. The clincher will be if the Eagles draft him. Then the curse must be fulfilled.

Tough Loss To Orange Tornadoes Brings Bellboys Identical Record

It was not a propitious beginning for Belleville High School on a cold Turkey day. Joe Vitiello fumbled the opening kickoff from Orange, recovered it, then was hit so hard, he had to leave the contest for the first series of downs.

Then events turned and the Bellboys dominated play throughout the game until a fatal blunder late in the fourth quarter.

The Tornadoes couldn't raise as much as a stiff breeze the first time they had the ball and punted. Fred Caruso then stamped 39 yards to the Orange 40. An intentional grounding call stopped the drive.

Jim Valvano recovered a fumble on the Orange 41 but that march was also thwarted, when Doug Brown's option pass was intercepted at the 14.

In the second quarter, the Bellboys went for a first on fourth and one at their 49. Jim Wille got it, to the Orange 49. Behind fine blocking and Wille, the Bellboys moved to a first at the Orange 19. Caruso then burst to the 5, where it was first and goal. Wille carried to the 2, but that was as close to paydirt as the Bellboys were to get the rest of the afternoon.

Wille lost a yard to the 3; then Caruso lost to the 5. On fourth down, Vitello threw incomplete to Vince Costantino in the corner of the end zone.

Pinned deep in their territory, Orange got peeled, for safety. Quarterback Wayne Frazier slipped in the end zone for a 2-0 deficit.

Belleville came right back after the free kick from the 20. Jim Wille and Doug Brown moved the ball to the Torando 30. This drive too, was halted by an intentional grounding penalty, this one against Ted DelGuercio.

Orange got untracked in the third quarter. Frank Riccardelli, who had been giving Costantino fits covering him on pass routes, returned the kickoff to the Belleville 49. Frazier hit Stan Holmes for a first down on third down, at the 37. Joe Ritacco shot the gap and pinned big (6'1", 205) Jim Baker on a pitchout on third down and nine. On fourth down a Frazier pass meant for Don Collins fell incomplete.

The next time they got the ball, the Tornadoes moved, again, behind Baker. He rumbled from his 15 to the Belleville 49. On third and six, Bob Baker almost intercepted. Then on fourth down, Ed Burke, is seeming punt formation, scrambled down the right sideline, to the Bellboy 27. Then on another fourth down play, Baker carried tacklers more than he needed three yards.

As the fourth quarter started it was Orange ball at the 16. Baker rumbled to the 9 but fumbled as he was hit, Sal Bivona recovered for the Bellboys and the large throng of Belleville rooters breathed easier. But Baker, who played both ways, made some bruising tackles and the Bellboys were

Lakers, De Bacco's Win Big

In an outstanding basketball game the DeBacco's and the Knicks served notice to the Recreation Senior Basketball League that they mean business. These two titans were very close throughout the game. After the first quarter, DeBacco's led by four points, a lead that had dwindled to one point at the half. Both teams scored 16 points in the third quarter. Finally, in the last quarter, DeBacco's gave a demonstration of superb rebounding and moved out to an eight point 59-51 lead and the ballgame.

Scoring big for DeBacco's was Greg Dudek with 17-points and Carlin Barrett with 12. Jack Rush led the Knick's scoring with a big 18 points.

In the Lakers - Vipers game it was a case of the Lakers leaping out to a big lead in the first half and then hanging on to it. The Lakers outscored their rivals 23-6 in the first half. However the Valley Vipers nearly matched them in the second half and clearly indicated that they don't quit just because they are behind. Final score was 40-21.

Turkey Shoot Provided Fun, And Dinner

One hundred and ninety-five sharpshooters drew beads on Thanksgiving turkeys last Sunday at the Belleville Police Pistol Range. This was the second Annual Belleville Turkey Shoot originated by Commissioner Bill Cullen. One out of every five shooters won a turkey. This year's Shoot exceeded last year's by 55 shooters.

There were a couple of interesting incidents during the shoot. One was a dead tie between Ed Little and J. Wright. After careful re-checking of both targets the problem was resolved with a one shot shoot-off. J. Wright won out by virtue of a perfect eighteen point hit. In the other incident one of Belleville's police officers was beaten out by his wife. He shall remain unnamed in this article because it is a certainty that his family will give him all the kidding a man needs.

Orange Juices Bellboys, 6-2; Season Log Is 3-6

SIDESTEP — The track was muddy, but Doug Brown was still fast and elusive. Here he evades Jim Baker on way to first down yardage in the fourth quarter.

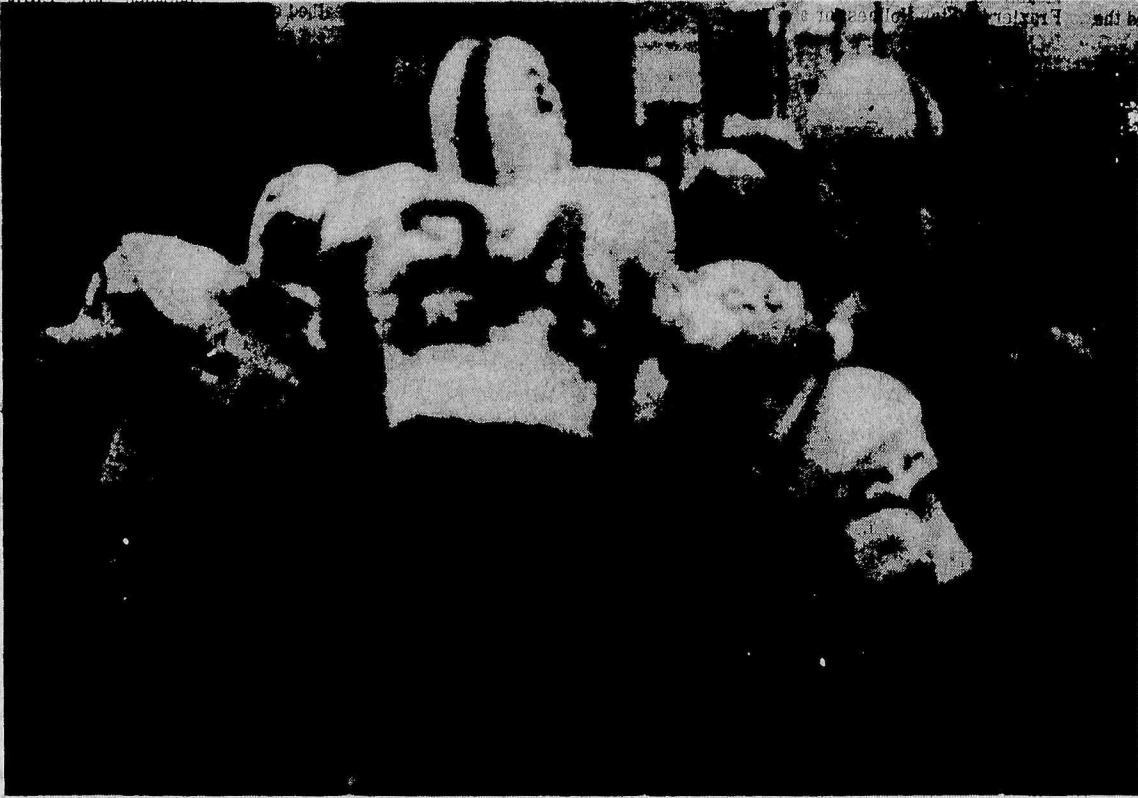

HURTS BOTH WAYS — Jim Baker applies stopper to Doug Brown jaunt again. Baker scored the winning TD and made most of the defensive plays for the Tornadoes in 6-2 Turkey feast.

RUNNING THROUGH — Belleville's line is burly Jim Baker, Orange fullback. He's stopped by the Bellboys best, Bob Bonfante (23), who seems to be trying to pry the ball loose.

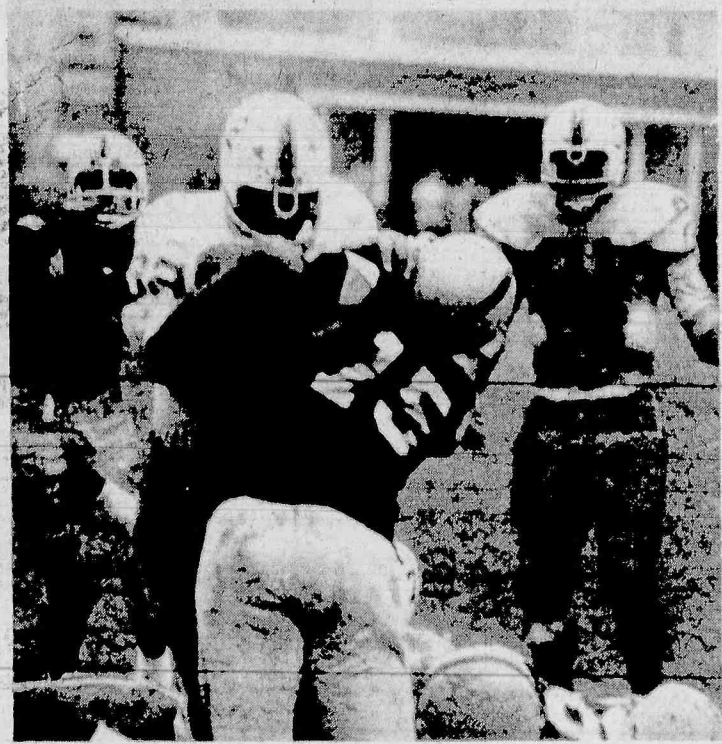

AND OVER PEOPLE — It's Baker and Bonfante in a rematch and Bob is on the bottom, seemingly getting the worst. He made the tackle with an assist from Mike Albertine.

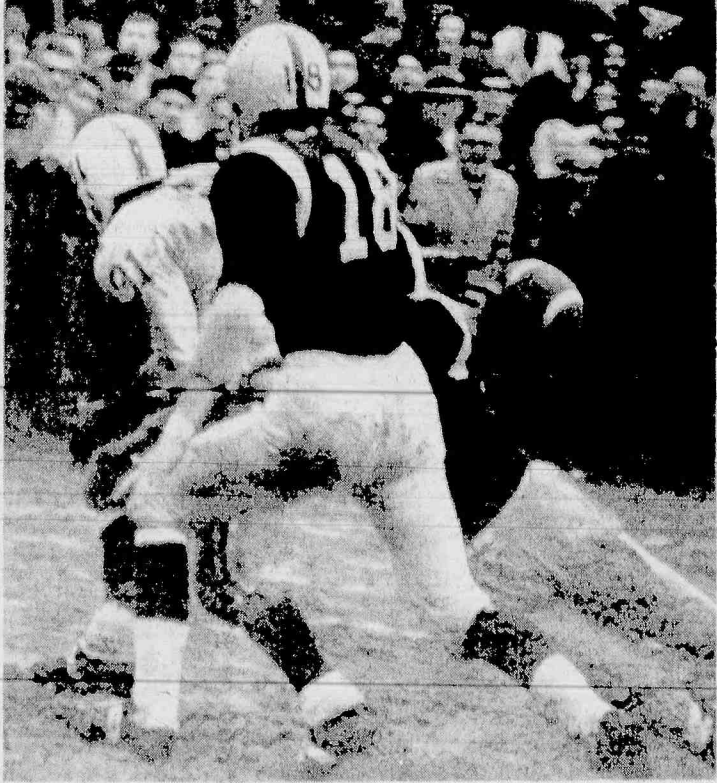

JIM WILLE — found the going rough against the Tornadoes but piled up nearly 800 yards for the season. Red gained three on this trip in the third quarter.

DAZZLING SOPH — Fred "Rick" Caruso bolts past Orange defenders on way to 39 yard first quarter gain. Bellboys outplayed Tornadoes but got blown aside, 6-2 in season's finale.

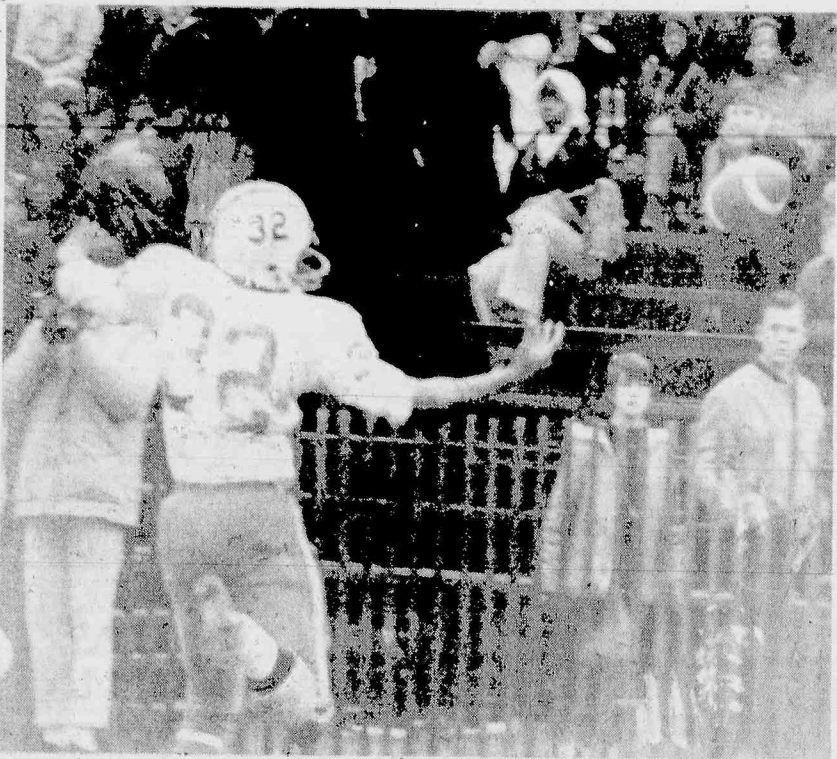

STOOD UP — Elementary tackling by Sal Bivona on Steve Holmes stops the Orange halfback in his tracks. The ubiquitous Jim Baker is in background as Joe Ritacco (20) moves in to lend a hand. Baker scored game's only touchdown on the next play from five yards out.

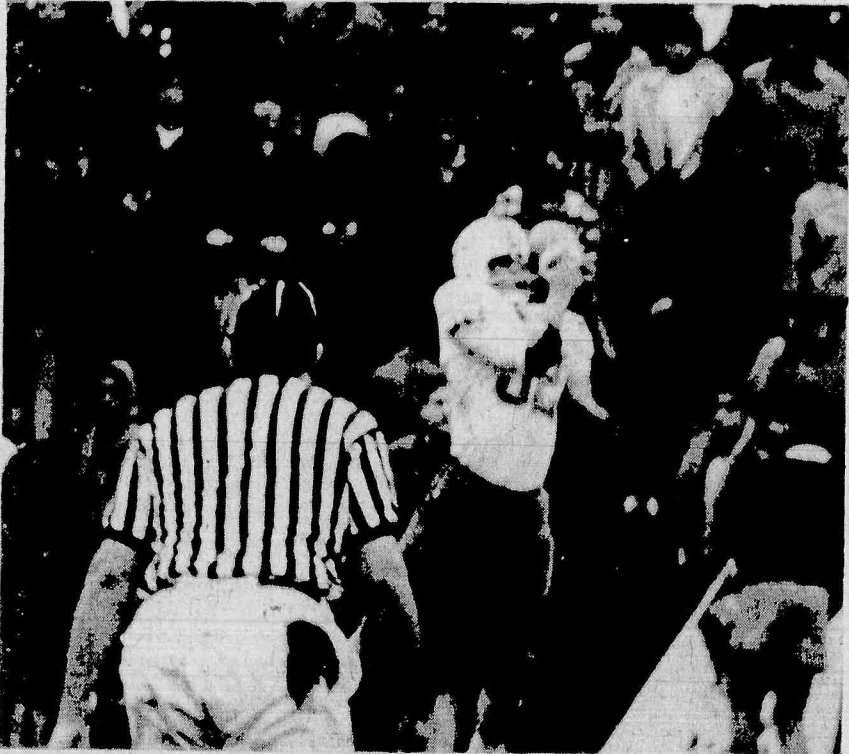

LOST FOR THE MOMENT -- Bob Baumgartner (18) and Joe Viteillo cause Jim Baker to fumble at the Belleville 8 yard line. Sal Bivona recovered, but Orange came right back to notch winning TX TD.

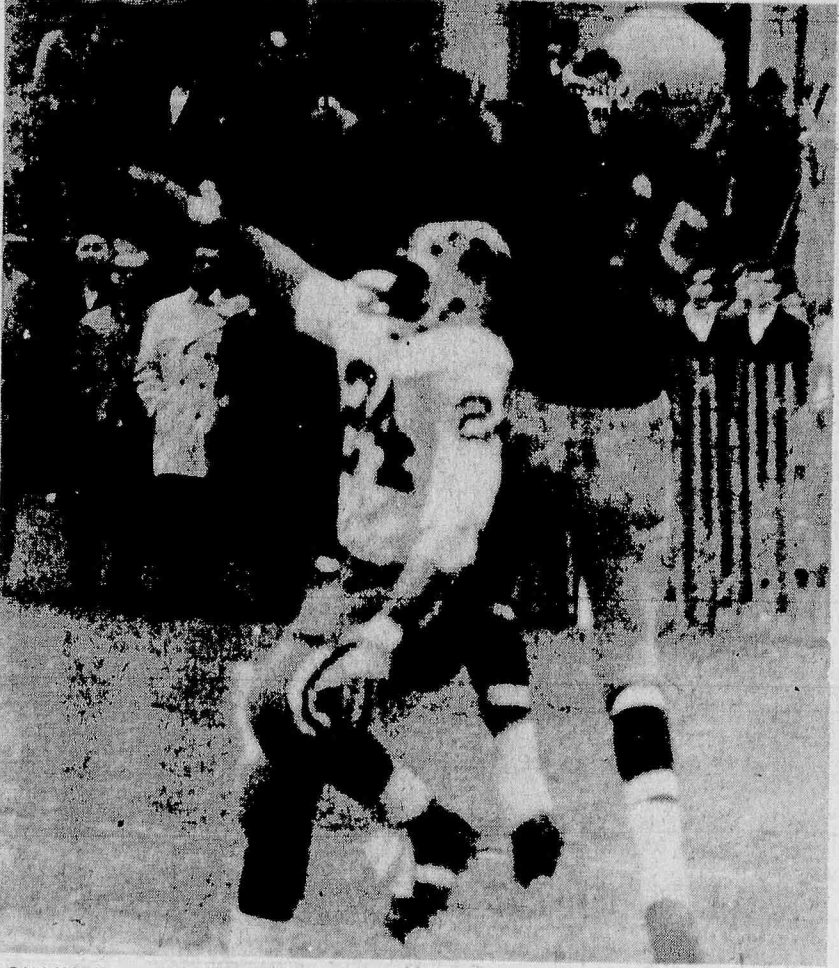

NO ESCAPE -- Doug Brown is pulled down from behind by Tornadoes defensive end Les Pointer. Brown sparked fourth quarter drive that almost brought victory.

YOU CAN'T — Orange halfback Steve Holmes and passersby watch Wayne Frazier third quarter pass fall incomplete. Between them, both clubs only completed three passes.

CATCH THEM ALL — Holmes picks up a first down on screen pass in the third quarter. Jim Baker caught one and that was it for Orange. Bellboys made connections once.

CAN YOU? — Vince Costantino and Orange defender battle for ball that hasn't arrived yet. Vince will now be doing his leaping for the basketball team.

Indians Counting On Luther Bowen

Montclair State College lifted the lid on its 41st intercollegiate basketball season at its Panzer Gym Saturday evening playing host to neighborhood rival, Fairleigh Dickinson University. Coach Oliver (Ollie) Gleason will have a veteran team to work with during the 1968-1969 season with only starter Bob Gleason and reserve Bruce Biroc lost from last year's 20-8 five.

Gleason, the Indians' all-time scorer with 1916 points, played a key role in the fine 20-8 showing last year.

The veterans returning who figure to be in the starting lineup will be captain Luther Bowen of East Orange, Bob Lester of Newark, Mike Oakes of Clark and Bob Sienkiewicz of East Rutherford.

Indians Elect Hoop Captains

Bob Heck of Teaneck and Brian Mc Guirt of Cliffside

Park have been elected captains of Montclair State College's freshman basketball team, it was announced by Coach Bob Elder.

7:21 to go, Orange led, 6-2. Behind the strong running of Doug Brown, the Bellboys marched to the Orange 30, but Vitiello was twice thrown for big losses attempting to pass and it was an unhappy holiday ending for the Bellboys.

To kick or not to kick, that was the question facing Amabile. He chose to face the slings and arrows and linebackers of Orange. It was outrageous fortune.

Circles, Gardens Are Top Hoopsters

After just two games the Recreation Mens Basketball League has only two undefeated teams, the Circles and the Gardens. In a real battle the Circles added Frenchies to their list of vanquished while the Gardens drubbed the Sons.

Stash's on the 11 point scoring of Liloia and the 10 points of Francis, built up a 47-33 lead over the White Oaks although the White Oaks had two ten point scorers in Mellilo and Baker and although they outscored Stash's in the last quarter they just couldn't handle the fast breaks by Liloia, Zanfini and Sanfillipo.

In the Gardens-Sons game the difference was Bob Haug's tenacious defense, Tom Joyce's 12 point scoring and 21 points by Bill Karatz. Karatz was hitting 20 foot jump shots and thoroughly upsetting the Sons defense. The Sons outscored the Gardens in the first quarter but then seemed to lose the range,

New Jersey's big game hunting season will open next Monday, December 9, according to Commissioner Robert A. Roe of the State Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

Whitetail deer and black bear are both fair game for licensed hunters during the six-day season which ends Saturday, December 14. Deer are generally abundant, while bear are rare. Legal hunting hours are 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The bag limit is one buck deer with antlers at least 3 inches long and one bear. In a small section of northeastern New Jersey, described in the 1968 Compendium of New Jersey Game Laws as the "hunter's choice" area, one deer may be taken without restriction as to sex or antler growth; however, whitetail habitat is very limited in this area.

A shotgun of 10 or 12 gauge is the only firearm that may be carried in the woods and fields during this season, and, buckshot is the only missile.

A holder of a bow and arrow license who did not bag a deer during the archery season may try for a buck with this weapon, but he may not carry both weapons or shoot more than one deer during this season even if he holds both licenses; a bow hunter who was successful during the earlier season may hunt with shotgun only if has a firearm license.

Deer hunters who encounter fox may shoot them but pursuing fox with hounds is closed. All other seasons are closed except waterfowl and semi-wild and commercial preserves. Waterfowl hunters must have a federal Duck Stamp, and preserve hunters may use only the licensed area; these hunters may carry birdshot

Testa's First College Season Hailed as 'Outstanding Debut'

Montclair State College's first freshman football team under the direction of Coach Tom Testa was an outstanding success this season posting a record of four wins and one loss. Testa, a Nutley resident and a former coach of Belleville High School, was helped in his campaign by Bob Miesieski, who quarterbacked for John Biviano last fall. Playing at safety, Miesieski intercepted two enemy passes for the Montclair frosh.

The young Indians posted wins over Rutgers, East Stroudsburg State (Pa.), Central Connecticut State and C. W. Post. The lone defeat was suffered at the hands of Southern Connecticut State.

Bob Brewster, former Westfield High School star, and Ron Gara, standout last season at Somerville High School, were the offensive leaders for Coach Testa.

Brewster, alternating at quarterback with Gara, led the team in scoring with 26 points. The talented signal caller scored one touchdown and eight extra points in as many tries. In addition, he booted four field goals in six attempts.

Tom Testa

Doug Salvatoriello, defensive end from Passaic Valley High, Glenn Hedden of Verona High and Lee Neger of Caldwell High each scored one touchdown.

Rusignuolo was the Indians top ground gainer with 209 yards on 80 carries for an average of 2.6 per carry.

Gara led the passers with 15 completions in 24 attempts for 232 yards for a percentage of .625. He threw one touchdown pass.

Brewster had 11 completions in 29 attempts for 115 yards for a percentage of .379. He also threw one TD pass.

Mike Van Zile former Butler High standout, led the punters with 29 kicks good for 1047 yards for an average of 36.1 per punt.

During the five game season the Indians defense picked off nine enemy passes with Gara, Bob Miesieski, Alvin Middleton, and Pete Contaldi each grabbing off two aerials.

Led by Contaldi, all-star last year at Bayonne High School, the Indians defense was top notch giving up only 41 points in five games, a little over eight points per contest.

Skiing Club To Present Rare Film

Dick Barrymore's tenth winter in ski filming will be highlighted by his annual lecture film appropriately titled "The Tenth Winter." This 90-minute film will be presented on Saturday, at 8 P.M. in the Montclair High School Auditorium, Montclair. Tickets may be purchased by writing the Montclair Ski Club, c/o Mrs. A.E. Pels, 17 Francisco Avenue, West Caldwell 07006, or by calling 228-2331.

In the film Barrymore focuses on himself and camera crew as they travel the United States from assignment to assignment picking up many footage of skiers in Aspen, Snowmass, Vail, Sun Valley, Alta-Snow Bird, Mt. Baker Slush Cup and ski flying at Mitterndorf, Austria. Finally, focusing on the highlights of the Winter games at Grenoble, Barrymore will give American viewers possibly their only look at the controversial foggy slalom duel between Schranz and Killy when Schranz was seemingly voted out of a Gold Medal.

Health Club Scheduled

When the Health Club opens in the new West Essex Branch of the YMCA of the Oranges, Maplewood and West Essex, its programs, plans, scheduling and operation will have been guided by a hard working committee whose members researched existing facilities before reaching any definite conclusions. They were guided throughout the two years of planning by John Rowley, principal of Heritage Junior High School in Livingston. He brought to the Committee his own experience in school administration and athletics.

That is not to say that Health Clubs are new to YMCA's, but this West Essex facility required special guidance since its operation will differ from the typical all male enclave. For that reason, the committee was comprised of both men and women. They included Mrs. Peter Baubles, Mrs. Frank Esposito and Mrs. Charles Ebsen, Mrs. Paul P. Butler along with Arthur Wynne, Jr., Ralph Casale and Frank Ransome.

Since the West Essex YMCA will be family oriented, it is not unusual for the women to seek access to the Health Club, but limited funds meant that there could not be two. Scheduling, therefore, will be the key factor in the smooth operation of this dual facility. The present plan, which will be put in use on a tentative basis until actual needs established, will give women full use of the Club daily from 9 to 11:30 a.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Men take over during the noon hours and all day Wednesday

State Symphony Series Resumes

The New Jersey Symphony Orchestra resumes its suburban concert series at Montclair and Millburn High Schools this Friday and Saturday, December 6 and 7.

Both performances are scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m. and both will be directed by Henry Lewis, the Symphony's Music Director.

Erick Friedman, internationally acclaimed violinist will be the soloist for this pair of concerts. He will perform Bruch's Violin Concerto No. 1 in G Minor with the orchestra. The program will also feature two major works by Siebelius—the Symphony No. 2 and his "Finlandia". Beethoven's Lenore Overture No. 3 will be the program-opener.

The Millburn concert has been sold out for several weeks, but some seats still are available for the Montclair concert. Tickets for that performance can be purchased at Perdue Radio Co., 8 South Park, Montclair, or by telephoning the New Jersey Symphony office 624-8203.

Safe at Home? NEW YORK—Home isn't as safe as it should be, the Insurance Information Institute observes. More than twice as many persons died in accidents at home than in accidents at work—28,500 compared to 14,200.

TO PERFORM — Erick Friedman, brilliant young American violinist, will play Bruch's Violin Concerto No. 1 with the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra tomorrow at Montclair High School and Saturday at Millburn High School. Both concerts will be directed by Henry Lewis, and both will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Panthers Nip Knicks; Fives Edge Sevens

Two very close games inaugurated the Recreation Boys Junior Basketball League last week as the Panthers and the Fearsome Fivesomes posted wins.

In the game between the Panthers and the Knicks, the Panthers jumped out to a first half lead 16-8. It was good rebounding and a fast break that put the Panthers out in front and despite a concerted team effort in the second half, the Knicks couldn't quite close the gap.

Final score was Panthers 22 and Fearsome Fivesomes 18. Anthony Cotugno, with 15 points was the high scorer for the Panthers and also the big man of the evening. J. Cagle put in 12 points for the Knicks.

Good defensive play was the theme in the game between the Fearsome Fivesome and the Magnificent Sevens with the Fivesomes getting the edge in a 19-17 game. No individuals can be singled out in this game because all players of both teams hit the score column and contributed to the defense.

This Junior Basketball League appears to be a good tight one and the boys will have to really play in order to take possession of the championship.

Belleville High School Student Page

INQUIRING REPORTER: Senior Privileges

By Lucia Melito

Belleville High School is undergoing a recognizable change. From the start of classes in September the building has been bursting with a new and active enthusiasm. That is, for the first time in a long while B.H.S. has had a revival of school spirit. With the start of new activities such as the Booster Club, Knee Sock Day, the Poster Club and Pep Dances, it seems only natural that the idea of Senior Privileges should arise.

Seniors realize that they are a very important part of the school and that they are very much essential in leading it. They also know that being a Senior is something special. Yet, in the building very few privileges are granted to distinguish Seniors from the underclassmen. Also, the underclassmen have almost nothing to look forward to as a Senior.

A poll was taken asking some Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores what their opinions are on this idea of "Senior Privileges", whether they exist and what they would like these privileges to be. First it is necessary to clarify one point that is constantly mentioned. That is, the Senior Courts. These are courtyards built in the center of the school primarily for the Seniors use in passing to classes, or to serve as a type of lounge. However due to their poor location (right around classrooms) they have never been opened. Also a majority of the students do not feel that privileges exist. One teacher, Mr. James Donovan, when asked about Senior Privileges quickly replied, "is there such a thing?"

Senior Bill Breckenridge feels that there definitely should be some sort of advantages in being a Senior. He feels that along with opening the Senior Courts, open lunch periods would be good.

Kathy Massa, another Senior, feels that Seniors should have privileges because they've been in the school longer.

She too would like to see the courts opened. Also she proposes Senior lavatories. Although the only privilege she feels Seniors have is that they get changed first in gym, she notes that the school definitely is trying.

A junior Dave Hackling would like to see open lunches next year. He feels that the Seniors are the leaders of the school and should therefore have more privileges.

Another junior Josephine Maiorca would like to see the Senior Courts opened as well as having open lunches. She feels that if opening of the courts is impossible then some sort of student lounge should be set up where the Seniors could gather during their free periods. However, she feels that the seniors should not go overboard with their privileges.

George Riepe, a Senior, would also like to see open lunches and the Senior Court put to use, for he feels Seniors should enjoy their last year of high school.

Sue Simon, a junior, feels that although there are no real Senior privileges there is an air of Senior priority and status. She feels that the administration should grant the Seniors privileges because they are most familiar and adapt with the building and not because they are superior.

Dave Dillon, a Senior, feels that longer lunches and a student lounge would be enough to make any Senior happy. He feels that in his last year of school a person is entitled to something....

Senior Lynn Haege feels that a good senior privilege would be free study halls where one isn't forced to report to a specific room. She feels senior privileges are justified for it gives underclassmen something to look forward to. "After all," she says, "everyone will have a chance to be a senior."

Nancy Baumgartner, a sophomore, feels that there should be Senior privileges because it gives the underclassmen something to look forward to.

These are the opinions of a typical group of B.H.S. students. Obviously no great rewards are reaped by Seniors.

Other high schools in the area have some of these "privileges" so they are nothing radical or experimental. They have worked for other high schools and have not been abused. Rather they have been respected. The students of B.H.S. are just as capable of accepting responsibility as anyone else. It is the aim of the student body to work together with their student gov't, class officers, faculty and administration in trying to get something done.

Basketball Preview

By John Tauriello

With their first game only a few weeks away, Belleville's varsity basketball team has some high hopes for the upcoming season. With the experience of five returning lettermen, plus some other talented players, this year's team should easily better last year's disappointing record of 3-16.

Returning for his second varsity season is senior guard Rich Hartunian (5-8,140). Although he lacks height, he compensates for it with his great speed. His quickness on defense is invaluable for stopping the ball or pressing the offense. On offense, he drives past his unsuspecting defender to score on layups or pass to the open man.

Another senior, returning for his third season, is Captain Rich Schulz (6-1,175). Playing both guard and forward, he has proved to be a valuable asset in past seasons. At the forward position he has numerous moves to the basket and is dangerous with both hands. When he's a guard, Rich is a deadly shot and fine passer.

At the end of the football season the remaining lettermen will return to the court. They are Bob Baker, Bob Baumgartner, and Vin Costantino.

Senior forward Bob Baker (6-3,190) led Belleville in rebounds last year. Besides pulling down rebounds he was also third in scoring. Many of these baskets were scored from underneath where he is stopped only by fouls. He is tough on defense and helps out by picking up charges off driving guards.

Bob Baumgartner (6-0,170), the most underplayed player last year, is another senior guard. A strong dribbler with both hands, Bob also has an accurate outside shot. He has good moves to the basket and can hit an open man with surprising passes. On defense his size and speed enable him to have an advantage on most guards. If given a chance, Bob should prove to be one of the best players on the team.

The highest returning scorer and final returning letterman is junior forward Vin Costantino (6-2,180). Vin finished last season with 177 points and was also second in rebounds. His shot is deadly from both corners as well as the keyhole area and his size is used well in clearing the boards. Vin's defense is tough and has improved since last year which should be a great help in facing teams with a height advantage.

Two returning players who should be watched are Tom Polite (6-4,160) a senior and junior Anthony Nocera (6-2,150). Both are strong rebounders and their overall ability should add strength to our team's performance.

Two new faces to keep an eye on are juniors Rich Motacki (6-1,180) and Joe D'Alonzo (6-1,185). Both boys are strong rebounders and offensive threats. They too will add depth to this year's squad.

Rounding out the Belleville squad are a talented group of boys. They are led by senior Ed Pimentel (5-11,175) and juniors Ron Schulz (5-10,140) and Gary Trainor (5-6,130). Also included are juniors Al Casaletta (5-11,150) and John Paucillo (6-1,145). Two sophomore prospects are Rich Caravetta (5-6,130) and Lew Burrell (6-6,170).

Belleville's strongest opponents will be Orange, East Orange, and Montclair. But any wise player or coach knows that no team should be underestimated. Keeping this thought in mind, Belleville should surprise many people this year.

Christmas Party

By Rich Hartunian

Is everyone looking forward to a Merry Christmas this year? Certainly! But will everyone have a Merry Christmas? All the students at Belleville High School think so. All those at B.H.S. are planning to hold a festive Christmas party for all the underprivileged children at one of the local children's shelters or orphanages. The idea was first put forth by Bob Baumgartner, the President of the Senior Class.

It was originally intended to be a Senior class project alone. However, word got around the school and at an Executive Council meeting, which grouped together the leaders of all the classes plus other important organizations, a suggestion that the party be sponsored by the whole school was brought up. It was accepted and each organization, such as the Key Club, the National Honor Society, Student Council, and each individual class, pledged to do their share of work. The Seniors started the ball rolling, as they usually do, by having a Charity Pep Dance at the high school. The dance was a success and cleared $130 which will be put to good use toward the party.

Everyone's attendance was appreciated, especially that of Mike Drury who made an appearance as old St. Nick himself. He turned out to be the main attraction of the evening as his portrayal of Santa pleased, as well as surprised, everyone. Mike also intends to fill the role of Santa Claus at the Christmas party along with Kevin Sutton as his elf. We're sure the kids will enjoy their appearance tremendously.

These kids are really very special people. They live along with many other children, all as underprivileged as themselves. Many of them don't know what it's like to go to school with new friends and learn new things for many are considered "slow" students. This puts them in isolation which a small child shouldn't be exposed to. Many don't have families or parents to look after them as individuals. They must be cared for by a few adults who have to spread their interest, tenderness, and love among many of these children. Having someone to care for you, alone, means a lot to little kid and I believe that this Christmas party will really help these kids out and show them that everyone does care.

To be a true success, many things are needed for the party, and much work must be put into it. The students of B.H.S. are more than willing to put all the work and whatever money and gifts we can afford into this party. This may not be enough, however. We need help from sources other than the students themselves. We need assistance from private businesses, local food, clothing, and toy stores, and from those individuals who would take interest enough in this project to give a little aid. Contributions of food, toys, clothes or any other item which could be of any value as a gift or otherwise would be definitely appreciated by both the students working for the party and naturally by the children themselves. This party could mean so much to these kids, and I'm certain that if you realize this, you won't hesitate to make some sort of donation. To let the school know of your intentions to help out, please contact Mrs. Shaughnessy at the high school. We would prefer food, clothes, or toy donations rather than money.

I'm sure that you'll have a Merry Christmas. Wouldn't it make you feel good to know that you helped someone else have one, too?

Poster Club

By Anthony Giordano

The Poster Club of Belleville High School has been providing a tremendous boost for school spirit this year. The club is another one of the many successes of the "Class of '69" which has proved to be a noteworthy class.

The Poster Club is actually an outgrowth of the Spirit Committee started by the senior class leaders. The club members meet once a week to make posters for such activities as football games and dances. The club will continue to meet all year and posters can be seen in the halls of BHS at any time. The club has served to promote school spirit and to bring the student body closer together.

Student Of The Week: Mike Drury

By Bob Baumgartner

Featured as the BHS student of the week is Senior Mike Drury, known to many of his friends and fellow students as "Big Chick".

Mike Drury

Recently Mike finished a fine season for BHS's Varsity Football Team as a defensive tackle and guard.

Big Mike enjoys a laugh as much as any student and can be seen howling through the halls with Bob "Jitts" Ciallella, Carl "Chick" Corino and Jim "Red" Wille. This past year Mike was selected by his fellow seniors as "The Most Popular".

Since the football season is now over, "Big Chick" can be seen throwing his weight around on the mats as one of Coach Jim Silvestri's heavyweights. Last year as a JV wrestler, Mike finished the regular season with a 12-0 record, and won three more matches to capture the heavyweight crown in the Essex County Junior Varsity Tournament held at Nutley High School. Come spring, Mike will be seen on the golf links hammering out his drives for our golf team to win his third letter of the year.

Mike portrayed Santa Claus at the Charity Pep Dance two weeks ago and really made the dance a success. He had 'em all rolling in laughter as he had a variety of people sit on his lap and tell him what they wanted for Christmas as some 200 kids sat around him on the gym floor.

A very interesting, funny and versatile character and a good friend would be the only way to describe Mike, and the staff can only wish him success in all he attempts.

Gartner's Grapevine

By Bob Baumgartner

Garts here. Beware of Mrs. Angela DiMaggio first period in room 102! Betty Mann was called out of her class for the seventieth time in the last two months and Mrs. D was raging. Don't be surprised if by chance you walk by the room the next time that Betty is being called out and get hit by a chair flying out the door. I know I'll be ducking!....The song of the year is "Abraham, Martin and John" by Dion. Every time I hear this one it sends a chill through me. How many of you know the meaning of this song? I'll bet most don't. Dion sings about Abraham Lincoln, Martin Luther King, John Kennedy and Bobby Kennedy. "They freed a lot of people, but it seems the good, they die young. I just looked around and they're gone"

Three cheers for Mike "Big Chick" Drury who played Santa Claus at the Charity Pep Dance two weeks ago. The dance wasn't going along too well until Mike made his appearance to the cheers and screams of the crowd. Chick really kept the crowd alive as such notables as Principal Raymond O. Smith, Mrs. Kay Shaughnessy and Coach James Steele sat on his lap and told him what they want for Christmas. A "thank you" goes to Mrs. Shaughnessy for supplying us with the idea and the costume....

...Wow! Doug Brown and Ric Caruso, two soph football heroes, actually agreed to give me their autographs now that the season is over! It's not all of us that are as lucky.

Ed Pimentel informs me that Zeal is alive and well, but lost weight and now weighs only 1,292 pounds per square inch. Can't win 'em all Zeal (by the way, if anybody sees Zeal or his brother Pete and their dog Spot prowling around at night, please report the incident directly to Miss Ann Schneider, a great fan of theirs).....

I can't wait for Christmas to come. At this time of the year everyone forgets their hate and warms up to his fellow man more so than at any other time during the year and it's a wonderful thing. "Christmas comes but once a year, but to all its meaning is quite clear"....My thanks goes to Coach John Amabile and his staff for treating me as fairly as I've ever been treated on a high school team. I truly appreciated his giving me a chance to start and his just treatment of me as a player throughout the season.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Some time ago a customer came to the store and said: "So you don't like transistors". Here referred to an article which we had written about the gradual application of transistors to more and more circuits in TV sets and that we would approach this development with caution.

Of course it is incorrect that we don't like transistors, the contrary is true, provided they result in an improvement over tubes. Who would want to have a small portable radio these days using tubes, who would want tubes in stereo-radio phonographs these days yet? We like transistors for these and many other applications very much. However, there are still numerous applications where a tube has it all over a transistor. No doubt these little devices will be further improved and in time will adequately replace tubes more and more.

The writer took a short wave transistor radio on his annual trip to the northern part of Canada. It was an expensive set, but it was almost unusable. It was impossible to separate the stations. This is the problem in short wave reception. There were so many "beats" and whistles, that it was almost impossible to get a station by itself. There was plenty of pulling power, but there was no selectivity. We use, for many years, a battery portable using tubes. There is no problem with this set. Of course, it has the disadvantage that the batteries for such a tube radio are very heavy, but what good is it to have a set that uses small batteries only, is light and compact and does not give the results?

We have seen many new things and developments which had to overcome initial problems. That does not mean that we are against them, we only wait until they have been proven out instead of straddling our customers with something just for the sake of being "new". If the "new" is not better, we don't want any part of it.

We service what we sell. Beck's Radio TV Hi-Fi, Xmas store hours: 9-9 daily - Sat. 9-6.

American Christmas Customs Drawn From Dutch, English

Beyond any doubt the Dutch and English who settled the lower Hudson River valley some 300 years ago left their imprint on one of America's most joyous holidays, Christmas.

The present form of the American Christmas is a mixture of customs, trappings and lore from several nations with the Dutch and English probably responsible for making the greatest contributions.

Two distinctly different Christmases of an earlier America can be personally experienced at two historic sites in today's lower Hudson River valley. Both places are authentically restored to their eras of greatest influence in American history.

One site is Sunnyside, the Tarrytown, N.Y., home and country retreat of Washington Irving, who was America's first internationally recognized author.

The second is Van Cortlandt Manor in Croton-on-Hudson, returned to its appearance of the mid-18th century. Then it was headquarters for a domain covering over 86,000 acres.

If one man might be credited with molding today's American Christmas, Washington Irving would be an appropriate choice.

It was Irving's first major work, "Diedrich Knickerbocker's History of New York," published in 1808 and revised in 1812, where St. Nicholas was called the most venerated saint of all. He was mentioned numerous times.

Upon adding to and then expounding on Dutch lore, Irving wrote: "The good St. Nicholas would often make his appearance...riding jollily among the tree tops, or over the roofs of houses, now and then drawing forth magnificent presents from his breeches-pockets, and dropping them down the chimneys of his favorites...he never shows us the light of his countenance, nor ever visits us, save one night a year, when he rattles down the chimneys..."

To continue a modern precedent Irving's beloved home, Sunnyside, will be decorated again this Christmas in the English style that he thoroughly enjoyed. The house will display holly and evergreen wreaths, garlands and sprays. The traditional wreath will adorn the front door as Irving always requested.

Such Christmas decorations at Sunnyside agree with Irving's personal, written suggestions of 1843 to his niece, Sarah. From Spain, where he was the United States envoy, he wrote: "I hope you kept up Christmas in the usual style, and that the cottage was decked with evergreens. You must not let my absence cause any relaxations in the old rules and customs of the cottage; everything must go on the same as it did when I was there."

A Christmas tree decorated in style authentic to Irving's era of the mid-19th century will stand in the parlor. Of more Germanic influence than either English or Dutch, the tree had by Irving's time become incorporated in the American Christmas.

This year's Sunnyside tree will be trimmed with candles, lanterns, candies, sugar plums, fruit and strings of cranberries and popcorn.

Again, simulating Irving's day, Sunnyside's kitchen will be substantially stocked with Christmas cookies and mince meat.

If Irving played his prime role in embellishing the American concept of St. Nicholas—Later to become jolly Santa Claus—he certainly was not the originator of St. Nick.

Actually it was just prior to Irving's day that the first American impression of today's St. Nicholas evolved. He was a synthesis of two symbolic personalities derived from two distinctly separate European holidays celebrated in December.

One was the Dutch observance of the birthday of St. Nicholas, whom the Dutch also knew as Sinterklaas. That name's shortened version became Santa Claus.

The other ingredient to the American Christmas was the English celebration of their Father Christmas. He was a happy, round-bellied, Falstaffian figure who wore high boots.

The Dutch as a seafaring nation became familiar with their St. Nicholas when he was adopted by many of their sailors as their patron saint. This attachment occurred centuries before the settling of America. And over the years more than 20 St. Nicholas churches were founded in Holland.

St. Nicholas himself was the consolidation of two Asia Minor bishops of the 4th and 6th centuries. He had become a kind of saintly miracle worker who was the object of prayers seeking protection against holocaust and danger.

The saint's birthday by the 14th century was observed on December 6, especially in Holland. By then it was customary for choirs from churches named for him to receive money in his honor.

Carrying the celebration further, youths elected one of their own to act as St. Nicholas. In costume the acting bishop led a procession through streets and within a period of time teacher-monks improved on the bishop's costume.

They added a long white beard to his guise while gifts were given to studious pupils in celebration of what had become the joyous birthday of St. Nicholas.

In following centuries as the bishop's appeal grew more customs accrued to the annual holiday. Many of them concerned food; others dealt with decorations and activities.

Like their European Dutch ancestors the American Van Cortlandts, who as a family lived in the Manor House some 200 years— one of the longest family occupancies in American history— began their Christmas holiday the night of December 5, or St. Nicholas Eve.

This year at Van Cortlandt Manor, as carried out the past several years, the Christmases of two centuries, the 17th and the 18th, will be depicted.

The kitchen located on the lower level of the house will reflect the 17th century Christmas. Indicative of that era and on display will be numerous speculaas which are a traditional, spiced Dutch cookie. A pair of wooden shoes containing carrots and straw will sit on the kitchen's immense open hearth that dominates the kitchen.

St. Nicholas's lone horse was the intended recipient of the carrots and straw. Later that single horse was transformed into Santa's small reindeer herd.

In the house's same lower level, part of which dates back to the 1680s, three oranges will hang in the parlor. They symbolize gold doweries St. Nicholas purportedly gave three destitute sisters.

In the same room four large pastry initials will rest on dinner plates. They stand for the first names of early Van Cortlandt children and were distributed only at that holiday season.

The Manor Houses' upper floor will be decorated in the 18th century Christmas style. As laurel and pine boughs will grace the floor's several chambers, foods served then will be laid out in the formal dining room for the traditional day of New Year's Visit.

Such foods were sweetmeats, white fruit cake, speculaas, Madeira wine and chestnuts and hazelnuts.

On that day women stayed home to greet callers while men visited friends and neighbors for food and drink.

Both Van Cortlandt Manor and Sunnyside are just off U.S. Route 9, which runs along the east side of the Hudson River. Van Cortlandt Manor, just east of Route 9 in Croton-on-Hudson, N.Y., is ten miles north of the New York Thruway. Sunnyside is on West Sunnyside Lane in Tarrytown, one mile south of the Thruway.

During the Christmas holiday period the properties will extend their weekday visiting hours.

The revised schedule will be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. instead of the normal winter weekday hours of noon to 4 p.m. This schedule will be in effect from Monday December 23, through Friday, January 3. Weekend hours of 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. will remain unchanged.

Through December a special Christmas film, "December Month of Children," will be shown at Sunnyside. This 20-minute color film depicts the celebration of Christmas in England, France, Holland, Germany and Luxembourg.

Both Sunnyside and Van Cortlandt Manor will be closed Christmas and New Year's.

The properties are owned and operated by Sleepy Hollow Restorations, of Tarrytown, a non-profit educational organization.

Newark Airport Plans Revealed By Port Official

The transformation of one of the nation's major airports into a more modern air terminal capable of handling the sophisticated aircraft of the future, was discussed before a group at the Belleville Public Library, on Tuesday.

Newark Airport, the country's pioneer commercial air terminal, and already the second busiest air cargo center in the world, is being redeveloped by The Port of

New York Authority at a cost of over $200,000,000.

Odell A. Rolling, Jr. of the Port Authority was guest speaker. He supplemented his remarks with colored slides of what the "new" Newark Airport will look like when fully redeveloped, at which time it will be able to handle twice its present volume of more than six million air travelers a year.

Rolling, a Terminals Renting Agent, in the Real Estate Department, joined the professional staff of Port Authority in 1956. In his present position, he is responsible for negotiating consumer service, office and related lease agreements for space at the bus and truck terminals operated by the bi-state agency in New Jersey and New York.

A graduate of the University of Denver with a degree in Public Administration, he has taken

Council-Manager Regaining Favor

Local voters in New Jersey are showing renewed interest in the council-manager form of municipal government. A tabulation prepared by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association shows that of six municipalities adopting optional municipal charter forms of government at this year's elections, the voters of five chose a council-manager. This raises to 21 the number of council-manager municipalities among the 50 which have chosen to operate under the selection of various local government forms provided by the state's "Faulkner Act" of 1950. In addition, ten New Jersey municipalities use a council-manager form provided under a 1923 law.

Newest additions to the council-manager roster include Evesham Township (Burlington County), West Milford Township (Passaic County) and the Town of Phillipsburg (Warren County), which selected non-partisan elections and will change to the new form next July 1. Lawrence and East Windsor Townships in Mercer County will have partisan elections and begin operations January 1, 1970. As a result of earlier voting, Randolph Township (Morris County) and Washington Borough (Warren County) will begin operating under optional charter council-manager government on January 1, 1969. The first New Jersey OMCL council-manager government was installed by Mount Holly in 1954. Others include Cedar Grove, Newton, Livingston, Pequannock, Franklin Township, Sparta, Willingboro, Ocean, Cherry Hill, Madison Township, Matawan Township, Moorestown and Passaic City. Designed to provide for a full-time professional executive to administer local government functions, the council-manager form is characterized by a council of varying size, commonly five elected by the voters, to set policy and the appointed manager.

Stamp It Out!
NEW YORK—Among building fires whose origin can be traced, almost two out of five are attributed to smoking, matches or electrical causes, the Insurance Information Institute reports.

Knuppel, Director of Student Personnel Services, Belleville High School have returned from their assignments for the Middle States Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. Smith was on the Middle States Visitation Committee that evaluated Keyport High School, Keyport, New Jersey and Knuppel was assigned to Memorial High School, West New York, New Jersey for the process of accreditation.

Smith was the Assistant Chairman for the Middle States group at Keyport High School and Knuppel was Chairman of the Guidance Services and Driver Education committees at Memorial High School in West New York.

Democratic Chief Sees Revitalization

Essex County Democrats are determined the party shall "enhance itself in the community and civic life of the area," County Chairman Harry Lerner declared recently in an election analysis sent to 1,200 county committee members and 200 other campaign aides, including leaders of volunteer groups.

The Democratic chief said he was "disquieted" by the national result, but gratified by the unprecedented plurality for Hubert Humphrey which made Essex the banner Democratic county in the state, returned Representatives Peter W. Rodino and Joseph G. Minish to Congress and decisively defeated Republican county freeholder candidates.

Lerner asserted: "It was an historic team effort...with our elected district and executive leaders forming the hard core of our working structure, many volunteer groups and individuals lent us their resources and manpower. We hope all of them will remain on the team.

"The work of our young people, from high school age up, was particularly commendable.

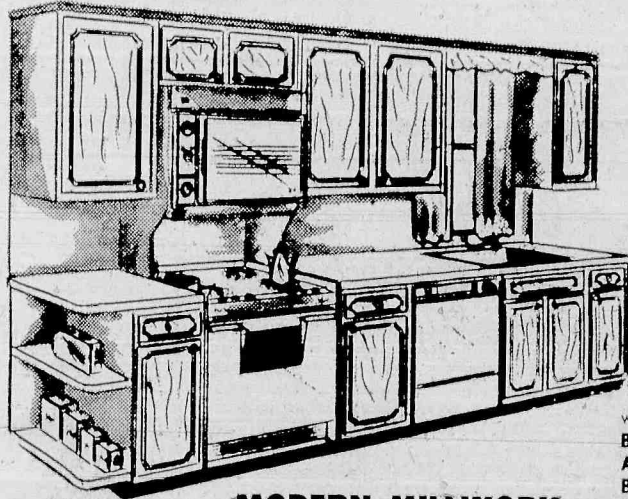

"Conscientious registration drives, the ability of our candidates to speak out on what have been referred to editorially as 'the gut issues' of today's world and the obvious determination of the Democratic Party to maintain and enhance itself in the community and civic life of Essex were among the other contributing factors.

"There are immediate and future challenges to be faced and I am confident this same team spirit will prevail."

Equator Tripp Turns Sailor Into Old Salt

T Hospitalman Russel G. Giordano, USN, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Giordano of 17 Berkeley Avenue, Belleville, was initiated into the realm of King Neptune (mythical lord of the seas) as he crossed the equator aboard the stores ship USS Aludra.

A long-standing tradition among seafarers, the ceremonies are celebrated on every U.S. Naval ship as it crosses the famous meridian. Those sailors who have been across the line are known as "Shellbacks," those who have not as "Polliwogs."

Under the reign of King Neptune and his brilliantly clad Shellback, the uninitiated "Polliwogs" were put through a two-hour trial from which they emerged as "Trusted Shellbacks."

Yale Chaplain Coffin Visits Upsala Tonight

Yale University's controversial chaplain, Rev. William Sloane Coffin will visit East Orange tonight for a speaking engagement at Upsala College.

Chaplin Coffin, who is currently appealing a Massachusetts conviction for counseling young men on draft evasion will speak at 10 a.m. in the Upsala chapel. The program is open to the public.

A group of five Upsala students, led by Michael Thorburn of Dover, is responsible for Coffin's acceptance of the invitation to come to East Orange.

EARL WILSON, JR. RETURNS TO LA MAISONETTE

When Earl Wilson, Jr. opened to a Maisonette that was bulging with well wishers and we'll see-ers last May, he had more than his father's fame to overcome.

He had arrived a few hours before show time after spending a weekend in upper New York State as a guest of the National Guard. Projects included sleeping on the ground under combat conditions. It so happened that May forgot to be balmy near the Canadian border. Instead the reservists were bombed with sleet — wonderful training for everyone but singers.

Nevertheless, when Earl opened his mouth to sing, he had a voice which had been entirely gone earlier in the day. He wasn't able to display his full baritone but he did show vocal flexibility, versatility and an engaging personality. Songs he composed himself represented a goodly share of the program. He played the guitar, banjo and piano. Best of all his sense of humor that borrowed nothing from anyone came across clearly.

There were many regrets that he'd been engaged for just one week so Mr. Charles T. Carey, Vice President and Managing Director of the St. Regis-Sheraton, has asked him to return and inaugurate the Thanksgiving-Christmas season at La Maisonette.

Earl, though determined to earn his own laurels, knows he owes a lot to his warm, outgoing parents. They are going-out parents too. Earl likes to say he's been visiting saloons since he was five. Certainly the sophisticated, talented people he met growing up had much to do with determining his career. At fourteen, while still at Lawrenceville School, he was a registered ASCAP writer. What impressed his schoolmates more that year was that Elizabeth Taylor kissed him.

At Bucknell University Earl majored in music and formed a trio called "The City Folk" which sang folk music he composed. The three were in great demand; they recorded an album for Twentieth Century Fox.

When he received his degree Earl also became engaged — to a Phi Beta coed named Susan. They decided to delay marriage until Earl could support them both. It took him a year and a half.

In the interim he went to Hollywood as an apprentice writer and wrote the title song for Gretchen Wyler's TV show, "Step This Way." At that point Uncle Sam nudged and he returned East to Fort Dix where he went through basic training. He surprised the company commander by asking for time off to appear on the annual Jerry Lewis Telethon for Muscular Dystrophy. When this extraordinary request proved to be based on fact he was taken off potato peeling and assigned to Special Services.

Since his marriage, Robert Goulet and the Johnny Mann singers have recorded Earl's songs; Connie Francis has five under consideration. After his Maisonette engagement Earl went on to Milwaukee, Las Vegas, Miami Beach, Houston, Fort Worth and the Latin Quarter in New York. Earl has been a visitor in many American living rooms by way of television on the Mike Douglas, the Joey Bishop, the Merv Griffin and Ed Sullivan shows. His records for Mercury include an album "This Is Earl Wilson, Jr." and a single, "Wait Until Dark."

Wondering how a twenty-five year old can accomplish so much? After all, he's had a twenty-year career and he's groovy!

CHARLEY O'S BAR & GRILL BAR CORNER OF ROCKEFELLER PLAZA AND 48TH STREET

"Solid drink and good food, that's may theory." Comfortable, easy and friendly, Charley O's is essentially a man's place: Oaken panels, dark-green walls, high-beamed ceilings, mahogany alcoves, and its long, long (forty-foot) bar give it the atmosphere of a club. Its general appearance is reminiscent of famous pre-Prohibition New York dining places such as Rector's, Delmonico's, or Churchill's, while the bar itself is very much like those of Dublin city. Charley O's is in three parts.

First and foremost is the bar, watched over by portraits of its two patron saints, W. C. Fields and Jack Norton (what better drinking companions could one ask for?) Between the pub and the restaurant is a stand-up buffet — manned by a chef-carver — for hearty sandwiches, a ready hot dish, a mug of coffee for 5 cents, or Irish coffee at any time of day. One can polish off his quick meal right here or carry it to the regular bar for an accompanying Irish brew. The 150-seat dining room, while more formal, is still strongly masculine, with etched-glass panels and soft side lamps. On the walls is a collection of famous quotes, accompanied by portraits of their authors. Among the gallery are A. J. Liebling, Oscar Wilde, Alexander Woolcott, Robert Benchley, Marianne Moore, Mark Twain and others.

The menu is second generation Irish pointing up the fact that much of what has come to be known as American cuisine is drawn from Irish forebears. Porterhouse steak for two is far and away the most popular item, with steak, kidney and oyster pie a close second. Other favorites include baked shrimp, corned beef and cabbage, Irish stew and dumplings, bay scallops, fried prawns and steamed finnan haddie. For starters, Charley O's bean soup, pigs knuckles and soured shrimp are strong favorites. A popular dessert is whiskey cream pie (make with Irish whiskey, of course) and there are Stilton and white cheddar cheeses, a chocolate-mousse cake and Charley O's Irish Coffee or Irish Mist Coffee made in the true Gaelic manner — with thick cream floating on the top.

Things are casual at Charley O's at Sunday Brunch. Ties are not required — and the "Brunch Hour" extends from noon til sundown. After an eye-opener of Irish Milk Punch, or perhaps a Champagne Orange or two, Brunch at Charley O's begins with a choice of fruits — like chilled melon with ground ginger — or porridge oats with honey and cream, hot clam broth, or clam and tomato cocktail. For the main course there are a variety of offerings, including thick-cut Irish bacon and eggs, poached eggs and tomatoes with cheddar sauce, glazed apple pancake, and minute steak and eggs. All come with a choice of breads, including freshly baked scones. For a final touch, there is Brambrack, a fruited coffee cake. And, of course, Irish Coffee is always available.

Imported lagers and beers are served, including Harp and Bass on draught — as well as Guinness' and Watney's Red Barrel. There are John Jameson, Bushmill's, Paddy's and Old Limerick Irish whiskeys and John Powers and Cork Irish gins.

Charley O's opens for lunch at 11 a.m., with dinner from 6 p.m. and supper until very late. Sunday brunch from noon til sundown. Stand-up Buffet: Sandwiches $1.75 Coffee .05 Luncheon a la carte: From $2.50 Dinner a la carte: From $3.50 Brunch: From $3.25 Supper a la carte: From $1.95

THE FORUM OF THE TWELVE CAESARS 57 West 48th Street PL7-3450

A tribute to the first gourmets of the Western world - the citizens of ancient Rome - whose tables held the finest foods and wines from the far corners of the Empire.

The spacious elegance of a Roman banquet hall — in contemporary translation — highlighted by twelve heroic size 17th-century paintings of the twelve Caesars. A huge mosaic occupying one wall of the cocktail lounge depicts elements of life in ancient Rome. Authentic recreations of the era include brass and copper service plates, silver champagne coolers in the shape of Roman helmets, copper casseroles and warmers, silver wagons, special silverware, and salinum (salt cellars).

The cuisine is international, since the Caesars feasted on food and wines from Northern Europe, The Mediterranean, Britain, the Iberian peninsula, North Africa, and every other province of the known world held by the legions of Rome. In researching the Rome of the Caesars, the first cookbook known to the Western world-the book of Apicius — was followed. The varied menu reflects the international and hearty tastes of the Romans. Specialties include Boneless Game Hen baked in clay, Lamb chops with Curry and Chutney, Fidler Crab Lump a la Nero (flaming, of course) and Blue Trout in Horseradish Hollandaise. An extensive array of desserts features elaborate pastries, souffles, and original creations of The Forum such as the Crepes of Venus made with fresh ginger and ice cream. A la carte Mondays through Saturday 12 to 10 Sunday 12 to 10

THE BRASSERIE

Unusual breakfast menu, complete and a la carte luncheons, afternoon snacks, soda-fountain specialties, seven-course dinners, and after-theater suppers. Elaborate "picnique" baskets for take-out. Cocktails, imported beers and wines.

Luncheon a la carte - entrees from $1.95 Complete dinners from $5.75 and a la carte Complete suppers $3.95 and a la carte. As in France, the Brasserie is "ouverte a toute heure" - 7 days a week.

Villella, McBride In Montclair Ballet

Edward Villella, premier danseur nobel of the New York City Ballet at Lincoln Center, and Patricia McBride, premiere danseuse of the same company, will appear in a narrated ballet at the Montclair High School auditorium, Sunday at 3 p.m. The program will include the pas de deux from Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker," and the Tchaikovsky pas de deux, both by George Balanchine. It is sponsored by the Montclair Fine Arts Festival, a non profit organization now in its eighth season, which is devoted to bringing the fine performing arts to students and their families as an adjunct to the school curriculum.

The subject of an hour special on television's Bell Telephone Hour last March, Villella has caught the public's fancy not only for his virtuosity in the techniques of dance, which require inordinate athletic coordination, stamina and control, but also for his abilities as an actor and a choreographer. "Villella stirs not only the in-balletgoers, but also the general public, for he is a great dancer, a great artist—one of the best that America and, indeed, the world, has ever produced," said dance critic Walter Terry in a cover story for the "Saturday Review" a year ago.

Villella has been acclaimed the world over: in London, dancing the Tchaikovsky pas de deux, which he will do here, for Dame Margot Fonteyn's benefit for the Royal Academy of Dancing; in the Soviet Union, forced to yield to tumultuous Russian applause for an encore; in Denmark, as the first American male dancer to perform as guest artist with the Danish Royal Ballet.

He made his debut as a choreographer at the 1966 Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in Lee, Mass. There he introduced his Shostakovich Ballet Suite, with his wife, Janet Greshler, as one of the principal dancers. Since then he has created a number of ballets for his home company, the New York City Ballet, and is currently working on one, to Prokofiev music, which is scheduled to premiere in January.

As an actor, his on-stage and television performances in "Brigadoon," as Harry Beaton, have earned him outstanding reviews from theater and TV as well as dance critics.

An enthusiastic teen-age baseball player, college basketball star, and ex-boxer, Villella began dancing as a youngster because he was taken along to his sister's ballet classes instead of being left alone at home to get into mischief. Later he took time out from his dance studies to earn a BS degree from the New York State Maritime College.

He was appointed to the National Council on the Arts by President Johnson, and now spends some time in Washington in an advisory capacity.

Villella will open the Fine Arts Festival program with a brief discussion of dance in relation to contemporary life.

Questions Answered
On Selective Service

Colonel Joseph T. Avella,
State Director of Selective Service, has issued the following series of questions frequently asked of the Selective Service System, along with appropriate answers.

Question: I am a recent law school graduate, but have not yet taken my bar examination.
Can my induction be postponed to take this?

GLAD HAND — is extended by Santa to Belleville children waiting for him on the Town Hall steps. Harry French, Chamber of Commerce head Commissioner William Cullen and Mayor Ken Smith were also on hand to meet the man from up north.

MODE OF TRANSPORTATION — Santa left his reindeer home for this trip, but he'll be using them Christmas Eve.

WHO'S COMING — So big deal, some guy with a beard and a red suit is arriving. What better time for a nap?

MERRY MUSIC — for the occasion is provided by the Belleville High School band, under the direction of Robert Wing.

EARLY PRESENT — Santa himself was only armed with trinkets, but he selected the winner of the $100 Savings Bond. It was D.E. Minker of 193 Garden Ave.

OFFICIAL GREETING — Mayor Ken Smith welcomes Santa to Belleville on behalf of the youngsters and the Chamber of Commerce, which helped sponsor his trip.

When Santa Landed In Town

HERE COMES SANTA CLAUS — Youngsters eagerly await the parade to return to Town Hall as they line Washington Avenue to catch a glimpse of the man who brings good cheer — and gifts.

High School Presents 'Pajama Game' Musical

"The Pajama Game", which introduced the famous song-hits "Hey, There", and "Hernando's Hideaway" and became the eighth longest-running musical comedy in New York theatrical history, has been scheduled as the BHS Auditorium's next attraction. It will be given for 3 evenings beginning January 9th with Bob Baker as the pajama factory superintendent whose love life is complicated by a labor dispute, and Sue Kellan-bence as the girl he has to fire when she leads a sit-down strike.

Based on Richard Bissell's best-selling novel, "7 1/2 Cents", which was a Book-of-the-Month Club selection,

"The Pajama Game" was written by George Abbott--the old master at this kind of thing, who also collaborated on "Where's Charley?" "Damn Yankees", "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn", "New Girl in Town" and other hits--in collaboration with Bissell. The songs are by Richard Adler and Jerry Ross, who also wrote the songs for "Damn Yankees."

Though the plot of this gay and raucous musical centers around a union management conflict, almost every critic and commentator noted, when the show first scored its notable hit in the spring of 1954, that it contained no perceptible trace of Social Significance. Theatre-goers ranging from union-haters to violent anti-capitalists found that "class struggle" was uproariously in the cheerful spirit of a college football game.

In addition to Bob Baker and Sue Kellanbence in the leads the large cast at the BHS Auditorium will also include Larry Spinelli, Marge Albertine, Mike Freda, Tom Melchione and a chorus of dancing (and sewing) girls. The stage direction is by Walt Weiss. Choreography is by Kathy Havel.

There are times when the price to be paid for making money is not worth it.
