

East Orange Streak Ended By Bellboys

Stubborn Defense Big Factor

"We're number one. We're number one."

They were shouting it now, hugging each other as they raised their single fingers skyward with pride. We're number one.

Just minutes earlier, the Panthers had marched defiantly down to the Bellboy nine, carrying with them their pride and their undefeated streak of 20 wins and two ties. They were one touchdown behind with a little over a minute to play. Four plays later the heralded powerhouse from East Orange was dead on the six yard line, their hopes for yet another undefeated season and an unprecedented third straight state championship smothered by a football team which refused to believe they were underdogs.

For two and a half tough hours, the Bellboys had gone up against the Panthers on the Martens Stadium soil to prove that East Orange supremacy was a myth. In the end, the Panthers marched off to their clubhouse, bathed in the sweat and dirt of a loser. The score: 13-6.

What Belleville had done was to smother the Panther offense with one of the toughest defense the Bellboys have displayed in years. Calling the plays from the sidelines, Coach John Amabile had engineered the sweetest victory of his 10 years in coaching.

Joe Ritacco. Roy Newman. Ricky Caruso. Doug Brown. Vinnie Constantino. They all had played the game of their lives and now when the Star Ledger released its Essex County ratings, Belleville was ranked number two.

"It's hard to put into words how I feel," said Amabile. "It's got to be the greatest victory I've ever had."

The statistics show that it was also one of the hardest fought battles he had ever won. Both the Bellboys and the Panthers had amassed eight first downs. East Orange had outgained the Bellboys on the ground, 119 yards to 98. Most of the Panther running yardage, however, was picked up on broken plays, in which the sparkling runs of quarterback Leon Griffin had the Bellboys heads spinning.

Doug Brown, the Bellboy's bruising fullback, figured in all the scoring for the winners. In the opening quarter, Brown, a junior, unveiled Coach Amabile's pet play, the halfback option. Faking an end sweep, Brown fired a perfect strike to end Vinnie Constantino, who raced 41 yards into the end zone untouched. In the last quarter, Brown plunged through the tough Panther line for a three yard touchdown.

Wyatt McCraw tallied the only score for East Orange on an eight yard dash in the third period, which left the

New Name Set For Hospital In Belleville

The Essex County Hospital at Belleville long known to the public by myriad of names including Soho, the Isolation Hospital, the Communicable Disease Hospital and Belleville Hospital has now received a new name which the Board of Freeholders hopes will be its lasting popular name. By resolution of the Board of Freeholders the Belleville institution now bears the official designation of "The Essex County Geriatrics Center".

At the present time the institution has 252 aged patients and by next year with renovations the population of the hospital will rise to 300.

BUT...

Angry Fans Stone Buses In Revenge

20 Youths Injured From Riot

By Nat Gottlieb

"If this starts in Belleville I want somebody arrested and their backs broken."

Mayor Ken Smith, his fists clenched, leaned forward in his chair as he spoke these words. Riot aftermath. The Mayor was reacting. They were his words and he meant them. They would be printed in newspapers and people would sit back and say now look what's happening in Belleville.

But there would be some who would look beyond Belleville, beyond the all too familiar words by the angry mayor. Their vision would stretch from coast to coast, from one front page riot to another, and nowhere would anything be different. Riot, reaction, counter thrust. And the questions that elude answer.

What had caused 250 East Orange youths to rock buses, tear out windows and shatter glass with 30 pound boulders and bricks? Who was responsible for sending 20 Belleville kids to the hospital with assorted cuts and bruises, their nerves twisted, their belief in police splintered like the glass that sprayed over their heads as they crouched terror stricken on a bus floor, crying for decency.

Was the answer to be found in the facts? Look then. Belleville's high school football team had upset the East Orange Panthers, a proud squad that had recorded 22 straight unbeaten games on the way to two consecutive state championships. Afterwards, East Orange fans stopped

Board Head Gives Praise To The Victims

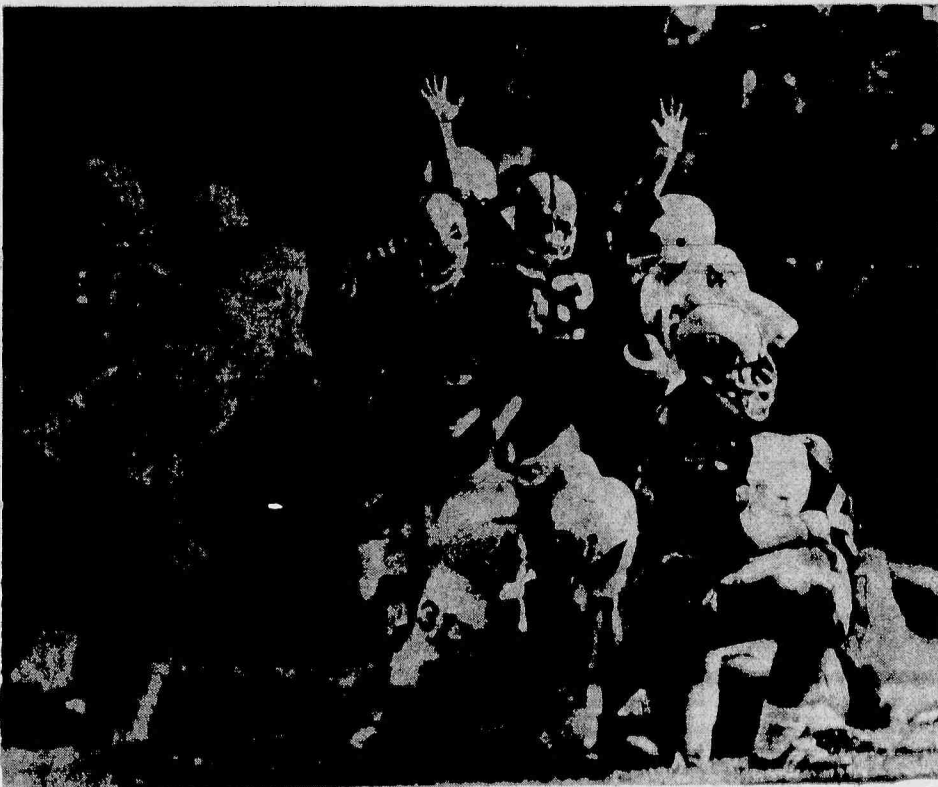

Board of Education president Dr. Frank Di Ruggiero returned to his practice Monday after having gone through one of Belleville's worst hours this past weekend. Learning of the stoning of school busses after Belleville's stunning upset victory over East Orange's heralded football team, the Board president quickly called an emergency meeting of that body Saturday night. Dr. Di Ruggiero, who personally picked up Board members to make sure they got to the meeting, had this statement to make in the wake of the incident:

"I want to praise the students and teachers on the bus for remaining clam throughout the disorder. The teachers did an excellent job or protecting the students under the circumstances. I also want to extend my deepest appreciation to the members of the Board for attending the emergency meeting, and to the administrative staff and teachers who were also present."

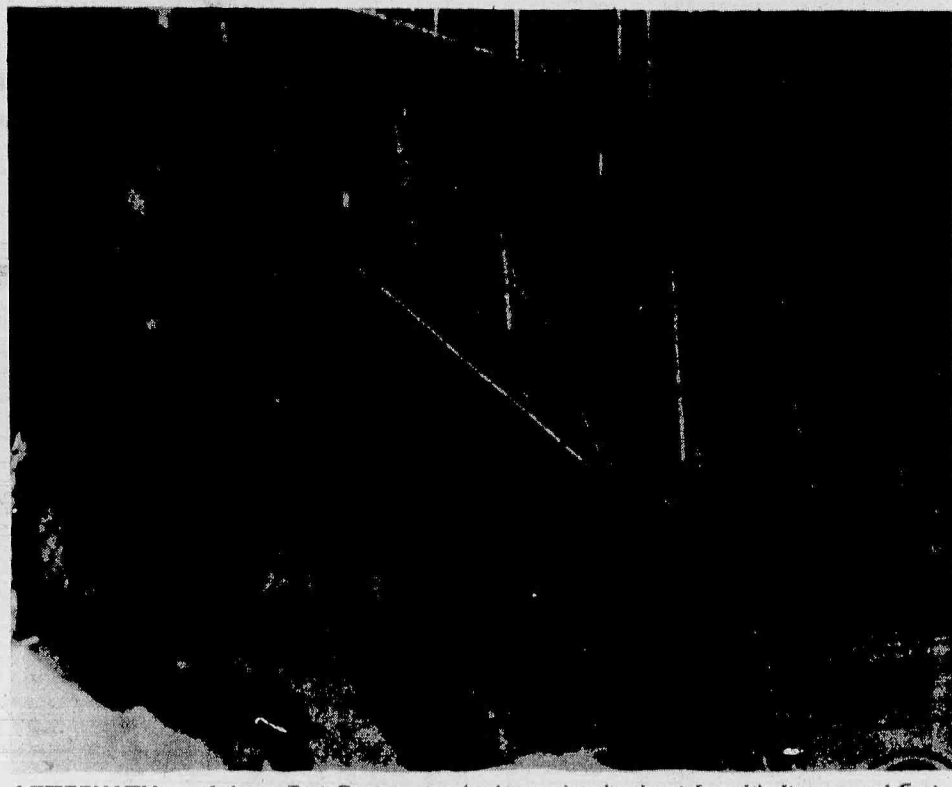

"Special thanks must be extended to Board members Leonard Back and Joseph Casale who accompanied me to the hospital to help injured children."

"To the parents of Belleville, I want to say that the Board of Education will keep on taking preventive measures for the safety of your children whether they are home or away."

"Letters have been delivered to Mayor Kelly of East Orange; to the president of their board of education, Mrs. Mildred Bary, and to the superintendent of schools, Russel Jackson, demanding an investigation into the matter because the people of Belleville want to know why the incident occurred and why there wasn't proper police investigation as stipulated under Big Ten Conference rules."

VICTORY: — The Bellboys pulled off a stunning upset Saturday when the downed East Orange, 13-6, ending a 22-game victory string for the powerful panthers. Here fullback Doug Brown gets up with the ball after bulling his way for what proved to be the winning touchdown.

AFTERMATH: — A lone East Orange cop looks anxiously about for aid after several East Orange youths smashed and pulled out the window of the Bellboy football team's bus. The incident, which happened on stadium grounds, proved to be a warning of things to come, as 250 youths stopped Belleville buses a few blocks away and hurled bricks and boulders through bus windows, injuring 20 children.

Student's Tale

'Worst Part Was The Terror'

Wanda Springer, a student at Belleville High wrote this account of the East Orange riots.

On September 27, 1969 the glory of beating the number one football team excited and overwhelmed everyone. No one could believe that Belleville had beaten that undefeatable East Orange team; however, our happiness lasted for a short time.

The football players, band, color guard, twirlers, and booster club buses' were bombarded with rocks, bricks and clubs. Students were bodily mired while getting on the buses. After they were on them, rocks and bricks were thrown through the bus windows injuring numberless students with glass cuts, possible concussions, possible blindness, and other injuries.

The worst part of it all was the terror of the huddled students on the bus floors, covering their eyes and heads. Girls were crying, and many were on the verge of hysteria. Fears of worry, fear, and anger were in everyone's eyes. When the buses finally got out of East Orange, lucky to have any windows left at all, one stopped at Clara Maass to run the emergency cases. As I sat there, friend after friend came in bleeding, crying, needing stitches, X-rays, first aid, and immediate attention.

The result of the "attack" is this; East

Orange was State Championship last year. They won all of their games and were proud of it. This game they lost and could not face the fact that they had lost. Is this sportsmanship? Isn't there more to a football game than just winning? The answer to this question is evident. Belleville not only won the game, but also won a fight that we did not even retaliate on, with the exception of the defense of our own safety. Good sportsmanship means to win well and lose well which, apparently, East Orange cannot do. The rebel rousers who were responsible for the trouble reflect the attitude of a bad losing spirit.

Why were six buses and several automobiles attacked and no arrests made when the police were on the scene? How many victims of assault can be overlooked before something is done? The following days' body aches and bruises that occurred to emotionally upset students should be considered as injuries. An emotional strain such as that remains with a person for a long time. Aren't the mental injuries as important as the physical ones?

Belleville's next step should not be to make plans to revenge East Orange. Belleville has succeeded in winning a very important battle. Legal steps should be taken to avenge the property and body damage done by East Orange.

Stoning Victim

Eye-Witness To A Tragedy

Patty Tortorello, a sophomore at Belleville High, was on board one of the chartered buses that were brutally stoned Saturday after the Bellboys upset East Orange's powerful football team. The following is her eye witness account of the incident. She describes the terror felt by all the kids who found themselves the victims of a savage, unprovoked attack.

As the game ended we started towards the gate to get onto our buses. All at once a herd of East Orange kids came charging through the gate. At first we thought it was just that people wanted to get home. And then they jumped on one of our players. All I could remember were screams. Then I grabbed onto the first guy I knew. I was in a complete state of fright.

Before getting onto the bus, we were punched and shoved by girls from East Orange who wanted us to fight. One group of them were yelling at the top of their lungs, "Come on you Belleville girls, can't you fight or are you just plain chicken."

After that screams started again and everybody from Belleville was being pulled on the buses. It was a total hassle. Everybody started getting paranoid. Before pulling out, pebbles were hitting against the windows. Then the next thing that happened was that on one side of the bus, kids started pulling out the windows.

Miss Fuccello, our advisor, had to fight her way to the bus. After being pulled onto the bus, we were all ordered to get on the floor. People began crying and screaming. We moved a few feet but it didn't do much good because cars darted in front of us blocking us in. A sea of faces with a totally delighted look on them began throwing bricks through the windows.

"Oh God why can't we leave" was the plea I heard coming from the floors. Glass was flying all over the place. The bus driver yelled "pick up the seats, put them over your heads and over the windows."

I picked up a seat and my girl friend Ellen and I held it up over our heads to block the window. We felt as though the Newark riots had started all over again. It seemed like an eternity from the time they started bombing us until we were able to get out of East Orange. Even after we started moving, crowds followed us and continued the brick throwing.

When we entered Belleville, slowly, one by one, each of us helped the other off of the floor, brushing off the shattered glass. It was all so gory. A good majority of the girls were cut up. The only boy on the bus, Dexter, had his fingers broken when he tried to get the crowds away from our door. He kept trying to relax us during the whole thing.

Every window was totally smashed, but our spirits stayed high once we were sure of two things: we made it and we had beaten East Orange.

No Answer Mayor Threatens To Close Route 21 Says Smith If State Doesn't Improve Safety Devices

Mayor Ken Smith, after a week of silence, has issued a terse statement concerning charges made against him by Board of Education member Rocco Saletta.

From his Town Hall office, the Mayor said, "For me to comment on the remarks of Mr. Saletta would only serve to dignify his words and put an elected public official on the level that Mr. Saletta so enjoys. Suffice it to say, the people have read both articles. Let them make their decision."

Saletta's remarks last week came after a renewed clash between Mayor Smith and Schools Superintendent Anthony Greco, in which the Mayor told the Times that Greco had made "falacious press statements." The Mayor and the Schools Superintendent have frequently been at odds with each other ever since the Commission made a $205,777 cut in the Board's current school budget.

The most recent clash between the Mayor and the Superintendent began three weeks ago when Greco made statements to the Times about alleged budget second serious accident on that roadway in the last month.

Last Thursday, a car went out of control and hurdled a guard rail, rolling down into the Passaic River. The passenger was not seriously injured.

Three weeks ago, a Passaic woman demolished her vehicle when she smashed into a "poorly lit" abutment at the Rutgers Street exit. She was hospitalized in critical condition.

"Either they clear it up or we'll close it," said the Mayor, referring to the highway. The Mayor blamed poor lighting and the lack of safety devices for recent accidents.

NEAR TRAGEDY — A towing truck pulls a vehicle out of the Passaic River after it had hurdled the guard railing on Route 21 and plunged down the embankment. Dirt in front of the railing had piled so high that a mound was formed which propelled the car over the safety railing. This accident has prompted Mayor Ken Smith to threaten to shut down the highway unless the state provides "proper safety devices."

Bad Water Hits Town Third Time

For the third time in a month, dirty water has come pouring out of Belleville faucets. The Newark Water Authority, which denied blame for the first two incidents, admitted to Belleville Commissioner Mary Senatore that they were at fault.

Making a routine check of water mains Tuesday morning, Public Works employees discovered a large amount of sediment flowing in from Newark, where Belleville gets its water under a ten year contract. Within a few hours, over a hundred phone calls flooded Public Works Commissioner Senatore's office.

"I think the people of Belleville should call up Newark and give their complaints to the Water Authority," said the Commissioner.

Jimmy Saldo, administrative clerk for the Department of Public Works, as far back as a month ago had cited repair work on a water main in Newark as the cause of an influx of dirty water into the town. Water authorities at the time denied Saldo's accusation.

HEAVY ARTILLERY — Board of Education president Dr. Frank DiRuggiero inspects some of the bricks and rocks that were thrown at students in Saturday's riot at East Orange. The boulder on the right, with jagged edges, weighs about 30 pounds.

Commissioner William Cullen in far background; Commissioner Vincent T. Strumolo; high school athletic director Herman Wische; Board of Education president Dr. Frank DiRuggiero; Commissioner Mary Senatore, and Deputy Police Chief Joseph Smith.

Angry East Orange Fans Stone Buses After Bellboy Gridders Upset Panthers

Belleville chartered buses outside of the Stadium, heavily laden with bricks and rocks, and began a savage attack on windows and youngsters with an apparent disregard for human safety. It was only after an "inadequate" East Orange police detail assigned to the game had called for reinforcements that the buses were able to free themselves from the riot zone and speed off to hospitals with the bleeding, injured children.

These then are the facts. And the causes? Some observers, notably Belleville leaders who preferred to remain unidentified, speculated that anti-white sentiment had touched off the unprovoked attack. East Orange is a predominately black school, while Belleville is just the opposite. Several local youngsters reported that East Orange youths had hurled anti-white epitaphs at them. The East Orange cheering section had repeatedly chanted: "E.O. Black Supremacy," in the place of the more common cheering slogans. Several observers said rocks and bricks had been hidden in various locations in an apparently premeditated situation. But more probably the riot was an outbreak of our violent times, a period when vicious expression of feeling is not unusual. The team had lost. The East Orange fans, who had clasped hands and swayed joyfully in the stands during 22 straight victorious contests, were emotionally spent. East Orange had rioted. Reaction was swift. Stories of astounding proportions spread like wildfire. And then the counterthrust. The Belleville Board of Education called a special meeting the night of the outbreak. Similar meetings followed in East Orange.

Monday night the expected happened in Belleville's Town Hall. A meeting of top town leaders was called. Attending was the Mayor, Commissioners Mary Senatore, William Cullen and Vinnie Strumolo; Board of Education president Dr. Frank DiRuggiero; high school athletic director Herman Wische; town attorney Nicholas R. Amato, and deputy police chiefs Harry Tepe and Joseph Smith. The answer these men provided was to the point. There was no way around the situation; the children rightfully had to be protected. Mayor Smith, after conferring with the Police Department issued a promise for police escorts for buses to all away games, including two patrol cars, four patrolman, and auxiliary police to ride the buses.

"I'm going to give you more cops. I don't know where I'm going to get them, but you'll have them."

The Mayor and the deputy chiefs conferred and decided to rearrange the duty shifts of patrolmen, paying some overtime where necessary.

Few observers will find fault with the Mayor's action. More police. Violence meeting with more violence. What else is to be expected? It is enough that Belleville has cancelled all athletic events with East Orange pending an investigation? Is it enough that East Orange's Mayor James Kelly and Schools Superintendent Russell Jackson have promised better protection measures for visiting teams? Is Nutley's cancellation of its football game Saturday the real answer?

Dr. DiRuggiero, his face weary from lack of sleep, issued what perhaps was a call for sanity at the Monday meeting.

"If we have to go out under guard to play a contest, we might as well cancel sports," the Board president said.

Belleville then has inadvertently fallen into step with our times, perhaps unavoidably so. But where are we marching to?

Mayor Takes Narcotics Committee Off The Shelf

Mayor Ken Smith has removed the Belleville Narcotics Committee from the storage shelf and says the group will spring into action in the community this fall. In making his announcement, the Mayor said recent narcotics developments in Newark and New York have demanded, increased drug control in Belleville.

"Because of the pressure being put on Belleville by the cities of Newark and New York, who have started drives against narcotics, I have decided to activate the Narcotics Committee which I formed last year," the Mayor said.

The Mayor explained that strict control in the two cities was driving drug addicts to seek "other areas to live and support their habit."

The primary thrust of the Narcotics Committee will be to educate parents and children on the dangers of drug abuse. Special meetings with parents and school personal are being planned by the Mayor to meet the potential crisis.

In making his announcement, the Mayor brushed aside the feeling in certain quarters of town that Belleville had a drug problem. "Belleville has been very fortunate to this point," Smith said. "We know our addicts and are able to control them. We are fearful, however, that the city drives against narcotics might bring new users and pushers into our town."

The Committee, which will be headed by Francis X. Morgan, will have 10 members: Detective Sgt. Hank Olivieri; Detective Ron Thompson; Rudolph P. Zoeller; Reverend James F. Heavey; Schools Superintendent Anthony Greco; James A. McCabe; Thomas Apicella; Palmer D. Burde and Estelle Bayard. Morgan has been active on previous town narcotics committees.

Sgt. Olivieri is in charge of the Police Department's narcotics bureau and has attended numerous schools offering insight into drug abuse. He has recently returned from Sea Girt State Police School where he attended a seminar on narcotics. Detective Thompson has also been schooled on the problem.

The primary purpose of the Committee's educational drive will be aimed at teaching symptoms of drug use to parents.

"Children using narcotics can be readily recognized if parents are familiar with the signs," Smith said. "Our purpose is also to acquaint the parents with the problem a police department our size has in watching 8,000 juveniles of school age."

Smith placed the blame for the problem on parents and the lack of sufficient education in narcotics abuse. "Narcotics is definitely a matter of education of parents more than children. Children of 12-14 can not be expected to know of the damage the drugs they are using can cause."

Particularly at fault for drug addiction, the Mayor added, were parents who know of their child's narcotic problem but choose to ignore it. The Mayor said that "when kids are going through the withdrawal symptoms of drug use and can't supply their need, parents at this time are apt to help him supply these needs with funds. This is the time parents should notify police and turn in the pushers. If someone shot their son or daughter, the parents would be fast to divulge the guilty party's name. Well drugs are the same thing in a sense, because they destroy a child."

The Mayor said his statements should be taken by addicts and pushers as a warning to stay out of Belleville. Smith said both the police and the town judge, Edward Abromson, have promised to help control the problem in town.

Smith also announced that the Essex County Police Chiefs Association has said it will provide funds for narcotics education and control. Word of the association's announcement came from acting Police Chief Harry Tepe, who recently attended a meeting with the association at the Turtle Brook Inn in West Orange.

If You Live In A Glass House...

The disruption in East Orange Saturday following the high school football game with Belleville could serve to teach neighboring communities a lesson. And before anyone places the blame for Saturday's incident upon East Orange, it would be wise to look first in our own back yard.

The Belleville - East Orange football game Saturday was a good one. Everyone at the game says the members of the opposing teams demonstrated excellent sportsmanship. Fans in the stands were well behaved too. The trouble came after the Belleville team and spectator buses departed the stadium area and were surrounded by youngsters, mostly between the ages of 10 and 14 years of age.

Of course it's easy to point the finger at the authorities in East Orange for failing to provide adequate protection for the visiting football team. Most schools in this area, including Nutley and Belleville, schedule police patrols to escort visiting football teams out of town - and speedily so, especially after an emotional loss to a rival club.

The safety and behavior of youngsters today at times is the prime responsibility of the school system, but there is also a parental and a community responsibility. And when we suggest looking in our own back yard before bitterly blaming anyone for what happened last Saturday, we mean just that. The conduct of Nutley fans - or perhaps a more appropriate word would be Nutley punks - caused so much agitation after the recent Alumni game in Lyndhurst that the sponsoring organizations have considered dropping the annual event held to raise funds for charity.

As regrettable as it would be to permit a few punk kids to force the cancellation of the Alumni game, so would it be for a few punk kids in East Orange to force the cancellation of that community's high school athletic schedule.

East Orange High School not only has produced some of New Jersey's greatest athletic teams, but also some of New Jersey's greatest sportsmen. How regrettable it really is that the fine sportsmanship which prevailed on the East Orange football field Saturday can be marred so easily by hostile actions of so few.

Several investigations are now underway into the East Orange incident. Wisely, this Saturday's game at East Orange with Nutley High was postponed until the weekend before Thanksgiving. In the meantime, East Orange - both as a high school and as a community, must challenge itself to become better than anyone else. The community must make a supreme effort toward being a better host.

Otherwise, no one will ever want to go to East Orange again even to see the state's top rated football team. It's as simple as that. P.R.W.

Present Draft Laws Are Under Scrutiny

by John J. Bunevich

Question: Are you in accord with the present draft laws or do you think there should be a general lottery? Or no draft at all? Asked: of Belleville and Nutley residents.

Mr. Joseph Jackson, 215 Little Street, Belleville

I'm neutral about it. I think they recently revised the draft laws anyway. They cut back on the monthly total of young men that were being inducted. My son just came back from Vietnam and he was drafted. He was wounded twice but he's alright now. My other son, they are twins, is in the Air Force. He's coming out next year. I don't agree with the government drafting boys to go over to Vietnam and fight. The war is senseless. I was in World War II but that was different. It's senseless killing over there and many American lives are lost for nothing.

Mr. Al Hacker, Marion, Ohio visiting relatives Mrs. Betty Hacker of Crescent Terrace, Belleville.

From what I've heard, most people think there should be a lottery. I'm not worried about it at all anyway. I'm too old to be drafted. I was too young for World War I and too old for World War II. I think there should be an unbiased lottery. I had one son in the service. He enlisted in the Navy.

Jim Rusignuolo, 35 Manhattan Court, Nutley

I think Nixon is trying to pull the wool over everyone's eyes with the draft. Last year about this time there was a reduction in the amount of men being called but now there are three times that many inducted. Put it all together and you'll find that there are an awful lot of draftees. I'm going for my physical this week. I just graduated from Seton Hall and I don't want to go into the Army. I think it would be much better if there were no draft at all and the Army should be made up of just volunteers. There would be a lot less dissension if this were done.

Ken Johnson, 140 Chestnut Street, Nutley

I think the draft is fine just the way it is now. It has its benefits in the number of men being inducted into the Army now. I don't think the amount is unreasonable. There have been reductions in the number of draftees lately and I'm glad to see this. I don't mind being called into the Army in a couple of years. I'm sixteen now and the time will come when it's my turn to go. I'll most likely enlist before I get inducted. I don't think a lottery system would be as fair as the present draft laws.

Board Apologizes For The Stoning

To The Editor,

The East Orange Board of Education must genuinely apologize to all the citizens of Belleville, especially to the students of Belleville High School and their parents and to the staff and administration of Belleville High School, for the serious and most unfortunate occurrence which followed the East Orange Belleville football game on Saturday, September 27, at Martens Stadium in East Orange.

The East Orange Board of Education does not nor cannot condone the kind of irresponsible behavior displayed by some East Orange spectators. The East Orange Board of Education, moreover, recognizes its responsibility in guaranteeing the safety of all spectators attending athletic contests, especially the safety of visiting teams, students, and other guests.

The East Orange Board of Education, therefore, assures the citizens of Belleville that it is taking appropriate precautionary measures to prevent the recurrence of such an incident and to insure the safety and well being of all visitors to future athletic contests held in the City of East Orange.

Once again, the East Orange Board of Education and staff offers its deepest apologies.

Sincerely yours,
Russell A. Jackson, Jr.,
Superintendent of Schools and
The East Orange Board of Education

East Orange Group Deplores Student Riot

To The Editor,

We, the members of the Combined Citizens Groups for Quality Education, The Clergy, parents, citizens, and East Orange High School students collectively deplore the behavior of some of our children at the Belleville-East Orange football game on Saturday, September 27, 1969.

We are committed to supporting the Superintendent of Schools in supplying our young people with quality education, and feel that every parent has an obligation to instill in their youngsters self pride, and respect for the rights of others.

Behavior like that of last Saturday is a disgrace to you as parents and to the city of East Orange as a whole.

It should be made crystal clear to your children that the adult population of East Orange will not tolerate a repeat of Saturday's performance and will support the school administration if they chose to expel disruptive students. We further, support our police department if they arrest any persons who disrupt our athletic events.

A lesson should have been learned by the unfortunate conduct of our young people on Saturday. The time is NOW, for you, the parents, to assume the leadership role in our community.

Yours very truly,
(Mrs.) Vivian B. Makle
Acting Chairman
East Orange Citizens Groups for Quality Education.

So Many Beauty Contests

Physical beauty is not unimportant and it is to be admired and encouraged. However, overemphasis tends to become unrealistic; what we should admire and encourage in our young girls is a good attitude toward studies, life and home making, dependability, good habits, appropriate modesty and sincerity.

Unfortunately, American girls have the reputation all over the world of being (too often) spoiled or domineering while being unable to competently run a home. Overemphasis on physical beauty and neglect of more realistic values and training is one of the causes.

There are more beauty contests in the United States, per thousand or hundred thousand population, than any other country in the world. And the trend has spread to many other countries in the past twenty years.

We have the Miss America, the Miss World, the Miss Universe, Miss U.S.A., the Mrs. America and the Miss just about everything else. Along with the emphasis placed on the female figure by Hollywood and the television industry, it all amounts to over-emphasis on physical beauty.

America's Favorite Sport

It is claimed, on this basis, that stock car racing is the second sport in the country. It's true that it draws large crowds - the danger, the chance of injury or death, being a factor. But far more people follow baseball, including millions of business men who often fail to see a Major League game all year.

Basketball long attracted a greater number of spectators than baseball, for example, just as car racing does today, but that doesn't mean more people follow basketball; sports editors in many of the nation's smaller cities often miss this point.

A Philadelphia polling service recently questioned Americans on their favorite sport. Baseball ranked at the top of the list. The Associated Press last year conducted a somewhat similar survey. It was found that more questioned followed baseball than any other sport.

What misleads so many young sports writers today, concerning the popularity of various sports, is the spectator count. Many have accepted the notion that the sport attracting the greatest number of spectators is the most popular sport.

Forget It Says Smith To Saletta

problems and school overcrowding. Mayor Smith took exception to the remarks and produced a set of figures from the current budget to counter figures released by Greco.

Saletta, obviously angry at the Mayor's statements, delayed the start of the last Board meeting to issue a tirade against the town leader, in which he called the Mayor a "white knight" who sits down at Town Hall" and passes judgements on us when he knows nothing of the situation here." Saletta said the Mayor was not aware of the situation in the schools system, and wouldn't "know a fact if he sat on it."

But what stands out perhaps more than the comments between the Mayor and Saletta, is the silence of Greco, who has apparently refused to be moved by the Mayor's attack. Greco's only statement was that he would not comment on the Mayor's remarks because he didn't want to "drag the schools system across the front page of the newspapers."

Mayor Smith Sees Belleville Canada Style

A resolution of congratulations was delivered this week to the people of Belleville, Ontario, by Mayor Ken Smith who was one of numerous mayors from Bellevilles across the United States to pay a visit to the Canadian town on its huge week of self promotion.

The Mayor, accompanied unofficially by Town Attorney Nicholas R. Amato, made the 400 mile trip Monday by jet with a resolution from the Commission congratulating the town on its recent growth. The theme for the week was "Tomorrow is Here." Smith and Amato returned home yesterday.

All expenses for Mayor Smith were paid for by the Canadian town.

New Master Charge Plan Is Successful

"By my estimates, area merchants are joining up with Master Charge at a rate of at least 25 a day," states Richard S. Ashley, vice president of Fidelity Union Trust Company. "We have a signed-up list totalling several hundred, less than four weeks after we launched the bank credit card system in this city."

Ashley, who heads consumer credit activities at Fidelity, predicts the number of area merchants participating will top 1,000 before the end of the summer. Since Fidelity led the way, other area banks have also decided to offer Master Charge, he said, and this helps to encourage participation by merchants who don't want the credit cardholder to pass them by.

"It is very definitely to the benefit of the consumer to have general acceptance," Ashley said. "And, as the cardholders begin to circulate in the business community, we know even more merchants and services will come in. We feel that the Master Charge picture, far from being a competitive situation, is one in which broad participation works to the advantage of all participants."

Fidelity announced its Master Charge Plan on July 1. Thousands of Fidelity customers will soon be cardholders.

Lions Commence 44th Year Of Dedication to Community

The Belleville Lions Club has begun its 44th year of service to the community. At the organization meeting on September 4 at the Fountain Restaurant, President Henry Lewis reviewed the activities of Lions International, N.J. District 16E and the Belleville club during the previous year. Lewis is a past district governor.

At the international level the organization promotes worldwide peace and understanding through its work with the United Nations, scheduling of international conferences, affiliation with CARE and sponsoring of exchange youth fellowships.

At the district level, the emphasis is on helping the blind by supporting Diamond Springs Lodge, Camp Marcella, Camp Happiness, Glaucoma Clinic and Mount Carmel Guild for the Blind. These are special facilities for treating and training the blind and for providing rest and relaxation away from home. Also the district has donated a covered swimming pool and television receivers to the Jamesburg Home for Boys to provide much needed recreation facilities.

Individual Lions give guidance to the boys when they are released to improve their chance of becoming responsible citizens again.

At the local level, the Belleville club is well known for providing scholarships for the Clara Maass School of Nursing and for operating Camp Ro-Li cooperatively with the Belleville Rotary Club. The Lions Club sponsors Little League

Sabre Cadets Return Home From Trip

The Sabre Cadets Drum and Bell Corps of American Legion Post 105 have returned from Wildwood after an exciting and interesting week-end at the American Legion Department of New Jersey convention where a good time was had by all.

On September 6, the Corps participated in the parade and did a terrific job, and even though they didn't win any trophies, we are all proud of the wonderful job they did.

Too much is being said about the trouble our younger generation is getting into. Speaking for the Chaperones of the Corps, this is a group of children any adult can be proud of. While on recreation, whether it was swimming or on the Board walk, not one child had to be yelled at or a harsh word spoken to any of them. God Bless them all.

The Corps participated in the Feast of San Gennaro in New York on September 13, and are looking forward to many more parades and exhibitions in the future. Letters have been sent out to the surrounding communities in hopes of getting some more parades. If any of the readers know of any parades or exhibitions or should hear of any, please contact the Director of the Corps, Ray Kinsley.

The Corps can be seen practicing at the Boy's gym of the Junior High on Washington Avenue, any Monday or Thursday night between 7 and 9 pm.

Congressman Favors Laws To Curb Filth

Congressman William T. Cahill (R-N.J.), in remarks delivered on the floor of the House of Representatives, called for early enactment into law of the President's proposals on obscenity legislation, sent to the Congress.

Cahill described the first title of the President's proposed legislation as "substantially identical to the bill which I introduced last January, designed to prohibit the mailing of obscene matter to households with minor children."

He said that as of the date of the President's message more than a hundred other representatives and twenty senators had introduced bills identical or substantially similar to his own.

"It has always been a matter of great concern to me," Cahill stated, "that certain individuals have been permitted, through the laxness of our laws, to flood our homes and mailboxes and our bookstores with what can only be described as utterly worthless filth, with absolutely no redeeming social value."

"While we should not stifle true creative thinking, or free expression of ideas," Cahill said, "neither should we permit these peddlers of perversion to pollute our society with their trash. We have a legitimate interest, in particular, in protecting the morals of our impressionable youth, and in keeping from our door unsolicited salacious advertising materials."

"It is true that some steps have been taken," Cahill continued. "But, much more can and must be done. And we can start now by enacting the President's proposals into law."

Harriers Fall In Two Races; Help In Sight?

In their first week of dual meets, the cross-country team of Belleville High has been beaten by both Orange and Columbia High Schools.

Against Orange High School, Belleville lost 22-35. Red Forrest ran a 12:30 and took a first place on Belleville's home course. Red got a lead in the first half mile and kept it for the rest of the race, finishing one minute and 22 seconds ahead of the next place runner.

Belleville's second place runner, John McCarthy, finished fifth in the race with 14:18, twelve and a half seconds ahead of Orange's Raymond Reese, who was sixth.

John Deighan was Belleville's third runner and finished eighth, with a time of 14:46. The fourth Belleville runner was Ray Horman, whose 14:41 earned him tenth place. Lou Dalcero was right behind Horman with a 14:56 for 11th place. Belleville's other three runners were Dave McMullen, Rich Sulenski and Bob Drake who finished 17, 24, and 28 respectively.

Against Columbia, Belleville didn't fare as well, they were beaten 20-43. In a cross-country race, the place's of the first five runners are totaled and the lower score wins. In this race, Belleville got only one runner in the top ten, and was awarded the score at 7-6 until Brown's TD.

The game balls went to Joe Ritacco, honorary game captain, and Roy Newman who made 10 unassisted tackles. Frank Fury stood out at the linebacker position with nine unassisted tackles to his credit.

Ricky Caruso, fleet halfback, carried the ball 14 times for 68 yards; high for both teams. Brown had two punt returns for 37 yards to add to his 39 yards rushing. His total offense for the day hit 117 yards.

Vinnie Constantino kept the Panthers out of scoring range with five punts for 186 yards, a good 37 yard average. Bob Carbone returned three kickoffs for 47 yards and kicked one extra point.

Perhaps the key play of the game was Joe Taibi's interception which set up the final touchdown for the Bellboys.

The victory was not without problems for Amabile. Vinnie Cappelletta became the third Bellboy wingback to be lost to injury. He is out with a cracked rib, joining Steve Banda with a broken collarbone and Lonnie Bunch with a pulled muscle. Defensive guard Rich Corbo sprained an ankle but Amabile says he will be able to play Saturday against Bloomfield.

This week, Amabile says he will concentrate on making the Bellboy offense more "consistent in preparation for Bloomfield, which lost its opener to tough Seton Hall.

College Information Night Set For Wednesday

The annual College Information Night presented by the Guidance Department of Belleville High School will be held on Wednesday, in the auditorium at 7:30 for the parents of juniors and seniors.

At the program information will be available about college admission, financial assistance, how to choose a college, and specific material about two year colleges, four year colleges, state colleges and engineering schools. Representatives of colleges will speak and also answer questions after the meeting, as will the members of the Guidance Department.

Junior and senior students accompanied by parents are welcome. Free material will be offered to the parents and students who are present for the program. The New Jersey State Scholarship and Incentive Grant applications will be available for parents interested.

Football Films Each Tuesday

Films of Belleville High School's football games will be shown every Tuesday night at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium, it was announced by head football coach John Amabile.

"Win lose or dra, we'll be showing the films of Saturday's games," said Amabile. The coach said he is initiating this program to stimulate parent interest in local football.

Flyers have been sent to Belleville residents informing them of the innovation.

Films of Belleville's stunning upset victory over powerful East Orange were shown this past Tuesday to a packed house.

Home Games Set To Start At 1:30

The Bellboys will play all home games this year at 1:30 p.m. at Municipal Stadium, it has been announced by high school athletic director Herman Wische.

Sports Corner

By John McCarthy

Belleville's varsity cross-country team has dropped its first two meets to Orange High School and Columbia High. The team has over fifty percent of its runners back, 4/7 to be exact, but that's not saying much since there were only seven runners on last year's team.

This year the team is larger, it has eight runners, but that's only large for Belleville. Orange H' S, Belleville's first conqueror this year had 23 runners and Columbia had seventeen. What is the cause of this problem? Is it a lack of good runners, a lack of spirit, or just a lack of interest?

It isn't a complete lack of good runners, Belleville's captain Red Forrest, has done the 2.4 mile course in Belleville in 12 minutes and 30 seconds, and there have been other good runners for Belleville in the past. Bob Boglione ('66) for example, was the number seven runner in the state finals.

The lack of spirit isn't really the major problem either. The school showed its spirit in support of the team that beat the Number 1 High School football team (E.O.) at an assembly in the school this past Monday. (More on this later on)

The lack of interest is the only one left. Not too many boys in the High School want to spend every afternoon and Saturday morning running distances up to ten miles. There's not much glory in this sport either. During the races you only get to see the runners about three times on most courses and only twice on others, at the start, the halfway point and the finish.

At the assembly Monday morning, the student body honored the football players. Coach John Amabile said that this is the best team as far as spirit goes that he's ever had, and the defense is the best he's ever coached.

The coach mentioned that he seems to belong to the "Injury of the week Club", this week is being wingback Vinnv Cappelletta's broken ribs, but most of the players injured in the preseason will be returning in time for next weeks game against Bloomfield. Along with Cappelletta on the injured list is Rich Corbo who hurt his ankle during the game, but Rich hopes to be playing Saturday, whereas Vin will be out at least three weeks. Of Corbo, Mike Albertine, Roy Newman, and John Atherton, Amabile said they "are the toughest front four in the county". According to the coach the best all round player Saturday was Joe Ritacco. "One of the best football players I've ever coached, and I'm not making him stand out, he stands out on his own."

Caruso , Brown, Defense, Spell:

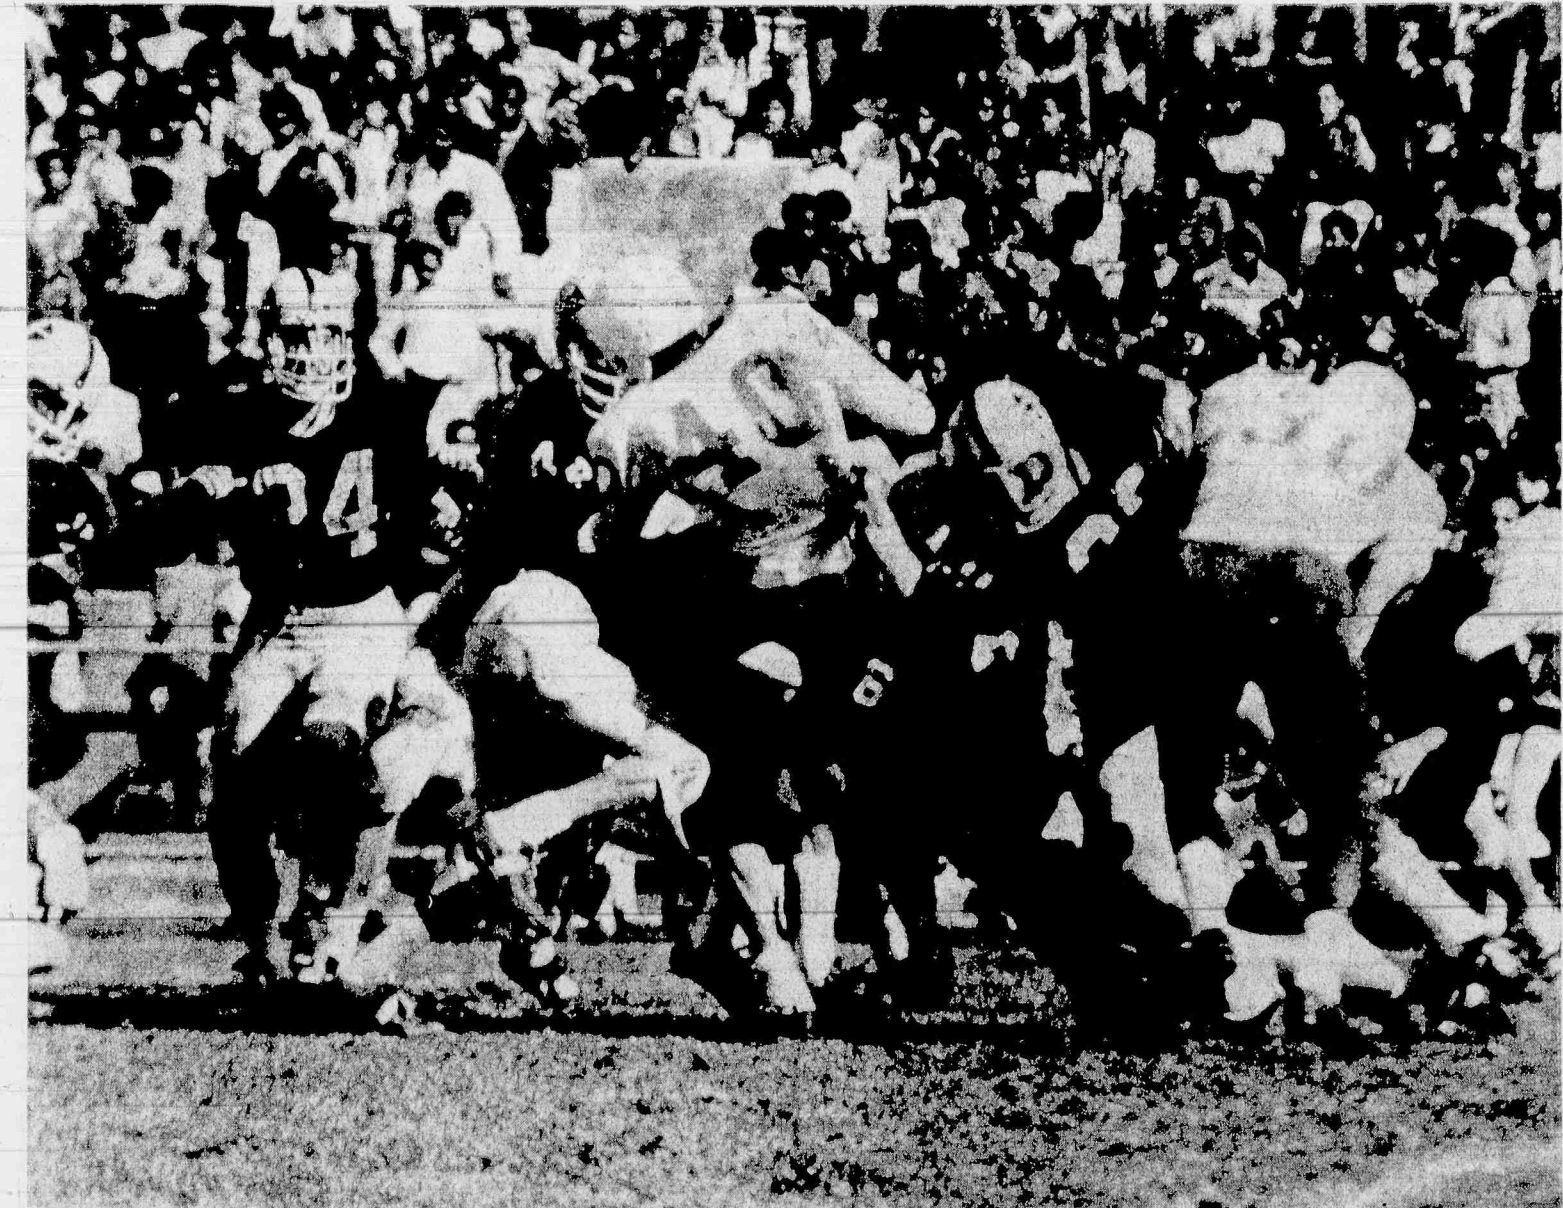

VICTORY

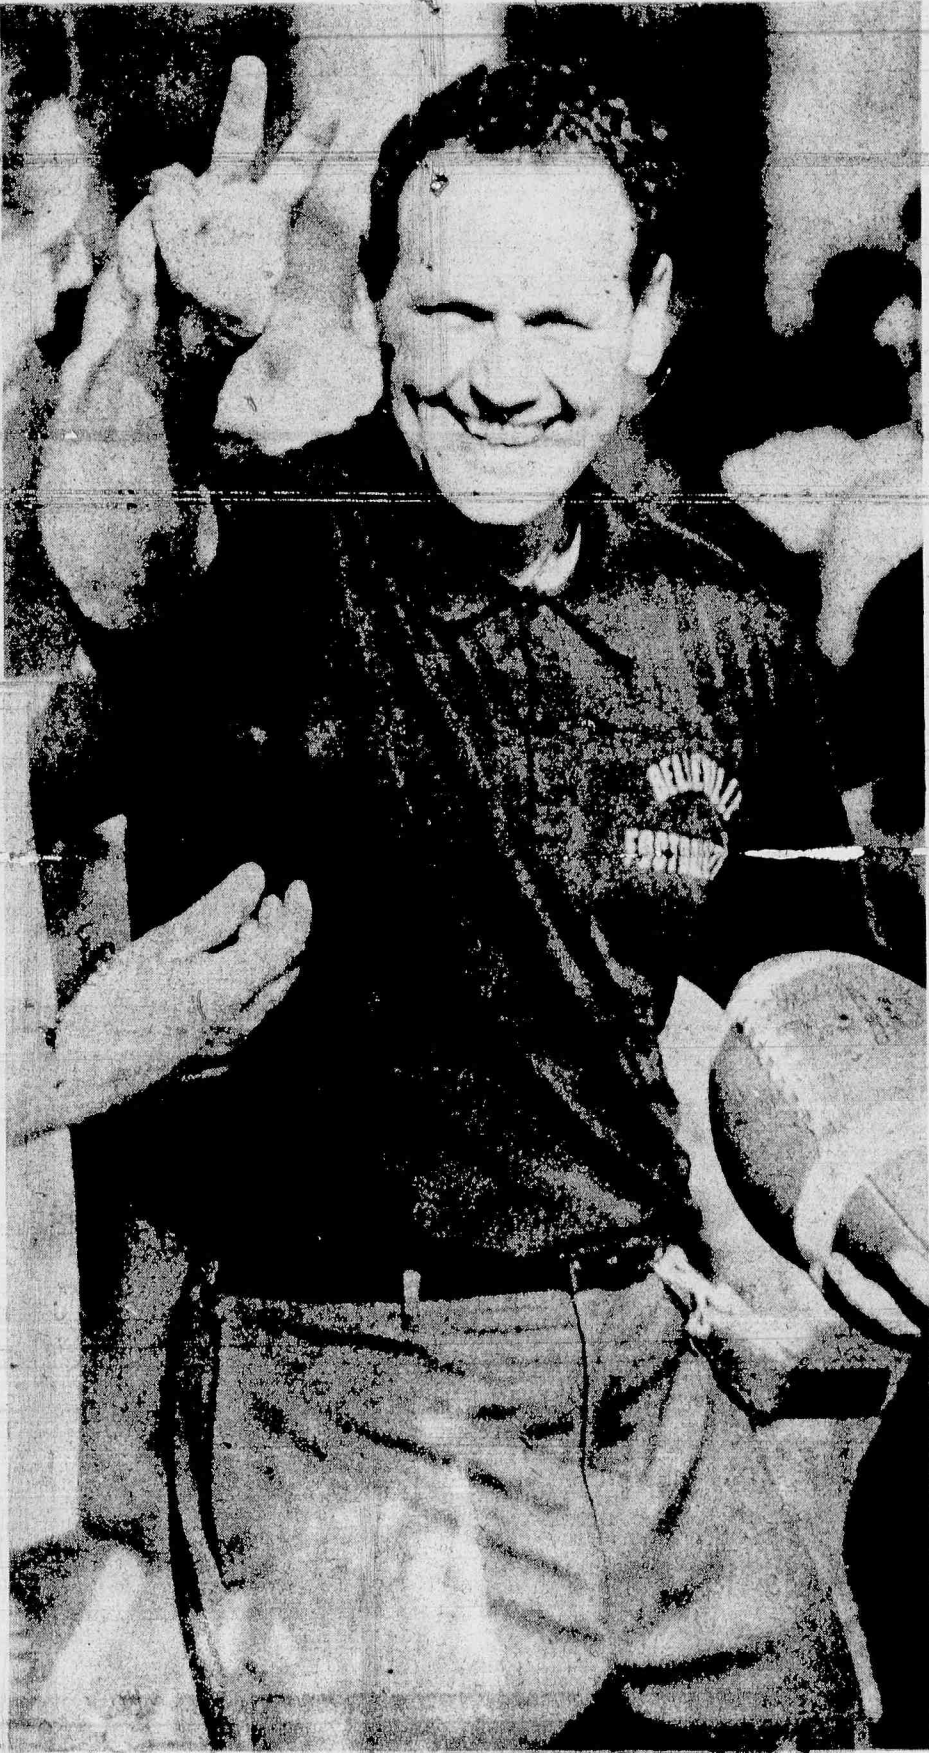

RICKY CARUSO — Slick-running halfback Ricky Caruso takes a Joe right end for eight yards, with left tackle John Mango (49) leading the way. Papisidero handoff in the second period on a first and ten situation and sweeps Caruso carried the ball 14 times for 68 tough yards.

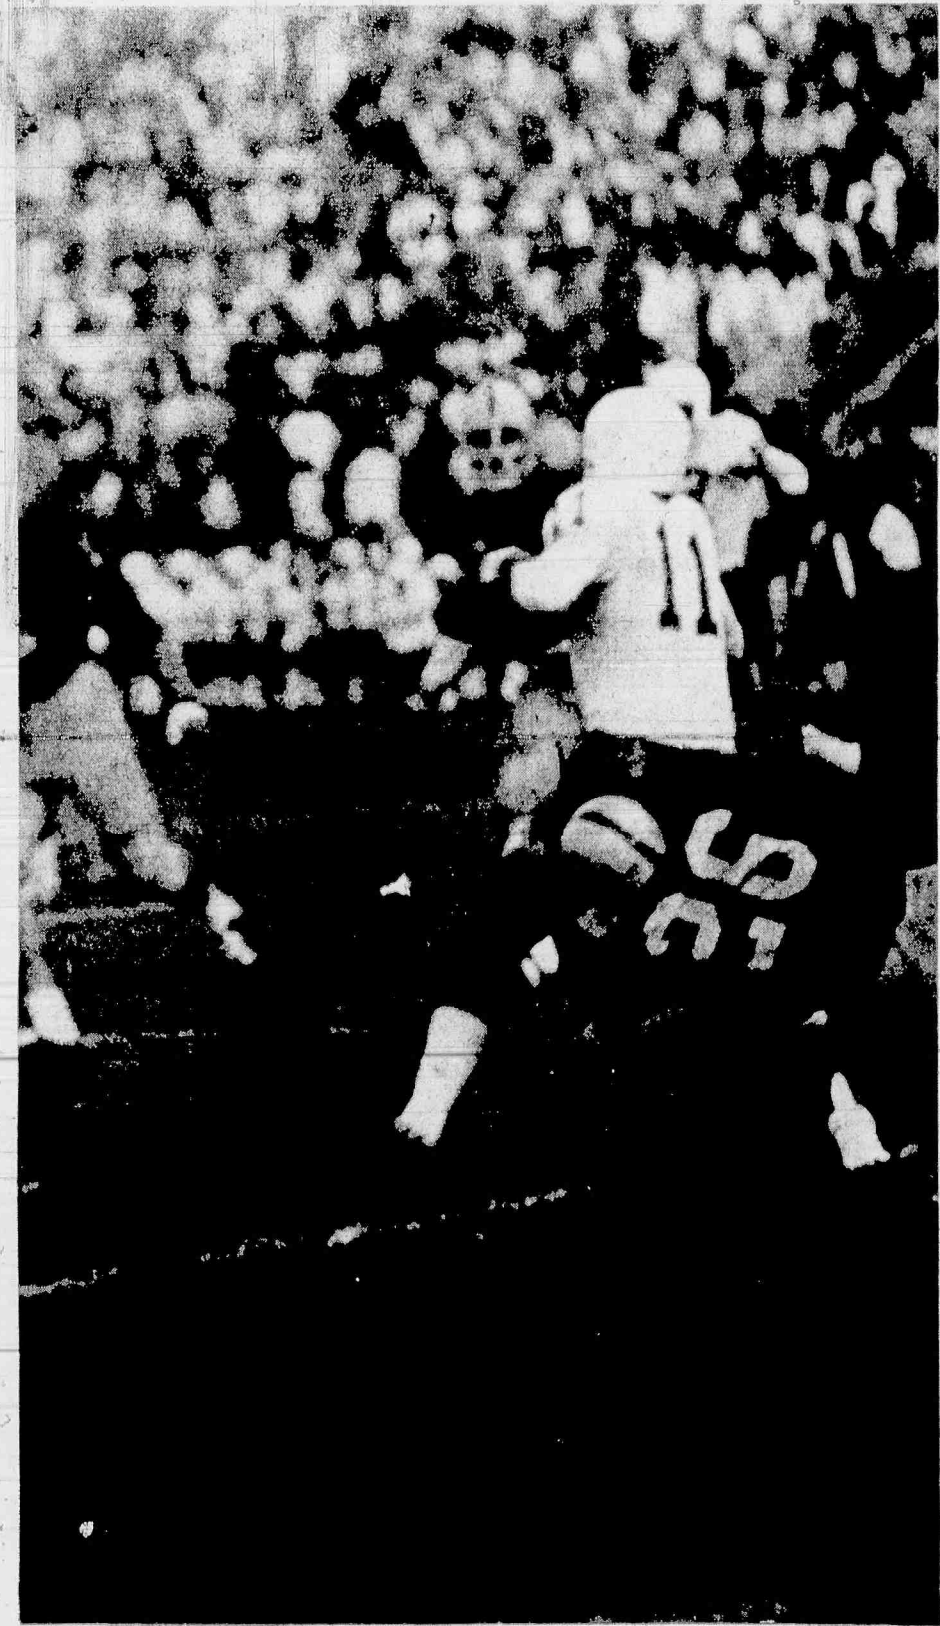

DOUG BROWN — Bruising fullback Doug Brown, who totaled 117 yards in Orange kickoff 17 yards. Brown figured in both Belleville touchdowns, scoring total offense for the day, sprints up field in the third period to return an East one and throwing the other.

OUTSTANDING DEFENSE — Belleville's heralded defense was the key factor in Saturday's big upset, shackling the Panther offense in a dazzling display of hard-nosed football. Coach John Amabile called it a defensive team effort, but gave special citation to Joe Ritacco, honorary game captain, and tackle Roy Newman, for their sparkling play.

V FOR VICTORY — A smiling coach John Amabile flashes the victory sign after engineering a stunning upset victory over highly rated East Orange. Amabile, who called the plays from the bench, had been working hard since August for this day.

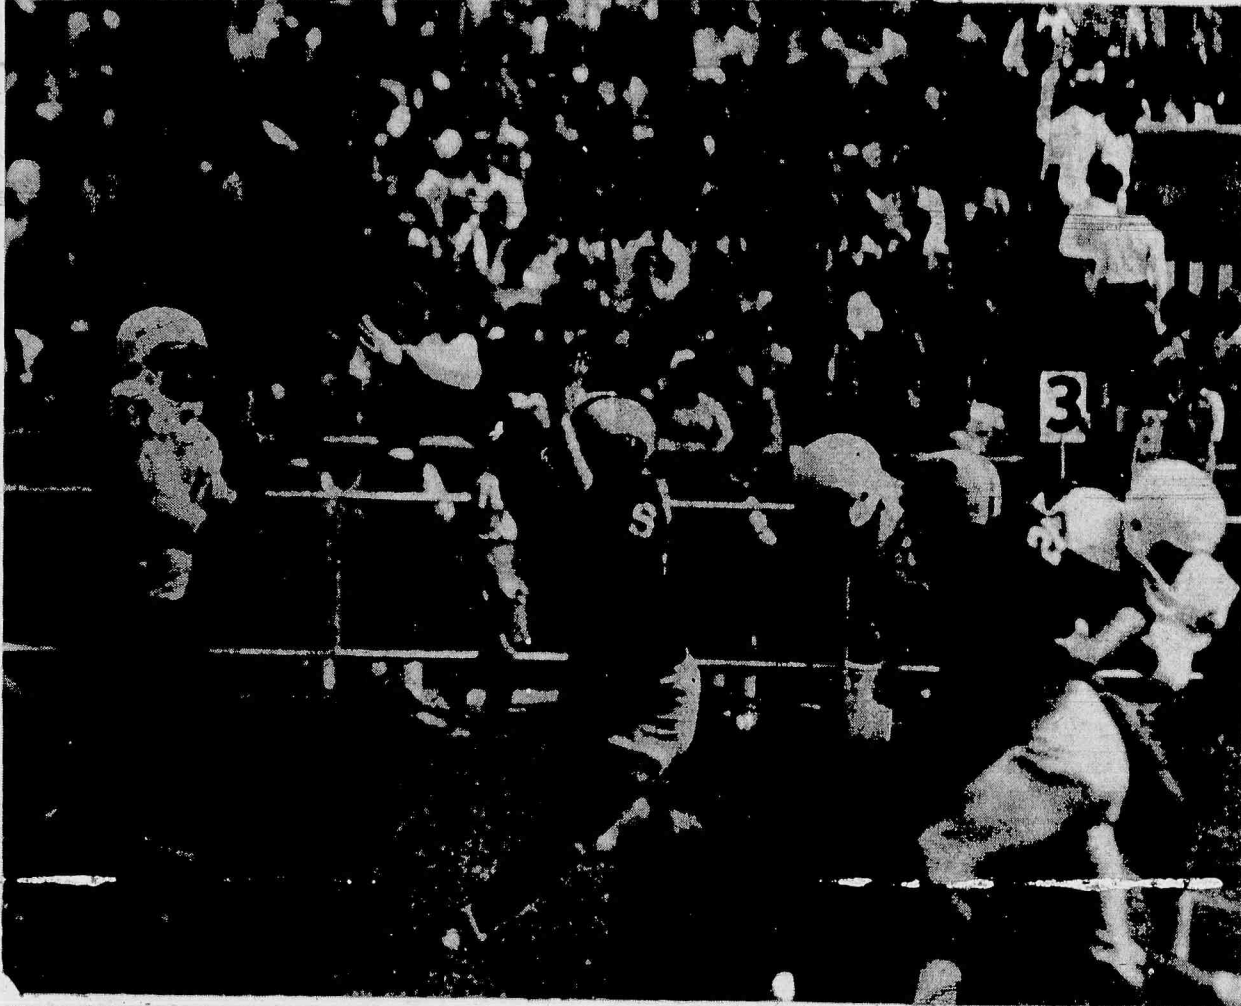

DEFENSIVE GEM — Roy Newman (26), Bellboy defensive right tackle, puts the shackles on East Orange quarterback Leon Griffin after a seven yard gain. Newman, who made nine unassisted tackles, received the game ball as the outstanding player in the Bellboy victory.

Who Can Stop The Tough Bellboys Now?

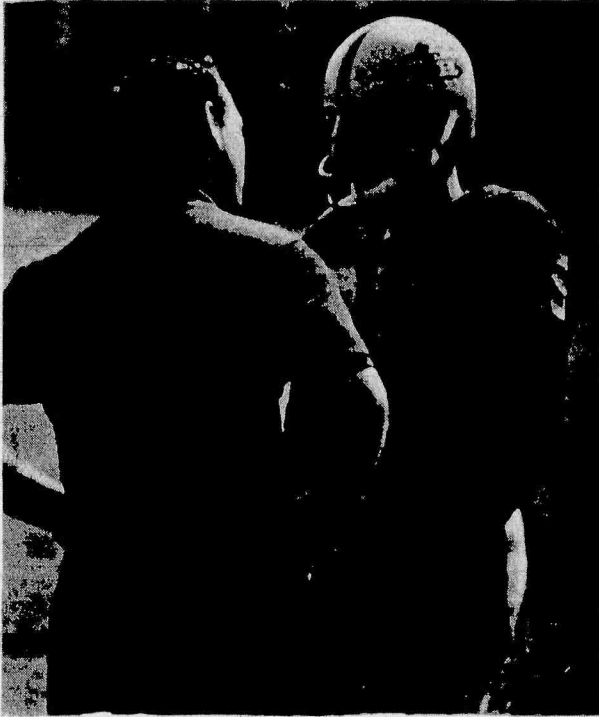

NOT QUITE — Bellboy end Vinnie Constantino (dark jersey) finds the going a little rough as he reaches for a Joe Papasidero pass on the East Orange five yard line. Dave Lawrence, panther safety breaks up the play. Constantino earlier in the game caught a touchdown pass from Doug Brown.

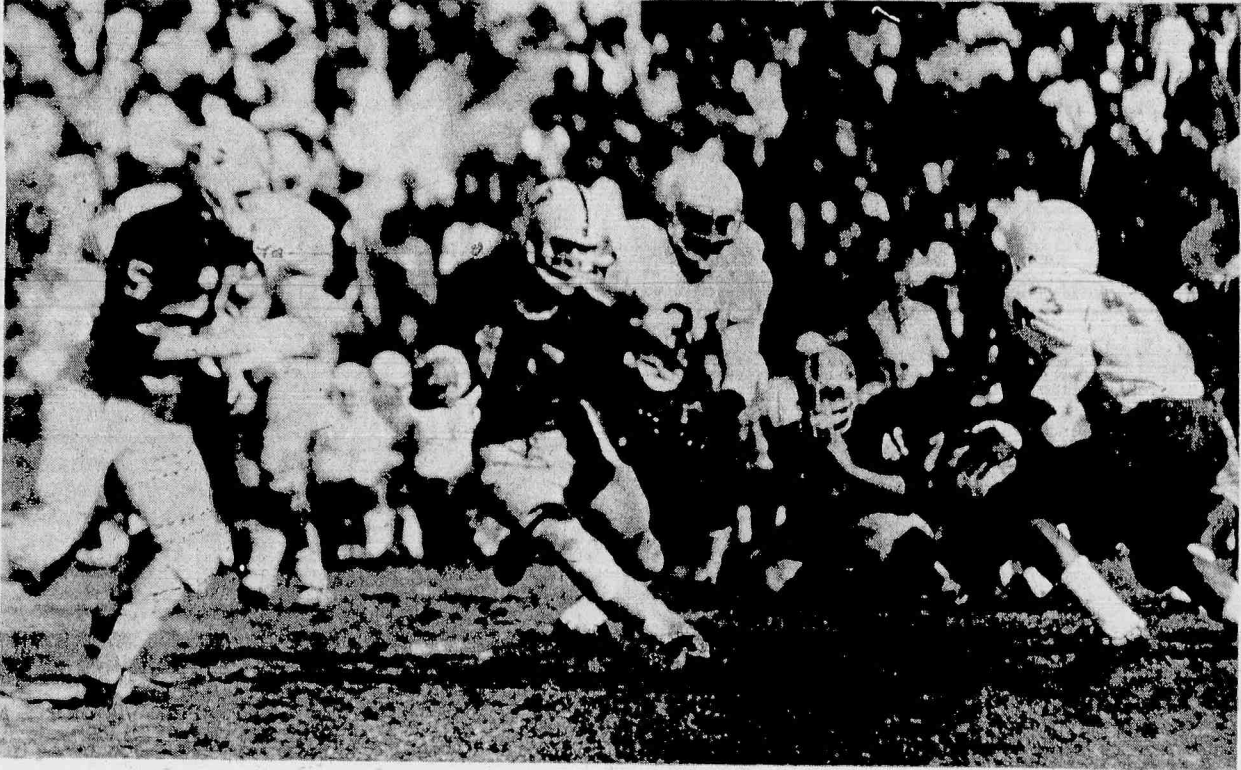

PASS RUSH — On a key third and three situation in the first quarter, East Orange quarterback Leon Griffin just gets off a pass as Mike Albertine (46) and Joe Ritacco (20) apply the pressure. Doug Brown, defensive safety, broke up the play.

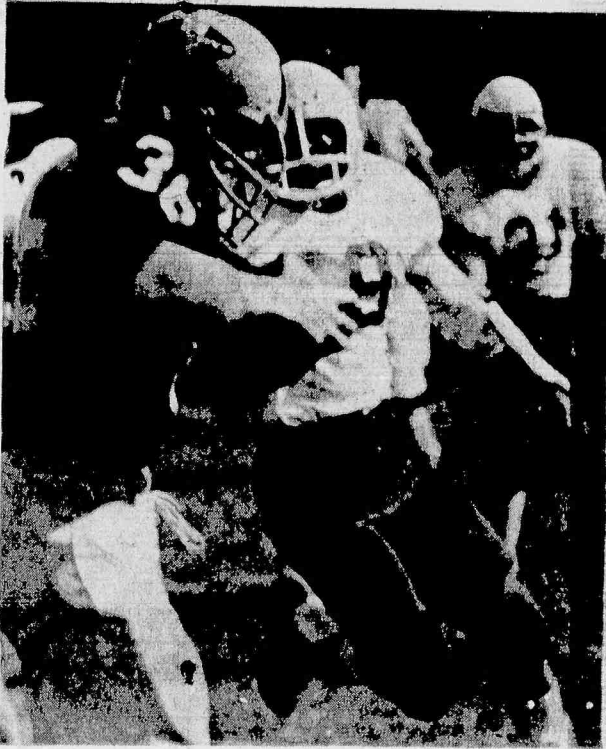

DEFENSIVE STOPPER — End Joe Ritacco, (20) hauls down Leon Griffin in the fourth quarter on a key first and 15 situation. Ritacco's continuous penetration of the East Orange backfield was a key factor in the Bellboy's upset of the Panthers.

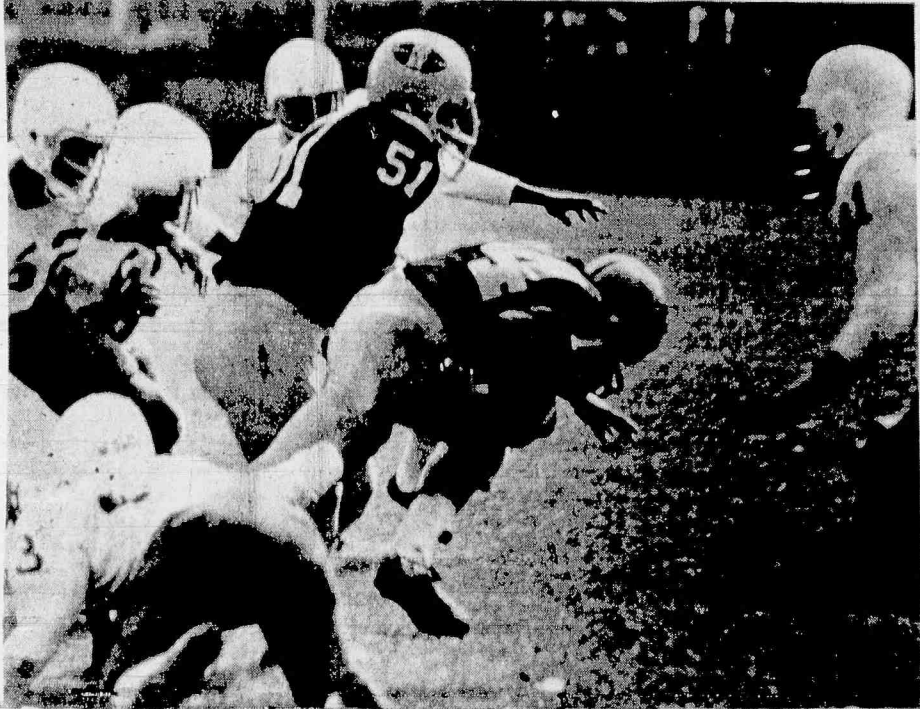

DISCUSSION — Jim Miele finds a little instruction from the coach a helpful thing in the pressure packed game played before 5,000 spectators. Amabile did alot of coaching in the game, calling most of the plays from the sidelines.

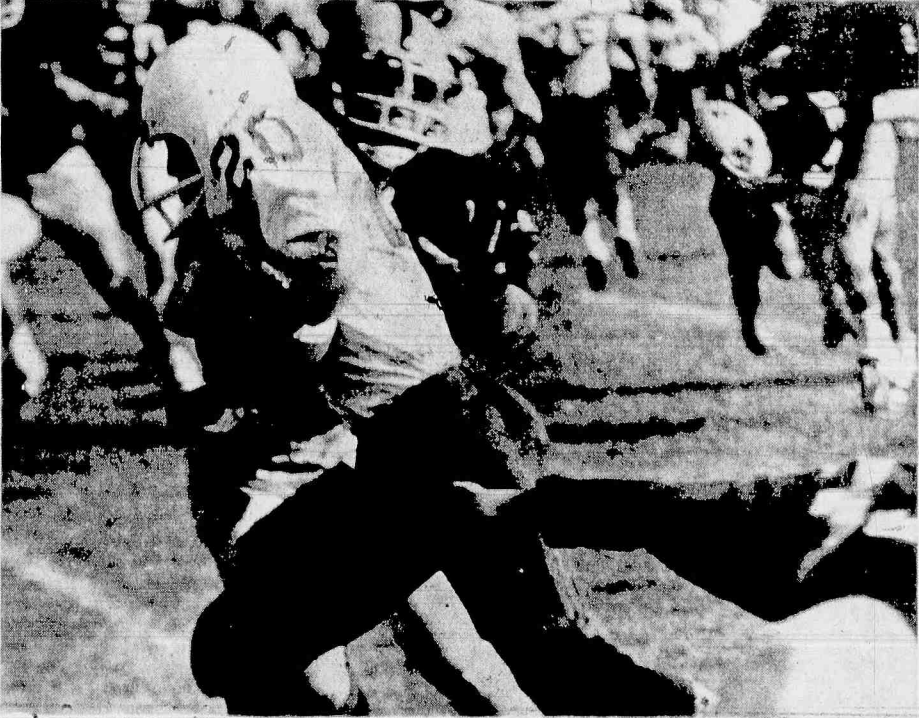

BIG GAINER — Halfback Ricky Caruso takes off on second and 14 in the third quarter, dashing off right tackle for a big pickup of nine yards. Caruso carried the major load for the Bellboys, toting the pigskin 14 times.

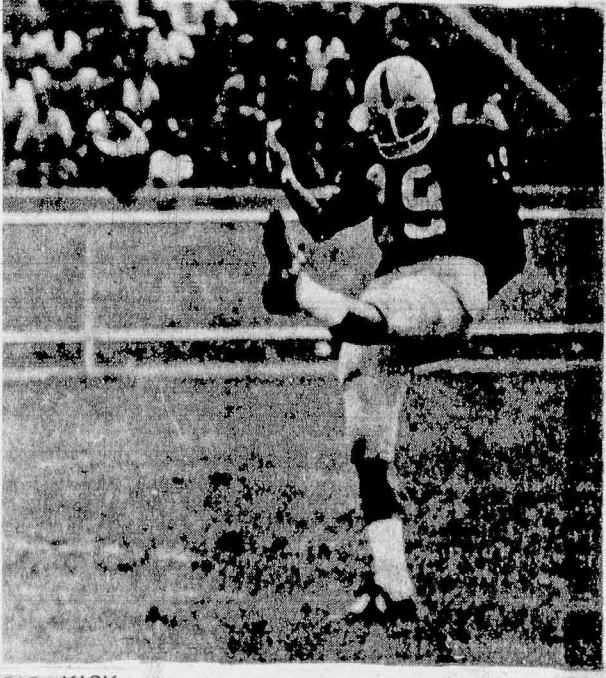

BROKEN PLAY — A bad snap from center in an attempt to convert a fourth period extra point try forced kicker Bob Carbone to tote the ball himself. He was stopped short of the goal, but the Bellboys went on to victory anyway.

HARD SMASH — Ricky Caruso, Bellboy fleet halfback, bucks through a hole in the middle of the East Orange line in the second quarter on a second and seven situation. Caruso picked up 14 yards and a first down on this carry.

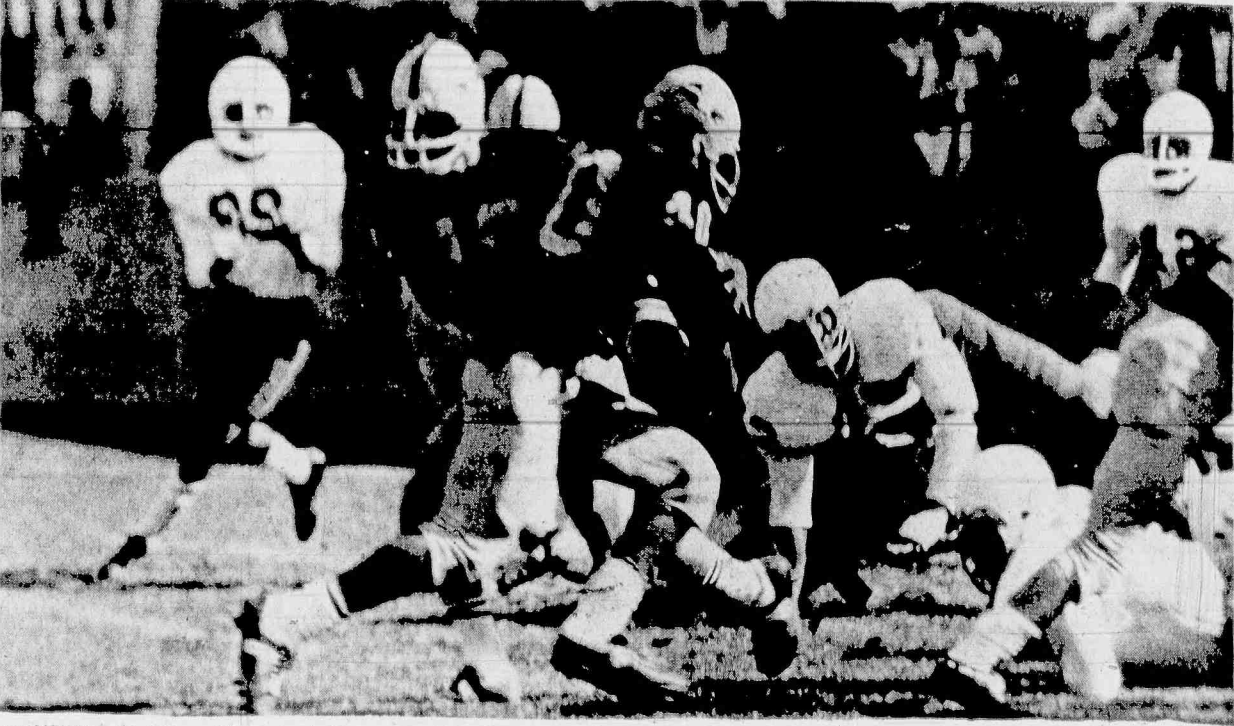

DOWN YOU GO — This was a key play in the last quarter. Slotback John Battle of East Orange has just smashed his way 14 yards to the Belleville 9 before he is brought down short of the goal. Four plays later Belleville took over and killed the clock.

BIG KICK — Vinnie Constantino gets his foot into a 38 yard punt, his second at that distance. Constantino's kick got Belleville out of trouble deep in their own territory to keep East Orange from threatening.

Brown Gets The Big T.D. and The Bellboys Defense Holds

WINNING PLAY — With the ball on the East Orange three yard line, Doug Brown takes the hand off from Joe Papasidero and bulls his way into the end zone with what proved to be the winning touchdown in the Bellboys 13-6 victory.

IT'S ALL OVER — With a fourth down and goal to goal situation on the Bellboy six yard line, Roy Newman and Mark Bradley make the key stop of the ball game with just seconds to go. East Orange had to give up the ball and the game went to the visitors.

Gospel Rally Set For Tomorrow

A special gospel rally will be held in the Nutley Assembly of God, 65 Bloomfield Avenue, on Friday October 3 at 7:30 p.m. Sam Zaccone of 14 Sycamore Drive, Belleville has arranged for the Heavenly Echoes Quartet, all of which are members, to sing. Special guests will be the Couriers of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Zaccone says, "The Couriers are an internationally known gospel group, they are also missionaries to the Barbadoz Islands. They have sung gospel full-time for 15 years. They have been in the Nutley High School several times and the response was always great. Anyone who would stay home when the Couriers are in town must have a good reason. If you think the music you hear on the radio has sound, just come out and hear the Couriers once and you will never forget them or their message for the rest of your life."

Zaccone, who has brought gospel concerts to Nutley says, "there is a need for music praising God and there is much to much garbage on the radio. I heard the number one record on the radio, Honky Tonk Woman, and it is a disgrace that the parents are not objecting to this kind of lyric on the air." Zaccone also said, "the young people are searching for happiness, joy and excitement, and they will never find that until they come to God"

DeWitt Savings Hits 35 Million In Total Assets

The Forest Hill Field Club in Bloomfield was the setting for a dinner party on Wednesday night, July 9, in celebration of an impressive new milestone in the history of DeWitt Savings and Loan Association of Belleville. The affair marked the fact that DeWitt Savings, as of June 30, 1969, reached and passed 35 million dollars in assets.

Officers and Directors of the Association, as well as legal and financial counselors, were present to observe this record-breaking achievement.

Mr. John P. Dailey, President of DeWitt, addressed the group and commented on the fact that it was less than 4 1/2 years since the Association reached the 25 million dollar mark. He stated that the increase represented a 40% growth in assets and was an impressive achievement for a suburban savings and loan association. Mr. Dailey also recalled that as recently as 1956, when the North Belleville Savings and Loan merged with DeWitt, their combined assets were only 11 million dollars and that the Association has grown over three-fold in the 13 years since.

Mr. Dailey also noted that DeWitt's reserves have increased to over 8%.

In addition to Mr. Dailey, other officers present included Robert M. Williams, Executive Vice President; Charles M. Nutt, Vice President; August Plenge, Jr., Vice President; Bruce Miller, Treasurer Controller; Rena F. Lynch, Secretary; and Angelo Venezia, Assistant Controller.

Directors present included Clarence R. Lommerin, George E. Miller, Siegfried G. Bart, Frank Bridge, Jr., and Henry A. DePhillips.

Mr. George D. Haslam, an original Director of the Association and now a Director Emeritus, was guest of honor.

Other guests included Everett B. Smith, Senior member of Smith, Kramer & Morrison, the original attorneys for DeWitt, and Kenneth Morrison of the same firm.

Leslie Finch of Keenan & Finch, also legal counsel for DeWitt, was present as was Donald Trien, Auditor for DeWitt.

We live in a fast-moving world, and the pace sometimes disturbs us physically and emotionally. Overindulgence or a rough day at the office often-times upset the digestive system. It's the repeated episodes of indigestion that worry us. Ulcer is a common disorder for many of us. Moreover, many of us do not have ulcers. Keep it that way by relaxing as much as possible. Don't let every little thing worry you; eat moderately and exercise regularly. Wives-down don't plunk your husband into dinner the minute he arrives home. Let him relax, sip a drink and read the evening paper before eating. This might help him to enjoy ulcer-free old age.

BECK'S COLUMN

By MAX BECK

Television manufacturers are very slow using transistors in color TV sets. They do not even use many transistors in black and white sets. In the latter case the reason is cost. Most b/w sets sold these days are portables and the pricing is very competitive.

A color TV set is much more complex than b/w. One manufacturer who uses all transistors except one tube has more than 70 transistors and many other "solid state" devices in his set. That is a lot of transistors and it points out the somewhat lesser efficiency of a transistor compared to tubes. Color TV tube sets have between 20 and 25 tubes. It still is considered an advantage to replace a tube, just pull it out and put in a new one. It is not that easy with a transistor. They are soldered in the circuit and replacement consequently is much more difficult. Due to the small size and delicacy of transistors it is hard to make sockets that are reliable. This is the great drawback regarding the use of plug in transistors. Contacts of any kind are always a source of trouble, and the more delicate the contacts, the more possibility of failure.

Many engineers are of the opinion that several manufacturers will bypass transistors altogether and use so called "integrated circuits". These are tiny devices the size of a pinhead that contain 25 or more condensers, resistors, transistors and diodes. During the next few years we will see many changes along these lines.

We service what we sell.

Clean-Up Week Starts Monday

With Clean-Up Week scheduled this Monday, Public Works Commissioner, Mary Senatore has announced that a five year old litter ordinance will be strictly enforced so that "the people of Belleville can have a clean town."

The ordinance, which prohibits the "dumping, depositing and accumulation of garbage, rubbish and other discarded materials upon the public streets," carries a fine up to $500.

Commissioner Senatore said that her department's trucks would pick up debris that is put in containers and tied up properly.

"The Department of Public Works," she said, "cannot by law participate in Clean-Up Week because there is a case in point which proves citizens are paying large amounts of money to garbage collectors to do a proper job and they aren't doing it. It is their obligation to clean-up whatever is put there. Our boys will not have Clean-Up Week interfere with normal duties, especially with the leaf season on the way."

Your pharmacist is an expert on medicines. Formerly, he prepared, stored and compounded most of the medicines in the prescriptions written by the doctor. Although your pharmacist today does less compounding, he must know a great deal more about medicines and their ingredients.

Your pharmacist must know how to combine medicines and their effects on the body. His knowledge assures the safety, accuracy and the purity of the prescriptions he dispenses. Your pharmacist is also your family friend. He is interested in your health and wants to help you protect it. We are proud when a family chooses us to be their personal pharmacy.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Julian Bond

Julian Bond To Lecture At Caldwell

The Georgia legislator and 1968 democratic vice-presidential nominee, Julian Bond, lectures on "The New Coalition" at Caldwell College on Sunday, October 5 at 2 p.m.

At the 1968 democratic convention, Bond co-chaired the Georgia Loyal National Democratic delegation which unseated the hand-picked Georgia delegation. When he was nominated for Vice President, he had to withdraw his name because of his age. He was 28 at that time.

Bond was first elected to a seat created by re-apportionment in the Georgia House of Representatives in 1965, but was prevented from taking office by members of the legislature who objected to his statements about the war in Viet Nam. After winning a second election, held to fill his vacant seat, a special House Committee again barred him from membership. In a third election when he again won, the United States Supreme Court ruled unanimously that the Georgia House seat him.

In the Georgia House, Bond serves as a member of the Education, Insurance and State Institutions and Properties Committees. In 1960 he was a founder of the Committee on Appeal for Human Rights, the Atlanta University Center student organization that coordinated three years of student anti-segregation protests in Atlanta.

Also in 1960 he helped to found the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Unity Marks 50 Years At Tomorrow's Concert

The Unity Institute will present the Osipov Balalaika Orchestra as the opening event of its concert series tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. As a special celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of both the institute and the orchestra, the institute will have a "punch and cookie" party following the performance in the Montclair High School auditorium.

The Osipov Balalaika Orchestra, one of Russia's major attractions, will be joined by stars of the Bolshoi Opera and dancers from the Moseyev Ensemble in a Folk Festival of song and dance never before seen here.

The company of 71 will include the distinguished mezzo Valentina Levko, Ivan Petrov, one of the world's top interpreters of "Boris Godounov," not only a singer, but also a great tragic actor; and Ludmilla Zykina, folk singer. Dancers Lilia Novgorodova and Yuro Mironov, will perform in a traditional folk dance as well as the exciting leaps for which the Russians are famous.

The orchestra will play music known and loved, The Volga Boatman, Sabre Dance (Khachaturian), Brahms Hungarian Dance No. 1, as well as their own folk music. It all adds up to an exciting evening and is only the beginning of the gala anniversary season. Coming: Vladimir Ashkenazy, pianist; the National Ballet of Canada; Michael Rabin, violinist; Andre Watts, pianist; New York Pro Musica; Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra, and Music from Marlboro.

The house is a sell-out for the Osipov Balalaika Orchestra but a waiting list has been formed in the event of possible cancellations.

For further information of future reservations, call Barbara Russell, director, Unity Institute, 67 Church Street, Montclair at 744-6770.

Singles Social Sunday

Unity Institute To Show Travelogue on Argentina

"Argentina Smiles Again," a color film, narrated in person by Eric Pavel, will introduce the 47th Travel Course of Unity Institute on Thursday evening, October 9, 8:15 p.m., at the Montclair High School auditorium.

The film, which lasts about an hour and three quarters, presents the many facets of this South American country - Buenos Aires, the capital and most cosmopolitan city; the Palermo parks with the thrilling national game of Pato, a very dangerous sport played on horseback; the Pampas, the flat fertile plain that makes Argentina one of the leading nations in the meat, wheat and wool trade; Mar del Plata, the fashionable resort with its palatial summer homes; The Andes; and Salta, showing the historical Gaucho Parade.

Eric Pavel's films concentrates on people. He believes the best insight to a country is through a knowledge of its people. Scenery is a backdrop to the human element. Many months of field work in the country and always speaking the language of its people are reflected in his film programs.

The balance of the course is: "The Philippine Island," October 23; "Spirit of Thailand," November 6; "Japanese Summer," January 8; "Puerto Rico," January 22; "Czechoslovakia and the Ukraine," February 19; "Tasmania to the Tropics," March 19; "Ireland," Wednesday, March 25; "Around the Bay of Naples," April 16; "France's Brittany," May 14.

For further information, write or call Barbara Russell, Unity Institute, 67 Church Street, Montclair.
