Glass Damage Heavy

Vandalism Over Summer Plagues School Officials

An unusually large amount of glass replacement due to vandalism was among the many repairs made this summer at local schools by the Board of Education's maintenance crew.

School Superintendent Anthony Greco attributes the outbreak of glass breakage this summer to youngsters congregating by schools "after hours." He said he would classify the damage as vandalism. "Schools seem to be a meeting place in the summer," the superintendent said. "One youngster throws a rock and pretty soon eight or nine windows are broken."

Greco said the cost of the repair, for which the school system is not insured, was approximately $1,600. Addressing himself to town parents, he said "We would like the children to look at these schools as their schools. Once you have respect for schools, vandalism ceases."

The Board has been complaining all year of the high cost of vandalism. According to Board's President Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero, vandalism during the school year had cost the town $5,536.98.

The Board's maintenance crew of two masons, three painters, two carpenters and two general utility men, worked all summer repairing buildings for the fall term.

Two new cyclone fences were installed by the crew. A 150 foot fence was erected at School Number Two and a 100 foot fence was placed at School Number Seven.

Extensive interior painting was done at School Number Seven. Board Business Administrator Harold Dufford told the Times he plans to have the outside of School Nine painted. Plans are also underway for painting the interior of the field house at Clearman Field.

New kitchen equipment was installed at the junior and senior high schools. A stove was placed in the high school kitchen and a fryalater for french fries was put in at the junior high.

Lights were installed in School Three's library. New window sashes were also put in at the school.

The corridors of School Five had new lights installed. Several bad holes in the driveways and parking lots of Schools Eight and Three were patched up by the Board Crews. In School Eight, a new lavatory was put in for the principal.

Several improvements were done at the high school. New peg boards were placed in the music room. The ceiling in the kitchen lavatory was replaced, and new urinals and wash basins were installed in the boys lavatory. A hole was made in Athletic Director Herman Wische's office wall and a window was installed.

Dufford, who released the repair reports to the Times, did not have the official tabulation for the summer's repairs, but emphasized that the work was done completely by the Board's own crews.

School Superintendent Fears Crowded Classes

Belleville public schools open Wednesday morning with the accent on curriculum innovation and the possibility of a serious problem of overcrowding.

The newest addition to the elementary school system will be an updated science series, with heavy emphasis being placed on student experimentation. Also of primary importance to the elementary schools will be the completion of a history series begun in 1968 and new report cards which will aim at giving parents a more comprehensive look at their child.

In the high school, a progressive work-study program is being installed, along with an expansion of the business education department.

But while school officials are excited about these innovations they are also apprehensive about the problem of overcrowding which threatens the schools, especially since the Board of Education has no official budget.

"My greatest reservation is that we may have more youngsters than anticipated," said Schools Superintendent Anthony Greco.

Greco expressed concern that overcrowding might mean the necessity of hiring more teachers. "I don't know if there is any money for extra teachers in the Board budget. The Commission has already cut four teaching positions from our budget. We won't know where we stand until school starts."

Greco was referring to the $207,000 cut by the Board of Commissioners from the school budget after town voters twice rejected it. The Board is awaiting a decision from Trenton on appeal of tuition may have caused the rise in the high school enrollment. He also felt that people moving into town was a cause of the problem.

A complete and comprehensive study of the overcrowding problem, however, is being planned by Greco as soon as school gets underway.

"We are going to study the new children in Belleville, and see what effect they will have on the schools. We are also going to look into the size of individual classes. The high school is currently sending 68 per cent of its graduating class to college, yet we can't seem to squeeze enough of them into typing courses, something essential to good college work."

The school system's ability to meet the problem could very well depend on how much money, if any, is restored by the State Commissioner of Education when he reviews the June 9 budget appeal of the local Board. A decision on the appeal is being delayed due to the illness of a key state education official.

Meanwhile, the Superintendent was enthusiastic about a new science series being installed in all Belleville elementary schools. A "series," Greco pointed out, is the use of the same authors and publishers in a particular subject to provide continuity from grades 1-6. This eliminates the possibility of the duplication of theories and the cut, but in the meantime must operate without an official budget.

Although Greco said the true extent of overcrowding cannot be appraised until after school opens, he did say that there definitely would be a problem with the high school and School Ten.

The high school had anticipated 1,180 students for the fall term, but the number rose to 1,280, causing school officials to issue an emergency order for more classroom furniture. School Principal Raymond Smith reports that classrooms are already crowded and that the school is operating on a full seven and half period day.

Smith speculated that increases in parochial school

Mrs. Millie Barletta can't wait for the war in Vietnam to end. With one son wounded in action, and two more serving 13 month stints in the war zone, she has ample reason to worry.

"I can't even sleep at night anymore," the mother of nine boys and one girl said.

"It's hard. It's got me a nervous wreck."

In addition, Mrs. Barletta, who lives at 66 Cortlandt Street, has two brothers who are also in Vietnam. Her oldest boy, John, served in the Korean War, and her son Adam has recently enlisted in the Navy.

Mrs. Barletta's boys all volunteered to go to Vietnam. It is not the policy of the Defense Department to send three brothers in the same family to a war zone.

"I tried to stop it," she says, "but they had made up their minds. If I had had to sign papers, they wouldn't have gone."

The Barlettas came to Belleville two years ago from Pittston, Pa. Joseph, the oldest at 22, graduated from Pittston High School and enlisted in the Marines. After training at Paris Island, N.C., with his brother Robert, Joseph was shipped to Vitenam, in February of 1967, serving as a Lance Corporal in the artillery. After six months there, he received the Bronze Star for capturing three important enemy officers. Joe, however, was wounded in the effort and was sent home with an honorable discharge with six months left on his enlistment.

Robert, 20, trained with his brother Joe and was also made a Lance Corporal. At Paris Island he received a medal for shooting accuracy. Volunteering for Vietnam in July of 1969, he is being used in a mine sweeper unit. Before going to Vietnam, he served as a guard at Alcatraz Prison in California.

Robert also graduated Pittston High, where he was active in sports and mechanics. In Belleville he enjoyed taking part in father-son softball games. Before entering the Marines, he worked for John Eustice, a roofer. Robert broke up with his girlfriend before entering the service so she would be able to date.

Samuel, 19, volunteered for the Army in December of 1968, and took his basic training at Fort Dix. After basic he was assigned to Fort Still in Oklahoma. Volunteering for Vietnam in July of 1969, he is serving a 14 month tour of duty in the artillery.

A graduate of Pittston High, he was, like his brother Robert, interested in mechanics. He has a girl friend in Cataret.

Both Robert and Sam are scheduled to come home in August of 1970, which seems like an awfully long time to Mrs. Barletta.

How does Mrs. Barletta feel about anti-war demonstrators?

"I think it's terrible that they don't want to go in. The other guys who are over there didn't want to go in either. I shouldn't really complain, though, my boys volunteered."

Chamber Attacks License Fee Rates

A town ordinance which had to go all the way to the Appellate Court in 1965 to be upheld, is coming under fire again.

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce has instructed its lawyer to draw up a proposed ordinance for revision of a law which sets license fees for all town businesses.

According to Harry T. French, executive director of the Chamber, the business group is objecting to what he terms certain "discriminatory and vague" parts of the ordinance.

Specifically, the Chamber is objecting to the section of the law which bases license tax rates on the total square footage of a store.

"We cannot see," French said, where a furniture store puts a greater burden on the town than a jewelry store."

The main feature of the proposal to be drawn up by Alfred Burstein, a Jersey City lawyer, is a basic license fee rate for businesses, regardless of store size.

"The point here is not concern for money, but, rather it is a concern for fairness," French said.

The Chamber had entered into conversations with the Commission, but according to French, had abandoned the talks in favor of a concrete proposal. Citizens, of course, have no power to draw up ordinances, but a suggestion can be submitted to the Commission in the form of one.

Also under fire are certain sections of the law which are "vague," according to French. The Chamber director questions, for example, whether a tax rate for automobile service centers is just, for in French's words, "What exactly is an automobile service center anyway?"

The ordinance which sets license fees in town was introduced in 1965 under the council-manager form of government. The Chamber took a protest then to the Council and was able to obtain a promise for a 50 per cent decrease in rates.

The promise of reduction is one reason for French's criticism.

"If there was a basis for setting fees," he said, "why were they able to reduce them in one night?"

Despite the promise of revision, the Council did nothing for months. The Chamber and a group of licensees took the ordinance to a lower court and succeeded in having it thrown out. According to French, the court ruled the law to be "discriminatory and difficult to interpret."

The town fathers, however, took the ordinance to the Appellate Court where it was declared lawful, but a recommendation for revision was made.

Despite the recommendation, the Council did nothing to revise the law. When the new Commission was instituted, the Chamber met with the commissioners who agreed to investigate the law.

ONE OF THREE — Joseph Barletta, one of three Barletta boys to serve in Vietnam, displays a picture of his girlfriend while overseas. He was sent home, wounded, after capturing three enemy officers.

Board Meeting Changed

The Board of Commissioners September 8 meeting has been rescheduled for Thursday, September 4, in order that the Commissioners may attend the P.B.A. and F.M.B.A.'s state conventions in Atlantic City, September 7-10.

The invitation that was extended to the Commission has been a custom in town for many years.

Several local firemen will attend the Convention. Representing the firemen will be the F.M.B.A. officers: president, Harry Scott; secretary, Tom Nisivoccio; vice president Walt Cole; sgt.-at-arms, Richard Hanky, and State Delegate August DeFranza.

Belleville's F.M.B.A. does not plan to introduce any resolutions at the convention, according to De Franza. In general, the convention discusses state-wide working conditions and pension systems.

The highlight of the firemen's affair, which is being held at the Seaside Hotel, will be a banquet September 8.

Several local policemen, headed by local P.B.A. president, Michael V. Marotti, will attend the P.B.A. convention, also in Atlantic City.

Don't Worry Mom, He's Just Sleeping

A shocked mother fainted August 22 when she saw her infant son laying on his back in the family wading pool, after being reported missing.

The mother, Mrs. Irene Zoppi, 30, of 43 Memphis Avenue, had nothing to worry about, however. The child was not hurt, just sleeping.

BACK TO SCHOOL — With summer drawing to a close, preparation is underway at Belleville schools for the opening of doors September 3. Here, Vincent Abbot (foreground) and John Longo, High School custodians, give some final touches to a science room.

concepts. The previous science series was installed in 1958, and Greco said it is "completely outdated."

A committee of teachers and principals worked several months evaluating various textbook companies' series offerings. They chose a new series published by D. C. Heath because of its accent on student experimentation. "Science can't be taught like other courses, by simply reading lessons," Greco said, "students must experiment, even if they fail. They must ask why they failed and learn from their mistakes. This series is good because it has alot of experimentation."

A new social studies series was started last year, but because of lack of funds, it was only used in the fifth and sixth grades. This year it will be used in all elementary grades.

The social studies series, which includes the Johnson administration, starts with the accent on home, school and community affairs in grades one through four, and discusses America in the fifth and the Middle East in the sixth. In the new textbooks, which Greco termed "progressive," Belleville children for the first time will look at photos of non-white children.

Report cards for grades one through six have been changed to become more comprehensive. A special section has been included in the report to indicate the reading level of the individual student. Greco said that "It is of the utmost importance for parents to know on what level their children are reading. We are trying to give them a more total look at their child's progress in school."

Prohibitive costs have nixed the issue of new report cards to kindergarten age children. A special committee had been formed to recommend new report cards, but the type chosen by the group, with the emphasis on color illustrations, would cost $800, well over the current price of $150.

The new kindergarten cards would have had color illustrations to accompany areas in which children were being judged. For example, next to the category "I play well with others," would be a picture of a boy playing ball with other children. Color pictures were also supposed to have been on the report card cover and envelope.

In the high school, there was a 50 per cent increase in the number of courses being offered to students in work-study vocational programs. Part of the cost for this program, in which students are allowed to leave school at 1:45 to work in connection with a course they are taking, is being financed through federal and state aid.

Being offered this year to students in the program will be auto shop, wood and metal, graphic arts, drafting, home economics and office work. The students will be paid for the work they do.

The courses will feature discussions about business problems with a 12 member committee from the business world. Assisting the program will be Pat Barbone of the Business and Administration Committee.

Many companies will participate in the work-study program, including People's Bank, Mutual Benefit Insurance Company, Bell Telephone Company, the Essex County Isolation Hospital and Wallace & Tiernan.

The work-study program originally started with a pilot course in home economics. Today the program is being financed in part by government funds, paying for much of the equipment and up to 50 per cent of teachers salary.

There will be one teacher for each area, with each of them involved in other courses.

According to the high school principal, 98 per cent of the students enrolled in the program are not college bound. The purpose of the program is to prepare these students for competition in the working world.

New courses are also being offered in the business education department, in both clerical work and data processing.

Clerical courses have been advanced to where they can, according to Smith, allow students to compete for jobs with kids who have gone to secretarial schools such as Katherine Gibbs.

A special Saturday morning class in data processing is being offered to students who can't fit the course into their normal school schedule. The Saturday class, being taught by Larry Ara Kari, is a federal financed course.

Most private schools in Belleville will open this week also. St. Peters School will open September 3 for grades two through eight, with half day sessions on the third fourth and fifth. Grade one opens September 4 and Kindergarten begins September 8. Expected enrollment is 700.

St. Anthony's School opens Wednesday for grades one through eight, with half days on the third, fourth and fifth. The opening date for the kindergarten has not been decided yet, but will be announced in the Times Church Bulletins.

The approximate enrollment for the school is 270.

3 Dancers Set For T.V.

Three Belleville girls will appear on the Ted Mack Amateur Hour this Sunday as part of a dance group.

Elizabeth Ann Ricci, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ricci of 61 Belmont Avenue, Pat De Pasque, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony De Pasque of the same address and Toni Ann Di Lauri of 60 Eugene Place, will make their television debut with the Perry and Keller Dancers.

The Perry and Keller Dancers, a group of 11 girls, were spotted by a Ted Mack scout while performing at the Steel Pier in Atlantic City. The dancers auditioned for the T.V. show in the Ed Sullivan Studio in New York.

Both Elizabeth and Pat are honor students at St. Anthony's School, and have received scholarships to Mt. St. Dominic Academy. Toni is a junior at Belleville High School.

Belleville residents will be able to vote for the trio after the performance.

WITH A FLOURISH — Toni Ann Di Lauri, one of the Perry and Keller dancers, poses for a picture in preparation for the groups scheduled appearance this Sunday on the Ted Mack Amateur Hour.

GOOD FORM — Pat De Pasque of Belleville shows good form as she prepares for her T.V. debut on the Ted Mack Amateur Hour this Sunday with the Perry and Keller Dancers.

DANCE STEP — Elizabeth Ann Ricci, 13, shows the style that has gotten her, along with the Perry and Keller Dancers, a spot on this Sunday's Ted Mack Amateur Hour.

Life Insurance Increases Made

Contributory life insurance for town employees under 70 years of age has been increased by the State board of trustees of the Public Employees Retirement Service from one to one and half times an employees gross salary at no additional premium.

The announcement was made by Town Treasurer Francis H. McCoy, who is the local certifying agent for the retirement system.

Employees are already insured at one and a half times their salary through the pension fund.

The change became effective August 1.

This is the third state pension fund to be changed in the last two years. The police and firemen's pension system received an increase from two and a half to three and half. Teachers' pension and annuity rate rose an identical amount.

Man Waves Hearing In Bad Check Case

"We have 33 detainees from other municipalities on this man and that's only the beginning of it," said Belleville Detective Harry Winfield of Joseph F. Ciravolo, who waived a preliminary hearing before Judge Edward Abramson in the August 7 Belleville Municipal Court. The case was sent to the Grand Jury.

Ciravolo, classified as an embezzler and a fraud man by Belleville police, was arrested August 5 by officers Anthony Fandacone and John Vreeland at a local used car lot after police received an anonymous call that he was on the premises.

A complaint was lodged against Ciravolo after he allegedly bought a 1964 Cadillac with a $1,600 check that "bounced." Daniel Stanaker, the recipient of the bad check, called police after the discovery was made.

Stanaker told police that Ciravolo, who used the name Harry J. Stephens on the check, showed him a parole officer's identification card to verify his name.

The county prosecutor's office is looking into the false identification card.

Winfield reported that Ciravolo, whose true name or address has not been verified, has used many aliases. Among them are Joseph Marley, Joseph La Conte, Frank Rinaldi, Harry J. Stevens, Samuel Donato, Carmine Santora and Joseph Ciro. "Ciravolo" is wanted in many other Eastern states.

The Belleville detective speculated that the 33 detainees are only the beginning. "My phone has been constantly ringing the last two days," Winfield said.

Ciravolo listed his occupation as a truck driver.

Bank Releases Income Facts

Net Operating income at Carteret Savings and Loan Association for the first six months of 1969 reached $6,164,300, an increase of 7.3 per cent over the same period last year. The figures were announced today by Anthony M. Surano, president of the association.

New Street Asks Change

'Hot Rodders' In For A Surprise With Proposed One-Way Street

Motorists who use New Street as a short cut to avoid the traffic light at the corner of Joralemon and Union Avenues may be in for a surprise. Forty residents of New Street have presented a petition to the Commission asking that the road be made a one-way thoroughfare. The petition came in the wake of a four car collision on the street, August 12, in which a hit-and-run driver, fleeing from pursuing Police, rammed three parked cars, wrecking two of them.

Alan Crisp, town historian, who prepared the petition, said the accident made area residents "realize it was time to do something."

Most of the motorists who turn left onto New Street from Joralemon Avenue to avoid the light, are "hot rodders," according to Crisp.

The residential street has many little children, and residents fear that a serious accident might result from the extra traffic.

Two Are Arrested For Sniffing Glue

A 21-year old Belleville youth and a juvenile were arrested August 25 for allegedly sniffing glue.

Donato Garzilli, Jr., of 287 Williams Street was charged with illegal use and possession of glue and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was released on $500 bail.

The juvenile was charged with sniffing glue and released in the custody of his parents. A hearing has been set for September 4.

Teachers Set For Lecture

Dr. Thomas Richardson, president of Montclair State College, will address the Belleville Public School system's 285 teachers Tuesday at a special orientation meeting at the high school.

The Montclair president is expected to discuss the status of education in today's society.

After the meeting, lunch will be served in the cafeteria for the 25 new teachers in the school system. The rest of the teachers will report to their respective schools to meet with their principals.

This year's number of new teachers is considerably less than last year's total of 50. Six of the new teachers are assigned to the high school, and five to the junior high.

School opens the following day, with a full day scheduled for returning students.

Howard Snell; Here 3 Years

Howard A. Snell of 175 Hornblower Avenue, Belleville, died after a short illness, Sunday, August 24, at Orange Memorial Hospital. He was 63.

Born in East Orange, Mr. Snell came to Belleville three years ago. He was a radial drill press operator.

Surviving is his wife, Jean Goodbeck Snell, and a son, Howard E. of Belleville.

Services were Wednesday, August 27, from the Kiernan Funeral Home, 101 Union Avenue, Belleville. A High Mass of Requiem was offered at St. Peter's Church. Interment was at Holy Cross Cemetery, North Arlington.

Belleville RedCross Gets Thanks From Child Clinic

A letter of appreciation has been recieved by the transportation chairman of the Belleville Red Cross District from Mrs. Ruth O. Cowell, executive director of the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic.

In her letter, Mrs. Cowell stated that the board of directors had requested her to send a resolution of appreciation to the dedicated volunteer drivers who have been so generous and helpful to them.

In the resolution, Mrs. Cowell said "Whereas, the drivers of the motor corps of Belleville Chapter of the American Red Cross have given most generously of their time, energy and, particularly of themselves to the children they transport to the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic; and, whereas, their steady, dependable devotion to their task as motor corp drivers have enabled these children to receive the therapy they need so deeply. Therefore, the Board of Trustees of the North Essex Child Guidance Clinic, at its meeting on June 24 hereby resolves that a unanimous vote of heartfelt thanks go to the Belleville Red Cross motor corps drivers, with the hope that they will be able to continue their much needed help to the children through-out the next treatment year."

The volunteer drivers of the Belleville District are: Mr. Natale Faronea, chairman; Mrs. Florence Smith, vice chairman; Mrs. Alma Pesa, Mrs. Joan White, Mrs. Virginia Campbell, Frederick Midlge, Harry Citarella, Mrs. Rose Mary Cobiainchi, Mrs. Barbara Kiernan, Mrs. Hetty Murray, Miss Linda Miller, Joseph Cobiainchi, Jr. and Mrs. Pat Diana.

These volunteer drivers feel that it is a privilege to serve in this capacity in-aiding the children of our community.

At a recent meeting of the Belleville District, American Red Cross, Eugene Barnett was re-elected chairman of the Advisory Board. Also re-elected were Robert Reilly, vice - chairman, and Mrs. Herbert Tucker, secretary.

New members elected to the board are: Walter Karatz, John Kondreck, Rev. Frederick Long, A. Dewey Snook Mrs. Robert Shafter, Mrs. Clifford White, and Mrs. Robert Zimmermann.

Members re-elected are Leonard Bade, Mrs. Louise Brown, Mrs. Phyllis Cupparo, Mrs. John DeNike, Natale Faronea, Mrs. William Finnegan, Anthony Greco, Joseph Grosch, Mrs. Seymour Grossman, John Knodel, Andrew Lukowiak, Mrs. Joseph Pepe, Raymond Perry,

Probation Term For Bad Check

"You even give bad checks to the court when you pay your tickets," said Belleville Municipal Court Judge Edward Abramson before sentencing a Belleville man for passing a bad $200. check.

Richard Fredericks of 388 Washington Avenue was convicted of passing the bad check and was placed on probation for one year, given a two month suspended jail term and told to make restitution during his probation period.

The conviction stemmed from an April 23 incident when Fredericks gave the check to William Warren in payment for a course at Master Beauty School, Passaic. The check "bounced" and Warren reported it to the Belleville police.

Fredericks was arrested June 30 and pleaded guilty at the court hearing.

Judge Abramson said that whenever Fredericks received a traffic ticket from Belleville he would pay it with a check. The check would "bounce" and Fredericks would rush down to the violations bureau and make restitution before charges were pressed. Judge Abramson said this was highly unusual.

Abramson told Probation Officer Richard Talty to "explain the economic structure of this country to him (Fredericks)."

Rent Control?

Judging from the experience in New York City where apartment landlords overcharged the poor apartment tenant, it appears that New Jersey legislators should give serious consideration to the need for imposition of rent controls for apartment units.

Living units in this metropolitan area are still scarce. To permit the law of supply and demand to establish the going rate for rentals is unfair to the individual who can't find a decent place in which to live.

Where demand is greater than the supply, serious consideration should be given to the adoption of rent control legislation.

By U.S. Senator Clifford P. Case

This summer's debate over ABM and other military questions reflects a profound-and, in my judgment, irreversible-change in our approach to the problem of assuring our survival as a nation.

The American people, I believe, are no longer willing to accept as inevitable the upward spiral of the arms race.

And the United States Senate clearly is no longer willing to accept as infallible the Pentagon's or even the President's judgement that a particular weapons system is essential to national survival.

For when the 100 members of the Senate divide 51 to 49 on a great issue, as we did on the question of deploying the Safeguard ABM system, they have not disposed of that issue. On the contrary, such a vote signals a beginning, rather than an end.

The heart of the matter is put clearly and bluntly in these words by John W. Gardner, chairman of the Urban Coalition and former Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

"The domestic departments exercise a rigorous and healthy discipline over their expenditures, not because they are thrifty by nature-far from it-but because they are subject to tough, raking scrutiny by the Budget Bureau and the committees of Congress. If that scrutiny were eliminated, they would grow lax and fat.

"That, in a nutshell, is the condition that has prevailed in the Defense Establishment for many, many years. The time is ripe for an unsparing examination of every aspect of defense spending, an examination that will extend to procurement practices, use of manpower, administrative overhead, maintenance of overseas bases and the basic rationale underlying force levels and weapons systems."

That "unsparing examination" has just begun. Where it will lead no one can say. But is encouraging to know that, already, the civilian leaders of our defense establishment have recognized the necessity of top-to-bottom re-examination.

The Pentagon's chief scientist, Dr. John S. Foster, Jr., addressed the Armed Forces Management Association on August 19 in the following terms:

"The country until recently has been patient with us. We have assumed that we had time to do better. But now the country's patience has run out. The signs are all around us. The magazines, the newspapers, the networks are playing up stories about Defense Department and industry mismanagement and about Congressional intent to reduce mismanagement by reducing funds...

"Their exasperation is easy to understand, and I won't attempt to justify our past. We have told our story. The public, the press, and the Congress are interested in cost-overruns and weapons that don't perform as promised, not in further explanations.

"...There is nothing that will help now except to make sure that all persons understand that the situation is critical and make clear that we are making the changes that must take place."

The spending cutbacks announced by Secretary of Defense Laird on August 21 point in the same direction.

There remain, however, some even more basic questions to be explored in the weeks and months ahead. For example, Senator Mondale and I are urging a complete review of the need for attack aircraft carriers when no other major power has any such carriers.

The Senate, in short, is preparing to meet its responsibility to exercise a far greater influence upon the course of national security policy.

Town Bulletin Board

The Times-News publishes the Town Bulletin Board as a public service, not only to assist individuals in planning social calendars, but as an effort toward eliminating conflicting dates among local organizations. Club secretaries and program chairmen wishing to clear a date for a future activity may call the Times-News at 759-3200.

There is no charge for the Bulletin Board listing, but events should be limited to those of general interest. Be sure to mention date, time and place for each event being listed.

Listings for the Town Bulletin Board must be submitted to The Times-News two weeks in advance of publication.

Apartment Dwellers Want State Control

by John J. Bunevich

Question: Do you think New Jersey should institute a rent control law to prevent landlords from boosting apartment rents way out of line?

Asked: of Nutley and Belleville apartment renters.

Roland Smith - 291 Park Avenue, apt 2B, Nutley

I most definitely agree with the institution of a rent control law. The majority of owners have raised the rents way out of proportion. It hasn't been bad where I'm living now but some of the rents have gone up so much in this area it's absurd. When I first moved to these apartments I was paying more than my neighbors but now newer people moving in are paying more. Rents are way out of hand. Someone was telling me that one rundown apartment in the area is charging $175 for three rooms. That's ridiculous! We need state intervention to deal with problems like this.

Mrs. George Ann Perricone - Branch Brook Manor, apt. 5, Belleville

Yes, I think apartment rents should come under state control. Something should be done to get rents back into a reasonable price bracket. Regular working class people can't pay these high rents and expect to save money to buy a house. I know I wouldn't like to live here the rest of my life. The people in these apartments aren't getting their moneys worth. The owner of this project refuses to make any building improvements, yet he is still raising the rents. The state should do something about the situation.

Mr. Smith

Mrs. Rosemary Correll - 291 Park Avenue, apt. 5B, Nutley

The owner of these apartments has been very good. He hasn't raised my rent for seven years. I really can't complain about my rent. As for others, I do think there is a problem with the majority of landlords and for that reason there should be some type of state control. I don't know anyone who has this problem but "out of line" rents are a common thing with most of the newer garden apartments that are being built.

Mrs. Louise Tunis - 17 Branchbrook Drive, Belleville

What the landlords charge today is ridiculous. There haven't been any improvements since I've been living here but the rents are going higher. I would like to know what is being done with all the money. It certainly isn't going into any apartment improving. The state should set up a board to control the problem. This board would inspect dwellings and arrive at a certain price, depending upon the condition of the apartment. The amount of rent paid should be in line with the cost of living at the time.

Seems Only Yesterday

1 Year Ago

Stephen C. Charen 1967 Belleville High School graduate, and Sports Editor-Columnist for the Belleville Times spent his summer in Washington D. C., at the office of Congressman Peter J. Rodino.

The Democratic Club of Belleville formulated plans for a Past President's Night to be held in the Darwood Lounge, Washington Avenue.

Debbie Preuster of Wilson Place, and Mike Le Ritz of Williams Street received the Amos Alonzo Stage Foundation Award as part of Play Day activities at the Belleville Park Play Day sponsored by the Essex County Park Commission.

Robert R. Booth of River Road was promoted by the Prudential Insurance Company to underwriting consultant in Newark.

5 Years Ago

Mayor Nuncio Pico moved to gain firmer control over the Town Council meetings, which in the past developed into out-of-control shouting matches between Councilmen and private citizens.

The purchase of a new $17,000 ambulance was passed over the objection of Councilman James R. Golden in a two day session of the Town Council.

Charles M. Martin, machinists mate second class, USN, was promoted while serving aboard the destroyer USS Compton operating with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Construction on Route 21 in the vicinity of Bayard Street near the Newark line created a great deal of confusion and hazardous travel conditions for motorists.

10 Years Ago

Residents of Rutan Estates

appeared in a mass meeting at the Town Commission. They complained of bad water conditions, no fire boxes, no sidewalks, high taxes and the need of a traffic light.

Peter Torre Jr., special activities assistant to Belleville Commissioner George F. Kiernan, director of Parks and Property, submitted his resignation to take over the State Motor Vehicle Agency.

The Womens Division of the Citizens' Tax Council of Belleville was officially organized at a tea sponsored at the new Council headquarters 599 Washington Avenue.

Joel Richardson Kondreck was awarded a scholarship at the Rochester Institute of Technology. Kondreck was the son of John and Helen Kondreck of Kondreck Photographic Studio, 569 Washington Avenue.

15 Years Ago

The Sisterhood of the Congregation Ahavath Achim held their annual membership dance at 317 Washington Avenue. A musical program under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Mantelli, was presented.

Mrs. Seymour Fersko was chairman of the affair.

The Members of the Robert C. Gruhin Association appointed a committee for the dinner dance to be held at the Fountain. John Gualtieri, president, announced the members of the committee.

"Guess My Secret" night was held at the Christ Episcopal Church when the Sunday school members presented a fashion show and panel game modeled by the students and teachers of the Sunday school.

25 Years Ago

Clearman Field was used for the first time and showed a daily average attendance of 271. Most popular activities under the direction of Bill Chapman and Frank Spotts were softball, baseball, volleyball, basketball, horseshoes, table tennis and checkers.

The Belleville-Nutley ration board began compliance with a new directive from Washington OPA which liberalized the gasoline regulations covering servicemen on furlough. Under this ruling, servicemen got one gallon of gas for each day of his furlough from three to thirty days long.

More than 200 attended the Knights of Columbus affair when Belleville Council honored Eugene J. Kelly who had completed two years as grand knight.

40 Years Ago

After one week in office, Theodore Sandford resigned because of "poor health." He was succeeded by James L. Davidson.

John C. Lloyds lead the Valley-wide agitation against Passaic River pollution. He demanded the removal of sewerage commission as incompetent. A Belleville-Lodi contract was signed eliminating 3,000,000 gallons of sewage waste in a year from flowing into the river.

Bids for repair work to the Town Hall were received at a Commissioner meeting and were referred to Charles Granville Jones, architect.

50 Years Ago

It was expected that the number of children at the opening enrollment of the schools would reach 3,500 which was over three times the number that entered fifteen years before.

Speak Up

Power Groups Should Unite for Benefit of All

To the editor:

When I speak of power groups I do not mean those people living in the ghettos and slum areas. Regardless if they are white or black, they are minority groups

The taxpayers, many living on a pension or social security, pay the bills. They are in the same category. All have one thing in common. That is to enjoy the same opportunities as others less harmful to them.

Many of these people work in private industry and earn between three and four thousand dollars per year. It would be wise for any politician in or out of office to keep this in mind.

Power groups are a well organized machine in all fields of employment, including local government and school teachers. I feel all are well paid in this day of inflation and higher taxes.

When there is no money in the budgets you don't create it by raising taxes. All demands for wage increases must be denied except the increment, regardless of the threat of strikes, which is an illegal act.

Calvin Coolidge, former president and governor of Massachusetts, was faced with a serious police strike in Boston. He broke that strike in three weeks and became famous.

He released from prison the toughest criminals he could find, gave them each a clean bill of health, a new lease on life and a steady job in the police department.

Not one policeman involved in that strike was ever reinstated.

Governor Long of Louisiana was manhandled by two state troopers and two doctors in the institution where his wife had him committed. A hearing before the court in this case released him and both the state troopers and the doctors were fired and replaced with friends.

If we had representatives in this state with backbones they would produce a formula to help the unfortunates so that all can equally share the tax burden instead of the lilly dillies who use double talk. There would be no need for strikes or fat demands made by power groups.

We would have peace and harmony, law and justice for all.

Citizen Says Taxes Unfair

To the Editor,

Take notice senior citizens in Belleville who own property! Belleville taxes have so greatly increased but senior citizens' $80 deduction has remained the same for many years. Don't you think it's about time something was done in Trenton about this situation? Everyone who is interested and needs help with their taxes, write to this address and see if we can get results.

New York State Fair Set With Space Age Theme

An authentic replica of the space suit worn by Apollo 11 astronauts during the recent historic lunar landing will be highlighted in the central thematic display "Man's Future in the Space Age" at this year's New York State Fair, opening August 26 in Syracuse.

The suit, and a special display featuring identification of the suit's hardware and accessories plus full-color illustrations of the Apollo flight, landing and return, will be featured in the middle section of the Center of Progress Building. This late addition to the Fair's thematic exhibit has been contributed through the courtesy of Marine Midland Banks, a $7 million dollar New York State banking system.

Waterfowl Hunting Season Dates Set

New Jersey waterfowl hunting seasons were set last week by the State Fish and Game Council, according to Commissioner Robert A. Roe of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

A split duck season totaling 45 days, a 77-day season on geese. A 70-day Brant season similar to recent years, and a special bonus on scaup during the duck season are the principal features of the regulations.

More than 30,000 licensed school bus drivers are engaged in transporting New Jersey's public and private school students.

Sports Corner

By John McCarthy

Summer is over for the Belleville Recreation Department. The Department ended its activities last week, featuring playoffs in both the Senior and softball leagues.

In the Senior League, the Planseon Playground Nine trounced the Clearman Field Squad, 9-2.

Planseon (Number 9) scored a run in the top of the first, but Clearman scored two in the bottom of the second to go out in front 2-1. In the fourth, Bill Natale opened the inning with a double to left field and went to third when Joe Scala singled through the middle. Frank Calabrese then knocked in the tying and go-ahead runs with a triple.

Ed Colon then made it 4-2 when he scored Frank on a single. Number Nine scored 3 more in the fifth on four singles and two errors. The last two runs were scored in the sixth on a double, two more errors and two sacrifice flies.

The Planseon Junior team also made it into the finals, but Number Four School walloped them 11-3. Frank Papsidero of Number Four went three for four with two RBI's scoring twice. Frank's triple in the first inning put Number Four ahead 1-0 as Sam Veniza scored from first.

Jay Messina then got his first of three RBI's with a sacrifice grounder. Bruce Messina doubled in the second, scoring two runs and coming across himself on a sacrifice by Veniza. Number Nine scored once in the bottom of the second and twice in the third, but Number Four added three in the fourth and three more in the sixth.

Anyone trying out for cross-country or football should report tomorrow at 9 a.m. to Number Eight to have their physical. This is for the varsity, junior varsity, and soph squads only.

Hardman Completes Expansion Of Plant Facilities in Belleville

HARDMAN, Incorporated, recently completed the final phase of a 30,000-foot expansion to its plant in Belleville. HARDMAN is a prominent compounder of resins and elastomers and manufacturer of mixing, metering and dispensing equipment for multi-component resin systems.

HARDMAN's new building incorporates the most advanced architectural design features and includes a modern reception area, several conference rooms, executive and craft offices, engineering and drafting departments and a cafe-inspired eating facility.

Floor space is also available for future growth and expansion. However, company officials estimate that at the present rate of growth, within five years additional quarters will be required for operational divisions handling new products and services.

Swimmers Made During Summer

The Recreation Department's summer program was successful in turning out some good swimmers.

In addition to the regular swimming sessions conducted at the Friendly House pool, a series of swimming lessons were offered. Under the teaching of James Soldo a group of youngsters mastered the four tests required to earn Recreation Department Swimmers emblems. In order to qualify each candidate had to float on both back and stomach, dive into the water head first from the side of the pool, swim a short distance under water and then surface and swim the length of the pool.

The following children earned their Swimmer's Emblems this summer: Janice Ameo of 290 Fairway Avenue; Janice Bergimini of 326 Franklin Avenue; Nicholas Ammorato of 700 Joralemon Street; Joseph Corbalis of 18 Nolton Street; Paul Denning of 53 Overhill Road; Mike Donnelly of 39 Riverdale Avenue; Sharon Freda of 302 Fairway Avenue; and Michelle Gierla of 306

Fairway Avenue. Also awarded were Mary Gilligan of 165 Union Avenue; Peggy Glevay of 303 Fairway Avenue; Jody Mitchell of 30 Ralph Street; Jacqueline Nicolero of 700 Joralemon Street; Lisa Ann Palumbo of 725 Joralemon Street; Donna Marie Palumbo of 725 Joralemon Street; Wendy Thomas of 57 Cortlandt Street; and Marion Towns of 26 Watchung Avenue.

After this modest beginning the Recreation Department is looking forward to a more extensive program next summer.

Rutgers Princeton Tilt Set For Fall, Sold Out

The Rutgers-Princeton football game September 27 is a sellout, Athletic Director Albert W. Twitchell announced today.

"The only tickets we have left for the Princeton are included in the limited number of season books we have not sold for the Centennial season," Twitchell said. The athletic director said that about two hundred side stand books are on sale, including tickets for the Princeton, Lehigh, Cornell, Navy, Columbia and Colgate games.

Rutgers will mark the Centennial football season with special ceremonies at each of the 1969 home games.

The 100th birthday festivities will begin with the Princeton game, at which captains of past Rutgers-Princeton games will be honored, a re-enactment of the first game will be staged and other ceremonies will be held in conjunction with the N.C.A.A. The game will be televised by ABC.

Rutgers and Cornell All-Americans will be saluted Oct. 4. Twitchell hopes that Paul Robeson, Bill Austin and Alex Kroll will be able to attend the game.

CYO Club Swim-In Is Tonight

Essex County CYO's Catholic Young Adults Club will put the finishing touches on a busy summer tonight when they sponsor a Bowling League Swim-in at Kal's Swim Club in Nutley. Members of the Summer Bowling League and their guests are invited to attend the affair.

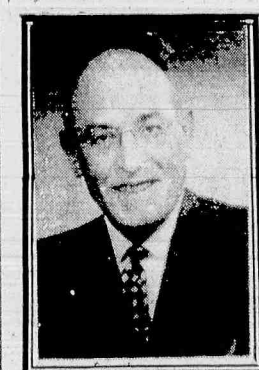

The Club, made up of single high school graduates between the ages of 18 and 30, will set plans for the 1969-70 season at an open meeting to be held Wednesday, September 10 at 7:30 p.m. in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, Oliver Street, Newark. Any persons interested in joining the organization are invited to attend.

Some post-Labor Day activities also in the offing include an outdoor dance on Saturday night, Sept. 13 and kickoff of the Winter Bowling League at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 14 at Bloomfield Brunswick Bowl.

Hayrides, picnics and record hops were held by the group during the summer months, and recreational programs for Newark teenagers proved most successful.

Additional information about CYAC may be obtained by contacting Tom Forlenza at 643-5586, Thomas D'Ambola and the Rev. Robert M. Stauffer, both of St. Mary's, Nutley, are president and moderator respectively.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

"There is hardly anything in the world that some man can not make a little worse and sell a little cheaper, and the people who consider price alone are this man's lawful prey." The statement has been made by a truly wise man. (John Ruskin).

Who did not have experiences along these lines? One sees a screwdriver for instance which looks good, although it is inexpensive. The first time it is being used, it bends, and one has to throw it away. Or an inexpensive pair of shoes, which look just as good as the $24.95 ones. The first time it is a little damp, the cheap shoes go to pieces.

The other day a customer asked us for the price of an antenna installation and he was surprised about the price we quoted. He told us he could get it much cheaper and who would supply it. It so happened that the installer was a former employee of ours who did not make the grade with us. He went in the antenna installation business for himself. He uses the cheapest material he can buy. For instance, while we use a heavy gauge aluminum mast, he uses steel which rusts in time. He uses wire for 1 cent a foot, we pay 5 cents. He does not install a lightning arrester or ground wire, which we use. Disregarding the soundness of a chimney, he puts it on just the same, using a mount that cost 69 cents. In most cases we install the antenna on the side of the house, using a metal bracket which costs us $5.60. And so it goes, all the way. The antenna he uses is a cheap imitation for about $6.50, ours costs $22.60. It is easy to see that this man's antenna installation is too expensive for half the price that we charge. Some people can't get into their head that you only get what you pay for.

Joan Berzon's Degree Given In Cincinnati

Joan Diane Berzon of 44 Van Ruyper Place, Belleville, was awarded a bachelor of arts degree at the commencement exercises at Rutgers Agricultural School.

More than 830 undergraduates, comprising the largest student body ever, will begin classes at the Rutgers College of Agriculture and Environmental Science September 11.

Richard H. Merritt, director of resident instruction at the college, says that the class of 183 freshmen will be the second to enter the State University under its new federated college plan.

the University of Cincinnati.

The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Mortimer Spitzzen of Belleville, and the late Sherry Berzon, Joan was a history major. At Cincinnati she was placed on the dean's list of the McMicken College of Arts and Sciences, and served as secretary of the Phi Sigma Sorority. A Belleville High graduate, she was active on the school newspaper, serving as its assistant editor. She was also a varsity twirler.

Her future plans include graduate work and teaching. At the present she is vacationing in Europe.

Hospital Controller Retiring

After 26½ years of service at Clara Maass, Hospital Controller, Dorothy Cosgrove will be retiring. She began as an accountant in 1942, with responsibility for several major areas.

In reviewing her many years at the Hospital, Mrs. Cosgrove vividly remembers World War II and having to travel to the chicken farms with the dietitian in order to secure enough meat for the patients. Mrs. Cosgrove served as War Bond Director at the Hospital, and proudly states that Clara Maass sold more bonds than any other Newark hospital.

In retirement, Mrs. Cosgrove plans to relax and pursue her many activities. First on the agenda will be the redecoration of her Union home, where she and her husband, Allan, live. She hopes this project will include the purchase of a piano, so that she can resume her interest in music. During the summer, Mrs. Cosgrove enjoys working in her rose garden.

John J. Cattoline Appointed Marketing Director At ITT

Club Enjoys Day At Shore

A lovely day at the shore was recently enjoyed by members of The Woman's Club of Belleville with their families and friends. An invitation was extended by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rehau of Belmar to come for a day's picnic and fun.

Waterskiing in Shinnecock Bay was Mrs. Ludwig Peck. Mrs. Richard A. Shaffer and Mrs. David Parry. Bridge players which included past presidents Mrs. John DeNike, Mrs. Floyd M. Harlan and Mrs. William R. Kropp, vied for prizes offered by their hostess, Mrs. Elmer Renall, Mrs. Ruth Sommer and Mrs. C. Mitzenius were among the guests who greatly admired the English Garden of the Rochaus. Mr. and Mrs. H. Irving Russell, Mr. William R. Kropp and Mr. John DeNike also participated in the activities of the day.

Mrs. John Noonan, International Relations Chairman of the Belleville club came over from her home in Matalokin and used the opportunity to exhort the members present with a preview of the project of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs, this coming club year; namely, the making of cotton sports and dresses for orphans in southeast Asia supported by the Thomas Dudley Foundation.

Refreshments were served in the garden and a review in picture and story of the Rochaus recent trip to England concluded the special day.

What's In A Name? Look at Label Carefully

Do you know what all those terms mean when you read the label of a garment you have purchased? Many of them seem very technical and confusing to the average homemaker.

A good clothing label or hangtag tells you the generic or family name for the fiber plus the brand name. The type of fiber is your best clue to fabric care. Many magazines carry detailed charts on fabric care.

In general, you can wash household linens and heavily soiled fabrics in hot water. Use warm water for colored items or garments with a permanent press or no-iron finish. A hot water treatment on these items will put in hard-to-remove wrinkles during the spin cycle of your washer. Cold water should be used to wash very bright colors or dark items. Washable wools should also be cleaned in cold water.

Some terms you may see on a garment hangtag and their definitions are listed below. Thermoplastic - this indicates the fiber grouping which is affected by heat. Most thermoplastic fibers are considered to be "wrinkle-resistant".

Absorbency - the amount of moisture a fiber will absorb. The more absorbency, the more comfortable the garment will be to wear. The natural fibers, cotton, linen, wool and silk, are the most absorbent.

Resiliency - a fabric which springs back to shape after crushing is resilient. Cotton and linen are not naturally resilient, but fabrics made of blends of man made fibers and cotton or linen spring back because of the man made fiber present. Wool is one natural fiber that does have a "built-in" resilience.

Soil repellent - sometimes called soil release, is a finish applied to certain fabrics which does not allow a stain to penetrate the pores of the fiber. The stain stays on the surface of the fabric so it is easily washed.

For further information on fabrics and their care you may call or write Mrs. Janet Spong, County Home Economist, Essex County Home Economics Extension Service, 25 Thirteenth Avenue, Newark 07103, 642-7800, Extension 421.

AAA Study Reveals Facts On Kids In Auto Accidents

Pointing to a recent AAA study which reported that each year some 11,000 children are involved in traffic accidents while walking to and from school, R.J. Vialle, general manager of the New Jersey Auto Club, local AAA affiliate, urged all motorists to drive with extra care as school reopens for the fall season.

The Auto Club is conducting its annual public information campaign to alert drivers to the need for the extra caution as schools open next week.

Miss Nutile Graduated From Caldwell College

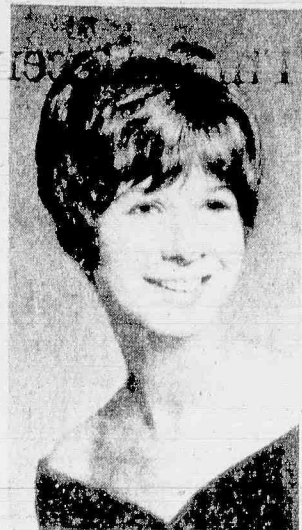

Marilyn Nutile was graduated from Caldwell College for Women at the commencement ceremonies, June 4. She received the bachelor of arts degree in Spanish and elementary education.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nutile of 34 Jerome Avenue, Belleville, she maintained a dean's list average at Caldwell. She was an active contributor to the College's Spanish Publication, "La Voz," belonged to the Spanish Club and was president of the Rho Alpha Chi Sorority. Marilyn was also a sister of the Phi Delta Sigma Sorority.

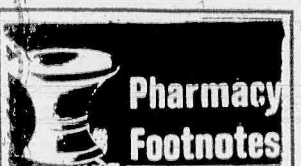

At East Orange Catholic High, she participated in the Spanish Club, the Future Teachers of America, the bowling team and the school's art publications.

At the present, Miss Nutile is working with the Belleville Recreation Department. She plans to teach in the elementary grades in the fall.

If you live in or near a metropolitan area with a large industrial population, chances are you're breathing unclean air. There are three main types of pollutants: dust, ashes, and other particles; gasoline fumes; and sulphur dioxides. Air pollution causes health problems, and one of the most severe is eye irritation. A recent nationwide survey of U.S. physicians revealed that more than 70 per cent of patients in 1.6 million cases involving air pollution complained of stinging eyes. This was second only to the primary complaint, coughing.

Three Receive Degrees At Upsala Graduation

Three Belleville girls received undergraduate degrees from Upsala College at the college's 50th anniversary commencement.

The girls are Donna Alfieri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Alfieri, now of Fairfield; Diane Di Ruggiero, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. Di Ruggiero and Margo Marone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marone.

The girls, who went to school together from kindergarten on through college, were all members of the Theta Beta Gamma Sorority. Donna Alfieri was president of the sorority for one year.

Donna Alfieri and Margo Marone received the bachelor of arts degrees in Spanish. Diane Alfieri was awarded her degree in sociology.

Speaking at the Upsala commencement was renowned soci-economist, Gunnar Myrdal, author of many books on the sociology of The American Negro. Speaking to the graduates, she said: "True liberty for all is lacking in America because the United States is still a comparatively backward country in the areas of health and educational facilities, living levels and employment opportunities. Community interests must be stressed against the anarchistic tendency to rugged individualism."

Shortage Of Trained Personnel Critical Problem Facing Country

The escalating shortage of trained personnel for the delivery of health services is one of the most critical problems facing both urban and rural areas in the country today. New ways are being sought to interest and train underemployed community people for careers in health by those institutions and organizations that provide the nation's health care.

The Mountainside Hospital is cooperating with Essex County Planned Parenthood in one such new program, a

Local Girls Graduated From Nursing School

Claire Messina and Victoria Staselis were graduated on June 6 from the Clara Maass Memorial Hospital School of Nursing.

Both girls completed the required thirty-three month program of intensive medical study.

Claire Messina, who received her nursing degree, is from 105 New Street, Belleville.

Victoria Staselis of 97 Rossmore Place, Belleville, is a graduate of Our Lady of Good Counsel High School, Newark. While at Clara Maass, Miss Staselis served as layout editor of the class yearbook, and as the publicity chairman of the senior show, "Clara's Laugh-In." She plans to work in the operating room of Clara Maass.

The commencement ceremonies were held at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Montclair.

opportunity for observation and supervised patient care responsibilities in some of the Hospital's 23 Outpatient clinics.

On Monday, July 21, an all-day orientation to the Hospital setting was provided in a program planned by Mrs. Muhlenhaller. To date, the Assistants have had outpatient clinic experience also at the New Jersey College of Medicine & Dentistry, Beth Israel Medical Center, and at East Orange General and Orange Memorial Hospitals. At the termination of their first segment of training, the Trainees will be employed part-time as assistants to nurses, clinic physicians and other professionals in Planned Parenthood Clinics in this area.

Three of the Trainees are local residents and the rest live in Newark.

Plans Menus For Practicality And Save Time and Money

To save yourself time and money when shopping for food, a menu or meal plan is a good working tool. You can make a shopping list by looking at your menu plan, and this can help to avoid impulse buys which can boost up the food bill.

Plan meals for one day at a time. Be sure and include snack foods if these are an important part of your diet. Make them snacks that count such as fruits, sandwiches with meat or cheese fillings or milk products. The soft drink and cake snacks do not give your body any nutrients, just calories.

Make your plan fit your shopping schedule. Some homemakers shop once or twice a week; some more often. Plan for as many meals as you will serve until your next shopping day.

When meal planning, consider the age and amount of activity the members of your family get. Inactive adults and small children can get along with very little food while active adults and teenagers need a larger amount of food to supply their energy needs. You can adjust your meals for all types of people by changing the amounts of food and the way it is prepared.

A smart meal planner will serve old family favorites and also introduce new foods now and then. This can enlarge the basic meal pattern your family enjoys. Try serving foods in different ways. The person who eats a wide variety of foods is likely to be a healthy individual nutritionally.

Check your meal plan to see if your meals measure up. A good plan has variety in food value, flavor, color, texture, shape and temperature. Serve a strong flavor with a mild one, a sweet with a sour. Add garnishes such as a tomato slice, spiced apple, green pickle or other to spruce up the color on the plate.

Be sure and serve different textures in one meal. Soft fish, mashed potatoes and mashed squash do not present an interesting variety of textures. A better choice would be fish, french fries and peas.

Serve hot foods piping hot and cold foods thoroughly chilled. Even on a hot day, one hot dish served along with the cold foods makes the meal more interesting.

For information on Home Economics Extension Service activities please write, Mrs. Janet Spong, County Home Economist, Essex County Extension Service, 25 Thirteenth Avenue, Newark 07103 or call 642-7800, Extension 421.

Destroy Dodder Through Spraying

Look around now for a weed pest named dodder. You'll find it easily because it differs from most plants in being yellow, not green, says John J. Kupcho, Essex County Agricultural Agent.

Dodder derives its nourishment from the plant around which it is entwined. Once it's fastened to a desirable plant, there is not much you can do except cut and remove the desirable plant along with the dodder.

It's good practice to observe the areas of infestation this fall, since a chemical prevents dodder seed from germinating.

Mark these areas now and give them an application of Dacthal next spring. This treatment will prevent seeds in the soil from germinating and thus control this weed pest.

Be sure to read the chemical label carefully to ensure that desirable plants will not be harmed.

Field work is an important function of the State Museum. Archeological explorations of the Tocks Island area have yielded thousands of specimens for the Museum's comprehensive Indian collection. Many of the specimens date from prehistoric times.

BERMUDA HONEYMOON — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ziegler of Belleville are pictured on the grounds of the fashionable Princess Hotel, Hamilton, Bermuda, where they recently honeymooned.

Cheap Seed Is False Economy; You'll Never Be Proud Of Lawn

No matter how much care you give a lawn planted to cheap, "bargain" seed mixtures, you'll never be proud of it.

So says John J. Kupcho, Agricultural Agent in Essex County.

A velvety lawn, fine-textured and long-lasting, comes as a result of planting high quality seed. Cheap mixtures usually contain a high percentage of coarse, temporary type grasses.

Mr. Kupcho is continually urging home owners to read the fine print on the label or tag as the best way to be sure of getting a satisfactory seed mixture.

He advises a mixture that contains at least 75 percent of the permanent fine-textured grasses such as a common Kentucky bluegrass, Merion Kentucky bluegrass and red fescues.

For a sunny lawn, Kentucky bluegrass should predominate in the mixture, and for a shady lawn the red fescue should predominate. Don't use a mixture containing Merion Kentucky for a shady lawn, Mr. Kupcho cautions.

Since it was dedicated in 1965, more than one million visitors have passed through the doors of the State Museum to view works of art, historical artifacts and natural science displays, and to attend planetarium programs, films, concerts, operas, plays and poetry readings.

IT MAY NOT BE A WHISPER

Hearing loss can be very subtle and many people just pass it off. It may be an accumulation of wax in the ears. A physician can do a great deal to correct this problem. If it is just wax he will clean it out and advise you have this done periodically.

For more serious loss he might recommend one of the new effective hearing aids. Each hearing loss is individual and the just right aid must be selected. Don't wait until not hearing becomes embarrassing. Have it checked as soon as it is noticed.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Summer Training For Tom DiBiasi

Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) Cadet Thomas S. DiBiasi, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore DiBiasi of 78 Cedar Hill Avenue, Belleville is attending ROTC Basic Summer Camp from June 13 through July 24 at Fort Benning, Ga.

The six-week encampment is a substitute activity for those cadets who did not take the first two years of college ROTC. The cadet will be trained in the principles of military leadership that he will study further in his last two years of military science.

These principles will be the foundation of his career as an Army officer after he completes his ROTC requirements and is commissioned.

Cadet DiBiasi graduated magna cum laude this year from Rutgers University, Newark, with an AB degree. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Alpha Theta and Tau Delta Phi fraternities and intends to continue his studies at the University of Pennsylvania Law School, Philadelphia, Pa.

John Murphy Finishes Air Basic Training

John Murphy

Airman John F. Murphy Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Murphy of 194 Garden Avenue, Belleville has completed basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex. He has been assigned to Chanute Air Force Base, Ill., for training in the missile maintenance field.

Airman Murphy is a graduate of Belleville Senior High School.

Thomas S. DiBiasi, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore DiBiasi, 78 Cedar Hill Avenue, who has completed the nation's only basic ROTC summer camp, received special recognition from his unit at Fort Benning, Tex.

Conducted for the third consecutive year by the Training Center's second Brigade, the basic summer camp has doubled in size since the 1967 camp.

A member of Company B, 9th Battalion, DiBiasi was awarded a trophy for attaining high score in his platoon during marksmanship qualification with the M14 rifle.

Completion of the six-week camp has qualified DiBiasi for entrance into the advance ROTC program at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.

A 1965 graduate of Belleville High, DiBiasi earned his degree in history from Rutgers University last semester. While a student there, he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Alpha Theta honor societies and Tau Delta Phi fraternity. He also graduated from Rutgers University Magna Cum Laude.

Unique in its concept of providing active-duty training in lieu of two years on-campus study, the basic ROTC camp differs in many aspects from the normal basic training cycle.

Each cadet attending the camp is a volunteer, under no obligation to continue the entire six weeks; therefore, those completing the program are highly-motivated young men.

Covering basically the same course of instruction in two weeks less time, the cadets received greater emphasis on tactics and leadership. Each cadet at some time served in a leadership position, be it squad leader or platoon leader. The graduation ceremonies were conducted entirely by the cadets.

Local Soldier Is Overseas

Sergeant Nicholas A. Valentine Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas A. Valentine Sr. of 77 Ligham St., Belleville, is on duty at Ubon Royal Thai AFB, Thailand.

Sergeant Valentine, a security policeman, is a member of a unit in the Pacific Air Forces.

Before his arrival in Thailand, he was assigned to K.I. Sawyer AFB, Mich.

The sergeant is a 1967 graduate of Belleville High School.

The State Board of Education has 12 members who serve without pay for overlapping terms of six years. The members are appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the state senate. Not more than one member can be appointed from any one county and at least three members must be women.

The Marie H. Katzenbach School for the Deaf is an educational institution under the management of the State Department of Education. It is part of the public school system of the state—a day and boarding school for deaf residents between the ages of 4 and 21. The campus on Sullivan Way in West Trenton covers 116 acres and contains 32 buildings.

OBITUARIES

Nucci, Retired Mason; Member Of Local Clubs

Joseph Nucci of 62 Cedar Hill Avenue, Belleville, died at home, Friday, August 22. He was 81.

Mr. Nucci was born in Italy and came to the U.S. at age 17. He lived in Newark before coming to Belleville in 1923.

He worked as a mason for Reynolds Metal Co., Harrison, before retiring. He was a member of the Belleville Political and Social Club.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Anna Alifano Nucci; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Zeidler and Mrs. Clementine Wehmeyer; and three sons, Alexander, Angelo and Valentino Nucci, all of Belleville, and 11 grandchildren and a great grandchild.

Mrs. Turano, 52; Was Foster Parent

Mrs. Mildred C. Natale Turano of 620 Washington Avenue, Belleville, died after a long illness, Friday, August 22, in Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville. She was 52.

Born in Newark, she moved to Belleville 50 years ago. She was a foster parent for the State of New Jersey Bureau of Children's Services.

She is survived by her husband, Dominic; two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Mary Jo) Wagner of Belleville and Miss Kathleen at home; four brothers, James, Thomas and William Natale of Belleville, and Pat Natale of Newark and two sisters, Mrs. Antoinette Kenworthy and Mrs. Bridget Lewezuk, both of Belleville.

The funeral was Tuesday from the S. W. Brown and Son Home, Nutley, followed by a High Mass of Requiem at St. Mary's Church. Interment was at Immaculate Conception Cemetery, Montclair.

Navy Announces Competition For Reserve Officer Corps

The Navy has announced that the 24th annual national competitive examination for the Regular Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC) will be given December 13, 1969.

The Regular NROTC Program prepares a young man for a Navy or Marine Corps commission while he is studying at one of the many civilian colleges and universities where NROTC Units are established. All tuition, fees, uniforms and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives $50 per month subsistence pay for not more than four years.

Simpson; Scotsman; Telco Man

David H. Simpson of 84 Tiona Avenue, Belleville, died after a short illness, Wednesday, August 20, at Mountside Hospital, Newark. He was 80.

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Mr. Simpson came to the U.S. in 1911. He lived in Belleville 48 years.

Mr. Simpson retired 15 years ago from the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., where he was an installer for 43 years.

He was a member of the Retired Men's Club of Belleville; the Mc Cully Chapter of the Telephone Pioneers of America; the Franklin Masonic Lodge and the Forbes Chapter of the Order of Scottish Clans.

He is survived by a daughter, Miss Katherine E., with whom he lived, and a brother, James R. of Hillside.

Services were Saturday from the Wadsworth Funeral Home, 524 Union Avenue, Belleville. Interment was at Hollywood Memorial Park, Union.

Martin, 68; Operated G.M. Crane

David B. Martin Sr. of 9 Cleveland Street, Belleville, died suddenly, Wednesday, August 20, in Clara Maass Memorial Hospital, Belleville. He was 68.

Mr. Martin was born in Newark and lived in Belleville most of his life. He retired as a crane operator for General Motors Co., Bloomfield, in 1962, after 30 years of service.

He is survived by a son, David B. Jr., a Belleville patrolman; a stepson, Joseph Green in Alabama; seven daughters, Mrs. Martha Forchesto, Mrs. Ann Harper and Mrs. Claire McCrea, all of Belleville, Mrs. Veronica Morrell of Kearny, Mrs. Dorothy Bressman and Mrs. Jean Knott, both of Toms River, and Mrs. Joan Walder of Elwood; 25 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Services were Saturday from the Wadsworth Funeral Home, Belleville. Interment was at East Ridgeland Cemetery, Clifton.

Peter Kiernan; Mac hinist, 66; Dies At Home

Peter T. Kiernan of 493 Joralemon Street, Belleville, died suddenly, Thursday, August 21, at home. He was 66.

Mr. Kiernan was a lifelong resident of Belleville. He was a machine operator for Westinghouse before his retirement.

He is survived by his wife, Florence Drew Kiernan; two daughters, Mrs. Patricia Wilson of Cedar Grove and Miss Doris Kiernan of Belleville; one son, Peter T. Kiernan of Belleville; a brother, Thomas F. Kiernan of Belleville, a sister, Mrs. Charles J. Chadwick, also of Belleville, and two grandchildren.

Services were Monday, August 25, from the Kiernan Funeral Home, 101 Union Avenue, Belleville, followed by a High Mass of Requiem at St. Peter's Church. Interment was at Immaculate Conception Cemetery, Montclair.

This is a brand new program for women of all ages and levels of experience who can type accurately 35 words per minute.

The new Medicaid Division of Blue Cross in suburban Bloomfield needs typist of every size, shape, age, inclination and level of experience to fill lots and lots of openings right now. If you can type 35 words per minute but have never had any work experience, it doesn't make any difference. You'll go right into a special training program that will make you a specialized typist fast... no matter what your previous experience, education or interest. And you start earning a good salary and outstanding company paid employee benefits such as

Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Major Medical, Life Insurance,
Pension Plan; 14 paid holidays, and 35-year work week.
Remember, you'll be working on a fast-growing new program where promotion opportunities are great. You'll be working with pleasant people in a modern building that's easy to get to by bus or car in the Bloomfield area.

Miss Rahn will be interviewing daily at the Bloomfield Savings Bank, 11 Broad Street, Bloomfield (2nd floor front) between 9 a.m. and noon, and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.
