

Citizens Offer To House Dogs If Humane Society Remains

Ken Smith Authorizes New Plan

Belleville residents and their canine pets can sleep easy now that Mayor Ken Smith has gone on record saying that the Associated Humane Society of Newark will still be responsible for town dog control needs.

Smith's statement came at a sometimes noisy commission meeting Monday night where several residents and Associated Humane Society head, Councilman Lee Bernstein of Newark, pleaded with Belleville's town fathers not to turn the operation over to the other local service which has allegedly sold the dogs immediately after their capture—not bothering to house them the required seven days and not caring about what happened to them or to their owners.

Mrs. Sally Hood of 66 Fairview Place, Belleville, was the first resident to be heard. She cited a letter which the Humane Society had received from Town Purchasing Agent, Thomas McLaughlin, stating that the service, which had never been contracted, but which was performed by the society, would no longer be needed by the town.

Assailing the Mayor and stating that he wouldn't return her telephone inquiries, Mrs. Hood complained of the absence of a contract for the dog services.

Mayor Smith said, "Sally, I would have had time to call you if you hadn't been so busy getting people to come down here tonight."

Smith went on to cite the alleged inefficiency of the society. He challenged Mrs. Hood "to take the dogs until the society comes to pick them up, and then I'll stick with the society."

Accepting the challenge from the Mayor wasn't Mrs. Hood, but rather was Mrs. Stephen Kossuth of 23 Belleville Avenue. She said, "I'll open my house to take all of the stray dogs until the Society can come to pick them up."

Preceding her offer, Mrs. Kossuth called for the enforcement of the laws in Belleville governing stray dogs. She claimed that over $6,000 in revenue is brought in through the licensing of dogs, and that it isn't fair to the citizens of Belleville to hire someone who has the reputation of picking up dogs and selling them immediately without trying to find their owners.

Another woman, Mrs. Gloria Jackson of 215 Little Street, Belleville stood up and also offered to house the dogs until the society came to get them.

Peter Paglia of 70 Malone Avenue, Belleville, was the next man to speak. He complained that the mayor was going to turn the job over to "that other man" who was not a humane person.

Smith reiterated that he

APARTMENTS TOO — Peter Paglia of 70 Malone Avenue Belleville, came to Monday's commission meeting to complain not only of the town's proposed dog warden change, but also to speak on the large number of apartments which are springing up in Belleville.

HUMAN LEADER — Councilman Lee Bernstein of Newark represented the Associated Humane Society of Newark at Monday night's meeting. He told the commissioners of the building projects in which the society is involved, and the service which Belleville has gotten and will receive from the society.

Registrar To Appeal

Removal Of Risoli From Payroll Upheld By Civil Service Officials

Another round in the fight between the Town of Belleville and Ralph Risoli over Risoli's right to be Administrative Clerk in the Department of Public Affairs is through and this time it looks like the town, in the person of Nick Amato, attorney, is the winner.

In response to a letter sent by Commissioner Vincent Strumolo to him, John J. Farrell, chief examiner for the Civil Service Commission, stated that the commission had referred the matter to the office of the Attorney General for further review.

The Attorney General, advised the commission that the Town Attorney was correct in refusing to place Ralph Risoli on the payroll "inasmuch as there is no ordinance presently existing in the Town of Belleville for such a position."

The whole case stems from the defeat at the September 23, 1968, Commission meeting of an ordinance combining the position and salaries of administrative clerk-registrar in the department headed by Strumolo.

Strumolo had previously gone to court with Lawrence Schwarz as counsel, to fire part-time health officer Gerson L. Ram. He won that fight and, as a result, the town is eligible for state funds because it now has a full time health officer.

Town Ordinance No. 1773 dated April 10, 1967, states that the department of public affairs must have an administrative clerk, Risoli contends. It supercedes a 1966 ordinance that provided for administrative clerks in every department by public affairs. The 1967 ordinance was never rescinded so Strumolo and Risoli thought that the submitting of the Risoli appointment was only a technicality and that it would be passed.

After the defeat of the appointment Risoli said "I'm doing the work of administrative clerk now. I'm just interested in getting what I'm entitled to."

On October 30 of last year Farrell sent a letter to the town saying "You are hereby directed to place the name of Ralph Risoli on all payrolls submitted to the Newark office as Administrative Clerk."

Risoli and Schwartz decided to take the case to court when the town refused to do so, but that case is going to have to wait now. Risoli is now going to exhaust all of his options in the Civil Service Commission before going back to court.

Amato hopes that the case will be dismissed, however he is leaving it up to the discretion of the judge.

He says that the commission can't force a government to create a position they don't want. In a legal opinion, Amato pointed out that there never was a provision for an administrative clerk in the Public Affairs Department.

To abolish all doubts on the matter, the town passed an ordinance on November 12 abolishing all previously existing positions and creating only those on the prescribed list. Administrative clerk was not on the list.

Schwartz claims that "the town contends that the new ordinance and new classifications do away with the old job."

Amato says, "that is part of our contention, but the ordinance doesn't apply to Risoli. It has no applicability to his job today. It was adopted when the administrative code was in effect and Belleville was under the town manager form of government — There is no such animal as the position of administrative clerk in the department of Public Affairs."

Local Committee Establishes A Fund For Michael Cioffi

Michael Cioffi, a recent Belleville High School graduate, was stricken with a virus on December 24, 1968 which has left him paralyzed from the neck down.

While attending Belleville

Michael Cioffi

High, Michael was an active member of intramural sports and also maintained a high B average.

After graduating from Belleville, Michael entered Youngstown University in Ohio where he was a member of the Dean's list in his freshman year. Presently he is enrolled in Fairleigh Dickinson University in Rutherford where he is also a member of the Dean's list and the honor's list.

Michael also holds membership in the economic's club, the accounting club, and Zeta Phi Sigma fraternity.

Since the cost of Michael's hospitalization is exorbitant, a committee has been formed to establish a fund in his name to defray medical costs.

The committee is now asking for the co-operation and generosity of all Belleville residents.

For further information please contact any of the members of the Michael Cioffi Fund:

Library's Pre-School Spring Program Returns

The Silver Lake Branch at 30 Magnolia Street will be the scene of the Belleville Public Library's Spring Pre-School program beginning Wednesday, April 2 at 10 a.m. and running through June 4.

The Library's Pre-school Program is now its seventh year and has proved to be one of the most popular of the public library's activities. Currently these programs are under the direction of Miss Betty Johnson, acting head of the Children's Department. In addition to stories, the hour-long sessions include group games, songs, dramatic play and other learning activities.

Participation is open without charge to all Belleville children aged 4-5. However, the class is limited to 30 pre-schoolers, and children must be registered in advance. Interested parents are invited to call the Children's Department of the library at 759-9200.

Registrations are now being accepted for the Silver Lake series beginning April 2 and also for the October 1969 and February 1970 series at the Main Library.

School Budget Is Defeated Again By Town Voters

The 1969-1970 Belleville school budget now rests in the hands of the town commission. The voters vetoed it for a second time Tuesday, by more than a 2-1 margin.

The fate of the figures called for by the board of education may result in a repeat of last year's action. Defeated twice, the budget was cut $206,000 by the town fathers.

On the second ballot this time the current expenses item remained the same. The only change was a $100,000 reduction in the capital outlay figure.

In the week preceding the second voting there were charges and recrimination from officials pro and con to the budget. Rocco Saletta, a member of the board, attempted to explain what the increase would realistically mean in tax points, as opposed to information released by Finance Commissioner Joseph McGreevy.

Mayor Ken Smith charged that hikes in administrative salaries were excessive, suggesting that $200,000 could be cut from the budget without adverse effect.

John DiRienzo, board member and former president, attacked Smith's statements as "misinformation." He said the average elementary school principal's salary was overstated by $1,000 while the junior high school principal's salary was understated by approximately $2,000.

DiRienzo claimed that some comparisons with other year's salary figures were in error. He stated it was, "misleading to publish some salary figures with no attempt to compare them with other schools in Essex County."

"An intensive salary study of comparable positions places Belleville administrators considerably below the median in the county," said DiRienzo, "and lower than communities with equal or less ratables per student. The only true comparison can be with other administrators with similar positions and responsibilities."

DiRienzo also attempted to refute Smith's implication that $200,000 could be cut from administrative salaries by saying it was without foundation. "Actually the proposed increase for administrative salaries accounts for only 1 1/2 tax points, and by no stretch of the imagination can achieve the reduction called for by

Mayor Smith."

DiRienzo noted that there was a difference between what the board requests and what goes in the budget. "As an example, the board reduced its departmental requests by $470,000, a reduction of approximately 21 tax points before presenting its budget to the electorate. This was an effort on the part of the board to present a minimum budget required to operate the schools efficiently. The board's reduction makes Mayor Smith's cut seem like a modest one."

DiRienzo took the mayor to task for his comment that

Essex Bandit Is Finally Captured

Essex County's Banks may be safer now that the suburban police departments have completed "Operation Charlie" which is the code name used to designate their coordinated efforts to catch the bandit who allegedly held up 14 banks within the last year.

The Peoples National Bank Branch in Belleville was one of the banks hit. Following his usual pattern, the bandit entered the Peoples Bank with a brown paper sack and demanded money from the teller on November 26.

On February 20, the cooperation between the suburban municipalities payed off. East Orange Patrolman Stephen Paskell apprehended Frank J. Langwasser, 44, who had allegedly held up a bank in Bloomfield earlier in the day.

After a preliminary hearing in Orange, Langwasser was remanded to the Essex County Jail pending grand jury action. Bloomfield authorities are also expected to press charges.

According to Orange Detective Lt. Eugene Uricoli, a bandit entered the community branch of the National Newark and Essex Bank, 424 Broad St., Bloomfield, shortly after 11 a.m. on February 19. He pulled a gun and ordered a teller to put money in a brown shopping bag he carried. Bank officials said he fled with $6,760. Police said $6,488 was recovered when the suspect was arrested.

After the bandit fled, bank officials notified Bloomfield police, who put out the "Operation Charlie" alert, closing exits and entrances to the Garden State Parkway and forcing the suspect to use city streets. He was spotted by East Orange Patrolman Stephen Paskell at Springdale Avenue and N. Park Street, East Orange.

In a high speed chase, Paskell pursued the suspect in Park Street to Main Street in Orange. The chased car collided with a car driven by Linda E. Morrissey, 21, of 35 Kingsley St., West Orange, and bounced into another one driven by Edward O'Brien, 24, of 207 Reynolds St., Orange. Two other cars also were involved in the accident. O'Brien was treated for bruises in Orange Memorial Hospital.

The suspect jumped from

Convention Attendance Approved

The Belleville Board of Education, on recommendation from Superintendent of Schools, Anthony Greco authorized Monday night the attendance of the assistant superintendent at the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development Conference, to be held in Chicago, March 16-20.

Also approved was the attendance of Belleville High School Principal Raymond Smith at the annual convention for the National Association of Secondary School Principals, to be held in San Francisco, February 28 through March 5. Both trips are to be reimbursed after submittal of itemized expense accounts.

The recent snow storm made a sizable dent in the Board's pocketbook. Payment was awarded to various snow removal services in the amount of $2357.50.

For the transportation to school of special students, the Board purchased a Ford Custom Club Wagon in the amount of $3431.23.

A whirlpool unit that has given physical therapy to athletes for 18 years has finally broke down. Because the repair expenses are estimated at $150, the Board decided to purchase a new unit for $469.80.

The meeting moved

Michael Albertine Dies

Michael V. Albertine, recent Board of Education candidate and past Board member, died of a heart attack on February 17 in Clara Maass Hospital. Flags are flying at half mast this week at the Board office and all Belleville schools in his honor.

A life long resident of Belleville, Albertine attended School No. 4, was graduated from Belleville High School and received a bachelor's degree from Moravian College, which he attended on a scholarship. Prior to World War II, he was an English and Social Studies teacher in Bloomfield and Bethlehem, Pa.

After serving two and a half years in the Army Air Corps, Albertine opened an insurance agency in association with his wife, Mrs. Elsie Filker Albertine, and operated it under his name for 22 years.

In 1960 Albertine was elected to the Belleville Board of Education. As a member, he fought for the improvement of community schools. His battle was won with the erection of the new high school.

This year he was fifth in a field of five candidates for the two open seats on the town's Board of Education. Last year he ran unsuccessfully for a board seat. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elsie Albertine; a son, Michael; two daughters, Miss Margaret and Miss Julie, both at home; a brother, Jerry; and three sisters, Mrs. Millie Forte, Mrs. Joseph Ferro and Mrs. Mary Venezia, all of Belleville.

A High Requiem Mass was offered on February 21 at St. Anthony's Church, Belleville. The funeral was from the Zarro Funeral Home, 145 Harrison Street, Bloomfield.

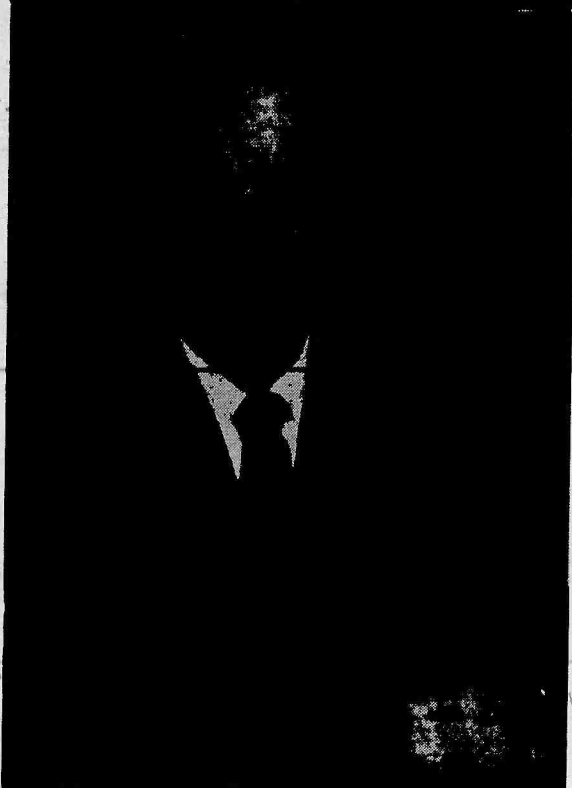

Hospital Lot Is The Scene Of Robberies

The Clara Maass Hospital parking lot was the scene of two robberies this past week.

Mrs. Dorothy Nicholson of 300 Parsippany Road, Parsippany, reported to the police on February 18 that a stereo and tapes valued at over $200 were stolen from her car which was parked in the lot from 9 to 10:30 p.m.

In a similar incident on February 15, Walter Gulkowski of 72 East Passaic Avenue, Bloomfield, called police from the hospital to report that his 1968 GTO had been broken into.

Included in the missing items from his auto were a tape recorder and a set of tapes.

BOARD CANDIDATE — Michael V. Albertine, recent candidate for the Board of Education and former Board member, died on February 17 at Clara Maass Hospital. Albertine had been a lifelong resident of the town and was instrumental in getting the new high school erected when he served on the Board.

Town Residents To Shelter Dogs; Mayor Smith Accepts New Plan

wanted to treat the dogs in a humane manner, but that the service of the Humane Society wasn't up to par and the stalls in the police department basement aren't the place to keep animals for any length of time. It was for that reason, and that reason alone, Smith said, that the letter terminating the society service was sent.

Councilman Lee Bernstein of Newark then spoke for the Humane Society. He brought with him a report for the commissioners on the Society's service to Belleville. He also told of the history of the "other man" who is allegedly Frank Grohman who runs a holding facility in Lodi for his brother-in-law, Pat Grella of the New Windsor Animal Farms, New York.

He began to tell the commission about the federal investigation into the Grohman operation when Mayor Smith interrupted saying "you are going to remain as the people to come and get our dogs, so there is no reason to bring up this Grohman indictment.

Other business transacted at the meeting included the passage of two ordinances on their first reading through one of them, an ordinance to create a supervisor of maintenance in the Department of Parks and Public Property received two negative votes from Commissioners Mary Senatore and Joseph McGreevy.

The other ordinance, one which would create an assistant superintendent of maintenance in the Department of Parks and Public Property, was passed unanimously.

Reporting for the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Ralph M. Risoli, registrar, stated that fees in the amount of $904 were collected in the month of January.

William J. Friel, Tax Collector, showed receipts for the month of January in the amount of $1,014,632.08.

the car and fled down Main Street before ducking into an alley by the Young Men's Christian Association. He continued through a back lot, across William Street and into other back yards. During the foot chase, the suspect fell, dropping his gun, but holding onto the shopping bag with the money, police said.

Langwasser eluded several other officers before Paskell caught him behind 124 Ward St. after firing a warning shot into the air. During the chase, the area was sealed off by Orange and East Orange police.

Deputy Police Chief Anthony J. Costagno of Bloomfield said that police, basing their assumption on a pattern established in the series of holdups, expected the bandit might strike again this week.

Costagno said, the car used in the holdup had been stolen in New York after it had been abandoned during the Feb. 9 snow storm.

The "Operation Charlie" alert was worked out by Bloomfield Police Chief Mitchell Dario, Costagno and FBI Agent Charles Crowley at a meeting of Essex police officials last October in Bloomfield.

Langwasser last lived in Bloomfield in 1950, according to Costagno, and was an oil burner repairman.

Court Case To Be Postponed On Risoli's Clerk Ordinance

Before 1962 Belleville was run under the commission form of government. There was an administrative clerk in every department except recreation and public affairs. It was felt that one was needed.

In 1962 Belleville changed to council manager and adopted the administrative code which was revised in 1964 and repealed in 1967. Under that code there wasn't the five department set up as there was in the commission form.

Amato says that under that form "there was a department of public works and affairs which was 99% public works and 1% recreation. It had nothing to do with public affairs."

Hugh Welsh was administrative clerk in public works and took the title with him when the department became public works and affairs under the council manager form of government. He retired and then Jim Saldo took the title.

"Then we repealed the administrative code that set up different departments. The job originally was created for and always has been in public works."

In voting for the ordinance abolishing all the old positions, Amato contends, Commissioner Strumolo moved to abolish Risoli's position.

School Budget Defeated Again

the budget increased more than $800,000 and the board had $829,899 available in anticipated new revenue. "After making the $100,000 cut (following the initial defeat of the budget on February 11) the board's budget increased by $537,643 and anticipated revenues, other than district taxes, was increased by only $20,243."

But, he really lashed out at the board, saying that the $206,000 cut from the submitted 1968-69 budget had no adverse effect upon the quality of education. Such a claim, said DiRienzo, "requires an educational wisdom beyond comprehension."

smoothly with a minimum of discussion. One of the issues passed without debate was the appointment of Dr. Anneliese A. Pontius as a part-time consulting psychiatrist for the Child Study Department. Pontius will provide his services six hours a month, for the months of February, March, April and May, at the salary rate of $25 an hour.

In routine business, the Board authorized payment for library books and film-strips, the printing of Belleville Senior High School Guidance Department Book Jackets, and Guides, to Program Planning, and the use of a Datapoint equipment rented from the IBM corporation.

WHAT CAUSES A STY IN THE EYE?

A sty is a bacterial infection of one of the small glands on the edge of the eyelid. Though some people believe it is the result of eye strain, or a run down body condition, most likely it is caused by rubbing the eyes with fingers bearing bacterial germs.

A sty can last from a few days to three or four weeks. It can cause much discomfort and sometimes pain. If one persists more than a few days, it is wise to have your physician open it and permit this small abscess to drain and heal quickly.

Town No Longer Immune To Crime

By Harry French

Like most Belleville people I read in the newspapers and saw on Television so much evidence that crime was increasing, but you know I felt secure in the thought that it was only in the big cities, New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, and of course, dear old Newark, until my own home was burglarized and I began to see the evidence right on Washington Ave., that Belleville no longer was immune from burglary, vandalism, robbery, etc., you name it, we have it in Belleville.

There is a new company in town known as Communication Security Systems, Inc. I have visited them and seen what they have to offer in alarm systems.

They will present a program at a Chamber of Commerce Buffet Luncheon at The Fountain, 12 noon, Tuesday, March 11. The topics to be covered are:

- A. Growing rate of crime and the increase of incidents of fire
- B. Diverse methods of premise protection,
 1. Police sentry
 2. Watchman
 3. Armed guard
 4. Security systems
- C. Brief description of what an effective system should accomplish
- D. Basic categories in which security systems are placed
- E. What is the best system for you, cost and what other factors should influence a decision when purchasing a security system.

Belleville Duprees To Sing At Kearny

On the evening of March 6, at 8 p.m. the Kearny High School Auditorium will be transformed into a land of dynamic rhythm as the top recording group - "The Brooklyn Bridge" will appear in concert. Also on the program are the fabulous "DUPREES," from Belleville.

The Brooklyn Bridge, featuring the voice of Johnny Maestro, was formed only last year and has since risen to the top of the music industry. Unlike the famous structure spanning the gap between Manhattan's lofty towers and the shores of Brooklyn, this Bridge was built only with the tools of four powerful voices and seven talented musicians. Their style is a masterpiece of precision, eleven individuals working together to form a single unit of perfection.

In early November 1968, they released their first single "The Worst That Could Happen", which immediately swept the nation. Unlike many groups "The Brooklyn Bridge" are self contained - an excellent vocal quartet backed up by two saxophones, a trumpet, guitar, bass, organ and drums. The Brooklyn Bridge of 1968 is indeed a musical monument.

Also appearing are the Duprees. In the early sixties, the Belleville group the number one group in the nation, with such classics as "You Belong To Me" and "Have You Heard". When tastes shifted, and public fancy turned toward hard-rock and psychedelia, the group dropped from national fame.

They cynics said their sound was dated, but even though they didn't draw large crowds of "teenyboppers", the Duprees played on-dedicated to their art. For the past years, they have played the night club circuit, doing proms and private parties. They sang at the Kearny High Junior Prom last May.

The road uphill was hard, but everywhere they went they gained a modest but loyal following. And now-the Duprees are back in. The latest single "My Love, My Love", is fast climbing the charts. Their style, unchanged by the time, is still the simple harmonic blend of four fine voices. Standing on the brink of new and greater success, the Duprees are true professionals in the music world.

Hughes Is Right

The Deal and The Steal

Well the Republicans are at it again. Led by Senate Majority Leader Raymond H. Bateman of Somerset County, they are defending a referendum that is indefensible.

We refer to the referendum scheduled to be on the ballot next November which in effect gives ownership to 250,000 acres of riparian lands to private interests, resulting in an "estimated potential loss of one billion dollars to the State School Fund."

The Supreme Court of New Jersey already has ruled that the State of New Jersey owns the tidal area lands.

Under the Constitution, the State School Fund receives money from our tidelands.

In order to obtain legislation providing for the orderly development of the Hackensack Meadows a DEAL was consummated among the Republican legislators requiring the passage of legislation calling for a referendum on the question of tidelands ownership. The language of the referendum as drafted by the Legislature is deliberately deceptive. It misleads the public into thinking that approval of the referendum question is merely ratification of an existing fact.

Nothing could be further from the truth.

Governor Richard J. Hughes exposed the proposed "steal" and not only threatened a law suit to block the referendum but already has filed papers in an effort to prevent a vote on the referendum.

Governor Hughes wants the Republican Legislature to repeal its legislation which sets up the November referendum.

What is the reaction of our esteemed

Republican legislators to the request of Governor Hughes for legislation repeal? Here is a sampling: "It was a cheap political hatchet - throwing has started so soon", (a reference to the forthcoming gubernatorial campaign); "The Governor does not need to use threats to get this Legislature to act"; "The Governor has used shocking language, false allegations, and biased statements."

One Republican Senator has even asked a Democrat Senator to "go and wash out the Governor's mouth because he has been calling bad names."

It is a fact of political life that when politicians run out of reason they stoop to name calling. This is the present posture of some Republican Legislators.

Governor Hughes should be awarded some sort of an honor medal for exposing the deal and steal which is involved in the misleading November referendum.

The language of the referendum as it now reads is a fraud upon the public.

If Republicans want to stand a chance to win back the governorship this November they had better initiate action to repeal the Legislation setting up the referendum.

So that the public can be informed on this teapot-dome-type scandal, we are publishing in full a special memorandum to the Legislature on the subject prepared by Governor Hughes, which appears elsewhere on this page.

Heart Deaths

The American Heart Association predicts well over a million deaths in 1969 due to diseases of the heart and blood vessels. This is three times the toll taken by cancer—the nation's number two killer.

The importance of the latest warning from the AHA cannot be overemphasized. Deaths from diseases of the heart and blood vessels are up so sharply in recent decades in the United States (in contrast to deaths from certain other diseases which have been substantially reduced) they now more than equal deaths caused by all other diseases and accidents combined.

Thus the average citizen confronts a more changing his habits and ways to lessen the danger from heart and blood vessel disease than is the case with any other hazard.

States in which the heart toll is highest are: Maine-New York, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Illinois, Louisiana and Nevada. Next highest tolls are found in Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Virginia, Kentucky, Alabama and Florida.

The lowest rate of heart death is found in North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Idaho, Wyoming, Nebraska, Utah, Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Speak Up

Humane Shelter?

To The Editor:

Could you please explain to me what the policy is concerning the Humane Animal Shelter of Bergen County in Lodi, New Jersey? This animal shelter has the contract to pick-up helpless animals in various towns in Bergen County and keeping them a certain amount of time enabling their rightful owners to identify them and take them home where they belong.

On Saturday, February 8th, our dog went astray. This dog is very easy to identify due to the fact that she has only one eye. We reported our dog missing to the police department in our town and in our neighboring towns hoping to expedite the return of our pet. We also made approximately twenty telephone calls to the Humane Animal Shelter of Bergen County in Lodi and was told that they "received no confirmation of any such dog."

After a few days of scouting through the streets in the snow and inquiring everywhere possible for our lost dog with one eye, we were resigned to the fact that the dog was gone. Our four children were heart-broken over the missing dog. Our one daughter wasn't even eating for us because of the dog. My wife and I decided to fill the void in our home with another dog. On our visit to the Humane Society in Lodi, New Jersey we were asked by the attendant what type of dog we were interested in purchasing. We told him that our only requirement was that the dog be friendly and maybe already housebroken. We were then led to a kennel to pick out a dog to buy.

Among the dogs we were shown was our own little one-eyed dog. We spotted her immediately due to the missing eye. After all the telephone calls to this shelter and receiving the same answer that our one-eyed dog wasn't picked up by them, we were angry to find our dog on their premises, and up for sale. It certainly is a little shocking to go to an animal shelter that for three days denied by telephone having any one-eyed dog on their premises and upon reaching there find that they not only had a one-eyed dog since Sunday morning, but had her up for sale. Are they in business to help lost dogs be re-united with their rightful owners or are they in business to sell dogs as soon as they are brought in?

From personal experience, let me give a little advice to anyone who has a lost pet that is loved or valued in any respect to go to the Humane Animal Shelter of Bergen County in Lodi to watch each and every delivery they have to make sure of the fact that they do or don't have your pet. Do not rely on them to help you locate the animal by telephone. Who knows—if you wait to get there a day or two, loved pet just might be purchased by someone else and lost forever.

Sincerely yours,
George Dowling

Gov. Hughes' Special Memorandum on Meadowlands

To the Members of the Legislature:

I wish to call your attention to an action taken by this Legislature that, in its potential destructive impact, is unparalleled in the history of New Jersey.

I refer to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 41, which both houses of the Legislature approved last year. By force of this resolution there will be placed on the ballot this November a constitutional amendment which, if approved, would strip the people of New Jersey of their entire interest in some 250,000 acres of riparian, or tidal lands. These lands constitute a potential asset of at least $1 billion for the State School Fund -- an asset that could be wiped out by your action.

Twice before, the Legislature passed bills designed to strip the people of New Jersey of their claim to these lands. And twice I vetoed these bills as unconstitutional and unconscionable. But now, through S.C.R. 41, you have sought to circumvent my veto and actually to change the Constitution to accomplish this giveaway of public lands to private interests. Last year, as in years before, I spoke out strongly against this action on your part, and gave fair notice of my intention to fight it to the end.

Now once again, my responsibility to the people as Governor requires that I challenge the wisdom, propriety, and legality of your action. The purpose of this Special Memorandum is therefore to outline once again, in the clearest possible terms, my objections to S.C.R. 41 and its purpose, and to state my unequivocal resolve to take every possible step to prevent this massive hand-over of assets that belong to the people of this State.

To this end, I convened earlier today an extraordinary meeting of the Trustees for the Support of Public Schools, who are the custodians of the Fund for the Support of Free Public Schools, established by the New Jersey Constitution (Art. VIII, Sec. IV, par. 2). The Trustees include the Commissioner of Education, the State Treasurer, the State Comptroller, the Secretary of State, the Attorney General, and the Governor, who acts as Chairman. The Trustees, by resolution, authorized me as Chairman to undertake all possible initiatives -- including legal action -- to protect the immense potential assets of the School Fund. Indeed, our responsibility as fiduciaries would permit no other course.

Let me point out, however, that you have the opportunity, by promptly rescinding S.C.R. 41, to save the assets of the School Fund and to retract the decision you made that could destroy them. It is my strong hope that you will take this essential action, on an emergency basis, because it is so clearly in the public interest.

Let me reiterate the compelling reasons for you to take this action:

The Lands in Question

First, what are the physical dimensions of this giveaway? The 250,000 acres of riparian lands in question lie in 17 counties and represent nearly 400 square miles, or 5 percent of the total land mass of New Jersey. These lands are larger than the combined area of Bergen and Essex Counties. They are eight times larger than the area of Hudson County.

The School Fund

Second, what are the financial dimensions of this giveaway? It is estimated that the reclamation of the Hackensack Meadowlands alone -- which represent only 7 percent of the area in question -- will contribute no less than $500 million to the School Fund. Since much of the remaining land is valuable shore and river front, it is clear that the minimum loss to the School Fund will be $1 billion, and the potential loss could be far greater.

Let me make the facts about the School Fund perfectly clear to you. This Fund, created in 1817, has been protected in perpetuity by every New Jersey Constitution since 1844 and has been granted the proceeds from the sale, lease, or rental of all riparian lands since 1894. Except for a corpus of modest size, the Fund's only asset is the potential value of the 250,000 acres of riparian lands that you now intend to give away. The massive loss to the School Fund that such a handover would mean would deprive the schools of New Jersey of a tremendous financial asset. It would be tragic in the extreme if our schools should be deprived in one blow of this potential assistance to achieve quality education.

I cannot believe that, at a time of rising educational costs and local school taxes -- not to speak of shameful educational deficiencies -- the members of this Legislature are prepared to make possible the handover of a billion dollars in School Fund assets. With regard to the Hackensack Meadowlands, for example, the benefits of publicly financed reclamation -- estimated to cost $300 million -- would go not to the school children of New Jersey but instead to private interests.

Fishing, Wildlife, and Conservation

Third, what effect does your action have on conservation?

It would seem that you have failed to consider the impact of S.C.R. 41 on the preservation of some of our most valuable natural areas, such as irreplaceable estuaries and marshlands.

Seventy percent of the fish upon which our sports and commercial fishing industry rely utilize our own shore front for breeding and nurture. Virtually all of our shellfish are dependent on these areas. Moreover, these lands are essential in the breeding, and migration of most water fowl. The State, in cooperation with the federal government, has already initiated a program of wetlands preservation, but there are not enough funds to secure all of those areas which should be protected. Passage of the constitutional amendment contemplated in S.C.R. 41 would expose large segments of these priceless natural areas to destruction by private interests.

Surely no price tag can be put on the conservation value of these lands. But we can state clearly that our economy would suffer untold millions in losses to the fishing industry if these lands are given away. It seems to me that it is our sacred obligation to preserve and protect these assets, not destroy them.

A Fair and Honest Alternative

Fourth, what is the fair and honest alternative to S.C.R. 41? The answer is clear and undeniable. The Act to reclaim and develop the Hackensack Meadowlands established a sound procedure to resolve any competing claims for riparian lands between the State and private interests. This procedure, which you approved as part of the Meadowlands Act, is fair and just to all parties. Any party dissatisfied with the administrative determination may proceed to initiate action in the Superior Court of New Jersey, which has been enlarged by six judges to handle precisely this kind of problem. There can be no possible justification for undermining this procedure, as your present action would do, unless it is your intention to hand over to private interests lands which rightfully belong to the people of New Jersey.

Confusing and Deceptive Language

Fifth, why is the referendum question projected by S.C.R. 41 so confusing, if not deceptive? This question reads as follows:

"Shall the amendment of the Constitution to define the ownership of the State in tidelands and to confirm and ratify private ownership of certain tidelands, record title to which has been held since July 1, 1891 and which have been assessed for taxes for 20 years, agreed to by the Legislature be approved?"

Not even the best-informed voter could discern from the question which you framed what is really at stake.

He could not know that you seek to strip the State of lands constitutionally dedicated to our School Fund and to hand them over to private interests.

He could not know that the courts of this State have consistently upheld the public's this innocuous working. He could not know of the interest in these lands.

He could not know of the immense sums that would be lost to the School Fund.

He could not know of the vast acreage concealed behind irreparable harm that would be done to our priceless fish, wildlife, and natural resources.

The Legislature approved the term "confirm and ratify private ownership" when it knows full well that the intention of the amendment is to reverse Supreme Court rulings in the State's favor and to reverse common law and constitutional dedications of riparian lands to the State. I trust that you realize that if the people were confronted with language that stated these intentions in clear and honest terms, they would react with outrage. For some reason, however, the scope and intention of the giveaway that you contemplate in S.C.R. 41 is in no way reflected in the language that you have set forth.

Legislative Action

Sixth, how can the Legislature justify its action on this giveaway measure? Some legislators have indicated that they voted for S.C.R. 41, but plan to campaign against the constitutional amendment, "so that the people can decide." Let me say frankly that I consider this position untenable at the very best. This pernicious question does not have the slightest right to appear on the ballot -- next November or any November. The people did not elect you as their legislators merely to certify confusing and deceptive questions for their approval. They elected you to grapple honestly with difficult problems in full public view, and not to pass measures such as S.C.R. 41. I fully intend to make sure that the people of this State know that those who voted for S.C.R. 41 voted "yes," and not "yes, but..."

Moreover, you are well aware that there are many large private interests that stand to gain millions upon millions of dollars in wind-fall profits if this amendment should pass. With stakes so large we can expect a well-financed, high-pressure campaign designed to compound the confusion contained in the language of the question and to victimize an unsuspecting public. But who will speak for the school children, as I do now?

For all these reasons, I believe that you should rescind S.C.R. 41. As I have indicated, I am exploring every possible remedy, including legal action, to see to it that this gigantic giveaway is not perpetrated on the people of New Jersey. But the most certain means of protecting our schools against a potential one billion dollar loss, and of safeguarding our people against the handover of invaluable natural lands -- in short, the best way to correct your most unfortunate action of last year -- is immediately to rescind S.C.R. 41.

You know full well what is at stake. Handwringing, new hearings, or fact-finding missions are not necessary. You can, and I believe you must, take immediate action to remove this most serious injustice and to prevent the unforgivable handover of assets that belong to no one but the people of this State.

Respectfully,
Richard Hughes
GOVERNOR

Police Collaborate To Find Children

A call from Robert Dodson of 3 Terrace Place, Belleville on February 16, started a series of communications between the Belleville and Newark Police Departments which resulted in the filing of formal charges against a Newark woman.

Dodson called the town police station and requested that they ask the Newark police to check at 212 Prince Street, Apt. 9-G which is the home of his step son, James Doggett.

Doggett was serving a 90 day sentence in the Essex County Penitentiary, Dodson reported, and his wife, Dureen, was supposed to be taking care of their three children aged one, three and eight.

Dodson told police that he had received information that Mrs. Doggett had abandoned the children on February 14. Belleville police immediately contacted Newark's First Precinct who went to the Prince Street apartment. They found the three children and took them to Martland Medical Center for examination. Later, they were transported to the Essex County Children's Shelter.

Investigating officer, Sergeant Gilsenan, has filed formal charges against Mrs. Doggett.

Botanical Garden Welcomes Spring

The fragrance of spring and love in bloom permeate the Display House in the Main Conservatory of the New York Botanical Garden where combined Valentine and Spring Show will continue through March 16.

Miss L.A. Kripalani Lectures on Montessori To Belleville Council

Miss L.A. Kripalani, director of the Montessori Center of New Jersey, spoke before the Belleville Community Council recently, to explain the methods used in the now-famous Montessori system of teaching. Its principles and procedures have been emulated by the Operation Headstart Programs across the country.

Miss Kripalani, the founder of this school in East Orange, trained under Maria Montessori, and this Center is the only school in New Jersey that is accredited by the International Montessori Association, and the only recognized training school for teachers wishing to learn this method.

Born in Pakistan and educated in Bombay, India, Miss Kripalani said that children, themselves, are her favorite "teachers". She feels that this gap that we speak of, between youth and the adult, existed long ago; it is a gap in communication for the most part.

She feels we underestimate children and young people; because they cannot openly express themselves as adults can, they cannot communicate with the adult well enough to make themselves fully understood. As the artist wants to paint everything exactly as he sees it, yet finds it hard to put it all down to his own satisfaction, without leaving anything out - so the child finds it hard to express himself fully to the adult.

A child from birth through his sixth year picks up the greater part of his cultural background. Before he starts school his basic learning and cultures have become ingrained from the family teachings. The child tries to be free - he is insistent and demanding; we are also insistent and demanding that he do things our way; a young child learns more than we expect from his family; he copies what he hears from us.

The parent insists on the truth, yet he often catches the parent telling a "little white lie" and this confuses him. He is scolded for repeating the untruth that he first heard his parents tell. The adults continually do what the child is told not to do, confusing him even further.

Miss Kripalani feels that a child can learn anything if handled properly. A child wants to experiment, to try everything, to touch, to look, to hold. He can learn geography, biology, arithmetic, geometry, from his every day activities. But each activity should be isolated from the other so that he can learn from the experience. Repetition is important in teaching the young, and in helping them to learn concepts.

In this Montessori School each child works independently, on his own project, while the teacher goes from one to the other watching, teaching, helping when needed. Even the most timid child learns to be independent and to experiment, and to be creative.

The East Orange Center takes children from 2½ years to 6 years. However, it should continue its teaching through all the school years, grouping youngsters in three-year concept spans: 3 to 6 year olds; 6 to 9; 9 to 12; and 12 to 18 years.

Miss Kripalani closed her talk by showing slides taken at the school, showing the youngsters at work and play.

Annual Antique Show Salutes 150th Birthday Of Immigration Law

The 25th annual National Antiques Show opened in the Center Rotunda of Madison Square Garden on February 21 through March 2. More than a million dollars worth of decorative treasures, about 5,000,000 individual items, are on display.

About 300 dealers, collectors, connoisseurs, artisans, artists, historical groups and museums are participating in representations of man's craftsmanship gathered from sixty countries and five continents.

The exhibit salutes the 150th birthday of the first immigration law enacted by Congress to establish definite rules and procedures for passenger ships which were beginning to bring great waves of new settlers to America's welcoming shores. The settlers brought with them ancient techniques and arts without which our melting pot would have no flavor, according to N.H. Mager, producer of the National Antiques Show. Mr. Mager also produces the New York Flea Market, the Sunday outdoor market adapted from the colorful European originals.

Among the categories to be presented in the historical shopping spree will be records and music boxes, dolls, old mechanical banks, rare clocks and timepieces, buttons, outstanding forms of fine glass, porcelain, old books, paper material, prints, paintings, old maps, playing cards, miniatures, militaria, souvenir sterling spoons, heirloom jewelry, marine antiques, old silver, enamels, ivories, posters, historical hardware, theatrical memorabilia, flasks, embroideries, antique French paperweights, costumes, rare coins, primitives and folk art.

There will be significant special exhibits throughout the National Antiques Show reflecting tastes and trends in collecting. MUSE, the country's first museum dedicated to children, will present toys and handcrafts of Mittel Europa, collected by anthropologist Michael Cohn. Primitive and early Americana are the contribution from the reconstructed villages of Southern New Jersey at Allaire.

Unusual photographs, documents and paper material concerned with immigrants will be a nostalgic exhibition. From the renowned Polly Fabel of Yonkers, New York, comes a delightful collection of old steins which are unmatched in this country. Seal Simons of Philadelphia is bringing from new English sources extraordinary examples of the ten basic varieties of Wedgwood in pottery, porcelain and stoneware.

A charming divertissement is the Daguerrean Studio of artist John Dornes, the Edwardian photographer, who poses sitters in costumes from his unique collection to create "instant ancestors." Among his sitters are Mayor Lindsay, the Johnny Carsons, Senator Javits, Joan Rivers, Barbra Streisand and Henry Fonda.

In honor of the show's 25th birthday, sculptor Jacqueline Fogel has been inspired to create a new polychrome wood figure, called "The Collector." The figure will greet visitors at the entrance to the rotunda.

Minna Rosenblatt, Brooklyn, New York, will show the incomparable "pate de verre," sculpture in glass, created by a handful of great French glassmakers, with examples in plaques, jewelry, seals, paperweights, bowls and lamps signed by Henri Cros, A. Walter, G. Argy-Rousseau, Francois Decorchement and the Daum Brothers.

A new aspect of the National Antiques Show is a coin area emphasizing numismatic rarities and oddities presented by forty dealers. Most about twelve exhibits, directed by Philip Rosenbaum. There will be an area presenting model rooms depicting the latest trends in interior design. Among the decorators represented are Dr. Frances Budabin, A.I.D. and N.S.I.D., chairman of the Fine Arts Department of the New York Institute of Technology, who will personally design a bath area with antique accents.

The show, largest of its kind ever held in the state and New Jersey's traditional first harbinger of spring, will take place at the Morristown National Guard Armory starting Friday, March 14 through Thursday, March 20.

Monday through Thursday of that week, special half-hour programs have been scheduled for a special area of the armory floor to show garden enthusiasts how to obtain best results in planting and landscaping at their own homes.

There will be four programs Monday through Wednesday, at 1:30, 3:00, 7:00 and 8:30 P.M., with a feature film and demonstrations, along with a question and answer period for various garden problems.

Monday's program will be conducted in the afternoon by Edward Milewski, Morris County Agricultural Agent, and Joseph Moreau, a professional nurseryman. They will show two films—"New Guidelines for a Well Landscaped Home" and "A Better Lawn"—and demonstrate pruning and planting techniques.

Joining Mr. Milewski in the Monday evening program will be nurseryman Henry Bruno. Films to be shown are "Trees

YOU'LL BE GLAD You switched to Electric Glassheat BECAUSE ...

(Letters from Glassheat users TELL YOU WHY!)

"IT'S COMFORTABLE HEAT— just like sunshine in spring," says one Glassheat owner. "You don't feel hot or cold; you are never aware of the temperature. You are just continuously comfortable, and there are no cold spots."

This is true because Glassheat is the only heating system that warms with Radiant Electric rays exactly like the Sun's own rays. A room heated by Glassheat feels like the sunny side of a barn in the spring sunshine. No wonder people enjoy it, and say so:

IT IS CLEAN—As one user writes, "Probably the most unique feature of Glassheat is its cleanliness. In 16 years with Glassheat the only room we have had to do over is the kitchen. No need to repaint the other rooms or even wash down the walls."

Says another customer, "No soot, no smoke, no grime. Have never seen anything so clean. And we are saving 30% on the cost of fuel compared to the old system."

YOU'LL SAVE MONEY ON HEAT.

A fact that surprises many Glassheat owners. One writes "We were expecting that Glassheat would be somewhat more economical to operate but we were not prepared for our low annual heating bills. Of course we are also pleased with the savings on our regular current. We take advantage of the special low heating rate."

Another user says, "Though we added two additional rooms, my heating bill amounts to only $175—and we have never been so comfortable. Of course there are no maintenance or service charges. Another saving."

With Radiant Electric Glassheat so inexpensive to install and operate, why pay more for less than the best?

IT IS SAFE! No flame, no fumes, no vapor and Glassheat can't overheat. Even accidental contact can't cause blistering. Since there is no flame it is fire-safe. Further it can't burn up the oxygen in the air or reduce the humidity. In fact it maintains a desirable humidity, so there are fewer colds in the Glassheat home and other bothersome ills are aided. No moving parts, so Glassheat is as silent as sunshine. Sound luxurious? It is—in every respect but price and the cost of operation.

How much would this ideal trouble-free heat cost? Send the coupon or call us in person and find out. No obligation.

"JUST THE TEMPERATURE WE WANT IN EACH ROOM; that's one thing I like," says another owner.

True, because money saving thermostats throughout the house permit you to regulate the temperature in each room; 65° in one, 75° in another and 50° in a room not in use. The temperature is uniform from floor to ceiling, causing a user to write, "Years of living with your Glassheat makes me a firm believer in this type of heat."

Special Program At Local School

School No. 9 presented their Founders' Day program on February 4. Mrs. Joanne Patchunka, chairman, presented the PTA members with a pamphlet describing the National Congress of Parents and Teachers' main objectives and the responsibility of parents and teachers to guide children in building good character, in obtaining a sense of responsibility and helping them to achieve a useful life. The PTA's "Helping Hand" has been in existence for two years. The "Helping Hand" sign is placed in the window which is known to the child as a place of refuge in case of any hazard or harm is encountered by the child.

The meeting on February 4 also included the candidates for nomination to the board: Joe Casale, Lennard Back, Carmine Petty, and Cesar Romano. John Di Rienzo, president of the Board of Education, conducted a panel discussion on the proposed budget and future spending of the funds. A few items for the school from the proposed budget are: clock, clothes rack, steel shelves, six chairs, paint for auditorium.

Sports of The Times

By RICHARD DE SINA

Well gang, this is the last truly inspired piece of writing from yours truly. I have received a letter from General Hershey—he wants to fit me for a khaki suit.

The NBA playoffs start at the end of next month, so it behooves me to make one final fearless prognostication.

The apparent qualifiers are Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston in the East and Los Angeles, Atlanta, San Francisco and San Diego in the West. Before beginning an analysis, one must remember the old adage of Frank Deford as noted in Sports Illustrated, "the NBA title is traditionally won by a bald coach with a bearded center." This year that holds no hair, for all the participating coaches are still hirsutably attired.

The Bullets will play either the 76ers or the Knicks. Baltimore has acquired the big man they lacked in Wes Unseld, who should be Rookie of the Year and possibly the league's Most Valuable Player.

All the Eastern contenders have key injuries, except Boston, so there's your winner. The Bullets are missing Gus Johnson, but still have an adequate bench. The Knicks are minus Cazzie Russell and it is still unknown if they will have Phil Jackson back for the playoffs. Don May is the only capable rookie on the New York bench. Nate Bowman, a good backup center, is the only capable veteran.

The 76ers lost Luke Jackson for the year, and although Billy Cunningham leads the club in rebounds and George Wilson has played the best ball of his career, against the likes of Bill Russell, Philadelphia comes up short on the boards.

Now, who'll face the Celtics in the final, though the sentimental choice Knicks could make it, if their starters can play 45 minutes a game and not foul out. The superstar trio of Frazier, (another possibility for MVP), DeBusschere and Reed is capable of overcoming Boston's bearded wonder, now approaching the twilight of his career and the beginning of his old age pension payments.

The Lakers also have tertiary talent in Chamberlain, Baylor and West, though Jerry always turns up injured in the playoffs. As Los Angeles Times columnist Jon Hall noted, the Lakers discontinued the practice of each player bursting through a multi-colored reproduction of himself at the first home game to prevent Jerry from fracturing his skull.

This triumvirate will get its sternest competition from the Hawks, who can match the Lakers on the boards. Initially the Lakers must get past the Warriors, a feat they accomplished in four games last year. Last year, however, Nate Thurmond was injured, so this time it might take as much as seven games, as will the Hawk series undoubtedly. San Diego doesn't have much, or much of a chance. Elvin Hayes is not the fourth best center in the league as he claims, but he is the leading scorer nonetheless.

So, in the seventh confrontation between Boston and the Lakers, they will have one of their classic seven game series, with Celtic speed losing out to Los Angeles' muscle.

Fred Schaus was coach of the Lakers in five of those title defeats. Butch Van BredaKolf lost last year. Schaus lost five times when Red Auerbach was coach; once when Red was general manager. Oh yes, Schaus is now a general manager too. By the way, the title combination on a historical basis was Red Auerbach-Bill Russell (Russell had the hair) and Wilt Chamberlain-Alex Hannum.

Don't be surprised if things get rough in May, to see Schaus sporting a chrome dome, or ordering Van BredaKolf to trim his locks. His job may depend on it.

End Season 3-16

Belleville Drops Finale To East Orange, 48-37

Belleville again had the East Orange Panther by the tail, but for the second time lost by eight points. The 47-39 loss last Thursday wrapped up the Bellboys season.

The visitors overcame a six point deficit in the final quarter to post their 19th win in 20 starts and 17th league victory in 18 contests.

It enabled the Panthers to tie Orange for the Big Ten title. Orange won the title last year, as well as the Group 3 state championship. East Orange shared the crown once before, with Bloomfield in 1966 and won it outright in 1965.

Coach Frank Milner's squad had run into Belleville's best performance of the year when Paul Szem's Bellboys lost by 57-48 on the East Orange hardwood January 17.

"This time it looked like the upset would be pulled off, but Belleville lost a 36-30 third quarter advantage as East Orange scored the first five points of the final eight minutes and held the Bellboys to one field goal the entire period.

Hoops by Warren Melvin, Greg James and Gary Turner gave East Orange a quick 6-0 lead and it appeared that with their fast break, the rout was on. But Belleville continued to play for the good shot, not rushing and though they missed taking the lead on four occasions, trailed by only one at the quarter.

Vinnie Costantino hit a short jumper to give Belleville the lead in the second quarter and the half ended with East Orange up by only one.

Behind 26-24 in the third quarter, the Bellboys reeled off six straight points, three by Costantino. Melvin scored for the Panthers, but baskets by Costantino and Joe D'Alconzo built a 34-28 lead. Then came the disastrous fourth quarter and visions of the big upset disappeared. Tom Polite got the Bellboys only basket then James put the Panthers ahead 39-38 on a jumper.

D'Alconzo cashed in from the foul line, but it was Belleville's last point of the game. James, on a steal, scored on a layup as East Orange regained the lead.

The suspension of Bob Baumgartner hurt the team's depth, but it was the loss of Bob Baker, after a squabble with Szem (who supposedly put it on the line, the play or basketball) that crippled the team's effectiveness. They were forced to rely on a one man offense, the same fate that befell the football team.

The MAGNAVOX nationwide Annual Sale is in full swing, and "swinging" it is. The response by the public to this sale seemingly is becoming greater every year.

There is a good reason for this tremendous response. People get tired of "sales". Some stores have sales every week. They have "sunshine" and "rainy day" and "winter, spring and summer" sales, and if they could get away with it, probably some stores would have a sale because the owner's mother-in-law has a birthday. It is really ridiculous.

The Magnavox sale is entirely different, because Magnavox prices are fair traded. Wherever you go, the price is always the same. On other brands, if you go to half a dozen stores, you hear a different price in every store. People know that the reduced prices on Magnavox sets during this once a year sale are genuine, real reductions.

It is impossible for a manufacturer and a dealer to exactly gauge the taste of the customers. The sale facilitates to correct the factory manufacturing and the dealer's respectively buying errors. Everything can be sold at the right price and the prices are being reduced, on many items as much as $100.00 to clear them out. If you intend to buy a black and white, color TV or a stereo, it will pay you to look at Magnavox prices during this sale. You find them to be lower than so-called "discount prices" by other manufacturers, of lesser quality.

Bob Bonfante, Belleville's varsity heavyweight, compiled the best individual record in the year, 11-1, as the wrestling team went 5 and 7 for the season. Bob, a senior, feels that he should give credit for his wins to his five years of weightlifting. Bob started weightlifting on his own in the eighth grade, and joined the Junior High School's Weightlifting Club while out for football freshman year.

It was in the weightlifting club that Bob met the man who had the biggest influence on his weightlifting, Mr. Cook. Bob's original starting was just on a small interest in lifting, but after being in the Club, where Mr. Cook showed him the right ways to lift, it became Bob's main hobby.

Bob has some impressive weightlifting marks. These include the bench press, where Bob has gone as high as 350 pounds. This life is done on his back with the weights held by two helpers. The weights are then given to the lifter who extends his arms straight up from his chest.

Another lift is the standing press, which is lifted from two bars of about chest height. Bob has done as much as 260 lbs. in this lift. Bob also has done a clean jerk of 320 lbs. which is from the floor to his chest and then over his head. Bob's heaviest lift was done in the Dead Lift where Bob has gone as far as 675 lbs. This lift is from the floor to the waist.

After freshman year Bob continued his lifting in the Senior High. Sophomore year Bob went out for wrestling, and was the varsity 178 pounder. Bob had a 5-6 record that year and came out second in the Districts, a pretty good showing for a sophomore.

Junior year Bob was back out for football and was the varsity middle guard. He went Varsity at 178 lbs. for the wrestling team again, and had an eleven and one season with his only loss to the Number 3 wrestler in the State.

This year Bob was the varsity right tackle for the football team and still lifts weights. Bob was elected Co-Captain of the wrestling team along with two other seniors, Bert Reboli and Dana Nappi. Bob's record was again 11-1 and according to Bob his best matches were against Montclair, Irvington, and Kearny, which was his only loss.

Bob explained that Bert Pearman of Montclair was his toughest opponent. Bob and Bert were tied 2-2, and Bob won it on riding time.

In Kearny Bob went against John Rogers, and the situation was almost the same as Montclair. Bob was tied at 2-2 and lost as Rogers was given the point for riding time. Although both of these were close matches, Bob feels that the best match he had was against Bill Luzenko of Irvington. In the match Bob gave 65 pounds to Luzenko, but despite the weight difference, Bob won 3-1 and his three team points won the meet.

Bob feels that Coach, James Silvestri, has been a great help to him and the rest of the team. He praised him by saying, "He's a hard-working man, who wants nothing but the best, and would really like to see us go all the way." He added, "What really was great was we could always turn to him. He never puts us down, never hurts a guy, but will always lift you up." After graduating Bob would like to go to Seton Hall University, where he could continue his wrestling and his weightlifting, before becoming a Phys. Ed teacher.

Howard Savings Declares Record Quarterly Dividend

The Howard Savings Institution will distribute to depositors its 311th consecutive dividend on March 1. Announcement of the dividend, to be in excess of $9,400,000, was made by John W. Kress, Howard president, following a recent meeting of the bank's Board of Managers.

Larger than any of the institution's previous quarterly dividends, the March 1st dividend will be $577,000 more than that paid for the same period last year. It brings to $36,783,000 the total dividends paid during the last four quarters, and raises the cumulative dividends, paid since The Howard was chartered in 1857, to about $367 million.

Bob Baglione Breaking College Track Records

Former Bellboy track great Bob Baglione (Class of '66) is finding the competition more formidable, but is still breaking records as a collegian.

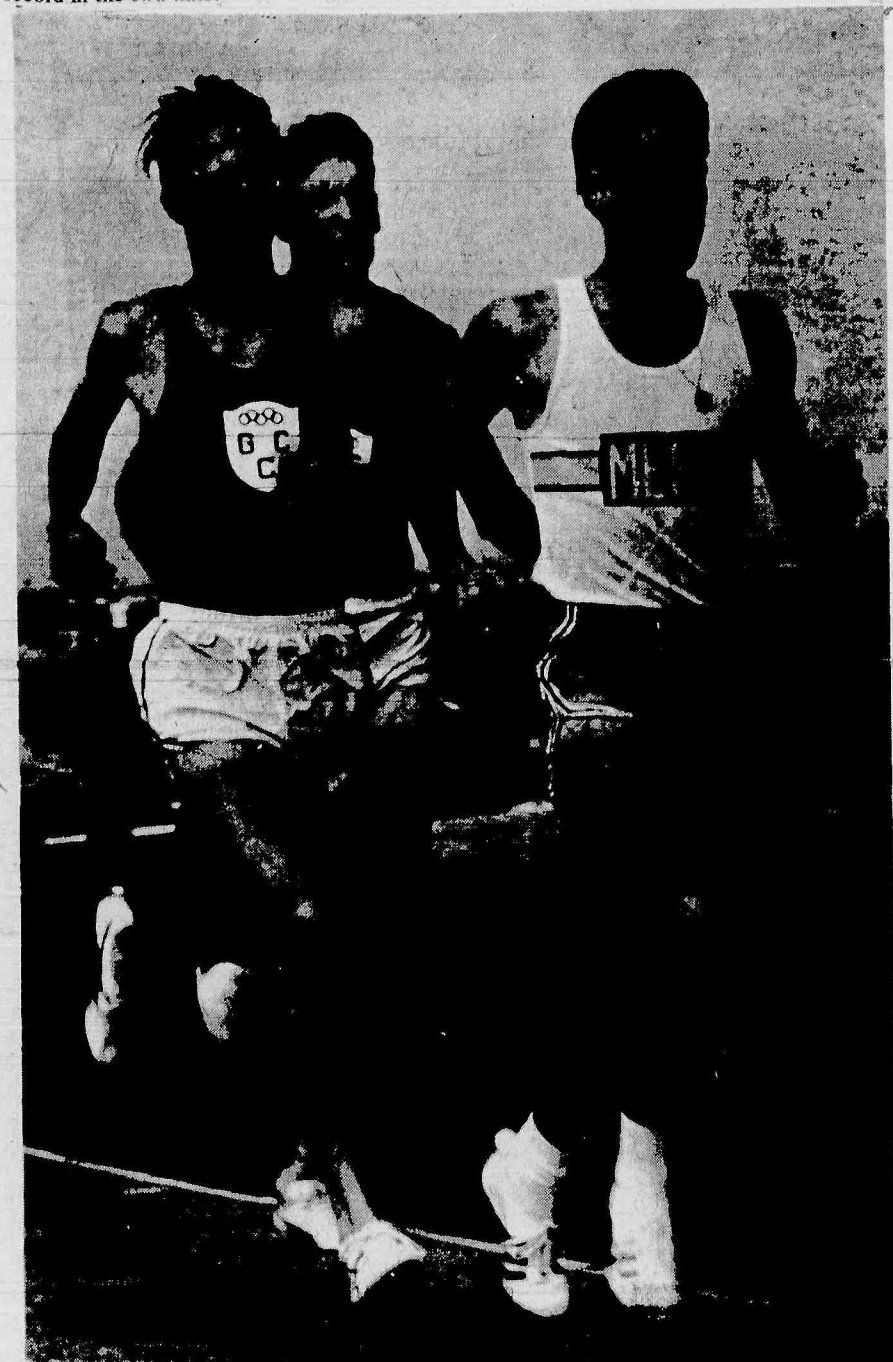

At Belleville, Bob was Essex County cross country champ, and Group 4, Section 2 champ. He finished first in 16 straight Big Ten meets and broke the state indoor track record in the two mile.

He has continued his personal success tradition at Mesa Community College in Arizona. He has been the cross country and Arizona Junior College state champ two years in succession. He was undefeated in dual meets the entire 1968 season and was named to the All-American list for 1968-69.

Bob holds the Arizona record for the mile and two mile runs and the National Junior College Association mark in the two mile. He also set the junior college record in the mile.

Bob has been placed in the National Junior College "Who's Who" for not only his athletic accomplishments, but also for his academic progress.

BELLEVILLE'S JIM RYUN — Bob Baglione, who set high school records at Belleville in 1965 and 1966 is now setting collegiate track marks at Mesa Community College.

Panthers, Knicks Tied For Rec Hoop Top Spot

The Panthers have pulled into a tie with the Knicks for leadership in the Recreation Boys Junior Basketball League. This was achieved by a Panther win over the Fearsome Fivesomes and a Knicks forfeit.

In a low scoring game the Fivesomes put up a courageous fight but were unable to contain the Panthers all court press. At the half the Panthers enjoyed an 11-1 lead. Great defensive play by the Fivesomes held the Panthers scoreless in the third quarter. Then the Panthers got their attack rolling and heaped on eighteen points in the closing quarter to win the game 29-3.

Jim Cagle was outstanding as playmaker for the Panthers. Byron Davis led the winners scoring. Ken Ferris and Anthony Carr were also contributors to the Panthers scoring edge. Teamwork is the factor that has put the Panthers into their present position.

So far the League appears to be a battle between the Panthers and the Knicks. In their three head-on collisions, the Knicks have a 2-1 edge. An indication of the closeness of these teams is the fact that all three games were won by a scant two-basket margin.

Not to be counted out of the picture is the Magnificent Seven with a 5-4 standing and just one game off the pace. Boasting wins over each, the Panthers and the Knicks, the Magnificents have clearly demonstrated the potential to move to the top.

Each of these top teams gets one more shot at the others as the league draws into its final round. And, although the Fearsome Fivesomes has too much of a deficit to aspire to winning the League, they are a scrappy, never-say-die team and could very well cause an upset at any time.

Both the Knicks and the Panthers won games in last week's Boys Junior Basketball League action and continue to share first place in this lively league.

The Knicks saw the Magnificent Seven jump out to a 7-0 lead in the early stages of the first quarter. However, the Knicks fought back to close the gap to 7-5 by the periods end. The charging Knicks continued to come from behind and built themselves a 14-10 lead by the end of the first half. In the third quarter the Magnificents outscored the Knicks by one point, but they couldn't recapture the lead. Final score, Knicks 25 - Magnificent Seven 20.

Anthony Cotugno, with 13 points for the Knicks, was the real difference in the game. Otherwise every player on each team contributed something to the score. Bob Arata was the leader for the Magnificents.

In the second game the Panthers gave evidence of "Championship Fever" as they ground out a 29-19 victory over a very game Fearsome Five. It was a persistent fast break and numerous turnovers that put the Panthers out in front in this tussle. Anthony Carr led the Panther attack with 12 points and he was aided and abetted by Ken Ferris and Byron Davis. George Gorbienko led the Fearsome's scoring.

Next the Knicks face the Firesomes and the Panthers face the Magnificents. Neither

Sweet Sixteen
Susan McGuire turned sixteen this past week and to help celebrate her natal day, her favorite aunt took her out for dinner. And to boot her six assorted brothers and sisters, by name Jane, Kathy, Maureen, Judy, Johnny and Jimmy were all extra nice to their older sister. Sixteen is an age to be enjoyed. So let us wish you the very best dear Sue.

Glorious Seventeen
As noted above sixteen is a wonderful and sweet age indeed, but the next one in line can only be defined as glorious. If you're not too sure of the reason why, let me clue you in right now. Seventeen is the age of the permit. As the moment of dawn of said seventeenth year date arrives most young people can be seen scurrying to their nearest Motor Vehicle Agency for that prize of prizes, permission to operate a car with a licensed driver at your side. And before you know it, Mom now has someone awful willing to go the store or run any kind of errand and Dad has a competitor for the family vehicle. Here's to Peggy Lane, Lex Pender, Dennis Fredricks and all the rest of those who have now joined the ranks of America at the wheel.

Vacation Fun
Mother Nature was very good to our Nutley youngsters for their winter vacation this year. She blanketed the yards and parks with such a cover of white that the youngsters of all ages found delight. Over by the familiar "Mudhole" sleds and toboggans would be seen out in full force. One, two and threes they slid down the slope. And occasionally even a young mother could be seen joining the sledding youngones. And with so much snow available, it was only natural that there were plenty of snowmen and snowforts to be seen around town. And more than one snowball could be seen flying through the air. Now that the streets are cleared and the driving a little easier, Mom and Dad can also take the time to enjoy winter and its pleasures.

The Other Side
In the past, Emily McGuire has been on the admitting staff of Clara Maass Hospital. Just recently she found how it felt to be on the receiving

Schaefer To Speak To AAUW

Walter A. Schaefer, long-time Nutley resident, will address the Nutley Branch, American Association of University Women, on the topic, "Lincoln - Master of Men", at its Thursday March 6 meeting at 8:15 p.m. at the Historical Society Building, 65 Church Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer live at the historic, old stone house with beginnings around 1800 which is located on Calico Lane above the Third River. It was in this house that Miss Charlotte Kunst, AAUW program chairman, interviewed Mr. Schaefer.

Abraham Lincoln has been a figure of interest to Mr. Schaefer since he was a teen-ager. Serious study of the man whom he considers to be "a master-man, a man for all seasons" did not begin, however, until ten years ago when he was able, through much digging, to unearth some little-known facts about this much discussed President.

One of these points pertains to Lincoln's style of writing. Mr. Schaefer has uncovered a reason to which he ascribes Lincoln's change from the verbose, long-sentence manner of 18th century writing to the unadorned style of the Gettysburg Address with its short sentences and absence of adjectives.

Mr. Schaefer refers to the Civil War president as a "school drop-out" who could teach the young of today much about the art of self-tutoring. According to Mr. Schaefer, Lincoln had only a year of schooling in a "gab" type of school in which some added two and two together in one corner while others read aloud in another. Yet Lincoln went on to become a lawyer, a president and one whose feelings for Shakespeare impressed even the British.

Further anecdotes refer to Lincoln as a man of "terrific action" and one who was somewhat enigmatic in his religious beliefs.

Mr. Schaefer has spoken to many groups about Lincoln including organizations and Rotary clubs. He joins with the AAUW in inviting guests interested in Lincoln to attend the meeting.

Hostesses for the evening under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles A. Reopell will include Mrs. M.C. Keeney, Mrs. Wallace Kern, Miss Kunst and Mrs. William Happe.

Surcharge Calculations Trip Up Many Taxpayers

Many New Jersey taxpayers are making mistakes in computing the new tax surcharge on their 1968 Federal income tax returns Roland H. Nash, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for New Jersey said today.

Some taxpayers are forgetting to add the surcharge to their regular tax while others are figuring it incorrectly, Mr. Nash said. If a taxpayer is expecting a refund, it will be delayed until the mistake is corrected.

St. Patrick's Party by VFW Ladies Group

Firemen's Post Ladies Auxiliary No. 1851 - Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States will sponsor a benefit "St. Patrick's Day Party" on Saturday evening, March 15, at firemen's post home, 94-100 Grafton Avenue, Newark at 8:30 p.m.

Proceeds of the affair will benefit charity and their community services. The $3.00 donations for admission will include hot and cold buffet, prepared by the refreshment team of the Ladies Auxiliary.

Mrs. Thomas O'Neill, wife of the post commander, is chairman of the event, assisted by Mrs. Bernard Dowd of Newark, refreshments; Mrs. Robert Barrett of Nutley, decorations, Mrs. Eugene Rolandelli of Newark, arrangements and Mrs. Arthur Farrell of Newark, prizes.

Reservations close Wednesday, March 12. Anyone interested in celebrating should contact Mrs. O'Neill or Mrs. Rolandelli, so tables may be reserved. Miss Margaret Keppler of East Orange, is community servicewoman for the auxiliary, Mrs. Robert Will of Hennessey No. 712 for Essex County District No. 4, and Mrs. Connie Anderson of Pennsville, for the Department of State of New Jersey.

Catalano Setting Marks At Newark State College

Jim Catalano can be described as one of the best offensive ballplayers to come to Newark State College in a while.

He is an exceptional jump shooter. He is averaging in the area of 16 and 17 points per game.

Jim is a sophomore, and has already broken a few school records. He holds the foul shooting record for a season 80.5%. He holds the record of most foul shots made in a row in game situations, 14.

Jim also holds the record for field goal percentage in a single which he was 14 for 19 from the floor against Rhode Island College last year as a freshman and lead his team to a 91* - 81 victory (Rhode Island was 4th in the country last year N.A.I.A.). All these records are for the varsity.

Jim has scored 20 points about ten times, some being 28 (Rhode Island) 21 (Paterson State) 24 (Husson College of Maine) 24 (Rutgers Newark) 20 (Quinnapiac of Conn.) and many others.

Assistant coach Robert Palma says that if not this year then at least next year Jim should be Newark States first All-Conference guard.

Probably the most significant thing that Jim has been doing along with some great scoring is his foul shooting. Jim at this point leads others in the State College Conference in foul shooting, probably in the state. He is also about 20th in the nation's N.A.I.A. making over 80% of his fouls. A great accomplishment. Jim will more than likely make quite a few All-Opponent teams.

Jim says he owes a lot to his colleges coaches, Robert Palma, and head coach Ken Sekella. Jim also has great praise for his high school coach Al LoBalbo. At Belleville High School Jim was Third Team All-Essex. Jim is an exceptional athlete; he also starts for the baseball team. In high school he was First Team All-State at second base in the Newark Star Ledger.

Another record Jim established was most assists in a single game, 11 against Jersey City State.

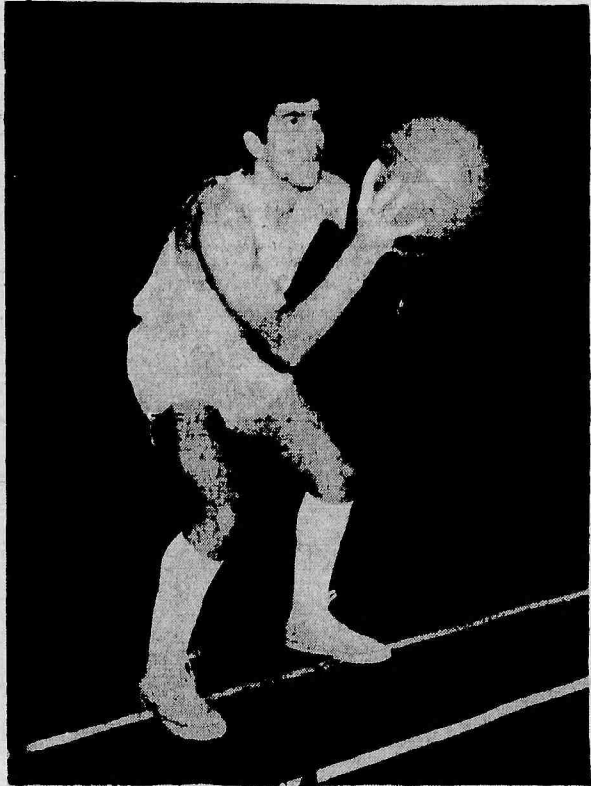

He can throw some unbelievable passes with great accuracy. Coach LoBalbo, now at West Point, said Jim was the best passer he had seen in many a year. Jim's talents enabled him to start varsity at Newark as a freshman.

Jim at this point has over 400 points and only half the season is gone, so by his senior year, Jim should break the major 1000 point mark.

He lives at 168 Joralemon Street.

ALL CONFERENCE — is what assistant coach Robert Palma predicts Jim will make. Jim starred at Belleville High.

AT THE CHARITY STRIKE — is where Jim Catalano excels. He holds the school foul shooting record for a season.

Varsity Club Elects Officers

At a recent meeting of the Belleville Varsity Club the following officers were elected for 1969-1970:

President.....Vincent Sorgentino; Vice President...William Ellis; Secretary...Joseph Valvano; Financial Sec...Nicholas Landolfi, Sr. and Treasurer...John Shelesky.

This meeting was also the annual father and son sports night. Many athletes at Belleville High School and their fathers were in attendance.

Fantastics Nip Nurses

In what proved to be the most exciting game this season, the Student Nurses of Clara Maass met the Fantastics in the Recreation Girls Senior Basketball last week. When these two teams meet, the result is a fast and tough game bringing out the best of both teams. In their pre-season meeting the Fantastics overwhelmed the Nurses. This time it was a different matter.

From the outset the Nurses, always a scrappy determined team, showed that this game was to be no gift for the Fantastics. With razor-sharp shooting and passing the Nurses jumped into the lead. Unable to penetrate the great defense of the Fantastics, under the basket, the Nurses had to shoot from outside. Nurse Mason did a great job of this. However, just as the first half was drawing to a close the Fantastics bounced back and evened the score at 7-7.

Final score in this game was 16-14 with the Fantastics the winners.

Panthers Tied For Top

the Knicks nor the Panthers can afford a careless moment in either of these games. Then, one week later the Knicks and the Panthers meet head-on in what will probably be the game that decides the Championship.

The Magnificents at 5-5 could still pull into a tie for second place.
